2. This chapter does not allow a person to engage in the practice of mortuary science without a license. However, a person having a valid permit under this section may engage in the preneed sale of a funeral director’s services as an employee or agent of a funeral establishment that may furnish the funeral services in accordance with chapter 156.

3. An applicant for a permit under this section shall submit to the commissioner an application on a form provided by the commissioner. The application shall include at a minimum the following information:

   a. The name and address of the applicant.
   b. The name and address of the provider who will provide the funeral services or funeral merchandise.
   c. The name and address of each owner, officer, or other official of the applicant’s business, or in the event that the applicant is a corporation, the names and addresses of the chief executive officer and the members of the board of directors.
   d. The types of professional services or funeral merchandise to be sold.

An application for a permit pursuant to this section shall be accompanied by a copy of each sales agreement the permit holder will use for sales of funeral services or funeral merchandise under section 523A.1.

4. The permit shall be deemed effective upon filing the application with the commissioner. The permit shall disclose on its face the permit holder’s name and the expiration date. A permit holder under this section shall expire one year from the date the application is filed.

5. The application fee shall be five dollars.

6. Permits granted under this section are not assignable.

7. Upon the filing of an application for a permit, if the commissioner finds that the applicant has not been convicted of a criminal offense involving dishonesty or false statement and can provide the funeral services or funeral merchandise the applicant purports to sell, the commissioner shall issue the permit.

8. If the commissioner does not grant the permit, the commissioner shall notify the applicant in writing of the denial and the reasons for the denial. The commissioner shall approve or deny every application for a license within ninety days after the filing thereof, but any failure of the commissioner to act within that time period shall not be deemed to be an approval of the application.

87 Acts, ch 30, §9

§523A.10 Sales permits.

1. An individual shall not sell, promote, or otherwise enter into an agreement to furnish, upon the future death of a person named or implied in the agreement, funeral services or funeral merchandise without a permit as provided for in this section. An individual permit holder must be an employee or agent of an establishment which holds a permit pursuant to section 523A.9 and which can deliver the funeral services or funeral merchandise being sold. The establishment is liable for the acts of its employees and agents, independent or otherwise, performed in the course of obtaining or attempting to obtain an agreement for the sale of funeral services or funeral merchandise under section 523A.1.

2. This chapter does not allow a person to engage in the practice of mortuary science without a license. However, a person having a valid permit under this section may engage in the preneed sale of a funeral director’s services as an employee or agent of a funeral establishment that may furnish the funeral services in accordance with chapter 156.

3. An applicant for a permit under this section shall submit to the commissioner an application on a form provided by the commissioner. The application shall include at a minimum the following information:

   a. The name and address of the applicant.
   b. The name and address of the applicant’s employer or the establishment on whose behalf the applicant will be making or attempting to make sales, and, if different, the name and address of the provider who will provide the funeral services or funeral merchandise.

   A permit holder shall inform the commissioner of changes in the information within thirty days of the change.

4. The permit shall be deemed effective upon filing the application with the commissioner. The permit shall disclose on its face the permit holder’s name and the expiration date. A permit under this section shall expire one year from the date the application is filed.

5. The application fee shall be five dollars.

6. Permits granted under this section are not assignable.

7. The commissioner may revoke a permit if the commissioner determines that the permit holder has been convicted of a criminal offense involving dishonesty or false statement or that the establishment cannot provide the funeral services or funeral merchandise the establishment purports to sell.

87 Acts, ch 30, §10

§523A.11 Investigations.

The attorney general or the commissioner may, for the purpose of discovering violations of this chapter or any rules adopted under this chapter:

1. Investigate the business and examine the books, accounts, records, and files used by every permit holder under this chapter.
2. Administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, receive evidence, and require the production of documents and records in connection with an investigation or proceeding being conducted pursuant to this chapter.

3. Apply to the district court for issuance of an order requiring a person’s appearance before the commissioner or attorney general, or a designee of either or both, in cases where the person has refused to obey a subpoena issued by the commissioner or attorney general. The person may also be required to produce documentary evidence germane to the subject of the investigation. Failure to obey a court order under this subsection constitutes contempt of court. 87 Acts, ch 30, §1

523A.12 Suspension or revocation of permits.

1. The commissioner may, pursuant to chapter 17A, suspend or revoke any permit issued pursuant to this chapter if the commissioner finds any of the following:
   a. The permit holder has violated any provisions of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter or any other state or federal law applicable to the conduct of the permit holder’s business.
   b. Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for the permit, would have warranted the commissioner refusing originally to issue the permit.
   c. The permit holder is found upon investigation to be insolvent, in which case the permit shall be revoked immediately.
   d. The permit holder, for the purpose of avoiding the trusting requirement for funeral services under section 523A.1, attributes amounts paid pursuant to the agreement to funeral merchandise that is delivered under section 523A.1 rather than to funeral services sold to the purchaser. The sale of funeral services at a lower price when the sale is made in conjunction with the sale of funeral merchandise to be delivered pursuant to section 523A.1 than the services are regularly and customarily sold for when not sold in conjunction with funeral merchandise is evidence that the permit holder is acting with the purpose of avoiding the trusting requirement for funeral services under section 523A.1.

2. The commissioner may, on good cause shown, suspend any permit for a period not exceeding thirty days, pending investigation.

   Except as provided in the preceding paragraph, a permit shall not be revoked or suspended except after notice and hearing in accordance with chapter 17A.

3. Any permit holder may surrender a permit by delivering to the commissioner written notice that the permit holder surrenders the permit, but the surrender shall not affect the permit holder’s civil or criminal liability for acts committed before the surrender.

4. Revocation, suspension, or surrender of a permit does not impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between the permit holder and any person. 87 Acts, ch 30, §12

523A.13 Prosecution for violations of law.

If the commissioner believes that grounds exist for the criminal prosecution of persons subject to this chapter for violations of this chapter or any other law of this state, the commissioner may forward to the attorney general the grounds for the belief, including all evidence in the commissioner’s possession, in order that the attorney general may proceed with the matter as the attorney general deems appropriate. At the request of the attorney general, the county attorney shall appear and prosecute the action when brought in the county attorney’s county. 87 Acts, ch 30, §13

523A.14 Injunctions.

The attorney general may apply to the district court in any county of the state for an injunction to restrain a person subject to this chapter and any agents, employees, or associates of the person from engaging in conduct or practices deemed contrary to the public interest. In any proceeding for an injunction, the attorney general may apply to the court for the issuance of a subpoena to require the appearance of a defendant and the defendant’s agents and any documents, books, and records germane to the hearing upon the petition for an injunction. Upon proof of any of the offenses described in the petition for injunction the court may grant the injunction. 87 Acts, ch 30, §14

523A.15 Fraudulent practices.

A person who commits any of the following acts commits a fraudulent practice and is punishable as provided in chapter 714:

1. Knowingly makes, causes to be made, or subscribes to a false statement or representation in a report or other document required under this chapter, or renders such a report or document misleading through the deliberate omission of information properly belonging in the report or document.

2. Conspires to defraud in connection with the sale of funeral services or funeral merchandise under this chapter.

3. Deliberately misrepresents or omits a material fact relative to the sale of funeral services or funeral merchandise under this chapter. 87 Acts, ch 30, §15

523A.16 Rules.

The commissioner may adopt rules necessary to administer this chapter, in accordance with chapter 17A. 87 Acts, ch 30, §16
§523B.1, BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY PROMOTIONS

CHAPTER 523B
BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY PROMOTIONS

523B.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires

1. "Business opportunity" means the sale or lease, offer for sale or lease, or advertisement for sale or lease of merchandise or services at an initial investment exceeding five hundred dollars and when the purchase or lease is for the purpose of enabling the purchaser to begin a business to be operated by the purchaser. In addition, to constitute a "business opportunity" under this chapter, the seller must make one or more of the following claims, statements, or representations, either orally or in writing, either prior to or at the time of sale:

   (1) That the seller will provide locations, assist in finding locations, or offer the assistance of a third party to the purchaser in finding locations for the use or operation of vending machines, racks, display cases, or other similar devices for the promotion and sale of merchandise or services located on premises that are not owned or leased by either the purchaser or the seller.

   (2) That the seller offers or will offer a buy-back or secured investment for any or all goods produced, fabricated, grown, bred, or modified by the purchaser using whole or in part, the merchandise or services sold or leased or offered for sale or lease to the purchaser by the seller.

   (3) That the seller guarantees that the purchaser will, within one year from the date of purchase, derive income from the business opportunity which exceeds the price paid for the business opportunity.

   (4) That the seller promises, guarantees, or represents, either orally or in writing, that the seller will refund all or part of the price paid by the purchaser for the business opportunity, or repurchase any of the products, equipment, supplies, or personal property supplied by the seller, if the purchaser is dissatisfied with the business opportunity.

   (5) That upon payment by the purchaser to the seller, or a third party designated by the seller, of a fee or sum of money which equals or exceeds five hundred dollars, the purchaser will receive a predesigned sales or marketing program that will enable the purchaser to derive income from the business opportunity. This paragraph does not apply to sale of marketing services by a marketing services provider or consultant where the underlying business is not being directly or indirectly purchased from the marketing services provider.

   b. "Business opportunity" does not include any of the following:

      (1) A newspaper or magazine distribution system.

      (2) The sale of an ongoing business. An ongoing business is a business that for at least six months prior to the sale meets all of the following qualifications:

         (a) Has been operated from a specific location.

         (b) Has been open for business to the general public.

         (c) Has substantially all the equipment and supplies necessary for operating the business at a specific location. The complete and total liquidation of business interests is also the sale of an ongoing business.

      (3) The sale or lease of a marketing program made in conjunction with the licensing of a federally registered trademark or servicemark.

      (4) A contract or agreement that grants a retailer of merchandise or services the right to sell the merchandise or services being purchased or leased within, or appurtenant to, an existing retail business establishment operated by the purchaser.

      (5) A transaction in which the seller or a person representing the seller is licensed under, and the transaction is subject to, chapter 117. This chapter does not apply to a sales or lease transaction when all or part of the business being sold or leased is the seller's own real property located within Iowa.

      (6) A sale or lease to an existing or beginning business which also sells or leases equipment, products, or supplies or performs services which are not supplied by the seller and which the purchaser does not use with the equipment, products, supplies, or services of the seller.

      (7) The renewal or extension of a business opportunity contract or agreement made under this chapter or prior to July 1, 1981.

      (8) The sale of a contract in the negotiation and ratification of which all purchasers are represented by attorneys or certified public accountants licensed to practice in this state, or by other business consul... tants the administrator by rule finds qualified to provide independent and professional advice to unsophisticated persons considering entering into business opportunity contracts.

(9) Other transactions that the administrator may exempt by rule.

2. “Purchaser” means a person who has purchased or leased or is solicited to purchase or lease a business opportunity.

3. “Seller” means a person who advertises, sells, leases or offers for sale or lease a business opportunity, or an affiliate, agent, or representative of such person or an independent contractor selling or leasing under contract with such person except that “seller” does not include a person who offers or sells a package franchise or a product franchise as defined in and in compliance with the federal trade commission rule on “franchising and business opportunity ventures”, 16 C.F.R. 436 if such person does not make any representations described in subsection 1, paragraph “a”, subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4).

4. “Services” means assistance, guidance, direction, work, labor, or services provided by the seller or by a third party arranged by the seller to initiate or maintain the business opportunity. “Service” includes sales and marketing programs, instructions, directions, or other information that assists the purchaser in operating the business opportunity.

5. “Secured investment” means a representation, either oral or written, that implies that the purchaser’s initial investment is protected from loss.

6. “Buy-back” means a written or oral representation that implies that the seller or a third party designated by the seller will purchase all or part of the merchandise or services provided to the purchaser under the business opportunity contract.

7. “Initial investment” means the total amount a purchaser is obligated to pay under the terms of the business opportunity contract either prior to or at the time of delivery of the merchandise or services or within six months of the purchaser commencing operation of the business opportunity. However, if payment is over a period of time, “initial investment” means the sum of the downpayment and the total monthly payments specified in the contract.

8. “Administrator” means the commissioner of insurance or the deputy appointed under section 502.601.

9. “Person” does not include government or governmental subdivisions or agencies.

523B.3 Bond, trust account or guaranteed letter of credit.

1. The administrator may adopt rules requiring sellers to either obtain a surety bond or guaranteed letter of credit or to establish a trust account before the seller may do business in this state.

2. The bond, trust account, or guaranteed letter of credit shall be by a company licensed to do business in Iowa, in favor of the state of Iowa for the benefit of any person who is damaged by a violation of this chapter. A seller is not registered under this chapter and shall not advertise, offer for sale or lease, or sell or lease until the advertisement identification number is issued. If the administrator's review is not completed within thirty days of filing of the disclosure statement, a temporary identification number shall be issued and the applicant is considered registered until the review is completed.

3. The seller shall disclose the advertising identification number to each person with whom the seller places advertising and the number shall be included in all advertisements.

4. The seller shall pay a two hundred dollar filing fee with the initial disclosure statement filed under subsection 1. A twenty-five dollar fee shall be charged for each amendment. The administrator shall by rule periodically revise these fees to ensure that they defray the costs of administration of this chapter.

523B.2 Registration required.

1. Before placing an advertisement or making any other oral or written representation to offer, sell or solicit the sale of a business opportunity in this state, the seller shall file a copy of a disclosure statement required by section 523B.4 with the administrator. The seller shall refile the statement at least annually and whenever a material change in the required information occurs. The list of officers and principals shall be current within six months. If the seller is required by section 523B.3 to provide a bond or establish a trust account or guaranteed letter of credit, the seller shall file with the administrator the original bond, the original formal notification by the depository that the trust account is established or the original guaranteed letter of credit.

2. The administrator shall issue an advertisement identification number to the seller after reviewing the disclosure statement required by section 523B.4, and after determining that the seller has complied with any requirements imposed under this chapter. A seller is not registered under this chapter and shall not advertise, offer for sale or lease, or sell or lease until the advertisement identification number is issued. If the administrator's review is not completed within thirty days of filing of the disclosure statement, a temporary identification number shall be issued and the applicant is considered registered until the review is completed.

3. The seller shall disclose the advertising identification number to each person with whom the seller places advertising and the number shall be included in all advertisements.

4. The seller shall pay a two hundred dollar filing fee with the initial disclosure statement filed under subsection 1. A twenty-five dollar fee shall be charged for each amendment. The administrator shall by rule periodically revise these fees to ensure that they defray the costs of administration of this chapter.

§523B.3, BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY PROMOTIONS

by a seller's violation of this chapter shall not exceed the amount of the bond, trust account, or guaranteed letter of credit.

523B.4 Disclosure statement.
1. The seller shall provide a prospective purchaser with a written document as required by this section either during the first personal contact between the purchaser and the seller or at least ten business days before the purchaser signs a business opportunity contract or pays any consideration to the seller, whichever occurs first. First personal contact does not include general informational activity in a public setting where a specific business relationship is not discussed.

2. The cover sheet of the disclosure document shall include the words DISCLOSURE REQUIRED BY IOWA LAW in boldface capital letters. Under the title shall appear the statement: “The state of Iowa has not reviewed and does not approve, recommend, endorse, or sponsor any business opportunity. The information contained in this disclosure has not been checked by the state. If you have any questions about this purchase, see an attorney or other financial advisor before you sign a contract or agreement.” The cover sheet shall include only the title and the statement required by this section.

3. The disclosure document shall contain the following information:

a. The complete name and address of the seller, all other names under which the seller is doing or intends to do business, the names under which the seller has done business in the past, and the names and addresses of all parent or affiliated companies that will engage in business transactions with the purchaser or who take responsibility for statements made by the seller. If the seller is a corporation, the document shall include the state where the articles of incorporation are filed, the date of incorporation, and the name and address of the registered agent.

b. The names, addresses, and titles of the seller's officers, directors, and other persons charged with the responsibility for the seller's business activities relating to the sale of business opportunities.

c. Current samples of all contracts and other documents used in the sale or lease of the business opportunity.

d. A copy of the most recent financial statement of the seller, which shall not be more than one hundred twenty days old, updated to reflect material changes in the seller's financial condition.

e. Either of the following statements as applicable:

(1) “As required by Iowa law, the seller has secured a bond issued by (name and address of surety) ........................................, a surety company authorized to do business in this state. Before signing a contract to purchase this business opportunity, you should confirm the bond's status with the surety company.”

(2) “As required by Iowa law, the seller has established a trust account or guaranteed letter of credit ........................................ (no. of acct.) ............. with (name and address of bank or savings inst.) ............................... Before signing a contract to purchase this business opportunity, you should confirm with the bank or savings institution the current status of the trust account or guaranteed letter of credit.”

f. If earnings claims are made, the seller must disclose all of the following:

(1) The number and percentage the number represents of the total number of purchasers who form the basis for the income or earning potential representation.

(2) The number of purchasers known to the seller to have made at least the same sales, income or profits as those represented.

(3) The total number of purchasers known to the seller to have failed in the business opportunity.

(4) Has been a party to any cause of action brought by purchasers against the vendor of a business opportunity during the most recent seven-year period which resulted in an out-of-court settlement or a judgment against the vendor, or is presently a party to any cause of action brought by a purchaser against such a vendor. The statement shall set forth the identity and location of the court, date of conviction or judgment, and penalty imposed or damages assessed, and the date, nature, and issuer of each the order or ruling.

i. Such other information as the administrator requires.

4. In lieu of the disclosure required by subsection 3, paragraphs “a”, “b”, “c”, “d”, “f”, “g” and “h”, the seller may file the disclosure documents authorized by the federal trade commission and in compliance with 16 C.F.R. 436 et seq.

523B.5 Contracts.
1. A contract for the sale or lease by a seller of a business opportunity in this state shall be in writing and is subject to this chapter and section 714 16 A copy of the contract and all other documents the seller requires the purchaser to sign shall be given to the purchaser at least ten business days prior to the time the purchaser signs the contract and signed copies shall be provided to the purchaser at the time the contract and documents are signed

2 A contract by a seller for the sale or lease of a business opportunity shall set forth all of the following:
   a. The terms and conditions of payment, including the total financial obligation of the purchaser to the seller
   b. A full and detailed listing and description of the acts and services that the seller will perform or deliver to the purchaser
   c. A detailed listing of merchandise or services the purchaser will receive
   d. The delivery date or, when the contract provides for a staggered delivery of items to the purchaser, the approximate delivery dates of merchandise or services the seller will deliver to the purchaser to enable the purchaser to begin or maintain the business and the specific location where the merchandise or services will be delivered or provided
   e. A complete description of the nature of any guarantee, buy-back, or secured investment, if the seller has represented or promised orally or in writing when advertising, selling, leasing, soliciting or offering the business opportunity that there is a guarantee, buy back, or secured investment
   f. A statement that accurately states the purchaser’s right to void the contract under the circumstances and in the manner set forth in section 523B.6
   g. The cancellation statement appearing in section 82.2
   h. The seller’s principal business address and the name and the address of its registered agent in the state of Iowa authorized to receive service of process
   i. The business form of the seller, whether corporate, partnership, or otherwise 523B.6 Cancellation of contract.

The purchaser has the right to cancel a contract with a seller for a business opportunity for any reason at any time within three business days of the date the purchaser signs the contract or the date the contract is accepted by the seller whichever is later. The notice of the right to cancel, the seller’s obligation to provide the purchaser with cancellation forms, and the procedures to be followed when a contract is canceled shall be the same as the procedures in chapter 82 for door-to-door sales 523B.7 Remedies.

A person injured by a violation of this chapter or by a seller’s breach of contract is entitled to actual damages and reasonable attorneys’ fees and may be awarded punitive damages when appropriate 523B.8 Powers of administrator.

1 If it appears to the administrator that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter or a rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter, the administrator may issue an order directed at the person requiring the person to cease and desist from engaging in the act or practice. The person named in the order may, within fourteen days after receipt of the order, file a written request for a hearing. The hearing shall be held in accordance with chapter 17A.

Any consent agreement between the administrator and the seller may be filed in the miscellaneous docket of the clerk of the district court.

2 The administrator may impose a penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation against a seller or person found to have violated this chapter or a rule or order adopted under this chapter. If a penalty imposed under this subsection remains unpaid, the district court shall enter judgment to enforce its collection.

3 Judicial review of a decision of the administrator may be sought under chapter 17A.

4 If it appears to the administrator that a person has engaged, is engaging, or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter, or of a rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter, the administrator may take either or both of the following actions:
   a. Notify the attorney general who shall bring an action in the district court to enjoin the acts or practices constituting the violation and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule or order adopted or issued pursuant to this chapter. Upon a proper showing a permanent or temporary injunction shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant’s assets.
   b. Sue on behalf of a purchaser to enforce the purchasers’ rights.

523B.9 Waiver of rights.
A waiver of this chapter by a purchaser prior to or at the time of sale is contrary to public policy and is void and unenforceable. An attempt by a seller to have a purchaser waive any rights given in this chapter is a violation of this chapter.

523B.10 Rules.
The administrator may adopt rules according to chapter 17A as necessary or appropriate for the protection of purchasers and to implement the purposes of this chapter, including but not limited to rules governing registrations, applications, disclosure statements, and reports. In adopting rules the administrator shall cooperate with agency administrators of other states and the federal trade commission to achieve uniformity in the form and content of registrations, applications and reports as practicable.
§523B.11 Penalties.
1. A seller who fails to file a disclosure statement, pay a registration fee, and obtain an advertisement identification number as required under section 523B 2, or who fails to properly provide a disclosure statement as required in section 523B 4, is, upon conviction, guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor.
2. A seller who willfully uses any device or scheme to defraud a person in connection with the advertisement, offer to sell or lease, sale, or lease of a business opportunity, or who willfully violates any other provision of this chapter, except as provided in subsections 1 and 3, is, upon conviction, guilty of a fraudulent practice.
3. A seller who violates a rule or order adopted or issued under this chapter is, upon conviction, guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor.
4. The administrator may refer available evidence concerning a possible violation of this chapter or of a rule or order issued under this chapter to the attorney general. The attorney general, with or without such a referral, may institute appropriate criminal proceedings or may direct the case to the appropriate county attorney to institute appropriate criminal proceedings.

CHAPTER 523C
RESIDENTIAL SERVICE CONTRACTS

523C.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Residential service contract" means a contract or agreement between a residential customer and a service company which undertakes, for a predetermined fee and for a specified period of time, to maintain, repair, or replace all or any part of the structural components, appliances, or electrical, plumbing, heating, cooling, or air conditioning systems of residential property containing not more than four dwelling units.
2. "Service company" means a person who issues and performs, or arranges to perform, services pursuant to a residential service contract.
3. "Licensed service company" means a service company which is licensed by the commission pursuant to this chapter.
4. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance.
5. "Reserve account agreement" means an agreement entered into between a licensed service company and a depository under section 523C 11.
6. "Depository" means an institution designated by the commissioner as an authorized custodian for purposes of sections 523C 5 and 523C 11.
7. "Custodian" means an institution meeting the requirements established by the commissioner which institution has entered into a custodial agreement or reserve account agreement with a licensed service company.
8. "Custodial agreement" means an agreement entered into between a licensed service company and a custodian under section 523C 5.
9. "Custodial account" means an account established by agreement between a licensed service company and a custodian under section 523C 5.

83 Acts, ch 87, §2, 88 Acts, ch 1112, §703

523C.2 License required.
A person shall not issue a residential service contract or undertake or arrange to perform services pursuant to a residential service contract unless the person is a corporation and is a licensed service company.

83 Acts, ch 87, §3

523C.3 Application for license.
1. Application for a license as a service company shall be made to and filed with the commissioner on forms approved by the commissioner and shall include all of the following information.
a. The name and principal address of the applicant.

b. The state of incorporation of the applicant.

c. The name and address of the applicant’s registered agent for service of process within Iowa.

2. The application shall be accompanied by all of the following:

a. A certificate of good standing for the applicant issued by the secretary of state and dated not more than thirty days prior to the date of the application.

b. A surety bond or a copy of a custodial agreement as provided in section 523C.5.

c. A copy of the most recent financial statement, including balance sheets and related statements of income, of the applicant, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, audited by a certified public accountant and dated not more than twelve months prior to the date of the application.

d. An affidavit of an authorized officer of the service company stating the number of contracts issued by the service company in the preceding calendar year, and stating that the net worth of the service company satisfies the requirements of section 523C.6.

e. A license fee in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars.

3. If the application contains the required information and is accompanied by the items set forth in subsection 2, and if the net worth requirements of section 523C.6 are satisfied, as evidenced by the audited financial statements, the commissioner shall issue the license. If the form of application is not properly completed or if the required accompanying documents are not furnished or in proper form, the commissioner shall not issue the license and shall give the applicant written notice of the grounds for not issuing the license. A notice of license denial shall be accompanied by a refund of fifty percent of the fee submitted with the application.

523C.4 License expiration and renewal.

Each license issued under this chapter shall expire on June 30 next following the date of issuance. If the service company maintains in force the surety bond described in section 523C.5 and if its license is not subject to or under suspension or revocation under section 523C.9, its license shall be renewed by the commissioner upon receipt by the commissioner on or before the expiration date of a renewal application accompanied by the items required by section 523C.9, subsection 2, paragraphs "b", "c", "d", and "e", and section 523C.15. If the commissioner denies renewal of the license, the denial shall be in writing setting forth the grounds for denial and shall be accompanied by a refund of fifty percent of the license renewal fee.

523C.5 Required bond or custodial account.

To assure the faithful performance of obligations under residential service contracts issued and outstanding in this state, a service company shall, prior to the issuance or renewal of a license, file with the commissioner a surety bond in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars, which has been issued by an authorized surety company and approved by the commissioner as to issuer, form, and contents or establish a custodial account in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars at an authorized depository. The bond or custodial account shall not be canceled or be subject to cancellation unless thirty days’ advance notice in writing is filed with the commissioner. Notwithstanding chapter 17A, if a bond or custodial account is canceled for any reason and a new bond or notice that a new custodial account has been established in the required amount is not received by the commissioner on or before the effective date of cancellation, the license of the service company is automatically revoked as of the date the bond or custodial account ceases to be in effect. A service company whose license is revoked under this section may file an application for a new license pursuant to section 523C.3.

The bond or custodial account posted by a service company pursuant to this section shall be for the benefit of, and subject to recovery thereon by any residential service contract holder sustaining actionable injury due to the failure of the service company to faithfully perform its obligations under a residential service contract because of insolvency of the service company.

If a service company ceases to do business in this state and furnishes to the commissioner satisfactory proof that it has discharged all obligations to contract holders, the surety bond or custodial account shall be released.

The commissioner may by rule designate institutions authorized to act as a depository under this section and establish requirements for custodians, custodial agreements, custodial accounts, or the method of valuing noncash assets held in a custodial account which the commissioner believes necessary to protect the holders of residential service contracts issued and outstanding in this state.

523C.6 Net worth requirement.

A service company that has issued or renewed in the aggregate one thousand or less residential service contracts during the preceding calendar year shall maintain a minimum net worth of forty thousand dollars, and the minimum net worth to be maintained shall be increased by an additional twenty thousand dollars for each additional five hundred contracts or fraction thereof issued or renewed, up to a maximum required net worth of four hundred thousand dollars.

For purposes of this chapter, “net worth” means the excess of all assets over all liabilities including required reserves, but excluding assets held in a custodial account under section 523C.5, computed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. At least twenty thousand dollars of net worth shall consist of paid-in capital.

523C.7 Filing of forms of contract — fee.

1. A residential service contract shall not be issued or used in this state unless it has been filed with and approved by the commissioner. If the commissioner fails to inform the service company of objections to the form of the residential service contract within thirty days after filing, the residential contract shall be deemed to have been approved by the commissioner provided it otherwise complies with this section.

2. Residential service contracts shall:
   a. Be written in nontechnical, readily understood language, using words with common and everyday meanings.
   b. Clearly, conspicuously, and plainly specify all of the following:
      (1) The services to be performed by the service company, and the terms and conditions of performance.
      (2) The fee, if any, to be charged for a service call.
      (3) Each of the systems, appliances, and components covered by the contract.
      (4) Any exclusions and limitations respecting the extent of coverage.
      (5) The period during which the contract will remain in effect.
      (6) All limitations respecting the performance of services, including any restrictions as to the time periods when services may be requested or will be performed.
      (7) The following statement: “The issuer of this contract is subject to regulation by the insurance division of the department of commerce of the state of Iowa. Complaints which are not settled by the issuer may be sent to the insurance division.”
   c. Provide for the performance of services only. A residential service contract shall not provide for a payment to, or reimbursement or indemnification of the holder of the contract.
   d. Provide for the performance of services upon a request by telephone to the service company without a requirement that claim forms or applications be filed prior to the rendition of services.
   e. Provide for the initiation of services by or under the direction of the service company within forty-eight hours of the request for the services by the holder of the contract.
   f. Any application for a residential service contract shall notify the purchaser that the person submitting the application to the service company for the purchaser is acting as the representative of the service company and not of the purchaser in that transaction.
   4. To the extent necessary to administer the provisions of this chapter, the commissioner may, after notice and hearing, institute a residential service contract form approval or form review fee as the commissioner shall by rule set. The fee, if imposed, may be by dollar amount or based upon a percentage of the sale value of the contract.

523C.8 Rebates and commissions.
A service company shall not pay a person who is acting as the agent, representative, attorney, or employee of the owner or prospective owner of residential property, a commission or any other consideration, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement or compensation for the issuance, purchase, or acquisition of a residential service contract. As used in this section, the phrase “commission or any other consideration” does not include bona fide payments or reimbursements for any of the following:
1. Goods or facilities actually furnished or services actually performed, if the payments or reimbursements are reasonably related to the value of the goods, facilities, or services furnished.
2. Inspection fees, if an inspection of the property to be the subject of a residential service contract is required by a service company and if the inspection fee is reasonably related to the services performed.
3. Advertising, marketing, and educational expenses actually incurred in the sale of the service company's service contracts which are applicable on a similar and essentially equal basis to all its customers and the agents of its customers.
4. Reasonable expenses for food, beverage, and similar items if furnished within the context of a service company's customary business, educational, or promotional practices.

523C.9 Suspension or revocation of license.
1. In addition to the license revocation provisions of section 523C.5, the commissioner may suspend or revoke or refuse to renew the license of a service company for any of the following grounds:
   a. The service company violated a lawful order of the commission or any provision of this chapter.
   b. The service company failed to pay any final judgment rendered against it in this state within sixty days after the judgment became final.
   c. The service company has without just cause refused to perform or negligently or incompetently performed services required to be performed under its residential service contracts and the refusal, or negligent or incompetent performance has occurred with such frequency, as the commissioner determines, as to indicate the general business practices of the service company.
   d. The service company violated section 523C.13.
   e. The service company failed to maintain the net worth required by section 523C.6.
   f. The service company failed to maintain the reserve account required by section 523C.11.
   g. The service company failed to maintain its corporate certificate of good standing with the secretary of state.
2. If the license of a service company is terminated under section 523C.5 because of failure to maintain bond, the commissioner shall give written notice of termination to the service company. The notice shall include the effective date of the termination.

523C.10 Rules.
The commissioner may adopt rules under chapter 17A to implement this chapter.

523C.11 Reserve account.
1. A service company shall maintain in an independent depository a reserve account containing cash or marketable securities in an amount equal to fifty percent of aggregate annual fees collected on residential service contracts issued in this state, if any, less actual expenditures for services rendered under those contracts.

2. The depository shall make its records concerning the service company reserve accounts available to the commissioner or a designee for inspection on the premises of the depository.

3. The service company shall submit with each license renewal application an affidavit by an authorized officer of the depository attesting to the balance in the reserve account and that the reserve account is being maintained in accordance with this chapter.

4. The commissioner may by rule designate institutions authorized to act as a depository under this section and may establish requirements for reserve accounts, reserve account agreements, or the method of valuing marketable securities which the commissioner believes necessary to protect the holders of residential service contracts issued and outstanding in this state.

523C.12 Optional examination.
The commissioner or a designee of the commissioner may make an examination of the books and records of a service company and verify its assets, liabilities, and reserves. The actual costs of the examination shall be borne by the service company.

523C.13 Prohibited acts or practices — penalty.
The commissioner shall adopt rules which regulate residential service contracts to prohibit misrepresentation, false advertising, defamation, boycotts, coercion, intimidation, false statements and entries and unfair discrimination or practices. If the commissioner finds that a person has violated the rules adopted under this section, the commissioner shall issue an order to that person to cease and desist and may order any or all of the following:

1. Payment of a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each and every act or violation, but not to exceed an aggregate of ten thousand dollars, unless the person knew or reasonably should have known the person was in violation of this section, in which case the penalty shall be not more than five thousand dollars for each and every act or violation, but not to exceed an aggregate penalty of fifty thousand dollars in any one six-month period. The commissioner shall, if it finds the violations of this section were directed, encouraged, condoned, ignored, or ratified by the employer of such person, assess such fine to the employer and not such person.

2. Suspension or revocation of the license of a person, if the person knew or reasonably should have known the person was in violation of this section.

83 Acts, ch 87, §14

523C.14 Rate review.
Using the information obtained in the annual reports and any additional information requested by the commissioner, the commissioner shall evaluate the fees charged for the residential service contract to determine if they are reasonable in relation to the value of the claims made. The commissioner may order an adjustment of the fees if the commissioner determines that the fees are not reasonable in relation to the value of the claims made.

83 Acts, ch 87, §15

523C.15 Annual report.
A licensed service company shall file with the commissioner an annual report within ninety days of the close of its fiscal year. The annual report shall be in a form prescribed by the commissioner and contain all of the following:

1. A current financial statement including a balance sheet and statement of operations prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and certified by an independent certified public accountant.

2. The number of residential service contracts issued during the preceding fiscal year, the number canceled or expired during the year, the number in effect at year end and the amount of residential service contract fees received.

3. Any other information relating to the performance and solvency of the residential service company required by the commissioner.

83 Acts, ch 87, §16

523C.16 Exclusions.
This chapter does not apply to any of the following:

1. A performance guarantee given by a builder of a residence or the manufacturer or seller or lessor of residential property if no identifiable charge is made for the guarantee.

2. A service contract, guarantee or warranty between a residential customer and a service company which will perform the work itself and not through subcontractors for the service, repair or replacement of appliances or electrical, plumbing, heating, cooling or air-conditioning systems.

3. A contract between a service company and a person who actually performs the maintenance, repairs, or replacements of structural components, or appliances, or electrical, plumbing, heating, cooling, or air-conditioning systems, if someone other than the service company actually performs these functions.

4. A service contract, guarantee or warranty issued by a retailer merchant to a retail customer, guaranteeing or warranting the repair, service or replacement of appliances or electrical, plumbing, heating, cooling or air-conditioning systems sold by said retail merchant.

523C.17 Lending institution.
A bank, savings and loan association, insurance company or other lending institution shall not require the purchase of a residential service contract as a condition of a loan. A lending institution shall not sell a residential service contract to a borrower unless the borrower signs an affidavit acknowledging that the purchase is not required. Violation of this section is punishable as provided in section 523C.13.

DIVISION I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

524.101 Short title.

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Iowa Banking Act.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §524.101]

84 Acts, ch 1067, §41

524.102 Statement of intent.

The general assembly declares as its purpose in adopting this chapter to provide for:

1. The safe and sound conduct of the business of banking.

2. The conservation of the assets of state banks.

3. The maintenance of public confidence in state banks.

4. The protection of the interests of depositors, creditors, shareholders and of the interest of the public in a sound and strong banking system.

5. The opportunity for state banks to be competitive with each other and with banks existing under the laws of other states and the United States.

6. The opportunity for state banks to effectively serve the convenience and banking needs of their depositors, borrowers and other customers and to participate in and promote the economic progress of Iowa and of the United States.

7. The opportunity for the management of a state bank to exercise its business judgment, in conducting the affairs of the state bank, to the extent compatible with, and subject to the purposes of this chapter.

8. The delegation to the superintendent of adequate rule-making power and administrative discretion, in order that the supervision and regulation of state banks may be flexible and readily responsive to changes in economic conditions and changes in banking and fiduciary practices.

9. The simplification and modernization of the law governing the business of banking and the exercise of certain fiduciary powers.

524.103 Definitions.

26. “Agricultural credit corporation” means as defined in section 535.12, subsection 4.
27. “Bankers’ bank” means a bank which is organized under the laws of any state or under federal law, and whose shares are owned exclusively by other banks or by a bank holding company whose shares are owned exclusively by other banks, except for directors’ qualifying shares when required by law, and which engages exclusively in providing services for depository institutions and officers, directors and employees of those depository institutions.
85 Acts, ch 252, §32
2. All individuals who, upon January 1, 1970, hold any office under a provision of law repealed by this chapter, and which offices are continued by this chapter shall continue to hold such offices according to their former tenure.

524.105 Effect on existing banks.
1. The corporate existence of a state bank existing and operating on January 1, 1970, shall not be affected by the enactment of this chapter.

2. All state banks shall be subject to the provisions and requirements of this chapter in every particular, and all national banks, now or hereafter doing business in this state, shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, to the extent applicable, from January 1, 1970.

524.106 Renewal of the corporate existence of an existing state bank.
1. The corporate existence of a state bank existing and operating on January 1, 1970, which expires subsequent to said date, may be renewed prior to the expiration thereof, following the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote thereon, at a meeting held for that purpose and called in the manner required by section 524.509 and by delivery to the superintendent of articles of incorporation in conformance with the provisions of section 524.302 together with the applicable fees for the filing and recording of the articles of incorporation. If the superintendent finds that the articles of incorporation satisfy the requirements of this section, the superintendent shall deliver them to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office. Following the receipt of the articles of incorporation, the secretary of state shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of section 524.306.

2. Sections 524.303, 524.304, 524.305, 524.307, 524.308, and 524.309 shall not be applicable to a state bank existing and operating on January 1, 1970, which renews its corporate existence in accordance with subsection 1 of this section.

3. The renewal of the corporate existence of a state bank pursuant to this section shall not affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred, under the laws of this state or of the United States, prior to the issuance of a certificate of incorporation by the secretary of state.

524.107 Persons authorized to engage in banking business.
1. No person may lawfully engage in this state in the business of receiving money for deposit, transact the business of banking, or may lawfully establish in this state a place of business for such purpose, except a state bank which is subject to the provisions of this chapter, a private bank to the extent provided for and limited by sections 524.1701 and 524.1702, and a national bank authorized by the laws of the United States to engage in the business of receiving money for deposit.

2. No person doing business in this state shall use the words “bank” or “trust” or use any derivative, plural or compound of the words “bank”, “banking”, “bankers” or “trust” in any manner which would tend to create the impression that such person is authorized to engage in the business of banking or to act in a fiduciary capacity, except a state bank authorized to do so by the provisions of this chapter, or a national bank to the extent permitted by the laws of the United States, or, insofar as the word “bank” is concerned, a private bank to the extent provided for and limited by sections 524.1701 and 524.1702, or, insofar as the word “trust” is concerned, an individual temporarily serving as a fiduciary in this state, pursuant to section 633.63, or, insofar as the words “trust” and “bank” are concerned, a nonresident corporate fiduciary temporarily serving as a fiduciary in this state pursuant to section 633.64.

524.108 Applicability of safe deposit provisions.

The provisions of sections 524.809 to 524.812 shall apply, to the extent applicable, to any person engaged in this state in the business of leasing safe deposit boxes for the storage of property.

524.109 Bankers' bank authorized.

A state bank may be organized under this chapter as a bankers' bank. The bankers' bank is subject to all rights, privileges, duties, restrictions, penalties, liabilities, conditions and limitations applicable to state banks generally except as limited in the definition of bankers' bank contained in section 524.103, subsection 27. However, a bankers' bank shall have the same powers as those granted by federal law and regulation to a national bank organized as a bankers' bank under 12 U.S.C. §27.

85 Acts, ch 252, §33

DIVISION II

DIVISION OF BANKING

524.201 Superintendent of banking.
1. The governor shall appoint, subject to confirmation by the senate, a superintendent of banking. The appointee shall be selected solely with regard to qualification and fitness to discharge the duties of office, and no person shall be appointed who has not had at least five years experience in a bank or in the regulation or examination of banks.

2. The superintendent shall have an office at the seat of government. The regular term of office shall be four years beginning and ending as provided by section 69.19.
524.202 Superintendent — salary.

The superintendent shall receive a salary to be fixed by the state banking board. The superintendent shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of the superintendent’s duties, subject to the provisions of section 524.209.

524.203 Superintendent — vacancy.

A vacancy in the office of superintendent shall be filled as regular appointments are made for the unexpired portion of the regular term.

524.204 Deputy superintendent of banking.

1. The superintendent shall appoint a deputy superintendent of banking, who shall assist the superintendent in the performance of the superintendent’s office and who shall perform the duties of the superintendent during the absence or the inability of the superintendent, and as directed by the superintendent.

2. The deputy superintendent shall be removable at the pleasure of the superintendent. If the office of the superintendent becomes vacant, the deputy superintendent shall have all the powers and duties of the superintendent until a new superintendent is appointed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

3. The deputy superintendent shall receive a salary to be fixed by the state banking board. The deputy superintendent shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of the deputy superintendent’s duties, subject to the provisions of section 524.209.

524.205 State banking board.

1. The state banking board shall be composed of the superintendent, who shall be an ex officio nonvoting member and chairperson, and six other members, appointed by the governor, who shall be chosen from various sections of the state. Provided, however, that in no event shall more than five members of such board be engaged in the business of banking in any executive capacity. In case of a vacancy in the state banking board, other than one resulting from a vacancy in the office of the superintendent, the governor shall appoint a new member to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term.

2. The regular term of office of each member, other than the superintendent, shall be contemporaneous with the regular term of office of the superintendent as defined in subsection 2 of section 524.201, and each such member shall hold office for such term and until the member’s successor shall have been appointed.

3. A member of the state banking board, other than the superintendent, shall not receive a salary but is entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred by the member in connection with the member’s duties. Each member of the board may also be eligible to receive compensation as provided in section 7E.6.

4. The state banking board shall act with the superintendent in an advisory capacity concerning all matters pertaining to the conduct of the administration of the provisions of this chapter and shall perform such other duties as are specifically provided for by the laws of this state.

5. The state banking board shall meet each month on such date and at such place as the state banking board may designate, and shall meet at such other times as the board may deem necessary, or when called by the chairperson of the board, or any two members thereof.

524.206 Banking division created.

The banking division is created within the department of commerce.

524.207 Expenses of the banking division — fees.

All expenses required in the discharge of the duties and responsibilities imposed upon the banking division of the department of commerce, the superintendent, and the state banking board by the laws of this state shall be paid from fees provided by the laws of this state and appropriated by the general assembly from the fund established in this section. All of these fees are payable to the superintendent. The superintendent shall pay all the fees and other money received by the superintendent to the treasurer of state within the time required by section 12.10. The treasurer of state shall hold these funds in a banking revolving fund that shall be established in the name of the superintendent for the payment of the expenses of the division. This fund is subject at all times to the warrant of the department of revenue and finance, drawn upon written requisition of the superintendent or the superintendent’s designated representative, for the payment of all salaries and other expenses necessary to carry out the duties of the banking division of the department of commerce. The superintendent may keep on hand with the treasurer of state funds in excess of the current needs of the division to the extent approved by the state banking board. Transfers shall not be made from the general fund of the state or any other fund for the payment of the expenses of the division. No part of the funds held by the treasurer of state for the account of the superintendent shall be transferred to the general fund of the state or any other fund, except as follows: Sixty thousand dollars each fiscal year shall be transferred to the general fund of the state. That amount shall be considered as one of the costs of the division. The funds held by the treasurer of state for the account of the superintendent shall be invested by the treasurer of state and the income derived from these investments shall be credited to the general fund of the state.

The authority to modify allotments provided in section 8.31 shall not apply to funds appropriated from the fund created in this section and held for the superintendent.

The superintendent shall account for receipts and disbursements according to the separate duties imposed upon the superintendent by the laws of this state and each separate duty shall be fiscally self-sustaining.

86 Acts, ch 1246, §616; 87 Acts, ch 234, §435

524.208 Assistants, examiners, and other employees.

The superintendent may appoint assistants, examiners, and other employees as the superintendent deems necessary to the proper discharge of the duties imposed upon the superintendent by the laws of this state. Pay plans shall be established for employees, other than clerical, who examine the accounts and affairs of state banks and who examine the accounts and affairs of other persons, subject to supervision and regulation by the superintendent, which are substantially equivalent to those paid by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and other federal supervisory agencies in this area of the United States.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §749

524.209 Expenses.

The superintendent, deputy superintendent, assistants, examiners and other employees of the banking division shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The superintendent, and when specifically authorized by the superintendent, the deputy superintendent, assistants, examiners and other employees of the banking division, shall be entitled to receive reimbursement for expenses incurred while attending conventions, meetings, conferences, schools, or seminars relating to the performance of their duties, and such expenses shall be paid by the treasurer of state on warrants drawn by the director of revenue and finance.

524.210 Insurance and surety bonds.

The superintendent shall acquire good and sufficient bond in a company authorized to do business in this state insuring the faithful performance of the deputy superintendent, assistants, examiners, and all other employees of the banking division and insuring against any liability which may accrue in the case of the loss of any property of a state bank, of a customer of a state bank or of any other person, in the course of any examination, investigation, or other function required or allowed by the laws of this state. The superintendent shall be bonded in accordance with the provisions of chapter 64.

524.211 Prohibitions relating to superintendent, deputy superintendent, assistants and examiners.

1. A loan of money or property shall not be made directly or indirectly by a state bank, or by persons subject to chapters 533A, 533B, 536, 536A, or any affiliate of a state bank or of such persons, or any director, officer, employee, member, owner, or partner of a state bank or of such persons, to the superintendent, or deputy superintendent, or to an assistant or examiner. The superintendent or deputy superintendent, or an assistant or examiner shall not accept from a state bank or from persons subject to chapters 533A, 533B, 536, and 536A, or any affiliate of a state bank or of such persons, any director, officer, employee, member, owner, or partner of a state bank or of such persons, a loan of money or property, either directly or indirectly.

2. The deputy superintendent, any assistant or examiner, shall not perform any services for, nor be a shareholder, member, partner, owner, director, officer or employee of any bank or private bank, or of persons subject to chapters 533A, 533B, 536, or 536A, or of any affiliate of any bank, private bank or of any such persons. A violation of this subsection shall constitute grounds for discharge or suspension from employment or for reduction in rank or grade.

3. For the purposes of this section and section 524.212, an affiliate of a person other than a state bank shall include any corporation, trust, estate, association or other similar organization:

a. Of which such person, directly or indirectly, owns or controls either a majority of the voting shares or more than fifty percent of the number of shares voted for the election of its directors, trustees, or other individuals exercising similar functions at the preceding election, or controls in any manner the election of a majority of its directors, trustees or other individuals exercising similar functions.

b. Of which control is held, directly or indirectly, through share ownership or in any other manner, by the shareholders of such person who own or control either a majority of the shares of such person or more than fifty percent of the number of shares voted for the election of directors of such person at the preceding election or by trustees for the benefit of the shareholders of any such person.
c. Of which a majority of its directors, trustees, or other individuals exercising similar functions are directors of any one such person.

d. Which owns or controls, directly or indirectly, either a majority of the voting shares of such person or more than fifty percent of the total number of shares voted for the election of directors of such person at the preceding election, or controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of such person, or for the benefit of whose shareholders or members all or substantially all of the outstanding voting shares of such person is held by trustees.

4. The deputy superintendent or any assistant or examiner who is convicted of theft, burglary, robbery, larceny or embezzlement as a result of a violation of the laws of this state or the United States while holding such position shall be immediately discharged from employment and shall be forever disqualified from holding any position in the banking division.

5. In any action brought to recover moneys or to enforce the provisions of this chapter, without reasonable cause, shall be considered a contempt of that court.

524.215 Records of department of banking.
All records of the department of banking shall be public records subject to the provisions of chapter 22, except that all papers, documents, reports, reports of examinations and other writings relating specifically to the supervision and regulation of any state bank or other person by the superintendent pursuant to the laws of this state shall not be public records and shall not be open for examination or copying by the public or for examination or publication by the news media.

The superintendent, deputy superintendent, assistants or examiners shall not be subpoenaed in any cause or proceeding to give testimony concerning information relating specifically to the supervision and regulation of any such state bank or other such person by the superintendent pursuant to the laws of this state, nor shall the records of the banking division which relate specifically to the supervision and regulation of any such state bank or other such person be offered in evidence in any court or subject to subpoena by any party except, where relevant: 1. In such actions or proceedings as are brought by the superintendent.

2. In any matter in which an interested and proper party seeks review of a decision of the superintendent.

3. In any action or proceeding which arises out of the criminal provisions of the laws of this state or the United States.

4. In any action brought as a shareholders derivative suit against a state bank.

5. In any action brought to recover moneys or to recover upon an indemnity bond for embezzlement, misappropriation or misuse of state bank funds.

524.216 Annual report of superintendent.
The superintendent shall make a report in writing annually to the governor in the manner and within the time required by chapter 17. A copy of the report shall be furnished by the superintendent to each state bank.
In addition to the matters required by chapter 17, the annual report of the superintendent shall contain:
1. A summary of applications approved or denied by the superintendent pursuant to this chapter since the superintendent’s last previous report.
2. A summary of the assets, liabilities and capital structure of all state banks as of June 30 of the year for which the report is made.
3. A statement of the receipts and disbursements of funds of the superintendent during the calendar year ending on the preceding December 31 and of the funds on hand on such December 31.
4. Such other information as the superintendent may deem appropriate and advisable to fairly disclose the discharge of the duties imposed upon the superintendent by this chapter.
5. 524.217 Examinations.
   1. The superintendent shall have power to make or cause to be made an examination of every state bank whenever in the superintendent’s judgment such examination is necessary or advisable, but in no event less frequently than once during each eighteen-month period. During the course of each examination of a state bank, inquiry shall be made as to its financial condition, the security afforded to those to whom it is obligated, the policies of its management, whether the requirements of law have been complied with in the administration of its affairs, and such other matters as the superintendent may prescribe. The superintendent shall also have power to make or cause to be made such limited examinations at such times and with such frequency as the superintendent may deem necessary and advisable to determine the condition of any state bank and whether any person has violated any of the provisions of this chapter.
   2. The superintendent shall have power to make or cause to be made an examination of any corporation in which the state bank owns shares except corporations described in paragraphs “a” and “b” of subsection 3 of section 524.901. The superintendent shall also have power, upon application to and order of the district court of Polk county, to make or cause to be made an examination of any person having business transactions or a relationship with any state bank when such an examination is deemed necessary and advisable in order to determine whether the capital of the state bank is impaired or whether the safety of its deposits has been imperiled. The fee for any such examination shall be paid by the state bank.
   3. To the extent necessary for the purpose of any examination provided for by this section and section 524.1105, the superintendent shall have the power to examine all relevant books, records, accounts and documents and to compel the production of the same in the manner prescribed by section 524.214.
   4. The superintendent may furnish to the federal deposit insurance corporation and the federal reserve system, or to any official or supervising examiner thereof, a copy of the report of any or all examinations made of any state bank and of any affiliate of a state bank when the state bank is a member of the federal reserve system or to the federal deposit insurance corporation when the deposits of the state bank are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation.
   5. A copy of the report of each examination of a state bank shall be transmitted by the superintendent to the board of directors of the state bank except to the extent that the report of any such examination may be confidential to the superintendent, and each member of the board of directors shall furnish to the superintendent, on forms to be supplied by the superintendent, a statement that the member has read the report of examination.
   6. All reports of examinations, including any copies thereof, in the possession of any person other than the superintendent or employee of the banking division, including any state bank or any agency to which any report of such examination may be furnished under subsection 4 of this section, shall be confidential communications, shall not be subject to subpoena from such persons and shall not be published or made public by such persons.
   7. The report of examination of any affiliate or of any person examined as provided for in subsection 2 of this section shall not be transmitted by the superintendent to any such affiliate or person or to any state bank or to the board of directors of any state bank unless authorized or requested by such affiliate or person.
524.218 Regulation and examination of services.
   A state bank may not cause to be performed, by contract or otherwise any bank services, of a type referred to in section 524.804, for itself, whether on or off its premises, unless assurances satisfactory to the superintendent are furnished to the superintendent by both the state bank and the person performing such services that the performance thereof will be subject to supervision, regulation, and examination by the superintendent to the same extent as if such services were being performed by the state bank itself on its own premises.
524.219 Fees for examinations.
   A state bank subject to examination, supervision, and regulation by the superintendent, shall pay to the superintendent a fee, established by the state banking board, based on the time required for the examination and the administrative costs and expenses incurred in the discharge of the duties imposed upon the superintendent by this chapter. The fee shall include, but not be limited to costs and expenses for salaries, expenses and travel for employees, office facilities, supplies, and equipment. Such fee shall apply equally to all state banks.

The fee for examination of any affiliate of a state bank as provided for in section 524.1105, and the examinations provided for in section 524.217, subsection 2, shall be established by the state banking board, based on the time required for the examination and the administrative costs and expenses incurred in the discharge of the duties imposed upon the superintendent by this chapter. The fee shall include, but not be limited to costs and expenses for salaries, expenses and travel for employees, office facilities, supplies, and equipment.

Upon completion of each examination required or allowed by this chapter, the examiner in charge of such examination shall render a bill for such fee, in duplicate, and shall deliver one copy thereof to the state bank or private bank and one copy to the superintendent. Failure to pay the amount of such fee to the superintendent within ten days after the date of the close of each such examination shall subject the state bank or private bank to an additional fee equal to five percent of the amount of such fee for each day the payment is delinquent.

524.220 Reports to superintendent.

1. A state bank shall render a full, clear, and accurate statement of its condition to the superintendent, on forms to be supplied by the superintendent, verified by the oath of an officer and attested by the signatures of at least three of the directors, or verified by the oath of two of its officers and attested by two of the directors. The superintendent may, in the superintendent’s discretion, use any form of statement of condition that is used by the federal deposit insurance corporation or the federal reserve system.

2. The statement shall be transmitted to the superintendent within thirty days after the receipt of a request for the statement from the superintendent. A statement shall be called for by the superintendent at least three times each year.

3. Within forty days after the date of the receipt of the request for a statement of condition, the state bank shall cause the statement to be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipal corporation or unincorporated area in which the state bank has its principal place of business, or if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or in a county adjoining the county, in which the state bank has its principal place of business. Proof of such publication by affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper in which it was made, shall be delivered to the superintendent and shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

4. The superintendent shall also have power to call for special reports from a state bank whenever in the superintendent's judgment the same are necessary in order to obtain a full and complete knowledge of its condition. Such reports shall be verified and attested in the same manner as required in subsection 1 of this section.

[R60, §1636, 1637; C73, §1570, 1571; C97, §1872, 1873, 1874; S13, §1873, 1889-m; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§9228, 9229, 9231, 9232, 9234, 9305; C46, 50, 54, 58, §528.22, 528.23, 528.25, 528.26, 528.28, 528.30; C62, 66, §528.22, 528.23, 528.25, 528.26, 528.28, 528.28; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §524.220]

524.221 Preservation of bank records — statute of limitations.

1. A state bank shall not be required to preserve its records for a period longer than eleven years after the first day of January of the year following the time of the making or filing of such records, provided, however, that account records showing unpaid balances due to depositors shall not be destroyed. Film, photographic, photostatic, or other copies which accurately reproduce all lines and markings on the original may be kept in lieu of any such original record.

2. All causes of action, other than actions for relief on the grounds of fraud or mistake, against a state bank based upon a claim or claims inconsistent with an entry or entries in a state bank record, made in the regular course of business, shall be deemed to have accrued, and shall accrue for the purpose of the statute of limitations one year after the date of such entry or entries. No action founded upon such a cause may be brought after the expiration of ten years from the date of such accrual.

3. The provisions of this section, insofar as applicable, shall apply to the records of a national bank.

524.222 Meetings of the board of directors called by superintendent.

Whenever the superintendent deems it necessary and advisable the superintendent may cause a meeting of the board of directors of a state bank to be held in such manner and at such time and place as the superintendent may direct. Any report of an examination required or allowed by this chapter, any conclusions drawn therefrom by the superintendent, any recommendations made relative thereto and any other matters concerning the operation and condition of the state bank may be presented to the board of directors by the superintendent. The state bank shall cause the recommendations of the superintendent to be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors of the state bank.

Each member of the board of directors shall furnish to the superintendent a statement, on forms to be supplied by the superintendent, that the member has read and is familiar with the recommendations of the superintendent.

524.223 Power of superintendent to issue orders.

Whenever it shall appear to the superintendent that a state bank is engaging or has engaged, or the superintendent has reasonable cause to believe that the state bank is about to engage, in an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the business of such state bank, or is violating or has violated, or the superintendent has reasonable cause to believe that the state bank is about to violate, any provision of this chapter or of any regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, or any condition imposed in writing by the superintendent in connection with the approval of any matter required by this chapter, or any written agreement entered into with the superintendent, the superintendent may issue and serve upon the state bank a notice containing a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or violations, or the unsafe or unsound practice or practices, and fixing a time and place at which a hearing will be held to determine whether an order to cease and desist therefrom should be issued to the state bank.

If the state bank fails to appear at the hearing it shall be deemed to have consented to the issuance of a cease and desist order. In the event of such consent, or if upon the record made at such hearing, the superintendent shall find that any violation or unsafe or unsound practice specified in the notice has been established, the superintendent may issue and serve upon the bank an order to cease and desist from any such violation or practice. Such order may require the state bank and its directors, officers and employees to cease and desist from any such violation or practice. Such order may become effective upon service thereof on the state bank, and shall remain effective except to such extent that it is stayed, modified, terminated, or set aside by action of the superintendent or of the district court of the county in which the state bank has its principal place of business.

The superintendent may apply to the district court of the county in which the state bank has its principal place of business for the enforcement of any order pursuant to this section and such court shall have jurisdiction and power to order and require compliance therewith.

The superintendent may take over the management of the property and business of a state bank whenever it appears to the superintendent that:

1. The state bank has violated its articles of incorporation or any law of this state.
2. The capital of the state bank is impaired.
3. The state bank is conducting its business in an unsafe or unsound manner.
4. The state bank is in such condition that it is unsound, unsafe or inexpedient for it to transact business.
5. The state bank has suspended or refused payment of its deposits or other liabilities contrary to the terms thereof.
6. The state bank refuses to make its records available to the superintendent for examination or otherwise refuses to make available, through an officer or employee having knowledge thereof, information required by the superintendent for the proper discharge of the duties of the superintendent's office.
7. The state bank neglects or refuses to observe any order of the superintendent made pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, unless the enforcement of such order is stayed in a proceeding brought by the state bank.
8. The state bank has not transacted any business or performed any of the duties, contemplated by its authorization to do business, for a period of one year.
9. The state bank has failed to renew its corporate existence in the manner provided for in section 524.106 within one hundred eighty days prior to the expiration thereof.

The superintendent shall thereafter manage the property and business of the state bank until such time as the superintendent may relinquish to the state bank the management thereof, upon such conditions as the superintendent may prescribe, or until its affairs be finally dissolved as provided in this chapter.

524.225 Judicial review.

Judicial review of the actions of the superintendent may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

524.226 Management of state bank by superintendent.

Upon taking over the management of the property and business of a state bank, the superintendent shall have the authority to operate and direct the affairs of the state bank in its regular course of business. The superintendent shall also have the authority to collect such amounts due to the state bank and to do such other acts as are necessary or expedient to conduct the affairs of the state bank and conserve or protect its assets, property and business.

If upon taking over the management of the property and business of the state bank, the superintendent concludes that the state bank is insolvent or should be dissolved for any other reason enumerated in section 524.224, the superintendent may immediately, or at any time within three years, order that the state bank cease to carry on its business and proceed to dissolve the affairs of the state bank in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. If the superintendent has not caused the state bank to cease to carry on its business within three years of taking over the management of the property and business of the state bank, the state bank shall have the right to bring an action to recover its property and business.
bank, the superintendent shall relinquish the management thereof to the state bank.

The superintendent may appoint one or more special deputies as agent or agents, with powers specified in the certificate of appointment, to assist the superintendent in the duty of management, conservation or dissolution and distribution of the business and property of a state bank.

The superintendent, during the period of the superintendent's management of the property and business of the state bank, and prior to such time as the superintendent may apply to the district court for appointment as receiver, may require reimbursement by the state bank to the extent of the expenses incurred by the superintendent in connection with such management.

524.227 Enforcement of Iowa consumer credit code.
1. The superintendent shall enforce the Iowa consumer credit code with respect to banks, as provided in sections 537.2303, 537.2305 and 537.6105.
2. The superintendent shall co-operate with the administrator, and shall assist the administrator whenever necessary to provide for the discharge of the duties of the duties of the administrator.
3. Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, the superintendent shall authorize to be furnished to the administrator, access to or copies of records in the possession of the superintendent or other persons which relate to a bank when necessary to enable the administrator to enforce chapter 537.
4. The superintendent shall make an annual report in writing to the administrator. A copy of the report shall be furnished at cost by the superintendent to each bank or other person upon request. The annual report shall contain:
   a. A summary of applications to engage in the business of banking approved or denied by the superintendent since the last report.
   b. A summary of the number of consumer installment credit outstanding per bank under the superintendent's supervision as of December 31 of the year for which the report is made.
   c. An estimate of the disbursements of agency funds for consumer credit protection during the calendar year ending the preceding December 31.
   d. Information which the superintendent may deem appropriate and advisable to disclose.
   e. Information which the administrator may require to be included.

DIVISION III
INCORPORATION

524.301 Incorporators.
A state bank may be incorporated under this chapter by not less than five individuals eighteen years of age or older, a majority of whom shall be citizens of this state and all of whom shall be citizens of the United States.

524.302 Articles of incorporation.
The articles of incorporation of a state bank, in the form prescribed by the superintendent, shall set forth the following:
1. The name of the state bank, that it is incorporated for the purpose of conducting the business of banking, and that it is incorporated under the provisions of this chapter.
2. The location of its proposed or existing principal place of business including the name of the county, municipal corporation or unincorporated area.
3. The duration of the state bank which shall be perpetual.
4. The aggregate number of shares which the state bank shall have authority to issue, and the par value of such shares; if such shares are to be divided into classes, the number of shares of each class and a statement of the par value of the shares of each class.
5. If there is to be a preferred class, a statement of the preferences, voting rights, if any, limitations and relative rights in respect of the shares of such class.
6. Any provision, permissible under section 524.506, limiting or denying the shareholders the pre-emptive right to acquire additional shares of the state bank.
7. Any provision, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision restricting the transfer of shares and any provision which under this chapter is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws.
8. The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors be elected and qualify.
9. The name and address of each incorporator.
10. Any provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that the provision does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit, or under subsections 1 and 2 of section 524.605. A provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when the provision in the articles of incorporation becomes effective.
§524.305, IOWA BANKING LAW

11. Any provision not inconsistent with law or the purposes for which the state bank is organized, which the incorporators elect to set forth; or any provision limiting any of the powers enumerated in this chapter.

It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter. The articles of incorporation shall be signed by all of the incorporators and acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds.

84 Acts, ch 1032, §1; 87 Acts, ch 212, §12; 88 Acts, ch 1170, §10

524.303 Application for approval.

The incorporators shall make an application to the superintendent for approval of a proposed state bank in the manner prescribed by the superintendent and shall deliver to the superintendent, together with such application:

1. The articles of incorporation.
2. Applicable fees, payable to the secretary of state as specified in section 496A.124, for the filing and recording of the articles of incorporation.

Within thirty days after delivery of the foregoing items, the incorporators shall also deliver to the superintendent proof of publication of the notice required by section 524.304 by affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper in which it was made.

524.304 Publication of notice.

The incorporators of a state bank shall publish notice of their intention to deliver, or the delivery of, the articles of incorporation to the superintendent, once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the municipal corporation which is proposed as the principal place of business of the state bank, or if there is none, a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or in a county adjoining the county, in which the proposed state bank is to have its principal place of business. The first publication of the notice shall appear prior to, or within ten days after, the date of delivery of the articles of incorporation to the superintendent and shall set forth:

1. The name of the proposed state bank.
2. A statement that it is to be incorporated under this chapter.
3. The purpose or purposes of the state bank.
4. The names and addresses of the incorporators and of the members of the initial board of directors as they appear, or will appear, in the articles of incorporation.
5. The date of the delivery of the articles of incorporation to the superintendent.
6. If the incorporation of the state bank has been approved by the superintendent under section 524.305, subsection 6, the name and address of the bank with which the state bank will have merged or consolidated, or the assets of which the state bank will have acquired or the condition of which in some other way provided a purpose for the incorporation.

524.305 Approval by superintendent.

1. Upon receipt of an application for approval of a state bank the superintendent shall conduct such investigation as the superintendent deems necessary to ascertain whether:

a. The articles of incorporation and supporting items satisfy the requirements of this chapter.

b. The convenience and needs of the public will be served by the proposed state bank.

c. The population density or other economic characteristics of the area primarily to be served by the proposed state bank afford reasonable promise of adequate support for the state bank.

d. The character and fitness of the incorporators and of the members of the initial board of directors are such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant the belief that the business of the proposed state bank will be honestly and efficiently conducted.

e. The capital structure of the proposed state bank is adequate in relation to the amount of the anticipated business of the state bank and the safety of prospective depositors.

f. The proposed state bank will have sufficient personnel with adequate knowledge and experience to conduct the business of the state bank, and to administer fiduciary accounts, if the state bank is to be authorized to act in a fiduciary capacity.

2. Within one hundred eighty days after receipt of the application for approval together with the items referred to in section 524.303, subsections 1 and 2, the superintendent shall make a determination whether to approve or disapprove the pending application on the basis of the investigation.

3. Within ninety days after the second publication of the notice referred to in section 524.304 any person opposing the pending application shall file written objections thereto with the superintendent.

Following the expiration of the period referred to in the previous sentence and prior to making a determination on the pending application the superintendent shall, upon adequate notice, afford all interested persons, including the incorporators, an opportunity for a stenographically reported hearing during which such persons shall be allowed to present evidence in support of, or in opposition to, the pending application.

4. If the superintendent approves the pending application, the superintendent shall deliver the articles of incorporation, with the superintendent's approval indicated thereon, to the secretary of state and notify the incorporators, and such other persons who requested in writing that they be notified, of such approval. If the superintendent disapproves the pending application the superintendent shall notify the incorporators of the action and the reason for the decision.

5. The actions of the superintendent shall be subject to judicial review in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. The court may award damages to the incorporators if it finds that review is sought frivolously and in bad faith.

6. Subsection 3 of this section shall not apply if the superintendent finds that one of the purposes of the proposed state bank is the merger or consolidation with, or the purchase of some or all of the assets of and assumption of some or all of the liabilities of, a bank for which a receiver has been appointed or which has been ordered, by authorities of this state or the United States, to cease to carry on its business, or if the superintendent finds for any other reason that immediate action on the pending application is advisable in order to protect the interests of depositors or the assets of any other bank.

7. Before receiving the decision of the superintendent with respect to the pending application the incorporators shall, upon notice, reimburse the superintendent to the extent of the expenses incurred by the superintendent in connection with the application.

524.306 Issuance of certificate of incorporation.
The receipt of the approved articles of incorporation of a state bank by the secretary of state shall constitute filing thereof with that office. The secretary of state shall record the articles of incorporation and forward a copy thereof to the county recorder of the county in which the state bank is to have its principal place of business, or if there is none, a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the state bank has its principal place of business, or in a county adjoining the county, in which the state bank has its principal place of business, and the date of the incorporation. The secretary of state shall record the articles of incorporation. The receipt of the approved articles of incorporation shall issue a certificate of incorporation and send the same to the incorporators.

524.307 Organizational meeting.
After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation of a state bank, an organizational meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall be held at the call of a majority of the incorporators for the purpose of adopting bylaws, if any are to be adopted, electing officers and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The incorporators calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice thereof by mail to each director so named, except that any form of actual notice or written waiver thereof shall be sufficient in the case of a state bank approved under the provisions of section 524.305, subsection 6. A notice shall state the time and place of the meeting.

524.308 Effect of certificate of incorporation; issuance of authorization to do business.
1. Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation of a state bank, the corporate existence shall begin, unless the certificate in conformity with a provision of the articles of incorporation provides that it shall begin on a stated day in the future, in which event the corporate existence shall without further action by either the incorporators or the secretary of state begin on the day so stated. Such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the state bank has been incorporated except as against the superintendent in a proceeding instituted by the superintendent to dissolve a state bank pursuant to section 524.1302.

2. The state bank shall not accept deposits or transact any business except such business as is incident to commencement of business, or to the obtaining of subscriptions and payment for its shares until receipt of an authorization to do business from the superintendent. The superintendent shall issue an authorization to do business upon finding that the proposed state bank has complied with all the requirements of this chapter precedent to commencing business and has submitted to the superintendent a statement under oath, in the manner designated by the superintendent, showing that the capital, surplus and undivided profits required by the superintendent in accordance with this chapter have been fully paid in.

3. If a state bank transacts any business before receipt of an authorization to do business in violation of subsection 2, the directors and officers who willfully authorized or participated in such action shall be severally liable for the debts and liabilities of the state bank incurred prior to the receipt of the authorization to do business.

524.309 Publication of authorization to do business.
A state bank shall cause to be published once within two weeks after the issuance by the superintendent of the authorization to do business, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the municipal corporation which is the principal place of business of the state bank, or if there is none, a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or in a county adjoining the county, in which the state bank has its principal place of business, a notice which shall state:

1. The name of the state bank, the address of its principal place of business and the date of the issuance of the authorization to do business.

2. The names and addresses of the members of the initial board of directors as designated in the articles of incorporation.

3. That the shareholders shall not be personally liable for the debts and obligations of the state bank.

Proof of such publication, by affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper in which it was made, shall be filed with the secretary of state and with the superintendent, and shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

524.310 Name of state bank.
1. The name of a state bank originally incorporated after the effective date of this chapter shall include the word "bank" and may include the word "state" or "trust" in its name. If a state bank uses the word "trust" in its name, it must be authorized under this chapter to act in a fiduciary capacity.
2. The provisions of this section shall not require any state bank, existing and operating on January 1, 1970, to add to, modify or otherwise change its corporate name, either on January 1, 1970, or upon renewal of its corporate existence pursuant to section 524.106.
3. If a state bank existing and operating on January 1, 1970, causes its corporate name to be changed, the name as changed shall comply with subsection 1 of this section.

[C97, §1861, 1889; S13, §1889, 1889-i; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9202, 9261, 9295, 9296; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §527.1, 528.54, 532.12, 532.13; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §524.310]

524.311 Commission for organizing state banks.
No person shall, directly or indirectly, receive or contract to receive any commission or bonus of any kind for organizing any state bank or for securing a subscription to the original capital of any state bank or to any increase thereof; provided that this section shall not be construed as prohibiting the payment of reasonable compensation for legal or accounting services in connection with organization.

1. A state bank originally incorporated pursuant to this chapter shall have its principal place of business within the confines of a municipal corporation. The existence of a state bank shall not, however, be affected by the subsequent discontinuance of the municipal corporation. A state bank existing and operating on January 1, 1970, which does not have its principal place of business within the confines of a municipal corporation, may renew its corporate existence pursuant to section 524.106 without regard to this section and may also operate as a bank or convert to and operate as a bank office when acquired by or merged into another state bank and approved by the superintendent.
2. A state bank may, with the prior written approval of the superintendent, change the location of its principal place of business to a new location. A change of location shall be limited to another location in the same municipal corporation, to a location in a municipal corporation in counties surrounding and contiguous to or touching or cornering on the county in which the state bank is located. If a state bank has its principal place of business in an unincorporated area, the superintendent may authorize a change of location of its principal place of business to a new location within the same unincorporated area as well as to any location referred to in the preceding sentence.
3. A state bank approved under the provisions of section 524.305, subsection 6, shall not commence its business at any location other than within a municipal corporation or unincorporated area in which was located the principal place of business or an office of the bank the condition of which was the basis for the superintendent authorizing incorporation of the new state bank.

524.313 Bylaws.
The initial bylaws, if any, of a state bank shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend or repeal bylaws or adopt new bylaws shall be vested in the board of directors unless reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation. The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the state bank not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

DIVISION IV
CAPITAL STRUCTURE

524.401 Minimum capital.
1. The minimum capital of a state bank existing and operating on January 1, 1970, shall be:
a. The amount required by subsection 2 of this section; or
b. Such lesser amount as the state bank had on January 1, 1970, but not less than the minimum amount required by law prior to such date.
2. The minimum capital of a state bank originally incorporated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars or such higher amount which the superintendent may deem necessary in view of the deposit potential of the state bank and current banking standards relating to total capital requirements.

524.402 Surplus.
1. A state bank originally incorporated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall establish, prior to receiving an authorization to do business from the superintendent, a paid-in surplus as required by the superintendent, in an amount not less than fifty percent of its capital.

2. If the surplus of a state bank is at any time less than the amount of its capital, the state bank shall, until surplus is equal to such amount, transfer to surplus an amount which is at least ten percent of the net profits of the state bank for the period since the end of the last fiscal year or for any shorter period since the last declaration of a dividend:
   a. Prior to the declaration of any dividend, and
   b. In any event, at the end of each fiscal year.

[524.401. The superintendent shall estimate the amount of initial expenses to be incurred by the state bank in determining the amount of the fund required by subsection 2 of section 524.401. The superintendent shall estimate the amount of initial expenses to be incurred by the state bank in determining the amount of the fund required by this section.

[524.402. A state bank may, with the prior approval of the superintendent, increase its capital structure or effect an allocation of amounts within its capital structure, by the use of any of the following methods:
   a. Sale of authorized but unissued shares.
   b. Transfer of surplus or undivided profits to capital for authorized but unissued shares.
   c. Transfer of undivided profits to surplus.
   d. Authorization and issuance of common shares, preferred shares, or capital notes or debentures as provided in section 524.404.

2. Whenever it shall appear necessary to do so in the interest of the safety of the deposits of a state bank, the superintendent may require that the capital structure of the state bank be increased by either of the methods provided for in paragraphs "a" and "d" of subsection 1.

3. Neither capital nor surplus shall be decreased except with the approval of the superintendent.

524.403 Undivided profits.

A state bank originally incorporated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall establish, prior to receiving an authorization to do business from the superintendent, a fund to be denominated undivided profits in an amount to be determined by the superintendent, but in no event less than twenty percent of the capital required by subsection 2 of section 524.401. The superintendent shall estimate the amount of initial expenses to be incurred by the state bank in determining the amount of the fund required by this section.

1. A state bank may, with the prior approval of the superintendent and the affirmative vote of the holders of at least three-fourths of the shares entitled to vote thereon, issue capital notes or debentures. The amounts, maturities, rate of interest, relative rights with other creditors, and other terms and conditions shall be set forth on the face of the capital notes or debentures or in an attendant agreement, and all such terms and conditions shall be subject to the prior approval of the superintendent provided that all such capital notes and debentures shall be subordinated to the rights of other persons to the extent provided for in section 524.1312. The aggregate amount of all capital notes and debentures issued and outstanding pursuant to this section shall not exceed, at any one time, the capital and surplus of the state bank.

2. A state bank shall not make any payment of principal on any capital notes or debentures without the prior approval of the superintendent nor shall any payment of principal and interest be made on any such capital or debentures by a state bank when its capital is impaired or which would cause its capital to become impaired. Subject to the provisions of this section a state bank may issue capital notes or debentures with provision for installment or serial payment of capital notes or debentures according to an established schedule which shall be approved by the superintendent prior to issuance.

3. No state bank may issue capital notes or debentures within five years after it is originally authorized to do business.

[524.404] 524.405 Increase or decrease of capital structure.

1. A state bank may, with the approval of the superintendent, increase its capital structure or effect an allocation of amounts within its capital structure, by the use of any of the following methods:
   a. Sale of authorized but unissued shares.
   b. Transfer of surplus or undivided profits to capital for authorized but unissued shares.
   c. Transfer of undivided profits to surplus.
   d. Authorization and issuance of common shares, preferred shares, or capital notes or debentures as provided in section 524.404.

2. Whenever it shall appear necessary to do so in the interest of the safety of the deposits of a state bank, the superintendent may require that the capital structure of the state bank be increased by either of the methods provided for in paragraphs "a" and "d" of subsection 1.

3. Neither capital nor surplus shall be decreased except with the approval of the superintendent.

524.501 Authorized shares.

1. A state bank shall have the power to create and issue:
   a. Common shares with par value, and
   b. One or more classes of preferred shares, all of which shall be shares with par value and any and all of which may be voting or nonvoting and which may have such designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights as shall be stated in the articles of incorporation.

2. Without limiting the authority herein contained, a state bank, when so provided in its articles of incorporation, may issue preferred shares:
   a. Subject to the right of the state bank to redeem any of such shares at the price fixed by the articles of incorporation for the redemption thereof.
   b. Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, noncumulative or partially cumulative dividends.
   c. Having preference over common shares or any other classes of preferred shares as to the payment of dividends.
   d. Having preference in the assets of the state bank over common shares or any other class of preferred shares upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution of the state bank.
   e. Convertible into shares of common or into shares of preferred of another class except a class having prior or superior rights and preferences as to dividends or distribution of assets upon dissolution.

Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws otherwise provide, the board of directors may, by resolution duly adopted and with the approval of the superintendent as provided in section 524.405, issue from time to time, in whole or in part, the shares authorized by the articles of incorporation.

524.502 Certificates representing shares.

The shares of a state bank shall be represented by certificates signed by such officers, employees or agents as are authorized by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to sign. If no contrary provisions are made in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, such certificates shall be signed by the president or a vice president and the cashier or an assistant cashier of the state bank, and may be sealed with the seal of the state bank or a facsimile thereof. The signatures of the president or vice president and the cashier or an assistant cashier or other persons signing for the state bank upon a certificate may be facsimiles if the certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent, or registered by a registrar, other than the state bank itself or an employee of the state bank. In case any officer or other authorized person who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon such certificate for the state bank shall have ceased to be such officer or employee or agent before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the state bank with the same effect as if the person were such officer or employee or agent at the date of its issue. If a state bank is authorized to issue preferred shares, every certificate issued by the state bank shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state that the state bank will furnish to any shareholder upon request and without charge, a full statement of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of such preferred shares.

Each certificate representing shares shall state upon the face thereof:
1. That the state bank is organized under the laws of this state.
2. The name of the person to whom issued.
3. The number and class of shares which such certificate represents.
4. The par value of each share represented by such certificate.

No certificate shall be issued for any share until such share is fully paid.

524.503 Consideration for shares.

1. Except in the case of a distribution of shares authorized by section 524.517 or shares issued upon exchanges or conversion, common shares of a state bank may be issued only for cash in an amount which shall be at least:
   a. In the case of the issuance of additional common shares of an existing state bank, equal to the sum of the capital represented by the common shares and the surplus of the state bank divided by the number of common shares previously issued.
   b. In the case of the issuance of common shares of a proposed state bank, the amount required to equal the sum of the capital, to be represented by the common shares, the surplus and the undivided profits, required by the superintendent as a condition precedent to the issuance of an authorization to do business, divided by the number of shares to be issued.

2. Preferred shares of a state bank may be issued only for cash and for an amount not less than that determined by the superintendent.

524.504 Subscriptions for shares.

A subscription for shares of a state bank to be incorporated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be irrevocable for a period of six months, or for such longer period as is provided for by the terms of the subscription agreement, unless all of the subscribers consent to the revocation of such subscription.

Unless otherwise provided in the subscription agreement, subscriptions for shares, whether made before or after incorporation of a state bank, shall be paid in full at such time as shall be determined by the board of directors.

The call for payment by the board of directors on subscriptions shall be uniform as to all shares of the same class.

524.505 Liability of shareholders and subscribers.

1. A holder of shares of a state bank shall be under no obligation to the state bank or its creditors with respect to such shares. A subscriber to shares of a state bank shall be under no obligation to the state bank or its creditors with respect to such shares other than the obligation to pay the full consideration for such shares prior to their issuance.

2. An executor, administrator, conservator, guardian, trustee, assignee for the benefit of creditors or receiver shall not be personally liable to the state bank as a holder of or subscriber to shares of a state bank but the estate and funds in the hands of the executor, administrator, conservator, guardian, trustee, assignee, or receiver shall be so liable.

3. No pledgee or other holder of shares as collateral security shall be personally liable as a shareholder.

524.506 Shareholders pre-emptive rights.

The pre-emptive right of a shareholder of common shares to acquire unissued common shares of a state bank or preferred shares and capital notes or debentures of a state bank which are convertible into common shares, shall not be limited or denied, except as provided in section 524.520. The pre-emptive right of holders of preferred shares to acquire unissued shares of a state bank may be limited or denied to the extent provided in the articles of incorporation or any amendment thereto. Any shares of a state bank purchased and acquired by such state bank, and held by it during the period permitted by this chapter, shall not be entitled to pre-emptive rights.

524.507 Owning or loaning on its own shares.

No state bank shall make any loan or extension of credit on the security of the shares of its own capital, or, except as provided in sections 524.1406 and 524.1417, be the purchaser or holder of any such shares, unless such security or purchase shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith, and shares so purchased or acquired shall be sold at public or private sale within one year from the time of their purchase or acquisition, unless the time is extended by the superintendent. Any common shares of a state bank purchased or acquired by the state bank pursuant to this chapter, and sold as directed by this chapter, shall be subject to the minimum consideration requirements of subsection 1 of section 524.503 unless a lesser consideration is approved by the superintendent. Any preferred shares of a state bank purchased or acquired by the state bank pursuant to this chapter, and sold as directed by this chapter, shall be subject to the consideration requirements of subsection 2 of section 524.503.

524.508 Meetings of shareholders.

Meetings of shareholders may be held at a place, within this state, as provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, or as fixed in accordance with their provisions. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held at the principal place of business of the state bank. An annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held during the specific month as shall be provided in the articles of incorporation, at the date and time as stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. Failure to hold the annual meeting during the month shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the state bank. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the president, the board of directors, the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meeting, or other officers or persons as provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

524.509 Notice of shareholder meetings — waiver of notice generally.

1. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of a meeting of the shareholders and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten nor more than fifty days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president, the cashier, or the officer or persons calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at the shareholder's address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the state bank with postage thereon prepaid.

2. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any shareholder under the provisions of this chapter or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the state bank, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.

524.510 Closing of transfer books and fixing record date.

The board of directors of a state bank shall cause adequate stock transfer books to be maintained. For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the board of directors of a state bank may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, fifty days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least ten days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the bylaws, or in the absence of an applicable bylaw, the board of directors may fix, in advance, a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than fifty days and, in case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than ten days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders, is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such meetings shall be held for at least ten days immediately preceding such meeting.

524.511 Voting list.

The officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books for shares of a state bank shall make, at least ten days before each meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each, which list, for a period of ten days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the principal place of business of the state bank and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Such list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. The original stock transfer books shall be prima-facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or transfer books or to vote at any meeting of shareholders. Failure to comply with the requirements of this section shall not affect the validity of action taken at such meeting.

524.512 Quorum of shareholders.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders. If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the shareholders, unless the vote of a greater number or voting by classes is required by the laws of this state or of the United States or by the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

524.513 Voting of shares.

Each outstanding share shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except to the extent that the voting rights of the shares of any preferred class, may be limited or denied by the articles of incorporation.

Shares of a state bank purchased or acquired by such state bank pursuant to this chapter shall not be voted at any meeting and shall be excluded in determining whether matters voted upon by the shareholders were adopted by the requisite number of shares.

A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by the shareholder's duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution.

At each election for directors every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by the shareholder for as many individuals as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the shareholder has a right to vote.

Shares standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may prescribe, or, in the absence of such provision, as the board of directors of such corporation may determine.

Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian or conservator may be voted by such person, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into the person's name. Except as provided in the following sentence, shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by the trustee, either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by the trustee without a transfer of such shares into the trustee's name.

In an election of directors, a state bank may not vote its own shares held by it as sole trustee unless under the terms of the trust the manner in which such shares shall be voted may be determined by a donor or beneficiary of the trust and unless such donor or beneficiary actually directs how such shares shall be voted, provided, however, that shares held in trust by a state bank pursuant to an instrument in effect prior to January 1, 1970, under the terms of which the manner in which such shares shall be voted could not be determined by a donor or beneficiary of the trust, may be voted in an election of directors of a state bank upon petition filed by the state bank, to a court of competent jurisdiction, and the appointment by such court of an individual to determine the manner in which such shares shall be voted. When the shares of a state bank are held by such state bank and one or more persons as trustees, such shares may be voted by such other person or persons as trustees, in the same manner as if the person or persons were the sole trustee. Whenever shares cannot be voted by reason of being held by a state bank as sole trustee, such shares shall be excluded in determining whether matters voted upon by the shareholders were adopted by the requisite number of shares.*

Unless otherwise provided by the governing instrument, shares which are held jointly by any number of fiduciaries shall be voted in the manner determined by the majority of such fiduciaries (excluding a trustee ineligible by reason of the preceding paragraph) or if the fiduciaries are equally divided on the manner of voting, any court of competent jurisdiction may, upon petition filed by any such fiduciaries or any beneficiary, appoint an additional person to act with such fiduciaries in determining the manner in which such shares shall be voted.

Unless otherwise provided by agreement, if persons holding shares jointly or as tenants in common are unable to agree upon the manner in which such shares shall be voted, the vote of such shares shall be divided among such persons in proportion to their interest.

Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into the receiver's name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

On and after the date on which written notice of redemption of preferred shares has been mailed to the holders thereof and a sum sufficient to redeem such shares has been deposited in escrow with irrevocable instruction and authority to pay the redemption price to the holders thereof upon surrender of certificates therefor, such shares shall not be entitled to vote on any matter and shall not be deemed to be outstanding shares.

524.514 Voting trust.

Any number of shareholders of a state bank may create a voting trust for the purpose of conferring upon a trustee or trustees the right to vote or otherwise represent their shares, for a period of not to exceed twenty years, by entering into a written voting trust agreement specifying the terms and conditions of the voting trust, by depositing a counterpart of the agreement with the state bank at its principal place of business, by delivery of a copy thereof to the superintendent and by transferring their shares to such trustee or trustees for the purposes of the agreement. The counterpart of the voting trust agreement so deposited with the state bank shall be subject to examination for any proper purpose during usual business hours by a shareholder of the state bank, in person or by agent or attorney, or by any holder of a beneficial interest in the voting trust, in person or by agent or attorney.

This section shall not affect the validity of any agreement, relative to the voting of shares, in effect on January 1, 1970.

524.515 Lists — filing with superintendent.

Every state bank shall cause to be kept a full and correct list of the names and addresses of the officers, directors, and shareholders of the state bank, and the number of shares held by each. The list shall be subject to public inspection during usual business hours. If an affiliate, as defined in subsection 4 of section 524.1101 is a shareholder in a state bank, such list shall include the names, addresses, and percentage of ownership or interest in the affiliate of the shareholders, members or other individuals possessing a beneficial interest in said affiliate.

A copy of the list as of the date of the adjournment of each annual meeting of shareholders, in the form of an affidavit signed by the president or cashier of the state bank, shall be transmitted to the superintendent within ten days after such annual meeting.

524.516 Dividends.

1. The board of directors of a state bank may, from time to time, declare, and the state bank may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares subject to the restrictions of this chapter and to the restrictions, if any, in its articles of incorporation. Dividends may be declared and paid only out of undivided profits and may be paid in cash or property.

2. A dividend may not be declared or paid unless the transfer of net profits to surplus required by section 524.402 has been made prior to the declaration of the dividend.

524.517 Distribution of shares of state bank.

1. The board of directors of a state bank may, subject to the provisions of section 524.405, distribute pro rata to holders of common shares authorized but unissued common shares of the state bank.

2. No distribution may be made in authorized but unissued shares of the state bank unless:

a. There shall be transferred to capital an amount equal to the total par value of the shares distributed, and

b. Immediately after the distribution, the surplus of the state bank would be at least equal to fifty percent of its capital.

524.518 Redemption of preferred shares.

1. By resolution of its board of directors and with the prior approval of the superintendent, a state bank may redeem preferred shares. Any preferred shares which are redeemable according to the terms of their issuance shall be redeemed only in accordance with such terms. Preferred shares which are redeemed shall be canceled and shall not be reissued. Preferred shares which are not redeemable according to the terms of their issuance shall be redeemable only pro rata or by lot or by such other equitable method as may be selected by the board of directors.

2. When preferred shares are redeemed by a state bank, the redemption shall effect a cancellation of such shares, and a statement of cancellation shall be filed as provided in this section. The filing of the statement of cancellation shall constitute an amendment to the articles of incorporation and shall reduce the number of preferred shares of the class so canceled which the state bank is authorized to issue by the number so canceled.

The statement of cancellation shall be executed by the state bank by its president or a vice president and by its cashier or an assistant cashier, and acknowledged by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

a. The name of the state bank and the effective date of its incorporation.

b. The number of preferred shares canceled through redemption, itemized by classes.

c. The aggregate number of issued shares canceled after giving effect to such cancellation.

d. The amount, expressed in dollars, of the stated §524.519 Change of control — certificate of approval — shares as security — reports.

1. Whenever any person proposes to purchase or otherwise acquire directly or indirectly any of the outstanding shares of a state bank, and the proposed purchase or acquisition would result in control or in a change in control of the bank, the person proposing to purchase or acquire the shares shall first apply in writing to the superintendent for a certificate of approval for the proposed change of control. The superintendent shall grant the certificate if the superintendent is satisfied that the person who proposes to obtain control of the bank is qualified by character, experience and financial responsibility to control and operate the bank in a sound and legal manner, and that the interests of the depositors, creditors and shareholders of the bank, and of the public generally, will not be jeopardized by the proposed change of control. If the proposed purchaser or acquirer is a bank holding company as defined by section 524.1801, it shall comply with section 524.1804 in lieu of seeking a certificate of approval under this subsection. In any situation where the president or cashier of a bank has reason to believe any of the foregoing requirements have not been complied with, it shall be the duty of the president or cashier to promptly report in writing such facts to the superintendent upon obtaining knowledge thereof. As used in this section, the term control means the power, directly or indirectly, to elect the board of directors. If there is any doubt as to whether a change in the ownership of the outstanding shares is sufficient to result in control thereof, or to effect a change in the control thereof, such doubt shall be resolved in favor of reporting the facts to the superintendent.

2. Whenever twenty-five percent or more of the outstanding voting shares of a state bank is used as security for any transaction, the person or persons owning such shares shall promptly report such transaction to the superintendent in writing.

3. The reports required by subsections 1 and 2 of this section shall contain information (to the extent known by the person making the report) relative to the number of shares involved, the names of the sellers and purchasers (or transferees and transferors), the purchase price, the name of the borrower, the amount, source, and terms of the loan, or other transaction, the name of the bank issuing the shares used as security, and the number of shares used as security.

4. The superintendent may require, at such times as the superintendent deems appropriate, the submission of a financial statement from a shareholder or shareholders of a state bank possessing, directly or indirectly, control of such state bank.

§524.520 Options for shares.

A state bank may authorize the granting of options to officers and employees to purchase unissued, common shares of the state bank in accordance with a plan approved by the superintendent provided the following steps are taken:

1. The plan is submitted to a vote of the shareholders at an annual meeting or special meeting called for the purpose, the notice of the meeting contains a complete description of the plan, and the plan receives the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote thereon.

2. The consideration per share shall be determined as of the date the options are granted and shall not be less than the sum of the capital represented by common shares and the surplus of the state bank divided by the number of common shares issued and outstanding on such date, but in no case less than an amount approved by the superintendent.

3. Options to purchase shares shall have a termination date and shall not be transferable by the holder of the option during the holder’s lifetime. In the event that the option is to survive the death of the holder of the option, the option shall terminate one year after the date of the holder’s death but may be exercised by the holder’s estate during that one-year period.

4. Notice of the meeting shall describe the extent to which pre-emptive rights of shareholders are inapplicable to the issuance of shares under this section.

Upon approval by the shareholders the cashier shall reserve authorized but unissued shares for purposes of this section until the options are exercised or expire.

Upon approval by the shareholders as provided in subsection 1 of this section, the provisions of section 524.506 inconsistent with this section shall be inapplicable.

shall be citizens of this state and all of whom shall be citizens of the United States.

2. The number of directors may be increased, or decreased to a number not less than five, by the shareholders at the annual meeting, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of an incumbent director.

524.602 Board of directors — election.

At the first annual meeting of shareholders and at each annual meeting thereafter the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting. Directors shall hold office for one year and until their successors have been elected and qualified, unless removed in accordance with provisions of section 524.606. When the shareholders increase the number of directors at an annual meeting or at a special meeting, they shall, at the same meeting or at a subsequent meeting, elect a director to fill each new directorship created.

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or by action of the shareholders, any vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of the majority of the directors then in office, even if less than a quorum of the board of directors. A director so elected shall be elected for the unexpired term of the director’s predecessor in office.

524.604 Duties and responsibilities.

The duties and responsibilities of a director or of the board of directors shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Reasonably regular attendance at meetings of the board.
2. Employment of officer personnel, and determination of their compensation.
3. Periodic review of the original records of the state bank, or comprehensive summaries thereof prepared by the officers of the state bank, pertaining to loans, discounts, security interests and investments in bonds and securities.
4. Utilization of a method to insure the safety of the funds of depositors as provided for in section 524.608.
5. Periodic review of the utilization of security measures for the protection of the state bank and the maintenance of reasonable insurance coverage.

Directors of a state bank shall discharge the duties of their position in good faith and with that diligence, care and skill which ordinarily prudent persons would exercise under similar circumstances in like positions. The directors shall have a continuing responsibility to assure themselves that the bank is being managed according to law and that the practices and policies adopted by the board are being implemented.

524.605 Liability of directors in certain cases.

In addition to any other liabilities imposed by law upon directors of a state bank:

1. Directors of a state bank who vote for or assent to the declaration of any dividend or other distribution of the assets of a state bank to its shareholders in willful or negligent violation of the provisions of this chapter or of any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, shall be jointly and severally liable to the state bank for the amount of such dividend which is paid or the value of such assets which are distributed in excess of the amount of such dividend or distribution which could have been paid or distributed without a violation of the provisions of this chapter or of the restrictions in the articles of incorporation.

2. The directors of a state bank who vote for or assent to any distribution of assets of a state bank to its shareholders during the dissolution of the state bank without the payment and discharge of, or making adequate provision for, all known debts, obligations, and liabilities of the state bank shall be jointly and severally liable to the state bank for the value of such assets which are distributed, to the extent that such debts, obligations and liabilities of the state bank are not thereafter paid and discharged.

3. The directors of a state bank who, willfully or negligently, vote for or assent to any loan or extension of credit resulting in an obligation, as defined in subsection 1 of section 524.904, to such state bank in violation of the provisions of this chapter, shall be jointly and severally liable to the state bank for the amount of any loss sustained as a result of such obligation.

4. The directors of a state bank who, willfully or negligently, vote for or assent to any investment of funds of the state bank in violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be jointly and severally liable to the state bank for the amount of any loss sustained on such investment.

A director of a state bank who is present at a meeting of its board of directors at which action on any matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless the director's dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the director shall file the director's written dissent to such action with the individual acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered or certified mail to the cashier of the state bank promptly after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

A director shall not be liable under subsection 1, 2, 3, or 4 of this section if the director relied and acted in good faith upon information represented to the director to be correct by an officer or officers of such state bank or stated in a written report by a certified public accountant or firm of such accountants. No director shall be deemed to be negligent within the meaning of this section if the director in good faith exercised that diligence, care and skill which an ordinarily prudent person would exercise as a director under similar circumstances.

Any director against whom a claim shall be asserted under or pursuant to this section for the payment of a dividend or other distribution of assets of a state bank and who shall be held liable thereon, shall be entitled to contribution from the shareholders who accepted or received any such dividend or assets, knowing such dividend or distribution to have been made in violation of the provisions of this chapter, in proportion to the amounts received by them respectively. Further, any director against whom a claim shall be asserted pursuant to this section for the payment of any liability imposed by this section shall be entitled to contribution from any director found to be similarly liable.

Whenever the superintendent deems it necessary the superintendent may require, after affording an opportunity for a hearing upon adequate notice, that a director or directors whom the superintendent reasonably believes to be liable to a state bank pursuant to subsection 1, 2, 3, or 4 of this section, to place in an escrow account in an insured bank located in this state, as directed by the superintendent, an amount sufficient to discharge any liability which may accrue pursuant to subsection 1, 2, 3, or 4 of this section. The amount so deposited shall be paid over to the state bank by the superintendent upon final determination of the amount of such liability. Any portion of the escrow account which is not necessary to meet such liability shall be repaid on a pro rata basis to the directors who contributed to the fund.

Any action seeking to impose liability under this section, other than liability for contribution, shall be commenced only within five years of the action complained of and not thereafter. (C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §524.605)

1. At a meeting of shareholders expressly called for that purpose, individual directors or the entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote at an election of directors. The vacancies created may be filled at the same meeting at which the removal proceedings take place.

2. When, in the opinion of the superintendent any director of a state bank shall have continued to violate any law relating to such state bank or shall have continued unsafe or unsound practices in conducting the business of such state bank, after having been warned by the superintendent to discontinue or correct such violations of law or such unsafe or unsound practices, the superintendent may cause notice to be served upon such director, to appear before the superintendent to show cause why the director should not be removed from office. A copy of such notice shall be served to each director of the state bank affected, by registered or certified mail. If, after granting the accused director a reasonable opportunity to be heard, the superintendent finds that the director continued to violate any law relating to such state bank or continued unsafe or unsound practices in conducting the business of such state bank after having been warned by the superintendent to discontinue or correct such violations of law or such unsafe or unsound practices, the superintendent, in the superintendent’s discretion, may order that such director be removed from office. A copy of the order shall be served upon such director and upon the state bank of which the person is a director at which time the person shall cease to be a director of the state bank.

The decision of the superintendent shall be subject to judicial review in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. No action taken by a director prior to the director’s removal shall be subject to attack on the ground of the director’s disqualification. (C31, 35, §9224-c2; C39, §9224.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, §528.18; C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §524.606)

The board of directors shall hold at least one meeting each calendar month. A special meeting may be called by the president, a vice president, cashier or a director. Notice of a meeting shall be given to each director, either personally or by mail, at least two days in advance of the meeting. Notice shall not be required if the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provide for a regular monthly meeting date.

Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any director of a state bank under the provisions of this chapter or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the state bank, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the individual or individuals entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.

A majority of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the laws of this state or of the United States, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

524.608 Examining by directors or auditing.
In addition to any examination made by the superintendent or other supervisory agencies, the board of directors shall employ at least one of the methods described in this section.

1. An examining committee of not less than two members of the board of directors, who are not officers, shall examine the condition of the state bank at least once each six months, and submit a written report of each examination to the board of directors, who shall record the report in their minutes and deliver a copy of the report to the superintendent. The superintendent shall establish minimum standards for such examinations.

2. The board of directors may employ a certified public accountant or a firm of such accountants to perform certain auditing functions for a state bank during each year, according to generally accepted methods of accounting practice. The superintendent may establish minimum standards for such auditing functions. The report of the accountants shall be submitted to the board of directors, and a copy of the report shall be delivered to the superintendent.

3. The board of directors may establish an autonomous internal audit control system which shall be subject to approval of the superintendent. The individual directing the internal audit control system shall submit to the board of directors each quarter an interim report as to the degree of compliance with the internal audit control system and shall express an opinion as to the adequacy of the internal controls. A complete report shall be submitted annually to the board of directors, who shall record the report in their minutes and deliver a copy of the report to the superintendent.

524.609 Executive and other committees.
If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the full board of directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees each of which, to the extent provided in such resolution or in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of the state bank shall have and may exercise all the authority of the board of directors, but no such committee shall have the authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, adopting a plan of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all the property and assets of the state bank, recommending to the shareholders a voluntary dissolution of the state bank or a revocation thereof, or amending the bylaws of the state bank. The designation of any such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law.

524.610 Compensation of directors.
The shareholders of a state bank shall fix the compensation of directors for their services as members of the board of directors.

A director who is also a salaried officer or employee of the state bank of which the person is a director shall receive no additional compensation as director. Directors may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

524.611 Oath of directors.
Each director of a state bank, before acting as a director, shall take an oath that the director will diligently, faithfully and impartially perform the duties imposed upon the director by law, that the director will not knowingly violate or willingly permit a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, and that the director meets the eligibility requirements of this chapter.

The oath shall be signed by the director, acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds, and delivered to the superintendent.

524.612 Director dealing with state bank.
1. The total obligations, as defined in subsection 1 of section 524.904, of a director to a state bank of which the person is a director shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank except that the total obligations of a director to a state bank of which the person is a director shall not exceed forty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank if the amount by which such obligations exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank shall consist of obligations described in paragraph "a" of subsection 2 of section 524.904. A majority of the board of directors, voting in the absence of the applying director, shall give its prior approval to any obligation, as defined in subsection 1 of section 524.904, of a director to the state bank of which the person is a director. The form of such approval shall be specified by the superintendent, and a copy recorded in the minutes of the board of directors.

2. A director shall not be permitted to receive any loan or extension of credit or use any property of a state bank of which the person is a director at a lower rate of interest or charge than the rate charged to other customers under similar circumstances.

3. A director shall not be paid a higher rate of interest on deposits by a state bank of which the person is a director than the rate paid to any other customer under similar circumstances.

4. A director shall not purchase or lease any assets from or sell or lease any assets to a state bank of which the person is a director except upon terms not less favorable to the state bank than those offered to or by other persons. All purchases or leases from and sales or leases to a director shall receive the prior approval of a majority of the board of directors voting in the absence of the interested director.

5. For the purpose of this section, and section 524.706, any obligation, as defined in section 524.904, subsection 1, of the spouse, other than a spouse who is separated from the director or officer under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, or minor children of a director or officer to the state bank in which the person is a director or officer shall be considered an obligation of such director or officer.

524.613 Prohibitions applicable to directors.

No director of a state bank shall:

1. Receive anything of value for procuring, or attempting to procure, any loan or extension of credit resulting, or which would result, in an obligation, as defined in subsection 1 of section 524.904, to the state bank or for procuring, or attempting to procure, an investment by the state bank, of which the person is a director.

2. Overdraw the director’s deposit account in the state bank.

524.614 Honorary and advisory directors.

The board of directors of a state bank may appoint an individual as an honorary director, director emeritus or member of an advisory board. An individual so appointed may not vote at any meeting of the board of directors nor be counted in determining a quorum and shall not be charged with any responsibilities or be subject to any liabilities imposed upon directors by this chapter.

DIVISION VII

524.701 Officers and employees.

A state bank shall have, as officers, a president, one vice president and a cashier. As additional officers the state bank may have a chairperson, additional vice presidents, assistant vice presidents, assistant cashiers and other officers as may be prescribed by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Upon notice by the superintendent, an individual who performs active executive or official duties for a state bank may be treated as an officer for the purpose of this chapter. A state bank may have a chairperson of the board of directors and one vice president who, if they do not perform executive or official duties or receive a salary, need not be treated as officers for the purpose of this chapter. All officers shall be elected by the board of directors. No more than two offices may be held by the same individual. All other individuals employed by a state bank, except directors who are not officers, shall be employees for the purpose of this chapter. The president of a state bank shall be a member of the board of directors.

524.702 Officers — duties and liability.

1. All officers of a state bank shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the state bank as may be provided for in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, or as may be determined by a resolution of the board of directors not inconsistent with the bylaws or the articles of incorporation.

2. If an officer willfully or negligently submits any incorrect information to a director or directors, and action by the board of directors contrary to the provisions of this chapter, or of any restrictions in the articles of incorporation, is taken in reliance thereon, the officer shall be liable to the same extent as if the officer were a director voting for or assenting to such action, as provided in section 524.605. An officer shall also be liable to the extent of any loss sustained by the state bank as a result of the officer’s willful or negligent violation of any provision of this chapter. The superintendent may require an officer or officers whom the superintendent reasonably believes to be liable to a state bank pursuant to this section, to place in an escrow account an amount sufficient to discharge such liability in the manner provided for in section 524.605. No officer shall be deemed to be negligent within the meaning of this section if the officer exercised that diligence, care and skill which an ordinarily prudent person would exercise as an officer under similar circumstances.

524.703 Officers — employment and compensation.

The board of directors may fix the tenure and provide for the reasonable compensation of officers. Upon approval by the board of directors, officers may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred by them in behalf of the state bank.

Subject to the approval of the superintendent, and approval by the shareholders at an annual or special meeting called for the purpose, the board of directors of a state bank may adopt a pension or profit-sharing plan, or both, or other plan of deferred compensation, for both officers and employees, to which the state bank may contribute.

524.704 Employee — employment and compensation.

Employees of a state bank may be employed by the president or the president's representative who shall determine, subject to the approval of the board of directors, their compensation and tenure. Employees may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred by them in behalf of the state bank, upon approval of a designated officer.

524.705 Bonds of officers and employees.

The officers and employees of a state bank having the care, custody, or control of any funds or securities for any state bank shall give a good and sufficient bond in a company authorized to do business in this state indemnifying the state bank against losses, which may be incurred by reason of any act or acts of fraud, dishonesty, forgery, theft, larceny, embezzlement, wrongful abstraction, misapplication, misappropriation, or other unlawful act committed by such officer or employee directly or through connivance with others, until all of the officer's or employee's accounts with the state bank shall have been fully settled and satisfied. The amounts and sureties shall be subject to the approval of the board of directors. If the agent of a bonding company issuing a bond under this section is an officer or employee of the state bank upon which the bond was issued, the bond so issued shall contain a provision that the bonding company shall not use, either as a ground for rescission or as a defense to liability under the terms and conditions of the bond, the knowledge that the agent was so employed, whether or not the agent received any part of the premium for such bond as a commission.

524.706 Officer dealing with state bank.

1. An executive officer of a state bank may receive loans or extensions of credit from a state bank of which the person is an executive officer, resulting in obligations as defined in section 524.904, subsection 1, not exceeding, in the aggregate:

1) An amount secured by a lien on a dwelling which is expected, after the obligation is incurred, to be owned by the executive officer and used as the officer's residence, provided that after the loan is made there is no other loan by the bank to the executive officer, under authority of this subparagraph, outstanding;

2) An amount to finance the education of a child or children of the executive officer.

3) Any other loans or extensions of credit which in the aggregate do not at any one time exceed the higher of twenty-five thousand or two point five percent of the bank's capital and surplus, but in no event more than one hundred thousand dollars.

4) Other amounts which do not, in the aggregate, exceed the principal amounts of time certificates of deposit in the bank which are held in the name of the executive officer, if repayment of the loan or credit amounts is at all times secured by pledge of the certificates. An interest in or portion of a time certificate of deposit does not satisfy the requirements of this subparagraph if that interest or portion is also pledged to secure the payment of a debt or obligation of any person other than the executive officer.

b. A state bank shall not loan money or extend credit to an executive officer of such state bank, nor shall an executive officer of a state bank receive a loan or extension of credit from such state bank, exceeding the limitations imposed by this section or for a purpose other than that authorized by this section. Such loans or extensions of credit shall not exceed an amount totaling more than twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank and any such loan on real property shall comply with section 524.905. A majority of the board of directors, voting in the absence of the applying officer, whether or not the officer is also a director, shall give its prior approval to any obligation of an executive officer to the state bank of which the person is an executive officer. The form of approval shall be specified by the superintendent, and a copy recorded in the minutes of the board of directors.

c. For the purposes of this subsection "executive officer" means an officer of a state bank who participates or has authority to participate, otherwise than in the capacity of a director, in major policymaking functions of the bank, regardless of whether the officer has an official title or whether the officer's title contains a designation of assistant and regardless of whether the officer is serving without salary or other compensation. The chairperson of the board, the president, the vice president, the cashier, secretary, and treasurer of a state bank are assumed to be executive officers, unless, by resolution of the board of directors or by the bank's bylaws, but subject to contrary notice by the superintendent as provided for in section 524.701, any such officer is excluded from participation in major policymaking functions, otherwise than in the capacity of a director of the bank, and the officer does not actually participate.

2. The provisions of section 524.612, subsections 2, 3 and 4, shall apply to officers.

3. If an individual is a director and an officer, the individual shall be subject to the limitations of subsection 1 of this section.

4. Whenever an officer of a state bank borrows from or otherwise becomes obligated to any person or persons other than the state bank of which the person is an officer, in a total amount equal to or exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars excluding such amounts as may be owing by the officer secured by a first lien on a dwelling which is used by the officer as the officer’s residence, the officer shall report in writing to the superintendent that the officer is so obligated. Upon the request of the superintendent, an officer of a state bank shall submit to the superintendent, a personal financial statement which shall show the names of all persons to whom the officer is obligated, the dates, terms, and amounts of each loan or other obligation, the security therefor, and the purpose for which the proceeds of such loans or other obligations have been or are to be used.

524.707 Removal of officers.
1. Any officer may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the state bank shall be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the officer so removed. Elevation of an officer shall not of itself create contract rights.
2. Subsection 2 of section 524.606 providing for the removal of directors by the superintendent, shall have equal application to officers.

524.708 Report of change in officer personnel.
A state bank shall promptly notify the superintendent of any change in the names of individuals holding the offices of chairperson, president, vice president, and cashier.

524.709 Duty to make records available to superintendent.
The officers and employees of a state bank shall make all records of the state bank available to the superintendent for the purpose of examination or for any other reasonable purpose.

524.710 Prohibitions applicable to officers and employees.
No officer or employee of a state bank shall:
1. Receive anything of value for procuring, or attempting to procure, any loan or extension of credit resulting, or which would result, in an obligation, as defined in subsection 1 of section 524.904, to the state bank or for procuring, or attempting to procure, an investment by the state bank, of which the person is an officer or employee.
2. Overdraw the officer’s or employee’s deposit account in the state bank.
3. Engage, directly or indirectly, in the sale of any kind of insurance, shares of stock, bonds or other securities, or real property, or procure or attempt to procure for a fee or other compensation, a loan or extension of credit for any person from a person other than the state bank of which the person is an officer or employee, or act in any fiduciary capacity, unless authorized to do so by the board of directors of the state bank which shall also determine the manner in which the profits, fees, or other compensation derived therefrom shall be distributed.

524.801 General powers.
A state bank, unless otherwise stated in its articles of incorporation, shall have power:
1. To have perpetual succession by its corporate name.
2. To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.
3. To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed or affixed in any other manner reproduced.
4. To purchase, take, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve and use real or personal property, or an interest therein, in connection with the exercise of any power granted in this chapter.
5. To sell, convey, pledge, mortgage, grant a security interest, lease, exchange, transfer, and release from trust or mortgage or otherwise dispose of all or any part of real or personal property, or an interest therein, in connection with the exercise of any power granted in this chapter.
6. To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the state bank.
7. To make donations for the public welfare for religious, charitable, scientific or educational or community development purposes.
8. To indemnify any director, officer or employee, a former director, officer or employee of the state bank in the manner and in the instances authorized by section 496A.4A.
9. To elect officers or appoint agents of the state bank and define their duties and fix their compensation.
10. To cease its existence as a state bank in the manner provided for in this chapter.
11. To have and exercise all powers necessary and proper to effect any or all of the purposes for which the state bank is organized.
12. To contract indebtedness and incur liabilities to effect any or all of the purposes for which the state bank is organized, subject to the provisions of this chapter.

The powers granted in this section shall not be construed as limiting or enlarging any grant of authority made elsewhere in this chapter, or as a limitation on the purposes for which a state bank may be incorporated.

524.802 Additional powers related to conduct of business of a state bank.

A state bank shall have in addition to other powers granted by this chapter, and subject to the limitations and restrictions contained in this chapter:

1. The power to become a member of a clearing house association.
2. The power to become a member of the federal reserve system, to hold shares of stock in a federal reserve bank, to take all actions incident to maintenance of such membership and to exercise all powers not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter conferred on member banks by the federal reserve system.
3. The power to become an insured bank pursuant to the federal deposit insurance Act and to take all actions incident to maintenance of an insured status thereunder.
4. The power to act as agent of the United States or of any instrumentality or agency thereof for the sale or issue of bonds, notes or other obligations of the United States.
5. The power to buy and sell coin, currency and bullion.
6. All other powers incidental to the conduct of the business of banking.

524.803 Business property of state bank.

1. A state bank shall have power to:
   a. Acquire and hold, or lease as lessee, such personal property as is used, or is to be used, in its operations.
   b. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold, or lease as lessee, only such real property as is used, or is to be used, wholly or substantially, in its operations or acquired for future use.
   c. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold shares in a corporation engaged solely in holding or operating real property used wholly or substantially by a state bank in its operations or acquired for its future use and in a corporation organized solely for the purpose of providing data processing services, as such services are defined in the first sentence of section 524.804.
   d. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, invest in a bank service corporation as defined by, and in accordance with, the laws of the United States.
   e. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold shares in a corporation engaged in providing and operating facilities through which banks and customers may engage, by means of either the direct transmission of electronic impulses to and from a bank or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to a bank, in transactions in which such banks are otherwise permitted to engage pursuant to applicable law.
   f. Organize, acquire, or invest in a subsidiary for the purpose of engaging in any one or more of the following, subject to the prior approval of the superintendent:

   (1) Nondepository activities that a state bank is authorized to engage in directly under this chapter.
   (2) Any activity that a bank service corporation is authorized to engage in under state or federal law or regulation.
   (3) Any activity authorized pursuant to section 524.825.

2. The book value of all real and personal property acquired and held pursuant to this section, of all alterations to buildings on real property owned or leased by a state bank, of all shares in corporations acquired pursuant to paragraphs “c” and “d” of subsection 1 of this section, and of any and all obligations of such corporations to the state bank, shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the capital, surplus and undivided profits of the state bank or such larger amount as may be approved by the superintendent.

3. Any real property which is held by a state bank pursuant to this section and which it ceases to use for banking purposes, or is acquired for future use but not used within a reasonable period of time, shall be sold or disposed of by the state bank as directed by the superintendent.

524.804 Data processing services.

A state bank which owns or leases equipment to perform such bank services as check and deposit sorting and posting, computation and posting of interest and other credits and charges, preparation and mailing of checks, statements, notices and similar items, or other clerical, bookkeeping, accounting, statistical, or other similar functions, may provide similarly related data processing services for others whether or not engaged in the business of banking. If a state bank holds shares in a corporation organized solely for the purpose of providing data processing services, pursuant to the authority granted by paragraph “c” of subsection 1 of section 524.803, other than a bank service corporation as defined by the laws of the United States, such corporation shall be authorized to perform services for the state bank owning such interest and for others, whether or not engaged in the business of banking.

524.805 Deposits.

1. A state bank may receive money for deposit and may provide, by resolution of the board of directors, for the payment of interest thereon in an amount not inconsistent with the provisions of subsection 2 of this section and shall repay such deposit in accordance with the terms and conditions of its acceptance.

2. However, interest paid on a demand account shall not exceed the maximum interest rate which Iowa state banks insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation are permitted by federal law to pay on insured passbook savings accounts.

3. The terms and conditions attending an agreement to pay interest on deposits shall be furnished to each customer at the time of the acceptance by the state bank of the initial deposit. No change made in the terms and conditions attending an agreement to pay interest which adversely affects the interest of a depositor shall be retroactively effective. Savings account depositors and holders and payees of automatic renewal time certificates of deposit shall be given reasonable notice of any change in the terms and conditions attending an agreement to pay interest prior to the effective date thereof.

4. A state bank may make such charges for the handling or custody of deposits as may be fixed by its board of directors provided that a schedule of such charges shall be furnished to the customer at the acceptance by the state bank of the initial deposit. Any change in such charges shall be furnished to the customer within a reasonable amount of time before the effective date of such change.

5. A state bank shall not accept deposits or renew certificates of deposit when insolvent.

6. Except as provided in section 524.807, a state bank may receive deposits by or in the name of a minor and may deal with a minor with respect to a deposit account without the consent of a parent, guardian or conservator and with the same effect as though the minor were an adult. Any action of the minor with respect to such deposit account shall be binding on the minor with the same effect as though an adult.

7. A state bank may receive deposits from a person acting as fiduciary or in an official capacity which shall be payable to such person in such capacity.

8. A state bank may receive deposits from a corporation, trust, estate, association or other similar organization which shall be payable to any person authorized by its board of directors or other persons exercising similar functions.

9. A state bank may receive deposits from one or more persons with the provision that upon the death of the depositors the deposit account shall be the property of the person or persons designated by the deceased depositors as shown on the deposit account records of the state bank. The account is subject to the debts of the deceased depositors and the payment of Iowa inheritance tax provided, that upon the expiration of six months after the date of death of the deceased depositors, the receipt or acquittance of the persons designated is a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the state bank for the delivery of any part or all of the account.

524.806 Deposit in the names of two or more individuals.

When a deposit is made in any state bank in the names of two or more individuals, payable to any one or more of them, or payable to the survivor or survivors, the deposit, including interest, or any part thereof, may be paid to any one or more of the individuals whether the others be living or not, and the receipt or acquittance of the individuals so paid is a valid and sufficient release and discharge to the state bank for any payment so made.

524.807 Payment of deposited funds.

When any deposit shall be made by any individual in trust for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust shall have been given to the state bank, in the event of the death of the trustee, the same or any part thereof, together with interest thereon, may be paid to the individual for whom the deposit was made, or to the individual’s legal representatives; provided that the individual for whom the deposit was made, if a minor, shall not draw the same during the individual’s minority without the consent of the legal representatives of said trustor.

524.808 Adverse claims to deposits.

1. A state bank shall not be required, in the absence of a court order or indemnity required by this section, to recognize any claim to, or any claim of authority to exercise control over, a deposit account made by a person or persons other than:

a. The customer in whose name the account is held by the state bank.

b. An individual or group of individuals who are authorized to draw on or control the account pursuant to certified corporate resolution or other written arrangement with the customer, currently on file with the state bank, which has not been revoked by valid corporate action in the case of a corporation, or by a valid agreement or other valid action appropriate for the form of legal organization of any other customer, of which the state bank has received notice and which is not the subject of a dispute known to the state bank as to its original validity. The deposit account records of a state bank shall be presumptive evidence as to the identity of the customer on whose behalf the money is held.
2. To require a state bank to recognize an adverse claim to, or adverse claim of authority to control, a deposit account, whoever makes the claim must either:
   a. Obtain and serve on the state bank an appropriate court order or judicial process directed to the state bank, restraining any action with respect to the account until further order of such court or instructing the state bank to pay the balance of the account, in whole or in part, as provided in the order or process; or
   b. Deliver to the state bank a bond, in form and amount and with sureties satisfactory to the state bank, indemnifying the state bank against any liability, loss or expense which it might incur because of its recognition of the adverse claim or because of its refusal by reason of such claim to honor any check or other order of anyone described in paragraphs “a” and “b” of subsection 1 of this section.

524.809 Authority to lease safe deposit boxes.
1. A state bank may lease safe deposit boxes for the storage of property on terms and conditions prescribed by it. Such terms and conditions shall not bind any customer to whom the state bank does not give notice thereof by delivery of a lease and agreement in writing containing such terms and conditions. A state bank may limit its liability provided such limitations are set forth in the lease and agreement in at least the same size and type as the other substantive provisions of the contract.
2. The lease and agreement of a safe deposit box may provide that evidence tending to prove that property was left in any such box upon the last entry by the customer or the customer’s authorized agent, and that the same or any part thereof was found missing upon subsequent entry, shall not be sufficient to raise a presumption that the same was lost by any negligence or wrongdoing for which such state bank is responsible, or put upon the state bank the burden of proof that such alleged loss was not the fault of the state bank.
3. A state bank may lease a safe deposit box to a minor. A state bank may deal with a minor with respect to a safe deposit lease and agreement without the consent of a parent, guardian or conservator and with the same effect as though the minor were an adult. Any action of the minor with respect to such safe deposit lease and agreement shall be binding on the minor with the same effect as though an adult.
4. A state bank which has on file a power of attorney of a customer covering a safe deposit lease and agreement, which has not been revoked by the customer, shall incur no liability as a result of continuing to honor the provisions of the power of attorney in the event of the death or incompetence of the donor of the power of attorney until it receives written notice of the death, or written notice of adjudication by a court of the incompetence of the customer and the appointment of a guardian or conservator.

524.810 Search procedure on death.
A state bank shall permit the person named in a court order for the purpose or, if no order has been served upon the state bank, the spouse, a parent, an adult descendant or a person named as executor in a copy of a purported will produced by the person, to open and examine the contents of a safe deposit box leased by a decedent, or to examine any property delivered by a decedent for safekeeping, in the presence of an officer of the state bank. The state bank shall, if requested by such person, and upon their receipt therefor, deliver:
1. Any writing purported to be a will of the decedent to the court having jurisdiction of the decedent’s estate.
2. Any writing purported to be a deed to a burial plot, or to give burial instructions, to the person making the request for a search.
3. Any document purported to be an insurance policy on the life of the decedent to the beneficiary named therein. A state bank shall prepare and keep a list of any contents delivered pursuant to this section describing the nature of the property and the individual to whom delivered, and place a copy of the list in the safe deposit box from which such contents were removed.

524.811 Adverse claims to property in safe deposit and safekeeping.
1. A state bank shall not be required, in the absence of a court order or indemnity required by this section, to recognize any claim to, or claim of authority to exercise control over, property held in safe deposit or property held for safekeeping pursuant to section 524.813 made by a person or persons other than:
   a. The customer in whose name the property is held by the state bank.
   b. An individual or group of individuals who are authorized to have access to the safe deposit box, or to the property held for safekeeping, pursuant to a certified corporate resolution or other written arrangement with the customer, currently on file with the state bank, which has not been revoked by valid corporate action in the case of a corporation, or by a valid agreement or other valid action appropriate for the form of legal organization of any other customer, of which the state bank has received notice and which is not the subject of a dispute known to the state bank as to its original validity. The safe deposit and safekeeping account records of a state bank shall be presumptive evidence as to the identity of the customer on whose behalf the money is held.
2. To require a state bank to recognize an adverse claim to, or adverse claim of authority to control, property held in safe deposit or for safekeeping, whoever makes the claim must either:
   a. Obtain and serve on the state bank an appropriate court order or judicial process directed to the state bank, restraining any action with respect to the property until further order of such court or instructing the state bank to deliver the property, in whole or in part, as provided in the order or process; or

b. Deliver to the state bank a bond, in form and amount and with sureties satisfactory to the state bank, indemnifying the state bank against any liability, loss or expense which it might incur because of its recognition of the adverse claim or because of its refusal to deliver the property to any person described in paragraphs a and b of subsection 1 of this section.

524.812 Remedies and proceedings for non-payment of rent on safe deposit box.

3. If the contents are not claimed within two years after their removal from the safe deposit box, the state bank may proceed to sell so much of the contents as is necessary to pay the past due rentals and the expense incurred in opening the safe deposit box, replacement of the locks thereon and the sale of the contents. The sale shall be held at the time and place specified in a notice published prior to the sale once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the municipal corporation or unincorporated area in which the state bank has its principal place of business, or if there is none, a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or in a county adjoining the county, in which the state bank has its principal place of business. A copy of the notice so published shall be mailed to the customer at the customer’s last known address as shown upon the records of the state bank. The notice shall contain the name of the customer and need only describe the contents of the safe deposit box in general terms. The contents of any number of safe deposit boxes may be sold under one notice of sale and the cost thereof apportioned ratably among the several safe deposit box customers involved. At the time and place designated in said notice the contents taken from each respective safe deposit box shall be sold separately to the highest bidder for cash and the proceeds of each sale applied to the rentals and expenses due to the state bank and the residue from any such sale shall be held by the state bank for the account of the customer or customers. Any amount so held as proceeds from such sale shall be credited with interest at the customary annual rate for savings accounts at said state bank, or in lieu thereof, at the customary rate of interest in the community where such proceeds are held. The crediting of interest shall not activate said account to avoid an abandonment as unclaimed property under chapter 556.

4. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this section, shares, bonds, or other securities which, at the time of a sale pursuant to subsection 3 of this section, are listed on any established stock exchange in the United States, shall not be sold at public sale but may be sold through an established stock exchange. Upon the making of a sale of any such securities, an officer of the state bank shall execute and attach to the securities so sold an affidavit reciting facts showing that such securities were sold pursuant to this section and that the state bank has complied with the provisions of this section. The affidavit shall constitute sufficient authority to any corporation whose shares are so sold or to any registrar or transfer agent of such corporation to cancel the certificates of shares so sold and to issue a new certificate or certificates representing such shares to the purchaser thereof, and to any registrar, trustee, or transfer agent of registered bonds or other securities, to register any such bonds or other securities in the name of the purchaser thereof.

5. The proceeds of any sale made pursuant to this section, after the payment of any amounts with respect to which the state bank has a lien, any property which was not offered for sale and property which, although offered for sale, was not sold, shall be retained by the state bank until such time as the property is presumed abandoned according to the provisions of section 556.2, and shall thereafter be handled in accordance with the provisions of that chapter.

524.813 Authority to receive property for safekeeping.

1. A state bank may accept property for safekeeping if, except in the case of night depositories, it issues a receipt therefor. A state bank accepting property for safekeeping shall purchase and maintain reasonable insurance coverage to insure against loss incurred in connection with the acceptance of property for safekeeping. Property held for safekeeping shall not be commingled with the property of the state bank or the property of others.

2. A state bank shall have a lien upon any property held for safekeeping for past due charges for safekeeping and for expenses incurred in any sale made pursuant to this subsection. If the charge for the safekeeping of property is not paid within six months from the day it is due, at any time thereafter and while such charge remains unpaid, the state bank may mail a notice to the customer at the customer's last known address as shown upon the records of the state bank, stating that if the amount due is not paid on or before a specified day, which shall be at least thirty days after the date of mailing such notice, the state bank will remove the property from safekeeping and hold the same for the account of the customer. After the expiration of the period specified in such notice, if the charge for safekeeping has not been paid, the state bank may remove the property from safekeeping, cause the property to be inventoried and hold the same for the account of the customer. If the property is not claimed within two years after its removal from safekeeping the state bank may proceed to sell so much thereof as is necessary to pay the charge which remains unpaid and the expense incurred in making the sale in the manner provided for in subsections 3 and 4 of section 524.812. The proceeds of any sale made pursuant to this section, after payment of any amounts with respect to which the state bank has a lien, any property which was not offered for sale and property which, although offered for sale, was not sold, shall be retained by the state bank until such time as the property is presumed abandoned according to the provisions of section 556.2, and shall thereafter be handled in accordance with the provisions of that chapter.

524.814 Pledge of assets.

Pursuant to a resolution of its board of directors, a state bank may pledge its assets for the following purposes, and for no other purposes:

1. To secure deposits when a customer is required to obtain such security by the laws of the United States, by any agency or instrumentality of the United States, by the laws of the state of Iowa, by the state board of regents, by a resolution or ordinance relating to the issuance of bonds, by the terms of any interstate compact or by order of any court of competent jurisdiction.

2. To secure money borrowed by the state bank, provided that capital notes or debentures issued pursuant to section 524.404 shall not in any event be secured by a pledge of assets or otherwise.

524.815 Deposits by a state bank.

A state bank may deposit its funds in a depository which is selected by, or in a manner authorized by, the directors of a state bank and which is authorized by law to receive deposits and is subject to supervision by banking authorities of the United States or of any state, and, with the prior approval of the superintendent, in any other depository.

524.816 Account insurance.

1. A bank organized under this chapter, as a condition of maintaining its privilege of organization after July 1, 1984 shall become an insured bank and shall acquire and maintain insurance to protect each depositor against loss of funds held on account by the bank. The insurance shall be obtained from the federal deposit insurance corporation or another insurance plan approved by the superintendent.

2. The superintendent may furnish to an official of an insurance plan by which the accounts of the bank are insured, any information relating to examinations and reports of the status of that bank for the purpose of determining availability of insurance to that bank.

524.817 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 173, §11.

524.818 Indebtedness of state bank.

A state bank may borrow money or otherwise contract indebtedness for necessary expenses in managing and transacting its business, to maintain proper cash reserves, and for other corporate purposes, provided, however, the superintendent may prohibit or place restrictions upon money borrowed or other indebtedness which would, in the superintendent’s judgment, constitute an unsafe or unsound practice in view of the condition and circumstances of the state bank. Nothing contained in this section shall limit the right of a state bank to issue capital notes or debentures pursuant to subject to the provisions of section 524.404.

524.819 Clearing checks at par.

Checks drawn on a state bank shall be cleared at par by the state bank on which they are drawn. This section shall not be applicable where checks are received by a bank as special collection items.

524.820 Money received for transmission.

1. A state bank shall have power to receive money for transmission. Upon receiving money for transmission, a state bank shall give the customer a receipt setting forth the date of receipt of the money, the amount of the money in dollars and cents, and if the money is to be transmitted to a foreign country in the currency of such country, the amount of the money in such currency.

2. In an action by a customer against a state bank for recovery of money delivered for transmission, the burden of proof of delivery of the money in accordance with the instructions of the customer shall be on the state bank but an affidavit by an agent or depository of the state bank that the money was delivered in accordance with the instructions of the customer and a receipt for the money signed in the name of the recipient designated by the customer shall be prima-facie evidence of the delivery of the money in accordance with the instructions of the customer.

524.821 Electronic transmission of funds — restrictions.
1. A state bank may engage in any transaction incidental to the conduct of the business of banking and otherwise permitted by applicable law, by means of either the direct transmission of electronic impulses to or from customers and banks or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to a bank. Subject to the provisions of chapter 527, a state bank may utilize, establish or operate, alone or with one or more other banks, savings and loan associations incorporated under the provisions of chapter 534 or federal law, credit unions incorporated under the provisions of chapter 533 or federal law, corporations licensed under chapter 536A, or third parties, the satellite terminals permitted under chapter 527, by means of which customers and banks may transmit and receive electronic impulses constituting transactions pursuant to this section. However, such utilization, establishment, or operation shall be lawful only when in compliance with chapter 527. Nothing in this section shall be construed as authority for any person to engage in transactions not otherwise permitted by applicable law, nor shall anything in this section be deemed to repeal, replace or in any other way affect any applicable law or rule regarding the maintenance of or access to financial information maintained by any bank.
2. A state bank which offers its customers, or any of them, the opportunity to engage in transactions with or through the bank in the manner authorized by subsection 1 shall not require a customer to deal with or through the bank in that manner in lieu of writing checks in the usual manner upon a conventional checking account, and shall not impose any extraordinary charge upon customers who choose to write checks in the usual manner upon a conventional checking account maintained at that bank. The term “extraordinary charge”, as used in this subsection, is a charge in excess of a fair and reasonable charge, based upon the costs to the bank of providing and maintaining checking account services.

524.822 through 524.824 Reserved.

524.825 Securities activities.
Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, a state bank or a subsidiary of a state bank organized or acquired pursuant to section 524.803, subsection 1, paragraph “f” may engage in directly, or may organize, acquire, or invest in a subsidiary for the purpose of engaging in securities activities and any aspect of the securities industry, including, but not limited to, any of the following:
1. Issuing, underwriting, selling, or distributing stocks, bonds, debentures, notes, interest in mutual funds or money-market-type mutual funds, or other securities.
2. Organizing, sponsoring, and operating one or more mutual funds.
3. Acting as a securities broker-dealer licensed under chapter 502. The business relating to securities shall be conducted through, and in the name of, the broker-dealer. The requirements of chapter 502 apply to any business of the broker-dealer transacted in this state.
A subsidiary engaging in activities authorized by this section may also engage in any other authorized activities under section 524.803, subsection 1, paragraph “f”.

DIVISION IX INVESTMENT AND LENDING POWERS

524.901 Investments.
1. A state bank may invest without limitation for its own account in the following bonds or securities:
a. Obligations of the United States and bonds and securities with respect to which the payment of principal and interest is fully and unconditionally guaranteed by the United States.
b. Obligations issued by any or all of the federal land banks, any or all of the federal intermediate credit banks, any or all of the banks for cooperatives, and any or all of the federal home loan banks, organized under the laws of the United States.
c. Obligations issued by the federal national mortgage association, under the laws of the United States.
d. Any other bonds or securities which are the obligations of or the payment of principal and interest of which is fully and unconditionally guaranteed by a federal reserve bank or by any department, bureau, board, commission, agency or establishment of the United States, or any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States.
e. General obligations of the state of Iowa and of political subdivisions thereof.
f. Futures, forward, and standby contracts to purchase and sell any of the instruments eligible for state banks' purchase and sale, subject to the prior approval of the superintendent and pursuant to applicable federal laws and regulations governing such contracts. Purchase and sale of such contracts shall be conducted in accordance with safe and sound banking practices and with levels of the activity being reasonably related to the state bank's business needs and capacity to fulfill its obligations under the contracts.
g. Bonds and securities which are authorized investments under paragraph “a”, “b”, “c”, or “d” include investments in an investment company or investment trust registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. §80a, the portfolio of which is limited to the United States government obligations described in paragraph “a”, “b”, “c”, or “d” and to repurchase agreements fully collateralized by the United States government obligations described in paragraph “a”, “b”, “c”, or “d”, if the investment company or investment trust takes delivery of the collateral either directly or through an authorized custodian.

2. A state bank may invest for its own account in other readily marketable bonds or securities, with investment characteristics as defined by the superintendent by general regulation applicable to all state banks, subject to the following limitations:

a. The total amount of the bonds or securities of any one issuer or obligor, other than revenue or improvement bonds issued by a municipality, the Iowa finance authority, or the agricultural development authority and subject to separate investment limits under paragraph “b”, “c”, “d”, “f”, or “g” of this subsection, shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

b. The total amount of special assessment improvement or refunding bonds which have been issued by a municipality under authority of section 384.68 and which are repayable from the proceeds of any one levy shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

c. The total amount of revenue bonds and pledge orders which have been issued by a municipality under authority of chapter 384, division V, and which are repayable from the revenues of any one city utility, combined utility system, city enterprise or combined city enterprise shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

d. The total amount of revenue bonds issued by a municipality pursuant to section 419.2 which have been issued on behalf of any one lessee, as defined in section 419.1, or which are guaranteed by any one guarantor, or which are issued on behalf of or guaranteed by a corporation, a ten percent or greater ownership interest in which is held by or in common with a lessee or guarantor, or any combination of the foregoing whereby the municipality could receive revenues for payment of such bonds from any one person or any group of persons under common control, shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

e. No bond or security shall be eligible for investment by a state bank within this subsection if the bond or security has been in default either as to principal or interest at any time within five years prior to the date of purchase.

f. The total amount of bonds or notes issued by the agricultural development authority pursuant to chapter 175 which have been issued on behalf of any one beginning farmer, as defined in section 175.2, subsection 6, and the proceeds of which have been loaned to that beginning farmer shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

g. The total amount of bonds or notes issued by the Iowa finance authority pursuant to chapter 220 which have been issued on behalf of any one small business as defined in section 220.1, subsection 28, or any one group home referred to in section 220.1, subsection 11, paragraph “a,” and the proceeds of which have been loaned to that small business or group home shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the bank.

h. The total amount of bonds or notes issued by the agricultural development authority pursuant to chapter 175 which have been issued on behalf of any one owner or operator of agricultural land within the state, as provided for in section 175.34, and the proceeds of which have been loaned to that owner or operator, shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank for each borrower.

3. A state bank shall not, directly or indirectly, invest for its own account in the shares of any corporation except:

a. Shares in a federal reserve bank.

b. Shares in the federal national mortgage association.

c. When approved by the superintendent, shares and obligations of a corporation engaged solely in making loans for agricultural purposes eligible to discount or sell loans to a federal intermediate credit bank, commonly known as an agricultural credit corporation, in amounts not to exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

d. Shares in a corporation which the state bank is authorized to acquire and hold pursuant to section 524.803, subsection 1, paragraphs “c”, “d”, “e”, and “f” and section 524.825.

e. Shares in an economic development corporation organized under chapter 496B to the extent authorized by and subject to the limitations of such chapter.

f. When approved by the superintendent, shares of a small business investment company as defined by the laws of the United States, except that in no event shall any such state bank hold shares in small business investment companies in an amount aggregating more than two percent of its capital and surplus.

g. Shares or equity interests in venture capital funds which agree to invest an equal amount to at least fifty percent of the state bank’s investment in small businesses having their principal offices within this state and having either more than one half of their assets within this state or more than one half of their employees employed within this state. A state bank shall not invest more than a total of five percent of its capital and surplus in investments permitted under this paragraph and paragraph “h”. For purposes of this paragraph, “venture capital fund” means a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, or other entity formed under the laws of the United States, or a state, district, or territory of the United States, whose principal business is or will be the making of investments in, and the provision of significant managerial assistance to, small businesses which meet the small business administration definition of small business. “Equity interests” means limited partnership interests and other equity interests in which liability is limited to the amount of the investment, but does not mean...

general partnership interests or other interests involving general liability.

h. Shares or equity interests in small businesses having their principal offices within this state and having either more than one half of their assets within this state or more than one half of their employees employed within this state. The total amount of a state bank’s investments under this paragraph and paragraph “g” shall not exceed five percent of the state bank’s capital and surplus. The investment of a state bank in a small business under this paragraph shall be included with the obligations of the small business to the state bank that are incurred as a result of the exercise by the state bank of the powers conferred in section 524.902 for the purpose of determining the total obligations of the small business to the state bank at any one time under section 524.904. A state bank shall not invest in more than twenty percent of the total capital and surplus of any one small business under this paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph, “small business” means a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, or other entity formed under the laws of the United States, or a state, district, or territory of the United States, which meets the appropriate small business administration definition of small business and which is principally engaged in the development or exploitation of inventions, technological improvements, new processes, or other products not previously generally available in this state or other investments which provide an economic benefit to the state; and “equity interests” means limited partnership interests and other equity interests in which liability is limited to the amount of the investment, but does not mean general partnership interests or other interests involving general liability.

d. Shares of investment companies, up to a maximum of twenty percent of capital and surplus of the state bank in any one company, if the portfolio of such an investment company consists wholly of investments in which the state bank could invest directly without limitation pursuant to this section.

e. Shares of investment companies whose portfolios contain investments which are subject to limitations pursuant to this section, provided that a state bank’s investment in such shares does not exceed the limitation set forth in this section for the underlying instrument.

f. Shares in the federal agricultural mortgage corporation.

2. When approved by the superintendent, shares of a corporation certified by the federal agricultural mortgage corporation which is engaged solely in pooling agricultural loans for federal agricultural mortgage corporation guarantees, not to exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

4. A state bank may invest in participation certificates issued by one or more production credit associations chartered under the laws of the United States in an amount which does not exceed, in the aggregate with respect to all such associations, twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

5. A state bank may invest for its own account in the shares of a bankers’ bank or in the shares of a bank holding company which owns a bankers’ bank. A state bank shall not invest in more than one bankers’ bank or in more than one bank holding company which owns a bankers’ bank. A state bank shall not invest an amount greater than ten percent of its capital and surplus in the shares of a bankers’ bank or in the shares of a bank holding company which owns a bankers’ bank. A state bank shall not invest any amount if after the investment the state bank would own or control more than five percent of any class of the voting shares of a bankers’ bank or a bank holding company which owns a bankers’ bank.

6. A state bank may, in the exercise of the powers granted in this chapter, purchase cash value life insurance contracts which may include provisions for the lump sum payment of premiums and which may include insurance against the loss of the lump sum payment. The cash value life insurance contracts purchased from any one company shall not exceed twenty percent of capital and surplus of the state bank.

2. A state bank shall not accept such drafts in an amount which exceeds at any time in the aggregate for all drawers fifty percent of its capital and surplus. The superintendent may authorize a state bank to accept drafts in an amount not exceeding at any time in the aggregate for all drawers one hundred percent of its capital and surplus but the aggregate of acceptance growing out of domestic transactions shall in no event exceed fifty percent of such capital and surplus.

3. A state bank may, with the prior approval of the superintendent, accept drafts, having not more than three months after sight to run, drawn upon it by banks or bankers in foreign countries, or in dependencies or insular possessions of the United States, for the purpose of furnishing dollar exchange as required by the usages of trade where the drafts are drawn in an aggregate amount which shall not at any time exceed for all such acceptance on behalf of a single bank or banker ten percent of capital and surplus, and for all such acceptances, fifty percent of capital and surplus.

524.904 Obligations of one customer.

1. For the purpose of this section:
   a. The term "obligations" means the amounts for the payment of which a customer is obligated, whether directly or indirectly, primarily or secondarily, to a state bank as a result of the exercise by the state bank of the powers conferred by section 524.902.
   b. Obligations of a customer include obligations of others to a state bank arising out of loans made by such state bank for the benefit of such customer.
   c. Obligations of a customer who is a partner include the obligations of a partnership or other unincorporated association for which obligations the customer is liable.
   d. Obligations of a customer which is a partnership or other unincorporated association include the obligations of its partners who are liable for its obligations.
   e. Obligations of a customer include the obligations of any and all corporations in which such customer owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote.
   f. Obligations of a customer which is a corporation include obligations of a person, who is also a customer, and who owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote of such corporation.
   g. Obligations of a customer which is a corporation include the obligations of any other corporation when a person owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote, of such corporations.
   h. If the superintendent shall determine at any time that the interests of a group of more than one customer, or any combination thereof, are so interrelated that they should be considered as a unit for the purpose of applying the limitations of this section, the total obligations of that group of customers existing at any time shall be combined and deemed obligations of one customer. A state bank shall not be deemed to have violated this section solely by reason of the fact that the obligations of a group exceed the limitations of this section at the time of a determination by the superintendent that the indebtedness of that group must be combined, but the state bank shall, if required by the superintendent, dispose of the obligations of the group in the amount in excess of the limitations of this section within such reasonable time as shall be fixed by the superintendent.

2. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time, secured and unsecured, shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank except that:
   a. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time, shall not exceed forty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank if at least all of the amount by which such obligations exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank shall consist of any of the following or any combination of the following:
      (1) Obligations in the form of notes or drafts, secured by nonnegotiable bills of lading, warehouse receipts or other documents transferring or securing title covering readily marketable perishable staples when such goods are covered by insurance to the extent that insuring such goods is customary, and when the market value of such goods is not at any time less than one hundred twenty percent of the face amount of such obligations.
      (2) Obligations in the form of notes or drafts secured by nonnegotiable bills of lading, warehouse receipts or other documents transferring or securing title covering readily marketable refrigerated or frozen staples when such goods are fully covered by insurance and when the market value of such goods is not at any time less than one hundred twenty percent of the face amount of such obligations.
      (3) Obligations in the form of notes or drafts secured by bills of lading, bills of sale or security agreements covering feeder livestock or female animals purchased and held for resale, or raised and held for sale prior to giving birth to their first offspring or after giving birth to but prior to weaning of their first offspring. Such livestock loans, including renewals or extensions thereof, made under the foregoing provisions shall not be made for a period in excess of eighteen months. In the case of purchase price livestock, the proceeds of such obligations shall have been given as purchase money for all or part of the purchase price of such livestock, but not to exceed the purchase price thereof. In the case of nonpurchase livestock, the proceeds of such obligations shall not be in an amount in excess of the prevailing local market price at the time of the loan, and the bank shall maintain proof of this fact.
      (4) Obligations of the customer as endorser, guarantor or accommodation party for others, other than obligations as endorser of chattel paper described in paragraph "b" of this subsection.
§524.904, IOWA BANKING LAW

Such other obligations to a state bank as may be prescribed by the superintendent by regulations of general application to all state banks, or

b. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time shall not exceed sixty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank if at least all of the amount by which such obligations exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank shall consist of obligations as endorser of negotiable chattel paper negotiated by endorsement with recourse, or as unconditional guarantor of nonnegotiable chattel paper, or as transferee of chattel paper endorsed without recourse subject to a repurchase agreement, or

c. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time shall not exceed the sum of twenty percent of the capital and surplus and fifty percent of the capital of the state bank, if at least all of the amount by which such obligations exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of a state bank shall consist of obligations secured by a first lien on farmland, or on single family or two family residences, subject to the provisions of section 524.905, except that the amount so loaned shall not exceed fifty percent of the appraised value of such real property, or

d. The total obligations of any one customer, which is an individual or a corporation, to a state bank at any one time shall not exceed forty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank if all of the amount by which such obligations exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank consists of amounts owed by one or more corporations of which the customer owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote, or, if the customer is a corporation, of amounts owed by another corporation which owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares of the customer entitled to vote, or, if the customer is a corporation, of amounts owed by another corporation which owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares of the customer entitled to vote, or, if the amounts owed by one or more other corporations more than fifty percent of the voting shares of each of which are owned or controlled by a person which also owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares of the customer entitled to vote, provided however, when this paragraph applies:

1. The amounts owed by such customer shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

2. The amounts owed by any one or all of the corporations other than the customer shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of the state bank.

3. The shares, assets and any liabilities of any such corporation other than the customer shall not be included in the financial statement of such customer or otherwise relied upon as a basis for a loan to such customer.

4. The assets or guarantee of such customer shall not be relied upon as a basis for a loan to any such corporation.

5. The proceeds of the amounts owed by the customer shall not be intermingled with or used for a common purpose with the proceeds of the amounts owed by the corporation or corporations other than the customer.

For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "amounts owed" means the amounts for the payment of which such customer or any one or all such corporations are obligated, whether directly or indirectly, primarily or secondarily, to a state bank as a result of the exercise by the state bank of the powers conferred by section 524.902, but determined without reference to paragraphs "e", "f" and "g" of subsection 1 of this section.

3. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time for the purpose of applying the limitations of subsection 2 of this section shall include:

a. The aggregate rentals payable by the customer under leases of personal property by the state bank as lessor, except obligations secured by a lease on property in situations described in the second sentence of paragraph "h" of subsection 4 of this section.

b. Obligations secured by real property pursuant to section 524.905 and installment obligations made pursuant to section 524.906, except to the extent any such obligations are secured, guaranteed, insured or covered by unconditional commitments or agreements to purchase by the United States, veterans administration, federal housing administration, small business administration, farmers home administration, a federal reserve bank, or other department, bureau, board, commission, agency, or establishment of the United States, or any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States.

c. Obligations of the customer by reason of acceptance by the state bank of drafts of a type not described in subsection 1 of section 524.903, to the extent that the state bank has acquired such acceptances.

d. Obligations of the customer consisting of bonds and securities in which the state bank has invested pursuant to section 524.901, subsection 2.

e. Amounts invested by a state bank for its own account pursuant to section 524.901, subsection 3, paragraphs "e" and "f", in the shares and obligations of a corporation which is a customer of the state bank.

f. Obligations of the customer as obligor pursuant to evidences of indebtedness and agreements for the payment of money acquired by purchase or discount by the state bank.

g. All other obligations of the customer of the state bank, not otherwise excluded by subsection 4 of this section, whether direct or indirect, primary or secondary, including overdrafts and liability for items paid by the state bank against uncollected deposits of the customer.

4. The total obligations of any one customer to a state bank at any one time for the purpose of applying the limitations of subsection 2 of this section shall not include:

a. Obligations of such customer as the drawer of drafts drawn in good faith against actually existing values in connection with a sale of goods which have been endorsed by such customer with recourse or which have been accepted.
b. Obligations arising out of the discount of commercial paper actually owned by the customer negotiating the same and endorsed by the customer without recourse and which is not subject to repurchase by the customer.

c. Obligations drawn by the customer in good faith against actually existing values and secured by nonnegotiable bills of lading for goods in process of shipment.

d. Obligations in the form of acceptances of other banks of the kind described in section 524.903, subsection 3.

e. Obligations of the customer by reason of acceptances by the state bank for the account of the customer pursuant to section 524.903, subsection 1.

f. Obligations of the customer which are fully secured by bonds and securities of the kind in which a state bank is authorized to invest for its own account without limitation under section 524.901, subsection 1.

g. Obligations of a customer which is a bank to the extent the obligations are repayable on demand or on the first business day following demand for repayment.

h. Obligations of a federal reserve bank or of the United States, or of any department, bureau, board, commission, agency, or establishment of the United States, or of any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States, or obligations of a customer to the extent that such obligations are secured or guaranteed or covered by unconditional commitments or agreements to purchase by a federal reserve bank or by the United States, or any department, bureau, board, commission, agency, or establishment of the United States, or any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States. An obligation of a customer secured by a lease on property under the terms of which the United States, or any department, bureau, board, commission, agency, or establishment of the United States, or any corporation owned directly or indirectly by the United States, or the state of Iowa, or any political subdivision thereof, is lessee and under the terms of which the aggregate rentals payable to the customer will be sufficient to satisfy the amount loaned shall be considered to be an obligation secured or guaranteed in the manner provided for in this paragraph.

i. Obligations of a customer as endorser or guarantor for a corporation in which that customer owns or controls more than fifty percent of the shares entitled to vote, provided that under rules promulgated by the superintendent the customer and the corporation qualify as separate customers because the assets and the demonstrated ability to generate income of the corporation and the customer taken together are adequate to secure and fund all outstanding and contemplated debt of the corporation and the customer.

j. Obligations of the customer equal in dollar amount to the amount of time certificates of deposit in the state bank, held in the name of that customer, which the state bank may lawfully offset against the obligations of that customer in the event of default. For the purpose of this paragraph an amount held in a time certificate of deposit in the name of more than one customer shall be counted only once with respect to all such customers, allocated as the customers may determine.

524.905 Loans on real property.

1. Rules for loans. A state bank may make permanent loans, construction loans, or combined construction and permanent loans, secured by liens on real property, as authorized by rules adopted by the superintendent under chapter 17A. The rules shall include provisions as necessary to ensure the safety and soundness of these loans, and to ensure full and fair disclosure to borrowers of the effects of provisions in agreements for these loans, including provisions permitting change or adjustment of any terms of a loan, provisions permitting, requiring, or prohibiting repayment of a loan on a basis other than of equal periodic installments of interest plus principal over a fixed term, provisions imposing penalties for the borrower’s noncompliance with requirements of a loan agreement, or provisions allowing or requiring a borrower to choose from alternative courses of action at any time during the effectiveness of a loan agreement.

2. Protective payments — escrow accounts. A bank may include in the loan documents signed by the borrower a provision requiring the borrower to pay the bank each month in addition to interest and principal under the note an amount equal to one-twelfth of the estimated annual real estate taxes, special assessments, hazard insurance premium, mortgage insurance premium, or any other payment agreed to by the borrower and the bank in order to better secure the loan. The bank shall be deemed to be acting in a fiduciary capacity with respect to these funds. A bank receiving funds in escrow pursuant to an escrow agreement executed on or after July 1, 1982 in connection with a loan as defined in section 535.8, subsection 1, shall pay interest to the borrower on those funds, calculated on a daily basis, at the rate the bank pays to depositors of funds in ordinary savings accounts. A bank which maintains an escrow account in connection with any loan authorized by this section, whether or not the mortgage has been assigned to a third person, shall each year deliver to the mortgagor a written annual accounting of all transactions made with respect to the loan and escrow account.

3. Escrow reports. A state bank may act as an escrow agent with respect to real property, and may receive funds and make disbursements from escrowed funds in that capacity. The state bank shall be deemed to be acting in a fiduciary capacity with respect to these funds. A bank which maintains such an escrow account, whether or not the mortgage has been assigned to a third person, shall deliver to the mortgagor a written summary of all transactions made with respect to the loan and escrow accounts during each calendar year. However, the mortgagor and mortgagee may, by mutual agreement, select a fiscal year reporting period other than the calendar year. The summary shall be delivered or mailed not later than thirty days following the year to which disclosure relates. The summary shall contain all of the following information:

a. The name and address of the mortgagor.
b. The name and address of the mortgagee.
c. A summary of escrow account activity during the year as follows:
   (1) The balance of the escrow account at the beginning of the year.
   (2) The aggregate amount of deposits to the escrow account during the year.
   (3) The aggregate amount of withdrawals from the escrow account for each of the following categories:
      (a) Payments against loan principal.
      (b) Payments against interest.
      (c) Payments against real estate taxes.
      (d) Payments for real property insurance premiums.
      (e) All other withdrawals.
   (4) The balance of the escrow account at the end of the year.

d. A summary of loan principal for the year as follows:
   (1) The amount of principal outstanding at the beginning of the year.
   (2) The aggregate amount of payments against principal during the year.
   (3) The amount of principal outstanding at the end of the year.

4. Marketability reports. If the bank obtains a report or opinion by an attorney or from another mortgage lender relating to defects in or liens or encumbrances on the title of real property, the unmarketability of the title to real property, or the invalidity or unenforceability of liens or encumbrances upon real property, the bank shall provide a copy of the report or opinion to the mortgagor and the mortgagor's attorney.

524.906 Installment loans by state banks.

This section shall apply to installment loans other than consumer loans as defined in the Iowa consumer credit code.

1. A state bank may contract for and receive on any loan which is evidenced by a written agreement for repayment in installments, a charge, which shall include interest, determined in accordance with either of the following methods:
   a. At a rate not to exceed six dollars per annum upon each one hundred dollars actually loaned to the customer. In addition to the amount actually loaned, the charge may be included in the total amount of the loan. The terms of any loan for which a charge is made pursuant to this paragraph shall require substantially equal installments at successive intervals of not more than one year in amounts sufficient to amortize the entire loan, including charges, within a period of not more than fifteen years provided, however, that the first installment may be deferred to not more than fifteen months from the date of the loan.
   b. At a rate not to exceed one percent per month computed on unpaid principal balances. A state bank may receive such charge by crediting each installment whenever received, first to the charge at the monthly rate contracted for and the remainder to principal until the loan is fully paid, or the state bank may compute the total charge which would be earned at the monthly rate contracted for if the loan were repaid according to its terms and each installment were applied first to the charge and then to principal, and include such total charge in the total amount of the loan. The terms of any loan for which a charge is made pursuant to this paragraph shall require substantially equal installments at successive intervals of not more than one month in amounts sufficient to amortize the entire loan, including charges, within the period ending on the date of its maturity which shall not exceed fifteen years provided, however, that installments may be deferred or omitted on a seasonal basis. If the total charge is included in the total amount of the loan as provided for in this paragraph, a first interval of not less than fifteen nor more than forty-five days may be treated as a monthly interval.

2. If the charge determined in accordance with subsection 1 of this section is less than ten dollars, a state bank may contract and receive a charge of not more than ten dollars, which charge shall be in lieu of any charge determined in accordance with subsection 1 of this section and shall not be subject to refund as required by subsection 5 of this section.

3. No further amount shall be charged, contracted for or received, directly or indirectly, on or in connection with any loan subject to the provisions of this section, except fees paid for filing documents in public offices in connection with the loan, actual expenditures, including reasonable attorney's fees for proceedings to collect the loan, and the cost of a reasonable amount of insurance of the kind customarily required, but not in excess of standard insurance rates.

4. When an installment is not paid when due, a state bank may collect a single delinquency charge, in an amount not to exceed five percent of the installment, for each installment in arrears for a period of more than ten days, provided that the delinquency has not been caused by reason of acceleration or by reason of delinquency on a prior installment.

5. Any payment in cash made by a customer before maturity shall be accepted by the state bank. When full payment of a loan subject to the provisions of this section is made before maturity, whether by payment in cash, renewal or otherwise, or whenever the maturity of the loan is accelerated, the customer shall receive from the state bank at the time the loan is paid in full a refund of the unearned charge. The refund shall be so calculated that the customer will not have paid a charge for the loan at a greater rate when computed on actual unpaid principal balances than the customer would have paid had the loan been permitted to run to its maturity, and in no event shall the customer be required to pay in excess of one percent per month interest on the actual unpaid principal balances. All such refunds shall be made in accordance with uniform refund schedule calculated, prescribed and approved by the superintendent.

6. The provisions of this section, nor insofar as loans described in paragraph “b” of this subsection are concerned, the provisions of any other section of the laws of this state, shall not apply to loans, evidences of indebtedness or agreements for the payment of money which:
   a. Are secured by first liens on real property.
   b. Are real property improvement loans insured, all or in part, by the federal housing administration under the laws of the United States.
   c. Are the obligations of a customer which is a corporation.
   d. Have been acquired by the state bank by purchase or discount from the person owning the same.

524.907 Participations.
A state bank may purchase and may sell, subject to the provisions of sections 524.901, 524.904, 524.905, and 524.906, and to such regulations as the superintendent may prescribe, participations in one or more evidences of indebtedness and agreements for the payment of money, and pools of bonds, securities, evidences of indebtedness and agreements for the payment of money.

524.908 Leasing of personal property.
A state bank may acquire, upon the specific request of and for the use of a customer, and lease, personal property pursuant to a binding arrangement for the leasing of the property to the customer upon terms requiring payment to the state bank, during the minimum period of the lease, of rentals which in the aggregate, when added to the estimated tax benefits to the bank resulting from the ownership of the lease property plus the estimated residual market value of the leased property at the expiration of the initial term of the lease, will be at least equal to the total expenditures by the state bank for, and in connection with, the acquisition, ownership, maintenance and protection of the property. A lease made under authority of this section shall have the prior approval of the superintendent or be made pursuant to personal property lease guidelines approved by the superintendent for use by the lessor bank or pursuant to a personal property lease guideline rule of general applicability for use by all state banks.

524.909 Loans and investments by officer.
No loan or investment shall be made from the funds of any state bank, directly or indirectly, except by an officer of the state bank who is authorized to do so by the board of directors.

524.910 Property acquired to satisfy debts previously contracted.
A state bank may acquire property of any kind to secure, protect or satisfy a loan or investment previously made in good faith. Property acquired pursuant to this section shall be held and disposed of subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. Shares in a corporation and other personal property, the acquisition of which is not otherwise authorized by this chapter, shall be sold or otherwise disposed of within six months unless the time is extended by the superintendent.

2. Real property purchased by a state bank at sales upon foreclosure of mortgages or deeds of trust owned by it, or acquired upon judgments or decrees obtained or rendered for debts due it, or real property conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business, or real property obtained by it through redemption as a junior mortgage or judgment creditor, shall be sold or otherwise disposed of by the state bank within five years after title is vested in the state bank, unless the time is extended by the superintendent. Agricultural land held by a state bank pursuant to this subsection shall be valued on the books of the bank at a value determined by obtaining the per acre average of the valuations for the current year and the four previous years for agricultural land in the county in which the agricultural land is located as published by Iowa state university of science and technology. If an appraisal conducted by an independent real estate appraiser is available for the current year, the five-year county average shall be adjusted by either adding or subtracting from the five-year average the percentage by which the particular farm’s current appraised value exceeds or is less than the current year’s county average value. To the extent permitted by federal law, national banks may value agricultural land on the same basis as state banks. Before the state bank sells or otherwise disposes of agricultural land held pursuant to this subsection, the state bank shall first offer the prior owner the opportunity to repurchase the agricultural land on the terms the state bank proposes to sell or dispose of the agricultural land.

A state bank may acquire property of any kind to secure, protect or satisfy a loan or investment previously made in good faith. Property acquired pursuant to this section shall be held and disposed of subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. Shares in a corporation and other personal property, the acquisition of which is not otherwise authorized by this chapter, shall be sold or otherwise disposed of within six months unless the time is extended by the superintendent.

2. Real property purchased by a state bank at sales upon foreclosure of mortgages or deeds of trust owned by it, or acquired upon judgments or decrees obtained or rendered for debts due it, or real property conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its business, or real property obtained by it through redemption as a junior mortgage or judgment creditor, shall be sold or otherwise disposed of by the state bank within five years after title is vested in the state bank, unless the time is extended by the superintendent. Agricultural land held by a state bank pursuant to this subsection shall be valued on the books of the bank at a value determined by obtaining the per acre average of the valuations for the current year and the four previous years for agricultural land in the county in which the agricultural land is located as published by Iowa state university of science and technology. If an appraisal conducted by an independent real estate appraiser is available for the current year, the five-year county average shall be adjusted by either adding or subtracting from the five-year average the percentage by which the particular farm’s current appraised value exceeds or is less than the current year’s county average value. To the extent permitted by federal law, national banks may value agricultural land on the same basis as state banks. Before the state bank sells or otherwise disposes of agricultural land held pursuant to this subsection, the state bank shall first offer the prior owner the opportunity to repurchase the agricultural land on the terms the state bank proposes to sell or dispose of the agricultural land.

524.911 Letters of credit.
A state bank shall have the power to issue, advise and confirm letters of credit authorizing a beneficiary thereof to draw on or demand payment of the state bank or its correspondent banks.

524.912 Customer shall be free to obtain own insurance and loan.
In any case in which any kind of insurance is required by the state bank as a condition for lending money or in connection with any other transaction, the customer shall be free to obtain such insurance from a source of the customer's selection. In the case of a sale of shares of stock, bonds or other securities or real property by an officer or employee which is authorized by the board of directors of a state bank in the manner provided for in subsection 3 of section 524.710, the purchaser shall be free to obtain any loan for the purchase thereof from a lender of the purchaser's selection.

524.913 Consumer loans.
1. The provisions of the Iowa consumer credit code shall apply to consumer loans made by a bank, and provisions of that code shall supersede any conflicting provision of this chapter with respect to consumer loans.
2. This section shall not apply to a consumer loan which is a real property improvement loan insured wholly or in part by the federal housing administration of the United States.

DIVISION X FIDUCIARY POWERS

524.1001 Power to act as fiduciary.
When approving a proposed state bank, or at any time subsequent thereto upon amendment of its articles of incorporation, the superintendent may authorize a state bank to act in a fiduciary capacity. In determining whether the superintendent shall authorize a state bank to act in a fiduciary capacity, the superintendent may consider any of the relevant criteria referred to in section 524.305, and other appropriate facts and circumstances. In any fiduciary capacity in which a state bank may act pursuant to this section, it shall have all the rights and duties which an individual has in such capacity under applicable law and under the terms upon which the state bank is designated to act in such capacity. In authorizing a state bank to act in a fiduciary capacity, the superintendent may limit such authorization to such capacities as the superintendent deems appropriate.

524.1002 Actions required, permitted or prohibited in a fiduciary capacity.
The following rules shall be applicable to a state bank acting in the capacity of fiduciary:
1. A state bank shall segregate from its assets all property held as fiduciary, other than items in the course of collection, and shall keep separate records of all such property for each account for which such property is held.
2. Funds of a fiduciary account may be deposited in the state bank which is acting as fiduciary, either as demand deposits, savings deposits or time deposits having a single or multiple maturity.
3. A state bank may provide any oath or affidavit required of the state bank as fiduciary through an officer acting on behalf of the state bank.
4. A state bank shall not make a loan or extension of credit of any funds held as fiduciary, directly or indirectly, to or for the benefit of a director, officer or employee of the state bank or of an affiliate, a partnership or other unincorporated association of which such director, officer or employee is a partner or member, or a corporation in which such officer, director or employee has a controlling interest, except a loan specifically authorized by the terms upon which the state bank was designated as fiduciary.
5. Unless otherwise authorized by the instrument creating the relationship, court order or the laws of this state, a state bank, as fiduciary, shall not, directly or indirectly, sell any asset to the state bank for its own account, or to an officer, director or employee, nor purchase from the state bank, or an officer, director or employee, any asset or any security issued by the state bank except, in the case of a state bank:
   a. Investments in which a state bank may invest without limitation pursuant to section 524.901, subsection 1,
   b. Assets purchased by the state bank pursuant to an agreement whereby the state bank is bound to sell, and the state bank as fiduciary is bound to buy, at a date not more than one year from the date of acquisition by the state bank, such assets at a price agreed upon at the time of acquisition by the state bank, or
   c. Any asset sold to the state bank for its own account or purchased in a fiduciary capacity from the state bank with the prior approval of the superintendent.

524.1003 Removal of fiduciary powers.
If the superintendent at any time concludes that a state bank authorized to act in a fiduciary capacity is managing its accounts in an unsafe or unsound manner, or in a manner in conflict with the provisions of this chapter, and such state bank refuses to correct such practices upon notice to do so, the superintendent may forthwith direct that the state bank cease to act as a fiduciary and proceed to resign its fiduciary positions.
In such event the superintendent shall cause to be filed a petition in the district court in which the state bank has its principal place of business setting forth in general terms that the state bank is acting as fiduciary with respect to certain property and that it is necessary and desirable that successor fiduciaries be appointed. Upon the filing of the petition the court shall enter an order requiring all persons interested in all such fiduciary accounts to designate and take all necessary measures to appoint a successor fiduciary within a time to be fixed by the order, or to show cause why a successor fiduciary should not be appointed by the court. The court shall also direct the state bank to mail a copy of the order to each living settlor and each person known by the state bank to have a beneficial interest in the fiduciary accounts with respect to which the state bank is fiduciary and with respect to which it is being asked to resign its position. Such notice shall be mailed to the last known address of each such settlor and person having a beneficial interest as shown by the records of the state bank. The court may also order publication of such order to the extent that it deems necessary to protect the interests of absent or remote beneficiaries.

In any fiduciary account where those interested therein fail to cause a successor fiduciary to be appointed prior to the time fixed in such order, the court shall appoint a successor fiduciary. A successor fiduciary appointed in accordance with the terms of this section shall succeed to all the rights, powers, titles, duties and responsibilities of the state bank, except that the successor fiduciary shall not exercise powers given in the instrument creating the powers that by its express terms are personal to the fiduciary therein designated and except claims or liabilities arising out of the management of the fiduciary account prior to the date of the transfer.

524.1004 Voluntary relinquishment of fiduciary capacity.
A state bank desiring to surrender its authorization to act in a fiduciary capacity, in order to relieve itself of the necessity of complying with the requirements attendant to such capacity, shall file with the superintendent a certified copy of a resolution signifying such intent. In such event the state bank shall cause to be filed a petition in the district court in which the state bank has its principal place of business setting forth in general terms that the state bank is acting as fiduciary with respect to certain property and that it desires to cease its fiduciary function and resign its fiduciary positions. Upon the filing of the petition the relinquishment of fiduciary capacity and the appointment of a successor fiduciary or fiduciaries shall be handled in the same manner and with the same effect as provided for in section 524.1003, dealing with the removal of fiduciary powers.

After compliance with this section the state bank shall proceed to amend its articles of incorporation, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, in a manner to indicate that it is no longer authorized to act in a fiduciary capacity. The superintendent shall approve the proposed amendment, in the manner provided for in this chapter, if the superintendent is satisfied that the state bank has properly relieved itself of its fiduciary responsibilities.

524.1005 Trust companies operating on January 1, 1970.
A trust company existing and operating on January 1, 1970 and which was authorized to act only as a trust company may continue to act only in a fiduciary capacity according to the terms of its articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation of the trust company may be renewed in perpetuity. When applicable, this chapter applies to the operations of the trust company. Section 524.107, subsection 2, regarding the use of the word “trust” does not apply to a trust company subject to this section.

524.1006 Banks depositing securities in federally regulated corporation.
A bank, either acting as a fiduciary or holding securities as a managing agent or custodian, including a custodian for a fiduciary, may deposit securities in a federally regulated clearing corporation as provided in section 633.89, and in addition may deposit securities, the principal and interest of which the United States or any United States department, agency, or instrumentality either has agreed to pay or has guaranteed, in a federal reserve bank.

The records of a depositing bank at all times must identify the persons on whose behalf securities have been deposited in a federal reserve bank. An interest in deposited securities may be transferred by entry on the books of the federal reserve bank without physical delivery of the securities. A depositing bank is subject to rules adopted by the superintendent of banking, with respect to state banks, and by the comptroller of the currency, with respect to national banking associations. On demand by the owner, a bank acting as a managing agent or as a custodian shall identify in writing the securities deposited in a federal reserve bank for the account of the owner. On demand by any party to the accounting of a bank acting as a fiduciary, the bank shall identify in writing the securities deposited in a federal reserve bank for its account as fiduciary.

This section applies regardless of the date of the agreement, instrument, or court order under which the bank was appointed.

524.1007 Succession of fiduciary accounts to an affiliate.
which are authorized to act in a fiduciary capacity. In the agreement the succeeding affiliate may agree to succeed the relinquishing affiliate as a fiduciary to those fiduciary accounts which are designated in the agreement. The designation of accounts may be by general class or description and may include fiduciary accounts subject and not subject to court administration and fiduciary accounts to arise in the future under wills, trusts, court orders, or other documents under which the relinquishing affiliate is named as a fiduciary or is named to become a fiduciary upon the death of a testator or settlor or upon the happening of any other subsequent event. The agreement shall provide that the succeeding affiliate maintain one or more employees or agents at the office of the relinquishing affiliate in order to facilitate the continued servicing of the designated fiduciary accounts. The relinquishing affiliate shall mail a notice of the succession to all persons having an interest in a fiduciary account at the then last known address, and shall publish a notice of the succession to fiduciary accounts in a newspaper published in the county of the principal place of business of the relinquishing affiliate. After the publication, the succeeding affiliate shall, without further notice, approval or authorization, succeed to the relinquishing affiliate as to the fiduciary accounts and the fiduciary powers, rights, privileges, duties, and liabilities for the fiduciary accounts. On the effective date of the succession to fiduciary accounts, the relinquishing affiliate is released from the fiduciary duties under the fiduciary accounts and shall discontinue its exercise of trust powers to the fiduciary accounts. This subsection does not absolve a bank or affiliate from liabilities arising out of a breach of fiduciary duty occurring prior to the effective date of the succession to fiduciary accounts.

2. Within sixty days after the mailing and publication of the notice, a person with an interest in a fiduciary account included within the notice and agreement required by subsection 1 may apply to the district court in the county in which the notice is published for the appointment of a new fiduciary on the ground that the succeeding fiduciary will adversely affect the administration of the fiduciary account. After notice to all interested parties and a hearing on the issues, the court may appoint a new fiduciary to replace the succeeding fiduciary if it finds that the substitution of the succeeding fiduciary will adversely affect the administration of the account and that the appointment of a new fiduciary would be in the best interests of the beneficiaries of the fiduciary account. This subsection is in addition to section 633.65 governing the removal of a fiduciary.

3. For purposes of subsection 1, “affiliate” means another state bank or a national bank located in this state and organized under 12 U.S.C. secs. 21 et seq. to engage generally in the banking business. A state bank and another bank shall not be deemed “affiliates” unless both are under the common ownership of a bank holding company as defined in section 524.1801 that owns at least eighty percent of the voting shares of each of the two banks.

4. The privilege extended to a state bank by this section is also extended on the same terms and conditions to a national bank located in this state and organized under 12 U.S.C. secs. 21 et seq. to engage generally in the banking business.

524.1008 Succession of fiduciary accounts to an independent bank.

1. A state bank authorized to act in a fiduciary capacity may enter into an agreement for the succession of fiduciary accounts with one or more other state or national banks that are located in this state and authorized to act in a fiduciary capacity. In the agreement the succeeding bank may agree to succeed the relinquishing bank as a fiduciary with respect to those fiduciary accounts which are designated in the agreement. The designation of accounts may be by general class or description and may include fiduciary accounts subject and not subject to court administration and fiduciary accounts to arise in the future under wills, trusts, court orders, or other documents under which the relinquishing bank is named as a fiduciary or is named to become a fiduciary upon the death of a testator or settlor or upon the happening of any other subsequent event. The agreement shall provide either (a) that the succeeding bank maintain one or more employees or agents at the office of the relinquishing bank in order to facilitate the continued servicing of the designated fiduciary accounts, or (b) that the relinquishing bank act as an agent of the succeeding bank with respect to the fiduciary accounts that are subject to the agreement, and the relinquishing bank as an agent may perform services other than fiduciary services with respect to those accounts. If the relinquishing bank is an agent under alternative (b) above, then the relinquishing bank shall disclose to its customers that it is acting as an agent of the succeeding bank. The relinquishing bank shall mail a notice of the succession to all persons having an interest in a fiduciary account at their last known address, and shall publish a notice of the succession to fiduciary accounts in a newspaper published in the county of the principal place of business of the transferring bank. After the publication, the succeeding bank may engage generally in the banking business.

2. Within sixty days after the mailing and publication of the notice, a person with an interest in a fiduciary account included within the notice and agreement required by subsection 1 may apply to the district court in the county in which the notice is published for the appointment of a new fiduciary on the ground that the succeeding fiduciary will adversely affect the administration of the fiduciary account. After notice to all interested parties and a hearing on the issues, the court may appoint a new fiduciary to replace the succeeding fiduciary if it finds that the substitution of the succeeding fiduciary will adversely affect the administration of the account and that the appointment of a new fiduciary would be in the best interests of the beneficiaries of the fiduciary account. This subsection is in addition to section 633.65 governing the removal of a fiduciary.

3. A state bank or national bank that is owned or controlled by a bank holding company as defined in section 524.1801 shall not be a party to an agreement authorized by subsection 1. A bank shall not agree to relinquish fiduciary accounts to or act as an agent of more than one succeeding bank at any one time.

4. The privilege of succeeding to fiduciary accounts that is extended to a state bank by subsection 1 is also extended on the same terms and conditions to a national bank located in this state and organized under 12 U.S.C. secs. 21 et seq. to engage generally in the banking business.

DIVISION XI

AFFILIATES

524.1101 Definitions.
For the purposes of this chapter, an "affiliate" of a state bank shall include any corporation, trust, estate, association, or other similar organization:

1. Of which a state bank, directly or indirectly, owns or controls either a majority of the voting shares or more than fifty percent of the number of shares voted for the election of its directors, trustees, or other individuals exercising similar functions at the preceding election, or controls in any manner the election of a majority of its directors, trustees, or other individuals exercising similar functions.

2. Of which control is held, directly or indirectly, through share ownership or in any other manner, by the shareholders of a state bank who own or control either a majority of the shares of such state bank or more than fifty percent of the number of shares voted for the election of directors of such state bank at the preceding election, or by trustees for the benefit of the shareholders of any such state bank.

3. Of which a majority of its directors, trustees, or other individuals exercising similar functions are directors of any one state bank.

4. Which owns or controls, directly or indirectly, either a majority of the voting shares of a state bank or more than fifty percent of the number of shares voted for the election of directors of a state bank at the preceding election, or controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of a state bank, or for the benefit of whose shareholders or members all or substantially all of the outstanding voting shares of a state bank is held by trustees.

5. Which is a bank holding company, as defined by the laws of the United States, of which a state bank is a subsidiary, and any other subsidiary, as defined by the laws of the United States, of a bank holding company.

524.1102 Loans and other transactions with affiliates.
No state bank shall make any loan or any extension of credit to, or purchase securities under repurchase agreement from, any of its affiliates, or invest any of its funds in the shares, bonds, capital securities, or other obligations of any such affiliate, or accept the shares, bonds, capital securities, or other obligations of any such affiliate as collateral security for advances made to any customer, if the aggregate amount of such loans, extensions of credit, repurchase agreements, investments and advances against such collateral security will exceed:

1. In the case of any one such affiliate, ten percent of the capital and surplus of such state bank.

2. In the case of all such affiliates, twenty percent of the capital and surplus of such state bank.

Within the foregoing limitations, each loan or extension of credit of any kind or character to an affiliate shall be secured by collateral in the form of shares of stock, bonds, capital securities or other such obligations having a market value at the time of making the loan or extension of credit of at least twenty percent more than the amount of the loan or extension of credit, or of at least ten percent more than the amount of the loan or extension of credit if it is secured by obligations of any state, or of any political subdivision or agency thereof.

A loan or extension of credit to a director, officer, clerk or other employee or any representative of any such affiliate shall be deemed a loan to the affiliate to the extent that the proceeds of such loan are used for the benefit of, or transferred to, the affiliate.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to loans or extensions of credit fully secured by obligations of the United States, or the federal intermediate credit banks, or the federal land banks, or the federal home loan banks, or obligations fully guaranteed by the United States as to principal and interest. The provisions of this section shall likewise not apply to indebtedness of any affiliate for unpaid balances due a state bank on assets purchased from such bank.

For the purposes of this section, the term "extension of credit" and "extensions of credit" shall be deemed to include any purchase of securities, other assets or obligations under repurchase agreement, and the discount of promissory notes, bills of exchange, conditional sales contracts, or similar paper, whether with or without recourse.

§524.1103 Exceptions.
The provisions of section 524.1102 shall not apply to any affiliate:
1. Engaged solely in holding or operating real estate used wholly or substantially by the state bank in its operations or acquired for its future use.
2. Engaged solely in conducting a safe-deposit business or the business of an agricultural credit corporation eligible to discount loans with a federal intermediate credit bank.
3. Engaged solely in holding obligations of the United States, the federal intermediate credit banks, the federal land banks, the federal home loan banks, or obligations fully guaranteed by the United States as to principal and interest.
4. Where the affiliate relationship has arisen as a result of shares acquired in satisfaction of a bona fide debt contracted prior to the date of the creation of such relationship provided that such shares shall be sold at public or private sale within one year from the date of the creation of the relationship, unless the time is extended by the superintendent.
5. Where the affiliate relationship exists by reason of the ownership or control of any voting shares thereof by a state bank as executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, agent, depository, or in any other fiduciary capacity, except where such shares are held for the benefit of all or a majority of the shareholders of such state bank.
6. Which is a bank.

§524.1104 Applicability of general loan limitations.
Any loan or extension of credit to an affiliate, and any investment in the shares, bonds, capital securities or other obligations of an affiliate, excepted by the provisions of section 524.1102 from the requirements of that section, shall continue to be subject to the other provisions of this chapter applicable to loans or extensions of credit by a state bank and investments by a state bank in shares, bonds, capital securities, or other such obligations.

§524.1105 Examination of affiliates and reports.
1. For the purpose of determining the condition of a state bank and information concerning the state bank, the superintendent shall have the power to make or cause to be made an examination of any affiliate to the same extent as the superintendent may examine a state bank under this chapter.
2. If the superintendent has reasonable cause to believe that any corporation, trust, estate, association, or other similar organization is an affiliate, the superintendent may require the organization to furnish such information as may enable the superintendent to determine whether the organization is an affiliate.

§524.1106 Fees paid to an affiliate — approval by superintendent.
Any contract or arrangement for management or financial services which involves payment for these services by a state bank to a person who owns shares in that bank, or to any other affiliate, must be approved by the superintendent prior to such contract or arrangement becoming binding upon the state bank, and may also be reviewed at any time after original approval. Any contract or arrangement for consultation or other services which involve payment of those services by a state bank to any person who individually or whose spouse or immediate family or any combination thereof owns fifteen percent or more of the outstanding shares of that bank or is an officer or director thereof, or to an affiliate may be reviewed by the superintendent. The superintendent shall have authority to determine whether or not such fees are reasonable in relation to the services performed, and if the superintendent determines they are unreasonable, to require that they be reduced to a reasonable amount or eliminated and the excess refunded, or that such contract or arrangement not be entered into by the state bank.
or cornering upon the county in which the principal place of business of the state bank is located.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of this section, no state bank shall establish a bank office outside the corporate limits of a municipal corporation or in a municipal corporation in which there is already an established state or national bank or office, however the subsequent chartering and establishment of any state or national bank, through the opening of its principal place of business within the municipal corporation where the bank office is located, shall not affect the right of the bank office to continue in operation in that municipal corporation. The existence and continuing operation of a bank office shall not be affected by the subsequent discontinuance of a municipal corporation pursuant to the provisions of sections 368.11 to 368.22. A bank office existing and operating on July 1, 1976, which is not located within the confines of a municipal corporation, shall be allowed to continue its existence and operation without regard to this subsection.

2. a. A state bank may establish bank offices within the municipal corporation or urban complex in which the principal place of business of the bank is located, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

   (1) If the municipal corporation or urban complex has a population of one hundred thousand or less according to the most recent federal census, the state bank shall not establish more than three bank offices.

   (2) If the municipal corporation or urban complex has a population of more than one hundred thousand but not more than two hundred thousand according to the most recent federal census, the state bank shall not establish more than four bank offices.

   (3) If the municipal corporation or urban complex has a population of more than two hundred thousand according to the most recent federal census, the state bank shall not establish more than five bank offices.

   b. For purposes of this subsection, “urban complex” means the geographic area bounded by the corporate limits of two or more municipal corporations, each of which being contiguous to or cornering upon at least one of the other municipal corporations within the complex. A state bank located in a municipal corporation or urban complex which complies with the requirements of chapter 527 is not a branch bank office of the bank whose assets are so acquired.

   c. One such facility that is located on the same property, or that is adjacent to or cornering upon the property on which an office of a bank is located, or that is separated from being adjacent to or cornering upon the property only by a street, alley, or other publicly owned right of way, may be found by the superintendent to be an integral part of that office location and not a separate bank office within the meaning of this section. This paragraph does not authorize more than one facility to be found to be an integral part of a bank office.

3. Notwithstanding subsection 1, if the assets of a state or national bank in existence on January 1, 1985 are transferred to a different state or national bank in the state which is located in the same county or a county contiguous to or cornering upon the county in which the principal place of business of the acquired bank is located, the resulting or acquiring bank may convert to and operate as its bank office any one or more of the business locations occupied as the principal place of business or as a bank office of the bank whose assets are so acquired.

The limitations on bank office locations contained in unnumbered paragraph 1 of this section, and the limitation on the number of bank offices within the municipal or urban complex of the resulting or acquiring bank contained in subsection 2 shall be applicable to any bank office otherwise authorized by this subsection. A bank office established under the authority of this subsection is subject to the approval of the superintendent, shall be operated in accordance with this chapter relating to the operation of bank offices, and may be augmented by an integral facility when approved under subsection 2, paragraph “d”.

524.1203 Cancellation of approval of offices.

Whenever an examination by the superintendent or other supervisory agencies discloses that the operation of a bank office is being conducted in violation of section 524.1201, the superintendent may forthwith revoke the approval of the bank office.

524.1204 Privileges extended to national banks.

The privileges extended to state banks by section 524.1201, 524.1202 and 524.1212 and chapter 527 shall be available on the same conditions to national banks to the extent they are so authorized by federal law.

524.1212 Location of satellite terminals.

Any state bank may utilize a satellite terminal, as defined in section 527.2, when that satellite terminal is lawfully being operated, at any location within this state. A satellite terminal which complies with the requirements of chapter 527 is not a branch bank or an office of a bank and is not subject to the restrictions on location or number set forth in section 524.1202. Any transaction engaged in through the use of a satellite terminal shall be deemed to take place at the principal place of business of a bank whose accounts and records are affected by the transaction.

DIVISION XIII

DISSOLUTION

524.1301 Voluntary dissolution prior to commencement of business.

1. Subsequent to the issuance of the certificate of incorporation and prior to the issuance of the authorization to do business, a state bank which has not issued any shares may be voluntarily dissolved by its incorporators. In such case the articles of dissolution shall be prepared and filed in the manner provided in section 496A.79. The articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the superintendent, together with the applicable filing and recording fees, who shall deliver the same to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the office of the county recorder.

2. A state bank which has issued its shares, whether or not it has received an authorization to do business, but which has not commenced any business for which an authorization is required, may propose to dissolve by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least three-fourths of the shares entitled to vote thereon. After obtaining the approval of the superintendent to dissolve under this section the state bank shall deliver to the superintendent articles of dissolution which shall be executed by two duly authorized officers and which shall contain the date of incorporation, a statement that it has not transacted any business for which an authorization to do business is required, a statement that all liabilities of the state bank have been paid or provided for, a statement that all amounts received on account of capital, surplus and undivided profits, less any part thereof disbursed for necessary expenses, have been returned to the persons entitled thereto, and the number of shares entitled to vote on the dissolution and the number of shares voted for or against it respectively. If the superintendent finds that the articles of dissolution satisfy the requirements of this chapter, the superintendent shall deliver them to the secretary of state, with the superintendent's written approval, and notify the state bank of the action.

524.1302 Involuntary dissolution prior to commencement of business.

Prior to the issuance of an authorization to do business, the superintendent may cause the dissolution of a state bank if there exists any reason why it should not have been incorporated under this chapter or if an authorization to do business has not been issued within one year after the date of its incorporation, or such longer time as the superintendent may allow for satisfaction of conditions precedent to its issuance. After giving the state bank adequate notice and an opportunity for hearing, the superintendent shall certify the applicable facts by the filing of a statement with the secretary of state, who shall thereafter issue a certificate of dissolution. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution by the secretary of state, the corporate existence of the state bank shall cease.

524.1303 Voluntary dissolution after commencement of business.

1. A state bank which has commenced business may propose to voluntarily dissolve upon the affirmative vote of the holders of at least three-fourths of the shares entitled to vote thereon, adopting a plan of dissolution involving both a provision for acquisition of its assets and assumption of its liabilities by another state bank or national bank and a provision for continuance of its business if acquisition of its assets and assumption of its liabilities is not effected, or any other plan of dissolution providing for full payment of its liabilities.

2. Upon receipt of an application for approval of a plan of dissolution the superintendent shall conduct such investigation as the superintendent may deem necessary to determine whether the plan adequately protects the interests of depositors, other creditors and shareholders and, if the plan involves an acquisition of assets and assumption of liabilities by another state bank, whether such acquisition and assumption would be consistent with adequate and sound banking and in the public interest, on the basis of factors substantially similar to those set forth in section 524.1403, subsection 1, paragraph "d". Within ninety days after receipt of the application the superintendent shall approve or disapprove the application on the basis of the superintendent's investigation. Before receiving the decision of the superintendent with respect to the pending application, the applying state bank shall, upon notice, reimburse the superintendent to the extent of the expenses incurred by the superintendent in connection with the application. Thereafter the superintendent shall give to the applying state bank written notice of the superintendent's decision, and in the event of disapproval, a statement of the reasons for the decision. The decision of the superintendent shall be subject to judicial review in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

3. When a state bank has proposed to dissolve by adopting a plan of dissolution involving a provision for acquisition of its assets and assumption of its liabilities by another state bank, it shall publish a notice of the proposed transaction. The notice shall be published once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the municipal corporation or unincorporated area in which the dissolving bank has its principal place of business, and in the municipal corporation or unincorporated area in which the acquiring state bank has its principal place of business, or if there is none, a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or counties, or in a county adjoining the county or counties, in which the dissolving bank and the acquiring bank have their principal place of business. Such publication of notice shall be made within thirty days after making application to the superintendent for approval of the plan of dissolution, and proof of publication of the notice shall be delivered to the superintendent. The notice shall set forth the name of the dissolving state bank and of the acquiring state bank, the location and post-office address of the principal place of business of the dissolving state bank and of the acquiring state bank and of each office to be maintained by the acquiring state bank and a brief statement of the nature of the proposed transaction.
Prior to making a determination on the pending application the superintendent shall, upon adequate notice, afford all interested parties an opportunity for a stenographically reported hearing during which such parties shall be allowed to present evidence in support of, or in opposition to, the pending application. If the superintendent finds that the superintendent must act immediately on the pending application in order to protect the interests of depositors or the assets of the dissolving bank, the superintendent may proceed without requiring publication of the notice and without providing for the hearing referred to in this subsection.

77, 79, 81, §524.1303]

524.1304 Voluntary dissolution — statement of intent to dissolve.
1. Immediately upon the adoption and approval of a plan of dissolution under section 524.1303 (or if the plan provides for continuance of the business of the state bank unless a purchase of its assets and an assumption of its liabilities becomes effective, immi-diately after such purchase and assumption becomes effective), the state bank shall deliver to the superintendent a statement of intent to dissolve which shall be signed by two of its duly authorized officers and which shall contain the name of the state bank, the post-office address of its principal place of business, the name and address of its officers and directors, the number of shares entitled to vote on the plan of dissolution and the number of shares voted for or against the plan, respectively.
2. If the statement of intent to dissolve satisfies the requirements of this section, the superintendent shall deliver the statement with the superintendent’s written approval to the secretary of state who shall issue to the state bank an approved copy of such statement. Upon the issuance of an approved copy of the statement of intent to dissolve, the state bank shall cease to accept deposits or carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the proper winding up thereof in accordance with the approved plan, but its corporate existence shall continue until issuance of a certificate of dissolution pursuant to section 524.1308.
3. If the laws of the United States require approval by any federal agency, the superintendent shall withhold delivery of the approved statement of intent to dissolve until the superintendent receives notice of the decision of such agency. If the final approval of the agency is not given, the superintendent shall notify the applying state bank that the approval of the superintendent has been rescinded for that reason.

524.1305 Voluntary dissolution proceedings
— winding up.
1. The board of directors shall have full power to wind up and settle the affairs of a state bank in voluntary dissolution proceedings.
2. Within thirty days after the issuance by the secretary of state of an approved copy of the statement of intent to dissolve, the state bank shall give notice of its dissolution:
a. By mail to each depositor and creditor (except those as to whom the liability of the state bank has been assumed by another state bank or national bank pursuant to the plan), at their last address of record as shown upon the books of the bank, including a statement of the amount shown by the books of the state bank to be due to such depositor or creditor and a demand that any claim for a greater amount be filed with the state bank any time before a specified date at least ninety days after the date of the notice.
b. By mail to each lessee of a safe-deposit box and each customer for whom property is held in safekeeping (except those as to whom the liability of the state bank has been assumed by another state bank or national bank pursuant to the plan), at their last known address of record as shown upon the books of the state bank, including a demand that all property held in a safe-deposit box or held in safekeeping by the state bank be withdrawn by the person entitled thereto before a specified date which is at least ninety days after the date of the notice.
c. By mail to each person, at the person’s last known address as shown upon the books of the state bank, interested in funds held in a fiduciary account or other representative capacity.
d. By a conspicuous posting at each office of the state bank.
e. By such publication as the superintendent may prescribe.
3. As soon after the issuance of an approved statement of intent to dissolve as feasible, the state bank shall resign all fiduciary appointments and take such action as may be necessary to settle its fiduciary accounts.
4. All known depositors and creditors shall be paid promptly after the date specified in the notice given under paragraph “a” of subsection 2 of this section. Unearned portions of rentals for safe-deposit boxes shall be rebated to the lessees thereof.

5. Safe-deposit boxes, the contents of which have not been removed by the owners after the date specified in the notice given under paragraph "b" of subsection 2 of this section, shall be opened under the supervision of the superintendent and the contents placed in sealed packages which, together with unclaimed property held by the state bank in safekeeping, shall be transmitted to the treasurer of state. Amounts due to depositors who are unknown, or who are under a disability and there is no person legally competent to receive such amount, or who cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence, shall be transmitted to the treasurer of state, together with a statement giving the name of the person, if known, entitled to such amount, the person's last known address, the amount due such person, and such other information about such person as the treasurer of state may reasonably require. All property transmitted to the treasurer of state pursuant to this subsection shall be treated as abandoned, retained by the treasurer of state, and subject to claim in the manner provided for in sections 556.14 to 556.21. All amounts due creditors described in section 496A.101 shall be deposited with the treasurer of state in accordance with the provisions of that section. Such amounts shall be retained by the treasurer of state and subject to claim in the manner provided for in said section 496A.101.

6. Upon approval by the superintendent, assets remaining after the performance of all obligations of the state bank under subsections 3, 4, and 5 of this section shall be distributed to its shareholders according to their respective rights and preferences. Partial distributions to shareholders may be made prior to such time only if, and to the extent, approved by the superintendent. All amounts due shareholders described in section 496A.101 shall be deposited with the treasurer of state in accordance with the provisions of that section. Such amounts shall be retained by the treasurer of state and subject to claim in the manner provided for in said section 496A.101.

7. During the course of dissolution proceedings the state bank shall make such reports as the superintendent may require, and shall continue to be subject to the provisions of this chapter, including those relating to examination of state banks, until completion of the dissolution of the state bank.

8. If at any time during the course of dissolution proceedings the superintendent finds that the assets of the state bank will not be sufficient to discharge its obligations, the superintendent shall apply to the district court for appointment as receiver in the manner required by section 524.1310, and the dissolution shall thereafter be treated as an involuntary dissolution in accordance with the terms of that section and sections 524.1311 and 524.1312.

524.1306 Revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings.

1. A state bank may, at any time prior to the issuance of the approved copy of the statement of intent to dissolve by the secretary of state, revoke voluntary dissolution proceedings by consent of the shareholders in the manner provided for in section 496A.85 or by act of the state bank as provided for in section 496A.86, except that the vote taken on the resolution referred to in subsection 3 of section 496A.86 shall be adopted only upon the affirmative vote of the holders of at least three-fourths of the shares entitled to vote thereon.

2. The statement of revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings, whether by consent of shareholders or by act of the state bank, shall be delivered to the superintendent, together with the applicable filing and recording fee, who shall, if the superintendent finds that they satisfy the requirements of this section, deliver them to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

524.1307 Articles of dissolution.

1. If voluntary dissolution proceedings have not been revoked, then when all debts, liabilities and obligations of the state bank have been paid or otherwise discharged, or adequate provision has been made therefor, and all of the remaining property and assets of the state bank have been distributed to its shareholders, articles of dissolution shall be executed by the state bank by its president or a vice president and by its cashier or an assistant cashier, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which shall set forth:

a. The name of the state bank.

b. That the secretary of state has theretofore filed a statement of intent to dissolve the state bank, and the date on which such statement was filed.

c. That all debts, obligations and liabilities of the state bank have been paid or otherwise discharged or that adequate provision has been made therefor.

d. That all the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been distributed among its shareholders in accordance with their respective rights and interests.

e. That there are no suits pending against the corporation in any court, or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgment, order or decree which may be entered against it in any pending suit.

2. The articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the superintendent, together with the applicable filing and recording fee, who shall, if the superintendent finds that they satisfy the requirements of this section, deliver them to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

524.1308 Certificate of dissolution.

The secretary of state upon filing the articles of dissolution shall issue a certificate of dissolution, and send the same to the representative of the dissolved state bank. Upon the issuance of such

524.1309 Becoming subject to chapter 496A.

In lieu of the dissolution procedure prescribed in sections 524.1303 to 524.1308, a state bank may cease to carry on the business of banking and, after compliance with the provisions of this section, continue as a corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 496A.

2. The application to the superintendent for approval of a plan described in subsection 1 of this section shall be treated by the superintendent in the same manner as an application for approval of a plan of dissolution under subsection 2 of section 524.1303, and shall be subject to the provisions of subsection 3 of section 524.1303.

3. Immediately upon adoption and approval of a plan to voluntarily cease to carry on the business of banking and become a corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 496A, the state bank shall deliver to the superintendent a statement of its intention to cease to carry on the business of banking and become a corporation subject to the provisions of said chapter, which shall be signed by two of its duly authorized officers and shall contain the name of the state bank, the post-office address of its principal place of business, the name and address of its officers and directors, the number of shares entitled to vote on the plan and the number of shares voted for or against the plan, respectively, the nature of the business to be conducted by the corporation under the provisions of said chapter, and the general nature of the assets to be held by such corporation.

4. If the statement of intent to cease to carry on the business of banking and become a corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 496A satisfies the requirements of this section, the superintendent shall deliver the statement with written approval to the secretary of state who shall issue to the state bank an approved copy of such statement. Upon the issuance of an approved copy of the statement of intent, the state bank shall immediately surrender to the superintendent its authorization to do business as a bank and shall cease to accept deposits or carry on the banking business except insofar as may be necessary for it to complete the settlement of its affairs as a state bank in accordance with subsection 5.

5. The board of directors shall have full power to complete the settlement of the affairs of the state bank. Within thirty days after the issuance of an approved copy of the statement of intent to cease to carry on the business of banking and become a corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 496A, the state bank shall give notice of its intent to persons described in subsection 2 of section 524.1305 and in the manner provided for in that subsection. In completing the settlement of its affairs as a state bank the state bank shall also follow the procedure prescribed in subsections 3, 4 and 5 of section 524.1305.

6. Upon approval by the superintendent, assets remaining after the performance of all obligations described in this section, except those which the state bank wishes to retain when it becomes a corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 496A, shall be distributed to its shareholders according to their respective rights and preferences.

7. Upon completion of all the requirements of this section, the state bank shall deliver to the superintendent articles of intent to be subject to chapter 496A, together with the applicable filing and recording fees, which shall set forth that the state bank has complied with the provisions of this section, that it has ceased to carry on the business of banking, and the information required by section 496A.49 relative to the contents of articles of incorporation under chapter 496A. If the superintendent finds that the state bank has complied with the provisions of this section and that the articles of intent to be subject to said chapter satisfy the requirements of this section, the superintendent shall deliver them to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder.

8. Upon the filing of the articles of intent to be subject to chapter 496A, the state bank shall cease to be a state bank subject to the provisions of this chapter, and shall cease to have the powers of a state bank subject to this chapter and shall become a corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 496A. The secretary of state shall issue a certificate as to the filing of the articles of intent to be subject to the provisions of chapter 496A, and send the same to the corporation or its representative. The articles of intent to be subject to chapter 496A shall be the articles of incorporation of the corporation. The provisions of chapter 496A becoming applicable to a corporation formerly doing business as a state bank shall not affect any right accrued or established, or liability or penalty incurred under the provisions of this chapter prior to the filing with the secretary of state of the articles of intent to be subject to chapter 496A.

9. A shareholder of a state bank who objects, in the manner prescribed by section 496A.78, to adoption by the state bank of a plan to cease to carry on the business of banking and to continue as a corporation subject to the provisions of chapter 496A, shall be entitled to the rights and remedies of a dissenting shareholder provided for in that section.

524.1310 Involuntary dissolution after commencement of business — superintendent as receiver.

In a situation in which the superintendent has required, in accordance with the provisions of section 524.226, that the state bank cease to carry on its business, the superintendent shall apply to the district court for the county in which the state bank is located for appointment as receiver for the state bank. The district court shall appoint the superintendent as receiver unless the superintendent has tendered such appointment to the federal deposit insurance corporation as provided for in section 524.1313, in which case the district court shall appoint the federal deposit insurance corporation as receiver. The affairs of the state bank shall thereafter be under the direction of the district court, and the assets thereof shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of section 524.1312. All amounts due creditors and shareholders described in section 496A.101 shall be deposited with the treasurer of state in accordance with the provisions of that section. Such amounts shall be retained by the treasurer of state and subject to claim in the manner provided for in section 496A.101. Amounts due to depositors who are unknown, or who are under a disability and there is no person legally competent to receive such amount, or who cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence, shall be transmitted to the treasurer of state in the manner required by section 524.1305, subsection 5. Such property shall be treated as abandoned, retained by the treasurer of state, and subject to claim, in the manner provided for in sections 556.14 to 556.21. The attorney general, or such assistants as shall be appointed by the court, shall represent the superintendent in all proceedings connected with such receivership.

524.1311 Involuntary dissolution after commencement of business — receivership procedure.

1. In all situations in which the superintendent has been named the receiver as provided in section 524.1310 the superintendent shall make a diligent effort to collect and realize on the assets of the state bank, and make distribution of the proceeds from time to time to those entitled thereto. The superintendent may execute assignments, releases and satisfactions to effectuate sales and transfers as receiver or after the receivership has terminated. Upon the order of the court in which the receivership is pending, the superintendent may sell or compound all bad or doubtful debts, and, on a like order, may sell all the real and personal property of such state bank, on such terms as the court shall direct.

2. All expenses of the receivership and dissolution shall be fixed by the superintendent, subject to the approval of the district court, and shall be paid out of the assets of the state bank.

3. At the termination of the receivership, the superintendent shall file a final report containing the details of the superintendent’s actions therein, together with such additional facts as the court may require.

4. Upon the submission and approval of the final report, the court shall enter a decree dissolving the state bank whereupon the corporate existence of the state bank shall cease. It shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to cause certified copies of the decree to be filed with and recorded by the secretary of state and the county recorder of the county in which is located the state bank. No fee shall be charged by the secretary of state or said county recorder for the filing or recording thereof.

524.1312 Distribution of assets upon insolvency.

In the distribution of the assets of a state bank which is dissolved under this chapter, or by any other method, the order of payment of the liabilities of the state bank, in the event that its assets are insufficient to pay in full all its liabilities for which claims are made, shall be:

1. The payment of costs and expenses of the administration of the dissolution.

2. The payment of claims for public funds deposited pursuant to chapter 453 and the payment of claims which are given priority by applicable statutes. If the assets are insufficient for payment of the claims in full, then priority shall be determined as specified by the statutes or, in the absence of conflicting provisions, on a pro rata basis.

3. Amounts due to depositors.

4. The payment of all other claims pro rata, exclusive of claims on capital notes and debentures.

5. The payment of capital notes and debentures. 85 Acts, ch 194, §9
524.1313 Involuntary dissolution after commencement of business — tender of receivership to F.D.I.C.
1. When an insured state bank has ceased to carry on its business, the superintendent may tender to the federal deposit insurance corporation the appointment as receiver of the insured state bank. If the federal deposit insurance corporation accepts the appointment as receiver, the rights of depositors and other creditors of the insured state bank shall be determined in accordance with the laws of this state.
2. The federal deposit insurance corporation as receiver shall possess all the powers, rights and privileges given to the superintendent under section 524.1311, except insofar as that section may be in conflict with the laws of the United States.
3. If the federal deposit insurance corporation pays or makes available for payment the insured deposit liabilities of an insured state bank, the federal deposit insurance corporation, whether or not it has become receiver, shall be subrogated by operation of law to all rights against such insured state bank of the owners of such deposits in the same manner and to the same extent as subrogation of the federal deposit insurance corporation is provided for in applicable federal law in the case of a national bank.

524.1314 Survival of rights and remedies after dissolution or expiration — preservation of records.
1. The dissolution of a state bank, or the expiration of its period of duration, shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such state bank, its directors, officers, or shareholders, for any right or claim existing, or any liability incurred prior to such dissolution or expiration, if action or other proceeding thereon is commenced within two years after the date of such dissolution or expiration. Any such action or proceeding by or against the state bank may be prosecuted or defended by the state bank in its corporate name. The shareholders, directors and officers shall have power to take such corporate or other action as shall be appropriate to protect such remedy, right or claim.
2. Subsequent to the dissolution of a state bank, other than through the adoption of a plan involving a provision for acquisition of its assets and assumption of its liabilities by another state or national bank, the superintendent shall assume custody of the records of the state bank and shall retain them in accordance with the provisions of section 524.221. The superintendent may make copies of such records in accordance with the provisions of subsection 1 of section 524.221.

524.1401 Authority to merge or consolidate.
1. Upon compliance with the requirements of this chapter, one or more state banks or one or more national banks, or any combination of state and national banks, may merge or consolidate into a national bank or, with the approval of the superintendent, may merge into a state bank or consolidate into a new state bank.
2. The authority of a state bank to merge or consolidate into a national bank shall be subject to the condition that at the time of the transaction the laws of the United States shall authorize a national bank located in this state, without approval by the comptroller of the currency of the United States, to merge or consolidate into a state bank under limitations no more restrictive than those contained in this chapter with respect to the merger or consolidation of a state bank into a national bank.

524.1402 Requirements for a merger or consolidation.
The requirements for a merger or consolidation which must be satisfied by the parties thereto are:
1. The parties shall adopt a plan stating the method, terms and conditions of the merger or consolidation, including the rights under the plan of the shareholders of each of the parties, and an agreement concerning the merger or consolidation.
2. In the case of a state bank which is a party to the plan, if the proposed merger or consolidation will result in a state bank subject to this chapter, adoption of the plan by such state bank shall require the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the directors and approval by the shareholders, in the manner and according to the procedures prescribed in section 496A.70, at a meeting called in accordance with the terms of that section. In the case of a national bank, or if the proposed merger or consolidation will result in a national bank, adoption of the plan by each party thereto shall require the affirmative vote of at least such directors and shareholders whose affirmative vote thereon is required under the laws of the United States. Subject to applicable requirements of the laws of the United States in a case in which a national bank is a party to a plan, any modification of a plan which has been adopted shall be made by any method provided therein, or in the absence of such provision, by the same vote as required for adoption.
3. If a proposed merger or consolidation will result in a state bank, application for the required approval by the superintendent shall be made in the manner prescribed by the superintendent. There shall also be delivered to the superintendent, when available:
   a. Articles of merger or consolidation.
   b. Applicable fees payable to the secretary of state, as specified in section 496A.124, for the filing and recording of the articles of merger or consolidation.
   c. If there is any modification of the plan at any time prior to the approval by the superintendent under section 524.1403, an amendment of the application and, if necessary, of the articles of merger or consolidation, signed in the same manner as the originals, setting forth the modification of the plan, the method by which such modification was adopted and any related change in the provisions of the articles of merger or consolidation.

d. Proof of publication of the notice required by subsection 4 of this section.

4. If a proposed merger or consolidation will result in a state bank, the parties to the plan shall publish a notice of the proposed transaction in a newspaper of general circulation published in a municipal corporation or unincorporated area in which each party to the plan has its principal place of business, and in the case of a consolidation, in which the resulting state bank is to have its principal place of business, or if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or in a county adjoining the county, in which each party to the plan has its principal place of business and, in the case of a consolidation, in which the resulting state bank is to have its principal place of business. The notice shall be published once each week for two successive weeks, within thirty days after making application to the superintendent for approval of the plan. The notice shall set forth the names of the parties to the plan and the resulting state bank, the location and post-office address of the principal place of business of the resulting state bank and of each office to be maintained by the resulting state bank, the purpose or purposes of the resulting state bank, and the date of delivery of the articles of merger and consolidation to the superintendent.

5. The articles of merger or consolidation shall be signed by two duly authorized officers of each party to the plan and shall contain:

a. The names of the parties to the plan, and of the resulting state bank.

b. The location and the post-office address of the principal place of business of each party to the plan, and of each additional office maintained by the parties to the plan, and the location and post-office address of the principal place of business of the resulting state bank, and of each additional office to be maintained by the resulting state bank.

c. The votes by which the plan was adopted, and the time and place of each meeting in connection with such adoption.

d. The number of directors constituting the board of directors, and the names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as directors until the next annual meeting of the shareholders or until their successors be elected and qualify.

e. In the case of a merger, any amendment of the articles of incorporation of the resulting state bank.

f. In the case of a consolidation, the provisions required in the articles of incorporation of a state bank by section 524.302, subsections 3 to 7.

g. The plan of merger or consolidation.

6. If a proposed merger or consolidation will result in a national bank, a state bank which is a party to the plan shall:

a. Notify the superintendent of the proposed merger or consolidation.

b. Provide such evidence of the adoption of the plan as the superintendent may request.

c. Notify the superintendent of any abandonment or disapproval of the plan.

d. File with the superintendent and with the secretary of state a certificate of approval of the merger or consolidation by the comptroller of the currency of the United States.

e. Notify the superintendent of the date upon which such merger or consolidation is to become effective.

524.1403 Approval of merger or consolidation by superintendent.

1. Upon receipt of an application for approval of a merger or consolidation and of the supporting items required by section 524.1402, subsection 3, the superintendent shall conduct such investigation as the superintendent deems necessary to ascertain whether:

a. The articles of merger or consolidation and supporting items satisfy the requirements of this chapter.

b. The plan and any modification thereof adequately protects the interests of depositors, other creditors and shareholders.

c. The requirements for a merger or consolidation under all applicable laws have been satisfied and the resulting state bank would satisfy the requirements of this chapter with respect to it.

d. The merger or consolidation would be consistent with adequate and sound banking and in the public interest on the basis of the financial history and condition of the parties to the plan, including the adequacy of the capital structure of the resulting state bank, the character of the management of the resulting state bank, the potential effect of the merger or consolidation on competition and the convenience and needs of the area primarily to be served by the resulting state bank.

2. Within one hundred eighty days after receipt of the application, or within an additional period of not more than sixty days after receipt of an amendment of the application, the superintendent shall make a determination whether to approve or disapprove the application on the basis of the investigation. The plan shall not be modified at any time after approval of the application by the superintendent. Prior to making a determination on the pending application the superintendent shall, upon adequate notice, afford all interested persons an opportunity for a stenographically reported hearing during which such persons shall be allowed to present evidence in support of, or in opposition to, the pending application. If the superintendent finds that the superintendent must act immediately on the pending application in order to protect the interests of depositors or the assets of any party to the plan, the superintendent may proceed without requiring publication of the notice and without providing for the hearing referred to in this subsection. Before receiving the decision of the superintendent with respect to the pending application, the parties to the plan shall, upon notice, reimburse the superintendent to the extent of the expenses incurred in connection with the application. Thereafter the superintendent shall give to the parties to the plan written notice of the decision and, in the event of disapproval, a statement of the reasons for the decision. The decision of the superintendent shall be subject to judicial review in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

524.1404 Procedure after approval by the superintendent — issuance of certificate of merger or consolidation.

If the laws of the United States require the approval of the merger or consolidation by any federal agency, the superintendent shall, after the superintendent's approval, retain the articles of merger or consolidation until the superintendent receives notice of the decision of such agency. If the final approval of the agency is not given, the superintendent shall notify the parties to the plan that the approval of the superintendent has been rescinded for that reason. If such agency gives its approval, the superintendent shall deliver the articles of merger or consolidation, with the superintendent's approval indicated thereon, to the secretary of state, and shall notify the parties to the plan. The receipt of the approved articles of merger or consolidation by the secretary of state shall constitute filing thereof with that office. The secretary of state shall record the articles of merger or consolidation in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder in each county in which the parties to the plan had previously maintained a principal place of business and, in the case of a consolidation, in the county in which the new state bank is to maintain its principal place of business. On the date upon which the merger or consolidation is effective the secretary of state shall notify the parties to the plan. The receipt of the approved articles of merger or consolidation by the secretary of state shall constitute filing thereof with that office. The secretary of state shall record the articles of merger or consolidation in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder in each county in which the parties to the plan had previously maintained a principal place of business and, in the case of a consolidation, in the county in which the new state bank is to maintain its principal place of business. On the date upon which the merger or consolidation is effective the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of merger or consolidation and send the same to the resulting state bank and a copy thereof to the superintendent.

524.1405 Effect of merger or consolidation.

1. The merger or consolidation shall be effective upon the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation with the secretary of state, or at any later date and time specified by the superintendent in writing on the articles of merger or consolidation. The certificate of merger or consolidation shall be conclusive evidence of the performance of all conditions precedent to the merger or consolidation, and of the existence or creation of the resulting state bank, except as against the state.

2. When a merger or consolidation becomes effective, the existence of each party to the plan, except the resulting state bank, shall cease as a separate entity but shall continue in, and the parties to the plan shall be, a single corporation which shall be the resulting state bank and which shall have all the property, rights, powers, duties and obligations of each party to the plan, except that the resulting state bank shall have only the authority to engage in such business and exercise such powers as it would have, and shall be subject to the same prohibitions and limitations to which it would be subject, upon original incorporation under this chapter. A resulting state bank may, however, engage in any business and exercise any right that any party to the plan which was a state bank subject to this chapter could lawfully exercise or engage in immediately prior to the merger or consolidation.

3. No liability of any party to the plan or of its shareholders, directors or officers shall be affected, nor shall any lien on any property of a party to the plan be impaired, by the merger or consolidation. Any claim existing or action pending by or against any party to the plan may be prosecuted to judgment as if the merger or consolidation had not taken place, or the resulting state bank may be substituted in its place. The articles of incorporation of the resulting state bank shall be, in the case of a merger, the same as its articles of incorporation prior to the merger with any change stated in the articles of merger, and in the case of a consolidation, the provisions stated in the articles of consolidation shall be deemed to be the original articles of incorporation of the resulting state bank.

524.1406 Rights of dissenting shareholders.

1. A shareholder of a state bank, which is a party to a proposed merger or consolidation plan which will result in a state bank subject to this chapter, who objects to the plan in the manner prescribed by section 496A.78, shall be entitled to the rights and remedies of a dissenting shareholder as provided in that section. Shares acquired by a state bank pursuant to payment of the agreed value therefor or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, pursuant to section 496A.78, shall be sold at public or private sale, within one year from the time of their purchase or acquisition, unless the time is extended by the superintendent.

2. If a shareholder of a national bank which is a party to a proposed merger or consolidation plan which will result in a state bank, or a shareholder of a state bank which is a party to a plan which will result in a national bank, shall object to the plan and shall object to payment of the agreed value therefor or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, pursuant to section 496A.78, shall be entitled to the rights and remedies of a dissenting shareholder as provided in that section. Shares acquired by a state bank pursuant to this subsection shall be sold at public or private sale within one year from the time of their purchase or acquisition, unless the time is extended by the superintendent.

524.1407 Succession to fiduciary accounts and appointments — application for appointment of new fiduciary.
1. If a party to a plan of merger or consolidation was authorized to act in a fiduciary capacity and if the resulting state or national bank is similarly authorized, the resulting state or national bank shall be automatically substituted by reason of the merger or consolidation as fiduciary of all accounts held in that capacity by such party to the plan, without further action and without any order or decree of any court or public officer, and shall have all the rights and be subject to all the obligations of such party as fiduciary.
2. No designation, nomination or appointment as fiduciary of a party to a plan of merger or consolidation shall lapse by reason of the merger or consolidation. The resulting state or national bank shall, if authorized to act in a fiduciary capacity, be entitled to act as fiduciary pursuant to each such designation, nomination or appointment to the same extent as the party to the plan so named could have acted in the absence of the merger or consolidation.
3. Any person with an interest in an account held in a fiduciary capacity by a party to a plan of merger or consolidation may, within sixty days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, apply to the district court in the county in which the resulting state or national bank has its principal place of business, for the appointment of a new fiduciary to replace the resulting state or national bank on the ground that the merger or consolidation will adversely affect the administration of the fiduciary account. The court shall have the discretion to appoint a new fiduciary to replace the resulting state or national bank if it should find, upon hearing after notice to all interested parties, that the merger or consolidation will adversely affect the administration of the fiduciary account and that the appointment of a new fiduciary will be in the best interests of the beneficiaries of the fiduciary account. This provision shall be in addition to any other provision of law governing the removal of fiduciaries and shall be subject to the terms upon which the party to the plan will hold the fiduciary account as designated as fiduciary.

524.1408 Merger of corporation substantially owned by a state bank.
Any state bank owning at least ninety-five percent of the outstanding shares, of each class, of another corporation which it is authorized to own under the provisions of this chapter, may merge such other corporation into itself without approval by a vote of the shareholders of either the state bank or the subsidiary corporation. The board of directors of the state bank shall approve a plan of merger, mail to shareholders of record of the subsidiary corporation and prepare and execute articles of merger in the manner provided for in section 496A.72. The articles of merger, together with the applicable filing and recording fees, shall be delivered to the superintendent who shall, if the superintendent approves of the proposed merger and if the superintendent finds the articles of merger satisfy the requirements of this section, deliver them to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary of state's office, and the same shall be filed in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon filing the articles of merger shall issue a certificate of merger and send the same to the state bank and a copy thereof to the superintendent.

524.1409 Authority for conversion of national bank into state bank.
A national bank may, subject to the provisions of this chapter, convert into a state bank upon authorization by and compliance with the laws of the United States, adoption of a plan of conversion by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of its directors and the holders of two-thirds of each class of its shares at a meeting held upon not less than ten days' notice to all shareholders, and upon approval of the superintendent.

524.1410 Application for approval by superintendent.
A national bank shall make an application to the superintendent for approval of the conversion in a manner prescribed by the superintendent and shall deliver to the superintendent, when available:
1. Articles of conversion.
2. As soon as available, proof of publication of the notice required by section 524.1412.
3. The applicable fee payable to the secretary of state, by reason of subsection 17 of section 496A.124, for the filing and recording of the articles of conversion.

524.1411 Articles of conversion.
The articles of conversion shall be signed by two duly authorized officers of the national bank and shall contain:
1. The name of the national bank and the name of the resulting state bank.
2. The location and post-office address of its principal place of business and of each additional office, and the location and post-office address of the principal place of business of the resulting state bank and of each additional office to be maintained by the resulting state bank.
3. The votes by which the plan of conversion was adopted and the time and place of each meeting in connection with the adoption.
4. The number of directors constituting the board of directors, and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as directors until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until successors be elected and qualify.

5. The provisions required in the articles of incorporation by subsections 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of section 524.302.

6. The plan of conversion.

524.1412 Publication of notice.

The national bank shall publish a notice of its intention to deliver, or the delivery of, the articles of conversion to the superintendent, once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the municipal corporation or unincorporated area in which the national bank has its principal place of business, or if there is none, a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or in a county adjoining the county, in which the national bank has its principal place of business.

The notice shall appear prior to, or within seven days after, the date of delivery of the articles of conversion to the superintendent and shall set forth:

1. The name of the national bank and the name of the resulting state bank.
2. The location and post-office address of its principal place of business.
3. A statement that articles of conversion are to be, or have been delivered to the superintendent.
4. The purpose or purposes of the resulting state bank.
5. The date of delivery of the articles of conversion to the superintendent.

524.1413 Approval of conversion by superintendent.

Upon receipt of an application for approval of a conversion the superintendent shall conduct such investigation as the superintendent may deem necessary to ascertain whether:

1. The articles of conversion and supporting items satisfy the requirements of this chapter.
2. The plan adequately protects the interests of depositors.
3. The requirements for a conversion under all applicable laws have been satisfied and the resulting state bank would satisfy the requirements of this chapter applicable to it.
4. The resulting state bank will possess an adequate capital structure.

Within ninety days after receipt of the application the superintendent shall make a determination whether to approve or disapprove the pending application on the basis of the investigation. Before receiving the decision of the superintendent with respect to the pending application, the national bank shall, upon notice, reimburse the superintendent to the extent of the expenses incurred in connection with the application. Thereafter, the superintendent shall give the national bank written notice of the decision and, in the event of disapproval, a statement of the reasons for the decision. If the superintendent approves the pending application, the superintendent shall deliver the articles of conversion, with the superintendent's approval indicated thereon, to the secretary of state. The decision of the superintendent shall be subject to judicial review in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, such a petition for judicial review must be filed within thirty days after the superintendent notifies the national bank of the superintendent's decision.

524.1414 Issuance of certificate of conversion.

The receipt of the approved articles of conversion by the secretary of state shall constitute filing thereof with that office. The secretary of state shall record the articles of conversion in the secretary's office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder in the county in which the resulting state bank has its principal place of business. On the date upon which the conversion is effective, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of conversion and send the same to the resulting state bank and a copy thereof to the superintendent and the superintendent shall issue to the resulting state bank an authorization to do business.

524.1415 Effect of filing of articles of conversion with secretary of state and of certificate of conversion.

1. The conversion shall be effective upon the filing of the articles of conversion with the secretary of state, or at any later date and time specified by the superintendent in writing on the articles of conversion. The certificate of conversion shall be conclusive evidence of the performance of all conditions required by this chapter for conversion of a national bank into a state bank, except as against the state.

2. When a conversion becomes effective, the existence of the national bank shall continue in the resulting state bank which shall have all the property, rights, powers and duties of the national bank, except that the resulting state bank shall have only the authority to engage in such business and exercise such powers as it would have, and shall be subject to the same prohibitions and limitations to which it would be subject, upon original incorporation under this chapter. The articles of incorporation of the resulting state bank shall be the provisions stated in the articles of conversion.

3. No liability of the national bank or of its shareholders, directors or officers shall be affected, nor shall any lien on any property of the national bank be impaired by the conversion. Any claim existing or action pending by or against the national bank may be prosecuted to judgment as if the conversion had not taken place, or the resulting state bank may be substituted in its place.

524.1416 Authority for conversion of state bank into national bank.

1. A state bank may convert into a national bank upon authorization by and compliance with the laws of the United States, and adoption of a plan of conversion by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of its directors and the holders of two-thirds of each class of its shares at a meeting held upon not less than ten days' notice to all shareholders. The authority of a state bank to convert into a national bank shall be subject to the condition that at the time of the transaction, the laws of the United States shall authorize a national bank located in this state, without approval by the comptroller of the currency of the United States, to convert into a state bank under limitations and conditions no more restrictive than those contained in this section and section 524.1417 with respect to conversion of a state bank into a national bank.

2. A state bank which converts into a national bank shall notify the superintendent of the proposed conversion, provide such evidence of the adoption of the plan as the superintendent may request, notify the superintendent of any abandonment or disapproval of the plan, file with the superintendent and with the secretary of state a certificate of the approval of the conversion by the comptroller of the currency of the United States, and the date upon which such conversion is to become effective.

524.1417 Rights of dissenting shareholder of converting state or national bank.

1. A shareholder of a state bank which converts into a national bank, who votes against the plan of conversion or has given the state bank written notice that the shareholder dissents from the plan, at or prior to the meeting at which the plan is adopted in the manner prescribed by section 524.1416, shall be entitled to receive in cash the value of the shares held by the shareholder, if and when the conversion is consummated, upon written request made to the resulting national bank at any time within thirty days after the consummation of the conversion, accompanied by the surrender of the shareholder's share certificates. The value of such shares shall be determined as of the date of the shareholders' meeting at which the conversion plan was adopted, by a committee of three persons, one to be selected by unanimous vote of the dissenting shareholders entitled to receive the value of their shares, one by the directors of the resulting national bank, and the third by the two so chosen. The valuation agreed upon by any two of three appraisers thus chosen shall govern. If the value so fixed shall not be satisfactory to any dissenting shareholder who has requested payment as provided herein, such shareholder may, within five days after being notified of the appraised value of the shares, appeal to the superintendent, who shall cause a reappraisal to be made, which shall be final and binding as to the value of the shares of the appellant. If, within ninety days from the date of consummation of the conversion, for any reason one or more of the appraisers is not selected as herein provided, or the appraisers fail to determine the value of such shares, the superintendent shall, upon written request of any interested party, cause an appraisal to be made which shall be final and binding on all parties. The expenses of the superintendent in making the reappraisal, or the appraisal as the case may be, shall be paid by the resulting national bank. The plan of conversion shall provide the manner of disposing of the shares of the resulting national bank not taken by the dissenting shareholders of the state bank.

2. If a shareholder of a national bank, which converts into a state bank, shall object to the plan of conversion and shall comply with the requirements of applicable laws of the United States, the resulting state bank shall be liable for the value of the shareholder's shares as determined in accordance with such laws of the United States. Shares acquired by a state bank pursuant to this subsection shall be sold at public or private sale, within one year from the time of purchase or acquisition, unless the time is extended by the superintendent.

524.1418 Succession to fiduciary accounts and appointments — application for appointment of new fiduciary.

The provisions of section 524.1407 shall apply to a resulting state or national bank after a conversion with the same effect as though such state or national bank were a party to a plan of merger or consolidation, and the conversion were a merger or consolidation within the provisions of that section.

524.1419 Offices of a resulting state bank.

If a merger, consolidation or conversion results in a state bank subject to the provisions of this chapter, the resulting state bank shall, after the effective date of the merger, consolidation or conversion, be subject to all the provisions of sections 524.1201, 524.1202 and 524.1203 relating to the bank offices and parking lot offices.

524.1420 Nonconforming assets of resulting state bank.

If a merger, consolidation or conversion results in a state bank subject to the provisions of this chapter, and the resulting state bank has assets which do not conform with the provisions of this chapter, the superintendent may allow the resulting state bank a reasonable time to conform with state law.

524.1501 Right to amend.
A state bank may, with the approval of the superintendent and in the manner provided in this chapter, amend its articles of incorporation in order to make any change therein so long as its articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in the original articles of incorporation at the time of making such amendment.

524.1502 Procedure to amend.
1. An amendment of the articles of incorporation shall be proposed by adoption of a resolution by the board of directors, directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders called in the manner required by section 524.509.

2. The resolution proposing an amendment or amendments shall contain the language of each amendment by setting forth in full the articles of incorporation as they would be amended or any provision thereof as it would be amended or by setting forth in full any matter to be added to or deleted from the articles of incorporation. A copy of the resolution or a summary thereof shall be included with the notice of the meeting required for the vote of the shareholders.

3. Adoption of each amendment shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon and, if any class is entitled to vote thereon as a class, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class entitled to vote thereon as a class.

524.1503 Class voting on amendments.
The shareholders of the outstanding shares of a class shall be entitled to vote as a class upon a proposed amendment, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, if the amendment would:

1. Increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class.

2. Increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class.

3. Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the shares of such class.

4. Effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class.

5. Change the designations, preferences, limitations, or relative rights of the shares of such class.

6. Change the shares of such class into the same or a different number of shares of the same class or another class or classes.

7. Create a new class of shares having rights and preferences prior and superior to the shares of such class, or increase the rights and preferences of any class having rights and preferences prior or superior to the shares of such class.

8. Divide the unissued shares of such class into series and fix and determine the designation of such series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of such series, or authorize the board of directors to do so.

9. Limit or deny the existing pre-emptive rights, if any, of the shares of such class.

10. Cancel or otherwise affect dividends on the shares of such class which have accrued but have not been declared.

524.1504 Articles of amendment.
1. Upon the adoption of an amendment, articles of amendment shall be prepared on forms prescribed by the superintendent, signed by two duly authorized officers of the state bank and shall contain:

a. The name of the state bank.

b. The location of its principal place of business.

c. The amendment adopted, which shall be set forth in full.

d. The place, date and hour of the meeting of shareholders at which the amendment was adopted, and the kind and period of notice given to the shareholders.

e. The number of shares entitled to vote on the amendment, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the number of shares of each class.

f. The number of shares voted for and against such amendment, respectively, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such amendment.

2. The articles of amendment shall be delivered to the superintendent together with the applicable fees for the filing and recording of the articles of amendment.

524.1505 Approval of articles of amendment.
1. Upon receipt of the articles of amendment the superintendent shall conduct such investigation as the superintendent may deem necessary to determine whether the articles of amendment satisfy the requirements of section 524.1504 and whether the amendment, if effected, will in any way prejudice the interests of the depositors of the state bank.

2. Within sixty days after receipt of the articles of amendment the superintendent shall approve or disapprove the articles of amendment on the basis of the investigation. If the superintendent shall approve the articles of amendment, the superintendent shall deliver them with the written approval to the secretary of state and notify the state bank of the action. If the superintendent shall disapprove the articles of amendment, the superintendent shall give written notice to the state bank of the disapproval and a statement of the reasons for the decision. The decision of the superintendent shall be subject to judicial review in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, such a petition for judicial review must be filed within thirty days after the superintendent notifies the state bank of the decision.

524.1506 Certificate of amendment — effect.
1. The secretary of state shall record the articles of amendment in the secretary’s office, and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder in the county in which the state bank has its principal place of business. The secretary of state upon the filing of the articles of amendment shall issue a certificate of amendment and send the same to the state bank.

2. Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the secretary of state, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly. No amendment shall affect the existing rights of persons other than shareholders, or any existing cause of action in favor of or against such state bank, or any pending suit to which such state bank shall be a party, and, in the event the name of the state bank shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such state bank under its former name shall abate for that reason.

524.1507 Change of location of principal place of business.
1. If a change in the location of the principal place of business of a state bank is proposed and involves a change other than a change within the municipal corporation, urban complex or unincorporated area in which the state bank has its principal place of business, pursuant to section 524.312 application for the required approval of the superintendent shall be made in the manner required by the superintendent and subject to this section. A change in location of the principal place of business of a state bank subject to this section, including a change from one municipal corporation to another corporation within an urban complex, shall require amendment to the articles of incorporation in accordance with sections 524.1502, 524.1504 and 524.1506. A state bank seeking approval of a change of location pursuant to this subsection shall publish a notice of the proposed change of location in a newspaper of general circulation published in the municipal corporation or unincorporated area in which the state bank has its principal place of business, or if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or in a county adjoining the county, in which the state bank has its principal place of business, and in the municipal corporation in which it seeks to establish its principal place of business, or if there is none, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or in a county adjoining the county, in which the municipal corporation is located. The notice shall be published within thirty days after making application to the superintendent for approval of the change in location. The notice shall set forth the name of the state bank, the present location of its principal place of business, the location to which it wishes to move its principal place of business and the date upon which the state bank made application to the superintendent for approval of the change.

2. Upon receipt of an application for approval of a change of location of the principal place of business of a state bank pursuant to subsection 1 of this section, the superintendent shall conduct such investigation as deemed necessary giving due consideration to factors substantially similar to those set forth in section 524.305, subsection 1, paragraphs “c” through “f”. Within one hundred eighty days after receipt of the application, the superintendent shall make a determination whether to approve or disapprove the application on the basis of the investigation. Thereafter the superintendent shall give written notice of the decision to the state bank and, in the event of disapproval, a statement of the reasons for the decision. If the superintendent shall approve the change in location, the superintendent shall deliver the articles of amendment to the secretary of state. Before receiving the decision of the superintendent with respect to the pending application, the state bank shall upon notice reimburse the superintendent to the extent of the expenses incurred by the superintendent in connection with the application.

A state bank may at any time restate its articles of incorporation, which may be amended by such restatement, so long as its articles of incorporation as so restated contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such restatement, by the adoption of restated articles of incorporation, including any amendments to its articles of incorporation to be made thereby, in the following manner:
1. The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed restated articles of incorporation, which may include an amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation of the state bank to be made thereby, and directing that such restated articles, including such amendment or amendments, be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual meeting or a special meeting.
2. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed restated articles or a summary of the provisions thereof shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in section 524.509. If the meeting be an annual meeting, the proposed restated articles may be included in the notice of such annual meeting. If the restated articles include an amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby, the notice shall separately set forth such amendment or amendments or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby.
3. At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed restated articles. The proposed restated articles shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon, unless such restated articles include an amendment to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby which, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation to be made without restatement of the articles of incorporation, would entitle a class of shares to vote as a class thereon, in which event the proposed restated articles shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of shares entitled to vote thereon as a class, and of the total shares entitled to vote thereon.

Upon such approval, restated articles of incorporation shall be executed by the state bank by its president or vice president and by its cashier or an assistant cashier, and verified by one of the officers signing the same, and shall set forth, as then stated in the articles of incorporation of the state bank and, if the restated articles of incorporation included an amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation to be made thereby, as so amended, the material and contents described in section 524.302.

The restated articles of incorporation shall set forth also a statement that they correctly set forth the provisions of the articles of incorporation as theretofore or thereby amended, that they have been duly adopted as required by law and that they supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

The restated articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the superintendent together with the applicable fees for the filing and recording of the restated articles of incorporation. The superintendent shall conduct such investigation and give approval or disapproval, all as in the manner provided for in section 524.1506. If the superintendent shall approve the restated articles of incorporation the superintendent shall deliver them with the written approval to the secretary of state for filing and recording in the secretary's office and the same shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder. The secretary of state upon filing the restated articles of incorporation shall issue a restated certificate of incorporation and send the same to the state bank or its representative.

Upon the issuance of the restated certificate of incorporation by the secretary of state, the restated articles of incorporation including any amendment or amendments to the articles of incorporation made thereby, shall become effective and shall supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

No amendment shall affect the existing rights of persons other than shareholders, or any existing cause of action in favor of or against such state bank, or any pending suit to which such state bank shall be a party; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such state bank under its former name shall abate for that reason.

§524.1602 Penalties applicable to state bank.
The superintendent may impose a penalty on a state bank of up to one hundred dollars for each day:
1. That it holds investments for its own account in bonds or securities in violation of section 524.901.
2. On which it accepts and holds drafts in violation of section 524.903.
3. On which it has money loaned, credit extended or holds discounted or purchased evidences of indebtedness or agreements for the payment of money, in violation of sections 524.904 to 524.907.
4. On which it has money loaned, invested or is otherwise in violation of section 524.1102 or 524.1104.
5. On which it publishes, disseminates or distributes any advertising containing any false, misleading or deceptive statements concerning rates, terms and conditions on which loans are made or deposits are received, in violation of section 524.1606.

§524.1603 Engaging in business unlawfully.
1. Any person who willfully engages in the business of receiving money for deposit or transacts the business generally done by banks, or who willfully establishes a place of business for such purposes, in violation of subsection 1 of section 524.107, shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.
2. The superintendent may impose a penalty on a state bank of up to one hundred dollars for each day that it violates the provisions of section 524.1201.

§524.1604 Failure to file report or make statement.
1. Any person whose duty it is to make statements or file reports as may be required by this chapter, and who willfully neglects or refuses to perform such duty, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.
2. A state bank which fails to furnish to the superintendent the statement of condition required within the time required by this chapter, or fails to furnish the superintendent any report or other information the superintendent is legally authorized to request, within ten days of the superintendent’s request therefor, or within the time required by this chapter, shall pay to the superintendent a penalty of fifty dollars for each day of delinquency, unless prior to such delinquency the superintendent has extended the time within which the same may be filed.
3. Any officer or employee who violates section 524.709 shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

524.1611 Offenses involving employees of banking division.
1. Any person violating the provisions of subsection 1 of section 524.211 shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice, and shall be subject to a further fine of a sum equal to the amount of the value of the property given or received or the money so loaned or borrowed. The deputy superintendent, an assistant or examiner convicted of a violation of such subsection shall be immediately discharged from employment and shall be forever disqualified from holding any position in the banking division.

524.1612 Application of chapter.
Except as provided in this division, this chapter shall not be construed as affecting or in any way interfering with a private bank or private banker that was engaged in lawful business prior to April 19, 1919.

524.1702 Application for supervision — effect.
1. A private bank may request of the superintendent that such private bank be subject to examination and supervision pursuant to this chapter and to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the superintendent applicable to state banks. The superintendent may adopt and promulgate such regulations as the superintendent deems necessary for the supervision of private banks which have applied for supervision in accordance with this section.
524.1801 Definition.
As used in this section and sections 524.1802 to 524.1807, "Bank Holding Company" means any corporation, business trust, voting trust, association, partnership, joint venture, or similar organization, other than an individual, which directly or indirectly owns or controls twenty-five percent or more of the voting shares of each of two or more banks or of a company which is a bank holding company by virtue of this section, or which controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of each of two or more banks, or for the benefit of whose shareholders or members twenty-five percent or more of the voting shares of each of two or more banks or of a company which is a bank holding company by virtue of this section is held by trustees. However, no company shall be a bank holding company solely by virtue of its ownership or control of shares:

1. In a fiduciary capacity arising in the ordinary course of business.
2. Acquired by it in connection with its underwriting of bank shares and held only for such period of time as will permit sale of the shares upon a reasonable basis.
3. Acquired and held in the ordinary course of securing or collecting a debt previously contracted in good faith.

Bank holding companies also referred to in ch 534

524.1802 Limitation.
1. A bank holding company shall not directly or indirectly acquire ownership or control of more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares of a bank, or the power to control in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of a bank, if upon the acquisition the bank so owned or controlled by the bank holding company would have, in the aggregate, more than ten percent of the total time and demand deposits of all banks in this state, as determined by the superintendent on the basis of the most recent reports of the banks in the state to their supervisory authorities which are available at the time of the acquisition.

2. A bank holding company shall not directly or indirectly acquire ownership or control of more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares of a savings and loan association or savings bank, or the power to control in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of a savings and loan association or savings bank, if upon the acquisition the associations so owned or controlled by the bank holding company would have, in the aggregate, more than ten percent of the total time and demand deposits of all associations and savings banks in this state, as determined by the superintendent on the basis of the most recent reports of the associations in the state to their supervisory authorities which are available at the time of the acquisition.

524.1803 Offer to purchase stock.
No bank holding company shall make any offer to purchase or acquire, directly or indirectly, the voting shares of any state or national bank without extending the same offer to the owners of all outstanding shares of the bank not owned or controlled by the holding company. The refusal of any shareholder to accept the offer shall not be a bar to purchase or acquisition of the shares of any other shareholder if all other pertinent requirements of this division have been met by the bank holding company.

524.1804 More than one-fourth of stock by acquisition — effect.
Any bank holding company, or firm which would thereby become a bank holding company, which proposes to directly or indirectly acquire ownership or control of the voting shares of any bank, and which upon such acquisition would own or control more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares of the bank, shall provide to the superintendent a copy of any original application to the board of governors of the federal reserve system for permission to take such action, and a copy of any subsequent amendment thereto, at the same time the application or amendment is transmitted to the federal reserve system. The superintendent may conduct such investigation into and evaluation of the proposed action as the superintendent deems necessary and appropriate, and may submit to the federal reserve board any information so obtained together with the superintendent’s own comments or recommendations regarding the proposed acquisition.

524.1805 Out-of-state holding companies.
Nothing in this division shall be construed to authorize a bank holding company which is with respect to the state of Iowa an "out-of-state bank holding company", as defined or referred to in 12 U.S.C. 1842(d), as amended to January 1, 1971, to acquire any of the voting shares of, any interest in, all or substantially all of the assets of, or power to control in any manner the election of any of the directors of any bank in this state, unless such bank holding company was on January 1, 1971 registered with the federal reserve board as a bank holding company, and on that date owned at least two banks in this state.

524.1806 Banks owned or controlled — officers and directors.
If any individual is a director or an officer, or both, of a bank holding company, or of a bank which is owned or controlled by a bank holding company in any manner, and to the extent, specified by section 524.1801, such individual shall also be deemed to be a director or an officer, or both, as the case may be, of each bank so owned or controlled by that bank holding company, for the purposes of sections 524.612, 524.613 and 524.706.
524.1807 Penalties.

Any bank holding company which willfully violates any provision of sections 524.1801 to 524.1806 shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for each day during which the violation continues. Any individual who willfully participates in a violation of any provisions of sections 524.1801 to 524.1806 shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

527.1 Statement of intent.

The general assembly declares, as its purpose in adopting this chapter to provide:

1. That electronic funds transfer systems should provide reliable service to the consumer with full protection of privacy of personal financial information.

2. That electronic funds transfer systems should not impair the safety and soundness of a person's funds.

3. That electronic funds transfer systems are essential facilities in the channels of commerce.

4. That regulation of electronic funds transfer systems should be fair and not unduly impede the development of new technologies which benefit the public.

As used in this chapter, the following definitions shall apply unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Administrator" means and includes the superintendent of banking, the superintendent of savings and loan associations, and the superintendent of credit unions within the department of commerce and the supervisor of industrial loan companies within the office of the superintendent of banking. However, the powers of administration and enforcement of this chapter shall be exercised only as provided in section 527.3.

2. "Batch basis" means the periodic delivery of an accumulation of messages representing electronic funds transfer transactions authorized or rejected by the customer's financial institution at a processing center.

3. "Central routing unit" means any facility where electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction originating at a satellite terminal are received and are routed and transmitted to a financial institution, or to a data processing center, or to another central routing unit, wherever located.

4. "Data processing center" means a facility, wherever located, at which electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction originating at a satellite terminal are received and are processed in order to enable the satellite terminal to perform any function for which it is designed. However, "data processing center" does not include a facility which is directly connected to a satellite terminal and which performs only the functions of direct transmission of all requested transactions from that terminal to a data processing facility without performing any review of the requested transactions for the purpose of categorizing, separating, or routing. "Categorizing" means the process of reviewing and grouping of requested electronic funds transfer transactions according to the source or nature of the requested transaction. "Separating" means the process of interpreting and segregating requested electronic funds transfer transactions, or portions of such transactions, to provide for processing of information relating to such requested transactions or portions of such transactions. "Routing" means the process of interpreting and transmitting requested electronic funds transfer transactions to a destination selected at the time of interpretation and transmission from two or more alternative destinations.

5. "Financial institution" means and includes any bank incorporated under the provisions of chapter 524 or federal law, any savings and loan association incorporated under the provisions of chapter 534 or federal law, any credit union organized under the provisions of chapter 535 or federal law, and any corporation licensed as an industrial loan company under chapter 536A.

6. "Multiple use terminal" means any machine or device to which all of the following are applicable:
   a. The machine or device is owned or operated by a person who primarily engages in a service, business or enterprise, including but not limited to the retail sale of goods or services, but who is not organized under the laws of this state or under federal law as a bank, savings and loan association, or credit union;
   b. The machine or device is used by the person by whom it is owned or operated in some capacity other than as a satellite terminal; and
   c. A financial institution proposes to contract or has contracted to utilize that machine or device as a satellite terminal.

8. "On-line real time basis" means the immediate and instantaneous delivery or return of an individual message through transmission of electronic impulses.

9. "Premises" means and includes only those locations where, by applicable law, financial institutions are authorized to maintain a principal place of business and other offices for the conduct of their respective businesses; provided that with respect to an industrial loan company, "premises" means only a location where business may be conducted under a single license issued to the industrial loan company.

10. "Satellite terminal" means and includes any machine or device located off the premises of a financial institution, whether attended or unattended, by means of which the financial institution and its customers may engage through either the immediate transmission of electronic impulses to or from the financial institution or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to the financial institution, in transactions which are incidental to the conduct of the business of the financial institution and which otherwise are specifically permitted by applicable law. However, the term "satellite terminal" does not include any such machine or device, wherever located, if that machine or device is not generally accessible to persons other than employees of a financial institution or an affiliate of a financial institution.

11. "Unincorporated area" means a location within this state not within the boundaries of a municipal corporation.

1. For purposes of this chapter the superintendent of banking only shall have the power to issue rules applicable to, to accept and approve or disapprove applications or informational statements from, to conduct hearings and revoke any approvals relating to, and to exercise all other supervisory authority created by this chapter with respect to banks; the superintendent of savings and loan associations only shall have and exercise such powers and authority with respect to savings and loan associations; the superintendent of credit unions only shall have and exercise such powers and authority with respect to credit unions; and the superintendent of banking or the superintendent's designee only shall have and exercise such powers and authority with respect to industrial loan companies.
2. The administrator shall have the authority to examine any person who operates a multiple use terminal or other satellite terminal, and any other device or facility with which such terminal is interconnected, as to any transaction by, with, or involving a financial institution. Information obtained in the course of such an examination shall not be disclosed, except as provided by law.

3. Nothing contained in this chapter shall authorize the administrator to regulate the conduct of business functions or to obtain access to any business records, data, or information of a person who operates a multiple use terminal, except those pertaining to a financial transaction engaged in through a satellite terminal, or as may otherwise be provided by law.

4. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit or to authorize the administrator to prohibit an operator of a multiple use terminal, other than a financial institution, or an operator of any other device or facility with which such terminal is interconnected, other than a central routing unit or data processing center (as defined in section 527.2) from using those facilities to perform internal proprietary functions, including the extension of credit pursuant to an open end credit arrangement.

5. An administrator may conduct hearings and exercise any other appropriate authority conferred by this chapter regarding the operation or control of a satellite terminal upon the written request of a person, including but not limited to, a retailer, financial institution, or consumer.

527.4 Establishment of satellite terminals — restrictions.

1. A satellite terminal shall not be established within this state by any financial institution, except one whose principal place of business is located in this state, or one who has a business location licensed in this state under chapter 536A.

2. A financial institution whose licensed or principal place of business is located in this state shall not establish a satellite terminal at any location outside of this state.

3. a. A financial institution may establish any number of satellite terminals in any of the following locations:

   (1) Within the boundaries of a municipal corporation if the principal place of business or an office of the financial institution is also located within the boundaries of the municipal corporation.

   (2) Within an urban complex composed of two or more Iowa municipal corporations each of which is contiguous to or corners upon at least one of the other municipal corporations within the complex if the principal place of business or an office of the financial institution is also located in the urban complex.

   (3) Within the unincorporated area of a county in which the financial institution has its principal place of business or an office.

   (4) Within a municipal corporation located in the same county as the principal place of business or an office of the financial institution if another financial institution has not located its principal place of business or an office within the municipal corporation.

   (5) At any retail sales location in this state if any of the following apply:

      (a) The satellite terminal is not designed, configured, or operated to accept deposits or to dispense script or other negotiable instruments.

      (b) The satellite terminal is not designed, configured, or operated to dispense cash except when operated by the retailer as part of a retail sales transaction.

      (c) The satellite terminal is utilized for the purpose of making payment to the retailer for goods or services purchased at the location of the satellite terminal.

      (d) The financial institution controls a satellite terminal described under subparagraph part (c) at a location of the retailer established pursuant to subparagraph (1), (2), (3), or (4).

A financial institution shall not establish a satellite terminal at any other location except pursuant to an agreement with a financial institution which is authorized by this paragraph “a” to establish a satellite terminal at that location and which will utilize the satellite terminal at that location. This paragraph “a” does not amend, modify, or supersede any provision of chapter 524 regulating the number or locations of bank offices of a state or national bank, or authorize the establishment by a financial institution of any offices or other facilities except satellite terminals at locations permitted by this paragraph “a”.

b. Paragraph “a” of this subsection does not apply to a corporation licensed under chapter 536A. A corporation licensed under that chapter may establish within the boundaries of a municipal corporation, or an urban complex composed of two or more Iowa municipal corporations each of which is contiguous to or corners upon at least one of the other municipal corporations within the complex, any number of satellite terminals which are satellite terminals of a licensed business location of the corporation which is located within the municipal corporation or urban complex. The corporation shall not establish a satellite terminal at any other location except pursuant to an agreement with another financial institution which is authorized by the preceding sentence to establish a satellite terminal at that location and which utilizes the satellite terminal so established.

527.5 Satellite terminal requirements.

A satellite terminal may be utilized by a financial institution to the extent permitted in this chapter only if the satellite terminal is utilized and maintained in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and only if all of the following are complied with:
1. A satellite terminal in this state may be established by one or more financial institutions. The establishing financial institutions shall designate a single controlling financial institution which shall maintain the location, use, and operation of the satellite terminal, wherever located, in compliance with this chapter. The use and operation of a satellite terminal shall be governed by a written agreement between the controlling financial institution and the person controlling the physical location at which the satellite terminal is placed. The written agreement shall specify all of the terms and conditions, including any fees and charges, under which the satellite terminal is placed at that location. If the satellite terminal is a multiple use terminal, the written agreement shall specify, and may limit, the specific types of transactions incidental to the conduct of the business of a financial institution which may be engaged in through that terminal.

2. The satellite terminal shall be available for use on a nondiscriminatory basis by any other financial institution which has its principal place of business within this state, and by all customers who have been designated by a financial institution using the satellite terminal and who have been provided with a physical object or other method, approved by the administrator, by which to engage in electronic transactions by means of the satellite terminal. No financial institution shall be required to join, be a member or shareholder of, or otherwise participate in any corporation, association, partnership, cooperative or other enterprise as a condition of its utilizing any satellite terminal located within this state.

3. An informational statement shall be filed and shall be maintained on a current basis with the administrator by the financial institution controlling a satellite terminal in this state, which sets forth all of the following:
   a. The name and business address of the controlling financial institution.
   b. The location of the satellite terminal.
   c. A schedule of the charges which will be required to be paid by a financial institution utilizing the satellite terminal.
   d. An agreement with the administrator that the financial institution controlling the satellite terminal will maintain that satellite terminal in compliance with this chapter.

The informational statement shall be accompanied by a copy of the written agreement required by subsection 1. The informational statement also shall be accompanied by a statement or copy of any agreement, whether oral or in writing, between the controlling financial institution and a data processing center or a central routing unit, unless operated by or solely on behalf of the controlling financial institution, by which transactions originating at that terminal will be received.

4. A satellite terminal in this state shall not be attended or operated at any time by an employee of a financial institution or an affiliate of a financial institution, except for the purpose of instructing customers, on a temporary basis, in the use of the satellite terminal, for the purpose of testing the terminal, or for the purpose of transacting business on the employee’s own behalf.

5. A satellite terminal in this state shall bear a sign or label identifying each type of financial institution utilizing the terminal. A satellite terminal location in this state shall not be used to advertise individual financial institutions or a group of financial institutions. However, a satellite terminal shall bear a sign or label no larger than three inches by two inches identifying the name, address, and telephone number of the owner of the satellite terminal. The administrator may authorize methods of identification the administrator deems necessary to enable the general public to determine the accessibility of a satellite terminal.

6. The charges required to be paid by any financial institution which utilizes the satellite terminal shall not exceed a pro rata portion of the costs, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, of establishing, operating and maintaining the satellite terminal, plus a reasonable return on these costs to the owner of the satellite terminal.

7. If the administrator finds grounds, under any applicable law or rule, for denying establishment of a satellite terminal the administrator shall notify the person filing the informational statement or an amendment thereto, within thirty days of the filing thereof, of the existence of such grounds. If such notification is not given by the administrator, the administrator shall be considered to have expressly approved the establishment and operation of the satellite terminal as described in the informational statement or amendment and according to the agreements attached thereto, and operation of the satellite terminal in accordance therewith may commence on or after the thirtieth day following such filing. However, this subsection shall not be construed to prohibit the administrator from enforcing the provisions of this chapter, nor shall it be construed to constitute a waiver of any prohibition, limitation or obligation imposed by this chapter.

8. a. A satellite terminal in this state shall not be operated in a manner to permit a person to credit a demand deposit account, savings account, share account, or any other account representing a liability of a financial institution, if that financial institution is located outside of this state.

b. Paragraph “a” of this subsection does not apply to a corporation licensed under chapter 536A. A satellite terminal shall not be operated in any manner to permit a person to credit an account representing a liability of a corporation licensed under chapter 536A, if the business location of the corporation where the original records pertaining to the person’s account are maintained is located outside of this state.

9. a. Satellite terminals located in this state shall be directly connected to either of the following:
   (1) A central routing unit approved pursuant to this chapter.
527.7 Records maintained.

All transactions engaged in through a satellite terminal shall be recorded in a form from which it will be possible to produce a humanly readable record of any transaction, and these recordings shall be retained by the utilizing financial institutions for the periods required by law. The machine receipt provided to a satellite account transaction card user by a satellite terminal shall be admissible as evidence in any legal action or proceeding and shall constitute prima-facie proof of the transaction evidence by that receipt.

A financial institution shall provide each of its satellite account holders with a periodic account statement that shall contain a brief description of all satellite terminal transactions sufficient to enable the account holder to identify any transaction and to relate it to machine receipts provided by satellite terminals.

When a periodic account statement includes both satellite terminal transactions and other non-satellite terminal transactions, all satellite terminal transactions shall be indicated as such, and shall be accompanied by the description required by this subsection.

The administrator may provide by rule for the recording and maintenance, by any financial institution utilizing a satellite terminal, of amounts involved in a transaction engaged in through the satellite terminal which are of a known tax consequence to the customer initiating the transaction. For the purpose of this paragraph "known tax consequences" means and includes but shall not be limited to the following:

1. An amount directly or indirectly received from a customer and applied to a loan account of the customer which represents interest paid by the customer to the financial institution.
2. In any transaction where the total account involved is deducted from funds in a customer's account and is simultaneously paid either directly or indirectly by the financial institution to the account of a third party, any portion of the transaction amount which represents a sales or other tax imposed upon or included within the transaction and collected by that third party from the customer, or any portion of the transaction amount which represents interest paid to the third party by the customer.
3. Any other transaction which the administrator determines to have direct tax consequences to the customer. The administrator also may provide for the periodic distribution to customers of summaries of transactions having known tax consequences.

§527.8 Liability and errors.

1. As a condition of exercising the privilege of utilizing a satellite terminal, a financial institution is liable to each of its customers for all losses incurred by the customer as a result of the transmission or recording of electronic impulses as a part of a transaction not authorized by the customer or to which the customer was not a party. However, if the financial institution has provided the customer with a physical object or other method of engaging in a transaction at a satellite terminal which is unique to the customer, and losses are incurred by the customer as a result of the theft, loss or other compromise of that physical object or other method of engagement, the liability of the financial institution pursuant to this section shall not include the compromise of that physical object or other method of engagement, the liability of the financial institution pursuant to this section shall not include the theft, loss or other compromise except that the financial institution shall have no liability if the losses are a result of the customer’s fraudulent acts or omissions.

2. If, upon receipt of a periodic statement of account from a financial institution, a customer or member of the financial institution believes that the statement contains an error with respect to a transaction engaged in by such person through a satellite terminal, then such person shall, within sixty days of the date on which such statement was mailed or otherwise delivered by the financial institution, notify the financial institution by means of a writing which (a) sets forth or otherwise enables the financial institution to identify the member or customer and the number of the account in question; (b) indicates the customer’s or member’s belief that the statement contains an error with respect to a transaction engaged in by such person through a satellite terminal, and states the amount of the alleged error; and (c) sets forth the reasons for the person’s belief that the statement contains such an error. Unless the action required in subsection 3 is taken prior to the end of the thirty day period, the financial institution shall acknowledge in writing its receipt of the notice provided for in this subsection within 30 days of its actual receipt thereof.

3. Within ninety days of the financial institution’s receipt of the notice described in subsection 2, it shall either:
   a. Correct the account in question and provide the customer or member with written notification of the correction and, if the correction is not in the exact amount of the alleged error, provide such person with a written explanation of any difference between the alleged error and the correction made; or
   b. Provide the customer or member with a written explanation, after having conducted an investigation of the matter, stating the reason the financial institution believes the statement is correct and, within thirty days of further written request of the customer or member, provide such person with a written copy of the record of the transaction in question, as maintained by the financial institution pursuant to section 527.7.

4. A financial institution which has received a notice specified in subsection 2 shall not, prior to its compliance with subsection 3, close the account concerning which the dispute exists or restrict transactions in such account which affect only the portion thereof which is not in dispute. A financial institution which has complied with the provisions of subsection 3 with respect to an alleged error concerning a transaction engaged in through a satellite terminal shall have no further responsibility under subsections 2 to 4 if the customer or member continues to make substantially the same allegation with respect to such error.

5. If the correction of any error relating to a transaction engaged in through a satellite terminal in an account of a customer or member results in a credit to such account, the financial institution shall additionally credit such account with any amount of interest which would have been paid to such customer or member by the financial institution except for the error, or which was paid by such person to the financial institution as a result of the error.

6. A financial institution which fails to comply with the provisions of subsections 2 to 5 shall be liable to the customer or member who has complied with such provisions for a civil penalty in the amount of fifty dollars.

1. A central routing unit shall not be operated in this state unless written approval for that operation has been obtained from the administrator.

2. A person desiring to operate a central routing unit shall submit to the administrator an application which shall contain all of the following information:
   a. The name and business address of the owner of the proposed unit.
   b. The name and business address of each data processing center and other central routing unit with which the proposed central routing unit will have direct electronic communication.
   c. The location of the proposed central routing unit.
   d. A schedule of the charges which will be required to be paid to that applicant by each financial institution which utilizes the proposed central routing unit.
   e. A schedule of the charges which will be required to be paid to that applicant by each financial institution which utilizes the proposed central routing unit.

The application shall be accompanied by all agreements between the proposed central routing unit and all data processing centers and other central routing units respecting the transmission of transaction data; and a copy of any agreement between the proposed central routing unit and any financial institution establishing a satellite terminal unless that agreement theretofore has been filed with the administrator pursuant to section 527.5.

An agreement by the applicant that the proposed central routing unit will be capable of accepting and routing, and will be operated to accept and route, transmissions of data originating at any sat-
The same type of financial institution as those financial institutions previously utilizing the services of the applicant central routing unit, whether receiving from that terminal or from a data processing center or other central routing unit. For the purposes of this paragraph the term "type of financial institution" shall, notwithstanding the issuer of the financial institution's charter, mean either (1) banks; or (2) savings and loan associations; or (3) credit unions.

A representation and undertaking that the proposed central routing unit is directly connected to every data processing center that is directly connected to a satellite terminal located in this state, and that the proposed central routing unit will provide for direct connection in the future with any data processing center that becomes directly connected to a satellite terminal located in this state.

The administrator shall approve or disapprove an application for operation of a central routing unit within sixty days after receipt.

A central routing unit operating under the approval of the administrator shall be subject to examination by the administrator for the purpose of determining compliance with this chapter.

Effective July 1, 1987, a person owning or operating a central routing unit authorized under this section shall include public representation on any board setting policy for the central routing unit.

Four or five public members shall be appointed to the board in the following manner:

1. Two members shall be appointed by the superintendent of banking.
2. One member shall be appointed by the superintendent of credit unions.
3. One member shall be appointed by the superintendent of savings and loan associations.
4. If an industrial loan company is connected to the central routing unit, one member shall be appointed by the superintendent of banking.

The superintendent of banking, superintendent of credit unions, and superintendent of savings and loan associations shall form a committee to set, in conjunction with the entity owning or operating the central routing unit, the term of office, the rate of compensation, and the rate of reimbursement for each public member. However, the public members shall be entitled to reasonable compensation and reimbursement from the board.

Each public member is entitled to all the rights of participation and voting as any other member of the board. The public members are to represent the interest of consumers and the business and agricultural communities in establishing policies for the central routing unit.

It is the intention of the general assembly that the ratio of public members to the overall membership of the board shall not be less than one public member for each seven members of the board. If the number of members on the board is increased, then the number of members appointed pursuant to paragraph "a" shall be increased to maintain the minimum ratio. In this event, a committee composed of the superintendent of banking, the superintendent of credit unions, and the superintendent of savings and loan associations shall appoint additional public members in order to maintain the minimum ratio.

An individual shall not be appointed as a public member pursuant to this subsection if the individual is a director of a financial institution or is directly employed by a financial institution doing business in this state.

A financial institution, data processing center, central routing unit, or other person shall not disseminate any information relating to the use of a multiple use terminal without the written authorization of the retailer on whose premises the terminal is located, or of the owner or operator of the terminal or the financial institution controlling the terminal. This section shall not, however, prohibit or restrict the use of information received in the processing, authorization, or rejection of a requested electronic funds transfer transaction, where such use is necessary or incidental to the processing, authorization, or rejection, or to reconciling disputes or resolving questions raised by a retailer, financial institution, consumer, or any other person regarding the transaction.

The administrator shall have the power to adopt and promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 17A as in the administrator's opinion will be necessary to properly and effectively carry out and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

Whenever the administrator determines, upon notice and hearing pursuant to chapter 17A, that a satellite facility or data processing center or central routing unit is being operated in violation of this chapter, the administrator may revoke the approval to operate that facility. If the administrator does not have any direct authority over the facility because of the provisions of section 527.3, the administrator may revoke with respect to any financial institution over which the administrator does have direct authority the privilege to engage in transactions through or with that facility. A revocation by the administrator shall be effective when ordered by the administrator, anything in chapter 17A to the contrary notwithstanding. The administrator may bring an action in the district court in the name of the state to enjoin any financial institution or other person who continues to utilize or to operate a satellite terminal or data processing center or central routing unit after the approval has been revoked. The administrator also may bring such an action to enjoin any person who fails to obtain any approval required by this chapter.

CREDIT UNIONS

533.1 Purpose — administration — organization.

Definition and purpose. A credit union is hereby defined as a co-operative, nonprofit association, incorporated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of creating a source of credit at a fair and reasonable rate of interest, of encouraging habits of thrift among its members and of providing the opportunity for people to use and control their savings for their mutual benefit.

Administration. The superintendent shall have the supervisory and regulatory authority of all state chartered credit unions and shall be charged with the administration and execution of the laws of this state.
relating to credit unions. Subject to the approval of the credit union review board, the superintendent shall have power to adopt such rules as in the superintendent’s opinion are necessary to properly and effectively safeguard the interests of depositors and shareholders of credit unions, and otherwise to carry out and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

Organization. Any seven residents of the state of Iowa may apply to the superintendent for permission to organize a credit union.

A credit union is organized in the following manner:

1. The applicants shall execute in duplicate articles of incorporation by the terms of which they agree to be bound. The articles shall state:
   a. The name and location of the proposed credit union.
   b. The names and addresses of the subscribers to the articles and the number of shares subscribed by each.
   c. The par value of the shares of the credit union shall be established by the board of directors. A credit union may have more than one class of shares.

2. Said applicants shall prepare and adopt bylaws for the general government of the credit union consistent with the provisions of this chapter, and execute the same in duplicate.

3. The articles and the bylaws, both executed in duplicate, shall be forwarded with a fee of ten dollars to the superintendent.

4. The superintendent shall, within thirty days of the receipt of said articles and bylaws, determine whether they conform with the provisions of this chapter, and whether or not the organization of the credit union in question would benefit its members and be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

5. The superintendent shall thereupon notify the applicants of the decision. If the decision is favorable the superintendent shall issue a certificate of approval which shall be attached to the duplicate articles of incorporation and the superintendent shall return the same, together with the duplicate bylaws to the applicants.

6. The applicants shall thereupon file this duplicate of the articles of incorporation and the attached certificate of approval with the county recorder of the county within which the credit union is to have its principal place of business. The county recorder shall record and index the same and return it, with the recorder’s certificate of record attached, to the superintendent for permanent record.

7. The applicants shall thereupon become and be a credit union, incorporated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

8. The original articles or amended articles may contain a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director, officer, or employee of the corporation or its shareholders for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or for any transaction from which the director, officer, or employee derives an improper personal benefit. A provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director, officer, or employee for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when the provision in the articles of incorporation becomes effective.

In order to simplify the organization of credit unions, the superintendent shall cause to be prepared an approved form of articles of incorporation and a form of bylaws, consistent with this chapter which may be used by credit union incorporators for their guidance, and on written application of any seven residents of the state, shall supply them without charge with blank articles of incorporation and a copy of this form of suggested bylaws.

533.2 Amendments.

The articles of incorporation or the bylaws may be amended by a favorable vote of a majority of the members present at a meeting, if that number constitutes a quorum and if the proposed amendment was contained in the notice of the meeting. Bylaws may also be amended by a vote of a majority of the members of the board, or by a majority vote of members voting by mailed ballot according to procedures specified by rule of the superintendent requiring at least twenty days’ notice to all members, mailed ballots ensuring the confidentiality of voters, announcement to members of the results of the vote, and preservation of the ballots for a reasonable period of time. All amendments must be approved by the superintendent before they become effective.

533.3 Restriction.

1. A person other than one referred to in subsection 2 shall not use a name or title containing the words "credit union" or any derivation thereof, and shall not represent in advertising or otherwise that the person is conducting business as a credit union.

2. The prohibitions contained in subsection 1 do not apply to a credit union organized under this chapter or under the Federal Credit Union Act, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1751 et seq., or to the Iowa credit union league, or a chapter, affiliate or subsidiary of the Iowa credit union league, or to a political action committee formed under Public Law 94-283 or chapter 56 by the Iowa credit union league or by credit unions organized under this chapter or federal law.

3. Violation of subsection 1 is a serious misdemeanor, and the violator may be enjoined from the use of words, advertising or other representation prohibited by subsection 1.

533.4 Powers.
A credit union shall have the following powers to:

1. Receive the savings of its members either as payment on shares or as deposits, including the right to conduct Christmas clubs, vacation clubs, and other such thrift organizations within the membership.

2. Make loans to members for provident or productive purposes.

3. Make loans to a co-operative society or other organization having membership in the credit union.

4. Deposit in state and national banks.

5. Make investments in:
   a. Time deposits in national banks and in state banks, the deposits of which are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation.
   b. Obligations, participations, or other instruments of or issued by, or fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States government or any agency thereof; or any trust or trusts established for investing directly or collectively in the same.
   c. General obligations of the state of Iowa and any subdivision thereof.
   d. Paid-up deposits of savings and loan associations, the deposits of which are insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation.
   e. Purchase of notes of liquidating credit unions with the approval of the superintendent.
   f. Shares and deposits in other credit unions.
   g. Shares, stocks, loans, and other obligations or a combination thereof of an organization, corporation, or association, provided the membership or ownership, as the case may be, of the organization, corporation, or association is primarily confined or restricted to credit unions or organizations of credit unions and provided that the purpose of the organization, corporation, or association is primarily designed to provide services to credit unions, organizations of credit unions, or credit union members. However, the aggregate amount invested pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed five percent of the assets of the credit union.
   h. Obligations issued by federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, banks for cooperatives, or any or all of the federal farm credit banks.
   i. Commercial paper issued by United States corporations as defined by rule.
   6. Borrow money as hereinafter indicated.
   7. Assess fines as may be provided by the bylaws.
   8. Sue and be sued.
   9. Make contracts.

10. Purchase, hold and dispose of property necessary and incidental to its operation provided, however, that any property acquired through foreclosure shall be disposed of within a period not to exceed ten years.

11. Exercise such incidental powers as may be necessary or requisite to enable it to carry on effectively the business for which it is incorporated.

12. Apply for share account and deposit account insurance which meets the requirements of this chapter and take all actions necessary to maintain an insured status.

13. Upon the approval of the superintendent, serve an employee group having an insufficient number of members to form or conduct the affairs of a separate credit union. There shall be no requirement for the existence of a common bond relationship between the said small employee group and the credit union effecting such service.

14. Deposit with a credit union which has been in existence for not more than a year an amount not to exceed twenty-five percent of the assets of the new credit union, but only one credit union may at any time make the deposit.

15. Acquire the conditional sales contracts, promissory notes or other similar instruments executed by its members, but the rate of interest existing on the instrument shall not exceed the highest rate charged by the acquiring credit union on its outstanding loans.

16. Sell, participate in, or discount the obligations of its members with or without recourse. Purchase the obligations of credit union members, provided the obligations meet the requirements of this chapter.

17. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, acquire and hold shares in a corporation engaged in providing and operating facilities through which a credit union and its members may engage, by means of either the direct transmission of electronic impulses to and from the credit union or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to the credit union, in transactions in which such credit union is otherwise permitted to engage pursuant to applicable law.

18. Engage in any transaction otherwise permitted by this chapter and applicable law, by means of either the direct transmission of electronic impulses to or from the credit union or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to the credit union. Subject to the provisions of chapter 527, a credit union may utilize, establish or operate, alone or with one or more other credit unions, banks incorporated under the provisions of chapter 524 or federal law, savings and loan associations incorporated under the provisions of chapter 534 or federal law, corporations licensed under chapter 536A, or third parties, the satellite terminals permitted under chapter 527, by means of which the credit union may transmit to or receive from any member electronic impulses constituting transactions pursuant to this subsection. However, such utilization, establishment, or operation shall be lawful only when in compliance with chapter 527. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as authority for any person to engage in transactions not otherwise permitted by applicable law, nor shall anything in this subsection be deemed to repeal, replace or in any other way affect any applicable law or rule regarding the maintenance of or access to financial information maintained by any credit union.
19. Establish one or more offices other than its main office, subject to the approval and regulation of the superintendent, if such offices shall be reasonably necessary to furnish service to its membership. A credit union office may furnish all credit union services ordinarily furnished to the membership at the principal place of business of the credit union which operates the office. All transactions of a credit union office shall be transmitted daily to the principal place of business of the credit union. The central executive and official business functions of a credit union shall be exercised only at the principal place of business.

A credit union office shall not be opened without the prior written approval of the superintendent. Upon application by a credit union in the form prescribed by the superintendent, the superintendent shall determine, after notice and hearing, if the establishment of the credit union office is reasonably necessary for service to, and is in the best interests of, the members of the credit union.

20. Purchase insurance or make the purchase of insurance available for members.

21. A credit union may take a second mortgage on real property to secure a loan made by the credit union, pursuant to rules adopted by the superintendent.

22. Charge fees and penalties and apply them to income.

23. a. Act as agent of the federal government when requested by the secretary of the United States department of treasury; perform such services as may be required in connection with the collection of taxes and other obligations due the United States and the lending, borrowing and repayment of money by the United States; and be a depository of public money when designated for that purpose.

b. Act as agent of the state when requested by the treasurer of state; perform such services as may be required in connection with the collection of taxes and other obligations due the state and the lending, borrowing and repayment of money by the state; and be a depository of public money when designated for that purpose.

24. Receive public funds pursuant to chapter 453.

25. Engage in any activity authorized by the superintendent which would be permitted if the credit union were federally chartered and which is consistent with state law.

26. Pledge its assets to secure the deposit of public funds.

27. To provide indemnity for the director, officer, or employee in the same fashion that a corporation organized under chapter 496A could under section 496A.4A, provided that where section 496A.4A provides for action by shareholders the section is applicable to action by members of the credit union and where the section has reference to the corporation organized under chapter 496A, it is applicable to the association organized under this chapter.

533.5 Membership.

The membership of a credit union consists of those persons in the common bond, duly admitted, who have paid any required one-time or periodic membership fee, or both, have subscribed to one or more shares, and have complied with the other requirements specified by the articles of incorporation and bylaws. To continue membership, a member must comply with any changes in the par value of the share. Credit union organization shall be available to groups of individuals who have a common bond of association such as, but not limited to, occupation, common employer, or residence within specified geographic boundaries. Changes in the common bond may be made by the board of directors. If adopted as a policy by the board of directors of a credit union, members who cease to meet qualifications of membership may retain their credit union membership and all membership privileges. Organizations, incorporated or otherwise, may be members.

533.6 Reports — examinations — revocation — receivership — notice to show cause.

1. Credit unions organized under this chapter shall report annually on or before the first day of February to the superintendent on blanks supplied by the superintendent for that purpose. Additional reports may be required. If any report remains in arrears for more than five days, a fine of five dollars for each day such report remains in arrears may be levied against the offending credit union in addition to the fine for failure to pay the annual fee. If such report is not returned within thirty days of the due date, the superintendent may, after written notice to the president of the credit union, suspend or revoke the certificate of approval, take possession of the business and property of such credit union, and order its dissolution.

2. The superintendent shall annually examine, or cause to be examined, each credit union. Each credit union and all of its officers and agents shall give to the representatives of the superintendent free access to all books, papers, securities, records and other sources of information under their control. A report of such examination shall be forwarded to the chairperson of each credit union within thirty days after the completion of the examination. Within thirty days of the receipt of this report, a meeting of the directors shall be called to consider matters contained in the report and the action taken shall be set forth in the minutes of the board. The superintendent may accept, in lieu of the annual examination of a credit union, an audit report conducted by a certified public accounting firm selected from a list of firms previously approved by the superintendent. The cost of the audit shall be paid by the credit union.

3. The superintendent may require any credit union whose records are inadequate or whose books have not been balanced as of the end of the month not less than thirty days previously or whose affairs are in an unfavorable condition, to submit to an additional examination each year.

4. If after notice and opportunity for hearing the superintendent determines that a credit union has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, the superintendent shall, except when the credit union is insolvent, order the credit union to correct the condition. The superintendent may grant the credit union not more than sixty days within which to comply with the order. Failure to comply gives the superintendent grounds to revoke the certificate of approval and the superintendent may apply to the district court of the county in which this credit union is located for the appointment of a receiver for the credit union. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, upon a determination by the superintendent that a credit union’s assets, if made immediately available, would not be sufficient to discharge the credit union’s liabilities, the superintendent shall take control of the credit union. Upon taking over management of the property and business of a credit union, the superintendent may operate and direct the affairs of the credit union in its regular course of business. The superintendent may also collect amounts due to the credit union and do other acts as are necessary or expedient to conduct the affairs of the credit union and conserve or protect its assets, property, and business. If upon taking over the management of the business and property of the credit union, the superintendent concludes that the credit union is insolvent or should be dissolved for any other reason enumerated in this section, the superintendent may immediately, or at any time within three years from taking over management of the credit union, order that the credit union cease to carry on its business. The superintendent shall revoke the certificate of approval and shall apply to the district court in the county in which the main office of the credit union is located for the appointment of a receiver for the credit union. The district court shall appoint the superintendent of the credit union division as receiver unless the superintendent of the credit union division has tendered the appointment to the administrator of the plan by which the accounts of the credit union are insured. Either the superintendent or the administrator as receiver possesses the rights, powers, and privileges granted by state law to a receiver of a state credit union. Neither the superintendent nor the administrator shall be required to furnish bond as receiver of a state credit union.

The superintendent may appoint one or more special deputies as agent or agents with powers specified in the certificate of appointment to assist the superintendent in the duty of management, conservation, or dissolution and distribution of the business and property of a credit union whose management is taken over under this section.

During the period of the superintendent’s management of the business of the credit union and prior to the time that the superintendent applies to the district court for appointment as receiver, the superintendent may require reimbursement by the credit union to the extent of the expenses incurred by the division in connection with the management.

The superintendent may adopt rules which define insolvency or which establish factors to be considered in determining insolvency. The superintendent may adopt separate solvency standards for credit unions which are within their first year of operation.

5. When the superintendent has reason to believe that an officer, director, or employee of a credit union has violated any law relating to a credit union or has continued an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the business of a credit union after having been warned by the superintendent to discontinue or correct such violation or unsafe or unsound practice, the superintendent may cause notice to be served upon the officer, director, or employee to appear before the superintendent to show cause why the person should not be removed from office or employment. A copy of such notice shall be sent by restricted delivery mail to each director of the credit union affected. If, after granting the accused reasonable opportunity to be heard, the superintendent finds that the accused has violated a law relating to a credit union or has continued an unsafe or unsound practice in conducting the business of a credit union after having been warned by the superintendent, the superintendent in the superintendent’s discretion may order that the accused be removed from office and from any position of employment with the credit union. A copy of the order shall be served upon the accused and upon the credit union affected, at which time the accused shall cease to be an officer, director, or employee of the credit union.

533.7 Fiscal year — meetings.

The fiscal year of all credit unions shall end December 31. Annual meetings shall be held, and special meetings may be held, in the manner indicated in the bylaws.

At all meetings no member shall have more than one vote regardless of the shares held by the member. There shall be no voting by proxy. A member other than a natural person may cast a single vote through a delegated agent which agent shall be a member of the organization for which the agent acts. The majority of members present at any meeting may modify, amend or reverse any act of the board of directors or instruct it to take action not inconsistent with the bylaws or of this chapter.

533.8 Elections.
At the organization meeting there shall be elected a board of directors of not less than nine members to hold office for such terms as the bylaws provide and until successors are elected and qualify. At each annual meeting there shall be elected one member to fill each position vacated by reason of expiring terms or other causes. A record of the names and addresses of the directors, officers and committee persons shall be filed with the superintendent within ten days following each election.

533.9 Directors and officers.
Within five days following the organization meeting and each annual meeting the directors shall elect from their own number a chairperson of the board, a vice chairperson, a secretary, and a chief financial officer whose title shall be designated by the board of directors. The board shall appoint a credit committee of not less than three members, and an auditing committee of not less than three members, and may also appoint alternate members of the credit committee. Only a member of the board of directors or a member of the credit union may be appointed to the credit committee or to the auditing committee. The board may appoint an executive committee to act on its behalf when designated for that purpose. The directors have general management of the affairs of the credit union including, but not limited to, the power to fix the amount of the surety bond which shall be required of all officers and employees handling money.

533.10 Credit committee.
The credit committee shall have the general supervision of all loans to members. Applications for loans shall be on a form, prepared by the credit committee, and all applications shall set forth the purpose for which the loan is desired, the security, if any, offered, and such other data as may be required. Within the meaning of this section an assignment of shares or deposits or the endorsement of a note may be deemed security. At least a majority of the members of the credit committee shall pass on all loans and may grant approval thereof, provided, however, that the credit committee of a credit union, with the approval of the board of directors, may appoint one or more loan officers, who may be the president or vice president, and delegate to the loan officers, subject to conditions and regulations of the credit committee, power to approve or reject loans. The credit committee shall meet as often as may be necessary after due notice to each member.

533.11 Auditing committee.
The auditing committee shall:
1. Make or cause to be made an examination of the affairs of the credit union at least semiannually, including an audit of its books and, if the committee feels such action to be necessary, it shall call the members together after the audit and submit to them its report.
2. Make or cause to be made an annual report and submit it at the annual meeting of the members.
3. By unanimous vote, if it deem such action to be necessary to the proper conduct of the credit union, suspend any officer, director, or member of committee and call the members together to act on such suspension. The members at said meeting may sustain such suspension and remove such officer permanently or may reinstate said officer.
By majority vote, the auditing committee may call a special meeting of the members to consider any matter submitted to it by said committee.
[C27, 31, 35, §9305-a; C39, §9305.11; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §533.11]
87 Acts, ch 171, §25

533.12 Capital.
1. The capital of a credit union shall consist of the payments that have been made to it by the several members thereof on shares. The credit union shall have a lien on the shares and deposits of a member for any sum due to the credit union from the member or for any loan endorsed by the member. A credit union may charge an entrance fee as may be provided by the bylaws.
2. A credit union may establish an equity share having a par value not to exceed one hundred dollars which shall be a part of the capital of the credit union and shall not be withdrawn or transferred except upon termination of membership in the credit union. At the option of the credit union, the equity share may earn a dividend and may be insured.
[C27, 31, 35, §9305-a; C39, §9305.12; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §533.12]
85 Acts, ch 242, §3

533.13 Special shares and accounts.
1. Joint accounts. A member may designate any person or persons to hold shares, deposits, and thrift club accounts with the member in joint tenancy with the right of survivorship, but no joint tenant, unless a member in the person's own right, shall be permitted to vote, obtain loans, or hold office or be required to pay an entrance fee. Payment of part or all of such accounts to any of the joint tenants shall, to the extent of such payment, discharge the liability to all.
2. Minors. Shares may be issued and deposits accepted in the name of a minor and such shares and deposits may be withdrawn by such minor and payments made on such withdrawals shall be valid. No such minor under sixteen years of age shall be entitled to vote in the meetings of the members either personally or through the minor’s parent or guardian, nor may the minor become a director until the minor shall have reached the minor’s eighteenth birthday.
3. Trust accounts. If shares and deposits are held in trust, the name and residence of the beneficiary shall be disclosed and the account shall be kept in the name of the holder as trustee for such beneficiary. Such shares and deposits may be withdrawn, upon the death of the trustee, by the beneficiary's legal representative.

533.14 Interest rates.

1. Interest rates on loans made by a credit union, other than loans secured by a mortgage or deed of trust which is a first lien upon real property, shall not exceed the finance charge permitted in sections 537.2401 and 537.2402 on consumer loans. Interest rates on business loans shall not exceed the finance charge permitted by section 535.2.

2. With respect to a loan secured by a mortgage or deed of trust which is a first lien upon real property, a credit union shall not charge a rate of interest which exceeds the maximum rate permitted by section 535.2.

3. The provisions of this section do not apply to a loan which is subject to section 682.46.

533.15 Power to borrow.

A credit union may borrow from any source in total sum which shall not exceed fifty percent of the sum of its share and deposit account balances.

533.16 Loans.

1. A credit union may loan to a member for a provident or productive purpose. Loans are subject to the conditions contained in this section and in the bylaws. A loan may be repaid by the borrower, in whole or in part, any day the office of the credit union is open for business. A loan shall be pursuant to an application with supportive credit information. The superintendent may adopt rules requiring periodic updating of credit or financial information for all loans or for classes of loans designated in the rules.

2. A credit union shall not lend in the aggregate to a member more than one hundred dollars or ten percent of its member savings, whichever is greater.

3. A director of a credit union may borrow from that credit union under the provisions of this chapter, but the loan shall not be made on terms more favorable than those extended to other members. A director of a credit union may borrow from that credit union to the extent and in the amount of such director's holdings in the credit union in shares and deposits. A director desiring to borrow from the credit union an amount in excess of the director's holdings in shares and deposits shall first submit application for approval by the board of directors at a regular or special meeting. The director making application for the loan shall not be in attendance at the time the board of directors considers the application and shall not take part in the consideration. Prior to consideration of such loan, the director must have submitted to the board a detailed current financial statement. The aggregate amount of director loans shall not exceed twenty percent of the assets of the credit union.

4. a. A credit union may make permanent loans, construction loans, or combined construction and permanent loans, secured by liens on real property, as authorized by rules adopted by the superintendent under chapter 17A. These rules shall contain provisions as necessary to ensure the safety and soundness of these loans, and to ensure full and fair disclosure to borrowers of the effects of provisions in agreements for these loans, including provisions permitting change or adjustment of any terms of a loan, provisions permitting, requiring, or prohibiting repayment of a loan on a basis other than of equal periodic installments of interest plus principal over a fixed term, provisions imposing penalties for the borrower's noncompliance with requirements of a loan agreement, or provisions allowing or requiring a borrower to choose from alternative courses of action at any time during the effectiveness of a loan agreement.

b. A credit union may include in the loan documents signed by the borrower a provision requiring the borrower to pay the credit union each month in addition to interest and principal under the note an amount equal to one-twelfth of the estimated annual real estate taxes, special assessments, hazard insurance premium, mortgage insurance premium, or any other payment agreed to by the borrower and the credit union in order to better secure the loan. The credit union shall be deemed to be acting in a fiduciary capacity with respect to these funds. A credit union receiving funds in escrow pursuant to an escrow agreement executed on or after July 1, 1982 in connection with a loan as defined in section 535.8, subsection 1, shall pay interest to the borrower on those funds, calculated on a daily basis, at the rate the credit union pays to its members on ordinary savings deposits. A credit union which maintains an escrow account in connection with any loan authorized by this subsection, whether or not the mortgage has been assigned to a third person, shall each year deliver to the mortgagor a written annual accounting of all transactions made with respect to the loan and escrow account.

c. Section 524.905, subsection 4, applies to the credit union in the same manner as if the credit union is a bank within the meaning of that provision.

5. A credit union may act as an escrow agent with respect to real property that is mortgaged to the credit union, and may receive funds and make disbursements from escrowed funds in that capacity. The credit union shall be deemed to be acting in a fiduciary capacity with respect to these funds. A credit union which maintains such an escrow account, whether or not the mortgage has been assigned to a third person, shall deliver to the mortgagor a written summary of all transactions made with respect to the loan and escrow accounts during each calendar year. However, the mortgagor and mortgagee may, by mutual agreement, select a fiscal year reporting period other than the calendar year.

The summary shall be delivered or mailed not later than thirty days following the year to which the disclosure relates. The summary shall contain all of the following information:

a. The name and address of the mortgagee.

b. The name and address of the mortgagor.

c. A summary of escrow account activity during the year as follows:

(1) The balance of the escrow account at the beginning of the year.

(2) The aggregate amount of deposits to the escrow account during the year.

(3) The aggregate amount of withdrawals from the escrow account for each of the following categories:

(a) Payments against loan principal.

(b) Payments against interest.

(c) Payments against real estate taxes.

(d) Payments for real property insurance premiums.

(e) All other withdrawals.

(4) The balance of the escrow account at the end of the year.

d. A summary of loan principal for the year as follows:

(1) The amount of principal outstanding at the beginning of the year.

(2) The aggregate amount of payments against principal during the year.

(3) The amount of principal outstanding at the end of the year.

6. Loans which are not secured by real property shall be subject to the following conditions:

a. Loans to any one member which in the aggregate exceed the unsecured loan limit established by the board of directors of a credit union shall be secured by one or more cosigners or guarantors, or, by a first lien on collateral having a value which is approximately equal to the amount in excess of such unsecured loan limit. Every cosigner or guarantor shall furnish the credit union with evidence of financial responsibility.

b. Nothing contained in this subsection shall be deemed to preclude a credit committee or loan officer from requiring security for any loan.

c. A credit union may make loans insured under the provisions of Title XX, United States Code, section 1071 to section 1087 or similar state programs, loans insured by the federal housing administration under Title XII, United States Code, section 1703, and loans to families of low or moderate income as a part of programs authorized in sections 220.1 to 220.36.

d. The restrictions and limitations contained in this subsection shall not apply to loans made to a member credit union by a corporate central credit union.

7. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the renewal or extension of loans.

8. The superintendent may impose a penalty on a credit union for each loan made in violation of this section. If a credit union, after notice in writing, and opportunity for hearing, fails to satisfactorily resolve the matter within sixty days from receipt of such notice, the superintendent may impose a fine against such credit union in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars per day per violation for each day the violation remains unresolved.

9. The provisions of the Iowa consumer credit code shall apply to consumer loans made by a credit union, and a provision of that code shall supersede any conflicting provision of this chapter with respect to a consumer loan.

10. If a member elects to repay a loan secured by a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property which is a single-family or a two-family dwelling or agricultural land at a date earlier than is required by the terms of the loan, the credit union shall be governed by section 535.9.

11. Real estate loans on one-family to four-family dwellings may be repaid in part or in full at any time, excepting that a credit union may charge not to exceed six months advance interest on that part of the aggregate amount of all prepayments made on such loan in any twelve-month period which exceeds twenty percent of the original principal amount of the loan; and may charge any negotiated rate on other loans. Nothing contained in this subsection, however, authorizes a credit union to charge any advance interest or prepayment penalty where prohibited by section 535.9.

533.17 Reserves.

1. Immediately before the payment of a dividend, the credit union shall determine its gross earnings. A legal reserve for contingencies shall be set aside from the gross earnings in accordance with the following:

a. A credit union in operation for more than four years and having assets of five hundred thousand dollars or more shall set aside the following amounts in the following order:

(1) Ten percent of the gross income until the legal reserve equals four percent of the total outstanding loans and risk assets.

(2) Five percent of the gross income until the legal reserve equals six percent of the total outstanding loans and risk assets.

b. A credit union in operation for less than four years or having assets of less than five hundred thousand dollars shall set aside the following amounts in the following order:

(1) Ten percent of the gross income until the legal reserve equals seven and one-half percent of the total outstanding loans and risk assets.

(2) Five percent of the gross income until the legal reserve equals ten percent of the total outstanding loans and risk assets.

If the legal reserve falls below the percent of the total outstanding loans and risk assets required for a credit union by this subsection, the credit union shall replenish the legal reserve by regular contributions in the amounts needed to reach the required reserve. However, the superintendent may waive the reserve requirement when in the superintendent’s opinion the waiver is necessary or desirable. The legal reserve shall belong to the credit union and shall be used to meet losses. The reserve shall not be distributed to members as interest or dividends except on liquidation of the credit union or in accordance with a plan approved by the superintendent.

2. For the purpose of establishing legal reserves, the following shall not be considered risk assets:
   a. Cash on hand.
   b. Deposits and shares in federal or state banks, savings and loan associations, and credit unions.
   c. Assets which are insured by, fully guaranteed as to principal and interest by, or due from the United States government.
   d. Loans to other credit unions.
   e. Student loans insured under the provisions of Title XX, United States Code, section 1071 to section 1087 or similar state programs.
   f. Loans insured by the federal housing administration under Title XII, United States Code, section 1703.
   g. Common trust investments which deal in investments authorized in section 533.4.
   h. Prepaid expenses.
   i. Accrued interest on nonrisk investments.
   j. Furniture and equipment.
   k. Land and buildings.

3. The superintendent may require a credit union to set aside additional amounts as a special reserve if an examination of its assets show that its legal reserve is inadequate.

533.18 Dividends.
1. At such intervals and for such periods as the board of directors may authorize, and after transfers to the required reserves, the board of directors may declare dividends at such rates and upon such classes of shares as are determined by the board. Such dividends shall be paid on all paid-up shares outstanding at the close of the period for which the dividend is declared.

2. Shares which become fully paid up during such dividend period and are outstanding at the close of period shall be entitled to a proportional share of such dividend.

3. Dividend credit for a month may be accrued on shares which are or become fully paid up during the first fifteen days of that month.

533.19 Expulsion — withdrawal.
A member may be expelled by a majority vote of the board of directors at a regular or special meeting of the board. The expelled member may request a hearing before the membership of the credit union. A meeting of the membership shall be held within sixty days of the member’s request. The membership may, by majority vote at the membership meeting, reinstate the expelled member upon terms and conditions prescribed by it. Any member may withdraw from the credit union at any time, but notice of withdrawal may be required as provided in this section. All amounts paid on shares or as deposits of an expelled or withdrawing member, with any dividends or interest accredited thereto, to the date thereof, shall, after deducting all amounts due from the member to the credit union and an amount as necessary to honor outstanding share drafts drawn against accounts of the member, be paid to the member. Upon expulsion or withdrawal of a member from a credit union, or at any other time, the credit union may require sixty days’ notice of intention to withdraw shares and thirty days’ notice of intention to withdraw deposits, except that a credit union shall not at any time require notice of withdrawal with respect to funds which are subject to withdrawal by share drafts. Withdrawing or expelled members shall have no further rights in the credit union but are not, by such expulsion or withdrawal, released from any remaining liability to the credit union.

The process of voluntary dissolution shall be as follows:
1. At a special meeting called for that purpose, a credit union may dissolve upon the affirmative vote of a majority of its members eligible to vote at the special meeting. Notice of the meeting’s purpose shall be contained in the meeting’s notice. Any member eligible to vote and not present at the meeting may, within twenty days after the date on which the meeting was held, vote in favor of dissolution by signing a statement in the form approved by the superintendent. This vote shall have the same force and effect as if cast at the meeting.
2. The credit union shall cease to do business except for the purposes of liquidation immediately upon giving notice of the special meeting called for the members vote on dissolution. The board of directors shall immediately notify the superintendent of the intention of the credit union to dissolve. The credit union shall not resume its regular business unless the dissolution fails to receive the required vote of the members or unless the members have revoked prior affirmative action to dissolve as provided for in subsection 4 of this section.
3. The board of directors shall have power to terminate and settle the affairs of a credit union in voluntary dissolution. The credit union shall continue in existence for the purpose of discharging its liabilities, collecting and distributing its assets, and doing all acts required in order to terminate its affairs. The credit union may sue and be sued for the purpose of enforcing such liabilities and for the purpose of collecting its assets until its affairs are fully settled. During the course of dissolution proceedings, the credit union shall make such reports and shall be subject to such examinations as the superintendent may require. If at any time after the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of a credit union to dissolve the credit union, the superintendent finds that the credit union is not making reasonable progress toward terminating its affairs or finds that the credit union is insolvent, the superintendent may apply to the district court for appointment of a receiver to terminate the affairs of the credit union.

4. At any time prior to any distribution of its assets, a credit union may revoke the voluntary dissolution proceedings by the affirmative vote of a majority of its members eligible to vote. This vote, if taken, shall be at a special meeting called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by the bylaws. The board of directors shall immediately notify the superintendent of any such action to revoke voluntary dissolution proceedings.

5. Upon such proof as is satisfactory to the superintendent that all assets have been liquidated from which there is a reasonable expectancy of realization, that the liabilities of the credit union have been discharged and distribution made to its members, and that the liquidation has been completed, the superintendent shall issue a certificate of dissolution, which certificate shall be filed and recorded in the county in which the credit union has its principal place of business and in the county in which its original articles of incorporation were filed and recorded. Upon the issuance of a certificate of dissolution, the existence of the credit union shall cease.

6. The board of directors may appoint by resolution any responsible person as defined in section 4.1, whose appointment has been approved by the superintendent, to exercise its powers to terminate and settle the affairs of the credit union pursuant to this section. The superintendent is authorized to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 17A establishing the qualifications which must be met by such appointees, including but not limited to filing a surety bond with the superintendent.

1. In all situations in which the superintendent has been appointed as receiver as provided in this chapter, the superintendent shall make a diligent effort to collect and realize on the assets of the credit union, and shall make distribution of the proceeds from time to time to those entitled thereto in the order provided for by law. The superintendent may execute as receiver, or after the receivership has terminated, assignments, releases, and satisfactions to effectuate sales and transfers. Upon the order of the court in which the receivership is pending, the superintendent may sell all the real and personal property of the credit union, on such terms as the court shall direct.

2. All expenses of the receivership and dissolution shall be determined by the superintendent, subject to the approval of the district court, and shall be paid out of the assets of the credit union.

3. At the termination of the receivership, the superintendent shall file a final report which shall contain the details of the superintendent's actions and such additional facts as the court may require.

4. Upon the submission and approval of the final report, the court shall enter a decree dissolving the credit union, at which time the existence of the credit union shall cease. It shall be the duty of the clerk of court to cause certified copies of the decree to be filed with and recorded by the county recorder of the county in which the credit union has its principal place of business and by the county recorder of the county in which its original articles of incorporation were filed and recorded. No fee shall be charged by the county recorder for the filing or recording of the decree.

The following shall apply to dissolution of a credit union under this chapter, whether voluntary or involuntary:

1. Distribution of the assets of the credit union shall be made in the following order:

   a. The payment of costs and expense of the administrator of dissolution.

   b. The payment of claims for public funds deposited pursuant to chapter 453 and the payment of claims which are given priority by applicable statutes. If the assets are insufficient for payment of the claims in full, then priority shall be determined by the statutes or, in the absence of conflicting provisions, on a pro rata basis.

   c. The payment of deposits, including accrued interest, up to the date of the special meeting of the members at which voluntary dissolution was authorized or in the case of involuntary dissolution, the date of appointment of a receiver.

   d. The pro rata apportionment of the balance among the members of record on the date of the special meeting of the members at which voluntary dissolution was authorized or in the case of involuntary dissolution, the members of record on the date of appointment of a receiver.

2. All amounts due to members who are unknown, or who are under a disability and there is no person legally competent to receive such amounts, or who cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence shall be transmitted to the treasurer of state in accordance with the provisions of that section and shall be retained by the treasurer of state and subject to claim as provided for in that section.

3. The superintendent shall assume custody of the records of a credit union dissolved pursuant to this chapter and shall retain these records in accordance with the provisions of section 533.26. The superintendent may cause film, photographic, photostatic, or other copies of these records to be made and the superintendent shall retain these copies in lieu of the original records.

4. The dissolution of a credit union shall not remove or impair any remedy available to or against such credit union, its directors, officers, or members for any right or claim existing or any liability incurred prior to such dissolution if an action or other proceeding to enforce the right or claim is commenced within two years after the date of filing of a certificate or decree of dissolution with the county recorder in the county in which the credit union has its principal place of business. Any such action or proceeding by or against the credit union may be prosecuted or defended by the credit union in its corporate name. The members, directors, and officers shall have power to take such corporate or other action as shall be appropriate to protect such remedy, right, or claim.

A credit union shall be deemed an institution for savings and shall be subject to taxation only as to its real estate, tangible personal property, moneys and credits. The shares shall not be taxed.

The moneys and credits tax on credit unions is imposed at a rate of five mills on each dollar of the legal and special reserves which are required to be maintained by the credit union under section 533.17, and shall be levied by the board of supervisors, and placed upon the tax list and collected by the county treasurer, except that an exemption shall be given to each credit union in the amount of forty thousand dollars. The amount collected in each taxing district within a city shall be apportioned twenty percent to the county, thirty percent to the city general fund, and fifty percent to the general fund of the state, and the amount collected in each taxing district outside of cities shall be apportioned fifty percent to the county and fifty percent to the general fund of the state. The moneys and credits tax shall be collected at the location of the credit union as shown in its articles of incorporation.

No liability shall accrue against any credit union destroying any such records after the expiration of the time provided in sections 533.26 to 533.29 and in any cause or proceedings in which any such records or files may be called in question or be demanded of the credit union or any officer or employee thereof, showing that such records or files have been destroyed in accordance with the terms of said sections shall be a sufficient excuse for the failure to produce them. Nothing herein shall require credit unions to retain any class of records or files for the period of limitations of actions provided herein; but any records, files or class of records not deemed necessary for the conduct of the current business of credit unions, or future examinations thereof, or for defense in the event of litigation, may be destroyed within such period.

For the purpose of assisting credit unions in the retention of only necessary records and files, or for the destruction of those which are obsolete or unnecessary, credit unions are authorized to destroy such records and files or classes thereof within the period of limitation of actions upon the joint recommendation of the superintendent and the credit union review board.

533.28 Photographic records.
Any writing or record, or a photostatic or photographic reproduction thereof, of any credit union whether in the form of an entry in a book or otherwise, made as a memorandum or record of any act, transaction, occurrence or event, shall be admissible in evidence in proof of said act, transaction, occurrence or event, if made in the regular course of business.

533.29 Limitation of actions.
All causes of action against a credit union based upon a claim or claims inconsistent with an entry or entries in any credit union record or ledger, made in the regular course of business, shall be deemed to have accrued, and shall accrue, one year after the date of such entry or entries; and no action founded upon such a cause may be brought after the expiration of ten years from the date of such accrual. Any such existing cause of action may be commenced in any court of competent jurisdiction within one year after July 4, 1959.

1. With the approval of the superintendent, a credit union may merge with another credit union under the existing charter of the other credit union if the merger is pursuant to a plan agreed upon by a majority of the board of directors of each credit union joining in the merger and the merger is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the merging credit union present at a meeting of its members called for the purpose of voting on the merger.

The superintendent may approve a merger according to the plan agreed upon by the majority of the board of directors of each credit union if the superintendent receives a written and verified application filed by the board of directors of each credit union and finds all of the following:

a. Notice of the meeting called to consider the merger was mailed to each member of the merging credit union entitled to vote upon the question.

b. The notice disclosed the purpose of the meeting and properly informed the membership that approval of the merger would be sought pursuant to this subsection.

c. A majority of the votes upon the question were in favor of the merger.

The superintendent may waive the membership merger vote if the superintendent finds that an emergency exists which justifies the waiver.

2. The superintendent may adopt rules establishing merger procedures.

3. The certificate and a copy of the agreed plan of merger shall be forwarded to the superintendent, certified by the superintendent, and returned to both credit unions within thirty days of the date of receipt by the superintendent.

4. Upon return of the certificates from the superintendent, all property, property rights, and members' interest of the merged credit union vest in the surviving credit union without the legal need for deeds, endorsements or other instruments of transfer, and all debts, obligations and liabilities of the merged credit union are assumed by the surviving credit union under whose charter the merger was effected. The rights and privileges of the members of the merged credit union remain intact according to the plan. Credit union membership in the surviving credit union shall be available to persons within the field of membership of the merged credit union.

5. This section shall be construed to permit a credit union organized under any other statute to merge with one organized under this chapter, or to permit one organized under this chapter to merge with one organized under any other statute.

§533.31 Penalty for falsification.
Any director, officer, agent, employee, or clerk of any credit union who shall knowingly subscribe or make any false statements or false entries in the books thereof, or knowingly subscribe or exhibit false papers with intent to deceive any person authorized to examine its condition, or shall knowingly subscribe and make false reports, or shall knowingly divert the funds of the credit union to other objects than those authorized by law, shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice and be forever after barred from holding any office created by this chapter.

§533.32 Governmental employees — payments withheld.
When a credit union has been organized by the employees of the state or of any political or municipal subdivision of the state, the officer who writes warrants for the state or other governmental body by which any public employee credit union member is employed, may withhold from the salary or wages of such employee, and pay over to such credit union, such sums as may be designated by written authorization signed by such employee. The provisions of section 539.4 shall have no application hereto.

§533.33 Administrator of account insurance plan as receiver.
1. The superintendent may tender to the administrator of an account insurance plan approved under this chapter the appointment as receiver for an insured credit union. If the insurance plan administrator accepts the appointment as receiver, the rights of the members and other creditors of the insured credit union shall be determined in accordance with the laws of this state.

2. The administrator of an account insurance plan as receiver shall possess the powers, rights, and privileges given to the superintendent as provided by law.

3. If the administrator of an account insurance plan pays or makes available for payment the insured liabilities of a state credit union, the administrator shall be subrogated by operation of law to all rights of the members against the insured credit union in the same manner and to the same extent as subrogation is provided for in applicable laws in the case of a closed federal credit union or closed state credit union.

1. A state credit union may convert into a federal credit union with the approval of the administrator of the national credit union administration and by the affirmative vote of a majority of the credit union’s members who vote on the proposal. This vote, if taken, shall be at a meeting called for that purpose and shall be in the manner prescribed by the bylaws.

2. The board of directors of the state credit union shall notify the superintendent of any proposed conversion and of any abandonment or disapproval of the conversion by the members or by the administrator of the national credit union administration. The board of directors of the state credit union shall file with the superintendent appropriate evidence of approval of the conversion by the administrator of the national credit union administration and shall notify the superintendent of the date on which the conversion is to be effective.

3. Upon receipt of satisfactory proof that the state credit union has complied with all applicable laws of this state and of the United States, the superintendent shall issue a certificate of conversion which shall be filed and recorded in the county in which the state credit union has its principal place of business and in the county in which its original articles of incorporation were filed and recorded.

533.35 Conversion of federal credit union into state credit union.

1. A federal credit union may convert into a state credit union by compliance with the laws of the United States and upon the approval of the superintendent. Application for approval of the conversion to a state credit union shall be submitted to the superintendent in the form prescribed by the superintendent, together with the articles of incorporation and bylaws as required by section 533.1. The superintendent may cause an examination to be made of any converting federal credit union. The credit union shall pay to the superintendent the same examination fee as paid for examinations of state credit unions.

2. If the superintendent should approve the application of a federal credit union for conversion to a state credit union, the superintendent shall cause the articles of incorporation of the resulting state credit union to be filed and recorded in the county in which the credit union has its principal place of business and the superintendent shall issue a certificate of authority to do business under the laws of this state to the resulting state credit union. The credit union shall then become a state credit union subject to the laws of this state. The superintendent shall furnish a copy of the certificate to the administrator of the national credit union administration.

3. The existence of the federal credit union shall continue and the resulting state credit union shall have all of the property, rights, powers and duties of the federal credit union except that the resulting state credit union shall have only the authority to engage in such business and exercise such powers and shall be subject to the same prohibitions and limitations to which it would be subject upon original organization under this chapter.

4. No liability of the federal credit union or of its members, directors or officers shall be affected, nor shall any lien on any property of the federal credit union be impaired by the conversion. Any claim existing or action pending by or against the federal credit union may be prosecuted to judgment as if the conversion had not taken place, or the resulting state credit union may be substituted in its place.

533.37 Enforcement of Iowa consumer credit code.

1. The superintendent shall enforce the Iowa consumer credit code with respect to credit unions, as provided in sections 537.2303, 537.2305 and 537.6105.

2. The superintendent shall cooperate with the administrator of the Iowa consumer credit code as designated in section 537.6103, and shall assist that administrator whenever necessary to provide for the discharge of the duties of that administrator.

3. Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, the superintendent shall authorize to be furnished to the administrator of the Iowa consumer credit code, access to or copies of records in the custody of the division which relate to a credit union, when necessary to enable the administrator of the Iowa consumer credit code to enforce chapter 537.

533.38 Corporate central credit union.

A corporate central credit union may be established. Credit unions organized under this chapter, the Federal Credit Union Act, or any other credit union act and credit union organizations may be members. In addition, regulated financial institutions, nonprofit organizations, and cooperative organizations may be members to the extent and manner provided for in the bylaws of the corporate central credit union. The corporate central credit union shall have all the powers, restrictions, and obligations imposed upon, or granted to a credit union under this chapter, except that the corporate central credit union may exercise any of the following additional powers subject to the adoption of rules by the superintendent pursuant to chapter 17A and with the prior written approval of the superintendent:

1. Make loans and extend lines of credit to its members.

2. Impose fees or penalties upon its members and apply them to income.

3. Make available share draft accounts and permit the owners of the accounts to make withdrawals by negotiable or other transferable instruments or other orders for the purpose of making transfers to third parties.

4. Borrow any amount from any source.

5. Invest in or purchase obligations or securities or other designated investments to the same extent authorized for other supervised financial institutions.

6. Invest in or acquire shares, stocks, or other obligations of an organization providing services which are associated with the operations of credit unions. However, the aggregate amount invested pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed fifty percent of the total of all reserves and undivided earnings of the corporate credit union.

7. Buy or sell investment securities and corporate bonds which are evidences of indebtedness. However, the purchase or sale is limited to marketable obliga-

8. Sell all or part of its assets to another central or corporate credit union and assume the liabilities of a selling central or corporate credit union if the action is approved by the majority vote of the board of directors at a meeting called for that purpose.

9. Invest in the shares or deposits of another similarly organized corporate credit union, central credit union, or central liquidity facility.

10. Make other investments approved by the superintendent.

11. The corporate central credit union shall not be required to transfer to its legal reserve more than five percent of its net income for the year.

533.40 and 533.41 Reserved.

1. A credit union may provide its members with share draft accounts. Share draft means a negotiable draft which is payable upon demand and is used to withdraw funds from a share draft account. A share draft is an item for purposes of chapter 554, article 4. The term does not include a draft issued by a credit union for the transfer of funds between the issuing credit union and another credit union, a bank, a savings and loan association, or another depository financial institution.

2. A share draft account is an account that is a demand account from which a credit union has agreed that funds may be withdrawn by means of a share draft. A share draft account may bear interest or dividends as determined by the board of directors, provided that a credit union shall not pay interest or dividends on a share draft account at a rate which exceeds the maximum interest rate which a regulated financial institution is able to pay on comparable instruments as allowed by the depository institutions deregulatory committee.

3. A credit union may guarantee payment for a share draft if both the following conditions are met:
   a. A specific guarantee authorization is obtained for the share draft from the credit union.
   b. The guarantee authorization is immediately noted on the share draft account to prevent the withdrawal of funds needed to pay the guaranteed share draft.

4. A credit union may charge fees and penalties on share drafts and apply fees and penalties to the credit union's income in relation to share draft services.

5. The superintendent may adopt rules relating to share draft programs as necessary to administer this chapter.

83 Acts, ch 98, §1, 3

533.43 Payment of share drafts during dissolution.

Other provisions of section 533.22 notwithstanding, when a credit union is dissolved, first priority of payment shall be given to unpaid share drafts. However, a share draft shall not be paid if any of the following conditions exist:

1. The share draft was issued on or after the date of appointment of a receiver in the event of an involuntary dissolution, or on or after the date the credit union is required by section 533.20, subsection 2 to cease doing business in the event of a voluntary dissolution.

2. The share draft is written against an account which does not contain sufficient funds with which to pay the share draft.

3. The share draft is payable to a member of the credit union, or to a member of the family of the issuer of the share draft, or to a business in which the issuer of the share draft has an interest. However, the exception contained in this subsection does not apply to any person referred to in this subsection if the person is a holder in due course of the share draft which does not contain sufficient funds with which to pay the share draft solely on the grounds that the share draft fails to meet the requirements of section 554.3104, subsection 1, paragraph "d].

533.46 Acceptance of deposits and investments while insolvent.

A credit union shall not accept any deposits or investments in its shares, or renew or extend the term of any time deposits or time investments, when the credit union is insolvent.

533.47 Investment in certain shares or equity interests.

1. A credit union may invest in either of the following to the extent that the total investments under this section shall not be more than five percent of the credit union's assets:
   a. Shares or equity interests in venture capital funds which agree to invest an amount equal to at least fifty percent of the credit union's investment in small businesses having their principal offices within this state and having either more than one half of their assets within this state or more than one half of their employees employed within this state.
b. Shares or equity interests in small businesses having their principal offices within this state and having either more than one half of their assets within this state or more than one half of their employees employed within this state. A credit union shall not invest in more than twenty percent of the total capital and surplus of any one small business under this paragraph.

2. For purposes of this section:
   a. “Venture capital fund” means a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, or other entity formed under the laws of the United States, or a state, district, or territory of the United States, whose principal business is or will be the making of investments in, and the provision of significant managerial assistance to, small businesses which meet the small business administration definition of small business.
   b. “Equity interests” means limited partnership interests and other equity interests in which liability is limited to the amount of the investment, but does not mean general partnership interests or other interests involving general liability.
   c. “Small business” means a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, or other entity formed under the laws of the United States, or a state, district, or territory of the United States, which meets the appropriate small business administration definition of small business and which is principally engaged in the development or exploitation of inventions, technological improvements, new processes, or other products not previously generally available in this state or other investments which provide an economic benefit to the state.

533.48 Investment in banks or savings and loan associations.
1. Investments in banks. A credit union may, with the prior approval of the superintendent, invest in the capital stock, obligations, or other securities of a bank.

2. Investment in savings and loans. A credit union may, with the prior approval of the superintendent, invest in the capital stock, obligations, or other securities of a state savings and loan association.

3. Findings required. The superintendent shall not grant an approval under subsection 1 or 2, except after making one of the following findings:
   a. Based upon a preponderance of the evidence presented, the proposed investment will not have the immediate effect of significantly reducing competition between depository financial institutions located in the same community as the institution whose shares would be acquired.
   b. Based upon a preponderance of the evidence presented, the proposed investment would have an anticompetitive effect as described in paragraph “a”, but other factors, specifically cited, outweigh the anticompetitive effect so that there would be a net public benefit as a result of the investment.

4. Competition preserved. The subsequent liquidation of a bank or state savings and loan association whose shares are acquired under this section shall not prevent the subsequent incorporation of another bank or savings and loan association in the same community, and the superintendent of banking shall not find the liquidation of such a bank to be grounds for disapproving the incorporation of another bank in the same community under section 524.305, and the superintendent of savings and loan associations shall not find the liquidation of such a savings and loan association to be grounds for disapproving the incorporation of another savings and loan association in the same community under chapter 534.

ADMINISTRATION

533.51 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. “Credit union” means a co-operative, nonprofit association, incorporated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. A credit union is also a supervised financial organization as defined and used in the Iowa consumer credit code.
2. “Board” means the credit union review board, created in section 533.53.
3. “Superintendent” means the superintendent of credit unions appointed by the governor to direct and regulate credit unions pursuant to this chapter.
4. “Account insurance plan” means a plan providing account and share insurance which is of a type authorized under section 533.64.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §750

533.52 Credit union division created.
A credit union division of the department of commerce is created to administer this chapter.

533.53 Credit union review board.
1. A credit union review board is created. The board shall consist of seven members, five of whom shall have been members in good standing for at least the previous five years of either an Iowa state chartered credit union, or a credit union chartered under the federal Credit Union Act and having its principal place of business in Iowa. Two of the members may be public members; however, at no time shall more than five of the members be directors or employees of a credit union. The members shall serve for three-year staggered terms beginning and ending as provided by section 69.19.

2. The members of the board shall be appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. The governor may appoint the members of the board from a list of nominees submitted to the governor by the credit unions located in the state of Iowa.
3. The board shall meet at least four times each year and shall hold special meetings at the call of the chairperson. Four members constitute a quorum.

4. Each member of the board shall receive actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of official duties. Each member of the board may also be eligible to receive compensation as provided in section 753.6.

5. A member of the credit union review board shall not take part in any action or participate in any decision when the matter under consideration specifically relates to a credit union of which the board member is a member.

[C79, 81, §533.53]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §752
Confirmation, §2 32

533.54 Powers and duties.

The board may adopt, amend, and repeal rules pursuant to chapter 17A or take other action as it deems necessary or suitable, to effect the provisions of this chapter.

533.55 Superintendent.

1. The superintendent shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, and shall possess a minimum of five years credit union experience.

2. The superintendent may employ special assistants, examiners, and other employees as necessary to carry out this chapter. The superintendent, subject to approval by the board, shall establish salaries for the persons employed.

3. The superintendent may adopt rules as necessary or appropriate to implement this chapter, subject to the prior approval of the rules by the board.

[C79, 81, §533.55]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §753

533.56 Deputy superintendent.

1. The superintendent shall appoint a deputy superintendent who shall assist the superintendent in the performance of the superintendent’s duties and who shall perform the duties of the superintendent as directed by the superintendent during the absence or inability of the superintendent.

2. The deputy superintendent shall serve at the pleasure of the superintendent. If the office of the superintendent becomes vacant, the deputy superintendent has all powers and duties of the superintendent until a new superintendent is appointed by the governor in accordance with this chapter.

3. The deputy superintendent shall receive a salary to be fixed by the board.

[C79, 81, §533.56]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §754

533.57 Expenses.

The superintendent, deputy superintendent, assistants, examiners, and other employees of the credit union division are entitled to receive reimbursement for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties subject to approval by the board. The superintendent, and when specifically authorized by the superintendent, the deputy superintendent, assistants, examiners, and other employees of the division, are entitled to receive reimbursement for expenses incurred while attending conventions, meetings, conferences, schools, or seminars relating to the performance of their duties.

533.58 Insurance and surety bond.

The superintendent shall acquire good and sufficient bond in a company authorized to do business in this state to insure the faithful performance of the deputy superintendent, assistants, examiners and all other employees of the credit union division and to insure against any liability which may accrue in the course of an examination, investigation, or other function required or allowed by the laws of this state. The superintendent shall be bonded in accordance with the provisions of chapter 64, provided that such bond shall be in the amount of one hundred thousand dollars.

533.59 Subpoena — contempt.

1. The superintendent, the deputy superintendent, and upon the approval of the superintendent, any assistant or examiner shall have the power to subpoena witnesses, to compel their attendance, to administer oaths, to examine any person under oath and to require the production of relevant books or papers. The examination may be conducted on any subject relating to the duties imposed upon, or powers vested in, the superintendent under the provisions of this chapter.

2. When a person subpoenaed pursuant to subsection 1 of this section neglects or refuses to obey the terms of the subpoena, or to produce books or papers or to give testimony, as required, the superintendent may apply to the district court of Polk county for the enforcement of the subpoena or for the issuance of an order compelling compliance as the court directs.

3. The refusal without reasonable cause of a person to obey an order of the district court, issued pursuant to subsection 2, shall be considered contempt of court.

533.60 Records of credit union division.

1. Records of the credit union division are public records subject to the provisions of chapter 22, except that papers, documents, reports, reports of examinations and other writings relating specifically to the supervision and regulation of a specific credit union or of other persons by the superintendent pursuant to the laws of this state are not public records and shall not be open for examination or copying by the public or for examination or publication by the news media.

2. The credit union review board or the superintendent may notify the Iowa credit union league of the name of any credit union which the board or superintendent has reasonable cause to believe may have violated any of the provisions of this chapter or may be in danger of becoming insolvent or which has been the subject of a report of examination which the board or superintendent deems unsatisfactory in any respect, and thereafter the superintendent may, with the written consent of the credit union, give information secured from or about that credit union to the Iowa credit union league.

3. The superintendent, deputy superintendent, assistants or examiners shall not be subpoenaed in any cause or proceeding to give testimony concerning information relating to the supervision and regulation of a specific credit union or persons by the superintendent pursuant to the laws of this state, nor shall the records of the credit union division which relate to the supervision and regulation of a specific credit union or persons be offered in evidence in a court or subject to subpoena by a party except where relevant:
   a. In actions or proceedings brought by the superintendent.
   b. In matters in which an interested and proper party seeks review of a decision of the superintendent.
   c. In actions or proceedings which arise out of the criminal provisions of the laws of this state or of the United States.
   d. In actions brought as shareholder derivative suits against a credit union.
   e. In actions brought to recover moneys or to recover upon an indemnity bond for embezzlement, misappropriation or misuse of credit union funds.

533.61 Annual report of superintendent.

1. The superintendent shall make a report in writing annually to the governor in the manner and within the time required by chapter 17. A copy of the report shall be furnished by the superintendent to each credit union and to the Iowa credit union league and its affiliates.

2. In addition to the matters required by chapter 17, the annual report of the superintendent shall contain:
   a. A summary of applications approved or denied by the superintendent pursuant to this chapter since the last previous report.
   b. A summary of the assets, liabilities and capital structures of all credit unions, and a summary of the volume of consumer installment credit outstanding per credit union, as of December 31 of the year for which the report is made.
   c. A statement of the receipts and disbursements of funds of the superintendent during the calendar year ending on the preceding December 31 and of the funds on hand on that December 31, including an estimate of the disbursements of credit union division funds for consumer credit protection during the year for which the report is made.
   d. Other information the superintendent deems appropriate and advisable to fairly disclose the discharge of the duties imposed upon the superintendent by this chapter.
   e. Information which the administrator of the Iowa consumer credit code may require to be included.

533.62 Examination and supervision fees — penalties.

1. Each credit union shall pay to the superintendent an annual filing fee which shall be submitted with the annual report. The fee shall be based upon the actual operating costs of the credit union division, exclusive of examination expenses, and shall be established and promulgated as a rule by the superintendent. The superintendent shall assess against a credit union the actual and necessary expenses of the agency incidental to any examination of that credit union made pursuant to the provisions of this chapter or to an order of the superintendent.

2. Failure of a credit union to pay an annual filing fee or examination fee shall result in a penalty of five dollars per day, or for any part of a day, during which the credit union is delinquent, and may be the grounds for revocation of the charter of the credit union which failed to make payment.

3. All expenses required in the discharge of the duties and responsibilities imposed upon the superintendent and the board by the laws of this state shall be paid from funds appropriated from the general fund of the state. The superintendent shall pay all fees and other money received by the superintendent to the treasurer of state within the same time required by section 12.10. The treasurer of state shall deposit such funds in the general fund of the state. Funds appropriated to the credit union division shall be subject at all times to the warrant of the director of revenue and finance, drawn upon written requisition of the superintendent or a designated representative, for the payment of all salaries and other expenses necessary to carry out the duties of the credit union division.

4. The superintendent, deputy or employees of the credit union division shall not have any business dealings with an Iowa state chartered credit union, except that any of these persons may hold a membership in a credit union for the purpose of engaging in transactions involving savings of the person which are held or to be held in share accounts, deposit accounts, thrift club accounts or share-draft accounts. Credit unions shall not accept moneys for deposit and shall not have any business transaction with the superintendent, deputy or an employee of the credit union division, except to the extent permitted by the first sentence of this subsection. A person who willfully undertakes to establish a business dealing contrary to this section commits a serious misdemeanor, and shall be permanently disqualified from acting as an officer, director or employee of a state chartered credit union and permanently disqualified from acting as superintendent, deputy or employee of the credit union division.

533.63 False statements — penalties.
1. A director, officer or employee of a credit union shall not intentionally publish, disseminate or distribute any advertising or notice containing any false, misleading or deceptive statements concerning rates, terms or conditions on which loans are made, or deposits or share installments are received, or concerning any charge which the credit union is authorized to impose pursuant to this chapter, concerning the financial condition of the credit union. Any director, officer, or employee of a credit union who violates the provisions of this section commits fraudulent practice.

2. Any person who maliciously or with intent to deceive makes, publishes, utters, repeats, or circulates any false statement concerning any credit union which imputes or tends to impute insolvency, unsound financial condition or financial embarrassment, or which may tend to cause or provoke or aid in causing or provoking a general withdrawal of deposits from such credit union, or which may otherwise injure or tend to injure the business or good will of such credit union, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

533.64 Account insurance.
Except as provided in section 533.12, subsection 2, a credit union organized under this chapter, as a condition of maintaining its privilege of organization after December 31, 1980, shall acquire and maintain insurance to protect each shareholder and each depositor against loss of funds held on account by the credit union. The insurance shall be obtained from the national credit union administrator or from some other share guarantor or insurance plan approved by the Iowa commissioner of insurance and the superintendent.

The superintendent may furnish to any official of an insurance plan by which the accounts of a credit union are insured, any information relating to examinations and reports of the status of that credit union for the purpose of availability of insurance to that credit union.

[C79, 81, §533.64]

533.65 False statement for credit.
Any person who knowingly makes or causes to be made, directly or indirectly, any false statement in writing, or who procures, knowing that a false statement in writing has been made concerning the financial condition or means or ability to pay of such person or any other person in which such person is interested or for whom such person is acting with the intent that such statement shall be relied upon by a credit union for the purpose of procuring the delivery of property, the payment of cash or the receipt of credit in any form, for the benefit of such person or of any other person in which such person is interested or for whom such person is acting, shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice.

533.66 Central credit unions.
Credit unions known as "central credit unions" may exist for the purpose of serving members of dissolved credit unions, directors, officers and employees of credit unions, employee groups as defined in section 533.4, subsection 13, and such other persons as the superintendent shall approve.

533.67 Expenses of the credit union division — fees.
All expenses required in the discharge of the duties and responsibilities imposed upon the credit union division, the superintendent, and the credit union review board by the laws of this state shall be paid from fees provided by the laws of this state and appropriated by the general assembly from the fund established in this section. All of these fees are payable to the superintendent. The superintendent shall pay all the fees and other money received by the superintendent to the treasurer of state within the time required by section 12.10. The treasurer of state shall hold these funds in a credit union revolving fund that shall be established in the name of the superintendent for the payment of the expenses of the division. This fund is subject at all times to the warrant of the department of revenue and finance, drawn upon written requisition of the superintendent or the superintendent's designated representative, for the payment of all salaries and other expenses necessary to carry out the duties of the division. The superintendent may keep on hand with the treasurer of state funds in excess of the current needs of the division to the extent approved by the credit union review board. No transfers shall be made from the general fund of the state or any other fund for the payment of the expenses of the division. No part of the funds held by the treasurer of state for the account of the superintendent shall be transferred to the general fund of the state or any other fund, except as follows: Thirty thousand dollars each fiscal year shall be transferred to the general fund of the state. The amount shall be considered as one of the costs of the division. The funds held by the treasurer of state for the account of the superintendent shall be invested by the treasurer of state and the income derived from these investments shall be credited to the general fund of the state.

The authority to modify allotments provided in section 8.31 shall not apply to funds appropriated from the fund created in this section and held for the superintendent.

The superintendent shall account for receipts and disbursements according to the separate duties imposed upon the superintendent by the laws of this state and each separate duty shall be fiscally self-sustaining.

CHAPTER 533A
DEBT MANAGEMENT

533A.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter:
1. “Debt management” means the planning and management of the financial affairs of a debtor and the receiving therefrom of money or evidences thereof for the purpose of distributing the same to the debtor’s creditors in payment or partial payment of the debtor’s obligations for a fee.
2. “Licensee” means any individual, partnership, unincorporated association, agency or corporation licensed under this chapter.
3. “Superintendent” means the superintendent of banking.
5. “Office” means each location by street number, building number, city, and state where any person engages in debt management.
6. “Creditor” means a person for whose benefit moneys are being collected and distributed by licensees.

533A.2 Licenses required — exceptions.
1. No individual, partnership, unincorporated association, agency or corporation shall engage in the business of debt management in this state without a license therefor as provided for in this chapter, except that the following persons shall not be required to be licensed when engaged in the regular course of their respective businesses and professions:
   a. Attorneys at law.
   b. Banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies and similar fiduciaries, regulated loan companies licensed under chapter 536 and industrial loan companies licensed under chapter 536A, authorized and admitted to transact business in this state and performing credit and financial adjusting in the regular course of their principal business, or while performing an escrow function.
   c. Abstract companies, while performing an escrow function.
   d. Employees of licensees under this chapter.
   e. Judicial officers or others acting under court orders.
   f. Nonprofit religious, fraternal or co-operative organizations, including credit unions, offering to debtors gratuitous debt-management service.
   g. Those persons, associations, or corporations whose principal business is the origination of first mortgage loans on real estate for their own portfolios or for sale to institutional investors.
2. The application for such license shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the superintendent. The application shall contain the name of the applicant; date of incorporation, if incorporated, and the address where the business is to be conducted; and similar information as to any branch office of the applicant; the name and resident address of the owner or partners, or, if a corporation, association or agency, of the directors, trustees, principal officers, and agents, and such other pertinent information as the superintendent may require. If the applicant is a partnership, a copy of the certificate of assumed name or articles of partnership shall be filed with the application. If the applicant is a corporation, a copy of the articles of incorporation shall be filed with the application.
3. Each application shall be accompanied by a bond to be approved by the superintendent to the people of the state of Iowa in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars for each office, providing, however, the superintendent may require such bond to be raised to a maximum sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, and conditioned that the obligor will not violate any law pertaining to such business and upon the faithful accounting of all moneys collected upon accounts entrusted to such person engaged in debt management, and their employees and agents for the purpose of indemnifying debtors for loss resulting from conduct prohibited by this chapter. The aggregate liability of the surety to all debtors doing business with the office for which the bond is filed shall, in no event, exceed the penal sum of such bond. The surety on the bond shall have the right to cancel such bond upon giving thirty days’ notice to the superintendent and thereafter shall be relieved of liability for any breach of condition occurring after the effective date of said cancellation. No individual, partnership, unincorporated association, agency or corporation shall engage in the business of debt management until a good and sufficient bond is filed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

4. Each applicant shall furnish with the application a copy of the contract the applicant proposes to use between the applicant and the debtor, which shall contain a schedule of fees to be charged the debtor for the applicant’s services.

5. At the time of making such application the applicant shall pay to the superintendent the sum of fifty dollars as a license fee for each of the applicant’s offices and an investigation fee in the sum of one hundred dollars. A separate application shall be made for each office maintained by the applicant.

85 Acts, ch 158, §1

533A.3 Investigation – hearing.
1. Upon the filing of each application and the payment of such fees, the superintendent shall fix a date and a time for a hearing upon such application, and shall make an investigation of the facts concerning the application and the requirements provided for in subsection 3 of this section.

2. The superintendent shall grant or deny each application for a license within sixty days from the filing thereof with the required fee, unless the period is extended by written agreement between the applicant and the superintendent.

3. a. If the superintendent shall find the experience, financial responsibility, character and general fitness of the applicant is such as to command the confidence of the public and to warrant belief that the business will be operated lawfully, honestly, fairly and efficiently within the purposes of this chapter, and that the applicant, or if the applicant is an unincorporated association, agency or partnership, then the individuals involved, or if the applicant is a corporation then the officers and directors thereof, have not been convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or have not had a record of having defaulted in payment of money collected for others, including the discharge of such debts through bankruptcy proceedings, the superintendent shall thereupon enter an order granting such application and forthwith issue and deliver a license to the applicant. The superintendent may require as part of the application a credit report and other information.

b. If the applicant has, at the time of the application, a license for an office located within ten statute miles of the location of the office named in the application, no license shall be issued unless the superintendent finds that public convenience will be served by the issuance of such license.

c. No license shall be transferable or assignable.

4. If the superintendent finds the applicant not qualified by subsection 3 of this section, the superintendent shall enter an order denying such application and forthwith notify the applicant of the denial, returning the license fee. Within fifteen days after the entry of such order, the superintendent shall prepare written findings and shall forthwith deliver a copy thereof to the applicant.

533A.4 Expiration date.
The license issued under this chapter shall expire on July 1 next following its issuance unless sooner surrendered, revoked or suspended, but may be renewed as provided in this chapter.

533A.5 Renewal.
Each licensee on or before July 1 may make application to the superintendent for renewal of its license. The application shall be on the form prescribed by the superintendent and shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred dollars, together with a bond as in the case of an original application. A separate renewal application shall be made for each office maintained by the applicant.

533A.6 Appointment of process agent.
1. No licensee shall transact business until it shall have first appointed in writing the superintendent as agent of the licensee for service of process in this state. Service upon the superintendent or, in the superintendent’s absence, any employee in charge of the superintendent’s office, shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon any licensee under this chapter.

2. Whenever lawful process against any licensee shall be served upon the superintendent, two copies shall be furnished and the superintendent shall forthwith forward a copy of the process served on the superintendent, by certified mail, postpaid and directed to the licensee. For each service of process the sum of two dollars shall be collected, which shall be paid by the plaintiff at the time of such service, the same to be recovered by the plaintiff as part of the taxable costs, if the plaintiff prevails in the suit.

533A.7 Revocation or suspension.
1. The superintendent may revoke or suspend any license issued or applied for under this chapter for the following causes:

a. Conviction of a felony or of a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude.

b. For intentionally violating any of the provisions of this chapter.

c. For fraud or deceit in procuring the issuance of a license or renewal under this chapter.

d. For indulging in a continuous course of unfair conduct.

e. For insolvency, bankruptcy, receivership or assignment for the benefit of creditors by a licensee or applicant for a license under this chapter.

2. The denial, revocation or suspension shall be made only upon specific charges in writing, under oath, filed with the superintendent or by the superintendent whereupon a hearing shall be had as to the reasons for any denial, revocation or suspension and a certified copy of the charges shall be served on the licensee or applicant for license not less than ten days prior to the hearing. [C71, 73, 77, 79, 81, §533A.7]

533A.8 Written contract required.
1. Each licensee shall make a written contract between the licensee and a debtor and shall immediately and before collecting any fee, furnish the debtor with a true copy of the contract. The contract shall set forth the complete list of creditors who are to receive payments under the contract, the total charges agreed upon for the services of the licensee, a statement of how the charges are to be paid, and the beginning and expiration date of the contract. No contract shall extend for a period longer than thirty-six months.
2. Each licensee shall maintain a separate bank trust account in which all payments received from debtors for the benefit of creditors shall be deposited and in which all payments shall remain until a remittance is made to either the debtor or the creditor. Every licensee shall keep, and use in the licensee's business, books, accounts and records which will enable the superintendent to determine whether such licensee is complying with the provisions of this chapter and with the rules and regulations of the superintendent. Every licensee shall preserve such books, accounts and records for at least seven years after making the final entry on any transaction recorded therein.
3. Each licensee shall keep complete and adequate records during the term of the contract and for a period of five years from the date of cancellation or completion of the contract with each debtor, which records shall contain complete information regarding the contract, extensions thereof, payments, disbursements, and charges, which records shall be open to inspection by the superintendent and the superintendent's duly appointed agents during normal business hours.
4. Each licensee shall make remittances to creditors within forty-five days after initial receipt of funds, and thereafter remittances shall be made to creditors within thirty days of receipt, less fees and costs, unless the reasonable payment of one or more of the debtor's obligations requires that such funds be held for a longer period so as to accumulate a sum certain.
5. Each licensee shall, upon request, furnish the debtor a written statement of the debtor's account monthly or a verbal accounting at any time the debtor may request it during normal business hours. A monthly written statement of disbursements made and fees deducted from the debtor's account shall be made to the debtor, whether the debtor requests it or not.
6. A licensee shall not receive any fee unless the licensee has the consent of at least fifty percent of the total number of the creditors listed in the licensee's contract with the debtor, or such a like number of creditors have accepted a distribution of payment.

The debtor shall be informed by the licensee of those creditors who have not agreed to the licensee's handling of the account. No licensee shall accept an account unless a written and thorough budget analysis has been performed which indicates that the debtor can meet the requirements determined by the budget analysis.

7. In the event a compromise of a debt is arranged by the licensee with any one or more creditors, the debtor shall have the full benefit of such compromise. [C71, 73, 77, 79, 81, §533A.8]

533A.9 Fee agreed in advance.
The fee of the licensee shall be agreed upon in advance and stated in the contract and provision for settlement in case of cancellation or prepayment shall be clearly stated therein. The fee of the licensee shall not exceed twelve and one-half percent of any payment made by the debtor and distributed to the creditors pursuant to the contract. In case of total payment of the contract before the contract period has expired, the licensee shall be entitled only to a fee of no more than three percent of such final payment. [C71, 73, 77, 79, 81, §533A.9]

1. The superintendent may examine the condition and affairs of said licensee. In connection with any examination, the superintendent may examine on oath any licensee, and any director, officer, employee, customer, creditor or stockholder of a licensee concerning the affairs and business of the licensee. The superintendent shall ascertain whether the licensee transacts its business in the manner prescribed by the law and the rules and regulations issued thereunder. The licensee shall pay the cost of the examination as determined by the superintendent, which fee shall not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars per day of examination. Failure to pay the examination fee within thirty days of receipt of demand from the superintendent shall automatically suspend the license until the fee is paid.
2. In the investigation of alleged violations of this chapter, the superintendent may compel the attendance of any person or the production of any books, accounts, records and files used therein, and may examine under oath any licensee, and any director, officer, employee, customer, creditor or stockholder of a licensee concerning the affairs and business of the licensee. The superintendent is authorized to make and promulgate as prescribed by law regulations necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. [C71, 73, 77, 79, 81, §533A.10]

533A.11 Unlawful acts of licensee.
It shall be unlawful and a violation of this chapter for the holder of any license issued under the terms and provisions hereto:
1. To purchase from a creditor any obligation of a debtor.
2. To operate as a collection agent and as a licensee as to the same debtor's account without first disclosing in writing such fact to both the debtor and creditor.

3. To execute any contract or agreement to be signed by the debtor unless the contract or agreement is fully and completely filled in and finished.

4. To receive or charge any fee in the form of a promissory note or other promise to pay, or receive or accept any mortgage or other security for any fee, both as to real or personal property.

5. To pay any bonus or other consideration to any individual, agency, partnership, unincorporated association or corporation for the referral of a debtor to the licensee's business, or to accept or receive any bonus, commission or other consideration for referring any debtor to any individual, partnership, unincorporated association, agency or corporation for any reason.

6. To advertise the licensee's services, display, distribute, broadcast or televise or permit to be displayed, advertised, distributed, broadcast or televised the licensee's services in any manner inconsistent with the law.

7. To collect a fee or any other consideration from both the debtor and any creditor.

533A.12 Reserved.

533A.13 License mandatory to business.
It shall be unlawful for an individual, partnership, unincorporated association, agency or corporation to engage in the business of debt management without first obtaining a license as required by this chapter. Any individual, partnership, unincorporated association, agency, corporation or any other group of individuals, however organized, or any owner, partner, member, officer, director, employee, agent or representative thereof who shall willfully or knowingly engage in the business of debt management without the license required by this chapter, shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

533A.14 Fees to state treasurer.
All moneys received by the superintendent from fees, licenses and examinations pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited by the superintendent with the treasurer of state.

533A.15 Judicial review.
Judicial review of actions of the superintendent pursuant to sections 533A.3 and 533A.7 may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

CHAPTER 533B

SALE OF CERTAIN INSTRUMENTS FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY

533B.1 Permission from superintendent of banking.
A person shall not engage in the business of selling written instruments for the transmission or payment of money, whether in the form of checks, drafts, money orders, traveler's checks or otherwise, unless the person has been issued a license by the superintendent of banking. A person is not eligible to receive or retain a license under this chapter unless the person's net worth is at all times at least twenty-five thousand dollars as shown by financial statements satisfactory to the superintendent of banking and unless the person has deposited and at all times keeps on deposit with the superintendent of banking in the form of cash or securities satisfactory to the superintendent of banking or any combination of these, the sum of fifty thousand dollars plus an additional one thousand dollars for each office or agent from or through which the person engages in business under this chapter, provided that the maximum deposit required of a person under this section shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars. However, the superintendent of banking may at the superintendent's option accept a surety bond of equivalent value in the form satisfactory to the superintendent and issued by a surety company acceptable to the superintendent in lieu of the required deposit. The deposit or bond shall be for the protection of purchasers or holders of instruments sold by the licensee, and the superintendent or any aggrieved party may enforce claims on such instruments against the deposit or bond.

The annual fee for a license issued under this chapter shall be the sum of one hundred fifty dollars.

533B.5 Penalty.
533B.6 Examination.
533B.7 Termination of license.
SALE OF CERTAIN INSTRUMENTS FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY, §533B.7

plus an additional five dollars for each location in this state at which business is conducted through agents or employees of the licensee. The annual license fee shall be paid to the superintendent of banking at the time the person submits an application for a license or an application for annual renewal of the license. If the licensee gives notice to the superintendent of the opening of a new business location, as required under section 533B.2, the licensee shall submit payment of the required additional fee at the time of giving notice.

533B.2 Agencies.
Any person complying with the provisions of this chapter may engage in such business at one or more locations in this state and through or by means of such agents as such person may designate and appoint from time to time and no such agent shall be required to comply with the provisions of this chapter.

Each licensee shall give notice to the superintendent of banking of the business name and business location of each office, agent or other representative through which instruments are sold under this chapter. This notice shall be given at the time the licensee submits an application for a license or license renewal. Any change in locations, agents or other representatives shall be reported on a quarterly basis.

533B.3 Corporations exempt.
Nothing in this chapter shall apply to corporations organized under the general banking laws of this state or of the United States or any department or agency thereof, or to private banks of this state, or state chartered credit unions, or to the receipt of money by an incorporated telegraph company at any office or agency thereof for immediate transmission by telegraph. The Federal Home Loan Bank of Des Moines and federally chartered and state chartered savings and loan associations may sell checks, drafts, or money orders for single transaction transmission of money.

533B.4 Definition.
As used in this chapter the word "person" shall mean any individual, partnership, association, joint stock association, trust or corporation.

As used in this chapter "superintendent" or "superintendent of banking" means either the superintendent of banking or a person designated by the superintendent of banking.

533B.5 Penalty.
Any person violating any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. Each transaction in violation of this chapter and each day that a violation continues shall be a separate offense.

533B.7 Termination of license.
1. The superintendent may suspend or revoke a license issued under this chapter after notice and opportunity for hearing if the superintendent finds any of the following conditions to exist:
   a. The licensee has failed to pay fees when due.
   b. The licensee has failed to maintain the deposit or bond required under this chapter.
   c. The licensee has failed to comply with an order, decision or finding of the superintendent made under this chapter.
   d. The licensee has violated a provision of this chapter, and the violation is detrimental to the public interest.
   e. A fact or condition exists which, had it existed at the time of application for a license, would have disqualified the person from licensure under this chapter.

2. A licensee is entitled to ten days' advance notice of a hearing to be held for the purpose of considering the suspension or revocation of the license, except that the superintendent may immediately suspend a license pending a hearing if the superintendent has reasonable grounds to believe that the public interest would be substantially harmed if the licensee were to continue doing business pending the conclusion of the hearing.

3. A licensee under this chapter may surrender the license by delivering a written notice of surrender to the superintendent.

4. A voluntary or involuntary termination of a license under this section shall not affect civil or criminal liability of the licensee for acts or omissions occurring prior to termination of the license, and shall not exonerate the deposit or bond from any claims arising prior to the effective date of termination. Termination of a license does not entitle the licensee to any refund of fees. The superintendent may withhold release of the deposit of a licensee following termination of a license for a reasonable period of time as necessary to assure satisfaction of outstanding claims.

DIVISION I
GENERAL PROVISIONS

534.101 Short title.
This chapter may be cited as “Savings and Loan Association chapter.”
[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §534.1]
Transferred in Code 1985 from §534.1 in Code 1963

534.102 Definitions.
When used in this chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings, except to the extent that any such word or phrase is specifically qualified by its context:
1. “Administrator” means the person designated in section 537.6103.
2. “Association” or “state association” means a corporation holding a certificate of authority to operate under this chapter as either a mutual association or a stock association.
3. “Association holding company” means a person other than an individual that directly or indirectly owns, controls or votes more than twenty-five percent of any class of voting stock of a stock association or that controls in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of a stock association or mutual association.
4. “Bank” means any person who is authorized under chapter 524 to engage in the business of banking in this state.
5. “Bank holding company” means a bank holding company as defined in section 524.1801 that is authorized under chapter 524, division XVIII, to do business in this state as a bank holding company.
6. “Dividend” shall mean that part of the net earnings of an association which is declared payable on share accounts from time to time by the board of directors and is the cost of savings money to the association.
7. “Federal association” means a corporation operating under the federal Home Owners’ Loan Act of 1933 as either a mutual association or a stock association.
8. “Foreign association” means a building and loan or savings and loan association, incorporated by the laws of another state or country, which as of January 1, 1984 did not have an office, agency, or agent operating in this state.
9. “Gross income” shall mean the sum for an accounting period of the following:
   a. Operating income.
   b. Real estate income.
   c. All profits actually received during such accounting period from the sale of securities, real estate or other property.
   d. Other nonrecurring income.
10. “Home loan” shall mean a real estate loan on a dwelling or dwellings for not more than four families, the principal use of which is for residential purposes. A “home” is the same as “home property” and constitutes the homestead of the owner. A home on a farm is a home.
11. “Impaired condition” shall mean a condition in which the assets of an association do not have an aggregate value equal to the aggregate amount of liabilities of the association to its creditors, its members and all other persons.
12. “Insured”, when used in conjunction with the words “association”, “state association”, “foreign association”, or “federal association”, means an institution whose deposits are insured in part by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation or another insurance plan approved by the superintendent.
13. “Insured mortgage” is a mortgage covered in part by insurance, which insurance has been formally submitted to and approved by the superintendent or by the federal home loan bank of the area in which the association is located.
14. “Member” shall mean a person owning a share account of an association, and a person borrowing from or assuming or obligated upon a loan held by an association, or purchasing property securing a loan held by an association and any contract purchaser from the association. A joint and survivorship relationship, whether of investors or borrowers, constitutes a single membership.
15. “Mutual association” means a corporation organized on a mutual ownership basis without shareholders.
16. “Net earnings” shall mean gross income for an accounting period less the aggregate of the following:
   a. Operating expenses.
   b. Real estate expenses.
   c. All losses actually sustained during such accounting period from the sale of securities, real estate or other property, or such portion of such losses as shall not have been charged to reserves, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.
   d. All interest paid, or due but unpaid, on borrowed money.
   e. Other nonrecurring income.
17. “Operating expenses” shall mean all expenses actually paid, or due but unpaid, by an association during an accounting period, excluding the following:
   a. Real estate expenses.
   b. Other nonrecurring charges.
   That portion of prepaid expenses which is not apportionable to the period may be excluded from operating expenses, in which event operating expenses for future periods shall exclude that portion of such prepaid expenses apportionable thereto.
18. “Operating income” shall mean all income actually received by an association during an accounting period, excluding the following:
   a. Foreclosed real estate income.
   b. Other nonrecurring income.
19. “Real estate expenses” shall mean all expenses actually paid, or due but unpaid, in connection with the ownership, maintenance, and sale of real estate (other than office building or buildings and real estate held for investment) by an association during an accounting period, excluding capital expenditures and losses on the sale of real estate.

20. “Real estate income” shall mean all income actually received by an association during an accounting period from real estate owned (other than from office building or buildings and real estate held for investment) excluding profit from sales of real estate.

21. “Real estate loan” shall mean any loan or other obligation secured by real estate, whether in fee or in a leasehold extending or renewable automatically for a period of at least fifty years or ten years beyond the maturity date of the loan.

22. “Regular lending area” shall mean the entire area within this state and an area which is outside this state and which is within one hundred miles from any approved office.

23. “Residential real estate” means real estate on which there is located, or will be located following the construction of improvements pursuant to a real estate loan, a structure or structures designed or used primarily to provide living accommodations for people, except structures which are designed to primarily provide accommodations to transients.

24. “Savings account” means a deposit account in a stock association or mutual association or a withdrawable share account or time share account in a mutual association.

25. “Savings liability” shall mean the aggregate amount of share accounts of members, including dividends credited to such accounts, less redemptions and withdrawals.

26. “Service corporation” means a corporation which is organized under chapter 496A and which is owned in any part by one or more state associations or federal associations or a combination of these.

27. “Share account or shares” shall mean that part of the savings liability of the association which is credited to the account of the holder thereof.

28. “Stock association” means a corporation owned by shareholders.

29. “Superintendent” means the superintendent of savings and loan associations.

30. “Supervised financial organization” as defined and used in the Iowa consumer credit code includes a person organized pursuant to this chapter.

31. “Supervised organization” means an association, association holding company, service corporation, licensed foreign association, or a subsidiary of an association, holding company, service corporation, or licensed foreign association.

32. “Withdrawal value” shall mean the amount credited to a share account of a member, less lawful deductions therefrom, as shown by the records of the association.

Every such association shall have the following general powers:

1. General corporate power. To sue and be sued, complain and defend in any court of law or equity; to purchase, acquire, hold, and convey real and personal estate consistent with its objects and powers; to mortgage, pledge, or lease any real or personal estate owned by the association and to authorize such pledgee to repledge same; to take property by gifts, devise or bequest; to have a corporate seal, which may be affixed by imprint, facsimile, or otherwise; to appoint officers, agents, and employees as its business shall require and allow them suitable compensation; to provide for life, health and casualty insurance for its officers and employees and to adopt and operate reasonable bonus plans and retirement benefits for such officers and employees to enter into payroll savings plans; to adopt and amend bylaws; to insure its accounts with the federal savings and loan insurance corporation and qualify as a member of a federal home loan bank; to become a member of, deal with, or make contributions to any organization to the extent that such organization assists in furthering or facilitating the association’s purposes or powers and to comply with conditions of membership; to accept savings as provided in this chapter together with such other powers as are otherwise expressly provided for in this chapter, together with such implied powers as are reasonably necessary for the purpose of carrying out the express powers granted in this chapter.

2. Fiscal agent. Any such association which is a member of a federal home loan bank shall have power to act as fiscal agent of the United States and, when designated for the purpose by the secretary of the treasury, it shall perform under such regulations as the secretary may prescribe all such reasonable duties as fiscal agent of the United States as the secretary may require, and shall have power to act as agent for any United States government instrumentality. An association may also handle travelers checks and money orders.

3. Lock boxes. Any association may own, rent to its members, lock boxes for storage or safekeeping of securities and valuables.

4. Power to borrow. Except as provided by its articles of incorporation, an association may borrow not more than an aggregate amount equal to its savings liability on the date of borrowing. A subsequent reduction of savings liability shall not affect in any way outstanding obligations for borrowed money. All loans and advances may be secured by property of the association. In addition to the above unsecured or secured borrowing, an association may issue notes, bonds, debentures and other obligations or securities approved by the superintendent, and if authorized by the regulations of the federal home loan bank. However, the obligations and securities are subject to the priority of the rights of the owners of the savings and deposits of the association.

5. Service corporations. Any association may organize and own, alone or with any other similar corporation, a service corporation for the mutual good of the associations. The superintendent shall have the right to examine service corporations.

6. Limited trust powers. An association incorporated under this chapter may act as trustee for trusts which are created or organized in the United States, and which form part of a stock bonus, pension, or profit sharing plan which qualifies for special tax treatment under section 401(d) or subsection (a) of section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or as trustee with no active fiduciary duties, if the funds of the trust are invested only in savings accounts or deposits in the association or in obligations or securities issued by the association. All funds held in such a fiduciary capacity by an association may be commingled for appropriate purposes of investment, but individual records shall be kept by the fiduciary for each participant and shall show in proper detail all transactions engaged in under the authority of this subsection.

The superintendent is authorized to grant by special permit to an association the right to act as trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, or in any other fiduciary capacity. However, this authority is available only for periods of time when federally chartered savings and loan associations operating in this state are granted similar authority, and the state authorization is subject to the rights and limitations established in rules adopted by the superintendent, which shall be consistent with the rights and limitations for federally chartered associations engaged in this type of activity.

7. Tax and loan accounts. To act as depository for receipt of payments of federal or state taxes and loan funds from persons other than the state or subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities of the state, and satisfy any federal or state statutory or regulatory requirements in connection therewith, including pledging of assets as collateral, payment of earnings at prescribed rates and, notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, issuing such accounts subject to the right of immediate withdrawal.

8. Leasing of personal property. To acquire, upon the specific request of and for the use of a customer, and lease, personal property pursuant to a binding arrangement for the leasing of the property to the customer upon terms requiring payment to the association, during the minimum period of the lease, of rentals which in the aggregate, when added to the estimated tax benefits to the association resulting from the ownership of the leased property plus the estimated residual market value of the leased property at the expiration of the initial term of the lease, will be at least equal to the total expenditures by the association for, and in connection with, the acquisition, ownership, maintenance, and protection of the property. A lease made under authority of this section shall have the prior approval of the superintendent or be made pursuant to personal property lease guidelines approved by the superintendent for use by the lessor association or pursuant to a personal property lease guideline rule of general applicability for use by all associations.

9. Electronic transactions. Engage in any transaction otherwise permitted by this chapter and applicable law, by means of either the direct transmission of electronic impulses to or from the association or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to the association. Subject to the provisions of chapter 527, an association may utilize, establish or operate, alone or with one or more other associations, banks incorporated under the provisions of chapter 524 or federal law, credit unions incorporated under the provisions of chapter 533 or federal law, corporations licensed under chapter 536A, or third parties, the satellite terminals permitted under chapter 527, by means of which the association may transmit to or receive from any member electronic impulses constituting transactions pursuant to this subsection. However, such utilization, establishment or operation shall be lawful only when in compliance with chapter 527. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as authority for any association or other person to engage in transactions not otherwise permitted by applicable law, nor shall anything in this subsection be deemed to repeal, replace or in any other way affect any applicable law or rule regarding the maintenance of or access to financial information maintained by any association.

10. Automatic authorization. Any association may have the right to participate in any new or additional powers or activities hereafter granted to such association under this chapter immediately upon the effective date of such additional authority, if authorized by the articles of incorporation of such association.

An association may issue and sell, directly or through underwriters, capital certificates which shall represent nonwithdrawable capital contributions, and constitute part of the reserves and net worth of the association. The certificates shall have no voting rights, shall be subordinate to all savings accounts, debt obligations and claims of creditors of the association and shall constitute a claim in liquidation against any reserves, surplus and other net worth accounts remaining after the payment in full of all savings accounts, debt obligations and claims of creditors. The capital certificates may be entitled to the payment of earnings prior to the allocation of income to surplus or other net worth accounts of the association and may be issued with a fixed rate of earnings or with a prior claim to distribution of a specified percentage of net income remaining after required allocations to reserves, or a combination

Transfered in Code 1985 from §534.13 in Code 1983

1. Complete and adequate records of all accounts and of all minutes of proceedings of the members, directors and executive committee shall be maintained at all times at the office of the association.

2. Every association shall maintain membership records, which shall show the name and address of the member, whether the member is a share account holder, or a borrower, or a share account holder and borrower, and the date of membership thereof. In the case of account holding members, the association shall obtain a card containing the signature of the owner of such account or the owner's duly authorized representative and shall preserve such signature card in the records of the association.

3. Associations shall not be required to preserve or keep their records or files for a longer period than eleven years next after the first day of January of the year following the time of the making or filing of such records or files; provided, however, that ledger sheets showing unpaid accounts in favor of members of such savings and loan association shall not be destroyed.

4. No liability shall accrue against any association, destroying any such records after the expiration of the time provided in subsection 3, and in any cause or proceedings in which any such records or files may be called in question or be demanded of the association or any officer or employee thereof, a showing that such records and files have been destroyed in accordance with the terms of this chapter shall be a sufficient excuse for the failure to produce them.

5. All causes of action against an association based upon a claim or claims inconsistent with an entry or entries in any savings and loan association record or ledger, made in the regular course of business, shall be deemed to have accrued, and shall accrue, one year after the date of such entry or entries; and no action founded upon such a cause may be brought after the expiration of ten years from the date of such accrual.

6. The provisions of this chapter, so far as applicable, shall apply to the records of federal savings and loan associations.

7. Any association may cause any or all records kept by such association to be copied or reproduced by any photostatic, photographic or microfilming process which correctly and permanently copies, reproduces or forms a medium for copying or reproducing the original record on a film or other durable material and such association may thereafter dispose of the original record. Any such copy or reproduction shall be deemed to be an original record for all purposes and shall be treated as an original record in all courts or administrative agencies for the purpose of its admissibility in evidence. A facsimile, exemplification or certified copy of any such copy or reproduction reproduced from a film record shall, for all purposes, be deemed a facsimile, exemplification or certified copy of the original.

534.108 Financial statement.

Every association shall prepare and publish annually in the month of January in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the home office of such association is located, and shall deliver to each member upon application therefor, a statement of its financial condition in the form prescribed or approved by the superintendent.

534.109 Effect of changes in law.

1. Chapter applicable. The name, rights, powers, privileges, and immunities of every such corporation heretofore incorporated under the laws of this state repealed and revised by this chapter shall be governed, controlled, construed, extended, limited, and determined by the provisions of this chapter to the same extent and effect as if such corporation had been incorporated pursuant hereto, and the articles of association, certificate of incorporation, or charter, however entitled, bylaws and constitution, or other rules of every such corporation heretofore made or existing are hereby modified, altered, and amended to conform to the provisions of this chapter, as the same are inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter; except that the obligations of any such existing corporation, whether between such corporation and its members, or any of them, or any other person or persons, or any valid contract between the members of any such corporation, or between such corporation and any other person or persons, existing at the time this chapter takes effect, shall not be in any way impaired by the provisions of this chapter, and, with such exceptions, every such corporation shall possess the rights, powers, privileges and immunities and shall be subject to the duties, liabilities, disabilities, and restrictions conferred and imposed by this chapter notwithstanding anything to the contrary in its certificate of incorporation, by-laws, constitution or rules.

2. Prior obligations. All obligations heretofore contracted may be enforced. All obligations to any corporation heretofore contracted shall be enforceable by it and in its name, and demands, claims, and rights of action against any such corporation may be enforced against it as fully and completely as they might have been enforced heretofore.

3. Chapter controlling. Insofar as the provisions of this chapter are inconsistent with the provisions of any other law affecting savings associations the provisions of this chapter shall control.

534.110 Emergency operations.
In the event an association’s offices are destroyed by enemy attack or by natural disaster, such association may operate from such temporary headquarters as may be necessary until such time as it is again able to resume operations in its normal location.

534.111 Rights of federal associations — reciprocity.
Every federal savings and loan association incorporated under the provisions of Home Owners’ Loan Act of 1933 [12 U.S.C. §1461-1468], as now or hereafter amended, and the holders of share accounts issued by any such association shall have all the rights, powers, and privileges and shall be entitled to the same exemptions and immunities, as savings and loan associations organized under the laws of this state and members thereof are entitled.

Every association organized under this chapter has all the rights, powers, and privileges not in conflict with the laws of this state, which are conferred upon federal savings and loan associations by the Home Owners’ Loan Act of 1933, 12 U.S.C. §1464, and conferred by regulations adopted by the federal home loan bank board and the federal savings and loan insurance corporation.

534.112 Regulatory capital.
An association shall maintain regulatory capital in the amount required by regulations of the federal savings and loan insurance corporation. For the purpose of this section, "regulatory capital" means the sum of all reserve accounts (except specific reserves established to offset actual or anticipated losses), undivided profits, surplus, capital stock, and any other nonwithdrawable accounts.

DIVISION II
LOANS AND INVESTMENTS

534.201 General lending powers.
An association may, subject to any applicable restrictions under this chapter and rules adopted by the superintendent, loan money, extend credit, discount or purchase the vendor’s interest in real estate contracts, and discount or purchase other evidences of indebtedness and agreements for the payment of money.

534.202 Powers with respect to loans.
Every such association shall have the following general powers:* 1. Power to purchase and to lend upon loans. The power to make loans shall include (a) the power to purchase loans of any type that the association may make, (b) the power to make loans upon the security of loans of any type that the association may make, and (c) the power to sell any loans of the type the association is authorized to make.

2. Participation loans. An association may participate with other lenders in the origination or purchase of an interest in loans of any type that such an association may otherwise make, provided that the other participants are instrumentalities of or corporations owned wholly or in part by the United States or this state, or are associations or corporations insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation or the federal deposit insurance corporation or are life insurance companies with assets in excess of one hundred million dollars, or are approved federal housing administration lenders or are service corporations in which the majority of the capital stock is owned by one or more insured institutions, such loans to be within or without the regular lending area of the association.

3. Servicing loans. To service mortgages and real estate contracts subject to such regulations and restrictions as may be prescribed by the superintendent.

Transferred in Code 1985 from §534.19 (2-4) in Code 1983, see bracketed history at §534.103

534.203 Sound lending standards.
An association shall not make a loan unless it first has determined that the loan is authorized by this chapter, and that the type, amount, purpose, and repayment provisions of the loan in relation to the borrower's resources, credit standing and any collateral securing repayment of the loan support the reasonable belief that the loan will be financially sound and will be repaid according to its terms.

534.204 Real estate loans.

An association may make permanent loans, construction loans, or combined construction and permanent loans, secured by liens on real property, as authorized by rules adopted by the superintendent under chapter 17A. These rules shall contain provisions as necessary to ensure the safety and soundness of these loans, and to ensure full and fair disclosure to borrowers of the effects of provisions in agreements for these loans, including provisions permitting change or adjustment of any terms of a loan, provisions permitting, requiring, or prohibiting repayment of a loan on a basis other than of equal periodic installments of interest plus principal over a fixed term, provisions imposing penalties for the borrower's noncompliance with requirements of a loan agreement, or provisions allowing or requiring a borrower to choose from alternative courses of action at any time during the effectiveness of a loan agreement.

534.205 Required real estate loan practices.

Real estate loans must meet the following requirements:

1. Appraisal. A qualified person shall conduct an inspection of the property securing the loan and submit a signed appraisal of the market value of that property, provided that an appraisal is only required where the loan is secured by a first lien.

2. Note. A note shall be signed by the borrower and delivered to the association.

3. Lien. The loan shall be secured by a mortgage, deed of trust or similar instrument constituting a lien or claim upon real estate. Such instrument shall provide for the full protection of the association in the event of default.

4. Payment terms. The loan shall provide for repayment upon those terms set forth in the note signed by the borrower.

5. Loan settlement statement. The borrower shall receive a statement setting forth in detail the charges and fees the borrower has paid or is obligated to pay in connection with the loan.

6. Balloon payments. An association shall mail to the borrower an offer to refinance a balloon payment under a loan at least twenty days prior to the balloon payment date if at that time no payments under the loan are delinquent. The offer shall be at an interest rate no greater than one percent per annum above the index rate and with monthly payments no greater than those necessary to fully amortize the amount of the balloon payment plus interest over a term which, when added together with the term representing the number of monthly payments made prior to the most recent notice to refinance, is not less than the original loan term. The association must offer to the borrower a term of at least one year before the next balloon payment. Where the balloon payment is due one month after the preceding monthly payment date, the association may require the borrower to make a payment equal to the preceding monthly payment on the balloon payment date if the first payment under the note to refinance the balloon note is one month after the balloon payment date. The association may offer repayment plans to refinance a balloon payment in addition to the plan required by this subsection. For purposes of this subsection the term "loan" means as defined in section 535.8, subsection 1; the term "balloon payment" means a payment which is more than three times as big as the mean average of the payments which precede it; and the term "index rate" means the national average mortgage contract rate for major lenders on the purchase of previously occupied homes which is most recently published in final form by the federal home loan bank board one month prior to the date on which the balloon payment is due.

534.206 Authorized real estate loan practices.

An association may do any of the following with respect to a real estate loan, and any contract provision authorized by this section shall be enforceable:

1. Prepayment. Except as prohibited by section 535.9, an association may include in the loan documentation signed by the borrower a provision imposing a penalty in the event of prepayments as defined in the document.

2. Protective disbursements. An association may pay taxes, assessments, ground rents, insurance premiums and similar charges with respect to real estate securing a loan. An association may add these disbursements to the unpaid principal balance of the loan, in which event the disbursements shall be secured to the same extent as the principal balance of the loan.

3. Protective payments — escrow accounts. An association may include in the loan documents signed by the borrower a provision requiring the borrower to pay the association each month in addition to interest and principal under the note an amount equal to one-twelfth of the estimated annual real estate taxes, special assessments, hazard insurance premium, mortgage insurance premium, or any other payment agreed to by the borrower and the association in order to better secure the loan. The association shall be deemed to be acting in a fiduciary capacity with respect to these funds. An association receiving funds pursuant to an escrow agreement executed on or after July 1, 1982 in connection with a loan as defined in section 535.8, subsection 1, shall pay interest to the borrower on those funds, calculated on a daily basis, at the rate the association pays to members depositing funds in ordinary savings accounts. An association which maintains an escrow account in connection with any real estate loan, whether or not the mortgage has been assigned to a third person, shall each year deliver to the mortgagor a written annual accounting of all transactions made with respect to the loan and escrow account.

4. Escrow reports. A savings and loan association may act as an escrow agent with respect to real property that is mortgaged to the association, and may receive funds and make disbursements from escrowed funds in that capacity. The association shall be deemed to be acting in a fiduciary capacity with respect to these funds. A savings and loan association which maintains such an escrow account, whether or not the mortgage has been assigned to a third person, shall deliver to the mortgagor a written summary of all transactions made with respect to the loan and escrow accounts during each calendar year. However, the mortgagor and mortgagee may, by mutual agreement, select a fiscal year reporting period other than the calendar year.

The summary shall be delivered or mailed not later than thirty days following the year to which the disclosure relates. The summary shall contain all of the following information:

a. The name and address of the mortgagee.

b. The name and address of the mortgagor.

c. A summary of escrow account activity during the year as follows:

1. The balance of the escrow account at the beginning of the year.

2. The aggregate amount of deposits to the escrow account during the year.

3. The aggregate amount of withdrawals from the escrow account for each of the following categories:

   a. Payments against loan principal.

   b. Payments against interest.

   c. Payments against real estate taxes.

   d. Payments for real property insurance premiums.

   e. All other withdrawals.

4. The balance of the escrow account at the end of the year.

d. A summary of loan principal for the year as follows:

1. The amount of principal outstanding at the beginning of the year.

2. The aggregate amount of payments against principal during the year.

3. The amount of principal outstanding at the end of the year.

5. Additional provisions. An association may include in the loan documents signed by the borrower any other provision not inconsistent with this chapter.

6. Marketability reports. Section 524.905, subsection 4, applies to the association in the same manner as if the association is a bank within the meaning of that provision.

534.207 Commitment to residential loans.

1. Commitment. As an annual average, based on monthly computations, an association shall hold at least sixty percent of its assets in the following types of assets:

a. Loans secured by liens or claims on residential real estate, participation interests in groups of loans secured by liens or claims on residential real estate, securities that are secured by groups of loans secured by liens or claims on residential real estate, or property improvement loans for the making of improvements upon residential real property, or a combination of these.

b. Cash.

c. Obligations of the United States or of a state or political subdivision of a state, and stock or obligations of a corporation which is an instrumentality of the United States or of a state or political subdivision of a state, but not including obligations the interest on which is excludable from gross income under section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code.

d. Certificates of deposit in, or obligations of, a corporation organized under a state law which specifically authorizes such corporation to insure the deposits or share accounts of member associations.

e. Loans secured by a deposit or share of a member.

f. Property acquired through the liquidation of default loans.

g. Property used by the association in the conduct of its business under this chapter.

2. Failure to meet commitment. If, upon examination, the superintendent of savings and loan associations determines that an association has failed to meet the requirements of subsection 1 for any two of its preceding five fiscal years, the association shall be so notified in writing, with a copy of the notice to the superintendent of banking, and the association shall within ninety days following receipt of the notice do one of the following:

1. Establish to the satisfaction of the superintendent that at least sixty percent of the current amount of its assets are held in the types of assets referred to in subsection 1. If the association subsequently fails to meet the requirements of subsection 1 during any one of the three fiscal years following the fiscal year in which the second violation in five years occurred, then the association shall within ninety days following receipt of a notice of this violation take one of the actions specified in paragraph "b", "c", "d", or "e".

2. File a plan of merger with another state association whose assets are such that the two associations would have met the requirements of subsection 1 on a consolidated basis during at least four of the five preceding years.

3. File a plan of merger with a federal association or a bank under which the resulting organization is not a state association.

4. File a plan of conversion to become a federal association or a bank.

5. File a plan of conversion that provides both for conversion to a stock association and for the immediate conversion of the resulting stock association to a bank.

3. Failure to resolve problem. If an association fails to take one of the actions required by subsection 2, or fails to complete the plan of merger or conversion within nine months after receiving the notice specified in subsection 2, the superintendent shall appoint a conservator to operate the association in conformance with subsection 1 or a receiver to liquidate the association.

Transferred in Code 1985 from §534 77 in Code 1983

534.208 Consumer loans and certain securities.

An association may make consumer loans as defined in chapter 537, subject to the consumer loan provisions of that chapter. An association may invest in, sell, or hold commercial paper, corporate debt securities and bankers acceptances.

84 Acts, ch 1112, §6

Transferred in Code 1985 from §534 19(13) in Code 1983, see bracketed history at §534 103

534.209 Commercial lending and accounts.

1. An association shall not hold more than forty percent of its assets in commercial loans and consumer loans as an annual average based on monthly computations.

2. An association may accept a commercial NOW account. For the purposes of this subsection, a "commercial NOW account" is a NOW account, as authorized by section 534.301, subsection 3, for a commercial, corporate, business, or agricultural entity.

3. For the purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

a. "Commercial loan" means a loan to a person borrowing money for a business or agricultural purpose.

b. "Business purpose" means a loan to a for-profit entity, or a for-profit activity, including but not limited to a commercial, service, or industrial enterprise carried on for profit, or an investment activity.

c. "Agricultural purpose" means as defined in section 535.13.

d. "Commercial loan" does not include a loan secured by an interest in real estate for the purpose of financing the acquisition of real estate or the construction of improvements on real estate. In determining which loans are "commercial loans" the rules of construction stated in section 535.2, subsection 2, paragraph "b", apply.

4. For the purposes of this section, a lease of personal property is treated as a commercial loan if a loan to the lessee to acquire the property would have been a commercial loan.

534.210 Line of credit arrangements.

An association may commit its assets to lines of credit pursuant to credit arrangements, including but not limited to agreements with credit and debit card holders and with other credit or debit card issuers. An association may become a member or stockholder of or become otherwise affiliated with, any credit or debit card corporation, association, or other issuer.

534.211 Successors in interest.

An association may deal directly with any person who has an interest in property which secures a loan by the association regarding the loan or the security interest without notice to any person who is obligated to repay the loan, and an association may forebear to sue or may extend time for payment of or otherwise modify the terms of the loan, without discharging or in any way affecting the liability of any person obligated to repay the loan.

534.212 Actions to avoid loss.
An association may invest its funds, operate a business, manage or deal in property, or take any other action, over a reasonable period of time not exceeding one year, to avoid or reduce the loss on a loan or investment made or an obligation created in good faith, even though such action is not otherwise authorized by this chapter.

534.213 Investment in securities and real estate.
Every association shall have power to invest in securities and real estate as follows:

1. General investment powers
   An association may invest without limit, except as expressly stated, in any of the following securities:
   a. Obligations of, or obligations which are guaranteed as to principal and interest by, the United States or this state.
   b. Stock of a federal home loan bank of which the association is eligible to be a member and any obligation or consolidated obligations of any federal home loan bank or banks.
   c. Stock or obligations of the federal savings and loan insurance corporation.
   d. Stock, obligations, or other instruments of the federal national mortgage association, the government national mortgage association, the federal home loan mortgage corporation, or any successor.
   e. Demand time or savings deposits, or bankers acceptances with any bank or trust company the deposits of which are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation.
   f. Stock or obligations of any corporation or agency of the United States or this state or deposits of the corporation or agency to the extent that the corporation or agency assists in furthering or facilitating the association's purposes or powers.
   g. Savings accounts of any savings and loan association the deposits of which are insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation.
   h. Bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness which are a general obligation of a city, village, town, city school district, or other municipal or political subdivision so long as the total investment under this paragraph does not exceed five percent of the assets of the association, except that any investments which are securities or obligations which are evidence of first mortgage liens on real estate are exempt from the five percent limitation.
   i. Bonds secured by interest in real estate.
   j. Capital stock, obligations, or other securities of service corporations, provided that the aggregate investment in service corporations shall not exceed seven percent of the assets of the association on or after July 1, 1984, and prior to July 1, 1985, or eight percent of assets on or after July 1, 1985 and prior to July 1, 1986, or nine percent of assets on or after July 1, 1986 and prior to July 1, 1987, or ten percent of assets at any time on or after July 1, 1987.
   k. An open end management investment company registered under the federal Investment Company Act of 1940, the portfolio of which is restricted to investments in which an association may invest.
   l. Shares or equity interests in venture capital funds which agree to invest an amount equal to at least fifty percent of the association's investment in small businesses having their principal offices within this state and having either more than one half of their assets within this state or more than one half of their employees employed within this state. An association shall not invest more than a total of five percent of its assets in investments permitted under this paragraph or paragraph “m.”

   For purposes of this paragraph, “venture capital fund” means a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, or other entity formed under the laws of the United States, or a state, district, or territory of the United States, whose principal business is or will be the making of investments in, and the provisions of significant managerial assistance to, small businesses which meet the small business administration definition of small business. “Equity interests” means limited partnership interests and other equity interests in which liability is limited to the amount of the investment, but does not mean general partnership interests or other interests involving general liability.

   m. Shares or equity interests in small businesses having their principal offices within this state and having either more than one half of their assets within this state or more than one half of their employees employed within this state. The total amount of an association's investments under this paragraph shall not exceed five percent of the association's capital and surplus. An association shall not invest in more than twenty percent of the total capital and surplus of any one small business under this paragraph. For purposes of this paragraph, “small business” means a corporation, partnership, proprietorship, or other entity formed under the laws of the United States, or a state, district, or territory of the United States, which meets the appropriate small business administration definition of small business and which is principally engaged in the development or exploitation of inventions, technological improvements, new processes, or other products not previously generally available in this state or other investments which provide an economic benefit to the state, and “equity interests” means limited partnership interests and other equity interests in which liability is limited to the amount of investment, but does not mean general partnership interests or other interests involving general liability.

   n. In addition to other investments authorized in this section, an association may invest and may continue previous investments in capital stock, obligations, or other securities of finance subsidiaries and may exercise powers with respect to finance subsidiaries to the same extent as a federal association is permitted under the Home Owners’ Loan Act of 1933, 12 U.S.C. §1464, and regulations adopted thereunder by the federal home loan bank board up to and including January 1, 1985.
authorized by this paragraph shall not be counted in applying the limitations on investments in service corporations in paragraph "j".

a. In addition to other investments authorized in this section, an association may invest and may continue previous investments in capital stock, obligations, or other securities of corporations which are wholly owned by the association and which exercise only those powers which may be exercised by an association under this chapter. Investments authorized by this paragraph shall not be counted in applying the limitations on investments in service corporations in paragraph "j"

2. Investment in real estate. In real estate purchased at sheriff's sale or at any other sale, public or private, judicial or otherwise, upon which the association has a lien or claim, legal or equitable; in real estate accepted by the association in satisfaction of any obligation; in real estate purchased for sale or improvement and sale, upon contracts, at the cost of land and improvements, when such contracts are executed concurrently with or prior to such purchase, such transactions to be subject to all the limitations herein provided with respect to real estate loans; in real estate acquired by the association in exchange for real estate owned by the association; in real estate acquired by the association in connection with salvaging the value of property owned by the association; an amount not exceeding the sum of its reserves and undivided profits in the purchase and development of real estate for the purpose of producing income or for sale or for improvement thereof and the erection of buildings thereon for sale or rental purposes. Title to all real estate shall be taken and held in the name of the association and such title shall immediately be recorded in accordance with law. No association shall invest in any loan at any time when its liquid assets are less than five percent of its savings liability, unless the superintendent has issued written approval.

3. Investment in EFT organizations. Subject to the prior approval of the superintendent, in shares in a corporation engaged in providing and operating facilities through which an association and its members may engage, by means of either the direct transmission of electronic impulses to and from the association or the recording of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to the association, in transactions in which the association is otherwise permitted to engage pursuant to applicable law.

4. Deposits of funds by associations. Funds of such associations may be deposited in any state or national bank insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation on certificate of deposit, or the usual bank pass book credit, subject to check by the proper designated officers of such association or in the federal home loan bank of the district in which Iowa is located.

5. Investment in home office buildings. Any such association may invest an amount not to exceed five percent of its paid-in savings liability or such additional amounts as are authorized by the superintendent in unencumbered real estate for use wholly or partly as its business office.

§534.214 Investment in and by banks.

1. Investment in banks. A holding company, association, or service corporation may invest in the capital stock, obligations, or other securities of a bank with the prior approval of the superintendent of savings and loan associations.

2. Investment by banks. Notwithstanding sections 524.802 and 524.901, subsection 3, a bank holding company, bank, or bank service corporation may, with the prior approval of the superintendent of banking, invest in the capital stock, obligations or other securities of a state association.

The superintendent of banking shall not approve an investment under this subsection if upon making the investment the entity making the investment directly or indirectly would own or control more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares of a savings and loan association or would have the power to control in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of a savings and loan association, unless the superintendent of banking first determines either that the association in which the investment is to be made has only those office locations which a bank would be authorized under section 524.1202 to apply for and have approved on the effective date of the proposed investment, or that all nonconforming office locations were in existence and operating on July 1, 1982. If such an investment is approved by the superintendent of banking, the association so owned or controlled shall not subsequently establish any additional office locations except one which a bank would be authorized under section 524.1202 to apply for and have approved on the date which the proposed office location would commence operations.

3. Contingencies. An association or service corporation may make an investment under subsection 1 only if at the time of the investment either an insured bank or a bank service corporation owned by one or more insured banks would be permitted to make an investment under substantially the same circumstances in an insured state association under all applicable laws and regulations of the United States. A bank or bank service corporation may make an investment under subsection 2 only if at the time of the investment either an insured state association or a service corporation owned by one or more insured associations would be permitted to make an investment under substantially the same circumstances in an insured bank under all applicable laws and regulations of the United States. The ability of an organization to merge with another organization is not relevant in determining whether an organization is permitted to invest in another organization.

4. Bank as holding company. No bank shall directly or indirectly acquire ownership or control of more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares of any savings and loan association, or the power to control in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of any savings and loan association, if upon such acquisition the associations so owned or controlled by the bank would have, in the aggregate, more than eight percent of the total deposits, both time and demand, of all associations in this state, as determined by the superintendent of banking on the basis of the most recent reports of the associations in the state to their supervisory authorities which are available at the time of the acquisition.

5. Definitions. For purposes of this section an "insured bank" is a bank whose deposits are insured in part by the federal deposit insurance corporation; a "bank service corporation" as defined by, and in accordance with, the laws of the United States, and the "superintendent of banking" is the person appointed pursuant to section 524.201.

6. Findings required. The superintendent of savings and loan associations shall not grant an approval under subsection 1, and the superintendent of banking shall not grant an approval under subsection 2 except after making one of the two following findings:

a. Based upon a preponderance of the evidence presented, the proposed investment will not have the immediate effect of significantly reducing competition between depository financial institutions located in the same community as the institution whose shares would be acquired.

b. Based upon a preponderance of the evidence presented, the proposed investment would have the anticompetitive effect specified in paragraph "a" of this subsection, but that other factors, to be specifically cited, outweigh the anticompetitive effect so that there would be a net public benefit as a result of the investment.

7. Competition preserved. The subsequent liquidation of a bank or state association whose shares are acquired under this section shall not prevent the subsequent incorporation of another bank in the same community, and the superintendent of banking shall not find the liquidation to be grounds for disapproving the incorporation of another bank in the same community under section 524.305, and shall not prevent the subsequent incorporation of another association in the same community, and the superintendent of savings and loan associations shall not find the liquidation to be grounds for disapproving the incorporation of another association in the same community under this chapter.

534.215 False statement for credit.
A person who knowingly does either of the following is guilty of a fraudulent practice:

1. Makes or causes to be made, directly or indirectly, a false statement in writing with the intent that the false statement shall be relied upon by an association for the purpose of procuring the delivery of property, the payment of cash, or the receipt of credit in any form, for the benefit of the person or of any other person in which the person is interested or for whom the person is acting.

2. Procures the delivery of property, the payment of cash, or the receipt of credit in any form, knowing that a false statement in writing has been made concerning the financial condition or means or ability to pay of the person, or any other person in which the person is interested or for whom the person is acting, if the person knew that the association relied or would rely upon the false written statement.

DIVISION III

SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

534.301 Savings account authority.

1. Deposit accounts. A stock association or mutual association may receive money for deposit.

2. Share accounts. A mutual association may receive money to be held in withdrawable share accounts and time share accounts.

3. NOW accounts. An association may offer savings accounts under which the owner of the account may order or authorize the withdrawal of part or all of the savings account by means of a negotiable or nonnegotiable draft or similar instrument payable to the owner or to third parties or their order.

4. Terms and conditions. An association shall establish the interest rate, method of computing interest, service charges, and other terms and conditions of each type of savings account it will accept. These terms and conditions shall be consistent with this chapter, and shall be applied equally to all similar accounts. An association shall furnish a copy of the terms and conditions of a savings account upon request. An association shall give reasonable notice of any change in the terms and conditions to the owners of each type of savings account which is changed, provided that notice of changes in interest rates or methods of computing interest may be provided by posting a conspicuous notice of the change in each of the association's offices. The terms and conditions of an account established for a specified time period cannot be changed during that time period except with mutual consent or according to the original terms.

5. Inducements. An association may give inducements for the opening of a savings account or the making of additions to a savings account.
§534.301, SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

6. Operating under federal rules as to deposits and interest. A savings and loan association operating under this chapter may operate in a manner similar to federally chartered savings and loan associations regarding the use of the terms "deposit" and "interest" and with such other powers as have been authorized to federally chartered associations under the Homeowners Loan Act of 1933, Title 12, section 1464, United States Code, and as permitted under the rules and regulations of the federal home loan bank system and federal savings and loan insurance corporation, to the extent that similar rules and regulations have been adopted by the superintendent and have been filed with the secretary of state. This subsection shall not diminish or restrict the powers otherwise granted to such association by the laws of Iowa.

The adoption and filing of such rules or regulations by the superintendent shall not diminish or restrict the rights of associations which do not make the above determination.

7. Limitation on members' savings. Associations having assets of five hundred thousand dollars or less shall not accept from any one member savings liability of more than ten thousand dollars. Associations having assets in excess of five hundred thousand dollars shall not accept from any one member savings liability in excess of ten percent of its assets. These limitations shall not apply to shares issued to the United States government, or to any other federal government agency or instrumentality.

534.302 Ownership of savings accounts.

1. Ownership. Savings accounts may be opened and held solely and absolutely in the person's own right by, or in trust for, any person, including an adult or minor individual, male or female, single or married, a partnership, association, fiduciary corporation, or political subdivision or public or government unit or any other corporation or legal entity. Savings accounts shall be represented only by the account of each savings account holder on the books of the association, and shall be transferable only on the books of the association and upon proper application by the transferee and upon acceptance of the transferee as a savings account holder upon terms approved by the board of directors. The association may treat the holder of record of a savings account as the owner for all purposes without being affected by any notice to the contrary unless the association has acknowledged in writing notice of a pledge of the savings account.

2. Evidence of ownership. An account book may be issued in lieu of an account book in form to be approved by the superintendent.

3. Duplicate account books and certificates. Upon the filing with an association by any one of the holders of record as shown by the books of the association, or by the holder's legal representative, of an affidavit to the effect that the account book or certificate evidencing a savings account with the association has been lost or destroyed, and that the account book or certificate has not been pledged or assigned in whole or in part, the association shall issue a new account book or certificate in the name of the holder or holders of record, the replacement book or certificate disclosing that it is issued in lieu of one lost or destroyed, and the association shall in no way be liable thereafter on account of the original account book or certificate, provided that the board of directors shall, if in its judgment it is necessary, require a bond in an amount it deems sufficient to indemnify the association against any loss which might result from the issuance of the new account book or certificate.

4. Minors. An association and a federal savings and loan association may issue a savings account to any minor as the sole and absolute owner of the account, and pay withdrawals and act with respect to the account on the order of the minor. Any payment or delivery of rights to any minor, or a receipt of acquittance signed by a minor, who holds a savings account, shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the institution for any payment so made or delivery of right to the minor. In the case of a minor, the receipt, acquittance or other action required by the institution to be taken by the minor shall be binding upon the minor with like effect as if the minor were of full age and legal capacity. The parent or guardian of a minor shall not in the capacity of parent or guardian have the power to attach or in any manner to transfer any savings account issued to or in the name of the minor, provided, however, that in the event of the death of the minor the receipt of acquittance of either parent or of a person standing in loco parentis to the minor shall be a valid and sufficient discharge of the institution for any sum or sums not exceeding one thousand dollars in the aggregate unless the minor previously has given written notice to the institution not to accept the signature of the parent or person.

5. Joint accounts. When a savings account is opened in any association or federal savings and loan association in the name of two or more persons, whether minor or adult, in such form that the moneys in the account are payable to either or the survivor or survivors then the account and all additions thereto shall be the property of those persons as joint tenants. The moneys in the account may be paid to or on the order of any one of them during their lifetimes or to or on the order of any one of the survivors of them after the death of any one or more of them upon presentation of the pass or account book or other evidence of ownership as required by the articles or bylaws of the association. The opening of the account in such form shall, in the absence of fraud or undue influence, be conclusive evidence in any act or proceedings to which either the association or the surviving party or parties is a party, of the intention of all of the parties to the account to vest title to the account and the additions thereto in the survivor or survivors. By written instructions given to the institution by all the parties to the account, the signatures of more than one of the persons during their lifetime or of more than one of the survivors after the death of any one of them may be required on any check, receipt or withdrawal order, in which case the institution shall pay the moneys in the account only in accordance with the instructions, but instructions of the parties shall not in any event limit the right of the survivor or survivors to receive the moneys in the account.

Payment of all or any of the moneys in an account as provided in the preceding paragraph of this subsection shall discharge the institution from liability with respect to the moneys so paid, prior to receipt by the institution of a written notice from any one of the parties directing the institution not to permit withdrawals in accordance with the terms of the account or the instructions. After receipt of such a notice an institution may refuse without liability to honor any check, receipt, or withdrawal order on the account pending determination of the rights of the parties. An institution paying any survivor in accordance with the provisions of this subsection shall not be liable as a result of that action for any estate, inheritance or succession taxes which may be due this state.

6. Pledge to association of savings account in joint tenancy. The pledge to any association or federal savings and loan association of all or part of a savings account in joint tenancy signed by that person or those persons who are authorized in writing to make withdrawals from the account shall, unless the terms of the savings account provide specifically to the contrary, be a valid pledge and transfer to the association of that part of the account pledged, and shall not operate to sever or terminate the joint and survivorship ownership of all or any part of the account.

7. Accounts of administrators, executors, guardians, custodians, trustees and other fiduciaries. Any association or federal savings and loan association may accept savings accounts in the name of any administrator, custodian, executor, guardian, trustee, or other fiduciary in trust for a named beneficiary or beneficiaries, or other fiduciary in trust for a specified class of unnamed beneficiaries. The fiduciary shall have power to vote as a member as if the membership were held absolutely, to open and to make additions to, and to withdraw the account in whole or in part. The withdrawal value of the accounts, and dividends thereon, or other rights relating thereto may be paid or delivered, in whole or in part to the fiduciary without regard to any notice to the contrary as long as the fiduciary is living. The payment or delivery to the fiduciary or a receipt or acquittance signed by the fiduciary to whom payment or delivery of rights is made shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the institution for the payment or delivery so made. Whenever a person holding an account in a fiduciary capacity dies and no written notice of the revocation or termination of the fiduciary relationship has been given to an institution and the institution has no notice of any other disposition of the beneficial estate, the withdrawal value of the account and dividends on the account, or other rights relating to the account may, at the option of an institution, be paid or delivered, in whole or in part, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries. Whenever an account is opened by any person, describing the person in opening the account as trustee for another, and no other or further notice of the existence and terms of a legal and valid trust than that description has been given in writing to the association, in the event of the death of the person so described as trustee, the withdrawal value of the account or any part thereof, together with the dividends or interest on the account, may be paid to the person for whom the account was thus stated to have been opened, and the account and all additions shall be the property of that person. The payment or delivery to that person, or a receipt or acquittance signed by that person for any payment or delivery shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the institution for the payment or delivery so made. An institution paying a fiduciary or beneficiary in accordance with the provisions of this subsection shall not be liable as a result of that action for any estate, inheritance or succession taxes which may be due this state.

8. Pay on death accounts. Any association and any federal savings and loan association may issue savings accounts in the name of one or more persons with the provision that upon the death of the owner or owners the proceeds shall be the property of the person or persons designated by the owner or owners and shown by the record of the association, but the proceeds shall be subject to the debts of the decedent and the payment of Iowa inheritance tax, if any, provided, however, that six months after the date of the death of the owner the receipt or acquittance of the person so designated shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of the association for the delivery of the savings account or the payment so made.

9. Powers of attorney on savings account. Any association or federal savings and loan association may continue to recognize the authority of an attorney authorized in writing to manage or to make withdrawals either in whole or in part from a savings account until it receives written notice or is on clear actual notice of the revocation of the attorney's authority. For the purpose of this subsection, written notice of the death or adjudication of incompetency of the savings account holder constitutes written notice of revocation of the authority of the attorney. An institution shall not be liable for damages, penalty or tax by reason of any payment made pursuant to this subsection.

10. Savings accounts as legal investments. Administrators, executors, custodians, guardians, trustees, and other fiduciaries of every kind and nature, insurance companies, business and manufacturing companies, banks, credit unions and all other types of financial institutions, charitable, educational, el-lemosnary and public corporations and organizations, and municipalities and other public corporations and bodies, and public officials are authorized to invest funds held by them without any order of any court in share or deposit accounts or time certificates of deposit of insured savings associations which are under state supervision, or federal savings and loan associations organized under the laws of the United States and under federal supervision, and the investment shall be deemed and held to be a legal investment of the funds.

Whenever, under the laws of this state or otherwise, a deposit of securities is required for any purpose, the securities made legal investments by this subsection shall be acceptable for that deposit, and whenever, under the laws of this state or otherwise, a bond is required with security the bond may be furnished, and the securities made legal investments by this subsection in the amount of the bond, when deposited, shall be acceptable as security with-out other security.

The provisions of this subsection are supplemental to any and all other laws relating to and declaring what shall be legal investments for the persons, corporations, organizations, and officials referred to in this subsection and the laws relating to the deposit of securities and the making and filing of bonds for any purpose.

534.303 Contracts for savings programs.

1. School savings. An association may contract with the proper authorities of any public or nonpublic elementary or secondary school or other institution of higher learning, or any public or charitable institution caring for minors, for the participation and implementation by the association in any school or institutional thrift or savings plan, and it may accept savings accounts at the school or institution, either by its own collector or by any representative of the school or institution which becomes the agent of the association for that purpose.

2. Payroll savings plans. An association shall have power to contract with any corporation of any type for investment in such association by employees under a payroll savings plan.

Transferred in Code 1985 from §534 3 in Code 1983

The terms of withdrawal of a member from such association shall be such that any withdrawing member shall receive a sum not less than the member has paid into said association less withdrawals and legal charges against the account, unless losses have occurred to said association, during the time that said withdrawing member was a member, which exceed the amount of the profits, or any fund created with which to pay such losses, and in that case such withdrawing member shall be charged with the member’s proportionate share of the excess of the losses over the profits, and no more. Such association may provide by its articles of incorporation or bylaws or by resolution of its board of direc-

Transferred in Code 1985 from §534 12(2) in Code 1983, see bracketed history at §534 503

534.305 Redemption.

When funds are on hand for the purpose, the association may redeem by lot or otherwise, as the board of directors determines, all or any part of any of its savings accounts on a dividend date by giving thirty days’ notice by registered mail addressed to the account holders at their last addresses recorded on the books of the association. An association shall not redeem its share accounts when the association is in an impaired condition or when it has applications for withdrawal which have been on file more than thirty days and have not been reached for payment. The redemption price of a savings account shall be the full value of the account redeemed, as determined by the board of directors, but the redemption value shall not be less than the withdrawal value. If the notice of redemption has been given, and if on or before the redemption date the funds necessary for the redemption have been set aside for redemptions, dividends upon the accounts called for redemption shall cease to accrue from and after the dividend date specified as the redemption date, and rights with respect to those accounts terminate as of the redemption date, subject only to the right of the account holder of record to receive the redemption value without interest. tion or bylaws or by resolution of its board of directors, the order in which withdrawals shall be paid, and when dividends shall cease on share accounts on holder as security for repayment of money loaned to the person and as security for other indebtedness of the person to the association and the lien shall attach and continue without assignment or pledge to or possession by the association of any evidence of ownership. The lien may be enforced to satisfy any past due indebtedness by charging the indebtedness to the debtor’s savings account.

534.307 Dividends — service fee.
After making such provisions for absorbing immediate and possible future losses, the board of directors of such association shall annually, or at such other intervals as the board of directors may determine, declare and apportion as a dividend to members, according to its articles of incorporation, such portion of the association’s net profits as it may deem available, and as authorized under this chapter. Members shall participate in dividends in proportion to their respective investments therein. Dividends for a particular month may be paid on sums invested by a member by the tenth day of that month or by such later date of that month as is authorized by the superintendent, which shall in no event be later than the twentieth day of a particular month. If the tenth day of said month or other authorized date falls on a Sunday, holiday or another business day on which the particular association is normally closed, then money received by the next business day may earn dividends from the first of that month. The board of directors may also devise other methods of paying dividends, including payment of dividends from date of investment to date of withdrawal, subject to the approval of the superintendent. Additionally a service fee not to exceed one dollar per dividend period may be charged to a member’s account when no activity has taken place in said account for the eight preceding quarterly periods and the principal of such account is less than fifty dollars.

534.308 Savings liability — classes of accounts.
The savings liability of an association is not limited, but consists only of the aggregate amount of share accounts of its members, plus dividends credited to the accounts, less redemption and withdrawal payments. Except as limited by the board of directors, a member may make additions to the member’s share account in the amounts and at the times the member elects. Share accounts shall be opened for cash. The members of an association are not responsible for losses which its savings liability is not sufficient to satisfy, and share accounts are not subject to assessment, nor are the holders of share accounts liable for unpaid installments on their accounts. Dividends shall be declared in accordance with this chapter.

An association shall not prefer one of its share accounts over any other share account as to the right to participate in dividends as to time or amount, except that an association may classify its savings accounts according to the location of the offices at which the accounts are opened, the character, amount or duration of the accounts, or the regularity of additions to the accounts, and may agree in advance to pay an additional rate of earnings for particular classes of accounts such as a variable rate or bonus for saving larger amounts, or for maintaining savings over a longer period of time or with regularity, as determined by the board of directors. However, all classes of accounts shall be available to all qualifying members. The board of directors may also determine that earnings shall not be paid on an account which has a withdrawable value in an amount less than fifty dollars. Except as provided in section 534.517, preference between share account members shall not be created with respect to the distribution of assets upon voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of an association. An association shall not contract with respect to the savings liability in a manner inconsistent with this chapter.

SUPERVISION

534.401 Division of savings and loan associations.
1. Division of savings and loan associations created — superintendent. A savings and loan association division is created within the department of commerce. The superintendent of savings and loan associations is the chief administrative officer of the division. The governor shall appoint the superintendent subject to confirmation by the senate. The superintendent shall serve a four-year term. The term begins and ends as provided in section 69.19. A vacancy in an unexpired term shall be filled in the same manner as a full-term appointment is made. The superintendent shall have at least five years' practical experience in savings and loan management, examination, or supervision. The superintendent's salary shall be set by the governor within a range set by the general assembly. The superintendent is entitled to actual expenses incurred in the performance of the superintendent's duties.
2. General supervisory power. The superintendent has general supervision over all supervised organizations. The superintendent may appoint examiners and assistants necessary to properly execute the duties of the office. An examiner shall have had at least one year of actual experience as examiner, officer, or employee, of a savings and loan association. The examiners' salaries shall be fixed by the superintendent subject to the approval of the director of management and governor, which salaries shall be commensurate with those in the range of other employees as prescribed by certain classifications in accordance with their experience and qualifications. In addition the examiners shall be reimbursed for their actual and necessary expense.

Before entering upon their duties, the superintendent and each examiner appointed by the superintendent shall take an oath of office and shall each give bond to the state, signed by a responsible surety company, in the penal sum of two thousand dollars, conditioned upon faithful and impartial discharge of the person's duty and on proper accounting for all funds and other values which may come into the person's hands. The bonds shall be approved by and filed with the auditor of state, together with oaths of office of the officers.

The superintendent may adopt further rules deemed necessary to enable savings and loan associations to properly carry on the activities authorized under this chapter.

3. Duties. The superintendent shall, at least once each year, cause examination and audit to be made of the affairs of every association subject to this chapter. If an association is insured under Title IV of the National Housing Act, 12 U.S.C. ch 13, the superintendent may, in lieu of examination and audit accept an examination or audit made by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation. An association may, in lieu of examination and audit by the superintendent, at the option of the superintendent be audited by a certified public accountant, or by a public accountant qualified and licensed to practice accountancy under the Code of Iowa. At least two copies of each examination or audit report, signed and verified by the accountant making it, shall promptly be filed with the superintendent. When, in the judgment of the superintendent, the condition of an association renders it necessary or expedient to make an extra examination or audit or to devote extraordinary attention to its affairs, the superintendent shall cause such work to be done. A copy of every examination or audit report shall be furnished to the association examined, exclusive of confidential comments made by the examiner, and a copy of every report and comments and any other information pertaining to an association may be furnished to the federal home loan bank board, federal home loan bank, and federal savings and loan insurance corporation. A copy of an examination or audit report shall be presented to the board of directors at its next regular or special meeting, their action on it shall be recorded in the minutes, and two certified copies of the minutes shall be transmitted to the superintendent.

4. Superintendent's annual report. The superintendent, as of December 31 of each year, shall prepare and publish a report showing in general terms the condition of all savings and loan associations doing business in this state, and containing other general information as in the superintendent's judgment seems desirable. The reports shall also list the names of all examiners and other assistants employed by the superintendent, together with their respective salaries and expenses, shall list all receipts from savings and loan associations, and shall show all expenditures made on account of the supervision and examination of the associations.

534.402 Judicial review.

Judicial review of the actions of the superintendent may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

1. Superintendent's authority — examinations. The superintendent and examiners shall have full access to all books and papers of an association which relate to its business, and to books, records, and papers kept by an officer, director, agent, or employee relating to, or upon which any record of its business is kept, and may summon witnesses and administer oaths or affirmations in the examination of the directors, officers, agents, or employees of an association, or any other person, in relation to its affairs, transactions, and condition, and may require and compel the production of records, books, papers, contracts, or other documents by court order, if not voluntarily produced.

2. Expenses, per diem, vacation and sick leave. If the examination is made under section 534.401, subsection 3, each examiner shall file with the superintendent an itemized, certified, and sworn voucher of the examiner's expense for the time the examiner is actually engaged in an examination. On the fifteenth and last days of each month each examiner shall file in triplicate with the superintendent a certified statement of the actual days engaged in examinations. The salaries shall be included in a biweekly payroll. Upon approval of the superintendent, the director of revenue and finance is authorized to issue warrants for payment of the vouchers and salaries, including a prorated amount for vacation and sick leave, from the savings and loan revolving fund. Repayment to the state shall be made as provided by section 534.408, subsection 4. Savings and loan examiners shall be paid salaries at rates commensurate with, and shall be reimbursed for meals and lodging at the same rate as, that which is received by federal examiners operating under the federal home loan bank board.

3. Record required. A record of each examination shall be kept in the superintendent's office, showing in detail as to each association all matters connected with the conduct of the business, its financial standing, and everything touching its solvency, plan of business, and integrity.

The examinations and reports, and other information connected with them, shall be kept confidential in the office of the superintendent, and are not subject to publication or disclosure to others except as in this chapter provided. However, any evidence of felonious acts on the part of the officers, directors, or employees of an association may be referred by the superintendent to proper authorities. Members of associations, other than their officers and directors, are not entitled to inspection of any such records or information, and are not entitled to any information relative to the names of the members of an association, or the amounts invested by them, as disclosed in the superintendent’s office, or in the records of an association.

4. Revocation of Authority. If an association refuses to submit to examination, the superintendent shall revoke its certificate of authority.

Transferred in Code 1985 from §534.41(4-7) in Code 1983, see bracketed history at §534.401

534.404 Access to and release of information.
1. Exclusiveness of access.
   a. A member may inspect the books and records of an association as they pertain to the member’s loan or savings investment. Otherwise, the right of inspection and examination of the books and records is limited to the following:
      (1) The superintendent or a duly authorized representative.
      (2) Persons duly authorized to act for the association.
      (3) A federal instrumentality or agency authorized to inspect or examine the books and records of an insured association or of an uninsured member by the federal home loan bank.
   b. The accounts and loans of members shall be kept confidential by the association, its directors, officers and employees, and by the superintendent and the superintendent’s examiners and representatives. However, the association may, upon receipt of the written consent of a member, furnish information concerning that member’s loans and savings investments to a person who the association has reason to believe intends to use the information in connection with a credit transaction involving the member on whom the information is to be furnished and involving the extension of credit to, or review or collection of an account of, the member. However, written consent of a member is not required for the release of information concerning the member’s loans to any of the following:
      (1) Another association.
      (2) A federal association.
      (3) A bank.
      (4) A credit union.
      (5) An industrial loan company.
      (6) A bona fide credit bureau.
      (7) A real estate broker seeking the information in connection with the closing of a loan involving a member.

(8) A person acting in a fiduciary capacity as an agent for the member.
   c. A member or any other person shall not have access to the books and records except upon express action and authority of the board of directors.
   d. An association shall compile prior to its annual meeting, and shall make available to any member upon request of the member, a list by name of the aggregate remuneration paid by the association during the preceding fiscal year to each of the association’s five highest paid officers and to each director of the association.

2. Communication with members. In the event, however, that any member or members desire to communicate with other members of the association with reference to any question pending or to be presented for consideration at a meeting of the members, the association shall furnish upon request a statement of the approximate number of members of the association at the time of such request, and an estimate of the cost of forwarding such communication. The requesting member or members shall then submit the communication to the superintendent who, if the superintendent finds it to be appropriate, truthful and in the best interests of the association and all its members, shall execute a certificate setting out such findings, forward the certificate together with the communications to the association, and direct that the communication be prepared and mailed by the association to the members upon the requesting member’s or members’ payment to it of the expenses of such preparation and mailing.

3. Applicability of section to federal associations. Insofar as the provisions of this section are not inconsistent with federal law, such provisions shall apply to federal savings and loan associations whose home offices are located in this state, and to the members thereof except that the communication provided for in subsection 2 shall be submitted to the federal home loan bank board, Washington, D.C., in the case of a federal savings and loan association and forwarded only upon that board’s certificate and direction.

If the superintendent, as a result of any examination or from a report made to the superintendent finds that a savings and loan association is violating a provision of its certificate of incorporation, or bylaws, or the laws of this state, or of the United States, or a lawful order of the superintendent, or is conducting its business in an unsafe manner, the superintendent may by an order direct discontinuance of the violation or unsafe practice, and conformance with all requirements of law. A conservator shall not be appointed for a solvent association if a violation or unsafe practice can be corrected other-
If an association refuses or neglects to comply with the order within the time specified in it, or if it appears to the superintendent that an association is in an unsafe condition or is conducting its business in an unsafe manner, or if the superintendent finds that an impairment of capital exists to such extent that it threatens loss to the members, or if an association refuses to submit its books, papers, and accounts to the inspection of the superintendent or the superintendent's representative, the superintendent, by written order signed by the superintendent, may appoint a conservator to take charge of the association and manage its business until the superintendent permits the board of directors to resume management of the business or reorganizes the association, or until a receiver is appointed to liquidate its affairs. A conservator so appointed has, subject to approval of the superintendent, all the rights, powers, and privileges possessed by the officers, board of directors, and members of the association. The conservator shall not retain special counsel or other experts, or incur any expenses other than normal operating expenses, or liquidate assets, except in the ordinary course of operations. The directors and officers shall remain in office and the employees shall remain in their respective positions, but the superintendent may remove any director, officer, or employee. While the association is in the charge of a conservator, members of the association shall continue to make payments to the association in accordance with the terms of their contracts and the conservator, in the conservator's discretion, may permit members to withdraw in the ordinary course of business, or under and subject to rules the superintendent may prescribe. The conservator may accept savings but savings received by the conservator may be segregated if the superintendent so orders in writing and if so ordered such savings are not subject to offset and shall not be used to liquidate an indebtedness of the association existing at the time the conservator was appointed for it, or any subsequent indebtedness incurred for the purpose of liquidating the indebtedness of the association existing at the time a conservator was appointed. All expenses of the association during conservatorship shall be paid by the association. The appointment of a conservator shall be evidenced by the superintendent issuing a certificate, signed by the superintendent, delivered to the president, or the vice president, or to at least three members of the board of directors of the association, certifying that a conservator has been appointed pursuant to this section. Within six months from the date upon which the conservator takes charge of an association, the superintendent shall determine whether to restore the management of the association to the board of directors. The determination shall be evidenced by the superintendent's certificate under the seal of the office, delivered to the president, or vice president, or to the board of directors of the association, that the conservator is redelivering the management of the association to the board of directors of the association then in office. After the management of the association has been redelivered to the board of directors of an association, the association shall be managed and operated as though no conservator had been appointed. At any time prior to the redelivery of the management to the board of directors, the superintendent shall determine whether the association shall be required to reorganize. That determination shall be evidenced by a certificate, signed by the superintendent, under the seal of the office, delivered to an executive officer of the association, stating that unless the association reorganizes under the laws of this state within a period of sixty days from the date of the certificate, or within such further time as the superintendent approves, the superintendent shall liquidate the association. If the association has the insurance protection provided by Title IV of the National Housing Act, 12 U.S.C. ch 13, a signed and sealed copy of each order and certificate mentioned in this section shall be promptly sent by the superintendent by registered mail to the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, Washington, D.C. If the association is insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, that corporation shall be named receiver if the superintendent has determined the need for a receivership.

534.406 Receivership.

If a building and loan or savings and loan association is conducting its business illegally, or in violation of its articles of incorporation or bylaws, or is practicing deception upon its members or the public, or is pursuing a plan of business that is injurious to the interest of its members, or if its affairs are in an unsafe condition, the superintendent shall notify the directors of the association, and, if they fail to put its affairs upon a safe basis, the superintendent shall advise the attorney general, who shall take the necessary steps to wind up its affairs in the manner provided by law. In the proceedings a receiver may be appointed by the court and the proceedings shall be the exclusive liquidation or insolvency proceeding and a receiver shall not be appointed in any other proceedings.

534.407 Revocation of certificate.

If a certificate of authority to do business has been issued to an association, and it violates any of the provisions of this chapter, the superintendent may revoke the certificate.
§534.408 Supervisory fees.

1. Payable to division. Associations shall pay fees by delivering to the superintendent a check payable to the savings and loan division of the department of commerce. All fees collected under this chapter shall be deposited with the treasurer of the savings and loan division. All expenses necessary to carry out this chapter shall be paid from the savings and loan revolving fund, except eleven thousand dollars each fiscal year shall be transferred to the general fund of the state. The amount shall be considered as one of the costs of the savings and loan division. All expenses necessary to carry out this chapter shall be paid from the savings and loan revolving fund and appropriated by the general assembly from the fund.

The authority to modify allotments provided in section 8.31 shall not apply to funds appropriated from the savings and loan fund.

2. Incorporation fee. Simultaneously with the filing with the superintendent of a certificate of incorporation, the corporation shall pay an incorporation fee of one hundred dollars.

3. Change of location or change of name. A fee of fifty dollars shall accompany each application to the superintendent for permission to change the location of the home office or to change the name of the association.

4. Supervision and examination fee. At the time of filing its annual report each association shall pay to the superintendent an annual filing fee of fifty dollars. The superintendent shall assess against an association the actual and necessary expenses incidental to examinations, or to supervision, or to a special audit made pursuant to an order of the superintendent acting under authority of this chapter. The annual assessment to each association shall also include a fair proportion of the cost of administration of the savings and loan division.

5. Merger fee. At the time of filing with the superintendent a merger agreement, the association proposing to merge shall submit a fee of one hundred fifty dollars, which fee shall be paid in equal parts by the associations which are parties to the proposed merger.

6. For reorganization, transfer of assets, and dissolution. A fee of fifty dollars shall accompany a proposed plan of reorganization, a proposal for the transfer of assets in bulk, and a certificate of dissolution, filed with the superintendent for approval.

7. For approval of superintendent. The superintendent, in the superintendent’s discretion, may charge a fee of not exceeding ten dollars upon each application for the superintendent’s approval, as provided by this chapter.

1. The superintendent shall enforce the Iowa consumer credit code with respect to associations, as provided in sections 537.2903, 537.2905 and 537.6105.

2. The superintendent shall co-operate with the administrator, and shall assist the administrator whenever necessary to provide for the discharge of the duties of the administrator.

3. Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, the superintendent shall authorize to be furnished to the administrator, access to or copies of records in the possession of the superintendent or other persons which relate to a savings and loan association when necessary to enable the administrator to enforce chapter 537.

4. The superintendent shall make an annual report in writing to the administrator. A copy of the report shall be furnished at cost by the superintendent to each association or other person upon request. The annual report shall contain:

   a. A summary of applications for organization approved or denied by the superintendent since the last report.
   b. A summary of the volume of consumer installment credit outstanding per association as of December 31 of the year for which the report is made.
   c. An estimate of the disbursements of agency funds for consumer credit protection during the calendar year ending the preceding December 31.
   d. Information which the superintendent may deem appropriate and advisable to disclose.
   e. Information which the administrator may require to be included.

DIVISION V
CORPORATE STRUCTURE

§534.501 Articles of incorporation.

1. Original articles. The original articles of incorporation of an association shall set forth:

   a. The name of the association.
   b. Whether the association is organized as a mutual association or a stock association.
   c. That the association will operate under this chapter.
   d. The period of duration if for a limited period, but in the absence of any statement in the articles an association shall have perpetual duration.
   e. The officer or officers authorized to sign instruments pertaining to real estate.
   f. Whether or not the association will have a corporate seal, and whether such seal must be affixed to instruments pertaining to real estate.
   g. If a stock association, the information specified in section 496A.49, subsections 4, 5, 6, and 7.
   h. Any other provision not inconsistent with this chapter.
   i. The person to whom the certificate of incorporation should be mailed by the secretary of state after filing.
   j. The address of its registered office including street and number, if any, the name of the county in which the registered office is located, and the name of its registered agent or agents at such address.

k. The name and address of each incorporator.

l. The name and address and initial term of office of each member of the initial board of directors.

m. Any provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders or members, for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, provided that the provision does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the association or its shareholders or members, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, or for any transaction from which the director derives an improper personal benefit. A provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when the provision in the articles of incorporation becomes effective.

2. Articles may omit powers. It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

4. Amendment procedure. The procedure for amending articles of incorporation or adopting restated articles for mutual associations is that specified in section 504A.35, and for stock associations it is that specified in sections 496A.56 and 496A.57.

5. Effective date. Original articles, amendments, and restatements are effective on the date they are filed with the secretary of state, or on such later date as is stated therein. The secretary of state shall not accept any of these documents for filing unless it has been approved by the superintendent.

1. General provisions. The initial bylaws of an association shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend, or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws shall be vested in the board of directors unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation. The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the association not inconsistent with the law or the articles. If the articles of a stock association so provide, the bylaws may contain provisions restricting the transfer of shares.

2. Effective date. Amendments to bylaws or restatements of bylaws are effective on the date they are adopted if they have been preapproved by the superintendent or on the date they are approved by the superintendent if they were not preapproved, provided that the amendment or restatement is effective on a later effective date if so provided therein.

§534.503 Voting by members.

Each member shall have one vote for each one hundred dollars of net equity above share loans in the member's share account owned and held by the member at any election, and may vote the same by proxy, but no person shall vote more than ten percent of the savings liability at the time of said election excepting that proxies held and voted by an individual member or a proxy committee shall not be included in said ten percent limitation. Every proxy shall be in writing and shall, unless otherwise specified in the proxy, continue in force for eleven months from the date thereof, provided that upon receipt of a written request for a new proxy solicitation that is signed by at least two percent of the members of the association, all proxies executed prior to the date of receipt of the written request shall be void upon the expiration of sixty days following the date of receipt of the written request.

No proxies shall be voted at any meeting unless such proxies have been on file with the secretary of the association for verification at least five days before the date of the meeting. Anyone depositing or transferring savings as collateral security shall be deemed the owner of such share account within the meaning of this section. Notice of the regular annual meeting of members of an association shall be given by publishing said notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the office of said association is located at least thirty days before the date set for said annual meeting. Proxies may be revoked by any member upon written notice to the secretary of an association; by execution of a written proxy to another agent; or by personal attendance by the member at the members' meetings. Each member as defined by section 534.102, shall, regardless of shares, be entitled to at least one vote at any members' meeting.

§534.505 Incorporating an association.

1. Plan of incorporation. One or more persons may petition for approval of a plan of incorporation for an association by forwarding to the superintendent the following:

a. The proposed original articles of incorporation.

b. The proposed original bylaws.
c. An application for approval of each proposed office.

d. Other information the superintendent requires.

2. Procedures. If the superintendent approves the plan of incorporation, the superintendent shall note the approval on the original articles, and the original articles shall be filed with the secretary of state.

3. Certificate of operation. A corporation shall not operate as an association under this chapter until it has received a certificate of operation from the superintendent. The superintendent shall not issue a certificate of operation to the association until approved articles and bylaws have been adopted, the superintendent has received satisfactory proof that the corporation will be an insured association before receiving any money in savings accounts, and the interests of the public and members have been adequately protected.

534.506 Account insurance required.

1. An association organized under this chapter as a condition of maintaining its privilege of organization after July 1, 1984 shall acquire and maintain insurance to protect each depositor against loss of funds held on account by the association. The insurance shall be obtained from the federal savings and loan insurance corporation or another insurance fund approved by the superintendent.

2. The superintendent may furnish to an official of an insurance plan by which the accounts of the association are insured, any information relating to examinations and reports of the status of that association to the purpose of determining availability of insurance to that association.

534.508 Stock association capitalization.

1. In general. Sections 496A.14, 496A.15, 496A.16, 496A.17, 496A.18, 496A.19, 496A.21, 496A.22, 496A.23, 496A.24, and 496A.25 apply to stock associations.

3. Capital stock as security. A stock association shall not make a loan secured by the pledge of its capital stock.

4. Dividends on capital stock. A stock association may declare and pay dividends on capital stock in cash or property out of the unreserved and unrestricted earned surplus of the stock association, or in its own shares, except when the stock association is in an impaired condition or when the payment thereof would cause the stock association to be in an impaired condition. A split-up or division of the issued shares of capital stock into a greater number of shares without increasing the stated capital of the stock association is authorized, and shall not be construed to be a dividend within the meaning of this subsection.

534.509 Conversions.

1. Types authorized. The following types of conversions are authorized:

a. Mutual association to stock association.

b. Stock association to mutual association.

c. Mutual association or stock association to federal mutual association or federal stock association.

d. Federal mutual association or federal stock association to mutual association or stock association.

e. Stock association to a bank chartered under chapter 524.

2. Insurance. The organization must be either an insured association, a federal association, or an insured bank after any conversion.

3. Plan of conversion. The board of directors shall approve a plan of conversion by a majority vote of all directors then serving. The plan shall include the following:

a. The proposed restated articles of incorporation.

b. The proposed restated bylaws.

c. The effect of the conversion on each type of member or each class of stockholders.

4. Superintendent of savings and loan associations’ approval. The plan of conversion shall be submitted to the superintendent for approval. The superintendent shall reject the plan based on any of the following determinations:

a. The plan is inconsistent with applicable statutes or regulations.

b. The plan does not contain all required information.

c. The plan is inequitable to a class of members or shareholders.

The superintendent shall notify the organization which submitted the plan of the superintendent's decision, and the reasons for rejection if the plan is rejected.
5. Superintendent of banking’s approval. The plan of conversion shall be submitted to the superintendent of banking for approval if the conversion is to a bank. The superintendent of banking shall reject the plan based on any of the following determinations:
   a. The plan is inconsistent with applicable statutes or regulations.
   b. The plan does not contain all required information.
   c. The character and fitness of the members of the initial board of directors is not such as to command the confidence of the community and to warrant the belief that the organization’s business will be honestly and efficiently conducted.
   d. The capital structure of the organization is not adequate in relation to its anticipated business.
   e. The organization will not have sufficient personnel with adequate knowledge and experience to conduct its business and administer any fiduciary accounts which it proposes to handle.
   f. The plan does not provide for the closing or sale of all of the offices which must be discontinued in order for the organization to have only those home and branch offices which a bank is allowed to have under chapter 524.

The superintendent of banking shall notify the organization which submitted the plan of the superintendent’s decision, and the reasons for rejection if the plan is rejected. The organization may amend and resubmit the plan in response to a notification of rejection.

6. Member or stockholder approval. The plan of conversion must be approved at an annual meeting of members or stockholders, or at a special meeting called to consider the plan, by a majority vote of the members represented in person or by proxy if a mutual association or federal mutual association, or a majority vote of each class of voting stock represented in person or by proxy if a stock association or federal stock association.

If the proposed conversion is the conversion of a mutual association to a stock association, the board of directors shall cause written notice of the date, time and purpose of the meeting at which the members will be asked to vote on the proposal to be mailed by first class mail, postage prepaid, to each member of the association not less than thirty days prior to the date of the meeting, and the board shall cause a copy of this notice to be posted in a conspicuous location in each of the association’s offices from the date of mailing until the date of the meeting. The notice to be mailed to members and posted also shall give notice, in a form and manner to be prescribed by rule of the superintendent, the rights of a member to have access to and communicate with other members as provided in section 534.404, subsection 2, and the procedures that are to be followed under that provision. The mailed notice may be included in an envelope containing a periodic statement of account to the member. The superintendent may require that the date for the meeting of members be postponed to a date certain, not more than thirty days after the date originally prescribed, if the superintendent determines that such additional time is necessary to enable members who have requested to communicate with other members under section 534.404, subsection 2, to properly exercise that right.

If the proposed conversion is the conversion of a stock association to any other type of entity, the board of directors shall cause written notice of the proposed conversion and the earliest date when the proposed conversion might become effective to be posted in a conspicuous location in each of the association’s offices commencing thirty days prior to the date of the shareholder’s meeting at which the proposal will be voted upon and until thirty days after that date.

If the plan of conversion is approved, a copy of the minutes of the meeting, certified and acknowledged by the secretary or assistant secretary, shall be filed with the superintendent.

7. Conversion to association. If a state association results from the plan of conversion, the superintendent shall issue a certificate of incorporation when all of the following have occurred:
   a. The superintendent has received adequate assurance that the association will be an insured association upon issuance of the certificate of incorporation.
   b. The superintendent has approved the plan of conversion.
   c. The superintendent has received the certified minutes of approval under subsection 6.

The proposed articles of incorporation and bylaws as contained in the plan of conversion shall become effective upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation.

8. Conversion to federal association. If a federal association results from the plan of conversion, the association shall cease to be an association and shall no longer be subject to the supervision and control of the superintendent when all of the following have occurred:
   a. The superintendent has received a copy of the charter issued to a converting association by the federal home loan bank board or a certificate showing the organization of such association as a federal savings and loan association, certified by the secretary or assistant secretary of the federal home loan bank board.
   b. The superintendent has approved the plan of conversion.
   c. The superintendent has received the certified minutes of approval under subsection 6.

9. Conversion to a bank. If a bank results from the plan of conversion, the association shall cease to be an association and shall no longer be subject to the supervision and control of the superintendent when all of the following have occurred:
   a. The superintendent has received from the superintendent of banking a certificate showing that the organization is chartered as a bank.
   b. The superintendent has approved the plan of conversion.
The superintendent has received the certified minutes of approval under subsection 6.

10. Certification. The superintendent shall prepare a certificate of conversion upon the occurrence of all of the events stated in subsection 7, 8, or 9. This certificate shall include the name of the corporation which adopted the plan of conversion, the name of the corporation after the conversion, and the effective date of conversion. The original certificate shall be filed with the secretary of state. The superintendent shall provide a certified copy of the certificate to any person upon payment of a five dollar fee. A certified copy of this certificate shall be sufficient proof of that conversion for purposes of establishing the liability for debts or the ownership of assets as provided in section 534.510, subsections 2 and 3.

11. Competition preserved. A conversion of an association to a bank under this section shall not prevent the subsequent incorporation of another bank in the same community, and the superintendent of banking shall not find the existence of the bank resulting from the conversion to be grounds for disapproving the incorporation of another bank in the same community under section 524.305, subsection 1, paragraph "b" or "c". A conversion of an association to a bank under this section shall not prevent the subsequent incorporation of another association in the same community, and the superintendent of savings and loan associations shall not find the existence of the bank resulting from the conversion to be grounds for disapproving the incorporation of another association in the same community under this chapter.

534.510 Effects of conversion.

1. Continuation. The legal existence of an entity shall not terminate as a result of a conversion under section 534.509. The entity resulting from a conversion shall be a continuation of the same corporate entity which adopted the plan of conversion.

2. Liabilities. The corporation resulting from a conversion is liable for all obligations incurred by the corporation before, during or after the conversion.

3. Assets. All property of the corporation adopting a plan of conversion, including its rights, titles, and interests in and to all property of whatever kind, whether real, personal or mixed, choses in action, and every other right and privilege immediately vests in the corporation resulting from the conversion, by act of law and without any other conveyance, act or deed, except to the extent an interest in property passes to another person under the explicit terms of the plan of conversion.

4. Pending actions. Pending actions in any court or tribunal to which the corporation adopting a plan of conversion is a party shall not be abated or discontinued by reason of the conversion, but may be prosecuted in the same manner as if the conversion had not been made.

534.511 Merger.

1. Merger defined. As used in this section, the terms "merger" or "merge" means any plan by which the assets and liabilities of an entity are combined with those of one or more other entities, including transactions in which one of the corporate entities survives and transactions in which a new corporate entity is created.

2. Types authorized. An association may merge only with one or more other state associations, federal associations, bank holding companies or banks.

3. Plan of merger. The board of directors of each merging entity shall approve an identical plan of merger by a majority vote of all directors then serving. The plan shall include the following:

a. The proposed name of the surviving organization.

b. The proposed articles of incorporation of the surviving organization.

c. The proposed bylaws of the surviving organization.

d. The effect of the merger on each type of member or each class of stockholders.

e. Other information required by the superintendent.

4. Superintendent of savings and loan associations' approval. The plan of merger shall be submitted to the superintendent of savings and loan associations for approval. The superintendent shall reject the plan based on any of the following determinations:

a. The plan is inconsistent with applicable statutes or regulations.

b. The plan does not contain all required information.

c. The plan is inequitable to a class of members or stockholders.

The superintendent shall notify the organizations which submitted the plan of the superintendent's decision, and the reasons for rejection if the plan is rejected.

5. Superintendent of banking's approval. The plan of merger shall be submitted to the superintendent of banking for approval if the proposed merger is with or into a bank or bank holding company. The superintendent of banking shall reject the plan based on any of the following determinations:

a. The plan is inconsistent with applicable statutes or regulations.

b. The plan does not contain all required information.

c. The capital structure of the resulting organization will not be adequate in relation to its anticipated business.

d. The plan does not provide for the closing or sale of all of the offices which must be discontinued in order for the resulting organization to have only those office locations which a resulting bank would be authorized under chapter 524 to apply for and have approved on the effective date of the merger if it had no bank office locations in operation on that date.

The superintendent of banking shall notify the organization which submitted the plan of the superintendent of banking’s decision, and the reasons for rejection if the plan is rejected. The organization may amend and resubmit the plan in response to a notification of rejection.

6. Member or stockholder approval. The plan of merger must be approved at an annual meeting of members or stockholders, or at a special meeting called to consider the plan, by a majority vote of the members represented in person or by proxy of each of the mutual associations or federal mutual associations included in the plan, or a majority vote of each class of voting stock represented in person or by proxy of each of the stock associations, federal stock associations, bank holding companies or banks included in the plan. If so approved, a copy of the minutes of the meeting, certified and acknowledged by the secretary or assistant secretary, shall be filed with the superintendent.

7. Receivership. If a receiver has been appointed for any association included in the plan of merger, the receiver shall act in place of the board of directors and the members or stockholders, and the plan must also be approved by the court by which the receiver was appointed.

8. Certification. The superintendent shall prepare a certificate of merger upon the occurrence of all of the events stated in subsections 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. This certificate shall include the name of the surviving association, federal association, or bank and the effective date of the merger. The original certificate shall be filed with the secretary of state. The superintendent shall provide a certified copy of the certificate to any person upon payment of a five dollar fee. A certified copy of this certificate is sufficient proof of the merger for purposes of establishing liability for debts or the ownership of assets as provided in section 534.512, subsections 1 and 2. An association involved in a merger may transfer assets or receive assets under the plan of merger only after the certificate of merger has been issued by the superintendent.

9. Competition preserved. A merger under this section shall not prevent the subsequent incorporation of another bank in the community in which the merged association is located, and the superintendent of banking shall not find the merger to be grounds for disapproving the incorporation of another association in the same community under this chapter.

10. Limitations. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to authorize an association to merge with or be acquired wholly or in part by a foreign institution unless all applicable laws and regulations of the United States would specifically authorize a merger with or acquisition by a foreign institution. For purposes of this subsection the term "foreign institution" means a federal association whose home office is located in another state, a bank whose home office is located in another state, or a bank holding company which is with respect to the state of Iowa an "out-of-state bank holding company" as defined or referred to in 12 U.S.C. 1842(d), and for purposes of this subsection the words "acquire" or "acquisition" mean to directly or indirectly acquire ownership or control of more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares of any association or the power to control in any manner the election of a majority of the directors of any association.

1. Liabilities. The association, federal association or bank resulting from a merger is liable for all obligations incurred by each of the associations, federal associations, bank holding companies or banks included in the merger before, during, or after the merger.

2. Assets. All property of each association, federal association, bank holding company or bank adopting a plan of merger, including its rights, titles, and interests in and to all property of whatever kind, whether real, personal, or mixed, choses in action, and every other right and privilege immediately vests in the association, federal association, bank holding companies or bank resulting from the merger by act of law and without any other conveyance, act or deed, except to the extent an interest in property passed to another person under the explicit terms of the plan of merger.

3. Pending actions. Pending actions in any court or tribunal to which any association, federal association, bank holding company or bank adopting a plan of merger is a party shall not be abated or discontinued by reason of the merger, but may be prosecuted in the same manner as if the merger had not been made.

Transferred in Code 1985 from §534.95 in Code 1983

534.513 Liquidation.

1. Voluntary liquidation. Building and loan or savings and loan associations, by a vote of three-fourths of the members of such association represented in person or by proxy, may go into voluntary liquidation upon such plan as shall be determined upon by the members at their meeting.

2. Reorganization — liquidation. Any savings and loan association, including one in receivership, may reorganize under any plan approved by its board of directors and by the superintendent. Such reorganization may include reduction of savings credits of its member, not pledged as security for real estate loans, and may also include segregation of assets of uncertain or doubtful value by transfer thereof to trustees for management and liquidation or by transfer to a separate fund within the association, to be managed and liquidated by the association for the benefit of the members whose savings credits have been reduced in connection with such segregation.

3. Supervision during liquidation. During the period of voluntary liquidation of any such association, the superintendent shall have substantially the same powers and duties as to supervision as before such liquidation, and the persons in charge of such voluntary liquidation shall furnish and deposit with the superintendent such bonds as the superintendent shall require and approve, and shall semiannually, or oftener if required by the superintendent, report fully as to their doings and progress, and as to the financial condition of the association. Upon completion of such liquidation they shall file with the superintendent a verified final report of such liquidation and disbursement of proceeds and upon approval of such report the superintendent shall issue a written order discharging the liquidators, and their duties shall thereupon cease.

4. Transfer of mortgages — maturity. In case any such association resolves to go into voluntary liquidation, it shall have power after crediting the mortgages given by the borrowing member with the full book value of the stock, to sell and assign such mortgages to a similar building and loan association, or to any other parties who will hold the same upon the terms under which such mortgage was given to the association. In that event the said mortgage shall be held to become due, if no other time can be agreed upon between the mortgagee and the association, within three years after the assignment thereof.

534.515 Unincorporated associations.

1. Statutes applicable. All unincorporated organizations, associations, societies, partnerships, or individuals conducting and carrying on a business, the purpose of which is to create a fund derived from periodical payments by members of such organizations, associations, societies, or other persons, upon contracts or otherwise, as well as from fines, forfeitures, incidental fees, and payment of premiums and interest; which fund is to be loaned or advanced to members of the organization, associations, society, or to the persons making such periodical payments, for the purpose of enabling them to acquire the ownership or free possession of real estate, or personal property, or to construct buildings, or any or all of such purposes, shall be deemed building and loan associations; and the provisions of this chapter shall apply to all such building and loan associations as far as the same can be made applicable to unincorporated organizations, associations, societies, partnerships, or individuals.

2. Statement of resources, liabilities, and plan. Every such unincorporated organization, association, society, partnership, or individual conducting and carrying on the business defined in this section shall, before transacting any business in this state, submit to the executive council a full and complete sworn statement of the resources and liabilities of such organization, association, society, partnership, or individual, and of the proposed plan or method of doing business.

3. Deposit of securities. An unincorporated building and loan association shall not carry on its business within this state unless it first deposits with the superintendent at least fifty thousand dollars of first mortgages and negotiable notes in the same amount secured by real estate in the state, bearing interest at a rate not less than five percent per annum, which mortgages shall not exceed one-

534.514 Bulk transfers.

1. Defined. A “bulk transfer” is any transfer in bulk and not in the ordinary course of the transferor’s business of a major part in value of the loans, savings accounts, or real estate of an association or of one office of an association, or any combination of such loans, savings accounts, and real estate.

2. Approval. An association may be the transferor under a bulk transfer upon the prior written consent of the superintendent of savings and loan associations and upon the majority vote of members represented in person or by proxy if a mutual association, or a majority vote of each class of voting stock represented in person or by proxy if a stock association. An association may be the transferee under a bulk transfer upon the approval of its board of directors.

3. Transfers to banks. A bulk transfer by an association to a bank is void unless written consent to the transfer is obtained from the superintendent prior to the transfer.

534.515 Unincorporated associations.

1. Statutes applicable. All unincorporated organizations, associations, societies, partnerships, or individuals conducting and carrying on a business, the purpose of which is to create a fund derived from periodical payments by members of such organizations, associations, societies, or other persons, upon contracts or otherwise, as well as from fines, forfeitures, incidental fees, and payment of premiums and interest; which fund is to be loaned or advanced to members of the organization, associations, society, or to the persons making such periodical payments, for the purpose of enabling them to acquire the ownership or free possession of real estate, or personal property, or to construct buildings, or any or all of such purposes, shall be deemed building and loan associations; and the provisions of this chapter shall apply to all such building and loan associations as far as the same can be made applicable to unincorporated organizations, associations, societies, partnerships, or individuals.

2. Statement of resources, liabilities, and plan. Every such unincorporated organization, association, society, partnership, or individual conducting and carrying on the business defined in this section shall, before transacting any business in this state, submit to the executive council a full and complete sworn statement of the resources and liabilities of such organization, association, society, partnership, or individual, and of the proposed plan or method of doing business.

3. Deposit of securities. An unincorporated building and loan association shall not carry on its business within this state unless it first deposits with the superintendent at least fifty thousand dollars of first mortgages and negotiable notes in the same amount secured by real estate in the state, bearing interest at a rate not less than five percent per annum, which mortgages shall not exceed one-

534.514 Bulk transfers.

1. Defined. A “bulk transfer” is any transfer in half the actual value of the real estate upon which they are taken.

4. Additional deposits. The superintendent may require that a further amount of such securities be deposited with the superintendent as in the superintendent's judgment is necessary to protect the members of the building and loan association, or the persons making periodical payments to it.

5. Securities held in trust. The notes, mortgages, and securities deposited with the superintendent, with all interest and accumulations on them, shall be held in trust by the superintendent for the purpose of fulfilling and carrying out all contracts made by such building and loan associations with their members, and with the persons making periodical payments to them.

6. Approval — certificate of authority. If the executive council approves the plan or method of business of such a building and loan association, it shall endorse its approval upon the statement of the resources and liabilities and plan of business presented to it, and the statement shall be filed in the office of the superintendent, who shall issue a certificate to the building and loan association to transact business within the state, if the association has deposited with the superintendent the mortgages and securities required by the other provisions of this chapter.

7. Officers to give bonds — approval. An officer of such a building and loan association who signs or endorses checks, or handles any of the funds or securities of the association, shall give bond with fidelity insurance for the faithful performance of the officer's duty in a sum as the superintendent may require, and no such officer is qualified to enter upon the duties of the office until the officer's bond is approved by, and deposited with, the superintendent. The bond may be increased or additional sureties required by the superintendent if in the superintendent's judgment it becomes necessary to protect the interest of the association or its members, or persons making periodical payments of money to it.

8. Examination. The superintendent may at any time the superintendent deems proper make, or cause to be made, an examination of such a building and loan association, or the superintendent may call upon it for a report of its condition upon any given day which has passed, as often as four times each year, which report shall contain the information required in this section.

9. Expense of examination. The expense of making an examination shall be paid by the building and loan association, and if made by the superintendent in person the superintendent shall be paid the superintendent's necessary expenses only; if made by an examiner designated by the superintendent, the examiner shall receive not to exceed twenty-five dollars a day for the time employed by the superintendent, and the examiner's necessary expenses.

10. Annual reports. On or before the first day of February of each year, every such building and loan association shall file with the superintendent its annual report in writing for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December preceding, giving a complete statement in detail of all of its receipts from all sources, and all disbursements made during the year, arranged and itemized as required by the superintendent. The report shall also show the number of members or persons making periodical payments to the association, the number and amount of loans made to the persons, the interest received from them, the number and amounts of mortgages, contracts, or other securities held by the association, the actual cash value of the real estate securing the mortgages or contracts, the salary paid to each of its officers during the preceding year, the assets and liabilities of the association at the end of the year, and any other matters which in the judgment of the superintendent are required to give the superintendent full information as to the business transacted by the building and loan association.

11. Failure to furnish reports. If such a building and loan association fails or refuses to furnish the superintendent the report required in subsection 10, the officers or persons conducting the business of the building and loan association shall forfeit the sum of twenty-five dollars for each day that the report is withhold, and the superintendent may maintain an action, jointly or severally, against them in the name of the state to recover that penalty, and the penalty shall be paid into the state treasury when recovered by the superintendent.

12. Criminal offenses. If any officer or agent of any such building and loan association, or any person conducting the business thereof, shall knowingly and willfully swear falsely to any statement in regard to any matter in this chapter required to be made under oath, the person shall be guilty of perjury and punished accordingly. And if any officer, agent or employee of any such association, or any person transacting the business thereof, shall issue, utter, or offer to utter, any warrant, check, order, or promise to pay of such association, or shall sign, transfer, cancel, or surrender any note, bond, draft, mortgage, or other evidence of indebtedness belonging to such association, or shall demand, collect, or receive any money from any member or other person in the name of such association without being authorized to do so, the person shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice; or if any such officer, agent, or employee of such association, or any person transacting the business thereof, shall embezzle, convert to the person's own use, or shall use or pledge for the person's own benefit or purpose, any moneys, securities, credits, or other property belonging to the association, the person shall be guilty of theft; or if the person shall knowingly solicit, transact, or attempt to transact any business for any such association which has not procured and does not hold the certificate of authority from the superintendent to transact business in this state as provided in this section, the person shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor; or if the person shall knowingly make, or cause to be made, any false entries in the books of the association, or shall, with intent to deceive any person making an examination of such association, as herein provided, exhibit to the person making the examination any false entry, paper, or statement, the person shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice.
13. Revocation of certificate — receiver. If any such building and loan association holding a certificate of authority to transact business within this state issued by the superintendent as provided in this chapter, shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, or shall fail to deposit with the superintendent such further amount of mortgages or securities as the superintendent may require under this chapter, the superintendent shall at once revoke the certificate and notify the executive council of its revocation; and under the direction of the executive council, application shall be made by the attorney general to the proper court for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of the association. In the proceedings the amount due from the borrowing members or persons making periodical payments upon contracts or mortgages given by them shall be ascertained in the manner provided in section 534.405; and the amount owing upon mortgages or contracts from members of the association or persons making periodical payments to it, shall be treated and considered as due and payable within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the court after the appointment of a receiver.

534.517 Priority of public funds upon dissolution.
After payment of the costs and expenses of dissolution, the first claim upon the assets of an associatation shall be the claims for public funds deposited pursuant to chapter 453 and claims which are given priority by applicable statute. If the assets are insufficient for payment of the claims in full, then priority shall be determined as specified by the statutes or, in the absence of conflicting provisions, on a pro rata basis.

DIVISION VI
DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, AND EMPLOYEES

534.601 Directors.
The business of the association shall be directed by a board of directors of not less than five nor more than twenty-five adult individuals elected by ballot from among the members or stockholders by a plurality of the votes of the members or stockholders present or voting by proxy. If authorized by vote of the members or stockholders, the directors may elect directors. At all times at least two-thirds of the directors must be bona fide residents of this state.

534.602 Indemnity bonds.
1. Domestic companies — bonds — custody. The officers and employees of a domestic association who sign or endorse checks or handle funds or securities of an association shall give bonds or fidelity insurance as the board of directors may require; and no such officer shall be deemed qualified to enter upon the duties of the office until the officer's bond is approved by the board of directors and by the superintendent. The bonds shall be deposited and filed with the superintendent. The associations may in connection with obtaining bonds or insurance acquire and hold membership in mutual insurance or bonding companies. No such bond shall be terminated or canceled because of failure to pay premium or for any other cause until after ten days' written notice to the superintendent of intention to cancel the bond.
2. Additional bonds. All such bonds shall be increased or additional securities required by the board of directors or the superintendent when it becomes necessary to protect the interests of the association or its members.
3. Disqualified sureties. No director shall be accepted as surety on such bonds, and no person shall be accepted as surety on the bond of more than one office of said association.
4. Liability of directors. The directors shall be individually liable for loss to the association or its members caused by their failure to require a compliance with the provisions of this section.

§534.605 Transactions of officers, directors, employees.

It shall be unlawful for an officer, director or employee of an association:

1. To solicit, accept or agree to accept, directly or indirectly, from any person other than the association any gratuity, compensation or other personal benefit for any action taken by the association or for endeavoring to procure any such action.

2. To make a real estate loan or real estate contract to a director, officer or employee of the association, or to any attorney or firm of attorneys, regularly serving the association in the capacity of attorney at law, or to any partnership in which any such director, officer, employee, attorney or firm of attorneys has any interest, and no real estate loan or real estate contract shall be made to any corporation in which any of such parties are stockholders, except that with the prior approval of its board of directors a real estate loan or real estate contract may be made to a corporation in which no such party owns more than fifteen percent of the total outstanding stock and in which the stock owned by all such parties does not exceed twenty-five percent of the total outstanding stock: Provided, that nothing herein shall prohibit an association from making loans pursuant to sections 534.202 and 534.208 and loans on the security of a first lien on the home property or mobile home owned and occupied by a director, officer or employee of an association, or by an attorney or member of a firm of attorneys regularly serving the association in the capacity of attorney at law upon a two-thirds vote of the directors, the interested director not voting.

3. To have any interest, direct or indirect, in the purchase at less than its face value of any evidence of a savings liability or other indebtedness issued by the association or other assets at less than their fair market value.

4. Any association operating under this chapter shall have the power to indemnify any present or former director, officer or employee in the manner and in the instances authorized in section 496A.4A. If the association is a mutual association, the references in section 496A.4A to stockholder shall be deemed to be references to members.

DIVISION VII

FOREIGN ASSOCIATIONS

§534.701 State reciprocity.

When by the laws of any other state, territory, country, or nation, or by the decision or rulings of the appropriate and proper officers thereof, any greater taxes, fines, penalties, licenses, fees, deposits of money or other securities, or other obligations or prohibitions, are demanded of building and loan or savings and loan associations of this state, as a condition to be complied with before doing business or granting loans in that state, so long as such laws continue in force, the same requirements, obligations, and prohibitions of whatever kind shall be imposed on all building and loan or savings and loan associations of such other state, territory, country, or nation doing business in this state, and upon their agents. The superintendent shall enforce this section.

534.702 Admission of foreign associations.
1. Application. If a foreign association desires to transact business within this state, it shall furnish to the superintendent a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, or charter and bylaws, and a certified copy of the state laws under which it is organized, together with a report for the year next preceding, verified by its president, vice president, secretary, and at least three directors, which report shall show:
   a. The amount of its authorized savings liability and the par value of its shares, if any.
   b. The increase in savings liability.
   c. The withdrawal from savings liability during the year.
   d. The amount of savings liability in force at the end of the year.
   e. A detailed statement of all funds received during the year and all disbursements.
   f. The salaries paid each of its officers.
   g. A detailed statement of its assets and liabilities at the end of the year and their nature.
   h. A reconciliation of its net worth for the current year to the date of application and the previous three fiscal years.
   i. A detailed description of the anticipated types of business to be performed within the state.
   j. Any additional information required of domestic associations under section 534.505, subsection 1.
As used in this section, to transact business means to have an office, agency or agent in this state.
2. Approval by superintendent — certificate of authority. If upon receipt of the report the superintendent finds from a review of the report that the association is properly managed, that its financial condition is satisfactory, and that its business is conducted upon a safe and reliable plan and one equitable to its members, the superintendent shall issue a like certificate of authority, signed by the superintendent as in the case of domestic associations.
3. Conditions attending approval. A foreign association shall not be authorized to do business in this state if the foreign association’s articles of incorporation are not found by the superintendent to be in substantial compliance with the laws of this state, and affording equal security and protection to its members.
4. Deposit by foreign association. Before the superintendent issues a certificate to a foreign association, it shall deposit with the superintendent two hundred fifty thousand dollars, either in cash, or bonds of the United States or of the state of Iowa, or of a county or municipal corporation of the state, or notes secured by first mortgages on real estate, or a like amount in other security which is satisfactory to the superintendent.

The foreign association may collect and use the interest on any securities so deposited as long as it fulfills its obligations and complies with this chapter. Upon the approval of the superintendent, it may also exchange the securities for other securities of equal value.
5. Liability of deposit. The deposit made with the superintendent shall be held as security for all claims of resident members of the state against the association, and is liable for all judgments or decrees thereon, and subject to their payment.
6. Superintendent as process agent. The foreign associations shall also file with the superintendent a duly authorized copy of a resolution adopted by the board of directors of the association, stipulating and agreeing that, if any legal process or notice affecting the association is served on the superintendent, and a copy thereof mailed, postage prepaid, by the party procuring and issuing it, or the party’s attorney, to the association, addressed to its home office, then such service and mailing of process or notice has the same effect as personal service on the association within this state.
7. Manner of service. When proceedings have been commenced against or affecting a foreign build­ing and loan or savings and loan association, as contemplated in subsection 6, and notice has been served upon the superintendent, the notice shall be by duplicate copies, one of which shall be filed in the superintendent’s office, and the other mailed by the superintendent, postage prepaid, to the home office of the association.
8. Amendment to articles. Within ten days after the adoption of an amendment to its articles of incorporation or bylaws, a foreign association shall file a duly certified copy of the amendment with the superintendent.
9. Operations subject to supervision. Subject to the laws and regulations of the United States, a foreign association transacting business within this state is subject to the provisions of this chapter and is subject to the supervision of the superintendent as to its operations in this state. Notwithstanding subsec­tion 2 of section 534.102, the term “association” or “state association” in this chapter shall include a foreign association and any foreign association which is a party to a plan of merger under section 534.511 as to its operations in this state.
10. Limited exemption for solvent foreign associations. A foreign savings and loan association is exempt from the requirements of this section if the association's business in this state is limited to the sale of certificates of deposit through independent broker-dealers registered under section 502.302, unless the superintendent of savings and loans by order determines the association is insolvent.

534.703 Fees – foreign associations.

Foreign building and loan or savings and loan associations shall pay to the superintendent the following fees, which shall be paid by the superintendent into the state treasury: For an application to do business for the year ending the thirty-first day of December next preceding, and the report shall be verified by the president and secretary or by three directors of the association, and shall show:

a. The date when the association was incorporated.
b. The increase in savings liability.
c. The amount of withdrawals during the year.
d. The total savings liability at the end of the year.
e. A statement of the assets and liabilities at the end of the year.
f. The salary paid to each of its officers during the year.

2. Additional report by foreign company. All foreign building and loan or savings and loan associations shall, in addition to the above, report the name of each shareholder or member of such association residing within the state, together with the post-office address of each and the number of shares or investment owned by each of said persons on the first day of January preceding.

3. Violations. If an association fails or refuses to furnish the superintendent the report required in subsections 1 and 2 it shall forfeit the sum of twenty-five dollars for every day the report is withheld and the superintendent may maintain an action in the name of the state to recover that penalty and the penalty shall be paid into the treasury of the state.

TITLE XXIII TRADE AND COMMERCE

CHAPTER 535
MONEY AND INTEREST

535.1 Denominations of money.
The money of account of this state is the dollar, cent, and mill, and all public accounts, and the proceedings of all courts in relation to money, shall be kept and expressed in the above denominations. Demands expressed in money of another denomination shall not be affected by the provisions of this section, but in any action or proceeding based thereon it shall be reduced to and computed by the denominations given.

535.2 Rate of interest.
1. Except as provided in subsection 2 hereof, the rate of interest shall be five cents on the hundred by the year in the following cases, unless the parties shall agree in writing for the payment of interest at a rate not exceeding the rate permitted by subsection 3:
   a. Money due by express contract.
   b. Money after the same becomes due.
   c. Money loaned.
   d. Money received to the use of another and retained beyond a reasonable time, without the owner's consent, express or implied.
   e. Money due on the settlement of accounts from the day the balance is ascertained.
   f. Money due upon open accounts after six months from the date of the last item.
   g. Money due, or to become due, where there is a contract to pay interest, and no rate is stipulated.
   2. The following persons may agree in writing to pay any rate of interest, and a person so agreeing in writing shall not plead or interpose the claim or defense of usury in any action or proceeding, and the person agreeing to receive the interest is not subject to any penalty or forfeiture for agreeing to receive or for receiving the interest:
      (1) A person borrowing money for the purpose of acquiring real property or refinancing a contract for deed.
      (2) A person borrowing money or obtaining credit in an amount which exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, for the purpose of constructing improvements on real property, whether or not the real property is owned by the person.
      (3) A vendee under a contract for deed to real property.
      (4) A domestic or foreign corporation, and a real estate investment trust as defined in section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code, and a person purchasing securities as defined in chapter 502 on credit from a broker or dealer registered or licensed under chapter 502 or under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C., ch. 78A, as amended.
      (5) A person borrowing money or obtaining credit for business or agricultural purposes, or a person borrowing money or obtaining credit in an amount which exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars for personal, family, or household purposes. As used in this paragraph, "agricultural purpose" means as defined in section 535.13, and "business purpose" includes but is not limited to a commercial, service, or industrial enterprise carried on for profit and an investment activity.
      b. In determining exemptions under this subsection, the rules of construction stated in this paragraph apply:
         (1) The purpose for which money is borrowed is... the purpose to which a majority of the loan proceeds are applied or are designated in the agreement to be applied.

(2) Loan proceeds used to refinance or pay a prior loan owed by the same borrower are applied for the same purposes and in the same proportion as the original principal of the loan that is refinanced or paid.

(3) If the lender releases the original borrower from all personal liability with respect to the loan, loan proceeds used to pay a prior loan by a different borrower are applied for the new borrower's purposes in agreeing to pay the prior loan.

(4) If the lender releases the original borrower from all personal liability with respect to the loan, the assumption of a loan by a new borrower is treated as if the new borrower had obtained a new loan and had used all of the proceeds to pay the loan assumed.

(5) This paragraph does not modify or limit section 535.8, subsection 2, paragraph "c" or "e".

(6) With respect to any transaction referred to in paragraph "a" of this subsection, this subsection supersedes any interest-rate or finance-charge limitations contained in the Code, including but not limited to this chapter and chapters 321, 322, 524, 533, 534, 536A, and 537.

3. a. The maximum lawful rate of interest which may be provided for in any written agreement for the payment of interest entered into during any calendar month commencing on or after April 13, 1979, shall be two percentage points above the monthly average ten-year constant maturity interest rate of United States government notes and bonds as published by the board of governors of the federal reserve system for the calendar month second preceding the month during which the maximum rate based thereon will be effective, rounded to the nearest one-fourth of one percent per year.

On or before the twentieth day of each month the superintendent of banking shall determine the maximum lawful rate of interest for the following calendar month as prescribed herein, and shall cause this rate to be published, as a notice in the Iowa administrative bulletin or as a legal notice in a newspaper of general circulation published in Polk county, prior to the first day of the following calendar month. This maximum lawful rate of interest shall be effective on the first day of the calendar month following publication. The determination of the maximum lawful rate of interest by the superintendent of banking shall be exempt from the provisions of chapter 17A.

b. Any rate of interest specified in any written agreement providing for the payment of interest shall, if such rate was lawful at the time the agreement was made, remain lawful during the entire term of the agreement, including any extensions or renewals thereof, for all money due or to become due thereunder including future advances, if any.

c. Any written agreement for the payment of interest made pursuant to a prior written agreement by a lender to lend money in the future, either to the other party to such prior written agreement or a third party beneficiary of such prior agreement, may provide for payment of interest at the lawful rate of interest at the time of the execution of the prior agreement regardless of the time at which the subsequent agreement is executed.

d. Any contract, note or other written agreement providing for the payment of a rate of interest permitted by this subsection which contains any provisions providing for an increase in the rate of interest prescribed therein shall, if such increase could be to a rate which would have been unlawful at the time the agreement was made, also provide for a reduction in the rate of interest prescribed therein, to be determined in the same manner and with the same frequency as any increase so provided for.

4. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 3, with respect to any agreement which was executed prior to August 3, 1978, and which contained a provision for the adjustment of the rate of interest specified in that agreement, the maximum lawful rate of interest which may be imposed under that agreement shall be nine cents on the hundred by the year, and any excess charge shall be a violation of section 535.4.

b. Notwithstanding the limitation contained in paragraph "a" of this subsection, with respect to a written agreement for the repayment of money loaned, which was executed prior to August 3, 1978 and which provided for the payment of over fifty percent of the initial principal amount of the loan as a single payment due at the end of the term of the agreement, the interest rate may be adjusted after June 3, 1980 according to the terms of the agreement to any rate of interest permitted by the laws of this state as of the date an adjustment in interest is to be made. This paragraph does not authorize adjustment of interest in any manner other than that expressly permitted by the terms of the written agreement, and nothing contained in this paragraph authorizes the collection of additional interest with respect to any portion of a loan which was repaid prior to the effective date of an interest rate adjustment.

c. Notwithstanding paragraph "a", when a written agreement providing for the repayment of money loaned, and requiring the payment of over fifty percent of the initial principal amount of the loan as a single payment due at the end of the term of the agreement is extended, renewed, or otherwise amended by the parties on or after August 3, 1978, the parties may agree to the payment of interest from the effective date of the extension, renewal, or amendment, at a rate and in a manner that is lawful for a new agreement made on that date.

5. This section shall not apply to any loan which is subject to the provisions of section 682.46.

6. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of Acts of the Sixty-eighth General Assembly, chapter 1156, with respect to any agreement which was executed on or after August 3, 1978 and prior to July 1, 1979, and which contained a provision for the adjustment of the rate of interest specified in the agreement, the maximum lawful rate of interest which may be imposed under that agreement shall be that rate which is two and one-half percentage points above the rate initially to be paid under the agreement, provided that the greatest interest rate adjustment which may be made at any one time shall be one-half of one percent and an interest rate adjustment may not be made until at least one year has passed since the last interest rate adjustment, and any excess charge shall be a violation of section 535.4.

b. Notwithstanding the limitation contained in paragraph "a" of this subsection, with respect to a written agreement for the repayment of money loaned which was executed on or after August 3, 1978, and prior to July 1, 1979, and which provided for the payment of over fifty percent of the initial principal amount of the loan as a single payment due at the end of the term of the agreement, the interest rate may be adjusted after June 3, 1980, according to the terms of the agreement to any rate of interest permitted by the laws of this state as of the date an adjustment in interest is to be made. This paragraph does not authorize adjustment of interest in any manner other than that expressly permitted by the terms of the written agreement, and nothing contained in this paragraph authorizes the collection of additional interest with respect to any portion of a loan which was repaid prior to the effective date of an interest rate adjustment.

535.5 Penalty for usury.
If it is ascertained in an action brought on a contract that a rate of interest has been contracted for, directly or indirectly, in money or in property, greater than is authorized by this chapter, the rate shall work a forfeiture of eight cents on the hundred by the year upon the amount of the principal remaining unpaid upon the contract at the time judgment is rendered, and the court shall enter final judgment in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant for the principal sum remaining unpaid without costs, and also against the defendant and in favor of the state, to be paid to the treasurer of state for deposit in the general fund of the state, for the amount of the forfeiture. If unlawful interest is contracted for the plaintiff shall have judgment for more than the principal sum, whether the unlawful interest is incorporated with the principal or not.

535.7 Assignee of usurious contract.
Any assignee of a usurious contract, becoming such in good faith in the usual course of business and without notice of such fact, may recover of the usurer the full amount of the consideration paid by the assignee therefor, less any sum that may have been realized on the contract, anything in this chapter contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

535.8 Loan charges limited.

1. As used in this section, the term "loan" means a loan of money which is wholly or in part to be used for the purpose of purchasing real property which is a single-family or a two-family dwelling occupied or to be occupied by the borrower. "Loan" includes the refinancing of a contract of sale, and the refinancing of a prior loan, whether or not the borrower also was the borrower under the prior loan, and the assumption of a prior loan.

2. a. A lender may collect, in connection with a loan made pursuant to a written agreement executed by the borrower on or after July 1, 1983, or in connection with a loan made pursuant to a written commitment by the lender mailed or delivered to the borrower on or after that date, a loan processing fee which does not exceed two percent of an amount which is equal to the loan principal; except that to the extent that the loan principal is used to further a purpose of purchasing real property which is a single-family or a two-family dwelling occupied or to be occupied by the borrower, a loan processing fee which does not exceed one-half of an amount which is a reasonable estimate of the expenses of processing the loan assumption or refinancing but which does not exceed one percent of the unpaid balance of the loan that is assumed or refinanced. In addition, a lender may collect from a borrower, a seller of property, another lender, or any other person, or from any combination of these persons, in contemplation of or in connection with a loan, a commitment fee, closing fee, or both, that is agreed to in writing by the lender and the persons from whom the charges are to be collected. A loan fee collected under this paragraph is compensation to the lender solely for the use of money, notwithstanding any provision of the agreement to the contrary. However, a loan fee collected under this paragraph shall be disregarded for purposes of determining the maximum charge permitted by section 535.2 or 535.9, subsection 2. The collection in connection with a loan of a loan origination fee, closing fee, commitment fee, or similar charge is prohibited other than expressly authorized by this paragraph or a payment reduction fee authorized by subsection 3.

b. A lender may collect in connection with a loan any of the following costs which are incurred by the lender in connection with the loan and which are disclosed to the borrower:

1. Credit reports.
2. Appraisal fees paid to a third party, or when the appraisal is performed by the lender, a fee which is a reasonable estimate of the expense incurred by the lender in performing the appraisal.
3. Attorney’s opinions.
4. Abstracting fees paid to a third party, or when the abstracting is performed by the lender, a fee which is a reasonable estimate of the expense incurred by the lender in performing the abstracting.
5. County recorder’s fees.
6. Inspection fees.
7. Mortgage guarantee insurance charge.
8. Surveying of property.
10. The cost of a title guaranty issued by the Iowa finance authority pursuant to chapter 220.

The lender shall not charge the borrower for the cost of revenue stamps or real estate commissions which are paid by the seller. Collection of any cost other than as expressly permitted by this lettered paragraph is prohibited.

c. If the purpose of the loan is to enable the borrower to purchase a single-family or two-family dwelling, for the borrower’s residence, any provision of a loan agreement which prohibits the borrower from transferring the borrower’s interest in the property to a third party for use by the third party as the third party’s residence, or any provision which requires or permits the lender to make a change in the interest rate, the repayment schedule or the term of the loan as a result of a transfer by the borrower of the borrower’s interest in the property to a third party for use by the third party as the third party’s residence shall not be enforceable except as provided in the following sentence. If the lender on reasonable grounds believes that its security interest or the likelihood of repayment is impaired, based solely on criteria which is not more restrictive than that used to evaluate a new mortgage loan application, the lender may accelerate the loan, or to offset any such impairment, may adjust the interest rate, the repayment schedule or the term of the loan. A provision of a loan agreement which violates this paragraph is void.

d. If a lender collects a fee or charge which is prohibited by paragraph “a” or “b” of this subsection or which exceeds the amount permitted by paragraph “a” or “b” of this subsection, the person from whom the fee was collected has the right to recover the unlawful fee or charge or the unlawful portion of the fee or charge, plus attorney fees and costs incurred in any action necessary to effect recovery.

e. Notwithstanding section 628.3 when a foreclosure of a mortgage on real property results from the enforcement of a due-on-sale clause, the mortgagor may redeem the real property at any time within three years from the day of sale under the levy, and the mortgagor shall, in the meantime, be entitled to the possession thereof; and for the first thirty months thereafter such right of redemption is exclusive. Any real property redeemed by the debtor shall thereafter be free and clear from any liability for any unpaid portion of the judgment under which the real property was sold. The right of redemption established by this paragraph is not subject to waiver by the mortgagor and the period of redemption established by this paragraph shall not be reduced. The times for redemption by creditors provided in sections 628.5, 628.15 and 628.16 shall be extended to thirty-three months in any case in which the mortgagor’s period for redemption is extended by this paragraph. This paragraph does not apply to foreclosure of a mortgage if for any reason other than enforcement of a due-on-sale clause. As used in this paragraph, “due-on-sale clause” means any type of covenant which gives the mortgagee the right to demand payment of the outstanding balance or a major part thereof upon a transfer by the mortgagor to a third party of an interest of the mortgagor in property covered by the mortgage. This paragraph applies to any foreclosure occurring on or after May 10, 1980. However, this paragraph does not apply if the lender establishes, based on reasonable criteria which are not more restrictive than those used to evaluate new mortgage-loan applications, that the security interest or the likelihood of repayment is impaired as a result of the transfer of interest.

This lettered paragraph applies only to a mortgage given in connection with a loan as defined in subsection 1 of this section.

3. A lender who offers to make a loan with only those fees authorized by subsection 2 may also offer in exchange for the payment of an interest reduction fee to make a loan on all of the same terms except at a lower interest rate and with the lower payments resulting from the lower interest rate. Prior to accepting an application for a loan which includes a payment reduction fee, the lender shall provide the potential borrower with a written disclosure describing in plain language the specific terms which the loan would have both with the payment reduction fee and without it. This disclosure shall include a good faith example showing the amount of the payment reduction fee and the reduction in payments which would result from the payment of this fee in a typical loan transaction. A payment reduction fee which complies with this subsection may be collected in connection with a loan in addition to the fees authorized by subsection 2.

4. A lender shall not, as a condition of making a loan as defined in this section, require the borrower to place money, or to place property other than that which is given as security for the loan, on deposit with or in the possession or control of the lender or some other person if the effect is to increase the yield to the lender with respect to that loan; provided that this subsection shall not prohibit a lender from requiring the borrower to deposit money without interest with the lender in an escrow account for the payment of insurance premiums, property taxes and special assessments payable by the borrower to third persons. Any lender who requires an escrow account shall not violate the provisions of section 507B.5, subsection 1, paragraph "a".

5. If any lender receives interest either in a manner or in an amount which is prohibited by subsection 4 of this section, the borrower shall have the right to recover all amounts collected or earned by the lender, whether or not from the borrower, in violation of this section, plus attorney fees, plus court costs incurred in any action necessary to effect such recovery.

6. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any loan which is subject to the provisions of section 682.46, nor shall it apply to origination fees, administrative fees, commitment fees or similar charges paid by one lender to another lender if these fees are not ultimately paid either directly or indirectly by the borrower who occupies or will occupy the dwelling or by the seller of the dwelling.

A lender shall not use an appraisal for any purpose in connection with making a loan under this section if the appraisal is performed by a person who is employed by or affiliated with any person receiving a commission or fee from the seller of the property. If a lender violates this paragraph the borrower is entitled to recover any actual damages plus the costs paid by the borrower, plus attorney fees incurred in an action necessary to effect recovery.

535.9 Prepayment penalties on loans secured by real estate mortgages prohibited.

1. As used in this section, "loan" means a loan of money which is wholly or in part to be used for the purpose of purchasing real property which is a single-family or a two-family dwelling occupied or to be occupied by the borrower, or for the purpose of purchasing agricultural land. "Loan" includes the refinancing of a contract of sale, and the refinancing of a prior loan, whether or not the borrower also was the borrower under the prior loan, and the assumption of a prior loan.

2. Whenever a borrower under a loan prepays part or all of the outstanding balance of the loan the lender shall not receive an amount in payment of interest which is greater than the amount determined by applying the rate of interest agreed upon by the lender and the borrower to the unpaid balance of the loan for a period of time during which the borrower had the use of the money loaned; and the lender shall not impose any penalty or other charge in addition to the amount of interest due as a result of the repayment of that loan at a date earlier than is required by the terms of the loan agreement. A lender may, however, require advance notice of not more than thirty days of a borrower's intent to repay the entire outstanding balance of a loan if the payment of that balance, together with any partial prepayments made previously by the borrower, will result in the repayment of the loan at a date earlier than is required by the terms of the loan agreement.

3. If any lender receives an amount of interest greater than permitted by subsection 2 of this section, or imposes any penalty or other charge prohibited by subsection 2 of this section, the borrower shall have the right to recover all amounts paid the lender which are in excess of the amounts permitted by subsection 2 of this section, plus attorney's fees and court costs incurred in any action necessary to effect such recovery.

535.10 Home equity line of credit.

1. As used in this chapter, the term "home equity line of credit" means an arrangement pursuant to which all of the following are applicable:

a. The amounts borrowed and the interest and other charges are debited to an account.

b. The interest is computed on the account periodically.

c. The borrower has the right to pay in full at any time without penalty or to pay in the installments which are established by the loan agreement.

d. The lender agrees to permit the borrower to borrow money from time to time with the maximum amount of each borrowing established by the loan agreement, provided that the minimum amount of each borrowing shall not be less than five hundred dollars.

e. The account is secured by an interest in real estate. The priority of the secured interest in the real estate shall be determined by section 654.12A.

2. Except as provided in this section, a home equity line of credit is subject to chapter 537. However, sections 537.2307, 537.2402, and 537.2510 do not apply.

3. A lender may collect in connection with establishing or renewing a home equity line of credit the costs listed in section 535.8, subsection 2, paragraph "b", charges for insurance as described in section 537.2501, subsection 2, and a loan processing fee as agreed between the borrower and the lender, and annually may collect an account maintenance fee of not more than fifteen dollars. Fees collected under this subsection shall be disregarded for purposes of determining the maximum charge permitted by subsection 4.

4. The interest rate on a home equity line of credit shall not exceed one and three-quarters percent per month.

5. Real estate which is the consumer's principal dwelling shall not be subject to foreclosure when the balance secured is $2000 or less.

84 Acts, ch 1272, §1

535.11 Finance charge on accounts receivable.

1. Except where the parties have agreed in writing for the payment of a different finance charge or rate of interest, a creditor may charge a finance charge on the unpaid balances of an account receivable at a rate not exceeding that permitted by subsection 3 or 4 of this section if the creditor gives notice as required by subsection 2 of this section.

2. As a condition of imposing a finance charge under this section, the creditor shall give notice to the debtor as follows:
   a. In a transaction that is subject to the Truth in Lending Act, the creditor shall give all disclosures as required by that Act and at the time or times required by that Act.
   b. In a transaction that is not subject to the Truth in Lending Act, the creditor shall give written notice to the debtor at the time the debt arises. The notice shall be contained on the invoice or bill of sale evidencing the credit transaction, and shall disclose the rate of the finance charge and the date or day of the month before which payment must be received if the finance charge is to be avoided. With respect to open accounts, this notice shall be given at the time credit is initially extended; provided that additional advance notice in writing shall be given to the debtor not less than ninety days prior to any change in the terms of the agreement or of rate of the finance charge or date payment is due. For purposes of this paragraph, notice is given if the invoice or bill of sale is delivered with the goods, whether or not the debtor is present at the time of delivery.
   c. As used in this subsection, “Truth in Lending Act” means as defined in section 537.1302.

3. With respect to an account other than an open account, the creditor may impose a finance charge not exceeding that permitted by section 537.2201, subsections 2 to 5.

4. With respect to an open account, the creditor may impose a finance charge not exceeding that permitted by section 537.2202, subsections 2 and 3.

5. As used in this section, “finance charge” means as defined in section 537.1301; and “account receivable” means a debt arising from the retail sale of goods or services or both on credit; and “open account” means an account receivable consisting of debt arising from the extension of open-end credit, as defined in section 537.1301.

6. This section does not supersede any of the provisions of chapter 537, except that section 537.3212 does not apply to a consumer credit transaction in which a finance charge is imposed under this section. This section does not authorize the compounding of a finance charge.

7. The finance charge authorized by this section is in lieu of interest or a finance charge authorized under section 535.2, subsection 1 or any other provision of law. The rate of a finance charge imposed pursuant to this section is applicable to a judgment in an action on the account, notwithstanding section 535.3.

8. If a creditor imposes a finance charge in violation of this section, the debtor shall have the right to recover all amounts unlawfully received by the creditor as finance charges, plus attorney’s fees and court costs incurred in any action to effect recovery. This subsection does not limit remedies which may be available under chapter 537.

535.12 Loans by agricultural credit corporation.

1. An agricultural credit corporation, as defined in subsection 4 of this section, may lend money pursuant to a written promissory note or other writing evidencing the loan obligation, at a rate of interest which is not more than four percentage points above the lending rate in effect at the federal intermediate credit bank of Omaha, Nebraska, for the month during which the writing evidencing the loan obligation is made, provided that the loan is for an agricultural production purpose as defined in subsection 5 of this section and further provided that the loan would, but for this section, be subject to the maximum rate of interest prescribed by section 535.2, subsection 3, paragraph “a”.

2. On or prior to the first day of each calendar month following June 13, 1980, the superintendent of banking shall determine the maximum rate of interest which may be charged pursuant to subsection 1 of this section on loans made by an agricultural credit corporation during that month, and shall cause the maximum rate to be published as soon after determination as possible, as a notice in the Iowa Administrative Bulletin or as a legal notice in a newspaper of general circulation published in Polk county. The maximum rate so determined shall be effective as provided in subsection 1 of this section regardless of the date of publication of the notice, except that no agricultural credit corporation shall be found in violation of this chapter solely on account of having made a loan on or prior to the day on which a notice of a maximum rate is published as provided in this subsection, if the loan would have been lawful if made during the preceding calendar month.

3. This section does not prohibit an agricultural credit corporation from lending money as otherwise permitted by law.

4. As used in this section, “agricultural credit corporation” means a corporation which has been designated by the federal intermediate credit bank of Omaha, Nebraska, as an agricultural credit corporation eligible to sell or discount loans to that bank pursuant to the provisions of 12 United States Code, §2074.

5. As used in this section “agricultural production purpose” means a purpose related to the production of agricultural products. “Agricultural products” includes agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, and dairy products, livestock, wildlife, poultry, bees, forest products thereof, and any and all products produced on farms.

535.13 Definition.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, “agricultural purpose” means a purpose related to the production, harvest, exhibition, marketing, transportation, processing or manufacture of agricultural products by a person who cultivates, plants, propagates or nurtures the agricultural products. “Agricultural products” includes agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, and dairy products, livestock, wildlife, poultry, bees, forest products, fish and shellfish, and any products thereof, including processed and manufactured products, and any and all products raised or produced on farms and any processed or manufactured products thereof.

535.14 Reserved.

535.15 Open-end credit, credit card, financial services disclosure.
1. As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:
   b. “Financial service” means a checking account, savings account, electronic funds transfer card, and credit card services offered to a retailer.
   c. “Credit card”, “finance charge”, and “open-end credit” mean as defined in section 537.1301.

2. A financial institution which accepts an application for open-end credit from a person who resides in this state shall annually disclose pursuant to this section the following information for each type of open-end account granted:
   a. The annual percentage rate charged on the open-end credit account.
   b. The amount of fee charged or assessed, if any, by the person as a condition for granting or opening the open-end credit account and the frequency the fee is assessed.
   c. A description of when the finance charge begins to accrue against charges made on the open-end credit account.

3. A person who accepts an application for a credit card from a person who resides in this state shall annually disclose the following information for each type of credit card granted, unless the information is disclosed under subsection 1:
   a. The annual percentage rate charged on the credit card.
   b. The amount of fee charged or assessed, if any, by the person as a condition for issuing the credit card and the frequency the fee is assessed.
   c. A description of when the finance charge begins to accrue against charges made on the credit card.

4. A financial institution shall disclose all of the following information for each type of financial service offered by the financial institution:
   a. The fee charged, if any, and the frequency the fee is to be levied including but not limited to the following types of fees:
      (1) Regular periodic fees.
      (2) Transaction fees.
      (3) Returned check fees.
      (4) Stop payment fees.
      (5) Start-up fees.
   b. The conditions under which any fee disclosed is imposed.
   c. The procedures, if any, by which a person may have a fee waived at the discretion of the financial institution.
   d. Any discount program or special services offered or available in conjunction with a financial service.

5. A person who is obligated to disclose information under this section shall file a written report disclosing the information with the treasurer of state by January 1 of each year. If a person filing under this section makes any changes subsequent to January 1 but prior to July 1 to any of the information for which disclosure is required, the person shall file an amended written report with the treasurer of state by July 1 following the change.

6. The treasurer of state shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement this section including, but not limited to, both of the following:
   a. Procedures for receiving the reports.
   b. Procedures for publicizing and making the information filed readily available to the public.

86 Acts, ch 1085, §1

535.16 Delivery of copies of debt documents.
A lender or other secured party shall provide to a debtor, at the time a document relating to a debt is signed, a copy of the document signed by the debtor.

Receipt of a copy required by this section may be acknowledged anywhere on the document or on a separate acknowledgement of receipt.

A lender or other secured party shall provide to a debtor copies of all documents signed by the debtor relating to the debt at any other time, upon request, for a charge that shall not exceed the reasonable cost of copying the document.

CHAPTER 535A

MORTGAGE LOANS — RED-LINING

535A.1 Definitions.

For purposes of this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Red-lining" means the practice by which a financial institution may designate certain areas as unsuitable for the making of mortgage loans and reject applications for mortgage loans or vary the terms of a mortgage loan upon property within that area because of the prevailing income, racial or ethnic characteristics of the area, or because of the age of the structures in the area.

2. "Mortgage loan" means a loan for the purchase, construction, improvement or rehabilitation of residential property containing or to contain four or fewer family dwelling units in which the property is used as security for the loan.

3. "Financial institution" means any bank, credit union, insurance company, mortgage banking company or savings and loan association, industrial loan company, or like institution or any other person who makes mortgage loans and which operates or has a place of business in this state. "Financial institution" does not include an individual who makes less than five mortgage loans a year.

4. "Reporting financial institution" means a financial institution which is required to file a mortgage loan disclosure statement.

5. "Vary the terms of a mortgage loan" includes, but is not limited to the following:
   a. Requiring a greater than average down payment than is usual for the particular type of mortgage loan involved.
   b. Requiring a shorter period of amortization than is usual for the particular type of mortgage loan involved.
   c. Charging a higher interest rate or higher loan origination fees than is usual for the particular type of mortgage loan involved.
   d. An unreasonable underappraisal of real estate or item of property offered as security.

535A.2 Discriminatory — real estate mortgages.

It is a discriminatory practice for any financial institution accepting mortgage loan applications to engage in the practice of red-lining as defined in section 535A.1.

535A.3 Discretion of financial institution.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall preclude a financial institution from applying economically sound underwriting practices in contemplation of any mortgage loan to any person. Such practices shall include but are not limited to the following:

1. The willingness and the financial ability of the borrower to repay the mortgage loan.
2. The appraised value of any real estate or other item of property proposed as security for any mortgage loan.
3. Diversification of the financial institution's investment portfolio.

535A.4 Disclosure.

Each reporting financial institution shall file a copy of its mortgage loan disclosure statement with the Iowa finance authority by March 31 following the calendar year covered by the mortgage loan disclosure statement. The filing satisfies all reporting requirements under this chapter. The maintenance of records sufficient to prepare this report satisfies the recordkeeping requirements of this chapter.

535A.5 Agency to administer.

Sections 535A.2 and 535A.4 shall be administered and enforced by the following agencies:

1. The superintendent of banking or the superintendent's designee shall enforce the sections in regard to banks, persons licensed under chapter 536A, and mortgage banking companies.
2. The superintendent of savings and loan associations shall enforce the sections in regard to savings and loan associations pursuant to chapter 534.
3. The commissioner of insurance or the commissioner's designee shall be responsible for enforcing those sections pursuant to chapter 505 in regard to all insurance companies.
4. The superintendent of credit unions or a designee shall be responsible for enforcing those sections in regard to all credit unions.
[C79, 81, §535A.5] 88 Acts, ch 1134, §96

535A.6 Action for damages.
Any person who has been aggrieved as a result of a violation of sections 535A.1 to 535A.9 may bring an action in the district court of the county in which the violation occurred or in the county where the financial institution involved is located.
Upon a finding that a financial institution has committed a violation of either section 535A.2, 535A.4, or 535A.9 the court may award actual damages, court costs and attorney fees.
[C79, 81, §535A.6] 85 Acts, ch 238, §2

535A.7 Criminal penalty.
Any person who knowingly engages in a practice which violates the provisions of section 535A.2, 535A.4 or 535A.9 is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.
[C79, 81, §535A.7] 85 Acts, ch 238, §3

535A.8 Civil penalty.
Any person who in bad faith fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter is subject to punitive damages not to exceed one thousand dollars in addition to actual damages as set forth in section 535A.6.
[C79, 81, §535A.8]

535A.9 Tying arrangements prohibited.
1. A financial institution which makes or offers to make real estate mortgage loans shall not:
   a. Grant or offer to grant a loan on the prior condition, that the borrower is required to contract with any specific person or organization for either of the following:
      (1) Services of a real estate agent or broker.
      (2) Insurance services as an agent, broker, or underwriter.
   b. Use confidential credit status information that is used for qualifying a person for the purchase of real property for solicitation purposes either directly or indirectly by an affiliate subsidiary.
   c. Attempt or permit a real estate or insurance subsidiary to attempt to create the impression in its advertising or in any communication that the customers of the subsidiary shall have priority access to the funds of the financial institution or are entitled to preferential interest rates or other terms.
2. This section does not apply to the Iowa finance authority or a program operated pursuant to chapter 220.

535A.12 Title guaranty program disclosed.

CHAPTER 535B
MORTGAGE BANKERS AND BROKERS

535B.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:
1. "Mortgage banker" means a person who does one or more of the following:
   a. Makes at least four first mortgage loans on residential real property located in this state in a calendar year.
   b. Originates at least four first mortgage loans on residential real property located in this state in a calendar year and sells four or more such loans in the secondary market.
   c. Licenses of foreign corporation.
   d. Licensing of foreign corporation.
   e. Operation of a mortgage bank in this state.

535B.2 Exemptions.

535B.3 Registration.

535B.4 General licensing requirements.

535B.5 Granting and denial of license.

535B.6 Licensing of foreign corporation.

535B.7 Suspension or revocation of license.

535B.8 Operating without a license.

535B.9 Bonds required of license applicant.

535B.10 Investigations and examinations.

535B.11 Servicing mortgages and payoffs.

535B.12 Payment processing.

535B.13 Enforcement.

535B.14 Rulemaking authority.

535B.15 Liability of state.
c. Services first mortgage loans on residential real property located in this state.

2. "Mortgage broker" means a person who arranges or negotiates, or attempts to arrange or negotiate, at least four first mortgage loans or commitments for four or more such loans on residential real property located in this state in a calendar year.

3. "Residential real property" means real property, which is an owner-occupied single-family or two-family dwelling, located in this state, occupied or used or intended to be occupied or used for residential purposes, including an interest in any real property covered under chapter 499B.

4. "Person" means an individual, an association, joint venture or joint stock company, partnership, limited partnership, business corporation, nonprofit corporation, or any other group of individuals however organized.

5. "Licensee" means a person licensed under this chapter; however, any individual who is acting solely as an employee or agent of a mortgage banker or broker licensed under this Act need not be separately licensed.

6. "Administrator" means the superintendent of the division of savings and loans of the department of commerce.

7. "First mortgage loan" means a loan of money secured by a first lien on residential real property and includes a refinancing of a contract of sale, an assumption of a prior loan, and a refinancing of a prior loan.

88 Acts, ch 1146, §1

535B.2 Exemptions.
This chapter, except for sections 535B.11, 535B.12, and 535B.13, does not apply to any of the following:
1. A national bank.
2. A federally chartered savings and loan association.
3. A federally chartered savings bank.
4. A federally chartered credit union.
5. A loan company licensed under chapter 536 or 536A.
6. A bank organized under chapter 524.
7. A savings and loan association or savings bank organized under chapter 534.
8. A credit union organized under chapter 533.
9. An insurance company organized under the laws of this state and subject to regulation by the commissioner of insurance.
10. A wholly owned subsidiary of an organization listed in subsections 1 through 9 if the listed organization has its principal place of business in Iowa.
11. A bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or insurance company organized or chartered under the laws of any other state provided the financial institution or insurance company has a place of business in Iowa.
12. Mortgage lenders of mortgage bankers maintaining an office in this state whose principal business in this state is conducted with or through mortgage lenders or mortgage bankers otherwise exempt under this section and which maintain a place of business in this state.

88 Acts, ch 1146, §2

1. A person exempt under section 535B.2, subsection 10, 11, or 12, shall register with the administrator.
2. A registrant shall submit to the administrator a registration statement on forms provided by the administrator. The forms shall include all addresses at which business is to be conducted, the names and titles of each director and principal officer of the business, and a description of the activities of the applicant in such detail as the administrator may require.
3. The registrant shall pay a fifty-dollar registration fee.
4. A registration under this chapter is not assignable.

88 Acts, ch 1146, §3

535B.4 General licensing requirements.
1. A person shall not act as a mortgage banker or mortgage broker in this state or use the title "mortgage banker" or "mortgage broker" without first obtaining a license from the administrator.
2. License applicants shall submit to the administrator an application on forms provided by the administrator. The forms shall include, at a minimum, all addresses at which business is to be conducted, the names and titles of each director and principal officers of the business, and a description of the activities of the applicant in such detail as the administrator may require.
3. The applicant shall also submit a recently prepared certified financial statement.
4. The applicant for an initial license shall submit a fee in the amount of five hundred dollars.
5. Licenses granted under this chapter are not assignable.
6. Licenses granted under this chapter expire on the next June 30 after their issuance.
7. Applications for renewals of licenses under this chapter must be filed with the administrator before June 1 of the year of expiration and must be accompanied by a fee of two hundred dollars.

88 Acts, ch 1146, §4

535B.5 Granting and denial of license.
1. Upon the filing of an application for a license, if the administrator finds that the financial responsibility, character, and general fitness of the applicant and of the members thereof if the applicant is a partnership, association, or other organization and of the officers, directors, and principal employees if the applicant is a corporation, are such as to warrant belief that the business will be operated honestly, soundly, and efficiently in the public interest consistent with the purposes of this chapter, the administrator shall issue the applicant a license to engage in mortgage lending, brokering, and servicing. The administrator shall approve or deny an application for a license within ninety days after the filing of the application for a license.

2. If the administrator does not so find, the license shall not be issued, and the administrator shall notify the applicant in writing of the denial and the reasons for the denial.

88 Acts, ch 1146, §5

535B.6 Licensing of foreign corporation.

An applicant that is a foreign corporation must be authorized to do business in this state. A foreign corporation shall file with the license application both of the following:

1. An irrevocable consent, duly acknowledged, that suits and actions may be commenced against that licensee in the courts of this state by service of process in the usual manner provided for by the statutes and court rules of this state.

2. Proof of authorization to do business in this state.

88 Acts, ch 1146, §6

535B.7 Suspension or revocation of license.

1. The administrator may, pursuant to chapter 17A, suspend or revoke any license issued pursuant to this chapter if the administrator finds any of the following:

a. The licensee has violated a provision of this chapter or a rule adopted under this chapter or any other state or federal law applicable to the conduct of its business including but not limited to chapters 535 and 535A.

b. A fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for the license, would have warranted the administrator to refuse originally to issue the license.

c. The licensee is found upon investigation to be insolvent, in which case the license shall be revoked immediately.

2. The administrator may order an emergency suspension of a licensee's license pursuant to section 17A.18, subsection 3. A written order containing the facts or conduct which warrants the emergency action shall be timely sent to the licensee by restricted mail. Upon issuance of the suspension order, the licensee must also be notified of the right to an evidentiary hearing. A suspension proceeding shall be promptly instituted and determined.

Except as provided in this section, a license shall not be revoked or suspended except after notice and a hearing thereon in accordance with chapter 17A.

3. A licensee may surrender a license by delivering to the administrator written notice of surrender, but a surrender does not affect the licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed before the surrender.

4. A revocation, suspension, or surrender of a license does not impair or affect the obligation of a preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and any person, including a mortgagor.

88 Acts, ch 1146, §7

535B.8 Operating without a license.

A person, who without first obtaining a license under this chapter, engages in the business or occupation of, or advertises or holds the person out as, or claims to be, or temporarily acts as, a mortgage banker or mortgage broker in this state is guilty of a class "D" felony and may be prosecuted by the attorney general or a county attorney.

535B.9 Bonds required of license applicant.

An applicant for a license shall file with the administrator one of the following:

1. A current certified financial statement evidencing a net worth of one million dollars or more.

2. A bond in the amount of fifty thousand dollars, furnished by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The bond shall be for the use of the state and any persons who may have causes of action against the applicant. The bond shall be conditioned upon the applicant's faithfully conforming to and abiding by this chapter and any rules adopted under this chapter and shall require that the surety pay to the state and to any persons all moneys that become due or owing to the state and to the persons from the applicant by virtue of this chapter.

88 Acts, ch 1146, §9

535B.10 Investigations and examinations.

1. Within one hundred twenty days after the end of a licensee's fiscal year, the licensee shall file financial statements which are certified by an independent accounting firm.

2. For the purposes of discovering violations of this chapter or any rules adopted under this chapter or for securing information lawfully required under this chapter, the administrator may at any time and as often as the administrator deems necessary, investigate the business and examine the books, accounts, records, and files used by a licensee. However, if the financial statement required by subsection 1 shows that the licensee satisfies the minimum net worth requirement necessary to be an approved mortgagee by the United States department of housing and urban development pursuant to its guidelines, as amended, the licensee is not subject to an investigation or examination as described in this subsection.

3. Notwithstanding subsection 2, all licensees are subject to limited examination by the administrator to investigate complaints or alleged violations about the licensee made to the administrator. Such investigation or examination by the administrator shall be restricted to acquiring information from the licensee relevant to the alleged violations.

4. In conducting any examination under this section, the administrator may rely on current reports made by the licensee which have been prepared for the following federal agencies or federally related entities:

a. United States department of housing and urban development.

b. Federal housing administration.

c. Federal national mortgage association.

d. Government national mortgage association.

e. Federal home loan mortgage corporation.
§535B.10, MORTGAGE BANKERS AND BROKERS

f. Veterans administration.

5. With respect to mortgage lenders or mortgage bankers who are specifically exempted from this chapter but are subject to sections 535B.11, 535B.12, and 535B.13, the powers of examination and investigation concerning compliance with sections 535B.11, 535B.12, and 535B.13 shall be exercised by the official or agency to whose supervision the exempted person is subject. If the administrator receives a complaint or other information concerning noncompliance with this chapter by an exempted person, the administrator shall inform the official or agency having supervisory authority over that person.

6. The total charge for an examination or investigation shall be paid by the licensee to the administrator within thirty days after the administrator has requested payment. The administrator may by rule provide for a charge for late payment of the fee. The amount of the fee shall be based on the actual costs of the examination as determined by the administrator. Examination reports and correspondence regarding these reports shall be kept confidential except as provided in this subsection, notwithstanding chapter 22. The administrator may release the reports and correspondence in the course of an enforcement proceeding or a hearing held by the administrator. The administrator may also provide this information to the attorney general for purposes of enforcing this chapter or the consumer fraud Act.

535B.11 Servicing mortgages and payoffs.

A licensee or other mortgagee who services mortgages on residential real estate located in this state shall do all of the following:

1. Disburse required funds paid by the mortgagor and held in escrow for the payment of real estate taxes and insurance payments no later than their final due date.

2. Pay penalties incurred by the mortgagor due to the licensee’s or mortgagee’s failure to meet the due dates referred to in subsection 1 unless the licensee or mortgagee can show that the failure was due solely to the fact that the mortgagor received a statement of the amount due more than fifteen days before the due date and has failed to remit it to the licensee or mortgagee.

3. Perform a complete escrow analysis yearly. A clear and legible copy of the yearly analysis shall be promptly mailed to the mortgagor. If there is a change in the payment amount, the analysis shall be mailed at least twenty days before the effective date of the change. The summary shall contain all of the following information:
   a. The name and address of the mortgagor.
   b. The name and address of the mortgagee.
   c. A summary of escrow account activity during the year which includes all of the following:
      (1) The balance of the escrow account at the beginning of the year.

(2) The aggregate amount of deposits to the escrow account during the year.

(3) The aggregate amount of withdrawals from the escrow account for each of the following categories:
   a. Payments against loan principal.
   b. Payments against interest.
   c. Payments against real estate taxes.
   d. Payments for real property insurance premiums.
   e. All other withdrawals.

(4) A summary of loan principal for the year as follows:
   a. The amount of principal outstanding at the beginning of the year.
   b. The aggregate amount of payments against principal during the year.
   c. The amount of principal outstanding at the end of the year.

Compliance with sections 524.905, 533.16, 534.206, and 536A.20 shall constitute compliance with this subsection.

4. Answer in writing, within ten business days of receipt, any written request for payoff information received from a mortgagor or the mortgagor’s designated representative.

5. Execute and deliver a release after payoff and within forty-five days after receipt of correct payment. If the licensee or mortgagee fails to execute and deliver a release of lien to the mortgagor or the mortgagor’s designated representative, the mortgagor or the mortgagor’s designated representative may notify in writing the administrator and any other official to whom the mortgagor is primarily subject. The administrator shall promptly mail by certified mail to the licensee or mortgagee a notice stating that the licensee or mortgagee must both release the mortgage and deliver the release to the administrator within fifteen days of receipt of said notice or face a penalty as provided in this section. If the licensee or mortgagee fails to make the release and deliver it to the administrator, the administrator may assess a penalty not to exceed fifty dollars for each day of delinquency after the fifteen days. The administrator may waive the penalty if the administrator finds the failure was not intentional and resulted from bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid error.

6. If a person in connection with a first mortgage loan has possession of an abstract of title and fails to deliver the abstract to the borrower within twenty calendar days of the borrower’s request made by certified mail return receipt requested in connection with a proposed sale of the property, then the borrower may authorize the preparation of a new abstract of title to the property and the person failing to deliver the original abstract shall pay to the borrower the reasonable costs of preparation. If the borrower brings an action against the person failing to deliver to recover such payment and in the action recovers the payment, then the borrower shall also be entitled to recover attorney fees and court costs incurred in the action.
88 Acts, ch 1146, §11

535B.12 Payment processing.
A licensee or other mortgagee shall not assess a late charge if full payment is received before the date late charges are authorized in the mortgage documents and shall post all periodic payments in full within two business days of receipt.
88 Acts, ch 1146, §12

535B.13 Enforcement.
1. The administrator has cease and desist powers as follows:
   a. For the purposes of this subsection, “administrator” means either the superintendent of savings and loans or the official or agency charged with enforcing this chapter, or parts thereof, against the person under investigation.
   b. If the administrator has reason to believe that a person has been or is in violation of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, after notice and hearing, the administrator may order a person to cease and desist from violating any provision of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter.
   c. The administrator, upon such hearing, may administer oaths, examine and cross-examine witnesses, receive evidence, and shall have the power to subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, and require the production of all records or other documents which the administrator deems relevant to the inquiry. In case of a refusal of a person to comply with a subpoena issued under this section or to testify with respect to any matter relevant to the proceeding, on application of the administrator, the district court of Polk county may issue an order requiring the person to comply with the subpoena and to testify. A failure to obey an order of the court to comply with the subpoena may be punished by the court as a civil contempt. A cease and desist hearing need not observe any formal rules of pleading or evidence.
   d. If after the hearing, the administrator finds that the person charged has violated this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter, the administrator shall issue written findings, a copy of which shall be served upon the person charged with the violations, along with an order requiring the person to cease and desist from engaging in the violations.
   e. A person aggrieved by a cease and desist order of the administrator may obtain judicial review of the order and the administrator may obtain an order of the Polk county district court for the enforcement of the cease and desist order.
   f. A proceeding for review must be initiated within thirty days after the aggrieved person receives the cease and desist order. If no proceeding is initiated, the administrator may obtain a decree of the Polk county district court for enforcement of the cease and desist order.
   g. A person who violates a cease and desist order of the administrator may, after notice and hearing, and upon further order of the administrator, be subject to a penalty of not more than five thousand dollars for each act or violation of the cease and desist order.
2. The administrator may request the attorney general to enforce the provisions of this chapter. A civil enforcement action by the attorney general may be filed in equity in either the county in which the violation occurred or Polk county. A civil enforcement action by the attorney general may seek any or all of the following:
   a. Temporary and permanent injunctive relief.
   b. Restitution for a mortgagor aggrieved by a violation of this chapter.
   c. Costs for the investigation and prosecution of the enforcement action including attorneys fees.
3. This chapter does not limit the power of the attorney general to determine that any other practice is unlawful under the Iowa consumer fraud Act, section 714.16, and to file an action under that section.
88 Acts, ch 1146, §13

535B.14 Rulemaking authority.
The administrator may adopt, amend, or repeal rules to aid in the administration and enforcement of this chapter.
88 Acts, ch 1146, §14

535B.15 Liability of state.
An act or omission by the state pursuant to this chapter including, but not limited to, an examination, inspection, audit, or other financial oversight responsibility shall not subject the state to liability.
88 Acts, ch 1146, §15
CHAPTER 535C

IOWA LOAN BROKERS ACT

535C.1 Title.
This chapter may be cited as the “Iowa Loan Brokers Act”
83 Acts, ch 146, §1

535C.2 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires 1 “Loan broker” or “broker” means a person who, in return for consideration to be paid by the borrower before the loan broker or broker has obtained a loan for the borrower or has made a commitment to make a loan, agrees to do either of the following
a. Obtain a loan for the borrower or assist the borrower in obtaining a loan
b. Consider making a loan to the borrower
2 “Loan” means an agreement to advance money or property in return for the promise that payments will be made for use of the money or property
3 “Loan brokerage agreement” or “agreement” means a written agreement in which a broker agrees to do either of the following
a. Obtain a loan for the borrower or assist the borrower in obtaining a loan
b. Consider making a loan to the borrower
4 “Borrower” means a person who seeks the services of a loan broker
5 “Administrator” means the commissioner of insurance or the deputy appointed under section 502 601
83 Acts, ch 146, §2

535C.3 Disclosure statement required.
1 At least seven days before the borrower signs an agreement for the services of a loan broker, or at least seven days before the borrower gives the broker any consideration, whichever first occurs, the broker shall give the borrower a written disclosure statement. The cover sheet of the statement shall have printed, in at least ten point boldface capital letters the title “DISCLOSURES REQUIRED BY IOWA LAW”. The following statement, printed in at least ten point type, shall appear under the title
“The state of Iowa has not reviewed and does not approve, recommend, endorse, or sponsor any loan brokerage agreement. Neither has the state verified the information contained in this disclosure. If you have questions, seek legal advice before you sign a loan brokerage agreement.”
Only the title and the statement shall appear on the cover sheet
2 The body of the document shall contain the following information in the following order
a. The name of the broker, names under which the broker does, has done, or intends to do business, and the name of a parent or affiliated company, if any
b. Whether the broker does business as an individual, partnership, corporation, or any other organizational form of the broker’s business
c. How long the broker has done business
d. The number of loan brokerage agreements the broker has entered in the most recent calendar year
e. The number of loans the broker has obtained for borrowers in the most recent calendar year
f. That a financial statement is on file with the administrator
g. A description of the services the broker agrees to perform for the borrower
h. The conditions under which the borrower is obligated to pay the broker. This disclosure must be in boldface type
i. Either subparagraph (1) or (2), as appropriate
1 “As required by Iowa law, this loan broker has secured a bond by (name and address of surety company), a surety authorized to do business in Iowa. Before signing an agreement with the broker, you should check with the surety company to determine the bond’s current status.”
2 “As required by Iowa law, this loan broker has established a trust account (number of the account) with (name and address of the financial institution) Before signing an agreement with the broker, you should check with the financial institution to determine the current status of the trust account.”
j. The names, business addresses, titles and principal occupations for the past five years of all officers, directors, or persons occupying a similar position responsible for the broker’s business activities
k. Other information the administrator requires
83 Acts, ch 146, §3
§535C.4 Surety bond or trust account required. A loan broker shall obtain a surety bond or establish a trust account. The bond or account shall be in the amount of ten thousand dollars and in favor of the state of Iowa. The bond shall be issued by a surety company authorized to do business in this state. The trust account shall be established with a financial institution, as defined in section 422.61, subsection 1, located in Iowa. The administrator shall act as custodian of the bond or account for borrowers entering loan brokerage agreements with the loan broker. Only the administrator may disburse funds from the trust account. A borrower, damaged by a broker’s violation of a loan brokerage agreement entered into with the borrower or by the broker’s violation of this chapter, may bring an action against the bond or account within a time designated by the administrator and whose claims are either settled in favor of the borrower or otherwise found to be valid.

The administrator may adopt rules establishing the term and length of the surety bond or trust account.

A broker who does not obtain a bond or establish an account is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

83 Acts, ch 146, §4

§535C.5 Filing with the administrator — penalty.
1. Before advertising or making other oral or written representations, or acting as a loan broker in this state, a loan broker shall file with the administrator copies of the disclosure statement required under section 535C.3, the most recent financial statement of the broker, and either of the following:
   a. The bond required under section 535C.4.
   b. The formal notification from the financial institution that the trust account required under section 535C.4 is established.

2. The broker shall amend these filings no less than annually and, in addition, shall file amendments within forty-five days of any material change in the following:
   a. The status of the bond or account.
   b. The financial statement of the broker.
   c. Information required by the disclosure statement. A broker who does not file the copies required is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

3. The broker shall pay a fifty dollar filing fee with the initial disclosure statement filed under subsection 1. A twenty-five dollar fee shall be charged for each amendment under subsection 2.

4. The administrator shall review the disclosure statement for compliance with requirements imposed under this chapter.

5. The administrator may by order prohibit a broker from advertising, making oral or written representations, or acting as a loan broker if the order is found to be in the public interest and either of the following apply:
   a. The disclosure statement or financial statement on file is incomplete in any material respect or contains any statement which was, in light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact.
   b. The loan broker has willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with any provision of this chapter.

6. The information contained or filed under this section may be made available to the public under such rules as the administrator prescribes.

83 Acts, ch 146, §5

§535C.6 Penalties.
A broker is guilty of a serious misdemeanor for failure to do any of the following:
1. Obtain and maintain a surety bond or establish and maintain a trust account as required in section 535C.4.
2. Make accurate and timely filings as required in section 535C.5.

83 Acts, ch 146, §6

§535C.7 Written agreements required.
A loan brokerage agreement shall be in writing and signed by the broker and the borrower. The broker shall give the borrower a copy of the agreement when the borrower signs the agreement.

83 Acts, ch 146, §7

§535C.8 Waiver of rights.
A waiver of this chapter by a borrower prior to or at the time of entering into a loan brokerage agreement is contrary to public policy and is void. An attempt by a loan broker to have a borrower waive any rights given in this chapter is a violation of this chapter.

83 Acts, ch 146, §8

§535C.9 Rules.
The administrator may adopt rules according to chapter 17A as necessary or appropriate to implement the purposes of this chapter.

83 Acts, ch 146, §9

§535C.10 Remedies.
1. If a broker materially violates the loan brokerage agreement, the borrower may, upon written notice, void the agreement. In addition, the borrower may recover all moneys paid the broker and may recover other damages including reasonable attorney’s fees. The broker materially violates the agreement if the broker does any of the following:
   a. Makes false or misleading statements relative to the agreement.
   b. Does not comply with the agreement or the obligations arising from the agreement.
   c. Does not either grant the borrower a loan or diligently attempt to obtain a loan for the borrower.

535C.10, IOWA LOAN BROKERS ACT

d. Does not comply with the requirements of this chapter.
2. A violation of this chapter is a violation of the Iowa consumer fraud Act, section 714.16.
3. Remedies under this chapter are in addition to other remedies available in law or equity.
83 Acts, ch 146, §10

535C.11 Applicability.
This chapter does not apply to any activities or arrangements expressly approved or regulated by any regulatory body or officer acting under authority of this state, other than the administrator, or of the United States.
83 Acts, ch 146, §11

CHAPTER 536
IOWA REGULATED LOAN ACT

536.1 Title — license required.
1. This chapter may be referred to as the “Iowa Regulated Loan Act”.
2. With respect to a loan other than a consumer loan, a person shall not engage in the business of making loans of money, credit, goods, or things in action in the amount or of the value of twenty-five thousand dollars or less and charge, contract for, or receive on the loan a greater rate of interest or consideration for the loan than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if the lender were not a licensee under this chapter except as authorized by this chapter and without first obtaining a license from the superintendent of banking.
3. With respect to a consumer loan, a person required by section 537.2301 to have a license shall not engage in the business of making loans of money, credit, goods or things in action in the amount or value of twenty-five thousand dollars or less and charge, contract for, or receive on the loan a greater rate of interest or consideration for the loan than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if the lender were not a licensee under this chapter, except as authorized by this chapter and without first obtaining a license from the superintendent.
4. A person who enters into less than ten supervised loans per year in this state and who neither has an office physically located in this state nor engages in face-to-face solicitation in this state may contract for and receive the rate of interest permitted in this chapter for licensees under this chapter. A “consumer loan” means the same as defined in section 537.1301.
536.15 Limitation on principal amount over twenty-five thousand dollars.
536.16 Nonresident licensees — face-to-face solicitation.
536.17 and 536.18 Repealed by 65GA, ch 1250, §9.132.
536.19 Violations.
536.20 Nonapplicability of statute.
536.21 Rules.
536.22 Assistants.
536.23 Judicial review.
536.24 List of licensees by banking superintendent.
536.25 Statement of indebtedness of borrower.
536.26 Insured loans.
536.27 Insurance related to property of borrower.
536.28 Definitions.
536.29 Enforcement of Iowa consumer credit code.

536.2 Application — fees.
Application for such license shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the superintendent, and shall contain the name and the address (both of the residence and place of business) of the applicant, and if the applicant is a copartnership or association, of every member thereof, and if a corporation, of each officer and director thereof; also the county and municipality with street and number, if any, of the place where the business of making loans under the provisions of this chapter is to be conducted and such further relevant information as the superintendent may require. Such applicant at the time of making such application shall pay to the superintendent the sum of fifty dollars if the liquid assets of the applicant are not in excess of twenty thousand dollars, and the sum of one hundred dollars if the liquid assets of the applicant are in excess of twenty thousand dollars, as a fee for investigating the application and the additional sum of seventy-five dollars if the liquid assets of the applicant are not in excess of twenty thousand dollars, and one hundred fifty dollars if the liquid assets of the applicant are in excess of twenty thousand dollars, as an annual license fee.

Every applicant shall also prove, in form satisfactory to the superintendent, that the applicant has available for the operation of such business at the place of business specified in the application, liquid assets of at least five thousand dollars, or that the applicant has at least the said amount actually in use in the conduct of such business at such place of business.

536.3 Bond.
The applicant shall also at the same time file with the superintendent a bond to be approved by the superintendent in which the applicant shall be the obligor, with one or more sureties, in the sum of one thousand dollars. The said bond shall run to the state for the use of the state and of any person or persons who may have a cause of action against the obligor of said bond under the provisions of this chapter. Such bond shall be conditioned that said obligor will faithfully conform to and abide by the provisions of this chapter and of all rules and regulations lawfully made by the superintendent hereunder, and will pay to the state and to any such person or persons any and all moneys that may become due or owing to the state or to such person or persons any and all moneys that may become due or owing to the state or to such person or persons from said obligor under and by virtue of the provisions of this chapter.

536.4 Grant or refusal of license.
Upon the filing of such application, the approval of such bond and the payment of such fees, the superintendent shall make a thorough and complete investigation of the facts as the superintendent may deem necessary or proper.
If the superintendent shall determine from such application and from such investigation that the applicant can have a reasonable expectancy of a successful lending business at the location of the office for which application is made, and that there is a real need and necessity in that community for additional lending facilities to adequately serve the local people, and that said applicant is one who will command the respect of and confidence from the people in that community; that the financial responsibility, experience, character, and general fitness of the applicant, and of the members thereof if the applicant be a copartnership or association, and of the officers and directors thereof if the applicant be a corporation, are such as to warrant the belief that the business will be operated lawfully, honestly, fairly, and efficiently within the purposes of this chapter, and if the superintendent shall find that the applicant has available or actually in use the assets described in section 536.2, the superintendent shall thereupon issue and deliver a license to the applicant to make loans in accordance with the provisions of this chapter at the place of business specified in the said application; if the superintendent shall not so find the superintendent shall not issue such license and the superintendent shall notify the applicant of the denial and return to the applicant the bond and the sum paid by the applicant as a license fee, retaining the investigation fee to cover the costs of investigating the application. The superintendent shall approve or deny every application for a license hereunder within sixty days from the filing of the application and the approved bond and the payment of the said fees.
If the application is denied the superintendent shall within twenty days thereafter file with the banking department a written transcript of the evidence and decision and findings with respect thereto containing the reasons supporting the denial, and forthwith serve upon the applicant a copy thereof.

536.5 License — form — posting.
Such license shall state the address of the place where the business of making such loans is to be conducted and shall state fully the name of the licensee, and if the licensee is a copartnership or association, the names of the members thereof, and if a corporation, the date and place of its incorporation. Such license shall be kept conspicuously posted in such place of business and shall not be transferable or assignable.

536.6 Additional bond.
If the superintendent shall find at any time that the bond is insecure or exhausted or otherwise of doubtful validity or collectibility, an additional bond to be approved by the superintendent, with one or more sureties and of the character specified in section 536.3, in the sum of not more than one thousand dollars, shall be filed by the licensee within ten days after written demand upon the licensee by the superintendent.
Every licensee shall have available at all times for each licensed place of business at least five thousand dollars in assets, either in liquid form or actually in use in the conduct of such business.

536.7 Separate license — change of place of business.
Not more than one place of business where such
§536.7, IOWA REGULATED LOAN ACT

Loans are made shall be maintained under the same license, but the superintendent may issue more than one license to the same licensee upon compliance, for each such additional license, with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a license.

Whenever a licensee shall change such place of business to another location the licensee shall at once give written notice thereof to the superintendent who shall attach to the license in writing the superintendent's record of the change and the date thereof, which shall be authority for the operation of such business under such license at such new place of business.

536.8 Annual fee — payment — new bond.

Every licensee shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each December, pay to the superintendent the sum as provided in section 536.2 as an annual license fee for the next succeeding calendar year and shall at the same time file with the superintendent a new bond or renewal of the old bond in the same amount and of the same character as required by section 536.3.

536.9 Suspension, revocation or surrender of license.

1. The superintendent may, upon at least twenty days' written notice to the licensee stating the contemplated action and grounds, and upon reasonable opportunity to be heard, revoke any license issued hereunder if the superintendent shall find that:

a. The licensee has failed, after ten days' notice of default, to pay the annual license fee or to maintain in effect the bond or bonds required under the provisions of this chapter or to comply with any rule or regulation of the superintendent lawfully made pursuant to and within the authority of this chapter; or that

b. The licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation lawfully made by the superintendent under and within the authority of this chapter; or that

c. Any fact or condition exists which would clearly have warranted the superintendent in refusing originally to issue such license.

2. If the superintendent shall find that probable cause for revocation of any license exists and that the enforcement of the chapter requires immediate suspension of such license pending investigation, the superintendent may, upon five days' written notice and a hearing, suspend such license for a period not exceeding thirty days.

3. The superintendent may revoke or suspend only the particular license with respect to which grounds for revocation or suspension may occur or exist, or, if the superintendent shall find that such grounds for revocation or suspension are of general application to all licensed places of business, or to more than one licensed place of business, operated by such licensee, the superintendent shall revoke or suspend all of the licenses issued to such licensee or such licenses as such grounds apply to, as the case may be.

4. Any licensee may surrender any license by delivering to the superintendent written notice that the licensee thereby surrenders such license, but such surrender shall not affect such licensee's civil or criminal liability for acts committed prior to such surrender.

5. No revocation or suspension or surrender of any license shall impair or affect the obligation of any pre-existing lawful contract between the licensee and any borrower.

6. Every license issued hereunder shall remain in force and effect until the same shall have been surrendered, revoked, or suspended in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The superintendent shall have authority on the superintendent's own initiative to reinstate suspended licenses or to issue new licenses to a licensee whose license or licenses shall have been revoked if no fact or condition then exists which would have warranted the superintendent in refusing originally to issue such license under this chapter.

7. Whenever the superintendent shall revoke or suspend a license issued under this chapter, the superintendent shall forthwith file with the banking division of the department of commerce a written transcript of the evidence and order to that effect and findings with respect thereto containing the reasons supporting the revocation or suspension, and forthwith serve upon the licensee a copy thereof.

536.10 Examination of business — fee.

For the purpose of discovering violations of this chapter or securing information lawfully required by the superintendent hereunder, the superintendent may at any time, either personally or by an individual or individuals duly designated by the superintendent, investigate the loans and business and examine the books, accounts, records, and files used therein, of every licensee and of every person engaged in the business described in section 536.1, whether such person shall act or claim to act as principal or agent, or under or without the authority of this chapter. For that purpose the superintendent and the superintendent's duly designated representatives shall have and be given free access to the place of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of all such persons. The superintendent and all individuals duly designated by the superintendent shall have authority to require the attendance of and to examine under oath all individuals whomsoever whose testimony the superintendent may require relative to such loans or such business.

The superintendent shall make an examination of the affairs, place of business, and records of each licensed place of business at least once each year.
A licensee subject to examination, supervision and regulation by the superintendent, shall pay to the superintendent an examination fee, based on the actual cost of the operation of the regulated loan bureau of the banking division of the department of commerce, and the proportionate share of administrative expenses in the operation of the banking division attributable to the regulated loan bureau as determined by the superintendent of banking. The fee shall apply equally to all licenses and shall not be changed more frequently than annually and when changed, shall be effective on January 1 of the year following the year in which the change is approved.

Upon completion of each examination required or allowed by this chapter, the examiner shall render a bill for such fee, in triplicate, and shall deliver one copy to the licensee and two copies to the superintendent. Failure to pay the fee to the superintendent within ten days after the date of the close of each such examination shall subject the licensee to an additional fee of five percent of the amount of such fee for each day the payment is delinquent.

536.11 Records — annual report by licensee.
The licensee shall keep such books, accounts, and records as the superintendent may require in order to determine whether such licensee is complying with the provisions of this chapter and with the rules and regulations lawfully made by the superintendent hereunder. Every licensee shall preserve for at least two years after making the last entry on any loan recorded therein all books, accounts, and records, including cards used in the card system, if any.

Each licensee shall annually on or before the fifteenth day of March file a report with the superintendent giving such relevant information as the superintendent reasonably may require concerning the business and operations during the preceding calendar year of the licensed places of business conducted by such licensee within the state. Such report shall be made under oath and shall be in the form prescribed by the superintendent who shall make and publish annually an analysis and recapitulation of such reports.

536.12 Restrictions on practices.
No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under the provisions of this chapter within any office, room, suite or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction therewith, except as may be authorized in writing by the superintendent upon the superintendent’s finding that the character of such other business is such that the granting of such authority would not facilitate evasion of this chapter or of the rules lawfully made by the superintendent hereunder.

No licensee shall make any loan provided for by this chapter under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in the license.

No licensee shall take any instrument in which blanks are left to be filled in after execution.

536.13 Banking board — report — classification — rules — penalty — consumer credit code.
1. The state banking board may investigate the conditions and find the facts with reference to the business of making regulated loans, as described in section 536.1 and after making the investigation, report in writing its findings to the next regular session of the general assembly, and upon the basis of the facts:
   a. Classify regulated loans by a rule according to a system of differentiation which will reasonably distinguish the classes of loans for the purposes of this chapter.
   b. Determine and fix by a rule the maximum rate of interest or charges upon each class of regulated loans which will induce efficiently managed commercial capital to enter the business in sufficient amounts to make available adequate credit facilities to individuals. The maximum rate of interest or charge shall be stated by the board as an annual percentage rate calculated according to the actuarial method and applied to the unpaid balances of the amount financed.
   c. The board may make new rules to determine and fix by a rule the maximum rate of interest or charges previously fixed by it, but the changed maximum rates shall not affect pre-existing loan contracts lawfully entered into between a licensee and a borrower. All rules which the board may make respecting rates of interest or charges shall state the effective date of the rules, which shall not be earlier than thirty days after notice to each licensee by mailing the notice to each licensed place of business.
   d. Before fixing any classification of regulated loans or any maximum rate of interest or charges, or changing a classification or rate under authority of this section, the board shall give reasonable notice of its intention to consider doing so to all licensees and a reasonable opportunity to be heard and to introduce evidence with respect to the change or classification.

4. Beginning July 4, 1965, and until such time as a different rate is fixed by the board, the maximum rate of interest or charges upon the class or classes of regulated loans is three percent per month on any part of the unpaid principal balance of the loan not exceeding one hundred fifty dollars and two percent per month on any part of the loan in excess of one hundred fifty dollars, but not exceeding three hundred dollars, and one and one-half percent per month on any part of the unpaid principal balance of the loan in excess of three hundred dollars, but not exceeding seven hundred dollars, and one percent per month on any part of the unpaid principal balance of the loan in excess of seven hundred dollars.

5. A licensee under this chapter may lend any sum of money not exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars in amount and may charge, contract for, and receive on the loan interest or charges at a rate not exceeding the maximum rate of interest or charges determined and fixed by the board under authority of this section or pursuant to subsection 7 for those amounts in excess of ten thousand dollars.

6. If any interest or charge on a loan regulated by this chapter in excess of that permitted by this chapter is charged, contracted for, or received, the contract of loan is void as to interest and charges and the licensee has no right to collect or receive any interest or charges. In addition, the licensee shall forfeit the right to collect the lesser of two thousand dollars of principal of the loan or the total amount of the principal of the loan.

7. The board may establish the maximum rate of interest or charges as permitted under this chapter for those loans whose unpaid principal balance is ten thousand dollars or less. For those loans whose unpaid principal balance is over ten thousand dollars, the maximum rate of interest or charges which a licensee may charge shall be the greater of the rate permitted by chapter 535 or the rate authorized for supervised financial organizations by chapter 537.

The Iowa consumer credit code, chapter 537, applies to a consumer loan in which the licensee participates or engages, and a violation of the Iowa consumer credit code is a violation of this chapter.

Article 2, parts 3, 5 and 6 of chapter 537, and article 3 of chapter 537, sections 537.3203, 537.3206, 537.3209, 537.3304, 537.3305 and 537.3306 apply to any credit transaction, as defined in section 537.1301 in which a licensee participates or engages, and any violation of those parts or sections is a violation of this chapter. For the purpose of applying the Iowa consumer credit code to those credit transactions, “consumer loan” includes a loan for a business purpose.

A provision of the Iowa consumer credit code applicable to loans regulated by this chapter supercedes a conflicting provision of this chapter.

§536.14 Rights of borrower — payments.

Every licensee, in addition to complying with requirements of the Iowa consumer credit code respecting consumer loans, shall:

1. Permit payment to be made in advance in any amount on any contract of loan at any time, but the licensee may apply such payment first to all interest or charges up to the date of such payment.

2. Upon repayment of the loan in full, mark indelibly every obligation and security other than a mortgage signed by the borrower with the word “paid” or “canceled”, and release any security interest which no longer secures a loan to the licensee, restore any collateral, return any note and any assignment given to the licensee by the borrower.

3. Display prominently in each licensed place of business an accurate schedule, to be approved by the superintendent, of the charges currently to be made upon all loans.

§536.15 Limitation on principal amount over twenty-five thousand dollars.

A licensee shall not directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any interest or consideration greater than the lender would be permitted by law to charge if the lender were not a licensee upon the loan, use, or forbearance of money, goods, or things in action, or upon the loan, use, or sale of credit, of the amount or value of more than twenty-five thousand dollars. This section also applies to a licensee who permits a person, as borrower or as endorser, guarantor, or surety for a borrower, or otherwise, to owe directly or contingently or both to the licensee at any time the sum of more than twenty-five thousand dollars for principal.

Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, a person who neither has an office physically located in this state nor engages in face-to-face solicitation in this state, if authorized by another state to make loans in that state at a rate of finance charge in excess of the rate provided in chapter 535, shall not be subject to the following provisions of this chapter:

1. Section 536.2 to the extent it requires payment of an annual license fee in excess of ten dollars and requires a person to prove the person has any dollar amount of liquid assets or the use of any dollar amount in the conduct of the person’s business at the licensed place of business.

2. Section 536.4, however, the superintendent may deny a license if upon investigation the superintendent determines that the financial responsibility, experience, character or general fitness of the person, or members, officers, or directors thereof, do not warrant the belief that the business will be operated lawfully, honestly, fairly and efficiently, within the purposes of this chapter.

3. Section 536.6 to the extent it requires a person to have any dollar amount of assets available for a licensed place of business.

4. Section 536.10 to the extent it requires the superintendent to make an examination of the affairs, place of business and records of the person on a periodic basis.

536.19 Violations.
Any person, copartnership, association, or corporation and the several members, officers, directors, agents, and employees thereof, who shall violate or participate in the violation of any of the provisions of section 536.1, 536.12, 536.13 or 536.14, which are not also violations of article 5, part 3, of the Iowa consumer credit code, shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. Violations of the Iowa consumer credit code shall be subject to the penalties provided therein.

536.20 Nonapplicability of statute.
This chapter shall not apply to any person doing business under and as permitted by any law of this state or of the United States relating to banks, trust companies, buildings and loan associations, credit unions or licensed pawnbrokers, nor shall it apply to any domestic corporation entitled to the benefits of chapter 536A.

536.21 Rules.
The superintendent is hereby authorized and empowered to make such reasonable and relevant rules as may be necessary for the execution and the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, in addition hereto and not inconsistent herewith. All rules shall be filed and entered by the superintendent in the banking division of the department of commerce in an indexed, permanent book or record, with the effective date thereof suitably indicated, and such book or record shall be a public document.

536.22 Assistants.
The superintendent of banking is hereby authorized to employ such competent help as the superintendent deems necessary to carry out and perform the provisions of this chapter, and is hereby authorized and empowered to pay such persons so employed from the license fees, examination fees, and investigation fees referred to in section 536.2.

536.23 Judicial review.
Judicial review of the actions of the superintendent or the state banking board may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

536.24 List of licensees by banking superintendent.
The superintendent of banking shall, in listing the names of licensees under this chapter, indicate if the licensee is one of a chain of two or more such licensees, the name of the owner and the address of the principal place of business of each owner, a summary of individual reports of each such licensed office indicating its location, the name of licensee, capital, surplus, reserves, loans receivable, cash and due from banks, real estate, borrowed money, net worth, total assets, total liabilities and such other pertinent and related information as may be necessary or desirable to give a correct and full picture of the total assets and total liabilities of each such licensee.

536.25 Statement of indebtedness of borrower.
A licensee when making a loan under this chapter shall require a statement in writing from each applicant setting forth a description of all installment indebtedness of the applicant by giving the amount of each loan and the name of the lender. The applicant may orally disclose the information, and the licensee shall write down the information, and the applicant shall subsequently sign the statement.

536.26 Insured loans.
A licensee shall not, directly or indirectly, sell or offer for sale any life, or accident and health insurance in connection with a loan made under this chapter except as and to the extent authorized by this section. Life, accident and health insurance, or any of them, may be written by a licensed insurance agent upon or in connection with any loan for a term not extending beyond the final maturity date of the loan contract but only upon one obligor on any one loan contract.

The amount of life insurance shall at no time exceed the unpaid balance of principal and interest combined which are scheduled to be outstanding under the terms of the loan contract or the actual amount unpaid on the loan contract, whichever is greater.

Accident and health insurance shall provide benefits not in excess of the unpaid balance of principal and interest combined which are scheduled to be outstanding under the terms of the loan contract and the amount of each periodic benefit payment shall not exceed the total amount payable divided by the number of installments and shall provide that if the insured obligor is disabled, as defined in the policy, for a period of more than fourteen days, benefits shall commence as of the first day of disability.

The premium, which shall be the only charge for such insurance, shall not exceed that approved by the commissioner of insurance of the state of Iowa as filed in the office of such commissioner. Such charge, computed at the time the loan is made for the full term of the loan contract on the total amount required to pay principal and interest.

If a borrower procures insurance by or through a licensee, the licensee shall cause to be delivered to the borrower a copy of the policy within fifteen days from the date such insurance is procured. No licensee shall decline new or existing insurance which meets the standards set out herein nor prevent any obligor from obtaining such insurance coverage from other sources.

If the loan contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, or otherwise (except by the insurance) any life, accident and health insurance procured by or through a licensee shall be canceled and the unearned premium shall be refunded. The amount of such refund shall represent at least as great a proportion of the insurance premium or identifiable charge as the sum of the consecutive monthly balances of principal and interest of the loan contract originally scheduled to be outstanding after the installment date nearest the date of prepayment bears to the sum of all such monthly balances of the loan contract originally scheduled to be outstanding. ([C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §536 26])

536.27 Insurance related to property of borrower.

A licensee may sell the borrower insurance against loss of or damage to property owned by the borrower or loss from liability arising out of the ownership or use of property owned by the borrower. When the transaction is a consumer credit transaction as defined in section 537 1301 the sale of property insurance is subject to the requirements of sections 537 2501 and 537 2510 and the rules adopted under those sections by the administrator of the Iowa consumer credit code. ([C75, 77, 79, 81, §536 27])

536.28 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Administrator” means the person designated in section 537 6103.
2. “Licensee” means a person licensed under this chapter.
3. “Board” means the state banking board.
4. “Consumer loan” means a loan as defined in section 537 1301.
5. “Superintendent” means the state superintendent of banking. ([C75, 77, 79, 81, §536 28])

85 Acts, ch 158, §7

536.29 Enforcement of Iowa consumer credit code.

1. The superintendent shall enforce the Iowa consumer credit code with respect to licensees, as provided in sections 537 2303, 537 2305 and 537 6105.
2. The superintendent shall cooperate with the administrator, and shall assist the administrator whenever necessary to provide for the discharge of the duties of the administrator.
3. Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, the superintendent shall authorize to be furnished to the administrator, access to or copies of records in the possession of the superintendent or other persons which relate to a person licensed under this chapter, when necessary to enable the administrator to enforce chapter 537.
4. The superintendent shall make an annual report in writing to the administrator. A copy of the report shall be furnished at cost by the superintendent to each licensee or other person upon request. The annual report shall contain:
   a. A summary of license applications approved or denied by the superintendent since the last report.
   b. A summary of the assets, liabilities and capital structure of all licensees, and volume of consumer installment of credit outstanding per licensee, as of December 31 of the year for which the report is made.
   c. An estimate of the disbursements of agency funds for consumer credit protection during the calendar year ending the preceding December 31.
   d. Information which the superintendent may deem appropriate and advisable to disclose.
   e. Information which the administrator may require to be included. ([C75, 77, 79, 81, §536 29])

The following words and terms when used in this chapter shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires a different meaning:
1. “Corporation” shall mean any corporation for pecuniary profit organized under the laws of the state of Iowa;
2. “License” shall mean a permit or authorization issued or required under the provisions of this chapter to make loans in accordance with this chapter at a single location or place of business;
3. “Licensee” shall mean a corporation to which a license has been issued;
4. “Superintendent” means the superintendent of banking within the banking division of the department of commerce.
5. “Industrial Loan Company” shall mean a corporation operating under the provisions of this chapter and engaged in the business of loaning money to be repaid in one payment or in weekly, monthly or other periodic installments and the charging, receiving or requiring of interest, discount, fees, compensation or charges of whatever nature or kind for the use of such money and for the services to be rendered to the borrower in connection with the loan. The term “Industrial Loan Company” shall not include those businesses specifically exempted in section 536A.5.
6. “Administrator” means the person designated in section 537.6103.
7. “Licensee” means a person licensed under this chapter.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §536A.2]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §757

536A.3 License.
With respect to a loan other than a consumer loan, a person shall not engage in the business of operating an industrial loan company in this state without having obtained a license from the superintendent. With respect to a consumer loan, a person required by section 537.2301 to have a license is not authorized to engage in the business of operating an industrial loan company without first obtaining a license from the superintendent. A person that enters into less than ten supervised loans per year in this state and that neither has an office physically located in this state nor engages in face-to-face solicitation in this state may contract for and receive the rate of interest permitted in this chapter for licensees in this chapter. A “consumer loan” means the same as defined in section 537.1301.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §536A.3]
86 Acts, ch 1245, §758

536A.4 Limitations.
No license shall be issued to any individual, partnership, nonprofit organization or unincorporated association. Not more than one place of business where loans are made shall be maintained under the same license but the superintendent may issue more than one license to the same licensee upon compliance, for each such additional license, with all the provisions of this chapter governing an original issuance of a license.

536A.5 Exemptions.
This chapter does not apply to any of the following:
1. Businesses organized or operating as permitted under the authority of a law of this state or the United States relating to banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, regulated loan companies organized under chapter 536, or credit unions.
2. Persons that make loans only on notes secured by first mortgages on real estate.
3. Licensed real estate brokers or salespersons.
4. A person engaged exclusively in the business of purchasing commodity financing or commercial paper.
5. A pawnbroker.
6. A person engaged in the mercantile business.
7. Loans made to a domestic or foreign corporation.

85 Acts, ch 158, §10

536A.6 Administration by superintendent.
The superintendent shall supervise the operation of industrial loan companies in this state in accordance with this chapter.

536A.7 Application for license.
Applications for licenses to engage in the business of operating industrial loan companies shall be in writing on such forms as may be prescribed by the auditor. The application shall give the name of the corporation, the location where the business is to be conducted, the street address of the place of business, the names and addresses of the officers and directors of the corporation and such other relevant information as the superintendent shall require. At the time of making such application the applicant shall pay to the superintendent the sum of fifty dollars to cover the cost of the investigation of the applicant. The applicant shall also pay to the superintendent the sum of fifty dollars as an annual license fee for the period ending December 31 next following the application; provided that if the license is granted after June 30 in any year, the license fee for the remainder of that year shall be twenty-five dollars and any license fee paid by the applicant in excess of that amount shall be refunded by the auditor.

§536A.8 Capital stock requirement.
The paid-in capital stock of any corporation engaged in the business of operating an industrial loan company shall not be less than twenty-five thousand dollars when the corporation is transacting business in any city having less than twenty-five thousand inhabitants according to the last preceding decennial census. The paid-in capital stock of any corporation engaged in the business of operating an industrial loan company in any city having a population of more than twenty-five thousand inhabitants according to the last preceding decennial census shall not be less than fifty thousand dollars. The paid-in capital stock of any corporation engaged in the business of operating an industrial loan company outside the limits of any incorporated city shall not be less than fifty thousand dollars. Every corporation engaged in the industrial loan business in the state of Iowa shall have a surplus of not less than ten percent of its paid-in capital stock.

§536A.9 Investigation of application.
Upon the filing of an application for a license to engage in the business of operating an industrial loan company, and upon payment of the investigation fee and license fee as required by section 536A.7, the superintendent shall cause an investigation to be made of the facts set forth in the application. If as the result of the preliminary investigation the superintendent deems it proper, the superintendent may hold a hearing at a time and place designated by the superintendent for the purpose of completing the superintendent's investigation.

§536A.10 Issuance of license.
If the superintendent shall find:
1. That the financial responsibility, experience, character and general fitness of the applicant and of the officers thereof are such as to command the confidence of the community, and to warrant the belief that the business will be operated honestly, fairly and efficiently within the purpose of this chapter;
2. That a reasonable necessity exists for a new industrial loan company in the community to be served;
3. That the applicant has available for the operation of the business at the specified location paid-in capital and surplus as required by section 536A.8; and
4. That the applicant is a corporation organized for pecuniary profit under the laws of the state of Iowa.
The superintendent shall approve the application and issue to the applicant a license to engage in the industrial loan business in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The superintendent shall approve or deny an application for a license within one hundred twenty days from the date of the filing of such application.

§536A.11 Denial of license.
If the superintendent shall not approve the application, the superintendent shall prepare a written denial of the application with a written finding of facts which shall be sent by certified mail to the applicant. Within fifteen days after mailing of notice of the denial of its application, the applicant may file with the superintendent a written demand for a hearing on the application. Upon such demand being made, the superintendent must within thirty days hold a formal hearing at the superintendent's office in Des Moines, Iowa, notice of the time of which hearing shall be given by the superintendent to the applicant by mail within fifteen days after the filing of the written demand by the applicant. Notice of the time and place of hearing shall also be given by the superintendent to all corporations holding licenses to engage in the industrial loan business in the county where the applicant proposes to establish its business and notice of said time and place of hearing shall be published pursuant to section 618.14.

At the formal hearing following the original denial of the license by the superintendent the applicant shall be entitled to present evidence in support of the application. The superintendent shall then grant or deny the application for a license within thirty days from the date of the formal hearing and give notice to the applicant by a decision and finding of facts in writing. If the application for a license is disapproved and a license is denied the superintendent shall refund the annual license fee which was required to be deposited by section 536A.7 providing the cost of investigation does not exceed the investigation fee. If the cost of investigation exceeds the investigation fee, the excess cost shall be deducted from the license fee before any refund is made.

Judicial review of actions of the superintendent may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

§536A.12 Continuing license — annual fee — change of location.
Each such license remains in full force and effect until surrendered, revoked, or suspended. A licensee shall, on or before the second day of January, pay to the superintendent the sum of fifty dollars as an annual license fee for the succeeding calendar year. When a licensee changes its place of business from one location to another in the same city it shall at once give written notice to the superintendent who shall attach to the license in writing the superintendent's record of the change and the date of the change, which is authority for the operation of the business under that license at the new place of business.

536A.13 Books and records.
Each industrial loan company shall keep such books, accounts and records as will enable the superintendent to determine whether or not the licensee is complying with the provisions of this chapter. Industrial loan companies shall not be required to preserve or keep their records or files for a longer period than eleven years next after the first day of January of the year following the time of the making or filing of such records or files.

536A.14 Annual report.
Each licensee shall annually on or before the fifteenth day of March file with the superintendent a report in writing showing the results of the operation of its industrial loan business for the previous calendar year, which reports shall contain:
1. A balance sheet showing all assets and liabilities as of the thirty-first day of December next preceding.
2. An operating statement showing income, expenses and net profit for the previous calendar year.
3. Such other relevant information as the superintendent shall reasonably require.
The report shall be verified under oath by the president and secretary of the corporation. The superintendent shall make and publish annually an analysis and recapitulation of such reports.

536A.15 Examination of licensees.
The superintendent or the superintendent's duly authorized representative shall, at least once each year without previous notice, examine the books, accounts, and records of each licensee engaged in the industrial loan business as defined by this chapter. A licensee issuing senior debt to the general public shall be audited at the expense of the licensee by a certified public accountant licensed to practice in the state of Iowa. A licensee not issuing senior debt to the general public may provide an audited statement of the licensee's parent corporation which includes the Iowa licensee. After receiving such an audit or audited statement, the superintendent may make further examination of the licensee as the superintendent deems necessary. A record of each examination shall be kept in the superintendent's office. The examinations and reports, and other information connected with them, shall be kept confidential in the office of the superintendent and shall not be subject to publication or disclosure to others except as in this chapter provided. Any evidence of criminal acts committed by officers, directors, or employees of an industrial loan company shall be reported by the superintendent to the proper authorities. The licensee shall be charged and shall pay the actual costs of the examination.

536A.16 Cease and desist orders.
Whenever the superintendent has reasonable cause to believe that any licensee is violating any provision of this chapter, chapter 536B, or rules adopted under either chapter, the superintendent may, after ten days' advance written notice, in addition to all actions provided for in this chapter, and without prejudice thereto, enter an order requiring the licensee to cease, desist and refrain from the violation. After receipt of the advance written notice as provided above, any licensee, within five days from the receipt of such notice may file with the superintendent a written demand for a hearing. Hearings shall promptly be held in the office of the superintendent and a cease and desist order shall not be issued until after the hearing. The licensee shall be entitled to present evidence and the testimony of witnesses at the hearing.

536A.17 Injunctions.
The superintendent by counsel of the attorney general may commence an action in the district court, in the name of the state of Iowa as plaintiff on the relation of the superintendent to restrain and enjoin any licensee from violating this chapter, chapter 536B, or rules adopted under either chapter, or to restrain and enjoin any person, copartnership, firm or corporation from engaging in the business of operating an industrial loan company without obtaining a license as required by this chapter.

536A.18 Revocation or suspension of license.
The superintendent, upon giving ten days' advance written notice to the licensee by certified mail stating the contemplated action and the grounds thereof, and after giving the licensee an opportunity to be heard, may by order in writing suspend or revoke any license issued under the provisions of this chapter, if the superintendent shall find:
1. That the licensee has failed to pay the annual license fee required by this chapter.
2. That the licensee knowingly has violated any of the provisions of this chapter.
3. That the licensee has refused to submit to the examination required by this chapter.
4. That the licensee has neglected or refused for a period of more than thirty days to pay a final judgment rendered against it in the courts of this state.
5. That the licensee has become insolvent.
No suspension, revocation, relinquishment or expiration of any license shall invalidate, impair or affect the legality of obligations of any pre-existing contracts, or prevent the enforcement and collection thereof. Judicial review of the actions of the superintendent may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

536A.19 Receivership — liquidation.

If the superintendent shall revoke the license of any industrial loan company the superintendent shall promptly report the revocation to the attorney general of Iowa who may apply to the district court of the county in which the licensee had conducted its business for the appointment of a receiver to take possession of the assets of the corporation for the purpose of liquidating its affairs.

536A.20 Real estate loans.

1. A licensed industrial loan company may make permanent loans, construction loans, or combined construction and permanent loans, secured by liens on real property, as authorized by rules adopted by the superintendent under chapter 17A. These rules shall contain provisions as necessary to insure the safety and soundness of these loans, and to insure full and fair disclosure to borrowers of the effects of provisions in agreements for these loans, including provisions permitting change or adjustment of any terms of a loan, provisions permitting, requiring, or prohibiting repayment of a loan on a basis other than of equal periodic installments of interest plus principal over a fixed term, provisions imposing penalties for the borrower's noncompliance with requirements of a loan agreement, or provisions allowing or requiring a borrower to choose from alternative courses of action at any time during the effectiveness of a loan agreement.

2. A licensed industrial loan company may re­quire and establish escrow accounts in connection with subsection 3.

3. A licensed industrial loan company may act as an escrow agent with respect to real property that is mortgaged to the licensed industrial loan company, and may receive funds and make disbursements from escrowed funds in that capacity. The licensed industrial loan company shall be deemed to be acting in a fiduciary capacity with respect to these funds. A licensed industrial loan company receiving funds in escrow pursuant to an escrow agreement executed on or after July 1, 1982 and before July 1, 1983 or on or after July 1, 1984 in connection with a loan defined in section 535.8, subsection 1, shall pay interest to the borrower on those funds, calculated on a daily basis, at the lowest rate the company pays to holders of thrift certificates issued by the company. A licensed industrial loan company which maintains such an escrow account, whether or not the mortgage has been assigned to a third person, shall deliver to the mortgagor a written summary of all transactions made with respect to the loan and escrow accounts during each calendar year. However, the mortgagor and mortgagee may, by mutual agree­ment, select a fiscal year reporting period other than the calendar year.

The summary shall be delivered or mailed not later than thirty days following the year to which the disclosure relates. The summary shall contain all of the following information:

a. The name and address of the mortgagor.

b. The name and address of the mortgagor.

c. A summary of escrow account activity during the year as follows:

(1) The balance of the escrow account at the beginning of the year.

(2) The aggregate amount of payments against the escrow account during the year.

(3) The aggregate amount of withdrawals from the escrow account for each of the following categories:

(a) Payments against loan principal.

(b) Payments against interest.

(c) Payments against real estate taxes.

(d) Payments for real property insurance premiums.

(e) All other withdrawals.

(4) The balance of the escrow account at the end of the year.

d. A summary of loan principal for the year as follows:

(1) The amount of principal outstanding at the beginning of the year.

(2) The aggregate amount of payments against principal during the year.

(3) The amount of principal outstanding at the end of the year.

4. Section 524.905, subsection 4, applies to the licensed industrial loan company in the same manner as if the licensed industrial loan company is a bank within the meaning of that provision.

536A.21 Other business in same office.

A licensee engaged in the business of operating an industrial loan company under the provisions of this chapter may not conduct its business within any office, room, suite or place of business in which any other business is engaged in or conducted, unless specifically authorized to do so in writing by the superintendent upon the superintendent's finding that the character of the other business is such that its operation by the licensee would not facilitate evasions of this chapter or any other statute of the state of Iowa relating to the making of loans.

536A.22 Thrift certificates.

Licensed industrial loan companies may sell se­nior debt to the general public in the form of thrift certificates, installment thrift certificates, certificates of indebtedness, promissory notes or similar evidences of indebtedness. The total amount of such thrift certificates, installment thrift certificates, certificates of indebtedness, promissory notes or similar evidences of indebtedness outstanding and in the hands of the general public shall not at any time exceed ten times the total amount of capital, surplus, undivided profits and subordinated debt that gives priority to such securities of the issuing industrial loan company. Except as provided in chapter 536B, the sale of such securities shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 502, and shall not be construed to be exempt therefrom by reason of the provisions of section 502.202, subsection 10, except that the sale of thrift certificates or installment thrift certificates which are redeemable by the holder thereof either upon demand or within a period not in excess of one hundred eighty days shall be exempt from sections 502.201 and 502.602.

536A.23 Powers of industrial loan companies.

No industrial loan company licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall have the power and authority to:

1. Charge, receive or collect interest at a rate exceeding ten cents on the hundred by the year, except that the interest may be computed when the note is made on the full amount of the cash advanced on the loan from the date of the note to the date of the final installment thereof, and the interest so computed may be included in the note, notwithstanding any agreement to pay the entire amount in installments; or the interest may be computed on the amount of the note and discounted or collected in advance when the loan is made, notwithstanding any agreement to pay the entire amount in installments. If the note is repayable in other than equal monthly installments, the interest may be an amount computed on the basis of the effective rates permitted as provided above; provided, however, there shall be no compounding of interest and when an interest rate as authorized herein is advertised, or negotiated for with a prospective borrower, with intent that it be computed by either of the two methods authorized herein, they being the "add on" method or the "discount" method, in such case such rate shall be further described as to the method of computation to be used, but interest computed by either method shall be stated to the borrower as provided in section 537.3210.

If a borrower elects to repay a loan secured by a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property which is a single-family or two-family dwelling or agricultural land at a date earlier than is required by the terms of the loan, the licensee shall be governed by section 535.9.

The limitation on interest rate which is contained in this subsection shall not apply to any loan in which the borrower is a corporation or investment trust or any other person who is referred to in section 535.2, subsection 2.

2. Charge, receive or collect in advance a service charge in excess of one dollar for each fifty dollars of the amount of the note, nor in excess of a total of forty dollars. The service charge authorized by this section shall not be charged, contracted for, collected or received on any loan which is renewed or rewritten within six months of the date of the original note; nor on that part of a new loan made to the same borrower by the same company which is used to discharge a prior loan made to the same borrower by the same company.

3. Require any borrower to purchase insurance from the lender as a condition for obtaining a loan. However, an industrial loan company may collect from the borrower, at the option of the borrower, and transmit the premiums charged for insuring real or personal property used by the borrower as security for a loan and provided that such insurance is obtained from a licensed insurance agent for an insurance company authorized to do business in Iowa; and the premiums charged for insuring the life of one party on the loan in an amount not to exceed the total amount of the note or contract, including cash advance, interest and service charge, provided that no licensee shall require that the contract of life insurance be outstanding for more than the unpaid balance of the indebtedness and provided that such insurance is obtained from a licensed insurance agent for an insurance company authorized to do business in Iowa; and an industrial loan company may receive and transmit the premiums charged for accident and health insurance on the borrower, provided such insurance bears a reasonable relationship to the existing hazards or risk of loss, and the aggregate benefits of which shall not exceed the approximate amount of the contractual payments on the loan outstanding at the time of loss, and provided that such insurance is obtained from a licensed agent for an insurance company authorized to do business in Iowa. However, all life insurance rates in connection with industrial loans shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the insurance commissioner of the state of Iowa.

4. Industrial loan companies licensed under the provisions of this chapter may purchase notes, contracts, mortgages, accounts, receivables, leases and securities of a type and kind authorized by the superintendent.

5. In addition to the other charges authorized by this chapter, industrial loan companies licensed under this chapter may collect an appraisal fee on a loan secured by a mortgage or deed of trust upon real property, if the appraisal fee is bona fide, reasonable in amount, and not for purposes of circumvention or evasion of this chapter.

536A.24 Electronic transactions.

A licensee may engage in any transaction otherwise permitted by this chapter and applicable law, by means of either the direct transmission of electronic impulses or other indicia of a transaction for delayed transmission to the licensee. Subject to the provisions of chapter 527, a licensee may utilize, establish or operate, alone or with one or more other licensees, banks incorporated under the provisions of chapter 524 or federal law, credit unions incorporated under the provisions of chapter 533 or federal law, savings and loan associations incorporated under the provisions of chapter 534 or federal law, or third parties, the satellite terminals permitted under chapter 527, by means of which the licensee may transmit to or receive from any customer electronic impulses constituting transactions pursuant to this section. However, such utilization, establishment or operation is lawful only when in compliance with chapter 527. Nothing in this section authorizes a licensee or other person to engage in transactions not otherwise permitted by applicable law, nor does anything in this section repeal, replace or in any other way affect any applicable law or rule regarding the maintenance of or access to financial information maintained by a licensee.

§536A.25 Restrictions.
No industrial loan company licensed under this chapter shall make any loan of money or property to, or guarantee the obligations of, any of its directors or officers; or loan to any borrower, other than a subsidiary or affiliated corporation, more than twenty percent of its total capital, surplus and undivided profits. No licensee shall make any loan under any other name or at any other place of business than that named in the license.

§536A.26 Prepayment.
In addition to the requirements of the Iowa consumer credit code respecting consumer loans, and notwithstanding the provisions of any note or contract to the contrary, a borrower may, at any time, prepay all or any part of the unpaid balance to become payable under any note or installment contract.

§536A.27 Penalty.
If any officer, director or agent of any corporation engaged in the business of operating an industrial loan company shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter which are not also violations of the Iowa consumer credit code; or if any person individually or as a partner, or officer, director or agent of any corporation shall engage in the business of operating an industrial loan company without obtaining the license required by section 536A.3, when that person is not required by section 537.2301 to have a license, the person shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. Violations of the Iowa consumer credit code shall be subject to the penalties provided therein.

§536A.28 Rules.
The superintendent is hereby authorized and empowered to make such reasonable and relevant rules, not inconsistent herewith, as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

§536A.29 Enforcement of Iowa consumer credit code.
1. The superintendent shall enforce the Iowa consumer credit code with respect to licensees, as provided in sections 537.2303, 537.2305 and 537.6105.
2. The superintendent shall co-operate with the administrator, and shall assist the administrator whenever necessary to provide for the discharge of the duties of the administrator.
3. Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, the superintendent shall authorize to be furnished to the administrator, access to or copies of records in the possession of the superintendent or other persons which relate to a licensee when necessary to enable the administrator to enforce chapter 537.
4. The superintendent shall make an annual report in writing to the administrator. A copy of the report shall be furnished at cost by the superintendent to each licensee or other person upon request. The annual report shall contain:
   a. A summary of license applications approved or denied by the superintendent since the last report.
   b. A summary of the assets, liabilities and capital structure of all licensees, and volume of consumer installment credit outstanding per licensee, as of December 31 of the year for which the report is made.
   c. An estimate of the disbursements of agency funds for consumer credit protection during the calendar year ending the preceding December 31.
   d. Information which the superintendent may deem appropriate and advisable to disclose.
   e. Information which the administrator may require to be included.

§536A.30 Nonresident licensees — face-to-face solicitation.
Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter to the contrary, a person which neither has an office physically located in this state nor engages in face-to-face solicitation in this state, if authorized by another state to make loans in that state at a rate of finance charge in excess of the rate provided in chapter 535, shall not be subject to the following provisions of this chapter:
1. Section 536A.7, to the extent it requires payment of an annual license fee in excess of ten dollars.
2. Section 536A.8.
3. Section 536A.10, subsections 2, 3 and 4.
4. Section 536A.12, to the extent it requires a licensee to pay an annual license fee which, when combined with that required in section 536A.7, is in excess of ten dollars.
5. Section 536A.15, to the extent it requires the superintendent to make an examination and audit of the books, accounts and records of the licensee on a periodic basis.

536A.31 Applicability of Iowa consumer credit code.

1. The provisions of the Iowa consumer credit code shall apply to a consumer loan in which the licensee participates or engages, and any violation of the said code shall be a violation of this chapter.

2. Article 2, parts 3, 5 and 6, and article 3, sections 537.3203, 537.3206, 537.3209, 537.3210, 537.3304, 537.3305 and 537.3306 shall apply to any credit transaction, as defined in section 537.1301, in which a licensee participates or engages, and any violation of those parts or sections shall be violations of this chapter. For the purpose of applying the provisions of the Iowa consumer credit code to those credit transactions, “consumer loan” shall include a loan for a business purpose.

3. A provision of the Iowa consumer credit code, chapter 537, applicable to loans regulated by this chapter supersedes a conflicting provision of this chapter. However, section 536A.23, subsection 5 is not superseded by the Iowa consumer credit code. [C75, 77, 79, 81, 536A.31]

This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Iowa Industrial Loan Corporation Thrift Guaranty Act.” [C81, §536B.1]

536B.2 Definitions.
As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:
1. “Industrial loan corporation” means a corporation licensed under chapter 536A.
2. “Superintendent” means the superintendent of banking within the banking division of the department of commerce.
3. “Guaranty corporation” means the corporation created pursuant to section 536B.4.
4. “Member” means an industrial loan corporation which is required by section 536B.5 to be a member of the guaranty corporation.
5. “Thrift certificates” issued by a member means senior indebtedness issued to and in the hands of the general public, and includes thrift certificates, installment thrift certificates, certificates of indebtedness, promissory notes, or similar evidences of indebtedness.
6. “Independent activity” means an activity other than one directed solely at increasing guarantee coverage under section 536B.7.
7. “Capital impairments”, or “impaired capital” means the failure of a member to comply with the capital stock requirements of section 536A.8.
8. “Insolvency” means the inability of a member to pay its debts and obligations as they become due. [C81, §536B.2; 82 Acts, ch 1253, §40]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §760
536B.3 Purpose.
It is the purpose of the guaranty corporation to guarantee payment of thrift certificates issued by a member up to ten thousand dollars for each account, subject to the limitations of this chapter.

536B.4 Establishment of guaranty corporation.
1. Within ninety days after January 1, 1981, industrial loan corporations which are required by section 536B.5 to participate as members shall establish a corporation under chapter 504A to operate under the name “Industrial Loan Thrift Guaranty Corporation of Iowa”.

2. The guaranty corporation established under subsection 1 shall adopt a plan of organization and operation which may be amended from time to time. The guaranty corporation may promulgate regulations prescribing terms and conditions relative to the issuance of thrift certificates by members, which shall not take effect until they have been submitted to and adopted by the superintendent as rules pursuant to chapter 17A.

536B.5 Participation — membership assessment.
1. Each industrial loan corporation which has issued and outstanding thrift certificates shall participate as a member in the guaranty corporation in accordance with this chapter and with the bylaws established by the board of directors of the guaranty corporation. An industrial loan corporation which is required by this section to participate as a member shall pay a membership assessment, to be paid into the guarantee fund, in an amount determined according to the following schedule:
   a. Two thousand five hundred dollars for a member which at any time has issued and outstanding thrift certificates in an amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars or less.
   b. Five thousand dollars for a member which at any time has issued and outstanding thrift certificates in an amount greater than two hundred fifty thousand dollars, but not more than one million dollars.
   c. Ten thousand dollars for a member which at any time has issued and outstanding thrift certificates in an amount greater than one million dollars.

Each industrial loan corporation which has issued and outstanding thrift certificates as of January 1, 1981, shall pay the membership assessment to the guaranty corporation within thirty days after the date of its incorporation. Each industrial loan corporation which initially issues thrift certificates after January 1, 1981, shall pay the membership assessment within thirty days after the thrift certificates are issued. When the amount which has been paid by a member as the membership assessment becomes less than the amount which is required by this subsection, the member shall pay the deficiency within ninety days after the date when the deficiency arises.

2. An industrial loan company is exempt from participation as a member of the guaranty corporation so long as it does not have issued and outstanding thrift certificates. An industrial loan company which has issued and outstanding thrift certificates as of January 1, 1981, shall be exempt from participation as a member of the guaranty corporation if it files an undertaking with the superintendent that it will not issue thrift certificates and that it will redeem existing thrift certificate obligations within ninety days after January 1, 1981, and if it redeems existing thrift certificate obligations within the ninety-day period.

536B.6 Rules of superintendent.
The superintendent shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A which are necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes of this chapter. Rules adopted by the superintendent shall continue in force until either modified by subsequent rule or superseded by a plan submitted by the guaranty corporation and approved by the superintendent.

[C81, §536B.6]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §761

536B.7 Guarantee of thrift certificates.
Except as provided in section 536B.28, thrift certificates of a member of the guaranty corporation shall be guaranteed by the guaranty corporation as follows:

1. With respect to single ownership obligations in any one member:
   a. Funds owned by an individual and invested in the manner set forth in this subsection shall be added together and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate.
   b. Individual accounts invested in one or more accounts in the name or names of agents or nominees shall be added together and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate.
   c. Funds owned by a principal and invested in one or more accounts in the name of the principal and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate.
   d. Accounts held by a guardian, custodian, or conservator for the benefit of that person’s ward or for the benefit of a minor under a Uniform Gifts to Minors Act and invested in one or more accounts in the name of the guardian, custodian, or conservator shall be added to any individual accounts of the principal and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate.

2. With respect to testamentary accounts in any one member:
   a. Funds owned by an individual and invested in a revocable trust account, tentative trust account, payable-on-death account, or similar account evidencing an intention that on the individual’s death the funds shall belong to a named beneficiary, shall be guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate as to each such named beneficiary, separately from any other accounts of the owner.
b. Accounts in any one member held by executors or administrators which are funds of a decedent held in the name of the decedent or in the name of the executor or administrator of the decedent’s estate and invested in one or more accounts, shall be guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate, separately from the individual accounts of the beneficiaries of the estate or of the executor or administrator.

3. With respect to corporation or partnership accounts in any one member, accounts of a corporation or partnership which is engaged in an independent activity shall be guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate. For guarantee purposes an account of a corporation or partnership which is not engaged in an independent activity shall be deemed to be owned by the person or persons owning the corporation or comprising the partnership and the interest of each person in the account shall be added to any other accounts individually owned by that person and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate.

4. With respect to accounts of unincorporated associations, accounts in any one member which are accounts of an unincorporated association engaged in an independent activity shall be guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate. For guarantee purposes an account of an unincorporated association which is not engaged in an independent activity shall be deemed to be owned by the persons comprising the association and the interest of each owner in the account shall be added to any other accounts individually owned by that person and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate.

5. With respect to joint accounts in any one member:
   a. Accounts owned jointly, whether as joint tenants with right of survivorship, as tenants by the entireties, or as tenants in common, shall be guaranteed separately from accounts individually owned by the co-owners.
   b. A joint account shall be deemed to exist for purposes of guarantee of accounts only if each co-owner has personally executed an account signature card and possesses redemption rights.
   c. An account owned jointly which does not qualify as a joint account for purposes of guarantee of accounts shall be treated as owned by the named persons as individuals, and the actual ownership interest of each such person in the account shall be added to any other accounts individually owned by that person and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate.
   d. All joint accounts owned by the same combination of individuals shall first be added together and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate.
   e. The interests of each co-owner in all joint accounts owned by different combinations of individuals shall first be added together and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate.

6. Trust accounts in any one member which are trust interests for the same beneficiary invested in accounts established pursuant to valid trust arrangements created by the same settlor or grantor shall be added together and guaranteed up to ten thousand dollars in the aggregate, separately from other accounts of the trustee of the trust funds or the settlor or beneficiary of the trust arrangements.

86 Acts, ch 1165, §1

536B.8 Guarantee fund.
1. The guaranty corporation shall establish and maintain a guarantee fund which shall consist of the membership assessments under section 536B.5, plus the assessments under subsections 2 and 3.

2. Beginning with the year in which this chapter takes effect [1981], the members of the guaranty corporation shall be subject to an assessment on May 1 of each year. The amount of the annual assessment is determined by the amount in the fund on December 31 of the prior year, net of any demands made by the superintendent under section 536B.11 and remaining unpaid at such December 31, as follows: If the net amount in the fund is less than the greater of two million dollars or two percent of the total thrift certificates of all members, the annual assessment for each member shall equal one-fourth of one percent of the member's thrift certificates which are outstanding on December 31 of the year prior to the levy; and if the net amount in the fund exceeds the greater of two million dollars or two percent of the aggregate thrift certificates of all members, no annual assessment shall be made.

3. If upon liquidation of a member the amount available in the guarantee fund is insufficient to pay up to ten thousand dollars for each thrift certificate obligation specified in section 536B.7, the superintendent may make demand upon the guaranty corporation for advance payment of annual assessments to become due in amounts required to meet the deficiency, but not exceeding two times the maximum assessment that could have been levied on each member on the prior May 1 as the annual assessment if the net amount in the fund the preceding December 31 had been less than the greater of two million dollars or two percent of the total thrift certificates of all members. An amount prepaid by a member shall be credited against subsequent annual assessments, and the member shall pay the balance of the annual assessments thus due, if any, or shall be refunded any amount overpaid as a result of the advance assessment. A member shall not be required to be prepaid in excess of two years.

If after paying an advance assessment as provided in this subsection, an industrial loan corporation ceases to be a member of the guaranty corporation, a refund of that assessment shall be limited to that portion which is not necessary to meet those obligations of the guarantee fund as provided in section 536B.7, and as determined by the superintendent, known to exist at the time of the payment of the advance assessment.

83 Acts, ch 101, §112; 86 Acts, ch 1165, §2
§536B.9 Notice of assessment.
The guaranty corporation shall send a written notice of assessment to each member assessed within ten days after the levy of an annual or advance assessment. The amount assessed shall be paid to the guaranty corporation by the member not later than thirty days following the date the notice of assessment is mailed.

§536B.10 Defaulted assessments — actions to enforce.
In the event a member fails to pay when due the membership assessment, or a deficiency in the membership assessment, or an annual or advance assessment, the guaranty corporation shall report the default in writing to the superintendent within two business days after the default, and shall within thirty days after the default bring an action in law or in equity to enforce payment. If the guaranty corporation does not bring an action within the time specified, the superintendent may bring an action to enforce payment. The superintendent also may revoke the right of a member to issue thrift certificates when the member is in default in paying assessments when due.

§536B.11 Payments from guarantee fund — deficiencies.
1. When the property and business of a member has been liquidated or is in the process of liquidation by the superintendent and the proceeds of liquidation are insufficient to pay up to ten thousand dollars for each thrift certificate obligation specified in section 536B.7, the guaranty corporation shall pay each deficiency at the direction of and in amounts as specified by the superintendent, and within one hundred twenty days from the date the superintendent makes demand for payment. If the total funds available from the guaranty corporation at the time of demand are insufficient to pay in full the amounts required by section 536B.7, the amount paid toward each obligation shall be reduced ratably in proportion to the amount by which the fund is deficient. Thereafter further payments shall be made in accordance with the directions of the superintendent and as additional funds are paid into the guarantee fund from assessments and income accrued on them. When the thrift certificate obligations are paid, the account of each member of the guaranty corporation shall be reduced by an amount which is of the same relation to the total amount paid as the account balance of the member is to the sum of account balances of all members. The guaranty corporation has a claim against a member which has been liquidated or which is in the process of liquidation and the assets of the member for any thrift certificate obligations paid under this section.
2. The superintendent shall not direct the guaranty corporation to pay in one calendar year any thrift certificate obligations that exceed in the aggregate the total amount in the fund after allowance for all amounts to be added to the fund during the year by assessment as provided in this chapter.

§536B.12 Superintendent may manage corporation.
Whenever it appears to the superintendent that the guaranty corporation has violated its articles of incorporation or a law of this state; has not paid amounts as directed by the superintendent pursuant to section 536B.11, has invested its funds in violation of section 536B.14, has not levied assessments as required by sections 536B.5, 536B.8 and 536B.9, has not diligently prosecuted an action to enforce payment as required by section 536B.10, has violated a provision of this chapter, or has neglected or refused to submit its books, papers, and affairs for the inspection of an examiner, the superintendent may issue and serve upon the guaranty corporation a notice containing a statement of the facts constituting the alleged violation or violations and fixing a time and place at which a hearing will be held to determine whether the superintendent should take possession of the property and business of the guaranty corporation and retain possession until the guaranty corporation satisfies the superintendent that it will operate in conformity with the provisions of this chapter. During the time the superintendent has possession of the guaranty corporation, the superintendent shall perform the duties and carry out the obligations of the guaranty corporation.
[C81, §536B.12]

§536B.13 Judicial review.
Actions of the superintendent under section 536B.12 shall be subject to judicial review under the provisions of chapter 17A. The district court for Polk county has exclusive jurisdiction of judicial review proceedings under this section.
[C81, §536B.13]

§536B.14 Investments of guarantee fund.
1. The guaranty corporation may invest its funds only as provided by rules promulgated by the superintendent. The superintendent shall promulgate rules which are reasonably necessary for the purpose of preserving reasonable liquidity of the guaranty fund.
2. Income from investments shall be recorded in an income account and shall be used to defray expenses of administration. Income from investments that exceeds an amount determined by the board of directors to be adequate to provide for current expenses may be credited to members' accounts. Each member's account shall receive credit ratably, based on member account balances. Income received by the guaranty corporation, whether or not credited to members' accounts, shall be subject to a demand of the superintendent made under section 536B.11, except as to that portion reserved by the board of directors for expenses of administration during the calendar year.
3. Expenses of administration that exceed income from investments at the end of the fiscal year of the guaranty corporation shall be charged to members' accounts. Each member's account shall be charged ratably based on member account balances for the amount of the excess of expenses over income.

[C81, §536B.14]
83 Acts, ch 101, §113

536B.15 Power of superintendent — management of member.
1. In addition to other remedies provided in this chapter, the superintendent may take over the management of the property and business of a member for reasonable cause, including but not limited to fraud, impairment of capital, violation of this chapter, or revocation of a member's industrial loan license for any of the reasons stated in section 536A.18.

2. Actions of the superintendent under subsection 1 shall be subject to judicial review under the provisions of chapter 17A. The aggrieved member may institute proceedings for judicial review in the county in which its principal place of business is located.

3. Upon assuming management of the property and business of a member under this section, the superintendent may operate and direct the affairs of the member in its regular course of business, collect amounts due to the member, and do other acts necessary to conduct the affairs of the member and to conserve or protect its assets, property and business.

4. The superintendent shall thereafter manage the property and business of the member until such time as the superintendent may relinquish to the member the management thereof, upon such conditions as the superintendent may prescribe, or until the affairs of the member be finally dissolved as provided in section 536A.19.

536B.16 Liquidation of member — superintendent as receiver.
If when managing a member under section 536B.15 the superintendent concludes that the member is insolvent or should be dissolved for any other reason enumerated in section 536B.15, subsection 1, the superintendent shall petition the district court for the county in which the principal place of business of the member is located to appoint a receiver for the member. Upon the petition of the superintendent under this section, or in any other case where appointment of a receiver for a member is sought by any person, the district court may appoint the superintendent as receiver of the member, to serve without bond. The attorney general shall represent the superintendent in all proceedings connected with the receivership.

536B.17 Notice to guaranty corporation.
The superintendent shall give prompt notice to the guaranty corporation when for any cause the superintendent takes possession of the property and business of a member to manage its affairs, and shall give further prompt notice when the superintendent determines to liquidate the property and business of a member.

536B.18 Regulation.
The operation of the guaranty corporation shall at all times be subject to the supervision of the superintendent. The superintendent may at any time investigate the affairs and examine the books, accounts, records, and files of the guaranty corporation. The superintendent shall have free access to the offices, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of the guaranty corporation.

The corporation shall pay to the superintendent such fees as may be established by the superintendent by rule under chapter 17A for the recovery of administrative costs and expenses incurred in the discharge of the duties imposed upon the superintendent by this chapter. Recoverable costs and expenses shall include, but not be limited to costs and expenses for salaries, expenses and travel for employees, and additional office facilities, supplies and equipment required in the administration of this chapter. The fees shall include an annual fee to cover the ordinary annual expenses of the superintendent in the administration of this chapter and such special fees as may be necessary for the recovery of extraordinary expenses. Rules of the superintendent shall specify when the fees are to be paid by the corporation, and shall provide for the giving of notice of fees which are to become due. Failure to pay a required fee within ten days after the due date shall subject the corporation to an additional fee equal to five percent of the amount assessed for each day the payment is delinquent.

536B.19 Appeal to superintendent.
A member aggrieved by an action or decision of the guaranty corporation may appeal to the superintendent within thirty days from the action or decision.

[C81, §536B.19]

536B.20 Nontransferability of memberships.
Memberships in the guaranty corporation are nontransferable, and the guaranty corporation and memberships in the guaranty corporation are exempt from the provisions of chapter 502.

[C81, §536B.20]

536B.21 Advertisements.
1. The guaranty corporation shall not cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed or broadcast, in any manner, a statement or representation with regard to its plan of operation without first obtaining the written approval of the superintendent.

2. All advertising by a member with regard to its membership in the guaranty corporation shall include the following statement: "Thrift certificates are protected up to a maximum of ten thousand dollars by the Industrial Loan Thrift Guaranty Corporation of Iowa, a private corporation, regulated by the state of Iowa; however thrift certificates are not guaranteed by the state of Iowa."
§536B.21, IOWA INDUSTRIAL LOAN CORPORATION THRIFT GUARANTY LAW

3. All advertising of members with regard to thrift certificates shall comply with such reasonably necessary rules as the guaranty corporation may adopt to prevent the use of false, misleading or deceptive advertising practices.
[C81, §536B.21]

536B.22 List of companies — reports.
1. In order to permit the guaranty corporation to fulfill its obligations under this chapter, and notwithstanding the provisions of sections 536A.15 and 537.2304 to the contrary, the superintendent shall furnish to the guaranty corporation a list of all industrial loan corporations which have outstanding thrift certificate obligations; and the superintendent shall promptly furnish to the guaranty corporation one copy of all reports of each of these industrial loan corporations filed with the superintendent, excluding examination reports and responses to examinations.
2. Each member, annually and within ninety days of the close of its fiscal year, shall file with the guaranty corporation and the superintendent a report of an audit performed in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and certified by a certified public accountant licensed to practice in the state of Iowa.
3. The guaranty corporation may submit reports and make recommendations to the superintendent regarding the affairs or financial condition of a member. In addition, the guaranty corporation shall have the authority to select and direct an independet certied public accountant licensed to practice in the state of Iowa to audit the financial condition of a member, the report of which shall be provided only to the board of directors of the guaranty corporation and the superintendent. The member shall allow access to the records and other information requested by the guaranty corporation during the audit. The cost and expenses of the audit or examination shall be paid by the guaranty corporation.
These reports, actions, and recommendations shall be kept confidential.
4. There shall be no liability on the part of, and no cause of action of any manner shall arise against, the guaranty corporation or its members, directors, officers, employees or agents, or the superintendent for actions or statements made by them respecting reports or recommendations made under the authority of this section.
[C81, §536B.22]

536B.23 Exemptions.
1. Securities of an industrial loan company issued in a transaction which is an exempt transaction within the meaning of section 502.203, subsection 9, are not thrift certificates, and shall bear a statement that they are not guaranteed by the Iowa industrial loan corporation thrift guaranty Act.
2. The guaranty corporation is not an insurance corporation and is not transacting insurance business. The organization, operation and liquidation of the guaranty corporation are exempt from title XX, of the Code.
[C81, §536B.23]

536B.24 Subordinated debt.
Subordinated debt of a member shall not be construed as thrift certificates and securities representing subordinated debt shall bear a statement that they are not guaranteed by the Iowa industrial loan corporation thrift guaranty Act. At the time of issue subordinated debt shall not exceed two times the total amount of capital, surplus, and undivided profits of the member.
[C81, §536B.24]

536B.25 Capital impairment.
1. The guarantees provided in this chapter do not apply to the obligations of an industrial loan corpo­ racion, the capital of which is impaired on January 1, 1981, until such time as the capital impairment is eliminated.
2. For purposes of subsection 1, an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed to practice in the state of Iowa for an industrial loan licensee’s fiscal year immediately preceding January 1, 1981, shall be conclusive as to whether the capital of the industrial loan corporation is impaired on January 1, 1981.
[C81, §536B.25]

536B.26 Statement of condition.
Each member shall by April 30 of each year prepare a statement of its condition as of the close of the preceding calendar year. Each member shall make copies of its statement of condition available to the general public at each of its places of business.
The superintendent by rule may prescribe minimum content of the statement of condition.
[C81, §536B.26]

536B.27 Restrictions on loans.
A member shall not loan to a borrower, including a subsidiary or affiliated corporation of the member, more than twenty percent of its total capital, surplus, and undivided profits. The aggregate of a member’s loans to subsidiaries or affiliated corporations of the member shall not exceed ten percent of the member’s total assets.
86 Acts, ch 1165, §3

536B.28 Limits of guarantees — phasing out of guarantees by July 1, 1988.
1. Notwithstanding section 536B.7, any new thrift certificate issued by a member after June 30, 1986, shall not be guaranteed by the guaranty corporation. Thrift certificates guaranteed under section 536B.7 which are outstanding as of June 30, 1986 may be renewed provided that their maturity date after renewal is not later than June 30, 1988.
However, any noncallable thrift certificate issued by a member prior to January 1, 1986 for a term up to five years shall be guaranteed by the guaranty corporation until the expiration of the certificate.

Thrift certificates issued by a member in the form of passbook accounts shall be redeemed by the member or converted to a nonguaranteed thrift certificate not later than June 30, 1988. After June 30, 1986 the balance of each guaranteed passbook account shall not exceed the balance of the account existing on that date plus any accumulated interest on that balance.

2. As of July 1, 1986, any thrift certificate issued by a member shall conspicuously bear on its face a statement indicating that the thrift certificate is not guaranteed or insured by the guaranty corporation or the state of Iowa. A member may issue such nonguaranteed thrift certificates as senior debt pursuant to section 536A.22. However, before a member may issue a nonguaranteed thrift certificate, the member must disclose to the prospective purchaser in writing and orally that the certificate is not guaranteed or insured by the guaranty corporation or the state of Iowa. The written disclosure shall be made clearly and conspicuously and shall be specifically signed and dated prior to the purchase by the prospective purchaser of the certificate.

3. Except as provided in subsection 1, all thrift certificates issued by a member, including those certificates issued prior to July 1, 1986, shall cease to be guaranteed by the guaranty corporation as of July 1, 1988.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter, a member may, in lieu of maintaining membership in the guaranty corporation, acquire insurance from the federal deposit insurance corporation or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation to protect each thrift certificate against loss of funds.

PART 1
SHORT TITLE, CONSTRUCTION, GENERAL PROVISIONS

537.1101 Short title.

Articles 1 to 7 of this chapter shall be known and may be cited as the “Iowa Consumer Credit Code.”

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.1101]

537.1102 Purposes — rules of construction.
1. This chapter shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.
2. The underlying purposes and policies of this chapter are to:
   a. Simplify, clarify and modernize the law governing retail installment sales and other consumer credit.
   b. Provide rate ceilings for certain creditors in order to assure an adequate supply of credit to consumers.
   c. Further consumer understanding of the terms of credit transactions and foster competition among suppliers of consumer credit so that consumers may obtain credit at reasonable cost.
   d. Protect consumers against unfair practices by some suppliers, solicitors or collectors of consumer credit, having due regard for the interests of legitimate and scrupulous creditors.
   e. Permit and encourage the development of fair and economically sound consumer credit practices.
   f. Conform the regulation of disclosure in consumer credit transactions to the Truth in Lending Act.
   g. Make the law, including administrative rules, more uniform among the various jurisdictions.
3. A reference to a requirement imposed by this chapter includes reference to a related rule of the administrator adopted pursuant to this chapter.

537.1103 Law applicable.
Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this chapter, the uniform commercial code and the principles of law and equity, including the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy or other validating or invalidating cause supplement its provisions.

537.1104 Construction.
This chapter being a general Act intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, no part of it shall be deemed to be impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if such construction can reasonably be avoided.

537.1105 and 537.1106 Reserved.

537.1107 Waiver — agreement — settlement.
1. Except in settlement of a bona fide dispute, a consumer may not waive or agree to forego rights or benefits under this Act.

2. A claim by a consumer against a creditor relating to an excessive charge, any other civil violation of this chapter, or a civil penalty, or a claim by a creditor against a consumer for default or breach of a civil duty imposed by this chapter, may be settled by agreement if the claim is disputed in good faith.

3. A claim against a consumer, whether or not disputed, may be settled for less value than the amount claimed.

4. A settlement in which the consumer waives or agrees to forego rights or benefits under this chapter is invalid if the court as a matter of law finds the settlement to have been unconscionable at the time it was made. The competence of the consumer, any deception or coercion practiced upon the consumer, the nature and extent of the legal advice received by the consumer, and the value of the consideration may be considered, among other factors, with respect to the issue of unconscionability.

§537.1108 Effect on organizations.

1. This chapter prescribes maximum charges for certain creditors, except lessors and those excluded in section 537.1202, extending credit in consumer credit transactions.

2. This chapter does not displace limitations on powers of credit unions, savings and loan associations, or other thrift institutions whether organized for the profit of shareholders or as mutual organizations.

3. This chapter does not displace:
   a. Limitations on powers of supervised financial organizations with respect to the amount of a loan to a single borrower, the ratio of a loan to the value of collateral, the duration of a loan secured by an interest in land, or other similar restrictions designed to protect deposits.
   b. Limitations on powers an organization is authorized to exercise under the laws of this state or the United States.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.1108]

§537.1109 Reserved.

§537.1110 Obligation of good faith.

Every contract or duty within this chapter imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement.

PART 2

SCOPE AND JURISDICTION

1. This chapter applies to:
   a. A transaction, or acts, practices or conduct with respect to a transaction, if the transaction is entered into in this state, except that a transaction involving other than open end credit or acts, practices or conduct with respect to such a transaction shall not subject any person to damages or penalty under article 5 of this chapter, or administrative enforcement under article 6, part 1.

   (1) If the buyer, lessee or debtor was physically located outside of this state, at the time the buyer, lessee or debtor signed the writing evidencing the transaction or made, in face-to-face solicitation, a written or oral offer to enter into the transaction,

   (2) If the transaction or acts, practices or conduct with respect to the transaction were not in violation of law in the state in which the buyer, lessee or debtor was physically located, and

   (3) If, with respect to charges and agreements, the person does not collect or enforce that transaction except to the extent permitted by this chapter.

   b. A transaction, or acts, practices or conduct with respect to a transaction, if it is modified in this state, without regard to where the transaction is entered into, except that acts, practices, conduct, disclosures, charges or provisions of agreements not in violation of law in the state where they occurred or were entered into, shall not subject any person to damages or penalty under article 5 or administrative enforcement under article 6, part 1, if, with respect to acts, practices, conduct or disclosures, they occurred outside this state and before a modification in this state, and if, with respect to charges and agreements, they are not collected or enforced by that person except to the extent permitted by this chapter. A person shall not be required to obtain a license under section 537.2301 solely because the person modifies a transaction in this state.

   c. Acts, practices or conduct in this state in the solicitation, inducement, negotiation, collection or enforcement of a transaction, without regard to where it is entered into or modified; including, but not limited to, acts, practices or conduct in violation of sections 537.3209, 537.3210, 537.3311, 537.3501, article 5, parts 1 and 3, and article 7.

2. For the purposes of this section, a transaction is entered into or modified in this state if any of the following apply:
   a. In a transaction involving other than open end credit:

      (1) If the buyer, lessee or debtor is a resident of this state at the time the person extending credit solicits the transaction or modification, whether personally, by mail or by telephone, unless the parties have agreed that the law of the residence of the buyer, lessee or debtor applies, in which case that law applies.

      (2) If the buyer, lessee or debtor is a resident of this state at the time the person extending credit receives either a signed writing evidencing the transaction or modification, or a written or oral offer of the buyer, lessee or debtor to enter into or modify the transaction.

      (3) If the transaction otherwise has significant contacts with this state, unless the buyer, lessee or debtor is not a resident of this state at the times designated in subsection 2, paragraph "a", subparagraphs (1) and (2), and the parties have agreed that the law of the buyer’s, lessee’s, or debtor’s residence...
A person shall not be required to obtain a license under section 537.2301 solely because this chapter applies to a transaction pursuant to this subparagraph.

b. In an open end credit transaction:

(1) If the buyer, lessee or debtor is a resident of this state either at the time the buyer, lessee or debtor forwards or otherwise gives to the person extending credit a written or oral communication of the intention to establish the open end transaction, or at the time the person extending credit forwards or otherwise gives to the buyer, lessee or debtor a written or oral communication giving notice to the buyer, lessee or debtor of the right to enter into open end transactions with such person, unless the parties have agreed that the law of the residence of the buyer, lessee or debtor applies in which case that law shall apply.

(2) If the transaction otherwise has significant contacts with this state, unless the buyer, lessee or debtor is not a resident of this state at the times designated in subsection 2, paragraph “a”, subparagraph (1), and the parties have agreed that the law of the buyer’s, lessee’s, or debtor’s residence applies. A person shall not be required to obtain a license under section 537.2301 solely because this chapter applies to a transaction pursuant to this subparagraph.

c. In any credit transaction, if the parties have agreed that the law of the residence of the buyer, lessee or debtor applies and the buyer, lessee or debtor is a resident of this state at any time designated, with respect to a transaction other than open end, in subsection 2, paragraph “a”, subparagraphs (1) and (2) or, with respect to an open end credit transaction, in subsection 2, paragraph “b”, subparagraph (1).

3. For the purposes of this section, “modification” shall include, but not be limited to, any alteration in the maturity, schedule of payments, amount financed, rate of finance charge or other term of a transaction.

4. For the purposes of this chapter, the residence of a buyer, lessee or debtor is the address given by that person as the person’s residence in a writing signed by the person in connection with a transaction until the person notifies the person extending credit of a different address as the person’s residence, and it is then the different address.

5. Except as provided in subsection 1, paragraph “c”, and subsection 6, a transaction entered into or modified in another jurisdiction is valid and enforceable in this state according to its terms to the extent that it is valid and enforceable under the laws of the other jurisdiction.

6. A provision of an agreement made by a buyer, lessee or debtor is invalid:

a. Which provides, if the buyer, lessee or debtor is a resident of this state at the times designated in subsection 2, paragraph “a”, subparagraphs (1) and (2) and subsection 2, paragraph “b”, subparagraph (1):

(1) That the law of another jurisdiction shall apply, except as provided in subsection 2, paragraph “a”, subparagraph (1) and in subsection 2, paragraph “b”, subparagraph (1).

(2) That the buyer, lessee or debtor consents to be subject to the process of another jurisdiction.

(3) That the buyer, lessee or debtor appoints an agent to receive service of process.

(4) That venue is fixed at a particular place.

(5) That the consumer consents to the jurisdiction of a court that does not otherwise have jurisdiction.

b. If a provision would negate subsection 1, paragraph “b”.

7. The following provisions of this chapter specify the applicable law governing certain cases:

a. Section 537.6102 specifies the applicability of article 6, part 1.

b. Section 537.6201 specifies the applicability of article 6, part 2.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.1201]

537.1202 Exclusions.

This chapter does not apply to:

1. Extensions of credit to government or governmental agencies or instrumentalities.

2. Except as otherwise provided in article 4, the sale of insurance if the insured is not obligated to pay installments of the premium and the insurance may terminate or be canceled after nonpayment of an installment of the premium.

3. Transactions under public utility or common carrier tariffs if a subdivision or agency of this state or of the United States regulates the charges for the services involved, the charges for delayed payment, and any discount allowed for early payment.

4. Transactions in securities or commodities accounts with a broker-dealer registered with the securities and exchange commission.

5. Pawnbrokers who are licensed and whose rates and charges are regulated under or pursuant to ordinances of cities or statutes of this state, except with respect to the provisions on compliance with the Truth in Lending Act in section 537.3201, civil liability for violation of disclosure provisions in section 537.5203, criminal penalties for disclosure violations in section 537.5302, and powers and functions of the administrator with respect to disclosure violations.

537.1203 Jurisdiction — service of process.

1. The district court of this state may exercise jurisdiction over any person with respect to any conduct in this state governed by this chapter or with respect to any claim arising from a transaction subject to this chapter. In addition to any other method provided by rule or by statute, personal jurisdiction over a person may be acquired in a civil action or proceeding instituted in the district court by the service of process in the manner provided by this section.

2. If a person is not a resident of this state or is a corporation not authorized to do business in this state and engages in any conduct in this state governed by this chapter, or engages in a transaction... subject to this chapter, the person may designate an agent upon whom service of process or original otice may be made in this state. The agent shall be a resident of state or a corporation authorized to do business in this state. The designation shall be in a writing and filed with the secretary of state. If no designation is made and filed or if process or original otice cannot be served in this state upon the designated agent, process or original notice may be served upon the secretary of state, in the manner provided in section 617.3 for service upon nonresi­ dent persons and foreign corporations which have made contracts with residents of Iowa, and the provisions of that section relating to the service of process or original notice apply.

PART 3
DEFINITIONS

537.1301 General definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless otherwise required by the context:
1. “Actuarial method” means the method of allocating payments made on a debt between the amount financed and the finance charge, pursuant to which a payment is applied first to the accumulated finance charge and any remainder is subtracted from, or any deficiency is added to, the unpaid balance of the amount financed. The administrator may adopt rules not inconsistent with the Truth in Lending Act further defining the term and prescribing its application.
2. “Administrator” means the administrator designated in section 537.6103.
3. “Agreement” means the oral or written bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance.
4. “Amount financed” means:
a. In the case of a sale, the cash price of the goods, services, or interest in land, plus the amount actually paid or to be paid by the seller pursuant to an agreement with the buyer to discharge a security interest in, a lien on, or a debt with respect to property traded in, less the amount of any down payment whether made in cash or in property traded in, plus additional charges if permitted under paragraph “c”.
b. In the case of a loan, the net amount paid to, receivable by, or paid or payable for the account of the debtor, plus the amount of any discount excluded from the finance charge under subsection 20, paragraph “b,” subparagraph 3, plus additional charges if permitted under paragraph “c” of this subsection.
c. In the case of a sale or loan, additional charges permitted under section 537.2501, to the extent that payment is deferred, that the charge is not otherwise included, in the amount permitted respectively in paragraph “a” or “b”, and that the charge is authorized by and disclosed to the consumer as required by law.
5. “Billing cycle” means the time interval between periodic billing statement dates.
6. “Card issuer” means a person who issues a credit card.
7. “Cardholder” means a person to whom a credit card is issued or who has agreed with the card issuer to pay obligations arising from the issuance or use of the card to or by another person.
8. “Cash price” of goods, services, or an interest in land means, except in the case of a consumer rental purchase agreement, the price at which they are sold by the seller to cash buyers in the ordinary course of business, and may include the cash price of accessories or services related to the sale, such as delivery, installation, alterations, modifications, and Improvements, and taxes to the extent imposed on a cash sale of the goods, services, or interest in land.
9. “Conspicuous. A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. Whether or not a term or clause is conspicuous is for decision by the court.
10. “Consumer” means the buyer, lessee, or debtor to whom credit is granted in a consumer credit transaction.
11. “Consumer credit transaction” means a consumer credit sale or consumer loan, or a refinancing or consolidation thereof, or a consumer lease, or a consumer rental purchase agreement.
12. “Consumer credit sale.”
a. Except as provided in paragraph “b”, a consumer credit sale is a sale of goods, services, or an interest in land in which all of the following are applicable:
(1) Credit is granted either pursuant to a seller credit card or by a seller who regularly engages as a seller in credit transactions of the same kind.
(2) The buyer is a person other than an organization.
(3) The goods, services or interest in land are purchased primarily for a personal, family or household purpose.
(4) Either the debt is payable in installments or a finance charge is made.
(5) With respect to a sale of goods or services, the amount financed does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.
b. A “consumer credit sale” does not include:
(1) A sale in which the seller allows the buyer to purchase goods or services pursuant to a lender credit card.
(2) A sale of an interest in land if the finance charge does not exceed twelve percent per year calculated on the actuarial method on the assumption that the debt will be paid according to the agreed terms and will not be paid before the end of the agreed term.
(3) A consumer rental purchase agreement as defined in section 537.3604.
13. “Consumer lease.”
a. Except as provided in paragraph “b”, a consumer lease is a lease of goods in which all of the following are applicable:
(1) The lessor is regularly engaged in the business of leasing.
(2) The lessee is a person other than an organization.
(3) The lessee takes under the lease primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose.
(4) The amount payable under the lease does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.
(5) The lease is for a term exceeding four months.

b. A consumer lease does not include a consumer rental purchase agreement as defined in section 537.3604.

   a. Except as provided in paragraph “b”, a “consumer loan” is a loan in which all of the following are applicable:
      (1) The person is regularly engaged in the business of making loans.
      (2) The debtor is a person other than an organization.
      (3) The debt is incurred primarily for a personal, family or household purpose.
      (4) Either the debt is payable in installments or a finance charge is made.
      (5) The amount financed does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.
   b. A “consumer loan” does not include:
      (1) A sale or lease in which the seller or lessor allows the buyer or lessee to purchase or lease pursuant to a seller credit card.
      (2) A debt which is secured by a first lien on real property and which is incurred primarily for the purpose of acquiring that real property, or refinancing a contract for deed to that real property, or constructing on that real property a building containing one or more dwelling units.
      (3) A loan financed by the Iowa finance authority and secured by a lien on land.
      (4) A consumer rental purchase agreement as defined in section 537.3604.

b. In determining which loans are consumer loans under this subsection the rules of construction stated in this paragraph shall be applied:
   (1) A debt is incurred primarily for the purpose to which a majority of the loan proceeds are applied or are designated by the debtor to be applied.
   (2) Loan proceeds used to refinance or pay a prior loan owed by the same borrower are incurred for the same purposes and in the same proportion as the principal of the loan refinanced or paid.
   (3) Loan proceeds used to pay a prior loan by a different borrower are incurred for the new borrower's purposes in agreeing to pay the prior loan.
   (4) The assumption of a loan by a different borrower is treated as if the new borrower had obtained a new loan and had used all of the proceeds to pay the loan assumed.
   (5) The provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to modify or limit the provisions of section 535.8, subsection 2, paragraph “c” or “e.”

15. “Credit” means the right granted by a person extending credit to a person to defer payment of debt, to incur debt and defer its payment, or to purchase property or services and defer payment therefor.

16. “Credit card” means a card or device issued under an arrangement pursuant to which a card issuer gives a cardholder the privilege of purchasing or leasing property or purchasing services, obtaining loans, or otherwise obtaining credit from the card issuer or other persons. A transaction is “pursuant to a credit card” if credit is obtained according to the terms of the arrangement by transmitting information contained on the card or device orally, in writing, by mechanical or automated methods, or in any other manner. A transaction is not “pursuant to a credit card” if the card or device is used solely to identify the cardholder and credit is not obtained according to the terms of the arrangement.

17. “Creditor” means the person who grants credit in a consumer credit transaction or, except as otherwise provided, an assignee of a creditor’s right to payment, but use of the term does not in itself impose on an assignee any obligation of the assignee’s assignor. In the case of credit granted pursuant to a credit card, the “creditor” is the card issuer and not another person honoring the credit card.

18. “Earnings” means compensation paid or payable to an individual or for the individual’s account for personal services rendered or to be rendered by the individual, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise, and includes periodic payments pursuant to a pension, retirement or disability program.

19. Finance charge
   a. Except as otherwise provided in subsection “b”, “finance charge” means the sum of all charges payable directly or indirectly by the consumer and imposed directly or indirectly by the creditor as an incident to or as a condition of the extension of credit, including any of the following types of charges which are applicable:
      (1) Interest or any amount payable under a point, discount or other system of charges, however denominated, except that with respect to a consumer credit sale of goods or services a cash discount of five percent or less of the stated price of goods or services which is offered to the consumer for payment by cash, check or the like either immediately or within a period of time, is not part of the finance charge for the purpose of determining maximum charges pursuant to section 537.2401. A cash discount permitted by this subparagraph is not part of the finance charge for the purpose of determining compliance with section 537.3201 if it is properly disclosed as required by the Truth in Lending Act as amended to and including July 1, 1982 and regulations issued pursuant to that Act prior to July 1, 1982.
      (2) Time price differential, credit service, service, carrying or other charge, however denominated.
      (3) Premium or other charge for any guarantee or insurance protecting the creditor against the consumer’s default or other credit loss.
      (4) Charges incurred for investigating the collateral or credit-worthiness of the consumer or for commissions or brokerage for obtaining the credit, irrespective of the person to whom the charges are paid or payable, unless the creditor had no notice of the charges when the credit was granted.

b. “Finance charge” does not include:

(1) Charges as a result of default or delinquency if made for actual unanticipated late payment, delinquency, default, or other like occurrence unless the parties agree that these charges are finance charges. A charge is not made for actual unanticipated late payment, delinquency, default or other like occurrence if imposed on an account which is or may be debited from time to time for purchases or other debts and, under its terms, payment in full or at a specified amount is required when billed, and in the ordinary course of business the consumer is permitted to continue to have purchases or other debts debited to the account after the imposition of the charge.

(2) Additional charges as defined in section 537.2501, or deferral charges as defined in section 537.2503.

(3) A discount, if a creditor purchases or satisfies obligations of a cardholder pursuant to a credit card and the purchase or satisfaction is made at less than the face amount of the obligation.

(4) Lease payments for a consumer rental purchase agreement, or charges specifically authorized by this chapter for consumer rental purchase agreements.

20. “Gift certificate” means a merchandise certificate conspicuously designated as a gift certificate, and purchased by a buyer for use by a person other than the buyer.

21. a. “Goods” includes, but is not limited to:

(1) “Goods” as described in section 554.2105, subsection 1.

(2) Goods not in existence at the time the transaction is entered into.

(3) Things in action.

(4) Investment securities.

(5) Mobile homes regardless of whether they are affixed to the land.

(6) Gift certificates.

b. “Goods” excludes money, chattel paper, documents of title, instruments and merchandise certificates other than gift certificates.

22. “Insurance premium loan” means a consumer loan that is made for the sole purpose of financing the payment by or on behalf of an insured of the premium on one or more policies or contracts issued by or on behalf of an insurer, is secured by an assignment by the insured to the lender of the unearned premium on the policy or contract, and contains an authorization to cancel the policy or contract financed.

23. “Lender” means a person who makes a loan or, except as otherwise provided in this Act, a person who takes an assignment of a lender’s right to payment, but use of the term does not in itself impose on an assignee any obligation of the lender.

24. “Lender credit card” means a credit card issued by a lender.

25. a. “Loan” means any of the following, except as provided in paragraph “b”:

(1) The creation of debt by the lender’s payment of or agreement to pay money to the debtor or to a third person for the account of the debtor.

(2) The creation of debt by a credit to an account with the lender upon which the debtor is entitled to draw immediately.

(3) The creation of debt pursuant to a lender credit card in any manner, including a cash advance or the card issuer’s honoring a draft or similar order for the payment of money drawn or accepted by the debtor, paying or agreeing to pay the debtor’s obligation, or purchasing or otherwise acquiring the debtor’s obligation from the obligee or the obligee’s assignees.

(4) The creation of debt by a cash advance to a debtor pursuant to a seller credit card.

(5) The forbearance of debt arising from a loan.

b. “Loan” does not include:

(1) A card issuer’s payment or agreement to pay money to a third person for the account of a debtor if the debt of the debtor arises from a sale or lease and results from use of a seller credit card.

(2) The forbearance of debt arising from a sale or lease.

26. “Merchandise certificate” means a writing not redeemable in cash and usable in its face amount in lieu of cash in exchange for goods or services. Sale of a merchandise certificate on credit is a credit sale beginning at the time the certificate is redeemed.

27. “Official fees” means:

a. Fees and charges prescribed by law which actually are or will be paid to public officials for determining the existence of or for perfecting, releasing, terminating, or satisfying a security interest related to a consumer credit transaction.

b. Premiums payable for insurance in lieu of perfecting a security interest otherwise required by the creditor in connection with the transaction, if the premium does not exceed the fees and charges described in paragraph “a” which would otherwise be payable.

28. “Open-end credit” means an arrangement, other than a consumer rental purchase agreement, pursuant to which all of the following are applicable:

a. A creditor may permit a consumer, from time to time, to purchase or lease on credit from the creditor or pursuant to a credit card, or to obtain loans from the creditor or pursuant to a credit card.

b. The amounts financed and the finance and other appropriate charges are debited to an account.

c. The finance charge, if made, is computed on the account periodically.

d. Either the consumer has the privilege of paying in full or in installments, or the transaction is a consumer credit transaction solely because a delinquency charge or the like is treated as a finance charge pursuant to subsection 19, paragraph “b”, subparagraph (1) of this section or the creditor otherwise periodically imposes charges computed on the account for delaying payment of it and permits the consumer to continue to purchase or lease on credit.

29. “Organization” means a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, trust, estate, co-operative, or association.
30 “Payable in installments” means that payment is required or permitted by agreement to be made in more than four periodic payments, excluding a down payment. If any periodic payment other than the down payment under an agreement requiring or permitting two or more periodic payments is more than twice the amount of any other periodic payment excluding the down payment, a transaction is “payable in installments.”

31 “Person” means
   a. A natural person, partnership, or an individual
   b. An organization

32 a. “Person related to” with respect to a natural person or an individual means any of the following
   (1) The spouse of the individual
   (2) A brother, brother-in-law, sister, or sister-in-law of the individual
   (3) An ancestor or lineal descendant of the individual or the individual’s spouse
   (4) Any other relative, by blood or marriage, of the individual or the individual’s spouse, if the relative shares the same home with the individual
   b. “Person related to” with respect to an organization means
   (1) A person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the organization
   (2) An officer or director of the organization or a person performing similar functions with respect to the organization or to a person related to the organization
   (3) The spouse of a person related to the organization
   (4) A relative by blood or marriage of a person related to the organization who shares the same home with the person

33 A “precomputed consumer credit transaction” is a consumer credit transaction, other than a consumer lease or a consumer rental purchase agreement, in which the debt is a sum comprising the amount financed and the amount of the finance charge computed in advance. A disclosure required by the Truth in Lending Act does not in itself make a finance charge or transaction precomputed

34 “Presumed” or “presumption” means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence

35 “Sale of goods” includes, but is not limited to, any agreement in the form of a bailment or lease of goods if the bailee or lessee pays or agrees to pay as compensation for use a sum substantially equivalent to or in excess of the aggregate value of the goods involved and it is agreed that the bailee or lessee will become, or for no other or a nominal consideration has the option to become, the owner of the goods upon full compliance with the terms of the agreement “Sale of goods” does not include a consumer rental purchase agreement

36 “Sale of an interest in land” includes, but is not limited to, a lease in which the lessee has an option to purchase the interest, by which all or a substantial part of the rental or other payments previously made by the lessee are applied to the purchase price

37 “Sale of services” means furnishing or agreeing to furnish services for a consideration and includes making arrangements to have services furnished by another

38 “Seller” means a person who makes a sale or, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a person who takes an assignment of the seller’s right to payment, but use of the term does not in itself impose on an assignee any obligation of the seller.

39 “Seller credit card” means either of the following
   a. A credit card issued primarily for the purpose of giving the cardholder the privilege of using the credit card to purchase or lease property or services from the card issuer, persons related to the card issuer, persons licensed or franchised to do business under the card issuer’s business or trade name or designation, or from any of these persons and from other persons as well
   b. A credit card issued by a person other than a supervised lender primarily for the purpose of giving the cardholder the privilege of using the credit card to purchase or lease property or services from at least one hundred persons not related to the card issuer

40 “Services” includes, but is not limited to
   a. Work, labor, and other personal services
   b. Privileges or benefits with respect to transportation, hotel and restaurant accommodations, education, entertainment, recreation, physical culture, hospital accommodations, funerals, cemetery accommodations, and the like

41 “Supervised financial organization” means a person, other than an insurance company or other organization primarily engaged in an insurance business, which is organized, chartered, or holding an authorization certificate pursuant to chapter 524, 538, or 534, or pursuant to the laws of the United States which authorizes the person to make loans and to receive deposits, including a savings, share, certificate or deposit account, and which is subject to supervision by an official or agency of this state or of the United States

42 “Supervised loan” means a consumer loan, including a loan made pursuant to open end credit, in which the rate of the finance charge, calculated according to the actuarial method, exceeds the rate of finance charge permitted in chapter 535

With respect to a consumer loan made pursuant to open end credit, the finance charge shall be deemed not to exceed the rate permitted in chapter 535 if the finance charge contracted for and received does not exceed a charge for each monthly billing cycle which is one-twelfth of that rate multiplied by the average daily balance of the open end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made. The average daily balance of the open end account is the sum of the amount unpaid each day during that cycle divided by the number of days in the cycle. The amount unpaid on a day is determined by adding to the balance, if any, unpaid as of the beginning of that day all purchases and other debits and deducting all payments and other credits made or received as of that day. If the billing cycle is not monthly, the finance charge shall be deemed not to exceed that rate per year if the finance charge contracted for and received does not exceed a percentage which bears the same relation to that rate as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to three hundred sixty-five. A billing cycle is monthly if the closing date of the cycle is the same date each month or does not vary by more than four days from the regular date.

43 "Mortgage lender" means a domestic or foreign corporation authorized in this state to make loans secured by mortgages or deeds of trust.

537.1302 Definition — Truth in Lending Act. As used in this chapter, "Truth in Lending Act" means title 1 of the Consumer Credit Protection Act, in subchapter 1 of chapter 41 of title 15 of the United States Code, as amended to and including July 1, 1982, and includes regulations issued pursuant to that Act prior to July 1, 1982.

ARTICLE 2

FINANCE CHARGES AND RELATED PROVISIONS

PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

537.2101 Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Consumer Credit Code — Finance Charges and Related Provisions."

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.2101]
the seller may reasonably establish, the seller may make the same finance charge on all amounts financed within a specified range. A finance charge so made does not violate subsection 2 if both of the following are applicable:

a. When applied to the median amount within each range, it does not exceed the maximum rate permitted by subsection 1.

b. When applied to the lowest amount within each range, it does not produce a rate of finance charge exceeding the rate calculated according to paragraph "a" by more than eight percent of the rate calculated according to paragraph "a" of this subsection.

6. Regardless of subsection 2, the seller may contract for and receive a minimum finance charge of not more than five dollars when the amount financed does not exceed seventy-five dollars, or seven dollars and fifty cents when the amount financed exceeds seventy-five dollars.

537.2202 Finance charge for consumer credit sales pursuant to open end credit.

1. With respect to a consumer credit sale made pursuant to open end credit, a creditor may contract for and receive a finance charge not exceeding that permitted in this section.

2. For each billing cycle, a charge may be made which is a percentage of an amount not exceeding the greatest of the following:

a. The average daily balance of the open end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made, which is the sum of the amount unpaid each day during that cycle, divided by the number of days in that cycle. The amount unpaid on a day is determined by adding to the balance, if any, unpaid as of the beginning of that day all purchases and other debits and deducting all payments and other credits made or received as of that day.

b. The balance of the open end account at the beginning of the first day of the billing cycle, after deducting all payments and credits made in the cycle except credits attributable to purchases charged to the account during the cycle.

c. The median amount within a specified range including the balance of the open end account not exceeding that permitted by paragraph "a" or "b". A charge may be made pursuant to this paragraph only if the creditor, subject to classifications and differentiations the creditor may reasonably establish, makes the same charge on all balances within the specified range and if the percentage when applied to the median amount within the range does not produce a charge exceeding the charge resulting from applying that percentage to the lowest amount within the range by more than eight percent of the charge on the median amount.

3. If the billing cycle is monthly, the charge may not exceed an amount equal to one point sixty-five percent. If the billing cycle is not monthly, the maximum charge for the billing cycle shall bear the same relation to the applicable monthly maximum charge as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to three hundred sixty-five divided by twelve. A billing cycle is monthly if the closing date of the cycle is the same date each month or does not vary by more than four days from the regular date.

4. If the charge determined pursuant to subsection 3 is less than fifty cents, a charge may be made which does not exceed fifty cents if the billing cycle is monthly or longer, or the pro rata part of fifty cents which bears the same relation to fifty cents as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to three hundred sixty-five divided by twelve if the billing cycle is shorter than monthly.

PART 3

CONSUMER LOANS: SUPERVISED LOANS

537.2301 Authority to make supervised loans.

1. As used in this part, "licensing authority" means the agency designated in chapter 524, 533, 534, 556, or 556A to issue licenses or otherwise authorize the conduct of business pursuant to the respective chapter or this chapter, and "licensee" includes any person subject to regulation by a licensing authority. "License" includes the authorization, of whatever form, to engage in the conduct regulated under those chapters.

2. A person who is not authorized to make supervised loans as provided herein shall not engage in the business of making supervised loans or undertaking direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against consumers arising from supervised loans, but the person may collect and enforce for three months without a license if the person promptly applies for a license and the person's application has not been denied.

3. The following persons are authorized to make supervised loans:

a. A person who is a supervised financial organization.

b. A person who has obtained a license pursuant to either chapter 536 or 536A.

c. A person who enters into less than ten supervised loans per year in this state and has neither an office physically located in this state nor engages in face-to-face solicitation in this state.

4. This section shall not affect dollar amount, purpose, or rate of finance charge restrictions imposed by any statute of this state or of the United States with respect to which a person is authorized to make loans at a rate of finance charge in excess of that permitted by chapter 535 or pursuant to which a person is licensed.

537.2302 Reserved.

537.2303 Revocation or suspension of license.

1. The licensing authority may issue to a person subject to regulation by that authority an order to show cause why the person’s license with respect to one or more specific places of business should not be suspended for a period not in excess of six months, or revoked. The order shall set the place for a hearing and set a time for the hearing that is not less than ten days from the date of the order. After the hearing, if the licensing authority finds that the licensee has intentionally violated this chapter, or any rule or order made pursuant to law, including an order of discontinuance, or if facts or conditions exist which would clearly have justified the licensing authority in refusing to grant a license for that place or those places of business had these facts or conditions been known to exist at the time the application for the license was made, the licensing authority shall revoke or suspend the license or, if there are mitigating circumstances, may accept an assurance of discontinuance as provided in section 537.6109, and allow retention of the license.

2. No revocation or suspension of a license is lawful unless prior to institution of proceedings by the licensing authority notice is given to the licensee of the facts or conduct which warrant the intended action, and the licensee is given an opportunity to show compliance with all lawful requirements for retention of the license.

3. If the licensing authority finds that probable cause for revocation of a license exists and that enforcement of the law requires immediate suspension of the license pending investigation, the licensing authority may, after a hearing upon five days’ written notice, enter an order suspending the license for not more than thirty days.

4. Whenever the licensing authority revokes or suspends a license, the licensing authority shall enter an order to that effect and forthwith notify the licensee of the revocation or suspension. Within five days after the entry of the order the licensing authority shall deliver to the licensee a copy of the order and the findings supporting the order.

5. Any person holding a license to make supervised loans may relinquish the license by notifying the licensing authority in writing of its relinquishment, but this relinquishment does not affect the licensee’s liability for acts previously committed.

6. No revocation, suspension or relinquishment of a license impairs or affects the obligation of any pre-existing lawful contract between the licensee and any consumer.

7. The licensing authority may reinstate a license, terminate a suspension or grant a new license to a person whose license has been revoked or suspended if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would justify the licensing authority in refusing to grant a license.

537.2304 Records — annual reports.

1. Every licensee shall maintain records in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and practices in a manner that will enable the licensing authority to determine whether the licensee is complying with the provisions of law. The record keeping system of a licensee is sufficient if the licensee makes the required information reasonably available. The records need not be kept in the place of business where supervised loans are made, if the licensing authority is given free access to the records wherever located.

2. On or before April 15 each year every licensee shall file with the licensing authority a composite annual report in the form prescribed by that authority relating to all supervised loans made by the licensee. The licensing authority shall consult with comparable officials in other states for the purpose of making the kinds of information required in annual reports uniform among the states. Information contained in annual reports shall be confidential and may be published only in composite form. The licensing authority shall assess against a licensee who fails to file the prescribed report on or before April 15 a penalty of ten dollars for each day the report is overdue, up to a maximum of thirty days. When an annual report is overdue for more than thirty days, the licensing authority may institute proceedings under section 537.2303 for revocation of the license held by the licensee.

537.2305 Examinations and investigations.

1. For the purpose of discovering violations of this chapter or securing information lawfully required, the licensing authority shall examine periodically at intervals the licensing authority deems appropriate, but not less frequently than is required for other examinations of the licensee by section 524.217, 533.6, 534.401, 536.10, or 536A.15, whichever is applicable, the loans, business, and records of every licensee, except a licensee which has no office physically located in this state and engages in no face-to-face solicitation in this state. In addition, the licensing authority may at any time investigate the loans, business, and records of any lender. For these purposes the licensing authority shall be given free and reasonable access to the offices, places of business, and records of the lender.

2. If the lender’s records are located outside this state, the lender at the lender’s option shall make them available to the licensing authority at a convenient location within this state, or pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the licensing authority or the licensing authority’s representative to examine them at the place where they are maintained. The licensing authority may designate representatives, including comparable officials of the state in which the records are located, to inspect them on the licensing authority’s behalf.

3. For the purposes of this section, the licensing authority may administer oaths or affirmations, and upon the licensing authority’s own motion or upon request of any party may subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, adduce evidence, and require the production of any matter which is relevant to the investigation, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts, or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence

4 Upon failure without lawful excuse to obey a subpoena or to give testimony and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the licensing authority may apply to the district court for an order compelling compliance

§537.2306 Reserved

§537.2307 Restrictions on interest in land as security.

With respect to a supervised loan in which the rate of finance charge is in excess of fifteen percent computed according to the actuarial method, and the amount financed is two thousand dollars or less, a lender may not contract for a security interest in real property used as a residence for the consumer or the consumer's dependents. A security interest taken in violation of this section is void

§537.2308 Regular schedule of payments — maximum loan term.

Supervised loans, not made pursuant to open end credit and in which the amount financed is one thousand dollars or less, shall be scheduled to be payable in substantially equal installments at substantially equal periodic intervals except to the extent that the schedule of payments is adjusted to the seasonal or irregular income of the debtor, and over a period of not more than thirty seven months if the amount financed is more than three hundred dollars, or over a period of not more than twenty five months if the amount financed is three hundred dollars or less. However, a lender may make a loan not pursuant to open end credit that is repayable in a single payment if the amount financed does not exceed one thousand dollars and if the finance charge does not exceed the rate permitted by section 537 2401, subsection 1, to be charged by a supervised financial organization

§537.2309 No other business for purpose of evasion.

A lender may not carry on other business for the purpose of evasion or violation of this chapter at a location where the lender makes supervised loans

§537.2310 Conduct of business other than making loans.

1 Except as provided in subsection 2, a licensee authorized to make supervised loans pursuant to section 537 2301 may not engage in the business of selling or leasing tangible goods at a location where supervised loans are made. In this section, “location” means the entire space in which supervised loans are made and the location must be separated from any space where goods are sold or leased by walls which may be broken only by a passageway to which the public is not admitted

2 This section does not apply to

a. Occasional sales of property used in the ordinary course of business of the licensee
b. Sales of items of collateral of which the licensee has taken possession
c. Sales of items by a licensee who is also authorized by law to operate as a pawnbroker
d. Sales of property or items by the licensee which are not for the profit of the licensee and which are sold for a price not exceeding fifty dollars

PART 4

CONSUMER LOANS MAXIMUM FINANCE CHARGES

§537.2401 Finance charge for consumer loans not pursuant to open end credit.

1 Except as provided with respect to a finance charge for loans pursuant to open end credit under section 537 2402, a lender may contract for and receive a finance charge not exceeding the maximum charge permitted by the laws of this state or of the United States for similar lenders, and, in addition, with respect to a consumer loan, a supervised financial organization or a mortgage lender may contract for and receive a finance charge, calculated according to the actuarial method, not exceeding twenty one percent per year on the unpaid balance of the amount financed. This subsection does not prohibit a lender from contracting for and receiving a finance charge exceeding twenty one percent per year on the unpaid balance of the amount financed on consumer loans if authorized by other provisions of the law

2 This section does not limit or restrict the manner of calculating the finance charge, whether by way of add on, discount, or otherwise, so long as the rate of the finance charge does not exceed that permitted by this section or the laws of this state or of the United States. The finance charge permitted by this section or the laws of this state or of the United States may be calculated by determining the single annual percentage rate as required to be disclosed to the consumer pursuant to section 537 3201 which, when applied according to the actuarial method to the unpaid balances of the amount financed, will yield the finance charge for that transaction which would result from applying any graduated rates permitted by this section or the laws of this state or of the United States. In addition, the finance charge may be calculated on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due. If the loan is a precomputed consumer credit transaction, the finance charge may be calculated on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due, and the effect of prepayment is governed by section 537 2510

3 Except as provided in subsection 5, the term of a loan for the purposes of this section commences on the date the loan is made. Any month may be counted as one-twelfth of a year but a day is counted as one-three hundred sixty-fifth of a year. Subject to classifications and differentiations the lender may reasonably establish, a part of a month in excess of fifteen days may be treated as a full month if periods of fifteen days or less are disregarded and that procedure is not consistently used to obtain a greater yield than would otherwise be permitted. The administrator may adopt rules not inconsistent with the Truth in Lending Act with respect to treating as regular other minor irregularities in amount or time.

4. Subject to classifications and differentiations the lender may reasonably establish, the lender may make the same finance charge on all amounts financed within a specified range. A finance charge so made does not violate subsection 1, if both of the following are applicable:
   a. When applied to the median amount within each range, it does not exceed the maximum permitted by that subsection.
   b. When applied to the lowest amount within each range, it does not produce a rate of finance charge exceeding the rate calculated according to paragraph "a" by more than eight percent of the rate calculated according to paragraph "a".

5. With respect to an insurance premium loan, the term of the loan commences on the earliest inception date of a policy or contract of insurance for which the premium is financed.

83 Acts, ch 124, §26

537.2402 Finance charge for consumer loans pursuant to open end credit.

1. If authorized to make supervised loans, a creditor may contract for and receive a finance charge with respect to a loan pursuant to open end credit not exceeding that permitted in this section.

2. For each billing cycle, a charge may be made which is a percentage of an amount not exceeding the greatest of the following:
   a. The average daily balance of the open end account in the billing cycle for which the charge is made, which is the sum of the amount unpaid each day during that cycle, divided by the number of days in that cycle. The amount unpaid on a day is determined by adding to the balance, if any, unpaid as of the beginning of that day all purchases and other debits and deducting all payments and other credits made or received as of that day.
   b. The balance of the open end account at the beginning of the first day of the billing cycle, after deducting all payments and credits made in the cycle except credits attributable to purchases charged to the account during the cycle.
   c. The median amount within a specified range including the balance of the open end account not exceeding that permitted by paragraph "a" or "b". A charge may be made pursuant to this paragraph only if the organization, subject to classifications and differentiations it may reasonably establish, makes the same charge on all balances within the specified range and if the percentage when applied to the median amount within the range does not produce a charge exceeding the charge resulting from applying that percentage to the lowest amount within the range by more than eight percent of the charge on the median amount.

3. If the billing cycle is monthly, the charge may not exceed an amount equal to one and one-half percent of that part of the maximum amount pursuant to subsection 2 which is five hundred dollars or less and one and one-fourth percent of that part of the maximum amount which is more than five hundred dollars. If the billing cycle is not monthly, the maximum charge for the billing cycle shall bear the same relation to the applicable monthly maximum charge as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to three hundred sixty-five divided by twelve. A billing cycle is monthly if the closing date of the cycle is the same date each month or does not vary by more than four days from the regular date.

4. If the charge determined pursuant to subsection 3 is less than fifty cents, a charge may be made which does not exceed fifty cents if the billing cycle is monthly or longer, or the pro rata part of fifty cents which bears the same relation to fifty cents as the number of days in the billing cycle bears to three hundred sixty-five divided by twelve if the billing cycle is shorter than monthly.

5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter or chapter 535, a creditor may contract for and receive a finance charge without limitation as to amount or rate with respect to a loan pursuant to open-end credit obtained pursuant to a credit card issued by the creditor which entitles the cardholder to purchase or lease goods or services from at least one hundred persons not related to the card issuer.

6. If the differential treatment of this section based on the number of persons honoring a credit card is found to be unconstitutional, a creditor may contract for and receive a finance charge not to exceed twenty-two percent per year for a loan pursuant to open-end credit.

PART 5

CONSUMER CREDIT TRANSACTIONS
OTHER CHARGES AND MODIFICATIONS

537.2501 Additional charges.

1. In addition to the finance charge permitted by parts 2 and 4, a creditor may contract for and receive the following additional charges:
   a. Official fees and taxes.
   b. Charges for insurance as described in subsection 2.
   c. Amounts actually paid or to be paid by the creditor for registration, certificate of title or license fees.
   d. Annual charges, payable in advance, for the privilege of using a credit card which entitles the cardholder to purchase or lease goods or services from at least one hundred persons not related to the card issuer, under an arrangement pursuant to which the debts resulting from the purchases or leases are payable to the card issuer.

e. With respect to a debt secured by an interest in land, the following “closing costs,” provided they are bona fide, reasonable in amount, and not for the purpose of circumvention or evasion of this chapter:

1. Fees or premiums for title examination, abstract of title, title insurance, or similar purposes including surveys.

2. Fees for preparation of a deed, settlement statement, or other documents, if not paid to the creditor or a person related to the creditor.

3. Escrows for future payments of taxes, including assessments for improvements, insurance and water, sewer and land rents.

4. Fees for notarizing deeds and other documents, if not paid to the creditor or a person related to the creditor.

f. Charges for other benefits, including insurance, conferred on the consumer, if the benefits are of value to the consumer and if the charges are reasonable in relation to the benefits, are of a type which is not for credit, and are authorized as permissible additional charges by rule adopted by the administrator.

2. An additional charge may be made for insurance written in connection with the transaction, as follows:

a. With respect to insurance against loss of or damage to property, or against liability arising out of the ownership or use of property, if the creditor furnishes a clear, conspicuous and specific statement in writing to the consumer setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the creditor and stating that the consumer may choose the person through whom the insurance is to be obtained.

b. With respect to consumer credit insurance providing life, accident, health, or unemployment coverage, if the insurance coverage is not required by the creditor; and this fact is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in writing to the consumer, and if, in order to obtain the insurance in connection with the extension of credit, the consumer gives specific dated and separately signed affirmative written indication of the consumer's desire to do so after written disclosure to the consumer of the cost. However, credit unemployment insurance shall be permitted under this paragraph if all of the following conditions have been met:

1. The insurance provides coverage beginning with the first day of unemployment. However, the policy may include a waiting period before the consumer may file a claim.

2. The insurance shall be sold separately and shall be separately priced from any other insurance offered or sold at the same time. The credit unemployment insurance need not be sold separately or separately priced from other insurance offered if it is included as part of a mailed insurance offering by a credit card issuer to its credit cardholders. However, credit unemployment insurance shall not be sold in conjunction with an application for a credit card or for the renewal of a credit card.

3. The premium rates have been affirmatively approved by the insurance division of the department of commerce. In approving or establishing the rates, the division shall review the insurance company's actuarial data to assure that the rates are fair and reasonable. The insurance commissioner shall either hire or contract with a qualified actuary to review the data. The insurance division shall obtain reimbursement from the insurance company for the cost of the actuarial review prior to approving the rates. In addition, the rates shall be made in accordance with the following provisions:

a. Rates shall not be excessive, inadequate or unfairly discriminatory.

b. Due consideration shall be given to all relevant factors within and outside this state but rates shall be deemed to be reasonable under this section and section 537.2501 if they reasonably may be expected to produce a ratio of fifty percent by dividing claims incurred by premiums earned.

[C24, 27, 31, §9422; C35, §4938-f13; C39, §9438.13; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §536.13(6); C66, 71, 73, §536.13(6), 536A.23(6); C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.2501] 86 Acts, ch 1151, §1

537.2502 Delinquency charges.

1. With respect to a precomputed consumer credit transaction, the parties may contract for a delinquency charge on any installment not paid in full within ten days after its due date, as originally scheduled or as deferred, in an amount not exceeding the greater of either of the following:

a. One and one-half percent of the unpaid amount of the installment, or a maximum of five dollars.

b. The deferral charge that would be permitted to defer the unpaid amount of the installment for the period that it is delinquent.

2. A delinquency charge under subsection 1, paragraph “a,” may be collected only once on an installment however long it remains in default. No delinquency charge may be collected with respect to a deferred installment unless the installment is not paid in full within ten days after its deferred due date. A delinquency charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time afterward.

3. No delinquency charge may be collected under subsection 1, paragraph “a,” on an installment which is paid in full within ten days after its scheduled or deferred installment due date even though an earlier maturing installment or a delinquency or deferral charge on an earlier installment may not have been paid in full. For purposes of this subsection payments are applied first to current installments and then to delinquent installments.

537.2503 Deferral charges.

1. Before or after default in payment of a scheduled installment of a precomputed consumer credit transaction, the parties to the transaction may agree in writing to a deferral of all or part of one or more unpaid installments and the creditor may make at the time of deferral and receive at that time or at any time thereafter a deferral charge which is not in excess of one and one-half percent per month for the period of time for which it is deferred, but not to exceed the rate of finance charge which was required to be disclosed in the transaction to the consumer pursuant to section 537.3201 applied to each amount deferred for the period for which it is deferred. In computing a deferral charge for one or more months, any month may be counted as one-twelfth of a year and in computing a deferral charge for part of a month, a day shall be counted as one three hundred sixty-fifth of a year.

2. In addition to the deferral charge permitted by this section, a creditor may make and receive appropriate additional charges as permitted under section 537.2501, and the amount of these charges which is not paid may be added to the amount deferred for the purpose of computing the deferral charge according to subsection 1.

3. The parties may agree in writing at the time of a precomputed consumer credit transaction that if an installment is not paid within ten days after its due date, the creditor may unilaterally grant a deferral and make charges as provided in this section. No deferral charge may be made for a period after the date that the creditor elects to accelerate the maturity of the transaction.

4. A delinquency charge made by the creditor on an installment may not be retained if a deferral charge is made pursuant to this section with respect to the period of delinquency.

537.2504 Finance charge on refinancing.

With respect to a consumer credit transaction in which the rate of finance charge required to be disclosed in the transaction pursuant to section 537.3201 does not exceed eighteen percent per year, other than a consumer lease or a consumer rental purchase agreement, the creditor may, by agreement with the consumer, refinance the unpaid balance and may contract for and receive a finance charge based on the amount financed resulting from the refinancing at a rate of finance charge not to exceed that which was required to be disclosed in the original transaction to the consumer pursuant to section 537.3201. For the purpose of determining the finance charge permitted, the amount financed resulting from the refinancing consists of:

1. If the transaction was not precomputed, the total of the unpaid balance of the amount financed and the accrued charges, including finance charges, on the date of the refinancing, or, if the transaction was precomputed, the amount determined by deducting the unearned portion of the finance charge and any other unearned charges, including charges for insurance or deferral charges, from the unpaid balance on the date of refinancing. For the purposes of this section, the unearned portion of the finance charge and deferral charge, if any, shall be determined as provided in section 537.2510, subsection 2, but without allowing any minimum charge.

2. Appropriate additional charges as permitted under section 537.2501, payment of which is deferred.

(C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.2504)

87 Acts, ch 80, §35

537.2505 Finance charge on consolidation.

1. In this section, "consumer credit transaction" does not include a consumer lease or a consumer rental purchase agreement.

2. If a consumer owes an unpaid balance to a creditor with respect to a consumer credit transaction and becomes obligated on another consumer credit transaction with the same creditor, the parties may agree to a consolidation resulting in a single schedule of payments. If the previous consumer credit transaction was not precomputed, the parties may agree to add the unpaid amount of the amount financed and accrued charges including finance charges on the date of consolidation to the amount financed with respect to the subsequent consumer credit transaction. If the previous consumer credit transaction was precomputed, the parties may agree to refinance the unpaid balance pursuant to section 537.2504, and to consolidate the amount financed resulting from the refinancing by adding it to the amount financed with respect to the subsequent consumer credit transaction. In either case the creditor may contract for and receive a finance charge as provided in subsection 3, based on the aggregate amount financed resulting from the consolidation.

3. If all debts consolidated arise exclusively from consumer loans, the creditor may contract for and receive the finance charge permitted by the provisions on finance charge for consumer loans pursuant to section 537.2401. If the debts consolidated include a debt arising from a consumer credit sale, including a transaction pursuant to a lender credit card, the amount of the finance charge is governed by the provisions on finance charge for consumer credit sales in section 537.2201.

4. If a consumer owes an unpaid balance to a 537.2506 Advances to perform covenants of consumer.
1. If the agreement with respect to a consumer credit transaction other than a consumer lease or a consumer rental purchase agreement contains covenants by the consumer to perform certain duties pertaining to insuring or preserving collateral and the creditor pursuant to the agreement pays for performance of the duties on behalf of the consumer, the creditor may add the amounts paid to the debt. Within a reasonable time after advancing any sums, the creditor shall state to the consumer in writing the amount of the sums advanced, any charges with respect to this amount, and any revised payment schedule and, if the duties of the consumer performed by the creditor pertain to insurance, a brief description of the insurance paid for by the creditor including the type and amount of coverages. No further information need be given.
2. A finance charge may be made for sums advanced pursuant to subsection 1 at a rate not exceeding the rate of finance charge required to be stated to the consumer pursuant to law in the disclosure statement required by this chapter and the Truth in Lending Act, except that with respect to open end credit the amount of the advance may be added to the unpaid balance of the debt and the creditor may make a finance charge not exceeding that permitted by section 537.2202 or 537.2402, as applicable.

537.2507 Attorney’s fees.
With respect to a consumer credit transaction, the agreement may not provide for the payment by the consumer of attorney’s fees. A provision in violation of this subsection is unenforceable.

537.2508 Conversion to open end credit.
The parties may agree at or within ten days prior to the time of conversion to add the unpaid balance of a consumer credit transaction, other than a consumer lease or a consumer rental purchase agreement, not made pursuant to open end credit to the consumer’s open end credit account with the creditor. The unpaid balance so added is an amount equal to the amount financed determined according to the provisions on finance charge on refinancing under section 537.2504.

537.2509 Right to prepay.
Subject to the provisions on prepayment and minimum charge under section 537.2510, the consumer may prepay in full the unpaid balance of a consumer credit transaction, other than a consumer lease or a consumer rental purchase agreement, at any time.

537.2510 Rebate upon prepayment.
1. Except as provided in this section, upon prepayment in full of a precomputed consumer credit transaction, the creditor shall rebate to the consumer an amount not less than the amount of rebate provided in subsection 2, paragraph “a”, or redetermine the earned finance charge as provided in subsection 2, paragraph “b”, and rebate any other unearned charges including charges for insurance. If the rebate otherwise required is less than one dollar, no rebate need be made.
2. The amount of rebate and the redetermined earned finance charge shall be as follows:
   a. The amount of rebate shall be determined by applying the rate of finance charge which was required to be disclosed in the transaction pursuant to section 537.3201, according to the actuarial method,
      (1) If no deferral charges have been made in a transaction, to the unpaid balances and time remaining as originally scheduled for the period following prepayment.
      (2) If a deferral charge has been made, to the unpaid balances and time remaining as deferred for the period following prepayment.

   b. The redetermined earned finance charge shall be determined by applying, according to the actuarial method, the rate of finance charge which was required to be disclosed in the transaction pursuant to section 537.3201 to the actual unpaid balances of the amount financed for the actual time the unpaid balances were outstanding as of the date of prepayment. Any delinquency or deferral charges collected before the date of prepayment shall be applied to reduce the amount financed as of the date collected.
3. Upon prepayment, but not otherwise, of a consumer credit transaction whether or not precomputed, other than a consumer lease, a consumer rental purchase agreement, or a transaction pursuant to open end credit:
   a. If the prepayment is in full, the creditor may collect or retain a minimum charge not exceeding five dollars in a transaction which had an amount financed of seventy-five dollars or less, or not exceeding seven dollars and fifty cents in a transaction which had an amount financed of more than seventy-five dollars, if the minimum charge was contracted for, and the finance charge earned at the time of prepayment is less than the minimum charge contracted for.

b. If the prepayment is in part, the creditor may not collect or retain a minimum charge.

4. For the purposes of this section, the following defined terms apply:
   a. "Computational period" means the interval between scheduled due dates of installments under the transaction if the intervals are substantially equal or, if the intervals are not substantially equal, one month if the smallest interval between the scheduled due dates of installments under the transaction is one month or more, and otherwise one week.
   b. The "interval" between specified dates means the interval between them including one or the other but not both of them. If the interval between the date of a transaction and the due date of the first scheduled installment does not exceed one month by more than fifteen days when the computational period is one month, or eleven days when the computational period is one week, the interval may be considered by the creditor as one computational period.

5. This section does not preclude the collection or retention by the creditor of delinquency charges under section 537.2502.

6. If the maturity is accelerated for any reason and judgment is obtained, the consumer is entitled to the same rebate as if payment had been made on the date maturity is accelerated.

7. Upon prepayment in full of a precomputed consumer credit transaction by the proceeds of consumer credit insurance, the consumer or the consumer's estate is entitled to the same rebate as though the consumer had prepaid the agreement on the date the proceeds of the insurance are paid to the creditor, but no later than ten business days after satisfactory proof of loss is furnished to the creditor.

This section does not preclude the collection or retention by the creditor of delinquency charges under section 537.2502.

ARTICLE 3
REGULATION OF AGREEMENTS AND PRACTICES
PART 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS

537.3101 Short title.
This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Consumer Credit Code — Regulation of Agreements and Practices."

537.3102 Scope.
Part 2 applies to disclosure with respect to consumer credit transactions, other than consumer rental purchase agreements, and the provision in section 537.3201 applies to a sale of an interest in land or a loan secured by an interest in land, without regard to the rate of finance charge, if the sale or loan is otherwise a consumer credit sale or consumer loan. Parts 3 and 4 apply, respectively, to disclosure, limitations on agreements and practices, and limitations on consumer's liability with respect to certain consumer credit transactions. Part 5 applies to home solicitation sales. Part 6 applies to consumer rental agreements.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3102]
87 Acts, ch 80, §41

PART 2
DISCLOSURE

537.3201 Compliance with Truth in Lending Act.
A person upon whom the Truth in Lending Act imposes duties or obligations shall make or give to the consumer the disclosures, information and notices required of the person by that Act and in all respects shall comply with that Act. To the extent the Truth in Lending Act does not impose duties or obligations upon a person in a credit transaction, other than a consumer lease, which is a consumer credit transaction under this chapter, the person shall make or give to the consumer disclosures, information and notices in accordance with the Truth in Lending Act, with respect to the credit transaction.

537.3202 Consumer leases.
1. With respect to a consumer lease the lessor shall give to the consumer the following information:
   a. Brief description or identification of the goods.

PART 6
OTHER CREDIT TRANSACTIONS

537.2601 Charges for other credit transactions.
1. Except as provided in subsection 2, with respect to a credit transaction other than a consumer credit transaction, the parties may contract for the payment by the debtor of any finance or other charge as permitted by law. Except with respect to debt obligations issued by a government, governmental agency or instrumentality, in calculating any finance charge contracted for, any month may be counted as one-twelfth of a year, but a day is to be counted as one three-hundred sixty-fifth of a year.

2. With respect to a credit transaction which would be a consumer credit transaction if a finance charge were made, a charge for delinquency may not exceed amounts allowed for finance charges for consumer credit sales pursuant to open end credit.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.2601]
b. Amount of any payment required at the inception of the lease.
c. Amount paid or payable for official fees, registration, certificate of title, or license fees or taxes.
d. Amount of other charges not included in the periodic payments and a brief description of the charges.
ea. Brief description of insurance to be provided or paid for by the lessor, including the types and amounts of the coverages.
bf. Except with respect to a consumer lease made pursuant to a lender credit card, the number of periodic payments, the amount of each payment, the due date of the first payment, the due dates of subsequent payments or interval between payments, and the total amount payable by the consumer.
g. Statement of the conditions under which the consumer may terminate the lease prior to the end of the term.
h. Statement of the liabilities the lease imposes upon the consumer at the end of the term.
2. The disclosures required by this section are subject to the following:
a. They shall be made clearly and conspicuously in writing, a copy of which shall be delivered to the lessee.
b. They may be supplemented by additional information or explanations supplied by the lessor but none shall be stated, utilized or placed so as to mislead or confuse the lessee or contradict, obscure or detract attention from the information required to be disclosed by this section.
c. They need be made only to the extent applicable.
d. They shall be made on the assumption that all scheduled payments will be made when due and will comply with this section, although the assumption may be rendered inaccurate by an act, occurrence or agreement subsequent to the required disclosure.
e. They shall be made before the lease transaction is consummated but may be made in the lease to be signed by the lessee.

537.3203 Notice to consumer.
The creditor shall give to the consumer a copy of any writing evidencing a consumer credit transaction, other than one pursuant to open end credit, if the writing requires or provides for signature of the consumer. The writing evidencing the consumer's obligation to pay under a consumer credit transaction, other than one pursuant to open end credit, shall contain a clear and conspicuous notice to the consumer that the consumer should not sign it before reading it, that the consumer is entitled to a copy of it, and, except in the case of a consumer lease, that the consumer is entitled to prepay the unpaid balance at any time with such penalty and minimum charges as the agreement and section 537.2510 may permit, and may be entitled to receive a refund of unearned charges in accordance with law. The following notices if clear and conspicuous comply with this section:

1. In all transactions to which this section applies:

"NOTICE TO CONSUMER: 1. Do not sign this paper before you read it. 2. You are entitled to a copy of this paper. 3. You may prepay the unpaid balance at any time without penalty and may be entitled to receive a refund of unearned charges in accordance with law."

2. In addition, in a transaction in which a minimum charge will be collected or retained, the notice to consumer shall state "4. If you prepay the unpaid balance, you may have to pay a minimum charge not greater than seven dollars and fifty cents."

537.3204 Notice of assignment.
A consumer is authorized to pay the original creditor until the consumer receives notification of assignment of rights to payment pursuant to a consumer credit transaction and that payment is to be made to the assignee. A notification which does not reasonably identify the rights assigned is ineffective. If requested by the consumer, the assignee must seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made and unless the assignee does so the consumer may pay the original creditor.

537.3205 Change in terms of open end credit accounts.
1. Whether or not a change is authorized by prior agreement, a creditor may make a change in the terms of an open end credit account applying to any balance incurred after the effective date of the change only if either the consumer after receiving disclosure of the change agrees to it in writing or the creditor delivers or mails to the consumer two written disclosures of the change, the first at least three months before the effective date of the change and the second at a later time before the effective date of the change.

2. Unless authorized by this chapter or unless agreed to by the consumer, a creditor shall not change the terms of an open end credit account, with respect to a balance incurred before the effective date of the change, which results in an increase of the rate of the finance charge or other charge or an increase in the amount of a periodic payment due, or which otherwise adversely affects the interests of the consumer with respect to the balance. The use by the consumer of an open-end account after the effective date of the change constitutes the agreement of the consumer if the consumer is notified as provided in subsection 1 that the use will constitute the agreement of the consumer.

3. A disclosure provided for in subsection 1 is mailed to the consumer when mailed to the consumer at the consumer's address used by the creditor for mailing the consumer periodic billing statements.

4. If a creditor attempts to make a change in the terms of an open end credit account without complying with this section, any additional cost or charge to the consumer resulting from the change is an excess §537.3206 Receipt — statements of account — evidence of payment.

1. The creditor shall deliver or mail to the consumer, without request, a written receipt for each payment by coin or currency on an obligation pursuant to a consumer credit transaction. A periodic statement for a computational period showing a payment received by mail complies with this subsection.

2. Upon written request of a consumer, the person to whom an obligation is owed pursuant to a consumer credit agreement shall provide a written statement of the dates and amounts of payments made within the twelve months preceding the month in which the request is received and the total amount unpaid as of the end of the period covered by the statement. The statement shall be provided without charge once during each year of the term of the obligation. If additional statements are requested the creditor may charge not in excess of three dollars for each additional statement.

3. After a consumer has fulfilled all obligations with respect to a consumer credit transaction, other than one pursuant to open end credit, the person to whom the obligation was owed shall, upon request of the consumer, deliver or mail to the consumer written evidence acknowledging payment in full of all obligations with respect to the transaction.

§537.3207 Form of insurance premium loan agreement.

An agreement pursuant to which an insurance premium loan is made shall contain the names of the insurance agent or broker negotiating each policy or contract and of the insurer issuing each policy or contract, the number and inception date of, and premium for, each policy or contract, the date on which the term of the loan begins, and a clear and conspicuous notice that each policy or contract may be canceled if payment is not made in accordance with the agreement. If a policy or contract has not been issued when the agreement is signed, the agreement may provide that the insurance agent or broker may insert the appropriate information in the agreement and, if they do so, shall furnish the information promptly in writing to the insured.

§537.3208 Notice to cosigners and similar parties.

1. No natural person, other than the spouse of the consumer, is obligated as a cosigner, co-maker, guarantor, endorser, surety, or similar party with respect to a consumer credit transaction, unless before or contemporaneously with signing any separate agreement of obligation or any writing setting forth the terms of the debtor's agreement, the person receives a separate written notice that contains a completed identification of the debt the person may have to pay and reasonably informs the person of the person's obligation with respect to it.

2. A clear and conspicuous notice in substantially the following form complies with this section:

NOTICE

You agree to pay the debt identified below although you may not personally receive any property, services, or money. You may be sued for payment although the person who receives the property, services, or money is able to pay. This notice is not the contract that obligates you to pay the debt. Read the contract for the exact terms of your obligation.

IDENTIFICATION OF DEBT YOU MAY HAVE TO PAY

........................................................................
(name of debtor)
........................................................................
(name of creditor)
........................................................................
(date)
........................................................................
(kind of debt)

I have received a copy of this notice.

........................................................................
(Date) (Signed)

3. The notice required by this section need not be given to a seller, lessor, or lender who is obligated to an assignee of the seller's, lessor's, or lender's rights.

4. A person entitled to notice under this section shall also be given a copy of any writing setting forth the terms of the debtor's agreement and of any separate agreement of obligation signed by the person entitled to the notice.

§537.3209 Advertising.

1. A seller, lessor, or lender shall not advertise, print, display, publish, distribute, utter or broadcast, or cause to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, uttered or broadcast in any manner, any false, misleading, or deceptive statement or representation with regard to the rates, terms or conditions of credit with respect to a consumer credit transaction.

2. Advertising that complies with the Truth in Lending Act does not violate this section.

3. This section does not apply to the owner or personnel, as such, of any medium in which an advertisement appears or through which it is disseminated.

537.3210 Prohibited statements relating to rates.
A creditor shall not state the rate of a finance charge to a consumer, in response to any inquiry, or in any advertisement, in the form of an add-on or discount rate, or in any form other than the rate calculated according to the actuarial method as a percent per year on the unpaid balances of the amount financed, or the annual percentage rate required to be disclosed under the Truth in Lending Act.
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3210]

537.3211 Notice of consumer paper.
Every note which is a negotiable instrument pursuant to section 554.3104 taken in a consumer credit transaction, if the writing requires or provides for a signature of the consumer, shall conspicuously show on its face the following: “This is a consumer credit transaction.”

537.3212 Notice of methods of financing and rates.
1. With respect to a consumer who has an open end credit account with a creditor, and with respect to a creditor which offers to some or all of its customers consumer credit sales of goods or services both pursuant to open end credit and not pursuant to open end credit, that creditor shall give written notice to that consumer of those alternative methods at the times provided in subsection 3. The notice shall be as provided in subsection 2.
2. The notice required by this section shall conspicuously state the highest finance charge charged by that creditor to any consumer within the last calendar year for each type of credit sale. Such finance charge shall be stated as an annual percentage rate in such form as is required pursuant to section 537.3201 for each type of credit sale described in subsection 1, and the terms of repayment for each type of credit sale.
3. This section is complied with if notice is given at the following times:
a. With respect to an existing open end credit account holder, in a writing contained as a part of, or mailed with a periodic statement mailed to the account holders and no less than once every six months.
b. With respect to a consumer not holding an existing open end credit account, if the written notice is presented to the person at the time of the consumer credit transaction, and thereafter as provided in paragraph "a".
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3212] This section not applicable under §535.11(6)

PART 3
LIMITATIONS ON AGREEMENTS AND PRACTICES

537.3301 Security in consumer credit transactions.
1. With respect to a consumer credit sale, a seller may take a security interest in the property sold. In addition, a seller may take a security interest in goods upon which services are performed or in which goods sold are installed or to which they are annexed, or in land to which the goods are affixed or which is maintained, repaired or improved as a result of the sale of the goods or services, if in the case of a security interest in land the amount financed is one thousand dollars or more, or in the case of a security interest in goods if either the amount financed is three hundred dollars or more, or if the goods are household goods, or motor vehicles used by a consumer, the consumer’s dependents, or the family with which the consumer resides, as transportation to and from a place of employment, one hundred dollars or more. Except as provided with respect to cross-collateral under section 537.3302, a seller may not otherwise take a security interest in property to secure the debt arising from a consumer credit sale.
2. With respect to a consumer lease, a lessor may not take a security interest in property to secure the debt arising from the lease. This subsection does not apply to a security deposit for a consumer lease or a consumer rental purchase agreement.
3. With respect to a supervised loan, a lender may not take a security interest, other than a purchase money security interest, in the clothing, one dining table and set of chairs, one refrigerator, one heating stove, one cooking stove, one radio, beds and bedding, one couch, two living room chairs, cooking utensils, or kitchenware used by the consumer, the consumer’s dependents, or the family with whom the consumer resides.
4. A security interest taken in violation of this section is void.

537.3302 Cross-collateral.
1. In addition to contracting for a security interest pursuant to the provisions on security in consumer credit transactions under section 537.3301, a seller in a consumer credit sale may secure the debt arising from the sale by contracting for a security interest in other property if as a result of a prior sale the seller has an existing security interest in the other property. The seller may also contract for a security interest in the property sold in the subsequent sale as security for the previous debt.
2. If the seller contracts for a security interest in other property pursuant to this section, the rate of finance charge thereafter on the aggregate unpaid balances so secured may not exceed that permitted if the balances so secured were consolidated pursuant to the provisions on finance charge on consolidation under section 537.2505. The seller has a reasonable time after so contracting to make any adjustments required by this section.

537.3303 Debt secured by cross-collateral.
1. If debts arising from two or more consumer credit sales, other than sales pursuant to open end credit, are secured by cross-collateral or consolidated... into one debt payable on a single schedule of payments, and the debt is secured by security interests taken with respect to one or more of the sales, payments received by the seller after the taking of the cross-collateral or the consolidation are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount of the debt secured by the various security interests, to have been first applied to the payment of the debts arising from the sales first made. To the extent debts are paid according to this section, security interests in items of property terminate as the debt originally incurred with respect to each item is paid.

2. Payments received by the seller upon an open end credit account are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount of the debt secured by the various security interests, to have been applied first to the payment of finance charges in the order of their entry to the account and then to the payment of debts in the order in which the entries to the account showing the debts were made.

3. If the debts consolidated arose from two or more sales made on the same day, payments received by the seller are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount of the debt secured by the various security interests, to have been applied first to the payment of the smallest debt.

537.3304 Use of multiple agreements.

1. With respect to a sale or loan other than a supervised loan, a creditor may not use multiple agreements in what is in substance a single transaction, with intent to obtain a higher finance charge than would otherwise be permitted by the provisions of article 2 of this chapter.

2. With respect to a supervised loan, a lender may not use multiple agreements with intent to obtain a higher finance charge than would otherwise be permitted. For the purposes of this subsection, multiple agreements are used if a lender allows any person, or husband and wife, to become obligated in any way under more than one loan agreement with the lender or with a person related to the lender.

3. The excess amount of finance charge obtained in violation of this section is an excess charge for the purposes of the provisions on rights of parties in section 537.5201 and the provisions on civil actions by the administrator in section 537.6113.

537.3305 No assignment of earnings.

1. A creditor may not take an assignment of earnings of the consumer for payment or as security for payment of a debt arising out of a consumer credit transaction. An assignment of earnings in violation of this section is unenforceable by the assignee of the earnings and revocable by the consumer. This section does not prohibit a consumer from authorizing deductions in favor of a creditor if the authorization is revocable, the consumer is given a complete copy of the writing evidencing the authorization at the time the consumer signs it, and the writing contains on its face a conspicuous notice of the consumer's right to revoke the authorization.

2. A sale of unpaid earnings made in consideration of the payment of money to or for the account of the seller of the earnings is deemed to be a loan to the seller secured by an assignment of earnings.

537.3306 Authorization to confess judgment prohibited.

Unless executed after default on a claim arising out of a consumer credit transaction, authorization for a judgment by confession on that claim pursuant to chapter 676 is void. Any other authorization by a consumer for any person to confess judgment on the claim, whenever executed, is void.

537.3307 Certain negotiable instruments prohibited.

With respect to a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, the creditor may not take a negotiable instrument other than a check or credit union share draft dated not later than ten days after its issuance as evidence of the obligation of the consumer.

537.3308 Balloon payments.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, if any scheduled payment of a consumer credit transaction is more than twice as large as the average of earlier scheduled payments, the consumer has the right to refinance the amount of that payment at the time it is due without penalty, as provided in section 537.2504. The terms of the refinancing shall be no less favorable to the consumer than the terms of the original transaction.

2. This section does not apply to any of the following:

a. A consumer lease.

b. A transaction pursuant to open end credit.

c. A transaction to the extent that the payment schedule is adjusted to the seasonal or irregular income or scheduled payments of obligations of the consumer.

d. A transaction of a class defined by rule of the administrator as not requiring for the protection of the consumer a right to refinance as provided in this section.

e. A consumer loan in which the amount financed exceeds five thousand dollars and is secured by an interest in land.

f. A consumer rental purchase agreement.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3308; 82 Acts, ch 1153, §17]

87 Acts, ch 80, §43

537.3309 Referral sales and leases.

A practice unlawful under section 714.16, subsection 2, paragraph "b", if done in connection with a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, is a violation of this chapter for which the consumer has a cause of action under section 537.5201, subsection 1. The administrator has all powers granted under article 6, part 1, to enforce the provisions of section 714.16, subsection 2, paragraph "b". If a consumer is induced by a violation of section 714.16, subsection 2, paragraph "b" to enter into a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, the agreement is unenforceable by the seller or lessor and the consumer, at the consumer's option, in addition to other remedies, may rescind the agreement or retain the goods delivered and the benefit of any services performed, without any obligation to pay for them. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3309]

537.3310 Limitations on executory transactions.
1. In a consumer credit transaction, other than a consumer rental purchase agreement, if performance by a creditor is by delivery of goods, services, or both, in four or more installments, either on demand of the consumer or by prearranged scheduled performance, the consumer may cancel the obligation with respect to that part which has not been performed on the date of cancellation.
2. If the consumer exercises the right to cancel or, in any event, if the creditor attempts to exercise a right to accelerate, the creditor is entitled to recover only that part of the cash price and charges attributable to the part of the creditor's obligation which has been performed.
3. Cancellation under this section shall be effective when the consumer mails or delivers a written notice of cancellation.
4. Notwithstanding an agreement to the contrary, a creditor may not exercise a right to accelerate beyond the amount set forth in subsection 2.
5. Subsections 1 through 4 do not apply to a membership camping contract which is subject to the requirements of chapter 557B. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3310]

87 Acts, ch 80, §44; 87 Acts, ch 181, §4

537.3311 Discrimination prohibited.
A creditor shall not refuse to enter into a consumer credit transaction or impose finance charges or other terms or conditions more onerous than those regularly extended by that creditor to consumers of similar economic backgrounds because of the age, color, creed, national origin, political affiliation, race, religion, sex, marital status or disability of the consumer, or because the consumer receives public assistance, social security benefits, pension benefits or the like, or because of the exercise by the consumer of rights pursuant to this chapter or other provisions of law. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3311]

PART 4

LIMITATIONS ON CONSUMER'S LIABILITY

537.3401 Restriction on liability in consumer lease.
The obligation of a lessee upon expiration of a consumer lease may not exceed twice the average payment allocable to a monthly period under the lease. This limitation does not apply to charges for damages to the leased property or for other default. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3401]

537.3402 Limitation on default charges.
Except for reasonable expenses incurred in realizing on a security interest, the agreement with respect to a consumer credit transaction other than a consumer lease may not provide for any charges as a result of default by the consumer other than those authorized by this chapter. A provision in violation of this section is unenforceable. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.3402]

537.3403 Card issuer subject to claims and defenses.
1. This section neither limits the liability of nor imposes liability on a card issuer as a manufacturer, supplier, seller, or lessor of property or services sold or leased pursuant to the credit card. This section may subject a card issuer to claims and defenses of a cardholder against a seller or lessor arising from sales or leases made pursuant to the credit card.
2. A card issuer is subject to claims and defenses of a cardholder against the seller or lessor arising from the sale or lease of property or services by a seller or lessor licensed, franchised, or permitted by the card issuer or a person related to the card issuer to do business under the trade name or designation of the card issuer or a person related to the card issuer, to the extent of the original amount owing to the card issuer with respect to the sale or lease of the property or services as to which the claim or defense arose.
3. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a card issuer, including a lender credit card issuer, is subject to all claims and defenses of a cardholder against the seller or lessor arising from the sale or lease of property or services pursuant to the credit card only if all of the following apply:
   a. The original amount owing to the card issuer with respect to the sale or lease of the property or services as to which the claim or defense arose exceeds fifty dollars.
   b. The residence of the cardholder and the place where the sale or lease occurred are in the same state or within one hundred miles of each other.
   c. The cardholder has made a good faith attempt to obtain satisfaction from the seller or lessor with respect to the claim or defense.
4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a card issuer, including a lender credit card issuer, is subject to claims and defenses only to the extent of the amount owing to the card issuer with respect to the sale or lease of the property or services as to which the claim or defense arose at the time the card issuer has notice of the claim or defense. Notice of the claim or defense may be given prior to the attempt to obtain satisfaction specified in subsection 3. Written notice is effective when mailed or delivered.
5. For the purpose of determining the amount owing to the card issuer with respect to the sale or lease upon an open end credit account, payments received for the account are deemed to have been first applied to the payment of finance charges in the order of their entry to the account and then to the payment of debts in the order in which the entries of the debts are made to the account.

6. Except as provided in section 537.1107, an agreement may not contain a provision to limit or waive the claims or defenses of a cardholder under this section. A provision in violation of this subsection is unenforceable.

537.3404 Assignee subject to claims and defenses.

1. With respect to a consumer credit sale or consumer lease, an assignee of the rights of the seller or lessor is subject to all claims and defenses of the consumer against the seller or lessor arising from the sale or lease of property or services, notwithstanding that the assignee is a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument issued in violation of the provisions prohibiting certain negotiable instruments in section 537.3307; unless the consumer has agreed in writing not to assert against an assignee a claim or defense arising out of such sale, and the consumer’s contract has been assigned to an assignee not related to the seller who acquired the consumer’s contract in good faith and for value and who gives the consumer notice of the assignment as provided in this subsection and who within thirty days after the mailing of the notice receives no written notice of the facts giving rise to the consumer’s claim or defense. Such agreement not to assert a claim or defense is not valid if the assignee receives such written notice from the consumer within such thirty-day period. The notice of assignment shall be in writing and addressed to the consumer at the consumer’s address as stated in the contract, identify the contract, describe the property purchased by the consumer, state the names of the seller and consumer, the name and address of the assignee, the amount payable by the consumer and the number, amounts and due dates of the installments, and contain a conspicuous notice to the consumer that the consumer has thirty days from the date of the mailing of the notice to the consumer within which to notify the assignee in writing of any claims or defenses the consumer may have against the seller and that if written notification of any such claims or defenses is not received by the assignee within such thirty-day period, the assignee will have the right to enforce the contract free of any claims or defenses the consumer may have against the seller. An assignee does not acquire a consumer’s contract in good faith within the meaning of this subsection if the assignee has knowledge or, from the assignee’s course of dealing with the seller or the assignee’s records, notice of substantial complaints by other consumers of the seller’s failure or refusal to perform the seller’s contracts with them and of the seller’s failure to remedy the seller’s defaults within a reasonable time after the assignee notifies the seller of the complaints.

2. A claim or defense of a consumer specified in subsection 1 may be asserted against the assignee under this section only if the consumer has made a good faith attempt to obtain satisfaction from the seller or lessor with respect to the claim or defense, and only to the extent of the amount owing to the assignee with respect to the sale or lease of the property or services as to which the claim or defense arose, at the time the assignee has notice of the claim or defense. Notice of the claim or defense may be given prior to the attempt specified in this subsection. Written notice is effective when mailed or delivered.

3. For the purpose of determining the amount owing to the assignee with respect to the sale or lease:

   a. Payments received by the assignee after the consolidation of two or more consumer credit sales, other than pursuant to open end credit, are deemed to have been first applied to the payment of the sales first made, and if the sales consolidated arose from sales made on the same day, payments are deemed to have been first applied to the smaller or smallest sale or sales.

   b. Payments received upon an open end credit account are deemed to have been first applied to the payment of finance charges in the order of their entry to the account and then to the payment of debts in the order in which the entries of the debts are made to the account.

4. Except as provided in section 537.1107, an agreement may not contain a provision to limit or waive the claims or defenses of a consumer under this section. A provision in violation of this subsection is unenforceable.

537.3405 Lender subject to defenses arising from sales and leases.

1. A lender, other than the issuer of a lender credit card, who, with respect to a particular transaction, makes a consumer loan for the purpose of enabling a consumer to buy or lease from a particular seller or lessor property or services, is subject to all claims and defenses of the consumer against the seller or lessor arising from that sale or lease of the property or services if any of the following are applicable:

   a. The lender knows that the seller or lessor arranged for a commission, brokerage, or referral fee, for the extension of credit by the lender.

   b. The lender is a person related to the seller or lessor, unless the relationship is remote or is not a factor in the transaction.

   c. The seller or lessor guarantees the loan or otherwise assumes the risk of loss by the lender upon the loan.

   d. The lender directly supplies the seller or lessor with the contract document used by the consumer to evidence the loan, and the seller or lessor has knowledge of the credit terms and participates in the preparation of the document.
CONSUMER CREDIT CODE, §537.3604

PART 6
CONSUMER RENTAL PURCHASE AGREEMENTS

537.3601 Short title.
This part of article 3 may be known and may be cited as the "Consumer Rental Purchase Agreement Act". 87 Acts, ch 80, §1

537.3602 Purposes — rules of construction.
1. This part shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.
2. The underlying purposes and policies of this part are to:
   a. Define, simplify, and clarify the law governing consumer rental purchase agreements.
   b. Provide certain disclosures to consumers who enter into consumer rental purchase agreements, and further consumer understanding of the terms of consumer rental purchase agreements.
   c. Protect consumers against unfair practices.
   d. Permit and encourage the development of fair and economically sound rental purchase practices.
   e. Make the law on consumer rental purchase agreements, including administrative rules, more uniform among the various uniform consumer credit code jurisdictions.
3. A reference to a requirement imposed by this part includes a reference to a related rule of the administrator adopted pursuant to this chapter.
87 Acts, ch 80, §2

537.3603 Exclusions.
This part does not apply to, and an agreement which complies with this part is not governed by, the provisions regarding:
1. A consumer credit sale as defined in section 537.1301, subsection 12.
2. A consumer lease as defined in section 537.1301, subsection 13.
3. A consumer loan as defined in section 537.1301, subsection 14.
4. A lease or agreement which constitutes a "credit sale" as defined in 12 C.F.R. §226.2(a16), and the Truth In Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. §1602(g), or an agreement which constitutes a "sale of goods" under section 537.1301, subsection 35.
5. A lease which constitutes a consumer lease as defined in 12 C.F.R. §213.2(a6).
6. A lease or agreement which constitutes a security interest as defined in section 554.1201, subsection 37.
87 Acts, ch 80, §3; 88 Acts, ch 1134, §97

537.3604 General definitions.
As used in this part, unless otherwise required by the context:
1. "Administrator" means the administrator as designated in section 537.6103.
2. "Advertisement" means a commercial message in any medium, including signs, window displays, and price tags, that promotes, directly or indirectly, a consumer rental purchase agreement.
3. "Cash price" means the price at which the lessor in the ordinary course of business would offer to sell the personal property to the lessee for cash on the date of the consumer rental purchase agreement.
§537.3604, CONSUMER CREDIT CODE

4. “Consummation” means the time at which the lessee enters into a consumer rental purchase agreement.

5. “Lessee” means a natural person who rents personal property under a consumer rental purchase agreement for personal, family, or household use.

6. “Lessor” means a person who, in the ordinary course of business, regularly leases, offers to lease, or arranges for the leasing of property under a consumer rental purchase agreement.

7. “Personal property” means any property that is not real property under the laws of this state when it is made available for a consumer rental purchase agreement.

8. “Consumer rental purchase agreement” means an agreement for the use of personal property in which all of the following are applicable:
   a. The lessor is regularly engaged in the rental purchase business.
   b. The agreement is for an initial period of four months or less, whether or not there is any obligation beyond the initial period, that is automatically renewable with each payment and that permits the lessee to become the owner of the property.
   c. The lessee is a person other than an organization.
   d. The lessee takes under the consumer rental purchase agreement primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose.
   e. The amount payable under the consumer rental purchase agreement does not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.

537.3605 Disclosures.

In a consumer rental purchase agreement, the lessor shall disclose the following items, as applicable:

1. The total of scheduled payments accompanied by an explanation that this term means the “total dollar amount of lease payments you will have to make to acquire ownership”.

2. By item, the total number, amounts, and timing of all lease payments and other charges including taxes or official fees paid to or through the lessor which are necessary to acquire ownership of the property.

3. Any initial or advance payment such as a delivery charge, security deposit, or trade-in allowance.

4. A statement that the lessee will not own the property until the lessee has made the total of payments necessary to acquire ownership of the property.

5. A statement that the total of payments does not include additional charges such as late payment charges, and a separate listing and explanation of these charges as applicable.

6. If applicable, a statement that the lessee is responsible for the fair market value of the property if and as of the time it is lost, stolen, damaged, or destroyed.

7. A description of the goods or merchandise including model numbers as applicable and a statement indicating whether the property is new or used. It is not a violation of this subsection to indicate that the property is used if it is actually new.

8. A statement that at any time after the first periodic payment is made, the lessee may acquire ownership of the property by tendering fifty-five percent of the difference between the total of scheduled payments necessary to acquire ownership and the total amount of lease payments paid on the account at that time. It is not a violation of this subsection for the lessor and the lessee to agree in writing to allow the lessee to acquire ownership of the property for less than the amounts referred to in this subsection.

9. The cash price of the merchandise.

87 Acts, ch 80, §5

537.3606 Form requirements.

1. The disclosure information required by section 537.3605 and this section shall be disclosed in a consumer rental purchase agreement, and shall meet the following requirements:
   a. Be made clearly and conspicuously with items appearing in logical order and segregated as appropriate for readability and clarity.
   b. Be made in writing.
   c. Except as provided in subsection 2 or in rules adopted by the administrator, need not be contained in a single writing or made in the order set forth in section 537.3605.
   d. May be supplemented by additional information or explanations supplied by the lessor, but none shall be stated, used or placed so as to mislead or confuse the lessee, or to contradict, obscure, or detract attention from the information required by section 537.3605, and so long as the additional information or explanations do not have the effect of circumventing, evading, or unduly complicating the information required to be disclosed by section 537.3605.

2. The lessor shall disclose all information required by section 537.3605 before the consumer rental purchase agreement is consummated. These disclosures shall be made on the face of the writing evidencing the consumer rental purchase agreement.

3. Before any payment is due, the lessor shall furnish the lessee with an exact copy of each consumer rental purchase agreement, which shall be signed by the lessee and which shall evidence the lessee’s agreement. If there is more than one lessee in a consumer rental purchase agreement, delivery of a copy of the consumer rental purchase agreement to one of the lessees constitutes compliance with this part; however, a lessee not signing the agreement is not liable under it.

4. The administrator may adopt by rule requirements for the order, acknowledgement by initialing, and conspicuousness of the disclosures set forth in section 537.3605. These rules may allow these disclosures to be made in accordance with model forms prepared by the administrator.

5. The terms of the consumer rental purchase agreement, except as otherwise provided in this part, shall be set forth in not less than eight-point standard type, or such similar type as prescribed in rules adopted by the administrator.

6. Every consumer rental purchase agreement shall contain immediately above or adjacent to the place for the signature of the lessee, a clear, conspicuous, printed or typewritten notice in substantially the following language:

NOTICE TO LESSEE — READ BEFORE SIGNING

a. DO NOT SIGN THIS BEFORE YOU READ THE ENTIRE AGREEMENT INCLUDING ANY WRITING ON THE REVERSE SIDE, EVEN IF OTHERWISE ADVISED.

b. DO NOT SIGN THIS IF IT CONTAINS ANY BLANK SPACES.

c. YOU ARE ENTITLED TO AN EXACT COPY OF ANY AGREEMENT YOU SIGN.

d. YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO EXERCISE ANY EARLY BUY-OUT OPTION AS PROVIDED IN THIS AGREEMENT. EXERCISE OF THIS OPTION MAY RESULT IN A REDUCTION OF YOUR TOTAL COST TO ACQUIRE OWNERSHIP UNDER THIS AGREEMENT.

e. IF YOU ELECT TO MAKE WEEKLY RATHER THAN MONTHLY PAYMENTS AND EXERCISE YOUR PURCHASE OPTION, YOU MAY PAY MORE FOR THE LEASED PROPERTY.

7. The notice described in subsection 6 shall be in bold face, ten-point type.

87 Acts, ch 80, §6

537.3607 Receipts.

The lessor shall furnish the lessee, without request, an itemized written receipt for each payment in cash, or any other time the method of payment itself does not provide evidence of payment.

87 Acts, ch 80, §7

537.3608 Acquiring ownership.

At any time after the first lease payment is made, the lessee may acquire ownership of the property by tendering fifty-five percent of the difference between the total of lease payments necessary to acquire ownership and the total amount of lease payments made. The lessor shall then provide written evidence to the lessee that the lessee has acquired ownership of the property. It is not a violation of this section for the lessor and the lessee to agree in writing to allow the lessee to acquire ownership of the property for less than the amounts referred to in this section.

87 Acts, ch 80, §8

537.3609 Renegotiation.

1. A renegotiation occurs when an existing consumer rental purchase agreement is satisfied and replaced by a new consumer rental purchase agreement undertaken by the same lessor and lessee. A renegotiation is a new lease requiring new disclosures.

2. However, the following events are not renegotiations:

a. The addition or return of property in a multi-item agreement or the substitution of the leased property, if in either case the lease payment is not changed by more than twenty-five percent.

b. A deferral or extension of one or more lease payments, or portions of a lease payment.

c. A reduction in charges in the agreement.

d. A lease or agreement involved in a court proceeding.

87 Acts, ch 80, §9

537.3610 Balloon payments prohibited.

A lessee shall not be required, as a condition to acquiring ownership, to make a payment that is more than twice the amount of a regular rental payment, or to pay lease payments totaling more than the cost to acquire ownership as disclosed pursuant to section 537.3605. This section does not apply to payments made pursuant to section 537.3608, 537.3612, or 537.3619.

87 Acts, ch 80, §10

537.3611 Prohibited charges.

A lessor shall not make a charge for any of the following:

1. Any insurance whether in connection with the transaction or otherwise, except that a charge may be made for property insurance on the leased property if the charge is clearly disclosed as optional and all other requirements of section 537.2501, subsection 2, paragraph "a", are met.

2. A penalty for early termination of a consumer rental purchase agreement or for the return of an item at any point, except for those charges authorized by sections 537.3612 and 537.3613.

3. Payment by a cosigner of the consumer rental purchase agreement of any fees or charges which could not be imposed upon the lessee as part of the consumer rental purchase agreement.

87 Acts, ch 80, §11

537.3612 Additional charges.

1. In a consumer rental purchase agreement, the lessor may contract for and receive an initial non-refundable administrative fee not to exceed ten dollars. If a security deposit is required by the lessor, the amount and conditions under which it is returned must be disclosed with the disclosures required by sections 537.3605 and 537.3606.

2. In a consumer rental purchase agreement, the lessor may contract for and receive a delivery charge not to exceed ten dollars or, in the case of a consumer rental purchase agreement covering more than five items, a delivery charge not to exceed twenty-five dollars. A delivery charge may be assessed only if the lessor actually delivers the items to the lessee's dwelling and the delivery charge is disclosed with the disclosures required by sections 537.3605 and 537.3606. The delivery charge may be assessed in lieu of and not in addition to the initial administrative charge in subsection 1 of this section.

3. In a consumer rental purchase agreement, a lessor may contract for and receive a charge for picking up payments from the lessee if the lessor is required or requested to visit the lessee’s dwelling to pick up a payment. In a consumer rental purchase agreement with payment or renewal dates which are more frequent than monthly, this charge shall not be assessed more than three times in any three-month period. In consumer rental purchase agreements with payments or renewal options which are at least monthly, this charge shall not be assessed more than three times in any six-month period. A charge assessed pursuant to this subsection shall not exceed seven dollars. This charge is in lieu of any delinquency charge assessed for the applicable payment period.

4. In a consumer rental purchase agreement, the parties may contract for late charges or delinquency fees as follows:

a. For consumer rental purchase agreements with monthly renewal dates, a late charge not exceeding five dollars may be assessed on any payment not made within five business days after either payment is due or the return of the property is required.

b. For consumer rental purchase agreements with weekly or biweekly renewal dates, a late charge not exceeding three dollars may be assessed on any payments not made within three business days after either payment is due or the return of the property is required.

A late charge on a consumer rental purchase agreement may be collected only once on any accrued payment, no matter how long it remains unpaid. A late charge may be collected at the time it accrues or at any time thereafter. A late charge shall not be assessed against a payment that is timely made, even though an earlier late charge has not been paid in full.

87 Acts, ch 80, §12

537.3613 Reinstatement fees.
A reinstatement fee as provided for in section 537.3616 shall not equal more than the outstanding balance of any missed payments and delinquency charges on those missed payments plus an additional reinstatement fee that shall not exceed five dollars.

87 Acts, ch 80, §13

537.3614 Taxes and official fees.
1. If the amount is separately disclosed in the agreement, the lessor may require the lessee to pay all applicable state and county sales, use, and personal property taxes levied as a result of the execution of the consumer rental purchase agreement, provided that the lessor pays the full amount of these taxes to the appropriate authorities.

2. If the amount is separately disclosed in the agreement, the lessor may contract for and receive from the lessee an amount equal to all official fees required to be paid under the consumer rental purchase agreement provided that the lessor pays the full amount of these fees to the appropriate authorities.

87 Acts, ch 80, §14

537.3615 Advertising.
1. An advertisement for a consumer rental purchase agreement shall not state or imply that a specific item is available at specific amounts or terms unless the lessor usually and customarily offers or will offer that item at those amounts or terms.

2. If an advertisement for a consumer rental purchase agreement refers to or states the amount of any payment, or the right to acquire ownership, for a specific item, the advertisement must also clearly and conspicuously state the following terms as applicable:

a. That the transaction advertised is a consumer rental purchase agreement.

b. The total of payments necessary to acquire ownership.

c. That the lessee will not own the property until the total amount necessary to acquire ownership is paid in full or by prepayment as provided for by law.

3. Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection 1, if the advertisement is published by way of radio announcement or on a roadside billboard, the lessor need only make the disclosures required by subsection 2, paragraphs “a” and “c”.

4. With respect to any matters specifically governed by the advertising provisions of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, compliance with that Act satisfies the requirements of this section.

5. This section does not apply to the owner or personnel, as such, of any medium in which an advertisement appears or through which it is disseminated.

87 Acts, ch 80, §15

537.3616 Lessee’s reinstatement rights.
1. A lessee who fails to make timely rental payments has the right to reinstate the original consumer rental purchase agreement without losing any rights or options previously acquired under the consumer rental purchase agreement if both of the following apply:

a. Subsequent to having failed to make a timely rental payment, the lessee has surrendered the property to the lessor, if and when requested by the lessor.

b. Not more than sixty days has passed since the lessee has returned the property.

2. As a condition precedent to reinstatement of a consumer rental purchase agreement, a lessor may charge the outstanding balance of any accrued payments and delinquency charges, a reinstatement fee, and the delivery charges allowable by section 537.3612, subsection 2, if redelivery of the item is necessary.

3. If reinstatement occurs pursuant to this section, the lessor shall provide the lessee with the same item, if available, leased by the lessee prior to
The amount of payment and date by which payment must be made to cure the default. A notice to the lessee under this section when the consumer has the right to cure a default. A lessor gives the notice to the lessee under this section when the lessor delivers notice to the lessee or mails the notice to the last known address of the lessee.

2. For the purpose of this section, there is no right to cure and no limitation on the lessor’s rights with respect to a default that occurs within twelve months after an earlier default as to which a lessor has given a proper notice of the lessee’s right to cure. A lessor gives the notice to the lessee under this section when the lessor delivers notice to the lessee or mails the notice to the last known address of the lessee.

3. The notice of right to cure must be in writing and conspicuously state all of the following:
   a. The name, address, and telephone number of the lessor to whom payment is to be made.
   b. A brief identification of the transaction.
   c. The lessee’s right to cure the default.
   d. The amount of payment and date by which payment must be made to cure the default. A notice in substantially the following form complies with this subsection:

   THE NAME, ADDRESS, & TELEPHONE NUMBER OF THE LESSOR ACCOUNT NUMBER, IF ANY BRIEF IDENTIFICATION OF TRANSACTION

   ( ) is the last date for payment, ( ) is the amount now due. You have failed to renew your rental purchase agreement(s). If you pay the amount now due (above) by the last date for payment (above), you may continue with the agreement as though you had renewed on time. If you do not pay by that date, we may exercise our rights under the law. If you are late again during the next twelve months of your agreement, in either returning the property or renewing your agreement, we may exercise our rights without sending you another notice like this one. If you have questions, you may write or telephone the lessor promptly.

4. With respect to a consumer rental purchase agreement, except as provided in subsection 5, after a default consisting of the lessee’s failure to renew and failure to return the property, a lessor, because of that default, may not instigate court action to recover the rented property until five business days after the notice of the lessee’s right to cure is given. In the case of an agreement with weekly or biweekly renewal dates, such action shall not be taken until three business days after the notice of the lessee’s right to cure is given.

5. With respect to defaults on the same consumer rental purchase agreement and subject to subsection 4, after a lessor has once given a proper notice of the lessee’s right to cure, this section does not give the consumer a right to cure or impose any additional limitations beyond those otherwise imposed by this part on the lessor’s right to proceed against the lessee or the lessor’s right to recover the property.

6. Until expiration of the minimum applicable periods contained in subsection 4 after notice is given, the lessee may cure all defaults consisting of failure to renew and failure to return the property by tendering the amount of all unpaid sums due at the time of the tender plus any unpaid delinquency charges or other charges authorized by section 537.3616.

7. This section and the provisions on limitations of agreements do not prohibit a lessee from voluntarily surrendering possession of the rented property, and the lessor from enforcing any past due obligation which the lessee may have at any time after default. However, in an enforcement proceeding, the lessor shall affirmatively plead and prove either that the notice to cure is not required or that the lessor has given the required notice, but the failure to so plead does not invalidate any action taken by the lessor that is lawful and if the lessor has rightfully repossessed any property the repossession is not conversion.

8. A repossession of rented property in violation of this section is void.

537.3620 Willful and intentional violations.
A person who willfully and intentionally violates a provision of this part is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

537.3621 Damages.
In case of a violation of a provision of this part with respect to a consumer rental purchase agreement, the lessee in the agreement may recover from the person committing the violation, or may set off or counterclaim in an action by that person, actual Notwithstanding sections 537.3620 and 537.3621, a failure to comply with a provision of this part which is due to a bona fide error may be corrected within thirty days after the date of execution of the consumer rental purchase agreement by the lessee. If so corrected, neither the lessor nor any holder is subject to penalty under this section if, where appropriate, a new written agreement and disclosures are provided to the lessee and any excess charges are refunded to the lessee.

1. The provisions of this part are subject to the powers and functions of the administrator as provided in article 6 of this chapter and to the debt collection practices as provided in article 7 of this chapter. However, section 537.6113, subsection 2, does not apply to violations of this part.
2. If a court finds in an action brought by the administrator pursuant to section 537.6113 that it is proven that a lessor has intentionally acted in bad faith in its performance under this part, the lessor is subject to a civil penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for each violation. However, no more than one penalty may be imposed in any one action against a lessor for repeated violations of the same provision. A civil penalty pursuant to this subsection shall not be imposed for a violation of this part occurring more than two years before the action is brought, or for making unconscionable agreements or engaging in a course of fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

ARTICLE 4
INSURANCE

§537.4101 Scope — excess charges.
1. This article applies to insurance provided in relation to a consumer credit transaction.
2. A charge for insurance in excess of the rates promulgated by the commissioner of insurance, or otherwise made in violation of the law, including this chapter, or the rules promulgated by the commissioner of insurance, is an excess charge for purposes of determining rights of parties under section 537.5201, and authority of the administrator to bring civil action under section 537.6113.
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.4101]

§537.5101 Short title.
This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Iowa Consumer Credit Code — Remedies and Penalties.”
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.5101]

§537.5102 Scope.
This part applies to actions or other proceedings to enforce rights arising from consumer credit transactions, to extortionate or unlawful extensions of credit, and to unconscionability.

§537.5103 Creditor’s obligations on repossession — restriction on deficiency judgments.
1. This section applies to a consumer credit sale of goods or services and a consumer loan. A consumer is not liable for a deficiency unless the creditor has disposed of repossessed or surrendered goods in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner.
2. If the seller repossesses or voluntarily accepts surrender of goods which were the subject of the sale and in which the seller has a security interest, or of goods which were not the subject of the sale but in which the seller has a security interest to secure a debt arising from a sale of goods or services or a combined sale of goods and services, the seller’s duty to dispose of the collateral is governed by the provisions on disposition of collateral in sections 554.9501 to 554.9507.
3. If a lender takes possession or voluntarily accepts surrender of goods in which the lender has a security interest to secure a debt arising from a consumer loan, the lender’s duty to dispose of the collateral is governed by the provisions on disposition of collateral in sections 554.9501 to 554.9507.

§537.5104 No garnishment before judgment.
Prior to entry of judgment in an action against the consumer arising from a consumer credit transaction, the creditor may not attach unpaid earnings of the consumer, or earnings deposited in a financial institution by the consumer, by garnishment, attachment, or proceedings under chapter 630.
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.5104]

§537.5105 Limitation on garnishment.
1. For the purposes of this part:
a. “Disposable earnings” means that part of the earnings of an individual remaining after the deduction from those earnings of amounts required by law to be withheld or assigned.
b. “Garnishment” means any legal or equitable procedure through which the earnings of an individual are required to be withheld for payment of a debt.
2. In addition to the provisions of section 642.21, the maximum part of the aggregate disposable earnings of an individual for any workweek which is subjected to garnishment to enforce payment of a judgment arising from a consumer credit transaction may not exceed the lesser of twenty five percent of the individual’s disposable earnings for that week, or the amount by which the individual’s disposable earnings for that week exceed forty times the federal minimum hourly wage prescribed by the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, United States Code, title 29, section 206, subsection “a,” paragraph (1), in effect at the time the earnings are payable.

In the case of earnings for a pay period other than a week, the administrator shall prescribe by rule a multiple of the federal minimum hourly wage equivalent in effect to that set forth for a pay period of a week.

3 No court may make, execute, or enforce an order or process in violation of this section.

4 At any time after the entry of a judgment in favor of a creditor in an action against a consumer for debt arising from a consumer credit transaction, the consumer may file with the court a verified application for an order exempting from garnishment pursuant to that judgment for an appropriate period of time a greater portion or all of the consumer’s aggregate disposable earnings for a workweek or other applicable pay period than is provided for in subsection 2. The application shall designate the portion of the consumer’s earnings which are not exempt from garnishment under this section and other law, shall specify the period of time for which the additional exemption is sought, shall describe the judgment with respect to which the application is made, and shall state that the designated portion in addition to earnings that are exempt by law is necessary for the maintenance of the consumer or a family supported wholly or partly by the earnings. Upon the filing of a sufficient application under this subsection, the court may issue any temporary order staying enforcement of the judgment by garnishment that may be necessary under the circumstances, shall set a hearing on the application not less than five nor more than ten days from the date of the filing of the application, and shall cause notice of the application and the hearing date to be served on the judgment creditor or the judgment creditor’s attorney of record. At the hearing, if it appears to the court that all or any portion of the earnings sought to be additionally exempted are necessary for the maintenance of the consumer or a family supported wholly or partly by the earnings of the consumer for all or any part of the time requested in the application, the court shall issue an order granting the application to that extent, otherwise it shall deny the application. The order is subject to modification or vacation upon the further application of any party to it upon a showing of changed circumstances after a hearing upon notice to all interested parties.

537.5106 Garnishment.
The administrator has all powers granted under article 6, part 1, to enforce the provisions of section 642 21, in relation to a garnishment arising from a consumer credit transaction.

537.5107 Extortionate or unlawful extensions of credit.

If it is the understanding of the creditor and the debtor at the time an extension of credit is made that delay in making repayment or failure to make repayment could result in the use of violence or other criminal means to cause harm to the person, reputation or property of any person, the repayment of the extension of credit is unenforceable through civil judicial processes against the consumer.

537.5108 Unconscionability — inducement by unconscionable conduct — unconscionable debt collection.

1 With respect to a transaction that is, gives rise to, or leads the debtor to believe it will give rise to, a consumer credit transaction, in an action other than a class action, if the court as a matter of law finds the agreement or transaction to have been unconscionable at the time it was made, or to have been induced by unconscionable conduct, the court may refuse to enforce the agreement, or if the court finds any term or part of the agreement or transaction to have been unconscionable at the time it was made, the court may refuse to enforce the agreement, or may enforce the remainder of the agreement without the unconscionable term or part, or may so limit the application of any unconscionable term or part as to avoid any unconscionable result.

2 With respect to a consumer credit transaction, or a transaction which would have been a consumer credit transaction if a finance charge was made or the obligation was payable in installments, if the court as a matter of law finds in an action other than a class action, that a person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is likely to engage in unconscionable conduct in collecting a debt arising from that transaction, the court may grant an injunction and award the consumer any actual damages the consumer sustained.

3 If it is claimed or appears to the court that the agreement or transaction or any term or part of it may be unconscionable, or that a person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is likely to engage in unconscionable conduct in collecting a debt, the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to the setting, purpose, and effect of the agreement or transaction or term or part thereof, or of the conduct, to aid the court in making the determination.

4 In applying subsection 1, consideration shall be given to each of the following factors, among others, as applicable.

a. Belief by the seller, lessor, or lender at the time the transaction is entered into that there is no reasonable probability of payment in full of the obligation by the consumer or debtor. However, the rental renewals necessary to acquire ownership in a consumer rental purchase agreement shall not be construed to be the obligation contemplated in this subsection if the con
§537.5108, CONSUMER CREDIT CODE

The fact that the seller, lessor or lender has knowingly taken advantage of the inability of the consumer or debtor reasonably to protect the consumer’s or debtor’s interests by reason of physical or mental infirmities, ignorance, illiteracy or inability to understand the language of the agreement, or similar factors.

d. The fact that the creditor contracted for or received separate charges for insurance with respect to a consumer credit sale or consumer loan with the effect of making the sale or loan, considered as a whole, unconscionable.

e. The fact that the seller, lessor or lender has engaged in conduct with knowledge or reason to know that like conduct has been restrained or enjoined by a court in a civil action by the administrator against any person pursuant to the provisions on injunctions against fraudulent or unconscionable agreements or conduct in section 537.6111.

5. In applying subsection 2, violations of section 537.7103 shall be considered, among other factors, as applicable.

6. If in an action in which unconscionability is claimed the court finds unconscionability pursuant to subsection 1 or 2, the court shall award reasonable fees to the attorney for the consumer or debtor. If the court does not find unconscionability and the consumer or debtor claiming unconscionability has brought or maintained an action the consumer or debtor knew to be groundless, the court shall award reasonable fees to the attorney for the party against whom the claim is made. Reasonable attorney’s fees shall be determined by the value of the time reasonably expended by the attorney on the unconscionability issue and not by the amount of the recovery on behalf of the prevailing party.

7. The remedies of this section are in addition to remedies otherwise available for the same conduct under law other than this chapter, but no double recovery of actual damages may be had.

8. For the purpose of this section, a charge or practice expressly permitted by this chapter is not in itself unconscionable.

87 Acts, ch 80, §45-47

§537.5109 Default.

“Default” with respect to a consumer credit transaction and for purposes of this section, means either of the following, if without justification under any law:

1. Failure to make a payment within ten days of the time required by agreement, or in a consumer rental purchase agreement, failure to renew an agreement and failure to return the rented property or make arrangements for its return as provided by the agreement.

2. Failure to observe any other covenant of the transaction, breach of which materially impairs the condition, value or protection of or the creditor’s right in any collateral securing the transaction, or materially impairs the consumer’s prospect to pay amounts due under the transaction. The burden of establishing material impairment is on the creditor.

1. Notwithstanding any term or agreement to the contrary, the obligation of a consumer in a consumer credit transaction is enforceable by a creditor only after compliance with this section, except that in a consumer rental purchase agreement, default is governed by section 537.3618.

2. A creditor who believes in good faith that a consumer is in default may give the consumer written notice of the alleged default, and, if the consumer has a right to cure the default, shall give the consumer the notice of right to cure provided in section 537.5111 before commencing any legal action in any court on an obligation of the consumer and before repossessing collateral. However, this subsection and subsection 4 do not require a creditor to give notice of right to cure prior to the filing of a petition by a creditor seeking to enforce the consumer’s obligation in which attachment under chapter 639 is sought upon any of the grounds specified in section 639.3, subsections 3 to 12.

When property is attached without the giving of notice of right to cure as permitted by this subsection, the creditor immediately shall give notice of the attachment to the consumer in the same manner as prescribed by the rules of civil procedure for service of an original notice. The notice shall advise the consumer that the attachment may be discharged by the filing of a bond as provided in sections 639.42 and 639.45, or by the filing of a motion with the court to discharge the attachment pursuant to section 639.63. The notice required by this paragraph is in lieu of the notice requirements of sections 639.31 and 639.33.

When a motion is filed to discharge an attachment made without the giving of a prior notice of right to cure, the court shall hear the motion within three days of the filing of the motion to discharge. If the court finds that the attachment should not have been issued or should not have been levied on all or any part of the property held, the attachment shall be discharged in whole or in part and property wrongfully attached shall be returned to the consumer.
If the court finds that there was no probable cause to believe the grounds upon which the attachment was issued, the consumer may be awarded damages plus reasonable attorney's fees to be determined by the court.

3. A consumer has a right to cure the default unless, in other than an insurance premium loan transaction, the creditor has given the consumer a proper notice of right to cure with respect to a prior default which occurred within three hundred sixty-five days of the present default, or the consumer has voluntarily surrendered possession of goods that are collateral and the creditor has accepted them in full satisfaction of any debt owing on the transaction in default.

4. If the consumer has a right to cure a default:
   a. A creditor shall not accelerate the maturity of the unpaid balance of the obligation, demand or take possession of collateral, otherwise than by accepting a voluntary surrender of it, or otherwise attempt to enforce the obligation until twenty days after a proper notice of right to cure is given.
   b. With respect to an insurance premium loan, a creditor shall not give notice of cancellation as provided in subsection 6 until thirteen days after a proper notice of right to cure is given.
   c. Until the expiration of the minimum applicable period after the notice is given, the consumer may cure the default by tendering either the amount of all unpaid installments due at the time of the tender, without acceleration, plus any unpaid delinquency or deferral charges, or the amount stated in the notice of right to cure, whichever is less, or by tendering any performance necessary to cure any default other than nonpayment of amounts due, which is described in the notice of right to cure. The act of curing a default restores to the consumer the consumer's rights under the agreement as though no default had occurred, except as provided in subsection 3.

5. This section and the provisions on waiver, agreements to forego rights, and settlement of claims under section 537.1107 do not prohibit a consumer from voluntarily surrendering possession of goods which are collateral and do not prohibit the creditor from thereafter enforcing the creditor's security interest in the goods at any time after default.

6. If a default on an insurance premium loan is not cured, the lender may give notice of cancellation of each insurance policy or contract to be canceled. If given, the notice of cancellation shall be in writing and given to the insurer that issued the policy or contract and to the insured. The insurer, within two business days after receipt of the notice of cancellation together with a copy of the insurance premium loan agreement if not previously given to the insurer, shall give any notice of cancellation required by the policy or contract or by law and, within ten business days after the effective date of the cancellation, pay to the lender any premium unearned on the policy or contracts as of that effective date. Within ten business days after receipt of the unearned premium, the lender shall pay to the consumer indebted upon the insurance premium loan any excess of the unearned premium received over the amount owing by the consumer upon the insurance premium loan.

7. If a creditor in a consumer credit transaction commences an action for money judgment prior to giving the customer notice of right to cure as required by this section and fails to follow the procedures set out in this section, the court shall dismiss the action without prejudice. If the action was commenced as a small claim under chapter 631, the creditor shall not be found to be in violation of this section for purposes of section 537.5201 and the penalties provided in that section shall not apply if the creditor proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the creditor did not at the time of the violation have either knowledge or reason to know of the requirements of this section, and for this purpose the court shall consider all relevant evidence, including but not limited to the education or experience of the creditor with respect to the collection of debts arising from consumer credit transactions and any representation of the creditor by legal counsel and any legal advice rendered to the creditor with respect to the collection of debts arising from consumer credit transactions.

537.5111 Notice of right to cure.

1. The notice of right to cure shall be in writing and shall conspicuously state the name, address, and telephone number of the creditor to which the notice is to be mailed. If the notice of right to cure is given by any form of electronic communication, the notice shall also conspicuously state the name, address, and telephone number of the creditor to which the notice is to be mailed. The notice shall be substantially the following form:

3. A creditor gives notice to the consumer under this part when the creditor delivers the notice to the consumer or mails the notice to the consumer at the consumer's residence as defined in section 537.1201, subsection 4.

4. If the consumer credit transaction is an insurance premium loan, the notice shall conform to the requirements of subsection 2, and a notice in substantially the form specified in that subsection complies with this subsection except for the following:

a. In lieu of a brief identification of the credit transaction, the notice shall identify the transaction as an insurance premium loan and each insurance policy or contract that may be canceled.

b. In lieu of the statement in the form of notice specified in subsection 2 that the creditor may exercise the creditor's rights under the law, the statement that each policy or contract, identified in the notice may be canceled.

c. The last paragraph of the form of notice specified in subsection 2 shall be omitted.

537.5113 Venue.
An action by a creditor against a consumer arising from a consumer credit transaction shall be brought in the county of the consumer's residence as defined in section 537.1201, subsection 4, unless an action is brought to enforce an interest in land securing the consumer's obligation, in which case the action shall be brought in the county in which the land or a part of it is located. If the county of the consumer's residence has changed, the consumer upon motion may have the action removed to the county of the consumer's current residence. If the residence of the consumer is not within this state, the action may be brought in the county in which the sale, lease or loan was made. If the initial papers offered for filing in the action on their face show noncompliance with this section, they shall not be accepted by the clerk of the court.

PART 2
CONSUMERS' REMEDIES

537.5201 Effect of violations on rights of parties.
1. The consumer, other than a lessee in a consumer rental purchase agreement, has a cause of action to recover actual damages and in addition a right in an action other than a class action to recover from the person violating this chapter a penalty in an amount determined by the court, but not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, if a person has violated the provisions of this chapter relating to:

a. Authority to make supervised loans under section 537.2301.

b. Restrictions on interests in land as security under section 537.2307.

c. Limitations on the schedule of payments or loan terms for supervised loans under section 537.2308.

d. Attorney's fees under section 537.2507.

e. Charges for other credit transactions under section 537.2601.

f. Disclosure with respect to consumer leases under section 537.3202.

g. Notice to consumers under section 537.3203.

h. Receipts, statements of account and evidences of payment under section 537.3206.

i. Form of insurance premium loan agreement under section 537.3207.

j. Notice to cosigners and similar parties under section 537.3208.

k. Restrictions on rates stated to the consumer under section 537.3210.

l. Security in consumer credit transactions under section 537.3301.

m. Prohibition against assignments of earnings under section 537.3305.

n. Authorizations to confess judgment under section 537.3306.

a. Certain negotiable instruments prohibited under section 537.3307.

p. Referral sales and leases under section 537.3309.

q. Limitations on executory transactions under section 537.3310.

r. Prohibition against discrimination under section 537.3311.

s. Limitations on default charges under section 537.3402.
1. Card issuer subject to claims and defenses under section 537.3403.
2. Assignees subject to claims and defenses under section 537.3404.
3. Lenders subject to claims and defenses arising from sales and leases, under section 537.3405.
4. Door-to-door sales under section 537.3501.
5. Assurance of discontinuance under section 537.6109.
6. Prohibitions against unfair debt collection practices under section 537.7103.

With respect to violations arising from sales or loans made pursuant to open end credit, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than two years after the violations occurred. With respect to violations arising from other consumer credit transactions, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement.

2. A consumer is not obligated to pay a charge in excess of that allowed by this chapter, and has a right of refund of any excess charge paid. A refund may not be made by reducing the consumer's obligation by the amount of the excess charge unless the creditor has notified the consumer that the consumer may request a refund and the consumer has not so requested within thirty days thereafter. If the consumer has paid an amount in excess of the lawful obligation under the agreement, the consumer may recover the excess amount either from the person who made the excess charge or from an assignee of that person's rights who undertakes direct collection of payments from or enforcement of rights against consumers arising from the debt.

3. If a creditor has contracted for or received a charge in excess of that allowed by this chapter, or if a consumer is entitled to a refund and a person liable to the consumer refuses to make a refund within a reasonable time after demand, the consumer may recover from the creditor or the person liable, in an action other than a class action, the excess charge or refund and a penalty in an amount determined by the court not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars. With respect to excess charges arising from sales or loans made pursuant to open end credit, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than two years after the time the excess charge was made. With respect to excess charges arising from other consumer credit transactions no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement pursuant to which the charge was made. For purposes of this subsection, a reasonable time is presumed to be thirty days.

4. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no violation of this chapter impairs rights on a debt.
5. If an employer discharges an employee in violation of the provisions prohibiting discharge in section 642.21, subsection 2, paragraph "c", the employee may within two years bring a civil action for recovery of wages lost as a result of the violation and for an order requiring the reinstatement of the employee. Damages recoverable shall not exceed lost wages for six weeks.

6. A person is not liable for a penalty under subsection 1 or 3 if the person notifies the consumer of an error before the person receives from the consumer written notice of the error or before the consumer has brought an action under this section, and the person corrects the error within forty-five days after notifying the consumer. If the violation consists of a prohibited agreement, giving the consumer a corrected copy of the writing containing the error is sufficient notification and correction. If the violation consists of an excess charge, correction shall be made by an adjustment or refund as provided in subsection 2. The administrator, and any official or agency of this state having supervisory authority over a person, shall give prompt notice to a person of any errors discovered pursuant to an examination or investigation of the transactions, business, records and acts of the person.

7. A person may not be held liable in any action brought under this section for a violation of this chapter if the person shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error.

8. In an action in which it is found that a person has violated this chapter, the court shall award to the consumer the costs of the action and to the consumer's attorneys their reasonable fees. Reasonable attorney's fees shall be determined by the value of the time reasonably expended by the attorney and not by the amount of the recovery on behalf of the consumer.

See Code editor's note at the end of Vol III

537.5202 Damages or penalties as setoff to obligation.

Damages or penalties to which a consumer is entitled pursuant to this part may be setoff against the consumer's obligation, and may be raised as a defense to a suit on the obligation without regard to the time limitations prescribed by this part.

537.5203 Civil liability for violation of disclosure provisions.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a creditor who, in violation of the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act other than its provisions concerning advertising of credit terms, fails to disclose information to a person entitled to the information under this chapter is liable to that person, in other than a class action, in an amount equal to the sum of the following:
   a. Twice the amount of the finance charge in connection with the transaction, but the liability pursuant to this paragraph shall be not less than one hundred dollars or more than one thousand dollars.

b. In the case of a successful action to enforce the liability under paragraph "a", the costs of the action together with reasonable attorney’s fees as determined by the court.

2. A creditor has no liability under this section if within fifteen days after discovering an error, and prior to the institution of an action under this section or the receipt of written notice of the error, the creditor notifies the person concerned of the error and makes whatever adjustments in the appropriate account are necessary to assure that the person will not be required to pay a finance charge in excess of the amount or percentage rate actually disclosed. The administrator, and any official or agency of this state having supervisory authority over a creditor, shall give prompt notice to a creditor of any errors discovered pursuant to an examination or investigation of the transactions, business, records and acts of the creditor.

3. A creditor may not be held liable in any action brought under this section for a violation of this chapter if the creditor shows by a preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error notwithstanding the maintenance of procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error.

4. Any action which may be brought under this section against the original creditor in any credit transaction involving a security interest in land may be maintained against any subsequent assignee of the original creditor where the assignee, its subsidiaries, or affiliates were in a continuing business relationship with the original creditor either at the time the credit was extended or at the time of the assignment, unless the assignment was involuntary, or the assignee shows by a preponderance of evidence that it did not have reasonable grounds to believe that the original creditor was engaged in violations of this chapter and that it maintained procedures reasonably adapted to apprise it of the existence of the violations.

5. An obligor or consumer has all rights under this chapter that the obligor or consumer has under the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act concerning a right of rescission as to certain transactions, and a creditor or other person has all liabilities and defenses under this section that the obligor or consumer has under the Truth in Lending Act.

6. No action pursuant to this section may be brought more than one year after the date of the occurrence of the violation.

7. In this section, creditor includes a person who in the ordinary course of business regularly extends or arranges for the extension of credit, or offers to arrange for the extension of credit, and includes the seller of an interest in land and the lender who makes a loan secured by an interest in land if, but for the rate of the finance charge made in the transaction, the sale or loan would be a consumer credit sale or consumer loan.

8. The liability of a creditor under this section is in lieu of and not in addition to the creditor’s liability under the Truth in Lending Act. An action by a person with respect to a violation may not be maintained pursuant to this section if a final judgment has been rendered for or against that person with respect to the same violation pursuant to the Truth in Lending Act, and if a final judgment has been rendered in favor of a person pursuant to this section and thereafter a final judgment with respect to the same violation is rendered in favor of the same person pursuant to the Truth in Lending Act, a creditor liable under both judgments has a cause of action against that person for appropriate relief to the extent necessary to avoid double liability with respect to the same violation.

9. The administrator shall adopt rules to keep this section in harmony with the Truth in Lending Act. These rules supersede any provisions of this section which are inconsistent with the Truth in Lending Act as adopted by section 537.1302.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.5203]

PART 3

CRIMINAL PENALTIES

537.5301 Willful violations.
1. A person who willfully and knowingly makes charges in excess of those permitted by the provisions of article 2, part 4, applying to supervised loans, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

2. A person who, in violation of the provisions of this Act applying to authority to make supervised loans under section 537.2301, willfully and knowingly engages without a license in the business of making supervised loans, or of taking assignments of and undertaking direct collection of payments from and enforcement of rights against consumers arising from supervised loans, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

3. A person, other than a lessor in a consumer rental purchase agreement, who willfully and knowingly engages in the business of entering into consumer credit transactions, or of taking assignments of risks against consumers arising therefrom and undertaking direct collection of payments or enforcement of these rights, without complying with the provisions of this chapter concerning notification under section 537.6202 or payment of fees under section 537.6203, is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

4. A person who willfully and knowingly violates the provisions of section 537.7103 is guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.5301]

87 Acts, ch 80, §52

537.5302 Disclosure violations.
A person is guilty of a serious misdemeanor, if the person willfully and knowingly commits any of the following:

1. Gives false or inaccurate information or fails to provide information which the person is required to disclose under the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act.

2. Uses any rate table or chart, the use of which is authorized by the provisions of the Truth in Lending Act, in a manner which consistently understates the annual percentage rate determined according to those provisions.

3. Otherwise fails to comply with any requirement of the provisions on disclosure of the Truth in Lending Act.

4. The criminal liability of a person under this section is in lieu of and not in addition to the person's criminal liability under the Truth in Lending Act. No prosecution of a person with respect to the same violation may be maintained pursuant to both this section and the Truth in Lending Act.

ARTICLE 6
ADMINISTRATION
PART 1
POWERS AND FUNCTIONS OF ADMINISTRATOR

537.6101 Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Consumer Credit Code — Administration."

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.6101]

537.6102 Applicability. This part applies to persons who:

1. Participate in transactions, acts, practices or conduct to which this chapter applies pursuant to section 537.1201.

2. Participate in this state in transactions, acts, practices or conduct to which this chapter would apply pursuant to section 537.1201, but for the residence of the consumer.

3. Enter into or modify a sale of an interest in land or a loan secured by an interest in land, if, but for the rate of the finance charge, the sale, loan or modification would involve a consumer credit sale or consumer loan, but applies only for the purpose of authorizing the administrator to enforce the provisions on compliance with the Truth in Lending Act.

537.6103 Administrator. Except as expressly provided in sections 537.6106 and 537.6108, "administrator" means the attorney general or the attorney general's designee.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.6103]

537.6104 Powers of administrator — reliance on rules — duty to report.

1. The administrator, within the limitations provided by law, may:

a. Receive and act on complaints.

b. Take action designed to obtain voluntary compliance with this chapter.

c. Commence proceedings on the administrator's own initiative.

d. Counsel persons and groups on their rights and duties under this chapter.

e. Establish programs for the education of consumers with respect to credit practices and problems.

f. Make studies appropriate to effectuate the purposes and policies of this chapter and make the results available to the public.

g. Maintain offices within this state.

b. In adopting, amending, and repealing rules, take into consideration the rules of administrators in other jurisdictions which enact the uniform consumer credit code.

4. Except for refund of an excess charge, no liability is imposed under this chapter for an act done or omitted in conformity with a rule of the administrator notwithstanding that after the act or omission the rule is amended or repealed or determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

5. The administrator shall report annually on or before January 1 to the general assembly on the operation of the consumer credit protection bureau and the other agencies of this state charged with administering this chapter, on the use of consumer credit in the state, and on the problems of persons of small means obtaining credit from persons regularly engaged in extending sales or loan credit. For the purpose of making the report, the administrator may conduct research and make appropriate studies. The report shall include, for the consumer credit protection bureau and for other state agencies enforcing this chapter, a description of the examination and investigation procedures and policies, a statement of policies followed in deciding whether to investigate or examine the offices of credit suppliers subject to this chapter, a statement of the number and percentages of offices which are periodically investigated or examined, a statement of the types of consumer credit problems of both creditors and consumers which have come to the administrator's attention through the administrator's examinations and investigations and the disposition of them under existing law, and recommendations, if any, for legislation to deal with those problems within the administrator's general jurisdiction, a statement of the extent to which the rules of the administrator pursuant to this chapter are not in harmony with the rules of administrators in other jurisdictions which enact the uniform consumer credit code and the reasons for the variations, and a general statement of the activities of the administrator’s office and of others to promote the purposes of this chapter. The report shall not identify the creditors against whom action is taken.

537.6105 Administrative powers with respect to supervised financial organizations and supervised loan licensees.

1. With respect to supervised financial organizations subject to regulation under chapters 524, 533 and 534, and persons licensed under chapters 536 and 536A, the powers of examination and investigation as provided in sections 537.2305 and 537.6106, and administrative enforcement as provided in sections 537.2303 and 537.6108, shall be exercised by the official or agency to whose supervision the person is subject. All other powers of the administrator under this chapter may be exercised by the administrator with respect to such persons. In all actions or other court proceedings brought to enforce this chapter, the attorney general or the attorney general’s designee shall participate.

2. If the administrator receives a complaint or other information concerning noncompliance with this chapter by a person specified in subsection 1, the administrator shall inform the official or agency having supervisory authority over that person. The administrator may obtain information about any such person from the officials or agencies supervising them.

3. The administrator and any official or agency of this state having supervisory authority over a supervised financial organization or a chapter 536 or 536A licensee are authorized and directed to consult and assist one another in maintaining compliance with this chapter. They may jointly pursue investigations, prosecute suits, and take other official action against violations of this chapter, as they deem appropriate, if either of them otherwise is empowered to take the action.

537.6106 Investigatory powers.

1. For purposes of this section, “administrator” means either the attorney general or the attorney general’s designee, or the official or agency charged with enforcing this chapter against the person under investigation, as provided in section 537.6105, subsection 1. If the administrator has reasonable cause to believe that a person has engaged in conduct or committed an act which is in violation of this chapter, the administrator may make an investigation to determine whether the person has engaged in the conduct or committed the act, and, to the extent necessary for this purpose, may administer oaths or affirmations, and, upon the administrator’s own motion or upon request of any party, may subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, adduce evidence, and require the production of, or testimony as to, any matter which is relevant to the investigation, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of relevant facts, or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. In any civil action brought by the administrator as a result of such an investigation, the administrator shall be awarded the reasonable costs of making the investigation if the administrator prevails in the action.

2. If the person’s records are located outside this state, the person at the person’s option shall either make them available to the administrator at a convenient location within this state or pay the reasonable and necessary expenses for the administrator or the administrator’s representative to examine them at the place where they are maintained. The administrator may designate representatives, including comparable officials of the state in which the records are located, to inspect them on the administrator’s behalf.

3. Upon application by the administrator showing failure without lawful excuse to obey a subpoena or to give testimony and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the district court shall grant an order compelling compliance.

4. The administrator shall not make public the name or identity of a person whose acts or conduct the administrator investigates pursuant to this section or the facts disclosed in the investigation, but this subsection does not prohibit disclosures in actions or enforcement proceedings pursuant to this chapter.

537.6107 Reserved.

537.6108 Administrative enforcement orders.

1. For purposes of this section, “administrator” means either the attorney general or the attorney general’s designee, or the official or agency charged with enforcing this chapter against the person under investigation, as provided in section 537.6105, subsection 1. Except as provided in subsection 6, after notice and hearing the administrator may order a person to cease and desist from engaging in violations of this chapter. A person aggrieved by an order of the administrator may obtain judicial review of the order and the administrator may obtain an order of the district court for enforcement of the cease and desist order if the person prevails in the proceeding for review, or as provided in subsection 5. The proceeding for review or enforcement is initiated by filing a petition in the district court. Copies of the petition shall be served upon all parties of record.

2. Within thirty days after service of the petition for review upon the administrator, or within any further time the court may allow, the administrator shall transmit to the court the original or a certified copy of the entire record upon which the order is based, including any transcript of testimony, which need not be printed. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceeding, the record may be shortened. After hearing, the court may reverse or modify the order if the findings of fact of the administrator are clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative and substantial evidence on the whole record, or grant any temporary relief or restraining order it deems just, and enter an order enforcing, modifying and enforcing as modified, or setting aside in whole or in part the order of the administrator, or remand- ing the case to the administrator for further proceed- ings.

3. An objection not urged at the hearing shall not be considered by the court unless the failure to urge the objection is excused for good cause shown. A party may move the court to remand the case to the administrator in the interest of justice for the purpose of adducing additional specified and material evidence and seeking findings thereon upon good cause shown for the failure to adduce this evidence before the administrator.

4. The jurisdiction of the court shall be exclusive and its final judgment or decree shall be subject to review by the supreme court in the same manner and form and with the same effect as in appeals from a final judgment or decree in an equitable proceeding. The administrator's copy of the testimony shall be available at reasonable times to all parties for examination without cost.

5. A proceeding for review under this section must be initiated within thirty days after a copy of the order of the administrator is received. If no proceeding is so initiated, the administrator may obtain a decree of the district court for enforcement of the cease and desist order upon a showing that the order was issued in compliance with this section, that no proceeding for review was initiated within thirty days after copy of the order was received, and that the person against whom the order was directed is subject to the jurisdiction of the court.

6. With respect to unconscionable agreements or fraudulent or unconscionable conduct by the respondent, the administrator may not issue an order pursuant to this section but may bring a civil action for an injunction under section 537.6111.

537.6110 Assurance of discontinuance.

If it is claimed that a person has engaged in conduct which could be subject to an order by the administrator or by a court, the administrator may accept an assurance in writing that the person will not engage in the same or in similar conduct in the future. The assurance may include stipulations that the creditor will voluntarily pay the costs of investigation, or that an amount will be held in escrow as restitution to debtors aggrieved by future conduct of the creditor or as a reserve to cover costs of future investigation, or may include admissions of past specific acts by the creditor or admissions that those acts violated this chapter or other statutes. A violation of an assurance of discontinuance is a violation of this chapter.

537.6110 Injunctions and other proceedings in equity.

The administrator may bring a civil action to restrain a person from violating this chapter and for other appropriate relief, including but not limited to the following:

a. To prevent the use or employment by a person of practices prohibited by this chapter.

b. To reform contracts to conform to this chapter and to rescind contracts into which a creditor has induced a consumer to enter by conduct violating this chapter, even though the consumers are not parties to the action. An action under this section may be joined with an action under the provisions on civil actions by the administrator under section 537.6113.

537.6111 Injunctions against unconscionable agreements and fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

1. The administrator may bring a civil action to restrain a person to whom this part applies from engaging in any of the following courses of action:

a. Making or enforcing unconscionable terms or provisions of consumer credit transactions.

b. Fraudulent or unconscionable conduct in inducing consumers to enter into consumer credit transactions.

c. Conduct of any of the types specified in paragraph "a" or "b" with respect to transactions that give rise to or that lead persons to believe they will give rise to consumer credit transactions.

d. Fraudulent or unconscionable conduct in the collection of debts arising from consumer credit transactions or from transactions which would have been consumer credit transactions if a finance charge was made or the obligation was payable in installments.

2. In an action brought pursuant to this section the court may grant relief only if it finds all of the following:

a. That the defendant has made unconscionable agreements or has engaged in or is likely to engage in a course of fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

b. That the defendant's agreements have caused or are likely to cause, or the conduct of the defendant has caused or is likely to cause, injury to consumers or debtors.

c. That the defendant has been able to cause or will be able to cause the injury primarily because the transactions involved are credit transactions.

3. In applying subsection 1, paragraph "a," "b," or "c," consideration shall be given to the factors specified in the provisions on unconscionability with respect to a transaction that is or gives rise to or that a person leads the debtor to believe will give rise to a consumer credit transaction, as provided in section 537.5108, subsection 3, among others.

4. In applying subsection 1, paragraph "d," violations of section 537.7103 shall be considered, among other factors, as applicable.

5. In an action brought pursuant to this section, a charge or practice expressly permitted by this chapter is not in itself unconscionable.

§537.61112 Temporary relief.

With respect to an action brought to enjoin violations of this chapter under section 537.6110 or unconscionable agreements or fraudulent or unconscionable conduct under section 537.6111, the administrator may apply to the court for appropriate temporary relief against a defendant, pending final determination of the action. The court may grant appropriate temporary relief.

§537.6113 Civil actions by administrator.

1. After demand, the administrator may bring a civil action against a person for all amounts of money, other than penalties, which a consumer or class of consumers has a right to recover explicitly granted by this chapter. The court shall order amounts recovered or recoverable under this subsection to be paid to each consumer or set off against the consumer's obligation. A consumer's action, other than a class action, takes precedence over a prior or subsequent action by the administrator with respect to the claim of that consumer. A consumer's class action takes precedence over a subsequent action by the administrator with respect to claims common to both actions but intervention by the administrator is authorized. An administrator's action on behalf of a class of consumers takes precedence over a consumer's subsequent class action with respect to claims common to both actions. Whenever an action takes precedence over another action under this subsection, the latter action may be stayed to the extent appropriate while the precedent action is pending and dismissed if the precedent action is dismissed with prejudice or results in a final judgment granting or denying the claim asserted in the precedent action. A defense available to a person in a civil action brought by a consumer is available to the person in a civil action brought under this subsection.

2. The administrator may bring a civil action against a person to recover a civil penalty of no more than five thousand dollars for repeatedly and intentionally violating this chapter. No civil penalty pursuant to this subsection may be imposed for violations of this chapter occurring more than two years before the action is brought or for making unconscionable agreements or engaging in a course of fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

3. The administrator may bring a civil action against a person for failure to file notification in accordance with the provisions on notification in section 537.6202, or to pay fees in accordance with the provisions on fees in section 537.6203, to recover the fees the defendant has failed to pay plus interest at the rate of seven percent per annum and the administrator's reasonable costs in bringing the action, and a civil penalty in an amount determined by the court not exceeding the greater of three times the amount of fees the person has failed to pay or one thousand dollars.

§537.6115 Consumer's remedies not affected.

The grant of powers to the administrator in this article does not affect remedies available to consumers under this chapter or under other principles of law or equity, except as provided in section 537.6113.

§537.6116 Venue.

The administrator may bring actions or proceedings in the district court in a county in which an act on which the action or proceeding is based occurred, or in a county in which the defendant resides or transacts business.

§537.6117 Administrative rules.

1. The attorney general or the attorney general's designee pursuant to chapter 17A may adopt, amend and repeal rules which the attorney general deems reasonably necessary for the enforcement of this chapter. Each rule so adopted shall be applicable to and binding upon every person subject to the provisions of this chapter.

2. An official or agency of this state charged with the enforcement of provisions of this chapter may adopt, amend or repeal rules pursuant to chapter 17A, subject to the following limitations:

   a. A rule adopted pursuant to this subsection which conflicts with a rule adopted by the administrator is void.

   b. An official or agency shall not adopt a rule which interprets or prescribes law or policy which has not been approved in advance of adoption by the administrator. If, in the opinion of the administrator, the proposed rule interprets the provisions of this chapter, or otherwise should be a rule of general applicability, the administrator may disapprove the proposed rule, in which case the official or agency shall not adopt that rule. The administrator may adopt that rule or a different rule relating to the same subject, or may determine that no rule relating to that subject shall be adopted.

[C75, §537.6204; C77, 79, 81, §537.6117]

PART 2

NOTIFICATION AND FEES

This part applies to all of the following:

1. Creditors engaged in consumer credit transactions and acts, practices or conduct involving consumer credit transactions to which this chapter applies pursuant to section 537.1201, but not to those licensed, certificated, or otherwise authorized to engage in business by chapter 524, 533, 534, 536 or 536A.

2. Debt collectors, as defined in section 537.7102, subsection 3, to whose acts, practices, or conduct this chapter applies pursuant to section 537.1201.

537.6202 Notification.
1. Persons subject to this part shall file notification with the administrator within thirty days after commencing business in this state, and, thereafter, on or before January 31 of each year. The notification must state all of the following:
   a. Name of the person.
   b. Every name in which business is transacted if different from the name of the person.
   c. Address of principal office, whether or not within this state.
   d. Address of all offices or retail stores, if any, in this state at which consumer credit transactions are entered into or acts, practices or conduct involving consumer credit transactions are engaged in, or in the case of a person taking assignments of obligations, any offices or places of business within this state at which business is transacted or, in the case of debt collectors, any offices in this state from or at which debt collection is engaged in.
   e. If consumer credit transactions or acts, practices or conduct involving consumer credit transactions or debt collection, are engaged in otherwise than at an office or retail store in this state and this chapter applies to such transactions, acts, practices or conduct, pursuant to section 537.1201, a brief description of the manner in which they are engaged in.
   f. Address of designated agent upon whom service of process may be made in this state.
   g. Whether or not supervised loans are made.
2. If information in a notification becomes inaccurate after filing, no further notification is required until the following January 31.
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.6202]

537.6203 Fees.
1. A person required to file notification shall pay to the administrator an annual fee of ten dollars. The fee shall be paid with the filing of the first notification and on or before January 31 of each succeeding year.
2. A person required to file notification who is a seller, lessor or lender and who is not an assignee shall pay an additional fee at the time and in the manner stated in subsection 1 of ten dollars for each one hundred thousand dollars, or part thereof exceeding ten thousand dollars, of the average unpaid balances including unpaid scheduled periodic payments payable by lessees, of obligations arising from consumer credit transactions entered into or modified in this state by the person by assignment and held by the person on the last day of each calendar month during the preceding calendar year.
3. A person required to file notification who is an assignee shall pay an additional fee at the time and in the manner stated in subsection 1 of ten dollars for each one hundred thousand dollars, or part thereof exceeding ten thousand dollars, of the average unpaid balances including unpaid scheduled periodic payments payable by lessees, of obligations arising from consumer credit transactions entered into or modified in this state taken by the person by assignment and held by the person on the last day of each calendar month during the preceding calendar year.
4. In addition to the penalties provided by section 537.6113, subsection 3, the administrator may collect a charge, established by rule, not exceeding twenty-five dollars from each person required to pay fees under this section who fails to pay the fees in full within thirty days after they are due.

537.6204 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1212, §8. See §537.6117.

ARTICLE 7
DEBT COLLECTION PRACTICES

537.7101 Short title.
This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Iowa Debt Collection Practices Act.”
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.7101]

537.7102 Definitions.
As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. “Debt” means an actual or alleged obligation arising out of a consumer credit transaction, or a transaction which would have been a consumer credit transaction either if a finance charge was made, if the obligation was not payable in installments, if a lease was for a term of four months or less, or if a lease was of an interest in land. A debt includes a check as defined in section 554.3104 given in a transaction which was a consumer credit sale or in a transaction which would have been a consumer credit sale if credit was granted and if a finance charge was made.
2. “Debt collection” means an action, conduct or practice in soliciting debts for collection or in the collection or attempted collection of a debt.
3. “Debt collector” means a person engaging, directly or indirectly, in debt collection, whether for the person, the person’s employer, or others, and includes a person who sells, or offers to sell, forms represented to be a collection system, device, or scheme, intended to be used to collect debts.
4. “Administrator” means the person designated in section 537.6103.
5. “Debtor”, for the purposes of this article, means the person obligated.
6. “Creditor”, for the purposes of this article, means the person to whom a debtor is obligated, either directly or indirectly, on a debt.
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §537.7102]
87 Acts, ch 137, §3
§537.7103 Prohibited practices.
1. A debt collector shall not collect or attempt to collect a debt by means of an illegal threat, coercion or attempt to coerce. The conduct described in each of the following paragraphs is an illegal threat, coercion or attempt to coerce within the meaning of this subsection:
   a. The use, or express or implicit threat of use, of force, violence or other criminal means, to cause harm to a person or to property of a person.
   b. The false accusation or threat to falsely accuse a person of fraud or any other crime.
   c. False accusations made to a person, including a credit reporting agency, or the threat to falsely accuse, that a debtor is willfully refusing to pay a just debt. However, a failure to reply to requests for payment and a failure to negotiate disputes in good faith are deemed willful refusal.
   d. The threat to sell or assign to another an obligation of the debtor with an attending representation or implication that the result of the sale or assignment will be to subject the debtor to harassment, vindictive or abusive collection attempts.
   e. The false threat that nonpayment of a debt may result in the arrest of a person or the seizure, garnishment, attachment or sale of property or wages of that person.
   f. An action or threat to take an action prohibited by this chapter or any other law.
2. A debt collector shall not oppress, harass or abuse a person in connection with the collection or attempted collection of a debt of that person or another person. The following conduct is oppressive, harassing or abusive within the meaning of this subsection:
   a. The use of profane or obscene language or language that is intended to abuse the hearer or reader and which by its utterance would tend to incite an immediate breach of the peace.
   b. The placement of telephone calls to the debtor without disclosure of the name of the business or company the debt collector represents.
   c. Causing expense to a person in the form of long distance telephone tolls, telegram fees or other charges incurred by a medium of communication by attempting to deceive or mislead persons as to the true purpose of the notice, letter, message or communication.
   d. Causing a telephone to ring or engaging a person in telephone conversation repeatedly or continuously or at unusual hours or times known to be inconvenient, with intent to annoy, harass or threaten a person.
3. A debt collector shall not disseminate information relating to a debt or debtor as follows:
   a. The communication or threat to communicate or imply the fact of a debt to a person other than the debtor or a person who might reasonably be expected to be liable for the debt, except with the written permission of the debtor given after default. For the purposes of this paragraph, the use of language on envelopes indicating that the communication relates to the collection of a debt is a communication of the debt. However, this paragraph does not prohibit a debt collector from any of the following:
      (1) Notifying a debtor of the fact that the debtor may report a debt to a credit bureau or engage an agent or an attorney for the purpose of collecting the debt.
      (2) Reporting a debt to a credit reporting agency or any other person reasonably believed to have a legitimate business need for the information.
      (3) Engaging an agent or attorney for the purpose of collecting a debt.
      (4) Attempting to locate a debtor whom the debt collector has reasonable grounds to believe has moved from the debtor's residence, where the purpose of the communication is to trace the debtor, and the content of the communication is restricted to requesting information on the debtor's location.
      (5) Communicating with the debtor's employer or credit union not more than once during any three-month period when the purpose of the communication is to obtain an employer's or credit union's debt counseling services for the debtor. In the event no response is received by the debt collector from a communication to the debtor's employer or credit union the debt collector may make one inquiry as to whether the communication was received. In addition a debt collector may respond to any communications by a debtor's employer or credit union.
      (6) Communicating with the debtor's employer once during any one-month period, if the purpose of the communication is to verify with an employer the fact of the debtor's employment and if the debt collector does not disclose, except as permitted in subparagraph (5), information other than the fact that a debt exists. This subparagraph does not authorize a debt collector to disclose to an employer the fact that a debt is in default.
      (7) Communicating the fact of the debt not more than once in any three-month period, with the parents of a minor debtor, or with any trustee of any property of the debtor, conservator of the debtor or the debtor's property, or guardian of the debtor. In addition, a debt collector may respond to inquiry from a parent, trustee, conservator or guardian.
   b. The disclosure, publication, or communication of information relating to a person's indebtedness to another person, by publishing or posting a list of indebted persons, commonly known as "deadbeat lists", or by advertising for sale a claim to enforce payment of a debt when the advertisement names the debtor.
   c. The use of a form of communication to the debtor, except a telegram, an original notice or other court process, or an envelope displaying only the name and address of a debtor and the return address of the debt collector, intended or so designed as to display or convey information about the debt to another person other than the name, address, and phone number of the debt collector.
4. A debt collector shall not use a fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading representation or means to collect or attempt to collect a debt or to obtain information concerning debtors. The following conduct is fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading within the meaning of this subsection:

a. The use of a business, company or organization name while engaged in the collection of debts, other than the true name of the debt collector's business, company, or organization or the name of the business or company the debt collector represents.

b. The failure to clearly disclose in all written communications made to collect or attempt to collect a debt or to obtain or attempt to obtain information about a debtor, that the debt collector is attempting to collect a debt and that information obtained will be used for that purpose, except where disclosure would tend to embarrass the debtor.

c. A false representation that the debt collector has information in the debt collector's possession or something of value for the debtor, which is made to solicit or discover information about the debtor.

d. The failure to clearly disclose the name and full business address of the person to whom the claim has been assigned at the time of making a demand for money.

e. An intentional misrepresentation, or a representation which tends to create a false impression of the character, extent or amount of a debt, or of its status in a legal proceeding.

f. A false representation, or a representation which tends to create a false impression, that a debt collector is vouched for, bonded by, affiliated with, or an instrumentality, agency or official of the state or an agency of federal, state or local government.

g. The use or distribution or sale of a written communication which simulates or is falsely represented to be a document authorized, issued or approved by a court, an official or other legally constituted or authorized authority, or which tends to create a false impression about its source, authorization or approval.

h. A representation that an existing obligation of the debtor may be increased by the addition of attorney's fees, investigation fees, service fees or other fees or charges, when in fact such fees or charges may not legally be added to the existing obligation.

i. A false representation, or a representation which tends to create a false impression, about the status or true nature of, or services rendered by, the debt collector or the debt collector's business.

5. A debt collector shall not engage in the following conduct to collect or attempt to collect a debt:

a. The seeking or obtaining of a written statement or acknowledgment in any form that specifies that a debtor's obligation is one chargeable upon the property of either husband or wife or both, under section 597.14, when the original obligation was not in fact so chargeable.

b. The seeking or obtaining of a written statement or acknowledgment in any form containing an affirmation of an obligation which has been discharged in bankruptcy, without clearly disclosing the nature and consequences of the affirmation and the fact that the debtor is not legally obligated to make the affirmation. However, this subsection does not prohibit the accepting of promises to pay that are voluntarily written and offered by a bankrupt debtor.

c. The collection of or the attempt to collect from the debtor a part or all of the debt collector's fee for services rendered, unless both of the following are applicable:

(1) The fee is reasonably related to the actions taken by the debt collector.

(2) The debt collector is legally entitled to collect the fee from the debtor.

d. The collection of or the attempt to collect interest or other charge, fee or expense incidental to the principal obligation unless the interest or incidental charge, fee, or expense is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the obligation and is legally chargeable to the debtor, or is otherwise legally chargeable.

e. A communication with a debtor when the debt collector knows that the debtor is represented by an attorney and the attorney's name and address are known, or could be easily ascertained, unless the attorney fails to answer correspondence, return phone calls or discuss the obligation in question, within a reasonable time, or prior approval is obtained from the debtor's attorney or when the communication is a response in the ordinary course of business to the debtor's inquiry.

6. A debt collector shall not use or distribute, sell or prepare for use, a written communication that violates or fails to conform to United States postal laws and regulations.

CHECK CASHING PRACTICES

537.8101 Provision of credit card number as condition of check cashing or acceptance prohibited.

1. Provision of credit card number or expiration date not required. A person shall not require as a condition of acceptance of a check or share draft, or as a means of identification, that the person presenting the check provide a credit card number or expiration date, or both.

2. Recording of credit card number or expiration date, simple misdemeanor. Recording a credit card number or expiration date, or both, in connection with a sale of goods or services in which the purchaser pays by check or share draft, or in connection with the acceptance of a check or share draft, is a simple misdemeanor.

3. Display without recordation permissible condition. This section does not prohibit a person from requesting a purchaser to display a credit card as indicia of credit worthiness and financial responsibility or as additional identification, but the only

CONTRACTS

537A.1  Seals abolished.
The use of private seals in written contracts, or other instruments in writing, by individuals, firms, or corporations that have not adopted a corporate seal, is hereby abolished; but the addition of a seal to any such instrument shall not affect its character or validity in any respect.

537A.2  Consideration implied.
All contracts in writing, signed by the party to be bound or by the party’s authorized agent or attorney, shall import a consideration.

537A.3  Failure of consideration.
The want or failure, in whole or in part, of the consideration of a written contract may be shown as a defense, total or partial, except as provided in the Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 554.

537A.4  Gaming contracts void — exceptions.
All promises, agreements, notes, bills, bonds, or other contracts, mortgages or other securities, when the whole or any part of the consideration thereof is for money or other valuable thing won or lost, laid, staked, or bet, at or upon any game of any kind or on any wager, are absolutely void and of no effect.

This section does not apply to a contract for the operation of or for the sale or rental of equipment for games of skill or games of chance, if both the contract and the games are in compliance with chapter 99B. This section does not apply to wagering under the pari-mutuel method of wagering authorized by chapter 99D. This section does not apply to the sale, purchase or redemption of a ticket or share in the state lottery in compliance with chapter 99E.

CHAPTER 538

TENDER OF PAYMENT AND PERFORMANCE

538.1 Demand required.
No cause of action shall accrue upon a contract for labor or the payment or delivery of property other than money, where the time of performance is not fixed, until a demand of performance has been made upon the maker and refused, or a reasonable time for performance thereafter allowed.

538.2 Tender of labor or property.
When a contract for labor, or for the payment or delivery of property other than money, does not fix a place of payment, the maker may tender the labor or property at the place where the payee resided at the time of making the contract, or at the residence of the payee at the time of performance of the contract, or where any assignee of the contract resides when it becomes due, but if the property in such case is too ponderous to be conveniently transported, or if the payee had no known place of residence within the state at the time of making the contract, or if the assignee of a written contract has no known place of residence within the state at the time of performance, the maker may tender the property at the place where the maker resided at the time of making the contract.

538.3 Tender when contract assigned.
When the contract is contained in a written instrument which is assigned before due, and the maker has notice thereof, the maker shall make the tender at the residence of the holder if the holder resides in the state and no farther from the maker than the payee did at the making thereof.

538.4 Effect of tender.
A tender of the property, as above provided, discharges the maker from the contract, and the property becomes vested in the payee or the payee's assignee, and the payee or assignee may maintain an action therefor as in other cases. But if the property tendered be perishable, or requires feeding, or other care, and no person is found to receive it when tendered, the person making the tender shall preserve, feed, or otherwise take care of the same, and shall have a lien thereon for the person's reasonable expenses and trouble in so doing.

538.5 Tender when holder absent from state.
When an instrument for the payment of money is due and the holder is absent from the state or the holder's identity or whereabouts are unknown and the instrument does not provide for a place of payment, the maker may tender payment at the last known residence or place of business of the last known holder, and if there be no person there authorized to receive payment and give proper credit thereof, the maker shall be deemed to have tendered payment and interest shall cease on the date of deposit if:
1. The maker deposits the amount due with the clerk of the district court in the county where the maker resided at the time of the making of the instrument, if the maker was then a resident of the state of Iowa, or if the maker was a nonresident of the state of Iowa at the time of making, with the clerk of the district court of Polk county, and
2. a. The maker files an affidavit with the clerk of the court that the identity or address of the holder is unknown and that the maker has made diligent inquiry to ascertain it, or
b. The maker within three days gives notice of such deposit by ordinary mail to the holder, if the holder's identity and address are known.
Upon presentment of the instrument by the holder to the clerk, the clerk shall pay the holder of such instrument the funds in the clerk's hands. If such deposit is in full payment of the instrument the clerk shall deliver the instrument to the maker. If such deposit is a partial payment thereof the clerk shall endorse such payment thereon and return the instrument to the holder.

538.6 Offer in writing — effect.

An offer in writing to pay a particular sum of money, or to deliver a written instrument or specific personal property, if not accepted, is equivalent to the actual tender of the money, instrument, or property, subject, however, to the condition contained in section 538 7, but if the party to whom the tender is made desires an inspection of the instrument or property tendered, other than money, before making the party's determination, it shall be allowed the party on request.

[C51, §966, R60, §1815, C73, §2104, C97, §3062, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9448; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §538 6]

ASSIGNMENT OF ACCOUNTS AND NONNEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS

Assignment of thing in action R C P 7

539 1 Assignment of nonnegotiable instruments
539 2 Assignment prohibited by instrument
539 3 Assignment of open account
539 4 Assignment of wages
539 5 Priority
539 6 Assignor liable
539 7 to 539 15 Repealed by 61GA, ch 413, §10102

539.1 Assignment of nonnegotiable instruments.

Bonds, due bills, and all instruments by which the maker promises to pay another, without words of negotiability, a sum of money, or by which the maker promises to pay a sum of money in property or labor, or to pay or deliver any property or labor, or acknowledges any money, labor, or property to be due, are assignable by endorsement on the instrument, or by other writing. The assignee, including a person who takes assignment for collection in the regular course of business, has a right of action on them in the assignee's own name, subject to any defense or counterclaim which the maker or debtor had against an assignor of the instrument before notice of the assignment. In case of conflict between this section and Uniform Commercial Code, sections 554 3805, 554 5116 or 554 9318, those sections control.

539.2 Assignment prohibited by instrument.

When by the terms of an instrument its assignment is prohibited, an assignment thereof shall nevertheless be valid, but the maker may make use of any defense or counterclaim against the assignee which the maker may have against any assignor thereof before notice of such assignment is given to the maker in writing. In case of conflict between this section and Uniform Commercial Code, sections 554 3805, 554 5116 or 554 9318, those sections control.

Related provision R C P 7
539.3 Assignment of open account.
An open account of sums of money due on contract may be assigned. The assignee, including a person who takes assignment for collection in the regular course of business, has a right of action on the account in the assignee's own name, subject to the defenses and counterclaims allowed against the instruments mentioned in section 539.2, before notice of the assignment is given to the debtor in writing by the assignee. In case of conflict Uniform Commercial Code, section 554.9318, controls.

539.4 Assignment of wages.
No sale or assignment, by the head of a family, of wages, whether the same be exempt from execution or not, shall be of any validity whatever unless the same be evidenced by a written instrument, and if married, unless the husband and wife sign and acknowledge the same joint instrument before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments. Provided, however, that no such assignment or order shall be effective or binding upon the employer unless the employer has in writing agreed to accept and pay said assignment or order. This section shall not apply to a wage assignment by an employee to an organization which represents the employee in labor relations with the employee's employer.

539.5 Priority.
Assignments of wages shall have priority and precedence in the order in which notice in writing of such assignments shall be given to the employer, and not otherwise.

539.6 Assignor liable.
The assignor of any of the above instruments not negotiable shall be liable to the action of the assignee without notice.

539.7 to 539.15 Repealed by 61GA, ch 413, §10102.

CHAPTER 540
SURETIES

540.1 Requiring creditor to sue.
When any person bound as surety for another for the payment of money, or the performance of any other contract in writing, apprehends that the principal is about to become insolvent or remove permanently from the state without discharging the contract, the surety may, if a cause of action has accrued thereon, by writing, require the creditor to sue upon the same, or permit the surety to commence an action in such creditor's name and at the surety's cost.

540.2 Refusal or neglect of creditor.
If the creditor refuses or neglects to bring an action for ten days after request, and does not permit the surety to do so, and to furnish the surety with a true copy of the contract or other writing therefor, and enable the surety to have the use of the original when requisite in such action, the surety shall be discharged.

540.3 Suit by surety.
When the surety commences such action, the surety shall give a bond to pay such costs as may be adjudged against the creditor, and the action shall be brought against all the obligors, but those joining in the request to the creditor shall make no defense thereto, but may be heard on the assessment of the damages.

540.4 Executor — official bonds.
540.4 Executor — official bonds.

The provisions of this chapter extend to the executor of a deceased surety and holder of the contract, but not to the official bonds of public officers, executors, or guardians.

CHAPTER 542

GRAIN DEALERS

542.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Department” means the department of agriculture and land stewardship.

2. “Grain” means any grain for which the United States department of agriculture has established standards including, but not limited to, corn, wheat, oats, soybeans, rye, barley, grain sorghum, flax seeds, sunflower seed, spelt (emmer) and field peas.

3. “Grain dealer” means a person who buys during any calendar month five hundred bushels of...
542.3 License required — financial responsibility.

1. A person shall not engage in the business of a grain dealer in this state without having obtained a license issued by the department.

2. The type of license required shall be determined as follows:

   a. A class 1 license is required if the grain dealer purchases any grain by credit-sale contract, or if the value of grain purchased by the grain dealer from producers during the grain dealer's previous fiscal year exceeds five hundred thousand dollars. Any other grain dealer may elect to be licensed as a class 1 grain dealer.

   b. A class 2 license is required for any grain dealer not holding a class 1 license. A class 2 licensee whose purchases from producers during a fiscal year exceed a limit of five hundred thousand dollars in value shall file within thirty days of the date the limit is reached a complete application for a class 1 license. If a class 1 license is denied, the person immediately shall cease doing business as a grain dealer.

3. An application for a license to engage in business as a grain dealer shall be filed with the department and shall be in a form prescribed by the department. The application shall include the name of the applicant, its principal officers if the applicant is a corporation or the active members of a partnership if the applicant is a partnership and the location of the principal office or place of business of the applicant. A separate license shall be required for each location at which records are maintained for transactions of the grain dealer. The application shall be accompanied by a complete financial statement of the applicant setting forth the assets, liabilities and the net worth of the applicant. The financial statement must be prepared according to generally accepted accounting principles. Assets shall be shown at original cost less depreciation. Upon a written request filed with the department, the department or a designated employee may allow asset valuations in accordance with a competent appraisal. Unpriced contracts shall be shown as a liability and valued at the applicable current market price of grain as of the date the financial statement is prepared.

4. In order to receive and retain a class 1 license the following conditions must be satisfied:

   a. The grain dealer shall have and maintain a net worth of at least fifty thousand dollars, or maintain
§542.3, GRAIN DEALERS

a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 1 grain dealer if the person has a net worth of less than twenty-five thousand dollars.

b. The grain dealer shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The department shall not require that a grain dealer submit more than one such unqualified opinion per year.
The grain dealer may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph, and if a grain dealer makes this election the department shall cause the grain dealer to be inspected not less than twice during each twelve-month period, but not more than five times in a twenty-four-month period without good cause, in the manner provided in section 542.9. In addition, the department shall cause a grain dealer who makes this election to submit to the department, in a form and manner prescribed by the department, an interim financial statement no less than once in every three-calendar-month period. However, the department shall not require that a grain dealer submit more than one such report of a certified public accountant per year that is based upon a review performed in lieu of the audited financial statement. If a grain dealer making the election engages in credit sale contracts,*
the grain dealer shall also comply with the provisions of section 542.15, subsection 8.

c. The grain dealer shall have and maintain cur-current assets equal to at least ninety percent of current liabilities or provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit under the following conditions:

(1) A grain dealer with current assets equal to at least forty-five percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than thirty consecutive days in a twelve-month period.

5. In order to receive and retain a class 2 license the following conditions must be satisfied:

a. The grain dealer shall have and maintain a net worth of at least twenty-five thousand dollars, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 2 grain dealer if the person has a net worth of less than ten thousand dollars.

b. The grain dealer shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accom-npanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The department shall not require that a grain dealer submit more than one such unqualified opinion per year.
The grain dealer may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by the report of a certified public accountant licensed in this state that is based upon a review performed by the certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph, and if a grain dealer makes this election the department shall cause the grain dealer to be inspected not less than twice during each twelve-month period, but not more than five times in a twenty-four-month period without good cause, in the manner provided in section 542.9. In addition, the department shall cause a grain dealer who makes this election to submit to the department, in a form and manner prescribed by the department, an interim financial statement no less than once in every three-calendar-month period. However, the department shall not require that a grain dealer submit more than one such report of a certified public accountant per year that is based upon a review performed in lieu of the audited financial statement. If a grain dealer making the election engages in credit sale contracts,*
the grain dealer shall also comply with the provisions of section 542.15, subsection 8.

c. The grain dealer shall have and maintain cur-current assets equal to at least ninety percent of current liabilities or provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit under the following conditions:

(1) A grain dealer with current assets equal to at least forty-five percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevo-
(2) A grain dealer with current assets equal to less than forty-five percent of current liabilities may provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction of one thousand dollars of current assets that the grain dealer is lacking to meet the minimum requirement. However, the bond or irrevocable letter of credit shall not be used for longer than thirty consecutive days in a twelve-month period.

6. The department shall adopt rules relating to the form and time of filing of financial statements. The department may require additional information or verification with respect to the financial resources of the applicant and the applicant’s ability to pay producers for grain purchased from them.

7. a. When the net worth or current ratio of a licensee in good standing is less than that required by this section, the grain dealer shall correct the deficiency or file a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit within thirty days of written notice by the department. Unless the deficiency is corrected or the deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit is filed within thirty days, the grain dealer license shall be suspended.

b. If the department finds that the welfare of grain producers requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, immediate suspension of a license may be ordered notwithstanding the thirty-day period otherwise allowed by paragraph ‘a’.

8. A deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit filed with the department pursuant to this section shall not be canceled by the issuer on less than ninety days’ notice by certified mail to the secretary of agriculture and the principal.

542.5 License.

Upon the filing of the application and compliance with the terms and conditions of this chapter and rules of the department, the department shall issue a license to the applicant. The license shall terminate on the thirtieth of June of each year. A grain dealer’s license may be renewed annually by the filing of a renewal fee and a renewal application on a form prescribed by the department. An application for renewal shall be received by the department before the thirtieth of June. A grain dealer license which has terminated may be reinstated by the department upon receipt of a proper renewal application, the renewal fee, and the reinstatement fee as provided in section 542.6 if filed within thirty days from the date of termination of the grain dealer license. The department may cancel a license upon request of the licensee unless a complaint or information is filed against the licensee alleging a violation of a provision of this chapter.

If an applicant has had a license under chapter 542, 542A, or 543 revoked for cause within the past three years, or has been convicted of a felony involving violations of chapter 542, 542A, or 543, or is owned or controlled by a person who has had a license so revoked or who has been so convicted, the department may deny a license to the applicant.

542.6 Fees.

The department shall charge the following fees for deposit in the general fund:

1. For the issuance or renewal of a license for a grain dealer and for any inspection of a grain dealer, the fee shall be determined on the basis of dollar volume of all grain purchased the previous calendar year as follows:

   a. If the total purchased is one thousand dollars or less, the license fee is forty dollars and the inspection fee is fifty dollars.

   b. If the total purchased is more than one thousand dollars, but not more than three million dollars, the license fee is seventy dollars and the inspection fee is seventy-five dollars.

   c. If the total purchased is more than three million dollars, but not more than seven million dollars, the license fee is one hundred dollars and the inspection fee is one hundred twenty-five dollars.

   d. If the total purchased is more than seven million dollars, but not more than fifteen million dollars, the license fee is two hundred dollars and the inspection fee is two hundred fifty dollars.

   e. If the total purchased is more than fifteen million dollars, but not more than forty million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, the license fee is three hundred dollars and the inspection fee is one hundred seventy-five dollars.

   f. If the total purchased is more than forty million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, but not more than one hundred five million dollars, the license fee is four hundred twenty-five dollars and the inspection fee is two hundred twenty-five dollars.

   g. If the total purchased is more than one hundred five million dollars, the license fee is five hundred seventy-five dollars and the inspection fee is two hundred sixty-five dollars.

If the applicant did not purchase grain the previous calendar year, the applicant will pay the fee specified in paragraph ‘a’.

If during the license period the total grain actually purchased exceeds one hundred thousand dollars, the licensee shall notify the department and the license and inspection fee shall be adjusted accordingly. Subsequent adjustments shall be made as necessary. An applicant may
§542.6, GRAIN DEALERS

1. A person who violates any provision of this chapter, or a violation of a rule adopted under this chapter, commits a fraudulent practice.

2. A violation of this chapter, or a violation of a rule adopted under this chapter, continues is a separate offense.

3. Except as provided in subsections 1 and 2, a person who commits a violation of this chapter, or a violation of a rule adopted under this chapter, commits a simple misdemeanor. With respect to a continuing violation, each day that the violation continues is a separate offense.

4. A violation of this chapter, or a violation of a rule adopted under this chapter, is not required to inspect the business premises of the grain dealer, and the grain dealer shall submit all books, records and papers relating to grain transactions occurring within this state to the department for purposes of an inspection required or permitted under this section at any reasonable time and place, including the offices of the department during regular business hours, as ordered by the department or the administrator of the warehouse division.

542.10 Suspension or revocation — notice.

The department may after hearing and upon information being filed with the department by the administrator of the warehouse division of the department or upon complaint filed by any person, suspend or revoke the license of any person licensed under this chapter for the violation of or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter. An information or a verified complaint stating the grounds for suspension or revocation shall be filed with the department in triplicate. The department shall notify the licensee of the complaint and furnish the licensee with a copy of the information or the complaint and a copy of the order of the department fixing the time for a hearing, which time shall be at least five days from the date of notification. If the department determines that the public good requires immediate action, the department may, upon the filing of the information or the complaint and without hearing, temporarily suspend a license pending the determination by it of the complaint. Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

The department may revoke a grain dealer's license upon information without hearing if a grain dealer fails to submit to inspection.

542.12 Claims — notice of revocation.

Upon revocation, termination, or cancellation of a grain dealer license, any claim for the purchase price of grain against the grain dealer shall be made in writing and filed with the grain dealer and with the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit and with the department within one hundred twenty days after revocation, termination, or cancellation. Failure to make this timely claim relieves the issuer and the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund provided in chapter 543A of all obligations to the claimant.

Upon revocation of a grain dealer license, the department shall cause notice of the revocation to be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the state of Iowa and in a newspaper of general circulation within the county of the grain dealer’s principal place of business when that dealer’s principal place of business is located in the state of Iowa. The notice shall state the name and address of the grain dealer and the effective date of revocation. The notice shall also state that any claims against the grain dealer shall be made in writing and sent by ordinary mail or delivered personally within one hundred twenty days after revocation to the grain dealer, to the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit, and to the department, and the notice shall state that the failure to make a timely claim does not relieve the grain dealer from liability to the claimant.

542.14 No obligation of state.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to imply any guarantee or obligation on the part of the state of Iowa, or any of its agencies, employees or officials, either elective or appointive, in respect to any agreement or undertaking to which the provisions of this chapter relate.

542.15 Credit-sale contracts.

1. A grain dealer shall not purchase grain by a credit-sale contract except as provided in this section.

2. A grain dealer shall give written notice to the department prior to engaging in the purchase of grain by credit-sale contracts. Notice shall be on forms provided by the department. The notice shall contain information required by the department.

3. All credit-sale contract forms in the possession of a grain dealer shall have been permanently and consecutively numbered at the time of printing of the forms. A grain dealer shall maintain an accurate record of all credit-sale contract forms and numbers obtained by that dealer. The record shall include the disposition of each numbered form, whether by execution, destruction, or otherwise.

4. A grain dealer who purchases grain by credit-sale contracts shall maintain books, records and other documents as required by the department to establish compliance with this section.

5. In addition to other information as may be required, a credit-sale contract shall contain or provide for all of the following:
   a. The seller’s name and address.
   b. The conditions of delivery.
   c. The amount and kind of grain delivered.
   d. The price per bushel or basis of value.
   e. The date payment is to be made.
   f. The duration of the credit-sale contract, which shall not exceed twelve months from the date the contract is executed.

6. Title to all grain sold by a credit-sale contract is in the purchasing dealer as of the time the contract is executed, unless the contract provides otherwise. The contract must be signed by both parties and executed in duplicate. One copy shall be retained by the grain dealer and one copy shall be delivered to the seller. Upon revocation, termination, or cancellation of a grain dealer license, the payment date for all credit-sale contracts shall be advanced to a date not later than thirty days after the effective date of the revocation, termination, or cancellation, and the purchase price for all unpriced grain shall be determined as of the effective date of revocation, termination, or cancellation in accordance with all other provisions of the contract. However, if the business of the grain dealer is sold to another licensed grain dealer, credit-sale contracts may be assigned to the purchaser of the business.

7. A grain dealer shall not purchase grain on credit during any time period in which the grain dealer’s current assets are less than forty-five percent of current liabilities.

8. A licensed grain dealer who purchases grain by credit-sale contract shall obtain from the seller a signed acknowledgement stating that the seller has received notice that grain purchased by credit-sale contract is not protected by the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund. The form for the acknowledgement shall be prescribed by the department, and the licensed grain dealer and the seller shall each be provided a copy.

542.16 Confidentiality of records.

Notwithstanding chapter 22, all financial statements of grain dealers under this chapter shall be kept confidential by the department and its agents and employees and are not subject to disclosure except as follows:

1. Upon waiver by the licensee.
2. In actions or administrative proceedings commenced under this chapter or chapter 543.
3. When required by subpoena or court order.
4. Disclosure to law enforcement agencies in regard to the detection and prosecution of public offenses.
5. When released to a bonding company approved by the department, or released to the United States department of agriculture or any of its divisions.
6. Where released at the request of the Iowa board of accountancy for licensee review and discipline in accordance with chapters 116 and 258A and subject to the confidentiality requirements of section 258A.6.

§542.17 Standardization of records and documents.
1. The department may adopt rules specifying the form, content and use of scale tickets, and credit-sale contracts. All scale ticket forms in the possession of a grain dealer shall have been permanently and consecutively numbered at the time of printing. A grain dealer shall maintain an accurate record of all scale ticket numbers. The record shall include the disposition of each numbered form, whether issued, destroyed, or otherwise disposed of.
2. A licensed grain dealer shall keep complete and accurate records of all grain transactions. Records for the previous six years shall be made available for inspection by the department.

§542.18 Bonded grain sellers.
1. A producer may apply to the department for a license to operate as a bonded grain seller. The application shall be on a form prescribed by the department.
2. As a condition of the granting of a license under this section, the applicant shall file with the department a bond payable to the state of Iowa with a corporate surety approved by the department in a penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars per license, conditioned that the grain seller owns or controls, free of liens, any grain offered for sale. A bond issued by a surety under this section shall not be canceled by the surety before at least ninety days' notice by certified mail to the department and the bonded grain seller. The liability of a surety on any bond under this section shall not accumulate for each successive license period during which the bond is in force.
3. The fee for a bonded grain seller's license shall be two hundred dollars per year. All licenses shall terminate on the thirtieth of June of each year. There shall be no financial or net worth requirements for bonded grain sellers. License fees for new licenses may be prorated by the department on a monthly basis.
4. A producer who is licensed under this section shall not sell any grain except grain that is owned by the producer and that is produced on land owned, leased or operated by the producer, including land located outside of this state. Violation of this subsection is grounds for revocation of the license, and the violator shall be disqualified from relicensure under this section for a period of one year after the date the revocation is effective.
5. This section does not require a person to be licensed to sell grain.

86 Acts, ch 1152, §10

§542.19 Co-operative agreements.
1. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this chapter, the department may enter into co-operative agreements with other states for the purpose of making available to those states the information acquired under the bonding, licensing, and examination procedures of this chapter.
2. If a co-operative agreement is in effect under this section, the indemnification requirements of this chapter may be satisfied by:
   a. Filing with the department evidence of a bond or an irrevocable letter of credit on file with a state or of participation in an indemnity fund in a state with which Iowa has a co-operative agreement as provided for by this section.
   b. Indemnification proceeds shall be co-payable to the state of Iowa for the benefit of sellers of grain under this chapter.
   Indemnification proceeds required by this chapter may be made co-payable to any state with whom this state has entered into contracts or agreements as authorized by this section, for the benefit of sellers of grain in that state.
81 Acts, ch 180, §16
86 Acts, ch 1152, §11

§542.20 Shrinkage adjustments — disclosures — penalties.
1. A person who, in connection with the receipt of corn or soybeans for storage, processing, or sale, adjusts the scale weight of the grain to compensate for the moisture content of the grain shall compute the amount of the adjustment by multiplying the scale weight of the grain by that factor which results in a rate of adjustment of one and eighteen hundredths percent of weight per one percent of moisture content. The use of any rate of weight adjustment for moisture content other than the one prescribed by this subsection is a fraudulent practice. The person shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place notice of the rate of adjustment for moisture content that is prescribed by this subsection. Failure to make this disclosure is a simple misdemeanor.
2. A person who, in connection with the receipt of grain for storage, processing or sale, adjusts the quantity of the grain received to compensate for losses to be incurred during the handling, processing, or storage of the grain shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place notice of the rate of adjustment to be made for this shrinkage. Failure to make the required disclosure is a simple misdemeanor.

3 A person who adjusts the scale weight of corn or soybeans both for moisture content and for handling, processing, or storage losses may combine the two adjustment factors into a single factor and may use this resulting factor to compute the amount of weight adjustment in connection with storage, processing, or sale transactions, provided that the person shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place a notice that discloses the moisture shrinkage factor prescribed by subsection 1, the handling shrinkage factor to be imposed, and the single factor that results from combining these factors. Failure to make the required disclosure is a simple misdemeanor.

542A.21 Custom livestock feeder.
A custom livestock feeder shall only purchase grain from a grain producer by making payment by cash, check, or other instrument that is payable on demand. A custom livestock feeder shall not purchase grain from a grain producer using a credit-sale contract as defined in section 542A, subsection 5.

[85 Acts, ch 80, §3]

CHAPTER 542A
GRAIN BARGAINING AGENTS

542A 1 “Bargaining agent” defined.
As used in this chapter, "bargaining agent" means a person, group, firm, association or corporation who bargains with buyers for the sale of grain for agricultural producers.

As used in this chapter, "department" means the department of agriculture and land stewardship.

Bargaining agent shall not mean a person selling grain as a farm manager, or an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or conservator of an estate. A bargaining agent shall not take title to the grain but shall act only for or on behalf of the beneficiaries whose product the bargaining agent is offering for sale. Unless the bargaining agent agreement provides that proceeds from grain sales shall be paid directly to the agricultural producer by the buyer, the bargaining agent agreement shall provide that proceeds shall be paid to and held in trust by either the bargaining agent, or a third person identified in the bargaining agent agreement as a trustee, for the benefit of the agricultural producers. As used in this section the term "grain" means as provided in section 542A.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §670

542A 2 Permit required — denial or delay.
A person shall not engage in the business of a bargaining agent in this state without having obtained a permit issued by the department. Each application for a permit to engage in the business of a bargaining agent shall be made with the department, on a form prescribed by the department which form of application shall require only information pertinent and necessary for the issuance of the bargaining agent permit. The applicant shall supply the department with information to establish that proceeds from sales of grain which are executed by the bargaining agent on behalf of agricultural producers will be received and held in trust for the beneficiaries to assure payment of the proceeds of sale. The application shall also be accompanied by proof of bond pursuant to section 542A 4.

The department may deny an application for a permit to a person licensed as a grain dealer under chapter 542 if the grain dealer license is under suspension or has been revoked pursuant to section 542A 4. If information or a complaint is filed with the department against the person as a grain dealer in accordance with section 542A 4, the department may delay approving the application for a permit until after a hearing is provided under that section.

88 Acts, ch 1148, §1

542A 5 Inspection of bargaining agent’s books and records.
542A 6 Penalties — misdemeanor.
542A 7 Suspension or revocation of permit.

542A.3 Bargaining agent’s permit.
Upon the filing of the application and compliance with the terms and conditions of sections 542A 1 and 542A.2, the department shall issue a permit to the applicant. The permit shall be good for one year from the date of issuance. The permit may be renewed annually by filing of a renewal application on a form prescribed by the department accompanied by an annual report of the bargaining agent showing any additions to or modification of the trust relationship. The applicant for a bargaining agent permit or a renewal thereof shall pay a permit fee in the amount of twenty-five dollars. The department may cancel a permit upon the request of a permittee.
[C79, 81, §542A.3]

542A.4 Bond required of bargaining agent.
Any applicant for a permit to operate as a bargaining agent in accordance with this chapter, as a condition to the granting of the permit, shall file with the department proof of a bond which is in the form and with such surety or sureties as required by the department covering the fiduciary responsibility of those trustees responsible to the beneficiaries. The bond shall be in a penal sum of fifty thousand dollars.

542A.5 Inspection of bargaining agent's books and records.
A bargaining agent's books, accounts, records and papers of grain transactions, and all books, accounts, records and papers relating to trust funds or to funds required by this chapter to be held in trust, shall be subject to inspection by the department during ordinary business hours. Where there is good cause to believe that a person is engaged without a permit in the business of a bargaining agent in this state, the department may inspect the books, papers and records of such person.

542A.6 Penalties — misdemeanor.
Any person who engages in business as a bargaining agent without obtaining a permit or any person in violation of any other provision of sections 542A.1 to 542A.5, or any bargaining agent who refuses to permit inspection of books, accounts or records of grain transactions as provided in this chapter, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor. Each day that any violation continues shall constitute a separate offense. Any person violating the provisions of this chapter may be restrained by an injunction. The permit of any person who has been found after a hearing, to have willfully violated the provisions of this chapter may be suspended for a reasonable time or revoked by the department.

542A.7 Suspension or revocation of permit.
The department may after hearing and upon information being filed with the department by the administrator of the warehouse division of the department or upon complaint filed by any person, suspend or revoke a bargaining agent permit issued under this chapter for the violation of or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule adopted thereunder. An information or a verified complaint stating the grounds for suspension or revocation shall be filed with the department in triplicate. The department shall notify the permittee of the complaint and furnish the permittee with a copy of the information or the complaint and a copy of the order of the department fixing the time for a hearing, which time shall be at least five days from the date of notification. If the department determines that the public good requires immediate action, the department may, upon the filing of the information or the complaint and without hearing, temporarily suspend a permit pending the determination by it of the complaint. Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

The department may revoke a bargaining agent permit upon information without hearing if the permittee fails to have sufficient bond on file with the department, or if the permittee fails to submit to inspection.

The department, after a hearing, may suspend or revoke a bargaining agent's permit if the permittee is licensed as a grain dealer under chapter 542 and the permittee's grain dealer license is under suspension or has been revoked pursuant to section 542.10.

Upon revocation of a permit, any claim of a creditor shall be filed against the former permittee within one hundred twenty days after the date of revocation. The department shall provide for giving notice to all agricultural producers under contract with the person holding the bargaining agent permit of the revocation of the permit.

543 39 Grain stored in another warehouse

543.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter:
1. "Department" means the department of agriculture and land stewardship.
2. "Warehouse" shall mean any building, structure, or other protected enclosure in this state used or usable for the storage of agricultural products. Buildings used in connection with the operation of the warehouse shall be deemed to be a part of the warehouse.
3. "Licensed warehouse" shall mean a warehouse for the operation of which the department has issued a license in accordance with the provisions of section 543.6.
4. "Agricultural product" shall mean any product of agricultural activity suitable for storage in quantity, including refined or unrefined sugar and canned agricultural products and shall also mean any product intended for consumption in the production of other agricultural products, such as stock salt, binding twine, bran, cracked corn, soybean meal, commercial feeds, and cottonseed meal.
5. "Gram" shall mean wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, field peas, soybeans, grain sorghums, spelt, and similar agricultural products, as defined in the Grain Standards Act.
6. "Bulk gram" shall mean grain which is not contained in sacks.
7. "Person" shall mean an individual, corporation, partnership, or two or more persons having a joint or common interest in the same venture, and, except with respect to the privilege of operating a warehouse under this chapter, shall include the United States or Iowa state government, or any subdivision or agency of either.
8. "Warehouse operator" means a person engaged in the business of operating or controlling a warehouse for the storing, shipping, handling or processing of agricultural products, but does not include an incidental warehouse operator.
9. "Licensed warehouse operator" shall mean a warehouse operator who has obtained a license for the operation of a warehouse under the provisions of section 543.6.
10. "Receiving and loadout charge" shall mean the charge made by the warehouse operator for receiving grain into and loading grain from the warehouse, exclusive of the warehouse operator's other charges.
11. "Unlicensed warehouse operator" means a warehouse operator who retains grain in the warehouse not to exceed thirty days and is not licensed under the provisions of this chapter or Title VII, U.S.C.
12. "Scale weight ticket" means a load slip or other evidence, other than a receipt, given to a depositor by a warehouse operator licensed under this chapter upon initial delivery of the agricultural product to the warehouse.
13. "Depositor" means any person who deposits an agricultural product in a warehouse for storage, handling, or shipment, or who is the owner or legal holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt, or who is lawfully entitled to possession of the agricultural product.
§543.1, WAREHOUSES FOR AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

14. “Station” means a warehouse located more than three miles from the central office of the warehouse.

15. “Warehouse operator’s obligation” means a sufficient quantity and quality of grain or other products for which a warehouse operator is licensed including company owned grain and grain of depositors as the warehouse operator’s records indicate. For an unlicensed warehouse operator it means a sufficient quantity and quality to cover company owned and all deposits of grain for which actual payment has not been made. At no time may a warehouse operator have less grain or other agricultural products in the warehouse than the obligations to depositors, as determined by investigation of the warehouse operator’s records.

16. “Storage” means any grain or other agricultural products that have been received and have come under care, custody or control of a warehouse operator either for the depositor for which a contract of purchase has not been negotiated or for the warehouse operator operating the facility.

17. “Open storage” means grain or agricultural products which are received by a warehouse operator from a depositor for which warehouse receipts have not been issued or a purchase made and the records documented accordingly.

19. “Official grain standards” means the standards of quality and condition of grain which establishes the grade, fixed and established by the secretary of agriculture under the Grain Standards Act.

20. “Grain bank” means grain owned by a depositor and held temporarily by the warehouse operator for use in the formulation of feed or to be processed and returned to the depositor on demand.

21. “License” means a license issued under this chapter.

22. “Credit-sale contract” means a contract for the sale of grain pursuant to which the sale price is to be paid more than thirty days after the delivery of the grain to the buyer, and includes but is not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as deferred-payment contracts, deferred-pricing contracts, and price-later contracts.

23. “Incidental warehouse operator” means a person regulated under chapter 198 whose grain storage capacity does not exceed twenty-five thousand bushels which is used exclusively for grain owned or grain which will be returned to the depositor for use in a feeding operation or as an ingredient in a customer-formula feed, as defined in section 198.1.

24. “Bond” means a bond issued by a surety company or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a financial institution described in subsection 25.

25. “Financial institution” means a bank or savings and loan association authorized by the state of Iowa or by the laws of the United States, which is a member of the federal deposit insurance corporation or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, respectively.

543.2 Duties and powers of the department.

The department may exercise general supervision over the storage, warehousing, classifying according to grade or otherwise, weighing, and certification of agricultural products. The department may inspect or cause to be inspected any warehouse. Inspections may be made at times and for purposes as the department determines. Except as provided in section 543.6, the department shall cause every licensed warehouse and its contents to be inspected once in every twelve-month period. The department may require the filing of reports relating to a warehouse or its operation. If upon inspection a deficiency is found to exist as to the quantity or quality of agricultural products stored, as indicated on the warehouse operator’s books and records according to official grain standards, the department may require an employee of the department to remain at the licensed warehouse and supervise all operations involving agricultural products stored there under this chapter until the deficiency is corrected. The charge for the cost of maintaining an employee of the department at a warehouse to supervise the correction of a deficiency is one hundred fifty dollars per day.

The department may make available to the United States government, or any of its agencies, including the commodity credit corporation, the results of inspections made and inspection reports submitted to it by employees of the department, upon payment to it of charges as determined by the department, but the charges shall not be less than the actual cost of services rendered, as determined by the department. The department may enter into contracts and agreements for such purpose and shall keep a record of all money thus received. All such money shall be paid over to the treasurer of state as miscellaneous receipts. The department may classify any warehouse in accordance with its suitability for the storage of agricultural products and shall specify in any license issued for the operation of a warehouse the only type or types and the quantity of agricultural products which may be stored in the warehouse. The department may prescribe, within the limitations of this chapter, the duties of licensed warehouse operators with respect to the care of and responsibility for the contents of licensed warehouses. Grain grades shall be determined under the official grain standards. The department may from time to time publish data in connection with the administration of this chapter as may be of public interest. The department shall administer this chapter.

§543.3 Appointment of department as receiver.
1. The department in its discretion may, following summary suspension of a license under section 543.10, or following a suspension or revocation of a license as otherwise provided in section 543.10 or 543.11, file a verified petition in the district court requesting that the department be appointed as a receiver to take custody of commodities stored in the licensee's warehouse and to provide for the disposition of those assets in the manner provided in this chapter and under the supervision of the court. The petition shall be filed in the county in which the warehouse is located. The district court shall appoint the department as receiver. Upon the filing of the petition the court shall issue ex parte such temporary orders as may be necessary to preserve or protect the assets in receivership, or the value thereof, and the rights of depositors, until a plan of disposition is approved.
2. A petition filed by the department under subsection 1 shall be accompanied by the department's plan for disposition of stored commodities. The plan may provide for the pro rata delivery of part or all of the stored commodities to depositors holding warehouse receipts or unpriced scale weight tickets, or may provide for the sale under the supervision of the department of part or all of the stored commodities for the benefit of those depositors, or may provide for any combination thereof, as the department in its discretion determines to be necessary to minimize losses.
3. When a petition is filed by the department under subsection 1 the clerk of court shall set a date for hearing on the department's proposed plan of disposition at a time not less than ten nor more than fifteen days after the date the petition is filed. Copies of the petition, the notice of hearing, and the department's plan of disposition shall be served upon the licensee and upon the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit pursuant to section 543.6 in the manner required for service of an original notice. A delay in effecting service upon the licensee or issuer is not cause for denying the appointment of a receiver and is not grounds for invalidating any action or proceeding in connection with the appointment.
4. The department shall cause a copy of each of the documents served upon the licensee under subsection 3 to be mailed by ordinary mail to every person holding a warehouse receipt or unpriced scale weight ticket issued by the licensee, as determined by the records of the licensee or the records of the department. The failure of any person referred to in this subsection to receive the required notification shall not invalidate the proceedings on the petition for the appointment of a receiver or any portion thereof. Persons referred to in this subsection are not parties to the action unless admitted by the court upon application therefor.
5. When appointed as a receiver under this chapter, the department shall cause notification of the appointment to be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the counties in which the licensee maintains a business location, and in a newspaper of general circulation in this state.
6. The department may designate an employee of the department to appear on behalf of the department in any proceedings before the court with respect to the receivership, and to exercise the functions of the department as receiver under this section and section 543.4, except that the department shall determine whether or not to petition for appointment as receiver, shall approve the proposed plan for disposition of stored commodities, shall approve the proposed plan for distribution of any cash proceeds, and shall approve the proposed final report.
7. The actions of the department in connection with petitioning for appointment as a receiver, and all actions pursuant to such appointment shall not be subject to the provisions of the administrative procedure Act.

§543.4 Powers and duties of receiver.
1. When the department is appointed as receiver under this chapter the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit pursuant to section 543.6 shall be joined as a party defendant by the department. If required by the court, the issuer shall pay the indemnification proceeds or so much thereof as the court finds necessary into the court, and when so paid the issuer shall be absolutely discharged from any further liability under the bond or irrevocable letter of credit to the extent of the payment.
2. When appointed as receiver under this chapter the department is authorized to give notice in the manner specified by the court to persons holding warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposit issued by the licensee to file their claims within one hundred twenty days after the date of appointment. Failure to timely file a claim shall defeat the claim with respect to the issuer of a deficiency bond or of an irrevocable letter of credit, grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in chapter 543A, and any commodities or proceeds from the sale of commodities, except to the extent of any excess commodities or proceeds of sale remaining after all timely claims are paid in full.
3. When the court approves the sale of commodities, the department shall employ a merchandiser to effect the sale of those commodities. A person employed as a merchandiser must meet the following requirements:
   a. The person shall be experienced or knowledgeable in the operation of warehouses licensed under this chapter; and if the person has ever held a license issued under this chapter, the person shall never have had that license suspended or revoked.
   b. The person shall be experienced or knowledgeable in the marketing of agricultural products.
The person shall not be the holder of a warehouse receipt or scale weight ticket issued by the licensee, and shall not have a claim against the licensee whether as a secured or unsecured creditor, and otherwise shall not have any pecuniary interest in the licensee or the licensee's business. The merchantiser shall be entitled to reasonable compensation as determined by the department, payable out of funds appropriated for operating expenses of the department. A sale of commodities shall be made in a commercially reasonable manner and under the supervision of the warehouse division of the department. The department shall provide for the payment out of appropriations to the department of all expenses incurred in handling and disposing of commodities. The department shall have authority to sell the commodities, any provision of chapter 554 to the contrary notwithstanding, and any commodities so sold shall be free of all liens and other encumbrances.

4. The plan of disposition, as approved by the court, shall provide for the distribution of the stored commodities, or the proceeds from the sale of commodities, or the proceeds from any insurance policy, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit, less expenses incurred by the department in connection with the receivership, to depositors as their interests are determined. Distribution shall be without regard to any setoff, counterclaim, or storage lien or charge.

5. The department may, with the approval of the court, continue the operation of all or any part of the business of the licensee on a temporary basis and take any other course of action or procedure which will serve the interests of the depositors.

6. The department is entitled to reimbursement out of commodities or proceeds held in receivership for all expenses incurred as court costs or in handling and disposing of stored commodities, and for all other costs directly attributable to the receivership. The right of reimbursement of the department is prior to any claims against the commodities or proceeds of sales of commodities, and constitutes a claim against a deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit.

7. If the approved plan of disposition requires a distribution of cash proceeds, the department shall submit to the court a proposed plan of distribution of those proceeds. Upon notice and hearing as required by the court, the court shall accept or modify the proposed plan. When the plan is approved by the court and executed by the department, the department shall be discharged and the receivership terminated.

8. At the termination of the receivership the department shall file a final report containing the details of its actions, together with such additional information as the court may require.

543.6 Issuance of license and financial responsibility.

1. The department is authorized, upon application to it, to issue to any warehouse operator a license or licenses for the operation of a warehouse or warehouses in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and such rules as may be made by the department under the authority of section 543.5. A single license to operate two or more warehouses located within a twenty-five mile radius of a central office may be issued.

2. The type of license required shall be determined as follows:

a. A class 1 license is required if the storage capacity of a warehouse is more than one hundred thousand bushels.

b. A class 2 license is required for a warehouse that is not required to have a class 1 license.

3. An application for a warehouse license shall be accompanied by a complete financial statement of the applicant setting forth the assets, liabilities and net worth of the applicant. The financial statement must be prepared according to normally accepted accounting principles. Assets shall be shown at original cost less depreciation. Upon written request, the department or a designated employee may allow asset valuations in accordance with a competent appraisal. Unpriced contracts shall be shown as a liability and valued at the applicable current market price of grain as of the date the financial statement is prepared.

4. In order to receive and retain a class 1 license, the following conditions must be satisfied:

a. The warehouse operator shall have and maintain a net worth of at least twenty-five cents per
WAREHOUSES FOR AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS, §543.7

1. The name of the individual, partnership, or corporation making the application shall include the following:
   a. The warehouse operator shall have and maintain a net worth of at least twenty-five cents per bushel of warehouse capacity, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, a person shall not be licensed as a class 1 warehouse operator if the person has a net worth of less than twenty-five thousand dollars.
   b. The warehouse operator shall submit, as required by the department, a financial statement that is accompanied by an unqualified opinion based upon an audit performed by a certified public accountant licensed in this state. However, the department may accept a qualification in an opinion that is unavoidable by any audit procedure that is permitted under generally accepted accounting principles. An opinion that is qualified because of a limited audit procedure or because the scope of an audit is limited shall not be accepted by the department. The department shall not require that a warehouse operator submit more than one such unqualified opinion per year. The warehouse operator may elect, however, to submit a financial statement that is accompanied by a review performed by a certified public accountant in lieu of the audited financial statement specified in this paragraph, and if a warehouse operator makes this election the department shall cause the warehouse to be inspected not less than twice during each twelve-month period, but not more than five times in a twenty-four-month period without good cause, in the manner provided in section 543.2. In addition, the department shall cause a warehouse operator who makes this election to submit to the department, in a form and manner prescribed by the department, an interim financial statement no less than once in every three-calendar-month period. However, the department shall not require that a warehouse operator submit more than one such report of a certified public accountant per year that is based upon a review performed in lieu of the audited financial statement.
   6. The department may adopt rules governing the timing and form of financial statements to be submitted to it. The department may require additional information or verification with respect to the financial resources of the applicant or licensee and the applicant's or licensee's ability to maintain the quantity and quality of stored grain.
   7. If an applicant has had a license under chapter 542, 542A or 543 revoked for cause within the past three years, or has been convicted of a felony involving violations of chapter 542, 542A or 543, or is owned or controlled by a person who has had a license so revoked or who has been so convicted, the department may deny a license to the applicant.
   8. A deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit filed with the department pursuant to this section shall not be canceled by the issuer on less than one hundred twenty days' notice by certified mail to the department and the principal.

543.7 Application for license.

Each application for a license or licenses shall be in writing subscribed and sworn to by the applicant or a duly authorized representative of the applicant. In addition to any other information required by rule of the department the application shall include the following:

1. The name of the individual, partnership, or corporation making the application, the names of all partners if applicant is a partnership, and the names and titles of the principal officers if applicant is a corporation.
2. The principal office or place of business of the applicant.
3. A general description of each warehouse as to storage capacity, type of construction, mechanical equipment, if any, and condition.
4. The approximate location of each warehouse.
5. The type and quantity of agricultural product, or products intended to be stored in each warehouse.
6. A complete financial statement for use of the department in the administration of this chapter, as required by section 543.6.
7. A tariff on a form to be prescribed by the department, for storage, conditioning of stored products, and receiving and loading charges.

[C24, 27, 31, §9722; C35, §9751-g4; C39, §9751.04; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §543.5; C79, 81, §543.7]

543.8 License to specify type and quantity of products which may be stored.

The department shall determine with respect to each application for a license whether the warehouse or warehouses described in the application is or are suitable for the proper and safe storage of the particular agricultural product or products intended to be stored therein in the quantities specified in the application, provided that no warehouse shall be found to be suitable and safe for the storage of bulk grain unless such warehouse is equipped with a fixed or portable mechanical device of a type in common use as an adjunct to the movement of bulk grain. Each license issued for the operation of a single warehouse shall specify the type or types and quantities of agricultural products which may be stored in such warehouse. Each license issued to a warehouse operator for the operation of two or more warehouses shall specify with respect to each warehouse the type or types and quantities of agricultural product which may be stored in such warehouse. It shall be unlawful for any licensed warehouse operator to accept for storage or to store in any licensed warehouse any agricultural product or products other than the type or types and quantities specified in the license for the operation of such warehouse.

543.9 Amendment of license.

The department is authorized, upon its own motion, or upon receipt of written application, to amend any license previously issued by it, to change or modify the provisions as to the type and quantity of agricultural products which may be stored in the warehouse or warehouses in respect to which the license was originally issued. Application for amendments to licenses shall include the same information, except as to the financial condition of the applicant, as required by section 543.7 to be included in an original application. Applications for amendments of licenses shall be considered by the department on the same basis as applications for original licenses, and except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a license when amended shall have the same status, as of the date of the amendment, as though originally issued as amended.

543.10 Suspension or revocation of license.

The department is empowered after hearing before it and upon information being filed with the department by the duly authorized head of the warehouse division of the department or upon complaint filed by any person to suspend or revoke the license of anyone licensed under this chapter for the violation of or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule made in pursuance of the authority therefor granted under this chapter. An information or a verified complaint stating the grounds for suspension or revocation shall be filed with the department in triplicate, and thereupon the department shall serve the licensee complained against with a copy of the information or the complaint and a copy of the order of the department fixing the time for hearing thereon, which time shall be at least ten days from the date of service.

If upon the filing of the information or complaint the department finds that the licensee has failed to meet the warehouse operator's obligation or otherwise has violated or failed to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule promulgated under this chapter, and if the department finds that the public health, safety or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, then the department without hearing may order a summary suspension of the license in the manner provided in section 17A.18. When so ordered, a copy of the order of suspension shall be served upon the licensee at the time the information or complaint is served as provided in this section.

Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

543.11 Suspension or revocation for insufficient evidence of financial responsibility — notice.

1. When the department determines that insurance is not fully provided as required under section 543.15, it may require the licensed warehouse operator to provide additional evidence of insurance coverage so that the insurance conforms with the requirements of this chapter. If additional insurance is not provided within thirty days after receipt by the licensee of notice by certified mail, the license of the warehouse operator concerned shall be automatically suspended. If additional insurance is not filed within another ten days, the warehouse license shall be automatically revoked. When a license is revoked, the department shall notify each holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage of the revocation. The department shall further notify each receipt holder and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage that the grain must be removed from the warehouse not later than the thirtieth day following the revocation. The notice shall be sent by ordinary mail to the last known address of each person having grain in storage as provided in this subsection.

2. If the department determines that the net worth of a licensed warehouse operator is not in compliance with the requirements of section 543.6, the department shall issue a notice to the warehouse operator and shall suspend the warehouse operator's license if the warehouse operator does not provide evidence of compliance within thirty days of the issuance of the notice. The department shall inspect the warehouse at the end of the thirty-day period. If evidence of compliance is not provided within sixty days of the issuance of the notice, the department shall revoke the warehouse operator's license, and shall again inspect the warehouse. If a license is revoked, the department shall give notice of the revocation to each holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt and to all known persons who have grain retained in open storage. The revocation notice shall state that the grain must be removed from the warehouse not later than the thirtieth day after the issuance of the revocation notice. The revocation notice shall be sent by ordinary mail to the last known address of each person having grain in storage as provided in this subsection. The department shall conduct a final inspection of the warehouse at the end of the thirty-day period following the issuance of the revocation notice.

3. When the department receives notice that a deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit is being canceled by the issuer, and determines that upon the cancellation the warehouse operation will not be in compliance with section 543.6, the department shall suspend the warehouse operator's license if a new deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit is not received by the department within sixty days of receipt by the department of the notice of cancellation. If a new deficiency bond or irrevocable letter of credit is not received by the department within thirty days following suspension, the warehouse operator's license shall be revoked. When a license is revoked, the department shall notify each holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage of the revocation, and shall further notify each receipt holder and all known persons who have grain retained in open storage that the grain must be removed from the warehouse not later than the thirtieth day following revocation. The notice shall be sent by ordinary mail to the last known address of each person having grain in storage as provided in this subsection.

543.12 Participation in fund required.
A person licensed to operate a warehouse under this chapter shall participate in and comply with the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund provided in chapter 543A.

543.13 Form and amount of evidence of financial responsibility.
1. A warehouse operator who stores only agricultural products other than bulk grain shall have and maintain a net worth of at least ten percent of the value of the warehouse capacity, or maintain a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit in the amount of two thousand dollars for each one thousand dollars or fraction thereof of net worth deficiency. However, a person shall not be eligible for a license to store only agricultural products other than bulk grain if the person has a net worth of less than ten thousand dollars.

2. If the agricultural product or products intended to be stored by the warehouse operator, as specified in the application for a license or amended license, are other than bulk grain, the quantity of such product intended to be stored shall be valued at the fair market price on the date of filing the application, and the minimum amount of bond shall be determined with reference to such value as follows:

a. For intended storage of such products of a value less than twenty thousand dollars the minimum amount of the bond shall be three thousand dollars, plus one thousand dollars for each two thousand dollars, or fraction thereof, of value in excess of six thousand dollars up to twenty thousand dollars.

b. For intended storage of such products of a value not less than twenty thousand dollars and not more than fifty thousand dollars the minimum amount of the bond shall be ten thousand dollars plus one thousand dollars for each three thousand dollars, or fraction thereof, of value in excess of twenty thousand dollars up to fifty thousand dollars.

c. For intended storage of such products of a value not less than fifty thousand dollars the minimum amount of the bond shall be twenty thousand dollars plus one thousand dollars for each five thousand dollars, or fraction thereof, of value in excess of fifty thousand dollars.

3. A bond, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit on agricultural products other than bulk grain shall not be canceled by the issuer on less than one hundred twenty days' notice by certified mail to the department and the principal. When the department receives notice from an issuer that it has canceled the bond, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit on agricultural products other than bulk grain of a warehouse operator, the department shall automatically suspend the warehouse operator's authorization to store or accept for storage agricultural products other than bulk grain if a new bond, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit is not received by the department within sixty days of the issuance of the notice of cancellation. The department shall conduct an inspection of the licensee's warehouse immediately at the end of the sixty-
§543.13, WAREHOUSES FOR AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

A person injured by the breach of an obligation of a warehouse operator, for the performance of which a bond on agricultural products other than bulk grain, a deficiency bond, or an irrevocable letter of credit has been given under any of the provisions of this chapter, may sue on the bond on agricultural products other than bulk grain, deficiency bond, or irrevocable letter of credit in the person's own name in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover any damages the person has sustained by reason of the breach.

Upon revocation, termination, or cancellation of a warehouse license, a claim against the warehouse operator arising under this chapter shall be made in writing with the warehouse operator, with the issuer of a bond on agricultural products other than bulk grain, a deficiency bond, or an irrevocable letter of credit, and, if the claim relates to bulk grain, with the department within one hundred twenty days after revocation, termination, or cancellation. Failure to make a timely claim relieves the issuer and, if the claim relates to bulk grain, the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund provided in chapter 543A to the claimant. Upon revocation of a warehouse license, the department shall conduct a final inspection of the licensee's warehouse after the end of the one hundred twenty-day period.

543.15 Insurance required — exception.

All agricultural products in storage in a licensed warehouse and all agricultural products which have been deposited temporarily in a licensed warehouse pending storage or for purposes other than storage, shall be kept fully insured by the warehouse operator for the current value of the agricultural products against loss by fire, inherent explosion, or windstorm. The insurance shall be carried in an insurance company or companies authorized to do business in this state, and evidence of the insurance coverage in a form approved by the department shall be filed with the department. An insurance policy shall not be canceled by the insurance company on less than sixty days' notice by certified mail to the department and the principal unless the policy is being replaced with another policy and evidence of the new policy is filed with the department at the time of cancellation of the policy on file. The insurance shall be provided by, and carried in the name of, the warehouse operator. Claims against the insurance have precedence in the following order:

1. Holders of warehouse receipts other than the warehouse operator and owners of bulk grain other than the warehouse operator.
2. Owners of all other agricultural products as their interests appear.
3. Warehouse operators who have warehouse receipts.
4. Warehouse operators owners of bulk grain.

However, notwithstanding the insurance requirements set forth in this section, a licensed warehouse may exclude from the insurance coverage stored grain to which title is fully vested in the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies. Provided that the licensed warehouse has on file with the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies a current and accepted uninsured storage rate under the provisions of their uniform grain storage agreement. The licensed warehouse shall file a copy of the current uninsured tariff rate with the department immediately upon acceptance of the uninsured rate by the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies.

543.16 License required for the storage of bulk grain.

It shall be unlawful for any person other than a licensed warehouse operator to place in storage or to accept for storage any bulk grain, and it shall be unlawful for any person to place bulk grain in storage in a warehouse other than a licensed warehouse. This section shall not apply to the acceptance and storage of bulk grain by a person bonded and licensed under the provisions of a federal law, if and to the extent that such person is authorized under federal law to accept and store bulk grain, but such person shall comply with all other provisions of this chapter which do not conflict with such federal law. This section shall not apply to the storage of bulk grain owned by the person storing the same.

543.17 Receiving bulk grain at licensed and unlicensed warehouses.

1. Any grain which has been received at any licensed warehouse for which the actual sale price is not fixed and proper documentation made or payment made shall be construed to be grain held for storage within the meaning of this chapter. Grain may be held in open storage or placed on warehouse receipt. Warehouse receipts shall be issued for all grain held in open storage, within six months of delivery to the warehouse, unless the depositor has signed a statement that the depositor does not desire a warehouse receipt. The warehouse operator's tariff shall apply for any grain that is retained in open storage or under warehouse receipt.

2. Bulk grain deposited with a licensed warehouse operator for processing, cleaning, drying, shipping for the account of the depositor or any other purpose shall be removed within thirty days or such grain shall be determined as stored grain and the warehouse operator's tariff charges shall apply.

3. Grain received on a scale ticket which fails to have the price fixed and properly documented on the records of the warehouse operator shall be construed to be in open storage.

4. All bulk grain whether open storage or having been placed on warehouse receipt is covered by the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in chapter 543A.

5. Any grain which has been received at any unlicensed warehouse and for which the actual sale price has not been fixed and payment made within thirty days from receipt of the grain, unless covered by a credit-sale contract, shall be construed to be unlawful storage within the meaning of this chapter. Bulk grain received at any unlicensed warehouse for any other purpose must either be returned to the depositor or disposed of by order of the depositor within thirty days from date of actual deposit of the bulk grain.

6. If the depositor of bulk grain in an unlicensed warehouse fails to sell the grain or orders other disposition of the grain, the warehouse operator may purchase the grain, if otherwise allowed by law, on the thirtieth day after deposit at not less than the local market price at the close of business on the thirtieth day or return the grain to the depositor by the thirtieth day.

7. Every licensed warehouse operator shall, on or before July 1 of each year, send a statement for each holder of a warehouse receipt covering grain held for more than one year at that warehouse to the holder's last known address. The statement shall show the amount of all grain held pursuant to warehouse receipt for such warehouse receipt holder and the amount of any storage charges held by the licensed warehouse operator against that grain. However, a licensed warehouse operator need not prepare this annual statement for a holder of a warehouse receipt, if the licensed warehouse operator prepares such statements monthly, quarterly or for any other period more frequent than annually. Failure to prepare a statement required by this subsection is a simple misdemeanor. Violation of this section shall not constitute grounds for suspension, revocation, or modification of the license of anyone licensed under this chapter.

543.18 Issuance of warehouse receipts.

For all agricultural products that become storage in a licensed warehouse, warehouse receipts signed by the licensed warehouse operator or the operator's authorized agent shall be issued by the licensed warehouse operator. Such warehouse receipts shall be in the form required or permitted by Uniform Commercial Code, sections 554.7202 and 554.7204, provided, however, that each receipt issued for agricultural products, in addition to the matters specified in Uniform Commercial Code, section 554.7202 shall embody in its written or printed terms:

1. The receiving and loadout charges which will be made by the warehouse operator.

2. The grade or other class of the agricultural products received and the standard or description in accordance with which such classification has been made; provided that such grade or other class shall be stated according to the official standard of the United States applicable to such agricultural products as the same may be fixed and promulgated; provided, further, that until such official standards of the United States for any agricultural product or products have been fixed and promulgated, the grade or other class thereof may be stated in accordance with any recognized standard or in accordance with such rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith as may be prescribed by the secretary of agriculture of the United States.

3. A statement that the receipt is issued subject to the Iowa warehouse Act and the rules and regulations prescribed pursuant to the Act.

4. Such other terms and conditions as may be required by rules of the department.
§543.18, WAREHOUSES FOR AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

Warehouses that are not licensed pursuant to this chapter or by the United States government shall not issue warehouse receipts for agricultural products.

The original copy of every warehouse receipt shall be imprinted with the signature of the secretary of agriculture prior to issuance.

543.19 Rights and obligations with respect to warehouse receipts — lost receipts.

Insofar as not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, original or duplicate receipts issued by licensed warehouse operators shall be deemed to have been issued under the provisions of Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 554, article 7.

Duplicates and releases for lost, destroyed, or stolen warehouse receipts may be issued only in accordance with the provisions of section 554.7601.

543.20 Receipt by warehouse operator to self.

A licensed warehouse operator may issue a warehouse receipt for agricultural products owned by the warehouse operator and dispose of the title to or interest in such products through the medium of such receipt. Such receipt shall be of the same standing as though it had been issued to a person other than the licensed warehouse operator upon a rightful deposit of the products by such other person. Sections 543.18 and 543.19 shall be applicable to any such receipt.

543.21 Repealed by 61GA, ch 413, §10102.

543.22 Repealed by 67GA, ch 1170, §16.

543.23 Warehouse operator's obligation.

A warehouse operator shall maintain at all times sufficient quantity and quality of grain or other agricultural products to cover the warehouse operator's obligation. A warehouse operator shall not at any time have less grain or other agricultural products in the warehouse than the obligations to depositors.

543.24 Confidentiality of records.

Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 22, all financial statements of warehouse operators under this chapter shall be kept confidential by the department and its agents and employees and are not subject to disclosure except as follows:

1. Upon waiver by the licensee.
2. In actions or administrative proceedings commenced under this chapter or chapter 542.
3. When required by subpoena or other court orders.
4. Disclosure to law enforcement agencies in regards to the detection and prosecution of public offenses.
5. Where released to a bonding company approved by the department or to the United States department of agriculture or any of their divisions.
6. Where released at the request of the Iowa board of accountancy for licensee review and discipline in accordance with chapters 116 and 258A and subject to the confidentiality requirements of section 258A.6.

[81 Acts, ch 180, §30]

83 Acts, ch 104, §2

543.25 Shrinkage adjustments — disclosures — penalties.

1. A person who, in connection with the receipt of corn or soybeans for storage, processing, or sale, adjusts the scale weight of the grain to compensate for the moisture content of the grain shall compute the amount of the adjustment by multiplying the scale weight of the grain by that factor which results in a rate of adjustment of one and eighteen hundredths percent of weight per one percent of moisture content. The use of any rate of weight adjustment for moisture content other than the one prescribed by this subsection is a fraudulent practice. The person shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place notice of the rate of adjustment for moisture content that is prescribed by this subsection. Failure to make this disclosure is a simple misdemeanor.
2. A person who, in connection with the receipt of grain for storage, processing or sale, adjusts the quantity of the grain received to compensate for losses to be incurred during the handling, processing, or storage of the grain shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place notice of the rate of adjustment to be made for this shrinkage. Failure to make the required disclosure is a simple misdemeanor.
3. A person who adjusts the scale weight of corn or soybeans both for moisture content and for handling, processing, or storage losses may combine the two adjustment factors into a single factor and may use this resulting factor to compute the amount of weight adjustment in connection with storage, processing, or sale transactions, provided that the person shall post on the business premises in a conspicuous place a notice that discloses the moisture shrinkage factor prescribed by subsection 1, the handling shrinkage factor to be imposed, and the single factor that results from combining these factors. Failure to make the required disclosure is a simple misdemeanor.

543.27 Discrimination.

Every warehouse operator conducting a warehouse licensed under this chapter shall receive for storage therein, so far as its authorized storage capacity permits, any product of the kind the operator is permitted by the operator's license to store, and which may be tendered to the operator in a suitable condition for warehousing, in the usual manner and in the ordinary and usual course of business, without making any discrimination between persons desiring to avail themselves of warehouse facilities.

§543.28 Tariff rates.

A warehouse operator shall, at the time of application for a license, file a tariff with the department which shall contain rates to be charged for receiving, storage, and load-out of grain. The tariff shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the place of business of the licensee in a form prescribed by the department and shall become effective at the time the license becomes effective.

Storage charges shall commence on the date of delivery to the warehouse. Storage, receiving, or load-out charges other than those specified in the tariff may be made if the charge is required by the terms of a written contract with the United States government or any of its subdivisions or agencies.

Grain deposited with the warehouse for the sole purpose of processing and redelivery to the depositor is subject only to the charges listed under the grain bank section of the tariff. Drying and cleaning of grain shall not be construed as processing.

A tariff may be amended at any time and is effective immediately, except that grain in store on the effective date of a storage charge increase does not assume the increased rate until the subsequent anniversary date of deposit. Any decrease in storage rates shall be effective immediately and shall be applicable to all grain in store on the effective date of the decrease.

A warehouse operator may file with the department and publish the supplemental tariff applicable only to grain meeting special descriptive standards or characteristics as set forth in the supplemental tariff. A supplemental tariff shall be in a form prescribed by the department and be posted adjacent to the warehouse tariff.

All tariff charges shall be nondiscriminatory within classes.

§543.31 and 543.32 Repealed by 62GA, ch 387, §2, 3.

543.33 Fees.

The department shall charge the following fees for deposit in the general fund:

1. For the issuance or renewal of a warehouse license, the fee shall be determined on the basis of the storage capacity in bushels of grain as follows:
   a. If the total storage capacity is one hundred thousand bushels or less, the fee is thirty-five dollars.
   b. If the total storage capacity is more than one hundred thousand bushels, but not more than seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, the fee is seventy-five dollars.
   c. If the total storage capacity is more than seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, but not more than one million five hundred thousand bushels, the fee is one hundred fifteen dollars.
   d. If the total storage capacity is more than one million five hundred thousand bushels, but not more than four million seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, the fee is one hundred eighty-five dollars.
   e. If the total storage capacity is more than four million seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, but not more than nine million five hundred thousand bushels, the fee is two hundred twenty-five dollars.
   f. If the total storage capacity is more than nine million five hundred thousand bushels, the fee is two hundred fifty dollars.

2. For the issuance or renewal of a warehouse license for the storage of products other than bulk grain, the fee shall be determined as follows:
   a. For intended storage of products of a value of one hundred thousand dollars or less, a fee of sixty dollars.
   b. For intended storage of products of a value greater than one hundred thousand dollars but not greater than three hundred thousand dollars, a fee of one hundred dollars.
   c. For intended storage of products of a value in excess of three hundred thousand dollars, a fee of two hundred dollars.

For each inspection of a warehouse or station for the purpose of licensing, a fee of twenty-five dollars, and for each additional warehouse or station under the same license, a fee of ten dollars.

3. For each amendment of a license, a fee of ten dollars.

4. For each amendment of a tariff, a fee of ten dollars.

5. For a duplicate license, a fee of five dollars.

6. For the reinstatement of a license, a fee of fifty dollars.

New licenses issued for less than a year shall be prorated from the date of application.

§543.33 Fees.

The department shall charge the following fees for deposit in the general fund:

1. For the issuance or renewal of a warehouse license, the fee shall be determined on the basis of the storage capacity in bushels of grain as follows:
   a. If the total storage capacity is one hundred thousand bushels or less, the fee is thirty-five dollars.
   b. If the total storage capacity is more than one hundred thousand bushels, but not more than seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, the fee is seventy-five dollars.
   c. If the total storage capacity is more than seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, but not more than one million five hundred thousand bushels, the fee is one hundred fifteen dollars.
   d. If the total storage capacity is more than one million five hundred thousand bushels, but not more than four million seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, the fee is one hundred eighty-five dollars.
   e. If the total storage capacity is more than four million seven hundred fifty thousand bushels, but not more than nine million five hundred thousand bushels, the fee is two hundred twenty-five dollars.
   f. If the total storage capacity is more than nine million five hundred thousand bushels, the fee is two hundred fifty dollars.

2. For the issuance or renewal of a warehouse license for the storage of products other than bulk grain, the fee shall be determined as follows:
   a. For intended storage of products of a value of one hundred thousand dollars or less, a fee of sixty dollars.
   b. For intended storage of products of a value greater than one hundred thousand dollars but not greater than three hundred thousand dollars, a fee of one hundred dollars.
   c. For intended storage of products of a value in excess of three hundred thousand dollars, a fee of two hundred dollars.

For each inspection of a warehouse or station for the purpose of licensing, a fee of twenty-five dollars, and for each additional warehouse or station under the same license, a fee of ten dollars.

3. For each amendment of a license, a fee of ten dollars.

4. For each amendment of a tariff, a fee of ten dollars.

5. For a duplicate license, a fee of five dollars.

6. For the reinstatement of a license, a fee of fifty dollars.

1. A person who knowingly withholds information from or knowingly submits false information to the department or any of its employees in a document or a book, account, or record required to be submitted or maintained under this chapter commits a fraudulent practice.
2. A person who engages in business as a warehouse operator without obtaining a license, or who refuses to permit inspection of licensed premises, or books, accounts, records or other documents required by this chapter, or who uses a scale ticket, warehouse receipt or other document which fails to satisfy requirements established by the department commits a serious misdemeanor, except that a person who commits any of these offenses after having been found guilty of the same offense commits an aggravated misdemeanor.
3. Except as provided in subsections 1 and 2, a person who violates any provision of this chapter commits a simple misdemeanor. With respect to a continuing violation, each day that the violation continues is a separate offense.
4. A violation of this chapter, or a violation of chapter 714 or 715 involving the business of a warehouse operator, may be restrained by injunction in an action brought by the department.

§543.37 Failure to pay fee.
Failure to pay the annual fee provided for in section 543.33 on or before June 30 of the year for which due shall cause a license to terminate. A warehouse license which has terminated may be reinstated by the department upon receipt of a proper renewal application, the renewal fee, and the reinstatement fee as provided for in section 543.33, if filed within thirty days from the date of termination of the warehouse license. The department may cancel the license upon request of the licensee unless a complaint or information is filed against the licensee alleging a violation of a provision of this chapter.

§543.38 No obligation of state.
Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to imply any guarantee or obligation on the part of the state of Iowa, or any of its agencies, employees or officials, either elective or appointive, in respect of any agreement or undertaking to which the provisions of this chapter relate.

§543.39 Grain stored in another warehouse.
A licensed warehouse operator may store grain in any other licensed warehouse in Iowa in addition to the warehouse operator's own facilities, subject to the following conditions:
1. The warehouse operator must obtain from such warehouse operator a nonnegotiable warehouse receipt and such receipt must show clearly the following notation: "Held in trust for depositors of (name of original receiving warehouse)."
2. When the warehouse operator begins to use the additional facilities described in this section, the operator must have sufficient net worth under section 543.6 or provide a deficiency bond or an irrevocable letter of credit to cover the increase in the operator's gross capacity.
3. A licensed warehouse operator shall not accept grain for storage from another licensed warehouse operator while such warehouse operator has grain stored elsewhere under the provisions of this section.

CHAPTER 543A

GRAIN DEPOSITORS AND SELLERS INDEMNIFICATION

1987 amendments do not affect a claim for indemnification from the fund, if the claim arose from a purchase of grain by a credit sale contract executed before July 1, 1987.

87 Acts, ch 147, §20

543A.1 Definitions.

1. “Assessable grain” means all grain to which a licensed grain dealer obtains title except if title transfers by credit sale contract, and all grain received by a licensed warehouse operator. However, assessable grain does not include the following:
   a. Grain purchased by an Iowa licensed grain dealer from another licensed grain dealer, regardless of which jurisdiction licenses the other grain dealer.
   b. Grain deposited in a licensed grain warehouse for custom drying, cleaning, conditioning, or processing if the grain is redelivered to the depositor immediately, as defined by rules adopted by the department.

2. “Board” means the Iowa grain indemnity fund board created in section 543A.4.

3. “Department” means the department of agriculture and land stewardship.

4. “Depositor” means a person who deposits grain in a state warehouse for storage, handling, or shipment, or who is the owner or legal holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt issued by a state warehouse, or who is lawfully entitled to possession of the grain.

5. “Fund” means the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in section 543A.3.

6. “Grain” means wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, field peas, soybeans, grain sorghums, spelt, and similar agricultural products, as defined in the Grain Standards Act, but does not include agricultural products other than bulk grain.

7. “Licensed grain dealer” means a person who has obtained a license to engage in the business of a grain dealer pursuant to section 542.3.

8. “Licensed warehouse operator” means the same as in section 543.1.

9. “Loss” means the amount of a claim held by a seller or depositor against a grain dealer or warehouse operator which has not been recovered through other legal and equitable remedies including the liquidation of assets.

10. “Seller” means a person who sells grain which the person has produced or caused to be produced to a licensed grain dealer, but excludes a person who executes a credit sale contract as a seller.

543A.2 Persons participating in fund.

All licensed grain dealers and licensed warehouse operators shall participate in the fund.

86 Acts, ch 1152, §32; 87 Acts, ch 147, §11

543A.3 Grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund.

1. The grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund is created in the state treasury. The general fund of the state is not liable for claims presented against the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund under section 543A.6. The fund consists of a per-bushel fee on assessable grain remitted by licensed grain dealers and licensed warehouse operators; an annual fee charged to and remitted by licensed grain dealers and licensed warehouse operators; sums collected by the department by legal action on behalf of the fund; and interest, property, or securities acquired through the use of moneys in the fund. The moneys collected under this section and deposited in the fund shall be used exclusively to indemnify depositors and sellers as provided in section 543A.6 and to pay the administrative costs of this chapter.

2. The grain dealer or warehouse operator shall forward the per-bushel fee to the department in the manner and using the forms prescribed by the department. If the per-bushel fee has not been received by the department by the date required by the department, the grain dealer or warehouse operator is subject to a penalty of $100 for each day the grain dealer or warehouse operator is delinquent or an amount equal to the amount of the deficiency, whichever is less. The department may establish and apply a margin of error in determining whether a grain dealer or warehouse operator is delinquent. If the per-bushel fee has not been received by the department within thirty days after the payment was due, the grain dealer’s or warehouse operator’s license shall be suspended. The per-bushel fee shall be collected only once on each bushel of grain.

3. a. All licensed grain dealers and licensed warehouse operators shall annually remit a fee to be deposited into the fund which is determined as follows:
§543A.3, GRAIN DEPOSITORS AND SELLERS INDEMNIFICATION

1. For class 1 grain dealers, five hundred dollars.
2. For class 2 grain dealers, two hundred fifty dollars.
3. For warehouse operators or participating federally licensed grain warehouses:
   a. For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity less than twenty thousand bushels, forty-two dollars plus seven dollars for each two thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of twelve thousand bushels.
   b. For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity not less than twenty thousand bushels and not more than fifty thousand bushels, seventy dollars plus four and a half dollars for each three thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of twenty thousand bushels.
   c. For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity not less than fifty thousand bushels and not more than seventy thousand bushels, one hundred fifty dollars plus four and a half dollars for each four thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of fifty thousand bushels.
   d. For intended storage of bulk grain in any quantity not less than seventy thousand bushels, one hundred thirty-seven and a half dollars plus two and three-quarters dollars for each five thousand bushels or fraction thereof in excess of seventy thousand bushels.

4. A person who applies for a grain dealer's or warehouse operator's license, or renewal of a license, shall pay the full fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 3, for the privilege of selling or depositing grain before the license is issued.

5. All disbursements from the fund shall be made by the treasurer of state pursuant to vouchers authorized by the department.

6. The administrative costs of this chapter shall be paid from the fund after approval of the costs by the board.

86 Acts, ch 1152, §34; 87 Acts, ch 147, §16

1. The board shall review annually the debits and credits to the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund created in section 543A.3 and shall make any adjustments in the per-bushel fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 2, and the dealer-warehouse fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 3, that are necessary to maintain the fund within the limits established under this section. Not later than the first day of May of each year, the board shall determine the proposed amount of the per-bushel fee based on the expected volume of grain on which the fee is to be collected and that is likely to be handled under this chapter, and shall also determine any adjustment to the dealer-warehouse fee. The board shall make any changes in the previous year's fees in accordance with chapter 17A. Changes in the fees shall become effective on the following first day of July. The per-bushel fee shall not exceed one-quarter cent per bushel on all assessable grain. Until the per-bushel fee is adjusted or waived as provided in this section, the per-bushel fee is one-quarter cent on all assessable grain.

2. If, at the end of any three-month period, the assets of the fund exceed six million dollars, less any encumbered balances or pending or unsettled claims, the per-bushel fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 2, and the dealer-warehouse fee required under section 543A.3, subsection 3, shall be waived and the fees are not assessable or owing. The board shall reinstate the fees if the assets of the fund, less any unencumbered balances or pending or unsettled claims, are three million dollars or less.

1. A depositor or seller may file a claim concerning assessable grain with the department for indemnification of a loss from the grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund. A claim shall be filed in the manner prescribed by the board. A claim shall not be filed prior to the earlier of the revocation, termination, or cancellation of the license of the grain dealer or warehouse operator, or the filing of a petition in bankruptcy by a grain dealer or warehouse operator. However, to be timely a claim shall be filed within one hundred twenty days of the revocation, termination, or cancellation of the license of the grain dealer or warehouse operator. The value of a loss is to be measured as follows:

a. The board shall determine the dollar value of a claim incurred by a depositor holding a warehouse receipt or a scale weight ticket for grain that the depositor delivered to the licensed warehouse operator or grain dealer. The value shall be based on the average fair market price being paid for the grain to producers by the three licensed grain dealers nearest the warehouse operator or grain dealer on the earlier of the following:

   (1) The date of license revocation, termination, or cancellation.
   (2) The date on which the licensed warehouse operator or licensed grain dealer filed a petition in bankruptcy.

However, the board may accept the valuation of a claim as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction as the value of the claim. All depositors filing claims under this section shall be bound by the value determined by the board. The value of the loss is the outstanding balance on the validated claim at time of payment from the fund.

b. The dollar value of a claim incurred by a seller who has sold grain or delivered grain for sale or exchange and who is a creditor of the licensed grain dealer for all or part of the value of the grain shall be based on the amount stated on the obligation on the date of the sale. However, the board may accept the valuation of a claim as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction as the value of the claim. The value of the loss is the outstanding balance on the validated claim at the time of payment from the fund.

2. The grain depositors and sellers indemnity fund is liable to a depositor or seller for a claim which arises on or after May 15, 1986, for ninety percent of the loss, as determined under subsection 1, but not more than one hundred fifty thousand dollars per claimant.

3. The board shall determine the validity of all claims presented against the fund. A depositor or seller whose claim has been refused by the board may appeal the refusal to either the district court of Polk county or the district court of the county in which the depositor or seller resides. The board shall provide for payment from the fund to a depositor or seller whose claim has been found to be valid.

4. If at any time the fund does not contain sufficient assets to pay valid claims, the department shall hold those claims for payment until the fund again contains sufficient assets. Claims against the fund shall be paid in the order in which they are found to be valid. However, no claims shall be paid before the fund initially reaches one million dollars.

5. In the event of payment of a loss under this section, the fund is subrogated to the extent of the amount of any payments to all rights, powers, privileges, and remedies of the depositor or seller against any person regarding the loss. The depositor or seller shall render all necessary assistance to aid the department and the board in securing the rights granted in this section. No action or claim initiated by a depositor or seller and pending at the time of payment from the fund shall be compromised or settled without the consent of the board.

6 “Real property” includes land and any interest or estate in land
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544 2]

§544.3 Interpretation of knowledge and notice.
1 A person has “knowledge” of a fact within the meaning of this chapter not only when the person has actual knowledge thereof, but also when the person has knowledge of such other facts as in the circumstances shows bad faith
2 A person has “notice” of a fact within the meaning of this chapter when the person who claims the benefit of the notice a States the fact to the person, or b Delivers through the mail, or by other means of communication, a written statement of the fact to such person or to a proper person at the person's place of business or residence
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544 3]

§544.4 Rules of construction.
1 The rule that statutes in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed shall have no application to this chapter
2 The law of estoppel shall apply under this chapter
3 The law of agency shall apply under this chapter
4 This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effect its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it
5 This chapter shall not be construed so as to impair the obligations of any contract existing on July 1, 1971, nor to affect any action or proceedings begun or right accrued before that date
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544 4]

§544.5 Rules for cases not provided for in this chapter.
In any case not provided for in this chapter the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, shall govern
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544 5]

§544.6 Partnership defined.
1 A partnership is an association of two or more persons to carry on as co-owners a business for profit
2 But any association formed under any other statute of this state, or any statute adopted by authority, other than the authority of this state, is not a partnership under this chapter, unless the association would have been a partnership in this state prior to the adoption of this chapter, but this chapter shall apply to limited partnerships except insofar as the statutes relating to such partnerships are inconsistent herewith
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544 6]

§544.7 Rules for determining the existence of a partnership.
In determining whether a partnership exists, these rules shall apply
1 Except as provided by section 544 16, persons who are not partners as to each other are not partners as to third persons
2 Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entireties, joint property, common property, or part ownership does not of itself establish a partnership, whether such co-owners do or do not share any profits made by the use of the property.

3. The sharing of gross returns does not of itself establish a partnership, whether or not the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in any property from which the returns are derived.

4. The receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima-facie evidence that the person is a partner in the business, but no such inference shall be drawn if such profits were received in payment:
   a. As a debt by installments or otherwise,
   b. As wages of an employee or rent to a landlord,
   c. As an annuity to a spouse or representative of a deceased partner,
   d. As interest on a loan, though the amount of payment varies with the profits of the business,
   e. As the consideration for the sale of a good will of a business or other property by installments or otherwise.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.11]

544.8 Partnership property.
1. All property originally brought into the partnership stock or subsequently acquired by purchase or otherwise, on account of the partnership, is partnership property.
2. Unless the contrary intention appears, property acquired with partnership funds is partnership property.
3. Any estate in real property may be acquired in the partnership name. Title so acquired can be conveyed only in the partnership name.
4. A conveyance to a partnership in the partnership name, though without words of inheritance, passes the entire estate of the grantor unless a contrary intent appears.

544.9 Partner agent of partnership as to partnership business.
1. Every partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business, and the act of every partner, including the execution in the partnership name of any instrument, for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of the partnership of which the partner is a member binds the partnership, unless the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter, and the person with whom the partner is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the partner has no such authority.
2. An act of a partner which is not apparently for the carrying on of the business of the partnership in the usual way does not bind the partnership unless authorized by the other partners.
3. Unless authorized by the other partners or unless they have abandoned the business, one or more but less than all the partners have no authority to:
   a. Assign the partnership property in trust for creditors or on the assignee’s promise to pay the debts of the partnership,
   b. Dispose of the good will of the business,
   c. Do any other act which would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of a partnership,
   d. Confess a judgment,
   e. Submit a partnership claim or liability to arbitration or reference.
4. No act of a partner in contravention of a restriction on authority shall bind the partnership to persons having knowledge of the restriction.

544.10 Conveyance of real property of the partnership.
1. Where title to real property is in the partnership name, any partner may convey title to the property by a conveyance executed in the partnership name; but the partnership may recover such property unless the partner’s act binds the partnership under the provisions of section 544.9, subsection 1, or unless the property has been conveyed by the grantee or a person claiming through the grantee to a holder for value without knowledge that the partner, in making the conveyance, has exceeded the partner’s authority.
2. Where title to real property is in the name of the partnership, a conveyance executed by a partner, in the partner’s own name, passes the equitable interest of the partnership, provided the act is within the authority of the partner under the provisions of section 544.9, subsection 1.
3. Where title to real property is in the name of one or more but not all the partners, and the record does not disclose the right of the partnership, the partners in whose name the title stands may convey title to the property, but the partnership may recover the property if the partners’ act does not bind the partnership under the provisions of section 544.9, subsection 1, unless the purchaser or the purchaser’s assignee, is a holder for value, without knowledge.
4. Where the title to real property is in the name of one or more or all the partners, or in a third person in trust for the partnership, a conveyance executed by a partner in the partnership name, or in the partner’s own name, passes the equitable interest of the partnership, provided the act is one within the authority of the partner under the provisions of section 544.9, subsection 1.
5. Where the title to real property is in the names of all the partners a conveyance executed by all the partners passes all their rights in the property.

544.11 Partnership bound by admission of partner.
An admission or representation made by any partner concerning partnership affairs within the scope of the partner’s authority as conferred by this chapter is evidence against the partnership.

544.12 Partnership charged with knowledge of or notice to partner.

Notice to any partner of any matter relating to partnership affairs, and the knowledge of the partner acting in the particular matter, acquired while a partner or then present to the partner's mind, and the knowledge of any other partner who reasonably could and should have communicated it to the acting partner, operates as notice to or knowledge of the partnership, except in the case of a fraud on the partnership committed by or with the consent of that partner.

544.13 Partnership bound by partner's wrongful act.

Where, by any wrongful act or omission of any partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the partnership or with the authority of the copartners, loss or injury is caused to any person, not being a partner in the partnership, or any penalty is incurred, the partnership is liable therefor to the same extent as the partner so acting or omitting to act.

544.14 Partnership bound by partner's breach of trust.

The partnership is bound to make good the loss:

1. Where one partner acting within the scope of apparent authority receives money or property of a third person and misapplies it.

2. Where the partnership in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person and the money or property so received is misapplied by any partner while it is in the custody of the partnership.

[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.14]

544.15 Nature of partner's liability.

All partners are liable:

2. Jointly for all other debts and obligations of the partnership; but any partner may enter into a separate obligation to perform a partnership contract.

544.16 Partner by estoppel.

1. When a person, by words spoken or written or by conduct, represents that person, or consents to another representing that person to anyone, as a partner in an existing partnership or with one or more persons not actual partners, the person is liable to any person to whom the representation has been made, who has, on the faith of the representation, given credit to the actual or apparent partnership, and if the person has made a representation or consented to its being made in a public manner that person is liable to the person, whether the representation has or has not been made or communicated to the person so giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or consenting to its being made.

a. When a partnership liability results, the person is liable as though the person were an actual member of the partnership.

b. When no partnership liability results, the person is liable jointly with the other persons, if any, so consenting to the contract or representation as to incur liability, otherwise separately.

2. When a person has been thus represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not actual partners, the person is an agent of the persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as though the person were a partner in fact, with respect to persons who rely upon the representation. Where all the members of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results; but in all other cases it is the joint act or obligation of the person acting and the persons consenting to the representation.

544.17 Liability of incoming partner.

A person admitted as a partner into an existing partnership is liable for all the obligations of the partnership arising before the person's admission as though the person had been a partner when such obligations were incurred, except that this liability shall be satisfied only out of partnership property.

544.18 Rules determining rights and duties of partners.

The rights and duties of the partners in relation to the partnership shall be determined, subject to any agreement between them, by the following rules:

1. Each partner shall be repaid the partner's contributions, whether by way of capital or advances to the partnership property and share equally in the profits and surplus remaining after all liabilities, including those to partners, are satisfied; and must contribute towards the losses, whether of capital or otherwise, sustained by the partnership according to the partner's share in the profits.

2. The partnership must indemnify every partner in respect of payments made and personal liabilities reasonably incurred by the partner in the ordinary and proper conduct of its business, or for the preservation of its business or property.

3. A partner, who, in aid of the partnership makes any payment or advance beyond the amount of capital which the partner agreed to contribute, shall be paid interest from the date of the payment or advance.

4. A partner shall receive interest on the capital contributed by the partner only from the date when repayment should be made.

5. All partners have equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business.

6. No partner is entitled to remuneration for acting in the partnership business, except that a surviving partner is entitled to reasonable compensation for the partner's services in winding up the partnership affairs.
7. No person can become a member of a partnership without the consent of all the partners.
8. Any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the partners; but no act in contravention of any agreement between the partners may be done rightfully without the consent of all the partners.

544.27 Assignment of a partner's interest.
The assignment for the partner's services in winding up the partnership affairs, is prima-facie evidence of a continuation of the partnership.

544.24 Extent of property rights of a partner.
The property rights of a partner are:
1. The partner's rights in specific partnership property.
2. The partner's interest in the partnership.
3. The partner's right to participate in the management.

544.25 Nature of a partner's right in specific partnership property.
1. A partner is co-owner with the other partners of specific partnership property holding as a tenant in partnership.
2. The incidents of this tenancy are such that:
   a. A partner, subject to the provisions of this chapter and to any agreement between the partners, has an equal right with the other partners to possess specific partnership property for partnership purposes; but the partner has no right to possess the property for any other purpose without the consent of the other partners.
   b. A partner's right in specific partnership property is not assignable except in connection with the assignment of rights of all the partners in the same property.
   c. A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to attachment or execution, except on a claim against the partnership. When partnership property is attached for a partnership debt the partners, or any of them, or the representatives of a deceased partner, cannot claim any right under the homestead or exemption laws.
   d. On the death of a partner the deceased partner's right in specific partnership property vests in the surviving partner or partners, except where the deceased was the last surviving partner, when the deceased partner's rights in the property vest in the deceased partner's legal representative. Such surviving partner or partners, or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, has no right to possess the partnership property for any but a partnership purpose.
   e. A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to dower, curtesy, or allowances to surviving spouses, heirs, or next of kin.

544.26 Nature of partner's interest in the partnership.
A partner's interest in the partnership is the partner's share of the profits and surplus, and the same is personal property.

544.27 Assignment of a partner's interest.
1. A conveyance by a partner of the partner's interest in the partnership does not of itself dissolve the partnership, nor as against the other partners in the absence of agreement, entitle the assignee, during the continuance of the partnership, to interfere in the management or administration of the partnership business or affairs, or to require any information or account of partnership transactions, or to inspect the partnership books; but it merely entitles the assignee to receive in accordance with the assignee's contract the profits to which the assigning partner would otherwise be entitled.
2. In case of a dissolution of the partnership, the assignee is entitled to receive the assignor's interest and may require an account from the date only of the last account agreed to by all the partners.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.27]

544.28 Partner's interest subject to charging order.
1. On due application to a competent court by any judgment creditor of a partner, the court which entered the judgment, order, or decree, or any other court, may charge the interest of the debtor partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment debt with interest thereon; and may then or later appoint a receiver of the debtor partner's share of the profits, and of any other money due or to fall due to the debtor partner in respect of the partnership, and make all other orders, directions, accounts and inquiries which the debtor partner might have made, or which the circumstances of the case may require.
2. The interest charged may be redeemed at any time before foreclosure, or in case of a sale being directed by the court may be purchased without thereby causing a dissolution:
a. With separate property, by any one or more of the partners, or
b. With partnership property, by any one or more of the partners with the consent of all the partners whose interests are not so charged or sold.
3. Nothing in this chapter shall be held to deprive a partner of the partner's right, if any, under the exemption laws, as regards the partner's interest in the partnership.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.28]

544.29 Dissolution defined.
The dissolution of a partnership is the change in the relation of the partners caused by any partner ceasing to be associated in the carrying on as distinguished from the winding up of the business.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.29]

544.30 Partnership not terminated by dissolution.
On dissolution the partnership is not terminated, but continues until the winding up of partnership affairs is completed.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.30]

544.31 Causes of dissolution.
Dissolution is caused:
1. Without violation of the agreement between the partners:
a. By the termination of the definite term or particular undertaking specified in the agreement,
b. By the express will of any partner when no definite term or particular undertaking is specified,
c. By the express will of all the partners who have not assigned their interests or suffered them to be charged for their separate debts, either before or after the termination of any specified term or particular undertaking,
d. By the expulsion of any partner from the business bona fide in accordance with such a power conferred by the agreement between the partners;
2. In contravention of the agreement between the partners, where the circumstances do not permit a dissolution under any other provision of this section, by the express will of any partner at any time;
3. By any event which makes it unlawful for the business of the partnership to be carried on or for the members to carry it on in partnership;
4. By the death of any partner, unless the partnership agreement provides otherwise;
5. By the bankruptcy of any partner or the partnership;
6. By decree of court under section 544.32.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.31]

544.32 Dissolution by decree of court.
The court shall decree a dissolution:
1. On application by or for a partner whenever:
a. A partner has been declared a mentally ill person in any judicial proceeding, or is shown to be of unsound mind,
b. A partner becomes in any other way incapable of performing that partner's part of the partnership contract,
c. A partner has been guilty of conduct as tends to affect prejudicially the carrying on of the business,
d. A partner willfully or persistently commits a breach of the partnership or agreement, or otherwise so behaves in matters relating to the partnership business that it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in partnership with that partner,
e. The business of the partnership can only be carried on at a loss,
f. Other circumstances render a dissolution equitable.
2. On application of the purchaser of a partner's interest under section 544.27 or 544.28:
a. After the termination of the specified term or particular undertaking,
b. At any time if the partnership was a partnership at will when the interest was assigned or when the charging order was issued.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.32]

544.33 General effect of dissolution on authority of partner.
Except so far as may be necessary to wind up partnership affairs or to complete transactions begun but not then finished, dissolution terminates all authority of any partner to act for the partnership:
1. With respect to the partners,
a. When the dissolution is not by the act, bankruptcy or death of a partner, or
b. When the dissolution is by such act, bankruptcy or death of a partner, in cases where section 544.34 so requires.
2. With respect to persons not partners, as declared in section 544.35.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.33]

544.34 Right of partner to contribution from copartners after dissolution.
Where the dissolution is caused by the act, death or bankruptcy of a partner, each partner is liable to that partner’s copartners for that partner’s share of any liability created by any partner acting for the partnership as if the partnership had not been dissolved unless:
1. The dissolution being by act of any partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge of the dissolution, or
2. The dissolution being by the death or bankruptcy of a partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge or notice of the death or bankruptcy.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.34]

544.35 Power of partner to bind partnership to third persons after dissolution.
1. After dissolution a partner can bind the partnership except as provided in subsection 3:
   a. By any act appropriate for winding up partnership affairs or completing transactions unfinished at dissolution.
   b. By any transaction which would bind the partnership if dissolution had not taken place, provided the other party to the transaction:
      (1) Had extended credit to the partnership prior to dissolution and had no knowledge or notice of the dissolution; or
      (2) Though the other party had not so extended credit, had nevertheless known of the partnership prior to dissolution, and, having no knowledge or notice of dissolution, the fact of dissolution had not been advertised in a newspaper of general circulation in the place (or in each place if more than one) at which the partnership business was regularly carried on.
2. The liability of a partner under subsection 1, paragraph “b.” of this section shall be satisfied out of the partnership assets alone when such partner had been prior to dissolution:
   a. Unknown as a partner to the person with whom the contract is made; and
   b. So far unknown and inactive in partnership affairs that the business reputation of the partnership could not be said to have been in any degree due to the partner’s connection with it.
3. The partnership is in no case bound by any act of a partner after dissolution:
   a. Where the partnership is dissolved because it is unlawful to carry on the business, unless the act is appropriate for winding up partnership affairs; or
   b. Where the partner has become bankrupt; or
   c. Where the partner has no authority to wind up partnership affairs; except by a transaction with one who:
(1) Had extended credit to the partnership prior to dissolution and had no knowledge or notice of the partner’s want of authority; or
(2) Had not extended credit to the partnership prior to dissolution, and, having no knowledge or notice of the partner’s want of authority, the fact of the partner’s want of authority has not been advertised in the manner provided for advertising the fact of dissolution in subsection 1, paragraph “b.”
4. Nothing in this section shall affect the liability under section 544.16 of any person who after dissolution represents that person or consents to another representing that person as a partner in a partnership engaged in carrying on business.
[C73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §544.35]

544.36 Effect of dissolution on partner’s existing liability.
1. The dissolution of the partnership does not of itself discharge the existing liability of any partner.
2. A partner is discharged from any existing liability upon dissolution of the partnership by an agreement to that effect between the partner, the partnership creditor and the person or partnership continuing the business; and such agreement may be inferred from the course of dealing between the creditor having knowledge of the dissolution and the person or partnership continuing the business.
3. Where a person agrees to assume the existing obligations of a dissolved partnership, the partners whose obligations have been assumed shall be discharged from any liability to any creditor of the partnership who, knowing of the agreement, consents to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the obligations.
4. The individual property of a deceased partner shall be liable for all obligations of the partnership incurred while the deceased partner was a partner but subject to the prior payment of the deceased partner’s separate debts.

544.37 Right to wind up.
Unless otherwise agreed the partners who have not wrongfully dissolved the partnership or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, not bankrupt, has the right to wind up the partnership affairs; provided, however, that any partner, the partner’s legal representative or the partner’s assignee, upon cause shown, may obtain winding up by the court.

544.38 Rights of partners to application of partnership property.
1. When dissolution is caused in any way, except in contravention of the partnership agreement, each partner, as against the copartners and all persons claiming through them in respect of their interests in the partnership, unless otherwise agreed, may have the partnership property applied to discharge its liabilities, and the surplus applied to pay in cash the net amount owing to the respective partners. But if dissolution is caused by expulsion of a partner, bona fide under the partnership agreement and if the expelled partner is discharged from all partnership liabilities, either by payment or agreement under section 544.36, subsection 2, the expelled partner shall receive in cash only the net amount due the expelled partner from the partnership.

2. When dissolution is caused in contravention of the partnership agreement the rights of the partners shall be as follows:

a. Each partner who has not caused dissolution wrongfully shall have:
   (1) All the rights specified in subsection 1, and
   (2) The right, as against each partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully, to damages for breach of the agreement.

b. The partners who have not caused the dissolution wrongfully, if they all desire to continue the business in the same name, either by themselves or jointly with others, may do so, during the agreed term for the partnership and for that purpose may possess the partnership property, provided they secure the payment by bond approved by the court, or pay to any partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully, the value of that partner’s interest in the partnership at the dissolution, less any damages recoverable under subsection 2, paragraph “a”, subparagraph (2) of this section, and in like manner indemnify that partner against all present or future partnership liabilities.

c. A partner who has caused the dissolution wrongfully shall have:
   (1) If the business is not continued under the provisions of subsection 2, paragraph “b” of this section, all the rights of a partner under subsection 1 of this section, subject to subsection 2, paragraph “a”, subparagraph (2).
   (2) If the business is continued under subsection 2, paragraph “b”, of this section the right as against the copartners and all claiming through them in respect of their interests in the partnership, to have the value of the partner’s interest in the partnership, less any damages caused to the copartners by the dissolution, ascertained and paid to the partner in cash, or the payment secured by bond approved by the court, and to be released from all existing liabilities of the partnership; but in ascertaining the value of the partner’s interest the value of the good will of the business shall not be considered.

544.39 Rights where partnership is dissolved for fraud or misrepresentation.

Where a partnership contract is rescinded on the ground of the fraud or misrepresentation of one of the parties thereto, the party entitled to rescind is, without prejudice to any other right, entitled:

1. To a lien on, or a right of retention of, the surplus of the partnership property after satisfying the partnership liabilities to third persons for any sum of money paid by the party for the purchase of an interest in the partnership and for any capital or advances contributed by the party; and

2. To stand, after all liabilities to third persons have been satisfied, in the place of the creditors of the partnership for any payments made by the party in respect of the partnership liabilities; and

3. To be indemnified by the person guilty of the fraud or making the representation against all debts and liabilities of the partnership.

544.40 Rules for distribution.

In settling accounts between the partners after dissolution, the following rules shall be observed, subject to any agreement to the contrary:

1. The assets of the partnership are:
   a. The partnership property,
   b. The contributions of the partners necessary for the payment of all the liabilities specified in subsection 2.

2. The liabilities of the partnership shall rank in order of payment, as follows:
   a. Those owing to creditors other than partners,
   b. Those owing to partners other than for capital and profits,
   c. Those owing to partners in respect of capital,
   d. Those owing to partners in respect of profits.

3. The assets shall be applied in order of their declaration in subsection 1 of this section to the satisfaction of the liabilities.

4. The partners shall contribute, as provided by section 544.18, subsection 1, the amount necessary to satisfy the liabilities; but if any, but not all of the partners are insolvent, or, not being subject to process, refuse to contribute, the other partners shall contribute their share of the liabilities, and, in the relative proportions in which they share the profits, the additional amount necessary to pay the liabilities.

5. An assignee for the benefit of creditors or any person appointed by the court shall have the right to enforce the contributions specified in subsection 4.

6. Any partner or the partner’s legal representative shall have the right to enforce the contributions specified in subsection 4, to the extent of the amount which the partner has paid in excess of the partner’s share of the liability.

7. The individual property of a deceased partner shall be liable for the contributions specified in subsection 4.

8. When partnership property and the individual properties of the partners are in possession of a court for distribution, partnership creditors shall have priority on partnership property and separate creditors on individual property, saving the rights of lien or secured creditors as heretofore.

9. Where a partner has become bankrupt or the partner’s estate is insolvent the claims against the partner’s separate property shall rank in the following order:
   a. Those owing to separate creditors,
   b. Those owing to partnership creditors,
   c. Those owing to partners by way of contribution.

544.41 Liability of persons continuing the business in certain cases.

1. When any new partner is admitted into an existing partnership, or when any partner retires and assigns, or the representative of the deceased partner assigns the deceased partner's rights in partnership property to two or more of the partners, or to one or more of the partners and one or more third persons, if the business is continued without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the first or dissolved partnership are also creditors of the partnership so continuing the business.

2. When all but one partner retire and assign, or the representative of a deceased partner assigns their rights in partnership property to the remaining partner, who continues the business without liquidation of partnership affairs, either alone or with others, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership so continuing the business.

3. When any partner retires or dies and the business of the dissolved partnership is continued as set forth in subsections 1 and 2 of this section, with the consent of the retired partners or the representative of the deceased partner, but without any assignment of the partner's right in partnership property, rights of creditors of the dissolved partnership and of the creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business shall be as if such assignment had been made.

4. When all the partners or their representatives assign their rights in partnership property to one or more third persons who promise to pay the debts and who continue the business of the dissolved partnership, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

5. When any partner wrongfully causes a dissolution and the remaining partners continue the business under the provisions of section 544.38, subsection 2, paragraph "b", either alone or with others, and without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

6. When a partner is expelled and the remaining partners continue the business either alone or with others, without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

7. The liability of a third person becoming a partner in the partnership continuing the business, under this section, to the creditors of the dissolved partnership shall be satisfied out of partnership property only.

8. When the business of a partnership after dissolution is continued under any conditions set forth in this section the creditors of the dissolved partnership, as against the separate creditors of the retiring or deceased partner or the representative of the deceased partner, have a prior right to any claim of the retired partner or the representative of the deceased partner against the person or partnership continuing the business, on account of the retired or deceased partner's interest in the dissolved partnership or on account of any consideration promised for such interest or for that partner's right in partnership property.

9. Nothing in this section shall be held to modify any right of creditors to set aside any assignment on the ground of fraud.

10. The use by the person or partnership continuing the business of the partnership name, or the name of a deceased partner as part thereof, shall not of itself make the individual property of the deceased partner liable for any debts contracted by the person or partnership.

544.42 Rights of retiring or estate of deceased partner when the business is continued.

When any partner retires or dies, and the business is continued under any of the conditions set forth in section 544.41, subsections 1, 2, 3, 5 and 6, section 544.38, subsection 2, paragraph "b", without any settlement of accounts as between the partner or the partner's estate and the person or partnership continuing the business, unless otherwise agreed, the partner or the partner's legal representative as against such persons or partnership may have the value of the partner's interest at the date of dissolution ascertained, and shall receive as an ordinary creditor an amount equal to the value of the partner's interest in the dissolved partnership with interest, or, at the partner's option or at the option of the partner's legal representative, in lieu of interest, the profits attributable to the use of the partner's right in the property of the dissolved partnership; provided that the creditors of the dissolved partnership as against the separate creditors, or the representative of the retired or deceased partner, shall have priority on any claim arising under this section, as provided by section 544.41, subsection 8.

544.43 Accrual of actions.

The right to an account of the partner's interest shall accrue to any partner, or the partner's legal representative, as against the winding up partners or the surviving partners or the person or partnership continuing the business, at the date of dissolution, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary.

ARTICLE 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS

545.101 Definitions.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
1. “Certificate of limited partnership” means the certificate referred to in section 545.201, and the certificate as amended.
2. “Contribution” means cash, property, services rendered, or a promissory note or other binding obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services, which a partner contributes to a limited partnership in the partner's capacity as a partner.
3. “Event of withdrawal of a general partner” means an event that causes a person to cease to be a general partner as provided in section 545.402.
4. “Foreign limited partnership” means a partnership formed under the laws of a state other than this state and having as partners one or more general partners and one or more limited partners.
5. “General partner” means a person who has been admitted to a limited partnership as a general partner in accordance with the partnership agreement and named in the certificate of limited partnership as a general partner.
6. “Limited partner” means a person who has been admitted to a limited partnership as a limited partner in accordance with the partnership agreement and named in the certificate of limited partnership as a limited partner.
7. “Limited partnership” and “domestic limited partnership” mean a partnership formed by two or more persons under the laws of this state and having one or more general partners and one or more limited partners.
8. “Partner” means a limited or general partner.
9. “Partnership agreement” means a valid agreement, written or oral, of the partners as to the affairs of a limited partnership and the conduct of its business.
10. “Partnership interest” means a partner's share of the profits and losses of a limited partnership and the right to receive distributions of partnership assets.

545.102 Name.
The name of each limited partnership as set forth in its certificate of limited partnership:
1. Shall contain the words “limited partnership” or the abbreviation “L.P.”.
2. Shall not contain the name of a limited partner unless either or both of the following apply:
   a. That name is also the name of a general partner or the corporate name of a corporate general partner.
   b. The business of the limited partnership had been carried on under that name before admission of that limited partner.
3. Shall not contain any word or phrase indicating or implying that the limited partnership is organized other than for a purpose stated in its certificate of limited partnership.
4. Shall not be the same as or deceptively similar to the name of a corporation or limited partnership organized under the laws of this state or licensed or registered as a foreign corporation or foreign limited partnership in this state or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided in this chapter, without the written consent of the corporation or limited partnership which consent shall be filed with the secretary of state and provided the name is not identical.
5. Shall not contain either the word “corporation” or the word “incorporated” or an abbreviation of either.

545.103 Reservation of name.
1. The exclusive right to the use of a name may be reserved by any of the following:
   a. A person intending to organize a limited partnership under this chapter and to adopt that name.
   b. A domestic limited partnership or a foreign limited partnership registered in this state which, in either case, intends to adopt that name.
   c. A foreign limited partnership intending to register in this state and adopt that name.
   d. A person intending to organize a foreign limited partnership and intending to have it register in this state and adopt that name.
2. The reservation shall be made by filing with the secretary of state an application to reserve a specified name. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for use by a domestic or foreign limited partnership, the secretary shall reserve the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of ninety days. The right to the exclusive use of a reserved name may be transferred to any other person by filing in the office of the secretary of state a notice of the transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

545.104 Specified office and agent — service of process.
1. A limited partnership shall continuously maintain in this state both of the following:
   a. An office, which may, but need not be, a place of its business in this state. The records required to be maintained by section 545.105 shall be kept at the office.
   b. An agent for service of process on the limited partnership. The agent shall be either an individual resident of this state, a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state.
2. In addition to other statutory provisions relating to venue, an action may be brought against a limited partnership in the county where its office is maintained or, if a limited partnership fails to maintain an office in this state, then in any county within the state.

3. An agent for service of process may resign as agent upon filing and recording in accordance with section 545.206 a written notice of resignation, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall forthwith mail a copy of the resignation to the limited partnership at its principal place of business. The appointment of the agent terminates upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of the notice by the secretary of state.

4. If a limited partnership fails to appoint or maintain an agent for service of process or if its agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the address of the agent recorded with the secretary of state, then the secretary of state is an agent of the limited partnership upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served. Service may be made by delivering to the secretary of state duplicate copies of the process, notice, or demand. If the process, notice, or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall immediately cause one of the copies to be forwarded by certified mail, addressed to the limited partnership at its principal place of business. A limited partnership served in accordance with this subsection is not in default until thirty days have elapsed following the service on the secretary of state.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices, and demands served upon the secretary of state under this subsection, and shall record the time of the service and the action taken.

This subsection does not limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a limited partnership in any other manner permitted by law.

545.106 Nature of business.
A limited partnership may carry on any business that a partnership without limited partners may carry on.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9822; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §545.17; 82 Acts, ch 1103, §107]

ARTICLE 2
FORMATION – CERTIFICATE

545.201 Certificate of limited partnership.
1. In order to form a limited partnership two or more persons shall execute a certificate of limited partnership. The certificate shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and set forth all of the following:
   a. The name of the limited partnership.
   b. The general character of its business.
   c. The address of the office and the name and address of the agent for service of process required to be maintained by section 545.104, subsection 2, and the address of its principal place of business.
   d. The name and the business address of each partner, specifying separately the general partners and limited partners.
   e. The amount of cash and a description and statement of the agreed value of the other property or services contributed by each partner and which each partner has agreed to contribute in the future.
   f. The times at which or events on the happening of which any additional contributions agreed to be made by each partner are to be made.
   g. A power of a limited partner to grant the right to become a limited partner to an assignee of any part of the partner's partnership interest, and the terms and conditions of the power.
   h. If agreed upon, the time at which or the events on the happening of which a partner may withdraw from the limited partnership and the amount of, or the method of determining the amount of, the distribution to which the partner may be entitled respecting the partnership interest, and the terms and conditions of the termination and distribution.
   i. A right of a partner to receive distributions of property, including cash from the limited partnership.
   j. A right of a partner to receive, or of a general partner to make, distributions to a partner which include a return of all or any part of the partner's contribution.
   k. A time at which, or an event upon the happen-of which, the limited partnership is to be dissolved and its affairs wound up.

l. A right of the remaining general partners to continue the business on the happening of an event of withdrawal of a general partner.

m. Other matters the partners determine to include in the certificate.

2. A limited partnership is formed at the time of the filing of the certificate of limited partnership in the office of the secretary of state or at a later time specified in the certificate of limited partnership if, in either case, there has been substantial compliance with the requirements of this section.

545.202 Amendment to certificate.
1. A certificate of limited partnership is amended by filing a certificate of amendment in the office of the secretary of state. The certificate of amendment shall set forth all of the following:
   a. The name of the limited partnership.
   b. The date of filing the certificate of limited partnership.
   c. The amendment to the certificate of limited partnership.

2. Except as provided in subsection 5, within thirty days after the happening of any of the following events, an amendment to a certificate of limited partnership reflecting the occurrence of the event shall be filed:
   a. A change in the amount or character of the contribution of a partner, or in a partner’s obligation to make a contribution.
   b. The admission of a new general partner.
   c. The continuation of the business under section 545.801 after an event of withdrawal of a general partner.

3. A general partner who becomes aware that a statement in a certificate of limited partnership was false when made or that any arrangements or other facts described have changed, making the certificate inaccurate in any respect, shall promptly amend the certificate. An amendment to show the admission of or a change of address of a limited partner shall be filed within twelve months of the admission or change of address.

4. A certificate of limited partnership may be amended at any time for any other proper purpose by the general partners determine.

5. An amendment is not required to reflect distributions made pursuant to rights described in section 545.201, subsection 1, paragraph "j".

6. A limited partner is not liable because an amendment to a certificate of limited partnership has not been filed to reflect the occurrence of an event referred to in subsection 2 if the amendment is filed within the thirty-day period specified in subsection 2.

545.203 Cancellation of certificate.
A certificate of limited partnership shall be canceled upon the dissolution and the commencement of winding up of the partnership or at any other time there are no limited partners. A certificate of cancellation shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and shall set forth all of the following:

1. The name of the limited partnership.
2. The date of filing of the partnership’s certificate of limited partnership.
3. The reason for filing the certificate of cancellation.
4. The effective date, which shall be a date certain of cancellation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate.
5. Other information the general partners filing the certificate determine.

545.204 Execution of certificates.
1. Each certificate required by this chapter to be filed in the office of the secretary of state shall be executed in the following manner:
   a. An original certificate of limited partnership shall be signed by all partners named in the certificate.
   b. A certificate of amendment shall be signed by at least one general partner and by each other partner designated in the certificate as a new partner or whose contribution is described as having been increased.
   c. A certificate of cancellation shall be signed by all general partners.

2. A person may sign a certificate by an attorney-in-fact.

3. The execution of a certificate by a general partner is the making of a statement under oath or affirmation in a matter in which statements under oath or affirmation are required, within the meaning of section 720.2.

545.205 Amendment or cancellation by judicial act.
If a person required by section 545.204 to execute a certificate of amendment or cancellation fails or refuses to do so, any other partner, or any assignee of a partnership interest, who is adversely affected by the failure or refusal may petition the Iowa district court for the county in which the office described in section 545.104 is located to direct the amendment or cancellation. If the court finds that the amendment or cancellation is proper and that a person so designated has failed or refused to execute the certificate, the court shall order the secretary of state to record an appropriate certificate of amendment or cancellation.

§545.206 Filing with secretary of state and county recorder.

A signed copy of the certificate of limited partnership and a signed copy of any certificate of amendment or cancellation of any judicial decree of amendment or cancellation shall be delivered for filing and recording as provided in this subsection. A person who executes a certificate as an agent or fiduciary need not exhibit evidence of that authority as a prerequisite to filing. It is required that each document required to be filed and recorded be

1. Filed in the office of the secretary of state when the secretary of state finds that the document conforms to law and when all fees and taxes due have been paid the secretary shall endorse on the document, the word “Filed”, and the month, day, and year of the filing and file the same in the secretary’s office.

2. Recorded in the office of the county recorder. The county recorder shall record and index the copy on file in the office of the secretary of state is notice of any other county recorder, if any, as required by this chapter. Upon receipt of the document and upon receipt of the recording fees due, the county recorder shall record and index the copy and endorse the date of filing in the county, and the book and page in which recorded, on the copy. The county recorder shall keep in the recorder’s office an alphabetically subdivided index book for certificates of limited partnership and other instruments the recording of which in the recorder’s office is provided for by this chapter, which book shall have as a minimum, columns headed with “Name of Limited Partnership”, “Place of Office”, “Day, Month, and Year of Filing” and the reference to the book and page or other record where recorded and shall make appropriate entries in the index for each instrument recorded.

Upon the filing of a certificate of amendment or judicial decree of amendment in the office of the secretary of state, if as amended it is in substantial compliance with this chapter, the certificate of limited partnership is amended as set forth in the amendment. Upon the effective date of a certificate of cancellation or a judicial decree of cancellation, the certificate of limited partnership is canceled.

§545.207 Liability for false statement in certificate.

If a certificate of limited partnership or certificate of amendment or cancellation contains a false statement, one who suffers loss by reliance on the statement may recover damages for the loss from either of the following:

1. A person who executes the certificate, or causes another to execute it on the person’s behalf, and knew, and a general partner who knew or should have known, the statement to be false at the time the certificate was executed.

2. A general partner who knows or should have known that an arrangement or other fact described in the certificate has changed, making the statement inaccurate in any respect, within a sufficient time before the statement was relied upon reasonably to have enabled that general partner to cancel or amend the certificate, or to file a petition for its cancellation or amendment under section 545 205.

§545.208 Notice.

The fact that a certificate of limited partnership is on file in the office of the secretary of state is notice that the partnership claims to be a limited partnership, but it is not notice of any other fact.

[82 Acts, ch 1103, §208]

ARTICLE 3

LIMITED PARTNERS

§545.301 Admission of new limited partners.

1. After the filing of a limited partnership’s original certificate of limited partnership, a person may be admitted as a new limited partner under the following conditions:

   a. In the case of a person acquiring a partnership interest directly from the limited partnership, upon compliance with the partnership agreement or, if the partnership agreement does not so provide, upon the written consent of all partners.

   b. In the case of an assignee of a partnership interest of a partner who has the power, as provided in section 545 704 to grant the assignee the right to become a limited partner, upon the exercise of that power and compliance with any conditions limiting the grant or exercise of the power.

2. Under both paragraphs ‘a’ and ‘b’ of subsection 1, the person acquiring the partnership interest becomes a limited partner at the time specified in the certificate of limited partnership or, if a time is not specified, upon amendment of the certificate of limited partnership to show the partnership interest.

§545.302 Voting.

Subject to section 545 303, the partnership agreement may grant all or a specified group of the limited partners the right to vote on a per capita or other basis upon any matter.

§545.303 Liability to third parties.

1. Except as provided in subsection 4, a limited partner is not liable for the obligations of a limited partnership unless the limited partner is also a general partner or, in addition to the exercise of the limited partner's rights and powers as a limited partner, the limited partner takes part in the control of the business. However, if the limited partner's participation in the control of the business is not substantially the same as the exercise of the powers of a general partner, the limited partner is liable only to persons who transact business with the limited partnership with actual knowledge of the limited partner’s participation in control.

2. A limited partner does not participate in the control of the business within the meaning of subsection 1 solely by doing one or more of the following:
   a. Being a contractor for or an agent or employee of the limited partnership.
   b. Being a contractor for or an agent, employee, director, officer, or shareholder of or a limited partner of a general partner.
   c. Consulting with and advising a general partner with respect to the business of the limited partnership.
   d. Acting as surety for the limited partnership.
   e. Approving or disapproving an amendment to the partnership agreement.
   f. Voting on one or more of the following matters:
      (1) The dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership.
      (2) The sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, pledge, or other transfer of all or substantially all the assets of the limited partnership other than in the ordinary course of its business.
      (3) The incurrence of indebtedness by the limited partnership other than in the ordinary course of its business.
      (4) A change in the nature of the business.
      (5) The removal of a general partner.

3. The enumeration in subsection 2 does not mean that the possession or exercise of any other powers by a limited partner constitutes participation by the limited partner in the business of the limited partnership.

4. A limited partner who knowingly permits the limited partner's name to be used in the name of the limited partnership, except under circumstances permitted by section 545.102, subsection 2, paragraph “a”, is liable to creditors who extend credit to the limited partnership without actual knowledge that the limited partner is not a general partner.

545.304 Person erroneously believing self to be a limited partner.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, a person who makes a contribution to a business enterprise and erroneously but in good faith believes that the person has become a limited partner in the enterprise is not a general partner in the enterprise and is not bound by its obligations by reason of making the contribution, receiving distributions from the enterprise, or exercising any rights of a limited partner, if, on ascertaining the mistake, the person does either of the following:
   a. Causes an appropriate certificate of limited partnership or a certificate of amendment to be executed and filed, or
   b. Withdraws from future equity participation in the enterprise.

2. A person who makes a contribution of the kind described in subsection 1 is liable as a general partner to a third party who, believing the person to be a general partner, transacts business with the enterprise before an appropriate certificate is filed and before either of the following:
   a. The person withdraws and an appropriate certificate is filed to show the withdrawal.
   b. An appropriate certificate is filed to show the person's status as a limited partner and, in the case of an amendment, after expiration of the period for filing the amendment relating to the person as a limited partner under section 545.202.

545.305 Information.

Each limited partner may:
1. Inspect and copy the partnership records required to be maintained by section 545.105 and any of the partnership books.
2. Obtain from the general partners upon reasonable demand the following:
   a. True and full information regarding the state of the business and financial condition of the limited partnership.
   b. Copies of the limited partnership's federal, state, and local tax returns.
   c. Other information regarding the affairs of the limited partnership as is just and reasonable.

ARTICLE 4

GENERAL PARTNERS

545.401 Admission of additional general partners.

After the filing of a limited partnership's original certificate of limited partnership, additional general partners shall be admitted only with the specific written consent of each partner. However, if the certificate of limited partnership or the partnership agreement names a person to be admitted as a general partner upon the occurrence of a specified circumstance or at a specified time, the consent required is deemed to have been given.

545.402 Events of withdrawal.

Except as otherwise agreed in writing by all partners at the time of the event, a person ceases to be a general partner of a limited partnership upon the happening of any of the following events.
1. The general partner withdraws from the limited partnership as provided in section 545.602.
2. The general partner is removed as a general partner in accordance with the partnership agreement.
3. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of limited partnership, the general partner does any of the following:
   a. Makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors.
   b. Files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy.
   c. Is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent.
   d. Files a petition or answer seeking for the general partner reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or similar relief under any statute, law, or regulation.
   e. Files an answer or other pleading admitting or failing to contest material allegations of a petition filed against the general partner in a proceeding of a nature specified in paragraph "d".
   f. Seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the general partner or of all or a substantial part of the general partner's properties.
4. Unless otherwise provided in the certificate of limited partnership, upon the expiration of the following time periods:
   a. One hundred twenty days after the commencement of a proceeding against the general partner seeking reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, or similar relief, under any statute, law, or regulation, if the proceeding has not been dismissed within that time.
   b. Ninety days after the appointment without the general partner's consent or acquiescence of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the general partner or of all or a substantial part of the general partner's properties, if the appointment is not vacated or stayed within that time.
   c. If an appointment of the nature specified in paragraph "b" is stayed and if the appointment is not then vacated, ninety days after the expiration of the stay.
5. If the general partner is a natural person when either of the following occur:
   a. The general partner dies.
   b. The district court finds the general partner incapable of managing the general partner's person or property.
6. If the general partner is acting as a general partner by virtue of being a trustee of a trust, when the trust terminates. Substitution of a new trustee is not termination of the trust.
7. If the general partner is a separate partnership, the dissolution and commencement of winding up of the separate partnership.
8. If the general partner is a corporation, the filing of a certificate of dissolution for the corporation or revocation of the corporation's charter.
9. In the case of an estate, the distribution by the fiduciary of the estate's entire interest in the partnership.

545.403 General powers and liabilities.
Except as provided in this chapter or in the partnership agreement, a general partner of a limited partnership has the rights and powers and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities of a general partner in a partnership without limited partners.

545.404 Contributions by general partner.
A general partner of a limited partnership may make contributions to the partnership and share in the profits and losses of, and in distributions from, the limited partnership as a general partner. A general partner also may make contributions to and share in profits, losses, and distributions as a limited partner. A person who is both a general partner and a limited partner has the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a general partner and, except as provided in the partnership agreement, also has the powers, and is subject to the restrictions, of a limited partner to the extent of the person's participation in the partnership as a limited partner.

545.405 Voting.
The partnership agreement may grant to all or certain identified general partners the right to vote on any basis, separately or with all or any class of the limited partners, on any matter.

ARTICLE 5
FINANCE

545.501 Form of contribution.
The contribution of a partner may be in cash, property, or services rendered, or a promissory note or other obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services.

545.502 Liability for contribution.
Except as provided in the certificate of limited partnership, a partner is obligated to the limited partnership to perform a promise to contribute cash or property or to perform services even if the partner is unable to perform because of death, disability, or any other reason. If the partner does not make the contribution, the limited partnership may require the partner to contribute cash equal to that portion of the value, as stated in the certificate of limited partnership, of the stated contribution that has not been made.
545.503 Sharing of profits and losses.
The profits and losses of a limited partnership shall be allocated among the partners, and among classes of partners, in the manner provided in the partnership agreement. If the partnership agreement does not so provide, profits and losses shall be allocated on the basis of the value, as stated in the certificate of limited partnership, of the contributions made by each partner to the extent the contributions have been received by the partnership and have not been returned.

545.504 Sharing of distributions.
Distributions of cash or other assets of a limited partnership shall be allocated among the partners, and among classes of partners, in the manner provided in the partnership agreement. If the partnership agreement does not so provide, distributions shall be made on the basis of the value, as stated in the certificate of limited partnership, of the contributions made by each partner to the extent the contributions have been received by the partnership and have not been returned.

ARTICLE 6
DISTRIBUTIONS AND WITHDRAWALS

545.601 Interim distributions.
Except as provided in this article, a partner is entitled to receive distributions from a limited partnership before the partner’s withdrawal from the limited partnership and before the dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership subject to the following conditions:

1. To the extent and at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in the partnership agreement.
2. If a distribution is a return of part of the partner’s contribution under section 545.608, subsection 2, to the extent and at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in the certificate of limited partnership.

545.602 Withdrawal of general partner.
A general partner may withdraw from a limited partnership by giving written notice to the other partners, but, if the withdrawal violates the partnership agreement, in addition to its other remedies the limited partnership may recover from the withdrawing general partner damages for breach of the partnership agreement and offset the damages against the amount otherwise distributable to the partner.

545.603 Withdrawal of limited partner.
A limited partner may withdraw from a limited partnership at the time or upon the happening of events specified in the certificate of limited partnership and in accordance with the partnership agreement. If the certificate does not specify the time or the events upon the happening of which a limited partner may withdraw or a time for the dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership, a limited partner may withdraw upon not less than six months prior written notice directed or delivered to the partnership or to each general partner at the partner’s address on the books of the limited partnership at its office in this state.

545.604 Distribution upon withdrawal.
Except as provided in this article, upon withdrawal a partner is entitled to receive any distribution to which the partner is entitled under the partnership agreement and, if not otherwise provided in the agreement, the partner is entitled to receive, within a reasonable time after withdrawal, the fair value of the partner’s interest in the limited partnership as of the date of withdrawal, based upon the partner’s right to share in distributions from the limited partnership.

545.605 Distribution in kind.
Except as provided in the certificate of limited partnership, a partner, regardless of the nature of the partner’s contribution, has no right to demand and receive any distribution from a limited partnership in any form other than cash. Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partner shall not be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind from a limited partnership to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed to the partner exceeds a percentage of that asset which is equal to the percentage in which the partner shares in distributions from the limited partnership.

545.606 Right to distribution.
When a partner becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the partner has the status of a creditor of the limited partnership and is entitled to all remedies available to a creditor with respect to the distribution.

545.607 Limitations on distribution.
A partner shall not receive a distribution if, after the distribution, liabilities of the limited partnership other than liabilities to partners on account of their partnership interests will exceed the fair value of the partnership assets.

§545.608 Liability upon return of contribution.

1. If a partner has received the return of a part of the partner's contribution without violation of the partnership agreement or this chapter, for one year after the return, the partner is liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the returned contribution to the extent necessary to discharge the limited partnership's liabilities to creditors who extended credit to the limited partnership during the period the contribution was held by the partnership.

2. If a partner has received the return of any part of the partner's contribution in violation of the partnership agreement or this chapter, for six years after the return, the partner is liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the contribution wrongfully returned.

3. A partner receives a return of contribution only to the extent that a distribution to the partner reduces the partner's share of the fair value, as specified in the certificate of limited partnership, of the partner's contribution which has not been distributed to the partner.

ARTICLE 7
ASSIGNMENT OF PARTNERSHIP INTERESTS

545.701 Nature of partnership interest.
A partnership interest is personal property.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9834; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §545.29; 82 Acts, ch 1103, §701]

545.702 Assignment of partnership interest.
Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partnership interest is assignable in whole or in part. An assignment of a partnership interest does not dissolve a limited partnership or entitle the assignee to become or to exercise any rights of a partner. An assignment entitles the assignee to receive, to the extent assigned, only the distribution to which the assignor would be entitled.

545.703 Rights of creditor.
A judgment creditor of a partner may bring an action in the district court charging the partnership interest of the partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. To the extent the court so charges, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the partnership interest. This chapter does not deprive a partner of the benefit of exemption laws applicable to the partner's interest.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9833, 9844; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §545.28, 545.39; 82 Acts, ch 1103, §703]

545.704 Right of assignee to become limited partner.
1. An assignee of a partnership interest, includ-
b. When all partners consent in writing to the dissolution.

c. When a general partner withdraws unless at the time there is at least one other general partner and the certificate of limited partnership permits the business of the limited partnership to be carried on by the remaining general partner and the remaining partner does so.

d. When a decree of judicial dissolution is entered under section 545.802.

2. When a general partner withdraws, the limited partnership is not dissolved and is not required to dissolve under either of the following conditions:
   a. If all partners previously have consented to the designation of a person as a general partner as provided in section 545.401.
   b. If all partners, within ninety days after the withdrawal, agree in writing to continue the business of the limited partnership and to the appointment of one or more additional partners as necessary or desired.

545.802 Judicial dissolution.

On application by or for a partner, the district court for the county in which the office described in section 545.104 is located may decree dissolution of a limited partnership whenever it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business of the limited partnership in conformity with the partnership agreement.

545.803 Winding up.

Except as provided in the partnership agreement, the general partners who have not wrongfully dissolved a limited partnership or, if none, the limited partners, may wind up the limited partnership's affairs. Also, upon application of a partner, a partner's legal representative, or a partner's assignee, the district court for the county in which the office described in section 545.104 is located may wind up the limited partnership's affairs.

545.804 Order of distribution of assets.

Upon the winding up of a limited partnership, the assets shall be distributed in the following order:

1. To creditors, including partners who are creditors, to the extent permitted by law, in satisfaction of liabilities of the limited partnership other than liabilities for distributions to partners under section 545.601 or 545.604.

2. Except as provided in the partnership agreement, to partners and former partners in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions under section 545.601 or 545.604.

3. Except as provided in the partnership agreement, to partners first for the return of their contributions and secondly respecting their partnership interests, in the proportions in which the partners share in distributions.
§545.903, IOWA UNIFORM LIMITED PARTNERSHIP ACT

545.908 Actions by the attorney general.
The attorney general may bring an action to restrain a foreign limited partnership from transacting business in this state in violation of this chapter. [82 Acts, ch 1103, §908] 545.909 Resignation of agent for service of process.

An agent for service of process of a foreign limited partnership may resign as agent upon filing a written notice of the resignation, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall forthwith mail a copy of the resignation to the foreign limited partnership at its principal office or office required to be maintained in the state of its organization. The appointment of the agent terminates upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of the notice by the secretary of state. 86 Acts, ch 1173, §17

545.910 Service of process on foreign limited partnership.
If a foreign limited partnership registered with the secretary of state fails to appoint or maintain an agent for service of process in this state or if its agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found, then service of process may be made upon the secretary of state in accordance with section 545.104, subsection 4. 86 Acts, ch 1173, §18

DERIVATIVE ACTIONS

545.1001 Right of action.
A limited partner has standing to bring an action to recover a judgment in the limited partnership's favor if general partners with authority to bring the action have refused to do so or if an effort to cause those general partners to bring the action is not likely to succeed. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9857; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §545.52; 82 Acts, ch 1103, §1001]

545.1002 Proper plaintiff.
In a derivative action, the plaintiff shall be a partner at the time of bringing the action and either shall have been a partner at the time the cause of action arose or shall have acquired the status of partner by operation of law or pursuant to the terms of the partnership agreement from a person who was a partner at the time the cause of action arose. [82 Acts, ch 1103, §1002]

545.1003 Pleading.
In a derivative action, the petition shall set forth with particularity the effort of the plaintiff to secure initiation of the action by a general partner or the reasons for not making the effort. [82 Acts, ch 1103, §1003]
545.1004 Expenses.
If a derivative action is successful, in whole or in part, or if anything is received by the plaintiff as a result of a judgment, compromise, or settlement of an action or claim, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, and shall direct the plaintiff to remit to the limited partnership the remainder of those proceeds received by the plaintiff.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9862, 9863; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §545.57, 545.58; 82 Acts, ch 1103, §1104]

546.2 Department of commerce. 1. A department of commerce is created to coordinate and administer the various regulatory, service, and licensing functions of the state relating to the conducting of business or commerce in the state.
2. The chief administrative officer of the department is the director. The director shall be appointed by the governor, subject to the confirmation of the senate, and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. The director is subject to reconfirmation after four years in office. The director shall be appointed on the basis of executive and administrative abilities but shall not have been an officer or employee of any bank, credit union, savings and loan association, or insurance company. The salary shall be fixed by the governor within a range established by the general assembly.
3. The department is administratively organized into the following divisions:
   a. Banking.
   b. Credit union.
   c. Savings and loan.
   d. Utilities.
   e. Insurance.
   f. Alcoholic beverages.
   g. Professional licensing and regulation.
4. The director shall have the following responsibilities:
   a. To establish general operating policies for the department to provide general uniformity among the divisions while providing for necessary flexibility.
   b. To assemble a department structure and strategic plan that will provide optimal decentralization of responsibilities and authorities with sufficient coordination for appropriate growth and development.
   c. To coordinate personnel services and shared administrative support services to assure maximum support and assistance to the divisions.
   d. To coordinate the development of an annual budget which quantifies the operational plans of the divisions.
   e. To identify and, with the chief administrative officers of each division, facilitate the opportunities for consolidation and efficiencies within the department.
   f. To maintain monitoring and control systems, procedures, and policies which will permit each level of responsibility to quickly and precisely measure its results with its plan and standards.
5. The chief administrative officer of each division shall have the following responsibilities:
   a. To make rules pursuant to chapter 17A except to the extent that rulemaking authority is vested in a policymaking commission.
   b. To hire, allocate, develop, and supervise employees of the division necessary to perform duties assigned to the division by law.
   c. To supervise and direct personnel and other resources to accomplish duties assigned to the division by law.
   d. To establish fees assessed to the regulated industry except to the extent this power is vested in a policymaking commission.
6. Each division is responsible for policymaking and enforcement duties assigned to the division under the law. Except as provided in section 546.10, subsection 3:
   a. Each division shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement its duties.
   b. Decisions by the divisions are final agency actions pursuant to chapter 17A.
86 Acts, ch 1245, §702; 87 Acts, ch 234, §438

546.3 Banking division. The banking division shall regulate and supervise banks under chapter 524, regulated loan companies under chapter 536, industrial loan companies under chapter 536A, and the industrial loan thrift guaranty corporation of Iowa under chapter 536B, and shall perform other duties assigned to the division by law. The division is headed by the superintendent of banking who shall be appointed pursuant to section 524.201. The state banking board shall perform duties within the division as prescribed by law.
86 Acts, ch 1245, §703

546.4 Credit union division. The credit union division shall regulate and supervise credit unions under chapter 533. The division is headed by the superintendent of credit unions who shall be appointed pursuant to section 533.55. The credit union review board shall perform duties within the division as prescribed in chapter 533.
86 Acts, ch 1245, §704

546.5 Savings and loan division. The savings and loan division shall regulate and supervise savings and loan associations and savings banks under chapter 534. The division is headed by the superintendent of savings and loan associations who shall be appointed pursuant to section 534.401.
86 Acts, ch 1245, §705

546.7 Utilities division. The utilities division shall regulate and supervise public utilities operating in the state. The division shall enforce and implement chapters 476, 476A, 478, and 479 and shall perform other duties assigned to it by law. The division is headed by the administrator of public utilities who shall be appointed by the governor pursuant to section 474.1.
86 Acts, ch 1245, §707
546.8 Insurance division.
The insurance division shall regulate and supervise the conducting of the business of insurance in the state. The division shall enforce and implement Title XX, insurance, chapters 505 through 523C, and chapters 502, 503, and 535C, and shall perform other duties assigned to the division by law. The division is headed by the commissioner of insurance who shall be appointed pursuant to section 505.2. 86 Acts, ch 1245, §708 546.9 Alcoholic beverages division.

The alcoholic beverages division shall enforce and implement chapter 123. The division is headed by the administrator of alcoholic beverages who shall be appointed pursuant to section 123.10. The alcoholic beverages commission shall perform duties within the division pursuant to chapter 123. 86 Acts, ch 1245, §709 546.10 Professional licensing and regulation division.

1. The professional licensing and regulation division shall administer and coordinate the licensing and regulation of several professions by bringing together the following licensing boards:
   a. The engineering and land surveying examining board created pursuant to chapter 114.
   b. The accountancy examining board created pursuant to chapter 116.
   c. The real estate commission created pursuant to chapter 117.
   d. The architectural examining board created pursuant to chapter 118.
   e. The landscape architectural examining board created pursuant to chapter 118A.

3. The licensing and regulation examining boards included in the division pursuant to subsection 1 retain the powers granted them pursuant to the chapters in which they are created, except for budgetary and personnel matters which shall be handled by the administrator. Each licensing board shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A. Decisions by a licensing board are final agency actions for purposes of chapter 17A.

4. The professional licensing and regulation division of the department of commerce may expend additional funds, including funds for additional personnel, if those additional expenditures are directly the cause of actual examination expenses exceeding funds budgeted for examinations. Before the division expends or encumbers an amount in excess of the funds budgeted for examinations, the director of the department of management shall approve the expenditure or encumbrance. Before approval is given, the director of the department of management shall determine that the examination expenses exceed the funds budgeted by the general assembly to the division and the division does not have other funds from which the expenses can be paid. Upon approval of the director of the department of management, the division may expend and encumber funds for excess examination expenses. The amounts necessary to fund the examination expenses shall be collected as fees from additional examination applicants and shall be treated as repayment receipts as defined in section 8.2, subsection 5.

CHAPTER 547

CONDUCTING BUSINESS UNDER TRADE NAME

547.1 Use of trade name — verified statement required.

It shall be unlawful for any person or copartner ship to engage in or conduct a business under any trade name, or any assumed name of any character other than the true surname of each person or persons owning or having any interest in such business, unless such person or persons shall first file with the county recorder of the county in which the business is to be conducted a verified statement showing the name, post office address, and residence address of each person owning or having any interest in the business, and the address where the business is to be conducted.

547.2 Change in statement.

A like verified statement shall be filed of any change in ownership of the business, or persons interested therein and the original owners shall be liable for all obligations until such certificate of change is filed.

547.3 Fee for recording.

The county recorder shall charge and receive a fee in the amount specified in section 331 604 for each verified statement filed under this chapter.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §547 3]

547.4 Penalty.

Any person violating the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

547.5 “Offense” defined.

Each day that any person or persons violate the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense.

[C27, 31, 35, §9866 a4, C39, §9866.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §547 5]

CHAPTER 548

REGISTRATION AND PROTECTION OF MARKS

548.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1 “Applicant” means a person filing an application for registration of a mark under this chapter, the person’s legal representative, successor, or assignee;

2 “Mark” means a word, name, symbol, device, or any combination of the foregoing in any form or arrangement used as a certification mark, collective mark, service mark, or trade-mark.

a. "Certification mark" means a mark used in connection with the goods or services of a person other than the certifier to indicate geographic origin, material, mode of manufacture, quality, accuracy, or other characteristics of the goods or services, or to indicate that the work or labor on the goods or services was performed by members of a union or other organization.

b. "Collective mark" means a mark used by members of a co-operative, association, or other collective group or organization to identify goods or services and distinguish them from those of others, or to indicate membership in the collective group or organization.

c. "Service mark" means a mark used by a person to identify services and to distinguish them from the services of others.

d. "Trade-mark" means a mark used by a person to identify goods and to distinguish them from the goods of others.

3. "Person" means an individual, corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, unincorporated association, two or more of any of the foregoing having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

4. "Registrant" means a person issued a registration of a mark under this chapter, the person's legal representative, successor, or assignee.

5. "Trade name" means a word, name, symbol, device, or any combination of the foregoing in any form or arrangement used by a person to identify the person's business, vocation, or occupation, and distinguish it from others.

6. "Use" means:

a. Placing a mark on goods or containers or associated displays, or on affixed tags or labels, and selling or otherwise distributing the goods in this state.

b. Displaying a mark in connection with the sale or advertising of services rendered.

548.2 Registrability.

1. A mark shall not be registered if it:

a. Consists of or comprises immoral, deceptive, or scandalous matter, or

b. Consists of or comprises matter which may disparage, bring into contempt or disrepute, or falsely suggest a connection with persons, living or dead, institutions, beliefs, or national symbols, or

c. Consists of or comprises the flag, or coat of arms, or other insignia of the United States, or of any state or municipality, or of any foreign nation, or any simulation thereof, or

d. Consists of, or comprises the name, signature, or portrait of any living individual, except with the individual's written consent, or

e. Consists of a mark which is one of the following:

(1) When applied to the goods or services of the applicant, is merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them.

(2) When applied to the goods or services of the applicant, is primarily geographically descriptive or geographically misdescriptive of them.

(3) Is primarily merely a surname.

This paragraph "e" does not prevent the registration of a mark used in this state by the applicant which has become distinctive of the applicant's goods or services. The secretary of state may accept as evidence that the mark has become distinctive, as applied to the applicant's goods or services, proof of continuous use thereof as a mark by the applicant in this state or elsewhere for the five years next preceding the date of the filing of the application for registration, or

f. Resembles a mark registered in this state or a mark or trade name previously used in this state by another and not abandoned, so as to be likely, when applied to the goods or services of the applicant, to cause confusion, mistake, or deception of purchasers.

2. Judicial review of actions of the secretary of state may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

548.3 Application for registration.

Subject to the limitations set forth in this chapter, any person who has previously adopted and used a mark in this state may file in the office of the secretary of state, in the manner prescribed by the secretary of state, duplicate originals of an application for the registration of the mark. The application shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

1. The name and business address of the applicant, and if a corporation, the state of incorporation.

2. The goods or services in connection with which the mark is in use, the mode or manner in which the mark is used in connection with those goods or services, and the class or classes in which such goods or services fall, as described in regulations promulgated by the secretary of state.

3. The date on which the mark was first used anywhere by the applicant or the applicant's predecessor in interest, and the date on which it was first used in this state.

4. A statement that the applicant is the owner of the mark in this state and that no other person has the right to use a mark in this state which purchasers would be likely to confuse or mistake for the applicant's mark.

5. The signature and verification of the applicant, a specimen or facsimile of the mark illustrating its present mode of use, and a filing fee of ten dollars for each class of goods or services for which registration is sought.

548.4 Certificate of registration.

The secretary of state shall issue a certificate of
§548.4, REGISTRATION AND PROTECTION OF MARKS

Registration to the applicant upon compliance with the requirements of this chapter. The certificate of registration shall be issued over the signature and seal of the secretary of state or the secretary's designee, bear the date of registration, and be affixed to a duplicate original application or a copy. A duplicate original application shall be retained by the secretary of state with respect to each registered mark. The retained duplicate original application or a copy shall be available for public examination.

A certificate of registration by the secretary of state, affixed to a duplicate original application or to a copy, shall be prima-facie evidence of the validity of registration and of the registrant's right to use the mark throughout this state in the manner described in the certificate of registration.

A certificate of registration by the secretary of state, affixed to a duplicate original application or to a copy, shall be prima-facie evidence of the validity of registration and of the registrant's right to use the mark throughout this state in the manner described in the certificate of registration.

§548.5 Duration and renewal.

Registration of a mark under this chapter shall be effective for a term of ten years and may be renewed for successive ten-year periods. A renewal fee of ten dollars shall accompany an application for renewal of registration. Application for renewal shall be made within six months prior to the expiration of the registration on a form furnished by the secretary of state and shall include a verified statement that the mark is still in use in this state.

The secretary of state shall notify a registrant of the impending expiration of the registrant's registration. However, the failure of a registrant to receive due notice from the secretary of state shall not prevent expiration of a registration.

The term of any registration in force on the date on which this chapter becomes effective shall not be affected by this chapter, but any registration in force on said date can only be renewed under this chapter.

§548.6 Assignment.

Any mark registered under this chapter shall be assignable with the good will of the business in which the mark is used. A mark connected with a part of the good will of a business can be assigned with that part of the good will of the business. Assignment of a registration can only be effected by filing duplicate originals of an assignment, signed by the registrant, with the secretary of state together with a filing fee of three dollars. After filing the assignment, the secretary of state shall issue to the assignee, for the remainder of the term of the assigned registration, a new certificate attached to one of the duplicate originals.

§548.7 Cancellation.

The secretary of state shall cancel from the register:

1. Any registration under a prior law which has expired without being renewed under this chapter.

2. Any registration concerning which the secretary of state receives a voluntary request for cancellation from the registrant or the assignee of record.

3. Any registration granted under this chapter and not renewed in accordance with its provisions.

4. Any registration which a district court, in an action involving the registration and from which no appeal is or can be taken, finds:
   a. That the registered mark has been abandoned, or
   b. That the registrant is not the owner of the mark, or
   c. That the registration was granted contrary to the provisions of this chapter, or
   d. That the registration was obtained fraudulently, or
   e. That the registered mark has become incapable of serving as a mark, or
   f. That the registered mark is so similar to a mark registered in the United States patent office by another party to the litigation and not abandoned prior to the date of first use by the registrant under this chapter as to be likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception of purchasers. However, registration under this chapter shall not be canceled if the registrant under this chapter proves that the registrant has a concurrent registration for the mark in the United States patent office for an area including this state.

5. Any registration that a district court, from which no appeal is or can be taken, orders canceled on any ground.

§548.8 Classification.

The secretary of state shall establish a classification of goods and services for convenience in the administration of this chapter which shall not limit an applicant's or registrant's rights except as expressly provided by this chapter.

§548.9 Fraudulent registration.

Any person who, either on the person's own behalf or on behalf of any other person, shall procure the registration of any mark under this chapter by knowingly making any false or fraudulent representation or declaration or by any other fraudulent means is liable for the damages caused by the fraudulent registration and in an action to recover these damages the court shall order cancellation of the fraudulently obtained registration.

§548.10 Infringement.

Any person who without the consent of the registrant uses any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of a mark registered under this chapter in a manner which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception of purchasers; or reproduces, counterfeits, copies, or colorably imitates any registered mark and applies such reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation to labels, signs, prints, packages, wrappers, receptacles, or advertisements intended to be used in a manner which is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception of purchasers in this state; shall be liable in a civil action by the registrant of the mark, for any or all of the remedies provided in section 548.11.

548.11 Remedies.

1. The registrant of a mark that has been infringed may be granted an injunction against an infringer in accordance with the principles of equity. The court in its discretion may allow the registrant to recover the damages caused by the infringement or the profits of the infringer attributable to the infringement, or both. The court may order any counterfeits or imitations in the possession or under the control of an infringer to be destroyed and in exceptional cases the court may also award reasonable attorney fees to the prevailing party.

2. Likelihood of injury to business reputation or to a trade name valid at common law, or of dilution of the distinctive quality of a mark, whether registered or not registered under this chapter, shall be a ground for injunctive relief notwithstanding the absence of competition between the parties or the absence of confusion as to the source of goods or services.

548.12 Defenses.

A registrant shall not use the letter “R” enclosed in a circle, thus ®, “Registered in the U. S. Patent Office” or “Reg. U. S. Patent Off.” to give notice of registration under this chapter. Use of false notice of federal registration is an affirmative defense which precludes recovery of damages, profits, or injunctive relief under this chapter for the period during which false notice of federal registration is used.

548.13 Application.

This chapter does not affect:

1. Rights, or the enforcement of rights, in marks or trade names acquired in good faith at any time at common law.

2. Rights, or the enforcement of rights in marks acquired under federal law.

3. Publishers, broadcasters, printers, or other persons engaged in the dissemination of information or reproduction of printed or pictorial matter who publish, broadcast, or reproduce material without knowledge of its infringing character.

4. Use of the Iowa certification mark as provided in section 15.108, subsection 2, paragraph “b.”

5. Marks for dairy products, as provided for in sections 192.23 through 192.39, inclusive.

[§548.13]
CHAPTER 551
UNFAIR DISCRIMINATION

551.1 Unfair discrimination in sales.
Any person, firm, company, association, or corporation, foreign or domestic, doing business in the state, and engaged in the production, manufacture, sale, or distribution of any commodity of commerce or commercial services excepting those, the rate of which is now subject to control of cities or other governmental agency, that shall, for the purpose of destroying the business of a competitor in any locality or creating a monopoly, discriminate between different sections, localities, communities or cities of this state, by selling such commodity or commercial services excepting those, the rate of which is now subject to control of cities or other governmental agency at a lower price or rate in one section, locality, community or city than such commodity or commercial services excepting those, the rate of which is now subject to control of cities or other governmental agency is sold for by said person, firm, association, company, or corporation, in another section, locality, community or city, after making due allowance in case of telephone service for the difference in the cost of furnishing service in different localities, and the case of commodities and commercial services other than telephone service, for the difference, if any, in the grade or quality, and in the actual cost of transportation from the point of production or purchase, if a raw product, or from the point of manufacture, if a manufactured product, to a place of sale, storage, or distribution shall be deemed guilty of unfair discrimination, which is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful, provided, however, that prices made to meet competition in such section, locality, community or city shall not be in violation of this section

551.2 Unfair discrimination in purchases.
Any person, firm, association, company, or corporation, foreign or domestic, doing business in the state, and engaged in the business of purchasing for manufacture, storage, sale, or distribution, any commodity of commerce that shall, for the purpose of destroying the business of a competitor or creating a monopoly, discriminate between different sections, localities, communities or cities, in this state, by purchasing such commodity at a higher rate or price in one section, locality, community or city, than is paid for such commodity by such party in another section, locality, community or city, after making due allowance for the difference, if any, in the grade or quality, and in the actual cost of transportation from the point of purchase to the point of manufacture, sale, distribution, or storage, shall be deemed guilty of unfair discrimination, which is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful, provided, however, that prices made to meet competition in such section, locality, community or city shall not be in violation of this section

551.3 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1056, §45

551.4 Penalty.
Any person, firm, company, association, or corporation violating any of the provisions of sections 551 1 and 551 2, and any officer, agent, or receiver of any firm, company, association, or corporation, or any member of the same, or any individual violating any of such provisions shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor

551.5 Contracts or agreements.
All contracts or agreements made in violation of any of the provisions of sections 551 1 and 551 2 shall be void
[S13, §5028-e, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9888; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §551 5]

551.6 Enforcement.
It shall be the duty of the county attorneys, in their counties, and the attorney general, to enforce the provisions of sections 551 1 to 551 5, inclusive, by appropriate actions in courts of competent jurisdiction 551.7 Complaint to whom made.
If complaint shall be made to the secretary of state that any corporation authorized to do business in this state is guilty of unfair discrimination, within the terms of sections 551.1 and 551.2, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to refer the matter to the attorney general who may, if the facts justify it in the attorney general's judgment, institute proceedings in the courts against such corporation.
[S13, §5028 f, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9891; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §551.7]

551.8 Revocation of permit.
If any corporation, foreign or domestic, authorized to do business in this state, is found guilty of unfair discrimination, within the terms of sections 551.1 and 551.2, it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to immediately revoke the permit of such corporation to do business in this state.
[S13, §5028 g, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9892; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §551.8]

551.9 Corporation to be enjoined.
If after revocation of its permit such corporation, or any other corporation not having a permit and found guilty of having violated any of the provisions of sections 551.1 and 551.2, shall continue or attempt to do business in this state, it shall be the duty of the attorney general, by a proper suit in the name of the state of Iowa, to enjoin such corporation from transacting all business of every kind and character in said state.
[S13, §5028 h, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9893; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §551.9]

551.10 Cumulative remedies.
Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as repealing any other Act, or part of Act, but the remedies herein provided shall be cumulative to all other remedies provided by law.
[S13, §5028 i, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9894; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §551.10]

551.11 Exceptions.
The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any contract or agreement relating to any sale made to the state, its departments, commissions, agencies, boards and its governmental subdivisions.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §551.11]

551.12 Price discrimination sale or lease of motor vehicles. Repealed by 87 Acts, ch 3, §1

551 A 2 Definitions.
When used in any part of this chapter, the following words, terms and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning.
1 "Cigarettes" shall mean and include any roll for smoking, made wholly or in part of tobacco, irrespective of size or shape and whether or not such tobacco is flavored, adulterated or mixed with any other ingredient, the wrapper or cover of which is made of paper or any other substance or material except tobacco.
2 "Person" shall mean and include any individual, firm, association, company, partnership, corporation, joint stock company, club agency, syndicate, or anyone engaged in the sale of cigarettes.
3 "Wholesaler" means and includes any person who acquires cigarettes for the purpose of sale to retailers or to other persons for resale, and who maintains an established place of business when any part of the business is the sale of cigarettes at wholesale to persons licensed under this chapter, and where at all times a stock of cigarettes is available to retailers for resale.
4. "Retailer" means any person who is engaged in this state in the business of selling, or offering to sell, cigarettes at retail.

5. "Sale" and "sell" shall mean and include any transfer for a consideration, exchange, barter, gift, offer for sale and distribution in any manner or by any means whatsoever.

6. "Sell at wholesale", "sale at wholesale", and "wholesale sales" shall mean and include any sale or offer for sale made in the course of trade or usual conduct of the wholesaler's business to a retailer for the purpose of resale.

7. "Sell at retail", "sale at retail" and "retail sales" shall mean and include any sale or offer for sale for consumption or use made in the ordinary course of trade of the seller's business.

8. "Basic cost of cigarettes" shall mean whichever of the two following amounts is lower: (a) the true invoice cost of cigarettes to the wholesaler or retailer, as the case may be, or (b) the lowest replacement cost of cigarettes to the wholesaler or retailer in the quantity last purchased, less, in either case, all trade discounts and customary discounts for cash, plus one-half of the full face value of any stamps which may be required by any cigarette tax act of this state.

9. a. "Cost to wholesaler" shall mean the basic cost of the cigarettes involved in the basic cost of cigarettes by the wholesaler, as defined in this chapter.

b. The cost of doing business by the wholesaler is presumed to be three percent of the basic cost of cigarettes in the absence of proof of a lesser or higher cost, which includes cartage to the retail outlet, plus the full face value of any stamps which may be required by any cigarette tax act of this state to the extent not already included in the basic cost of cigarettes.

10. a. "Cost to the retailer" shall mean the basic cost of the cigarettes involved to the retailer plus the cost of doing business by the retailer as defined in this chapter.

b. The cost of doing business by the retailer is presumed to be six percent of the basic cost of cigarettes in the absence of proof of a lesser or higher cost plus the full face value of any stamps which may be required by any cigarette tax act of this state to the extent not already included in the basic cost of cigarettes.

c. If any retailer in connection with the retailer's purchase of any cigarettes shall receive the discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a retailer and in whole or in part discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a wholesaler, the cost of doing business by the retailer with respect to the said cigarettes shall be, in the absence of proof of a lesser or higher cost of doing business, the sum of the cost of doing business by the retailer and, to the extent that the retailer shall have received the full discounts allowed to a wholesaler, the cost of doing business by a wholesaler as hereinabove defined in subsection 9, paragraph "b."

551A.3 Sales at less than cost — penalty.
1. It shall be unlawful for any wholesaler or retailer to offer to sell, or sell, at wholesale or retail, cigarettes at less than cost to such wholesaler or retailer, as the case may be, as defined in this chapter. Any wholesaler or retailer who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

2. Evidence of advertisement, offering to sell, or sale of cigarettes by any wholesaler or retailer at less than cost to the wholesaler or retailer as defined by this chapter shall be evidence of a violation of this chapter.

551A.4 Combination sales.
In all offers for sale or sales involving cigarettes and any other item at a combined price, and in all offers for sale, or sales, involving the giving of any gift or concession of any kind whatsoever (whether it be coupons or otherwise), the wholesaler's or retailer's combined selling price shall not be below the cost to the wholesaler or the cost to the retailer, respectively, of the total of all articles, products, commodities, gifts and concessions included in such transactions: If any such articles, products, commodities, gifts or concessions, shall not be cigarettes, the basic cost thereof shall be determined in like manner as provided in section 551A.2, subsection 8.

551A.5 Sales by a wholesaler to a wholesaler.
When one wholesaler sells cigarettes to any other wholesaler, the former shall not be required to include in the selling price to the latter, the cost to the wholesaler, as defined by section 551A.2, but the latter wholesaler, upon resale to a retailer, shall be subject to the provisions of the said section.

551A.6 Sales exceptions.
The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to a sale at wholesale or a sale at retail made (1) in an isolated transaction; (2) where cigarettes are offered for sale, or sold in a bona fide clearance sale for the purpose of discontinuing trade in such cigarettes and said offer to sell, or sale shall state the reason therefor and the quantity of such cigarettes offered for sale, or to be sold; (3) where cigarettes are offered for sale, or sold as imperfect or damaged, and said offer to sell, or sale shall state the reason therefor and the quantity of such cigarettes offered for sale, or to be sold.

551A.7 Transactions permitted to meet lawful competition.
1. Any wholesaler may advertise, offer to sell or sell cigarettes at a price made in good faith to meet the price of a competitor who is selling the same article at the cost to the competing wholesaler as defined by this chapter. Any retailer may offer to sell or sell cigarettes at a price made in good faith to meet the price of a competitor who is selling at the cost to the said competing retailer as defined in this chapter. The price of cigarettes offered for sale, or sold under the exceptions specified in section 551A.6 shall not be considered the price of a competitor and shall not be used as a basis for establishing prices below cost, nor shall the price established at a bankrupt or forced sale be considered the price of a competitor within the purview of this section.

2. In the absence of proof of the actual cost to a competing wholesaler or to a competing retailer, as the case may be, such cost shall be the lowest cost to wholesalers or the lowest cost to retailers, as the case may be, within the same trading area as determined by a cost survey made pursuant to section 551A.8, subsection 2.

551A.8 Cost determined.

1. Admissible evidence. In determining cost to the wholesaler and cost to the retailer the court shall receive and consider as bearing on the bona fides of such cost, evidence that any person complained against under any of the provisions of this chapter purchased the cigarettes involved in the complaint before the court, at a fictitious price, or upon terms, or in such a manner, or under such invoices, as to conceal the true cost, discounts or terms of purchase, and shall also receive and consider as bearing on the bona fides of such cost, evidence of the normal, customary and prevailing terms and discounts in connection with other sales of a similar nature in the trade area or state.

2. Cost survey. Where a cost survey pursuant to recognized statistical and cost accounting practices has been made for the trading area in which a violation of this chapter is committed or charged, to determine and establish the lowest cost to wholesalers or the lowest cost to retailers within the area, the cost survey shall be deemed competent evidence in any action or proceeding under this chapter to establish actual cost to the wholesaler or actual cost to the retailer complained against. In such surveys to determine cost to the wholesaler or retailer there shall be included in the cost of doing business without limitation, labor, rent, depreciation, sales costs, compensation, maintenance of equipment, cartage, licenses, taxes, insurance and other expenses.

551A.9 Sales outside ordinary channels of business — effect.

In establishing the basic cost of cigarettes to a wholesaler or a retailer, it shall not be permissible to use the invoice cost or the actual cost of any cigarettes purchased at a forced, bankrupt, or close out sale, or other sale outside of the ordinary channels of trade.

551A.10 Injunction.

The director of revenue and finance, or any person or persons injured by any violation, or who would suffer injury from any threatened violation of this chapter, may maintain an action in any equity court to enjoin such actual or threatened violation. If a violation or threatened violation of this chapter shall be established, the court shall enjoin such violation or threatened violation, and, in addition thereto, the court shall assess in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant the costs of suit including reasonable attorney's fees. Where alleged and proved, the plaintiff, in addition to such injunctive relief and costs of suit, including reasonable attorney's fees, shall be entitled to recover from the defendant the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff.

551A.11 Director of revenue and finance — powers and duties.

The director of revenue and finance may adopt rules for the enforcement of this chapter and the director is empowered to and may from time to time undertake and make or cause to be made such cost surveys for the state or such trading area or areas as the director shall deem necessary and it shall be permissible to use such cost survey as provided in section 551A.7, subsection 2 and section 551A.8, subsection 2.

The director of revenue and finance may, upon notice and after hearing, suspend or revoke any permit issued under the provisions of the cigarette tax chapter and the rules of the director promulgated thereunder, for failure of the permit holder to comply with any provision of this unfair cigarette sales chapter or any rule adopted thereunder. The suspension or revocation of a permit shall be for a period of not less than six months from the date of suspension or revocation, and no permit shall be issued for the location designated in the suspended or revoked permit, during the period of suspension or revocation.

Judicial review of the actions of the director may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act, and section 422.55.

552.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Contract price” means the total price paid or to be paid, including service charges or membership fees, which entitles the buyer either directly or indirectly to membership in a physical exercise club or to the use of the services or facilities of a physical exercise club.

2. “Finance charge” means “finance charge” as defined in section 537.301, subsection 19.

3. “Physical exercise club” means a person offering services or facilities, or both, for the preservation, maintenance, encouragement, or development of physical fitness or well being in return for the payment of a fee entitling the buyer to the use of the services or facilities. The term includes but is not limited to persons offering services and facilities known as “health clubs”, “health spas”, “sports and health clubs”, “tennis clubs”, “racquetball courts”, “golf clubs”, “gymnasiums”, “figure salons”, “health studios”, “weight control studios”, and persons operating establishments whose primary purpose is the teaching of a particular form of self defense or martial arts, such as judo, karate or kung fu. “Physical exercise club” does not include

   - a. A person or establishment which does not charge a membership fee and from which a buyer may only purchase or become obligated to purchase the use of services or facilities to be rendered for a period of not more than thirty days, and which does not collect more than thirty days in advance for the rendering of the services.

   - b. Except for purposes of sections 552.4, 552.7, 552.13, and 552.14, a nonprofit organization organized and operating as a nonprofit organization.

   - c. An entity primarily engaged in physical rehabilitation activities related to an individual’s injury or disease.

   d. A private club owned and operated by its members.

   e. Except for purposes of sections 552.4, 552.7, 552.13, and 552.14, a facility operated by the state or any of its political subdivisions.

4. “Physical exercise club contract” means an agreement by which a buyer is entitled to membership in a physical exercise club or use of the services or facilities of a physical exercise club.

5. “Prepayment” means any partial or full payment for services or the use of facilities made before the services are actually made available by the physical exercise club or the facility is fully opened for business as described in section 552.16, subsection 3.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §1

552.2 Purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to safeguard the public against fraud, deceit, and financial hardship and to foster and encourage competition, fair dealing, and prosperity in the field of physical exercise club operations and services by prohibiting or restricting practices by which the public has been injured in connection with contracts for and the marketing of physical exercise club services.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §2

552.3 Unenforceable contracts.

A physical exercise club contract or assignment of a contract that does not comply with this chapter is unenforceable as contrary to public policy.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §3

552.4 Contracts for physical exercise club services — right of cancellation.

A physical exercise club contract shall provide that the contract may be canceled within three business days after the date of receipt by the buyer of a copy of the signed contract. Cancellation shall be by written notice delivered to the seller at an address which shall be specified in the contract. Cancellation is complete upon mailing of the notice of cancellation. After receipt of the cancellation, the physical exercise club may request the return of contract forms, membership cards, and all other documents and evidence of membership previously delivered to the buyer. The buyer is entitled to a refund of the entire consideration paid for the contract, if any, less twenty dollars.

A physical exercise club contract shall in plain terms disclose whether the physical exercise club will allow the buyer to cancel the contract in the event of the death or disability of the buyer.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §4

552.5 Contract — statement of buyer's rights — form.

1. A physical exercise club contract shall be in writing and signed by the buyer. The contract shall state in at least ten-point boldface type “NOTICE TO BUYER: DO NOT SIGN THIS CONTRACT UNTIL YOU READ IT. DO NOT SIGN THIS CONTRACT IF IT CONTAINS BLANK SPACES.” A copy of the physical exercise club contract shall be delivered to the buyer at the time the contract is signed.

2. A physical exercise club contract shall designate the date on which the buyer actually signs the contract and shall contain a statement of the buyer's rights which complies with this subsection. The statement shall appear in the contract under the conspicuous caption “BUYER'S RIGHT TO CANCEL,” and shall read as follows:

......................................................................

You may cancel this transaction within three business days from the above date.

If you cancel, any payments made by you under the contract, less twenty dollars, and any negotiable instrument executed by you will be returned within forty-five days following receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice, and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be canceled. After you cancel, the physical exercise club may request the return of all contracts, membership cards, and other documents or evidence of membership.

To cancel this transaction, send, or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice or any other written notice by certified or registered mail to ....................... (name of seller), at .................... (address of seller's place of business) not later than midnight of ..................... (date).

I hereby cancel this transaction.

......................................................................

The full text of this statement shall be in ten-point boldface type.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §5

552.6 Delivery of physical exercise club rules.

A physical exercise club contract shall include a complete statement of the rules of the physical exercise club, or an acknowledgement in a conspicuous form that the buyer has received a copy of the rules. Physical exercise club rules shall include, but are not limited to, the hours of operation.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §6

552.7 Buyer's cancellation.

If a buyer cancels a physical exercise club contract pursuant to the three-day cancellation provision, the physical exercise club shall send the buyer a written confirmation of cancellation, together with the buyer's refund and any negotiable instruments executed by the buyer, within forty-five days after receipt by the physical exercise club of the buyer's cancellation notice. If the physical exercise club fails to send the written confirmation to the buyer within forty-five days after receiving a timely cancellation, the physical exercise club is deemed to have accepted the cancellation.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §7

552.8 Duration of contract — renewal.

A physical exercise club contract shall not have a duration longer than thirty-six months. If a physical exercise club offers a contract of more than twelve-months' duration, it shall also offer a twelve-month contract. A physical exercise club contract shall not contain an automatic renewal clause.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §8

552.9 Notice of membership plans, prices, and right of cancellation.

The physical exercise club shall orally inform the buyer prior to the buyer's entering into a physical exercise club contract of the three-day cancellation provision and provide the buyer with a written list of all membership plans and their respective prices.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §9

552.10 Statement regarding assignability of buyer's obligation.

If the buyer's obligation is in a form that may be assigned, the contract shall state in boldface type on the front page of the contract that the contract may be discounted and sold to third parties to whom the buyer will become obligated to make full payment.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §10

552.11 Buyer's rights upon assignment.

1. A physical exercise club contract is not assignable by the physical exercise club without written notice of the assignment mailed to the buyer at the buyer's address as stated in the contract. The notice shall identify the contract, state the name and address of the assignee, the amount payable by the buyer and the number, amounts, and due dates of any payments, and shall contain a conspicuous notice to the buyer of the provisions of subsection 2.
2. If the physical exercise club assigns the buyer's obligation, the buyer has thirty days from the date of the mailing of the notice of the assignment within which to notify the assignee in writing of any claims or defenses the buyer may have against the physical exercise club. If written notification of the claims or defenses is not received by the assignee within the thirty-day period, the assignee has the right to enforce the contract free of any claims or defenses the buyer may have against the physical exercise club.
88 Acts, ch 1221, §11

552.12 Listing of equipment and services.
A physical exercise club, which accepts prepayments as defined in section 552.1, subsection 5, shall compile a written list which shall be available to a buyer upon request showing:
1. The equipment by kind and quantity that is or will be made available.
2. Each service which the physical exercise club intends to have available for use by the buyers.

Subject to section 552.16, subsection 3, a physical exercise club that accepts prepayments shall not be considered fully open for business until all of the equipment and services so listed are actually available for use by the buyers.
88 Acts, ch 1221, §12

552.13 Remedies — violations.
1. If a physical exercise club violates a provision of this chapter, the buyer may cancel the physical exercise club contract. The buyer also has a right of action against the physical exercise club for recovery of the amount the buyer paid to the physical exercise club under the contract. In addition to any judgment awarded to the buyer, the court may allow reasonable attorney's fees.
2. A violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed an unlawful practice under section 714.16, subsection 2, paragraph "a".
3. Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity supplement the provisions of this chapter.
88 Acts, ch 1221, §13

552.14 Prohibited activities.
1. It is unlawful for a physical exercise club to make any misrepresentation to current members, prospective buyers, or buyers of physical exercise club contracts regarding:
   a. Qualifications of staff.
   b. Availability, quality, or extent of facilities or services.
   c. Results obtained through exercise, dieting, or weight control programs.
   d. Membership rights.
   e. The period that a special offer or discount will be available.
2. It is unlawful for a physical exercise club to fail or refuse to:
   a. File or update the registration statement required by section 552.15.
   b. Establish the escrow account required by section 552.16.
3. It is unlawful for a physical exercise club to advertise, state, or represent that it is approved by the state or that it has complied with this chapter.
88 Acts, ch 1221, §14

552.15 Registration.
1. A person operating or intending to open or operate a physical exercise club within this state shall file a registration statement with the attorney general's consumer protection division. The registration shall be filed at least thirty days before the use of any services or facilities is offered for sale by the physical exercise club. The registration statement shall be updated annually, on or before the anniversary date of the initial registration, and shall include the following:
   a. The name and address of the physical exercise club.
   b. The names and addresses of the officers and directors of the physical exercise club and its parent corporation, if one exists.
   c. The type of available facilities.
   d. The approximate size of the physical exercise club measured in square feet.
   e. Two copies of each type of physical exercise club contract which the physical exercise club is currently using or intends to use.
2. A physical exercise club registering pursuant to this chapter shall maintain in the files of the physical exercise club a copy of its registration statement filed pursuant to this section. This registration statement shall be made available upon request for inspection by current physical exercise club members or prospective buyers of physical exercise club services.
3. A physical exercise club that files an initial registration or update shall pay a fee in an amount determined by the attorney general to be sufficient to cover the cost of registration and administration of this chapter. The fees shall be deposited in the general fund of the state.
88 Acts, ch 1221, §15

A person operating a physical exercise club on July 1, 1988, has ninety days in which to file a registration statement. 88 Acts, ch 1221, §23

552.16 Escrow — bond.
1. A physical exercise club or its assignee or agent that accepts prepayments shall deposit all of the funds received as prepayments in an escrow account established with a financial institution located in this state whose accounts are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation, the national credit union administration, or the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, which shall hold the funds as escrow agent for the benefit of the buyers that prepay. The physical exercise club shall deposit all prepayments received at least biweekly and shall make the first deposit not later than the fourteenth day after the day on which the physical exercise club accepts the first prepayment. Not later than the fourteenth day after the day on which the first prepayment is received, the physical exercise club shall submit to the attorney general's consumer protection division a notarized statement that identifies the financial institution in which the prepayments are held in escrow and the name and account number in which the account is held. The prepayments shall be held in escrow until the thirtieth day after the date that the physical exercise club fully opens for business.

2. If the physical exercise club does not fully open for business before the two hundred eleventh day after the date it enters into the first physical exercise club contract or if the club does not remain fully open for thirty days, the buyers whose payments are held in escrow under this section shall receive a full refund, including the buyer's pro rata share of any interest earned thereon, from the escrow agent. Refunds pursuant to this section shall be made not later than the two hundred forty-first day after the date the first physical exercise club contract was signed. If the escrow agent fails to make a full refund as provided for in this section, the attorney general shall hold a hearing and determine whether the physical exercise club has fully opened and has remained open for thirty days, and if not, determine those persons who, as buyers, are entitled to a refund and, if appropriate, distribute the escrow proceeds. Notice shall be provided to the physical exercise club at its place of business as shown on its registration statement and to all buyers who have funds in the escrow account. All hearings held under this section shall be held in accordance with chapter 17A.

3. For the purposes of this section, the date on which a physical exercise club fully opens for business is the date on which all of the equipment and services of the physical exercise club that were advertised before the opening or promised to be made available, whether or not contained in the contract, are actually available for use by buyers. The attorney general may upon application certify that a physical exercise club is fully open for business if substantially all of the promised equipment and services are available for use, and the physical exercise club has made a diligent effort to provide the remaining equipment and services.

4. The buyer retains ownership of all moneys and interest held in escrow under this section.

5. In lieu of establishing the escrow account described in subsections 1 through 4, a physical exercise club may post a one hundred fifty thousand dollar bond with the office of the attorney general, in a form deemed acceptable by the attorney general to protect the interest of buyers. Notice of the existence of the bond must be disclosed to the buyer in the physical exercise club contract. Either the attorney general or a buyer shall be entitled to collect on the bond in the same manner and on the same terms as provided for an escrow account in subsections 1 through 4. The aggregate liability of the surety for all damages shall not exceed the amount of the bond.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §16

552.17 Consumer credit sales.
A physical exercise club contract where a finance charge is made or where payment is required or permitted by agreement to be made in more than four periodic payments, excluding a down payment, is a consumer credit sale within the meaning of section 537.1301, subsection 12, and is subject to chapter 537. If any periodic payment, other than the down payment under an agreement requiring or permitting two or more periodic payments, is more than twice the amount of any other periodic payment other than the down payment, a transaction is "payable in installments" within the meaning of section 537.1301, subsection 30.

The provisions of this chapter providing rights and protections to buyers are in addition to the provisions of chapter 537.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §17

552.18 Waiver of provisions.
A waiver by the buyer of any of the provisions of this chapter is void as contrary to public policy.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §18

552.19 Immunity.
Notwithstanding chapter 25A, there is no liability on behalf of the state of Iowa, the attorney general, or the employees of the attorney general, for damages for failure to execute, or for negligently executing, the duties or authority conferred upon them by this chapter, or the rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §19

552.20 Rules.
The attorney general may adopt rules in accordance with chapter 17A to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §20

552.21 Construction of chapter.
This chapter does not limit the power or authority of the attorney general to seek administrative, legal, or equitable relief as provided by other statutes or at common law.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §21

552.22 Applicability.
This chapter applies to all physical exercise club contracts entered into in this state on or after July 1, 1988, concerning physical exercise club facilities located, or services to be provided, in this state.

88 Acts, ch 1221, §22
CHAPTER 553

IOWA COMPETITION LAW

553.1 Short title.  This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Competition Law"
[C77, 79, 81, §553 1]

553.2 Construction.  This chapter shall be construed to complement and be harmonized with the applied laws of the United States which have the same or similar purpose as this chapter. This construction shall not be made in such a way as to constitute a delegation of state authority to the federal government, but shall be made to achieve uniform application of the state and federal laws prohibiting restraints of economic activity and monopolistic practices
[C77, 79, 81, §553 2]

553.3 Definitions.  As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires
1 “Commodity” means tangible or intangible property, real, personal, or mixed
2 “Enterprise” means a business, commercial or professional entity, including a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, professional corporation, proprietorship, incorporated or unincorporated association, or other form of organization
3 “Government agency” means the state, its political subdivisions, and any public agency supported in whole or in part by taxation
4 “Person” means a natural person, estate, trust, enterprise or government agency
5 “Price” includes the terms and conditions of sale, rental, rate, fee, or any other form of payment for a commodity or service
6 “Relevant market” means the geographical area of actual or potential competition in a line of commerce, all or any part of which is within this state
7 “Service” means any activity which is performed in whole or part for financial gain
8 “Trade or commerce” means any economic activity involving or relating to any commodity, service, or business activity
[C77, 79, 81, §553 3]

553.4 Restraint prohibited.  A contract, combination, or conspiracy between two or more persons shall not restrain or monopolize trade or commerce in a relevant market
[C97, §5060, 5061, S13, §5067-a, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9906, 9907, 9915; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §553 1, 553 2, 553 10, C77, 79, 81, §553 4]

553.5 Monopoly prohibited.  A person shall not attempt to establish or establish, maintain, or use a monopoly of trade or commerce in a relevant market for the purpose of excluding competition or of controlling, fixing, or maintaining prices
[C97, §5060, 5061, S13, §5067-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9906, 9907, 9915; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §553 1, 553 2, 553 10, C77, 79, 81, §553 5]

553.6 Exemptions.  This chapter shall not be construed to prohibit
1 The activities of any labor organization, individual members of such an organization, or group of such organizations, of any employer or group of employers, or of any groups of employees, if these activities are directed solely to legitimate labor objectives which are permitted under the laws of either this state or the United States
2 The activities of any agricultural or horticultural organization, whether incorporated or unincorporated, or of the individual members of such organizations, if these activities carry out the legitimate objectives of such organizations, to the extent permitted under the laws of either this state or the United States
3 The activities of persons engaged in the production of agricultural products when these persons act together in associations, corporate or otherwise, with or without capital stock, in collectively processing, preparing for market, handling, and marketing the products of these persons, to the extent permitted under the laws of either this state or the United States. These associations may have marketing and purchasing agencies in common and their members may make the necessary contracts and agreements to effect such purposes. However, such associations must be operated for the mutual benefit of the members of these associations acting as producers to qualify under this subsection.

4. The activities or arrangements expressly approved or regulated by any regulatory body or officer acting under authority of this state or of the United States when acting within its statutory or constitutional home rule powers and to the same extent that the activities would not be prohibited if undertaken by the activities of a city or county, or an administrative or legal entity created by a city or county when acting within its statutory or constitutional home rule powers and to the same extent that the activities would not be prohibited if undertaken by the activities of a city or county, or an administrative or legal entity created by a city or county when acting within its statutory or constitutional home rule powers and to the same extent that the activities would not be prohibited if undertaken by

84 Acts, ch 1020, §1

553.7 Attorney general to enforce.
The attorney general, with such assistance as may be required from time to time of the county attorneys in their respective counties, shall institute all criminal and civil actions and proceedings brought under this Act in the name of the state.

[C97, §5067; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9913; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §553 8, C77, 79, 81, §553 7]

553.8 Venue.
A suit or proceeding brought under this chapter may be brought in the county where the cause of action arose, where any defendant resides or transacts business, or where an action in furtherance of the conduct prohibited by this chapter occurred.

[C77, 79, 81, §553 8]

553.9 Investigation.
1. If the attorney general has reasonable cause to believe that a person has engaged in or is engaging in conduct prohibited by this chapter, the attorney general shall make such investigation as is deemed necessary and may, prior to the commencement of a suit against this person under this chapter:
   a. Issue written demand on this person, its officers, directors, partners, fiduciaries, or employees to compel their attendance before the attorney general and examine them under oath,
   b. Issue written demand to produce, examine, and copy a document or tangible item in the possession of this person or its officers, directors, partners, or fiduciaries,
   c. Upon an order of a district court, pursuant to a showing that such is reasonably necessary to an investigation being conducted under this section:
      1. Compel the attendance of any other person before the attorney general and examine this person under oath,
      2. Require the production, examination, and copying of a document or other tangible item in the possession of such person, and,
      d. Upon an order of a district court, impound a document or other tangible item produced pursuant to this section and retain possession of it until the completion of all proceedings arising out of the investigation.

2. A written demand or court order issued pursuant to this section shall contain the following information, as applicable:
   a. A reference to this chapter and a general description of the subject matter being investigated,
   b. The date, time and place at which any person is to appear or to produce documents or other tangible items,
   c. Where the production of documents or other tangible items is required, a description of such documents or items by class with sufficient clarity so that they may be reasonably identified.

3. Any procedure, testimony taken, or material produced under this section shall be sealed by the court and be kept confidential by the attorney general, until an action is filed against a person under this chapter for the violation under investigation, unless confidentiality is waived by the person being investigated and the person who has testified, an answered interrogatories, or produced material, or unless disclosure is authorized by the court for the purposes of interstate co-operation in enforcing this chapter and similar state and federal laws.

4. This chapter shall not be construed to limit or abridge statutory or constitutional limitations on self incrimination.

5. Evidence obtained from a natural person pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not be introduced in a subsequent criminal prosecution of this person. However, evidence obtained from a natural person pursuant to a grand jury proceeding may be so introduced.

553.10 Investigation enforcement.
If a person objects or otherwise fails to obey a written demand or court order issued under section 553.9, the attorney general may file in the district court of the county in which the person resides or maintains a principal place of business within this state an application for an order to enforce the demand or order. Notice of hearing and a copy of the application shall be served upon the person, who may appear in opposition to the application. If the court finds that the demand or order is proper, that there is reasonable cause to believe there has been a violation of this chapter, and that the information sought or document or object demanded is relevant to the violation, it shall order the person to comply with the demand or order, subject to such modification as the court may prescribe. Upon motion by the person and for good cause shown, the court may make any further order in the proceedings which justice requires to protect the person from unreasonable annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, burden, or expense.

553.11 Protective orders.
Before the attorney general files an application under section 553.10 and upon application of any person who was served a written demand or court order under section 553.9, upon notice and hearing, and for good cause shown, the district court may make any order which justice requires to protect the person from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden of expense, including the following:
§553.11, IOWA COMPETITION LAW

1. That the examination of this person shall not be taken or that documents or other tangible items shall not be produced for inspection and copying;
2. That the examination or production of documents or other tangible items shall be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a change in the time or place;
3. That certain matters shall not be inquired into or that the scope of the examination or production shall be limited to certain matters;
4. That the examination or production and inspection shall be conducted with only those persons present as designated by the court;
5. That the transcript of the examination shall be sealed and be opened only by order of the court;
6. That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information shall not be disclosed or shall be disclosed only in a designated way.

[C77, 79, 81, §553.11]

553.12 Remedies.
The state or a person who is injured or threatened with injury by conduct prohibited under this chapter may bring suit to:
1. Prevent or restrain conduct prohibited under this chapter and remove the conduct's effect by
2. Suit under section 553.12 must be commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues or, if there is fraudulent concealment of this cause of action, within four years after the cause of action becomes known, whichever period is later.
3. Recover actual damages resulting from conduct prohibited under this chapter.
4. Recover, at the court's discretion, exemplary damages which do not exceed twice the actual damages awarded under subsection 2, from a person other than a city or county or legal entity created by a city or county if:
   a. The trier of fact determines that the prohibited conduct is willful or flagrant; and,
   b. The person bringing suit is not the state.
5. That the transcript of the examination shall be sealed and be opened only by order of the court;
6. That certain matters shall not be inquired into or that the scope of the examination or production and inspection shall be limited to certain matters;
7. That the examination or production and inspection shall be conducted with only those persons present as designated by the court;
8. That a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information shall not be disclosed or shall be disclosed only in a designated way.

553.13 Civil penalty.
In addition to suit under section 553.12, the state may bring suit to assess a civil penalty against an enterprise whose conduct is prohibited under this chapter. The suit may be tried to the jury and the civil penalty assessed shall not exceed ten percent of the total value of the specific commodities by their brand, make, and size or of services either of which were the subject of the prohibited conduct sold in the relevant market in this state by the enterprise in each year in which this conduct occurred, but this penalty shall not exceed one hundred fifty thousand dollars. In computing this penalty, only the four most recent years in which the prohibited conduct occurred, as of commencement of suit under this section, shall be used in the computation.

553.14 Criminal penalties.
A person or a natural person having substantial control over an enterprise who knowingly and willfully engages in conduct prohibited by this chapter shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.
A person having substantial control over an enterprise who knowingly and willfully engages in bid rigging or price fixing involving a contract with the state or a governmental agency is guilty of a class "D" felony.

[C97, §5062; S13, §5062, 5067-c, 5077-a5; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9906, 9918, 9926; C46, 50, 54, 56, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §553.3, 553.13, 553.21; C77, 79, 81, §553.14]

84 Acts, ch 1143, §1

553.15 Election of remedies.
The bringing of suit to assess a civil penalty against a person by filing a petition shall be an election of remedies to not bring a criminal prosecution against this person. The bringing of a criminal prosecution against a person by filing an information or returning an indictment shall be an election of remedies to not bring suit to assess a civil penalty against this person.

553.16 Limitations.
1. Suit by the state to assess a civil penalty or to obtain a criminal conviction under this chapter must be commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues or, if there is fraudulent concealment of this cause of action, within four years after the cause of action becomes known, whichever period is later.
2. Suit under section 553.12 must be commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues or, if there is a fraudulent concealment of this cause of action, within four years after the cause of action becomes known, whichever period is later. However, if this cause is based, in whole or part, on the same set of facts as alleged in a suit brought under section 553.13, this period shall be suspended until one year after the suit brought under section 553.13 is concluded.

553.17 Prima-facie evidence.
A final decree or judgment, other than a consent decree or consent judgment entered before trial, in a suit brought by the state is prima-facie evidence against the defendant in a suit brought by any person other than the state under section 553.12 as to all matters respecting which this decree or judgment would be an estoppel between the state and the 553.18 Debarment.
A contractor or supplier of goods or services to the state or a governmental agency, and the enterprise for which the illegal action was taken, convicted under this chapter, or convicted under the laws of any other state or the federal government for actions which would constitute a violation of this chapter, are prohibited from bidding on a governmental contract for one year from the date of conviction, unless the state or governmental agency accepting bids expressly allows the contractor or supplier to bid after being informed of the conviction.

ARTICLE 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS
PART 1
SHORT TITLE, CONSTRUCTION, APPLICATION AND SUBJECT MATTER OF THE CHAPTER

§554.1101 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1101]

§554.1102 Purposes – rules of construction – variation by agreement.
1 This chapter shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies
2 Underlying purposes and policies of this chapter are a to simplify, clarify and modernize the law governing commercial transactions, b to permit the continued expansion of commercial practices through custom, usage and agreement of the parties,
c to make uniform the law among the various jurisdictions
3 The effect of provisions of this chapter may be varied by agreement, except as otherwise provided in this chapter and except that the obligations of good faith, diligence, reasonableness and care prescribed by this chapter may not be disclaimed by agreement but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the performance of such obligations is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable 4 The presence in certain provisions of this chapter of the words “unless otherwise agreed” or words of similar import does not imply that the effect of other provisions may not be varied by agreement under subsection 3 5 In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires a words in the singular number include the plural, and in the plural include the singular, b words of the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter, and when the sense so indicates words of the neuter gender may refer to any gender [S13, §3138 a57, b51, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8296,
9717, 10003; C46, §487 53, 542 57, 554 75, C50, 54,

C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1102]

§554.1103 Supplementary general principles of law applicable.
Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this chapter, the principles of law and equity, including the law merchant and the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bank ruptcy, or other validating or invalidating cause shall supplement its provisions [S13, §3060 a196, 3138 a56, b50, C24, 27, 31, 35,
39, §8295, 9657, 9716, 9931, 10002; C46, §487 52,

C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1103]

§554.1104 Construction against implicit repeal.
This chapter being a general act intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, no part of it shall be deemed to be impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if such construction can reasonably be avoided
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1104]

§554.1105 Territorial application of the chapter – parties’ power to choose applicable law.
1 Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties Failing such agreement this chapter applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state
2 Where one of the following provisions of this chapter specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) so specified

§554.1106 Remedies to be liberally administered.
1 The remedies provided by this chapter shall be liberally administered to the end that the aggrieved party may be put in as good a position as if the other party had fully performed but neither consequential or special nor penal damages may be had except as specifically provided in this chapter or by other rule of law
2 Any right or obligation declared by this chapter is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10001; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62,
§554 73, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 1106]

§554.1107 Waiver or renunciation of claim or right after breach.
Any claim or right arising out of an alleged breach can be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a written waiver or renunciation signed and delivered by the aggrieved party §554.1108 Severability.
If any provision or clause of this chapter or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable.

PART 2
GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND PRINCIPLES OF INTERPRETATION

§554.1201 General definitions.
Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent Articles of this chapter which are applicable to specific Articles or Parts thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this chapter:

1. “Action” in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recouperation, counterclaim, setoff, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

2. “Aggrieved party” means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.

3. “Agreement” means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this chapter (sections 554.1205 and 554.2208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this chapter, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (section 554.1103). (Compare “Contract”.)

5. “Bearer” means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or security payable to bearer or endorsed in blank.

6. “Bill of lading” means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. “Airbill” means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.

7. “Branch” includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

8. “Burden of establishing” a fact means the burden of persuading the trier of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its nonexistence.

9. “Buyer in ordinary course of business” means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to that person is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest of a third party in the goods buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be deemed to be persons in the business of selling goods of that kind. “Buying” may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

10. “Conspicuous”: A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: “Nonnegotiable Bill of Lading”) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is “conspicuous” if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is “conspicuous”. Whether a term or clause is “conspicuous” or not is for decision by the court.

11. “Contract” means the total legal obligation which results from the parties’ agreement as affected by this chapter and any other applicable rules of law. (Compare “Agreement”.)

12. “Creditor” includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor’s or assignor’s estate.

13. “Defendant” includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

14. “Delivery” with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper or securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

15. “Document of title” includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee’s possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

17. “Fungible” with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this chapter to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.
18 “Genuine” means free of forgery or counter feiting.
19 “Good faith” means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.
20 “Holder” means a person who is in possession of a document of title or an instrument or an investment security drawn, issued or endorsed to that person or to that person’s order or to bearer or in blank.
21 To “honor” is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.
22 “Insolvency proceedings” includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.
23 A person is “insolvent” who either has ceased to pay that person’s debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay that person’s debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.
24 “Money” means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government as a part of its currency.
25 A person has “notice” of a fact when
a. the person has actual knowledge of it, or
b. the person has received a notice or notification of it, or
c. from all the facts and circumstances known to the person at the time in question the person has reason to know that it exists. A person “knows” or has “knowledge” of a fact when that person has actual knowledge of it “Discover” or “learn” or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this chapter.
26 A person “notifies” or “gives” a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person “receives” a notice or notification when
a. it comes to that person’s attention, or
b. it is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by that person as the place for receipt of such communications.
27 Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to that individual’s attention if the organization had exercised due diligence.
An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of that individual’s regular duties or unless the individual has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.
28 “Organization” includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.
29 “Party”, as distinct from “third party”, means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this chapter.
30 “Person” includes an individual or an organization (See section 554 1102) 31 “Presumption” or “presumed” means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.
32 “Purchase” means any voluntary transaction creating an interest in property, including taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, voluntary lien, issue, reissue or gift.
33 “Purchaser” means a person who takes by purchase.
34 “Remedy” means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.
35 “Representative” includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.
36 “Rights” includes remedies.
37 “Security interest” means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation. The retention or res-servation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (section 554 2401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a “security interest”. The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper which is subject to Article 9. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of such goods to a contract for sale under section 554 2401 is not a “security interest”, but a buyer may also acquire a “security interest” by complying with Article 9. Unless a lease or consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a “security interest” but a consignment in any event subject to the provisions on consignment sales (section 554 2326). Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case, however, (a) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (b) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.
38 “Send” in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.

38 "Signed" includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.

40 "Surety" includes guarantor.

41 "Telegram" includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.

42 "Term" means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.

43 "Unauthorized" signature or endorsement means one made without actual, implied or apparent authority and includes a forgery.

44 "Value" Except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (sections 554 3303, 554 4208 and 554 4209) a person gives "value" for rights if the person acquires them:

a. in return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection, or

b. as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a pre-existing claim, or

c. by accepting delivery pursuant to a pre-existing contract for purchase, or

d. generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

45 "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

46 "Written" or "writing" includes printing, typewriting or any other intentional reduction to tangible form.

554.1202 Prima-facie evidence by third party documents.

A document in due form purporting to be a bill of lading, policy or certificate of insurance, official weigher’s or inspector’s certificate, consular invoice, or any other document authorized or required by the contract to be issued by a third party shall be prima-facie evidence of its own authenticity and genuineness and of the facts stated in the document by the third party [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §§554 1202]

554.1203 Obligation of good faith.

Every contract or duty within this chapter imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §§554 1203]

554.1204 Time — reasonable time — "seasonably".

1 Whenever this chapter requires any action to be taken within a reasonable time, any time which is not manifestly unreasonable may be fixed by agreement.

2 What is a reasonable time for taking any action depends on the nature, purpose and circumstances of such action.

3 An action is taken "seasonably" when it is taken at or within the time agreed or if no time is agreed at or within a reasonable time.

554.1205 Course of dealing and usage of trade.

1 A course of dealing is a sequence of previous conduct between the parties to a particular transaction which is fairly to be regarded as establishing a common basis of understanding for interpreting their expressions and other conduct.

2 A usage of trade is any practice or method of dealing having such regularity of observance in a place, vocation or trade as to justify an expectation that it will be observed with respect to the transaction in question. The existence and scope of such a usage are to be proved as facts. If it is established that such a usage is embodied in a written trade code or similar writing the interpretation of the writing is for the court.

3 A course of dealing between parties and any usage of trade in the vocation or trade in which they are engaged or of which they are or should be aware give particular meaning to and supplement or qualify terms of an agreement.

4 The express terms of an agreement and an applicable course of dealing or usage of trade shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other, but when such construction is unreasonable express terms control both course of dealing and usage of trade and course of dealing controls usage of trade.

5 An applicable usage of trade in the place where any part of performance is to occur shall be used in interpreting the agreement as to that part of the performance.

6 Evidence of a relevant usage of trade offered by one party is not admissible unless and until that party has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise to the latter [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§9938, 9944, 9947, 10000; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §§554 10, 554 16, 554 19, 554 72, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §§554 1205]

554.1206 Statute of frauds for kinds of personal property not otherwise covered.

1 Except in the cases described in subsection 2 of this section a contract for the sale of personal property is not enforceable by way of action or defense...
§554.1206, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE 3868

beyond five thousand dollars in amount or value of remedy unless there is some writing which indicates that a contract for sale has been made between the parties at a defined or stated price, reasonably identifies the subject matter, and is signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent.

2. Subsection 1 of this section does not apply to contracts for the sale of goods (section 554.2201) nor of securities (section 554.8319) nor to security agreements (section 554.9203).

554.1207 Performance or acceptance under reservation of rights.

A party who with explicit reservation of rights performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as “without prejudice”, “under protest” or the like are sufficient.

554.1208 Option to accelerate at will.

A term providing that one party or that party's successor in interest may accelerate payment or performance or require collateral or additional collateral “at will” or “when the party deems itself insecure” or in words of similar import shall be construed to mean that that party shall have power to do so only if that party in good faith believes that the prospect of payment or performance is impaired. The burden of establishing lack of good faith is on the party against whom the power has been exercised.

554.1209 Subordinated obligations.

An obligation may be issued as subordinated to payment of another obligation of the person obligated, or a creditor may subordinate the creditor's right to payment of an obligation by agreement with either the person obligated or another creditor of the person obligated. Such a subordination does not create a security interest as against either the common debtor or a subordinated creditor. This section shall be construed as declaring the law as it existed prior to the enactment of this section and not as modifying it.

SALES
PART 1
SHORT TITLE, GENERAL CONSTRUCTION, AND SUBJECT MATTER

554.2101 Short title.

This Article shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code — Sales.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2101]

554.2102 Scope — certain security and other transactions excluded from this Article.

Unless the context otherwise requires, this Article applies to transactions in goods; it does not apply to any transaction which although in the form of an unconditional contract to sell or present sale is intended to operate only as a security transaction nor does this Article impair or repeal any statute regulating sales to consumers, farmers or other specified classes of buyers.

554.2103 Definitions and index of definitions.

1. In this Article unless the context otherwise requires
a. “Buyer” means a person who buys or contracts to buy goods.
b. “Good faith” in the case of a merchant means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing in the trade.
c. “Receipt” of goods means taking physical possession of them.
d. “Seller” means a person who sells or contracts to sell goods.

554.2104 Definitions: “merchant” — “between merchants” — “financing agency”.

1. “Merchant” means a person who deals in goods of the kind or otherwise by the person’s occupation holds that person out as having knowledge or skill peculiar to the practices or goods involved in the transaction or to whom such knowledge or skill may be attributed by the person’s employment of an agent or broker or other intermediary who by the intermediary’s occupation holds the intermediary out as having such knowledge or skill.

2. “Financing agency” means a bank, finance company or other person who in the ordinary course of business makes advances against goods or documents of title or who by arrangement with either the seller or the buyer intervenes in ordinary course to make or collect payment due or claimed under the contract for sale, as by purchasing or paying the seller’s draft or making advances against it or by merely taking it for collection whether or not documents of title accompany the draft. “Financing agency” includes also a bank or other person who similarly intervenes between persons who are in the position of seller and buyer in respect to the goods (section 554.2107).

3. “Between merchants” means in any transaction with respect to which both parties are chargeable with the knowledge or skill of merchants.

554.2105 Definitions: transferability — “goods” — “future” goods — “lot” — “commercial unit”.

1. “Goods” means all things (including specially manufactured goods) which are movable at the time of identification to the contract for sale other than the money in which the price is to be paid, investment securities (Article 8) and things in action.

2. Goods must be both existing and identified before any interest in them can pass. Goods which are not both existing and identified are “future” goods.

3. There may be a sale of a part interest in existing identified goods.

4. An undivided share in an identified bulk of fungible goods is sufficiently identified to be sold although the quantity of the bulk is not determined.

5. “Lot” means a parcel or a single article which is the subject matter of a separate sale or delivery, whether or not it is sufficient to perform the contract.

6. “Commercial unit” means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage is a single whole for purposes of sale and division of which materially impairs its character or value on the market or in use.

A commercial unit may be a single article (as a machine) or a set of articles (as a suite of furniture or an assortment of sizes) or a quantity (as a bale, gross, or carload) of any other unit treated in use or in the relevant market as a single whole.

554.2106 Definitions: “contract” — “agreement” — “contract for sale” — “sale” — “present sale” — “conforming” to contract — “termination” — “cancellation”.

1. In this Article unless the context otherwise requires “contract” and “agreement” are limited to those relating to the present or future sale of goods. “Contract for sale” includes both a present sale of goods and a contract to sell goods at a future time.

2. Goods or conduct including any part of a performance are “conforming” or conform to the contract when they are in accordance with the obligations under the contract.

3. “Termination” occurs when either party pursuant to a power created by agreement or law puts an end to the contract otherwise than for its breach. On “termination” all obligations which are still executory on both sides are discharged but any right based on prior breach or performance survives.

4. “Cancellation” occurs when either party puts an end to the contract for breach by the other and its effect is the same as that of “termination” except that the canceling party also retains any remedy for breach of the whole contract or any unperformed balance.

554.2107 Goods to be severed from realty: recording.

1. A contract for the sale of minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or a structure or its materials to be removed from realty is a contract for the sale of goods within this Article if they are to be severed by the seller but until severance a purported present sale thereof which is not effective as a transfer of an interest in land is effective only as a contract to sell.

2. A contract for the sale apart from the land of growing crops or other things attached to realty and capable of severance without material harm thereto but not described in subsection 1 or of timber to be cut is a contract for the sale of goods within this
§554.2107, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

Article whether the subject matter is to be severed by the buyer or by the seller even though it forms part of the realty at the time of contracting, and the parties can by identification effect a present sale before severance.

3. The provisions of this section are subject to any third party rights provided by the law relating to realty records, and the contract for sale may be executed and recorded as a document transferring part of the realty at the time of contracting, and the parties can by identification effect a present sale before severance.

PART 2
FORM, FORMATION, AND READJUSTMENT
OF CONTRACT

§554.2201 Formal requirements — statute of frauds.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this section a contract for the sale of goods for the price of five hundred dollars or more is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless there is some writing sufficient to indicate that a contract for sale has been made between the parties and signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent or broker. A writing is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term agreed upon but the contract is not enforceable under this paragraph beyond the quantity of goods shown in such writing.

2. Between merchants if within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the contract and sufficient against the sender is received and the party receiving it has reason to know its contents, it satisfies the requirements of subsection 1 against such party unless written notice of objection to its contents is given within ten days after it is received.

3. A contract which does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 1 but which is valid in other respects is enforceable

a. if the goods are to be specially manufactured for the buyer and are not suitable for sale to others in the ordinary course of the seller's business and the seller, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances which reasonably indicate that the goods are for the buyer, has made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their procurement; or

b. if the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that a contract for sale was made, but the contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the quantity of goods admitted; or

c. with respect to goods for which payment has been made and accepted or which have been received and accepted (section 554.2606).

§554.2202 Final written expression — parol or extrinsic evidence.

Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or which are otherwise set forth in a writing intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement but may be explained or supplemented

a. by course of dealing or usage of trade (section 554.1205) or by course of performance (section 554.2208); and

b. by evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the writing to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2202]

§554.2203 Seals inoperative.

The affixing of a seal to a writing evidencing a contract for sale or an offer to buy or sell goods does not constitute the writing a sealed instrument and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to such a contract or offer.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9932; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.3; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2203]

§554.2204 Formation in general.

1. A contract for sale of goods may be made in any manner sufficient to show agreement, including conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of such a contract.

2. An agreement sufficient to constitute a contract for sale may be found even though the moment of its making is undetermined.

3. Even though one or more terms are left open a contract for sale does not fail for indefiniteness if the parties have intended to make a contract and there is a reasonably certain basis for giving an appropriate remedy.

§554.2205 Firm offers.

An offer by a merchant to buy or sell goods in a signed writing which by its terms gives assurance that it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or if no time is stated for a reasonable time, but in no event may such period of irrevocability exceed three months; but any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeror must be separately signed by the offeree.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9930, 9932; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.1, 554.3; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2205]

§554.2206 Offer and acceptance in formation of contract.

1. Unless otherwise unambiguously indicated by the language or circumstances

a. an offer to make a contract shall be construed as inviting acceptance in any manner and by any medium reasonable in the circumstances;

b. an order or other offer to buy goods for prompt or current shipment shall be construed as inviting acceptance either by a prompt promise to ship or by the prompt or current shipment of conforming or nonconforming goods, but such a shipment of nonconforming goods does not constitute an acceptance if the seller seasonably notifies the buyer that the shipment is offered only as an accommodation to the buyer.

2. Where the beginning of a requested performance is a reasonable mode of acceptance an offeror who is not notified of acceptance within a reasonable time may treat the offer as having lapsed before acceptance.

554.2207 Additional terms in acceptance or confirmation.

1. A definite and seasonable expression of acceptance or a written confirmation which is sent within a reasonable time operates as an acceptance even though it states terms additional to or different from those offered or agreed upon, unless acceptance is expressly made conditional on assent to the additional or different terms.

2. The additional terms are to be construed as proposals for addition to the contract. Between merchants such terms become part of the contract unless:
   a. the offer expressly limits acceptance to the terms of the offer;
   b. they materially alter it; or
   c. notification of objection to them has already been given or is given within a reasonable time after notice of them is received.

3. Conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of a contract is sufficient to establish a contract for sale although the writings of the parties do not otherwise establish a contract. In such case the terms of the particular contract consist of those terms on which the writings of the parties agree, together with any supplementary terms incorporated under any other provisions of this chapter.

554.2208 Course of performance or practical construction.

1. Where the contract for sale involves repeated occasions for performance by either party with knowledge of the nature of the performance and opportunity for objection to it by the other, any course of performance accepted or acquiesced in without objection shall be relevant to determine the meaning of the agreement.

2. The express terms of the agreement and any such course of performance, as well as any course of dealing and usage of trade, shall be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other; but when such construction is unreasonable, express terms shall control course of performance and course of performance shall control both course of dealing and usage of trade (section 554.1205).

3. Subject to the provisions of the next section on modification and waiver, such course of performance shall be relevant to show a waiver or modification of any term inconsistent with such course of performance.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2208]

554.2209 Modification, rescission and waiver.

1. An agreement modifying a contract within this Article needs no consideration to be binding.

2. A signed agreement which excludes modification or rescission except by a signed writing cannot be otherwise modified or rescinded, but except as between merchants such a requirement on a form supplied by the merchant must be separately signed by the other party.

3. The requirements of the statute of frauds section of this Article (section 554.2201) must be satisfied if the contract as modified is within its provisions.

4. Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 2 or 3 it can operate as a waiver.

5. A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of the contract may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9990; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.62; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2209]

554.2210 Delegation of performance — assignment of rights.

1. A party may perform that party's duty through a delegate unless otherwise agreed or unless the other party has a substantial interest in having the original promisor perform or control the acts required by the contract. No delegation of performance relieves the party delegating of any duty to perform or any liability for breach.

2. Unless otherwise agreed all rights of either seller or buyer can be assigned except where the assignment would materially change the duty of the other party, or increase materially the burden of risk imposed on the other party by the contract, or impair materially the other party's chance of obtaining return performance.

A right to damages for breach of the whole contract or a right arising out of the assignor's due performance of the assignor's entire obligation can be assigned despite agreement otherwise.

3. Unless the circumstances indicate the contrary a prohibition of assignment of "the contract" is to be construed as barring only the delegation to the assignee of the assignor's performance.

4. An assignment of "the contract" or of "all my rights under the contract" or an assignment in similar general terms is an assignment of rights and unless the language or the circumstances (as in an assignment for security) indicate the contrary, it is a...
delegation of performance of the duties of the assignor and its acceptance by the assignee constitutes a promise by the assignee to perform those duties. This promise is enforceable by either the assignor or the other party to the original contract.

5. The other party may treat any assignment which delegates performance as creating reasonable grounds for insecurity and may without prejudice to that party's rights against the assignor demand assurances from the assignee (section 554.2609).

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2210]

PART 3
GENERAL OBLIGATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF CONTRACT

554.2301 General obligations of parties.
The obligation of the seller is to transfer and deliver and that of the buyer is to accept and pay in accordance with the contract.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9940, 9970; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.12, 554.42; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2301]

554.2302 Unconscionable contract or clause.
1. If the court as a matter of law finds the contract or any clause of the contract to have been unconscionable at the time it was made the court may refuse to enforce the contract, or it may enjoin the remainder of the contract without the unconscionable clause, or it may so limit the application of any unconscionable clause as to avoid any unconscionable result.

2. When it is claimed or appears to the court that the contract or any clause thereof may be unconscionable the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to its commercial setting, purpose and effect to aid the court in making the determination.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2302]

554.2303 Allocation or division of risks.
Where this Article allocates a risk or a burden as between the parties “unless otherwise agreed”, the agreement may not only shift the allocation but may also divide the risk or burden.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2303]

554.2304 Price payable in money, goods, realty, or otherwise.
1. The price can be made payable in money or otherwise. If it is payable in whole or in part in goods each party is a seller of the goods which that party is to transfer.

2. Even though all or part of the price is payable in an interest in realty the transfer of the goods and the seller's obligations with reference to them are subject to this Article, but not the transfer of the interest in realty or the transferor's obligations in connection therewith.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9938; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.10; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2304]

554.2305 Open price term.
1. The parties if they so intend can conclude a contract for sale even though the price is not settled. In such a case the price is a reasonable price at the time for delivery if
   a. nothing is said as to price; or
   b. the price is left to be agreed by the parties and they fail to agree; or
   c. the price is to be fixed in terms of some agreed market or other standard as set or recorded by a third person or agency and it is not so set or recorded.

2. A price to be fixed by the seller or by the buyer means a price for that party to fix in good faith.

3. When a price left to be fixed otherwise than by agreement of the parties fails to be fixed through fault of one party the other may at that party's option treat the contract as canceled or fix a reasonable price.

4. Where, however, the parties intend not to be bound unless the price be fixed or agreed and it is not fixed or agreed there is no contract. In such a case the buyer must return any goods already received or if unable so to do must pay their reasonable value at the time of delivery and the seller must return any portion of the price paid on account.

554.2306 Output, requirements and exclusive dealings.
1. A term which measures the quantity by the output of the seller or the requirements of the buyer means such actual output or requirements as may occur in good faith, except that no quantity unreasonably disproportionate to any stated estimate or in the absence of a stated estimate to any normal or otherwise comparable prior output or requirements may be tendered or demanded.

2. A lawful agreement by either the seller or the buyer for exclusive dealing in the kind of goods concerned imposes unless otherwise agreed an obligation by the seller to use best efforts to supply the goods and by the buyer to use best efforts to promote their sale.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2306]

554.2307 Delivery in single lot or several lots.
Unless otherwise agreed all goods called for by a contract for sale must be tendered in a single delivery and payment is due only on such tender but where the circumstances give either party the right to make or demand delivery in lots the price if it can be apportioned may be demanded for each lot.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9974; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.46; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2307]

554.2308 Absence of specified place for delivery.
Unless otherwise agreed
   a. the place for delivery of goods is the seller's place of business or if the seller has none the seller's residence; but
   b. in a contract for sale of identified goods which to the knowledge of the parties at the time of contracting are in some other place, that place is the place for their delivery; and

3. Where such specification would materially affect the other party’s performance but is not seasonably made or where one party’s co-operation is necessary to the agreed performance of the other but is not seasonably forthcoming the other party in addition to all other remedies

a. is excused for any resulting delay in that party’s own performance; and

b. may also either proceed to perform in any reasonable manner or after the time for a material part of that party’s own performance treat the failure to specify or to co-operate as a breach by failure to deliver or accept the goods.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2308]

554.2312 Warranty of title and against infringement — buyer’s obligation against infringement.

1. Subject to subsection 2 there is in a contract for sale a warranty by the seller that

a. the title conveyed shall be good, and its transfer rightful; and

b. the goods shall be delivered free from any security interest or other lien or encumbrance of which the buyer at the time of contracting has no knowledge.

2. A warranty under subsection 1 will be excluded or modified only by specific language or by circumstances which give the buyer reason to know that the person selling does not claim title or that the person selling is purporting to sell only such right or title as the person selling or a third person may have.

3. Unless otherwise agreed a seller who is a merchant regularly dealing in goods of the kind warrants that the goods shall be delivered free of the rightful claim of any third person by way of infringement or the like but a buyer who furnishes specifications to the seller must hold the seller harmless against any such claim which arises out of compliance with the specifications.

554.2313 Express warranties by affirmation, promise, description, sample.

1. Express warranties by the seller are created as follows:

a. Any affirmation of fact or promise made by the seller to the buyer which relates to the goods and becomes part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the affirmation or promise.

b. Any description of the goods which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the description.

c. Any sample or model which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the whole of the goods shall conform to the sample or model.
2. It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that the seller use formal words such as “warrant” or “guarantee” or that the seller have a specific intention to make a warranty, but an affirmation merely of the value of the goods or a statement purporting to be merely the seller’s opinion or commendation of the goods does not create a warranty.

554.2314 Implied warranty: merchantability — usage of trade.

1. Unless excluded or modified (section 554.2316), a warranty that the goods shall be merchantable is implied in a contract for their sale if the seller is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind. Under this section the serving for value of food or drink to be consumed either on the premises or elsewhere is a sale.

2. Goods to be merchantable must be at least such as:
   a. pass without objection in the trade under the contract description; and
   b. in the case of fungible goods, are of fair average quality within the description; and
   c. are fit for the ordinary purposes for which such goods are used; and
   d. run, within the variations permitted by the agreement, of even kind, quality and quantity within each unit and among all units involved; and
   e. are adequately contained, packaged, and labeled as the agreement may require; and
   f. conform to the promises or affirmations of fact made on the container or label if any.

3. Unless excluded or modified (section 554.2316) other implied warranties may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §994; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.16; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2314] Limitation, §613 18

554.2315 Implied warranty — fitness for particular purpose.

Where the seller at the time of contracting has reason to know any particular purpose for which the goods are required and that the buyer is relying on the seller’s skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods, there is unless excluded or modified under the next section an implied warranty that the goods shall be fit for such purpose.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §994; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.16; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2315]

554.2316 Exclusion or modification of warranties.

1. Words or conduct relevant to the creation of an express warranty and words or conduct tending to negate or limit warranty shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other; but subject to the provisions of this Article on parol or extrinsic evidence (section 554.2202) negation or limitation is inoperative to the extent that such construction is unreasonable.

2. Subject to subsection 3, to exclude or modify the implied warranty of merchantability or any part of it the language must mention merchantability and in case of a writing must be by a writing and conspicuous, and to exclude or modify any implied warranty of fitness the exclusion must be by a writing and conspicuous. Language to exclude all implied warranties of fitness is sufficient if it states, for example, that “There are no warranties which extend beyond the description on the face hereof.”

3. Notwithstanding subsection 2
   a. unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, all implied warranties are excluded by expressions like “as is”, “with all faults” or other language which in common understanding calls the buyer’s attention to the exclusion of warranties and makes plain that there is no implied warranty; and
   b. when the buyer before entering into the contract has examined the goods or the sample or model as fully as the buyer desired or has refused to examine the goods there is no implied warranty with regard to defects which an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed to the buyer; and
   c. an implied warranty can also be excluded or modified by course of dealing or course of performance or usage of trade.

4. Remedies for breach of warranty can be limited in accordance with the provisions of this Article on liquidation or limitation of damages and on contractual modification of remedy (sections 554.2718 and 554.2719).

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2316] Livestock warranty exemption, ch 554A

554.2317 Cumulation and conflict of warranties express or implied.

Warranties whether express or implied shall be construed as consistent with each other and as cumulative, but if such construction is unreasonable the intention of the parties shall determine which warranty is dominant. In ascertaining that intention the following rules apply:

a. Exact or technical specifications displace an inconsistent sample or model or general language of description.

b. A sample from an existing bulk displaces inconsistent general language of description.

c. Express warranties displace inconsistent implied warranties other than an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §994; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.15–554.17; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2317]
1. Unless otherwise agreed the term F.O.B. (which means “free on board”) at a named place, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which
   a. when the term is F.O.B. the place of shipment, the seller must at that place ship the goods in the manner provided in this Article (section 554.2504) and bear the expense and risk of putting them into the possession of the carrier; or
   b. when the term is F.O.B. the place of destination, the seller must at the seller’s own expense and risk transport the goods to that place and there tender delivery of them in the manner provided in this Article (section 554.2503);
   c. when under either “a” or “b” the term is also F.O.B. vessel, car or other vehicle, the seller must in addition at the seller’s own expense and risk load the goods on board. If the term is F.O.B. vessel the buyer must name the vessel and in an appropriate case the seller must comply with the provisions of this Article on the form of bill of lading (section 554.2323).

2. Unless otherwise agreed the term F.A.S. vessel (which means “free alongside”) at a named port, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which the seller must
   a. at the seller’s own expense and risk deliver the goods alongside the vessel in the manner usual in that port or on a dock designated and provided by the buyer; and
   b. obtain and tender a receipt for the goods in exchange for which the carrier is under a duty to issue a bill of lading.

3. Unless otherwise agreed in any case falling within subsection 1 “a” or “c” or subsection 2 the buyer must seasonably give any needed instructions for making delivery, including when the term is F.A.S. or F.O.B. the loading berth of the vessel and in an appropriate case its name and sailing date. The seller may treat the failure of needed instructions as a failure of co-operation under this Article (section 554.2311). The seller may also at the seller’s option move the goods in any reasonable manner preparatory to delivery or shipment.

4. Under the term F.O.B. vessel or F.A.S. unless otherwise agreed the buyer must make payment against tender of the required documents and the seller may not tender nor the buyer demand delivery of the goods in substitution for the documents.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2319]

1. The term C.I.F. means that the price includes in a lump sum the cost of the goods and the insurance and freight to the named destination. The term C. & F. or C.F. means that the price so includes cost and freight to the named destination.

2. Unless otherwise agreed and even though used only in connection with the stated price and destination, the term C.I.F. destination or its equivalent requires the seller at the seller’s own expense and risk to

   a. put the goods into the possession of a carrier at the port for shipment and obtain a negotiable bill or bills of lading covering the entire transportation to the named destination; and
   b. load the goods and obtain a receipt from the carrier (which may be contained in the bill of lading) showing that the freight has been paid or provided for; and
   c. obtain a policy or certificate of insurance, including any war risk insurance, of a kind and on terms then current at the port of shipment in the usual amount, in the currency of the contract, shown to cover the same goods covered by the bill of lading and providing for payment of loss to the order of the buyer or for the account of whom it may concern; but the seller may add to the price the amount of the premium for any such war risk insurance; and
   d. prepare an invoice of the goods and procure any other documents required to effect shipment or to comply with the contract; and
   e. forward and tender with commercial promptness all the documents in due form and with any endorsement necessary to perfect the buyer’s rights.

3. Unless otherwise agreed the term C. & F. or its equivalent has the same effect and imposes upon the seller the same obligations and risks as a C.I.F. term except the obligation as to insurance.

4. Under the term C.I.F. or C. & F. unless otherwise agreed the buyer must make payment against tender of the required documents and the seller may not tend to nor the buyer demand delivery of the goods in substitution for the documents.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2320]

554.2321 C.I.F. or C. & F. — “net landed weights” — “payment on arrival” — warranty of condition on arrival.

Under a contract containing a term C.I.F. or C. & F.

1. Where the price is based on or is to be adjusted according to “net landed weights”, “delivered weights”, “outturn” quantity or quality or the like, unless otherwise agreed the seller must reasonably estimate the price. The payment due on tender of the documents called for by the contract is the amount so estimated, but after final adjustment of the price a settlement must be made with commercial promptness.

2. An agreement described in subsection 1 or any warranty of quality or condition of the goods on arrival places upon the seller the risk of ordinary deterioration, shrinkage and the like in transportation but has no effect on the place or time of identification to the contract for sale or delivery or on the passing of the risk of loss.

3. Unless otherwise agreed where the contract provides for payment on or after arrival of the goods the seller must before payment allow such preliminary inspection as is feasible; but if the goods are lost delivery of the documents and payment are due when the goods should have arrived.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2321]
§554.2322 Delivery "ex-ship".
1. Unless otherwise agreed a term for delivery of goods "ex-ship" (which means from the carrying vessel) or in equivalent language is not restricted to a particular ship and requires delivery from a ship which has reached a place at the named port of destination where goods of the kind are usually discharged.
2. Under such a term unless otherwise agreed
   a. the seller must discharge all liens arising out of the carriage and furnish the buyer with a direction which puts the carrier under a duty to deliver the goods; and
   b. the risk of loss does not pass to the buyer until the goods leave the ship's tackle or are otherwise properly unloaded.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2322]

§554.2323 Form of bill of lading required in overseas shipment — "overseas".
1. Where the contract contemplates overseas shipment and contains a term C.I.F. or C. & F. or F.O.B. vessel, the seller unless otherwise agreed must obtain a negotiable bill of lading stating that the goods have been loaded on board or, in the case of a term C.I.F. or C. & F., received for shipment.
2. Where in a case within subsection 1 a bill of lading has been issued in a set of parts, unless otherwise agreed if the documents are not to be sent from abroad the buyer may demand tender of the full set; otherwise only one part of the bill of lading need be tendered. Even if the agreement expressly requires a full set
   a. due tender of a single part is acceptable within the provisions of this Article on cure of improper delivery (subsection 1 of section 554.2508); and
   b. even though the full set is demanded, if the documents are sent from abroad the person tendering an incomplete set may nevertheless require payment upon furnishing an indemnity which the buyer in good faith deems adequate.
3. A shipment by water or by air or a contract contemplating such shipment is "overseas" insofar as by usage of trade or agreement it is subject to the commercial, financing or shipping practices characteristic of international deep water commerce.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2323]

§554.2324 "No arrival, no sale" term.
Under a term "no arrival, no sale" or terms of like meaning, unless otherwise agreed,
   a. the seller must properly ship conforming goods and if they arrive by any means the seller must tender them on arrival but the seller assumes no obligation that the goods will arrive unless the seller has caused the nonarrival; and
   b. where without fault of the seller the goods are in part lost or have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract or arrive after the contract time, the buyer may proceed as if there had been casualty to identified goods (section 554.2613).

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2324]

§554.2325 "Letter of credit" term — "confirmed credit".
1. Failure of the buyer seasonably to furnish an agreed letter of credit is a breach of the contract for sale.
2. The delivery to seller of a proper letter of credit suspends the buyer's obligation to pay. If the letter of credit is dishonored, the seller may on seasonable notification to the buyer require payment directly from the buyer.
3. Unless otherwise agreed the term "letter of credit" or "banker's credit" in a contract for sale means an irrevocable credit issued by a financing agency of good repute and, where the shipment is overseas, of good international repute. The term "confirmed credit" means that the credit must also carry the direct obligation of such an agency which does business in the seller's financial market.

§554.2326 Sale on approval and sale or return — consignment sales and rights of creditors.
1. Unless otherwise agreed, if delivered goods may be returned by the buyer even though they conform to the contract, the transaction is
   a. a "sale on approval" if the goods are delivered primarily for use, and
   b. a "sale or return" if the goods are delivered primarily for resale.
2. Except as provided in subsection 3, goods held on approval are not subject to the claims of the buyer's creditors until acceptance; goods held on sale or return are subject to such claims while in the buyer's possession.
3. Where goods are delivered to a person for sale and such person maintains a place of business at which that person deals in goods of the kind involved, under a name other than the name of the person making delivery, then with respect to claims of creditors of the person conducting the business the goods are deemed to be on sale or return. The provisions of this subsection are applicable even though an agreement purports to reserve title to the person making delivery until payment or resale or uses such words as "on consignment" or "on memorandum". However, this subsection is not applicable if the person making delivery
   a. complies with an applicable law providing for a consignor's interest or the like to be evidenced by a sign, or
   b. establishes that the person conducting the business is generally known by creditors of the person conducting the business to be substantially engaged in selling the goods of others, or
   c. complies with the filing provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9).
4. Any "or return" term of a contract for sale is to be treated as a separate contract for sale within the statute of frauds section of this Article (section 554.2201) and as contradicting the sale aspect of the contract within the provisions of this Article on parol or extrinsic evidence (section 554.2202).

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9948; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.20; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2326]
554.2327 Special incidents of sale on approval and sale or return.
1. Under a sale on approval unless otherwise agreed
   a. although the goods are identified to the contract the risk of loss and the title do not pass to the buyer until acceptance; and
   b. use of the goods consistent with the purpose of trial is not acceptance but failure seasonably to notify the seller of election to return the goods is acceptance, and if the goods conform to the contract acceptance of any part is acceptance of the whole; and
   c. after due notification of election to return, the return is at the seller's risk and expense but a merchant buyer must follow any reasonable instructions.
2. Under a sale or return unless otherwise agreed
   a. the option to return extends to the whole or any commercial unit of the goods while in substantially their original condition, but must be exercised seasonably; and
   b. the return is at the buyer's risk and expense.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9948; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.20; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2327]

554.2328 Sale by auction.
1. In a sale by auction if goods are put up in lots each lot is the subject of a separate sale.
2. A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer so announces by the fall of the hammer or in other customary manner. Where a bid is made while the hammer is falling in acceptance of a prior bid the auctioneer may in the auctioneer's discretion reopen the bidding or declare the goods sold under the bid on which the hammer was falling.
3. Such a sale is with reserve unless the goods are in explicit terms put up without reserve. In an auction with reserve the auctioneer may withdraw the goods at any time until the auctioneer announces completion of the sale. In an auction without reserve, after the auctioneer calls for bids on an article or lot, that article or lot cannot be withdrawn unless no bid is made within a reasonable time. In either case a bidder may retract the bidder's bid until the auctioneer's announcement of completion of the sale, but a bidder's retraction does not revive any previous bid.
4. If the auctioneer knowingly receives a bid on the seller's behalf or the seller makes or procures such a bid, and notice has not been given that liberty for such bidding is reserved, the buyer may at the buyer's option avoid the sale or take the goods at the price of the last good faith bid prior to the completion of the sale. This subsection shall not apply to any bid at a forced sale.

PART 4
TITLE, CREDITORS, AND GOOD FAITH PURCHASERS

554.2401 Passing of title — reservation for security — limited application of this section.
Each provision of this Article with regard to the rights, obligations and remedies of the seller, the buyer, purchasers or other third parties applies irrespective of title to the goods except where the provision refers to such title. Insofar as situations are not covered by the other provisions of this Article and matters concerning title become material the following rules apply:
1. Title to goods cannot pass under a contract for sale prior to their identification to the contract (section 554.2501), and unless otherwise explicitly agreed the buyer acquires by their identification a special property as limited by this chapter. Any retention or reservation by the seller of the title (property) in goods shipped or delivered to the buyer is limited in effect to a reservation of a security interest. Subject to these provisions and to the provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9), title to goods passes from the seller to the buyer in any manner and on any conditions explicitly agreed on by the parties.
2. Unless otherwise explicitly agreed title passes to the buyer at the time and place at which the seller completes the seller's performance with reference to the physical delivery of the goods, despite any reservation of a security interest and even though a document of title is to be delivered at a different time or place; and in particular and despite any reservation of a security interest by the bill of lading
   a. if the contract requires or authorizes the seller to send the goods to the buyer but does not require the seller to deliver them at destination, title passes to the buyer at the time and place of shipment; but
   b. if the contract requires delivery at destination, title passes on tender there.
3. Unless otherwise explicitly agreed where delivery is to be made without moving the goods,
   a. if the seller is to deliver a document of title, title passes at the time when and the place where the seller delivers such documents; or
   b. if the goods are at the time of contracting already identified and no documents are to be delivered, title passes at the time and place of contracting.
4. A rejection or other refusal by the buyer to receive or retain the goods, whether or not justified, or a justified revocation of acceptance revests title to the goods in the seller. Such revesting occurs by operation of law and is not a "sale".

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9946—9949; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.18–554.21; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2401]

554.2402 Rights of seller's creditors against sold goods.
1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3, rights of unsecured creditors of the seller with respect to goods which have been identified to a contract for sale are subject to the buyer's rights to recover the goods under this Article (sections 554.2502 and 554.2716).
2. A creditor of the seller may treat a sale or an identification of goods to a contract for sale as void if as against the creditor a retention of possession by the seller is fraudulent under any rule of law of the state where the goods are situated, except that retention of possession in good faith and current course of trade by a merchant-seller for a commercially reasonable time after a sale or identification is not fraudulent.

3. Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to impair the rights of creditors of the seller
   a. under the provisions of the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9); or
   b. where identification to the contract or delivery is made not in current course of trade but in satisfaction of or as security for a pre-existing claim for money, security or the like and is made under circumstances which under any rule of law of the state where the goods are situated would apart from this Article constitute the transaction a fraudulent transfer or voidable preference.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9955; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.27; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2402]

554.2403 Power to transfer — good faith purchase of goods — “entrusting”.

1. A purchaser of goods acquires all title which the purchaser’s transferee had or had power to transfer except that a purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. A person with voidable title has power to transfer a good title to a good faith purchaser for value. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase the purchaser has such power even though
   a. the transferee was deceived as to the identity of the purchaser, or
   b. the delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored, or
   c. it was agreed that the transaction was to be a “cash sale”, or
   d. the delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.

2. Any entrusting of possession of goods to a merchant who deals in goods of that kind gives the merchant power to transfer all rights of the entruster to a buyer in ordinary course of business.

3. “Entrusting” includes any delivery and any acquiescence in retention of possession regardless of any condition expressed between the parties to the delivery or acquiescence and regardless of whether the procurement of the entrusting or the possessor’s disposition of the goods have been such as to be larcenous under the criminal law.

4. The rights of other purchasers of goods and of lien creditors are governed by the Articles on Secured Transactions (Article 9), Bulk Transfers (Article 6) and Documents of Title (Article 7).

554.2502 Buyer’s right to goods on seller’s insolvency.

1. Subject to subsection 2 and even though the goods have not been shipped a buyer who has paid a part or all of the price of goods in which the buyer has a special property under the provisions of the immediately preceding section may on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of their price recover them from the seller if the seller becomes insolvent within ten days after receipt of the first installment on their price.

2. If the identification creating the buyer’s special property has been made by the buyer, the buyer acquires the right to recover the goods only if they conform to the contract for sale.

554.2503 Manner of seller’s tender of delivery.

1. Tender of delivery requires that the seller put and hold conforming goods at the buyer’s disposition
UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE, §554.2507

and give the buyer any notification reasonably necessary to enable the buyer to take delivery. The manner, time and place for tender are determined by the agreement and this Article, and in particular

a. tender must be at a reasonable hour, and if it is of goods they must be kept available for the period reasonably necessary to enable the buyer to take possession; but

b. unless otherwise agreed the buyer must furnish facilities reasonably suited to the receipt of the goods.

2. Where the case is within the next section respecting shipment tender requires that the seller comply with its provisions.

3. Where the seller is required to deliver at a particular destination tender requires that the seller comply with subsection 1 and also in any appropriate case tender documents as described in subsections 4 and 5 of this section.

4. Where goods are in the possession of a bailee and are to be delivered without being moved

a. tender requires that the seller either tender a negotiable document of title covering such goods or procure acknowledgment by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; but

b. tender to the buyer of a nonnegotiable document of title or of a written direction to the bailee to deliver is sufficient tender unless the buyer seasonably objects, and receipt by the bailee of notification of the buyer's rights fixes those rights as against the bailee and all third persons; but risk of loss of the goods and of any failure by the bailee to honor the nonnegotiable document of title or to obey the direction remains on the seller until the buyer has had a reasonable time to present the document or direction, and a refusal by the bailee to honor the document or to obey the direction defeats the tender.

5. Where the contract requires the seller to deliver documents

a. the seller must tender all such documents in correct form except as provided in this Article with respect to bills of lading in a set (subsection 2 of section 554.2323); and

b. tender through customary banking channels is sufficient and dishonor of a draft accompanying the documents constitutes nonacceptance or rejection.

[a. the seller's procurement of a negotiable bill of lading to the seller's own order or otherwise reserves in the seller a security interest in the goods. The seller's procurement of the bill to the order of a financing agency or of the buyer indicates in addition only the seller's expectation of transferring that interest to the person named.

b. a nonnegotiable bill of lading naming the buyer as consignee reserves no security interest even though the seller retains possession of the bill of lading.

2. When shipment by the seller with reservation of a security interest is in violation of the contract for sale it constitutes an improper contract for transportation within the preceding section but impairs neither the rights given to the buyer by shipment and identification of the goods to the contract nor the seller's powers as a holder of a negotiable document.

[c. promptly notify the buyer of the shipment. Failure to notify the buyer under paragraph "c" or to make a proper contract under paragraph "a" is a ground for rejection only if material delay or loss ensues.

554.2505 Seller's shipment under reservation.

1. Where the seller has identified goods to the contract by or before shipment:

a. the seller's procurement of a negotiable bill of lading to the seller's own order or otherwise reserves in the seller a security interest in the goods which was apparently regular on its face.

[b. promptly notify the buyer of the shipment. Failure to notify the buyer under paragraph “c” or to make a proper contract under paragraph “a” is a ground for rejection only if material delay or loss ensues.

[§24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9975; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.47; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2504]

554.2506 Rights of financing agency.

1. A financing agency by paying or purchasing for value a draft which relates to a shipment of goods acquires to the extent of the payment or purchase and in addition to its own rights under the draft and any document of title securing it any rights of the shipper in the goods including the right to stop delivery and the shipper's right to have the draft honored by the buyer.

2. The right to reimbursement of a financing agency which has in good faith honored or purchased the draft under commitment to or authority from the buyer is not impaired by subsequent discovery of defects with reference to any relevant document which was apparently regular on its face.

554.2507 Effect of seller's tender — delivery on condition.

1. Tender of delivery is a condition to the buyer's duty to accept the goods and, unless otherwise agreed, to the buyer's duty to pay for them. Tender entitles the seller to acceptance of the goods and to payment according to the contract.
2. Where payment is due and demanded on the delivery to the buyer of goods or documents of title, the buyer's right as against the seller to retain or dispose of them is conditional upon the buyer's making the payment due.

[§554.2507, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE 3880]

554.2508 Cure by seller of improper tender or delivery — replacement.
1. Where any tender or delivery by the seller is rejected because nonconforming and the time for performance has not yet expired, the seller may seasonably notify the buyer of the seller's intention to cure and may then within the contract time make a conforming delivery.
2. Where the buyer rejects a nonconforming tender which the seller had reasonable grounds to believe would be acceptable with or without money allowance the seller may if the seller seasonably notifies the buyer have a further reasonable time to substitute a conforming tender.

[§554.2508]

554.2509 Risk of loss in the absence of breach.
1. Where the contract requires or authorizes the seller to ship the goods by carrier
   a. if it does not require the seller to deliver them at a particular destination, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier even though the shipment is under reservation (section 554.2505); but
   b. if it does require the seller to deliver them at a particular destination and the goods are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the buyer to take delivery.
2. Where the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of loss passes to the buyer
   a. on the buyer's receipt of a negotiable document of title covering the goods; or
   b. on acknowledgment by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; or
   c. after the buyer's receipt of a nonnegotiable document of title or other written direction to deliver, as provided in subsection 4 "b" of section 554.2503.
3. In any case not within subsection 1 or 2, the risk of loss passes to the buyer on the buyer's receipt of the goods if the seller is a merchant; otherwise the risk passes to the buyer on tender of delivery.
4. The provisions of this section are subject to contrary agreement of the parties and to the provisions of this Article on sale on approval (section 554.2327) and on effect of breach on risk of loss (section 554.2510).

554.2510 Effect of breach on risk of loss.
1. Where a tender or delivery of goods so fails to conform to the contract as to give a right of rejection the risk of their loss remains on the seller until cure or acceptance.
2. Where the buyer rightfully revokes acceptance the buyer may to the extent of any deficiency in the buyer's effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as having rested on the seller from the beginning.
3. Where the buyer as to conforming goods already identified to the contract for sale repudiates or is otherwise in breach before risk of their loss has passed to the buyer, the seller may to the extent of any deficiency in the seller's effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as resting on the buyer for a commercially reasonable time.

554.2511 Tender of payment by buyer — payment by check.
1. Unless otherwise agreed tender of payment is a condition to the seller's duty to tender and complete any delivery.
2. Tender of payment is sufficient when made by any means or in any manner current in the ordinary course of business unless the seller demands payment in legal tender and gives any extension of time reasonably necessary to procure it.
3. Subject to the provisions of this chapter on the effect of an instrument on an obligation (section 554.3802), payment by check is conditional and is defeated as between the parties by dishonor of the check on due presentment.

554.2512 Payment by buyer before inspection.
1. Where the contract requires payment before inspection nonconformity of the goods does not excuse the buyer from so making payment unless
   a. the nonconformity appears without inspection; or
   b. despite tender of the required documents the circumstances would justify injunction against honor under the provisions of this chapter (section 554.5114).
2. Payment pursuant to subsection 1 does not constitute an acceptance of goods or impair the buyer's right to inspect or any of the buyer's remedies.

554.2513 Buyer's right to inspection of goods.
1. Unless otherwise agreed and subject to subsection 3, where goods are tendered or delivered or identified to the contract for sale, the buyer has a right before payment or acceptance to inspect them at any reasonable place and time and in any reasonable manner. When the seller is required or authorized to send the goods to the buyer, the inspection may be after their arrival.
2. Expenses of inspection must be borne by the buyer but may be recovered from the seller if the goods do not conform and are rejected.

3. Unless otherwise agreed and subject to the provisions of this Article on C.I.F. contracts (subsection 3 of section 554.2321), the buyer is not entitled to inspect the goods before payment of the price when the contract provides

a. for delivery "C.O.D." or on other like terms; or
b. for payment against documents of title, except where such payment is due only after the goods are to become available for inspection.

4. A place or method of inspection fixed by the parties is presumed to be exclusive but unless otherwise expressly agreed it does not postpone identification or shift the place for delivery or for passing the risk of loss. If compliance becomes impossible, inspection shall be as provided in this section unless the place or method fixed was clearly intended as an indispensable condition failure of which avoids the contract.

554.2514 When documents deliverable on acceptance — when on payment.

Unless otherwise agreed documents against which a draft is drawn are to be delivered to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment.

554.2515 Preserving evidence of goods in dispute.

In furtherance of the adjustment of any claim or dispute

a. either party on reasonable notification to the other and for the purpose of ascertaining the facts and preserving evidence has the right to inspect, test and sample the goods including such of them as may be in the possession or control of the other; and
b. the parties may agree to a third party inspection or survey to determine the conformity or condition of the goods and may agree that the findings shall be binding upon them in any subsequent litigation or adjustment.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2515]

PART 6

BREACH, REPUDIATION, AND EXCUSE

554.2601 Buyer’s rights on improper delivery.

Subject to the provisions of this Article on breach in installment contracts (section 554.2612) and unless otherwise agreed under the sections on contractual limitations of remedy (sections 554.2718 and 554.2719), if the goods or the tender of delivery fail in any respect to conform to the contract, the buyer may

a. reject the whole; or
b. accept the whole; or
c. accept any commercial unit or units and reject the rest.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9940, 9973, 9998; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.12, 554.45, 554.70; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2601]

554.2602 Manner and effect of rightful rejection.

1. Rejection of goods must be within a reasonable time after their delivery or tender. It is ineffective unless the buyer seasonably notifies the seller.

2. Subject to the provisions of the two following sections on rejected goods (sections 554.2603 and 554.2604),

a. after rejection any exercise of ownership by the buyer with respect to any commercial unit is wrongful as against the seller; and
b. if the buyer has before rejection taken physical possession of goods in which the buyer does not have a security interest under the provisions of this Article (subsection 3 of section 554.2711), the buyer is under a duty after rejection to hold them with reasonable care at the seller’s disposition for a time sufficient to permit the seller to remove them; but

c. the buyer has no further obligations with regard to goods rightfully rejected.

3. The seller’s rights with respect to goods wrongfully rejected are governed by the provisions of this Article on Seller’s remedies in general (section 554.2703).

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9979; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.51; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2602]

554.2603 Merchant buyer’s duties as to rightfully rejected goods.

1. Subject to any security interest in the buyer (subsection 3 of section 554.2711), when the seller has no agent or place of business at the market of rejection a merchant buyer is under a duty after rejection of goods in the merchant buyer’s possession or control to follow any reasonable instructions received from the seller with respect to the goods and in the absence of such instructions to make reasonable efforts to sell them for the seller’s account if they are perishable or threaten to decline in value speedily. Instructions are not reasonable if on demand indemnity for expenses is not forthcoming.

2. When the buyer sells goods under subsection 1, that buyer is entitled to reimbursement from the seller or out of the proceeds for reasonable expenses of caring for and selling them, and if the expenses include no selling commission then to such commission as is usual in the trade or if there is none to a reasonable sum not exceeding ten percent on the gross proceeds.

3. In complying with this section the buyer is held only to good faith and good faith conduct hereunder is neither acceptance nor conversion nor the basis of an action for damages.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2603]

554.2604 Buyer’s options as to salvage of rightfully rejected goods.

Subject to the provisions of the immediately preceeding section on perishables if the seller gives no instructions within a reasonable time after notification of rejection the buyer may store the rejected goods for the seller’s account or reship them to the seller or resell them for the seller’s account with reimbursement as provided in the preceding section. Such action is not acceptance or conversion. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2604]

§554.2605 Waiver of buyer’s objections by failure to particularize.
1. The buyer’s failure to state in connection with rejection a particular defect which is ascertainable by reasonable inspection precludes the buyer from relying on the unstated defect to justify rejection or to establish breach
   a. where the seller could have cured it if stated seasonably; or
   b. between merchants when the seller has after rejection made a request in writing for a full and final written statement of all defects on which the buyer proposes to rely.
2. Payment against documents made without reservation of rights precludes recovery of the payment for defects apparent on the face of the documents. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2605]

§554.2606 What constitutes acceptance of goods.
1. Acceptance of goods occurs when the buyer
   a. after a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods signifies to the seller that the goods are conforming or that the buyer will take or retain them in spite of their nonconformity; or
   b. fails to make an effective rejection (subsection 1 of section 554.2602), but such acceptance does not occur until the buyer has had a reasonable opportunity to inspect them; or
   c. does any act inconsistent with the seller’s ownership; but if such act is wrongful as against the seller it is an acceptance only if ratified by the seller.
2. Acceptance of a part of any commercial unit is acceptance of that entire unit. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2606]

§554.2607 Effect of acceptance — notice of breach — burden of establishing breach after acceptance — notice of claim or litigation to person answerable over.
1. The buyer must pay at the contract rate for any goods accepted.
2. Acceptance of goods by the buyer precludes rejection of the goods accepted and if made with knowledge of a nonconformity cannot be revoked because of it unless the acceptance was on the reasonable assumption that the nonconformity would be seasonably cured but acceptance does not of itself impair any other remedy provided by this Article for nonconformity.
3. Where a tender has been accepted.
   a. the buyer must within a reasonable time after the buyer discovers or should have discovered any breach notify the seller of breach or be barred from any remedy; and
   b. if the claim is one for infringement or the like (subsection 3 of section 554.2312) and the buyer is sued as a result of such a breach the buyer must so notify the seller within a reasonable time after the buyer receives notice of the litigation or be barred from any remedy over for liability established by the litigation.
4. The burden is on the buyer to establish any breach with respect to the goods accepted.
5. Where the buyer is sued for breach of a warranty or other obligation for which the buyer’s seller is answerable over
   a. the buyer may give the buyer’s seller written notice of the litigation. If the notice states that the seller may come in and defend and that if the seller does not do so the seller will be bound in any action against the seller by the seller’s buyer by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless the seller after seasonable receipt of the notice does come in and defend the seller is so bound.
   b. if the claim is one for infringement or the like (subsection 3 of section 554.2312) the original seller may demand in writing that the seller’s buyer turn over to the seller control of the litigation including settlement or else be barred from any remedy over and if the seller also agrees to bear all expense and to satisfy any adverse judgment, then unless the buyer after seasonable receipt of the demand does turn over control the buyer is so barred.
6. The provisions of subsections 3, 4 and 5 apply to any obligation of a buyer to hold the seller harmless against infringement or the like (subsection 3 of section 554.2312). [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9977; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.42, 554.50, 554.70; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2607]

§554.2608 Revocation of acceptance in whole or in part.
1. The buyer may revoke the buyer’s acceptance of a lot or commercial unit whose nonconformity substantially impairs its value to the buyer if the buyer has accepted it
   a. on the reasonable assumption that its nonconformity would be cured and it has not been seasonably cured; or
   b. without discovery of such nonconformity if the buyer’s acceptance was reasonably induced either by the difficulty of discovery before acceptance or by the seller’s assurances.
2. Revocation of acceptance must occur within a reasonable time after the buyer discovers or should have discovered the ground for it and before any substantial change in condition of the goods which is not caused by their own defects. It is not effective until the buyer notifies the seller of it.
3. A buyer who so revokes has the same rights and duties with regard to the goods involved as if the buyer had rejected them. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9978; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.70; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2608]
554.2609 Right to adequate assurance of performance.
1. A contract for sale imposes an obligation on each party that the other's expectation of receiving due performance will not be impaired. When reasonable grounds for insecurity arise with respect to the performance of either party the other may in writing demand adequate assurance of due performance and until that party receives such assurance may if commercially reasonable suspend any performance for which that party has not already received the agreed return.
2. Between merchants the reasonableness of grounds for insecurity and the adequacy of any assurance offered shall be determined according to commercial standards.
3. Acceptance of any improper delivery or payment does not prejudice the aggrieved party's right to demand adequate assurance of future performance.
4. After receipt of a justified demand failure to provide within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days such assurance of due performance as is adequate under the circumstances of the particular case is a repudiation of the contract.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9982–9984, 9992; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.54–554.56, 554.64; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2609]

554.2610 Anticipatory repudiation.
When either party repudiates the contract with respect to a performance not yet due the loss of which will substantially impair the value of the contract to the other, the aggrieved party may
a. for a commercially reasonable time await performance by the repudiating party; or
b. resort to any remedy for breach (section 554.2703 or 554.2711), even though the aggrieved party has notified the repudiating party that the aggrieved party would await the latter's performance and has urged retraction; and
c. in either case suspend the aggrieved party's own performance or proceed in accordance with the provisions of this Article on the seller's right to identify goods to the contract notwithstanding breach or to salvage unfinished goods (section 554.2704).
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9992, 9994; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.64, 554.66; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2610]

554.2611 Retraction of anticipatory repudiation.
1. Until the repudiating party's next performance is due the repudiating party can retract the repudiation unless the aggrieved party has since the repudiation canceled or materially changed the aggrieved party's position or otherwise indicated that the aggrieved party considers the repudiation final.
2. Retraction may be by any method which clearly indicates to the aggrieved party that the repudiating party intends to perform, but must include any assurance justifiably demanded under the provisions of this Article (section 554.2609).
3. Retraction reinstates the repudiating party's rights under the contract with due excuse and allowance to the aggrieved party for any delay occasioned by the repudiation.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2611]

554.2612 “Installment contract” — breach.
1. An “installment contract” is one which requires or authorizes the delivery of goods in separate lots to be separately accepted, even though the contract contains a clause “each delivery is a separate contract” or its equivalent.
2. The buyer may reject any installment which is nonconforming if the nonconformity substantially impairs the value of that installment and cannot be cured or if the nonconformity is a defect in the required documents; but if the nonconformity does not fall within subsection 3 and the seller gives adequate assurance of its cure the buyer must accept that installment.
3. Whenever nonconformity or default with respect to one or more installments substantially impairs the value of the whole contract there is a breach of the whole. But the aggrieved party reinstates the contract if the aggrieved party accepts a nonconforming installment without seasonably notifying of cancellation or if the aggrieved party brings an action with respect only to past installments or demands performance as to future installments.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9974; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.46; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2612]

554.2613 Casualty to identified goods.
Where the contract requires for its performance goods identified when the contract is made, and the goods suffer casualty without fault of either party before the risk of loss passes to the buyer, or in a proper case under a “no arrival, no sale” term (section 554.2324) then
a. if the loss is total the contract is avoided; and
b. if the loss is partial or the goods have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract the buyer may nevertheless demand inspection and at the buyer's option either treat the contract as avoided or accept the goods with due allowance from the contract price for the deterioration or the deficiency in quantity but without further right against the seller.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9936, 9937; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.8, 554.9; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2613]

554.2614 Substituted performance.
1. Where without fault of either party the agreed berthing, loading, or unloading facilities fail or an agreed type of carrier becomes unavailable or the agreed manner of delivery otherwise becomes commercially impracticable but a commercially reasonable substitute is available, such substitute performance must be tendered and accepted.
2. If the agreed means or manner of payment fails because of domestic or foreign governmental regulation, the seller may withhold or stop delivery unless the buyer provides a means or manner of payment which is commercially a substantial equivalent. If delivery has already been taken, payment by the means or in the manner provided by the regulation discharges the buyer’s obligation unless the regulation is discriminatory, oppressive or predatory.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2614]

§554.2615 Excuse by failure of presupposed conditions.

Except so far as a seller may have assumed a greater obligation and subject to the preceding section on substituted performance:

a. Delay in delivery or nondelivery in whole or in part by a seller who complies with paragraphs “b” and “c” is not a breach of the seller’s duty under a contract for sale if performance as agreed has been made impracticable by the occurrence of a contingency the nonoccurrence of which was a basic assumption on which the contract was made or by compliance in good faith with any applicable foreign or domestic governmental regulation or order whether or not it later proves to be invalid.

b. Where the causes mentioned in paragraph “a” affect only a part of the seller’s capacity to perform, the seller must allocate production and deliveries among the seller’s customers but may at the seller’s option include regular customers not then under contract as well as the seller’s own requirements for further manufacture. The seller may so allocate in any manner which is fair and reasonable.

c. The seller must notify the buyer seasonably that there will be delay or nondelivery and, when allocation is required under paragraph “b”, of the estimated quota thus made available for the buyer.

§554.2616 Procedure on notice claiming excuse.

1. Where the buyer receives notification of a material or indefinite delay or an allocation justified under the preceding section the buyer may by written notification to the seller as to any delivery concerned, and where the prospective deficiency substantially impairs the value of the whole contract under the provisions of this Article relating to breach of installment contracts (section 554.2612), then also as to the whole,

a. terminate and thereby discharge any unexecuted portion of the contract; or

b. modify the contract by agreeing to take the buyer’s available quota in substitution.

2. If after receipt of such notification from the seller the buyer fails so to modify the contract within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days the contract lapses with respect to any deliveries affected.

3. The provisions of this section may not be negated by agreement except insofar as the seller has assumed a greater obligation under the preceding section.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2616]
a. identify to the contract conforming goods not already identified if at the time the seller learned of the breach they are in the seller's possession or control;
b. treat as the subject of resale goods which have demonstrably been intended for the particular contract even though those goods are unfinished.

2. Where the goods are unfinished an aggrieved seller may in the exercise of reasonable commercial judgment for the purposes of avoiding loss and of effective realization either complete the manufacture and wholly identify the goods to the contract or cease manufacture and resell for scrap or salvage value or proceed in any other reasonable manner. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9989, 9993; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.64, 554.65; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2704]

554.2705 Seller's stoppage of delivery in transit or otherwise.
1. The seller may stop delivery of goods in the possession of a carrier or other bailee when the seller discovers the buyer to be insolvent (section 554.2702) and may stop delivery of carload, truckload, planeload or larger shipments of express or freight when the buyer repudiates or fails to make a payment due before delivery or if for any other reason the seller has a right to withhold or reclaim the goods.
2. As against such buyer the seller may stop delivery until
   a. receipt of the goods by the buyer; or
   b. acknowledgment to the buyer by any bailee of the goods except a carrier that the bailee holds the goods for the buyer; or
   c. such acknowledgment to the buyer by a carrier by reshipment or as warehouse operator; or
   d. negotiation to the buyer of any negotiable document of title covering the goods.
3. a. To stop delivery the seller must so notify as to enable the bailee by reasonable diligence to prevent delivery of the goods.
   b. After such notification the bailee must hold and deliver the goods according to the directions of the seller but the seller is liable to the bailee for any ensuing charges or damages.
   c. If a negotiable document of title has been issued for goods the bailee is not obliged to obey a notification to stop until surrender of the document.
   d. A carrier who has issued a nonnegotiable bill of lading is not obliged to obey a notification to stop received from a person other than the consignor. [S13, §313-a9, -a11, -a49, -b11, -b13, -b41; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8256, 8258, 8286, 9699, 9671, 9709, 9986-9988; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487.12, 487.14, 487.42, 542.9, 542.11, 542.49, 554.58-554.60; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2705]

554.2706 Seller's resale including contract for resale.
1. Under the conditions stated in section 554.2703 on seller's remedies, the seller may resell the goods concerned or the undelivered balance thereof. Where the resale is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner the seller may recover the difference between the resale price and the contract price together with any incidental damages allowed under the provisions of this Article (section 554.2710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer's breach.
2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3 or unless otherwise agreed resale may be at public or private sale including sale by way of one or more contracts to sell or of identification to an existing contract of the seller. Sale may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the sale including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable. The resale must be reasonably identified as referring to the broken contract, but it is not necessary that the goods be in existence or that any or all of them have been identified to the contract before the breach.
3. Where the resale is at private sale the seller must give the buyer reasonable notification of the seller's intention to resell.
4. Where the resale is at public sale
   a. only identified goods can be sold except where there is a recognized market for a public sale of futures in goods of the kind; and
   b. it must be made at a usual place or market for public sale if one is reasonably available and except in the case of goods which are perishable or threaten to decline in value speedily the seller must give the buyer reasonable notice of the time and place of the resale; and
   c. if the goods are not to be within the view of those attending the sale the notification of sale must state the place where the goods are located and provide for their reasonable inspection by prospective bidders; and
   d. the seller may buy.
5. A purchaser who buys in good faith at a resale takes the goods free of any rights of the original buyer even though the seller fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of this section.
6. The seller is not accountable to the buyer for any profit made on any resale. A person in the position of a seller (section 554.2707) or a buyer who has rightfully rejected or justifiably revoked acceptance must account for any excess over the amount of that person's security interest, as hereinafter defined (subsection 3 of section 554.2711). [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9989; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.61; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2706]

554.2707 “Person in the position of a seller”.
1. A “person in the position of a seller” includes as against a principal an agent who has paid or become responsible for the price of goods on behalf of the agent’s principal or anyone who otherwise holds a security interest or other right in goods similar to that of a seller.
2. A person in the position of a seller may as provided in this Article withhold or stop delivery (section 554.2705) and resell (section 554.2706) and recover incidental damages (section 554.2710). [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9981; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.53; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2707]
554.2708 Seller's damages for nonacceptance or repudiation.

1. Subject to subsection 2 and to the provisions of this Article with respect to proof of market price (section 554.2723), the measure of damages for nonacceptance or repudiation by the buyer is the difference between the market price at the time and place for tender and the unpaid contract price together with any incidental damages provided in this Article (section 554.2710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer's breach.

2. If the measure of damages provided in subsection 1 is inadequate to put the seller in as good a position as performance would have done then the measure of damages is the profit (including reasonable overhead) which the seller would have made from full performance by the buyer, together with any incidental damages provided in this Article (section 554.2710), due allowance for costs reasonably incurred and due credit for payments or proceeds of resale.

554.2709 Action for the price.

1. When the buyer fails to pay the price as it becomes due the seller may recover, together with any incidental damages under the next section, the price

a. of goods accepted or of conforming goods lost or damaged within a commercially reasonable time after risk of their loss has passed to the buyer; and

b. of goods identified to the contract if the seller is unable after reasonable effort to resell them at a reasonable price or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing.

2. Where the seller sues for the price the seller must hold for the buyer any goods which have been identified to the contract and are still in the seller's control except that if resale becomes possible the seller may resell them at any time prior to the collection of the judgment. The net proceeds of any such resale must be credited to the buyer and payment of the judgment entitles the buyer to any goods not resold.

3. After the buyer has wrongfully rejected or revoked acceptance of the goods or has failed to make a payment due or has repudiated (section 554.2610), a seller who is held not entitled to the price under this section shall nevertheless be awarded damages for nonacceptance under the preceding section.

554.2710 Seller's incidental damages.

Incidental damages to an aggrieved seller include any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions incurred in stopping delivery, in the transportation, care and custody of goods after the buyer's breach, in connection with return or resale of the goods or otherwise resulting from the breach.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9993, §9999; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.65, 554.71; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2710]

554.2711 Buyer's remedies in general — buyer's security interest in rejected goods.

1. Where the seller fails to make delivery or repudiates or the buyer rightfully rejects or justifiably revokes acceptance then with respect to any goods involved, and with respect to the whole if the breach goes to the whole contract (section 554.2612), the buyer may cancel and whether or not the buyer has done so may in addition to recovering so much of the price as has been paid

a. "cover" and have damages under the next section as to all the goods affected whether or not they have been identified to the contract; or

b. recover damages for nondelivery as provided in this Article (section 554.2713).

2. Where the seller fails to deliver or repudiates the buyer may also

a. if the goods have been identified recover them as provided in this Article (section 554.2502); or

b. in a proper case obtain specific performance or replevy the goods as provided in this Article (section 554.2716).

3. On rightful rejection or justifiable revocation of acceptance a buyer has a security interest in goods in the buyer's possession or control for any payments made on their price and any expenses reasonably incurred in their inspection, receipt, transportation, care and custody and may hold such goods and resell them in like manner as an aggrieved seller (section 554.2706).

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9998; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.70; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2711]

554.2712 "Cover" — buyer's procurement of substitute goods.

1. After a breach within the preceding section the buyer may "cover" by making in good faith and without unreasonable delay any reasonable purchase of or contract to purchase goods in substitution for those due from the seller.

2. The buyer may recover from the seller as damages the difference between the cost of cover and the contract price together with any incidental or consequential damages as hereinafter defined (section 554.2715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller's breach.

3. Failure of the buyer to effect cover within this section does not bar the buyer from any other remedy.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2712]

554.2713 Buyer's damages for nondelivery or repudiation.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Article with respect to proof of market price (section 554.2723), the measure of damages for nondelivery or repudiation by the seller is the difference between the market price at the time when the buyer learned of the breach and the contract price together with any incidental and consequential damages provided in this Article (section 554.2715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller's breach.

2. Market price is to be determined as of the place for tender or, in cases of rejection after arrival or revocation of acceptance, as of the place of arrival. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9996; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.68; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2713] 554.2714 Buyer’s damages for breach in regard to accepted goods. 1. Where the buyer has accepted goods and given notification (subsection 3 of section 554.2607) the buyer may recover as damages for any nonconformity of the tender the loss resulting in the ordinary course of events from the seller’s breach as determined in any manner which is reasonable. 2. The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the difference at the time and place of acceptance between the value of the goods accepted and the value they would have had if they had been as warranted, unless special circumstances show proximate damages of a different amount. 3. In a proper case any incidental and consequential damages under the next section may also be recovered. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9998; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.70; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2714] 554.2715 Buyer’s incidental and consequential damages. 1. Incidental damages resulting from the seller’s breach include expenses reasonably incurred in inspection, receipt, transportation and care and custody of goods rightfully rejected, any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions in connection with effecting cover and any other reasonable expense incident to the delay or other breach. 2. Consequential damages resulting from the seller’s breach include: a. any loss resulting from general or particular requirements and needs of which the seller at the time of contracting had reason to know and which could not reasonably be prevented by cover or otherwise; and b. injury to person or property proximately resulting from any breach of warranty. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9998, §9999; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.70, 554.71; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2715] 554.2716 Buyer’s right to specific performance or replevin. 1. Specific performance may be decreed where the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances. 2. The decree for specific performance may include such terms and conditions as to payment of the price, damages, or other relief as the court may deem just. 3. The buyer has a right of replevin for goods identified to the contract if after reasonable effort the buyer is unable to effect cover for such goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing or if the goods have been shipped under reservation and satisfaction of the security interest in them has been made or tendered. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9995, §9997; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.67, 554.69; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2716] 554.2717 Deduction of damages from the price. The buyer on notifying the seller of the buyer’s intention to do so may deduct all or any part of the damages resulting from any breach of the contract from any part of the price still due under the same contract. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9998; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.70; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2717] 554.2718 Liquidation or limitation of damages — deposits. 1. Damages for breach by either party may be liquidated in the agreement but only at an amount which is reasonable in the light of the anticipated or actual harm caused by the breach, the difficulties of proof of loss, and the inconvenience or nonfeasibility of otherwise obtaining an adequate remedy. A term fixing unreasonably large liquidated damages is void as a penalty. 2. Where the seller justifiably withholds delivery of goods because of the buyer’s breach, the buyer is entitled to restitution of any amount by which the sum of the buyer’s payments exceeds: a. the amount to which the seller is entitled by virtue of terms liquidating the seller’s damages in accordance with subsection 1, or b. in the absence of such terms, twenty percent of the value of the total performance for which the buyer is obligated under the contract or five hundred dollars, whichever is smaller. 3. The buyer’s right to restitution under subsection 2 is subject to offset to the extent that the seller establishes: a. a right to recover damages under the provisions of this Article other than subsection 1, and b. the amount or value of any benefits received by the buyer directly or indirectly by reason of the contract. 4. Where a seller has received payment in goods their reasonable value or the proceeds of their resale shall be treated as payments for the purposes of subsection 2; but if the seller has notice of the buyer’s breach before reselling goods received in part performance, the seller’s resale is subject to the conditions laid down in this Article on resale by an aggrieved seller (section 554.2706). [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.2718] 554.2719 Contractual modification or limitation of remedy. 1. Subject to the provisions of subsections 2 and 3 of this section and of the preceding section on liquidation and limitation of damages, a. the agreement may provide for remedies in addition to or in substitution for those provided in this Article and may limit or alter the measure of damages recoverable under this Article, as by limiting the buyer’s remedies to return of the goods and repayment of the price or to repair and replacement of nonconforming goods or parts; and b. resort to a remedy as provided is optional unless the remedy is expressly agreed to be exclusive, in which case it is the sole remedy.
2. Where circumstances cause an exclusive or limited remedy to fail of its essential purpose, remedy may be had as provided in this chapter.
3. Consequential damages may be limited or excluded unless the limitation or exclusion is unconscionable. Limitation of consequential damages for injury to the person in the case of consumer goods is prima-facie unconscionable but limitation of damages where the loss is commercial is not.

554.2720 Effect of “cancellation” or “rescission” on claims for antecedent breach.

Unless the contrary intention clearly appears, expressions of “cancellation” or “rescission” of the contract or the like shall not be construed as a renunciation or discharge of any claim in damages for an antecedent breach.

554.2721 Remedies for fraud.

Remedies for material misrepresentation or fraud include all remedies available under this Article for nonfraudulent breach. Neither rescission or a claim for rescission of the contract for sale nor rejection or return of the goods shall bar or be deemed inconsistent with a claim for damages or other remedy.

554.2722 Who can sue third parties for injury to goods.

Where a third party so deals with goods which have been identified to a contract for sale as to cause actionable injury to a party to that contract

a. a right of action against the third party is in either party to the contract for sale who has title to or a security interest or a special property or an insurable interest in the goods; and if the goods have been destroyed or converted a right of action is also in the party who either bore the risk of loss under the contract for sale or has since the injury assumed that risk as against the other;

b. if at the time of the injury the party plaintiff did not bear the risk of loss as against the other party to the contract for sale and there is no arrangement between them for disposition of the recovery, the plaintiff’s suit or settlement is, subject to plaintiff’s own interest, as a fiduciary for the other party to the contract;

c. either party may with the consent of the other sue for the benefit of whom it may concern.

554.2723 Proof of market price — time and place.

1. If an action based on anticipatory repudiation comes to trial before the time for performance with respect to some or all of the goods, any damages based on market price (section 554.2708 or 554.2713) shall be determined according to the price of such goods prevailing at the time when the aggrieved party learned of the repudiation.

2. If evidence of a price prevailing at the times or places described in this Article is not readily available the price prevailing within any reasonable time before or after the time described or at any other place which in commercial judgment or under usage of trade would serve as a reasonable substitute for the one described may be used, making any proper allowance for the cost of transporting the goods to or from such other place.

3. Evidence of a relevant price prevailing at a time or place other than the one described in this Article offered by one party is not admissible unless and until that party has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise.

554.2724 Admissibility of market quotations.

If the prevailing price or value of goods regularly bought and sold in an established commodity market is in issue, reports in official publications or trade journals or in newspapers or periodicals of general circulation published as the reports of that market are admissible in evidence. The circumstances of the preparation of such a report may be shown to affect its weight but not its admissibility. Reports are also admissible under Iowa rule of evidence 803(17).

554.2725 Statute of limitations in contracts for sale.*

1. By the original agreement the parties may reduce the period of limitation to not less than one year but may not extend it.

2. A cause of action accrues when the breach occurs, regardless of the aggrieved party’s lack of knowledge of the breach. A breach of warranty occurs when tender of delivery is made, except that where a warranty explicitly extends to future performance of the goods and discovery of the breach must await the time of such performance the cause of action accrues when the breach is or should have been discovered.

3. Where an action commenced within the time limited by law* or by agreement as provided in subsection 1 is so terminated as to leave available a remedy by another action for the same breach such other action may be commenced after the expiration of the time limited and within six months after the termination of the first action unless the termination resulted from voluntary discontinuance or from dismissal for failure or neglect to prosecute.

4. This section does not alter the law on tolling of the statute of limitations nor does it apply to causes of action which have accrued before this chapter becomes effective.

COMMERCIAL PAPER
PART I SHORT TITLE, FORM, AND INTERPRETATION

554.3101 Short title.
This Article shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code — Commercial Paper.

554.3102 Definitions and index of definitions.
1. In this Article unless the context otherwise requires a. “Issue” means the first delivery of an instrument to a holder or a remitter.
   b. An “order” is a direction to pay and must be more than an authorization or request. It must identify the person to pay with reasonable certainty. It may be addressed to one or more such persons jointly or in the alternative but not in succession.
   c. A “promise” is an undertaking to pay and must be more than an acknowledgment of an obligation.
   d. “Secondary party” means a drawer or endorser.
   e. “Instrument” means a negotiable instrument.

554.3103 Limitations on scope of Article.
1. This Article does not apply to money, documents of title or investment securities.
2. The provisions of this Article are subject to the provisions of the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections (Article 4) and Secured Transactions (Article 9).

554.3104 Form of negotiable instruments — “draft” — “check” — “certificate of deposit” — “note”.
1. Any writing to be a negotiable instrument within this Article must
   a. be signed by the maker or drawer; and
   b. contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money and no other promise, order, obligation or power given by the maker or drawer except as authorized by this Article; and
   c. be payable on demand or at a definite time; and
   d. be payable to order or to bearer.
2. A writing which complies with the requirements of this section is
   a. a “draft” (“bill of exchange”) if it is an order;
   b. a “check” if it is a draft drawn on a bank and payable on demand;
   c. a “certificate of deposit” if it is an acknowledgment by a bank of receipt of money with an engagement to repay it;
   d. a “note” if it is a promise other than a certificate of deposit.
3. As used in other Articles of this chapter, and as the context may require, the terms “draft”, “check”, “certificate of deposit” and “note” may refer to instruments which are not negotiable within this Article as well as to instruments which are so negotiable.

554.3105 When promise or order unconditional.
1. A promise or order otherwise unconditional is not made conditional by the fact that the instrument
   a. is subject to implied or constructive conditions; or
   b. states its consideration, whether performed or promised, or the transaction which gave rise to the instrument, or that the promise or order is made or the instrument matures in accordance with or “as per” such transaction; or
   c. refers to or states that it arises out of a separate agreement or refers to a separate agreement for rights as to prepayment or acceleration; or
   d. states that it is drawn under a letter of credit; or
e. states that it is secured, whether by mortgage, reservation of title or otherwise; or
f. indicates a particular account to be debited or any other fund or source from which reimbursement is expected; or

g. is limited to payment out of a particular fund or the proceeds of a particular source, if the instrument is issued by a government or governmental agency or unit; or
h. is limited to payment out of the entire assets of a partnership, unincorporated association, trust or estate by or on behalf of which the instrument is issued.

2. A promise or order is not unconditional if the instrument
a. states that it is subject to or governed by any other agreement; or
b. states that it is to be paid only out of a particular fund or source except as provided in this section.

[S13, §3060-a3; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9463; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.3; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3105]

554.3106 Sum certain.
1. The sum payable is a sum certain even though it is to be paid
a. with stated interest or by stated installments; or
b. with stated different rates of interest before and after default or a specified date; or
c. with a stated discount or addition if paid before or after the date fixed for payment; or
d. with exchange or less exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or
e. with costs of collection or an attorney’s fee or both upon default; or
f. with a renegotiable rate of interest or with a variable rate of interest, even though determinable with reference to a source other than the instrument.

2. Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal.

[S13, §3060-a2, -a6; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9462, 9466; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.2, 541.6; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3106]

88 Acts, ch 1101, §1

554.3107 Money.
1. An instrument is payable in money if the medium of exchange in which it is payable is money at the time the instrument is made. An instrument payable in “currency” or “current funds” is payable in money.

2. A promise or order to pay a sum stated in a foreign currency is for a sum certain in money and, unless a different medium of payment is specified in the instrument, may be satisfied by payment of that number of dollars which the stated foreign currency will purchase at the buying sight rate for that currency on the day on which the instrument is payable or, if payable on demand, on the day of demand. If such an instrument specifies a foreign currency as the medium of payment the instrument is payable in that currency.

554.3108 Payable on demand.
Instruments payable on demand include those payable at sight or on presentation and those in which no time for payment is stated.

[S13, §3060-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9467; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.7; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3108]

554.3109 Definite time.
1. An instrument is payable at a definite time if by its terms it is payable
a. on or before a stated date or at a fixed period after a stated date; or
b. at a fixed period after sight; or
c. at a definite time subject to any acceleration; or
d. at a definite time subject to extension at the option of the holder, or to extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event.

2. An instrument which by its terms is otherwise payable only upon an act or event uncertain as to time of occurrence is not payable at a definite time even though the act or event has occurred.

554.3110 Payable to order.
1. An instrument is payable to order when by its terms it is payable to the order or assigns of any person therein specified with reasonable certainty; or to that person or that person’s order; or when it is conspicuously designated on its face as “exchange” or the like and names a payee. It may be payable to the order of
a. the maker or drawer; or
b. the drawee; or
c. a payee who is not maker, drawer, or drawee; or
d. two or more payees together or in the alternative; or
e. an estate, trust or fund, in which case it is payable to the order of the representative of such estate, trust or fund or that representative’s successors; or
f. an office, or an officer by title as such in which case it is payable to the principal but the incumbent of the office or the incumbent’s successors may act as if the incumbent or the successors were the holder; or [g. a partnership or unincorporated association, in which case it is payable to the partnership or association and may be endorsed or transferred by any person thereto authorized.

2. An instrument not payable to order is not made so payable by such words as “payable upon return of this instrument properly endorsed.”

3. An instrument made payable both to order and to bearer is payable to order unless the bearer words are handwritten or typewritten.
[S13, §3060-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9468; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.8; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3110]

554.3118 Ambiguous terms and rules of construction.

The following rules apply to every instrument:

a. Where there is doubt whether the instrument is a draft or a note the holder may treat it as either. A draft drawn on the drawer is effective as a note.

b. Handwritten terms control typewritten and printed terms, and typewritten control printed.
c. Words control figures except that if the words are ambiguous figures control.

d. Unless otherwise specified a provision for interest means interest at the judgment rate at the place of payment from the date of the instrument, or if it is undated from the date of issue.

e. Unless the instrument otherwise specifies two or more persons who sign as maker, acceptor or drawer or endorser and as a part of the same transaction are jointly and severally liable even though the instrument contains such words as "I promise to pay."

f. Unless otherwise specified consent to extension authorizes a single extension for not longer than the original period. A consent to extension, expressed in the instrument, is binding on secondary parties and accommodation makers. A holder may not exercise the holder's option to extend an instrument over the objection of a maker or acceptor or other party who in accordance with section 554.3604 tenders full payment when the instrument is due.

554.3119 Other writings affecting instrument.

1. As between the obligor and the obligor's immediate obligee or any transferee the terms of an instrument may be modified or affected by any other written agreement executed as a part of the same transaction, except that a holder in due course is not affected by any limitation of the holder's rights arising out of the separate written agreement if the holder had no notice of the limitation when the holder took the instrument.

2. A separate agreement does not affect the negotiability of an instrument.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3119]

554.3120 Instruments "payable through" bank.

An instrument which states that it is "payable through" a bank or the like designates that bank as a collecting bank to make presentment but does not of itself authorize the bank to pay the instrument.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3120]

554.3121 Instruments payable at bank.

A note or acceptance which states that it is payable at a bank is not of itself an order or authorization to the bank to pay it.

[S13, §3060-a87; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9548; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.68; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3121]

554.3122 Accrual of cause of action.

1. A cause of action against a maker or an acceptor accrues

a. in the case of a time instrument on the day after maturity;

b. in the case of a demand instrument upon its date or, if no date is stated, on the date of issue.

2. A cause of action against the obligor of a demand or time certificate of deposit accrues upon demand, but demand on a time certificate may not be made until on or after the date of maturity.

3. A cause of action against a drawer of a draft or an endorser of any instrument accrues upon demand following dishonor of the instrument. Notice of dishonor is a demand.

4. Unless an instrument provides otherwise, interest runs at the rate provided by law for a judgment

a. in the case of a maker, acceptor or other primary obligor of a demand instrument, from the date of demand;

b. in all other cases from the date of accrual of the cause of action.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3122]

PART 2

TRANSFER AND NEGOTIATION

554.3201 Transfer — right to endorsement.

1. Transfer of an instrument vests in the transferee such rights as the transferor has therein, except that a transferee who has been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument or who as a prior holder had notice of a defense or claim against it cannot improve the transferee's position by taking from a later holder in due course.

2. A transfer of a security interest in an instrument vests the foregoing rights in the transferee to the extent of the interest transferred.

3. Unless otherwise agreed any transfer for value of an instrument not then payable to bearer gives the transferee the specifically enforceable right to have the unqualified endorsement of the transferor. Negotiation takes effect only when the endorsement is made and until that time there is no presumption that the transferee is the owner.

554.3202 Negotiation.

1. Negotiation is the transfer of an instrument in such form that the transferee becomes a holder. If the instrument is payable to order it is negotiated by delivery with any necessary endorsement; if payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery.

2. An endorsement must be written by or on behalf of the holder and on the instrument or on a paper so firmly affixed thereto as to become a part thereof.

3. An endorsement is effective for negotiation only when it conveys the entire instrument or any unpaid residue. If it purports to be of less it operates only as a partial assignment.

4. Words of assignment, condition, waiver, guaranty, limitation or disclaimer of liability and the like accompanying an endorsement do not affect its character as an endorsement.

[S13, §3060-a30, -a31, -a32; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,
§9490–9492; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.30–541.32; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3202]

554.3203 Wrong or misspelled name.
Where an instrument is made payable to a person under a misspelled name or one other than that person’s own that person may endorse in that name or that person’s own or both; but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or giving value for the instrument.

[S13, §3060-a43; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9503; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.43; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3203]

554.3204 Special endorsement — blank endorsement.
1. A special endorsement specifies the person to whom or to whose order it makes the instrument payable. Any instrument specially endorsed becomes payable to order and endorsed in blank becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by delivery alone until specially endorsed.

2. An endorsement in blank specifies no particular endorsee and may consist of a mere signature. An instrument payable to order and endorsed in blank becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by delivery alone until specially endorsed.

3. The holder may convert a blank endorsement into a special endorsement by writing over the signature of the endorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the endorsement.

[S13, §3060-a9, -a33, -a34, -a35, -a36, -a40; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9469, 9493–9496, 9506; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.9, 541.33–541.36, 541.40; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3204]

554.3205 Restrictive endorsements.
An endorsement is restrictive which either a. is conditional; or
b. purports to prohibit further transfer of the instrument; or
c. includes the words “for collection”, “for deposit”, “pay any bank”, or like terms signifying a purpose of deposit or collection; or
d. otherwise states that it is for the benefit or use of the endorser or of another person.

[S13, §3060-a36, -a37, -a39; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9496, 9497, 9499; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.36, 541.37, 541.39; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3205]

554.3206 Effect of restrictive endorsement.
1. No restrictive endorsement prevents further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.

2. An intermediary bank, or a payor bank which is not the depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive endorsement of any person except the bank’s immediate transferor or the person presenting for payment.

3. Except for an intermediary bank, any transferee under an endorsement which is conditional or includes the words “for collection”, “for deposit”, “pay any bank”, or like terms (subparagraphs “a” and “c” of section 554.3205) must pay or apply any value given by the transferee for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the endorsement and to the extent that the transferee does so the transferee becomes a holder for value. In addition such transferee is a holder in due course if the transferee otherwise complies with the requirements of section 554.3302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.

4. The first taker under an endorsement for the benefit of the endorser or another person (subparagraph “d” of section 554.3205) must pay or apply any value given by that taker for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the endorsement and to the extent that that taker does so that taker becomes a holder for value. In addition such taker is a holder in due course if that taker otherwise complies with the requirements of section 554.3302 on what constitutes a holder in due course. A later holder for value is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by such restrictive endorsement unless that holder has knowledge that a fiduciary or other person has negotiated the instrument in any transaction for that person’s own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty (subsection 2 of section 554.3304).

554.3207 Negotiation effective although it may be rescinded.
1. Negotiation is effective to transfer the instrument although the negotiation is
a. made by an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or any other person without capacity; or
b. obtained by fraud, duress or mistake of any kind; or
c. part of an illegal transaction; or
d. made in breach of duty.

2. Except as against a subsequent holder in due course such negotiation is in an appropriate case subject to rescission, the declaration of a constructive trust or any other remedy permitted by law.

[S13, §3060-a22, -a58, -a59; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9482, 9518, 9519; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.22, 541.58, 541.59; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3207]

554.3208 Reacquisition.
Where an instrument is returned to or reacquired by a prior party the prior party may cancel any endorsement which is not necessary to the prior party’s title and reissue or further negotiate the instrument, but any intervening party is discharged as against the reacquiring party and subsequent holders not in due course and if that intervening party’s endorsement has been canceled is discharged as against subsequent holders in due course as well.

[S13, §3060-a48, -a50, -a121; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9508, 9510, 9582; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.48, 541.50, 541.122; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3208]
PART 3
RIGHTS OF A HOLDER

554.3301 Rights of a holder.
The holder of an instrument whether or not that holder is the owner may transfer or negotiate it and, except as otherwise provided in section 554.3603 on payment or satisfaction, discharge it or enforce payment in the holder's own name.

[S13, §3060-a51; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9511; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.51; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3301]

554.3302 Holder in due course.
1. A holder in due course is a holder who takes the instrument
   a. for value; and
   b. in good faith; and
   c. without notice that it is overdue or has been dishonored or of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person.
2. A payee may be a holder in due course.
3. A holder does not become a holder in due course of an instrument:
   a. by purchase of it at judicial sale or by taking it under legal process; or
   b. by acquiring it in taking over an estate; or
   c. by purchasing it as part of a bulk transaction not in regular course of business of the transferor.
4. A purchaser of a limited interest can be a holder in due course only to the extent of the interest purchased.

[S13, §3060-a52, -a54; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9512, 9514; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.52, 541.54; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3302]

554.3303 Taking for value.
A holder takes the instrument for value
a. to the extent that the agreed consideration has been performed or that the holder acquires a security interest in or a lien on the instrument otherwise than by legal process; or
b. when the holder takes the instrument in payment of or as security for an antecedent claim against any person whether or not the claim is due; or
c. when the holder gives a negotiable instrument for it or makes an irrevocable commitment to a third person.

[S13, §3060-a25, -a26, -a27; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9485–9487; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.25–541.27; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3303]

554.3304 Notice to purchaser.
1. The purchaser has notice of a claim or defense if
   a. the instrument is so incomplete, bears such visible evidence of forgery or alteration, or is otherwise so irregular as to call into question its validity, terms or ownership or to create an ambiguity as to the party to pay; or
   b. the purchaser has notice that the obligation of any party is voidable in whole or in part, or that all parties have been discharged.
   2. The purchaser has notice of a claim against the instrument when the purchaser has knowledge that a fiduciary has negotiated the instrument in payment of or as security for the fiduciary's own debt or in any transaction for the fiduciary's own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty.
3. The purchaser has notice that an instrument is overdue if the purchaser has reason to know
   a. that any part of the principal amount is overdue or that there is an uncured default in payment of another instrument of the same series; or
   b. that acceleration of the instrument has been made; or
   c. that the purchaser is taking a demand instrument after demand has been made or more than a reasonable length of time after its issue. A reasonable time for a check drawn and payable within the states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia is presumed to be thirty days.
4. Knowledge of the following facts does not of itself give the purchaser notice of a defense or claim
   a. that the instrument is antedated or postdated;
   b. that it was issued or negotiated in return for an executory promise or accompanied by a separate agreement, unless the purchaser has notice that a defense or claim has arisen from the terms thereof;
   c. that any party has signed for accommodation;
   d. that an incomplete instrument has been completed, unless the purchaser has notice of any improper completion;
   e. that any person negotiating the instrument is or was a fiduciary;
   f. that there has been default in payment of interest on the instrument or in payment of any other instrument, except one of the same series.
5. The filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice within the provisions of this Article to a person who would otherwise be a holder in due course.
6. To be effective notice must be received at such time and in such manner as to give a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

[S13, §3060-a45, -a54, -a55, -a56; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8505, 8514–8516; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.45, 541.54–541.56; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3304]

554.3305 Rights of a holder in due course.
To the extent that a holder is a holder in due course the holder takes the instrument free from
1. all claims to it on the part of any person; and
2. all defenses of any party to the instrument with whom the holder has not dealt except
   a. infancy, to the extent that it is a defense to a simple contract; and
   b. such other incapacity, or duress, or illegality of the transaction, as renders the obligation of the party a nullity; and
   c. such misrepresentation as has induced the party to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to obtain knowledge of its character or its essential terms; and
   d. discharge in insolvency proceedings; and
e. any other discharge of which the holder has notice when the holder takes the instrument.

[S13, §3060-a15, -a16, -a27, -a17; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9475, 9476, 9517, 9578; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.15, 541.16, 541.57, 541.118; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3305]

554.3306 Rights of one not holder in due course.

Unless a person has the rights of a holder in due course any person takes the instrument subject to
a. all valid claims to it on the part of any person; and
b. all defenses of any party which would be available in an action on a simple contract; and
c. the defenses of want or failure of consideration, nonperformance of any condition precedent, nondelivery, or delivery for a special purpose (section 554.3408); and
d. the defense that that person or a person through whom that person holds the instrument acquired it by theft, or that payment or satisfaction to such holder would be inconsistent with the terms of a restrictive endorsement. The claim of any third person to the instrument is not otherwise available as a defense to any party liable thereon unless the third person defends the action for such party.

554.3307 Burden of establishing signatures, defenses and due course.

1. Unless specifically denied in the pleadings each signature on an instrument is admitted. When the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue
a. the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature; but
b. the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized except where the action is to enforce the obligation of a purported signer who has died or become incompetent before proof is required.
2. When signatures are admitted or established, production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense.
3. After it is shown that a defense exists a person claiming the rights of a holder in due course has the burden of establishing that that person or some person under whom that person claims is in all respects a holder in due course.

[S13, §3060-a59; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9519; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.59; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3307]

PART 4

LIABILITY OF PARTIES

554.3401 Signature.

1. No person is liable on an instrument unless the person's signature appears thereon.
2. A signature is made by use of any name, including any trade or assumed name, upon an instrument, or by any word or mark used in lieu of a written signature.

[S13, §3060-a18; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9477; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.18; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3401]

554.3402 Signature in ambiguous capacity.

Unless the instrument clearly indicates that a signature is made in some other capacity it is an endorsement.

[S13, §3060-a17, -a63; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9477, 9526; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.17, 541.63; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3402]

554.3403 Signature by authorized representative.

1. A signature may be made by an agent or other representative, and the agent's or other representative's authority to make it may be established as in other cases of representation. No particular form of appointment is necessary to establish such authority;
2. An authorized representative who signs that representative's own name to an instrument
a. is personally obligated if the instrument neither names the person represented nor shows that the representative signed in a representative capacity;

[S13, §1889-a, 3060-a19, -a20, -a21; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9266, 9479-9481; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §528.61, 541.19-541.21; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3403]

554.3404 Unauthorized signatures.

1. Any unauthorized signature is wholly inoperative as that of the person whose name is signed unless that person ratifies it or is precluded from denying it; but it operates as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of any person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value.
2. Any unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this Article. Such ratification does not of itself affect any rights of the person ratifying against the actual signer.

[S13, §3060-a23; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9483; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.23; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3404]

554.3405 Impostors — signature in name of payee.

1. An endorsement by any person in the name of a named payee is effective if
§554.3405, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

a. an impostor by use of the mails or otherwise has induced the maker or drawer to issue the instrument to the impostor or the impostor's confederate in the name of the payee; or

b. a person signing as or on behalf of a maker or drawer intends the payee to have no interest in the instrument; or

c. an agent or employee of the maker or drawer has supplied the maker or drawer with the name of the payee intending the latter to have no such interest.

2. Nothing in this section shall affect the criminal or civil liability of the person so endorsing.

554.3406 Negligence contributing to alteration or unauthorized signature.

Any person whose negligence substantially contributes to a material alteration of the instrument or to the making of an unauthorized signature is precluded from asserting the alteration or lack of authority against a holder in due course or against a drawee or other payor who pays the instrument in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards of the drawee's or payor's business.

[S13, §1889-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9266; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §528.61; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3406]

554.3407 Alteration.

1. Any alteration of an instrument is material which changes the contract of any party thereto in any respect, including any such change in

a. the number or relations of the parties; or

b. an incomplete instrument, by completing it otherwise than as authorized; or

c. the writing as signed, by adding to it or by removing any part of it.

2. As against any person other than a subsequent holder in due course

a. alteration by the holder which is both fraudulent and material discharges any party whose contract is thereby changed unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the defense;

b. no other alteration discharges any party and the instrument may be enforced according to its original tenor, and when an incomplete instrument has been completed, that holder may enforce it as completed.

3. A subsequent holder in due course may in all cases enforce the instrument according to its original tenor, and when an incomplete instrument has been completed, that holder may enforce it as completed.

[S13, §3060-a14, -a15, -a124, -a125; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9474, 9475, 9585, 9586; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.14, 541.15, 541.125, 541.126; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3407]

554.3408 Consideration.

Want or failure of consideration is a defense as against any person not having the rights of a holder in due course (section 554.3305), except that no consideration is necessary for an instrument or obligation thereon given in payment of or as security for an antecedent obligation of any kind. Nothing in this section shall be taken to displace any statute outside this chapter under which a promise is enforceable notwithstanding lack or failure of consideration. Partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto whether or not the failure is in an ascertained or liquidated amount.

[S13, §3060-a24, -a25, -a28; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9484, 9485, 9488; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.24, 541.25, 541.28; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3408]

554.3409 Draft not an assignment.

1. A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of any funds in the hands of the drawee available for its payment, and the drawee is not liable on the instrument until the drawee accepts it.

2. Nothing in this section shall affect any liability in contract, tort or otherwise arising from any letter of credit or other obligation or representation which is not an acceptance.

554.3410 Definition and operation of acceptance.

1. Acceptance is the drawee's signed engagement to honor the draft as presented. It must be written on the draft, and may consist of the drawee's signature alone. It becomes operative when completed by delivery or notification.

2. A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer or is otherwise incomplete or is overdue or has been dishonored.

3. Where the draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date the acceptor's acceptance the holder may complete it by supplying a date in good faith.

[S13, §3060-a132, -a133, -a134, -a135, -a136, -a137, -a138, -a161, -a162, -a163, -a164, -a165, -a166, -a167, -a168, -a169, -a170; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9593-9599, 9622-9631; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.133-541.139, 541.162-541.171; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3410]

554.3411 Certification of a check.

1. Certification of a check is acceptance. Where a holder procures certification the drawer and all prior endorsers are discharged.

2. Unless otherwise agreed a bank has no obligation to certify a check.

3. A bank may certify a check before returning it for lack of proper endorsement. If it does so the drawer is discharged.

[S13, §3060-a187, -a188; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9648, 9649; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.188, 541.189; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3411]

554.3412 Acceptance varying draft.

1. Where the drawee's proffered acceptance in any manner varies the draft as presented the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored in which case the drawee is entitled to have the drawee’s acceptance canceled.

2. The terms of the draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at any particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at such bank or place.

3. Where the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of the draft each drawer and endorser who does not affirmatively assent is discharged.

554.3413 Contract of maker, drawer and acceptor.

1. The maker or acceptor engages that that person will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of that person’s engagement or as completed pursuant to section 554.3115 on incomplete instruments.

2. The drawer engages that upon dishonor of the draft and any necessary notice of dishonor or protest the drawer will pay the amount of the draft to the holder or to any endorser who takes it up. The drawer may disclaim this liability by drawing without recourse.

3. By making, drawing or accepting the party admits as against all subsequent parties including the drawee the existence of the payee and the payee’s then capacity to endorse.

554.3414 Contract of endorser — order of liability.

1. Unless the endorsement otherwise specifies (as by such words as “without recourse”) every endorser engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor or protest the endorser will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of the endorser’s endorsement to the holder or to any subsequent endorser who takes it up, even though the endorser who takes it up was not obligated to do so.

2. Unless they otherwise agree endorsers are liable to one another in the order in which they endorse, which is presumed to be the order in which their signatures appear on the instrument.

[S13, §3060-a38, -a44, -a66, -a67, -a68, -a54; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9498, 9504, 9526-9528, 9544; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.38, 541.44, 541.66-541.68, 541.84; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3414]

554.3415 Contract of accommodation party.

1. An accommodation party is one who signs the instrument in any capacity for the purpose of lending that party’s name to another party to it.

2. When the instrument has been taken for value before it is due the accommodation party is liable in the capacity in which that party has signed even though the taker knows of the accommodation.

3. As against a holder in due course and without notice of the accommodation oral proof of the accommodation is not admissible to give the accommodation party the benefit of discharges dependent on that party’s character as such. In other cases the accommodation character may be shown by oral proof.

4. An endorsement which shows that it is not in the chain of title is notice of its accommodation character.

5. An accommodation party is not liable to the party accommodated, and if the accommodation party pays the instrument has a right of recourse on the instrument against such party.

[C73, §2094; C97, §3053; S13, §3053, 3060-a28, -a29, -a64; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9488, 9489, 9524, 9545; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.28, 541.29, 541.64, 541.85; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3415]

554.3416 Contract of guarantor.

1. “Payment guaranteed” or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due the signer will pay it according to its tenor without resort by the holder to any other party.

2. “Collection guaranteed” or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due the signer will pay it according to its tenor, but only after the holder has reduced the holder’s claim against the maker or acceptor to judgment and execution has been returned unsatisfied, or after the maker or acceptor has become insolvent or it is otherwise apparent that it is useless to proceed against the maker or acceptor.

3. Words of guaranty which do not otherwise specify guarantee payment.

4. No words of guaranty added to the signature of a sole maker or acceptor affect the sole maker’s or acceptor’s liability on the instrument. Such words added to the signature of one of two or more makers or acceptors create a presumption that the signature is for the accommodation of the others.

5. When words of guaranty are used presentment, notice of dishonor and protest are not necessary to charge the user.

6. Any guaranty written on the instrument is enforceable notwithstanding any statute of frauds.

[C73, §2094; C97, §3053; S13, §3053; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9545; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.85; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3416]

554.3417 Warranties on presentment and transfer.

1. Any person who obtains payment or acceptance and any prior transferor warrants to a person who in good faith pays or accepts that

a. the person obtaining payment or acceptance and any prior transferor has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and

b. the person obtaining payment or acceptance and any prior transferor has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith
i. to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or
ii. to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or
iii. to an acceptor of a draft if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and
c. the instrument has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith
i. to the maker of a note; or
ii. to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or
iii. to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or
iv. to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.
2. Any person who transfers an instrument and receives consideration warrants to that person’s transferee and if the transfer is by endorsement to any subsequent holder who takes the instrument in good faith that
a. the transferor has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and
b. all signatures are genuine or authorized; and
c. the instrument has not been materially altered; and
d. no defense of any party is good against the transferor; and
e. the transferor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted instrument.
3. By transferring "without recourse" the transferor limits the obligation stated in subsection 2 “d” to a warranty that the transferor has no knowledge of such a defense.
4. A selling agent or broker who does not disclose the fact that the agent or broker is acting only as such gives the warranties provided in this section, but if that agent or broker makes such disclosure warrants only that agent's or broker's good faith and authority.

§554.3418 Finality of payment or acceptance.
Except for recovery of bank payments as provided in the Article on Bank Deposits and Collections (Article 4) and except for liability for breach of warranty on presentment under the preceding section, payment or acceptance of any instrument is final in favor of a holder in due course, or a person who has in good faith changed that person's position in reliance on the payment.

§554.3419 Conversion of instrument — innocent representative.
1. An instrument is converted when
a. a drawee to whom it is delivered for acceptance refuses to return it on demand; or
b. any person to whom it is delivered for payment refuses on demand either to pay or to return it; or
c. it is paid on a forged endorsement.
2. In an action against a drawee under subsection 1 the measure of the drawee's liability is the face amount of the instrument. In any other action under subsection 1 the measure of liability is presumed to be the face amount of the instrument.
3. Subject to the provisions of this chapter concerning restrictive endorsements a representative, including a depositary or collecting bank, who has in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards applicable to the business of such representative dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the true owner is not liable in conversion or otherwise to the true owner beyond the amount of any proceeds remaining in that representative's hands.
4. An intermediary bank or payor bank which is not a depositary bank is not liable in conversion solely by reason of the fact that proceeds of an item endorsed restrictively (sections 554.3205 and 554.3206) are not paid or applied consistently with the restrictive endorsement of an endorser other than its immediate transferor.

PART 5
PRESENTMENT, NOTICE OF DISHONOR, AND PROTEST

§554.3501 When presentment, notice of dishonor, and protest necessary or permissible.
1. Unless excused (section 554.3511) presentment is necessary to charge secondary parties as follows:
   a. presentment for acceptance is necessary to charge the drawer and endorsers of a draft where the draft so provides, or is payable elsewhere than at the residence or place of business of the drawee, or its date of payment depends upon such presentment. The holder may at the holder's option present for acceptance any other draft payable at a stated date;
   b. presentment for payment is necessary to charge any endorser;
   c. in the case of any drawer, the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, presentment for payment is necessary, but failure to make presentment discharges such drawer, acceptor or maker only as stated in section 554.3502 subsection 1 "b".

2. Unless excused (section 554.3511)
   a. notice of any dishonor is necessary to charge any endorser;
   b. in the case of any drawer, the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, notice of any dishonor is necessary, but failure to give such notice discharges such drawer, acceptor or maker only as stated in section 554.3502 subsection 1 "b".

3. Unless excused (section 554.3511) protest of any dishonor is necessary to charge the drawer and endorsers of any draft which on its face appears to be drawn or payable outside of the states, territories, dependencies and possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico. The holder may at the holder’s option make protest of any dishonor of any other instrument and in the case of a foreign draft may on insolvency of the acceptor before maturity make protest for better security.

4. Notwithstanding any provision of this section, neither presentment nor notice of dishonor nor protest is necessary to charge an endorser who has endorsed an instrument after maturity.

[S13, §3060-a70, -a89, -a117, -a118, -a129, -a143, -a144, -a150, -a151, -a152, -a157, -a158, -a186; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9550, 9550, 9578, 9579, 9590, 9604, 9605, 9611-9613, 9618, 9619, 9647; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.70, 541.90, 541.118, 541.119, 541.120, 541.144, 541.145, 541.151-541.153, 541.158, 541.159, 541.187; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3501]

§554.3502 Unexcused delay — discharge.

1. Where without excuse any necessary presentment or notice of dishonor is delayed beyond the time when it is due
   a. any endorser is discharged; and
   b. any drawer or the accep[t]or of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank who because the drawee or payor bank becomes insolvent during the delay is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee or payor bank to cover the instrument may discharge that person’s liability by written assignment to the holder of that person’s rights against the drawee or payor bank in respect of such funds, but such drawer, acceptor or maker is not otherwise discharged.

   2. Where without excuse a necessary protest is delayed beyond the time when it is due any drawer or endorser is discharged.

[S13, §3060-a7, -a70, -a89, -a117, -a129, -a143, -a144, -a150, -a152, -a186; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9467, 9530, 9550, 9605, 9611, 9613, 9647; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.7, 541.70, 541.90, 541.145, 541.151, 541.153, 541.187; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3502]

§554.3503 Time of presentment.

1. Unless a different time is expressed in the instrument the time for any presentment is determined as follows:
   a. where an instrument is payable at or a fixed period after a stated date any presentment for acceptance must be made on or before the date it is payable;
   b. where an instrument is payable after sight it must either be presented for acceptance or negotiated within a reasonable time after date or issue whichever is later;
   c. where an instrument shows the date on which it is payable presentment for payment is due on that date;
   d. where an instrument is accelerated presentment for payment is due within a reasonable time after the acceleration;
   e. with respect to the liability of any secondary party presentment for acceptance or payment of any other instrument is due within a reasonable time after such party becomes liable thereon.

2. A reasonable time for presentment is determined by the nature of the instrument, any usage of banking or trade and the facts of the particular case. In the case of an uncertified check which is drawn and payable within the United States and which is not a draft drawn by a bank the following are presumed to be reasonable periods within which to present for payment or to initiate bank collection:
   a. with respect to the liability of the drawer, thirty days after date or issue whichever is later; and
   b. with respect to the liability of an endorser, seven days after the endorser’s endorsement.

3. Where any presentment is due on a day which is not a full business day for either the person making presentment or the party to pay or accept, presentment is due on the next following day which is a full business day for both parties.

4. Presentment to be sufficient must be made at a reasonable hour, and if at a bank during its banking day.

[C73, §2094; C97, §3053; S13, §3053, 3060-a71, -a72, -a75, -a85, -a86, -a144, -a145, -a146, -a186; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9531, 9532, 9535, 9545-9547, 9605-9607, 9647; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.71, 541.72, 541.75, 541.85-541.87, 541.145-541.147, 541.187; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3503]

§554.3504 How presentment made.

1. Presentment is a demand for acceptance or payment made upon the maker, acceptor, drawee or other payor by or on behalf of the holder.

2. Presentment may be made a. by mail, in which event the time of presentment is determined by the time of receipt of the mail; or
   b. through a clearing house; or
   c. at the place of acceptance or payment specified in the instrument or if there be none at the place of business or residence of the party to accept or pay. If neither the party to accept or pay nor anyone authorized to act for that party is present or accessible at such place presentment is excused.

3. It may be made
   a. to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawees or other payors; or
§554.3504, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

b. to any person who has authority to make or refuse the acceptance or payment.
4. A draft accepted or a note made payable at a bank in the United States must be presented at such bank.
5. In the cases described in section 554.4210 presentment may be made in the manner and with the result stated in that section.

[S13, §3060-a72, -a73, -a76, -a77, -a78, -a145; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9532, 9533, 9536-9538, 9606; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.72, 541.73, 541.76-541.78, 541.146; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3504]

554.3505 Rights of party to whom presentment is made.
1. The party to whom presentment is made may without dishonor require a. exhibition of the instrument; and
   b. reasonable identification of the person making presentment and evidence of that person's authority to make it if made for another; and
   c. that the instrument be produced for acceptance or payment at a place specified in it, or if there be none at any place reasonable in the circumstances; and
   d. a signed receipt on the instrument for any partial or full payment and its surrender upon full payment.
2. Failure to comply with any such requirement invalidates the presentment but the person presenting has a reasonable time in which to comply and the time for acceptance or payment runs from the time of compliance.

[S13, §3060-a74; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9534; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.74; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3505]

554.3506 Time allowed for acceptance or payment.
1. Acceptance may be deferred without dishonor until the close of the next business day following presentment. The holder may also in a good faith effort to obtain acceptance and without dishonor of the instrument or discharge of secondary parties allow postponement of acceptance for an additional business day.
2. Except as a longer time is allowed in the case of documentary drafts drawn under a letter of credit, and unless an earlier time is agreed to by the party to pay, payment of an instrument may be deferred without dishonor pending reasonable examination to determine whether it is properly payable, but payment must be made in any event before the close of business on the day of presentment.

554.3507 Dishonor — holder's right of recourse — term allowing re-presentment.
1. An instrument is dishonored when
   a. a necessary or optional presentment is duly made and due acceptance or payment is refused or cannot be obtained within the prescribed time or in case of bank collections the instrument is seasonably returned by the midnight deadline (section 554.4301); or
   b. presentment is excused and the instrument is not duly accepted or paid.
2. Subject to any necessary notice of dishonor and protest, the holder has upon dishonor an immediate right of recourse against the drawers and endorsers.
3. Return of an instrument for lack of proper endorsement is not dishonor.
4. A term in a draft or an endorsement thereof allowing a stated time for re-presentment in the event of any dishonor of the draft by nonacceptance if a time draft or by nonpayment if a sight draft gives the holder as against any secondary party bound by the term an option to waive the dishonor without affecting the liability of the secondary party and the holder may present again up to the end of the stated time.
5. The holder of a dishonored instrument may assess against the maker of that instrument a surcharge of not more than ten dollars for each dishonored instrument. The surcharge authorized by this section shall not be assessed unless the holder clearly and conspicuously posts a notice at the usual place of payment, or in the billing statement of the holder, stating that a surcharge will be assessed and the amount of the surcharge. However, such a surcharge shall not be assessed against the maker if the reason for the dishonor of the instrument is that the maker has stopped payment pursuant to section 554.4403.

554.3508 Notice of dishonor.
1. Notice of dishonor may be given to any person who may be liable on the instrument by or on behalf of the holder or any party who has personally received notice, or any other party who can be compelled to pay the instrument. In addition an agent or bank in whose hands the instrument is dishonored may give notice to the agent's or bank's principal or customer or to another agent or bank from which the instrument was received.
2. Any necessary notice must be given by a bank before its midnight deadline and by any other person before midnight of the third business day after dishonor or receipt of notice of dishonor.
3. Notice may be given in any reasonable manner. It may be oral or written and in any terms which identify the instrument and state that it has been dishonored. A misdescription which does not mislead the party notified does not vitiate the notice. Sending the instrument bearing a stamp, ticket or writing stating that acceptance or payment has been refused or sending a notice of debit with respect to the instrument is sufficient.
4. Written notice is given when sent although it is not received.
5. Notice to one partner is notice to each although the firm has been dissolved.
6. When any party is in insolvency proceedings instituted after the issue of the instrument notice may be given either to the party or to the representative of the party's estate.
7. When any party is dead or incompetent notice may be sent to the party's last known address or given to the party's personal representative.
8. Notice operates for the benefit of all parties who have rights on the instrument against the party notified.

§554.3509 Protest — noting for protest.
1. A protest is a certificate of dishonor made under the hand and seal of a United States consul or vice consul or a notary public or other person authorized to certify dishonor by the law of the place where dishonor occurs. It may be made upon information satisfactory to such person.
2. The protest must identify the instrument and certify either that due presentment has been made or the reason why it is excused and that the instrument has been dishonored by nonacceptance or non-payment.
3. The protest may also certify that notice of dishonor has been given to all parties or to specified parties.
4. Subject to subsection 5 any necessary protest is due by the time that notice of dishonor is due.
5. If, before protest is due, an instrument has been noted for protest by the officer to make protest, the protest may be made at any time thereafter as of the date of the noting.

§554.3510 Evidence of dishonor and notice of dishonor.
The following are admissible as evidence and create a presumption of dishonor and of notice of dishonor therein shown:

a. a document regular in form as provided in the preceding section which purports to be a protest;
b. the purported stamp or writing of the drawee, payor bank or presenting bank on the instrument or accompanying it stating that acceptance or payment has been refused for reasons consistent with dishonor;
c. any book or record of the drawee, payor bank, or any collecting bank kept in the usual course of business which shows dishonor, even though there is no evidence of who made the entry.

§554.3511 Waived or excused presentment, protest or notice of dishonor or delay therein.
1. Delay in presentment, protest or notice of dishonor is excused when the party is without notice that it is due or when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the party's control and the party exercises reasonable diligence after the cause of the delay ceases to operate.
2. Presentment or notice or protest as the case may be is entirely excused when

a. the party to be charged has waived it expressly or by implication either before or after it is due; or
b. such party has personally dishonored the instrument or has countermanded payment or otherwise has no reason to expect or right to require that the instrument be accepted or paid; or
c. by reasonable diligence the presentment or protest cannot be made or the notice given.
3. Presentment is also entirely excused when

a. the maker, acceptor or drawee of any instrument except a documentary draft is dead or in insolvency proceedings instituted after the issue of the instrument; or
b. acceptance or payment is refused but not for want of proper presentment.
4. Where a draft has been dishonored by nonacceptance a later presentment for payment and any notice of dishonor and protest for nonpayment are excused unless in the meantime the instrument has been accepted.
5. A waiver of protest is also a waiver of presentment and of notice of dishonor even though protest is not required.
6. Where a waiver of presentment or notice or protest is embodied in the instrument itself it is binding upon all parties; but where it is written above the signature of an endorser it binds the endorser only.

§554.3601, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

d. impairment of right of recourse or of collateral (section 554.3606); or

e. reacquisition of the instrument by a prior party (section 554.3208); or

f. fraudulent and material alteration (section 554.3407); or

g. certification of a check (section 554.3411); or

h. acceptance varying a draft (section 554.3412); or

i. unexcused delay in presentment or notice of dishonor or protest (section 554.3502).

2. Any party is also discharged from the party’s liability on an instrument to another party by any other act or agreement with such party which would discharge the party’s simple contract for the payment of money.

3. The liability of all parties is discharged when any party who has personally no right of action or recourse on the instrument

a. reacquires the instrument in that party’s own right; or

b. is discharged under any provision of this Article, except as otherwise provided with respect to discharge for impairment of recourse or of collateral (section 554.3606).

[S13, §3060-a119–a121; SS15, §3060-a120; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9580–9582; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.120–541.122; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3601]

554.3602 Effect of discharge against holder in due course.

No discharge of any party provided by this Article is effective against a subsequent holder in due course unless the holder has notice thereof when the holder takes the instrument.

[S13, §3060-a117; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9578; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.118; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3602]

554.3603 Payment or satisfaction.

1. The liability of any party is discharged to the extent of the party’s payment or satisfaction to the holder even though it is made with knowledge of a claim of another person to the instrument unless prior to such payment or satisfaction the person making the claim either supplies indemnity deemed adequate by the party seeking the discharge or enjoin payment or satisfaction by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the adverse claimant and the holder are parties. This subsection does not, however, result in the discharge of the liability

a. of a party who in bad faith pays or satisfies a holder who acquired the instrument by theft or who (unless having the rights of a holder in due course) holds through one who so acquired it; or

b. of a party (other than an intermediary bank or a payor bank which is not a depositary bank) who pays or satisfies the holder of an instrument which has been restrictively endorsed in a manner not consistent with the terms of such restrictive endorsement.

2. Payment or satisfaction may be made with the consent of the holder by any person including a stranger to the instrument. Surrender of the instrument to such a person gives that person the rights of a transferee (section 554.3201).

[S13, §3060-a51, -a88, -a119, -a121, -a171, -a172, -a173, -a174, -a175, -a176, -a177; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9511, 9549, 9580, 9582, 9632–9638; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.51, 541.89, 541.120, 541.122, 541.172–541.178; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3603]

554.3604 Tender of payment.

1. Any party making tender of full payment to a holder when or after it is due is discharged to the extent of all subsequent liability for interest, costs and attorney’s fees.

2. The holder’s refusal of such tender wholly discharges any party who has a right of recourse against the party making the tender.

3. Where the maker or acceptor of an instrument payable otherwise than on demand is able and ready to pay at every place of payment specified in the instrument when it is due, it is equivalent to tender.

[S13, §3060-a70, -a120; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9530, 9581; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.70, 541.121; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3604]

554.3605 Cancellation and renunciation.

1. The holder of an instrument may even without consideration discharge any party

a. in any manner apparent on the face of the instrument or the endorsement, as by intentionally canceling the instrument or the party’s signature by destruction or mutilation, or by striking out the party’s signature; or

b. by renouncing that holder’s rights by a writing signed and delivered or by surrender of the instrument to the party to be discharged.

2. Neither cancellation nor renunciation without surrender of the instrument affects the title thereto.

[S13, §3060-a48, -a119, -a120, -a122, -a123; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9508, 9580, 9581, 9583, 9584; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.48, 541.120, 541.121, 541.123, 541.124; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3605]

554.3606 Impairment of recourse or of collateral.

1. The holder discharges any party to the instrument to the extent that without such party’s consent the holder

a. without express reservation of rights releases or agrees not to sue any person against whom the party has to the knowledge of the holder a right of recourse or agrees to suspend the right to enforce against such person the instrument or collateral or otherwise discharges such person, except that failure or delay in effecting any required presentment, protest or notice of dishonor with respect to any such person does not discharge any party as to whom presentment, protest or notice of dishonor is effective or unnecessary; or

b. unjustifiably impairs any collateral for the instrument given by or on behalf of the party or any person against whom the party has a right of recourse.
2. By express reservation of rights against a party with a right of recourse the holder preserves
   a. all the holder's rights against such party as of the time when the instrument was originally due; and
   b. the right of the party to pay the instrument as of that time; and
   c. all rights of such party to recourse against others.

[C13, §3060-a120; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9581; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.121; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3606]

PART 7

ADVICE OF INTERNATIONAL SIGHT DRAFT

554.3701 Letter of advice of international sight draft.

1. A “letter of advice” is a drawer's communication to the drawee that a described draft has been drawn.

2. Unless otherwise agreed when a bank receives from another bank a letter of advice of an international sight draft the drawee bank may immediately debit the drawer's account and stop the running of interest pro tanto. Such a debit and any resulting credit to any account covering outstanding drafts leaves in the drawer full power to stop payment or otherwise dispose of the amount and creates no trust or interest in favor of the holder.

3. Unless otherwise agreed and except where a draft is drawn under a credit issued by the drawer, the drawee of an international sight draft owes the drawer no duty to pay an unadvised draft but if it does so and the draft is genuine, may appropriately debit the drawer's account.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3701]

PART 8

MISCELLANEOUS

554.3801 Drafts in a set.

1. Where a draft is drawn in a set of parts, each of which is numbered and expressed to be an order only if no other part has been honored, the whole of the parts constitutes one draft but a taker of any part may become a holder in due course of the draft.

2. Any person who negotiates, endorses or accepts a single part of a draft drawn in a set thereby becomes liable to any holder in due course of that part as if it were the whole set, but as between different holders in due course to whom different parts have been negotiated the holder whose title first accrues has all rights to the draft and its proceeds.

3. As against the drawee the first presented part of a draft drawn in a set is the part entitled to payment, or if a time draft to acceptance and payment. Acceptance of any subsequently presented part renders the drawee liable thereon under subsection 2. With respect both to a holder and to the drawer payment of a subsequently presented part of a draft payable at sight has the same effect as payment of a check notwithstanding an effective stop order (section 554.4407).

4. Except as otherwise provided in this section, where any part of a draft in a set is discharged by payment or otherwise the whole draft is discharged.

[C13, §3060-a178, -a179, -a180, -a181, -a182, -a183; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9639-9644; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.179-541.184; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3801]

554.3802 Effect of instrument on obligation for which it is given.

1. Unless otherwise agreed where an instrument is taken for an underlying obligation
   a. the obligation is pro tanto discharged if a bank is drawer, maker or acceptor of the instrument and there is no recourse on the instrument against the underlying obligor; and
   b. in any other case the obligation is suspended pro tanto until the instrument is due or if it is payable on demand until its presentment. If the instrument is dishonored action may be maintained on either the instrument or the obligation; discharge of the underlying obligor on the instrument also discharges that obligor on the obligation.

2. The taking in good faith of a check which is not postdated does not of itself so extend the time on the original obligation as to discharge a surety.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3802]

554.3803 Notice to third party.

Where a defendant is sued for breach of an obligation for which a third person is answerable over under this Article the defendant may give the third person written notice of the litigation, and the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over to that third party under this Article. If the notice states that the person notified may come in and defend and that if the person notified does not do so the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over to that third party under this Article.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3803]

554.3804 Lost, destroyed or stolen instruments.

The owner of an instrument which is lost, whether by destruction, theft or otherwise, may maintain an action in the owner's own name and recover from any party liable thereon upon due proof of the owner's ownership, the facts which prevent the owner's production of the instrument and its terms. The court may require security indemnifying the defendant against loss by reason of further claims on the instrument.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.3804]

554.3805 Instruments not payable to order or to bearer.

This Article applies to any instrument whose §554.3806 Civil remedy for dishonor of a check, draft or order.
1. In a civil action against a person who makes a check, draft or order for the payment of money which has been dishonored for lack of funds or credit or because the maker has no account with the drawee, the plaintiff may recover from the defendant damages triple the amount for which the dishonored check, draft or order is drawn. However, damages under this section shall not exceed by more than five hundred dollars the amount of the check, draft or order and may be awarded only if all the following are true:
   a. The plaintiff made written demand by restricted certified mail of the defendant for payment of the amount of the check, draft, or order not less than thirty days before commencing the action.
   b. The defendant has failed to tender to the plaintiff, prior to commencement of the action, an amount of money not less than the amount demanded.
   c. The plaintiff clearly and conspicuously posted a notice at the usual place of payment, or in a billing statement of the plaintiff, stating that civil damages pursuant to this section would be sought upon dishonor.
2. In an action for damages pursuant to subsection 1, if the court or jury determines that the failure of the defendant to satisfy the dishonored check was due to economic hardship, the court or jury may waive all or part of the allowable civil damages. However, if the court or jury waives all or part of the civil damages, the court or jury shall render judgment against the defendant in the amount of the dishonored check, draft or order and the actual costs incurred by the plaintiff in bringing the action.
3. This section does not apply if the reason for the dishonor of the check, draft or order is that the maker has stopped payment pursuant to section 554.4403 because of a bona fide dispute between the maker and the holder relating to the consideration for which the check, draft, or order was given.
4. In actions brought pursuant to this section, no additional award pursuant to section 625.22 shall be made.

ARTICLE 4
BANK DEPOSITS AND COLLECTIONS
PART 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

§554.4101 Short title.
This Article shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code — Bank Deposits and Collections.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4101]

§554.4102 Applicability.
1. To the extent that items within this Article are also within the scope of Articles 3 and 8, they are subject to the provisions of those Articles. In the event of conflict the provisions of this Article govern those of Article 3 but the provisions of Article 8 govern those of this Article.
2. The liability of a bank for action or nonaction with respect to any item handled by it for purposes of presentment, payment or collection is governed by the law of the place where the bank is located. In the case of action or nonaction by or at a branch or separate office of a bank, its liability is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office is located.

§554.4103 Variation by agreement — measure of damages — certain action constituting ordinary care.
1. The effect of the provisions of this Article may be varied by agreement except that no agreement can disclaim a bank's responsibility for its own lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care or can limit the measure of damages for such lack or failure; but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which such responsibility is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.
2. Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearing house rules, and the like, have the effect of agreements under subsection 1, whether or not specifically assented to by all parties interested in items handled.
3. Action or nonaction approved by this Article or pursuant to Federal Reserve regulations or operating letters constitutes the exercise of ordinary care and, in the absence of special instructions, action or nonaction consistent with clearing house rules and the like or with a general banking usage not disapproved by this Article, prima facie constitutes the exercise of ordinary care.
4. The specification or approval of certain procedures by this Article does not constitute disapproval of other procedures which may be reasonable under the circumstances.
5. The measure of damages for failure to exercise ordinary care in handling an item is the amount of the item reduced by an amount which could not have been realized by the use of ordinary care, and where there is bad faith it includes other damages, if any, suffered by the party as a proximate consequence.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4103]

§554.4104 Definitions and index of definitions.
1. In this Article unless the context otherwise requires
a. "Account" means any account with a bank and includes a checking, time, interest or savings account; 554.4105 “Depositary bank” — “intermediary bank” — “collecting bank” — “payor bank” — “presenting bank” — “remitting bank”.

In this Article unless the context otherwise requires:

a. “Depositary bank” means the first bank to which an item is transferred for collection even though it is also the payor bank;

b. “Payor bank” means a bank by which an item is payable as drawn or accepted;

c. “Intermediary bank” means any bank to which an item is transferred in course of collection except the depositary or payor bank;

d. “Collecting bank” means any bank handling the item for collection except the payor bank;

e. “Presenting bank” means any bank presenting an item except a payor bank;

f. “Remitting bank” means any payor or intermediary bank remitting for an item.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4105]

554.4106 Separate office of a bank.

A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for the purpose of computing the time within which and determining the place at or to which action may be taken or notices or orders shall be given under this Article and under Article 3.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4106]

554.4107 Time of receipt of items.

1. For the purpose of allowing time to process items, prove balances and make the necessary entries on its books to determine its position for the day, a bank may fix an afternoon hour of two P.M. or later as a cutoff hour for the handling of money and items and the making of entries on its books.

2. Any item or deposit of money received on any day after a cutoff hour so fixed or after the close of the banking day may be treated as being received at the opening of the next banking day.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4107]

554.4108 Delays.

1. Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank in a good faith effort to secure payment may, in the case of specific items and with or without the approval of any person involved, waive, modify or extend time limits imposed or permitted by this chapter for a period not in excess of an additional banking day without discharge of secondary parties and without liability to its transferor or any prior party.

2. Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this chapter or by instructions is excused if caused by interruption of communication facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank provided it exercises such diligence as the circumstances require.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4108]

554.4109 Process of posting.

The “process of posting” means the usual procedure followed by a payor bank in determining to pay an item and in recording the payment including one or more of the following or other steps as determined by the bank:
   a. verification of any signature;
   b. ascertaining that sufficient funds are available;
   c. affixing a “paid” or other stamp;
   d. entering a charge or entry to a customer’s account;
   e. correcting or reversing an entry or erroneous action with respect to the item.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4109]

PART 2

COLLECTION OF ITEMS: DEPOSITORY AND COLLECTING BANKS

554.4201 Presumption and duration of agency status of collecting banks and provisional status of credits — applicability of Article — item endorsed “pay any bank”.
1. Unless a contrary intent clearly appears and prior to the time that a settlement given by a collecting bank for an item is or becomes final (subsection 3 of section 554.4211 and sections 554.4212 and 554.4213) the bank is an agent or subagent of the owner of the item and any settlement given for the item is provisional. This provision applies regardless of the form of endorsement or lack of endorsement and even though credit given for the item is subject to immediate withdrawal as of right or is in fact withdrawn; but the continuance of ownership of an item by its owner and any rights of the owner to proceeds of the item are subject to right of a holder.
2. After an item has been endorsed with the words “pay any bank” or the like, only a bank may acquire the rights of a holder
   a. until the item has been returned to the customer initiating collection; or
   b. until the item has been specially endorsed by a bank to a person who is not a bank.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4201]

554.4202 Responsibility for collection — when action seasonable.
1. A collecting bank must use ordinary care in a. presenting an item or sending it for presentment; and
   b. sending notice of dishonor or nonpayment or returning an item other than a documentary draft to the bank’s transferor or directly to the depositary bank under subsection 2 of section 554.4212 after learning that the item has not been paid or accepted, as the case may be; and
   c. settling for an item when the bank receives final settlement; and
   d. making or providing for any necessary protest; and
   e. notifying its transferor of any loss or delay in transit within a reasonable time after discovery thereof.
2. A collecting bank taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice or payment acts seasonably; taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may be seasonable but the bank has the burden of so establishing.
3. Subject to subsection 1 “a” a bank is not liable for the insolvency, neglect, misconduct, mistake or default of another bank or person or for loss or destruction of an item in transit or in the possession of others.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4202]

554.4203 Effect of instructions.
Subject to the provisions of Article 3 concerning conversion of instruments (section 554.3419) and the provisions of both Article 3 and this Article concerning restrictive endorsements only a collecting bank’s transferor can give instructions which affect the bank or constitute notice to it and a collecting bank is not liable to prior parties for any action taken pursuant to such instructions or in accordance with any agreement with its transferor.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4203]

554.4204 Methods of sending and presenting — sending direct to payor bank.
1. A collecting bank must send items by reasonably prompt method taking into consideration any relevant instructions, the nature of the item, the number of such items on hand, and the cost of collection involved and the method generally used by it or others to present such items.
2. A collecting bank may send
   a. any item direct to the payor bank;
   b. any item to any nonbank payor if authorized by its transferor; and
   c. any item other than documentary drafts to any nonbank payor, if authorized by Federal Reserve regulation or operating letter, clearing house rule or the like.
3. Presentment may be made by a presenting bank at a place where the payor bank has requested that presentment be made.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4204]

554.4205 Supplying missing endorsement — no notice from prior endorsement.
1. A depositary bank which has taken an item for collection may supply any endorsement of the customer which is necessary to title unless the item contains the words “payee’s endorsement required” or the like. In the absence of such a requirement a statement placed on the item by the depositary bank to the effect that the item was deposited by a customer or credited to the customer’s account is effective as the customer’s endorsement.
2. An intermediary bank, or payor bank which is not a depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise afforded by a restrictive endorsement of any person except the bank's immediate transferor.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4205]

554.4206 Transfer between banks.

Any agreed method which identifies the transferor bank is sufficient for the item's further transfer to another bank.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4206]

554.4207 Warranties of customer and collecting bank on transfer or presentment of items — time for claims.

1. Each customer or collecting bank who obtains payment or acceptance of an item and each prior customer and collecting bank warrants to the payor bank or other payor who in good faith pays or accepts the item that

- a. that customer or collecting bank has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and
- b. that customer or collecting bank has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith
  - i. to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or
  - ii. to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or
  - iii. to an acceptor of an item if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and
- c. the item has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith
  - i. to the maker of a note; or
  - ii. to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or
  - iii. to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or
  - iv. to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.

2. Each customer and collecting bank who transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration for it warrants to that customer's and collecting bank's transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank who takes the item in good faith that

- a. that customer and collecting bank has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and
- b. all signatures are genuine or authorized; and
- c. the item has not been materially altered; and
- d. no defense of any party is good against that customer and collecting bank; and
- e. that customer and collecting bank has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted item.

In addition each customer and collecting bank so transferring an item and receiving a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest that customer and collecting bank will take up the item.

3. The warranties and the engagement to honor set forth in the two preceding subsections arise notwithstanding the absence of endorsement or words of guaranty or warranty in the transfer or presentment and a collecting bank remains liable for their breach despite remittance to its transferor. Damages for breach of such warranties or engagement to honor shall not exceed the consideration received by the customer or collecting bank responsible plus finance charges and expenses related to the item, if any.

4. Unless a claim for breach of warranty under this section is made within a reasonable time after the person claiming learns of the breach, the person liable is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in making claim.

554.4208 Security interest of collecting bank in items, accompanying documents and proceeds.

1. A bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either

- a. in case of an item deposited in an account to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;
- b. in case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given whether or not the credit is drawn upon and whether or not there is a right of charge-back; or
- c. if it makes an advance on or against the item.

2. When credit which has been given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.

3. Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents and proceeds. To the extent and so long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues and is subject to the provisions of Article 9 except that

- a. no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (subsection 1 "b"* of section 554.9203); and
§554.4208, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

b. no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

c. the security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents or proceeds.

554.4209 When bank gives value for purposes of holder in due course.

For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, the bank has given value to the extent that it has a security interest in an item provided that the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of section 554.3302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.

[S13, §3060-a27; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9487; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.27; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4209]

554.4210 Presentment by notice of item not payable by, through or at a bank — liability of secondary parties.

1. Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a written notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or payment. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under section 554.3505 by the close of the bank’s next banking day after it knows of the requirement.

2. Where presentment is made by notice and neither honor nor request for compliance with a requirement under section 554.3505 is received by the close of business on the day after maturity or in the case of demand items by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any secondary party by sending the secondary party notice of the facts.

554.4211 Media of remittance — provisional and final settlement in remittance cases.

1. A collecting bank may take in settlement of an item

a. a check of the remitting bank or of another bank on any bank except the remitting bank; or

b. a cashier’s check or similar primary obligation of a remitting bank which is a member of or clears through a member of the same clearing house or group as the collecting bank; or

c. appropriate authority to charge an account of the remitting bank or of another bank with the collecting bank; or

d. if the item is drawn upon or payable by a person other than a bank, a cashier’s check, certified check or other bank check or obligation.

2. If before its midnight deadline the collecting bank properly dishonors a remittance check or authorization to charge on itself or presents or forwards for collection a remittance instrument of or on another bank which is of a kind approved by subsection 1 or has not been authorized by it, the collecting bank is not liable to prior parties in the event of the dishonor of such check, instrument or authorization.

3. A settlement for an item by means of a remittance instrument or authorization to charge is or becomes a final settlement as to both the person making and the person receiving the settlement

a. if the remittance instrument or authorization to charge is of a kind approved by subsection 1 or has not been authorized by the person receiving the settlement and in either case the person receiving the settlement acts seasonably before its midnight deadline in presenting, forwarding for collection or paying the instrument or authorization, — at the time the remittance instrument or authorization is finally paid by the payor by which it is payable;

b. if the person receiving the settlement has authorized remittance by a nonbank check or obligation or by a cashier’s check or similar primary obligation of or a check upon the payor or other remitting bank which is not of a kind approved by subsection 1 "b", — at the time of receipt of such remittance check or obligation; or

c. if in a case not covered by subparagraphs "a" or "b" the person receiving the settlement fails to seasonably present, forward for collection, pay or return a remittance instrument or authorization to it to charge before its midnight deadline, — at such midnight deadline.

554.4212 Right of charge-back or refund.

1. If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and itself fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank or otherwise to receive a settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer’s account or obtain refund from its customer whether or not it is able to return the items if by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts. These rights to revoke, charge back and obtain refund terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final (subsection 3 of section 554.4211 and subsections 2 and 3 of section 554.4213).

2. Within the time and manner prescribed by this section and section 554.4301, an intermediary or payor bank, as the case may be, may return an unpaid item directly to the depositary bank and may send for collection a draft on the depositary bank and obtain reimbursement. In such case, if the depositary bank has received provisional settlement for the item, it must reimburse the bank drawing the draft and any provisional credits for the item between banks shall become and remain final.

3. A depositary bank which is also the payor may charge back the amount of an item to its customer’s account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (section 554.4301).

4. The right to charge-back is not affected by a. prior use of the credit given for the item; or
   b. failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item but any bank so failing remains liable.

5. A failure to charge-back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party.

6. If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in a foreign currency the dollar amount of any charge-back or refund shall be calculated on the basis of the buying sight rate for the foreign currency prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge-back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4212]

554.4213 Final payment of item by payor bank — when provisional debits and credits become final — when certain credits become available for withdrawal.

1. An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has done any of the following, whichever happens first:
   a. paid the item in cash; or
   b. settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement; or
   c. completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith; or
   d. made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearing house rule or agreement.
   Upon a final payment under subparagraphs “b,” “c” or “d” the payor bank shall be accountable for the amount of the item.

2. If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearing house or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank.

3. If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final (subsection 3 of section 554.4211, subsection 2 of this section) the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

4. Subject to any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in an account with its customer becomes available for withdrawal as of right
   a. in any case where the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item, — when such settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to learn that the settlement is final; or
   b. in any case where the bank is both a depositary bank and a payor bank and the item is finally paid, — at the opening of the bank’s second banking day following receipt of the item.

5. A deposit of money in a bank is final when made but, subject to any right of the bank to apply the deposit to an obligation of the customer, the deposit becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank’s next banking day following receipt of the deposit.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4213]

554.4214 Insolvency and preference.

1. Any item in or coming into the possession of a payor or collecting bank which suspends payment and which item is not finally paid shall be returned by the receiver, trustee or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank’s customer.

2. If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.

3. If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement becoming final if such finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events (subsection 3 of section 554.4211, subsections 1 “d”, 2 and 3 of section 554.4213).

4. If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item which settlement is or becomes final and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against such collecting bank.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4214]

PART 3

COLLECTION OF ITEMS: PAYOR BANKS

554.4301 Deferred posting — recovery of payment by return of items — time of dishonor.

1. Where an authorized settlement for a demand item (other than a documentary draft) received by a payor bank otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter has been made before midnight of the banking day of receipt the payor bank may revoke the settlement and recover any payment if before it has made final payment (subsection 1 of section 554.4213) and before its midnight deadline it
   a. returns the item; or
   b. sends written notice of dishonor or nonpayment if the item is held for protest or is otherwise unavailable for return; and the item or notice includes the reason for dishonor or nonpayment.
2. If a demand item is received by a payor bank for credit on its books it may return such item or send notice of dishonor and may revoke any credit given or recover the amount thereof withdrawn by its customer, if it acts within the time limit and in the manner specified in the preceding subsection.

3. Unless previous notice of dishonor has been sent an item is dishonored at the time when for purposes of dishonor it is returned or notice sent in accordance with this section.

4. An item is returned:
   a. as to an item received through a clearing house, when it is delivered to the presenting or last collecting bank or to the clearing house or is sent or delivered in accordance with its rules; or
   b. in all other cases, when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to that customer's or transferor's instructions.

§554.4302 Payor bank's responsibility for late return of item.

In the absence of a valid defense such as breach of a presentment warranty (subsection 1 of section 554.4207), settlement effected or the like, if an item is presented on and received by a payor bank the bank is accountable for the amount of

a. a demand item other than a documentary draft whether properly payable or not if the bank, in any case where it is not also the depositary bank, retains the item beyond midnight of the banking day of receipt without settling for it or, regardless of whether it is also the depositary bank, does not pay or return the item or send notice of dishonor until after its midnight deadline; or
b. any other properly payable item unless within the time allowed for acceptance or payment of that item the bank either accepts or pays the item or returns it and accompanying documents.

§554.4303 When items subject to notice, stop order, legal process or setoff — order in which items may be charged or certified.

1. Any knowledge, notice or stop order received by, legal process served upon or setoff exercised by a payor bank, whether or not effective under other rules of law to terminate, suspend or modify the right or duty of the customer to act thereon expires or the setoff is exercised after the bank has done any of the following:
   a. accepted or certified the item;
   b. paid the item in cash;
   c. settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement;
   d. completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith or otherwise has evidenced by examination of such indicated account and by action its decision to pay the item; or
   e. become accountable for the amount of the item under subsection 1 "d" of section 554.4213 and section 554.4302 dealing with the payor bank's responsibility for late return of items.

2. Subject to the provisions of subsection 1 items may be accepted, paid, certified or charged to the indicated account of its customer in any order convenient to the bank.

§554.4401 When bank may charge customer's account.

1. As against its customer a bank may charge against the customer's account any item which is otherwise properly payable from that account even though the charge creates an overdraft.

2. A bank which in good faith makes payment to a holder may charge the indicated account of its customer according to
   a. the original tenor of the customer's altered item; or
   b. the tenor of the customer's completed item, even though the bank knows the item has been completed unless the bank has notice that the completion was improper.

§554.4402 Bank's liability to customer for wrongful dishonor.

A payor bank is liable to its customer for damages proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor of an item. When the dishonor occurs through mistake liability is limited to actual damages proved. If so proximately caused and proved damages may include damages for an arrest or prosecution of the customer or other consequential damages. Whether any consequential damages are proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor is a question of fact to be determined in each case.

§554.4403 Customer's right to stop payment — burden of proof of loss.

1. A customer may by order to the customer's bank stop payment of any item payable for the customer's account but the order must be received at such time and in such manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to any action by the bank with respect to the item described in section 554.4303.

2. An oral order is binding upon the bank only for fourteen calendar days unless confirmed in writing within that period. A written order is effective for only six months unless renewed in writing.

3. The burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a binding stop payment order is on the customer.

[C31, 35, §9266 d1, C39, §9266.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §528 62, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4403]

554.4404 Bank not obligated to pay check more than six months old.

A bank is under no obligation to a customer having a checking account to pay a check, other than a certified check, which is presented more than six months after its date, but it may charge its customer’s account for a payment made thereafter in good faith.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4404]

554.4405 Death or incompetence of customer.

1 A payor or collecting bank’s authority to accept, pay or collect an item or to account for proceeds of its collection, if otherwise effective, is not rendered ineffective by incompetence of a customer of either bank existing at the time the item is issued or its collection is undertaken if the bank does not know of an adjudication of incompetence. Neither death nor incompetence of a customer revokes such authority to accept, pay, collect or account until the bank knows of the fact of death or of an adjudication of incompetence and has reasonable opportunity to act on it.

2 Even with knowledge a bank may for ten days after the date of death pay or certify checks drawn on or prior to that date unless ordered to stop payment by a person claiming an interest in the account.

[S13, §3060-a76, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9536; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 76, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4405]

554.4406 Customer’s duty to discover and report unauthorized signature or alteration.

1 When a bank sends to its customer a statement of account accompanied by items paid in good faith in support of the debit entries or holds the statement and items pursuant to a request or instructions of its customer or otherwise in a reasonable manner makes the statement and items available to the customer, the customer must exercise reasonable care and promptness to examine the statement and items to discover the customer’s unauthorized signature or any alteration on an item and must notify the bank promptly after discovery thereof.

2 If the bank establishes that the customer failed with respect to an item to comply with the duties imposed on the customer by subsection 1 the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank

a the customer’s unauthorized signature or any alteration on the item if the bank also establishes that it suffered a loss by reason of such failure, and

b an unauthorized signature or alteration by the same wrongdoer on any other item paid in good faith by the bank after the first item and statement was available to the customer for a reasonable period not exceeding fourteen calendar days and before the bank receives notification from the customer of any such unauthorized signature or alteration.

3 The preclusion under subsection 2 does not apply if the customer establishes lack of ordinary care on the part of the bank in paying the item(s).

4 Without regard to care or lack of care of either the customer or the bank a customer who does not within one year from the time the statement and items are made available to the customer (subsection 1) discover and report the customer’s unauthorized signature or any alteration on the face or back of the item or does not within three years from that time discover and report any unauthorized endorsement is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or endorsement or such alteration.

5 If under this section a payor bank has a valid defense against a claim of a customer upon or resulting from payment of an item and waives or fails upon request to assert the defense the bank may not assert against any collecting bank or other prior party presenting or transferring the item a claim based upon the unauthorized signature or alteration giving rise to the customer’s claim.

554.4407 Payor bank’s right to subrogation on improper payment.

If a payor bank has paid an item over the stop payment order of the drawer or maker or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker, to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of its payment of the item, the payor bank shall be subrogated to the rights a of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker, and b of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker either on the item or under the transaction out of which the item arose, and c of the drawer or maker against the payee or any other holder of the item with respect to the transaction out of which the item arose.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4407]

COLLECTION OF DOCUMENTARY DRAFTS

554.4501 Handling of documentary drafts — duty to send for presentment and to notify customer of dishonor.

A bank which takes a documentary draft for collection must present or send the draft and accompanying documents for presentment and upon learning that the draft has not been paid or accepted in due course must seasonably notify its customer of such fact even though it may have discounted or bought the draft or extended credit available for withdrawal as of right.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 4501]

554.4502 Presentment of “on arrival” drafts.

When a draft or the relevant instructions require presentment “on arrival”, “when goods arrive” or the like, the collecting bank need not present until in its judgment a reasonable time for arrival of the goods has expired. Refusal to pay or accept because the goods have not arrived is not dishonor; the bank must notify its transferor of such refusal but need not present the draft again until it is instructed to do so or learns of the arrival of the goods.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4502]

554.4503 Responsibility of presenting bank for documents and goods — report of reasons for dishonor — referee in case of need.

Unless otherwise instructed and except as provided in Article 5 a bank presenting a documentary draft

a. must deliver the documents to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment; and

b. upon dishonor, either in the case of presentment for acceptance or presentment for payment, may seek and follow instructions from any referee in case of need designated in the draft or if the presenting bank does not choose to utilize the referee’s services it must use diligence and good faith to ascertain the reason for dishonor, must notify its transferor of the dishonor and of the results of its effort to ascertain the reasons therefor and must request instructions.

But the presenting bank is under no obligation with respect to goods represented by the documents except to follow any reasonable instructions seasonably received; it has a right to reimbursement for any expense incurred in following instructions and to prepayment of or indemnity for such expenses.

[S13, §3060-a131, 3138-b40; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8285, 9592; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487.41, 541.132; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.4503]

554.4504 Privilege of presenting bank to deal with goods — security interest for expenses.

1. A presenting bank which, following the dishonor of a documentary draft, has seasonably requested instructions but does not receive them within a reasonable time may store, sell, or otherwise deal with the goods in any reasonable manner.

2. For its reasonable expenses incurred by action under subsection 1 the presenting bank has a lien upon the goods or their proceeds, which may be foreclosed in the same manner as an unpaid seller’s lien.

ARTICLE 5

LETTERS OF CREDIT

554.5101 Short title.

This Article shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code — Letters of Credit.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5101]

554.5102 Scope.

1. This Article applies

a. to a credit issued by a bank if the credit requires a documentary draft or a documentary demand for payment; and

b. to a credit issued by a person other than a bank if the credit requires that the draft or demand for payment be accompanied by a document of title; and

c. to a credit issued by a bank or other person if the credit is not within subparagraph “a” or “b” but conspicuously states that it is a letter of credit or is conspicuously so entitled.

2. Unless the engagement meets the requirements of subsection 1, this Article does not apply to engagements to make advances or to honor drafts or demands for payment, to authorities to pay or purchase, to guarantees or to general agreements.

3. This Article deals with some but not all of the rules and concepts of letters of credit as such rules or concepts have developed prior to this chapter or may hereafter develop. The fact that this Article states a rule does not by itself require, imply or negate application of the same or a converse rule to a situation not provided for or to a person not specified by this Article.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5102]

554.5103 Definitions.

1. In this Article unless the context otherwise requires

a. “Credit” or “letter of credit” means an engagement by a bank or other person made at the request of a customer and of a kind within the scope of this Article (section 554.5102) that the issuer will honor drafts or other demands for payment upon compliance with the conditions specified in the credit. A credit may be either revocable or irrevocable. The engagement may be either an agreement to honor or a statement that the bank or other person is authorized to honor.

b. A “documentary draft” or a “documentary demand for payment” is one honor of which is conditioned upon the presentation of a document or documents. “Document” means any paper including document of title, security, invoice, certificate, notice of default and the like.

c. An “issuer” is a bank or other person issuing a credit.

d. A “beneficiary” of a credit is a person who is entitled under its terms to draw or demand payment.

e. An “advising bank” is a bank which gives notification of the issuance of a credit by another bank.

f. A “confirming bank” is a bank which engages either that it will itself honor a credit already issued by another bank or that such a credit will be honored by the issuer or a third bank.

g. A “customer” is a buyer or other person who causes an issuer to issue a credit. The term also includes a bank which procures issuance or confirmation on behalf of that bank’s customer.

2. Other definitions applying to this Article and the sections in which they appear are:

“Presenter”. Section 554.5112(3).
3. Definitions in other Articles applying to this Article and the sections in which they appear are:

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5103]

554.5104 Formal requirements — signing.

1. Except as otherwise required in subsection 1 "c" of section 554.5102 on scope, no particular form of phrasing is required for a credit. A credit must be in writing and signed by the issuer and a confirmation must be in writing and signed by the confirming bank. A modification of the terms of a credit or confirmation must be signed by the issuer or confirming bank.

2. A telegram may be a sufficient signed writing if it identifies its sender by an authorized authentication. The authentication may be in code and the authorized naming of the issuer in an advice of credit is a sufficient signing.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5104]

554.5105 Consideration.

No consideration is necessary to establish a credit or to enlarge or otherwise modify its terms.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5105]

554.5106 Time and effect of establishment of credit.

1. Unless otherwise agreed a credit is established

a. as regards the customer as soon as a letter of credit is sent to the customer or the letter of credit or an authorized written advice of its issuance is sent to the beneficiary; and

b. as regards the beneficiary when the beneficiary receives a letter of credit or an authorized written advice of its issuance.

2. Unless otherwise agreed once an irrevocable credit is established as regards the customer it can be modified or revoked only with the consent of the customer and once it is established as regards the beneficiary it can be modified or revoked only with the beneficiary's consent.

3. Unless otherwise agreed after a revocable credit is established it may be modified or revoked by the issuer without notice to or consent from the customer or beneficiary.

4. Notwithstanding any modification or revocation of a revocable credit any person authorized to honor or negotiate under the terms of the original credit is entitled to reimbursement for or honor of any draft or demand for payment duly honored or negotiated before receipt of notice of the modification or revocation and the issuer in turn is entitled to reimbursement from its customer.

554.5107 Advice of credit — confirmation — error in statement of terms.

1. Unless otherwise specified an advising bank by advising a credit issued by another bank does not assume any obligation to honor drafts drawn or demands for payment made under the credit but it does assume obligation for the accuracy of its own statement.

2. A confirming bank by confirming a credit becomes directly obligated on the credit to the extent of its confirmation as though it were its issuer and acquires the rights of an issuer.

3. Even though an advising bank incorrectly advises the terms of a credit it has been authorized to advise the credit is established as against the issuer to the extent of its original terms.

4. Unless otherwise specified the customer bears as against the issuer all risks of transmission and reasonable translation or interpretation of any message relating to a credit.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5107]

554.5108 "Notation credit" — exhaustion of credit.

1. A credit which specifies that any person purchasing or paying drafts drawn or demands for payment made under it must note the amount of the draft or demand on the letter or advice of credit is a "notation credit".

2. Under a notation credit

a. a person paying the beneficiary or purchasing a draft or demand for payment from the beneficiary acquires a right to honor only if the appropriate notation is made and by transferring or forwarding for honor the documents under the credit such a person warrants to the issuer that the notation has been made; and

b. unless the credit or a signed statement that an appropriate notation has been made accompanies the draft or demand for payment the issuer may delay honor until evidence of notation has been procured which is satisfactory to it but its obligation and that of its customer continue for a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days to obtain such evidence.

3. If the credit is not a notation credit

a. the issuer may honor complying drafts or demands for payment presented to it in the order in which they are presented and is discharged pro tanto by honor of any such draft or demand;

b. as between competing good faith purchasers of complying drafts or demands the person first purchasing has priority over a subsequent purchaser even though the later purchased draft or demand has been first honored.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5108]

554.5109 Issuer's obligation to its customer.

1. An issuer's obligation to its customer includes good faith and observance of any general banking usage but unless otherwise agreed does not include liability or responsibility

a. for performance of the underlying contract for sale or other transaction between the customer and the beneficiary; or

b. for any act or omission of any person other than
§554.5109, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

itself or its own branch or for loss or destruction of a draft, demand or document in transit or in the possession of others; or

2. An issuer must examine documents with care so as to ascertain that on their face they appear to comply with the terms of the credit but unless otherwise agreed assumes no liability or responsibility for the genuineness, falsification or effect of any document which appears on such examination to be regular on its face.

3. A nonbank issuer is not bound by any banking usage of which it has no knowledge.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5109]

554.5110 Availability of credit in portions — presenter’s reservation of lien or claim.

1. Unless otherwise specified a credit may be used in portions in the discretion of the beneficiary.

2. Unless otherwise specified a person by presenting a documentary draft or demand for payment under a credit relinquishes upon its honor all claims to the documents and a person by transferring such draft or demand or causing such presentment authorizes such relinquishment. An explicit reservation of claim makes the draft or demand noncomplying.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5110]

554.5111 Warranties on transfer and presentment.

1. Unless otherwise agreed the beneficiary by transferring or presenting a documentary draft or demand for payment warrants to all interested parties that the necessary conditions of the credit have been complied with. This is in addition to any warranties arising under Articles 3, 4, 7 and 8.

2. Unless otherwise agreed a negotiating, advising, confirming, collecting or issuing bank presenting or transferring a draft or demand for payment under a credit warrants only the matters warranted by a collecting bank under Article 4 and any such bank transferring a document warrants only the matters warranted by an intermediary under Articles 7 and 8.

554.5112 Time allowed for honor or rejection — withholding honor or rejection by consent — "presenter".

1. A bank to which a documentary draft or demand for payment is presented under a credit may without dishonor of the draft, demand or credit defer honor until the close of the third banking day following receipt of the documents; and

2. Upon dishonor the bank may unless otherwise instructed fulfill its duty to return the draft or demand and the documents by holding them at the disposal of the presenter and sending the presenter an advice to that effect.

3. "Presenter" means any person presenting a draft or demand for payment for honor under a credit even though that person is a confirming bank or other correspondent which is acting under an issuer’s authorization.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5112]

554.5113 Indemnities.

1. A bank seeking to obtain (whether for itself or another) honor, negotiation or reimbursement under a credit may give an indemnity to induce such honor, negotiation or reimbursement.

2. An indemnity agreement inducing honor, negotiation or reimbursement

   a. unless otherwise explicitly agreed applies to defects in the documents but not in the goods; and

   b. unless a longer time is explicitly agreed expires at the end of ten business days following receipt of the documents by the ultimate customer unless notice of objection is sent before such expiration date. The ultimate customer may send notice of objection to the person from whom that customer received the documents and any bank receiving such notice is under a duty to send notice to its transferor before its midnight deadline.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.5113]

554.5114 Issuer’s duty and privilege to honor — right to reimbursement.

1. An issuer must honor a draft or demand for payment which complies with the terms of the relevant credit regardless of whether the goods or documents conform to the underlying contract for sale or other contract between the customer and the beneficiary. The issuer is not excused from honor of such a draft or demand by reason of an additional general term that all documents must be satisfactory to the issuer, but an issuer may require that specified documents must be satisfactory to it.

2. Unless otherwise agreed when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document does not in fact conform to the warranties made on negotiation or transfer of a document of title (section 554.7507) or of a security (section 554.8306) or is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction

   a. the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by a negotiating bank of other holder of the draft or demand which has taken the draft or demand under the credit and under circumstances which would make it a holder in due course (section 554.3302) and in an appropriate case would make it a person to whom a document of title has been duly negotiated (section 554.7502) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (section 554.8302); and

   b. in all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or demand for payment despite notification from the customer of fraud, forgery or other defect not apparent on the face of the documents but a court of appropriate jurisdiction may enjoin such honor.
3. Unless otherwise agreed an issuer which has duly honored a draft or demand for payment is entitled to immediate reimbursement of any payment made under the credit and to be put in effectively available funds not later than the day before maturity of any acceptance made under the credit.

4. When a credit provides for payment by the issuer on receipt of notice that the required documents are in the possession of a correspondent or other agent of the issuer
   a. any payment made on receipt of such notice is conditional; and
   b. the issuer may reject documents which do not comply with the credit if it does so within three banking days following its receipt of the documents; and
   c. in the event of such rejection, the issuer is entitled by charge-back or otherwise to return of the payment made.

5. In the case covered by subsection 4 failure to reject documents within the time specified in subparagraph "b" constitutes acceptance of the documents and makes the payment final in favor of the beneficiary.

554.5115 Remedy for improper dishonor or anticipatory repudiation.

1. When an issuer wrongfully dishonors a draft or demand for payment presented under a credit the person entitled to honor has with respect to any documents the rights of a person in the position of a seller (section 554.2707) and may recover from the issuer the face amount of the draft or demand together with incidental damages under section 554.2710 on seller's incidental damages and interest but less any amount realized by resale or other use or disposition of the subject matter of the transaction. In the event no resale or other utilization is made the documents, goods or other subject matter involved in the transaction must be turned over to the issuer on payment of judgment.

2. When an issuer wrongfully cancels or otherwise repudiates a credit before presentment of a draft or demand for payment drawn under it the beneficiary has the rights of a seller after anticipatory repudiation by the buyer under section 554.2610 if the beneficiary learns of the repudiation in time reasonably to avoid procurement of the required documents. Otherwise the beneficiary has an immediate right of action for wrongful dishonor.

554.5116 Transfer and assignment.

1. The right to draw under a credit can be transferred or assigned only when the credit is expressly designated as transferable or assignable.

2. Even though the credit specifically states that it is nontransferable or nonassignable the beneficiary may before performance of the conditions of the credit assign the beneficiary's right to proceeds. Such an assignment is an assignment of an account under Article 9 on Secured Transactions and is governed by that Article except that
   a. the assignment is ineffective until the letter of credit or advice of credit is delivered to the assignee which delivery constitutes perfection of the security interest under Article 9; and
   b. the issuer may honor drafts or demands for payment drawn under the credit until it receives a notification of the assignment signed by the beneficiary which reasonably identifies the credit involved in the assignment and contains a request to pay the assignee; and
   c. after what reasonably appears to be such a notification has been received the issuer may without dishonor refuse to accept or pay even to a person otherwise entitled to honor until the letter of credit or advice of credit is exhibited to the issuer.

3. Except where the beneficiary has effectively assigned the beneficiary's right to draw or the beneficiary's right to proceeds, nothing in this section limits the beneficiary's right to transfer or negotiate drafts or demands drawn under the credit.

554.5117 Insolvency of bank holding funds for documentary credit.

1. Where an issuer or an advising or confirming bank or a bank which has for a customer procured issuance of a credit by another bank becomes insolvent before final payment under the credit and the credit is one to which this Article is made applicable by paragraphs "a" or "b" of section 554.5102 subsection 1 on scope, the receipt or allocation of funds or collateral to secure or meet obligations under the credit shall have the following results:
   a. to the extent of any funds or collateral turned over after or before the insolvency as indemnity against or specifically for the purpose of payment of drafts or demands for payment drawn under the designated credit, the drafts or demands are entitled to payment in preference over depositors or other general creditors of the issuer or bank; and
   b. on expiration of the credit or surrender of the beneficiary's rights under it unused any person who has given such funds or collateral is similarly entitled to return thereof; and
   c. a change to a general or current account with a bank if specifically consented to for the purpose of indemnity against or payment of drafts or demands for payment drawn under the designated credit falls under the same rules as if the funds had been drawn out in cash and then turned over with specific instructions.

2. After honor or reimbursement under this section the customer or other person for whose account the insolvent bank has acted is entitled to receive the documents involved.

554.6101 Short title.

This Article shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code — Bulk Transfers.

ARTICLE 6

BULK TRANSFERS
§554.6102 “Bulk transfers” — transfers of equipment — enterprises subject to this Article — bulk transfers subject to this Article.
1. A “bulk transfer” is any transfer in bulk and not in the ordinary course of the transferor’s business of a major part in value of the materials, supplies, merchandise or other inventory (section 554.9109) of an enterprise subject to this Article.
2. A transfer of a substantial part of the equipment (section 554.9109) of such an enterprise is a bulk transfer if it is made in connection with a bulk transfer of inventory, but not otherwise.
3. The enterprises subject to this Article are all those whose principal business is the sale of merchandise from stock, including those who manufacture what they sell.
4. Except as limited by the following section all bulk transfers of goods located within this state are subject to this Article.
[S13, §2911-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10009; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §555.2; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.6102]

§554.6103 Transfers excepted from this Article.
The following transfers are not subject to this Article:
1. Those made to give security for the performance of an obligation;
2. General assignments for the benefit of all the creditors of the transferor, and subsequent transfers by the assignee thereunder;
3. Transfers in settlement or realization of a lien or other security interest;
4. Sales by executors, administrators, receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or any public officer under judicial process;
5. Sales made in the course of judicial or administrative proceedings for the dissolution or reorganization of a corporation and of which notice is sent to the creditors of the corporation pursuant to order of the court or administrative agency;
6. Transfers to a person maintaining a known place of business in this state who becomes bound to pay the debts of the transferor in full and gives public notice of that fact, and who is solvent after becoming so bound;
7. A transfer to a new business enterprise organized to take over and continue the business, if public notice of the transaction is given and the new enterprise assumes the debts of the transferor and the transferor receives nothing from the transaction except an interest in the new enterprise junior to the claims of creditors;
8. Transfers of property which is exempt from taxation under subsection 6 or subsection 7 may be given by publishing once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation where the transferor had its principal place of business in this state an advertisement including the names and addresses of the transferor and transferee and the effective date of the transfer.
[S13, §2911-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10010; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §555.3; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.6103]

§554.6104 Schedule of property, list of creditors.
1. Except as provided with respect to auction sales (section 554.6108), a bulk transfer subject to this Article is ineffective against any creditor of the transferor unless:
   a. The transferee requires the transferor to furnish a list of the transferor’s existing creditors prepared as stated in this section; and
   b. The parties prepare a schedule of the property transferred sufficient to identify it; and
   c. The transferee preserves the list and schedule for six months next following the transfer and permits inspection of either or both and copying therefrom at all reasonable hours by any creditor of the transferor, or files the list and schedule in the office of the recorder in the county or counties where the goods are located.
2. The list of creditors must be signed and sworn to or affirmed by the transferor or the transferor’s agent. It must contain the names and business addresses of all creditors of the transferor, with the amounts when known, and also the names of all persons who are known to the transferor to assert claims against the transferor even though such claims are disputed. If the transferor is the obligor of an outstanding issue of bonds, debentures or the like as to which there is an indenture trustee, the list of creditors need include only the name and address of the indenture trustee and the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the issue.
3. Responsibility for the completeness and accuracy of the list of creditors rests on the transferor, and the transfer is not rendered ineffective by errors or omissions therein unless the transferee is shown to have had knowledge.
[S15, §2911-a, -b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10008; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §555.1; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.6104]

§554.6105 Notice to creditors.
In addition to the requirements of the preceding section, any bulk transfer subject to this Article except one made by auction sale (section 554.6108) is ineffective against any creditor of the transferor unless at least ten days before the transferee takes possession of the goods or pays for them, whichever happens first, the transferee gives notice of the transfer in the manner and to the persons hereafter provided (section 554.6107).
[S15, §2911-a, -b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10008; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §555.1; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.6105]

§554.6106 Reserved.

§554.6107 The notice.
1. The notice to creditors (section 554.6105) shall state:
   a. that a bulk transfer is about to be made; and
   b. the names and business addresses of the trans-feror and transferee, and all other business names and addresses used by the transferor within three years last past so far as known to the transferee, and whether or not all the debts of the transferor are to be paid in full as they fall due as a result of the transaction, and if so, the address to which creditors should send their bills.

2. If the debts of the transferor are not to be paid in full as they fall due or if the transferee is in doubt on that point then the notice shall state further:

a. The location and general description of the property to be transferred and the estimated total of the transferor's debts,

b. The address where the schedule of property and list of creditors (section 554.6104) may be inspected,

c. Whether the transfer is to pay existing debts and if so the amount of such debts and to whom owing,

d. Whether the transfer is for new consideration and if so the amount of such consideration and the time and place of payment.

3. The notice in any case shall be delivered personally or sent by registered or certified mail to all the persons shown on the list of creditors furnished by the transferor (section 554.6104) and to all other persons who are known to the transferee to hold or assert claims against the transferor.

[§1008; §555.1, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.6107]

554.6108 Auction sales — "auctioneer".

1. A bulk transfer is subject to this Article even though it is by sale at auction, but only in the manner and with the results stated in this section.

2. The transferor shall furnish a list of the transferor's creditors and assist in the preparation of a schedule of the property to be sold, both prepared as before stated (section 554.6104).

3. The person or persons other than the transferor who direct, control or are responsible for the auction are collectively called the "auctioneer". The auctioneer shall:

a. Receive and retain the list of creditors and prepare and retain the schedule of property for the period stated in this Article (section 554.6104).

b. Give notice of the auction personally or by registered or certified mail at least ten days before it occurs to all persons shown on the list of creditors and to all other persons who are known to the auctioneer to hold or assert claims against the transferor.

4. Failure of the auctioneer to perform any of these duties does not affect the validity of the sale or the title of the purchasers, but if the auctioneer knows that the auction constitutes a bulk transfer such failure renders the auctioneer liable to the creditors of the transferor as a class for the sums owing to them from the transferor up to but not exceeding the net proceeds of the auction. If the auctioneer consents of several persons their liability is joint and several.

554.6109 What creditors protected.

The creditors of the transferor mentioned in this Article are those holding claims based on transactions or events occurring before the bulk transfer, but creditors who become such after notice to creditors is given (sections 554.6105 and 554.6107) are not entitled to notice.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10012; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §555.5, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.6109]

554.6110 Subsequent transfers.

When the title of a transferee to property is subject to a defect by reason of the transferee's noncompliance with the requirements of this Article, then:

1. A purchaser of any of such property from such transferee who pays no value or who takes with notice of such noncompliance takes subject to such defect, but

2. A purchaser for value in good faith and without such notice takes free of such defect.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10010; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §555.4, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.6110]

554.6111 Limitation of actions and levies.

No action under this Article shall be brought nor levy made more than six months after the date on which the transferee took possession of the goods unless the transfer has been concealed. If the transfer has been concealed, actions may be brought or levies made within six months after its discovery.

§554.7102, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

fined in the general definitions in Article 1 (section 554 1201)

f "Goods" means all things which are treated or movable for the purposes of a contract of storage or transportation

g "Issuer" means a bailee who issues a document except that in relation to an unaccepted delivery order it means the person who orders the possessor of goods to deliver. Issuer includes any person for whom an agent or employee purports to act in issuing a document if the agent or employee has real or apparent authority to issue documents, notwithstanding that the issuer received no goods or that the goods were misdescribed or that in any other respect the agent or employee violated that agent's or employee's instructions.

h "Warehouse operator" is a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

554.7104 Negotiable and nonnegotiable warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document of title.

1 A warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document of title is negotiable a if by its terms the goods are to be delivered to bearer or to the order of a named person, or b where recognized in overseas trade, if it runs to a named person or assigns

2 Any other document is nonnegotiable. A bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned to a named person is not made negotiable by a provision that the goods are to be delivered only against a written order signed by the same or another named person.

PART 2

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS SPECIAL PROVISIONS

554.7201 Who may issue a warehouse receipt — storage under government bond.

1 A warehouse receipt may be issued by any warehouse operator.

2 Where goods including distilled spirits and agricultural commodities are stored under a statute requiring a bond against withdrawal or a license for the issuance of receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, a receipt issued for the goods has like effect as a warehouse receipt even though issued by a person who is the owner of the goods and is not a warehouse operator.

554.7202 Form of warehouse receipt — essential terms — optional terms.

1 A warehouse receipt need not be in any particular form.

2 Unless a warehouse receipt embodies within its written or printed terms each of the following, the warehouse operator is liable for damages caused by the omission to a person injured thereby:

a the location of the warehouse where the goods are stored, b the date of issue of the receipt,

c the consecutive number of the receipt,

d a statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or to a person or that person's order, e the rate of storage and handling charges, except that where goods are stored under a field warehousing arrangement a statement of that fact is sufficient on a nonnegotiable receipt,

f a description of the goods or of the packages containing them, g the signature of the warehouse operator, which may be made by the warehouse operator's authorized agent, h if the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouse operator is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership, i a statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouse operator claims a lien or security interest (section 554 7108, 7109, 7110), or j the date of the storage of the goods (section 554 7112, 7113).

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7202]
554.7209) If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouse operator or to the warehouse operator’s agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

3 A warehouse operator may insert in the receipt any other terms which are not contrary to the provisions of this chapter and do not impair the warehouse operator’s obligation of delivery (section 554.7403) or duty of care (section 554.7204). Any contrary provisions shall be ineffective.

[S13, §3138-a2, -a7, C24, 27, 31, 35, §975 g19, C39, §9662, 9667, 9751.19; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §542 2, 542 7, 543 21, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7202]

554.7203 Liability for nonreceipt or misdescription.

A party to or purchaser for value in good faith of a document of title other than a bill of lading relying in either case upon the description therein of the goods may recover from the issuer damages caused by the nonreceipt or misdescription of the goods, except to the extent that the document conspicuously indicates that the issuer does not know whether any part or all of the goods in fact were received or conform to the description, as where the description is in terms of marks or labels or kind, quantity or condition, or the receipt or description is qualified by “contents, condition and quality unknown”, “said to contain” or the like, if such indication be true, or the party or purchaser otherwise has notice.

554.7204 Duty of care — contractual limitation of warehouse operator’s liability.

1 A warehouse operator is liable for damages for loss of or injury to the goods caused by the warehouse operator’s failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful person would exercise under like circumstances but unless otherwise agreed the warehouse operator is not liable for damages which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care.

2 Damages may be limited by a term in the warehouse receipt or storage agreement limiting the amount of liability in case of loss or damage, and setting forth a specific liability per article or item, or value per unit of weight, beyond which the warehouse operator shall not be liable, provided, however, that such liability may on written request of the bailor at the time of signing such storage agreement or within a reasonable time after receipt of the warehouse receipt be increased on part or all of the goods thereunder, in which event increased rates may be charged based on such increased valuation, but that no such increase shall be permitted contrary to a lawful limitation of liability contained in the warehouse operator’s tariff, if any. No such limitation is effective with respect to the warehouse operator’s liability for conversion to the warehouse operator’s own use.

3 Reasonable provisions as to the time and manner of presenting claims and instituting actions based on the bailment may be included in the warehouse receipt or tariff.

554.7205 Title under warehouse receipt defeated in certain cases.

A buyer in the ordinary course of business of fungible goods sold and delivered by a warehouse operator who is also in the business of buying and selling such goods takes free of any claim under a warehouse receipt even though it has been duly negotiated.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7205]

554.7206 Termination of storage at warehouse operator’s option.

1 A warehouse operator may on notifying the person on whose account the goods are held and any other person known to claim an interest in the goods require payment of any charges and removal of the goods from the warehouse at the termination of the period of storage fixed by the document, or, if no period is fixed, within a stated period not less than thirty days after the notification. If the goods are not removed before the date specified in the notification, the warehouse operator may sell them in accordance with the provisions of the section on enforcement of a warehouse operator’s lien (section 554.7210).

2 If a warehouse operator in good faith believes that the goods are about to deteriorate or decline in value to less than the amount of the warehouse operator’s lien within the time prescribed in subsection 1 for notification, advertisement and sale, the warehouse operator may specify in the notification any reasonable shorter time for removal of the goods and in case the goods are not removed, may sell them at public sale held not less than one week after a single advertisement or posting.

3 If as a result of a quality or condition of the goods of which the warehouse operator had no notice at the time of deposit the goods are a hazard to other property or to the warehouse or to persons, the warehouse operator may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertisement on reasonable notification to all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. If the warehouse operator after a reasonable effort is unable to sell the goods the warehouse operator may dispose of them in any lawful manner and shall incur no liability by reason of such disposition.

4 The warehouse operator must deliver the goods to any person entitled to them under this Article upon due demand made at any time prior to sale or other disposition under this section.

5 The warehouse operator may satisfy the warehouse operator’s lien from the proceeds of any sale or disposition under this section but must hold the balance for delivery on the demand of any person to whom the warehouse operator would have been bound to deliver the goods

[S13, §3138-a34, C24, 27, 31, §9694, C35, §9694, 9751-g21, C39, §9694, 9751.21; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §542 34, 543 23, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §545 7206]

554.7207 Goods must be kept separate — fungible goods.
1 Unless the warehouse receipt otherwise provides, a warehouse operator must keep separate the goods covered by each receipt so as to permit at all times identification and delivery of those goods except that different lots of fungible goods may be commingled
2 Fungible goods so commingled are owned in common by the persons entitled thereto and the warehouse operator is severally liable to each owner for that owner's share Where because of overissue a mass of fungible goods is insufficient to meet all the receipts which the warehouse operator has issued against it, the persons entitled include all holders to whom over-issued receipts have been duly negotiated

[S13, §3138 a22, -a23, -a24, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9682-9684; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §542 22-542 24, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7207]

554.7208 Altered warehouse receipts.
Where a blank in a negotiable warehouse receipt has been filled in without authority, a purchaser for value and without notice of the want of authority may treat the insertion as authorized Any other unauthorized alteration leaves any receipt enforceable against the issuer according to its original tenor

554.7209 Lien of warehouse operator.
1 A warehouse operator has a lien against the bailor on the goods covered by a warehouse receipt or on the proceeds thereof in the warehouse operator's possession for charges for storage or transportation (including demurrage and terminal charges), insurance, labor, or charges present or future in relation to the goods, and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law If the person on whose account the goods are held is liable for like charges or expenses in relation to other goods whenever deposited and it is stated in the receipt that a lien is claimed for charges and expenses in relation to other goods, the warehouse operator also has a lien against that person for such charges and expenses whether or not the other goods have been delivered by the warehouse operator But against a person to whom a negotiable warehouse receipt is duly negoti a warehouse operator's lien is limited to charges in an amount or at a rate specified on the receipt or if no charges are so specified then to a reasonable charge for storage of the goods covered by the receipt subsequent to the date of the receipt
2 The warehouse operator may also reserve a security interest against the bailor for a maximum amount specified on the receipt for charges other than those specified in subsection 1, such as for money advanced and interest Such a security interest is governed by the Article on Secured Transactions (Article 9)
3 a A warehouse operator's lien for charges and expenses under subsection 1 or a security interest under subsection 2 is also effective against any person who so entrusted the bailor with possession of the goods that a pledge of them by the bailor to a good faith purchaser for value would have been valid but is not effective against a person as to whom the document confers no right in the goods covered by it under section 554 7503
b A warehouse operator's lien on household goods for charges and expenses in relation to the goods under subsection 1 is also effective against all persons if the depositor was the legal possessor of the goods at the time of deposit "Household goods" means furniture, furnishings and personal effects used by the depositor in a dwelling 4 A warehouse operator loses the warehouse operator's lien on any goods which the warehouse operator voluntarily delivers or unjustifiably refuses to deliver 554.7210 Enforcement of warehouse operator's lien.

1 Except as provided in subsection 2, a warehouse operator's lien may be enforced by public or private sale of the goods in block or in parcels, at any time or place and on any terms which are commercially reasonable, after notifying all persons known to claim an interest in the goods Such notification must include a statement of the amount due, the nature of the proposed sale and the time and place of any public sale The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the warehouse operator is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner If the warehouse operator either sells the goods in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor, or if the warehouse operator sells at the price current in such market at the time of the warehouse operator's sale, or if the warehouse operator has otherwise sold in conformity with commercially reasonable practices among dealers in the type of goods sold, the warehouse operator has sold in a commercially reasonable manner A sale of more goods than apparently necessary to be offered to insure satisfaction of the obligation is not commercially reasonable except in cases covered by the preceding sentence
2 A warehouse operator's lien on goods other than goods stored by a merchant in the course of the merchant's business may be enforced only as follows:
   a. All persons known to claim an interest in the goods must be notified.
   b. The notification must be delivered in person or sent by registered or certified letter to the last known address of any person to be notified.
   c. The notification must include an itemized statement of the claim, a description of the goods subject to the lien, a demand for payment within a specified time not less than ten days after receipt of the notification, and a conspicuous statement that unless the claim is paid within that time the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.
   d. The sale must conform to the terms of the notification.
   e. The sale must be held at the nearest suitable place to that where the goods are held or stored.
   f. After the expiration of the time given in the notification, an advertisement of the sale must be published once a week for two weeks consecutively in a newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held. The advertisement must include a description of the goods, the name of the person on whose account they are being held, and the time and place of the sale. The sale must take place at least fifteen days after the first publication. If there is no newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held, the advertisement must be posted at least ten days before the sale in not less than six conspicuous places in the neighborhood of the proposed sale.

3. Before any sale pursuant to this section any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred under this section. In that event the goods must not be sold, but must be retained by the warehouse operator subject to the terms of the receipt and this Article.

4. The warehouse operator may buy at any public sale pursuant to this section.

5. A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a warehouse operator's lien takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was valid, despite noncompliance by the warehouse operator with the requirements of this section.

6. The warehouse operator may satisfy the warehouse operator's lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but must hold the balance, if any, for delivery on demand to any person to whom the warehouse operator would have been bound to deliver the goods.

7. The rights provided by this section shall be in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against the creditor's debtor.

8. Where a lien is on goods stored by a merchant in the course of the merchant's business the lien may be enforced in accordance with either subsection 1 or 2.

9. The warehouse operator is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and in case of willful violation is liable for conversion.

PART 3

BILLS OF LADING SPECIAL PROVISIONS

554.7301 Liability for nonreceipt or misdescription — “said to contain” — “shipper’s load and count” — improper handling.

1. A consignee of a nonnegotiable bill who has given value in good faith or a holder to whom a negotiable bill has been duly negotiated relying in either case upon the description therein of the goods, or upon the date therein shown, may recover from the issuer damages caused by the misdating of the bill or the nonreceipt or misdescription of the goods, except to the extent that the document indicates that the issuer does not know whether any part or all of the goods in fact were received or conform to the description, as where the description is in terms of marks or labels or kind, quantity, or condition or the receipt or description is qualified by “contents or condition of contents of packages unknown”, “said to contain”, “shipper’s weight, load and count” or the like, if such indication be true.

2. When goods are loaded by an issuer who is a common carrier, the issuer must count the packages of goods if package freight and ascertain the kind and quantity if bulk freight. In such cases “shipper’s weight, load and count” or other words indicating that the description was made by the shipper are ineffective except as to freight concealed by packages.

3. When bulk freight is loaded by a shipper who makes available to the issuer adequate facilities for weighing such freight, an issuer who is a common carrier must ascertain the kind and quantity within a reasonable time after receiving the written request of the shipper to do so. In such cases “shipper’s weight” or other words of like purport are ineffective.

4. The issuer may by inserting in the bill the words “shipper’s weight, load and count” or other words of like purport indicate that the goods were loaded by the shipper; and if such statement be true the issuer shall not be liable for damages caused by the improper loading. But their omission does not imply liability for such damages.

5. The shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the issuer the accuracy at the time of shipment of the description, marks, labels, number, kind, quantity, condition and weight, as furnished by the shipper; and the shipper shall indemnify the issuer against damage caused by inaccuracies in such particulars. The right of the issuer to such indemnity shall in no way limit the issuer's responsibility and liability under the contract of carriage to any person other than the shipper.
[S13, §2074-b, 3138-b22; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8267, 10980; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487.23, 613.6; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.7301]

554.7302 Through bills of lading and similar documents.
1. The issuer of a through bill of lading or other document embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by persons acting as its agents or by connecting carriers is liable to anyone entitled to recover on the document for any breach by such other persons or by a connecting carrier of its obligation under the document but to the extent that the bill covers an undertaking to be performed overseas or in territory not contiguous to the continental United States or an undertaking including matters other than transportation this liability may be varied by agreement of the parties.
2. Where goods covered by a through bill of lading or other document embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by persons other than the issuer are received by any such person, that person is subject with respect to that person's own performance while the goods are in that person's possession to the obligation of the issuer. That person's obligation is discharged by delivery of the goods to another such person pursuant to the document, and does not include liability for breach by any other such persons or by the issuer.
3. The issuer of such through bill of lading or other document shall be entitled to recover from the connecting carrier or such other person in possession of the goods when the breach of the obligation under the document occurred, the amount it may be required to pay to anyone entitled to recover on the document therefor, as may be evidenced by any receipt, judgment, or transcript thereof, and the amount of any expense reasonably incurred by it in defending any action brought by anyone entitled to recover on the document therefor.

554.7303 Diversion — reconsignment — change of instructions.
1. Unless the bill of lading otherwise provides, the carrier may deliver the goods to a person or destination other than that stated in the bill or may otherwise dispose of the goods on instructions from
   a. the holder of a negotiable bill; or
   b. the consignor on a nonnegotiable bill notwithstanding contrary instructions from the consignee; or
   c. the consignee on a nonnegotiable bill in the absence of contrary instructions from the consignor, if the goods have arrived at the billed destination or if the consignee is in possession of the bill; or
   d. the consignee on a nonnegotiable bill if the consignee is entitled as against the consignor to dispose of them.
2. Unless such instructions are noted on a negotiable bill of lading, a person to whom the bill is duly negotiated can hold the bailee according to the original terms.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.7303]

554.7304 Bills of lading in a set.
1. Except where customary in overseas transportation, a bill of lading must not be issued in a set of parts. The issuer is liable for damages caused by violation of this subsection.
2. Where a bill of lading is lawfully drawn in a set of parts, each of which is numbered and expressed to be valid only if the goods have not been delivered against any other part, the whole of the parts constitute one bill.
3. Where a bill of lading is lawfully issued in a set of parts and different parts are negotiated to different persons, the title of the holder to whom the first due negotiation is made prevails as to both the document and the goods even though any later holder may have received the goods from the carrier in good faith and discharged the carrier's obligation by surrender of the later holder's part.
4. Any person who negotiates or transfers a single part of a bill of lading drawn in a set is liable to holders of that part as if it were the whole set.
5. The bailee is obliged to deliver in accordance with Part 4 of this Article against the first presented part of a bill of lading lawfully drawn in a set. Such delivery discharges the bailee's obligation on the whole bill.
[S13, §3138-b5; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8250; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487.6; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.7304]

554.7305 Destination bills.
1. Instead of issuing a bill of lading to the consignor at the place of shipment a carrier may at the request of the consignor procure the bill to be issued at destination or at any other place designated in the request.
2. Upon request of anyone entitled as against the carrier to control the goods while in transit and on surrender of any outstanding bill of lading or other receipt covering such goods, the issuer may procure a substitute bill to be issued at any place designated in the request.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.7305]

554.7306 Altered bills of lading.
An unauthorized alteration or filling in of a blank in a bill of lading leaves the bill enforceable according to its original tenor.
[S13, §3138-b15; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8260; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487.16; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.7306]

554.7307 Lien of carrier.
1. A carrier has a lien on the goods covered by a bill of lading for charges subsequent to the date of its receipt of the goods for storage or transportation (including demurrage and terminal charges) and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods incident to their transportation or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law. But against a purchaser for value of a negotiable bill of lading a carrier's lien is limited to charges stated in the bill or the applicable tariffs, or if no charges are stated then to a reasonable charge

2 A lien for charges and expenses under subsection 1 on goods which the carrier was required by law to receive for transportation is effective against the consignor or any person entitled to the goods unless the carrier had notice that the consignor lacked authority to subject the goods to such charges and expenses. Any other lien under subsection 1 is effective against the consignor and any person who permitted the bailor to have control or possession of the goods unless the carrier had notice that the bailor lacked such authority.

3 A carrier loses the carrier's lien on any goods which the carrier voluntarily delivers or which the carrier unjustifiably refuses to deliver.

4 A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to the issuer may have violated laws regulating the conduct of the issuer's business; or

5 The carrier may satisfy the carrier's lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but must hold the balance, if any, for delivery on demand to any person to whom the carrier would have been bound to deliver the goods.

6 The rights provided by this section shall be in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against the creditor's debtor.

7 A carrier's lien may be enforced in accordance with either subsection 1 or the procedure set forth in subsection 2 of section 554.7210.

8 The carrier is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and in case of willful violation is liable for conversion.

554.7309 Duty of care — contractual limitation of carrier's liability.

1 A carrier who issues a bill of lading whether negotiable or nonnegotiable must exercise the degree of care in relation to the goods which a reasonably careful person would exercise under like circumstances. This subsection does not repeal or change any law or rule of law which imposes liability upon a common carrier for damages not caused by its negligence.

2 Damages may be limited by a provision that the carrier's liability shall not exceed a value stated in the document if the carrier's rates are dependent upon value and the consignor by the carrier's tariff is afforded an opportunity to declare a higher value or a value as lawfully provided in the tariff, or where no tariff is filed the consignor is otherwise advised of or a value as lawfully provided in the tariff, or where no tariff is filed the consignor is otherwise advised of such opportunity, but no such limitation is effective with respect to the carrier's liability for conversion to its own use.

3 Reasonable provisions as to the time and manner of presenting claims and instituting actions based on the shipment may be included in a bill of lading or tariff.

4 A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a carrier's lien takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was valid, despite noncompliance by the carrier with the requirements of this section.

5 The carrier may satisfy the carrier's lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but must hold the balance, if any, for delivery on demand to any person to whom the carrier would have been bound to deliver the goods.

6 The rights provided by this section shall be in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against the creditor's debtor.

7 A carrier's lien may be enforced in accordance with either subsection 1 or the procedure set forth in subsection 2 of section 554.7210.

8 The carrier is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and in case of willful violation is liable for conversion.

§554.7402 Duplicate receipt or bill — overissue.

Neither a duplicate nor any other document of title purporting to cover goods already represented by an outstanding document of the same issuer confers any right under section 554.7503, or purports to be a warehouse receipt.

[S13, §3138-a37, -a38, -a39, -a40, -a47, -b27, -b28, -bl7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8255–8259, 8263, 8266, 9668–9672, 9676, 9679; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487.11–487.15, 487.19, 487.22, 542.8–542.12, 542.16, 542.19; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.7403]

§554.7403 Obligation of warehouse operator or carrier to deliver — excuse.

1. The bailee must deliver the goods to a person entitled under the document who complies with subsections 2 and 3, unless and to the extent that the bailee establishes any of the following:
   a. delivery of the goods to a person whose receipt was rightful as against the claimant;
   b. damage to or delay, loss or destruction of the goods for which the bailee is not liable, but the burden of establishing negligence in such cases is on the person entitled under the document;
   c. previous sale or other disposition of the goods in lawful enforcement of a lien or on the warehouse operator’s lawful termination of storage;
   d. the exercise by a seller of the seller’s right to stop delivery pursuant to the provisions of the Article on Sales (section 554.2705);
   e. a diversion, reconsignment or other disposition pursuant to the provisions of this Article (section 554.7303) or tariff regulating such right;
   f. release, satisfaction or any other fact affording a personal defense against the claimant;
   g. any other lawful excuse.

2. A person claiming goods covered by a document of title must satisfy the bailee’s lien where the bailee so requests or where the bailee is prohibited by law from delivering the goods until the charges are paid.

3. Unless the person claiming is one against whom the document confers no right under section 554.7503, subsection 1, that person must surrender for cancellation or notation of partial deliveries any outstanding negotiable document covering the goods, and the bailee may cancel the document or conspicuously note the partial delivery thereon or be liable to any person to whom the document is duly negotiated.

4. “Person entitled under the document” means holder in the case of a negotiable document, or the person to whom delivery is to be made by the terms of or pursuant to written instructions under a non-negotiable document.

§554.7404 No liability for good faith delivery pursuant to receipt or bill.

A bailee who in good faith including observance of reasonable commercial standards has received goods and delivered or otherwise disposed of them according to the terms of the document of title or pursuant to this Article is not liable therefor. This rule applies even though the person from whom the bailee received the goods had no authority to procure the document or to dispose of the goods and even though the person to whom the bailee delivered the goods had no authority to receive them.

[S13, §2074-b, 3138-a10, -b12; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8257, 9670, 10980; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487.13, 542.10, 613.6; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.7404]

PART 5

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING: NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER

§554.7501 Form of negotiation and requirements of “due negotiation”.

1. A negotiable document of title running to the order of a named person is negotiated by that person’s endorsement and delivery. After that person’s endorsement in blank or to bearer any person can negotiate it by delivery alone.

2. a. A negotiable document of title is also negotiated by delivery alone when by its original terms it runs to bearer.

b. When a document running to the order of a named person is delivered to the named person the effect is the same as if the document had been negotiated.

3. Negotiation of a negotiable document of title after it has been endorsed to a specified person requires endorsement by the special endorsee as well as delivery.

4. A negotiable document of title is “duly negotiated” when it is negotiated in the manner stated in this section to a holder who purchases it in good faith without notice of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person and for value, unless it is established that the negotiation is not in the regular course of business or financing or involves receiving the document in settlement or payment of a money obligation.

5. Endorsement of a nonnegotiable document neither makes it negotiable nor adds to the transferee’s rights.

6. The naming in a negotiable bill of a person to be notified of the arrival of the goods does not limit the negotiability of the bill nor constitute notice to a purchaser thereof of any interest of such person in the goods.
554.7502 Rights acquired by due negotiation.
1 Subject to the following section and to the provisions of section 554.7205 on fungible goods, a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated acquires thereby
   a. title to the document,
   b. title to the goods,
   c. all rights accruing under the law of agency or estoppel, including rights to goods delivered to the bailee after the document was issued, and
   d. the direct obligation of the issuer to hold or deliver the goods according to the terms of the document free of any defense or claim by the issuer except those arising under the terms of the document or under this Article. In the case of a delivery order the bailee’s obligation accrues only upon acceptance and the obligation acquired by the holder is that the issuer and any endorser will procure the acceptance of the bailee.
2 Subject to the following section, title and rights so acquired are not defeated by any stoppage of the goods represented by the document or by surrender of such goods by the bailee, and are not impaired even though the negotiation or any prior negotiation constituted a breach of duty or even though any person has been deprived of possession of the document by misrepresentation, fraud, accident, mistake, duress, loss, theft or conversion, or even though a previous sale or other transfer of the goods or document has been made to a third person.

[S13, §3138 a41, a47, a48, a49, b31, b37, b38, b39, b41, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8276, 8282-8284, 8286, 9701, 9707-9709, 9949, 9954, 9962, 9967, 9991; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487 32, 487 38-487 40, 487 42, 542 41, 542 47-542 49, 554 21, 554 26, 554 34, 554 39, 554 63, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7501]

554.7503 Document of title to goods defeated in certain cases.
1 A document of title confers no right in goods against a person who before issuance of the document had a legal interest or a perfected security interest in them and who neither
   a. delivered or entrusted them or any document of title covering them to the bailor or the bailor’s nominee with actual or apparent authority to ship, store or sell or with power to obtain delivery under this Article (section 554.7403) or with power of disposition under this chapter (sections 554.2403 and 554.9307) or other statute or rule of law, nor
   b. acquiesced in the procurement by the bailor or the bailor’s nominee of any document of title.
2 Title to goods based upon an unaccepted delivery order is subject to the rights of anyone to whom a negotiable warehouse receipt or bill of lading covering the goods has been duly negotiated. Such a title may be defeated under the next section to the same extent as the rights of the issuer or a transferee from the issuer.
3 Title to goods based upon a bill of lading issued to a freight forwarder is subject to the rights of anyone to whom a bill issued by the freight forwarder is duly negotiated, but delivery by the carrier in accordance with Part 4 of this Article pursuant to its own bill of lading discharges the carrier’s obligation to deliver.

554.7504 Rights acquired in the absence of due negotiation — effect of diversion — seller’s stoppage of delivery.
1 A transferee of a document, whether negotiable or nonnegotiable, to whom the document has been delivered but not duly negotiated, acquires the title and rights which the transferee’s transferor had or had actual authority to convey.
2 In the case of a nonnegotiable document, until but not after the bailee receives notification of the transfer, the rights of the transferee may be defeated
   a. by those creditors of the transferor who could treat the sale as void under section 554.2402, or
   b. by a buyer from the transferor in ordinary course of business if the bailee has delivered the goods to the buyer or received notification of the buyer’s rights, or
   c. as against the bailee by good faith dealings of the bailee with the transferor.
3 A diversion or other change of shipping instructions by the consignor in a nonnegotiable bill of lading which causes the bailee not to deliver to the consignee defeats the consignee’s title to the goods if they have been delivered to a buyer in ordinary course of business and in any event defeats the consignee’s rights against the bailee.
4 Delivery pursuant to a nonnegotiable document may be stopped by a seller under section 554.2705, and subject to the requirement of due notification there provided. A bailee honoring the seller’s instructions is entitled to be indemnified by the seller against any resulting loss or expense.

[S13, §3138 a41, C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487 32, 487 33, 542 41, 554 34, 554 39, 554 63, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7504]

554.7505 Endorser not a guarantor for other parties.
The endorsement of a document of title issued by a bailee does not make the endorser liable for any default by the bailee or by previous endorsers.

[S13, §3138 a45, b35, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8280, 9705, 9966; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487 36, 542 45, 554 38, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7505]

554.7506 Delivery without endorsement — right to compel endorsement.
The transferee of a negotiable document of title has a specifically enforceable right to have the transferee's transferor supply any necessary endorsement but the transfer becomes a negotiation only as of the time the endorsement is supplied.

[S13, §3138 a43, b33, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §8278, 9703, 9864; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §487 34, 542 43, 554 36, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 81, §554 7506]

554.7507 Warranties on negotiation or transfer of receipt or bill.

Where a person negotiates or transfers a document of title for value otherwise than as a mere intermediary under the next following section, then unless otherwise agreed that person warrants to that person's immediate purchaser only in addition to any warranty made in selling the goods

- a. that the document is genuine, and
- b. that that person has no knowledge of any fact which would impair its validity or worth, and
- c. that that person's negotiation or transfer is rightful and fully effective with respect to the title to the document and the goods it represents.

554.7508 Warranties of collecting bank as to documents.

A collecting bank or other intermediary known to be entrusted with documents on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against delivery of documents warrants by such delivery of the documents only its own good faith and authority. This rule applies even though the intermediary has purchased or made advances against the claim or draft to be collected.

[S13, §3138 a46, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9706; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §482 46, 542, 766, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7508]

554.7509 Receipt or bill: When adequate compliance with commercial contract.

The question whether a document is adequate to fulfill the obligations of a contract for sale or the conditions of a credit is governed by the Articles on Sales (Article 2) and on Letters of Credit (Article 5).

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 7509]

PART 6

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

554.7601 Lost and missing documents.

1 If a document has been lost, stolen or destroyed, a court may order delivery of the goods or issuance of a substitute document and the bailee may without liability to any person comply with such order. If the document was negotiable the claimant must post security approved by the court to indemnify any person who may suffer loss as a result of nonsurrender of the document. If the document was not negotiable, such security may be required at the discretion of the court. The court may also in its discretion order payment of the bailee's reasonable costs and counsel fees.

2 A bailee who without court order delivers goods to a person claiming under a missing negotiable document is liable to any person injured thereby, and if the delivery is not in good faith becomes liable for conversion. Delivery in good faith is not conversion if made in accordance with a filed classification or tariff or where no classification or tariff is filed, if the claimant posts security with the bailee in an amount at least double the value of the goods at the time of posting to indemnify any person injured by the delivery who files a notice of claim within one year after the delivery.

3 If a warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed, the warehouse operator shall issue a duplicate upon receipt of

- a. An affidavit that the warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed
- b. A bond in an amount at least double the value of the goods at the time of posting the bond, to indemnify any person injured by issuance of the duplicate warehouse receipt who files a notice of claim within one year after delivery of the goods.

A duplicate warehouse receipt shall be plainly marked to indicate that it is a duplicate. A receipt plainly marked as a duplicate is a representation and warranty by the warehouse operator that the duplicate receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and uncanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon the warehouse operator no other liability.

A warehouse operator who in good faith delivers goods to the holder of a duplicate receipt issued in accordance with this subsection is liable to any person injured by the delivery, but only to the extent of the security posted in accordance with paragraph "b" of this subsection.

4 If a warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed, the depositor may either remove the goods from the warehouse or sell the goods to the warehouse operator after executing a lost warehouse receipt release on a form prescribed by the Iowa state commerce commission. The form shall include an affidavit stating that the warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed, and the depositor's undertaking to indemnify the warehouse operator for any loss incurred as a result of the loss or destruction of the warehouse receipt. The form shall be filed with the commerce commission.

5 If a warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed by a warehouse operator after delivery of the goods or purchase of the goods by the warehouse operator, the warehouse operator shall execute and file with the Iowa state commerce commission a notarized affidavit stating that the warehouse receipt has been lost or destroyed by the warehouse operator after delivery or purchase of the goods by the warehouse operator. The form of the affidavit shall be prescribed by the Iowa state commerce commission.

554.7602 Attachment of goods covered by a negotiable document.

Except where the document was originally issued upon delivery of the goods by a person who had no power to dispose of them, no lien attaches by virtue of any judicial process to goods in the possession of a bailee for which a negotiable document of title is outstanding unless the document be first surrendered to the bailee or its negotiation enjoined, and the bailee shall not be compelled to deliver the goods pursuant to process until the document is surrendered to the bailee or impounded by the court. One who purchases the document for value without notice of the process or injunction takes free of the lien imposed by judicial process 554.7603 Conflicting claims — interpleader.

If more than one person claims title or possession of the goods, the bailee is excused from delivery until the bailee has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claims or to bring an action to compel all claimants to interplead and may compel such interpleader, either in defending an action for nondelivery of the goods, or by original action, whichever is appropriate 554.8103 Issuer’s lien.

A lien upon a security in favor of an issuer thereof is valid against a purchaser only if the right of the issuer to such lien is noted conspicuously on the security

[C50, 54, 58, 62, §493A 15, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8103]
§554.8104 Effect of overissue — "overissue."
1 The provisions of this Article which validate a security or compel its issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that validation, issue or reissue would result in overissue, but
a. if an identical security which does not constitute an overissue is reasonably available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may compel the issuer to purchase and deliver such a security to that person against surrender of the security, if any, which that person holds, or
b. if a security is not so available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may recover from the issuer the price that person or the last purchaser for value paid for it with interest from the date of that person's demand
2 "Overissue" means the issue of securities in excess of the amount which the issuer has corporate power to issue
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8104]

§554.8105 Securities negotiable — presumptions.
1 Securities governed by this Article are negotiable instruments
2 In any action on a security
a. unless specifically denied in the pleadings, each signature on the security or in a necessary endorsement is admitted,
b. when the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature but the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized,
c. when signatures are admitted or established production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense or a defect going to the validity of the security, and
d. after it is shown that a defense or defect exists the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the plaintiff or some person under whom the plaintiff claims is a person against whom the defense or defect is ineffective (section 554 8202)

§554.8107 Securities deliverable — action for price.
1 Unless otherwise agreed and subject to any applicable law or regulation respecting short sales, a person obligated to deliver securities may deliver any security of the specified issue in bearer form or registered in the name of the transferee or endorsed to the transferee or in blank
2 When the buyer fails to pay the price as it comes due under a contract of sale the seller may recover the price

a. of securities accepted by the buyer, and
b. of other securities if efforts at their resale would be unduly burdensome or if there is no readily available market for their resale
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8107]

PART 2
ISSUE – ISSUER

§554.8201 “Issuer.”
1 With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security “issuer” includes a person who
a. places or authorizes the placing of that person's name on a security (otherwise than as authenticated trustee, registrar, transfer agent or the like) to evidence that it represents a share, participation or other interest in that person's property or in an enterprise or to evidence that person's duty to perform an obligation evidenced by the security, or
b. directly or indirectly creates fractional interests in that person's rights or property which fractional interests are evidenced by securities, or
c. becomes responsible for or in place of any other person described as an issuer in this section
2 With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security a guarantor is an issuer to the extent of the guarantor's guaranty whether or not the guarantor's obligation is noted on the security
3 With respect to registration of transfer (Part 4 of this Article) “issuer” means a person on whose behalf transfer books are maintained
[S13, §3060 a29, a60, a61, a62, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9489, 9520–9522; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541 29, 541 60–541 62, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8201]

§554.8202 Issuer's responsibility and defenses — notice of defect or defense.
1 Even against a purchaser for value and with notice, the terms of a security include those stated on the security and those made part of the security by reference to another instrument, statute, rule, regulation, order or the like to the extent that the terms so referred to do not conflict with the stated terms Such a reference does not of itself charge a purchaser for value with notice of a defect going to the validity of the security even though the security expressly states that a person accepting it admits such notice
2 a. A security other than one issued by a government or governmental agency or unit even though issued with a defect going to its validity is valid in the hands of a purchaser for value and without notice of the particular defect unless the defect involves a violation of constitutional provisions in which case the security is valid in the hands of a subsequent purchaser for value and without notice of the defect
b. The rule of subparagraph "a" applies to an issuer which is a government or governmental agency or unit only if either there has been substan tial compliance with the legal requirements governing the issue or the issuer has received a substantial consideration for the issue as a whole or for the particular security and a stated purpose of the issue is one for which the issuer has power to borrow money or issue the security.

3. Except as otherwise provided in the case of certain unauthorized signatures on issue (section 554.8205), lack of genuineness of a security is a complete defense even against a purchaser for value and without notice.

4. All other defenses of the issuer including non-delivery and conditional delivery of the security are ineffective against a purchaser for value who has taken without notice of the particular defense.

5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of a party to a "when, as and if issued" or a "when distributed" contract to cancel the contract in the event of a material change in the character of the security which is the subject of the contract or in the plan or arrangement pursuant to which such security is to be issued or distributed.

554.8203 Staleness as notice of defects or defenses.

1. After an act or event which creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by the security or which sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, a purchaser is charged with notice of any defect in its issue or defense of the issuer
a. if the act or event is one requiring the payment of money or the delivery of securities or both on presentation or surrender of the security and such funds or securities are available on the date set for payment or exchange and the purchaser takes the security more than one year after that date; and
b. if the act or event is not covered by paragraph "a" and the purchaser takes the security more than two years after the date set for surrender or presentation or the date on which such performance became due.

2. A call which has been revoked is not within subsection 1.

554.8204 Effect of issuer's restrictions on transfer.

Unless noted conspicuously on the security a restriction on transfer imposed by the issuer even though otherwise lawful is ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of it.

554.8205 Effect of unauthorized signature on issue.

An unauthorized signature placed on a security prior to or in the course of issue is ineffective except that the signature is effective in favor of a purchaser for value and without notice of the lack of authority if the signing has been done by
a. an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security or of similar securities or their immediate preparation for signing; or
b. an employee of the issuer or of any of the foregoing entrusted with responsible handling of the security.

554.8206 Completion or alteration of instrument.

1. Where a security contains the signatures necessary to its issue or transfer but is incomplete in any other respect
a. any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized; and
b. even though the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security as completed is enforceable by a purchaser who took it for value and without notice of such incorrectness.

2. A complete security which has been improperly altered even though fraudulently remains enforceable but only according to its original terms.

554.8207 Rights of issuer with respect to registered owners.

1. Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer of a security in registered form the issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notifications and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

2. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to affect the liability of the registered owner of a security for calls, assessments or the like.

554.8208 Effect of signature of authenticating trustee, registrar or transfer agent.

1. A person placing that person's signature upon a security as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or the like warrants to a purchaser for value without notice of the particular defect that
a. the security is genuine; and
b. that person's own participation in the issue of the security is within that person's capacity and within the scope of the authorization received by that person from the issuer; and
c. that person has reasonable grounds to believe that the security is in the form and within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.

2. Unless otherwise agreed, a person by so placing that person's signature does not assume responsibility for the validity of the security in other respects.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8208]

PURCHASE

§554.8301 Rights acquired by purchaser — "adverse claim" — title acquired by bona fide purchaser.

1. Upon delivery of a security the purchaser acquires the rights in the security which the purchaser's transferor had or had actual authority to convey except that a purchaser who has personally been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the security or who as a prior holder had notice of an adverse claim cannot improve that purchaser's position by taking from a later bona fide purchaser. "Adverse claim" includes a claim that a transfer was or would be wrongful or that a particular adverse person is the owner of or has an interest in the security.

2. A bona fide purchaser in addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser also acquires the security free of any adverse claim.

3. A purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased.

§554.8302 "Bona fide purchaser."

A "bona fide purchaser" is a purchaser for value in good faith and without notice of any adverse claim who takes delivery of a security in bearer form or of one in registered form issued to that purchaser or endorsed to that purchaser or in blank.

[C13, §3060-a52; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §554.8302; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.52; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8302]

§554.8303 "Broker."

"Broker" means a person engaged for all or part of the person's time in the business of buying and selling securities, who in the transaction concerned acts for, or buys a security from or sells a security to a customer. Nothing in this Article determines the capacity in which a person acts for purposes of any other statute or rule to which such person is subject.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8303]

§554.8304 Notice to purchaser of adverse claims.

1. A purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer but excluding an intermediary bank) of a security is charged with notice of adverse claims if

a. the security whether in bearer or registered form has been endorsed "for collection" or "for surrender" or for some other purpose not involving transfer; or

b. the security is in bearer form and has on it an unambiguous statement that it is the property of a person other than the transferor. The mere writing of a name on a security is not such a statement.

2. The fact that the purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer) has notice that the security is held for a third person or is registered in the name of or endorsed by a fiduciary does not create a duty of inquiry into the rightfulness of the transfer or constitute notice of adverse claims. If, however, the purchaser (excluding an intermediary bank) has knowledge that the proceeds are being used or that the transaction is for the individual benefit of the fiduciary or otherwise in breach of duty, the purchaser is charged with notice of adverse claims.

[C13, §3060-a37, -a56; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §554.8305, §9497, §9516; C46, §541.37, 541.56; C50, 54, 58, 62, §493A.8, 541.37, 541.56; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8304]

§554.8305 Staleness as notice of adverse claims.

An act or event which creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by the security or which sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange does not of itself constitute notice of adverse claims except in the case of a purchase

a. after one year from any date set for such presentation or surrender for redemption or exchange; or

b. after six months from any date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the security if funds are available for payment on that date.

[C13, §3060-a52, -a53; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §554.8305, §9513; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §541.52, 541.53; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8305]

§554.8306 Warranties on presentment and transfer.

1. A person who presents a security for registration of transfer or for payment or exchange warrants to the issuer that the person is entitled to the registration, payment or exchange. But a purchaser for value without notice of adverse claims who receives a new, reissued or reregistered security on registration or transfer warrants only that that purchaser has no knowledge of any unauthorized signature (section 554.8311) in a necessary endorsement.

2. A person by transferring a security to a purchaser for value warrants only that

a. the person's transfer is effective and rightful; and

b. the security is genuine and has not been materially altered; and

c. the person knows no fact which might impair the validity of the security.

3. Where a security is delivered by an intermediary known to be entrusted with delivery of the security on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against such delivery, the intermediary by such delivery warrants only the intermediary's own good faith and authority even though the intermediary has purchased or made advances against the claim to be collected against the delivery.

4. A pledgee or other holder for security who redelivers the security received, or after payment and on order of the debtor delivers that security to a third person makes only the warranties of an intermediary under subsection 3.

5. A broker gives to the broker's customer and to the issuer and a purchaser the warranties provided in this section and has the rights and privileges of a purchaser under this section. The warranties of and in favor of the broker acting as an agent are in addition to applicable warranties given by and in favor of the broker's customer.

§554.8307 Effect of delivery without endorsement — right to compel endorsement.

Where a security in registered form has been delivered to a purchaser without a necessary endorsement the purchaser may become a bona fide purchaser only as of the time the endorsement is supplied, but against the transferee the transfer is complete upon delivery and the purchaser has a specifically enforceable right to have any necessary endorsement supplied.

§554.8308 Endorsement, how made — special endorsement — endorser not a guarantor — partial assignment.

1. An endorsement of a security in registered form is made when an appropriate person signs on it or on a separate document an assignment or transfer of the security or a power to assign or transfer it or when the signature of such person is written without more upon the back of the security.

2. An endorsement may be in blank or special. An endorsement in blank includes an endorsement to bearer. A special endorsement specifies the person to whom the security is to be transferred, or who has power to transfer it. A holder may convert a blank endorsement into a special endorsement.

3. "An appropriate person" in subsection 1 means
a. the person specified by the security or by special endorsement to be entitled to the security; or
b. where the person so specified is described as a fiduciary but is no longer serving in the described capacity, — either that person or that person's successor; or
c. where the security or endorsement so specifies more than one person as fiduciaries and one or more are no longer serving in the described capacity, — the remaining fiduciary or fiduciaries, whether or not a successor has been appointed or qualified; or
d. where the person so specified is an individual and is without capacity to act by virtue of death, incompetence, infancy or otherwise, — that person's executor, administrator, guardian or like fiduciary; or
e. where the security or endorsement so specifies more than one person as tenants by the entirety or with right of survivorship and by reason of death all cannot sign, — the survivor or survivors; or
f. a person having power to sign under applicable law or controlling instrument; or
g. to the extent that any of the foregoing persons may act through an agent, — that person's authorized agent.

4. Unless otherwise agreed the endorser by the endorser's endorsement assumes no obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer.

5. An endorsement purporting to be only of part of a security representing units intended by the issuer to be separately transferable is effective to the extent of the endorsement.

6. Whether the person signing is appropriate is determined as of the date of signing and an endorsement by such a person does not become unauthorized for the purposes of this Article by virtue of any subsequent change of circumstances.

7. Failure of a fiduciary to comply with a control-ing instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer, does not render the fiduciary's endorsement unauthorized for the purposes of this Article.

§554.8309 Effect of endorsement without delivery.

blank does not constitute a transfer until delivery of the security on which it appears or if the endorsement is on a separate document until delivery of both the document and the security.

§554.8310 Endorsement of security in bearer form.

give notice of adverse claims (section 554.8304) but does not otherwise affect any right to registration the holder may possess.

§554.8311 Effect of unauthorized endorsement.

Unless the owner has ratified an unauthorized endorsement or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness

a. the owner may assert its ineffectiveness against the issuer or any purchaser other than a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims who has in good faith received a new, reissued or reregistered security on registration of transfer; and

b. an issuer who registers the transfer of a security upon the unauthorized endorsement is subject to liability for improper registration (section 554.8404).

But the guarantor does not otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the particular transfer.

2. Any person may guarantee an endorsement of a security and by so doing warrants not only the signature (subsection 1) but also the rightfulness of the particular transfer in all respects. But no issuer may require a guarantee of endorsement as a condition to registration of transfer.

3. The foregoing warranties are made to any person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guarantee and the guarantor is liable to such person for any loss resulting from breach of the warranties.

§554.8312 Effect of guaranteeing signature or endorsement.

1. Any person guaranteeing a signature of an endorser of a security warrants that at the time of signing

a. the signature was genuine; and

b. the signer was an appropriate person to endorse (section 554.8308); and

c. the signer had legal capacity to sign.

2. Any person may guarantee an endorsement of a security and by so doing warrants not only the signature (subsection 1) but also the rightfulness of the particular transfer in all respects. But no issuer may require a guarantee of endorsement as a condition to registration of transfer.

3. The foregoing warranties are made to any person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guarantee and the guarantor is liable to such person for any loss resulting from breach of the warranties.

§554.8313 When delivery to the purchaser occurs — purchaser's broker as holder.

1. Delivery to a purchaser occurs when

a. the purchaser or a person designated by the purchaser acquires possession of a security; or

b. the purchaser's broker acquires possession of a security specially endorsed to or issued in the name of the purchaser; or

c. the purchaser's broker sends the purchaser confirmation of the purchase and also by book entry or otherwise identifies a specific security in the broker's possession as belonging to the purchaser; or

d. with respect to an identified security to be delivered while still in the possession of a third person when that person acknowledges that that person holds for the purchaser; or

e. appropriate entries on the books of a clearing corporation are made under section 554.8320.

2. The purchaser is the owner of a security held for the purchaser by the purchaser's broker, but is not the holder except as specified in subparagraphs "b", "c" and "e" of subsection 1. Where a security is part of a fungible bulk the purchaser is the owner of a proportionate property interest in the fungible bulk.

3. Notice of an adverse claim received by the broker or by the purchaser after the broker takes delivery as a holder for value is not effective either as to the broker or as to the purchaser. However, as between the broker and the purchaser the purchaser may demand delivery of an equivalent security as to which no notice of an adverse claim has been received.

§554.8314 Duty to deliver, when completed.

1. Unless otherwise agreed where a sale of a security is made on an exchange or otherwise through brokers

a. the selling customer fulfills that customer's duty to deliver when that customer places such a security in the possession of the selling broker or of a person designated by the broker or if requested causes an acknowledgment to be made to the selling broker that it is held for that broker; and

b. the selling broker including a correspondent broker acting for a selling customer fulfills that broker's duty to deliver by placing the security or a like security in the possession of the buying broker or a person designated by the buying broker or by effecting clearance of the sale in accordance with the rules of the exchange on which the transaction took place.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this section and unless otherwise agreed, a transferor's duty to deliver a security under a contract of purchase is not fulfilled until the transferor places the security in form to be negotiated by the purchaser in the possession of the purchaser or of a person designated by the purchaser or at the purchaser's request causes an acknowledgment to be made to the purchaser that it is held for the purchaser. Unless made on an exchange a sale to a broker purchasing for the broker's own account is within this subsection and not within subsection 1.

§554.8315 Action against purchaser based upon wrongful transfer.

1. Any person against whom the transfer of a security is wrongful for any reason, including the person's incapacity, may against anyone except a bona fide purchaser reclaim possession of the security or obtain possession of any new security evidencing all or part of the same rights or have damages.

2. If the transfer is wrongful because of an unauthorized endorsement, the owner may also reclaim or obtain possession of the security or new security even from a bona fide purchaser if the ineffectiveness of the purported endorsement can be asserted against the purchaser under the provisions of this Article on unauthorized endorsements (section 554.8311).
3. The right to obtain or reclaim possession of a security may be specifically enforced and its transfer enjoined and the security impounded pending the litigation.

554.8316 Purchaser's right to requisites for registration of transfer on books.

Unless otherwise agreed the transferor must on due demand supply the transferor's purchaser with any proof of the transferor's authority to transfer or with any other requisite which may be necessary to obtain registration of the transfer of the security but if the transfer is not for value a transferee need not do so unless the purchaser furnishes the necessary expenses. Failure to comply with a demand made within a reasonable time gives the purchaser the right to reject or rescind the transfer.

554.8317 Attachment or levy upon security.

1. No attachment or levy upon a security or any share or other interest evidenced thereby which is outstanding shall be valid until the security is actually seized by the officer making the attachment or levy but a security which has been surrendered to the issuer may be attached or levied upon at the source.

2. A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a security shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction or otherwise, in reaching such security or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to property which cannot readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process.

554.8318 No conversion by good faith delivery.

An agent or bailee who in good faith (including observance of reasonable commercial standards if the agent or bailee is in the business of buying, selling or otherwise dealing with securities) has received securities and sold, pledged or delivered them according to the instructions of the agent’s or bailee’s principal is not liable for conversion or for participation in breach of fiduciary duty although the principal had no right to dispose of them.
[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8318]

554.8319 Statute of frauds.

A contract for the sale of securities is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless
a. there is some writing signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent or broker sufficient to indicate that a contract has been made for sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price; or
b. delivery of the security has been accepted or payment has been made but the contract is enforceable under this provision only to the extent of such delivery or payment; or
c. within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the sale or purchase and sufficient against the sender under paragraph “a” has been received by the party against whom enforcement is sought and that party has failed to send written objection to its contents within ten days after its receipt; or
d. the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party’s pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that a contract was made for sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price.
[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §9933; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554.4; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8319]

554.8320 Transfer or pledge within a central depository system.

1. If a security
a. is in the custody of a clearing corporation or of a custodian bank or a nominee of either subject to the instructions of the clearing corporation; and
b. is in bearer form or endorsed in blank by an appropriate person or registered in the name of the clearing corporation or custodian bank or a nominee of either; and
c. is shown on the account of a transferor or pledgor on the books of the clearing corporation; then, in addition to other methods, a transfer or pledge of the security or any interest therein may be effected by the making of appropriate entries on the books of the clearing corporation reducing the account of the transferor or pledgor and increasing the account of the transferee or pledgee by the amount of the obligation or the number of shares or rights transferred or pledged.

2. Under this section entries may be with respect to like securities or interests therein as a part of a fungible bulk and may refer merely to a quantity of a particular security without reference to the name of the registered owner, certificate or bond number or the like and, in appropriate cases, may be on a net basis taking into account other transfers or pledges of the same security.

3. A transfer or pledge under this section has the effect of a delivery of a security in bearer form or duly endorsed in blank (section 554.8301) representing the amount of the obligation or the number of shares or rights transferred or pledged. If a pledge or the creation of a security interest is intended, the making of entries has the effect of a taking of delivery by the pledgee or a secured party (sections 554.9304 and 554.9305). A transferee or pledgee under this section is a holder.

4. A transfer or pledge under this section does not constitute a registration of transfer under Part 4 of this Article.

5. That entries made on the books of the clearing corporation as provided in subsection 1 are not appropriate does not affect the validity or effect of the entries nor the liabilities or obligations of the clearing corporation to any person adversely affected thereby

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8320]

PART 4
REGISTRATION

§554.8401 Duty of issuer to register transfer.
1 Where a security in registered form is presented to the issuer with a request to register transfer, the issuer is under a duty to register the transfer as requested if
   a. the security is endorsed by the appropriate person or persons (section 554 8308), and
   b. reasonable assurance is given that those endorsements are genuine and effective (section 554 8402), and
   c. the issuer has no duty to inquire into adverse claims or has discharged any such duty (section 554 8403), and
   d. any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes has been complied with, and
   e. the transfer is in fact rightful or is to a bona fide purchaser
2 Where an issuer is under a duty to register a transfer of a security the issuer is also liable to the person presenting it for registration or that person's principal for loss resulting from any unreasonable delay in registration or from failure or refusal to register the transfer

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 8401]

§554.8402 Assurance that endorsements are effective.
1 The issuer may require the following assurance that each necessary endorsement (section 554 8308) is genuine and effective
   a. in all cases, a guarantee of the signature (subsection 1 of section 554 8312) of the person endorsing, and
   b. where the endorsement is by an agent, appropriate assurance of authority to sign,
   c. where the endorsement is by a fiduciary, appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency,
   d. where there is more than one fiduciary, reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have done so,
   e. where the endorsement is by a person not covered by any of the foregoing, assurance appropriate to the case corresponding as nearly as may be to the foregoing
2 A "guarantee of the signature" in subsection 1 means a guarantee signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible The issuer may adopt standards with respect to responsibility provided such standards are not manifestly unreasonable
3 "Appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency" in subsection 1 means
   a. in the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by or under the direction or supervision of that court or an officer of that court and dated within one hundred eighty days before the date of presentation for transfer, or
   b. in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible or, in the absence of such a document or certificate, other evidence reasonably deemed by the issuer to be appropriate The issuer may adopt standards with respect to such evidence provided such standards are not manifestly unreasonable The issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any document obtained pursuant to this paragraph "b" except to the extent that the contents relate directly to the appointment or incumbency
4 The issuer may elect to require reasonable assurance beyond that specified in this section but if it does so and for a purpose other than that specified in subsection 3 "b" both requires and obtains a copy of a will, trust, indenture, articles of copartnership, bylaws or other controlling instrument it is charged with notice of all matters contained therein affecting the transfer

§554.8403 Limited duty of inquiry.
1 An issuer to whom a security is presented for registration is under a duty to inquire into adverse claims if
   a. a written notification of an adverse claim is received at a time and in a manner which affords the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to the issuance of a new, reissued or registered security and the notification identifies the claimant, the registered owner and the issue of which the security is a part and provides an address for communications directed to the claimant, or
   b. the issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument which it has elected to require under subsection 4 of section 554 8402
2 The issuer may discharge any duty of inquiry by any reasonable means, including notifying an adverse claimant by registered or certified mail at the address furnished by the adverse claimant or if there be no such address at the adverse claimant's residence or regular place of business that the security has been presented for registration of transfer by a named person, and that the transfer will be registered unless within thirty days from the date of mailing the notification, either
   a. an appropriate restraining order, injunction or other process issues from a court of competent jurisdiction, or
   b. an indemnity bond sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer and any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the issuer involved, from any loss which it or they may suffer by complying with the adverse claim is filed with the issuer
3 Unless an issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument which it has elected to require under subsection 4 of section 554.8402 or receives notification of an adverse claim under subsection 1 of this section, where a security presented for registration is endorsed by the appropriate person or persons the issuer is under no duty to inquire into adverse claims. In particular
a. an issuer registering a security in the name of a person who is a fiduciary or who is described as a fiduciary is not bound to inquire into the existence, extent, or correct description of the fiduciary relationship and thereafter the issuer may assume without inquiry that the newly registered owner continues to be the fiduciary until the issuer receives written notice that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security;

b. an issuer registering transfer on an endorsement by a fiduciary is not bound to inquire whether the transfer is made in compliance with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer; and

c. the issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any court record or file or other recorded document even though the document is in its possession and even though the transfer is made on the endorsement of a fiduciary to the same fiduciary or to the fiduciary's nominee.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8403]

554.8404 Liability and nonliability for registration.
1. Except as otherwise provided in any law relating to the collection of taxes, the issuer is not liable to the owner or any other person suffering loss as a result of the registration of a transfer of a security if
a. there were on or with the security the necessary endorsements (section 554.8308); and

b. the issuer had no duty to inquire into adverse claims or has discharged any such duty (section 554.8403).

2. Where an issuer has registered a security to a person not entitled to it, the issuer on demand must deliver a like security to the true owner unless
a. the registration was pursuant to subsection 1; or

b. the owner is precluded from asserting any claim for registering the transfer under subsection 1 of the following section; or

c. such delivery would result in overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by section 554.8104.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.8404]

554.8405 Lost, destroyed and stolen securities.
1. Where a security has been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken and the owner fails to notify the issuer of that fact within a reasonable time after the owner has notice of it and the issuer registers a transfer of the security before receiving such a notification, the owner is precluded from asserting against the issuer any claim for registering the transfer under the preceding section or any claim to a new security under this section.

2. Where the owner of a security claims that the security has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the issuer must issue a new security in place of the original security if the owner
a. so requests before the issuer has notice that the security has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser; and

b. files with the issuer a sufficient indemnity bond; and

c. satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

3. If, after the issue of the new security, a bona fide purchaser of the original security presents it for registration of transfer, the issuer must register the transfer unless registration would result in overissue, in which event the issuer's liability is governed by section 554.8104. In addition to any rights on the indemnity bond, the issuer may recover the new security from the person to whom it was issued or any person taking under the person to whom it was issued except a bona fide purchaser.

554.8406 Duty of authenticating trustee, transfer agent or registrar.
1. Where a person acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its securities or in the issue of new securities or in the cancellation of surrendered securities
a. that person is under a duty to the issuer to exercise good faith and due diligence in performing that person's functions; and

b. that person has with regard to the particular functions that person performs the same obligation to the holder or owner of the security and has the same rights and privileges as the issuer has in regard to those functions.

2. Notice to an authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar or other such agent is notice to the issuer with respect to the functions performed by the agent.

§554.9104 on excluded transactions, this Article applies

a. to any transaction (regardless of its form) which is intended to create a security interest in personal property or fixtures including goods, documents, instruments, general intangibles, chattel paper or accounts; and also

b. to any sale of accounts or chattel paper.

2. This Article applies to security interests created by contract including pledge, assignment, chattel mortgage, chattel trust, trust deed, factor's lien, equipment trust, conditional sale, trust receipt, other lien or title retention contract and lease or consignment intended as security. This Article does not apply to statutory liens except as provided in section 554.9310.

3. The application of this Article to a security interest in a secured obligation is not affected by the fact that the obligation is itself secured by a transaction or interest to which this Article does not apply.

554.9103 Perfection of security interests in multiple state transactions.

1. Documents, instruments and ordinary goods.

a. This subsection applies to documents and instruments and to goods other than those covered by a certificate of title described in subsection 2, mobile goods described in subsection 3, and minerals described in subsection 5.

b. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, perfection and the effect of perfection or non-perfection of a security interest in collateral are governed by the law of the jurisdiction where the collateral is when the last event occurs on which is based the assertion that the security interest is perfected or unperfected.

c. If the parties to a transaction creating a security interest in goods in one jurisdiction understand at the time that the security interest attaches that the goods will be kept in another jurisdiction, then the law of the other jurisdiction governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or non-perfection of the security interest from the time it attaches until thirty days after the debtor receives possession of the goods and thereafter if the goods are taken to the other jurisdiction before the end of the thirty-day period.

d. When collateral is brought into and kept in this state while subject to a security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction from which the collateral was removed, the security interest remains perfected, but if action is required by Part 3 of this Article to perfect the security interest,

i. if the action is not taken before the expiration of the period of perfection in the other jurisdiction or the end of four months after the collateral is brought into this state, whichever period first expires, the security interest becomes unperfected at the end of that period and is thereafter deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser after removal;

ii. if the action is taken before the expiration of the period specified in subparagraph (i), the security interest continues perfected thereafter;

iii. for the purpose of priority over a buyer of consumer goods, section 554.9307, subsection 2, the period of the effectiveness of a filing in the jurisdiction from which the collateral is removed is governed by the rules with respect to perfection in subparagraphs (i) and (ii).

a. This subsection applies to goods covered by one or more certificates of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection.

b. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, perfection and the effect of perfection or non-perfection of the security interest are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction issuing the certificate until four months after the goods are removed from that jurisdiction and thereafter until the goods are registered in another jurisdiction, but in any event not beyond surrender of the certificate. After the expiration of that period, the goods are not covered by the certificate of title within the meaning of this section.

c. Except with respect to the rights of a buyer described in the next paragraph, a security interest, perfected in another jurisdiction otherwise than by notation on a certificate of title, in goods brought into this state and thereafter covered by a certificate of title issued by this state is subject to the rules stated in subsection 1, paragraph "d."

d. If goods are brought into this state while a security interest therein is perfected in any manner under the law of the jurisdiction from which the goods are removed and a certificate of title is issued by this state and the certificate does not show that the goods are subject to the security interest or that they may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate, the security interest is subordinate to the rights of a buyer of the goods who is not in the business of selling goods of that kind to the extent that that buyer gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate and without knowledge of the security interest.

3. Accounts, general intangibles and mobile goods.

a. This subsection applies to accounts (other than an account described in subsection 5 on minerals) and general intangibles and to goods which are mobile and which are of a type normally used in more than one jurisdiction, such as motor vehicles, trailers, rolling stock, airplanes, shipping containers, road building and construction machinery and commercial harvesting machinery and the like, if the goods are equipment or are inventory leased or held for lease by the debtor to others, and are not covered by a certificate of title described in subsection 2.
b. The law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction in which the debtor is located governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest.

c. If, however, the debtor is located in a jurisdiction which is not a part of the United States, and which does not provide for perfection of the security interest by filing or recording in that jurisdiction, the law of the jurisdiction in the United States in which the debtor has its major executive office in the United States governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest through filing. In the alternative, if the debtor is located in a jurisdiction which is not a part of the United States or Canada and the collateral is accounts or general intangibles for money due or to become due, the security interest may be perfected by notification to the account debtor. As used in this paragraph, "United States" includes its territories and possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

d. A debtor shall be deemed located at the debtor's place of business if the debtor has one, at the debtor's chief executive office if the debtor has more than one place of business, otherwise at the debtor's residence. If, however, the debtor is a foreign air carrier under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, it shall be deemed located at the designated office of the agent upon whom service of process may be made on behalf of the foreign air carrier.

e. A security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction of the location of the debtor is perfected until the expiration of four months after a change of the debtor's location to another jurisdiction, or until perfection would have ceased by the law of the first jurisdiction, whichever period first expires. Unless perfected in the new jurisdiction before the end of that period, it becomes unperfected thereafter and is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser after the change.

4. Chattel paper. The rules stated for goods in subsection 1 apply to a possessory security interest in chattel paper. The rules stated for accounts in subsection 3 apply to a nonpossessory security interest in chattel paper, but the security interest may not be perfected by notification to the account debtor.

5. Minerals. Perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a security interest which is created by a debtor who has an interest in minerals or the like (including oil and gas) before extraction and which attaches thereto as extracted, or which attaches to an account resulting from the sale thereof at the wellhead or minehead are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction wherein the wellhead or minehead is located.

554.9104 Transactions excluded from Article. This Article does not apply

a. to a security interest subject to any statute of the United States to the extent that such statute governs the rights of parties to and third parties affected by transactions in particular types of property; or

b. to a landlord's lien; or

c. to a lien given by statute or other rule of law for services or materials except as provided in section 554.9310 on priority of such liens; or

d. to a transfer of a claim for wages, salary or other compensation of an employee; or

e. to a transfer by a government or governmental subdivision or agency; or

f. to a sale of accounts or chattel paper as part of a sale of the business out of which they arose, or an assignment of accounts or chattel paper which is for the purpose of collection only, or a transfer of a right to payment under a contract to an assignee who is also to do the performance under the contract or a transfer of a single account to an assignee in whole or partial satisfaction of a pre-existing indebtedness; or

g. to a transfer of an interest or claim in or under any policy of insurance, except as provided with respect to proceeds (section 554.9306) and priorities in proceeds (section 554.9312); or

h. to a right represented by a judgment (other than a judgment taken on a right to payment which was collateral); or

i. to any right of setoff; or

j. except to the extent that provision is made for fixtures in section 554.9313, to the creation or transfer of an interest in or lien on real estate, including a lease or rents thereunder; or

k. to a transfer in whole or in part of any claim arising out of tort; or

l. to a transfer of an interest in any deposit account (section 554.9105, subsection 1), except as provided with respect to proceeds (section 554.9306) and priorities in proceeds (section 554.9312).

554.9105 Definitions and index of definitions.

1. In this Article unless the context otherwise requires:

a. "Account debtor" means the person who is obligated on an account, chattel paper or general intangible;

b. "Chattel paper" means a writing or writings which evidence both a monetary obligation and a security interest in or a lease of specific goods, but a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel is not chattel paper. When a transaction is evidenced both by such a security agreement or a lease and by an instrument or a series of instruments, the group of writings taken together constitutes chattel paper;

c. "Collateral" means the property subject to a security interest, and includes accounts and chattel paper which have been sold;

d. "Debtor" means the person who owes payment or other performance of the obligation secured, whether or not the person owns or has rights in the collateral, and includes the seller of accounts or chattel paper. Where the debtor and the owner of the collateral are not the same person, the term "debtor" means the owner of the collateral in any provision of the Article dealing with the collateral, the obligor in any provision dealing with the obligation, and may include both where the context so requires.

e. "Deposit account" means a demand, time, savings, passbook or like account maintained with a bank, savings and loan association, credit union or like organization, other than an account evidenced by a certificate of deposit.

f. "Document" means document of title as defined in the general definitions of Article 1 (section 554.1201), and a receipt of the kind described in section 554.7201, subsection 2.

g. "Encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other liens on real estate and all other rights in real estate that are not ownership interests.

h. "Goods" include all things which are movable at the time the security interest attaches or which are fixtures (section 554.9313), but do not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles or minerals or the like (including oil and gas) before extraction. "Goods" also include standing timber which is to be cut and removed under a conveyance or contract for sale, the unborn young of animals and growing crops.

i. "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument (defined in section 554.3104), or a security (defined in section 554.8102) or any other writing which evidences a right to the payment of money and is not itself a security agreement or lease and is of a type which is in ordinary course of business transferred by delivery with any necessary endorsement or assignment.

j. "Mortgage" means a consensual interest created by a real estate mortgage, a trust deed on real estate, or the like.

k. An advance is made "pursuant to commitment" if the secured party has bound itself to make it, whether or not a subsequent event of default or other event not within the secured party's control has relieved or may relieve the secured party from the secured party's obligation.

l. "Security agreement" means an agreement which creates or provides for a security interest.

m. "Secured party" means a lender, seller or other person in whose favor there is a security interest, including a person to whom accounts or chattel paper have been sold. When the holders of obligations issued under an indenture of trust, equipment trust agreement or the like are represented by a trustee or other person, the representative is the secured party.

n. "Transmitting utility" means any person primarily engaged in the railroad, street railway or trolley bus business, the electric or electronics communications transmission business, the transmission of goods by pipeline, or the transmission or the production and transmission of electricity, steam, gas or water, or the provision of sewer service.

554.9106 Definitions: "Account" — "general intangibles."

"Account" means any right to payment for goods sold or leased or for services rendered which is not evidenced by an instrument or chattel paper, whether or not it has been earned by performance. "General intangibles" means any personal property (including things in action) other than goods, accounts, chattel paper, documents, instruments and money. All rights to payment earned or unearned under a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel and all rights incident to the charter or contract are accounts.

[C58, 62, §539 12, C66, 71, 73, §554 9105, 555 1, C75, 77, 79, 81, §554 9106]

554.9107 Definitions: "Purchase money security interest."

A security interest is a "purchase money security interest" to the extent that it is:

a. taken or retained by the seller of the collateral to secure all or part of its price, or
b. taken by a person who by making advances or incurring an obligation gives value to enable the debtor to acquire rights in or the use of collateral if such value is in fact so used.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 9107]

554.9108 When after-acquired collateral not security for antecedent debt.

Where a secured party makes an advance, incurs an obligation, releases a perfected security interest, or otherwise gives new value which is to be secured in whole or in part by after acquired property the secured party’s security interest in the after-acquired collateral shall be deemed to be taken for new value and not as security for an antecedent debt if the debtor acquires the debtor’s rights in such collateral either in the ordinary course of the debtor’s business or under a contract of purchase made pursuant to the security agreement within a reasonable time after new value is given. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9108]

554.9109 Classification of goods — “consumer goods” — “equipment” — “farm products” — “inventory”.

Goods are
1. “consumer goods” if they are used or bought for use primarily for personal, family or household purposes;
2. “equipment” if they are used or bought for use primarily in business (including farming or a profession) or by a debtor who is a nonprofit organization or a governmental subdivision or agency or if the goods are not included in the definitions of inventory, farm products or consumer goods;
3. “farm products” if they are crops or livestock or supplies used or produced in farming operations or if they are products of crops or livestock in their unmanufactured states (such as ginned cotton, wool clip, maple syrup, milk and eggs), and if they are in the possession of a debtor engaged in raising, fattening, grazing or other farming operations. If goods are farm products they are neither equipment nor inventory.
4. “inventory” if they are held by a person who holds them for sale or lease or to be furnished under contracts of service or if that person has so furnished them, or if they are raw materials, work in process or materials used or consumed in a business. Inventory of a person is not to be classified as that person’s equipment. [C97, §2051; S13, §2051; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10033; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §556.22; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9109]

554.9110 Sufficiency of description.

For the purposes of this Article any description of personal property or real estate is sufficient whether or not it is specific if it reasonably identifies what is described. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9110]

554.9111 Applicability of bulk transfer laws.

The creation of a security interest is not a bulk transfer under Article 6 (see section 554.6103). [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9111]

554.9112 Where collateral is not owned by debtor.

Unless otherwise agreed, when a secured party knows that collateral is owned by a person who is not the debtor, the owner of the collateral is entitled to receive from the secured party any surplus under section 554.9502, subsection 2, or under section 554.9504, subsection 1, and is not liable for the debt or for any deficiency after resale, and the owner has the same right as the debtor
a. to receive statements under section 554.9208;
b. to receive notice of and to object to a secured party’s proposal to retain the collateral in satisfaction of the indebtedness under section 554.9505;
c. to redeem the collateral under section 554.9506;
d. to obtain injunctive or other relief under section 554.9507, subsection 1; and
e. to recover losses caused to the owner under section 554.9208, subsection 2. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9112]

554.9113 Security interests arising under Article on Sales.

A security interest arising solely under the Article on Sales (Article 2) is subject to the provisions of this Article except that to the extent that and so long as the debtor does not have or does not lawfully obtain possession of the goods
a. no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable; and
b. no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and
c. the rights of the secured party on default by the debtor are governed by the Article on Sales (Article 2). [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9113]

554.9114 Consignment.

1. A person who delivers goods under a consignment which is not a security interest and who would be required to file under this Article by section 554.2326, subsection 3, paragraph “c”, has priority over a secured party who is or becomes a creditor of the consignee and who would have a perfected security interest in the goods if they were the property of the consignee, and also has priority with respect to identifiable cash proceeds received on or before delivery of the goods to a buyer, if
a. the consignor complies with the filing provision of the Article on Sales with respect to consignments (section 554.2326), subsection 3, paragraph “c” before the consignee receives possession of the goods; and
b. the consignor gives notification in writing to the holder of the security interest if the holder has filed a financing statement covering the same types of goods before the date of the filing made by the consignor; and
c. the holder of the security interest receives the notification within five years before the consignee receives possession of the goods; and
d. the notification states that the consignor expects to deliver goods on consignment to the consignee, describing the goods by item or type.
2. In the case of a consignment which is not a security interest and in which the requirements of the preceding subsection have not been met, a person who delivers goods to another is subordinate to a person who would have a perfected security interest in the goods if they were the property of the debtor. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9114]
554.9201 General validity of security agreement.
Except as otherwise provided by this chapter a security agreement is effective according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the collateral and against creditors. Nothing in this Article validates any charge or practice illegal under any statute or regulation thereunder governing usury, small loans, retail installment sales, or the like, or extends the application of any such statute or regulation to any transaction not otherwise subject thereto. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9201]

554.9202 Title to collateral immaterial.
Each provision of this Article with regard to rights, obligations and remedies applies whether title to collateral is in the secured party or in the debtor. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9202]

554.9203 Attachment and enforceability of security interest — proceeds, formal requisites.
1. Subject to the provisions of section 554.4208 on the security interest of a collecting bank and section 554.9113 on a security interest arising under the Article on Sales, a security interest is not enforceable against the debtor or third parties with respect to the collateral and does not attach unless:
   a. the collateral is in the possession of the secured party pursuant to agreement, or the debtor has signed a security agreement which contains a description of the collateral and in addition, when the security interest covers crops growing or to be grown or timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned; and
   b. value has been given; and
   c. the debtor has rights in the collateral.
2. A security interest attaches when it becomes enforceable against the debtor with respect to the collateral. Attachment occurs as soon as all of the events specified in subsection 1 have taken place unless explicit agreement postpones the time of attaching.
3. Unless otherwise agreed a security agreement gives the secured party the rights to proceeds provided by section 554.9306.
4. A transaction, although subject to this Article, is also subject to chapters 322, 534, 535, 536, 536A and section 524.906, and the Iowa consumer credit code, where applicable, and in the case of conflict between the provisions of this Article and those statutes, the provisions of those statutes control. Failure to comply with any applicable statute has only the effect which is specified therein. [C66, 71, 73, §554.9203, 554.9204 (1, 2); C75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9203]

554.9204 After-acquired property — future advances.
1. Except as provided in subsection 2, a security agreement may provide that any or all obligations covered by the security agreement are to be secured by after-acquired collateral, including after-acquired collateral which also constitutes identifiable non-cash proceeds.
2. No security interest attaches under an after-acquired property clause to consumer goods other than accessions (section 554.9314) when given as additional security unless the debtor acquires rights in them within ten days after the secured party gives value.
3. Obligations covered by a security agreement may include future advances or other value whether or not the advances or value are given pursuant to commitment (section 554.9105, subsection 1). [C58, 62, §539.9; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9204]

554.9205 Use or disposition of collateral without accounting permissible.
A security interest is not invalid or fraudulent against creditors by reason of liberty in the debtor to use, commingle or dispose of all or part of the collateral (including returned or repossessed goods) or to collect or compromise accounts or chattel paper, or to accept the return of goods or make repossessions, or to use, commingle or dispose of proceeds, or by reason of the failure of the secured party to require the debtor to account for proceeds or replace collateral. This section does not relax the requirements of possession where perfection of a security interest depends upon possession of the collateral by the secured party or by a bailee. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9205]

554.9206 Agreement not to assert defenses against assignee — modification of sales warranties where security agreement exists.
1. Subject to any statute or decision which establishes a different rule for buyers or lessees of consumer goods, an agreement by a buyer or lessee that the buyer or lessee will not assert against an assignee any claim or defense which the buyer or lessee may have against the seller or lessor is enforceable by an assignee who takes that assignee’s assignment for value, in good faith and without notice of a claim or defense, except as to defenses of a type which may be asserted against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument under the Article on Commercial Paper (Article 3). A buyer who as part of one transaction signs both a negotiable instrument and a security agreement makes such an agreement.
2. When a seller retains a purchase money security interest in goods the Article on Sales (Article 2) governs the sale and any disclaimer, limitation or modification of the seller’s warranties. [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9206]

554.9207 Rights and duties when collateral is in secured party’s possession.
1. A secured party must use reasonable care in the custody and preservation of collateral in the secured party’s possession. In the case of an instrument or chattel paper reasonable care includes taking necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties unless otherwise agreed.

2. Unless otherwise agreed, when collateral is in the secured party’s possession

a. reasonable expenses (including the cost of any insurance and payment of taxes or other charges) incurred in the custody, preservation, use or operation of the collateral are chargeable to the debtor and are secured by the collateral;

b. the risk of accidental loss or damage is on the de­btor to the extent of any deficiency in any effective insurance coverage;

c. the secured party may hold as additional security any increase or profits (except money) received from the collateral, but money so received, unless remitted to the debtor, shall be applied in reduction of the secured obligation;

d. the secured party must keep the collateral identifiable but fungible collateral may be commingled;

e. the secured party may repledge the collateral upon terms which do not impair the debtor’s right to redeem it.

3. A secured party is liable for any loss caused by the secured party’s failure to meet any obligation imposed by the preceding subsections but does not lose the secured party’s security interest.

4. A secured party may use or operate the collateral for the purpose of preserving the collateral or its value or pursuant to the order of a court of appropriate jurisdiction or, except in the case of consumer goods, in the manner and to the extent provided in the security agreement.

554.9208 Request for statement of account or list of collateral.

1. A debtor may sign a statement indicating what the debtor believes to be the aggregate amount of unpaid indebtedness as of a specified date and may send it to the secured party with a request that the statement be approved or corrected and returned to the debtor. When the security agreement or any other record kept by the secured party identifies the collateral a debtor may similarly request the secured party to approve or correct a list of the collateral.

2. The secured party must comply with such a request within two weeks after receipt by sending a written correction or approval. If the secured party claims a security interest in all of a particular type of collateral owned by the debtor the secured party may indicate that fact in that reply and need not approve or correct an itemized list of such collateral.

If the secured party without reasonable excuse fails to comply the secured party is liable for any loss caused to the debtor thereby; and if the debtor has properly included in the debtor’s request a good faith statement of the obligation or a list of the collateral or both the secured party may claim a security interest only as shown in the statement against persons misled by the secured party’s failure to comply. If the secured party no longer has an interest in the obligation or collateral at the time the request is received the secured party must disclose the name and address of any successor in interest known to the secured party and is liable for any loss caused to the debtor as a result of failure to disclose.
A successor in interest is not subject to this section until a request is received by the successor in interest.

3. A debtor is entitled to such a statement once every six months without charge. The secured party may require payment of a charge not exceeding ten dollars for each additional statement furnished.

PART 3

RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES — PERFECTED AND UNPERFECTED SECURITY INTERESTS — RULES OF PRIORITY

554.9301 Persons who take priority over un­ perfected security interests — right of “lien creditor”.

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an unperfected security interest is subordinate to the rights of

a. persons entitled to priority under section 554.9312;

b. a person who becomes a lien creditor before the security interest is perfected;

c. in the case of goods, instruments, documents, and chattel paper, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee in bulk or other buyer not in ordinary course of business, or is a buyer of farm products in ordinary course of business, to the extent that that person gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected;

d. in the case of accounts, and general intangibles, a person who is not a secured party and who is a thansferee to the extent that that person gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

2. If the secured party files with respect to a purchase money security interest before or within twenty days after the debtor receives possession of the collateral, the secured party takes priority over the rights of a transferee in bulk or of a lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing.

3. A “lien creditor” means a creditor who has aquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy or the like and includes an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of assignment, and a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition or a receiver in equity from the time of appointment.

4. A person who becomes a lien creditor while a security interest is perfected takes subject to the security interest only to the extent that it secures advances made before the person becomes a lien creditor or within forty-five days thereafter or made without knowledge of the lien or pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lien.

[C58, 62, §539.7, 539.9; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9301]

§554.9302 When filing is required to perfect security interest — security interests to which filing provisions of this Article do not apply.

1. A financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests except the following:
   a. a security interest in collateral in possession of the secured party under section 554.9305;
   b. a security interest temporarily perfected in instruments or documents without delivery under section 554.9304 or in proceeds for a ten-day period under section 554.9306;
   c. a security interest created by an assignment of a beneficial interest in a trust or a decedent’s estate;
   d. a purchase money security interest in consumer goods; but filing is required for a vehicle required to be registered; and fixture filing is required for priority over conflicting interests in fixtures to the extent provided in section 554.9313;
   e. an assignment of accounts which does not alone or in conjunction with other assignments to the same assignee transfer a significant part of the outstanding accounts of the assignor;
   f. a security interest of a collecting bank (section 554.4208) or arising under the Article on Sales (see section 554.9113) or covered in subsection 3 of this section;
   g. an assignment for the benefit of all the creditors of the transferor, and subsequent transfers by the assignee thereunder.

2. If a secured party assigns a perfected security interest, no filing under this Article is required in order to continue the perfected status of the security interest against creditors of and transferees from the original debtor.

3. The filing of a financing statement otherwise required by this Article is not necessary or effective to perfect a security interest in property subject to
   a. a statute or treaty of the United States which provides for a national or international registration or a national or international certificate of title or which specifies a place of filing different from that specified in this Article for filing of the security interest; or
   b. the following statutes of this state; sections 321.18, 321.20 and 321.50; but during any period in which collateral is inventory held for sale by a person who is in the business of selling goods of that kind, the filing provisions of this Article (Part 4) apply to a security interest in that collateral created by that person as debtor; or
   c. a certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection (section 554.9103, subsection 2).

4. Compliance with a statute or treaty described in subsection 3 is equivalent to the filing of a financing statement under this Article, and a security interest in property subject to the statute or treaty can be perfected only by compliance therewith except as provided in section 554.9103 on multiple state transactions. Duration and renewal of perfection of a security interest perfected by compliance with the statute or treaty are governed by the provisions of the statute or treaty; in other respects the security interest is subject to this Article.

§554.9303 When security interest is perfected — continuity of perfection.

1. A security interest is perfected when it has attached and when all of the applicable steps required for perfection have been taken. Such steps are specified in sections 554.9302, 554.9304, 554.9305 and 554.9306. If such steps are taken before the security interest attaches, it is perfected at the time when it attaches.

2. If a security interest is originally perfected in any way permitted under this Article and is subsequently perfected in some other way under this Article, without an intermediate period when it was unperfected, the security interest shall be deemed to be perfected continuously for the purposes of this Article.

§554.9304 Perfection of security interest in instruments, documents, and goods covered by documents — perfection by permissive filing — temporary perfection without filing or transfer of possession.

1. A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing. A security interest in money or instruments (other than instruments which constitute part of chattel paper) can be perfected only by the secured party’s taking possession, except as provided in subsections 4 and 5 of this section and section 554.9306, subsections 2 and 3, on proceeds.

2. During the period that goods are in the possession of the issuer of a negotiable document therefor, a security interest in the goods is perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document, and any security interest in the goods otherwise perfected during such period is subject thereto.

3. A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor is perfected by issuance of a document in the name of the secured party or by the bailee’s receipt of notification of the secured party’s interest or by filing as to the goods.

4. A security interest in instruments or negotiable documents is perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of twenty-one days from the time it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under a written security agreement.

5. A security interest remains perfected for a period of twenty-one days without filing where a secured party having a perfected security interest in an instrument, a negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor:

a. makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or for the purpose of loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipment, manufacturing, processing or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to their sale or exchange, but priority between conflicting security interests in the goods is subject to section 554.9312, subsection 3; or

b. delivers the instrument to the debtor for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or of presentation, collection, renewal or registration of transfer.

6. After the twenty-one day period in subsections 4 and 5 perfection depends upon compliance with applicable provisions of this Article.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10023; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §556.12; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9304]

554.9305 When possession by secured party perfects security interest without filing.

A security interest in letters of credit and advices of credit (subsection 2 “a” of section 554.5116), goods, instruments, money, negotiable documents or chattel paper may be perfected by the secured party’s taking possession of the collateral. If such collateral other than goods covered by a negotiable document is held by a bailee, the secured party is deemed to have possession from the time the bailee receives notification of the secured party’s interest. A security interest is perfected by possession from the time possession is taken without relation back and continues only so long as possession is retained, unless otherwise specified in this Article. The security interest may be otherwise perfected as provided in this Article before or after the period of possession by the secured party.

554.9306 “Proceeds” — secured party’s rights on disposition of collateral.

1. “Proceeds” include whatever is received upon the sale, exchange, collection or other disposition of collateral or proceeds. Insurance payable by reason of loss or damage to the collateral is proceeds, except to the extent that it is payable to a person other than a party to the security agreement. Money, checks, deposit accounts and the like are “cash proceeds.” All other proceeds are “noncash proceeds.”

2. Except where this Article otherwise provides, a security interest continues in collateral notwithstanding sale, exchange or other disposition thereof unless the disposition was authorized by the secured party in the security agreement or otherwise, and also continues in any identifiable proceeds including collections received by the debtor.

3. The security interest in proceeds is a continuously perfected security interest if the interest in the original collateral was perfected but it ceases to be a perfected security interest and becomes unperfected ten days after receipt of the proceeds by the debtor unless

a. a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing in the office or offices where the financing statement has been filed and, if the proceeds are acquired with cash proceeds, the description of collateral in the financing statement indicates the types of property constituting the proceeds; or

b. a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are identifiable cash proceeds; or

c. the security interest in the proceeds is perfected before the expiration of the ten-day period.

Except as provided in this section, a security interest in proceeds can be perfected only by the methods or under the circumstances permitted in this Article for original collateral of the same type.

4. In the event of insolvency proceedings instituted by or against a debtor, a secured party with a perfected security interest in proceeds has a perfected security interest only in the following proceeds:

a. in identifiable noncash proceeds and in separate deposit accounts containing only proceeds;

b. in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of money which is neither commingled with other money nor deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings;

c. in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of checks and the like which are not deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings; and

d. in all cash and deposit accounts of the debtor, in which proceeds have been commingled with other funds, but the perfected security interest under this paragraph “d” is

i. subject to any right of setoff; and

ii. limited to an amount not greater than the amount of any cash proceeds received by the debtor within ten days before the institution of the insolvency proceedings less the sum of (I) the payments to the secured party on account of cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period and (II) the cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period to which the secured party is entitled under paragraphs “a” through “c” of this subsection 4.

5. If a sale of goods results in an account or chattel paper which is transferred by the seller to a secured party, and if the goods are returned to or are repossessed by the seller or the secured party, the following rules determine priorities:

a. If the goods were collateral at the time of sale for an indebtedness of the seller which is still unpaid, the original security interest attaches again to the goods and continues as a perfected security interest if it was perfected at the time when the goods were sold. If the security interest was originally perfected by a filing which is still effective, nothing further is required to continue the perfected status; in any other case, the secured party must take possession of the returned or repossessed goods or must file.

b. An unpaid transferee of the chattel paper has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is prior to a security interest asserted under paragraph "a" to the extent that the transferee of the chattel paper was entitled to priority under section 554.9308.

c. An unpaid transferee of the account has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is subordinate to a security interest asserted under paragraph "a".

d. A security interest of an unpaid transferee asserted under paragraph "b" or "c" must be perfected for protection against creditors of the transferee and purchasers of the returned or repossessed goods.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9306]

§554.9307 Protection of buyers of goods.

1. Except as provided in subsection 4, a buyer in the ordinary course of business as defined in section 554.1201, subsection 9, takes free of a security interest created by that person's seller even though the security interest is perfected and even though the buyer knows of its existence. For purposes of this section, a buyer or buyer in the ordinary course of business includes any commission merchant, selling agent, or other person engaged in the business of receiving livestock as defined in section 189A.2 on commission for or on behalf of another.

2. In the case of consumer goods, a buyer takes free of a security interest even though perfected if the buyer buys without knowledge of the security interest, for value and for the buyer's own personal, family or household purposes unless prior to the purchase the secured party has filed a financing statement covering such goods.

3. A buyer other than a buyer in ordinary course of business (subsection 1 of this section) takes free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the purchase, or more than forty-five days after the purchase, whichever first occurs, unless made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the purchase and before the expiration of the forty-five-day period.

4. a. A buyer in the ordinary course of business buying farm products from a debtor engaged in farming operations takes subject to a security interest created by the debtor, if within one year before the sale of the farm products the buyer receives prior written notice of the security interest which complies with this subsection and the buyer fails to perform the payment obligations specified in the notice.

b. A written notice complies with this subsection if the written notice is delivered to the buyer by the secured party or the debtor who sells the farm products and it complies with the following:

(1) Is an original or reproduced copy of the written notice; and

(2) Is signed by either the secured party or the debtor, who transmits the notice to the potential buyer.

(3) Contains all of the following:

(a) The name and address of the secured party.

(b) The name and address of the person indebted to the secured party.

(c) The social security number of the debtor or, in the case of a debtor doing business other than as an individual, the internal revenue service taxpayer identification number of the debtor.

(d) A description of the farm products subject to the security interest created by the debtor, including the amount of the products where applicable.

(e) An identification of the crop year in which the farm products were produced.

(f) An identification of the county in which the farm products were produced.

(g) A reasonable description of the property on which the farm products were produced.

(h) A statement of any payment obligations imposed on the buyer by the secured party as a condition for waiver or release of the security interest.

(c) The secured party may require, in documents creating the security interest, that a debtor engaged in farming operations, who creates a security interest in a farm product, furnish to the secured party a list of potential buyers to or through whom the debtor may sell the farm product. Before a potential buyer who is not on the list may receive from the secured party written notice of a security interest in a farm product, the secured party shall notify the debtor of the name and address of the potential buyer.

d. A written notice shall be amended by the secured party within three months of any material change. The amended notice must be signed and transmitted to the potential buyer similarly to the original notice, by either the secured party or the debtor selling the farm products. The notice lapses on the earlier of either one year from the date the notice was received by the buyer or the date the buyer receives a notice signed by the secured party that the security interest has lapsed.

5. If the notice to a potential buyer by a secured party or debtor satisfies the requirements of subsection 4, paragraph "b", and the debtor sells the farm products subject to the security interest to a buyer not included on the list as a potential buyer as required in subsection 4, paragraph "c", or to any other buyer, if the name and address of the buyer was not received by the debtor pursuant to subsection 4, paragraph "c", then the debtor is subject to a civil penalty of the greater of either five thousand dollars or fifteen percent of the value or benefits received by the debtor for the farm products described in the documents creating the security interest.

However, the penalty provided in this subsection shall be imposed on the debtor in lieu of but not in addition to the penalty described in the federal Food Security Act of 1985, Pub. L. No. 99-198, §1324. A penalty shall not be imposed on the debtor if the debtor has complied with any of the following:
a. Notified the secured party in writing of the identity of the buyer at least seven days prior to the sale.

b. Accounted to the secured party for the proceeds of the sale not later than ten days after the sale.

c. The refusal of a person to whom a notice is mailed to accept delivery of the notice shall be considered receipt.

6. For purposes of this section, written notice shall be considered to be received by the person to whom it was delivered if the notice is delivered in hand to the person with a written receipt returned, or mailed by certified or registered mail with the proper postage and properly addressed to the person to whom it was sent. The refusal of a person to whom a notice is mailed to accept delivery of the notice shall be considered receipt.

[554.9308 Purchase of chattel paper and instruments.

A purchaser of chattel paper or an instrument who gives new value and takes possession of it in the ordinary course of the purchaser’s business has priority over a security interest in the chattel paper or instrument

a. which is perfected under section 554.9304 (permissive filing and temporary perfection) or under section 554.9306 (perfection as to proceeds) if the purchaser acts without knowledge that the specific paper or instrument is subject to a security interest; or

b. which is claimed merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest (section 554.9306) even though the purchaser knows that the specific paper or instrument is subject to the security interest.

[554.9309 Protection of purchasers of instruments and documents.

Nothing in this Article limits the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument (section 554.3302) or a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated (section 554.7501) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (section 554.9301) and such holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest even though perfected. Filing under this Article does not constitute notice of the security interest to such holders or purchasers.

[554.9310 Priority of certain liens arising by operation of law.

When a person in the ordinary course of the person’s business furnishes services or materials with respect to goods subject to a security interest, a lien upon goods in the possession of such person given by statute or rule of law for such materials or services takes priority over a perfected security interest unless the lien is statutory and the statute expressly provides otherwise.

[554.9311 Alienability of debtor’s rights: judicial process.

The debtor’s rights in collateral may be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred (by way of sale, creation of a security interest, attachment, levy, garnishment or other judicial process) notwithstanding a provision in the security agreement prohibiting any transfer or making the transfer constitute a default.

[554.9312 Priorities among conflicting security interests in the same collateral.

1. The rules of priority stated in other sections of this Part and in the following sections shall govern when applicable: section 554.4208 with respect to the security interests of collecting banks in items being collected, accompanying documents and proceeds; section 554.9103 on security interests related to other jurisdictions; section 554.9114 on consignments.

2. A perfected security interest in crops for new value given to enable the debtor to produce the crops during the production season and given not more than three months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise takes priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the extent that such earlier interest secures obligations due more than six months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving new value had knowledge of the earlier security interest.

3. A perfected purchase money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same inventory and also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds received on or before the delivery of the inventory to a buyer if

a. the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

b. the purchase money secured party gives notification in writing to the holder of the conflicting security interest if the holder had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory (1) before the date of the filing made by the purchase money secured party, or (2) before the beginning of the twenty-one-day period where the purchase money security interest is temporarily perfected without filing or possession (section 554.9304, subsection 5); and

c. the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five years before the debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

d. the notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.

4. A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a conflict-
§554.9312, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

554.9312 Priority of security interests in fixtures.

1. In this section and in the provisions of Part 4 of this Article referring to fixture filing, unless the context otherwise requires:

   a. goods are “fixtures” when they become so related to particular real estate that an interest in them arises under real estate law.

   b. a “fixture filing” is the filing in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded of a financing statement covering goods which are or are to become fixtures and conforming to the requirements of section 554.9402, subsection 5.

   c. a mortgage is a “construction mortgage” to the extent that it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land including the acquisition cost of the land, if the recorded writing so indicates.

2. A security interest under this Article may be created in goods which are fixtures or may continue in goods which become fixtures, but no security interest exists under this Article in ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

3. This Article does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures pursuant to real estate law.

4. A perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate where:

   a. the security interest is a purchase money security interest, the interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures, the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within ten days thereafter, and the debtor has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate; or

   b. the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record, the security interest has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner, and the debtor has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate; or

   c. the fixtures are readily removable equipment or readily removable replacements of domestic appliances which are consumer goods, and before the goods become fixtures the security interest is perfected by any method permitted by this Article including section 554.9302, subsection 1, paragraph “d”; or

   d. the conflicting interest is a lien on the real estate obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the security interest was perfected by any method permitted by this Article including section 554.9302, subsection 1, paragraph “d”.

5. A security interest in fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate where:

   a. the encumbrancer or owner has consented in writing to the security interest or has disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

   b. the debtor has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner. If the debtor’s right terminates, the priority of the security interest continues for a reasonable time.

6. Notwithstanding paragraph “a” of subsection 4 but otherwise subject to subsections 4 and 5, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage recorded before the goods become fixtures if the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. To the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage, a mortgage has this priority to the same extent as the construction mortgage.

7. In cases not within the preceding subsections, a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real estate who is not the debtor.

8. When the secured party has priority over all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, the secured party may, on default, subject to the provisions of Part 5, remove the secured party’s collateral from the real estate but the secured party must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the debtor and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical costs.
injury, but not for any diminution in value of the real estate caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity of replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

554.9314 Accessions.
1. A security interest in goods which attaches before they are installed in or affixed to other goods takes priority as to the goods installed or affixed (called in this section “accessions”) over the claims of all persons to the whole except as stated in subsection 3 and subject to section 554.9315, subsection 1.

2. A security interest which attaches to goods after they become part of a whole is valid against all persons subsequently acquiring interests in the whole except as stated in subsection 3 but is invalid against any person with an interest in the whole at the time the security interest attaches to the goods who has not in writing consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as part of the whole.

3. The security interests described in subsections 1 and 2 do not take priority over
   a. a subsequent purchaser for value of any interest in the whole; or
   b. a creditor with a lien on the whole subsequently obtained by judicial proceedings; or
   c. a creditor with a prior perfected security interest in the whole to the extent that the creditor makes subsequent advances;

   if the subsequent purchase is made, the lien by judicial proceedings obtained or the subsequent advance under the prior perfected security interest is made or contracted for without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected. A purchaser of the whole at a foreclosure sale other than the holder of a perfected security interest purchasing at that holder’s own foreclosure sale is a subsequent purchaser within this section.

4. When under subsections 1 or 2 and 3 a secured party has an interest in accessions which has priority over the claims of all persons who have interests in the whole, that person may on default subject to section 554.9315, subsection 1 and 2 do not take priority over
   a. a subsequent purchaser for value of any interest in the whole; or
   b. a creditor with a lien on the whole subsequently obtained by judicial proceedings; or
   c. a creditor with a prior perfected security interest in the whole to the extent that the creditor makes subsequent advances;

   if the subsequent purchase is made, the lien by judicial proceedings obtained or the subsequent advance under the prior perfected security interest is made or contracted for without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected. A purchaser of the whole at a foreclosure sale other than the holder of a perfected security interest purchasing at that holder’s own foreclosure sale is a subsequent purchaser within this section.

554.9315 Priority when goods are commingled or processed.
1. If a security interest in goods was perfected and subsequently the goods or a part thereof have become part of a product or mass, the security interest continues in the product or mass if
   a. the goods are so manufactured, processed, assembled or commingled that their identity is lost in the product or mass; or
   b. a financing statement covering the original goods also covers the product into which the goods have been manufactured, processed or assembled.

In a case to which paragraph “b” applies, no separate security interest in that part of the original goods which has been manufactured, processed or assembled into the product may be claimed under section 554.9314.

2. When under subsection 1 more than one security interest attaches to the product or mass, they rank equally according to the ratio that the cost of the goods to which each interest originally attached bears to the cost of the total product or mass.

554.9316 Priority subject to subordination.
Nothing in this Article prevents subordination by agreement by any person entitled to priority.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9316]

554.9317 Secured party not obligated on contract of debtor.
The mere existence of a security interest or authority given to the debtor to dispose of or use collateral does not impose contract or tort liability upon the secured party for the debtor’s acts or omissions.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9317]

554.9318 Defenses against assignee — modification of contract after notification of assignment — term prohibiting assignment ineffective — identification and proof of assignment.
1. Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims arising out of a sale as provided in section 554.9206 the rights of an assignee are subject to
   a. all the terms of the contract between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim arising therefrom; and
   b. any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives notification of the assignment.

2. So far as the right to payment or a part thereof under an assigned contract has not been fully earned by performance, and notwithstanding notification of the assignment, any modification of or substitution for the contract made in good faith and in accordance with reasonable commercial standards is effective against an assignee unless the account debtor has otherwise agreed but the assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that such modification or substitution is a breach by the assignor.

3. The account debtor is authorized to pay the assignor until the account debtor receives notification that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. A notification which does not reasonably identify the rights assigned is ineffective. If requested by the account debtor, the assignee must seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made and unless the assignee does so the account debtor may pay the assignor.

4. A term in any contract between an account debtor and an assignor is ineffective if it prohibits assignment of an account or prohibits creation of a security interest in a general intangible for money due or to become due or requires the account debtor's consent to such assignment or security interest.

[§554.9318; §554.9401, 554.9402]

PART 4

FILING

554.9401 Place of filing — erroneous filing — removal of collateral.

1. The proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:
   a. when the collateral is timber to be cut or is minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (section 554.9313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, then in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded;
   b. when the collateral is consumer goods and when the debtor resides in this state, then in the office of the recorder in the county of the debtor's residence;
   c. in all other cases, in the office of the secretary of state.

2. A filing which is made in good faith in an improper place or not in all of the places required by this section is nevertheless effective with regard to any collateral as to which the filing complied with the requirements of this Article and is also effective with regard to collateral covered by the financing statement against any person who has knowledge of the contents of such financing statement.

3. A filing which is made in the proper place in this state continues effective even though the debtor's residence or place of business or the location of the collateral or its use, whichever controlled the original filing, is thereafter changed.

4. The rules stated in section 554.9103 determine whether filing is necessary in this state.

5. Notwithstanding the preceding subsections, and subject to section 554.9302, subsection 3, the proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is the office of the secretary of state. This filing constitutes a fixture filing (section 554.9313) as to the collateral described therein which is or is to become fixtures.

554.9402 Formal requisites of financing statement — amendments — mortgage as financing statement.

1. A financing statement is sufficient if it gives the names of the debtor and the secured party, is signed by the debtor, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor and contains a statement indicating the types, or describing the items, of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. When the financing statement covers crops growing or to be grown, the statement must also contain a description of the real estate concerned. When the financing statement covers timber to be cut or covers minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or when the financing statement is filed as a fixture filing (section 554.9313) and the collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also comply with subsection 5. A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by the debtor. A carbon, photographic or other reproduction of a security agreement or a financing statement is sufficient as a financing statement if the security agreement so provides or if the original has been filed in this state.

2. A financing statement which otherwise complies with subsection 1 is sufficient when it is signed by the secured party instead of the debtor if it is filed to perfect a security interest in
   a. collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this state, or when the debtor's location is changed to this state. Such a financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this state or that the debtor's location was changed to this state under such circumstances; or
   b. proceeds under section 554.9306 if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. Such a financing statement must describe the original collateral; or
   c. collateral as to which the filing has lapsed; or
   d. collateral acquired after a change of name, identity or corporate structure of the debtor (subsection 7).

3. A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with subsection 1:
   Name of debtor (or assignor) ..........................................
   Address ...........................................................................
   Name of secured party (or assignee) ...............................
   Address ...........................................................................

   (1) This financing statement covers the following types (or items) of property:
   (Describe) ......................................................................

   (2) (If collateral is crops) The above described crops are growing or are to be grown on:
   (Describe Real Estate) ...................................................
(3) (If applicable) The above goods are to become fixtures on Where appropriate either add or substitute “The above timber is standing on ................................” or
“The above minerals or the like (including oil and gas) are located on ..........................” or “The above accounts will be financed at the wellhead or minehead of the well or mine located on .................................” or any or all of these

and this financing statement is to be filed for record in the real estate records. (If the debtor does not have an interest of record) The name of a record owner is
..............................................................................................................................................................

(4) (If products of collateral are claimed) Products of the collateral are also covered.

(Use whichever is applicable) ..............................................................

Signature of Debtor (or Assignor) ........................................................

Signature of Secured Party (or Assignee) ..............................................

4. Except as provided in this subsection, a financing statement may be amended by filing a writing signed by both the debtor and the secured party. However, an amendment is sufficient when it is signed only by the secured party if it is filed to show a change of the name of the secured party. An amendment showing only a change of the name of the secured party shall be filed without fee. An amendment does not extend the period of effectiveness of a financing statement. If any amendment adds collateral, it is effective as to the added collateral only from the filing date of the amendment. In this Article, unless the context otherwise requires, the term “financing statement” means the original financing statement and any amendments.

5. A financing statement covering timber to be cut or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or a financing statement filed as a fixture filing (section 554.9313) where the debtor is not a transmitting utility, must show that it covers this type of collateral, must recite that it is to be filed for record in the real estate records, and the financing statement must contain a description of the real estate sufficient if it were contained in a mortgage of the real estate to give constructive notice of the mortgage under the law of this state. If the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real estate, the financing statement must show the name of a record owner.

6. A mortgage is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing or a filing covering timber to be cut, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, from the date of its recording if (a) the goods are described in the mortgage by item or type, (b) the goods are or are to become fixtures or timber to be cut, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, which are related to the real estate described in the mortgage, (c) the mortgage complies with the requirements for a financing statement in this section other than a recital that it is to be filed in the real estate records, and (d) the mortgage is duly recorded. No fee with reference to the financing statement is required other than the regular recording and satisfaction fees with respect to the mortgage.

7. A financing statement sufficiently shows the name of the debtor if it gives the individual, partnership or corporate name of the debtor, whether or not it adds other trade names or the names of partners. Where the debtor so changes the debtor’s name or in the case of an organization its name, identity or corporate structure that a filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, the filing is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the change, unless a new appropriate financing statement is filed before the expiration of that time. A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral transferred by the debtor even though the secured party knows of the transfer.

8. A financing statement substantially complying with the requirements of this section is effective even though it contains minor errors which are not seriously misleading.

554.9403 What constitutes filing — duration of filing — effect of lapsed filing — duties of filing officer

1. Presentation for filing of a financing statement and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this Article.

2. Except as provided in subsection 6, a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the five-year period unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. If a security interest perfected by filing exists at the time insolvency proceedings are commenced by or against the debtor, the security interest remains perfected until termination of the insolvency proceedings and thereafter for a period of sixty days or until expiration of the five-year period, whichever occurs later. Upon lapse the security interest becomes unperfected, unless it is perfected without filing. If the security interest becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser or lien creditor before lapse.

3. A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party within six months prior to the expiration of the five-year period specified in subsection 2. Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, identify the original statement by file number and state that the original statement is still effective. A continuation statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record.
and complying with section 554.9405, subsection 2, including payment of the required fee. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in subsection 2 unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer shall index the statements according to the file number and the address of the debtor given in the statement.

3. There shall be no fee for filing a termination statement.

4. Except as provided in subsection 7, a filing officer shall mark each statement with a file number and with the date and hour of filing and shall hold the statement or a microfilm or other photographic copy thereof for public inspection. In addition the filing officer shall index the statements according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in the statement.

5. The uniform fee for filing and indexing and for stamping a copy furnished by the secured party to show the date and place of filing shall be as follows:
   a. Five dollars for an original financing statement if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state, and otherwise six dollars.
   b. Five dollars for a continuation statement if the statement is in the standard form prescribed by the secretary of state, and otherwise six dollars.

6. If the debtor is a transmitting utility (section 554.9401, subsection 5), and a filed financing statement so states, or if a filed financing statement relates to a lien, pledge, or security interest incident to bonds issued under chapter 419 and the filed financing statement so states, it is effective until a termination statement to the effect that the secured party no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. If a financing statement covering farm products is filed, then within sixty days, or within ten days following written demand by the debtor, after there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value, the secured party shall file with each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that the secured party no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. In other cases if there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor, after there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations, or otherwise give value, the secured party must file with each filing officer with whom the financing statement was filed, a termination statement to the effect that the secured party no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record complying with section 554.9405, subsection 2, including payment of the required fee. If the affected secured party fails to file a termination statement as required by this subsection, or to send such a termination statement within ten days after proper demand for it, the affected secured party is liable to the debtor for one hundred dollars, and in addition for any loss caused to the debtor by the failure.

2. On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement the filing officer must note it in the index. If the filing officer has received the termination statement in duplicate, the filing officer shall return one copy of the termination statement to the secured party stamped to show the time of receipt thereof.

3. There shall be no fee for filing a termination statement.
554.9405 Assignment of security interest — duties of filing officer — fees.

1 A financing statement may disclose an assignment of a security interest in the collateral described in the financing statement by indication in the financing statement of the name and address of the assignee or by an assignment itself or a copy thereof on the face or back of the statement. On presentation to the filing officer of such a financing statement the filing officer shall mark the same as provided in section 554.9403, subsection 4. The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data for a financing statement so indicating an assignment on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the secretary of state shall be five dollars, or if such statement otherwise conforms to the requirements of this section, six dollars.

2 A secured party may assign of record all or a part of the rights under a financing statement by the filing in the place where the original financing statement was filed of a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and setting forth the name of the secured party of record and the debtor, the file number and the date of filing of the financing statement and the name and address of the assignee and containing a description of the collateral assigned. A copy of the assignment is sufficient as a separate statement if it complies with the preceding sentence. On presentation to the filing officer of such a separate statement, the filing officer shall mark such separate statement with the date and hour of the filing. The filing officer shall note the assignment on the index of the financing statement, or in the case of a fixture filing, or a filing covering timber to be cut, or covering minerals or the like (including oil and gas) or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, the filing officer shall index the assignment under the name of the assignor as grantor and, to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing the assignment of a mortgage under the name of the assignee, the filing officer shall index the assignment of the financing statement under the name of the assignee. The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data about such a separate statement of assignment on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the secretary of state shall be five dollars, or if such statement otherwise conforms to the requirements of this section, six dollars. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, an assignment of record of a security interest in a fixture contained in a mortgage effective as a fixture filing (section 554.9402, subsection 6), may be made only by an assignment of the mortgage in the manner provided by the law of this state other than this chapter.

For financing statements covering fixture filings, changes in the filings, and termination of the filings, an additional fee shall be charged for recording in an amount specified in section 331.604.

3 After the disclosure or filing of an assignment under this section, the assignee is the secured party of record.

554.9406 Release of collateral — duties of filing officer — fees.

A secured party of record may by a signed statement release all or a part of any collateral described in a filed financing statement. The statement of release is sufficient if it contains a description of the collateral being released, the name and address of the debtor, the name and address of the secured party, and the file number of the financing statement. A statement of release signed by a person other than the secured party of record must be accompanied by a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and complying with section 554.9405, subsection 2, including payment of the required fee. Upon presentation of such a statement of release the filing officer shall mark the statement with the hour and date of filing and shall note the same upon the margin of the index of the filing of the financing statement. The uniform fee for filing and noting such a statement of release on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the secretary of state shall be five dollars, or if such statement otherwise conforms to the requirements of this section, six dollars.

554.9407 Information from filing officer.

1 If the person filing any financing statement, termination statement, statement of assignment, or statement of release, furnishes the filing officer a copy thereof, the filing officer shall upon request note upon the copy the file number and date and hour of the filing of the original and deliver or send the copy to such person.

2 Upon a verbal request of a person, the filing officer shall verbally give information concerning a presently effective financing statement. The uniform fee for responding to a verbal request is five dollars. The requesting party may request a certificate from the filing officer confirming the information given. The uniform fee for a certificate is one dollar.

3 Upon written request of any person, the filing officer shall issue a certificate showing whether there is on file on the date and hour stated therein, any presently effective financing statement or verified lien statement under chapter 570A naming a particular debtor and any financing statement or verified lien statement changes and if there are, giving the date and hour of filing of such filing and the names and addresses of each secured party.
§554.9407, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

therein. The uniform fee for such a certificate shall be five dollars if the request for the certificate is on a form conforming to standards prescribed by the secretary of state; otherwise, six dollars. Upon request and the payment of the appropriate fee the filing officer shall furnish a certified copy of any filed financing statement or financing statement changes or verified lien statement or lien statement changes for a uniform fee of one dollar per page.

4. Charging no more than a reasonable estimate of cost, in the secretary of state’s or county recorder’s discretion the secretary of state or a county recorder may adopt one or more of the following methods of providing information concerning public filings in that office to persons with an interest in this information that is related exclusively to the purposes of this Article:
   a. Subscription daily, weekly or monthly written summaries;
   b. Granting suitable space for the preparation of written summaries and the provision of telephone service by those persons deemed by the secretary of state or a county recorder to have a legitimate interest in regular examination of the secretary of state’s or the county recorder’s public files; or
   c. Any other appropriate method of disseminating information.

Except with respect to willful misconduct, the state of Iowa, the secretary of state, a county, a county recorder and their employees and agents are immune from liability as a result of errors or omissions in information supplied pursuant to this subsection.

554.9408 Financing statements covering consigned or leased goods.

A consignor or lessor of goods may file a financing statement using the terms “consignor”, “consignee”, “lessor”, “lessee” or the like instead of the terms specified in section 554.9402. The provisions of this Part shall apply as appropriate to such a financing statement but its filing shall not of itself be a factor in determining whether or not the consignment or lease is intended as security (section 554.1201, subsection 2 of section 554.9502 and subsection 3 of section 554.9504 insofar as they require accounting for surplus proceeds of collateral; d. section 554.9506 which deals with redemption of collateral; and e. subsection 1 of section 554.9507 which deals with the secured party’s liability for failure to comply with this Part. 4. If the security agreement covers both real and personal property, the secured party may proceed under this Part as to the personal property or may proceed as to both the real and the personal property in accordance with the secured party’s rights and remedies in respect of the real property in which case the provisions of this Part do not apply. 5. When a secured party has reduced the secured party’s claim to judgment the lien of any levy which may be made upon the secured party’s collateral by virtue of any execution based upon the judgment shall relate back to the date of the perfection of the security interest in such collateral. A judicial sale, pursuant to such execution, is a foreclosure of the security interest by judicial procedure within the meaning of this section, and the secured party may purchase at the sale and thereafter hold the collateral free of any other requirements of this Article. 6. A creditor, as defined in section 654A.1, shall not initiate a proceeding under this chapter against a borrower subject to section 654A.4 to enforce a secured interest in agricultural property, as defined in section 654A.1, which is subject to chapter 654A.
and which is subject to a secured debt of twenty thousand dollars or more unless the person receives a mediation release under section 654A.11, or unless the court determines after notice and hearing that the time delay required for the mediation would cause the person to suffer irreparable harm.

554.9502 Collection rights of secured party.
1. When so agreed and in any event on default the secured party is entitled to notify an account debtor or the obligor on an instrument to make payment to the secured party whether or not the assignor was theretofore making collections on the collateral, and also to take control of any proceeds to which the secured party is entitled under section 554.9306.

2. A secured party who by agreement is entitled to charge back uncollected collateral or otherwise to full or limited recourse against the debtor and who undertakes to collect from the account debtors or obligors must proceed in a commercially reasonable manner and may deduct the secured party's reasonable expenses of realization from the proceeds. If the security agreement secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus, and, unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency. But, if the underlying transaction was a sale of accounts or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides.

554.9503 Secured party's right to take possession after default.

Unless otherwise agreed a secured party has on default the right to take possession of the collateral. In taking possession a secured party may proceed without judicial process if this can be done without breach of the peace or may proceed by action. If the security agreement so provides the secured party may require the debtor to assemble the collateral and make it available to the secured party at a place to be designated by the secured party which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Without removal a secured party may render equipment unusable, and may dispose of collateral on the debtor's premises under section 554.9504.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554.9503]

554.9504 Secured party's right to dispose of collateral after default — effect of disposition.
1. A secured party after default may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in its then condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing. Any sale of goods is subject to the Article on Sales (Article 2). The proceeds of disposition shall be applied in the order following to

a. the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale or lease, selling, leasing and the like; and, to the extent provided for in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party;

b. the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by the security interest under which the disposition is made;

c. the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by any subordinate security interest or lien in the collateral if written notification of demand therefor is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed. If requested by the secured party, the holder of a subordinate security interest or lien must reasonably furnish reasonable proof of that holder's interest, and unless the holder does so, the secured party need not comply with that holder's demand.

2. If the security interest secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus, and, unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency. But if the underlying transaction was a sale of accounts or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides.

3. Disposition of the collateral may be by public or private proceedings and may be made by way of one or more contracts. Sale or other disposition may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the disposition including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable. Unless collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, reasonable notification of the time and place of any public sale or reasonable notification of the time after which any private sale or other intended disposition is to be made shall be sent by the secured party to the debtor, if the debtor has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying the debtor's right to notification of sale. In the case of consumer goods no other notification need be sent. In other cases notification shall be sent to any other secured party from whom the secured party has received (before sending the notification to the debtor or before the debtor's renunciation of the debtor's rights) written notice of a claim of an interest in the collateral. The secured party may buy at any public sale and if the collateral is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations the secured party may buy at private sale.

4. When collateral is disposed of by a secured party after default, the disposition transfers to a purchaser for value all of the debtor's rights therein, discharges the security interest under which it is made and any security interest or lien subordinate thereto. The purchaser takes free of all such rights and interests even though the secured party fails to comply with the requirements of this Part or of any judicial proceedings

a. in the case of a public sale, if the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and if the purchaser does not buy in collusion with the secured party, other bidders or the person conducting the sale, or

b. in any other case, if the purchaser acts in good faith

5 A person who is liable to a secured party under a guaranty, endorsement, repurchase agreement or the like and who receives a transfer of collateral from the secured party or is subrogated to the secured party’s rights has thereafter the rights and duties of the secured party. Such a transfer of collateral is not a sale or disposition of the collateral under this Article.

554.9505 Compulsory disposition of collateral — acceptance of the collateral as discharge of obligation.

1 If the debtor has paid sixty percent of the cash price in the case of a purchase money security interest in consumer goods or sixty percent of the loan in the case of another security interest in consumer goods, and has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying the debtor’s rights under this Part a secured party who has taken possession of collateral must dispose of it under section 554 9504 and if the secured party fails to do so within ninety days after the secured party takes possession the debtor at the debtor’s option may recover in conversion or under section 554 9504 or before the disposition has been discharged under section 554 9504, subsection 2, the debtor or any other secured party or lienor may unless otherwise agreed in writing after default redeem the collateral by tendering the collateral for disposition, in arranging for the sale, and to the extent provided in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the secured party’s reasonable attorneys’ fees and legal expenses.

554.9506 Debtor’s right to redeem collateral.

At any time before the secured party has disposed of collateral or entered into a contract for its disposition under section 554 9504 or before the obligation has been discharged under section 554 9504, subsection 2, the debtor or any other secured party or lienor may unless otherwise agreed in writing after default redeem the collateral by tendering fulfillment of all obligations secured by the collateral as well as the expenses reasonably incurred by the secured party in retaking, holding and preparing the collateral for disposition, in arranging for the sale, and to the extent provided in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the secured party’s reasonable attorneys’ fees and legal expenses.

554.9507 Secured party’s liability for failure to comply with this Part.

1 If it is established that the secured party is not proceeding in accordance with the provisions of this Part disposition may be ordered or restrained on appropriate terms and conditions. If the disposition has occurred the debtor or any person entitled to notification or whose security interest has been made known to the secured party prior to the disposition has a right to recover from the secured party any loss caused by a failure to comply with the provisions of this Part. If the collateral is consumer goods, the debtor has a right to recover in any event an amount not less than the credit service charge plus ten percent of the principal amount of the debt or the time price differential plus ten percent of the cash price.

2 The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the secured party is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the secured party either sells the collateral in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor or if the secured party sells at the price current in such market at the time of the secured party’s sale or if the secured party has otherwise sold in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property sold the secured party has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. The principles stated in the two preceding sentences with respect to sales also apply as may be appropriate to other types of disposition. A disposition which has been approved in any judicial proceeding or by any bona fide creditors’ committee or representative of creditors shall conclusively be deemed to be commercially reasonable, but this sentence does not indicate that any such approval must be obtained in any case nor does it indicate that any disposition not so approved is not commercially reasonable [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 9507]

ARTICLE 10
EFFECTIVE DATE AND REPEALER

554.10101 Effective date.
Except as otherwise provided in Article 11 of this chapter, this chapter shall take effect and be in force on and after July 4, 1966. It applies to transactions entered into and events occurring after that date.

Transactions validly entered into before the effective date specified in this section and the rights, duties and interests flowing from them remain valid thereafter and may be terminated, completed, consummated or enforced as required or permitted by any statute or other law amended or repealed by this chapter as though such repeal or amendment had not occurred [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10006; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §554 78, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 10101]

554.10102 Reserved

554.10103 General repealer.
Except as provided in the following section, all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this chapter are hereby repealed [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 10103]

554.10104 Laws not repealed.
1 The Article on Documents of Title (Article 7) does not repeal or modify any laws prescribing the form or contents of documents of title or the services or facilities to be afforded by bailees, or otherwise regulating bailees' businesses in respects not specifically dealt with herein, but the fact that such laws are violated does not affect the status of a document of title which otherwise complies with the definition of a document of title (section 554 1201)

2 This chapter does not repeal sections 633 130 to 633 138 and if in any respect there is any incoherence between those sections and the Article of this chapter on investment securities (Article 8) the provisions of the said sections shall control [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 10104]

554.10105 Secretary of state exempted from personal liability.
The secretary of state, the secretary's employees or agents, are hereby exempted from personal liability as a result of errors or omissions in the performance of any duty required by the Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 554, except in cases of willful negligence.

In the event of such error or omission the state of Iowa shall be liable in respect to such claims in the same manner, and to the same extent as a private individual under like circumstances.

Immunity of the state from suit and liability in such case is waived to the extent provided in chapter 25A and said chapter shall govern the extent of liability and the practice and procedure necessary to establish any liability of the state [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §554 10105]

554.11101 Effective date.
Division 2 of this Act [65GA, chapter 1249], sections 9 to 72, the Iowa amendments to the Uniform Commercial Code pertaining primarily to security interests, and related amendments, shall become effective at 12 01 a.m. on January 1, 1975 [C75, 77, 79, 81, §554 11101]

554.11102 Preservation of old transition provision.
The provisions of Article 10 of this chapter, sections 554 10101 to 554 10105, shall continue to apply to this chapter as amended and for this purpose this chapter prior to amendment and this chapter as amended shall be considered one continuous statute [C75, 77, 79, 81, §554 11102]

554.11103 Transition to this chapter as amended — general rule.
Transactions validly entered into after July 4, 1966, and before January 1, 1975, which were subject to the provisions of this chapter prior to amendment and which would be subject to this chapter as amended if they had been entered into on or after January 1, 1975, and the rights, duties and interests flowing from such transactions remain valid after January 1, 1975, and may be terminated, completed, consummated or enforced as required or permitted by this chapter as amended. Security interests arising out of such transactions which are perfected on January 1, 1975, shall remain perfected until they lapse or are terminated as provided in this chapter as amended, and may be continued as permitted by this chapter as amended, except as stated in section 554 11105 [C75, 77, 79, 81, §554 11103]

554.11104 Transition provision on change of requirement of filing.
A security interest for the perfection of which filing or the taking of possession was required under this chapter prior to amendment and which attached prior to January 1, 1975, but was not perfected shall be deemed perfected on January 1, 1975, if this chapter as amended permits perfection without filing or the taking of possession, or authorizes filing in the office or offices where a prior ineffective filing was made [C75, 77, 79, 81, §554 11104]

554.11105 Transition provision on change of place of filing.
1 Except as provided in subsection 5, a filed financing or continuation statement which has not lapsed or been terminated prior to January 1, 1975, shall remain effective for the period provided in this chapter prior to amendment, but not less than five years after the filing.

2 Except as provided in subsection 5, with re
§554.11105, UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE

Except to any collateral acquired by the debtor subsequent to January 1, 1975, any effective financing statement or continuation statement described in this section shall apply only if the filing or filings are in the office or offices that would be appropriate to perfect the security interests in the new collateral under this chapter as amended.

3. The effectiveness of any financing statement or continuation statement filed prior to January 1, 1975, may be continued by a continuation statement as permitted by this chapter as amended, except that if this chapter as amended requires a filing in an office where there was no previous financing statement, a new financing statement conforming to either section 554.9402 or subsection 8 shall be filed in that office.

4. If the record of a mortgage of real estate would have been effective as a fixture filing or a filing covering timber to be cut, or minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, of goods described therein if this chapter as amended had been in effect on the date of recording the mortgage, the mortgage shall be deemed effective as a fixture filing as to such goods under section 554.9402, subsection 6, on January 1, 1975, and the mortgage shall be deemed effective as a filing covering timber to be cut or minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to section 554.9103, subsection 5, or any or all of these, on July 1, 1976.

5. If collateral consists of equipment used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts, contract rights, or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, the place of effective filing is as follows:

a. Filings in the office of a county recorder which have not lapsed or been terminated prior to January 1, 1975, retain their effectiveness unless subsequently lapsed or terminated until January 1, 1980; however, on or after January 1, 1975, continuation statements are not to be filed in the office of a county recorder, and effectiveness can be continued only through the filing in the office of the secretary of state of a financing statement which complies either with section 554.9402 or subsection 8.

b. on or after January 1, 1980, all filings must be in the office of the secretary of state and must conform to either section 554.9402 or subsection 8.

6. If collateral consists of fixtures, timber to be cut, minerals or the like (including oil and gas), or accounts subject to subsection 5 of section 554.9103, filings in the Uniform Commercial Code files of a county recorder which have not lapsed or been terminated prior to January 1, 1975, retain their effectiveness unless subsequently lapsed or terminated until January 1, 1980; however, on or after July 1, 1976, continuation statements in the form of financing statements which are to be recorded in the land records and cross-indexed in the Uniform Commercial Code files of the county recorder can be filed without regard to the remaining period of effectiveness of the prior filing; financing statements used to continue the effectiveness of prior county land-related filings must comply either with section 554.9402, or with subsection 8.

7. If a security interest is perfected or has priority on January 1, 1975, as to all persons or as to certain persons without any filing or recording, and if the filing of a financing statement would be required for the perfection or priority of the security interest against those persons under this chapter as amended, the perfection and priority rights of the security interest continue until three years after January 1, 1975. The perfection will then lapse unless a financing statement which complies with either section 554.9402 or subsection 8 of this section has been filed or unless the security interest has been perfected otherwise than by filing. The effectiveness of such financing statements is to be continued through continuation statements which comply with section 554.9403, subsection 3.

8. Where indicated by this section, a financing statement which otherwise complies with section 554.9402 may be signed by either the secured party or the debtor provided that the financing statement is accompanied by a carbon, photocopy, or other suitable reproduction of an effective prior filing, and evidence of proper prior filing, and states that the prior filing is still effective. Insofar as subsection 7 authorizes perfection by filing of security interests which have been perfected without filing under section 554.9302, subsection 1, paragraph "c," prior to amendment, a financing statement which otherwise complies with section 554.9402 may be signed by either the secured party or the debtor provided that the financing statement identifies the security agreement and states that the security interest was perfected without filing under section 554.9302, subsection 1, paragraph "c," prior to amendment. [C75, 77, 79, 81, §554.11105]

554.11106 Reserved.

554.11107 Transition provisions as to priorities.

Except as otherwise provided in this Article, this chapter prior to amendment shall apply to any questions of priority if the positions of the parties were fixed prior to January 1, 1975 In other cases questions of priority shall be determined by this chapter as amended
[C75, 77, 79, 81, §554 11107]

554.11108 Presumption that rule of law continues unchanged.
Unless a change in law has clearly been made, the provisions of this chapter as amended shall be deemed declaratory of the meaning of this chapter prior to amendment The first sentence of section 554 9402, subsection 7, shall be deemed to be a change in law [C75, 77, 79, 81, §554 11108]

554.11109 Effect of official comments.
To the extent that they are consistent with the Iowa statutory text, the 1972 Official Comments to the 1972 Official Text of the Uniform Commercial Code are evidence of legislative intent as to the meaning of this chapter as amended However, prior drafts of the Official Text and Comments may not be used to ascertain legislative intent [C75, 77, 79, 81, §554 11109]

CHAPTER 554A
LIVESTOCK WARRANTY EXEMPTION

554A.1 Livestock sales — when exempt from implied warranty

554A.1 Livestock sales — when exempt from implied warranty.
Notwithstanding section 554 2316, subsection 2, all implied warranties arising under sections 554 2314 and 554 2315 are excluded from a sale of cattle, hogs, sheep and horses if the following information is disclosed to the prospective buyer or the buyer's agent in advance of the sale, and if confirmed in writing at or before the time of acceptance of the livestock when confirmation is requested by the buyer or the buyer's agent
a. That the animals to be sold have been inspected in accordance with existing federal and state animal health regulations and found apparently free from any infectious, contagious, or communicable disease
b. One of the following, as applicable
   (1) Except when the livestock have been confined with livestock from another source or assembled within the meaning of subparagraph 2 of this paragraph, the name and address of the present owner, and whether or not that owner has owned all of the livestock for at least thirty days
   (2) If the livestock have been confined with livestock from another source or assembled from two or more sources within the previous thirty days, the livestock shall be represented as being "assembled livestock". As used in this subparagraph, "confined with livestock from another source" means the placement of livestock in a livestock auction market, yard, or other unitary facility in which livestock from another source are confined, but does not include livestock confined at the facility where the sale takes place if such confinement is for less than forty eight hours prior to the day of sale, provided that livestock which are not sold after being confined with livestock from another source at a facility and offered for sale shall be deemed "assembled livestock" for the thirty day period following the day when offered for sale.
   (1) If the livestock are represented as being "assembled livestock", the name and address of the present owner shall be disclosed
   In the case of an auction sale, the disclosure required by this subsection shall be made verbally immediately before the sale by the owner, an agent for the owner, or the person who is conducting the auction of the lot of livestock in question Warranties shall be implied to the person who is conducting the auction only if the disclosure contains representations which that person knew or had reason to know were untrue [C81, §554A 1]
CHAPTER 555
SECURED TRANSACTIONS OF TRANSMITTING UTILITIES

555.1 Definitions.
As used in this chapter "transmitting utility" has the same meaning as defined in the Uniform Commercial Code, section 554 9105, subsection 1, paragraph "n." Security interests filed pursuant to this chapter prior to January 1, 1975, which have not been terminated, are deemed to be filed in accordance with section 554 9401, subsection 5.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §555 1]

555.2 Security interest.
A security interest in rolling stock of a transmitting utility may be perfected either as provided in the Uniform Commercial Code, chapter 554, or as provided in the Interstate Commerce Act, 49 U.S.C., section 20 "c."

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §555 2]

555.3 Recording mortgage or deed of trust upon real estate.
Any mortgage or deed of trust upon real estate executed by a transmitting utility may provide that property of the transmitting utility, whether owned at the time of the execution of the instrument or subsequently acquired, shall secure the obligations covered by the instrument. Recording the instrument in the office of the recorder of each county in which such property, or any part thereof, described in the instrument is situated shall give constructive notice to all persons of the lien of the mortgage or deed of trust from the time of recording or, in the case of subsequently acquired real estate, from the time of acquisition.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §555 3]

556.1 Definitions and use of terms.
As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Banking organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, or a private banker engaged in business in this state.

2. "Business association" means any corporation other than a public corporation, joint stock company, business trust, partnership, or any association for business purposes of two or more individuals.

3. "Financial organization" means any savings and loan association, building and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank or investment company, engaged in business in this state.

4. "Holder" means any person in possession of property subject to this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires.

5. "Life insurance corporation" means any association or corporation transacting within this state the business of insurance on the lives of persons or insurance appertaining thereto, including, but not by way of limitation, endowments and annuities.

6. "Owner" means a depositor in case of a deposit, a beneficiary in case of a trust, a creditor, claimant, or payee in case of other choses in action, or any person having a legal or equitable interest in property subject to this chapter, or that person's legal representative.

7. "Person" means any individual, business association, government or political subdivision, public corporation, public authority, estate, trust, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

8. "Utility" means any person who owns or operates within this state, for public use, any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications or the production, storage, transmission, sale, delivery, or furnishing of electricity, water, steam, or gas.

556.2 Property held by banking or financial organizations or by business associations.
The following property held or owing by a banking or financial organization or by a business association is presumed abandoned:

1. Any demand, savings, or matured time deposit made in this state with a banking organization, together with any interest or dividend, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has, within five years:

   a. Increased or decreased the amount of the deposit, or presented the passbook or other similar evidence of the deposit for the crediting of interest

   b. Corresponded in writing with the banking or financial organization concerning the deposit

   c. Otherwise indicated an interest in the deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking organization. Such memorandum shall be dated and may have been prepared by the banking organization, in which case it shall be signed by an officer of the bank, or it may have been prepared by the owner.

   d. Had another relationship with the bank in which the owner has:

      (1) Communicated in writing with the bank

      (2) Otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file prepared by an employee of the bank and if the bank communicates in writing with the owner with regard to the property that would otherwise be abandoned under this subsection at the address to which communications regarding the other relationship are regularly sent.

   e. Been sent any written correspondence, notice or information by first class mail regarding the deposit by the banking organization on or after July 1, 1985, if the correspondence, notice or information is not returned to the bank organization for nondelivery, and if the bank organization maintains a record of all returned mail.

2. Any funds paid in this state toward the purchase of shares or other interest in a financial organization or any deposit made in this state, and any interest or dividends, excluding any charges that may lawfully be withheld, unless the owner has within five years:

   a. Increased or decreased the amount of the funds or deposit, or presented an appropriate record for the crediting of interest or dividends

   b. Corresponded in writing with the financial organization concerning the funds or deposit

   c. Otherwise indicated an interest in the funds or deposit as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the financial organization. Such memorandum shall be dated and may have been prepared by the financial organization, in which case it shall be signed by an officer of the financial organization, or it may have been prepared by the owner.

   d. Had another relationship with the financial organization in which the owner has:

      (1) Communicated in writing with the financial organization

      (2) Otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file prepared by an employee of the financial organization, in which case it shall be signed by an officer of the financial organization, or it may have been prepared by the owner.

556.3 Notice Repealed by 84 Acts, ch 1295, §25
556.4 Collection and deposit of funds Repealed by 84 Acts, ch 1295, §25

§556.2, DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

by a memorandum or other record on file prepared by an employee of the financial organization and if the financial organization communicates in writing with the owner with regard to the property that would otherwise be abandoned under this subsection at the address to which communications regarding the other relationship are regularly sent.

e Been sent any written correspondence, notice or information by first class mail regarding the funds or deposits by the financial organization on or after July 1, 1985, if the correspondence, notice or information is not returned to the financial organization for nondelivery and if the financial organization maintains a record of all returned mail.

3 Any property described in subsections 1 and 2 which is automatically renewable is matured for purposes of subsections 1 and 2 upon the expiration of its initial time period, but in the case of any renewal to which the owner consents at or about the time of renewal by communicating in writing with the banking or financial organization or otherwise indicating consent as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file prepared by an employee of the organization, the property is matured upon the expiration of the last time period provided for which consent was given. If at the time period for delivery in section 556 13, a penalty or forfeiture in the payment of interest would result from the delivery of the property, the time period for delivery is extended until the time when no penalty or forfeiture would result.

4 Any sum payable on checks certified in this state or on written instruments issued in this state on which a banking or financial organization or business association is directly liable, including, by way of illustration but not of limitation, certificates of deposit, drafts, money orders, and traveler’s checks, that, with the exception of traveler’s checks, has been outstanding for more than five years from the date it was payable, or from the date of its issuance if payable on demand, or, in the case of traveler’s checks, that has been outstanding for more than fifteen years from the date of its issuance, unless the owner has within five years, or within fifteen years in the case of traveler’s checks, corresponded in writing with the banking or financial organization or business association concerned, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the banking or financial organization or business association. The memorandum shall be dated and may have been prepared by the banking or financial organization or business association, in which case it shall be signed by an officer of the banking or financial organization, or a member of the business association, or it may have been prepared by the owner.

5 Any funds or other personal property, tangible or intangible, removed from a safe deposit box or any other safekeeping repository or agency or collateral deposit box in this state on which the lease or rental period has expired due to nonpayment of rental charges or other reason, or any surplus amounts arising from the sale thereof pursuant to law, that have been unclaimed by the owner for more than five years from the date on which the lease or rental period expired.

6 A banking organization or financial organization shall send to the owner of each account, to which none of the actions specified in paragraphs “a” through “d” of subsection 1 or “a” through “d” of subsection 2 have occurred during the preceding five calendar years, a notice by certified mail stating in substance the following:

“According to our records, we have had no contact with you regarding (describe account) for more than five years. Under Iowa law, if there is a period of five years without contact, we may be required to transfer this account to the custody of the treasurer of the state of Iowa as unclaimed property. You may prevent this by taking some action, such as a deposit or withdrawal, which indicates your interest in this account or by signing this form and returning it to us.

I desire to keep the above account open and active.

Your signature”

The notice required under this section shall be mailed within thirty days of the lapse of the five-year period in which there is no activity. The cost of the certified mail of the notice required in this section may be deducted from the account by the banking or financial organization.

556.3 Unclaimed funds held by life insurance corporations.

1 “Unclaimed funds,” as defined in this section, held and owing by a life insurance corporation shall be presumed abandoned if the last known address, according to the records of the corporation, of the person entitled to the funds is within this state. If a person other than the insured or annuitant is entitled to the funds and no address of such person is known to the corporation or if it is not definite and certain from the records of the corporation what person is entitled to the funds, it is presumed that the last known address of the person entitled to the funds is the same as the last known address of the insured or annuitant according to the records of the corporation.

2 “Unclaimed funds,” as used in this section, means all moneys held and owing by any life insurance corporation unclaimed and unpaid for more than five years after the moneys became due and payable as established from the records of the corporation under any life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract which has matured or terminated. A life insurance policy not matured by actual proof of the death of the insured is deemed to be matured and the proceeds thereof are deemed to be due and payable if the policy was in force when the insured attained the limiting age under the mortality table on which the reserve is based and shall be presumed abandoned and to be unclaimed funds as defined in this section if unclaimed and unpaid for. more than two years thereafter, unless the person appearing entitled thereto has within the two-year period assigned, readjusted, or paid premiums on the policy, or subjected the policy to loan or corresponded in writing with the life insurance corporation concerning the policy. Moneys otherwise payable according to the records of the corporation are deemed due and payable although the policy or contract has not been surrendered as required.

556.4 Deposits and refunds held by utilities.
The following funds held or owing by any utility are presumed abandoned:
1. Any deposit made by a subscriber with a utility to secure payment for, or any sum paid in advance for, utility services to be furnished in this state, less any lawful deductions, that has remained unclaimed by the person appearing on the records of the utility entitled to the deposit for more than two years after the termination of the services for which the deposit or advance payment was made.
2. Any sum which a utility has been ordered to refund and which was received for utility services rendered in this state, together with any interest on the refund, less any lawful deductions, that has remained unclaimed by the person appearing on the records of the utility entitled to the refund for more than two years after the date it became payable in accordance with the final determination or order providing for the refund.

556.5 Stocks and other intangible interests in business associations.
1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 5, stock or other intangible ownership interest in a business association, the existence of which is evidenced by records available to the association, is presumed abandoned and, with respect to the interest, the association is the holder, if a dividend, distribution, or other sum payable as a result of the interest has remained unclaimed by the owner for seven years and the owner within seven years has not:
   a. Communicated in writing with the association regarding the interest or a dividend, distribution, or other sum payable as a result of the interest.
   b. Otherwise communicated with the association regarding the interest or a dividend, distribution, or other sum payable as a result of the interest, as evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the association prepared by an employee of the association.
2. At the expiration of a seven-year period following the failure of the owner to claim a dividend, distribution, or other sum payable to the owner as a result of the interest, the interest is not presumed abandoned unless there have been at least seven dividends, distributions, or other sums paid during the period, none of which has been claimed by the owner. If seven dividends, distributions, or other sums are paid during the seven-year period, the period leading to a presumption of abandonment commences on the date payment of the first unclaimed dividend, distribution, or other sum became due and payable. If seven dividends, distributions, or other sums are not paid during the presumptive period, the period continues to run until there have been seven dividends, distributions, or other sums that have not been claimed by the owner.
3. The running of the seven-year period of abandonment ceases immediately upon the occurrence of a communication referred to in subsection 1. If any future dividend, distribution, or other sum payable to the owner as a result of the interest is subsequently not claimed by the owner, a new period of abandonment commences and relates back to the time a subsequent dividend, distribution, or other sum became due and payable.
4. At the time an interest is presumed abandoned under this section, any dividend, distribution, or other sum then held for or owing to the owner as a result of the interest, and not previously abandoned, is presumed abandoned.
5. This section does not apply to any stock or other intangible ownership of interest enrolled in a plan that provides for the automatic reinvestment of dividends, distributions, or other sums payable as a result of the interest unless the records available to the treasurer of state show, with respect to any intangible ownership interest not enrolled in the reinvestment plan, that the owner has not within seven years communicated in any manner described in subsection 1.
6. Any stock or other certificate of ownership, or any dividend, profit, distribution, interest, payment on principal, or other sum held or owing by a business association for or to a shareholder, certificate holder, member, bondholder, or other security holder, or a participating patron of a cooperative, who has not claimed it, or corresponded in writing with the business association concerning it, within five years after the date prescribed for payment or delivery, is presumed abandoned.

84 Acts, ch 1295, §10

556.7 Property held by fiduciaries.
All intangible personal property and any income or increment thereon, held in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of another person is presumed abandoned unless the owner has, within five years after it becomes payable or distributable, increased or decreased the principal, accepted payment of principal or income, corresponded in writing concerning the property, or otherwise indicated an interest as evidenced by a memorandum on file with the fiduciary which shall have been dated and may have been prepared by the fiduciary or by the owner:
1. If the property is held by a banking organization or a financial organization, or by a business association organized under the laws of or created in this state; or
2. If it is held by a business association, doing business in this state, but not organized under the laws of or created in this state, and the records of the business association indicate that the last known address of the person entitled thereto is in this state; or
3. If it is held in this state by any other person.

84 Acts, ch 1295, §11

556.8 Property held by state courts and public officers and agencies.
All intangible personal property held for the owner by any court, public corporation, public authority, or public officer of this state, or a political subdivision of the state, that has remained unclaimed by the owner for more than two years is presumed abandoned.

84 Acts, ch 1295, §12

556.9 Miscellaneous personal property held for another person.
All intangible personal property, not otherwise covered by this chapter, including any income or increment thereon and deducting any lawful charges, that is held or owing in this state in the ordinary course of the holder's business and has remained unclaimed by the owner for more than three years after it became payable or distributable is presumed abandoned.

556.10 Reciprocity for property presumed abandoned or escheated under the laws of another state.
If specific property which is subject to the provisions of sections 556.2, 556.5, 556.6, 556.7 and 556.9 is held for or owed or distributable to an owner whose last known address is in another state by a holder who is subject to the jurisdiction of that state, the specific property is not presumed abandoned in this state and subject to this chapter if:
1. It may be claimed as abandoned or escheated under the laws of such other state; and
2. The laws of such other state make reciprocal provision that similar specific property is not presumed abandoned or escheated by such other state when held for or owed or distributable to an owner whose last known address is within this state by a holder who is subject to the jurisdiction of this state.
[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.10]

556.11 Report of abandoned property.
1. Every person holding funds or other property, tangible or intangible, presumed abandoned under this chapter shall report to the state treasurer with respect to the property as hereinafter provided.
2. The report shall be verified and shall include:
a. Except with respect to traveler's checks and money orders, the name, if known, and last known address, if any, of each person appearing from the records of the holder to be the owner of any property of the value of twenty-five dollars or more presumed abandoned under this chapter.
b. In case of unclaimed funds of life insurance corporations, the full name of the insured or annuitant and the insured's or annuitant's last known address according to the life insurance corporation's records.
c. The nature and identifying number, if any, or description of the property and the amount appearing from the records to be due, except that items of value under twenty-five dollars each may be reported in aggregate.
d. The date when the property became payable, demandable, or returnable, and the date of the last transaction with the owner with respect to the property.
e. Other information which the state treasurer prescribes by rule as necessary for the administration of this chapter.
3. If the person holding property presumed abandoned is a successor to other persons who previously held the property for the owner, or if the holder has changed names while holding the property, the holder shall file with the holder's report all prior known names and addresses of each holder of the property.
4. The report shall be filed before November 1 of each year as of June 30 next preceding, but the report of life insurance corporations shall be filed before May 1 of each year as of December 31 next preceding. The state treasurer may postpone the reporting date upon written request by any person required to file a report.
5. If the holder of property presumed abandoned under this chapter knows the whereabouts of the owner and if the owner's claim has not been barred by the statute of limitations, the holder shall, before filing the annual report, communicate with the owner and take necessary steps to prevent abandonment from being presumed. The holder shall exercise due diligence to ascertain the whereabouts of the owner.
6. Verification, if made by a partnership, shall be executed by a partner; if made by an unincorporated association or private corporation, by an officer; and if made by a public corporation, by its chief fiscal officer.
7. The initial report filed under this chapter shall include all items of property that would have been presumed abandoned if this chapter had been in effect during the ten-year period preceding its effective date.

All agreements to pay compensation to recover or assist in the recovery of property reported under this section, made within twenty-four months after the date payment or delivery is made under section 556.13 are unenforceable.

556.12 Notice and publication of lists of abandoned property.

1. Within one hundred twenty days from the final date for filing of the report required by section 556.11, the state treasurer shall cause notice to be published at least once each week for two successive weeks in an English language newspaper of general circulation in the county in this state in which is located the last known address of any person to be named in the notice. If no address is listed or if the address is outside this state, the notice shall be published in the county in which the holder of the abandoned property has its principal place of business within this state.

2. The published notice shall contain:
   a. The names in alphabetical order and last known addresses, if any, of persons listed in the report and entitled to notice within the county as hereinbefore specified.
   b. A statement that information concerning the amount or description of the property and the name and address of the holder may be obtained by any persons possessing an interest in the property by addressing an inquiry to the state treasurer.
   c. A statement that, if proof of claim is not presented by the owner to the holder by the date specified in the published notice, the property will be placed in the custody of the state treasurer to whom all further claims must be directed.

3. The state treasurer is not required to publish in such notice any item of less than twenty-five dollars unless the treasurer deems such publication to be in the public interest.

4. Within one hundred twenty days from the receipt of the report required by section 556.11, the state treasurer shall mail a notice to each person having an address listed therein who appears to be entitled to property of the value of twenty-five dollars or more presumed abandoned under this chapter.

5. The mailed notice shall contain:
   a. A statement that, according to a report filed with the state treasurer, property is being held to which the addressee appears entitled.
   b. The name and address of the person holding the property and any necessary information regarding changes of name and address of the holder.
   c. A statement that, if satisfactory proof of claim is not presented by the owner to the holder by the date specified in the published notice, the property will be placed in the custody of the state treasurer to whom all further claims must be directed.

6. This section is not applicable to sums payable on traveler’s checks or money orders presumed abandoned under section 556.2.

84 Acts, ch 1295, §15

556.13 Payment or delivery of abandoned property.

Every person who has filed a report under section 556.11, within twenty days after the time specified in section 556.12 for claiming the property from the holder, or in the case of sums payable on traveler’s checks or money orders presumed abandoned under section 556.2 or property for which the holder is not required to report the name of the owner shall, at the time of filing the report, pay or deliver to the treasurer of state all abandoned property specified in this report, except that, if the owner establishes the owner’s right to receive the abandoned property to the satisfaction of the holder within the time specified in section 556.12, or if it appears that for some other reason the presumption of abandonment is erroneous, the holder need not pay or deliver the property, which will no longer be presumed abandoned, to the treasurer of state, but in lieu thereof shall file a verified written explanation of the proof of claim or of the error in the presumption of abandonment.

84 Acts, ch 1295, §16

556.14 Relief from liability by payment or delivery.

1. Upon the payment or delivery of property to the treasurer of state, the state assumes custody and responsibility for the safekeeping of the property. A person who pays or delivers property to the treasurer of state in good faith is relieved of all liability to the extent of the value of the property paid or delivered for any claim then existing or which may arise or be made in respect to the property.

2. If the holder pays or delivers property to the treasurer of state in good faith and thereafter another person claims the property from the holder or another state claims the money or property under its laws relating to escheat or abandoned or unclaimed property, the treasurer of state, upon written notice of the claim, shall defend the holder against any liability on the claim.

3. The holder of an interest under section 556.5 shall deliver a duplicate certificate or other evidence of ownership if the holder does not issue certificates of ownership to the treasurer of state. Upon delivery of a duplicate certificate to the treasurer of state, the holder and any transfer agent, registrar, or other person acting for or on behalf of a holder in executing or delivering the duplicate certificate is relieved of all liability in accordance with subsections 1 and 2 to every person, including any person acquiring the original certificate or the duplicate of the certificate issued to the treasurer of state, for any losses or damages resulting to any person by the issuance and delivery to the treasurer of state of the duplicate certificate.

4. A holder who has paid money to the treasurer of state under this chapter may make payment to any person appearing to the holder to be entitled to payment and upon filing proof of payment and proof that the payee is entitled thereto, the treasurer of state shall reimburse the holder for the payment without imposing any fee or other charge. If reimbursement is sought for payment made on a negotiable instrument, including a traveler's check or money order, the holder must be reimbursed under this subsection upon filing proof that the instrument was duly presented and that payment was made to a person who appeared to the holder to be entitled to payment. The holder must be reimbursed for payment made under this subsection even if the payment was made to a person whose claim was barred under section 556.16.

5. A holder who has delivered property including a certificate of any interest in a business association, other than money, to the treasurer of state may reclaim the property if the property is still in the possession of the treasurer of state without paying any fee or other charge, upon filing proof that the owner has claimed the property from the holder.

6. The treasurer of state may accept the holder's affidavit as sufficient proof of the facts that entitle the holder to recover money and property under this section.

7. For purposes of this section, "good faith" means that:
   a. Payment or delivery was made in a reasonable attempt to comply with this chapter.
   b. The person delivering the property was not a fiduciary then in breach of trust in respect to the property and had a reasonable basis for believing, based on the facts then known to the person, that the property was abandoned for the purposes of this chapter.
   c. There is no showing that the records pursuant to which the delivery was made did not meet reasonable commercial standards of practice in the industry.

§556.16 Periods of limitation not a bar.

The expiration of any period of time specified by statute or court order, during which an action or proceeding may be commenced or enforced to obtain payment of a claim for money or recovery of property, shall not prevent the money or property from being presumed abandoned property, nor affect any duty to file a report required by this chapter or to pay or deliver abandoned property to the state treasurer.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.16]

§556.17 Sale of abandoned property.

1. All abandoned property other than money delivered to the state treasurer under this chapter shall within one year after the delivery be sold by the treasurer to the highest bidder at public sale in whatever city in the state affords in the treasurer's judgment the most favorable market for the property involved. The state treasurer may decline the highest bid and reoffer the property for sale if the treasurer considers the price bid insufficient. The treasurer need not offer any property for sale if, in the treasurer's opinion, the probable cost of sale exceeds the value of the property.

2. Any sale held under this section shall be preceded by a single publication of notice thereof at least three weeks in advance of sale in an English language newspaper of general circulation in the county where the property is to be sold.

3. The purchaser at any sale conducted by the state treasurer pursuant to this chapter shall receive title to the property purchased, free from all claims of the owner or prior holder thereof and of all persons claiming through or under them. The state treasurer shall execute all documents necessary to complete the transfer of title.

4. Unless the treasurer of state considers it to be in the best interest of the state to do otherwise, all securities, other than those presumed abandoned under section 556.5, delivered to the treasurer of state must be held for at least one year before the treasurer of state may sell them.

5. Unless the treasurer of state considers it to be in the best interest of the state to do otherwise, all securities presumed abandoned under section 556.5 and delivered to the treasurer of state must be held for at least three years before the treasurer of state may sell them. If the treasurer of state sells any securities delivered pursuant to section 556.5 before the expiration of the three-year period, any person making a claim pursuant to this chapter before the end of the three-year period is entitled to either the proceeds of the sale of the securities or the market value of the securities at the time the claim is made, whichever amount is greater, less any deduction for fees pursuant to section 556.18, subsection 2. A person making a claim under this chapter after the expiration of this period is entitled to receive either the securities delivered to the treasurer of state by the holder, if they still remain in the hands of the treasurer of state, or the proceeds received from the sale, less any amounts deducted pursuant to section 556.18, subsection 2, but no person has any claim under this chapter against the state, the holder, any transfer agent, registrar, or other person acting for or on behalf of a holder for any appreciation in the value of the property occurring after delivery by the holder to the treasurer of state.

556.18 Deposit of funds.
1. Except as provided in subsection 3, all funds received under this chapter, including the proceeds from the sale of abandoned property under section 556.17, shall be deposited by the treasurer of state in the general funds of the state. However, the treasurer of state shall retain in a separate trust fund an amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars from which the treasurer of state shall make prompt payment of claims duly allowed under section 556.20. Before making the deposit, the treasurer of state shall record the name and last known address of each person appearing from the holders’ reports to be entitled to the abandoned property and of the name and last known address of each insured person or annuitant, and with respect to each policy or contract listed in the report of a life insurance corporation, its number, the name of the corporation, and the amount due. The record shall be available for public inspection at all reasonable business hours.
2. Before making any deposit to the credit of the general funds, the state treasurer may deduct:
   a. Any costs in connection with sale of abandoned property.
   b. Any costs of mailing and publication in connection with any abandoned property.
   c. Reasonable service charges.
3. After July 1, 1988, the treasurer of state shall annually credit the first one hundred fifty thousand dollars of all moneys received under section 556.4 to the energy research and development fund created under section 93.14, and shall credit all additional moneys received under section 556.4 to the energy crisis fund created under section 601K.102.

556.19 Claim for abandoned property paid or delivered.
Any person claiming an interest in any property delivered to the state under this chapter may file a claim thereto or to the proceeds from the sale thereof on the form prescribed by the state treasurer.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.19]

556.20 Determination of claims.
1. The state treasurer shall consider any claim filed under this chapter and may hold a hearing and receive evidence concerning it. If a hearing is held, the treasurer shall prepare a finding and a decision in writing on each claim filed, stating the substance of any evidence heard by the treasurer and the reasons for the treasurer’s decision. The decision shall be a public record.
2. If the claim is allowed, the state treasurer shall make payment forthwith. The claim shall be paid without deduction for costs of notices or sale or for service charges.

556.21 Judicial action upon determinations.
Any person aggrieved by a decision of the state treasurer or as to whose claim the treasurer has failed to act within ninety days after the filing of the claim, may commence an action in the district court to establish that person’s claim. The proceeding shall be brought within ninety days after the decision of the treasurer or within one hundred eighty days from the filing of the claim if the treasurer fails to act. The action shall be tried de novo without a jury.

556.22 Election to take payment or delivery.
The state treasurer, after receiving reports of property deemed abandoned pursuant to this chapter, may decline to receive any property reported which the treasurer deems to have a value less than the cost of giving notice and holding sale, or the treasurer may, if the treasurer deems it desirable because of the small sum involved, postpone taking possession until a sufficient sum accumulates. Unless the holder of the property is notified to the contrary within one hundred twenty days after filing the report required under section 556.11, the state treasurer shall be deemed to have elected to receive the custody of the property.

556.23 Examination of records.
The treasurer of state may at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice examine the records of any person if the treasurer of state has reason to believe that the person has failed to report property that should have been reported pursuant to this chapter. If an examination of the records of a person results in the disclosure of property reportable and deliverable under this chapter, the treasurer of state may assess the cost of the examination against the holder at a rate not to exceed one hundred dollars a day for each examiner, but in no case may the charges exceed the value of the property found to be reportable and deliverable.

556.24 Proceeding to compel delivery of abandoned property.
If any person refuses to deliver property to the state treasurer as required under this chapter, the treasurer shall bring an action in a court of appropriate jurisdiction to enforce such delivery.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.24]

556.25 Interest and penalties.
1. A person who fails to pay or deliver property within the time prescribed by this chapter shall pay the treasurer of state interest at the annual rate of eighteen percent on the property or value of the property from the date the property should have been paid or delivered but in no event prior to July 1, 1984.

2. A person who willfully fails to pay or deliver property to the treasurer of state as required under this chapter shall pay a civil penalty equal to twenty-five percent of the value of the property that should have been paid or delivered.

556.27 Effect of laws of other states.
This chapter shall not apply to any property that has been presumed abandoned or escheated under the laws of another state prior to July 1, 1967.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556.27]

556.28 Interstate agreements and cooperation.
1. The treasurer of state may enter into agreements with other states to exchange information needed to enable this or another state to audit or otherwise determine unclaimed property that it or another state may be entitled to subject to a claim of custody. The treasurer of state by rule may require the reporting of information needed to enable compliance with agreements made pursuant to this section and prescribe the form.

2. To avoid conflicts between the treasurer of state’s procedures and the procedures of unclaimed property administrators in other jurisdictions that enact the uniform unclaimed property Act, the treasurer of state, so far as is consistent with the purposes, policies, and provisions of this chapter, before adopting, amending or repealing rules, shall advise and consult with the unclaimed property administrators in other jurisdictions that enact substantially the uniform unclaimed property Act and take into consideration the rules of unclaimed property administrators in other jurisdictions that enact the uniform unclaimed property Act.

3. The treasurer of state may join with other states to seek enforcement of this chapter against any person who is or may be holding property reportable under this chapter.

4. At the request of another state, the attorney general of this state may bring an action in the name of the unclaimed property administrator of the other state in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce the unclaimed property laws of the other state against a holder in this state of property subject to escheat or a claim of abandonment by the other state, if the other state has agreed to pay expenses incurred by the attorney general in bringing the action.

5. The treasurer of state may request that the attorney general of another state or any other person bring an action in the name of the unclaimed property administrator in the other state. The state shall pay all expenses including attorney’s fees in any action under this subsection. Any expenses paid pursuant to this subsection may not be deducted from the amount that is subject to the claim by the owner under this chapter.

CHAPTER 556A
UNSOLICITED GOODS, WARES AND MERCHANDISE

556A:1 Gift of unsolicited goods

556A.1 Gift of unsolicited goods.

Unless otherwise agreed, where unsolicited goods are mailed to a person, that person has a right to accept delivery of such goods as a gift only, and is not bound to return such goods to the sender. If such unsolicited goods are either addressed to or intended for the recipient, the recipient may use them or dispose of them in any manner without any obligation to the sender, and in any action for goods sold and delivered, or in any action for the return of the goods, it shall be a complete defense that the goods were mailed voluntarily and that the defendant did not actually order or request such goods, either orally or in writing.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §556A 1]

CHAPTER 556B
ABANDONED MOTOR VEHICLES OR OTHER PROPERTY

556B:1 Removal — notice to sheriff

556B.1 Removal — notice to sheriff.

1. The owner or other lawful possessor of real property may remove or cause to be removed any motor vehicle or other personal property which has been unlawfully parked or placed on that real property, and may place or cause such personal property to be placed in storage until the owner of the same pays a fair and reasonable charge for towing, storage or other expense incurred. The real property owner or possessor, or the owner's or possessor's agent, shall not be liable for damages caused to the personal property by the removal or storage unless the damage is caused willfully or by gross negligence.

2. The real property owner or possessor shall notify the sheriff of the county where the real property is located of the removal of the motor vehicle or other personal property. If the owner of the motor vehicle or other personal property can be determined, the owner shall be notified of the removal by the sheriff by certified mail, return receipt requested. If the owner cannot be identified, notice by one publication in one newspaper of general circulation in the area where the personal property was parked or placed is sufficient to meet all notice requirements under this section. If the personal property has not been reclaimed by the owner within six months after notice has been effected, it may be sold by the sheriff at public or private sale. The net proceeds after deducting the cost of the sale shall be applied to the cost of removal and storage of the property, and the remainder, if any, shall be paid to the county treasurer.

CHAPTER 556C

RIGHTS TO DIES, MOLDS AND FORMS

556C.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter unless the context requires otherwise:

1. “Customer” means a person who causes a molder to fabricate, cast, or otherwise make a die, mold, or form to be used for the manufacture of plastic products.

2. “Molder” means a person, including but not limited to a tool or die maker, who fabricates, casts, or otherwise makes a die, mold, or form to be used for the manufacture of plastic products.

3. “Fine art” means a painting, sculpture, drawing, mosaic, photograph, work of graphic art, including an etching, lithograph, offset print, silk screen, or work of graphic art of like nature, a work of calligraphy, or a work in mixed media including a collage, assemblage, or any combination of these art

556C.2 Rights to dies, molds, or forms.

1. In the absence of an agreement to the contrary, the customer has all rights and title to a die, mold, or form in the possession of the molder as provided in this section.

2. If a customer does not claim possession from a molder of a die, mold, or form within three years following the last use of the die, mold, or form, all rights and title to the die, mold, or form are transferred to the molder for the purpose of destroying or disposing of the die, mold, or form.

3. The molder shall notify the customer by certified mail sent to the customer’s last known address at least ninety days prior to the transfer provided in subsection 2. The notice shall indicate that all rights and title to the die, mold, or form will be transferred pursuant to this section.

4. If the customer does not respond in person or by mail within ninety days following the date the notice was sent or does not make other contractual arrangements with the molder for storage of the die, mold, or form, the rights and title of the customer to the die, mold, or form shall transfer to the molder.

556D.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. “Artist” means the person who creates a work of fine art or, if such person is deceased, the person’s personal representative.

2. “Fine art” means a painting, sculpture, drawing, mosaic, photograph, work of graphic art, including an etching, lithograph, offset print, silk screen, or work of graphic art of like nature, a work of calligraphy, or a work in mixed media including a collage, assemblage, or any combination of these art media which is one of a kind or is available in a limited issue or series. "Fine art" also means crafts which include work in clay, textiles, fiber, wood, metal, plastic, glass, or similar materials which is one of a kind or is available in a limited issue or series.

3. "Art dealer" means a person engaged in the business of selling works of fine art, in a shop or gallery devoted in the majority to works of fine art, other than a person engaged in the business of selling goods of general merchandise or at a public auction.

4. "Consignment" means a delivery of a work of fine art under which no title to, estate in, or right to possession superior to that of the consignor vests in the consignee, notwithstanding the consignee's power or authority to transfer and convey to a third person all of the right, title, and interest of the consignor in and to the fine art.

5. "Stated value" means the amount agreed to be paid to the consignor.

86 Acts, ch 1233, §1

556D.2 Consignment.

If an artist delivers or causes to be delivered a work of fine art of the artist's own creation to an art dealer in this state for the purpose of exhibition or sale on a commission, fee, or other basis of compensation, the delivery to and acceptance of the work of fine art by the art dealer is a consignment, unless the delivery to the art dealer is an outright sale for which the artist receives or has received full compensation upon delivery.

When an art dealer accepts a work of fine art for the purposes of sale or exhibition and sale to the public on a commission, fee, or other basis of compensation, there shall be a contract or agreement between the artist and art dealer which shall include the following provisions:

1. That the amount of the proceeds due the artist from the sale of the work of fine art shall be delivered to the artist at a time agreed upon by the artist and the art dealer.

2. That the art dealer shall be responsible for the stated value of the work of fine art in the event of the loss of or damage to the work of fine art while it is in the possession of the art dealer.

3. That the work of fine art shall be sold by the art dealer only for the amount agreed upon by the artist in the contract or agreement and that the art dealer will take only the commission or fee agreed upon.

4. That the work of fine art may be used or displayed by the art dealer or any other person only with the prior written consent of the artist. The artist may require that the artist be acknowledged in the use of the work of fine art.

86 Acts, ch 1233, §2

556D.3 Conditions of consignment.
The following apply to consignment:

1. The art dealer, after delivery of the work of fine art, becomes an agent of the artist for the purpose of sale or exhibition of the consigned work of fine art.

2. The work of fine art shall be held in trust by the consignee for the benefit of the consignor and is not subject to claim by a creditor of the consignee.

3. The consignee is responsible for the loss of or damage to the work of fine art, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing between the artist and art dealer in which case the art dealer shall be required to exercise all due diligence and care with regard to the work of fine art. In case of a waiver, the burden shall be on the dealer to demonstrate the waiver was entered into in good faith.

4. The proceeds from the sale of the work of fine art shall be held in trust by the consignee for the benefit of the artist. The proceeds shall first be applied to pay any balance due the artist unless the artist expressly agrees otherwise in writing.

86 Acts, ch 1233, §3

556D.4 Consignment — trust arrangement.

A consignment remains trust property, even if purchased by the art dealer, until the price is paid in full to the artist. If the work is resold to a bona fide purchaser before the artist has been paid in full, the proceeds of the resale received by the art dealer constitute funds held in trust for the benefit of the artist to the extent necessary to pay any balance still due to the artist and the trusteeship continues until the fiduciary obligation of the art dealer with respect to the transaction is discharged in full.

86 Acts, ch 1233, §4

556D.5 Waiver provision void.

A provision of a contract or agreement where the art dealer waives a provision of this chapter is void.

86 Acts, ch 1233, §5
GENERAL PRINCIPLES

557.1 Who deemed seized.
All persons owning real estate not held by an adverse possession shall be deemed to be seized and possessed of the same.

557.2 Estate in fee simple.
The term "heirs" or other technical words of inheritance are not necessary to create and convey an estate in fee simple.

557.3 Conveyance passes grantor's interest.
Every conveyance of real estate passes all the interest of the grantor therein, unless a contrary intent can be reasonably inferred from the terms used.

557.4 After-acquired interest — exception.
Where a deed purports to convey a greater interest than the grantor was at the time possessed of, any after acquired interest of such grantor, to the extent of that which the deed purports to convey, inures to the benefit of the grantee. But if the spouse of such grantor joins in such conveyance for the purpose of relinquishing dower or homestead only, and subsequently acquires an interest therein as above defined, it shall not be held to inure to the benefit of the grantee.

557.5 Adverse possession.
Adverse possession of real estate does not prevent any person from selling that person's interest in the same.

557.6 Future estates.
Estates may be created to commence at a future day.

557.7 Contingent remainders.
A contingent remainder shall take effect, notwithstanding any determination of the particular estate, in the same manner in which it would have taken effect if it had been an executory devise or a springing or shifting use, and shall, as well as such limitations, be subject to the rule respecting remoteness known as the rule against perpetuities, exclusive of any other supposed rule respecting limitations to successive generations or double possibilities.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10046; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.7]

557.8 Applicability.
Section 557.7, except so far as declaratory of existing law, shall apply only to instruments executed on or after July 1, 1925, and to wills and codicils revived or confirmed by a will or codicil executed on or after said date.

557.9 Defeating expectant estate.
No expectant estate shall be defeated or barred by an alienation or other act of the owner of the precedent estate, nor by the destruction of such precedent estate by disseizin, forfeiture, surrender, or merger; provided that on the petition of the life tenant, with the consent of the holder of the reversion, the district court may order the sale of the property in such estate and the proceeds shall be subject to the order of court until the right thereto becomes fully vested. The proceedings shall be as in an action for partition.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10048; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.9]

557.10 Declarations of trust.
Declarations or creations of trusts or powers in relation to real estate must be executed in the same manner as deeds of conveyance; but this provision does not apply to trusts resulting from the operation or construction of law.

[C51, §1205; R60, §2213; C73, §1934; C97, §2918; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10049; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.10]

Statute of frauds, §622.32

557.11 Conveyances by married persons.
A married person may convey or encumber any real estate or interest therein belonging to the person, and may control the same, or contract with reference thereto, to the same extent and in the same manner as other persons.

[C51, §1207; R60, §2215; C73, §1935; C97, §2918; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10050; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.11]

557.12 Conveyances by husband and wife.
Every conveyance made by a husband and wife shall be sufficient to pass any and all right of either in the property conveyed, unless the contrary appears on the face of the conveyance.

[R60, §2255; C73, §1936; C97, §2920; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10051; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.12]

557.13 Covenants — spouse not bound.
Where either the husband or wife joins in a conveyance of real estate owned by the other, the husband or wife so joining shall not be bound by the covenants of such conveyance, unless it is expressly so stated on the face thereof.

[C73, §1937; C97, §2921; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10052; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.13]

557.14 Title and possession of mortgagor.
In absence of stipulations to the contrary, the mortgagor of real estate retains the legal title and right of possession thereto.

[C51, §1210; R60, §2217; C73, §1938; C97, §2922; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10053; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.14]

557.15 Tenancy in common.
Conveyances to two or more in their own right create a tenancy in common, unless a contrary intent is expressed.

[C51, §1206; R60, §2214; C73, §1939; C97, §2923; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10054; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.15]

557.16 Cotenant liable for rent.
In all cases in which any real estate is now or shall be hereafter held by two or more persons as tenants in common, and one or more of said tenants shall have been or shall hereafter be in possession of said real estate, it shall be lawful for any one or more of said tenants in common, not in possession, to sue for and recover from such tenants in possession, their proportionate part of the rental value of said real estate for the time, not exceeding a period of five years, such real estate shall have been in possession as aforesaid.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10055; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.16]

557.17 Partition — cotenant charged with rent.
In case of partition of such real estate held in common as aforesaid, the parties in possession shall have deducted from their distributive shares of said real estate the rental value thereof to which their cotenants are entitled.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10056; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.17]

557.18 Vendor's lien.
No vendor's lien for unpaid purchase money shall be enforced in any court of this state after a conveyance by the vendee, unless such lien is reserved by conveyance, mortgage, or other instrument duly acknowledged and recorded, or unless such conveyance by the vendee is made after suit by the vendor, the vendor's executor, or assigns to enforce such lien.

[C73, §1940; C97, §2924; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10057; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.18]

557.19 Fraudulent conveyances.
Nothing in section 557.18 shall be construed to deprive a vendor of any remedy now existing against conveyance procured through the fraud or collusion of the vendees therein, or persons purchasing of such vendees with notice of such fraud or lien.

[C73, §1940; C97, §2924; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10058; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.19]

557.20 Rule in Shelley’s case.
The rule or principle of the common law known as the rule in Shelley’s case is hereby abolished and is declared not to be a part of the law of this state.

[S13, §2924-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10059; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.20]

557.21 Devise, bequest, or conveyance not enlarged.
No express devise, bequest, or conveyance of an estate for life, or other limited estate in real or personal property shall be enlarged or construed to pass any greater estate to the devisee, legatee, or grantee thereof by reason of any devise, bequest, or conveyance to the heirs, heirs of the body, children, or issue of such devisee, legatee, or grantee; but this section shall not in any manner or under any circumstances be so construed as to impair or affect the vested rights of any person in or to any lands or estates acquired prior to July 4, 1907.

[S13, §2924-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10060; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.21]

REGISTRATION OF FARMS

557.22 Authorization — certificate.
Any owner of a farm in the state may have the name of that farm, together with a description of the owner’s lands to which said name applies, recorded in a register kept for that purpose in the office of the county recorder of the county in which said farm is located.

Such recorder shall furnish to such landowner a proper certificate setting forth said name and a description of such lands.

[S13, §2924-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10061; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.22]

557.23 Vested interest.
When any name shall have been recorded as the name of any farm in such county, such name shall not be recorded as the name of any other farm in the same county.

[S13, §2924-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10062; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.23]

557.24 Fee.
A person having the name of the person’s farm recorded as provided in section 557.22 shall first pay to the county recorder a fee in the amount specified in section 331.604, which fee shall be paid to the county treasurer as other fees are paid to the county treasurer by the recorder.

[S13, §2924-e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10063; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.24]

557.25 Transfer of farm.
When any owner of a farm, the name of which has been recorded as hereinbefore provided, transfers by deed or otherwise the whole of such farm, such transfer may include the registered name thereof; but if the owner shall transfer only a portion of such farm, then in that event, the registered name thereof shall not be transferred to the purchaser unless so stated in the deed of conveyance.

557.26 Cancellation — fee.
If the owner of a registered farm desires to cancel the registered name of the farm, the owner shall acknowledge cancellation of the name by execution of an instrument in writing referring to the farm name, and shall record the instrument. For the latter service the county recorder shall charge a fee in the amount specified in section 331.604, which shall be paid to the county treasurer as other fees are paid to the county treasurer by the recorder.

[S13, §2924-g; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §10065; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §557.26]

557A.1  Time-share Act.
This chapter shall be known as the “Iowa Time-share Act.”
85 Acts, ch 155, §1

557A.2  Definitions.
In this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:
1. “Association” means all of the time-share interval owners of a time-share project acting as a group, either through a nonstock nonprofit corporation or an unincorporated association, in accordance with its bylaws governing administration of the project.
2. “Commission” means the real estate commission.
3. “Common expense” means all sums lawfully assessed against an owner of a time-share interval by an association for the expenses of operating and maintaining the time-share project and for other expenses designated by the project instruments.
4. “Developer” means a person who is in the business of creating or selling time-share intervals in a time-share program. This definition does not include a person acting solely as a sales agent.
5. “Exchange agent” means a person who negotiates and arranges the exchange of time-share intervals for their owners in an exchange program involving other time-share intervals.
6. “Managing agent” means a person who undertakes the duties and responsibilities of the management of a time-share project.
7. “Project instrument” means a recordable document applicable to an entire time-share project, containing restrictions or covenants regulating the use, occupancy, or disposition of the entire project and including amendments to the document.
8. “Property report” means a written statement provided to the initial purchaser of a time-share interval containing the information required in sections 557A.11 and 557A.12.
9. “Purchaser” means a person other than a developer or lender who acquires an interest in a time-share interval.
10. “Time-share estate” means an ownership or leasehold estate in property devoted to a time-share fee or a time-share lease.
11. “Time-share instrument” means a document by whatever name denominated creating or regulating time-share programs, but excluding any law, ordinance, or government regulation.
12. “Time-share interval” means a time-share estate or a time-share use.

13. “Time-share program” means an arrangement for time-share intervals in a time-share project in which the use, occupancy or possession of real property circulates among purchasers of the time-share intervals according to a fixed or floating time schedule on a periodic basis occurring over a period of time.
14. “Time-share project” means the entire real property that is subject to a time-share program.
15. “Time-share use” means a contractual right of exclusive occupancy which does not fall within the definition of a time-share estate including, but is not limited to, a vacation license, prepaid hotel reservation, club membership, limited partnership or vacation bond.
16. “Unit” means the real property or the real property improvement in a time-share project which is divided into time-share intervals.
85 Acts, ch 155, §2

557A.3  Applicability to time-share programs located out-of-state.
1. Sections 557A.4 to 557A.10 apply only to time-share programs located in Iowa.
2. Sections 557A.1, 557A.2, and 557A.11 to 557A.20 apply to any time-share program, wherever located, which is marketed in Iowa.
85 Acts, ch 155, §3

557A.4  Action for partition.
An action for partition of a unit shall not be maintained except as permitted by the time-share instrument.
85 Acts, ch 155, §4

557A.5  Status of time-share estates.
1. A time-share estate is an estate in real property and has the character and incidents of an estate in fee simple at common law or an estate for years if a leasehold, except as expressly modified by this chapter.
2. A document transferring or encumbering a time-share estate shall not be rejected for recordation because of the nature or duration of the estate.
3. For purposes of title, each time-share estate constitutes a separate estate or interest in property except for real property tax purposes.
85 Acts, ch 155, §5

557A.6  Creation of time-share estates.

2. The legal description, street address, or other description sufficient to identify the property.
3. Identification of units and time periods by letter, name, number, or a combination.
4. Identification of time-share estates and, when applicable, the method by which additional time-share estates may be created.
5. The formula, fraction, or percentage of the common expenses and any voting rights assigned to each time-share estate and, when applicable, to each unit that is not subject to the time-share program.
6. Any restrictions on the use, occupancy, alteration, or alienation of time-share intervals.
7. The dates and conditions under which a partition may occur.
8. The ownership interest, if any, of personal property and provisions for care and replacement of the personal property.
9. Any other matters the developer deems appropriate.
85 Acts, ch 155, §6

557A.7 Arrangements for management and operation of a time-share estate program.

The time-share instruments for a time-share estate program shall prescribe reasonable arrangements for management and operation of the program and for the maintenance, repair, and furnishing of units, which shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for the following:
1. Creation of an association of time-share estate owners.
2. Adoption of bylaws for organizing and operating the association.
3. Payment of costs and expenses of operating the time-share program and owning and maintaining the units.
4. Employment and termination of employment of the managing agent.
5. Preparation and dissemination to time-share estate owners of an annual budget and of operating statements and other financial information concerning the time-share program.
6. Adoption of standards and rules of conduct for the use and occupancy of units by time-share estate owners.
7. Procedures for imposing and collecting assessments from time-share estate owners to defray the expenses of management of the time-share program and maintenance of the units.
8. Comprehensive general liability insurance for death, bodily injury, and property damage arising out of, or in connection with, the use of units by time-share estate owners, their guests, and other users.
9. Methods for providing compensating use periods or monetary compensation to a time-share estate owner if a unit cannot be made available for the period to which the time-share estate owner is entitled by schedule or by confirmed reservation.
10. Procedures for imposing a monetary penalty or suspension of a time-share estate owner's rights and privileges in the time-share program for failure of the owner to comply with the time-share instruments or the rules of the association with respect to the use of the units. The time-share estate owner shall be given notice and the opportunity to refute or explain the charges in person or in writing to the governing body or the association before a decision to impose discipline is rendered.
11. Employment of attorneys, accountants, and other professional persons as necessary to assist in the management of the time-share program and the units.
85 Acts, ch 155, §7

557A.8 Developer control period.

1. The time-share instruments for a time-share estate program may provide for a period of time, known as the developer control period, during which the developer or a managing agent selected by the developer shall manage the time-share program and the units in the time-share program.
2. If the time-share instruments for a time-share estate program provide for the establishment of a developer control period, they shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for the following:
   a. Termination of the developer control period by action of the association.
   b. Termination of contracts for goods and services for the time-share program entered into during the developer control periods.
   c. Termination of contract for managing agent entered into during developer control period.
   d. A regular accounting by the developer to the association as to all matters that significantly affect the interests of owners in the time-share program.

557A.9 Creation of time-share uses.

Project instruments and time-share instruments creating time-share uses shall contain the following:
1. Identification by name of the time-share project and street address or other description sufficient to identify the property where the time-share project is situated. The address shall be the street address if available.
2. Identification of the time periods, type of units, and the units that are in the time-share program and the length of time that the units are committed to the time-share program.
3. In case of a time-share project, identification of which units are in the time-share program and the method by which any units may be added, deleted, or substituted.
4. Any other matters that the developer deems appropriate.
85 Acts, ch 155, §9

557A.10 Arrangement for management and operation of a time-share use program.

The time-share instruments for a time-share use program shall prescribe reasonable arrangements for management and operation of the program and for the maintenance, repair, and furnishing of units which shall include, but not be limited to, provisions for the following:
1. Standards and procedures for upkeep, repair, and interior furnishing of units and for providing of janitorial, cleaning, linen, and similar services to the units during use periods.
2. Adoption of standards and rules of conduct governing the use and occupancy of units by timeshare use owners.
3. Payment of the costs and expenses of operating the time-share program.
4. Selection of a managing agent to act on behalf of the developer.
5. Preparation and dissemination to time-share use owners of an annual budget and operating statement and other financial information concerning the time-share program.
6. Procedures for establishing the rights of timeshare use owners to the use of units by prearrangement or under a first-reserved, first-served priority system.
7. Organization of a management advisory board consisting of time-share use owners including an enumeration of rights and responsibilities of the advisory board.
8. Procedures for imposing and collecting assessment or use fees from time-share use owners as necessary to defray costs of management of the time-share program and in providing materials and services to the units.
9. Comprehensive general liability insurance for death, bodily injury, and property damage arising out of, or in connection with, the use of units by time-share use owners, their guests, and other users.
10. Methods for providing compensating use periods or monetary compensation to a time-share use owner if a unit cannot be made available for the period to which the owner is entitled by schedule or by a confirmed reservation.
11. Procedures for imposing a monetary penalty or suspension of a time-share use owner's rights and privileges in the time-share program for failure of the owner to comply with the time-share instrumants or the rules established by the developer with respect to the use of the units. The time-share use owner shall be given notice and the opportunity to refute or explain the charges in person or in writing to the management advisory board before a decision to impose discipline is rendered.
12. Procedures for disclosure at cost to requesting time-share users of a list of the names and mailing addresses of all current time-share owners in the time-share program.

85 Acts, ch 155, §10

557A.11 Disclosure requirements.
1. A developer or an agent of a developer of a time-share program shall provide a current property report to a purchaser not later than ten days after the purchaser signs a purchase agreement. Prior to any sale or solicitation for sale of a time-share interval, a copy of all disclosure materials required to be given to a purchaser by this section and section 557A.12 shall be filed with the commission. The property report shall contain the following:
   a. A cover sheet of the same approximate size and shape as the majority of the disclosure materials required in this section, bearing the title "Property Report" and containing the name and location of the time-share project, the name and business address of the developer and the name and business address of the developer's agent. Following this information, on the front of the cover sheet, but set apart from it, there shall appear three statements in boldface type, or capital letters no smaller than the largest type on the page, in the following wording:
      "(1) These are the legal documents covering your rights and responsibilities as a time-share interval owner. If you do not understand any provisions contained in them, you should obtain professional advice.
      (2) These disclosure materials given to you as required by law may be relied upon as correct and binding. Oral statements may not be legally binding.
      (3) You may at any time within......................(developer or developer's agent shall insert a number, not less than five, designating the rescission period) business days following receipt of a current property report, cancel in writing the purchase agreement and receive a full refund of any deposits made.
   b. A general description of the units including, but not limited to, the developer's schedule of approximate commencement and completion of all buildings, units, and amenities; or if completed, a statement that they have been completed.
   c. As to all units offered by the developer in the same time-share project:
      (1) The types and number of units.
      (2) Identification of units that are subject to timeshare intervals.
      (3) The estimated number of units that may become subject to time-share intervals.
      d. A brief description of the time-share project.
      e. If applicable, any current budget and a projected budget to be used for the time-share intervals for one year after the date of the first transfer to a purchaser. The budget shall include, but is not limited to:
          (1) A statement of the amount, or a statement that there is no amount, included in the budget as a reserve for repairs and replacement.
          (2) The projected liability for common expense, if any, by category of expenditures for the time-share intervals.
          (3) A statement of any services not reflected in the budget that the developer provides, or expenses that the developer pays and which, upon completion of the project or the commencement of association control, would be payable by purchasers as part of their annual share of common expenses.
§557A.11, IOWA TIME-SHARE ACT

f. Any initial or special fee due from the purchaser at closing, together with a description of the purpose and method of calculating the fee.

g. A description of any liens, defects, or encumbrances on or affecting the title to the time-share intervals.

h. A description in general terms of any financing offered by the developer and a statement that documents showing specific terms and conditions of financing will be furnished upon request.

i. A statement of any pending lawsuits material to the time-share intervals of which a developer has actual knowledge.

j. Any restraints on alienation of any number or portion of any time-share intervals of which a developer has actual knowledge.

k. A description of the insurance coverage, or a statement that there is no insurance coverage, provided for the benefit of time-share interval owners.

l. Any current or expected fees or charges to be paid by time-share interval owners for the use of any amenities or facilities related to the property.

m. The extent to which financial arrangements have been provided for completion of all promised improvements.

n. The extent to which a unit may become subject to a tax or other lien arising out of claims against other owners of the same unit.

2. If the time-share program has been registered under a law or rule of another state of the United States, which registration has a similar goal in the protection of prospective purchasers of time-share programs, the developer may substitute for the property report required by subsection 1 an abbreviated property report which consists of a first page to which have been attached the disclosure materials required by the other registering jurisdiction.

a. In addition to the information required to be included on the cover page under subsection 1, paragraph "a", the cover page of the abbreviated report shall contain the following conspicuously noted language:

“PROPERTY REPORT OF
(Name of time-share program)

IMPORTANT NOTE TO PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS:
The attached information has been provided by (name of time-share program) under the laws of Iowa and (other registering jurisdiction). Read it carefully before you spend any money.”

b. If the commission finds that some states do not have disclosure requirements adequate to protect prospective purchasers in this state, the commission may adopt rules identifying those states and requiring the amending of the language of the first page of the abbreviated property report or the abbreviated property report from those states to insure adequate disclosure.

3. The developer shall pay a filing fee in an amount set by rule by the commission when filing the property report required in subsection 1 or 2.

4. At the same time as the developer files the property report or abbreviated property report, the developer shall provide the commission with a list of the names, addresses and phone numbers of all persons authorized to sell time-share intervals on the developer’s behalf in Iowa. This list shall be periodically updated as the commission may by rule require.

85 Acts, ch 155, §11; 86 Acts, ch 1237, §36

557A.12 Additional disclosure requirements relating to exchange programs.

1. When the owners of time-share intervals are to be permitted or required to become members of or participate in any program for the exchange of occupancy rights among themselves or with the owners of time-share intervals of other time-share projects or both, the developer or an agent of a developer of a time-share program, in addition to the property report required by section 557A.11 and within the same time limitation, shall provide the following disclosure materials to a purchaser:

a. The name, address and telephone number of the exchange agent and a statement as to whether that person is an affiliate of the developer.

b. Whether membership or participation, or both, in the exchange program are voluntary or mandatory.

c. The expenses, or ranges of expenses, charged to the time-share interval owners for membership in the exchange program including the expenses, if any, of exchanging as of a date not more than one year before the property report is delivered to the purchaser, and the name of the person to whom those expenses are payable.

d. Whether and how any of the expenses specified in paragraph “c” may be altered and, if any of them are to be fixed on a case-by-case basis, the manner in which they are to be fixed in each case.

2. Subsection 1 shall not apply if information on all exchange programs has been included pursuant to law or rule of the other registering jurisdiction in an abbreviated property report prepared pursuant to section 557A.11, subsection 2.

85 Acts, ch 155, §12

557A.13 Exemptions from disclosure requirements.

A person shall not be required to provide disclosure documents, as required in sections 557A.11 and 557A.12, in the following cases:

1. A transfer of a time-share interval by a time-share interval owner other than a developer or a developer’s agent.

2. A disposition of units in a time-share project pursuant to a court order.

3. A disposition of units in a time-share project by a government or governmental agency.

4. A disposition of units in a time-share project by a foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure.

5. A disposition to a person acquiring the time-share interval for other than personal use.

6. A disposition of a time-share interval in a time-share project situated wholly outside this state if all solicitations, negotiations, and contracts took place wholly outside this state and the contract was executed wholly outside this state.

7. A gratuitous transfer of a time-share interval. 85 Acts, ch 155, §13

557A.14 Purchaser's and developer's rights relating to property report.
1. A purchaser may at any time within five business days following the receipt of all information required in sections 557A.11 and 557A.12 rescind in writing a contract of sale without stating any reason and without any liability on the purchaser's part. All payments made by the purchaser before rescission shall be refunded within thirty days after receipt of the notice of rescission as provided in subsection 3.
