CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

The members of this legislature have learned with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. George G. Wright, who departed this life on the 10th day of January, in the year of our Lord, 1896.

The exalted character and long and continuous public services of the deceased appropriately and pre-eminently demand the highest public recognition.

No one of the illustrious men who have contributed to mold and fashion the destiny of this great State has left a deeper impress upon our noble institutions, or had a larger place in the affections and hearts of her people.

While his noble examples will inspire other men and other generations to strive to emulate them, and to the performance of noble deeds for the benefit of mankind, his place can never be filled.

As a jurist and Judge of the Supreme Court of the State of Iowa he has left in his written opinions volumes of law and authority that will remain an eloquent tribute and monument to his legal acumen, erudition, and love of justice and equity that will endure as long as this republic endures or Christian civilization exalts and blesses mankind. Occupying this high position, in the meridian of life or before his sun had reached its zenith, the people of Iowa again manifested their appreciation of his transcendent ability and unswerving integrity by bestowing upon him the highest position in state and national government that the commonwealth could confer, and his career as United States Senator eminently vindicated the wisdom of their preference and their choice.

Socially, and as a universal friend of the people in all the walks of life, with almost fraternal and paternal kindness, he won the hearts of acquaintances and associates, and in all the relations of life that cluster around the fireside and home he embodied everything that makes the idolized husband and father.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family of the departed statesman and jurist our sympathy and condolence; that these resolutions be spread upon the Journals of the Senate and House, and that enrolled copies of the same be sent to the widow of the deceased.

Resolved, That as a further manifestation of our great respect that the Senate do now adjourn to 10 o'clock A. M. January 14, 1896, to participate in the last sad rites and ceremonies.

W. S. RICHARDS,
Private Secretary.

Ordered placed on file.

The oath of office was duly administered in the presence of the Joint Convention to Governor-elect Francis Marion Drake and Lieutenant-Governor-elect Matt Parrott by Chief Justice Rothrock, of the Supreme Court of Iowa.

His Excellency, Francis Marion Drake, then delivered his Inaugural address.

Music by the Des Moines Union Band.

The Senate re-convened at 4:15 P. M., Senator Funk presiding.

Senators Penrose, Everall, and Carney were appointed as such committee.

Lieutenant-Governor Parrott appeared and was presented to the Senate as its President.

Ex-President Dungan then took leave of the Senate with feeling remarks.

The President on assuming the Chair, addressed the Senate as follows:

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE: I assume the duties of your presiding officer with a full appreciation of the gravity of the responsibilities resting upon me, and with a deep sense of my unfamiliarity with the science of parliamentary law. Mistakes may, and undoubtedly will be made, and I ask in advance your generous forbearance as well as your assistance, assuring you all now of my earnest desire to be just and courteous to every member.

The biennial message of the retiring Executive, and the Inaugural address of the new incumbent of the executive office, will suggest many lines on which you will be called upon to pass judgment. I am sure you will give these matters full and just consideration.

In addition to the ordinary legislation of a session, you are called upon to consider the report of the commission provided by the Twenty-fifth General Assembly to revise the Code of Iowa. The completed report is before you, and throws additional as well as very grave responsibilities on you. The preparation and final completion of the work involves a large expenditure to the State, and the value of your labors the future will have to determine. If the passing years demonstrate that you have acted wisely and well the reward will be yours. Stability in our laws is the desideratum to be desired. Haste in the consideration of this report, therefore, should not dominate, but thoroughness rather, and I believe this will be your collective view.

The various State institutions unitedly ask for large appropriations. Close investigation of all these demands should be made, to the end that no injustice be done in either direction, remembering that penuriousness is not always economy, nor an extravagance of expenditure an evidence of public spirit or state pride. Be only as liberal as the known revenues of the State will permit, for, with existing conditions there can be no justification for exceeding them.

Trusting that our relations during the session may be pleasant, and that the work accomplished may meet the commendation of the people of the State, in which we have an abiding faith and pride, I now await your pleasure.

First, I will ask the Secretary to read the list of standing committees and appointments, which, under the rules, I am required to make.

Lieutenant Governor Parrott then furnished the Secretary of the Senate a list of the committee appointments, which were read, and are as follows:

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE.

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has passed the following concurrent resolution, in which the concurrence of the Senate is asked:

Resolved, by the House, the Senate concurring, That we are opposed to the proposed change in the interstate commerce laws of the United States, for the purpose of allowing the railroads to pool their earnings, believing that such pools, if allowed by law, would result in great injury to the people of the West, and especially to the producing classes. The present low prices of the products of the farms and factories of the West preclude the idea of profit, and we believe that more stringent measures should be adopted for the enforcement of the laws that we now have, rather than any relaxation; and we demand further and, if possible, more effective measures for the protection of the interests of the people in preventing discriminations and rebates.

Resolved, That our Senators in the United States Congress, and our Representatives, be requested to use all honorable means to prevent the passage of any measure that will allow pooling, rebates or discriminations in the transportation of freights or any kind of commerce on the railroads of the United States.

Resolved, That the Secretary of State be and is hereby instructed to send a copy of these resolutions to each of the Senators and Representatives of the State of Iowa in the Congress of the United States.

JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 7.

Be It Resolved by the General Assembly of Iowa, That,

WHEREAS, January 15, 1861, Captain F. J. Herron of Dubuque tendered the services of himself and the Governor's Greys, through the Governor of Iowa, Hon. S. J. Kirkwood, to the government of the United States, to aid in suppressing insurrection in the South, wherever the President might direct, and thus, three months prior to actual hostilities, Iowa received credit as being the first state in the Union to tender an organized and equipped military company in anticipation of approaching conflict; and,

WHEREAS, When Fort Sumter surrendered, and marked the commencement of the war of the Rebellion, Captain Herron instantly tendered the services of the Governor's Greys and himself to the Governor of Iowa for immediate service, to uphold the National life (being the first offer in the United States), which was immediately accepted by Governor Kirkwood; and,

WHEREAS, For distinguished bravery at Wilson's Creek, Captain Herron was complimented in general orders and promoted to the Lieutenant Colonelcy of the Ninth Iowa Infantry, and soon after, for distinguished bravery at Pea Ridge, he was made a Brigadier General and also given a medal of honor by Congress, and later for his gallantry at Prairie Grove, President Lincoln appointed him a Major General, the youngest in the United States, and the second appointed from Iowa, and who received the surrender of the trans-Mississippi army of 60,000 Confederate soldiers; commanded the left wing of the investing army before Vicksburg, and, with General Grant, entered that city on its surrender, and continued to add new laurels to those previously won; and

WHEREAS, Amongst the first four names considered for honors by the Commission having charge of the Iowa Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, and almost the very first name mentioned was Major-General F. J. Herron, and instructions were given looking to the fulfillment of this object, but upon receiving a secret communication impugning the General's personal character, the Commission took no further action until the Governor's Greys of to-day, learning of the great injustice done its former Captain, conclusively demonstrated the utter groundlessness of the secret attack, and the commission, on November 21st last, unanimously decided to discard from the monument the Coat of Arms of Iowa and substitute a Medallion of our illustrious hero, Major-General Francis J. Herron; and

WHEREAS, Such action, coupled with the recent assault, which had so suddenly relegated him to obscurity, and then, upon its gross injustice being made known, had elevated General Herron to second place upon the monument, is calculated to create inquiry in all future time why, of Iowa's two living Major-Generals, one was accorded equestrian honors and the other given a Medallion, and lessen the deep sense of gratitude so dear to Iowa's heart for one who added so much to the glory of this commonwealth, and as the Secretary of the Commission concedes in the views of the artist that additional equestrian statues can be added to great advantage, thus enabling Iowa to extend equal honors to each of her two living Major-Generals; therefore

SECTION 1. Be it Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa: That the Commission having in charge the Iowa Soldiers' and Sailors' monument be, and is hereby directed, to cause an equestrian statue of Major-General Francis J. Herron to be made and added to the group of heroes selected to grace said monument, and the cost thereof, not exceeding $10,000, be, and the same is hereby appropriated, to be paid by the State Treasurer on the voucher of said Commission, under the approval of General Francis M. Drake, Governor of Iowa, from moneys not otherwise appropriated.

Committee.

In moving the adoption of the resolutions

SENATOR E. M. SARGENT,

of the Thirty-eighth district, spoke as follows:

To chronicle the death of a friend is one of the saddest of duties; and as a friend few men have been more highly esteemed by those who knew them well, or better deserved the name than the late Senator from the Thirty-eighth district, Hon. J. Morris Rea.

His death, which occurred on the 25th of last August, was most sudden and unexpected. Although he had been in bad health for several years, he had so bravely and patiently fought against the encroachments of his disease that few, if any, of his friends were aware that his condition was critical, and only four days before his death did he at last yield to the compulsion of the inevitable and exchange his office and business for his death-bed. Such was the courage of the man that he not only concealed his condition from his friends and from his own family, but he forced himself daily to attend to business and to mingle with his fellow citizens and quietly to go the round of his customary duties, while every day he was setting his affairs in order and listening for the dread summons which he alone knew was coming so soon. When it came he met and answered it as bravely and patiently as he had lived.

The record of J. Morris Rea's life is like that of many another citizen of Iowa. Born in the east, in Chester county, Pennsylvania, March 1, 1846, he early migrated to the West to grow up with the country and become a resident of Mt. Carroll, Illinois, in 1854. Having attended school at that place for nine years, he entered Chicago University, and graduated from that institution in 1867 and immediately thereafter began the study of law in the office of C. B. Smith, of Mt. Carroll.

Having been admitted to the bar in Illinois, he migrated to Iowa and settled at Grundy Center in 1870 to practice his profession. Together with his law partner, he edited and published the Grundy County Atlas for six years. During a large part of this time Mr. Rea was county superintendent of schools. Becoming thus identified with law, journalism and education in the young county in which he had settled, he formed a wide acquaintance and earned an enviable popularity which increased with years. Mr. Rea was married to Ann S. Cook in 1878 and shortly after gave up his work as editor and county superintendent and confined his energies to the practice of law. He soon established his reputation as the leading attorney of Grundy county. To the end of his life, however, he retained his interest in public schools and was for many years a member and president of the city board of education. He was also deeply interested in every enterprise of benevolence and public good and was an active and prominent member of the Baptist church and a consistent Christian, nor did his interest in questions affecting the common weal stop within the circle of his denomination or community, but upon every issue in which justice and right in state or nation were concerned he held firm convictions and was steadfast and honest in maintaining them. As a lawyer, Mr. Rea was able, careful and courteous, and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his clients and associates; while in the wider circles of society he was known as a most agreeable, entertaining and cultured gentleman. He was an active politician with a wide knowledge of public men and affairs, always faithful to his friends and just to his opponents. He held the office of county attorney for a number of years. In 1886 Mr. Rea received the republican nomination for judge in the Tenth district. As evidencing his extreme popularity, it may be mentioned that at every Senatorial convention since 1879 he was supported by his county for the republican nomination. In 1893 he was nominated and elected to the Senate from the Thirty-eighth district and in the Twenty-fifth General Assembly he gave abundant evidence of his splendid mental and legal abilities, his quick, strong grasp of public questions, and his faithfulness and diligence in performance of duty. Having served half his term of office with distinction and credit to himself and his constituents apparently a long career of honor and usefulness was open before him; but the hopes and desires of his friends and his own ambitions were alike destroyed by the rapid advance of the disease which ended his life and public service at the untimely age of 49.

In the death of Senator Rea it may be truly said that his family mourns a kind and loving husband and father, and his community a modest, unassuming, public spirited, influential, Christian man; while his district loses an able and diligent representative; the Senate an efficient and painstaking member, and his state and nation a scholarly, devoted and patriotic citizen.

SENATOR J. L. CARNEY

of the Twenty-eighth district, in seconding the motion, spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT—We are gathered in obedience to a time honored custom to reflect for a brief period upon the mystery of death, to enshrine the memory of a worthy citizen and Senator of Iowa. These resolutions, which are never referred to a committee, upon which a negative vote is never cast, have arrested the attention of this body, and in the presence of the memory of a departed servant of the people, we by universal consent extol his virtues and lament his death.

I did not have the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with Senator Rea, but I know him as a just, upright, conscientious man. Residing in the county adjoining his on the south, I occasionally had the privilege of meeting him, either in the court room or elsewhere, and always found him the same earnest, sincere and candid man. While he was not noted as an orator or advocate, he was recognized everywhere as a wise and faithful member of the bar, a man devoted to the interests of his client, and always fair and candid with the court. No higher encomium can be given any man than that he performed duty as it was presented to him, and assuredly this praise is due our departed brother. We, as the members of this organized Senate, have begun this session with high hopes doubtless of advancing the best interests of the state, of aiding in our own development and mental growth. This is but the successor of former Senates of Iowa, many of the members of which have joined the great majority, and others are standing on the brink of the dark river. They have performed well their work, and aided in the formation of a state government, second to none on the American continent. In this complex machinery of federal and state control, proud Iowa moves serenely, guided by the wise laws enacted by Legislatures, which have numbered in their ranks some of the wisest of the nation's wise men. Their foresight taught them that this portion of the great Mississippi valley, between the father of waters and his great tributary on the west, was sure in the fullness of time to become densely populated; to be covered with the works of man; to be the birth-place of men of letters, of art, of science, whose fame should go out over the whole land. They, therefore, by the enactment of a constitution and laws suitable for the control and development of an intelligent people have laid well the foundation for the enduring structure of state government, which is and will be for generations yet unborn the joy and pride of the people of the State of Iowa.

These laws of the state have been slowly added to, changed, modified and amended, by successive Legislatures, and as it became apparent that a new codification was necessary, Senator Rea was elected to a General Assembly, which, by general and universal consent was expected to adopt some plan, or put in force some agency whereby there should be evolved from the apparent confusion a beautiful and symmetrical whole. That step was taken in the appointment of, and definition of the powers of a Code Commission, and doubtless Senator Rea looked forward hopefully to the meeting of this General Assembly, when he would be able to join in the completion of that great work, which, as we approach it, almost startles us by its immensity. That satisfaction was denied him, and he has been called higher. We must perform the responsible and pressing duties devolving upon us, without the aid of his wise, conservative and conscientious counsel. His life work is done. To him has come the great change which awaits all men.

In closing, nothing that I could say would be more fitting than a quotation from the classic oration, which it was my privilege to hear Senator Ingalls deliver on a like occasion in the United States Senate, when he said: "In the democracy of the dead all men at last are equal. There is neither rank nor station, nor prerogative in the republic of the grave. At this fatal threshold the philosopher ceases to be wise, and the song of the poet is silent. Dives relinquishes his millions and Lazarus his rags. The poor man is as rich as the richest and the rich man is as poor as the pauper. The creditor loses his usury and the debtor is acquitted of his obligation. There the proud man surrenders his dignities, the politician his honors, the worldling his pleasures; the invalid needs no physician, and the laborer rests from unrequited toil. Here at last is nature's final decree in equity. The wrongs of time are redressed, injustice is expiated, the irony of fate is refuted, the unequal distribution of wealth, honor, capacity, pleasure and opportunity, which make life so cruel and inexplicable, ceases in the realm of death. The strongest there has no supremacy and the weakest needs no defense. The mightiest captain succumbs to that invincible adversary, who disarms alike the victor and the vanquished."

of the Forty-fourth district, spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT—It is fitting that the Senate turn from its legislative duties and devote the hour to paying a tribute of respect to the memory of those who have been called from our number to the land of eternal rest.

I believe that these memorial ceremonies will not only be a mournful satisfaction to the friends of those whose memories we revere, as well as of advantage to ourselves, but will be productive of good to the state. To dwell upon the characteristics of the noble dead, and to recall their virtues and estimable qualities, chastens the mind and arouses desires for right living and worthy actions. Besides, all must be impressed with the thought that life is of brief duration and of a transitory nature, and we are admonished to work while it is yet day, knowing that the night cometh in which no man can work.

Only a few short months ago—how very short they now seem—those of us who were members of the Twenty-fifth General Assembly, walked, talked and labored together with Hon J. Morris Rea. We remember him as a gentleman, courteous, affable and considerate of the rights of others; painstaking and conscientious in the discharge of every duty, as one who fully appreciated the responsibility that had been imposed upon him and met the requirements of the trust confidently and manfully.

We remember how faithfully and efficiently he labored as a member of that body. We know that the wisdom of his counsel and his well-directed efforts assisted largely in the deliberations of the Senate, and that the product of his mature thoughts are crystalized in the statutes of the state; so that being dead he yet speaketh, and will continue to be heard as long as our commonwealth shall exist. Did I say our brother is dead? Though we cannot see his beloved form, we may not grasp his cordial hand; we do not hear the familiar tone of his voice, we look to the seat that he was wont to fill with honor and dignity, but our brother is not there. Still we cannot feel that he is dead. Nay, to us, our brother is not dead. He lives, thank God! He abides in our memories as clearly as when we last bade him farewell in the flesh. He is with us to-day; he communes with us, counsels with us, and will be our dear friend and close companion forever.

The lesson imparted by a good life, is to us like a volume from a favorite author, we peruse it with pleasure, we treasure its words in our hearts, we keep it near us on our table or library shelf, we often refer to it, until by becoming familiar with its pages and cherishing its words it becomes incorporated into our being, influences our thoughts and controls our actions.

By relatives and friends the mortal form is dearly cherished, they learn to love the casket and gaze upon it until in a measure they become unmindful of the precious jewel that it contains, and it often happens, that when the case that has become the idol of their admiration is shrouded and covered with the clouds of the valley, they feel in the bitterness of their bereavement that all is lost and become forgetful of the rich heritage that is bequeathed them in the record of an honorable life and of the promise of immortal existence, and the felicity that awaits the soul beyond the grave.

Senator Rea as his life among us indicated, was a believer in the doctrines taught by Jesus of Nazareth, and while here could with the poet say:

Here in the body pent,
Absent from Him I roam.
Yet nightly pitch my morning tent,
A day's march nearer home.

The weary march is o'er, the tabernacle of flesh has been consigned to its final resting place, but the bright, genial, noble spirit that occupied it is at home at rest.

We may be thankful that it has been our privilege to know J. Morris Rea, and to have enjoyed for a period social and official relations with one in mind so pure, in motives so high—one so conscientious in the discharge of every obligation.

As we resume the duties of the session the hallowed influences of this hour will follow us in our labors, the memory of the good and noble lives which we here contemplate will rest as a gracious benison to harmonize our actions, to dull the sting of envy and curb the spirit of self-seeking.

ROBT. BONSON,

A. B. FUNK,

D. J. PALMER.

In moving their adoption

of the Thirty-fifth district, spoke as follows:

We have met to-day to do honor to the memory of the Senators who died while serving as members of this body. As the successor of the late Senator Baldwin, I feel that it is proper for me to say a few words concerning his life and character.

Isaac W. Baldwin was born at Blair, Waterloo county, Ontario, in January, 1835. While yet a boy, in 1847, he moved with his parents to Saginaw, Mich., where his father erected and operated a large tannery. He was educated at Union College, Leoni, Mich., and graduated from that institution. In 1853 his parents again moved and came to Galena, Ill. Here Isaac W. Baldwin learned the tannery trade, and worked in the same shop with the immortal Ulysses S. Grant, and afterwards accepted the position made vacant by his resignation, when he joined the Union forces for the preservation of the Union. He was assistant postmaster of Galena during Lincoln's administration. At the close of the war he found himself penniless, and he set forth with his young family to seek better fields, and finally settled at Cascade, Iowa. Here he followed various business pursuits for several years with but varying financial success, until in 1877 he entered the journalistic field and became proprietor of the Cascade Pioneer, a weekly paper devoted principally to the interests of county affairs. It was through this paper that he gained political prominence. A fearless writer in the cause of truth, he attacked political wrongs and advocated municipal reforms to such an extent that great political weight was given to his utterances.

When his home town was incorporated he was chosen as its first mayor. Subsequently in 1883 and again in 1885 he represented Dubuque county as Representative in the State Legislature of Iowa, and in 1893 he was elected on a reform ticket to represent the same county in the State Senate.

At the close of the session of the Legislature in 1894 the first symptoms of the disease that called him to the great beyond made its appearance, and although he fought bravely he could not battle against the inevitable, and he died of dropsy, February 9, 1895. He was twice married and leaves a widow and eight children to mourn his loss.

As a man he was courteous, kind and honest. In his official capacity he was faithful to the obligations imposed upon him and rendered conscientious and efficient services. He had many political battles, but in them all he buried his antipathies with the counting of the ballots, and no political foe can say that he was venomous or vindictive. His purpose was lofty and patriotic. He was not animated by the desire for public applause. He was simple in his manner, dress and habit. He lived for truth, not party, and he had the courage to fight against wrong and wrong doing, no matter where found. Such men are to be admired. I wish the world had more of them.

Senator A. B. Funk, of the Thirty-seventh district, Senator H. L. Waterman, of the Thirteenth district, and Senator G. W. Henderson, of the Fifteenth district, each made eloquent and eulogistic remarks relative to the high character and worth of the deceased Senator.

The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote.

WHEREAS, Such Commission has construed the language of such act to authorize them to make any alterations and changes in the existing laws which they deemed proper or desirable, and have prepared a proposed Code, which is not merely a codification of existing laws, but which omits a large portion of the existing laws and substitutes other proposed laws of different import, and have made innumerable alterations not only in the language, but in the spirit, purport and effect of the various statutes, the new matter being intermingled with the old in such a manner that it will require a vast amount of labor and much more time to properly consider it in detail so that intelligent actions can be had thereon than will be at the disposal of this General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, It is now apparent that it will be impossible for this General Assembly to adopt a new Code, and that should the General Assembly go through the Code in detail, so many alterations will have been made including new legislation, that a new Code Commission will be required to complete the work; therefore,

Resolved, by the Senate, the House concurring, That no further consideration be given to the proposed Code during the present session, and at the close of the session a new commission of one or more members be appointed (by a properly prepared bill) to codify the existing laws without change or alteration, except to omit such laws as have been repealed, and arrange all existing public laws under proper titles, chapters and sections, thus compiling a Code of laws which will require no further action on the part of the General Assembly.

Senator Lothrop moved that the resolution introduced by Senator Blanchard be printed.

Carried.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

Senator Mitchell, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Rules, to whom was referred the question of rules for the Senate of the Twenty-sixth General Assembly, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that the following rules be adopted.

SENATE RULES—REGULAR ORDER OF DAILY BUSINESS.

The following order shall govern:

1. Presentation of petitions or memorials, addressed to the Senate or to the General Assembly.
2. Introduction of bills.
3. Resolutions.

4. Communications on the President's table, including House messages.
5. Reports of standing committees, in the order in which they stand in the rules, except the Committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, Rules and Printing.
6. Reports of select committees.
7. Third reading of bills.
8. Unfinished business before the Senate.
9. Bills and other matters.
10. General orders of the day.

STANDING RULES.

1. The President shall take the Chair at the hour to which the Senate is adjourned, and call the Senate to order; and if a quorum be present, he shall proceed with the regular order of daily business, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, or unless a special order for the day shall interfere therewith. He shall preserve order and decorum, and decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Senate. He shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise especially ordered. Immediately preceding the adjournment of each morning session; or, in case it cannot be done during that session, then as soon after the convening of the next following session as he may find most convenient, the President shall call for corrections of the Journal of the last day's proceedings. He shall then cause any mistakes therein to be corrected by the Secretary, and the Journal shall then be approved.

2. The Senate shall, at its pleasure, elect a president pro tem., who shall hold his office during the remaining portion of the time for which the President was elected; and when the President shall from any cause be absent, the President pro tem. shall preside, except when the Chair is filled by appointment by the President.

3. There shall be appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor, at each session of the Senate, to hold their positions during such session, but subject to be discharged by the President of the Senate for inefficiency or misbehavior, or other reasons in his judgment justifying such discharge, two paper folders and six messengers for the Senate. And the President may appoint other paper folders and messengers in the place of any discharged.

4. One-fourth of the members may have a call of the Senate, and absent members sent for, and their attendance enforced.

5. When a member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall arise from his seat and respectfully address himself to Mr. President, and shall confine himself to the question under debate, avoid personalities, and the imputation of improper motives.

5. When the vote is taken viva voce, questions shall be distinctly put in this form, viz: "As many as are of the opinion (as the case may be) say 'aye.'" And after the affirmative voice is expressed: "As many as are of the contrary opinion, say 'no.'" If the President doubt, or a division be called for, the Senate shall divide—those in the affirmative of the question shall first rise from their seats, and afterward those in the negative.

7. Every member present when a question is put shall vote, unless he shall, for special cause, be excused by a vote of the Senate; but no member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is directly and personally interested, or in any case where he was not present when his name was called in the taking of the vote. Provided, that any member who was absent by leave of the Senate may vote at any time before the result is announced.

8. All motions (except to adjourn, postpone, or commit,) shall be reduced to writing, if required by any member of the Senate. Any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover; provided, the same has not been amended by the Senate, and that no amendment is pending thereto.

9. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received but to adjourn, to lay on the table, for the previous question, to postpone to a day certain, to commit or amend, to postpone indefinitely which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are named; and no motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit or postpone indefinitely, being decided, shall be again allowed on the same day, and at the same stage of the bill or proposition. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have the precedence of a motion to amend; and if carried, shall be considered equivalent to the rejection of the bill.

10. A motion to adjourn, to lay on the table, and for the previous question, shall be decided without debate, and all incidental questions of order rising after a motion is made for the previous question, and pending such motion, shall be decided—whether an appeal or otherwise—without debate.

11. The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present, and its effect shall be to put an end to all debate, and bring the Senate to a direct vote upon pending amendments and then upon the main question, except that the member in charge of the measure under consideration shall have ten minutes in which to close the discussion, immediately before the vote is taken upon the main question. If the previous question is decided in the negative, the Senate shall proceed with the matter before it, the same as though the previous question had not been moved.

12. Any member may call for a division of a question, which shall be divided, if it comprehends propositions in substance so distinct that one being taken away substantive propositions shall remain for the decision of the Senate. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible; but a motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither amendments to the matter attempted to be stricken out, nor a motion to strike out and insert.

13. When a motion or question has been decided, any member having voted on the prevailing side, may move a reconsideration, on the same or next legislative day.

14. A motion to print any paper presented to the Senate may, on motion, be referred to the Committee on Printing, whose duty it shall be to report at the earliest time practicable, on the propriety of printing.

15. Every bill shall be introduced on the report of a committee, or by leave, and shall at once be given its first reading. Every bill and joint resolution shall have received three several readings previous to its passage; but no bill or joint resolution shall have its second and third readings on the same day, without a suspension of this rule; and every bill and joint resolution shall express in its title the object thereof. All rules of the Senate applicable to bills shall apply with equal force to joint resolutions.

16. Before the same is presented, there shall be endorsed on each petition a brief statement of the subject matter thereof, and on each bill and joint resolution the title thereof, and in either case the name of the Senator presenting the same. In presenting a petition, the Senator shall briefly state from his place in the Senate Chamber the subject matter to which the petition relates.

17. The first reading of a bill or joint resolution shall be for information, and, if objection be made to it, the question shall be, "Shall the bill (or joint resolution, as the case may be) be rejected?" If no objection be made, or the question to reject be lost, the bill or joint resolution shall go to its second reading without further questioning.

18. Upon the second reading of a bill or joint resolution, the President shall state it as ready for commitment, amendment or engrossment, and if committed, then the question shall be, whether to a select or standing committee, or a committee of the whole. If to a committee of the whole, the Senate shall determine on what day. If no objection is made, the President of the Senate may refer the bill or joint resolution to an appropriate committee or to such committee as the Senator who introduces the measure shall suggest. But if the bill or joint resolution be ordered to be engrossed, it shall be in order for its third reading any session after that day. No bill or joint resolution shall be committed or amended until it shall have been twice read.

19. When a question is lost on engrossing a bill, or joint resolution for a third reading on a particular day, it shall not preclude a question to engross it for a third reading on a different day. After a third reading of a bill or joint resolution, no amendment (except to fill blanks) shall be received, except by unanimous consent of the members present; and the vote on its final passage shall be immediately taken without debate.

20. A bill or joint resolution may be committed at any time previous to its third reading.

21. In filling blanks, the largest sum and longest time shall be first put.

22. On the return of a bill or joint resolution from the House, with an amendment, it shall be placed with the third reading of bills, unless the Senate shall otherwise order. On the question of adopting the amendment the vote shall be taken on the final passage of the bill, and if the amendment be adopted by a constitutional majority, no further vote is necessary.

23. All bills and joint resolutions introduced, except local or legalizing bills, shall be printed, unless otherwise ordered by the Senate, and committees may order to be printed any bills under consideration by them, and any substitutes for bills or resolutions reported by them.

24. It shall be in order for the Committee on Engrossed and Enrolled Bills, on Rules and on Printing, to report at any time, when no member is addressing the Senate.

When any special order of the day is not proceeded with on the day assigned, it shall stand as a general order on each succeeding day until disposed of, unless otherwise ordered, but its consideration cannot be moved until that order of business is reached, when it shall be taken up in order of its file.

25. All special orders shall be entered on the Calendar, and shall be taken up in the order of their precedence.

26. When the pending question is interrupted by a "Special Order," it shall, upon the disposal of the special order, be before the Senate in the same stage as if it had not been so interrupted.

27. Committees are permitted to employ clerks by the majority vote of the whole committee. The clerk shall be selected by such vote, and in like manner may be discharged for inefficiency or when the services of the clerk become unnecessary.

28. Clerks of Senate committees, when not engaged in duties pertaining to such committees or work assigned them by the committee chairman, shall be subject to the direction of the Secretary of the Senate, for any labor connected with the duties of his position or his assistants. The Secretary shall, from time to time, make detail from said clerks to assist in preparing copy or correcting proof for the daily Journal.

29. All reports of committees on bills or resolutions shall be made in duplicate and be accompanied with the original bill or resolution to which the report relates. Providing that this rule shall not apply to the reports of Committees on Enrolled and Engrossed Bills.

30. When a vote is taken in any committee upon any bill or resolution before it, or any motion relating to the merits thereof, the chairman shall see that no person is present except the members and clerk of said committee, unless otherwise ordered by the committee.

31. Smoking in the Senate Chamber is hereby prohibited while the Senate is in session. And any officer or employe who shall indulge in smoking while on duty in the Senate Chamber or doorways leading thereto, shall thereby subject himself to liability of discharge.

32. Admission to the floor of the Senate Chamber shall be granted by the Doorkeeper to the Governor and his private secretary, members of the House of Representatives, the state officers and their deputies, judges of the several courts, ex-members of the Legislature, ex-state officers and the regular reporters of the Senate and clerks of committees. No persons, except those herein specified, shall be admitted, except upon special permission of the President of the Senate or of a member of the Senate. And no person shall be permitted by members or otherwise to come upon the floor of the Senate to solicit or influence Senators in their official action, or to sell any article or to solicit subscriptions.

33. In case of disturbance or disorderly conduct in the lobby or gallery, the presiding officer shall have the power to order the same cleared.

34. Before acting on executive business, the Senate Chamber shall be cleared, by direction of the President, of all persons except members, the Secretary, the Sergeant-at-Arms, members enjoined and the Secretary and Sergeants-at-Arms sworn, to observe secrecy.

35. When an adjournment has been ordered by a vote of the Senate, and before adjournment is declared by the President of the Senate, it shall be in order for the chairman of the several committees to announce in open Senate the time and place of meeting of their respective committees.

36. No standing rule or order of the Senate shall be rescinded or suspended, nor shall any matter, tabled upon motion, be taken up, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, except an order fixing the hour to which the Senate shall stand adjourned.

37. Resolutions, including concurrent resolutions, shall not be acted upon by the Senate upon the day the same are introduced or received by the Senate, but shall lie upon the table for one legislative day if any member object to the immediate consideration thereof. But if no member object, the same may have immediate consideration. Nothing in this rule shall abridge or prevent the usual right of reference to committee.

38. The rules of parliamentary practice comprised in Cushing's Manual shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules or orders of the Senate, and joint rules of the Senate and House of Representatives.

39. The duties of the officers and employes of the Senate are as stated in the paragraph relating thereto, and appended to these rules.

The Secretary of the Senate shall have charge of the Secretary's desk, and shall see that no one is permitted therein except himself and those assisting him. He shall be responsible for the custody and safe-keeping of all bills, resolutions and other matters laid before or introduced into the Senate, except while the same are in the possession of the committee to whom the same shall have been referred, and when delivering the same to said committee he shall take a proper receipt therefor. He shall see that the Journal of each day's proceedings is correctly and fully kept, and fully made up before the next day's session, and be responsible for its safe-keeping. He shall have control of Room 25, which is assigned to said Secretary for the use of himself and his assistants. MINORITY REPORT.

MR. PRESIDENT—We desire to dissent from the report of the majority of your Committee on Constitutional Amendments, to whom was referred Joint Resolution No. 9, and recommend that said joint resolution be indefinitely postponed.

We are constrained to take this ground, not because that we do not believe that the women, if given the right to vote would not exercise it in an intelligent manner, but because we do sincerely believe that this right is not sought for by any considerable number of our mothers, wives and others. We do not believe that, if they possessed this right, it would change the condition of society in the least. We do not believe that there exists a demand for this radical change that merits genuine consideration. We do not believe that, if this right was accorded women, any considerable number of them would take advantage of it.

It has always been the wisdom of our laws to surround the home and all that relationship with the fullest safeguards, and this caution on the part of the law goes to that extent, which will not permit the wife, in certain actions, to testify against the husband. It is the theory of the law that nothing from without shall be permitted to enter to endanger any of the relations upon which the good of society depends.

In view of the danger that such an amendment might involve to all desirable existing conditions, and with an earnest and honest wish to surround the home with all possible safeguards, we most earnestly and honestly protest against the adoption of the majority's report.

T. G. HARPER.

C. S. RANCK.

The Pioneer Law Makers of Iowa appeared, and Capt. Isaac Griffith announced that they were pleased to accept the invitation to visit the Senate.

President Parrott gave them hearty welcome in the following words:

Under our rules every ex-member of previous General Assemblies has the freedom of the floor, but we esteem it a privilege and an honor to give you, the pioneer law makers of Iowa, a heartier and a broader welcome than a mere acknowledgment of your rights under the rules.

We greet and recognize you as having had an important part in the upbuilding of our state, in aiding in transforming it from pioneer conditions into one of the great and prosperous commonwealths of our nation. We acknowledge our indebtedness to the early law makers for the wisdom displayed in the enactment of wise and beneficent laws which brought to us an intelligent, prosperous and constantly increasing population. We commend the broad policy inaugurated by your membership in laying the foundation of our grand system of state institutions, a system scarcely equaled and certainly not excelled by any in our sister states. You are entitled to grateful recognition for these timely and wise enactments.

And now, full of years, your membership is engaged in another and a still grander work—that of collecting and preserving for future generations the valuable history of the early times, of which you were a part, and which might be entirely lost or greatly lessened in value without the seal of authenticity you are able to give it.

So we bid you hearty welcome, and express the hope that you may have many more pleasant and profitable reunions and fully complete the laudable work in which you are engaged.

President Parrott then yielded the gavel to the president of the association, Col. John Scott, and conducted him to the President's Chair.

Senator Blanchard continued the welcome to the association in the following:

To the Pioneer Law Makers of Iowa:

The pleasant, though somewhat embarrassing duty has been assigned me of extending to you a hearty welcome to the Senate Chamber—pleasant because I am in full accord with the sympathetic and patriotic impulse that pervades every heart in this Chamber to extend to you the greeting which is due the venerable law makers of our state—embarrassing because I realize that others could clothe the sentiment in more fitting words.

Our work as Legislators is to modify existing laws and adapt them to the continuing changes of a still rapidly growing commonwealth, as well as to provide for new conditions resulting from the evolution of the wonderful age in which we live. It was yours to organize and build. You performed the rugged duties of pioneer life, and by the enactment of wise, just and equitable laws laid the foundations broad and deep for a great state.

You builded wiser than you knew. The mutations wrought by the intervening years have been marvelous, and can but be surprising to even you who have witnessed them.

Some of you enacted laws in the old Capitol at Iowa City when the center of population of the state was but a few miles west of the Mississippi; others of you performed your legislative duties in the old building situated just across the way, upon the site of which your patriotic countrymen have since erected a noble monument to commemorate the heroism and valor of 80,000 soldiers who fought for the flag. It was there that in addition to general laws enacted for the state, you wisely provided for the erection of this stately Capitol Building, now the pride of all our people.

You return to this fair capital city, which now contains a population of more than sixty thousand souls, and in this noble edifice you behold a Legislature engaged in enacting laws for the government of more than two millions of people.

The changed conditions are not alone manifest in the great increase in wealth and population, but also in the greater variety of subjects which require legislation. We must now provide for nearly twenty state institutions, as well as for the government of a vast number of corporations, railroads, express companies, etc., which have made their advent into the state since the pioneer law-makers created the first code of Iowa.

Venerable sirs, we feel honored by this visit, and extend to you a kindly greeting. We are profoundly grateful for the patriotic services you rendered to our state. May your stay among us be pleasant and profitable; may you return to contented and happy homes, and now we say feverently, God be with you till we meet again.

President Scott, on the part of the association, responded to the words of welcome and then called upon Col. S. A. Moore to continue the response.

Ex-Senator L. L. Ainsworth was then called on and responded.

Hon. John A. Kasson was called and responded.

President Scott then surrendered the gavel into the hands of the President of the Senate.

President Parrott called upon Senator Eaton for the closing remarks.

Senator Funk moved that the Senate do now adjourn.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

Senator Ellis, from the Committee on Judiciary, submitted the following report:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred Senate file No. 217, a bill for an act changing the burden of proof of contributory negligence in certain cases, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and the majority have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed.

L. A. ELLIS,

Chairman.

Ordered passed on file.

MINORITY REPORT ON SENATE FILE NO. 217.

MR. PRESIDENT—The undersigned members of the Committee on Judiciary most respectfully dissent from the majority report of the committee on Senate file No. 217. We think the bill should have been reported back with the recommendation that it do pass, for the following reasons:

First.—It is illogical to require the plaintiff in personal injury suits to prove he was free from negligence. The law of self preservation should create the presumption that he acted as a person of ordinary care and caution.

Second.—The defendant should be required to plead and prove that plaintiff was guilty of contributory negligence.

Third.—It should be sufficient for plaintiff to prove, first, the injury, and second, that defendant was guilty of negligence.

Fourth.—The great weight of authority is in favor of placing the burden of proving such contributory negligence of plaintiff upon the defendant. The supreme court of Pennsylvania, Missouri, Wisconsin, Kentucky, Maryland, Kansas, Alabama, Minnesota, New Jersey, California and the supreme and circuit courts of the United States all hold in favor of the proposition for which we contend.

Fifth.—If this rule is established in Iowa, the holdings of our state and federal courts would be uniform.

THOS. A. CHESHIRE,

THOS. D. HEALY,

C. C. UPTON.

Also:

MR. PRESIDENT—Your Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred Senate file No. 307, a bill for an act to amend section 1433 of the Code, relating to care of insane, beg leave to report that they have had the same under consideration and have instructed me to report the same back to the Senate with the recommendation that it be amended so as to read as follows, and that when so amended that it do pass:

SUBSTITUTE FOR SENATE FILE NO. 307.

A bill for an act to amend section 1433 of the Code, relating to care of the insane.

Be it Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

SECTION 1. That section 1433 of the Code of Iowa be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto the following:

The estates of all insane or idiotic persons, and all persons legally bound for the support of such persons, who may be treated in any county asylum or poorhouse other than the state hospitals for the insane within the state, shall be liable to the county furnishing such treatment, sustenance and supplies for the reasonable value thereof, which value shall be determined in the first instance by the board of supervisors.

Senator Everall moved that the time of adjournment be extended thirty minutes, or until this question is disposed of.

On this question a division was called, and the motion prevailed.

Senator Waterman moved the previous question.

Carried.

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?" the yeas were:

Senators Alexander, Allyn, Bell, Berry, Blanchard, Bonson, Byers, Carroll, Cheshire, Craig, Downey, Druet, Ellison, Ericson, Everall, Garst, Gilbertson, Gorrell, Healy, Hipwell, Hospers, Hotchkiss, Hurst, Junkin, Lothrop, Palmer, Penrose, Pusey, Ranck, Rigger, Sargent, Trewin—32.

The nays were:

Senators Carney, Carpenter, Eaton, Ellis, Funk, Harriman, Henderson, Hobart, Kilburn, Mitchell, Perrin, Phelps, Rowen, Upton, Waterman, Young—16.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Harper and Lehfeldt—2.

So the amendment was adopted.

Senator Rowen moved that the rule be suspended, and the bill be considered engrossed and read a third time now, which motion prevailed and the bill was read a third time.

On the question "Shall the bill pass?" the yeas were:

Senators Alexander, Allyn, Bell, Berry, Blanchard, Bonson, Byers, Carney, Carpenter, Carroll, Cheshire, Craig, Downey, Druet, Eaton, Ellis, Ellison, Ericson, Everall, Funk, Garst, Gilbertson, Gorrell, Harriman, Healy, Henderson, Hipwell, Hobart, Hospers, Hotchkiss, Hurst, Junkin, Kilburn, Lothrop, Mitchell, Palmer, Penrose, Perrin, Phelps, Ranck, Riggen, Rowen, Sargent, Trewin, Upton, Waterman, Young—47.

Senator Pusey voted in the negative.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Lehfeldt and Harper—2.

So the bill passed and its title was agreed to.

Senator Pusey offered the following explanation of his vote and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

MR. PRESIDENT—The age of consent bill now under consideration raises the prostitute to the same plane with the pure girl, if it can be truly said that an unmarried female under the age of 16 years who consents to sexual intercourse is a pure girl. The bill does not allow, either by way of defense or in mitigation of the punishment, the introduction of evidence showing the previous unchaste character of the female, or that her appearance at the time was such as to afford a reasonable belief in the defendant that she was over 16 years of age, or of declarations by her, made before the act and known to the defendant to the effect that she was over 16 years of age, or of conduct on her part inviting or inducing the defendant to commit the act complained of. While the bill lodges a discretion in the court, in some instances, with respect to the punishment, all evidence upon which it can intelligently exercise its discretion is carefully excluded. The bill seems to make no distinction between sexual intercourse procured by seductive influences and that procured by free consent of the female.

For these and other reasons which might be stated, I vote no.

Senator Kilburn offered the following explanation of his vote, and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

"I am not satisfied with the bill, believing that it does not come up to the demands of the people of the state, but I vote for it as a step in the right direction."

Senator Riggen asked to have 200 copies of the substitute for Senate file No. 177 printed.

REVENUE REPORT OF SENATE WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE.

MR. PRESIDENT—I am instructed by the Committee on Ways and Means to submit to the Senate the following statement and estimate concerning the finances of the state:

Cash in general revenue fund February 29, 1896.....	$	37,150.75
Warrants outstanding at that date.....		39,756.11
Leaving the fund overdrawn.....	$	2,605.36
At that date the Auditor held requisitions for the support of various institutions calling for warrants before March 1 amounting to.....	$	22,740.00
Estimated receipts for March.....		148,000.00
Estimated expenditures, including requisitions above mentioned.....		165,500.00
Excess expenditures.....	$	17,500.00
This excess added to amount overdrawn February 29.....		2,605.36
Making overdraft April 1.....	$	20,105.36

Receipts for two years beginning April 1st, estimated as follows:
1896, nine months.....	$1,590,000.00
1897, twelve months (two mills tax).....	1,770,000.00
1897, three months (two mills tax).....	420,000.00
	$3,780,000.00
Estimated expenditures for same period.....	$3,250,000.00
Receipts in excess.....	$ 530,000.00
Extraordinary appropriations subject to draft.....	$ 169,307.99
Added to amount overdrawn April 1st.....	20,000.00
Lowers aggregate of resources.....	189,000.00
Leaving available for the period.....	$ 341,000.00
Available from extraordinary appropriations undrawn April 1, 1898, probably.....	$ 50,000.00
Making the amount available.....	$ 391,000.00
Increase of levy to two and one-half mills for balance of period	$ 285,000.00
Will bring available resources for extraordinary appro- priations approximately.....	$ 676,000.00

The estimate of receipts above given is based on those of 1895, during which a 2½ mill tax was collected, and on those of 1894, when a 2-mill rate prevailed. The receipts for the last nine months of 1895 amounted to $1,584,969.17. Those for the corresponding period of this year are estimated at nearly the same, or $1,590,000. The aggregate valuation, it will be noted, is about $8,000,000 lower than that on which the tax was collected, which would make the receipts somewhat lighter, but it is thought that the revenue from other sources will more than counter-balance the falling off in the proceeds of the direct tax. Again, the receipts of 1894, on a 2-mill levy, amounted to $1,765,437.69. Those based on a corresponding levy in 1897 are estimated at $1,770,000; the reasons thereof being the same as for this year's estimate.

The estimate of expenditures is based on that of the auditor, adding thereto the permanent appropriations made by the Twenty-fifth General Assembly to the Agricultural College, amounting for the two years to $30,000 and about $15,000 more, for estimated additional expense of running the penitentiaries, $10,000, and the additional cost of stationery, binding and printing, $5,000; in all $45,000.

As a matter of information, it may be stated that the extraordinary appropriations of the Twenty-fifth General Assembly, not covered by estimates, amounted to.....$ 623,794.57
To which was added permanent annual charges for the support of state institutions, $54,240, or for two years..... 108,480.00

Making an aggregate of appropriations above regular estimated expenditures.....	$ 732,184.57

We believe that the present depleted condition of the state treasury is to a considerable extent due to these reasons:

In order to cover the needs of the state institutions previous general assemblies have anticipated the general revenue considerably.

The state census and the Code revision have made important drafts upon the state treasury not included in previous estimates.

The money in the state treasury of the war and defense fund received from the general government and appropriated for the erection of the soldiers' monument had been used in meeting demands upon the state, and this fund has been called for during the last biennial period.

A. B. FUNK,
Chairman.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, The soldiers' and sailors' monument, now being erected and approaching completion under the provisions of the act passed by the Twenty-fourth General Assembly is unsatisfactory in many of its proposed features, and is unfavorably received by the people of the state as the expression of their sentiments towards those of their fellow citizens who so grandly sustained and brought additional honor to the name of Iowa in the war of the rebellion; and,

WHEREAS, The completion of the monument along the lines of the present plans will result in dissatisfaction, complaint and constant mortification to the old soldiers, their friends and to the state generally for all time, concluding in the probable removal of the monument at no distant date; and,

WHEREAS, The present general assembly is without plans for a change that will be likely to remove existing difficulties and settle a controversy, the cause for which all citizens of our state most deeply deplore;

WHEREAS, It is believed that such a change in the plan of the monument may be devised that the same may be completed in a way that it shall be at once a credit to the state, give satisfaction to all interested therein, and efficiently carry out the purpose of the state to suitably honor its brave and patriotic citizens, without wrong to or reflection upon any, and in making such change cause no heartburning or grief to any whom the state delights to honor; therefore, be it

Resolved, by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring herein, That there be appointed a joint committee of five from the Senate and ten from the House, to which the matters of the monument, and the changes necessary to be made in the completion thereof, or in connection therewith, shall be referred and the said committee be instructed to report by bill or otherwise.

Resolved, That said committee be instructed to consider and report as to the removal of the figure, designated as "victory," from the top of the monument, and its replacement by some other design; also, that it consider the feasibility of placing the equestrian figures designed for places on the monument, upon pedestals in conspicuous places on the capitol grounds, as individual monuments to the great names of the respective persons represented by such figures; also, to consider and report as to enlargement and improvement of the grounds upon which the monument stands, and all other matters essential to remove objections to the monument and to secure or it the approval of the state when completed.

Absent or not voting:

Senators Bell, Eaton, Ellis, Ellison, Healy, Henderson, Junkin, Kilburn, Lothrop, Mitchell, Phelps, Rigger—12.

So the substitute was lost.

Senator Carpenter offered the following amendment:

Amend section 1 by adding thereto the following: "The consent to manufacture herein provided for shall be deemed annulled and withdrawn whenever one-half of the qualified electors of such city shall sign and file with the recorder of such city a written withdrawal of such consent, and thereupon the right to manufacture intoxicating liquor shall cease and all penalties thereto shall again be in force."

On the question, "Shall the amendment be adopted?" the yeas were:

Senators Carney, Carpenter, Palmer, Upton—4.

The nays were.

Senators Alexander, Bell, Berry, Blanchard, Byers, Carroll, Cheshire, Craig, Downey, Druet, Ellis, Everall, Funk, Garst, Gorrell, Harper, Hipwell, Hospers, Hotchkiss, Hurst, Lehfeldt, Lothrop, Penrose, Perrin, Pusey, Rigger, Sargent, Trewin, Waterman, Young—30.

So the amendment was lost.

Senator Carpenter offered the following amendment to section 2 by adding the following:

The consent to manufacture, herein provided for, shall be deemed annulled and withdrawn whenever one-half of the qualified electors of such county, township, town or city, wherein or for which the consent to manufacture intoxicating liquors has been given shall sign and file with the county auditor a written withdrawal of such consent, and thereupon the right to manufacture intoxicating liquor shall cease and all penalties therefor shall again be in force.

Senator Ellis moved that the rule be suspended, and that the bill be considered engrossed and read a third time now, which motion prevailed and the bill was read a third time.

Senators Blanchard, Bonson, Carpenter, Cheshire, Craig, Downey, Ellis, Everall, Funk, Garst, Harper, Hipwell, Hobart, Hospers, Hurst, Lehfeldt, Lothrop, Pusey, Ranck, Trewin, Upton, Waterman—22.

The nays were:

So the bill failing to receive a constitutional majority was declared to be lost.

Senator Garst, on behalf of Senator Healy, presented the following and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

If present I would vote against substitute for Senate file No. 8, 203 and 324, known as manufacturing bill.

THOS. D. HEALY.

Senator Harper offered the following and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

While I do not believe there is an honest and sincere desire on the part of our friends, the Republicans, to give the people a fair manufacturing bill; while I believe they are wholly satisfied with having slaughtered resubmission and hope for and intend to do no more; and while I believe they are as securely as ever in the voluntary thralldom of the brewers and distillers of other states, yet, because of section 8 of this bill, and what other good features it may possess, I vote "aye," protesting, as I think any true American should, against all of its unholy and mulet features.

T. G. HARPER.

Senator Bonson offered the following and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

I vote "aye" on the ground that the bill is a step towards manufacture and would be a modification of the present law.

ROBT. BONSON.

Senator Downey offered the following and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

I vote "aye" upon this measure for the reason that it is a short step in the right direction, namely, giving our people a chance with the outside world in producing that which the laws permit the citizens to use.

JOHN DOWNEY.

Senator Ranck offered the following and asked that it be printed in the Journal.

In voting "aye" for substitute for Senate files Nos. 8, 203 and 324. I do so with great reluctance, not being in favor of the provisions of the bill requiring "the written statement of consent" to be signed by sixty-five per cent. of the electors of municipalities, when the right to act under its provision is desired. Other parts of the bill are cumbersome and unreasonable. The main reason for voting for the bill is that it will afford some relief, and to a limited extent authorize the right to manufacture spirituous, malt and vinous liquors in parts of the state where its provisions can be complied with.

C. S. RANCK.

Senator Hurst offered the following and asked that it be printed in the Journal:

Because of the good and wholesome features of this bill I vote "aye," but do so with an earnest protest against its cumbersome and unfair features.

A. HURST.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION.

WHEREAS, The people of the state of Iowa have deemed it advisable to codify and revise the statutes of the state and the Twenty-fifth General Assembly in obedience to the will of the people as interpreted by them, appointed a commission to do said work and make report thereof to the Twenty-sixth General Assembly for their action; and,

WHEREAS, Said commission after two years' labor reported to the Twenty-sixth General Assembly a proposed code of over one thousand pages, containing a revision and codification of the statutes of the state, and this assembly has entered into an examination and discussion thereof, and has now been in session the customary period and has not been able to pass upon more than one-half of said report up to the present time, for the reasons:

First.—That the assembly has been compelled to consider matters of original legislation presented in 950 bills in addition to the aforesaid code work.

Second.—For the reason that the revision requires an examination of the Code of 1873 and the acts of eleven general assemblies, the Fifteenth to Twenty-fifth inclusive, and the work of examining and comparing the proposed Code with existing statutes is slow and laborious.

Third.—For the reason that the commission embodied in the reported Code numerous changes from existing law, which changes have compelled the assembly to consume time in thier examination and discussion; and

WHEREAS, Doubts have arisen as to the accuracy of the revision of certain chapters and titles, and it is deemed unwise to pass the same until ample time can be given the people of the state to examine and compare the proposed Code with existing law; and

WHEREAS, The proposed Code was not published until December, 1895, and little opportunity was given for such examination and comparison by any one prior to the convening of this General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, The future value of the revision depends upon the care exercised in the work, and its importance demands ample time for thorough consideration, and the exclusion of original legislation is necessary while the proposed revision is under discussion, therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate, the House Concurring, That we deem it impossible, under existing circumstances, to complete the work of the Code revision at this or any other regular session, or any reasonable extension of the present session, in a manner that would be satisfactory and acceptable and just to the people of the State;

That the propriety and expediency of Code revision can not now be questioned, and the work, if thoroughly done, will be of lasting value to the State;

That we deem it advisable to secure the benefit of the knowledge and experience acquired by this Assembly in the work of Code revision, and the benefit of the work done by them, and believe it to be for the welfare of the State and in the interest of economy that the work be completed at as early a date as practicable, and not later than January, 1897.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE.

The following message was received from the House:

MR. PRESIDENT—I am directed to inform your honorable body that the House has refused to adopt its report of Conference Committee on Committee on Inquiry for Senate file No. 423.

JAMES D. ROWEN,
Chief Clerk.

Senator Funk moved that a committee be appointed to notify the House that the Senate is ready to adjourn.

Carried.

The committee retired.

The committee reported duty performed.

Lieutenant-Governor Parrott made the following closing remarks, which on motion of Senator Penrose, were ordered printed in the Journal.

The time has arrived when it becomes my duty to make the formal announcement of the adjournment as provided in your resolution. Before doing so, I wish briefly to express a commendation of the excellent work performed during the session. There may be a feeling of disappointment that all hoped for at the commencement of the session has not been accomplished, but this is inevitable. The value of your work cannot be measured by the number of bills passed. It is in the committee room where the best work is done, and this does not appear on the surface, nor do the public in general realize this. It is my judgment, after a somewhat extended experience, that never has there been more faithful and earnest work performed by the committees. Your labors have been incessant, and I believe in time that the people will endorse with the seal of approval the meritorious work you have performed.

I wish, also, to return my earnest and sincere thanks to each and every Senator for the co-operation extended to me during the session, as your presiding officer. I assure you I appreciate the kindly feelings expressed in your resolution of last Thursday, and your generous expression will be one of the pleasant recollections of my life. I thank you one and all.

The hour of 12 o'clock M. having arrived, the President declared the Senate adjourned sine die.
