

510.22 Waiving of requirements.

The commissioner may waive the requirements of section 510.21 for any person or class of persons. The factors taken into account in granting a waiver shall include, but are not limited to whether:

1. The person acting as an administrator is primarily in a business other than that of administrator.
2. The financial strength and history of the organization indicates stability in its continuity of doing business.
3. The regular duties being performed as an administrator are such that the covered persons are not likely to be injured by a waiver of such requirements.
