

327B.7 Reciprocity for exempt commodity base state registration system.

The department may enter into a reciprocity agreement on behalf of this state with authorized representatives of other states to become a member of an exempt commodity base state registration system for the registration, insurance verification, and fee collection for carriers hauling commodities exempt from United States department of transportation authority.

95 Acts, ch 118, §33; 2003 Acts, ch 108, §58