204.11 Disciplinary action.

1. The department may suspend or revoke a hemp license obtained under section 204.4 by a person who does any of the following:

a. Provides false or misleading information to the department under this chapter, including by submitting a false application.

b. Fails to comply with or violates any provision of this chapter, including a rule adopted by the department, the department of public safety, or a condition of an application for the issuance of a hemp license under section 204.4.

c. Fails to comply with an order issued by the department under this chapter.

2. The department shall revoke a license issued pursuant to section 204.4, if any of the following apply:

a. The department would disapprove a new application to that person for good cause as provided in section 204.4, subsection 10.

b. The person submits a materially false application to participate in the negligent violation program.

3. The suspension or revocation of a hemp license is in addition to an order of disposal under section 204.10; the imposition of a civil penalty under section 204.12, subject to the provisions of section 204.15; or the imposition of any other civil or criminal penalty authorized under state law.
