

193A—4.16(542) Use of title. Only a person holding a license as a licensed public accountant may use or assume the title “licensed public accountant” or the abbreviation “LPA” or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that such person is a licensed public accountant.

[ARC 7680C, IAB 3/6/24, effective 4/10/24]