

191—4.17(17A) Contents of declaratory order—effective date.

4.17(1) In addition to the order itself, a declaratory order must contain the date of its issuance; the name of the petitioner and all intervenors; the specific statutes, rules, policies, decisions, or orders involved; the particular facts upon which it is based; and the reasons for its conclusion.

4.17(2) A declaratory order is effective on the date of issuance.
[ARC 7732C, IAB 3/20/24, effective 4/24/24]