

223—49.4(303) Record keeping and retention. Grantees shall keep adequate records relating to the administration of a project, and particularly relating to all expenses incurred. These records shall be available for audit by representatives of the department and the state auditor's office. All records shall be retained in accordance with state laws.