

191—38.15(509,514) Rules for coordination of benefits. When a person is covered by two or more plans, the order of benefit payments shall be determined as follows:

38.15(1) Primary plans. The primary plan shall pay or provide its benefits as if the secondary plan or plans do not exist.

a. If the primary plan is a closed panel plan and the secondary plan is not a closed panel plan, the secondary plan shall pay or provide benefits as if it were the primary plan when a covered person uses a non-panel provider, except for emergency services or authorized referrals that are paid or provided by the primary plan.

b. When multiple contracts providing coordinated coverage are treated as a single plan under this division, this subrule applies only to the plan as a whole, and coordination among the component contracts is governed by the terms of the contracts. If more than one carrier pays or provides benefits under the plan, the carrier designated as primary within the plan shall be responsible for the plan's compliance with this division.

c. If a person is covered by more than one secondary plan, the order of benefit determination rules of this division decide the order in which secondary plans benefits are determined in relation to each other. Each secondary plan shall take into consideration the benefits of the primary plan or plans and the benefits of any other plan, which, under the rules of this division, has its benefits determined before those of that secondary plan.

38.15(2) Inconsistent plans.

a. Except as provided in paragraph “b,” a plan that does not contain order of benefit determination provisions that are consistent with this division is always the primary plan unless the provisions of both plans, regardless of the provisions of this paragraph, state that the complying plan is primary.

b. Coverage that is obtained by virtue of membership in a group and is designed to supplement a part of a basic package of benefits may provide that the supplementary coverage shall be excess to any other parts of the plan provided by the contract holder. Examples of these types of situations are major medical coverages that are superimposed over base plan hospital and surgical benefits, and insurance-type coverages that are written in connection with a closed panel plan to provide out-of-network benefits.

38.15(3) Consideration of other plans. A plan may take into consideration the benefits paid or provided by another plan only when, under the provisions of this division, it is secondary to the other plan.

38.15(4) Order of benefit determination. Each plan determines its order of benefits using the first of the following rules that applies:

a. Nondependent or dependent.

(1) Subject to subparagraph 38.15(4)“a”(2), the plan that covers the person other than as a dependent, for example, as an employee, member, subscriber, policyholder or retiree, is the primary plan and the plan that covers the person as a dependent is the secondary plan.

(2) If the person is a Medicare beneficiary and, as a result of the provisions of Title XVIII of the Social Security Act and implementing regulations, Medicare is secondary to the plan covering the person as a dependent and primary to the plan covering the person as other than a dependent (e.g., a retired employee), then the order of benefits is reversed so that the plan covering the person as an employee, member, subscriber, policyholder or retiree is the secondary plan and the other plan covering the person as a dependent is the primary plan.

b. Dependent child covered under more than one plan. Unless there is a court decree stating otherwise, plans covering a dependent child shall determine the order of benefits as follows:

(1) For a dependent child whose parents are married or are living together, whether or not they have ever been married, the plan of the parent whose birthday falls earlier in the calendar year is the primary plan; or if both parents have the same birthday, the plan that has covered one of the parents the longest is the primary plan.

(2) For a dependent child whose parents are divorced or separated or are not living together, whether or not they have ever been married:

1. If a court decree states that one of the parents is responsible for the dependent child's health care expenses or health care coverage and the plan of that parent has actual knowledge of those terms, that plan is primary. If the parent with responsibility has no health care coverage for the dependent child's health care expenses, but that parent's spouse does have health care coverage, that parent's spouse's plan is the primary plan. This item shall not apply with respect to any plan year during which benefits are paid or provided before the entity has actual knowledge of the court decree provision;

2. If a court decree states that both parents are responsible for the dependent child's health care expenses or health care coverage, the provisions of subparagraph 38.15(4) "b"(1) shall determine the order of benefits;

3. If a court decree states that the parents have joint custody without specifying that one parent has responsibility for the health care expenses or health care coverage of the dependent child, the provisions of subparagraph 38.15(4) "b"(1) of this paragraph shall determine the order of benefits; or

4. If there is no court decree allocating responsibility for the child's health care expenses or health care coverage, the order of benefits for the child is as follows:

- (I) The plan covering the custodial parent;
- (II) The plan covering the custodial parent's spouse;
- (III) The plan covering the noncustodial parent; and then
- (IV) The plan covering the noncustodial parent's spouse.

(3) For a dependent child covered under more than one plan of individuals who are not the parents of the child, the order of benefits shall be determined, as applicable, under subparagraph 38.15(4) "b"(1) or (2) as if those individuals were parents of the child.

c. Active employee or retired or laid-off employee.

(1) The plan that covers a person as an active employee, that is, an employee who is neither laid off nor retired or as a dependent of an active employee, is the primary plan. The plan covering that same person as a retired or laid-off employee or as a dependent of a retired or laid-off employee is the secondary plan.

(2) If the other plan does not have the provision stated in subparagraph 38.15(4) "c"(1), and, as a result, the plans do not agree on the order of benefits, subparagraph 38.15(4) "c"(1) is ignored.

(3) Paragraph 38.15(4) "c" does not apply if the provisions of paragraph 38.15(4) "a" can determine the order of benefits.

d. COBRA or state continuation coverage.

(1) If a person whose coverage is provided pursuant to COBRA or under a right of continuation pursuant to state law or other federal law is covered under another plan, the plan covering the person as an employee, member, subscriber or retiree or covering the person as a dependent of an employee, member, subscriber or retiree is the primary plan, and the plan covering that same person pursuant to COBRA or under a right of continuation pursuant to state law or other federal law is the secondary plan.

(2) If the other plan does not have the provision stated in subparagraph 38.15(4) "d"(1), and if, as a result, the plans do not agree on the order of benefits, subparagraph 38.15(4) "d"(1) is ignored.

(3) Paragraph 38.15(4) "d" does not apply if the provisions of paragraph 38.15(4) "a" can determine the order of benefits.

e. Longer or shorter length of coverage.

(1) If the preceding provisions stated in paragraphs 38.15(4) "a" through "d" do not determine the order of benefits, the plan that covered the person for the longer period of time is the primary plan and the plan that covered the person for the shorter period of time is the secondary plan.

(2) To determine the length of time during which a person has been covered under a plan, two successive plans shall be treated as one if the covered person was eligible under the second plan within 24 hours after coverage under the first plan ended.

(3) The start of a new plan does not include:

- 1. A change in the amount or scope of a plan's benefits;
- 2. A change in the entity that pays, provides or administers the plan's benefits; or
- 3. A change from one type of plan to another, such as from a single employer plan to a multiple employer plan.

(4) The length of time during which a person is covered under a plan is measured from the person's first date of coverage under that plan. If that date is not readily available for a group plan, the date on which the person first became a member of the group shall be used as the date from which to determine the length of time the person's coverage under the present plan has been in force.

f. If none of the preceding provisions stated in paragraphs 38.15(4) "a" through "e" determine the order of benefits, the allowable expenses shall be shared equally between the plans.
