Freudenberg explained the department's RFP to contract for guaranteed and nonguaranteed shelter care beds across the state with the intent of balancing provider needs for predictability of income with the state's need to provide shelter for children as close as possible to the children's homes. Schmett expressed the belief that the shelter care provisions are contrary to the intent of HF 825, which requires contracting for 288 beds, including 15 unallocated beds. Nelson stated that the department has contracts to guarantee 246 beds with the ability to contract at any time for an additional 91 nonguaranteed beds; Schmett maintained that payment for 273 beds should be guaranteed. - ARC 4342B Lynch reported that there has been much interest in the wind energy and renewable energy tax credits; rule 15.18 sets out procedures for certification of eligibility for these tax credits. Boyd voiced concern that the rules setting out the procedures became effective prior to the effective date of HF 882 and distributed written materials summarizing concerns that five of the seven projects awarded under Iowa Code chapter 476B did not have a PPA and were indirectly owned by the same persons. Lynch responded that the statute allows for agreements other than PPAs; clarified that the rules are merely procedural and were adopted under existing authority; and stated that the rules were not implemented before the statute became effective on July 1, 2005. There was discussion about why the PPA requirement was included in the statute. Harmon clarified that the PPA gives lenders assurance that the energy will be purchased. Lynch added that the standard offer for qualifying facilities serves the same purpose. Lynch maintained that the statute did not direct the board to consider indirect ownership; but, based on public comments, the board could address the ownership issue. Lynch indicated that since the tax credits are available for ten years, hundreds of millions of dollars are at stake.

- Request for Opinion Eichhorn suggested that the committee seek an opinion from the attorney general regarding the authority for the emergency rule. The committee may then consider whether to object to the emergency rule.

CORRECTIONS DEPARTMENT Michael Savala and Ann Brown represented the department. Other interested parties included David Spencer.

ARC 4403B Amendments to ch 38 pertain to the risk assessment for sex offenders who have committed a criminal offense against a minor. Spencer expressed concern about the risk assessment and the qualifications of the treatment staff at Mt. Pleasant. Brown commented that the curriculum used at Mt. Pleasant is being revised and that the clinical director of the program will be a psychologist.

PUBLIC SAFETY DEPARTMENT Mike Coveyou, Steven Conlon, Jerry Brown, and Maria Sides represented the department. David Spencer was also present.

ARC 4358B No action on amendments to ch 83 concerning the Iowa sex offender registry. Angelo commented that in Florida sex offenders must reapply for a driver's license every year, with the result that the state gets a current photograph and address every year. ARC 4339B Amendments to ch 106 pertain to deer hunting by residents. Little distributed a summary of the amendments, the comments received and commission responses and reviewed steps that have been taken to reduce the deer herd. Department surveys have shown a need for additional efforts in southern Iowa; therefore, the department has added an additional antlerless only season in November and a special rifle season in the southern two tiers of the state in January. Royce noted receipt of four calls expressing concern about the rifle season; Little reported that the commission received a letter of support from Iowa Farm Bureau. On behalf of Iowa Sportsmen's Association, Schroeder expressed support for the rifle season. Kibbie asked that the department follow up with a report to the committee after this season. Vonk indicated that there is a need to double the number of nonresident deer licenses.

PHARMACY EXAMINERS BOARD Lloyd Jessen, Terri Witkowski, and Mike Seifert represented the board. Other interested parties included Senator Jack Hatch, Marty Ryan of the Iowa Civil Liberties Union, Frank Severino on behalf of the Polk County Medical Society and the Iowa Osteopathic Medical Association, and Karla Fultz McHenry on behalf of the Iowa Medical Society.

ARC 4365B No action on amendments related to fees.

ARC 4307B Proposed ch 13 provides for an electronic drug database program. Jessen reported that the board received a federal grant and a supplemental grant from the U.S. Department of Justice to establish a prescription monitoring program. Jessen distributed copies of the National All Schedules Prescription Electronic Reporting Act of 2005 (NASPER) and indicated that about 20 states have established this type of program. Jessen noted that the board is interested in continuing to meet with concerned parties and advised the committee that Iowa's program would differ from NASPER by including medications which contain pseudoephedrine. While members recognized a potential benefit to having electronic access to medical information in life-threatening situations, they also expressed concern about the security of data, confidentiality of a person's medical records, the board's implementation by rule of a program that failed to receive the support of the legislature, and costs of implementation. Senator Hatch distributed and read written comments in opposition to the rules proposed by the board. McHenry reported that the Iowa Medical Society has submitted written comments expressing strong concerns. In expressing concern about privacy issues, Ryan cited examples of breaches of security of government databases. Severino stated that the Polk County Medical Society and the Iowa Osteopathic Medical Association have submitted written comments in opposition to the rules. Jessen clarified that the database is intended to collect data about Schedules 2 through 5 controlled substances only.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 10, 2005

EMPOWERMENT BOARD, IOWA Shanell Wagler represented the board. Other interested parties included Palo Alto-Kossuth Empowerment Board members Ellen Picray and Erv Rowlands. Sheila Hansen of Every Child Counts was also present.

Special review Frevert requested a special review of an empowerment board program. Picray and Rowlands related difficulties encountered this year in their attempts to secure scholarships for at-risk children and indicated that the number of children served this year will drop from 67 to 7. Wagler responded that, in an attempt to improve quality, this year the empowerment board requires that preschools take steps to become nationally certified in order to receive scholarship funds. Heaton reminded Wagler that the intent of the legislature was to assist low-income parents with preschool tuition. In response to Kibbie's inquiry about when the committee will see the rules for this program, Wagler indicated that the board has not adopted rules. Discussion related to the need for rules and implementation of a policy change which had the support of the governor, but not the legislature. Royce advised the board to adopt rules as soon as possible. Hansen commented that high-risk children might need more intense programs and longer care.

- ARC 4418B No action on proposed amendments to the enterprise zone rules, ch 59.
- ARC 4373B No action on ch 69, loan and credit guarantee program. McKinley expressed the view that the fee of 2.5 percent of the guaranteed amount is too high and will inhibit participation of small business.
- ARC 4412B No questions on 168.201 to 168.203 concerning wage thresholds calculation. McKinley posed several questions about the programs as a whole and requested additional information about targeted areas for growth, about instances in which wage requirements have been waived and about the number of new jobs that have actually been created, as opposed to the number pledged.

INSPECTIONS AND APPEALS DEPARTMENT David Werning and Jean Davis represented the department. Other interested parties included Bill Wohlers, Jack Woods, and Larry Elbert of IOMA.

- ARC 4385B No questions on amendments to ch 51, hospitals.
- ARC 4384B No questions on amendments to ch 57, residential care facilities.
- ARC 4386B No action on amendments to ch 58, nursing facilities.
- ARC 4377B Werning outlined changes made in response to comments received on amendments affecting electrical and mechanical amusement devices, including provisions relating to reporting, confidentiality, and counting mechanisms. Davis reviewed fees paid by owners, distributors, and manufacturers, as well as the fees assessed each machine. Wohlers expressed appreciation to the department for responding to industry concerns, but objected to rule 105.10, reporting requirements. Wohlers contended that data is already being provided to the department of revenue for each location, and it would be too burdensome for the industry to have to also report to the department of inspections and appeals regarding each machine. Davis responded that the statute requires a counting device on each machine and the report to the department twice a year is intended to ensure that the counting device is in working order. There was discussion about whether the legislature intended the information to be provided by means of regular reporting to the department or through audit by the department.

Woods indicated that the association requested a regulatory analysis which the department has not provided. Elbert stated that reporting by location is problematic because machines get moved among locations.

Motion to delay Kibbie moved a 70-day delay on rule 105.10.

Motion failed The motion to delay did not pass.

NURSING BOARD Lorinda Inman represented the board. Other interested parties included Linda Goeldner of the Iowa Nurses Association.

ARC 4305B No questions on amendments providing for criminal history background checks for RNs and LPNs.

ARC 4304B The amendment to 3.1 increases the licensure fee for RNs and LPNs. Goeldner commented on the inequity of this board's funding. In light of the fact that the board intends to implement the new fees in September, Eichhorn asked the board to review what will happen in terms of refunds if the legislature increases funding to 90 percent rather than 75 percent of the revenue generated by fees.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT Dick Stradley and Jim McNulty represented the department.

ARC 4306B No questions on amendments to ch 76 regarding assessment of railroad property.

Shelness expressed criticism of ISU's handling of student behavior and challenged the university to institute management practices to identify leaders. Tanaka noted the difficulty of determining leadership in a crowd that may include 26,000 students and thousands of visitors. Anderson summarized public comments received by the board, and Tanaka reported that ISU is hosting a national forum that will involve community leaders, law enforcement and students.

AGRICULTURE AND LAND STEWARDSHIP DEPARTMENT Ron Rowland, Mike Bevins and Mary Jane Olney represented the department. Other interested parties included Lori Sokolowski of the Iowa Farmers Union, Susan Roberts of the Drake Agriculture Law Center, Carlene Russell of the department of elder affairs, and Kari Carney of Iowa Citizens for Community Improvement(CCI).

ARC 4285B Bevins identified changes made in response to comments received on the WIC and senior farmers market nutrition rules. The department has since been notified that USDA did not approve any of the changes, and the department must resubmit a plan by November 15, 2005. Carney expressed appreciation for the department's efforts to increase access, but indicated that farmers markets are better venues than moveable farmstands and CCI wants to work with the department on revising the rules. Russell expressed concern that the federal rules may require verification of income instead of self-declaration. Sokolowski supports certified farmers markets and expressed concerns about farmstands. Roberts commended IDALS and, expressing concern about possible income verification requirements for seniors, offered to work with the department on revisions for the USDA.

Committee business The minutes of the July 2005 meeting were approved.
