Senate Joint Resolution 2004, a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Iowa by requiring a single rate for individual income taxes.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Iowa is proposed:

The Constitution of the State of Iowa is amended by adding the following new section to new Article XIII:

ARTICLE XIII.
TAXATION LIMITATIONS.

Section 1. Single individual income tax rate. A tax on income or based upon income for individuals shall be imposed at a single rate if imposed, and shall not be imposed at a graduated rate for individuals. There shall not be more than one income tax rate above zero imposed by the state for state purposes on an individual at any one time.

Sec. 2. REFERRAL AND PUBLICATION. The foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Iowa is referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election for members of the general assembly, and shall be published as provided by law for three months previous to the date of that election.

EXPLANATION

The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

This joint resolution proposes an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Iowa by requiring a single rate for individual income taxes.

Under the amendment, a tax on income or based upon income for individuals shall be imposed at a single rate if imposed, and a graduated rate of taxation on such income is prohibited. The amendment prohibits more than one income tax rate above zero imposed by the state for state purposes on an individual at any one time.

The resolution, if adopted, would be published and then referred to the next general assembly (91st) for adoption, before being submitted to the electorate for ratification, with report of committee recommending passage, was taken up for consideration.
