Division II. Commissions from Sales of Goods or Services to Political Subdivisions.

This part is to be completed only by Legislators. If you received income in the form of a commission from the sale of goods or services to a political subdivision, state the name of the purchasing political subdivision. The amount of commission earned is not required to be listed.

Division III. Sources of Gross Income.

In each one of the following categories list each source which produces more than $1,000 in annual gross income, if the revenue produced by the source was subject to federal or state income taxes last year. List the nature or type of each company, business, financial institution, corporation, partnership, or other entity which produces more than $1,000 of annual gross income. Neither the amount of income produced nor value of the holding is required to be listed in any of the items. Do not report income received by your spouse or other family members.

In completing Division III of this form, if your percentage of ownership of an asset is less than 100 percent, multiply your percentage of ownership by the total revenue produced to determine if you have reached the $1,000 threshold.

A. Securities: State the nature of the business of any company in which you hold stock, bonds, or other pecuniary interests that generate more than $1,000 in annual gross income. Income generated by multiple holdings in a single company are deemed received from a single source.

Whole market index funds (Vanguard, Fidelity/Schwab); mostly ROTH IRA.

B. Instruments of Financial Institutions: State the types of institutions in which you hold financial instruments, such as certificates of deposit, savings accounts, etc., that produce annual gross income in excess of $1,000, e.g., banks, savings and loans, or credit unions.

BMO bank and Green State Credit Union accounts.

C. Trusts: State the nature or type of any trust from which you receive more than $1,000 of gross income annually.

D. Real Estate: State the general nature of real estate interests that generate more than $1,000 of gross income annually, e.g., residential leasehold interest or farm leasehold interest. The size or location of the property interest is not required to be listed.
