

RULES OF THE 1969-1971 LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

1. Nine members shall constitute a quorum.
2. Majority vote of those present is necessary to carry any action, but not less than nine votes in any instance shall be considered a majority except on adjournment or recess.
3. Whenever Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure does not conflict with the rules specifically adopted by the Council, Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure shall govern the deliberations of the Council.
4. Whenever a member is obliged to leave a meeting and desires to register his vote on any question presented at that meeting, he may do so in writing, recording the same with the secretary.
5. Meetings shall be set by motion before adjournment, or by call of the Chairman of the Council with the approval of the Vice Chairman if meetings are necessary before the date set in the motion.
6. Rules may be changed by a majority vote of the Council as provided in Rule 2.
7. The Council upon its motion may create a subcommittee to suggest the membership and chairmen of some or all study committees. The Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Council shall be members of such subcommittee. The subcommittee shall include members of both political parties.

In any situation where the preceding sentence does not apply, the Chairman and Vice Chairman shall suggest to the Council the membership and chairman of each study committee authorized.

All appointments suggested to the Council under this Rule shall be approved as provided in Rule 2.

8. The Council may create subcommittees for the purpose of carrying out the duties of the Council and may delegate such authority as the Council may desire to the subcommittees. The actions of the subcommittees shall be reported to the Council at each meeting.
