15.23.020 General Provisions

1. All of the applicable provisions combined within this chapter regarding number of spaces, area or usability of existing parking, loading, and unloading spaces or other areas requiring a paved surface shall be completed with when any of the following actions occur:
 - a. Construction of any new residential and/or non-residential development;
 - b. Building additions, excavations, and/or remodels for existing development;
 - c. Residential uses: Any building addition, excavation, and/or remodel(s) that results in an increase in the total number of required off-street parking spaces for a premises by 50% or more;
 - d. Residential uses: Any addition or remodel that increases the total number of dwelling units on a premises, or any conversion of an existing dwelling into a group care home, boarding, lodging, or rooming house and/or bed and breakfast use;
 - e. Building additions and/or detached access-ory structures that are designed in a manner where they are capable of being used for parking motorized vehicles, recreational vehicles, and/or boats, or which are intended to be used for loading/unloading, warehousing and/or storing items, materials, and/or products shall be accessed by a hard-surfaced paved driveway in accordance with the standards stated in this chapter;
 - f. All off-street parking requirements associated with any special zoning overlay, development plan, or master planned area in the City shall be met; and
 - g. The requirements stated in this chapter.
2. Conceptual agreements may be made between users which generate parking and off-street uses which generate parking and off-street uses in such a manner that the requirements of more than one use may be met for the same space, provided the parking demand for each use involved is met. All other required parking spaces shall be located a distance not to exceed four hundred (400) feet from the building or use which they are required to serve, measured in a straight line from the building.
3. In the event several uses occupy a structure or parcel of land, the total requirements for off-street parking or loading and unloading spaces shall be the sum of the requirements of the several uses computed separately.
4. Parking and loading or unloading spaces shall not be located in a required front yard.
