97C.3 Federal-state agreement. The state agency, with the approval of the governor and the attorney general, is hereby authorized to enter on behalf of the state into an agreement with the federal security administrator, consistent with the terms and provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of extending the benefits of the federal old age and survivors' insurance system to employees of the state or any political subdivision thereof with respect to services specified in such agreement which constitute "employment" as defined in section 97C.2 of this chapter. Such agreement may contain such provisions relating to coverage, benefits, contributions, effective date, modification and termination of the agreement, administration, and other appropriate provisions as the state agency and federal security administrator shall agree upon, but, except as may be otherwise required by or under the Social Security Act, Title II, as to the services to be covered, such agreement shall provide in effect that:

1. Benefits will be provided for employees whose services are covered by the agreement (and their dependents and survivors) on the same basis as though such services constituted employment within the meaning of Title II of said Social Security Act.

2. The state will pay to the secretary of the treasury, at such time or times as may be prescribed under the Social Security Act, Title II, contributions with respect to wages (as defined in section 97C.2 of this chapter), equal to the sum of taxes which would be imposed by sections 1400 and 1410 of the federal Insurance Contributions Act, if the services covered by the agreement constituted employment within the meaning of that Act.

3. Such agreement shall be effective with respect to services in employment covered by the agreement performed after a date specified therein, but in no event may it be effective with respect to any such services performed prior to the first day of the calendar year in which such agreement is entered into or in which the modification of the agreement making it applicable to such services is entered into, provided that in the case of an agreement or modification made after the effective date of this chapter [May 3, 1953] and prior to January 1, 1954, such agreement or modification of the agreement shall be made effective with respect to any such services performed on or after January 1, 1951.

4. All services which constitute employment as defined in section 97C.2, and are performed in the employ of the state, or any political subdivision, by employees of the state, or of any political subdivision, shall be covered by the agreement. [C46, 50,§97.45; 54GA, ch 63,§1; 55GA, ch 73,§3]

97C.4 Other states—joint agreements.

Any instrumentality jointly created by this state and any other state or states is hereby authorized, upon the granting of like authority by such other state or states, (1) to enter into an agreement with the federal security administrator whereby the benefits of the federal old age and survivors' insurance system shall be extended to employees of such instrumentality, (2) to require its employees to pay (and for that purpose to deduct from their wages) contributions equal to the amounts which they would be required to pay under section 97C.5 if they were covered by an agreement made pursuant to section 97C.3, and (3) to make payments to the secretary of the treasury in accordance with such agreement, including payments from its own funds, and otherwise to comply with such agreements. Such agreement shall, to the extent practicable, be consistent with the terms and provisions of section 97C.3 and other provisions of this chapter. [55GA, ch 73,§4]

97C.5 Tax on employees. Every employee whose services are covered by an agreement entered into under section 97C.3 shall be required to pay for the period of such coverage into the contribution fund established by section 97C.12, a tax which is hereby imposed with respect to wages received during the calendar year of 1953, equal to one and one-half per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1954 to 1959, both inclusive, not to exceed two per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1960 to 1964, both inclusive, not to exceed two and one-half per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1965 to 1969, both inclusive, not to exceed three per centum of such wages; and with respect to wages after December 31, 1969, not to exceed three and one-fourth per centum of such wages. Such payment shall be considered a condition of employment as a public employee. Taxes deducted from the wages of the employee by the employer and taxes imposed upon the employer shall be forwarded to the state agency for recording and shall be deposited with the treasurer of state to the credit of the contribution fund established by section 97C.12 of this chapter. [C46, 50,§97.9; 55GA, ch 73,§5]

Referred to in §§97C.4, 97C.6, 97C.9, 97C.12

97C.6 Collection of tax. The tax imposed by sections 97C.5 and 97C.14 shall be collected by each employer from the employee by deducting the amount of the tax from wages as and when paid, but failure to make such deduction shall not relieve the employee from liability for such taxes. [C46, 50,§§97.7, 97.9, 97.45; 54GA, ch 63,§1; 55GA, ch 73,§6]

97C.7 Income tax deduction. For the purpose of the state income tax, the tax imposed by this chapter shall be allowed as a deduction to the taxpayer in computing his net income for the year in which such tax is deducted from his wages. [55GA, ch 73,§7]

Federal tax deduction, §422.9

97C.8 Statement to employees. The employer shall furnish to all employees a written statement in a form prescribed by the state agency suitable for retention by the employees, showing the wages paid to the employee after January 1, 1953. Each statement shall cover a calendar year, or one, two or three quarters, whether or not within the same calendar year, and shall show the name of the employee, the period covered by the statement, the total amount of wages paid within such period, and the amount of tax imposed by this chapter with respect to such wages. Each statement shall be furnished to the employee not later than thirty days following the period covered by the statement, except that, if the employee leaves the employ of the employer, this final statement shall be furnished within thirty days after the last payment of wages is made to the employee. The employer may, at its option, furnish such a statement to any employee at the time of each payment of wages to the employee during any calendar quarter, in lieu of a statement covering such quarter, and, in such case, the statement may show the date of payment of wages in lieu of the period covered by the statement. [C46, 50, §97.11; 55GA, ch 73,§8]

97C.9 Adjustments or refund. If more or less than the correct amount of the tax imposed by section 97C.5 is paid or deducted with respect to any remuneration, proper adjustments, or refund if adjustment is impracticable, shall be made in such manner and at such times as the state agency shall prescribe. [55GA, ch 73,§9]

97C.10 Tax on employer. In addition to all other taxes there is hereby imposed upon each employer as defined in section 97C.2 subsection 4 of this chapter, a tax equal to the following per centum of the wages paid by the employer to each employee: with respect to wages received during the calendar year 1953, equal to one and one-half per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1954 to 1959, both inclusive, not to exceed two per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1960 to 1964, both inclusive, not to exceed two and one-half per centum of such wages; with respect to wages received during the calendar years 1965 to 1969, both inclusive, not to exceed three per centum of such wages; and with respect to wages received after December 31, 1969, not to exceed three and one-fourth per centum of such wages. The employer shall pay its tax or contribution from funds available and is directed to pay same from tax money or from any other income available. The political subdivision is hereby authorized and directed to levy in addition to all other taxes a property tax sufficient to meet its obligations under the provisions of this chapter, if such tax levy is necessary because other funds are not available. [C46, 50,§97.12; 55GA, ch 73,§10]

Referred to in §97C.12

97C.11 Payment—adjustment or refund. Such taxes as deducted by the employer from the earnings of employees or upon the employers shall be paid in such manner, at such times and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the state agency. If more or less than the correct amount of the tax imposed upon the employer is paid or deducted, proper adjustments or refund, if adjustment is impracticable, shall be made in such manner and at such times as the state agency shall prescribe. [C46, 50,§97.7; 55GA, ch 73,§11]

Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the state agency is vested with full power, authority and jurisdiction over the fund, including all moneys and property or securities belonging thereto, and may perform any and all acts whether or not specifically designated, which are necessary to the administration thereof and are consistent with the provisions of this chapter. All moneys in this fund shall be mingled and undivided. [55GA, ch 73,§12]

Referred to in §§97C.5, 97C.14

97C.13 Fund kept separate. The contribution fund shall be established and held separate and apart from any other funds or moneys of the state and shall be used and administered exclusively for the purpose of this chapter. Withdrawals from such fund shall be made for, and solely for, payment of amounts required to be paid to the secretary of the treasury pursuant to an agreement entered into under section 97C.3, or the payment of refunds provided for in this chapter. [55GA, ch 73,§13]

97C.14 Elected officials — retroactive payments. The employment security commission shall collect the tax hereby imposed and the proceeds from such tax shall be used for the purpose of obtaining retroactive federal social security coverage for elective officials, for the period beginning January 1, 1951, in the same manner as is provided in the case of other public employees by the provisions in subsection 2 of section 97.51 in order to obtain retroactive federal social security coverage during this period of time, such contribution to be collected and guaranteed by the employer. The employment security commission will pay any such amount contributed to provide for retroactive federal social security coverage for the individual in question in the same manner as other payments are made for retroactive coverage of public employees. [C46, 50,§§97.7, 97.45; 55GA, ch 73,§14]

Referred to in §97C.6

97C.15 Payments to secretary of treasury. [55GA, ch 73,§17]

97C.18 Rules and regulations. The state agency shall make and publish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as it finds necessary or appropriate to the efficient administration of the functions with which it is charged under this chapter, and the state agency shall comply with regulations relating to payments and reports as may be prescribed by the federal security administrator. [55GA, ch 73,§18]

In making such refund, the commission shall prepare a voucher showing the amount of refund due and to whom payable and the comptroller shall then issue a warrant upon order of the commission to pay such refund out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

The commission may promulgate rules and regulations providing for refunds of the face value of stamps affixed to any cigarettes which have become unfit for use and consumption, unsalable, or for any other legitimate loss which may occur, upon proof of such loss. Refund shall be made by issuing new stamps of an aggregate value of the tax paid on the cigarettes adjudged to be unfit for use, consumption, unsalable, or any other loss suffered.

4. The commission shall have the power and authority in the enforcement of this chapter to recall any stamps which have been sold by it and which have not been used, and it shall be the duty of said commission, upon receipt of such recalled stamps, to issue stamps of other serial numbers therefor. The purchaser of any stamps shall be required to surrender any unused stamps for exchange upon demand of the said commission.

Such stamps shall be affixed within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, from the hour the cigarettes were received, and shall be affixed before such distributor sells, offers for sale, consumes, or otherwise distributes or transports the same. It shall be unlawful for any person, other than a distributing agent or distributor, bonded pursuant to section 98.14, or common carrier to receive or accept delivery of any cigarettes without stamps affixed to evidence the payment of the tax, or without having in his possession the requisite amount or number of stamps necessary to stamp such cigarettes, and the possession of any unstamped cigarettes, without the possession of the requisite amount or number of stamps, shall be prima-facie evidence of the violation of this provision. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1571; C39, §1556.05; C46, 50, §98.10]

98.11 Cancellation of stamps. No stamps affixed to a package of cigarettes shall be canceled by any letter, numeral, or other mark of identification or otherwise mutilated in any manner that will prevent or hinder the commission in making an examination as to the genuineness of said stamp; provided, however, that the commission may direct and require such cancellation of the tax stamps affixed to packages of cigarettes or cigarette papers which, in its judgment, is necessary and essential to carry out properly the provisions of this chapter. [C39, §1556.06; C46, 50, §98.11]

98.12 Use of stamping machines. The commission, with the consent of the executive council, may purchase and supply suitable machines or devices to the holders of a state or manufacturer's permit, or authorize the leasing by the permit holder of such machines or the metering device or both, and provide under proper regulation and direction for the impression of a distinctive imprint, indicium or character upon individual packages of cigarettes, cigarette papers and tubes as evidence of the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, in lieu of the purchase and affixation of stamps as provided herein.

In the event the commission and executive council decide to purchase such machines they shall be paid for upon order of the commission out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

The machines or devices shall be so constructed as to record or meter the number of impressions or indicia made and shall at all times be open for inspection by the commission.

All of the provisions of this chapter relating to the collection of the tax by means of the sale and affixation of stamps shall apply in the use of the stamping machines or devices, including the right of refund as provided herein. [C39, §1556.07; C46, 50, §98.12]

98.13 Distributor's, wholesaler's, and retailer's permits.

1. Permits required. Every distributor, wholesaler, and retailer in this state, now engaged or who desires to become engaged in the sale or use of cigarettes, upon which a tax is required to be paid, shall obtain a state and/or retail cigarette permit as a distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, as the case may be.

2. Issuance. The commission shall issue state permits to distributors, wholesalers, and retailers subject to the conditions hereinafter provided. Cities and towns may issue retail permits to dealers within their respective limits. County boards of supervisors may issue retail permits to dealers in their respective counties, outside of the corporate limits of cities and towns. Upon issuance of a retail permit by a city or town council or board of supervisors, such council or board shall forthwith certify to the commission the action so taken.

3. Fees—expiration. All permits provided for in this chapter shall expire on June 30 of each year. No permit shall be granted or issued until the applicant shall have paid for the period ending June 30 next, to the state tax commission or the city, town or county granting such permit, the fees provided for in this chapter. The annual state permit fee for a distributor and wholesaler shall be one hundred dollars when the permit is granted during the months of July, August, or September, provided that whenever a state permit holder shall operate more than one place of business, a duplicate state permit shall be issued for each additional place of business on payment of five dollars for each such duplicate state permit, but refunds as provided in this chapter shall not apply to any duplicate permit issued.

The fee for retail permits to be issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be as follows when the permit is granted during the months of July, August, or September:

a. In towns and other places outside any city or town, fifty dollars.

b. In cities of less than fifteen thousand population, seventy-five dollars.

c. In cities of fifteen thousand or more population, one hundred dollars.

If any permit is granted during the months of October, November, or December, the said fee shall be three-fourths of the above maximum schedule; if granted during the months of January, February, or March, one-half of said maximum schedule, and if granted during the months of April, May, or June, one-fourth of the said maximum schedule.

4. Refunds.

a. An unrevoked permit for which the holder has paid the full annual fee may be surrendered during the first nine months of said year to the officer issuing it, and the state tax commission, or the city, town, or county granting the permit shall make refunds to the said holder as follows:

Three-fourths of the annual fee if the surrender is made during July, August, or September.

One-half of the annual fee if the surrender is made during October, November, or December.

One-fourth of the annual fee if the surrender is made during January, February, or March.

b. An unrevoked permit for which the holder has paid three-fourths of a full annual fee may be so surrendered during the first six months of the period covered by said payment and the said state tax commission, city, town, or county shall make refunds to the holder as follows:

A sum equal to one-half of an annual fee if the surrender is made during October, November, or December.

A sum equal to one-fourth of an annual fee if the surrender is made during January, February, or March.

c. An unrevoked permit for which the holder has paid one-half of a full annual fee may be so surrendered during the first three months of the period covered by said payment, and the said state tax commission, city, town or county, shall refund to the holder a sum equal to one-fourth of an annual fee.

5. Application—bond. Said permits shall be issued only upon applications accompanied by the fee indicated above, and by an adequate bond as provided in section 98.14, and upon forms furnished by the commission upon written request. The failure to furnish such forms shall be no excuse for the failure to file the same unless absolute refusal is shown. Said forms shall set forth:

a. The manner under which such distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, transacts or intends to transact such business as distributor, wholesaler, or retailer.

b. The principal office, residence, and place of business in Iowa, for which the permit is to apply.

c. If the applicant is not an individual, the principal officers or members thereof, not to exceed three, and their addresses.

d. Such other information as the commission shall by rules and regulations prescribe.

6. No sales without permit. No distributor, wholesaler, or retailer shall sell any cigarettes until such application has been filed and the fee prescribed paid for a permit and until such permit is obtained and only while such permit is unrevoked and unexpired.

7. Number of permits—trucks. An application shall be filed and a permit obtained for each place of business owned or operated by a distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, excepting that no permit need be obtained for a delivery or sales truck of a distributor or wholesaler holding a permit, provided that the commission may by regulation require that said truck bear the distributor's or wholesaler's name, and that the permit number of the place of business for and from which it operates be conspicuously displayed on the outside of the body of the truck, immediately under the name.

8. Group business. Any person who operates both as a distributor and wholesaler in the same place of business shall only be required to obtain a state permit for the particular place of business where such operation of said business is conducted. A separate retail permit, however, shall be required if any distributor or wholesaler sells cigarettes at both retail and wholesale.

9. Permit—form and contents. Each permit issued shall describe clearly the place of business for which it is issued, shall be nonassignable, consecutively numbered, designating the kind of permit, and shall authorize the sale of cigarettes in this state subject to the limitations and restrictions herein contained. The retail permits shall be upon forms furnished by the commission.

10. Permit displayed. The permit shall, at all times, be publicly displayed by the distributor, wholesaler, or retailer, at his place of business, so as to be easily seen by the public and the persons authorized to inspect the same. The proprietor or keeper of any building or place wherein cigarettes shall be kept for sale, or with intent to sell, shall upon request of the commission or any peace officer exhibit his permit to so keep and sell. His refusal or failure to so exhibit such permit shall be prima facie evidence that such cigarettes are kept for sale or with intent to sell in violation of the provisions of this chapter. [S13,§5007-a; C24, 27, §§1557, 1558, 1560, 1563, 1564, 1584; C31, 35, §§1557, 1558, 1560, 1563, 1563-d1, 1564, 1584; C39, §1556.08; C46, 50, §98.13; 54GA, ch 145, §77; ch 165, §69]

98.14 Bonds.

1. No retail permit, state permit, or manufacturer's permit shall be issued until the applicant therefor shall file a bond, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by the commission or the body granting the permit, which bond shall be in favor of the state and for the benefit of the county, city, or town, as the case may be, and conditioned upon the payment of taxes, damages, fines, penalties, and costs adjudged against the permit holder for violation of any of the provisions of this chapter.

Said bonds shall be on forms prescribed by the commission and in the following amounts:

a. Retail permit, not less than five hundred dollars.

b. State permit, not less than five hundred dollars.

c. Manufacturer's permit, not less than five thousand dollars.

2. No distributor or person shall engage in interstate business unless he files a bond, with good and sufficient surety in an amount of not less than one thousand dollars. The amount of the bond required of such distributor or other person shall be fixed by the commission, subject to the minimum limitation herein provided. Said bond shall be approved by the commission and payable to the state in Des Moines, Polk county, and conditioned upon the payment of taxes, damages, fines, penalties, and costs adjudged against the permit holder for violation of any of the requirements of this chapter affecting said distributor or other person, on a form prescribed by the commission.

3. An additional bond or a new bond may be required by the commission at any time an existing bond becomes insufficient or the surety thereon becomes unsatisfactory, which additional bond, or new bond, shall be supplied within ten days after demand. On failure to supply a new bond or additional bond within ten days after demand, the commission shall have the power and the authority to cancel any existing bond made and secured by and for said distributor or other person. In the event said bond is canceled, said distributor or other person shall within forty-eight hours after receiving cigarettes or forty-eight hours after said cancellation, excluding Sundays and legal holidays, cause any cigarettes in his possession to have the requisite amount of stamps affixed to represent the tax as herein provided. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §§1561, 1562; C39, §1556.09; C46, 50, §98.14]

98.15 Records and reports of permit holders.

1. The commission is authorized to prescribe such forms as may be necessary for the efficient administration of this chapter and is authorized to require such uniform books and records to be used and kept by each permit holder as it deems necessary. The commission may also require each permit holder to keep and retain in his possession evidence on prescribed forms of all transactions involving the purchase and sale of cigarettes or the purchase and use of stamps as herein provided. All of such evidence shall be kept for a period of two years from the date of each transaction, for the inspection at all times by the commission.

2. Where a state permit holder sells cigarettes at retail, he shall be required to issue an invoice to his retail department for cigarettes to be sold at retail and such cigarette invoices shall be kept separate and apart.

3. The commission may by regulation require every holder of a manufacturer's or state permit to make and deliver to the commission on or before the tenth day of each month a report or reports for the preceding calendar month, upon a form or forms prescribed by the commission, and may require that such reports shall be properly sworn to and executed by the permit holder or his duly authorized representative.

4. Every permit holder shall, when requested by the commission, make such additional reports as the commission deems necessary and proper and shall at the request of the commission furnish full and complete information pertaining to any transaction of the permit holder involving the purchase or sale or use of cigarettes or purchase of cigarette stamps.

5. Every person engaged in the business of selling cigarettes in interstate commerce only, who has, by furnishing the bond required in section 98.14, been permitted to set aside or store cigarettes in this state for the conduct of such interstate business without the stamps affixed thereto, shall be required to keep such records and make such reports to the commission as are required by it.

6. If any distributor or other person fails or refuses to pay any tax, penalties, or cost of audit hereinafter provided, and it becomes necessary to bring suit or to intervene in any manner for the establishment or collection of said claims, in any judicial proceedings, any report filed in the office of the commission by such distributor or other person, or his representative, or a copy thereof, certified to by the commission, showing the number of cigarettes sold by such distributor or his representative, upon which such tax, penalty or cost of audit has not been paid, or any audit made by the commission or its representative from the books or records of said distributor or other person when signed and sworn to by such representative as being made from the records of said distributor or persons from or to whom such distributor or other person has bought, received, or delivered cigarettes, whether from a transportation company or otherwise, such report or audit shall be admissible in evidence in such proceedings and shall be prima-facie evidence of the contents thereof; provided, however, that the incorrectness of said report or audit may be shown. [C27, 31, 35, §§1570-b1, -b2; C39, §1556.10; C46, 50, §98.15]

98.16 Manufacturer's permit. The commission may, at its discretion, and upon application of any manufacturer, issue without charge to such manufacturer a manufacturer's permit. Such application shall contain such information as the commission shall prescribe. The holder of such manufacturer's permit shall be authorized to purchase stamps from the commission, and to affix such stamps to individual packages of cigarettes outside of this state, prior to their shipment into the state. [C39, §1556.11; C46, 50, §98.16]

98.17 Distributing agent's permit.

1. Every distributing agent in the state, now engaged, or who desires to become engaged, in the business of storing unstamped cigarettes which are received in interstate commerce for distribution or delivery only upon order received from without the state or to be sold outside the state, shall file with the commission, an application for a distributing agent's permit, on a form prescribed by the commission, to be furnished upon written request. The failure to furnish shall be no excuse for the failure to file the same unless an absolute refusal is shown. Said form shall set forth the name under which such distributing agent transacts or intends to transact such business as a distributing agent, the principal office and place of business in Iowa to which the permit is to apply, and if other than an individual, the principal officers or members thereof and their addresses. The commission may require any other information it may desire in said application. No distributing agent shall engage in such business until such application has been filed and fee in the sum of one hundred dollars paid for the permit and until the permit has been obtained. Such permit shall expire on June 30 following the date of issuance. All of the provisions of the last two paragraphs of section 98.14, relative to bonds, are incorporated herein and by this reference made applicable to distributing agents. Upon failure to furnish adequate bond as required, the permit shall be revoked without hearing. An application shall be filed and a permit obtained for each place of business owned or operated by a distributing agent.

2. Upon receipt of the application and bond and the permit fee herein provided for, the commission may issue to every distributing agent for the place of business designated a nonassignable consecutively numbered permit, authorizing the storing, and distribution of unstamped cigarettes within this state when such distribution is made upon interstate orders only. A distributing agent may also transport unstamped cigarettes in his own conveyances to the state boundary for distribution outside the state, and any nonresident customer of such distributor may purchase and convey unstamped cigarettes to the state line for distribution outside the state. Such nonresident purchaser shall be required to have in his possession an invoice evidencing the purchase of such unstamped cigarettes, which must be exhibited upon request to any peace officer or agent charged with the enforcement of this chapter.

3. Cigarettes set aside for interstate business must be kept separate from intrastate stock and those not so kept shall be considered as intrastate stock and subject to the same requirements as cigarettes possessed for the purpose of a "first sale".

4. It shall be unlawful for any distributing agent to sell at retail cigarettes, cigarette papers or tubes from automobiles, trucks, or any similar conveyances. [C39,§1556.12; C46, 50, §98.17]

Referred to in §98.10

98.18 Forms for records and reports. The commission shall furnish, without charge, to holders of the various permits, such forms in sufficient quantities as will enable such permit holders to make the reports required to be made under this chapter. The permit holders shall furnish at their own expense such books, records, and invoices, as are required to be used and kept, but such books, records, and invoices shall be in exact conformity to the forms prescribed for that purpose by the commission, and shall be kept and used in the manner prescribed by the commission; provided that the commission may, in its discretion, by express order in certain cases, authorize permit holders to keep their records in a manner and upon forms other than those so prescribed. Such authorization may be revoked at any time. [C39,§1556.13; C46, 50,§98.18]

98.19 Examination of records and premises.

1. For the purpose of enabling the commission to determine the tax liability of permit holders or any other person dealing in cigarettes or to determine whether a tax liability has been incurred, it shall have the right to inspect any premises where cigarettes are manufactured, produced, made, stored, transported, sold, or offered for sale or exchange, and to examine all of the records required to be kept or any other records that may be kept incident to the conduct of the cigarette business of said permit holder or any other person dealing in cigarettes.

2. The said authorized officers shall also have the right as an incident to determining the said tax liability, or whether a tax liability has been incurred, to examine all stocks of cigarettes and cigarette stamps and for the foregoing purpose said authorized officers shall also have the right to remain upon said premises for such length of time as may be necessary to fully determine said tax liability, or whether a tax liability has been incurred.

3. It shall be unlawful for any of the foregoing permit holders to fail to produce upon demand of the commission any records required herein to be kept or to hinder or prevent in any manner the inspection of said records or the examination of said premises. [C39,§1556.14; C46, 50,§98.19]

98.20 Subpoena for witnesses and papers.

For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and of detecting violations thereof, the commission shall have the power to administer oaths and to require by subpoena the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of all relevant books, papers, and records. Such attendance and production may be required at the statehouse at Des Moines, or at any place convenient for such investigation. In case any person fails or refuses to obey a subpoena so issued, the commission may procure an order from the district court in the county where such person resides, or where such person is found, requiring such person to appear for examination and/or to produce such books, papers, and records as are required in the subpoena. Failure to obey such order shall be punished by such court as contempt thereof. [C39,§1556.15; C46, 50,§98.20]

98.21 Cigarettes retailer may not sell. Unless a retail permit holder shall also hold a state permit, it shall be unlawful for a retailer to sell or have in his possession cigarettes upon which the stamp tax has not been affixed. [C39,§1556.16; C46, 50,§98.21]

98.22 Revocation of permit.

1. If any person holding a permit issued by the commission under the provisions of this chapter, including a retailer permit for railway car, has violated any provision of this chapter, or any rule or regulation promulgated hereunder, the commission may revoke the permit issued to said person, after giving such permit holder an opportunity to be heard upon five days written notice stating the reason for such contemplated revocation and the time and place at which he may appear and be heard. The said hearing shall be held in the county of the permit holder's place of business, or in a county in or through which it transacts business. Such notice shall be given by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to the permit holder's place of business as the same appears on his application for a permit. If, upon such hearing, the commission shall find that such violation has occurred, it may revoke the permit or permits.

2. If any retailer has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, the board of supervisors or the city or town council which issued the permit may revoke his permit or permits upon the same hearing and notice as is prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

3. If a permit is revoked no new permit shall be issued to the permit holder for any place of business, or to any other person for the place of business at which such violation occurred, until one year has expired from the date of revocation, unless good cause to the contrary is shown to the issuing authority. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1559; C39, §1556.17; C46, 50, §98.22]

1. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, a retailer's permit may be issued by the commission to any dining car company, sleeping car company, railroad or railway company. Such permit shall authorize the holder thereof to keep for sale, and sell, cigarettes at retail on any dining car, sleeping car, or passenger car operated by such applicant in, through, or across the state of Iowa, subject to all of the restrictions imposed upon retailers under this chapter. The application for such permit shall be in such form and contain such information as may be required by the commission. Each such permit shall be good throughout the state. Only one such permit shall be required for all cars operated in this state by such applicant, but a duplicate of such permit issued as herein provided shall be posted in each car in which such cigarettes are sold and no further permit shall be required or tax levied for the privilege of selling cigarettes in such cars. No cigarettes shall be sold in such cars without having affixed thereto stamps evidencing the payment of the tax as provided in this chapter.

2. As a condition precedent to the issuing of a retailer's permit for railway car, the applicant shall file with the commission a bond in favor of the state for the benefit of all parties interested in the amount of five hundred dollars conditioned upon the payment of all taxes, fines and penalties and costs in this chapter provided.

3. The annual fee for a retailer's permit for railway cars shall be twenty-five dollars and two dollars for each duplicate thereof, which fee shall be paid to the commission. The commission shall issue duplicates of such permits from time to time as applied for by such companies.

4. The provisions of subsections 1 and 3 of section 98.22 shall apply to the revocation of such permit and the issuance of a new one. [C39, §1556.18; C46, 50, §98.23]

98.24 Carrier to permit access to records. Every common carrier in this state having custody of books or records showing the trans-

98.25 Administration.

1. The commission shall administer the provisions of this chapter, and it is hereby made the duty of the commission to collect, supervise, and enforce the collection of all taxes and penalties that may be due under the provisions of this chapter.

2. Said commission also shall have the power and authority to make and publish rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this chapter, necessary and advisable for its detailed administration, to enforce the provisions thereof, and to collect the taxes and fees herein imposed. The commission may promulgate rules and regulations hereunder providing for the refund on stamps which by reason of damage become unfit for sale or use.

3. The state tax commission is hereby authorized to appoint an assistant, whose sole duty it shall be to administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter, including the collection of all taxes provided for herein. In such enforcement the state tax commission may call to its aid the attorney general, the special agents of the state, any county attorney or any peace officer. The commission is authorized to appoint such clerks and additional help as may be needed to carry out the provisions of this chapter. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1576; C39, §1556.20; C46, 50, §98.25]

98.26 Liens and actions. All of the provisions for the lien of the tax, its collection, and all actions as provided in the sales tax act shall apply to the tax imposed by this chapter, except that where the sales tax and the cigarette tax may become conflicting liens, they shall be of equal priority. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1565; C39, §1556.21; C46, 50, §98.26]

98.28 Assessment of tax by commission. If after any audit, examination of records, or other investigation the commission finds that any person has sold cigarettes, without stamps affixed thereto as required by this chapter or that any person has failed to pay any tax herein imposed upon such person, the commission shall fix and determine the amount of tax due, and shall assess such tax against such person, together with a penalty, which is hereby imposed, equal to the amount of said tax. If any person fails to furnish evidence satisfactory to the commission showing purchases of sufficient stamps to stamp unstamped cigarettes purchased by him, the presumption shall be that such cigarettes were sold without the proper stamps affixed thereto. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1568; C39, §1556.23; C46, 50, §98.28]

Referred to in §98.29

98.29 Notice and appeal. The commission shall notify any person assessed pursuant to section 98.28 by sending a written notice of such determination and assessment by registered mail to the principal place of business of such person as shown on his application for permit, if any, and in case no such application was filed by such person, to his last known address. Such person may appeal from such determination and assessment to the district court in the same manner and subject to the same procedure as is provided in section 422.29. [C39, §1556.24; C46, 50, §98.29]

98.30 Assessment of cost of audit. The commission may employ auditors or other persons to audit and examine the books and records of any permit holder or other person dealing in cigarettes to ascertain whether such permit holder or other person has paid the amount of the taxes required to be paid by him under the provisions of this chapter. If such taxes have not been paid, as required, the commission shall assess against such permit holder or other person, as additional penalty, the reasonable expenses and costs of such investigation and audit. [C39, §1556.25; C46, 50, §98.30]

98.31 Civil penalty for certain violations. If a permit holder shall (a) fail to keep any of the records required to be kept by the provisions of this chapter, or (b) if a permit holder shall sell any cigarettes upon which a tax is required to be paid by this chapter without at the time having a valid permit, or (c) if any distributor, wholesaler, or distributing agent shall fail to make any reports to the commission required herein to be made, or (d) make a false or incomplete report to said commission, or (e) if any distributing agent shall store any unstamped cigarettes in the state or distribute or deliver any unstamped cigarettes within this state without at the time of said storage or delivery having a valid permit, or (f) if any person affected by this chapter shall fail or refuse to abide by the provisions hereof or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, or violate the same, he shall be civilly liable to the state as a penalty in the sum of fifty dollars for each offense. Each violation shall constitute a separate offense, and the same violation shall constitute a separate offense for each day it continues. [C24, 27, 31, 35, §1572; C39, §1556.26; C46, 50, §98.31] deposited or concealed in any place with intent to avoid payment of taxes levied thereon, and any automobile, truck, boat, conveyance, or other vehicle whatsoever, used in the removal or transportation of such cigarettes for such purpose, and all equipment or other tangible personal property incident to and used for such purpose, found in the place, building, or vehicle where such cigarettes are found, may be seized by the commission, with or without process and the same shall be from the time of such seizure forfeited to the state of Iowa, and a proceeding in the nature of a proceeding in rem shall be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county of seizure to maintain such seizure and declare and perfect said forfeiture as hereinafter provided. All such cigarettes, vehicles, and property so seized as aforesaid, remaining in the possession or custody of the commission, sheriff or other officer for forfeiture or other disposition as provided by law, shall be deemed to be in the custody of law and irrepleviable.

2. The commission, when taking the seizure aforesaid, shall immediately make a written report thereof showing the name of the agent or representative making the seizure, the place and person where and from whom such property was seized and an inventory of same and appraisement thereof at the reasonable value of the article seized, which report shall be prepared in duplicate, signed by the agent or representative so seizing, the original of which shall be given to the person from whom said property is taken, and a duplicate copy of which shall be filed in the office of the commission and shall be open to public inspection.

3. The county attorney of the county of seizure, shall, at the request of the commission, file in the county and court aforesaid forfeiture proceeding in the name of the state as plaintiff, and in the name of the owner or person in possession as defendant, if known, and if unknown, then in the name of said property seized and sought to be forfeited. Upon the filing of said proceeding, the clerk of said court shall issue notice to the owner or person in possession of such property to appear before such court upon the date named therein, which shall not be less than two days from service of such notice, to show cause why the forfeiture aforesaid should not be declared, which notice shall be served by the sheriff of said county. In the event the defendant in said proceeding is a nonresident of the state or his residence is unknown, or in the event the name of such defendant is unknown, upon affidavit by the commission to this effect, notice shall be given as ordered by the court.

4. In the event final judgment is rendered in the forfeiture proceedings aforesaid, maintaining the seizure, and declaring and perfecting the forfeiture of said seized property, the court shall order and decree the sale thereof to the highest bidder, by the sheriff at public auction in the county of seizure after notice is given in the manner provided in the case of the sale of personal property under execution, and the proceeds of such sale, less expense of seizure and court costs, shall be paid into the state treasury.

5. In the event the cigarettes seized hereunder and sought to be sold upon forfeiture shall be unstamped, the officers selling the same shall be furnished by the commission, sufficient stamps which shall be affixed to the cigarettes prior to the sale thereof.* [C39, §1556.27; C46, 50, §98.32]

*See §761.28

98.33 Seizure not to affect criminal prosecution. The seizure, forfeiture, and sale of cigarettes and other property under the terms and conditions hereinabove set out, shall not constitute any defense to the person owning or having control or possession of such property from criminal prosecution for any act or omission made or offense committed under this chapter or from liability to pay penalties provided by this chapter. [C39, §1556.28; C46, 50, §98.33]

98.34 Restrictions on injunction. Any person who shall invoke the power and remedies of injunction against the state tax commission to restrain or enjoin it from enforcement of the collection of the tax levied herein upon any grounds for which an injunction may be issued shall file such proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction in Polk county, and venue for such injunction is hereby declared to be in Polk county. [C39, §1556.29; C46, 50, §98.34]

98.35 Tax and fees paid to general fund. The proceeds derived from the sale of stamps and the payment of taxes, fees and penalties provided for under this chapter, and the permit fees received by the commission from all permits issued by it, shall be credited to the general fund of the state. All permit fees provided for in this chapter and collected by cities and towns in the issuance of permits granted by such municipalities shall be paid to the treasurer of the city or town wherein the permit is effective and credited to the general fund of said city or town. 103.3 Fire escapes required. Every building, structure, or inclosure of three or more stories, and every schoolhouse of two stories and not provided with two stairways located approximately at each end of the hallway in the second story, and every structure having a stage, and every theater or opera house of more than one story, or having balconies or galleries, shall have at least the number of fire escapes of the kind prescribed by law as determined by the following formula:

Number of fire escapes shall equal C times P.

P equals the average maximum number of persons on the story with the highest number above the first story.

C is a coefficient and is fixed, and shall be taken for the various classes of buildings as follows:

1. Buildings having wooden or combustible walls, C equals .020.
2. Buildings having brick or combustible walls with combustible interior, C equals .014.
3. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls and incombustible roof and slow burning construction, C equals .012.
4. Buildings of fireproof construction throughout, C equals .007.
5. Buildings of wooden or combustible walls equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .014.
6. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls with combustible interior equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .008.
7. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls and incombustible roof and slow burning construction equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .006.
8. Fireproof buildings equipped with efficient water sprinkler system, C equals .003.

When the result of the said formula is one or any fraction thereof, the number of escapes shall be one. The number of additional escapes required shall include any fraction as a unit, except when such fraction shall be thirty-three hundredths or less, in which case the fraction may be dropped if permitted by the inspector. [SS15,§4999-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1662; C46, 50,§103.3]

103.4 Location of fire escapes and exits. The following regulations as to location of fire escapes and exits are hereby established:

1. The first fire escape required by law shall be placed as far as possible from the existing inside stairway or passage to the lower floors of the building, taking into account the hazard and the path or route of access to the escape from such stairway.
2. The distance to the nearest fire escape from any inside stairway or passage to the lower floor shall not exceed two hundred feet by way of the path or route of access to such fire escape from such stairway or passage.
3. Additional fire escapes to those otherwise provided by law shall be provided wherever it is necessary to pass within twenty feet of any stairway or elevator shaft from any portion of the building more than twenty feet from such stairway or shaft to reach the fire escape required by the provisions of law and where there are peculiar, unusual, or extreme hazards, additional fire escapes may be required by those authorized by law to regulate and fix the number and requirements of fire escapes.
4. When the inspector shall deem it necessary on account of the height of any building or on account of the number of persons ordinarily occupying said building, either permanently or temporarily in the course of business, such building shall be equipped with a sufficient number of fire escapes to permit the exit of all occupants within the following periods of time:

- a. Buildings with wooden or combustible walls, two minutes.
- b. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls with combustible interior, three minutes.
- c. Buildings having brick or incombustible walls and incombustible roof and slow burning interior construction, four minutes.
- d. Buildings of fireproof construction throughout, fifteen minutes; or a less period of time if hazard of merchantable contents of such building may so require.

In estimating the period of time required the rate of descent on the fire escapes shall not be taken in excess of one and five-tenths feet of vertical distance, or height, per second, when said fire escapes are fully loaded, which rate of descent shall be estimated to permit the exit of not to exceed one person per second; but the time of complete exit as herein provided may be increased where efficient sprinkler systems are installed, such increase of time to be determined by the character and efficiency of the sprinkling system unless peculiar or unusual hazards exist. [SS15,§4999-a7; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1663; C46, 50,§103.4]

103.5 How constructed. All fire escapes shall be constructed as described in the following classifications:

Class A. Fire escapes of this class shall consist of those more safe and efficient than outside ladders and stairways and which shall have been approved as such by the state fire marshal, and may include inside stairways and means of escape in fireproof buildings when approved by said fire marshal.

Class B. Fire escapes of this class shall consist of a suitable outside stairway of not less than twenty-two inches clear width of steel or wrought iron constructed with platform and with stationary stairway carried down to within six and one-half feet of the ground, or with a drop or counterbalanced stairway from the second story platform or balcony to the ground.

Class C. Fire escapes of this class shall consist of at least one ladder, not less than eighteen inches in width, of steel or wrought iron construction, of sufficient size and strength for safety, attached to the outside walls of the building and provided with platforms of steel or wrought iron inclosed by suitable railings and of such dimensions and in such proximity to the windows of each story above the first as to render access to the ladder from each story easy and safe, the said ladder to extend to within six and one-half feet of the ground or to be provided with a drop ladder hung at the second story in such a manner that it can be easily lowered for use. [SS15,§4999-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1664; C46, 50,§103.5]

103.6 Construction and arrangement.

1. All of the above classes of fire escapes shall be of suitable material, construction, arrangement, and location to make the same safe and efficient and no fire escape of a higher class shall be less safe and efficient than one of a lower class and the provisions of each lower class with respect to platform, access to windows and openings, and sufficiency of strength shall apply to the upper class except where allowed to be modified by those having authority.

2. All fire escapes reaching the top floor shall have suitable extensions reaching from the upper platform to safe landing on the roof of the building; but the state fire marshal may waive this provision when on examination he finds that such ladder would be an element of danger.

3. All fire escapes of any of the foregoing classes shall have such windows or openings leading to the platform or balconies of the same as shall be necessary to make the same safe and efficient, and all routes or paths of access to said fire escapes shall be safe and sufficient, with all doors of rooms leading to fire escapes one-half glass and equipped with mortise latches or equivalent so that the same may be easily and quickly opened by breaking the glass and turning the latches from the inside of the doors, all so as to render access to the fire escape from each floor above the first easy and safe. No window or door leading to the platform of a fire escape shall be fastened against exit.

4. The attachment of all fire escapes shall be made in a thorough and substantial manner and sufficient to carry the full load that may be placed on said fire escapes when the same are crowded, with a factor of safety of not less than four.

5. Suitable signs indicating the location of fire escapes shall be posted at all entrances to elevators, stairways, landings, and in all rooms.

6. In all buildings which are used for lodging or sleeping purposes, and in opera houses, theaters, and public assembly halls, and other buildings occupied or used at night where, in the judgment of the state fire marshal, this provision should apply, red lights shall be maintained at night or when the buildings are darkened, to indicate the place or opening through which access to the fire escape is obtained. Red lights shall not be used for lighting purposes in such buildings at locations where they may be mistaken for an exit light. [SS15,§4999-a8; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1665; C46, 50, §103.6]

103.7 Class of escapes—stairways.

Hotels, lodging houses, tenements, apartment buildings, schools, retail or department stores, seminaries, college buildings, office buildings, hospitals, asylums, opera houses, theaters, assembly halls, and factories required by law to be equipped with fire escapes shall be equipped with those of class "A" or class "B". All other buildings and structures required to be equipped with fire escapes shall be equipped with those of class "A", "B", or "C", or with a combination of such classes.

2. Class "C" shall not be used on any building over three stories in height in which more than five persons are at any one time allowed upon any one of the floors above said third story nor where any of the persons allowed upon any floor above the third story are females or minors; but the state fire marshal may under peculiar conditions and where the hazards are not great:

a. Permit fire escapes of class "C" to be used on buildings of more than three stories, but when ladder fire escapes are permitted on buildings more than three stories in height the ladders thereof must offset at the platforms and must not continue in the same line for more than one story.

b. Permit fire escapes of class "C" or other approved means of escape to be used on an ordinary dwelling of not more than three stories in height and temporarily used in part for lodging purposes when not more than five persons, none of whom are under sixteen years of age, occupy the third floor.

3. Where stairways not less than forty-four inches in clear width are provided they shall be taken as the equivalent of two or more single stairways in proportion to their width, provided the means of escape and efficiency and safety of said escapes are not thereby diminished. [SS15,§4999-a9; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1666; C46, 50,§103.7]

103.8 Doors to open outward. The entrance and exit doors of all hotels, churches, lodge halls, courthouses, assembly halls, theaters, opera houses, colleges, public schoolhouses, and other structures where the hazard is deemed sufficient by the inspector, and the entrance doors to all class and assembly rooms in public school buildings, shall open outward and shall not be fastened against exit or so the same cannot be easily opened from within. [SS15,§4999-a10; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1668; C46, 50,§103.9]

106.2 Boats—inspection and license. Any person having upon the inland waters of the state any boat, operated by machinery used for hire or offered for hire, must have his craft and all its appurtenances annually inspected and licensed before it is so used.

Every such owner shall file in the office of the secretary of the commission an application for inspection of boats and licensing thereof, on a blank to be furnished by the commission for that purpose.

The boat inspector shall have the power and authority to determine whether the boat is safe for the transportation of passengers and upon what waters it may be used, to determine and designate the number of passengers, including crew, that may be carried, to determine whether the machinery, equipment and all appurtenances are such as to make said boat seaworthy where used and equipped as provided herein, and such other matters as are pertinent.

An engineer's license is required for all operators who have charge of or operate the equipment by which the boat is propelled. If one person acts in a dual or alternate capacity, he shall first obtain both an engineer's and pilot's license.

Any person desiring a pilot's or engineer's license shall file with the commission an application therefor upon forms prepared and furnished by the commission.  112.9 Final determination and costs.
 112.10 Tentative plan.

112.1 Resolution of necessity. Whenever, in the opinion of the state conservation commission, it is necessary and desirable for it to erect a dam or spillway across a stream or at the outlet of a lake, or to alter or reconstruct an existing dam or spillway, so as to increase or decrease its permanent height, or to permanently affect the water level above the structure, it shall proceed with said project by first adopting a resolution of necessity to be placed upon its records, in which it shall describe in a general way the work contemplated. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e1; C39, §1828.24; C46, 50, §112.1]

112.2 Expert plan. The commission, upon receipt of a report and plan prepared by a competent civil engineer, showing the work contemplated, the effect on the water level, and probable cost and such other facts and recommendations as may be deemed material, may approve said plan which shall be considered a tentative plan only, for the project. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e2; C39, §1828.25; C46, 50, §112.2]

112.3 Hearing—damages. After said approval the commission, if it wishes to proceed further with the project, shall, with the consent of the Iowa natural resources council, fix a date of hearing not less than two weeks from date of approval of the plan. Notice of the day, hour and place of hearing, relative to proposed work, shall be provided by publication at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the project is located, or in the county or counties where the water elevations are affected, under the tentative plan approved. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e3; C39, §1828.26; C46, 50, §112.3]

If, at the time of the hearing, the commission shall find that the improvement would be conducive to the public convenience, welfare, benefit or utility, and the cost thereof is not excessive, and no claim shall have been filed for damages, it may adopt the tentative plan as final or may modify the plan, provided said modification will not, to any greater extent than the tentative plan, materially and adversely affect the interests of littoral or riparian owners. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e4; C39, §1828.27; C46, 50, §112.4]

112.6 Filing appraisement. The appraisers appointed to determine the damages caused by the proposed project shall view the premises and determine and fix the amount of damages to which each claimant is entitled and shall, at least three days before the date fixed by the commission to hear and determine the same, file with the secretary of the commission reports in writing showing the amount of damages sustained by each claimant. Should good cause for delay exist, the commission may postpone the time of final action on the project. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e6; C39, §1828.29; C46, 50, §112.6]

112.7 Damages determined. At the time fixed for hearing and after receipt of the report of the appraisers, the commission shall examine said report, both for and against each claim for damages and compensation and shall determine the amount of damages and compensation due each claimant and may affirm, increase or diminish the amount awarded by the appraisers. After such action, the commission may thereupon adopt a final plan for the project, and proceed with its construction, or it may dismiss the entire proceedings. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e7; C39, §1828.30; C46, 50, §112.7]

All other appeals shall be triable in equity. The court may, in its discretion, order the consolidation for trial of two or more of such equitable cases. All appeals shall be taken within twenty days after date of final action or order of the commission from which such appeal is taken, by filing with the secretary of the commission a notice of appeal designating the court to which the appeal is taken, the order or action appealed from and stating that the appeal will come on for hearing at the next succeeding term of the court and designating such term. 112.9 Final determination and costs. The amount of damages or compensation found by the court shall be entered of record. Unless the result on the appeal is more favorable to the appellant than the action of the commission, all costs of the appeal shall be taxed to the appellant, but if more favorable, the cost shall be taxed to the appellees. All damages assessed and all costs occasioned under this chapter shall be paid from the funds of the commission. [C24, 27, 31, §1826; C35, §1828-e9; C39, §1828.32; C46, 50, §112.9]

The mere execution, as a contractor, of work designed by a professional engineer, or the supervision of the construction of such work as a foreman or superintendent shall not be deemed to be active practice in engineering work.

The term "land surveyor" as used in this chapter shall mean a person who engages in the practice of land surveying as hereinafter defined.

The practice of "land surveying" within the meaning and intent of this chapter includes surveying of areas for their correct determination and description and for conveyancing, or for the establishment or re-establishment of land boundaries and the platting of lands and subdivisions thereof. 1. As a professional engineer:
a. Graduation from an approved course in engineering of four years or more in an approved school or college; and a specific record of an additional two years or more of practical experience in engineering work of a character satisfactory to the board.

b. Successfully passing a written, or written and oral, examination designed to show knowledge and skill approximating that attained through graduation from an approved four year engineering course; and a specific record of six years or more of practical experience in engineering work.

2. As a land surveyor:

a. Graduation from an approved course in surveying in an approved school or college; and an additional two years or more of practical experience in land surveying work.

b. Successfully passing a written, or written and oral, examination in surveying prescribed by the board; and a specific record of six years or more of practical experience in land surveying work. The practical experience required in this section may be obtained under the exemption provisions of section 114.26.

In considering the qualifications of applicants, responsible charge of engineering teaching may be construed as responsible charge of engineering work. The satisfactory completion of each year of an approved course in engineering in an approved school or college, without graduation, shall be considered as equivalent to a year of practical experience. Graduation in a course other than engineering from a college or university of recognized standing shall be considered as equivalent to two years of practical experience; provided, however, that no applicant shall receive credit for more than four years of practical experience because of educational qualifications.

Any person having the necessary qualifications prescribed in this chapter to entitle him to registration shall be eligible for such registration though he may not be practicing his profession at the time of making his application.

Provided, that no person shall be eligible for registration as a professional engineer, or land surveyor, who is not of good character and reputation. [C39,§1866.1; C46, 50,§114.14]

114.15 Examinations—report required. Examinations for registration shall be given at stated or called meetings of the board. The scope of the examinations and the methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the board. As soon as practicable, after the close of each examination, a report shall be filed in the office of the secretary of the board by the members conducting such examinations. Said report shall show the action of the board upon each application, whereupon the secretary of the board shall notify each applicant of the result of his examination. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1867; C46, 50,§114.15]

114.16 Seal—certificate evidence of registration. Each registrant shall provide himself with a suitable seal with a uniform inscription thereon formulated by the board, with which he shall stamp all plans, specifications, surveys, and reports made or issued by him. A certificate of registration provided for in this chapter shall be presumptive evidence that the person named therein is legally registered. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1868; C46, 50,§114.16]

114.17 Certificate. To any applicant who shall have passed the examination as a professional engineer and who shall have paid an additional fee of ten dollars, the board shall issue a certificate of registration as a professional engineer signed by the chairman and secretary of the board under the seal of such board, which certificate shall authorize the applicant to practice professional engineering as defined in this chapter. Such certificate shall not carry with it the right to practice land surveying, unless specifically so stated in said certificate, which permission shall be granted by the board without additional fee in cases where the applicant duly qualifies as a land surveyor as prescribed by the rules of said board. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1869; C46, 50, §114.17]

114.18 Expirations and renewals. Certificates of registration shall expire on the last day of the month of December following their issuance or renewal and shall become invalid on that date unless renewed. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the board to notify every person registered under this chapter, of the date of expiration of his certificate and the amount of the fee that shall be required for its renewal for one year; such notice shall be mailed at least one month in advance of the date of the expiration of said certificate. Renewal may be effected at any time during the month of December by the payment of a fee of two dollars. The failure on the part of any registrant to renew his certificate annually in the month of December as required above shall not deprive such a person of the right of renewal, but the fee to be paid for the renewal of a certificate after the month of December shall be increased two dollars per year for each year or fraction of a year that payment of renewal is delayed; provided, however, that the maximum fee for delayed renewal shall not exceed ten dollars. For the duration of any war in which the United States is engaged the board may, in its discretion, defer the collection of renewal fees without penalty, which have or may become due from registered professional engineers who are employed in the war effort, and residing outside the state, or who are members of the armed forces of the United States, and may renew the engineering certificates of said registered professional engineers. [C27, 31, 35,§1869-b1; C39,§1869.1; C46, 50,§114.18]

Referred to in §114.11

114.19 Land surveyor's certificate. To any applicant who shall have passed the examination as a land surveyor and who shall have paid an additional fee of ten dollars, the board shall issue a certificate of registration signed by its chairman and secretary under the seal of the board, which certificate shall authorize the applicant to practice land surveying as defined in this chapter and to administer oaths to his assistants and to witnesses produced for examination, with reference to facts connected with land surveys being made by such land surveyor. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§1870; C46, 50,§114.19]

The board shall from time to time examine the requirements for registration of professional engineers and land surveyors in other states, territories, and countries, and shall record those in which in the judgment of the board standards not lower than those provided by this chapter are maintained. The secretary of the board upon presentation to him of satisfactory evidence, by any person, that he holds a certificate of registration issued to him by proper authority in any state, territory or country so recorded, and upon the receipt of a fee of ten dollars, shall issue to such person a certificate of registration to practice professional engineering or land surveying as provided by this chapter, signed by the chairman and the secretary under the seal of the board, whereupon the person to whom such certificate is issued shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges conferred by the certificate issued after examination by the board. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §1871; C46, 50, §114.20]

114.21 Revocation of certificate. The board shall have the power by a four-fifths vote of the entire board to revoke the certificate of any professional engineer or land surveyor registered hereunder, found guilty of any fraud or deceit in his practice, or guilty of any fraud or deceit in obtaining his certificate, or in case he is found by the same vote to be incompetent. b. A "special permit" in form as prescribed by the commission and subject to its issuance and/or use to such rules and regulations as the commission may adopt, may be issued as provided in this section, notwithstanding the other provisions of this chapter, as follows:

(1) To a physician, pharmacist, dentist, or veterinarian, which will entitle the holder to purchase liquor from the state liquor stores or special distributors for use medicinally and in compounding prescriptions and to sell the same for use medicinally in the compounded prescription only upon the prescription of a licensed physician or surgeon, and to purchase liquor from the state liquor stores or special distributors for use in manufacturing or compounding lotions, compounds, and other like commodities not susceptible for beverage purpose, and to sell the same for public use.

If the liquor commission is satisfied that the facts stated in said affidavit are true and that the applicant is a person fit and proper to be entrusted with the permit applied for, the same shall be issued upon the filing by the applicant of a bond in the sum of two thousand dollars, with approved sureties, conditioned that the applicant will faithfully observe the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission.

Such special permit when so issued shall entitle the holder thereof to import into the state, or purchase from licensed distillers within the state or from the commission, alcohol or vinous liquors for use in manufacture, in accordance with the terms of said permit, and to sell the product of such manufacture, regardless of any of the other provisions of this chapter with respect to purchase and sale of alcohol or vinous liquors.

The state permit board may review the action of any city or town council, and boards of supervisors, in any case where a hearing has been had relative to the cancellation or revocation of a permit and it appears from the records of the hearing held by said city or town council or board of supervisors, that the permit has not been revoked or canceled, and it appears from an investigation made by the state permit board that there is reasonable ground to believe that such permit holder has been guilty of violation of the provisions of this chapter, and upon such hearing the permit board shall make a finding, after hearing the facts with reference to the grounds for the revocation of such permit, and by a majority vote shall determine whether or not such permit shall be revoked and make an order accordingly, and said finding shall be final.

If the state permit board finds from investigation that a review of the action of any city or town council, and boards of supervisors, should be had, or that such governing bodies have failed to take action, the state permit board shall thereupon fix a date for the hearing thereof and shall notify the permit holder of such hearing by registered mail of the date fixed for hearing and the date set for the hearing shall not be less than seven days from the mailing of the notice. Such notice shall be mailed to the permittee at the post-office address where his place of business is conducted under his permit. All such hearings shall be held at the seat of government, at Des Moines.

Like hearings may also be had in cases where a verified petition signed by at least ten taxpayers has first been presented to the city or town council, or the boards of supervisors, as the case may be, or where the state permit board from its investigation asks that a hearing be had on the revocation of a permit, and in the event the city or town council, including boards of supervisors, neglects or refuses to have such hearing, the matter may be presented to the state permit board upon such verified petition in writing, signed by at least ten taxpayers of the jurisdiction for which the permit was granted, or the state permit board may upon its own motion conduct such hearing, and the same procedure as in this section provided shall apply with reference to notice of hearing witnesses, testimony and contempt proceedings for failure to appear, and the board shall make a finding in such cases, which finding shall be binding on the permit holder and also on the city or town councils, or boards of supervisors, as the case may be. The said board or council shall, upon receipt of any such complaint, forthwith fix a date for hearing thereon and shall immediately thereafter cause a written notice of the date, time, and place of said hearing, together with a copy of the complaint filed, to be served by any peace officer upon the permit holder complained against, and upon the surety, or the agent or representative of such surety, on his bond. Said date of hearing shall not be sooner than five nor later than fifteen days after the filing of said complaint. Said hearing may be adjourned or continued at the discretion of the board or council for good cause shown and the specific reasons therefor entered of record in the records of the board or council, but except for extraordinary or unusual circumstances, specifically stated in writing and placed in the minutes of such board or council, no more than two continuances of not to exceed five days each shall be granted. When notice of appeal has been served and filed, the board or council, as the case may be, shall immediately certify all the original papers to the clerk of the district court together with a certified copy of the order appealed from. The appeal shall be heard and determined by the district court without jury, or by a judge thereof in vacation within ten days thereafter and the hearing thereof shall be given precedence over other matters pending in said court. The board or council and the permit holder may be represented by counsel at such hearing. The said district court, or judge thereof in vacation, shall have full jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter de novo, and the decision of the court or judge shall be final and not subject to appeal to the supreme court except on the question of violation of the constitutional rights of either party. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the development, establishment and enforcement of basic standards (1) for the care and treatment of individuals in hospitals and (2) for the construction, maintenance and operation of such hospitals, which, in the light of existing knowledge, will promote safe and adequate treatment of such individuals in hospitals, in the interest of the health, welfare and safety of the public. [C50, §135B.2]

Each application for license shall be accompanied by the license fee, which shall be refunded to the applicant if the license is denied and which shall be paid over into the state treasury credited to the general fund if the license is issued. In case of death of any person holding such license or the sale of any hospital licensed hereunder within the first year of the tenure of such license the department shall certify to the state comptroller a claim on behalf of the licensee for refund of a proportionate share of the license fee. Said refund shall be based on one-twelfth the amount thereof multiplied by the remaining months in the year. The comptroller shall thereupon draw a warrant against the general fund payable to the order of the licensee. Hospitals having fifty beds or less shall pay an initial license fee of fifteen dollars; hospitals of more than fifty beds and not more than one hundred beds shall pay an initial license fee of twenty-five dollars; all other hospitals shall pay an initial license fee of fifty dollars. [C50, §135B.4]

135B.5 Issuance and renewal of license. Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall be effected by mailing to the applicant or licensee by registered mail, or by personal service of, a notice setting forth the particular reasons for such action. Such denial, suspension, or revocation shall become effective thirty days after the mailing or service of the notice, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty-day period shall give written notice to the department requesting a hearing, in which case the notice shall be deemed to be suspended. If a hearing has been requested, the applicant or licensee shall be given an opportunity for a prompt and fair hearing before the department. At any time at or prior to hearing, the department may rescind the notice of denial, suspension or revocation upon being satisfied that the reasons for the denial, suspension or revocation have been or will be removed. When the application has been approved, the state department of health shall issue a permit to the applicant to construct or make alterations pertaining to water and sewage disposal upon a mobile home park and the appurtenances thereto according to the plans and specifications presented with the approved application.

No approval of plans and specifications and issuance of a permit to construct or make alterations upon a mobile home park and the appurtenances by the state department of health shall be construed as having been approved for other than sanitation.

Such a permit does not relieve the applicant from securing building permits in municipalities having a building code; or from complying with any other municipal ordinance or ordinances, applicable thereto, and not in conflict with this statute. [55GA, ch 138,§8]

135D.8 Denial of permit or license. If the objection can be corrected, the applicant may amend his application and resubmit it for approval, and if denied the applicant may within thirty days thereafter appeal from the decision of the state board of health to the district court of the county in which said mobile home park is located, and the case shall be tried in equity. [55GA, ch 138,§9]

In computing the length herein above described, the total length therein set out shall expressly include the trailer hitch or such other permanent extensions as may be attached to said trailer used or designed for use as a trailer hitch. Provided, however, that the licensee of a mobile home park shall not be required to collect or pay a monthly fee, as herein provided, for any space occupied by a mobile home accompanied by an automobile, if such mobile home and automobile bear license plates issued by any other state other than the state of Iowa, for an accumulated period not to exceed ninety days in any twelve-month period; provided, further, that all occupants of the said mobile home with accompanying automobile are tourists or vacationists. When one or more persons occupying a mobile home bearing a foreign license are employed within the state of Iowa, there shall be no exemption for monthly fees. In the event that an occupied mobile home is not harbored in a mobile home park the owner of said mobile home shall pay a monthly fee in the amount and in the manner as has heretofore been provided in this section. Each mobile home park licensee is hereby required to keep an accurate and complete record of the number of units of mobile homes harbored in his park and to report such information on or before the tenth day of each month to the county assessor and the records of every such licensee shall be open to inspection by the county assessor. [55GA, ch 138,§10]

*Section 135D.4 referred to in enrolled Act.

135D.10 Responsibility for monthly fee—distribution. The monthly fee for each occupied mobile home situated upon a licensed mobile home park shall be paid by the licensee thereof, or by the owner where the mobile home is not situated in a mobile home park, to the county treasurer of the county wherein such licensed mobile home park or mobile home is situated, on or before the tenth day of each and every month following thereafter. Such monthly fee is hereby allocated and required to be paid by the county treasurer as follows:

For each monthly fee collected by the county treasurer, fifty percent shall be paid to the local public school district wherein said licensed mobile home park or mobile home is located; twenty-five percent shall be paid to the municipal corporation wherein said licensed mobile home park or mobile home is located, and twenty-five percent shall be retained for the general fund by the county treasurer. If in the opinion of the state department of health the sanitary and facility requirements herein contained are too rigid for the mobile home park, it may in writing or by regulation modify such requirements as circumstances may permit and require. [55GA, ch 138,§16]

135D.16 Rules and regulations. The department shall have full authority to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for the administration and enforcement of this chapter, in addition hereto and not inconsistent herewith. All rules and regulations shall be filed and entered by the department in its office in an index, permanent book or record, with the effective date thereof suitably indicated, and such book or record shall be a public docu-

135D.17 Revocation and suspension of license. Any license granted hereunder shall be subject to revocation or suspension by a court of proper authority and jurisdiction, and the state department of health shall first serve or cause to be served a written notice specifying a way or ways in which said licensee has failed to comply with the chapter, or any special rules or regulations promulgated by the state department of health pertaining thereto. Said notice shall direct the licensee to remove or abate such nuisance, unsanitary or objectionable condition specified in said notice within five days, or within such reasonable period of time or extended period of time as may be reasonably allowed by the complaining officer. If the licensee fails to comply with the terms and conditions of said notices, within the time specified or such extended period or a period of time, the complaining officer may require the county attorney of the county in which such violation occurred to start a civil action to remove or abate such nuisance, unsanitary, unhealthful, or objectionable condition as complained of in the court of proper authority and jurisdiction of the city or county in the name of the state of Iowa, and if found guilty a decision may

5. "Isolation" shall mean the separation of persons or animals presumably or actually affected with disease, or who are disease carriers, or have been exposed to communicable disease, in such places and under such conditions as will prevent the direct or indirect conveyance of the infectious agent to susceptible persons. [S13,§2571-a; SS15,§2571-1a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§2247; C46, 50,§139.1] fectured with any venereal disease, the physician giving the same shall mail to the state department of health a report stating the case number, age, sex, color, marital condition, occupation, name of the disease, probable source of infection, and duration of the disease, except when the case occurs in a jurisdiction of a full-time municipal or county health officer, in which instance such report shall be sent direct to such officer who shall immediately forward same to the state department of health. It shall be the duty of the state department of health to report the number of the case and the name of the venereal disease reported as occurring in its jurisdiction, to each local board of health each month. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2281; C46, 50, §140.2]

140.3 Blood tests for pregnant women. Each physician attending a pregnant woman in this state during gestation shall, in the case of each woman so attended, take or cause to be taken a sample of blood of such woman within fourteen days of the first examination, and submit such sample for standard serological tests for syphilis to the state bacteriological laboratory of the state university at Iowa City or such other laboratories co-operating with and approved by the state department of health. In no event shall the birth certificate state the result of the test. [C39, §2281.2; C46, 50, §140.4]

Constitutionality, 48GA, ch 82, §8

140.5 Information. Every physician who examines or treats a person infected with any venereal disease shall give said person at the time of the first examination or treatment a circular of information concerning venereal disease and a copy of the provisions of this chapter, and he shall include in the report required by section 140.2 a statement that the require-

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2284; C46, 50, §140.7]

It shall be the duty of the state department of health when such reports are received to report the name of the infected person to the local board of health of the jurisdiction wherein he resides. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §2285; C46, 50, §140.8]

securing a betterment of the physical, mental, neural or psychical condition of the person, to protect society from the acts of such person, or from the menace of procreation by such person, and not in any manner as a punitive measure. [C31, 35,§2437-c12; C39,§2437.12; C46, 50,§145.12]

145.13 Consent to operation. If any person whose condition has been examined and reported upon by said board, as hereinbefore provided, shall consent in writing to have the operation specified in the order of said board performed, such operation shall thereupon be performed upon said person by or under the direction of the superintendent of the institution in which he is confined, if such person be an inmate of any of the state institutions herein mentioned, or if he is not an inmate of any of said institutions, such operation shall be performed by or under the direction of the state board of eugenics. All such operations shall be performed with due regard for the physical condition of the person upon whom it is performed and in a safe and humane manner. [SS15,§2600-s2; C24, 27,§3361; C31, 35, §2437-c13; C39,§2437.13; C46, 50,§145.13]

Referred to in §145.14

145.14 "Consent" defined. In case the person to be operated upon be feeble-minded or insane, the consent hereinbefore mentioned in section 145.13 shall be construed to mean the written consent of such person's legal guardian, or if such person has no legal guardian, then the written consent of such person's nearest known kin or personal friend within the state of Iowa, or if such person be insane, or feeble-minded, and has neither legal guardian nor known kin or personal friend within the state of Iowa, then the written consent of the guardian appointed by the court for such person as provided in this chapter. [C31, 35,§2437-c14; C39,§2437.14; C46, 50,§145.14]

145.15 Absence of consent. If any such person shall not consent, within twenty days from the service of such order upon him, to the performance of such operation, said board of eugenics, through its secretary, or other officer having charge of its records and files, within fifteen days thereafter, or such further time as the court or judge thereof may allow, shall file a transcript of its proceedings and of its said findings, conclusions, and order with reference to said person with the clerk of the district court of the county in which such person resides or may be found. [C31, 35, §2437-c15; C39,§2437.15; C46, 50,§145.15]

145.16 Appearance. Upon the filing of such findings, conclusions, and order, the clerk of the district court shall issue a summons directed to such person and deliver the same to the sheriff, together with a copy of such order prepared and certified by him and it shall be the duty of said sheriff to forthwith serve said summons and copy of order upon said person therein named, who shall be required, within twenty days after such service upon him, to enter his appearance in writing with the clerk of the district court in such case or by appearing in person before said clerk, who shall thereupon enter the appearance of such person in such proceeding. If he be an insane or feeble-minded person such appearance may be made by his guardian, if he have one; if not, then by his nearest of kin or near friend. If he be confined in an institution, facility shall be furnished him for making such appearance. [C31, 35,§2437-c16; C39,§2437.16; C46, 50,§145.16]

145.17 Court procedure. The issue thereby raised shall be whether the findings and conclusions of said board shall be affirmed by the court, and shall be tried in the district court of such county, as a special proceeding, in the same manner as a civil action at law in which the state shall be the plaintiff and the person so summoned shall be the defendant. Each party shall have the same rights as to production of evidence and the case shall be tried in the same manner as any other civil action. In all such cases the county attorney of the county where such proceedings are tried shall appear and prosecute such action on behalf of the state. If the defendant has no attorney and he is unable to secure one, the court shall appoint an attorney from the membership of the bar of said county to conduct his defense, and appeal, if any be taken as hereinafter provided, and such attorney shall be compensated by the state, upon order of the court. Upon the request of either party to such proceeding all questions of fact shall be tried by a jury and the court in every instance shall have the testimony fully reported at the expense of the state. [C31, 35,§2437-c17; C39, §2437.17; C46, 50,§145.17]

145.18 Judgment. If the findings and conclusions of the state board of eugenics shall be affirmed by the court, the defendant shall be immediately placed in custody by the sheriff of said county, and may be admitted to bail by the court, who shall fix the amount of such bail, and if not so admitted to bail, shall be held until the operation provided in such findings be performed. [C31, 35,§2437-c18; C39, §2437.18; C46, 50,§145.18]

145.19 Appeal. Either party to said proceedings may take an appeal from the district court to the supreme court of this state in the same manner and within the same time and with like effect as appeals in other civil actions are taken, and such case shall be tried in the supreme court in the same manner as other appeals in actions at law. If the defendant be represented by an attorney appointed by the court, and, in the opinion of the court, is financially unable to meet his part of the expense of an appeal, the defendant's actual and necessary expense of such appeal and prosecution thereof to final decree by the supreme court shall be paid by the state upon order of said district court, same to be paid out of the general funds of the state not otherwise appropriated. [C31, 35,§2437-c19; C39,§2437.19; C46, 50,§145.19]

The state shall be liable under this chapter, except as hereinabove provided for, only for the actual traveling expenses of the members of the board incurred in the performance of their duties, and the actual and necessary expense incident to the investigations of said board either on original case or an appeal therefrom. [C31, 35,§2437-c20; C39,§2437.20; C46, 50,§145.20]

145.21 Selection of physician. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to empower or authorize the state board of eugenics or its representatives, or the state health officer, or his representatives, or the superintendent of any of the institutions mentioned, or his representatives, to interfere in any manner with the individual's right to select the physician of his choice; provided, that such physician is in the judgment of the state board of eugenics competent to perform such operation; nor to interfere with the practice of any person whose religion treats or administers to the sick or suffering by purely spiritual means; provided that such practice, treatment or administration shall not in any way interfere with the operation of this chapter, and the carrying out of its purposes. [SS15,§2600-s2; C24, 27,§3363; C31, 35,§2437-c21; C39,§2437.21; C46, 50,§145.21]

It shall be the duty of the department of agriculture to eradicate bovine tuberculosis in all of the counties of the state in the manner provided by law as it appears in this chapter. Said department shall proceed with the examination, including the tuberculin test, of all such cattle as rapidly as practicable and as is consistent with efficient work, and as funds are available for paying the indemnities as provided by law.

It shall be the duty of each and every owner of dairy or breeding cattle in the state to conform to and abide by the rules laid down by the state and federal departments of agriculture and follow their instructions designed to suppress the disease, prevent its spread, and avoid reinfection of the herd. If the department deems that a due regard for the public health warrants it, it may enter into a written agreement with the owner, subject to such conditions as it may prescribe, for the separation and quar-

When any herd meets such requirements the owner shall be entitled to a certificate from the department showing that the herd is a tuberculosis-free accredited herd. Such certificate shall be revoked whenever the herd no longer meets the necessary requirements for an accredited herd, but the herd may be reinstated as an accredited herd upon subsequent compliance with such requirements. 192.10 Purity. No wholesaler or retailer of milk or cream, except the producer, shall offer or expose for sale any milk or cream unless the same is produced from cows known to be free from tuberculosis, as evidenced by a certificate issued within one year by a licensed veterinarian, and unless the same shall have been pasteurized according to the established regulations of the department of agriculture.

No milk dealer, as defined in this chapter, shall sell or offer for sale at retail, in any city or town any milk or cream unless same has been fully pasteurized as defined in this chapter, except that Grade "A" raw milk need not be pasteurized.

1. Raw milk. Grade "A" raw milk, to be bottled or sold as such is milk coming from healthy cows; which cows have been subjected to an annual test for both tuberculosis and brucellosis by an accredited veterinarian and found negative; that has been kept at the proper temperature and has been handled in a sanitary manner, is wholesome, unadulterated and otherwise fit for human consumption; the bacteria count of which does not exceed fifty thousand bacteria per milliliter, standard plate count, as determined by the logarithmic averages of four consecutive tests of milk samples taken on separate days and produced under the following conditions:

a. Milking barn or milking parlor shall be of a type that can be readily cleaned and be kept clean.

b. Cow's flanks and udders shall be clipped. Udders and teats shall be washed and disinfected before milking is begun.

c. A milk house, or milk room, shall be used and it shall be equipped to care for all milking equipment, the straining and cooling of all milk.

d. All milking equipment and containers shall be effectively cleaned, treated with a bactericidal solution and be stored where protected from contamination.

e. Bottling and capping shall be done only by mechanical equipment. Bottle lips shall be covered.

f. All milk must be effectively cooled.

g. The water supply must meet state health department requirements.

Milk that is to be used for pasteurized grade "A" shall meet the production requirements as set forth for grade "A" raw milk excepting the bacteria plate count or direct microscopic clump count, as delivered from the farm, does not exceed two hundred thousand per milliliter, or a methylene blue reduction time which is not less than five and one-half hours, or the resazurin reduction time of which to P seven-fourths is not less than two and three-fourths hours.

Provided, further that the composite raw milk, at no time between dumping and pasteurization, has a bacteria plate count, or a direct microscopic clump count exceeding four hundred thousand per milliliter or a methylene blue reduction time of less than four and three-fourths hours or a resazurin reduction time to P seven-fourths of less than two and one-half hours.

Excepting further that cows furnishing milk which subsequently will be pasteurized for grade "A" pasteurized milk shall be exempted from the annual test for brucellosis but shall by January 1, 1955 be from herds certified by the United States bureau of animal industry and the Iowa department of agriculture as following one of the three following plans of control:

Plan A. Test annually all cattle more than eight months of age except steers and official calfhood vaccinates until thirty-six months following date of vaccination. Slaughter all reactors, with indemnity payments as provided by state and federal regulations. Official calfhood vaccination to be optional with the herd owner.

Plan B. Test annually all cattle more than eight months of age except steers and official calfhood vaccinates until thirty-six months following date of vaccination. All reactors are to be identified and quarantined on farm provided that the owner may at his option retain such cattle for breeding purposes in accordance with the rules and regulations of the department. If a calfhood official vaccinate reacts, the animal may be quarantined on the farm and retested within sixty days at the owner's expense. Official vaccination of all female calves between the ages of four and eight months.

Plan C. Official vaccination of all female calves between the ages of four and eight months. The herd must be composed entirely of official vaccinates.

Nothing contained herein relating to said plans of control shall invalidate ordinances or regulations of any municipal corporation, providing for control of brucellosis by procedures other than the foregoing three plans of control so long as said ordinance or regulation shall embody plans and procedures approved by the United States bureau of animal industry and the Iowa Department of agriculture.

2. Pasteurized milk—grade "A". Grade "A" pasteurized milk is grade "A" raw milk for pasteurization which has been pasteurized, cooled, and placed in the final container in a milk plant approved by the secretary of agriculture which in all cases shows efficient pasteurization as evidenced by satisfactory phosphatase tests, and which at no time after pasteurization and until final delivery exceeds thirty thousand bacteria per milliliter, standard plate count or a coliform count exceeding ten per milliliter, as determined by the logarithmic averages of four consecutive tests of milk samples taken on separate days.

Provided, that the composite raw milk, at no time between dumping and pasteurization, has a bacteria plate count, or a direct microscopic clump count exceeding four hundred thousand per milliliter, or a methylene blue reduction time of less than four and three-fourths hours or a resazurin reduction time of P seven-fourths of less than two and one-half hours and processed in plants complying with the following:

a. Processing room must be separated from rooms used for other purposes.

b. The plant must be kept in a sanitary condition.

c. All equipment must be of a recognized standard type; have adequate drip protection.

d. All milk must be carried between equipment in sanitary lines. Drip and overflow milk must be discarded.

e. All equipment must be disassembled daily and thoroughly cleaned and after reassembling must be subjected to bactericidal treatment before use by approved methods, unless other methods are approved by the department.

f. Toilets must be conveniently located and meet sanitary standards.

g. Hand-washing facilities of approved type, having hot water, soap and individual towels must be provided convenient to the processing room.

h. The water supply must meet state health department requirements.

3. Pasteurized milk—grade not declared. Milk coming from healthy cows, that has been kept at the proper temperature and handled in a sanitary manner, is wholesome, unadulterated and otherwise fit for human consumption.

The bacteria standard plate count or direct microscopic clump count, as delivered from the farm, must not exceed five hundred thousand per milliliter or a methylene blue reduction time which is not less than three and one-half hours or a resazurin reduction time to seven-fourths of less than two hours; which shows efficient pasteurization; and which at no time after pasteurization and until final delivery exceeds seventy-five thousand bacteria per milliliter, standard plate count, as determined by the logarithmic averages of four consecutive tests of milk samples taken on separate days.

The secretary of agriculture shall be authorized to make needed regulations to promulgate production, processing and distribution standards for grade "A" pasteurized, pasteurized (grade not declared) and grade "A" raw milk which shall conform to United States public health service recommendations. Nothing contained in this chapter shall invalidate ordinances or regulations of any municipal corporation, providing inspections or imposing requirements higher than the minimum requirements provided in this chapter.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean compulsory grading of milk; such grades shall apply only to pasteurized and raw milk on which the grade is declared on the label. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3077; C46, 50, §192.10; 54GA, ch 80, §3; 55GA, ch 102, §§1, 2]

3. The term "weed seed" shall mean seeds of all noxious weeds listed herein and other plants commonly designated as weeds in this state.

4. Noxious weed seeds shall be divided into two classes, "primary noxious weed seeds" and "secondary noxious weed seeds" which are defined in a and b of this subsection; provided that the secretary of agriculture, upon recommendation of the state botanist, may add to or subtract from the list of seeds included under either definition whenever he finds, after public hearing, that such additions or subtractions are within the respective definitions.

a. Primary noxious weed seeds are the seeds of perennial weeds such as those that not only reproduce by seed but also by underground roots or stems and which when established are highly destructive and difficult to control in this state by ordinary good cultural practices. Primary noxious weeds in this state are the seeds of:

- (1) Quack grass—Agropyron repens
- (2) Canada thistle—Cirsium arvense
- (3) Perennial sow thistle—Sonchus arvensis

6. "Tolerance" means the allowable deviation from any figure used on a label to designate the percentage of any fraction in the lot in question. It is based on the law of normal variation from a mean. The secretary of agriculture shall prepare tables of maximum tolerances allowable in the enforcement of this chapter and may be guided in such preparation by the rules and regulations under the federal seed act.

7. "Treated seed" shall mean agricultural seed to which a fungicide has been added or applied for the purpose of controlling pathogens that cause crop diseases.

8. "Inoculant for leguminous plants" shall mean any bacterial culture, or material containing bacteria, that is represented as causing the formation of nodules and aiding the growth of leguminous plants by the fixation of nitrogen.

9. The term "labeling" includes all labels, and other written, printed, or graphic representations, in any form whatsoever, accompanying and pertaining to any seed whether in bulk or in containers, and includes invoices.

10. The term "advertisement" means all representations, other than those on the label, disseminated in any manner or by any means, relating to seed within the scope of this chapter. [S13, §§5077-a14-a17; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3127, 3128; C46, 50, §199.1]

200.2 Administration. This chapter shall be administered by the secretary of agriculture of the state, hereinafter referred to as the "secretary." [C46, 50,§200.2]

200.3 Definitions. As used in this chapter: The term "manufacturer" means a person engaged in the business of preparing, mixing, or manufacturing commercial fertilizer or fertilizer material.

The term "manufacture" means preparation, mixing, or manufacturing.

The term "commercial fertilizer" means any substance, including any combination or mixture of substances, designed and fit for use in inducing increased crop yields or plant growth when applied to the soil, except unmanipulated animal and vegetable manures, liming materials, and gypsum.

The term "fertilizer material" means any substance which is or may be used with another substance in the compounding of mixed fertilizers, or for direct application to the soil, principally as a source of plant food, except untreated animal and vegetable manure, liming materials, and gypsum.

The term "filler" means any foreign inert substance, of no agricultural value, added to superphosphate or to any other single fertilizer material, or added in the manufacture of any mixed fertilizer, to bring the weight thereof to the limit necessary to cause the particular lot to meet the guaranteed analysis filed with the secretary.

The term "brand" means the name, number, trade-mark, or other designation under which commercial fertilizer or fertilizer material is offered for sale, sold, or distributed in the state, and the fertilizer itself offered for sale, sold, or distributed under such name, number, trade-mark, or other designation.

The terms "grade" or "guaranteed analysis" mean the minimum guaranteed percentages, stated in whole numbers only, of nitrogen (N), phosphoric acid* (P_2O_5) in available form (comprising the water and citrate soluble), and available potash (K_2O). [C46, 50, §200.3]

*Phosphoric acid determined as P_2O_5

200.4 Registration of brands. It shall be unlawful for any person, acting for himself, or as agent, to sell or offer for sale within the state any commercial fertilizer or fertilizer material that has not been registered as required by this section.

Any person who may desire to sell or offer for sale, either by himself or through another person, commercial fertilizer or fertilizer material in this state shall first file with the secretary, on registration forms supplied by him, a signed statement, giving the name and address of the applicant, the name of his brand or trade-mark, and shall furnish the following information and guarantee for each package, bag, or bulk material to be sold within the state:

1. Weight of each package in pounds.
2. Brand name or trade-mark.
3. Guaranteed analysis showing the plant foods in the following order and giving:
 - a. Nitrogen, percent.
 - b. Available phosphoric acid, percent.
 - c. Available potash, percent.
4. Name and address of the person guaranteeing the registration.

In the case of bone, tankage, natural mineral phosphates, or other unacidulated phosphatic fertilizer materials in which the phosphoric acid is not shown by laboratory methods to be available but may eventually become available in the soil, the phosphoric acid may be guaranteed as total phosphoric acid. If the term "available phosphoric acid" be used in the statement of analysis, it shall mean the sum of the water soluble and citrate soluble phosphoric acid, except that when applied to basic slag or calcined phosphates the term "available" shall mean that part of the phosphoric acid found available by the Wagner citric acid method as adopted by the association of official agricultural chemists. In no case shall both the total phosphoric acid and available phosphoric acid be used in the same statement of analysis; except in the case of unacidulated mineral phosphates, when both the available and total phosphoric acid shall be guaranteed.

The person offering for sale or selling any mixed fertilizer or fertilizer material which is branded or trade-marked shall not be required to register the same if it has already been registered under this chapter by the person entitled to do so and such registration is then outstanding.

For the privilege of registration, the person applying therefor shall pay to the secretary in advance of registration twenty-five dollars for said brand or trade-mark used to designate his fertilizers.

Said registration shall expire on July 1 following its issuance. Said registration or a renewal thereof may be renewed for the period of one year by payment of a renewal fee of one dollar.

No drug defined in an official compendium shall be deemed to be adulterated under this paragraph because it differs from the standard of strength, quality, or purity thereof set forth in such compendium if its difference in strength, quality, or purity from such standard is plainly stated on its label. Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States it will be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

3. If any word, statement, or other information required by or under authority of this chapter to appear on the label or labeling is not prominently placed thereon with such conspicuousness (as compared with other words, statements, designs or devices, in the labeling) and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use.

4. If it is for use by man and contains any quantity of the narcotic or hypnotic substance alpha-eucaine, barbituric acid, beta-eucaine, bromal, cannabis, carbromal, chloral, coca, cocaine, codeine, heroin, marihuana, morphine, opium, paraldehyde, peyote, or sulphonmethane, or any chemical derivative of such substance, which derivative has been by the board after investigation, found to be, and by regulations under this chapter, designated as, habit forming, unless its label bears the name and quantity or proportion of such substance or derivative and in juxtaposition therewith the statement "Warning—May be habit forming."

Unless its labeling bears (a) adequate directions for use; and (b) such adequate warnings against use in those pathological conditions or by children where its use may be dangerous to health, or against unsafe dosage or methods or duration of administration or application in such manner and form, as are necessary for the protection of users; provided that where any requirement of clause a of this subsection, applied to any drug or device, is not necessary for the protection of the public health, the board shall promulgate regulations exempting such drug from such requirements.

7. If it purports to be a drug the name of which is recognized in an official compendium, unless it is packaged and labeled as prescribed therein; provided, that the method of packing may be modified with the consent of the board. Whenever a drug is recognized in both the United States Pharmacopoeia and the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, it shall be subject to the requirements of the United States Pharmacopoeia with respect to packaging and labeling unless it is labeled and offered for sale as a homeopathic drug, in which case it shall be subject to the provisions of the Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, and not to those of the United States Pharmacopoeia.

8. If it is found by the board to be a drug liable to deterioration, unless it is packaged in such form and manner, and its label bears a statement of such precautions, as the board shall by regulations require as necessary for the protection of public health. 12. A drug sold on a written prescription signed by a doctor, dentist or veterinarian (except a drug sold in the course of the conduct of a business of selling drugs pursuant to diagnosis by mail) shall be exempt from the requirements of this section if:

a. Such doctor, dentist or veterinarian is licensed by law to administer such drug, and

b. Such drug bears a label containing the name and place of business of the seller, the serial number and date of such prescription, and the name of the doctor, dentist or veterinarian.

13. 208.1 Definitions.

208.2 Illuminating oil tested.

208.3 Sampling.

208.4 Method of testing.

208.5 Records of department.

208.6 Gasoline receptacles.

208.7 Commingled products.

208.8 Fees for inspection.

208.1 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

1. The term "illuminating oil" shall mean all products known or sold as kerosene and any petroleum product sold for use in atmospheric pressure wickfed illuminating apparatus.

2. The term "department" shall mean the department of agriculture of the state of Iowa and shall include the authorized agents of such department. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3191; C46, 50, §208.1]

208.2 Illuminating oil tested. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale or use any illuminating oil in this state unless it has first been sampled for testing by the department as hereinafter provided, nor if the same, upon being tested by the department as hereinafter prescribed, emits a combustible vapor at a temperature of less than one hundred degrees Fahrenheit. [C73,§3901; C97, §§2505, 2508; S13,§2508; SS15,§2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§3197, 3202; C46,§§208.7, 208.12; C50, §208.2]

208.3 Sampling. Illuminating oil stored in any tank at or adjacent to a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state, from which same is withdrawn for sale or use in this state or for distribution to destinations in this state, shall be sampled for testing by the department whenever the stock in such tank is replenished. After replenishment of any such stock, no withdrawals shall be made therefrom for sale or use in this state or for shipment or delivery to points in this state, until a true sample of not less than sixteen fluid ounces is taken therefrom as hereinafter prescribed. Every person storing illuminating oil in such tanks shall notify the department of each consignment by which the stock in such tanks will be replenished. Illuminating oil imported into this state (other than that placed in storage at refineries or marine or pipe-line terminals in this state) shall not be unloaded or emptied from its original container or sold or offered for sale or used in this state until a sample of not less than sixteen fluid ounces is taken therefrom as hereinafter prescribed; provided that if such illuminating oil has been previously sampled or tested by the department, the same may be unloaded, emptied, sold, offered for sale or used. Every person receiving or about to receive illuminating oil so imported into this state which has not been previously sampled or tested as hereinafter provided for shall notify the department of the receipt or anticipated receipt of each consignment thereof.

If such replenishment or receipt of illuminating oil occurs during the usual business hours of any regular business day notice thereof (unless previously given stating the approximate date of anticipated replenishment or receipt) shall be given to the department forthwith. If such replenishment or receipt occurs outside usual business hours, such notice shall be given during the first usual business hour thereafter. For the purposes of this chapter, usual business hours shall be between 8 a. m. and 5 p. m. on any regular business day except Saturday and between 8 a. m. and 12 noon on Saturday. Sundays and legal holidays shall not be considered regular business days.

If, after the stock of illuminating oil has been replenished in any tank at a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state, such replenished stock has not been sampled by the department prior to the time the first withdrawal therefrom is made, the custodian of such oil shall take a true sample thereof, of not less than sixteen fluid ounces, for testing by the department. If illuminating oil brought into this state (other than that imported by boat, barge, or pipe line for storage at a marine or pipe-line terminal in this state) has not been sampled by the department prior to the time the same is ready for unloading in this state, the receiver thereof shall take a true sample therefrom, of not less than sixteen fluid ounces, for testing by the department. All such samples shall be immediately placed in a clean container and sealed. Suitable containers and seals shall be furnished by the department. The person taking such sample or custodian shall record upon or with the seal thereon the date and the identity of the conveyance or container, from which the sample was taken, and the kind of product sampled, together with such other information as the department may reasonably require for the proper identification of such sample and the making of a proper inspection certificate. Such sample thus taken shall be mailed or held for delivery to the department as the department shall prescribe. After such sample is taken, such illuminating oil may be withdrawn, unloaded, sold, offered for sale, or used, the same as if sampled by the department.

The department may, upon agreement with the operator of any refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal outside this state, provide an inspector or appoint an agent to sample or to make tests of illuminating oil at such refinery or terminal for shipment or delivery into this state in which case the procedures prescribed in this chapter may be performed thereat in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if such refinery or terminal was within this state. [C97, §§2504-2506; S13, §§2504, 2505, 2510-3a; SS15, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3193, 3198, 3199, 3208, 3209; C46, §§208.3, 208.8, 208.9, 208.18, 208.19; C50, §208.3]

208.4 Method of testing. All tests provided for in this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with the methods outlined by the American Society for Testing Materials—Method D-56 (A.S.T.M.) or with the Foster cup or Foster automatic oil tester. If Foster cup or Foster automatic oil tester is used, it shall be used in accordance with the following directions:

1. Remove the thermometer with its mountings from the oil cup.
2. Lift off the oil cup containing the flashing taper and fill open water bath with water to the mark upon the inside.
3. Take the wick holder from the oil cup, and fill this vessel with the oil to be tested, pouring in the oil at the place of the wick holder and noting the gauge mark at the thermometer hole, pouring very gradually as the surface approaches the gauge mark. The gauge mark consists of a small pendant shelf and the oil cup is properly filled when the upper surface of the oil just adheres to the lower surface of the gauge mark. Too much care cannot be taken at this point. Having ceased pouring, tip the cup so that the oil flows away from the gauge, then gradually restore it to the horizontal, and if the surface does not again adhere, add a little more oil.

4. Adjust the wick to the flashing taper to give a flame that does not exceed one-quarter of an inch in height and that exhibits as much blue at its base as yellow at its top.

5. Set the oil cup on top and into the water bath, return the flashing taper to its place, inverting the conical thimble around it, and return the thermometer to its place upon the cup. In doing this be sure that the casing of the latter is pushed down upon the cup as far as it will go.

6. Fill the lamp beneath half full of alcohol, light and place it beneath the water bath. Note the rate of increase in temperature as shown by the thermometer and adjust the wick to raise the temperature at the rate of two degrees per minute. When the temperature has reached eighty-five degrees, light the flashing taper and observe it closely. As soon as the oil under test has reached its "flashing point", the flame of this taper will be extinguished by the first "flash", and the point of attention is the temperature at the instant the flame of the taper is extinguished. This "flashing point" is the point of temperature at which the oil emits a combustible vapor.

The department shall determine which of the methods set out above shall be used in the inspection of kerosene, and shall by regulation prescribe the one method which shall be uniform in all kerosene inspections. [C97, §2504; S13, §2504; SS15, §2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3198; C46, §208.8; C50, §208.4]

208.5 Records of department. The department shall keep such records as may be necessary for the purposes of this chapter of all tests made by it of illuminating oil. Such records shall be open at all reasonable times to public inspection. The department shall furnish to the person for whom such tests are made a certificate of inspection covering each sample tested showing the date of such test, the identity of the conveyance or container from which the sample was taken, the kind of illuminating oil therein, the result of the test and inspection. [C97, §§2505, 2506; S13, §§2505, 2506; SS15, §§2505, 2506; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3199, 3215; C46, §§208.9, 208.25; C50, §208.5]

208.6 Gasoline receptacles. No person shall place gasoline or any other petroleum product having a flash point below one hundred degrees Fahrenheit into any bottle, can, cask, barrel or other similar receptacle having a capacity in excess of one pint unless the same is painted bright red and is plainly marked with the word "gasoline" or with the warning "flammable—keep fire away" in red lettering of a height equal to at least one-tenth of the smallest dimension of such container. The foregoing shall not apply to vehicle cargo or supply tanks nor to underground storage nor to storage tanks from which such liquids are withdrawn for manufacturing purposes or are loaded into vehicle cargo tanks, but all outlet faucets or valves from such excepted containers shall be painted bright red and suitably tagged to indicate the nature of the product to be withdrawn therefrom. No person shall place illuminating oil in any container which is painted red nor shall illuminating oil be loaded or withdrawn through any piping which is used or designated as aforesaid for products having a flash point below one hundred degrees Fahrenheit. [C97,§2505; S13, §§2510-1a,-2a,-j,-k; SS15,§2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §§3194-3196; C46,§§208.4-208.6; C50,§208.6]

208.7 Commingled products. If any illuminating oil is commingled with any other product the entire commingled products shall be deemed uninspected and untested, and it shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or use any such commingled product for illuminating purposes within this state unless and until the same has been inspected and approved for sale or use by the department. [C73, §3901; C97,§§2505, 2508; S13,§2508; SS15,§2505; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§§3201-3203; C46,§§208.11-208.13; C50,§208.7]

208.8 Fees for inspection. Illuminating oil inspections provided for in this chapter shall be deemed to be made for, and fees therefor at the rate of one cent per barrel (fifty gallons) on all illuminating oil received shall be paid by, the person who first received such illuminating oil in this state.

For the purposes of computing such fees, illuminating oil shall be deemed to be received in this state as follows:

1. If placed in storage at or adjacent to a refinery or a marine or pipe-line terminal in this state the same shall be deemed to be received when withdrawn from such storage for sale or use in this state or for transportation to destinations in this state other than for transfer to other refineries or marine or pipe-line terminals in this state and not before. When so withdrawn, such oil shall be deemed to be received by the person who was the owner thereof just prior to withdrawal. Provided that if such oil so withdrawn is shipped or delivered to a person engaged in the storage and distribution thereof by tank car or tank truck, such oil when so withdrawn shall be deemed to be received by such distributor.

2. If imported into this state (other than to a refinery or marine or pipe-line terminal in this state) the same shall be deemed to be received by the person who is the owner thereof immediately after the same is unloaded in this state.

Upon application of the manufacturer, packer, seller or distributor and the payment of a fee of twenty dollars for each brand of antifreeze submitted, the department shall inspect the antifreeze submitted. If the antifreeze is not adulterated or misbranded, if it meets the standards of the department, and is not in violation of this chapter, the department shall give the applicant a written permit authorizing the sale of such antifreeze in this state until the formula or labeling of the antifreeze is changed in any manner.

If the department shall at a later date find that the product to be sold, exposed for sale or held with intent to sell has been materially altered or adulterated, a change has been made in the name, brand or trade-mark under which the antifreeze is sold, or it violates the provisions of this chapter, the department shall notify the applicant and the permit shall be canceled forthwith. The department, through its agents, shall have free access by legal means during business hours to all places of business, buildings, vehicles, cars and vessels used in the manufacture, transportation, sale or storage of any antifreeze, and it may open by legal means any box, carton, parcel, or package, containing or supposed to contain any antifreeze and may take therefrom samples for analysis. [C50, §208A.5]

Then such statement may be contained in any advertising literature where such brand or trade-mark of antifreeze is being advertised for sale, and such statement may be used on all regular containers of such antifreeze. [C50, §208A.8]

229.1 Form of information—temporary observation. Applications for admission to the hospitals for the insane shall be by sworn information which shall allege and show:

1. That the person in whose behalf the application is made is believed to be insane, and a fit subject for custody and treatment in the hospital.

2. That such person has been found in the county.

3. The place of residence of such person or where it is believed to be, or that such residence is not known.

Provided, however, that application for admission may be made on behalf of a person by his attending physician and another physician experienced in the treatment of mental diseases, for a temporary admission for observation, examination, diagnosis and treatment, which admission shall not be for a period of more than thirty days and only after the written consent of said person. The application shall be made to the superintendent of the state hospital in the district in which the county of his residence is located. Said application shall not be accepted by the superintendent if by doing so it will result in an over-crowded condition or if adequate facilities are not available. At the expiration of the admission period, the superintendent shall make a certified report of the findings as to the mental illness of said applicant, one copy of which shall be sent to the attending physician filing the application and, if said report finds that said person is insane and in need of treatment, a copy shall be sent to the commission of insanity of the county in which the applicant is a resident.

If the certification of the patient's condition to his attending physician by the hospital superintendent states that a further period of observation and treatment is indicated without commitment of the person as insane, the attending physician may authorize a further period of such observation and treatment as recommended. During such extended period of observation, if the patient is not discharged a recommendation for commitment as insane may be filed with the commission. If the commission does not issue a commitment as insane after recommendation by the superintendent within five days following receipt of such recommendation, the superintendent may, upon authority of the board of control, discharge such patient from the hospital, and the hospital and board of control, after discharge of such patient, shall be absolved of further responsibility in connection with the case until such time as the same person may be committed.

The cost of hospitalization of persons committed temporarily under the provisions of this section shall be paid for in the same way as persons committed otherwise as insane. [R60,§1480; C73,§1399; C97,§2264; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3544; C46, 50,§229.1]

Referred to in §225.36

229.2 Hearing—custody. On the filing of such information, the commission, if satisfied that there is reasonable cause therefor, may require the alleged insane person to be brought before it and, to this end, may issue its warrant to any peace officer of the county. The commission may provide for the custody of such person until its investigation is concluded. [R60,§1480; C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3545; C46, 50,§229.2]

229.3 Subpoenas and oaths. The commission shall have power to issue subpoenas. Each member of the commission shall have power to administer oaths to witnesses. In case a witness fails to appear or refuses to testify, the commission shall, in writing, report such refusal to the district court or to a judge thereof, and said court or judge shall proceed as though such refusal occurred in a legal proceeding before said court or judge. 229.5 Appearance — right to counsel. Appearance on behalf of such alleged insane person may be made by any citizen of the county, or by any relative, either in person or by counsel.

If at said hearing such person appears without counsel or appearance is made in his behalf without counsel, the commission, before proceeding further, shall inform such person or persons appearing for him of his right to legal counsel, then if no counsel is employed, the district court shall assign him counsel. An attorney so assigned shall receive such compensation as the district court shall fix to be paid in the first instance by the county. [C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3548; C46, 50, §229.5]

229.6 Examining physician. The commission shall, in all cases, appoint, either from, or outside, its own membership, some regular practicing physician of the county to make a personal examination of the person in question for the purpose of determining his mental and physical condition. Said physician shall certify to the commission whether said person is sane or insane. [C73,§1400; C97,§2265; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3549; C46, 50,§229.6]

229.9 Findings and order—screening center. If the commission finds from the evidence that said person is insane and a fit subject for custody and treatment in the state hospital, it shall order first his observation and treatment at the screening center located at the hospital in the district nearest to the county in which the hearing is conducted and no order of commitment shall issue until the superintendent of the hospital at which said screening center is located shall find and recommend that such order should be issued and, in the event that such recommendation of commitment is made, the commission shall order his commitment to the hospital in the district in which the county is situated and in connection with such finding and order shall determine and enter of record the county which is the legal settlement of such person. If such settlement is unknown the record shall show such fact.

No person shall be ordered committed or delivered to a state hospital until the commission has first communicated with the superintendent of said hospital, and has been advised that adequate facilities are available. A person ordered to screening center for observation and treatment shall have the same right to appeal from the order as from the order of commitment finding him insane as provided in sections 229.17 to 229.19, inclusive. [R60,§1479; C73,§1401; C97,§2266; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3552; C46, 50,§229.9; 54GA, ch 86,§1; 55GA, ch 108,§1]

229.20 Beneficiaries of veterans bureau.

1. Whenever, in any proceeding under the laws of this state for the commitment of a person alleged to be of unsound mind or otherwise in need of confinement in a hospital or other institution for his proper care, it is determined after such adjudication of the status of such person as may be required by law that commitment to a hospital for mental disease or other institution is necessary for safekeeping or treatment and it appears that such person is eligible for care or treatment by the veterans administration or other agency of the United States government, the court, upon receipt of a certificate from the veterans administration or such other agency showing that facilities are available and that such person is eligible for care or treatment therein, may commit such person to said veterans administration or other agency. The person whose commitment is sought shall be personally served with notice of the pending commitment proceeding in the manner as provided by the law of this state; and nothing in this section shall affect his right to appear and be heard in the proceedings. Upon commitment, such person, when admitted to any facility operated by any such agency within or without this state shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the veterans administration or other agency. The chief officer of any facility of the veterans administration or institution operated by any other agency of the United States to which the person is so committed shall with respect to such person be vested with the same powers as superintendents of state hospitals for mental diseases within this state with respect to retention of custody, transfer, parole or discharge. Jurisdiction is retained in the committing or other appropriate court of this state at any time to inquire into the mental condition of the person so committed, and to determine the necessity for continuance of his restraint, and all commitments pursuant to this section are so conditioned.

2. The judgment or order of commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or of the District of Columbia, committing a person to the veterans administration, or other agency of the United States government for care or treatment shall have the same force and effect as to the committed person while in this state as in the jurisdiction in which is situated the court entering the judgment or making the order; and the courts of the committing state, or of the District of Columbia, shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the person so committed for the purpose of inquiring into the mental condition of such person, and of determining the necessity for continuance of his restraint; as is provided in subsection 1 of this section with respect to persons committed by the courts of this state. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the committing state or district in respect to the authority of the chief officer of any facility of the veterans administration, or of any institution operated in this state by any other agency of the United States to retain custody, or transfer, parole or discharge the committed person.

3. Upon receipt of a certificate of the veterans administration or such other agency of the United States that facilities are available for the care or treatment of any person heretofore committed to any hospital for the insane or other institution for the care or treatment of persons similarly afflicted and that such person is eligible for care or treatment, the superintendent of the institution may cause the transfer of such person to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States for care or treatment. Upon effecting any such transfer, the committing court or proper officer thereof shall be notified thereof by the transferring agency. No person shall be transferred to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States if he be confined pursuant to conviction of any felony or misdemeanor or if he has been acquitted of the charge solely on the ground of insanity, unless prior to transfer the court or other authority originally committing such person shall enter an order for such transfer after appropriate motion and hearing.

4. Any person transferred as provided in this section shall be deemed to be committed to the veterans administration or other agency of the United States pursuant to the original commitment. [C27, 31, 35,§3562-b1; C39,§3562.1; C46, 50,§229.20]

[C39, §3562.3; C46, 50, §229.22]

[R60, §1436; C73, §1403; C97, §2271; S13, §2271; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3564; C46, 50, §229.24]

230.1 Liability of county and state. The necessary and legal costs and expenses attending the arrest, care, investigation, commitment, and support of an insane person committed to a state hospital shall be paid:

1. By the county in which such person has a legal settlement, or
2. By the state when such person has no legal settlement in this state, or when such settlement is unknown.

The residence of any person found insane who is an inmate of any state institution shall be that existing at the time of admission thereto. [C73,§1402; C97,§2270; S13,§2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3581; C46, 50,§230.1]

230.2 Finding of legal settlement. The commission of insanity shall, when a person is found to be insane, or as soon thereafter as it obtains the proper information, determine and enter of record whether the legal settlement of said person is:

1. In the county of the residence of said commissioners;
2. In some other county of the state;
3. In some foreign state or country; or
4. Unknown.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3582; C46, 50,§230.2]

230.3 Certification of settlement. If such legal settlement is found to be in another county of this state, the commission shall, as soon as said determination is made, certify such finding to the superintendent of the hospital to which said patient is committed, and thereupon said superintendent shall charge the expenses already incurred and unadjusted, and all future expenses of such patient, to the county so certified until said settlement shall be otherwise determined as hereinafter provided. [C73,§1417; C97,§2281; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3583; C46, 50,§230.3]

230.4 Certification to debtor county. Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the commission to the county auditor of the county of such legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of his county, and it shall be conclusively presumed that such person has a legal settlement in said notified county unless said county shall, within six months, in writing filed with the commission of insanity giving said notice, dispute such legal settlement. [C73,§1402; C97,§2270; S13,§2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3584; C46, 50,§230.4]

230.5 Nonresidents. If such legal settlement is found by the commission to be in some foreign state or country, or unknown, it shall, without entering an order of commitment to the state hospital, immediately notify the board of control of such finding and furnish the board of control with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of legal settlement, and hold said patient for investigation by said board of control. [C73,§1402; C97,§2270; S13,§2270, 2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3585; C46, 50,§230.5]

230.6 Determination by board. The board of control shall immediately investigate the legal settlement of said patient and proceed as follows:

1. If the board of control finds that the decision of the commission of insanity as to legal settlement is correct, the board of control shall cause said patient either to be transferred to a state hospital for the insane and there maintained at the expense of the state, or to be transferred to the place of foreign settlement.

2. If the board of control finds that the decision of the commission of insanity is not correct, the board of control shall order said patient transferred to a state hospital for the insane and there maintained at the expense of the county of legal settlement in this state. [S13,§2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3586; C46, 50, §230.6]

Expenses certified to counties, §230.20

230.7 Removal of nonresidents. If at any time the board of control discovers that an insane patient in a state hospital was, at the time of commitment, a nonresident of this state, it may cause said patient to be conveyed to his place of residence if his condition permits of such transfer and other reasons do not render such transfer inadvisable. [C73, §1419; C97,§2283; S13,§§2283, 2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3587; C46, 50,§230.7]

230.8 Transfers of insane persons — expenses. The transfer to state hospitals or to the places of their legal settlement of insane persons who have no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, shall be made according to the directions of the board of control, and when practicable by employees of state hospitals, and the actual and necessary expenses of such transfers shall be paid on itemized vouchers sworn to by the claimants and approved by the board of control, from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. [S13, §§2308-a, 2727-a28b; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3588; C46, 50,§230.8]

230.9 Subsequent discovery of residence. If, after a patient has been received into a state hospital for the insane as a patient whose legal settlement is supposed to be outside this state or unknown, the board of control finds that the legal settlement of said patient was, at the time of commitment, in a county of this state, said board shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the commitment and support of said patient to the county of such legal settlement, and the same shall be collected as provided by law in other cases. [S13,§2727-a28a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3589; C46, 50,§230.9]

son to a state hospital for the insane under a finding that such person has a legal settlement in another county of this state, shall, in the first instance, be paid by the county of commitment. The county of such legal settlement shall reimburse the county so paying for all such payments, with interest. [S13,§2308-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3590; C46, 50,§230.10]

[S13,§2308-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3591; C46, 50,§230.11]

230.12 Action to determine legal settlement. When a dispute arises between different counties or between the board of control and a county as to the legal settlement of a person committed to a state hospital for the insane, the attorney general, at the request of the board of control, shall, without the advancement of fees, cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists, to determine such legal settlement. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that said dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the place of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of such settlement may be in the alternative. Said action shall be tried as in equity. [C73,§1418; C97,§§2270, 2282; S13,§2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3592; C46, 50,§230.12]

230.13 Judgment when settlement found within state. The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said insane person, at the time of the commitment, was in one of the defendant counties. If the court so find, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in insanity, and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due. [C73,§1418; C97,§2282; S13,§2308-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3593; C46, 50,§230.13]

230.14 Order when nonresidence or unknown settlement appears. If the court finds that the legal settlement of said insane person, at the time of commitment, was in a foreign state or country, or was unknown, an order shall be entered that said insane person shall be maintained in the hospital for the insane at the expense of the state. In such case the state shall refund to any county, with interest, all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in Insanity and paid by said county. Any decision by the court shall be final. [C73,§1402; C97,§2270; S13,§2270; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3594; C46, 50,§230.14]

The juvenile court shall have power to proceed with such child under the alternative or mandatory commitments provided in this chapter; but if the results, in the opinion of the court, be not conducive to the public interest and the welfare of the child, it may at any time revoke such orders of commitment and enter such judgment of conviction as the district court might have entered. [S13,§254-a17; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3636; C46, 50,§232.20]

232.21 Alternative commitments. The juvenile court, in the case of any neglected, dependent, or delinquent child, may:

1. Continue the proceedings from time to time and commit said child to the care and custody of a probation officer or other discreet person.

2. Commit said child to some suitable family home or allow it to remain in its own home.

3. Commit said child to any institution in the state, incorporated and maintained for the purpose of caring for such children.

4. Cause the child to be placed in a public or state hospital for treatment or special care, or in a private hospital which will receive it for such purpose, when such course seems necessary for the welfare of the child. [S13, §254-a20, -a23; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3637; C46, 50, §232.21]

Referred to in §232.23
Authorized institutions, §238.82

232.22 Guardianship and adoption. In case the court commits said child to the custody of some proper person or institution, such person or institution shall, by virtue of such custody, be the legal guardian of the person of such child and may be made a party to any proceeding for the legal adoption of such child, but any such adoption shall be approved by the court. [S13,§254-a21; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3638; C46, 50,§232.22]

Adoption in general, ch 600

232.23 Conditions attending commitment. In any case contemplated by section 232.21, the court may, from time to time, incorporate in its order such conditions and restrictions as it may deem advisable for the welfare of the child, and the jurisdiction of the court over said proceedings and said child shall continue until the child is legally adopted, or until the child is committed to a state institution. [S13, §254-a23; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3639; C46, 50,§232.23]

232.24 Religious belief. The court, in committing children, shall place them, as far as practicable, in the care and custody of some individual holding the same religious belief as the parents of said child, or with some institution which is controlled by persons of like religious faith with the parents of said child. [S13,§254-a27, 3260-g; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3640; C46, 50,§232.24]

232.25 Compelling support by parent. The court, in any proceeding hereunder relative to a neglected or dependent child, shall have jurisdiction, on reasonable notice to the parents of said child, to inquire into the ability of said parents to support said child and make all proper orders in reference thereto. The court may require such parent to enter into a bond, with or without surety, and in a reasonable sum, conditioned for the proper care, support, and supervision of such child. If it finds that the parent is able to support such child in any reasonable degree, it may require such parent to pay a reasonable amount of money into court at such times as it may provide, which sum shall be applied to the care of said child. Orders for the payment of money may be enforced by execution and in such case the parent ordered to make payment shall not be entitled to hold any property as exempt from such execution. All orders may be enforced by process of contempt until such orders are complied with. [S13, §§254-a25, -a31-a45, -a47; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3644; C46, 50, §232.25]

Referred to in §232.26
Contempt, ch 665
Enforcement of judgment and orders, §626.1
Similar provision, §627.12

232.26 Action on bond. In case of the breach of a bond given as required in section 232.25, the amount thereof shall be deemed liquidated damages, which, when collected, shall, under the orders of the court, be applied to the care of said child. The county attorney shall, on the order of the court, prosecute all actions on such bonds. [S13, §§254-a25, -a31-a45, -a47; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3645; C46, 50, §232.26]

232.27 Mandatory commitments. If commitment of any child is not made under the foregoing provisions of this chapter, or if made thereunder and the results, in the opinion of the court, are not conducive to the welfare of the child, the court shall proceed as follows:

1. If the child is neglected or dependent and is not delinquent, it shall be committed either to The Iowa Annie Wittenmyer home or to the Iowa juvenile home; provided, however, that any child not mentally normal, or who is incorrigible or who has any vicious habits, or whose presence in the home would be inimical to the moral or physical welfare of the children therein, shall not be committed to said homes.

2. If the child is over the age of ten years and, in the opinion of the court or judge is seriously delinquent or so disposed, it shall be committed to the state training school for boys or for girls, as the case may be; but married women, prostitutes, and girls who are pregnant shall not be committed to the training school. [C73, §§1653-1659; C97, §§2708, 2709; S13, §§254-a20, -a23, 2708, 2709; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3646; C46, 50, §232.27; 55GA, ch 109, §§1, 3]

Referred to in §232.28

232.28 Interpretative clause. It is the intent of section 232.27 to so classify commitments that the merely neglected and dependent child will not be associated with the delinquent, and that delinquent children will be so segregated that the least delinquent will not suffer by association with those of greater delinquency. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3647; C46, 50, §232.28.]

232.29 Right to transfer. The board of control, at any time, for the purpose of effecting, as nearly as practicable, the declared intent of this chapter, may transfer an inmate of any of said three state institutions to any other of said institutions. It may also transfer any feeble-minded child from said institutions to the institution for feeble-minded or to the hospital for epileptics and school for feeble-minded. The expense of such transfers shall be charged to the support fund of the institution from which the transfers are made. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3648; C46, 50, §232.29]

232.30 Term of commitment — warrant. Commitments shall be until the child attains the age of twenty-one years, but the board of control may release or discharge the child at any time after it has attained the age of eighteen years if such action will, in the judgment of the board, be best for the child.

A warrant of commitment shall consist of a copy of the order of commitment, certified to by the clerk, and shall be in duplicate, one of which shall be delivered to the executive head of the receiving institution and shall constitute sufficient authority to hold in custody the party committed. [C73, §§1653-1658; C97, §2708; S13, §§254-a23, 2708; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3649; C46, 50, §232.30]

232.31 Notice of discharge. When application, written or otherwise, is made to the board of control for the final discharge of any delinquent child under twenty-one years of age who has been committed by a juvenile court to any state institution, such board shall at once, by letter, give written notice of such application to the county attorney of the county from which commitment was made, and such child shall not be finally discharged in less than thirty days after such notice has been given. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3650; C46, 50, §232.31]

Referred to in §232.32

232.32 Exceptions. The provisions of section 232.31 requiring notice shall not apply to any case where it is proposed simply to parole any such delinquent child; and the board of control may at any time parole such a delinquent or cause him to be removed from any state institution and placed in the custody of a reputable citizen of the state whom the board may believe to be qualified to have such custody. [C27, 31, 35, §3650-a1; C39, §3650.1; C46, 50, §232.32]

232.33 Record of discharge. The board shall keep a full record of the discharge by it of all delinquent children which record shall among other matters show the reasons therefor and whether the discharge was on application or on the motion of the board. [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3651; C46, 50, §232.33]

232.34 Statement to superintendent. In case of a commitment to a state institution, the judge shall forward to the superintendent a statement of the nature of the complaint, and such other particulars as he may be able to ascertain, including the date of birth of the child, its habits and environments, the number of times it has been arrested and the cause therefor, the influence of the parent or custodian on such child, and the substance of the evidence introduced on the hearing. [C73,

§1657; C97,§2708; S13,§2708; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3652; C46, 50,§232.34]

232.35 Detention home and school in certain counties. In counties having a population of more than forty thousand, the board of supervisors shall, and in counties of over thirty thousand, said board may provide and maintain, separate, apart, and outside the inclosure of any jail or police station, a suitable detention home and school for dependent, neglected, and delinquent children. [S13,§254-a29; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3653; C46, 50,§232.35]

232.36 Tax. The board of supervisors may annually levy a tax of not to exceed one-fourth mill for the purpose of maintaining such home, and paying the salaries and expenses of all appointees authorized by this chapter, providing however that the board of supervisors in counties having a population of more than one hundred fifty thousand may annually levy a tax of not to exceed one-half mill for the above purposes. [S13,§254-a30; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3654; C46, 50,§232.36; 55GA, ch 110,§1]

232.37 Approval of institutions. The state board of social welfare shall designate and approve the institutions to which such children may be legally committed and shall have supervision and right of visitation and inspection at all times over all such institutions. [S13,§§254-a20, -a26; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3655; C46, 50,§232.37]

232.38 Reports by court and institutions. The juvenile court, and all institutions receiving such children, shall, between the first and fifteenth day of January of each year, make report to the state board of social welfare. The report shall embrace the number of children of each sex brought before the court during the past year, the number for whom homes have been provided, the number sent to state institutions, and the number in charge of each institution. [S13,§254-a26; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3656; C46, 50,§232.38]

232.39 Statutes construed liberally. This chapter shall be liberally construed to the end that its purpose may be carried out. [S13,§254-a28; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39,§3657; C46, 50,§232.39]
