f. The mortgagor is not now in default in the payment of an installment of principal or interest, escrow funds, real property taxes, or otherwise in the performance of obligations under the mortgage documents and has not to the knowledge of the mortgage lender been in default in the performance of an obligation under the mortgage for a period of longer than sixty days during the life of the mortgage.

g. The improvements to the mortgaged real property are covered by a valid and subsisting policy of insurance issued by a company authorized to issue policies in this state and providing fire and extended coverage in amounts as the authority prescribes by rule.

h. The residential mortgage loan meets the prevailing investment quality standards for residential mortgage loans in this state.

220.73 Rules.

The authority shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A relating to the purchase and sale of residential mortgage loans and the sale of mortgage-backed securities. The rules shall provide at least for the following:

1. Procedures for the submission by mortgage lenders to the authority of offers to sell mortgage loans.

2. Standards for allocating bond proceeds among mortgage lenders offering to sell mortgage loans to the authority.

3. Standards for determining the aggregate principal amount of mortgage loans to be purchased from each mortgage lender and the purchase price.

4. Schedules of fees and charges to be imposed by the authority.

5. Procedures for issuing mortgage-backed securities.

RESIDENTIAL MORTGAGE INTEREST REDUCTION PROGRAM

220.81 Residential mortgage interest reduction program.

1. The authority shall initiate a residential mortgage interest reduction program to reduce the interest costs on groups of mortgage loans. The authority shall use the money specially appropriated to operate this program, and the authority may use moneys declared to be surplus as provided in section 220.10, subsection 1, or moneys obtained from grants, gifts, bequests, contributions, and other uncommitted funds to operate this program.

2. Each mortgage loan included in this program shall be for the purpose of acquiring a single-family dwelling to be occupied by the owner of that dwelling, or a two-family dwelling where the owner will occupy one of the units. The authority shall adopt rules establishing the maximum purchase prices for both single family dwellings and two family dwellings in order to be included in a particular group of mortgages. These maximum purchase prices shall not exceed the maximum prices established by section 103A, Internal Revenue Code. These rules shall only apply to mortgages financed from the sale of tax exempt bonds.

3 The interest reduction established by the authority for a group of loans shall meet the requirements of this subsection. The interest rate of a loan shall be reduced for a period not to exceed five years. The interest rate of a loan during the first year shall be reduced by not less than three percent and not more than five percent. The amount of the reduction in the interest rate of the loan in each subsequent year of the reduction period, if there are any subsequent years, shall be equal to the percent reduction in the first year multiplied times a fraction which has as its denominator the total number of years of the interest reduction period and has as its numerator the number of years remaining in the interest reduction period at the beginning of the subsequent year. For purposes of this subsection the first year of the interest reduction period starts on the date the loan is closed and ends eleven months after the date of the first monthly payment.

4 The authority shall implement this program by allocating a specified amount of money to reduce the interest rate on some or all of the mortgage loans purchased. The authority shall pay for the interest reduction on a group of loans to mortgage lenders, mortgage purchasers, or investors at the same time that it purchases that group of loans. For each bond issue using this program the authority shall establish the interest rate reductions it will purchase, the amount the authority will pay for the interest rate reductions, and the method of determining which of the eligible loans will be reduced.

220.82 Lien.

The authority shall file a lien on the property for which an interest reduction payment is made in the amount of the payment. The lien shall be filed in the recorder's office of the county in which the property is located.

83 Acts, ch 124, §11

220.83 Recapture of interest reduction payment.

1 A mortgagor shall repay the authority the lesser of the amount of interest reduction payment actually paid by the authority on behalf of the mortgagor or fifty percent of the net appreciation of the property. The term "net appreciation of the property" as used in this section means an increase in the value of the property over the purchase price less the reasonable costs of sale and the reasonable costs of improvements made to the property.

2 Repayment shall be made when any of the following occur:

a. The mortgagor sells or otherwise transfers the property. However, repayment is not required if the transfer is to the surviving spouse of the mortgagor upon the mortgagor's death.

b. The mortgagor rents the property for more than twelve months.

c. The mortgagor requests the authority to release the lien on the property.

d. The mortgage lender files a court action to foreclose on the mortgage. However, the authority may abate payment pending the outcome of the foreclosure action.

220.84 Rules.

The authority shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A for the administration of the residential mortgage interest reduction program. The rules shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

1 Standards for eligibility of a mortgagor including a minimum down payment or interest in the property.

2 Standards for the eligibility of the property.

3 Procedures for application to participate in the program.

4 Procedures for payment of the interest reduction payment to the mortgage lender or mortgage investor.

5 Standards for determining the amount of interest reduction that will be approved.

6 Schedules of fees and charges to be imposed by the authority.

1 The authority through the title guaranty division shall initiate and operate a program in which the division shall offer guaranties of real property titles in this state. The terms, conditions and form of the guaranty contract shall be forms approved by the division board. The division shall fix a charge for the guaranty in an amount sufficient to permit the program to operate on a self-sustaining basis, including payment of administrative costs and the maintenance of an adequate reserve against claims under the title guaranty program. A title guaranty fund is created in the office of the treasurer of state. Funds collected under this program shall be placed in the title guaranty fund and are available to pay all claims, necessary reserves and all administrative costs of the title guaranty program. Moneys in the fund shall not revert to the general fund and interest on the moneys in the fund shall be retained as a part of the fund and shall not accrue to the general fund. If the authority board in consultation with the division board determines that there are surplus funds in the title guaranty fund after providing for adequate reserves and operating expenses of the division, the surplus funds shall be transferred to the housing program fund created pursuant to section 220.40.

2 A title guaranty issued under this program is an obligation of the division only and claims are payable solely and only out of the moneys, assets and revenues of the title guaranty fund and are not an indebtedness or liability of the state. The state is not liable on the guaranties.

3 With the approval of the authority board the division and its board shall consult with the insurance division of the department of commerce in developing a guaranty contract acceptable to the secondary market and developing any other feature of the program with which the insurance division may have special expertise. The insurance division shall establish the amount for a loss reserve fund. Except as provided in this subsection, the title guaranty program is not subject to the jurisdiction of or regulation by the insurance division or the commissioner of insurance.

4 Each participating attorney and abstractor may be required to pay an annual participation fee to be eligible to participate in the title guaranty program. The fee, if any, shall be set by the division, subject to the approval of the authority.

5 The participation of abstractors and attorneys shall be in accordance with rules established by the division and adopted by the authority pursuant to chapter 17A. Each participant shall at all times maintain liability coverage in amounts approved by the division. Upon payment of a claim by the division, the division shall be subrogated to the rights of the claimant against all persons relating to the claim.

6 Prior to the issuance of a title guaranty, the division shall require evidence that an abstract of title to the property in question has been brought up to date and certified by a participating abstractor in a form approved by division rules and a title opinion issued by a participating attorney in the form approved in the rules stating the attorney's opinion as to the title. The division shall require evidence of the abstract being brought up to date and the abstractor shall retain evidence of the abstract as determined by the board.

7 The attorney rendering a title opinion shall be authorized to issue a title guaranty certificate subject to the rules of the authority.

8 The authority shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A that are necessary for the implementation of the title guaranty program as established by the division and that have been approved by the authority.

220.100 Housing trust fund program.

1 A housing trust fund is created within the authority. The moneys in the housing trust fund are annually appropriated to the authority which shall allocate the available funds among and within the programs authorized by this section. The authority may provide financial assistance in the form of loans, guarantees, grants, interest subsidies or by other means for the programs authorized by this section.

2 By rule, the authority shall establish the following financial assistance programs and provide the requirements for their proper administration:

a A grant program for the homeless for the construction, rehabilitation, or expansion of group home shelter for the homeless.

b A home maintenance and repair program providing repair services to elderly, handicapped, or disabled families which qualify as lower income or very low income families.

c A rental rehabilitation program for the construction or rehabilitation of single or multifamily rental properties leased to lower income or very low income families.

d A home ownership incentive program to help lower income and very low income families achieve single family home ownership.

3 The authority shall coordinate the programs authorized by this section with the other programs under the jurisdiction of the authority.

4 Each application for financial assistance shall be rated based on local, housing sponsor, and recipient financial commitment, proposals for leveraging other financial assistance, experience with the recipient group involved, consideration for the housing project in the context of overall community needs, including vacancy rate of rental property and ratio of subsidized rental housing to nonsubsidized housing, ability to provide a counseling support system to the recipients, and a demonstrated capability by the housing sponsor to provide follow up monitoring of recipients to determine if identifiable results have been achieved.

5 For the purposes of this section, "housing sponsor" is limited to private nonprofit corporations and local governments and joint ventures involving a private nonprofit corporation or local government and does not include a for profit entity.

6 None of the funds provided to a housing sponsor under this section shall be used for the costs of administration. The authority may expend up to four percent of the funds appropriated for the programs in this section for the administrative costs under this section to hire adequate staff to carry out these programs.

IOWA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BOND BANK PROGRAM

220.101 Legislative findings.

The general assembly finds and declares that

1 Economic development and expansion of business, industry, and farming in the state is dependent upon the availability of financing of the development and expansion at affordable interest rates.

2 Private financing at low interest rates for small business under the Iowa finance authority small business loan program, for beginning farmers under the agricultural development authority beginning farmer loan program or soil conservation loan program, and for commercial, industrial, and other business enterprises pursuant to chapter 419 is severely limited because of the unattractiveness of tax exempt financing to financial institutions in the state

3 The pooling of private financing enhances the marketability of the obligations involved and increases access to other state, regional, and national credit markets

4 The creation of an Iowa economic development bond bank program will make the pooling of private financing available to small businesses, farmers, agricultural landowners and operators, and commercial, industrial, and other business enterprises at favorable interest rates with reduced marketing costs

5 All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned, or granted

220.102 Establishment of bond bank program — bonds and notes — projects.

The authority shall assist the development and expansion of family farming, soil conservation, housing, and business in the state through the establishment of the Iowa economic development bond bank program. The authority may issue its bonds or notes, or series of bonds or notes for the purpose of defraying the cost of one or more projects and make secured and unsecured loans for the acquisition and construction of projects on terms the authority determines. For purposes of this section, projects shall include any of the following

1 A project defined in section 220 1, subsection 26, for which loans may be made by the authority pursuant to the small business loan program

2 The acquisition of agricultural land and improvements and depreciable agricultural property by beginning farmers for the implementation of permanent soil and water conservation practices and the acquisition of conservation farm equipment, or any other purpose for which loans may be made by the Iowa agricultural development authority pursuant to chapter 175

3 A project defined in section 419 1, subsection 2, for which bonds or notes may be issued by a city or a county

220.103 Iowa economic development bond bank program — specific powers.

In carrying out the Iowa economic development bond bank program, the authority may do any of the following

1 Make secured and unsecured loans for both the acquisition and the construction of projects on terms the authority determines. Any loan made with respect to any project for which a loan may be made pursuant to chapter 175 shall be made only upon the request and with the consent of the agricultural development authority. The loans may be made to any person or entity including, but not limited to, a city, a county, and the agricultural development authority for projects approved by the Iowa finance authority. The Iowa finance authority may take any action which is reasonable and lawful to protect its security and to avoid losses from its loans

2 Acquire, hold, and mortgage personal property and real estate and interests in real estate to be used as a project

3 Purchase, construct, improve, furnish, equip, lease, option, sell, exchange, or otherwise dispose of one or more projects under the terms the authority determines. However, in the lease, sale, or loan agreement relating to a project, the authority shall provide for adequate maintenance of the project

4 Grant a mortgage, lien, pledge, assignment, or other encumbrance on one or more projects, revenues, or reserve or other funds established in connection with obligations, or with respect to a lease, sale, or loan relating to one or more projects, or a guaranty or insurance agreement relating to one or more projects, or a secured or unsecured interest of the authority in one or more projects or parts of one or more projects

5 Provide that the interest on obligations may vary in accordance with a base or formula authorized by the authority

6 Contract for the acquisition, construction, or both of one or more projects or parts of one or more projects and for the leasing, subleasing, sale, or other disposition of one or more projects in a manner determined by the authority

1 The authority may enter into loan agreements with one or more borrowers to finance in whole or in part the acquisition of one or more projects by construction or purchase. The repayment obligation of the borrower or borrowers may be unsecured, secured by a mortgage or security agreement, or secured by other security as the authority deems advisable. The repayment obligation may be evidenced by one or more notes of the borrower or borrowers. The loan agreements may contain terms and conditions the authority deems advisable

2 The authority may issue its bonds and notes for the projects set forth in section 220 102 and may enter into one or more lending agreements or purchase agreements with one or more bondholders or noteholders containing the terms and conditions of the repayment of and the security for the bonds or notes. The authority and the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority may enter into agreements to provide for any of the following

a. That the proceeds of the bonds and notes and the investments of the proceeds may be received, held, and disbursed by the bondholders or noteholders, or by a trustee or agent designated by the authority

b. That the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority may collect, invest, and apply the amounts payable under the loan agreements or any other security instruments securing the debt obligations of the borrower or borrowers

c That the bondholders or noteholders may enforce the remedies provided in the loan agreements or security instruments on their own behalf without the appointment or designation of a trustee. If there is a default in the principal of or interest on the bonds or notes or in the performance of any agreement contained in the loan agreements or security instruments, the payment or performance may be enforced in accordance with the loan agreement or security instrument

d That if there is a default in the payment of the principal or interest on a mortgage or security instrument or if there is a violation of an agreement contained in the mortgage or security instrument, the mortgage or security instrument may be foreclosed or enforced. Collateral may be sold under proceedings or actions permitted by law. A trustee under the mortgage or security agreement or the holder of any bonds or notes secured by the mortgage or security agreement may become a purchaser if the trustee or holder is the highest bidder

e Other terms and conditions as deemed necessary or appropriate by the authority

220.105 Security for bonds — reserve funds — validity of pledge — nonliability — irrevocable contracts.

1 The authority may provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of its bonds or notes for the Iowa economic development bond bank program that the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the bonds or notes are payable exclusively from any of the following

a The income and receipts or other money derived from the projects financed with the proceeds of the bonds or notes

b The income and receipts or other money derived from designated projects whether or not the projects are financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of the bonds or notes

c The authority's income and receipts of other assets generally, or a designated part or parts of them

2 For the purpose of securing one or more issues of its bonds or notes, the authority may establish one or more special funds, called "capital reserve funds". The authority may pay into the capital reserve funds the proceeds of the sale of its bonds or notes and other money which may be made available to the authority from other sources for the purposes of the capital reserve funds. Except as provided in this section, money in a capital reserve fund shall be used only as required for any of the following a The payment of the principal of and interest on bonds or notes or of the sinking fund payments with respect to those bonds or notes

b The purchase or redemption of the bonds or notes

c The payment of a redemption premium required to be paid when the bonds or notes are redeemed before maturity

However, money in a capital reserve fund shall not be withdrawn if the withdrawal would reduce the amount in the capital reserve fund to less than the capital reserve fund requirement, except for the purpose of making payment, when due, of principal, interest, redemption premiums on the bonds or notes, and making sinking fund payments when other money pledged to the payment of the bonds or notes is not available for the payments. Income or interest earned by, or increment to, a capital reserve fund from the investment of all or part of the fund may be transferred by the authority to other funds or accounts of the authority if the transfer does not reduce the amount of the capital reserve fund below the capital reserve fund requirement

3 If the authority decides to issue bonds or notes secured by a capital reserve fund, the bonds or notes shall not be issued if the amount in the capital reserve fund is less than the capital reserve fund requirement, unless at the time of issuance of the bonds or notes the authority deposits in the capital reserve fund from the proceeds of the bonds or notes to be issued or from other sources, an amount which, together with the amount then in the fund, is not less than the capital reserve fund requirement

4 In computing the amount of a capital reserve fund for the purpose of this section, securities in which all or a portion of the fund is invested shall be valued by a reasonable method established by the authority by resolution. Valuation shall include the amount of interest earned or accrued as of the date of valuation

5 In this section, "capital reserve fund requirement" means the amount required to be on deposit in the capital reserve fund as of the date of computation as determined by resolution of the authority

6 To assure maintenance of the capital reserve funds, the chairperson of the authority shall, on or before July 1 of each calendar year, make and deliver to the governor the chairperson's certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore each capital reserve fund to the capital reserve fund requirement for that fund. Within thirty days after the beginning of the session of the general assembly next following the delivery of the certificate, the governor may submit to both houses printed copies of a budget including the sum, if any, required to restore each capital reserve fund to the capital reserve fund requirement for that fund. Any sums appropriated by the general assembly and paid to the authority pursuant to this section shall be deposited by the authority in the applicable capital reserve fund

7 All amounts paid to the authority by the state pursuant to this section shall be considered advances by the state to the authority and, subject to the rights of the holders of any bonds or notes of the authority that have previously been issued or will be issued, shall be repaid to the state without interest from all available operating revenues of the authority in excess of amounts required for the payment of bonds, notes, or obligations of the authority, the capital reserve fund, and operating expenses.

8. If any amount deposited in a capital reserve fund is withdrawn for payment of principal, premium, or interest on the bonds or notes or sinking fund payments with respect to bonds or notes thus reducing the amount of that fund to less than the capital reserve fund requirement, the authority shall immediately notify the general assembly of this event and shall take steps to restore the capital reserve fund to the capital reserve fund requirement for that fund from any amounts designated as being available for such purpose.

9. The authority may establish reserve funds, other than capital reserve funds, to secure one or more issues of its bonds or notes. The authority may deposit in a reserve fund established under this subsection the proceeds of the sale of its bonds or notes and other money which is made available from any other source. The authority may allow a reserve fund established under this subsection to be depleted without complying with subsection 6 or subsection 8.

10. It is the intention of the general assembly that a pledge made in respect of bonds or notes shall be valid and binding from the time the pledge is made, that the money or property so pledged and received after the pledge by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of the pledge without physical delivery or further act, and that the lien of the pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the authority whether or not the parties have notice of the lien. Neither the resolution, trust agreement, nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created needs to be recorded or filed under the Iowa uniform commercial code to be valid, binding, or effective against the parties.

11. Neither the members of the authority nor a person executing the bonds or notes are liable personally on the bonds or notes or are subject to personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the bonds or notes.

12. The bonds or notes issued by the authority are not an indebtedness or other liability of the state or of a political subdivision of the state, except the authority, and are payable solely from the income and receipts or other funds or property of the authority which are designated in the resolution of the authority authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes as being available as security for bonds or notes. The authority shall not pledge the faith or credit of the state or of a political subdivision of the state, except the authority, to the payment of a bond or note. The issuance of a bond or note by the authority does not directly, indirectly, or contingently obligate the state or a political subdivision of the state to apply money from, or levy or pledge any form of taxation whatever to the payment of the bond or note.

13. The state pledges to and agrees with the holders of bonds or notes issued under the Iowa economic development bond bank program, that the state will not limit or alter the rights and powers vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of a contract made by the authority with respect to the bonds or notes, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders until the bonds and notes, together with the interest on them including interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with an action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state, as it refers to holders of bonds or notes of the authority, in a contract with the holders.

EXPORT BUSINESS FINANCE PROGRAM

Intent that legislative council study feasibility of world trade institute, limited authority to economic development department to provide for a foreign visitor reception and information center, leased exhibit space, a one year agreement for representation of Iowa as a location for foreign investment, and encouragement of trade shows and missions, 87 Acts, ch 141, §8-11

220.121 Legislative findings — purposes — public policy.

1. The general assembly finds and declares as follows:

a. The economy of the state of Iowa and opportunities for employment within the state are increasingly dependent upon the international exports of Iowa manufactured goods and services and the growth of international export markets for those manufactured goods and services.

b. Other states have utilized or are preparing to utilize the resources of their state governments to stimulate, facilitate, and promote international exports.

c. Competition among businesses and countries will endure and intensify as more countries seek to expand their international export capacities.

d. Expanding international export markets is essential in order to maintain a vigorous and growing economy and to provide adequate job opportunities for Iowa citizens.

e Iowa has a responsibility to create employment opportunities by encouraging and stimulating the development of international export sales and markets by export businesses

f Iowa export businesses find it increasingly difficult to compete with foreign exporters which benefit from their governmentally supported financing programs.

g Increased export sales may best be stimulated by making financial assistance available to export businesses to develop and expand international export markets and to ensure the competitiveness of Iowa products and services in foreign markets, thereby increasing employment opportunities available to the citizens of Iowa

h Export businesses seeking to enter foreign markets face severe problems financing and insuring their transactions

i Export business expansion and development is dependent upon the availability of financing for expansion at interest rates, terms, and conditions which are reasonable to export businesses

j Private and public financing for export businesses with reasonable rates, terms, and conditions is unavailable to assist export business expansion and development

k The Iowa export business finance program is necessary to encourage the investment of private capital in export business expansion and development

2 The purposes of the export business finance program are to a Promote the business prosperity and economic welfare of Iowa and Iowans

b Provide financial assistance for the location of new or the expansion of existing export businesses in Iowa through the sale of bonds and notes, subsidies, loans, guarantees, insurance, grants, investments, contracts, or other transactions

c Provide employment opportunities and thereby improve the standard of living of Iowans

d Promote industrial, commercial, and recreational development in Iowa

3 All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys provided by the sale of bonds and notes, or otherwise available through appropriations, grants, contributions, or declared surplus moneys may be used

4 It is the public policy of the state through the establishment of the export business finance program to promote the economic welfare of Iowans and to improve employment opportunities for Iowans To advance the public policy the authority may provide financial assistance for export businesses through the sale of bonds and notes, loans, guarantees, insurance, grants, subsidies, investments, contracts, or other transactions

220.122 Iowa export business finance program.

The authority shall initiate a program to assist the development and expansion of export business in the state The authority may issue bonds and notes the proceeds of which shall be used to provide financial assistance for export businesses The authority may also provide financial assistance to export businesses through the use of loans, guarantees, insurance, grants, subsidies, investments, contracts, or other transactions

220.123 Export business finance program – powers.

In assisting Iowa export businesses, the authority has all the powers specified in section 220 5 and in this part including, but not limited to, the following

1 The authority may provide financial assistance, including guarantees described in subsection 2, to mortgage lenders or export businesses to finance international exports from the state which, in the judgment of the authority, will create or maintain employment in Iowa Financial assistance shall only be provided where at least twenty five percent of the value of the international exports is derived from goods or services whose final production process occurs in the state The authority may charge reasonable fees for providing financial assistance

2 The authority may provide guarantees for international exports against political or commercial loss, in whole or in part, of principal and interest The guarantees may include, without limitation, insurance against a loss up to a stated amount which shall be set by the authority Guarantees may include a pool of individual export transactions A guarantee entered into by the authority shall not constitute a general obligation of the state of Iowa Guarantees made by the authority shall not be terminated, canceled, or otherwise revoked except in accordance with the terms of the guarantees

3 The authority shall provide financial assistance only to the extent that the financial assistance is reasonably necessary to stimulate or facilitate the making of an international export transaction including, without limitation, the making of the international export transaction upon terms which will enable the transaction to be reasonably competitive with transactions in other states or in foreign countries The authority may condition the provision of financial assistance upon such other terms and conditions as it may deem desirable to carry out the purposes of the program Prior to providing financial assistance, the participating mortgage lender shall make an investigation of a line of credit to the export business in order to determine its viability, the economic benefits to be derived from the line of credit, the prospects for repayment, and other facts as it deems necessary in order to determine that financial assistance is consistent with the purposes of the program

220.124 Advisory board.

The executive director may appoint a three-member advisory board to advise the authority on matters relating to international exporting and the export business finance program Advisory board members shall be selected primarily for knowledge in the areas of international trade, finance, or business management

87 Acts, ch 141, §6

SEWAGE TREATMENT WORKS FINANCING

220.131 Iowa sewage treatment works financing program — definitions — funding — bonds and notes.

1 The authority shall cooperate with the department of natural resources in the creation, administration, and financing of the Iowa sewage treatment works financing program established in sections 455B 291 through 455B 299

2 Terms used in this part have the meanings given them in sections 455B 101 and 455B 291 unless the context requires otherwise

3 The authority may issue its bonds and notes for the purpose of funding the revolving loan fund created under section 455B 295 and defraying the costs of payment of the twenty percent state matching funds required for federal funds received for projects

4 The authority may issue its bonds and notes for the purposes established and may enter into one or more lending agreements or purchase agreements with one or more bondholders or noteholders containing the terms and conditions of the repayment of and the security for the bonds or notes. The authority and the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee agent designated by the authority may enter into agreements to provide for any of the following

a. That the proceeds of the bonds and notes and the investments of the proceeds may be received, held, and disbursed by the authority or by a trustee or agent designated by the authority

b. That the bondholders or noteholders or a trustee or agent designated by the authority may collect, invest, and apply the amount payable under the loan agreements or any other instruments securing the debt obligations under the loan agreements

c. That the bondholders or noteholders may enforce the remedies provided in the loan agreements or other instruments on their own behalf without the appointment or designation of a trustee. If there is a default in the principal of or interest on the bonds or notes or in the performance of any agreement contained in the loan agreements or other instruments, the payment or performance may be enforced in accordance with the loan agreement or other instrument

d. Other terms and conditions as deemed necessary or appropriate by the authority

5 The powers granted the authority under this section are in addition to other powers contained in this chapter. All other provisions of this chapter, except section 220 28, subsection 4, apply to bonds or notes issued and powers granted to the authority under this section except to the extent they are inconsistent with this section

6 All bonds or notes issued by the authority in connection with the program are exempt from taxation by this state and the interest on the bonds or notes is exempt from state income tax

220.132 Security — reserve funds — pledges — nonliability — irrevocable contracts.

1 The authority may provide in the resolution, trust agreement, or other instrument authorizing the issuance of its bonds or notes pursuant to section 220 131 that the principal of, premium, and interest on the bonds or notes are payable from any of the following and may pledge the same to its bonds and notes

a. The income and receipts or other money derived from the projects financed with the proceeds of the bonds or notes

b. The income and receipts or other money derived from designated projects whether or not the projects are financed in whole or in part with the proceeds of the bonds or notes

c. The amounts on deposit in the revolving loan fund

d. The amounts payable to the department by municipalities pursuant to loan agreements with municipalities

e. Any other funds or accounts established by the authority in connection with the program or the sale and issuance of its bonds or notes

2 The authority may establish reserve funds, to secure one or more issues of its bonds or notes. The authority may deposit in a reserve fund established under this subsection the proceeds of the sale of its bonds or notes and other money which is made available from any other source

3 It is the intention of the general assembly that a pledge made in respect of bonds or notes shall be valid and binding from the time the pledge is made, that the money or property so pledged and received after the pledge by the authority shall immediately be subject to the lien of the pledge without physical delivery or further act, and that the lien of the pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the authority whether or not the parties have notice of the lien. Neither the resolution, trust agreement, nor any other instrument by which a pledge is created needs to be recorded or filed under the Iowa uniform commercial code to be valid, binding, or effective against the parties

4. Neither the members of the authority nor persons executing the bonds or notes are liable personally on the bonds or notes or are subject to personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the bonds or notes

5 The bonds or notes issued by the authority are not an indebtedness or other liability of the state or of a political subdivision of the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitations but are special obligations of the authority, and are payable solely from the income and receipts or other funds or property of the department, and the amounts on deposit in the revolving loan fund, and the amounts payable to the department under its loan agreements with the municipalities to the extent that the amounts are designated in the resolution, trust agreement, or other instrument of the authority authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes as being available as security for such bonds or notes. The authority shall not pledge the faith or credit of the state or of a political subdivision of the state to the payment of any bonds or notes. The issuance of any bonds or notes by the authority does not directly, indirectly, or contingently obligate the state or a political subdivision of the state to apply money from, or levy or pledge any form of taxation whatever to the payment of the bonds or notes

6 The state pledges to and agrees with the holders of bonds or notes issued under the Iowa sewage treatment works financing program, that the state will not limit or alter the rights and powers vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of a contract made by the authority with respect to the bonds or notes, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders until the bonds or notes, together with the interest on them including interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with an action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders, are fully met and discharged. The authority is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state, as it refers to holders of bonds or notes of the authority, in a contract with the holders

220.133 Adoption of rules.

The authority shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement sections 220 131 and 220 132 88 Acts, ch 1217, §22

222.1 Purpose of state schools.

The Glenwood state hospital school and the Wood ward state hospital-school shall be maintained for the purpose of providing treatment, training, in struction, care, habilitation, and support of mentally retarded persons in this state

A special mental retardation unit may be main- tained at one of the state mental health institutes for the purposes set forth in sections 222 88 to 222 91

27, 31, 35, 39, §3465, 3468; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §223 1, 223 4, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222 1]

222.2 Definitions.

When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires

1 "Hospital-schools" means the Glenwood state hospital school and the Woodward state hospital school

2 "Special unit" means a special mental retardation unit established at a state mental health institute pursuant to sections 222 88 to 222 91

3 "Administrator" means the administrator of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities of the department of human services

4 "Superintendents" means the superintendents of the state hospital schools

5 "Mental retardation" or "mentally retarded" means a term or terms to describe children and adults who as a result of inadequately developed intelligence are significantly impaired in ability to learn or to adapt to the demands of society

[C97, §2699, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3411; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §222 1, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222 2, 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 30]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

222.3 Superintendents.

The administrator shall appoint a qualified superintendent for each of the hospital schools who shall receive such salary as the administrator shall determine

222.4 Duties.

The superintendents shall

1 Perform all duties required by law and by the administrator not inconsistent with law

2 Oversee and insure individual treatment and professional care of each patient in the hospital schools

3 Maintain a full and complete record of the condition of each patient in the hospital schools

4 Have custody, control, and management of all patients in such manner as deemed best subject to the regulations of the administrator

222.5 Preadmission diagnostic evaluation.

No person shall be eligible for admission to a hospital school or a special unit until a preadmission diagnostic evaluation has been made by a hospital school or a special unit which confirms or establishes the need for admission

222.6 State districts.

The administrator shall divide the state into two districts in such manner that one of the hospital schools shall be located within each of the districts. Such districts may from time to time be changed. After such districts have been established, the administrator shall notify all boards of supervisors, county auditors, and clerks of the district courts of the action. Thereafter, unless the administrator otherwise orders, all admissions or commitments of mentally retarded persons from a district shall be to the hospital school located within such district.

222.7 Transfers.

The administrator may transfer patients from one state hospital school to the other and may at any time transfer patients from the hospital schools to the hospitals for the mentally ill, or transfer patients in the hospital schools to a special unit or vice versa. The administrator may also transfer patients from a hospital for the mentally ill to a hospital school if

1 In the case of a patient who entered the hospital for the mentally ill voluntarily, consent is given in advance by the patient or, if the patient is a minor or is incompetent, the person responsible for the patient

2 In the case of a patient hospitalized pursuant to sections 229 6 to 229 15, the consent of the court which hospitalized the patient is obtained in advance, rather than afterward as otherwise permitted by section 229 15, subsection 3

222.8 Communications by patients.

Persons admitted to the hospital schools or a special unit shall have all reasonable opportunity and facility for communication with their friends. Such persons shall be permitted to write and send letters, provided the letters contain nothing of an offensive character. Letters written by any patient to the administrator or to any state or county official shall be forwarded unopened.

222.9 Unauthorized departures.

If any mentally retarded person shall depart without proper authorization from a hospital school or a special unit, it shall be the duty of the superintendent and the superintendent's assistants and all peace officers of any county in which such patient may be found, to take and detain the patient without a warrant or order and to immediately report such detention to the superintendent who shall immediately provide for the return of such patient to the hospital school or special unit.

222.10 Duty of peace officer.

When any mentally retarded person departs without proper authority from an institution in another state and is found in this state, any peace officer in any county in which such patient is found may take and detain the patient without warrant or order and shall report such detention to the administrator. The administrator shall provide for the return of the patient to the authorities in the state from which the unauthorized departure was made. Pending return, such patient may be detained temporarily at one of the institutions of this state governed by the administrator or by the administrator of the division of child and family services of the department of human services. The provisions of this section relating to the administrator shall also apply to the return of other nonresident mentally retarded persons having legal settlement outside the state of Iowa.

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

222.11 Expense.

All actual and necessary expenses incurred in the taking into protective custody, restraint, and transportation of such patients to the hospital schools shall be paid on itemized vouchers, sworn to by the claimants, and approved by the superintendent and the administrator from any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated.

222.12 Deaths investigated.

In the event of a sudden or mysterious death of a patient of a hospital school or the special unit or any private institution for the mentally retarded, an investigation shall be held by the county medical examiner. The superintendent of a hospital school or a special unit or chief administrative officer of any private institution may request an investigation of the death of any patient by the county medical examiner. Notice of the death of the patient, and the cause thereof, shall be sent to the county board of supervisors and to the judge of the court having had jurisdiction over a committed patient. The fact of death with the time, place, and alleged cause shall be entered upon the docket of the court. The parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the admission of a patient to such institutions may request an investigation by the county medical examiner in the event of the death of the patient. The person or persons making the request shall be liable for the expense of such investigation and payment therefor may be required in advance. The expense of a county medical examiner's investigation when requested by the superintendent of a state hospital school or a special unit shall be paid from support funds of that institution.

222.13 Voluntary admissions.

The parent, guardian, or other person responsible for any person believed to be mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter may on behalf of such person request the county board of supervisors or their designated agent to apply to the superintendent of any state hospital school for the voluntary admission of such person either as an inpatient or an outpatient of the hospital school. After determining the legal settlement of such person as provided by this chapter, the board of supervisors shall, on forms prescribed by the administrator, apply to the superintendent of the hospital school in the district for the admission of such person to the hospital school. An application for admission to a special unit of any person believed to be in need of any of the services provided by the special unit under section 222 88 may be made in the same manner, upon request of the parent, guardian, or other person responsible for the handicapped person. The superintendent shall accept the application providing a preadmission diagnostic evaluation confirms or establishes the need for admission, except that no application may be accepted if the institution does not have adequate facilities available or if the acceptance will result in an overcrowded condition.

If the hospital school has no appropriate program for the treatment of such persons, the board of supervisors shall arrange for the placement of the persons in any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the director of the department of human services, which offers appropriate services for such persons.

Upon applying for admission of a person to a hospital school, or a special unit, the board of supervisors shall make a full investigation into the financial circumstances of that person and those liable for that person's support under section 222 78, to determine whether or not any of them are able to pay the expenses arising out of the admission of the person to a hospital school or special treatment unit. If the board finds that the person or those legally responsible for the person are presently unable to pay such expenses, they shall direct that the expenses be paid by the county. The board may review its finding at any subsequent time while the person remains at the hospital school, or is otherwise receiving care or treatment for which this chapter obligates the county to pay. If the board finds upon review that that person or those legally responsible for that person are presently able to pay such expenses, that finding shall apply only to the charges so incurred during the period beginning on the date of the review and continuing thereafter, unless and until the board again changes its finding. If the board finds that the person or those legally responsible for the person are able to pay the expenses, they shall direct that the charges be so paid to the extent required by section 222 78, and the county auditor shall be responsible for the collection thereof.

222.14 Care by county pending admission.

If the institution is unable to receive a patient, the superintendent shall notify the county board of supervisors of the county from which the application in behalf of the prospective patient was made of the time when such person may be received. Until such time as the patient is able to be received by the institution, or when application has been made for admission to a public or private facility as provided in section 222 13 and the application is pending, the care of said person shall be provided as arranged by the county board of supervisors.

222.15 Discharge of voluntary patients.

The parent, guardian, or any other person responsible for the voluntary admission of any person to a hospital school or a special unit may, upon ten days' notice, obtain the discharge of such person by giving to the superintendent of the institution and the county board of supervisors of the county from which such person was admitted written notice of the desire for such discharge.

222.16 Petition for adjudication of retardation.

A petition for the adjudication of the mental retardation of a person within the meaning of this chapter may, with the permission of the court be filed without fee against such person with the clerk of the district court of the county or city in which such alleged mentally retarded person resides or is found. The petition may be filed by any relative of such person, by a guardian, or by any reputable citizen of the county of such residence or of such place of finding.

222.17 Allegations verified.

The petition shall be verified by affidavit, may be filed on information or belief, and shall

1 Allege that such person is mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter

2 Allege that the filing of the petition is conducive to the welfare of such person and of the community

3 List the name and residence of all known persons supervising, caring for, or supporting such person, or assuming, or under obligation to do so

4 List the name and residence, if known, of the parents of such person and of all other persons legally chargeable with the supervision, care, or support of such person

5 List the names of all obtainable witnesses known to the petitioner by which the allegations of the petition may be established

6 State whether such person has been examined by a qualified physician with a view of determining the person's mental condition

222.18 County attorney to appear.

The county attorney shall, if requested, appear on behalf of any petitioner for the commitment of a person alleged to be mentally retarded under this chapter, and on behalf of all public officials and superintendents in all matters pertaining to the duties imposed upon them by this chapter.

Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall enter an order directing the county attorney of the county in which the allegedly mentally retarded person resides to make a full investigation regarding the financial condition of that person and of those persons legally liable for that person's support under section 222 78.

222.19 Party respondents.

The following persons, in addition to the person alleged to be mentally retarded, shall be made party respondents if the persons reside in this state and their names and residences are known

1 The parent or parents of said principal person

2 The person with whom said principal person is living

3 The person or persons assuming to give the principal respondent care and attention

4 The guardian, if there be such, of the person or property of the principal respondent

222.21 Order requiring attendance.

If the person alleged to be mentally retarded is not before the court, the court may issue an order requiring the person, who has the care, custody, and control of the alleged mentally retarded person to bring said alleged mentally retarded person into court at the time and place stated in said order.

222.22 Time of appearance.

The time of appearance shall not be less than five days after completed service unless the court orders otherwise. Appearance on behalf of such alleged mentally retarded person may be made by any citizen of the county or by any relative. The district court shall assign counsel for the alleged mentally retarded person. Counsel shall prior to proceedings personally consult with such person unless the judge appointing such counsel certifies that in the judge's opinion, such consultation shall serve no useful purpose. Such certification shall be made a part of the record. An attorney so assigned shall receive such compensation as the district court shall fix to be paid in the first instance by the county.

222.23 Persons to be present.

At any hearing for commitment under this chapter, the person whose commitment is sought, the person's appointed counsel, the person's own attorney, if any, and any physician or psychologist whose testimony is to be made a part of the record shall be present unless the presiding judge shall determine that the presence will not be in the best interest of the person whose commitment is sought. Such determination shall be made a part of the record.

222.24 When held.

The hearing may be heard in term time or in vacation. The petition shall be taken as confessed by all respondents, except the principal person, who are duly served and who do not appear at the time required by the notice.

222.25 Custody pending hearing.

Pending final hearing, the court may at any time after the filing of the petition and on satisfactory showing that it is in the best interest of the alleged mentally retarded person and of the community that such person be at once taken into custody, or that service of notice will be ineffectual if the person is not taken into custody, issue an order for the immediate production of such person before the court. In such case, the court may make any proper order for the custody or confinement of such person as will protect the person and the community and insure the presence of such person at the hearing. Such person shall not be confined with those accused or convicted of crime.

222.26 Hearing in equity.

The hearing on the allegations of the petition shall be as in equity proceedings. Answers to allegations shall not be required but may be filed. The court may require the petitioner to answer under oath such interrogatories as may be propounded by said court.

222.27 Hearing in public.

Hearings shall be public, unless otherwise requested by the parent, guardian, or other person having the custody of the mentally retarded person, or if the judge considers, a closed hearing in the best interests of the mentally retarded person.

222.28 Commission to examine.

The court may, at or prior to the final hearing, appoint a commission of one qualified physician and one qualified psychologist who shall make a personal examination of the person alleged to be mentally retarded for the purpose of determining the mental condition of the person.

222.29 Report.

Said commission shall report in writing to the court the facts attending the mental condition of said person, its conclusion based thereon, and its recommendations concerning such person. The commission shall also report to the court sworn answers to such questions as may be required by the court. Such reports shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

222.30 Ruling on report.

No objections or exceptions need be made to said report. The court may set the report aside, and may order a new examination by the same or by a new commission, or may make such findings of fact in lieu of said report as may be justified by the evidence before the court.

222.31 Commitment — liability for charges.

If in the opinion of the court, or of a commission as authorized in section 222 28, the person is mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter and the court determines that it will be conducive to the welfare of that person and of the community to commit the person to a proper institution for treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, and support, the court shall by proper order

1. Commit the person to any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the director of the department of human services. If the person has not been examined by a commission as appointed in section 222 28, the court shall, prior to issuing an order of commitment, appoint such a commission to examine the person for the purpose of determining the mental condition of the person. No order of commitment shall be issued unless the commission shall recommend that such order be issued and the private institution to which the person is to be committed shall advise the court that it is willing to receive the person.

2. Commit the person to the state hospital school designated by the administrator to serve the county in which the hearing is being held, or to a special unit. The court shall prior to issuing an order of commitment request that a diagnostic evaluation of the person be made by the superintendent of the hospital school or the special unit, or the superinten dent's qualified designee. The evaluation shall be conducted at a place as the superintendent may direct. The cost of the evaluation shall be defrayed by the county of legal settlement unless otherwise ordered by the court. The cost may be equal to but shall not exceed the actual cost of the evaluation. Persons referred by a court to a hospital school or the special unit for diagnostic evaluation shall be considered as outpatients of the institution. No order of commitment shall be issued unless the superintendent of the institution recommends that the order be issued, and advises the court that adequate facilities for the care of the person are available.

The court shall examine the report of the county attorney filed pursuant to section 222 13, and if the report shows that neither the person nor those liable for the person's support under section 222 78 are presently able to pay the charges arising out of the person's care in the hospital school, or special treatment unit, shall enter an order stating that finding and directing that the charges be paid by the person's county of residence. The court may, upon request of the board of supervisors, review its finding at any subsequent time while the person remains at the hospital school, or is otherwise receiving care or treatment for which this chapter obligates the county to pay. If the court finds upon review that the person or those legally responsible for the person are presently able to pay the expenses, that finding shall apply only to the charges incurred during the period beginning on the date of the board's request for the review and continuing thereafter, unless and until the court again changes its finding. If the court finds that the person, or those liable for the person's support, are able to pay the charges, the court shall enter an order directing that the charges be so paid to the extent required by section 222 78.

222.36 Custody pending admission.

If a hospital school or a special unit is unable to immediately receive a person committed under section 222 31, subsection 2, the superintendent shall notify the court of the time when such person may be received. In the meantime, said person shall be cared for under such order as the court may enter.

222.37 Order to deliver committed person.

Upon the entry of an order of commitment, the clerk shall deliver to a suitable person designated by the court, an order of commitment and a duplicate thereof commanding such person to immediately deliver the committed person to the institution, hospital school, or special unit, as designated by the court.

222.38 Delivery of person to school or special unit.

The court may for the purpose of committing a person direct the clerk to authorize the employment of one or more assistants. If a mentally retarded person is taken to an institution, hospital-school, or special unit at least one attendant shall be of the same sex.

222.39 Receipt acknowledged by superintendent.

The superintendent of the institution, hospital school, or special unit on the order of commitment shall acknowledge receipt for said person. The duplicate order shall be left with the superintendent and shall be sufficient authority to restrain and care for said committed person.

222.42 Petition for discharge.

A petition for the discharge of a person who has been committed to an institution, a hospital-school, or a special unit under this chapter or to vary such order of commitment may at any time after six months from the date of such commitment be filed by the person committed or by any reputable person. If the commitment be to a private institution, the petition shall be filed with the court ordering such commitment. If the commitment be to a hospital-school or a special unit, the petition shall be filed in the proper court of the county where the institution is situated.

222.43 Grounds.

Discharges and modifications of orders may be made on any of the following grounds:

1. That the person adjudged to be mentally retarded is not mentally retarded.
2. That the person adjudged to be mentally retarded has improved as to be capable of self care.
3. That the relatives or friends of the mentally retarded person are able and willing to support and care for the mentally retarded person and request the person's discharge, and in the judgment of the superintendent of the institution or hospital-school having charge of the person, no harmful consequences are likely to follow such discharge.
4. That, for any other cause, said discharge should be made or such modification should be entered.

Petitions for discharge or modification of an order of commitment to a special unit may be made upon any of the foregoing grounds, when applicable.

222.44 Notice to superintendent.

Notice of the hearing for discharge or modification of orders shall be served on the superintendent of the institution, hospital-school, or special unit, and on such parties as the court may find from the record are interested.

222.45 Power of court.

On the hearing, the court may discharge the mentally retarded person from all supervision, control, and care, or may transfer the person from a public institution to a private institution, or vice versa, or transfer the person from a special unit to a hospital-school, or vice versa, as the court deems appropriate under all the circumstances.

222.47 Penalty for false petition of commitment.

Any person who shall maliciously seek to have any person adjudged mentally retarded, knowing that such person is not mentally retarded, shall be guilty of a fraudulent practice.

222.48 Fees for witnesses.

The fees for attendance of witnesses and execution of legal process shall be the same as are allowed by law for similar service in other cases. For service as commissioner, a reasonable sum as determined by the court and the actual and necessary traveling expenses shall be allowed.

222.49 Costs paid.

The costs of proceedings shall be defrayed from the county treasury unless otherwise ordered by the court. When the person alleged to be mentally retarded is found not to be mentally retarded, the court shall render judgment for such costs against the person filing the petition except when the petition is filed by order of court.

222.50 County of legal settlement to pay.

When the proceedings are instituted in a county in which the alleged mentally retarded person was found but which is not the county of legal settlement of the person, and the costs are not taxed to the petitioner, the county which is the legal settlement of such person shall, on presentation of a properly itemized bill for such costs, repay the same to the former county. When the person's legal settlement is outside the state or is unknown, the costs shall be paid out of money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, itemized on vouchers executed by the auditor of the county which paid the costs, and approved by the administrator.

When in proceedings against an alleged delinquent or dependent child, the court is satisfied from any evidence that such child is mentally retarded, the court may order a continuance of such proceeding, and may direct an officer of the court or some other proper person to file a petition against such child permitted under the provisions of this chapter. Pending hearing of the petition the court may by order provide proper custody for the child.

222.53 Conviction — suspension.

If on the conviction in the district court of any person for any crime or for any violation of any municipal ordinance, or if on the determination in said courts that a child is dependent, neglected, or delinquent and it appears from any evidence presented to the court before sentence, that such person is mentally retarded within the meaning of this chapter, the court may suspend sentence or order, and may order any officer of the court or some other proper person to file a petition permitted under the provisions of this chapter against said person. Pending hearing of the petition, the court shall provide for the custody of said person as directed in section 222 52.

222.54 Procedure after hearing.

Should it be found under sections 222 52 and 222 53 that said person is not mentally retarded, the court shall proceed with the original proceedings as though no petition had been filed.

222.55 Procedure as mentally ill person.

If it appears at any time that a person has under the provisions of this chapter been committed to a private institution and should be evaluated and treated in a hospital for the mentally ill, the person may be hospitalized under any of the provisions of sections 229 2 to 229 15.

222.57 Court records.

Each court having jurisdiction under this chapter shall keep a separate docket of proceedings in which shall be made such entries as shall, together with the papers filed, preserve a complete and perfect record of each case. The original petitions, writs, and returns made thereto and the reports of commissions shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

222.58 Administrator to keep record.

The administrator shall keep a record of all persons adjudged to be mentally retarded and of the orders respecting such persons by the courts throughout the state. Copies of such orders shall be furnished by the clerk of the court without the administrator's application therefor.

222.59 Superintendent may return patient.

1 The superintendent of a hospital school or a special unit may, on application of the parent or guardian, return a patient to the parent or guardian. The superintendent in co-operation with other social agencies under the supervision of the Iowa department of human services may arrange for the patient to be placed at an appropriate health care facility licensed under chapter 135C or at some other appropriate facility, which may include a foster home or group home, either under an arrangement which involves full time responsibility for the patient by such facility, or as part of an arrangement under which the patient is to participate in one or more educational, developmental or employment programs conducted by other responsible persons, agencies or facilities. Such return or placement may be made at any time, even though the patient was committed by a court, upon recommendation of the professional staff of the hospital-school or special unit that the patient is unlikely to benefit from further treatment, training, instruction, or care at the institution or is likely to improve the patient's life status in an alternate facility.

2 In planning for the placement of a patient outside the hospital school or special unit, it shall be the superintendent's responsibility to arrange for representation of the patient's interest by the patient's parent or legal guardian. If the patient has no living parent and no legal guardian other than the department or one of its officers or employees, the superintendent shall request some person who has demonstrated by prior activities an informed concern for the welfare and habilitation of the mentally retarded, and who is not an officer or employee of the department nor of any agency or facility which is a party to the arrangement for placement of the patient, to act as the patient's advocate. The superintendent may request some such person to serve as advocate for a patient who has no legal guardian if either or both of the patient's parents are living but are deemed unlikely to or have shown themselves unable to represent the patient's interest effectively due to physical or mental infirmity, residence outside the state at such a distance as to make their effective participation unfeasible, or lack of interest demonstrated by refusal to participate in planning for the patient's placement or by failure to respond within thirty days to a letter sent by restricted certified mail to the last known address of the parent or parents

3 Each proposed placement shall be reported to the administrator, who may approve, modify, alter, or rescind the action if deemed necessary. In so doing, the superintendent of the hospital school or special unit involved shall certify in writing to the administrator that there has been compliance with subsection 2 and that the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is or is not satisfied with the proposed placement, as the case may be. In the latter case, the administrator shall afford the parent, guardian or advocate an opportunity to explain objections to the proposed placement and, if the administrator decides to approve the proposed placement despite such objection, shall advise the parent, guardian or advocate of the right to appeal the decision pursuant to subsection 4.

4 If a proposed placement of a patient from a hospital school or special unit which is not satisfactory to the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is approved by the administrator, or a proposed placement which is satisfactory to the patient's parent, guardian or advocate is modified, altered or rescinded by the administrator, the parent, guardian or advocate may appeal to the department of human services, within thirty days after notification to the parent, guardian or advocate of the proposed placement. The department shall give the appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing, conducted by the director or the director's designee who shall act as an impartial arbiter of fact and law. In such hearing the parent, guardian or advocate shall have the opportunity to confront witnesses, to have access to hospital records, to present evidence and witnesses on their behalf and to be represented by counsel. The standard for such fair hearing shall be to provide "that placement which inures to the best interest of the patient." Judicial review of actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. The department shall furnish the petitioner with a copy of any papers filed by the petitioner in support of the petitioner's position, a transcript of any testimony taken, and a copy of the department's decision. In the district court hearings, the parent, guardian or advocate has the right to be represented by counsel. The court shall, in all cases where the interests of the patient conflict with that of parent, guardian or advocate, appoint counsel as guardian ad litem for the patient. Notwithstanding the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act, where a petition is filed for judicial review of a proposed placement, the proposed placement shall be stayed pending the outcome of said review proceeding.

5 Placement of a patient outside of a hospital school or special unit under this section shall not relieve the Iowa department of human services of continuing responsibility for the welfare of the patient, except in cases of discharge under section 222.15 or 222.43. Unless such a discharge has occurred, the department shall provide for review of each placement arrangement made under this section at least once each year, or not more often than once each six months upon the written request of the patient's parent, guardian or advocate, with a view to ascertaining whether such arrangements continue to satisfactorily meet the patient's current needs.

6 The proposed return or placement of a patient outside a hospital school or special unit shall be reported to the board of supervisors of the patient's county of legal settlement. The county board may not change a placement or program arranged and approved under this section if state funds are being made available to the county which the county may by law use to pay a portion of the cost of care of the patient so placed, however the board may at any time propose an alternative placement or program to the administrator. No such alternative placement or program shall be carried out without the prior written approval of the administrator, which shall be granted only after evaluation in the same manner as provided by this section for initial placements from a hospital school or special unit.

7 When a patient committed by a court is to be returned to the parent or guardian, or placed out from a hospital school or a special unit as otherwise provided in this section, notice shall be sent to the clerk of the court which committed the patient, and to the board of supervisors of both the patient's county of legal settlement and the county to which the patient is to be released, thirty days prior to the time the patient leaves the hospital school or special unit.

222.60 Costs paid by county or state.

All necessary and legal expenses for the cost of admission or commitment or for the treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, support and transportation of patients in a state hospital school for the mentally retarded, or in a special unit, or any public or private facility within or without the state, approved by the director of the department of human services, shall be paid by either:

1 The county in which such person has legal settlement as defined in section 252.16

2 The state when such person has no legal settlement or when such settlement is unknown

[C39, §3477.3, 3477.4, 3477.7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, §223.14, 223.15, 223.18, C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222.60]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

222.61 Legal settlement determined.

When the board of supervisors of any county receives an application on behalf of any person for admission to a hospital school or a special unit or when any court issues an order committing any person to a hospital school or a special unit, the board of supervisors or the court shall determine and enter as a matter of record whether the legal settlement of the person is

1 In the county in which the board of supervisors or court is located

2 In some other county of the state

3 In another state or in a foreign country

4 Unknown

222.62 Settlement in another county.

Whenever the board of supervisors or the court determines that the legal settlement of the person is other than in the county in which the board or court is located, the board or court shall, as soon as determination is made, certify such finding to the superintendent of the hospital school or the special unit where the person is a patient. The superintendent shall charge the expenses already incurred and unadjusted, and all future expenses of the patient, to the county so certified until said legal settlement shall be otherwise determined as provided by this chapter

222.63 Finding of settlement — objection.

Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the board of supervisors or the court to the county auditor of the county of legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of the auditor's county where upon it shall be conclusively presumed that the patient has a legal settlement in said county unless the county shall, within six months, in writing filed with the board of supervisors or the court giving such notice, dispute said legal settlement

222.64 Foreign state or unknown.

If the legal settlement of the person is found by the board of supervisors or the court to be in a foreign state or country or is found to be unknown, the board of supervisors or the court shall immediately notify the administrator of such finding and shall furnish the administrator with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of legal settlement. The care of said person shall be as arranged by the board of supervisors or by such order as the court may enter. Application for admission or order of commitment may be made pending investigation by the administrator

222.65 Investigation.

The administrator shall immediately investigate the legal settlement of the person and proceed as follows

1 If the administrator finds that the decision of the board of supervisors or the court as to legal settlement of the person is correct, the administrator shall cause the person either to be transferred to a hospital school or a special unit and there main tained at the expense of the state or to be transferred to the place of foreign settlement

2 If the administrator finds that the decision of the board of supervisors or the court is not correct, the administrator shall order the person transferred to a state hospital school or a special unit and there maintained at the expense of the county of legal settlement in this state

222.66 Transfers — expenses.

The transfer to a hospital school or a special unit or to the place of legal settlement of a mentally retarded person who has no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, shall be made in accordance with such directions as shall be prescribed by the administrator and when practicable by employees of the state hospital school or the special unit. The actual and necessary expenses of such transfers shall be paid on itemized vouchers sworn to by the claimants and approved by the administrator from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated 222.67 Charge on finding of settlement.

Where a person has been received into a hospital school or a special unit as a patient whose legal settlement is supposedly outside the state or is unknown and the administrator finds that the legal settlement of the patient was at the time of admission or commitment in a county of this state, the administrator shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the admission or commitment and support of the patient to the county of such legal settlement. The costs and expenses shall be collected as provided by law in other cases

222.68 Costs paid in first instance.

All necessary and legal expenses for the cost of admission or commitment of a person to a hospital school or a special unit when the person's legal settlement is found to be in another county of this state shall in the first instance be paid by the county from which the person was admitted or committed. The county of legal settlement shall reimburse the county so paying for all such expenses. Where any county fails to make such reimbursement within sixty days following submission of a properly itemized bill to the county of legal settlement, a penalty of not greater than one percent per month on and after sixty days from submission of the bill may be added to the amount due

222.69 Payment by state.

All necessary and legal expenses for the cost of admission or commitment of a person to a hospital school or a special unit when the person's legal settlement is outside this state or is unknown shall be paid out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. Such payments shall be made on itemized vouchers executed by the auditor of the county from which the expenses have been paid and approved by the administrator

222.70 Dispute between counties.

When a dispute arises between counties or between the administrator and a county as to the legal settlement of a person committed to a hospital school or a special unit, the attorney general at the request of the administrator shall without advancement of fees cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists. The action shall be brought to determine such legal settlement, except that such action shall in no case be filed in a county in which the district court or a judge thereof originally made the disputed finding. Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that the dispute cannot be amicably settled. All counties which may be the county of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of settlement may be in the alternative. Said action shall be tried as in equity

222.71 Finding by court.

The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said mentally retarded person at the time of admission or commitment was in one of the defendant counties. If the court so finds, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all necessary and legal expenses arising from said admission or commitment and paid by said other county. If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due 222.72 Finding settlement outside state.

If the court finds that the legal settlement of said mentally retarded person, at the time of admission or commitment was outside the state or was unknown an order shall be entered that the mentally retarded person shall be maintained in the hospital school or the special unit at the expense of the state. In such case, the state shall refund to any county all necessary and legal expenses for the cost of said admission or commitment paid by a county. A decision by the court shall be final

222.73 Billing of patient charges — computation of actual costs — cost settlement.

1 The superintendent of each hospital-school and special unit shall compute by February 1 the average daily patient charge and outpatient treatment charges for which each county will be billed for services provided to patients chargeable to the county during the fiscal year beginning the following July 1. The department shall certify the amount of the charges to the director of revenue and finance and notify the counties of the billing charges

a The superintendent shall compute the average daily patient charge for a hospital-school or special unit for services provided in the following fiscal year, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, by totaling the expenditures of the hospital school or special unit for the immediately preceding calendar year, by adjusting the expenditures by a percentage not to exceed the percentage increase in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for the immediately preceding calendar year, and by dividing the adjusted expenditures by the total inpatient days of service provided during the immediately preceding calendar year

b The department shall compute the outpatient treatment charges, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, on the basis of the actual cost of the outpatient treatment provided during the immediately preceding calendar year

2 The superintendent shall certify to the director of revenue and finance the billings to each county for services provided to patients chargeable to the county during the preceding calendar quarter. The county billings shall be based on the average daily patient charge and outpatient treatment charges computed pursuant to subsection 1, and the number of inpatient days and outpatient treatment service units chargeable to the county. The billings to a county of legal settlement are subject to adjustment for all of the following circumstances

a The county billing for a patient shall be reduced by the amount received for the patient's care from a source other than state appropriated funds

b If more than twenty percent of the cost of a patient's care is initially paid from a source other than state appropriated funds, the amount paid shall be subtracted from the average per-patient per-day cost of that patient's care and the patient's county shall be billed for the full balance of the cost so computed

c The county of a patient who is eligible for reimbursement under the medical assistance program shall be responsible for the costs which are not reimbursed by the medical assistance program, regardless of the level of care provided to the patient

d A county shall be responsible for eighty percent of the cost of care of a patient who is not eligible for reimbursement under the medical assistance program

e The billings for counties shall be credited with one hundred percent of the client participation for patients eligible for medical assistance in the calculation of the per diem rate for patients

The per diem costs billed to each county shall not exceed the per diem costs in effect on July 1, 1988. However, the per diem costs may be adjusted annually to the extent of the adjustment in the consumer price index published annually in the federal register by the federal department of labor, bureau of labor statistics

3 The superintendent shall compute in January the actual per-patient per day cost for each hospital-school or special unit for the immediately preceding calendar year, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, by totaling the actual expenditures of the hospital-school or special unit for the calendar year and by dividing the total actual expenditures by the total inpatient days of service provided during the calendar year

4 The department shall certify to the director of revenue and finance and the counties by February 1 the actual per patient per-day costs, as computed pursuant to subsection 3, and the actual costs owed by each county for the immediately preceding calendar year for patients chargeable to the county. If the actual costs owed by the county are greater than the charges billed to the county pursuant to subsection 2, the director of revenue and finance shall bill the county for the difference with the billing for the quarter ending June 30. If the actual costs owed by the county are less than the charges billed to the county pursuant to subsection 2, the director of revenue and finance shall credit the county for the difference starting with the billing for the quarter ending June 30.

222.74 Duplicate to county.

When certifying to the director of revenue and finance amounts to be charged against each county as provided in section 222 73, the superintendent shall send to the county auditor of each county against which the superintendent has so certified any amount, a duplicate of the certificate. The county auditor upon receipt of the duplicate certificate shall enter it to the credit of the state in the ledger of state accounts, and shall immediately issue a notice to the county treasurer authorizing the treasurer to transfer the amount from the county fund to the general state revenue. The treasurer shall file the notice as authority for making the transfer and shall include the amount transferred in the next remittance of state taxes to the treasurer of state, designating the fund to which the amount belongs.

222.75 Delinquent payments — penalty.

Should any county fail to pay the bills within sixty days from the date of certificate from the superintendent, the director of revenue and finance may charge the delinquent county a penalty of not greater than one percent per month on and after sixty days from date of certificate until paid.

222.76 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 117, §1097

222.77 Patients on leave.

The cost of support of patients placed on convalescent leave or removed as a habilitation measure from a hospital-school, or a special unit, except when living in the home of a person legally bound for the support of the patient, shall be paid by the county of legal settlement. If the patient has no county of legal settlement, the cost shall be paid from the support fund of the hospital school or special unit and charged on abstract in the same manner as other state inpatients until the patient becomes self-supporting or qualifies for support under other statutes.

222.78 Parents and others liable for support.

The father and mother of any person admitted or committed to a hospital-school or to a special unit, as either an inpatient or an outpatient, and any person, firm, or corporation bound by contract hereafter made for support of such person shall be and remain liable for the support of such person. Such person and those legally bound for the support of the person shall be liable to the county for all sums advanced by the county to the state under the provisions of sections 222 60 and 222 77. The liability of any person, other than the patient, who is legally bound for the support of any patient under eighteen years of age in a hospital-school or a special unit shall in no instance exceed the average minimum cost of the care of a normally intelligent, nonhandicapped minor of the same age and sex as such minor patient. The administrator shall establish the scale for this purpose but the scale shall not exceed the standards for personal allowances established by the state division under the aid to dependent children program. Provided further that the father or mother of such person shall not be liable for the support of such person after such person attains the age of eighteen years and that the father or mother shall incur liability only during any period when the father or mother either individually or jointly receive a net income from whatever source, commensurate with that upon which they would be liable to make an income tax payment to this state. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a relative or other person from voluntarily paying the full actual cost as established by the administrator for caring for such mentally retarded person.

222.79 Statement presumed correct.

In actions to enforce the liability imposed by section 222 78, the certificate from the superintendent to the county auditor stating the sums charged in such cases shall be presumptively correct.

222.80 Liability to county.

Any person admitted or committed to a county institution or home or admitted or committed at county expense to any private hospital, sanitarium, or other facility for treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, and support as a mentally retarded patient thereof shall be liable to the county for the reasonable cost of such support as provided in section 222 78

222.81 Claim against estate.

The total amount of liability provided in section 222 78 shall be allowed as a claim of the sixth class against the estate of the person or against the estate of the father or mother of such person

222.82 Collection of liabilities and claims.

The board of supervisors of each county may direct the county attorney to proceed with the collection of said liabilities and claims as a part of the duties of the county attorney's office when the board of supervisors deems such action advisable The board of supervisors may and is hereby empowered to compromise any and all liabilities to the county arising under this chapter when such compromise is deemed to be in the best interests of the county Any collections and liens shall be limited in conformance to section 614 1, subsection 4

222.83 Nonresident patients.

The estates of all nonresident patients who are provided treatment, training, instruction, care, habilitation, and support in or by a hospital school or a special unit, and all persons legally bound for the support of such persons, shall be liable to the state for the reasonable value of such services The certificate of the superintendent of the hospital school or special unit in which any nonresident is or has been a patient, showing the amounts drawn from the state treasury or due therefrom as provided by law on account of such nonresident patient shall be presumptive evidence of the reasonable value of such services furnished such patient by the hospital school or special unit

222.84 Patients' personal deposit fund.

There is hereby established at each hospital school and special unit a fund which shall be known as the "patients' personal deposit fund", provided that in the case of a special unit, the director may direct that the patients' personal deposit fund be maintained and administered as a part of the fund established, pursuant to sections 226 43 to 226 46, by the mental health institute where the special unit is located

222.85 Deposit of moneys — exception to guardians.

Any funds coming into the possession of the superintendent or any employee of a hospital school or special unit belonging to any patient in that institution shall be deposited in the name of the patient in the patients' personal deposit fund, except that if a guardian of the property has been appointed for the person, the guardian shall have the right to demand and receive such funds Funds belonging to a patient deposited in the patients' personal deposit fund may be used for the purchase of personal incidentals, desires, and comforts for the patient

Money paid to a hospital school from any source other than state appropriated funds and intended to pay all or a portion of the cost of care of a patient, which cost would otherwise be paid from state or county funds or from the patient's own funds, shall not be deemed money belonging to the patient for the purposes of this section

222.86 Payment for care from fund.

If a patient is not receiving medical assistance under chapter 249A and the amount in the account of any patient in the patients' personal deposit fund exceeds two hundred dollars, the business manager of the hospital school or special unit may apply any amount of the excess to reimburse the county of legal settlement or the state in a case where no legal settlement exists for liability incurred by the county or the state for the payment of care, support, and maintenance of the patient, when billed by the county of legal settlement or by the administrator for a patient having no legal settlement

222.87 Deposit in bank.

The business manager shall deposit the patients' personal deposit fund in a commercial account of a bank of reputable standing When deposits in the commercial account exceed average monthly with draws, the business manager may deposit the excess at interest The savings account shall be in the name of the patients' personal deposit fund and interest paid thereon may be used for recreational purposes for the patients at the hospital school or special unit

222.88 Special mental retardation unit.

The director of human services may organize and establish a special mental retardation unit at an existing institution which may provide

1 Psychiatric and related services to mentally retarded children and adults who are also emotionally disturbed or otherwise mentally ill

2 Specific programs to meet the needs of such other special categories of mentally retarded persons as may be designated by the director

3 Appropriate diagnostic evaluation services [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §222 88]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

222.89 Location — staff and personnel.

The director may

1 Designate a portion of the physical facilities of one of the mental health institutes to be occupied by the offices and facilities of the special unit

2 Determine the extent to which the special unit may effectively utilize services of the mental health institute staff, and what staff personnel should be employed for and assigned specifically to the special unit

222.90 Superintendent.

The director shall appoint a qualified superintendent of the special unit. The superintendent shall employ all staff personnel to be assigned specifically to the special unit, and shall have the same duties with respect to the special unit as are imposed upon superintendents of hospital schools by section 222 4

222.91 Direct referral to special unit.

In addition to any other manner of referral, admission, or commitment to the special unit provided for by this chapter, persons may be referred directly to the special unit by courts, law enforcement agencies, or state penal or correctional institutions for services under subsection 2 of section 222 88, but persons so referred shall not be admitted or committed unless a preadmission diagnostic evaluation indicates that the person would benefit from such services, and the admission or commitment of the person to the special unit would not cause the special unit's patient load to exceed its capacity

225.1 Establishment.

There shall be established a state psychiatric hospital, especially designed, kept, and administered for the care, observation, and treatment of those persons who are afflicted with abnormal mental conditions

225.2 Name — location.

It shall be known as the state psychiatric hospital, and shall be located at Iowa City, and integrated with the college of medicine and hospital of the state University of Iowa

225.3 Under control state board of regents.

The state board of regents shall have full power to manage, control, and govern the said hospital the same as other institutions already under its control

225.4 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1136, §26225.5 Co-operation of hospitals.

The medical director of the state psychiatric hospital shall seek to bring about systematic co-operation between the several state hospitals for the mentally ill and the state psychiatric hospital

225.6 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1136, §26225.7 Classes of patients.

Patients admitted to the said state psychiatric hospital shall be divided into four classes

- 1 Voluntary private patients
- 2 Committed private patients
- 3 Voluntary public patients
- 4 Committed public patients

225.8 Maintenance.

All voluntary private patients and committed private patients shall be kept and maintained without expense to the state, and the voluntary public patients and committed public patients shall be kept and maintained by the state

225.9 Voluntary private patients.

Voluntary private patients may be admitted in accordance with the regulations to be established by the state board of regents, and their care, nursing, observation, treatment, medicine, and maintenance shall be without expense to the state. However, the charge for such care, nursing, observation, treatment, medicine, and maintenance shall not exceed the cost of the same to the state. The physicians on the hospital staff may charge such patients for their medical services under such rules, regulations and plan therefor as approved by the state board of regents

225.10 Voluntary public patients.

Persons suffering from mental diseases may be admitted as voluntary public patients as follows: Any physician authorized to practice medicine, osteopathy, or osteopathic medicine in the state of Iowa may file information with any district court of the state or with any judge thereof, stating that the physician has examined the person named therein and finds that the person is suffering from some abnormal mental condition that can probably be remedied by observation, treatment, and hospital care, that the physician believes it would be appropriate for the person to enter the state psychiatric hospital for that purpose and that the person is willing to do so, and that neither the person nor those legally responsible for the person are able to provide the means for such observation and hospital care

225.11 Initiating commitment procedures.

When a court finds upon completion of a hearing held pursuant to section 229 12 that the contention that a respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, and the application filed under section 229 6 also contends or the court otherwise concludes that it would be appropriate to refer the respondent to the state psychiatric hospital for a complete psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment pursuant to section 229 13, the judge may order that a financial investigation be made in the manner prescribed by section 225 13

225.12 Voluntary public patient — physician's report.

A physician filing an information under section 225 10 shall include a written report to the judge, giving such a history of the case as will be likely to aid in the observation, treatment, and hospital care of the person named in the information and describing the same in detail

225.13 Financial condition.

It shall be the duty of the judge to have a thorough investigation made by the county attorney of the county of residence of the person named in the information regarding the financial condition of that person and of those legally responsible for the person

225.14 Finding and order.

Upon the filing of the report of a financial investigation made pursuant to an order issued under section 225 11, the judge of the district court as aforesaid shall review it and make a determination in the matter. If the judge finds that the respondent is an appropriate subject for referral to the state psychiatric hospital, and that the respondent and those legally responsible for the respondent are unable to pay the expenses thereof, the judge shall enter an order directing that the respondent shall be sent to the state psychiatric hospital at the state University of Iowa for observation, treatment, and hospital care as a committed public patient

225.15 Examination and treatment.

When the respondent arrives at the state psychiatric hospital it shall be the duty of the admitting physician to examine the respondent and determine whether or not, in the physician's judgment, the patient is a fit subject for such observation, treatment and hospital care. If, upon examination, the physician decides that such patient should be admitted to the hospital, the patient shall be provided a proper bed in the hospital, and the physician who shall have charge of the patient shall proceed with such observation, medical treatment, and hospital care as in the physician's judgment are proper and necessary, in compliance with sections 229 13 to 229 16

A proper and competent nurse shall also be assigned to look after and care for such patient during such observation, treatment, and care as aforesaid

225.16 Voluntary public patients — admission.

If the judge of the district court, or the clerk of the court, as aforesaid, finds from the physician's information which was filed under the provisions of section 225 10, that it would be appropriate for the person to enter the state psychiatric hospital, and the report of the county attorney shows that neither the person nor those legally responsible for the person, are able to pay the expenses thereof, or able to pay only a part of the expenses, the judge or clerk shall enter an order directing that the said person shall be sent to the state psychiatric hospital at the state University of Iowa for observation, treatment, and hospital care as a voluntary public patient.

When the said patient arrives at the hospital, the patient shall receive the same treatment as is provided for committed public patients in section 225 15

225.17 Committed private patient — treatment.

If the judge of the district court, finds upon the review and determination made under the provisions of section 225 14 that the respondent is an appropriate subject for placement at the state psychiatric hospital, and that the respondent, or those legally responsible for the respondent, are able to pay the expenses thereof, the judge shall enter an order directing that the respondent shall be sent to the state psychiatric hospital at the state University of Iowa for observation, treatment, and hospital care as a committed private patient.

When the respondent arrives at the said hospital, the respondent shall receive the same treatment as is provided for committed public patients in section 225.15, in compliance with sections 229.13 to 229.16.

225.18 Attendants.

The court or clerk may appoint a person to accompany the committed public patient or the voluntary public patient or the committed private patient from the place where the patient may be to the state psychiatric hospital of the state university at Iowa City, or to accompany the patient from the hospital to a place as may be designated by the court or clerk. If a patient is moved pursuant to this section, at least one attendant shall be of the same sex.

225.19 Compensation for attendant.

Any person appointed by the court or judge or clerk to accompany said person to or from the hospital or to make an investigation and report on any question involved in the complaint, other than the physician making the examination, shall receive the sum of three dollars per day for the time actually spent in making such investigation (except in cases where the person appointed therefor receives a fixed salary or compensation) and actual necessary expenses incurred in making such investigation or trip.

225.20 Compensation for physician.

The physician making the examination on which is based any information filed under section 225.10 shall receive such sum as the court may direct for each and every examination information so made, and the actual necessary expenses incurred by the physician in making such examination, in conformity with the requirements of this chapter, if the person named in the information is referred to the state psychiatric hospital.

225.21 Vouchers.

The person making claim to compensation shall present to the court or judge an itemized sworn statement of the claim, and when the claim for compensation has been approved by the court or judge or clerk, it shall be filed in the office of the county auditor and shall be allowed by the board of supervisors.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §3977; C39, §3482.21; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §225.21; 82 Acts, ch 1104, §6]

225.22 Liability of private patients — payment.

Every committed private patient, if the patient has an estate sufficient for that purpose, or if those legally responsible for the patient's support are financially able, shall be liable to the county and state for all expenses paid by them in behalf of such patient. All bills for the care, nursing, observation, treatment, medicine, and maintenance of such patients shall be paid by the director of revenue and finance in the same manner as those of committed and voluntary public patients as provided in this chapter, unless the patient or those legally responsible for the patient make such settlement with the state psychiatric hospital.

225.23 Collection for treatment.

If the bills for such patient are paid by the state, it shall be the duty of the state psychiatric hospital to file a certified copy of the claim which has been so paid, with the auditor of the proper county, who shall proceed to collect the same by action, if necessary, in the name of the state psychiatric hospital, and when collected pay the same to the director of revenue and finance. The hospital shall also, at the same time, forward a duplicate of the account to the director of revenue and finance.

225.24 Collection of preliminary expense.

Unless said committed private patient or those legally responsible for the patient offer to make such settlement, it shall also be the duty of the county auditor of the proper county as aforesaid to proceed to collect, by action if necessary, in the name of the said county, the amount of all claims for per diem and expenses that have been approved by the said court or judge and paid by the county treasurer of said county as provided for under the provisions of section 225.21, and when collected to pay the same into the county treasury.

225.25 Commitment of private patient as public.

If any patient be admitted to the state psychiatric hospital and thereafter an order of commitment of the patient as a public patient be made by the court or judge or clerk having jurisdiction thereof, the expense of keeping and maintaining the patient from the date of the filing of the information upon which the order is made shall be paid by the state.

225.26 Private patients — disposition of funds.

All moneys collected from private patients shall be used for the support of the said hospital.

225.27 Discharge — transfer.

The state psychiatric hospital may, at any time, discharge any patient as recovered, as improved, or as not likely to be benefited by further treatment. If the patient being so discharged was involuntarily hospitalized, the hospital shall notify the committing judge or court thereof as required by section 229.14, subsection 3 or section 229.16, whichever is applicable. The court or judge shall, if necessary, appoint some person to accompany the discharged patient from the state psychiatric hospital to such place as the hospital or the court may designate, or authorize the hospital to appoint such attendant.

225.28 Appropriation.

The state shall pay to the state psychiatric hospital, out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, all expenses for the administration of the hospital, and for the care, treatment, and maintenance of committed and voluntary public patients therein, including their clothing and all other expenses of the hospital for the public patients. The bills for the expenses shall be rendered monthly in accordance with rules agreed upon by the director of revenue and finance and the state board of regents.

225.30 Blanks — audit.

The medical faculty of the hospital of the college of medicine of the state University of Iowa shall prepare blanks containing such questions and requiring such information as may be necessary and proper to be obtained by the physician who examines a person or respondent whose referral to the state psychiatric hospital is contemplated. A judge may request that a physician who examines a respondent as required by section 229.10 complete such blanks in duplicate in the course of the examination. A physician who proposes to file an information under section 225.10 shall obtain and complete such blanks in duplicate and file them with the information. The blanks shall be printed by the state and a supply thereof shall be sent to the clerk of each district court of the state. The director of revenue and finance shall audit, allow, and pay the cost of the blanks as other bills for public printing are allowed and paid.

225.31 Repealed by 66GA, ch 139, §82.

225.32 Report and order to accompany patient.

One of the duplicate reports shall be sent to the state psychiatric hospital with the patient, together with a certified copy of the order of the court.

225.33 Death of patient — disposal of body.

In the event that a committed public patient or a voluntary public patient or a committed private patient should die while at the state psychiatric hospital or at the general hospital of the college of medicine of the state University of Iowa, the state psychiatric hospital shall have the body prepared for shipment in accordance with the rules prescribed by the state board of health for shipping such bodies; and it shall be the duty of the state board of regents to make arrangements for the embalming and such other preparation as may be necessary to comply with the rules and for the purchase of suitable caskets.

225.34 Appropriation.

The state shall pay, to the state psychiatric hospital, out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the cost of the casket, the embalming, and all other expenses incurred in preparing the body for shipment, and, in addition thereto, the cost of transportation from Iowa City to the place where the patient lived at the time when the patient was committed or taken to the state psychiatric hospital.

225.35 Expense collected.

In the event that the said person is a committed private patient, it shall be the duty of the county auditor of the proper county to proceed to collect all of such expenses, in accordance with the provisions of sections 225.23 and 225.24.

225C.1 Findings and purpose.

The general assembly finds that community based care, provided in many parts of the state by highly autonomous community mental health and mental retardation service providers working cooperatively with state mental health and mental retardation facilities, is meeting most mental health and mental retardation service needs of those Iowans to whom this care is available. However, the general assembly recognizes that heavy reliance on property tax funding for mental health and mental retardation services has restricted uniform availability of this care. Consequently, greater efforts should be made to assure close coordination and continuity of care for those persons receiving publicly supported mental health and mental retardation services in Iowa. It is the purpose of this chapter to continue and to strengthen the mental health and mental retardation services now available in the state of Iowa, to make these services conveniently available to all persons in this state upon a reasonably uniform financial basis, and to assure the continued high quality of these services.

225C.3 Division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities — state mental health authority.

1 The division is designated the state mental health authority as defined in 42 USC sec 201(m) (1976) for the purpose of directing the benefits of the National Mental Health Act, 42 USC sec 201 et seq. This designation does not preclude the board of regents from authorizing or directing any institution under its jurisdiction to carry out educational, prevention and research activities in the areas of mental health and mental retardation. The division may contract with the board of regents or any institution under the board's jurisdiction to perform any of these functions.

2 The division is designated the state developmental disabilities agency for the purpose of directing the benefits of the Developmental Disabilities Services and Facilities Construction Act, 42 USC sec 6001 et seq.

3 The division is administered by the administrator. The administrator of the division shall be qualified in the general field of mental health or mental retardation services, and preferably in both fields. The administrator shall have at least five years of experience as an administrator in one or both of these fields.

225C.4 Administrator's duties.

1 The administrator shall

a Prepare and administer state mental health and mental retardation plans for the provision of comprehensive services within the state and prepare and administer the state developmental disabilities plan. The administrator shall consult with the Iowa department of public health, the state board of regents or a body designated by the board for that purpose, the department of management or a body designated by the director of the department for that purpose, the department of education, the division of job service of the department of employment services and any other appropriate governmental body, in order to facilitate coordination of services provided to mentally ill, mentally retarded, and developmentally disabled persons in this state. The state mental health and mental retardation plans shall be consistent with the state health plan, shall be prepared in consultation with the state health coordinating council, and shall incorporate county mental health and mental retardation plans.

b Assist county coordinating boards in developing a program for community mental health and mental retardation services within the state based on the need for comprehensive services, and the services offered by existing public and private facilities, with the goal of providing comprehensive services to all persons in this state who need them.

c Emphasize the provision of outpatient services by community mental health centers and local mental retardation providers as a preferable alternative to inpatient hospital services.

d Encourage and facilitate coordination of services with the objective of developing and maintaining in the state a mental health and mental retardation service delivery system to provide comprehensive services to all persons in this state who need them, regardless of the place of residence or economic circumstances of those persons.

e Encourage and facilitate applied research and preventive educational activities related to causes and appropriate treatment for mental illness and mental retardation. The administrator may designate, or enter into agreements with, private or public agencies to carry out this function.

f Promote coordination of community based services with those of the state mental health institutes and hospital schools

g Administer state programs regarding the care, treatment, and supervision of mentally ill or mentally retarded persons, except the programs administered by the state board of regents

h Administer and control the operation of the state institutions established by chapters 222 and 226, and any other state institutions or facilities providing care, treatment, and supervision to mentally ill or mentally retarded persons, except the institutions and facilities of the state board of regents

i Administer the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund established by section 225C 7

j Act as compact administrator with power to effectuate the purposes of interstate compacts on mental health

k Establish and maintain a data collection and management information system oriented to the needs of patients, providers, the department, and other programs or facilities

l Prepare a division budget and reports of the division's activities

m Advise the personnel commission on recommended qualifications of all division employees

n Establish suitable agreements with other state agencies to encourage appropriate care and to facilitate the coordination of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities services

a Provide consultation and technical assistance to patients' advocates appointed pursuant to section 229 19, in cooperation with the judicial system and the care review committees appointed for county care facilities pursuant to section 135C 25

p Provide consultation and technical assistance to patients' advocates appointed pursuant to section 222 59

q Provide technical assistance to agencies and organizations, to aid them in meeting standards which are established, or with which compliance is required, under statutes administered by the administrator, including but not limited to chapters 227 and 230A

r Recommend and enforce minimum accreditation standards for the maintenance and operation of community mental health centers under section 230A 16

s In cooperation with the state department of health, recommend minimum standards under section 227 4 for the care of and services to mentally ill and mentally retarded persons residing in county care facilities

t In cooperation with the Iowa department of public health, recommend minimum standards for the maintenance and operation of public or private facilities offering services to mentally ill or mentally retarded persons, which are not subject to licensure by the department or the department of inspections and appeals

2 The administrator may a Apply for, receive, and administer federal aids, grants, and gifts for purposes relating to mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities services or programs

b Establish mental health and mental retardation services for all institutions under the control of the director of human services and establish an autism unit, following mutual planning with and consultation from the medical director of the state psychiatric hospital, at an institution or a facility administered by the administrator to provide psychiatric and related services and other specific programs to meet the needs of autistic persons as defined in section 331 425, subsection 13, paragraph "b", subparagraph (2), and to furnish appropriate diagnostic evaluation services

c Establish and supervise suitable standards of care, treatment, and supervision for mentally ill and mentally retarded persons in all institutions under the control of the director of human services

d Appoint professional consultants to furnish advice on any matters pertaining to mental health and mental retardation The consultants shall be paid as provided by an appropriation of the general assembly

225C.5 Mental health and mental retardation commission.

1 A mental health and mental retardation commission is established as the state policy making body for the provision of mental health and mental retardation services, consisting of fifteen members appointed to three year staggered terms by the governor and subject to confirmation by the senate Commission members shall be appointed on the basis of interest and experience in the fields of mental health or mental retardation, in a manner so that, if possible, the composition of the commission will comply with the requirements of the Community Mental Health Centers Amendments of 1975, 42 USC sec 2689t(a) (1976) relative to a state mental health advisory council, and so as to ensure adequate representation from both the mental health and mental retardation fields Four members of the commission shall be members of county boards of supervisors at the time of their appointment to the commission Two members of the commission shall be members of county mental health and mental retardation coordinating boards at the time of their appointment to the commission One member of the commission shall either be an active board member of a community mental health center or an active member of the Iowa mental health association at the time of appointment to the commission One member of the commission shall be an active member of either a community mental retardation agency or the Iowa association for retarded citizens at the time of appointment to the commission

provided in section 69 19 Vacancies on the commission shall be filled as provided in section 2 32 A member shall not be appointed for more than two consecutive three year terms

3 Members of the commission shall qualify by taking the oath of office prescribed by law for state officers At its first meeting of each year, the commission shall organize by electing a chairperson and a vice chairperson for terms of one year Commission members are entitled to forty dollars per diem and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred while engaged in their official duties, to be paid from funds appropriated to the department

225C.6 Duties of commission.

1 The commission shall

a Advise the administrator on administration of the overall state plans for comprehensive services

b Adopt necessary rules pursuant to chapter 17A which relate to mental health and mental retardation programs and services

c Adopt standards for accreditation of community mental health centers and comprehensive community mental health programs recommended under section 230A 16

d Adopt standards for the care of and services to mentally ill and mentally retarded persons residing in county care facilities recommended under section 227 4

e Adopt standards for the delivery of mental health and mental retardation services by the division, and for the maintenance and operation of public or private facilities offering services to mentally ill or mentally retarded persons, which are not subject to licensure by the department or the department of inspections and appeals, and review the standards employed by the department or the department of inspections and appeals for licensing facilities which provide services to the mentally ill or mentally retarded persons

f Assure that proper appeal procedures are available to persons aggrieved by decisions, actions, or circumstances relating to accreditation

g Award grants from the special allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund pursuant to section 225C 11, as well as other moneys that become available to the division for grant purposes

h Review and rank applications for federal mental health grants prior to submission to the appropriate federal agency

i Annually submit to the governor and the general assembly

(1) A report concerning the activities of the commission

(2) Recommendations formulated by the commission for changes in law and for changes in the rules adopted by the auditor of state under section 225C 10

j Beginning not later than January 1, 1985, and continuing once every two years thereafter, submit to the governor and the general assembly an evaluation of

(1) The extent to which mental health and mental retardation services stipulated in the state plans are actually available to persons in each county in the state

(2) The cost effectiveness of the services being provided by each of the state mental health institutes established under chapter 226 and state hospital schools established under chapter 222

(3) The cost effectiveness of programs carried out by randomly selected providers receiving money from the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund established under section 225C 7

k Advise the administrator, the council on human services, the governor, and the general assembly on budgets and appropriations concerning mental health and mental retardation services

l Meet with the state developmental disabilities planning council at least twice a year for the purpose of coordinating mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities planning and funding

m Establish standards for the provision of individual case management services

n Establish standards for the structure of a service coordination system which ensures a linkage between the service coordination system and individual case management services

2 Notwithstanding section 217 3, subsection 6, the commission may adopt the rules authorized by subsection 1, pursuant to chapter 17A, without prior review and approval of those rules by the council on human services

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, §225B 4, 225B 7, C79, 81, §225B 3(2), S81, §225C 5, 81 Acts, ch 78, §6, 20]

225C.7 State community mental health and mental retardation services fund established.

1 A state community mental health and mental retardation services fund is established in the office of the treasurer of state, which shall consist of the amounts appropriated to the fund by the general assembly for each fiscal year Before completion of the department's budget estimate as required by section 8 23, the department shall determine and include in the estimate the amount which should be appropriated to the fund for the forthcoming fiscal period in order to implement the purpose stated in section 225C 1

2 The state community mental health and mental retardation services fund for each fiscal year shall be divided into two parts, the general allocation and the special allocation The general allocation is equal to eighty percent and the special allocation is equal to twenty percent of the total appropriation

A county is entitled to receive annually from the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund a share computed by a formula prescribed pursuant to section 225C 9, subject to the requirements of section 225C 10. As soon after July 1 of each year as reasonably possible, the administrator shall certify to the director of revenue and finance the amount to which a county is entitled from the general allocation and the director of revenue and finance shall issue warrants in the amounts certified, drawn upon the general allocation in favor of the respective counties. A county shall place the money so received in the county mental health and institutions fund, and shall expend it in the same fiscal year in which it is received and only for the purposes authorized by section 331 425, subsection 13, paragraph "a", sub paragraphs (1), (2) and (3), and paragraphs "b", "c", "d" and "g".

If a county has not established or is not affiliated with a community mental health center under chapter 230A, the county shall expend a portion of the money received from the general allocation to contract with a community mental health center to provide mental health services to the county's residents. If such a contractual relationship is unworkable or undesirable, the commission may waive the expenditure requirement. However, if the commission waives the requirement, the commission shall address the specific concerns of the county and shall attempt to facilitate the provision of mental health services to the county's residents through an affiliation agreement or other means.

225C.9 Formula for distribution of general allocation.

1 The general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund shall be distributed to ensure that each county participates in the distribution of the funds, to recognize past efforts made by individual counties to support state institutional and community based services for mentally ill and mentally retarded persons, and to recognize both individual counties as entities and the distribution of the state population across counties.

2 In distributing the general allocation, each county shall receive an amount equal to the sum of the following two factors:

a Fifty percent of the general allocation divided by a factor of ninety nine.

b Fifty percent of the general allocation multiplied by a factor equal to that county's proportionate share of the total state population.

225C.10 Requirements of counties receiving general allocation money.

1 A county is entitled to receive money from the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund in any fiscal year in an amount determined by section 225C 9, if that county:

a. Raised by county levy and expended for mental health and mental retardation services, in the preceding fiscal year, an amount of money at least equal to the amount so raised and expended for those purposes during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1980.

(1) With reference to the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1980, money "raised by county levy and expended for mental health and mental retardation services" means the total amount levied and expended by the county under section 331 425, subsection 13, as the subsection read at the time that levy was made, adjusted by a procedure prescribed by rules, which shall be adopted by the auditor of state in consultation with the administrator, to exclude expenditures other than mental health and mental retardation expenditures which the county made in that fiscal year from the proceeds of that levy.

(2) With reference to a fiscal year beginning on or after July 1, 1981, money "raised by county levy and expended for mental health and mental retardation services" means the total amount of money expended by the county from the county mental health and institutions fund for the purposes authorized by section 331 425, subsection 13, paragraph "a", sub paragraphs (1), (2) and (3), and paragraphs "b", "c", "d" and "g", exclusive of state money received from the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund and of any third party reimbursement to the county.

(3) A county shall, as soon as reasonably possible after January 1, 1982, begin preparations to adopt and shall by January 1, 1984, implement an accounting and financial reporting procedure for recording expenditures for mental health and mental retardation services, in conformity with rules, which shall be adopted by the auditor of state in consultation with the administrator and a committee representing appropriate county officials. It is the intent of this subparagraph that the Seventieth General Assembly, at its 1984 Session, reconsider the requirements of paragraph "a" of this subsection with a view to possible adjustments to more precisely measure each county's financial effort in support of mental health and mental retardation services.

b Submits or joins other counties in submitting, prior to October 15 of each year, an application for a share of the general allocation for the succeeding fiscal year which is in conformity with subsection 2.

2 An application may be filed by a county or jointly by two or more counties. The application shall consist of:

a An annual plan to improve or maintain availability and accessibility of comprehensive services to residents of the county or counties, which is found by the administrator to be in substantial compliance with the requirements of this chapter. The annual plan is in substantial compliance with those requirements if it:

(1) Indicates that the services for which the county or counties intend to use general allocation money are comprehensive services or other services mandated or authorized by law, in accordance with rules adopted by the commission, are offered by accredited or licensed providers where accreditation or licensure standards are applicable, and do not include major maintenance or capital expenditure projects

(2) Demonstrates the availability and accessibility of comprehensive services by establishing or maintaining formal agreements for purchase of services or grant relationships with providers of services, and by extending eligibility for those services to all residents of the county or counties who are unable to assume the full cost of their care

(3) Demonstrates effective implementation of an annual plan submitted by the county or counties under this subsection for the preceding fiscal year

b Evidence that each county is in compliance with subsection 1, paragraph "a"

3 Each application shall be for a period of at least one year and shall be acted upon as soon as reasonably possible by the administrator, who shall notify the applicant county or counties of the action on the application no later than December 1 of the year in which the application is submitted. Money from the general allocation shall be disbursed on a quarterly basis to the counties entitled to the money under section 225C 9 and this section. Counties receiving the money shall submit financial and plan status reports at least annually at the time and in the manner prescribed by the administrator

4 A county shall return to the treasurer of state, no later than September 30 of each year, for placement in the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund, an amount equal to the amount by which expenditures by the county under section 331 425, subsection 13, paragraph "a", subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3), and paragraphs "b", "c", "d" and "g" during the fiscal year ending the preceding June 30 were less than the total of that county's share of the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund for that preceding fiscal year

The special allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund shall be used by the administrator to administer grants in aid, awarded by the commission, to counties, combinations of counties, or their designees to provide to persons in a particular county or area one or more new or expanded community based mental health or mental retardation services, or to continue those new or expanded services in a subsequent year, in furtherance of the purpose stated in section 225C 1. A grant may be made on terms providing for its use by the county or other grantee over a period of time greater than one year, but the entire grant shall be made from money available in the special allocation for the fiscal year during which the grant is made, and the administrator shall not obligate funds which the administrator anticipates will be appropriated in any future fiscal year. Each grant shall be made on terms and conditions agreed to by the administrator and the grantee. In awarding grants, priority shall be given to proposed projects that enhance deinstitutionalization and provide accessible comprehensive services to geographical areas of the state which do not have those services or which have experienced reductions in those services due to the elimination of programs no longer funded. A proposed project which will offer services other than comprehensive services may be considered for a special allocation grant if the relevancy of the project to the needs of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the commission

1 A county which pays, from county funds budgeted under section 331 425, subsection 13, paragraphs "d" and "g", the cost of care and treatment of a mentally ill person who is admitted pursuant to a preliminary diagnostic evaluation under sections 225C 14 to 225C 17 for treatment as an inpatient of a hospital facility, other than a state mental health institute, which has a designated mental health program and is a hospital accredited by the accreditation program for hospital facilities of the joint commission on accreditation of hospitals, is entitled to reimbursement from the state for a portion of the daily cost so incurred by the county. However, a county is not entitled to reimbursement for a cost incurred in connection with the hospitalization of a person who is eligible for medical assistance under chapter 249A, or who is entitled to have care or treatment paid for by any other third party payor, or who is admitted for preliminary diagnostic evaluation under sections 225C 14 to 225C 17. The amount of reimbursement for the cost of treatment of a local inpatient to which a county is entitled, on a per patient per day basis, is an amount equal to twenty percent of the average of the state mental health institutes' individual average daily patient costs in the most recent calendar quarter for the program in which the local inpatient would have been served if the patient had been admitted to a state mental health institute

2 A county may claim reimbursement by filing with the administrator a claim in a form prescribed by the administrator by rule. Claims may be filed on a quarterly basis, and when received shall be verified as soon as reasonably possible by the administrator. The administrator shall certify to the director of revenue and finance the amount to which each county claiming reimbursement is entitled, and the director of revenue and finance shall issue warrants to the respective counties drawn upon funds appropriated by the general assembly for the purpose of this section. A county shall place funds received under this section in the county mental health and institutions fund. If the appropriation for a fiscal year is insufficient to pay all claims arising under this section, the director of revenue and finance shall prorate the funds appropriated for that year among the claimant counties so that an equal proportion of each county's claim is paid in each quarter for which proration is necessary

225C.13 Authority of administrator to lease facilities.

The administrator may enter into agreements under which a facility or portion of a facility administered by the administrator is leased to a department or division of state government, a county or group of counties, or a private nonprofit corporation organized under chapter 504A. A lease executed under this section shall require that the lessee use the leased premises to deliver either comprehensive services or other services normally delivered by the lessee

225C.14 Preliminary diagnostic evaluation.

1. Except in cases of medical emergency, a person shall be admitted to a state mental health institute as an inpatient only after a preliminary diagnostic evaluation by a community mental health center or by an alternative diagnostic facility has confirmed that the admission is appropriate to the person's mental health needs, and that no suitable alternative method of providing the needed services in a less restrictive setting or in or nearer to the person's home community is currently available. The policy established by this section shall be implemented in the manner and to the extent prescribed by sections 225C 15, 225C 16 and 225C.17. However, notwithstanding the mandatory language requiring preliminary diagnostic evaluations in this section and sections 225C 15, 225C 16 and 225C 17, preliminary diagnostic evaluations shall not be required until the fiscal year for which the general assembly has appropriated moneys to the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund under section 225C.7

2. As used in this section and sections 225C 15, 225C 16 and 225C 17, the term "medical emergency" means a situation in which a prospective patient is received at a state mental health institute in a condition which, in the opinion of the chief medical officer, or that officer's physician designee, requires the immediate admission of the person notwithstanding the policy stated in subsection 1

225C.15 County implementation of evaluations.

The board of supervisors of a county shall, no later than July 1, 1982, require that the policy stated in section 225C 14 be followed with respect to admission of persons from that county to a state mental health institute. A community mental health center which is supported, directly or in affiliation with other counties, by that county shall perform the preliminary diagnostic evaluations for that county, unless the performance of the evaluations is not covered by the agreement entered into by the county and the center under section 230A 12, and the center's director certifies to the board of supervisors that the center does not have the capacity to perform the evaluations, in which case the board of supervisors shall proceed under section 225C 17

1. The chief medical officer of a state mental health institute, or that officer's physician designee, shall advise a person residing in that county who applies for voluntary admission, or a person applying for the voluntary admission of another person who resides in that county, in accordance with section 229 41, that the board of supervisors has implemented the policy stated in section 225C 14, and shall advise that a preliminary diagnostic evaluation of the prospective patient be sought from the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility, if that has not already been done. This subsection does not apply when voluntary admission is sought in accordance with section 229 41 under circumstances which, in the opinion of the chief medical officer or that officer's physician designee, constitute a medical emergency

2. The clerk of the district court in that county shall refer a person applying for authorization for voluntary admission, or for authorization for voluntary admission of another person, in accordance with section 229 42, to the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility for the preliminary diagnostic evaluation unless the applicant furnishes a written statement from that center or facility which indicates that the evaluation has been performed and that the person's admission to a state mental health institute is appropriate. This subsection does not apply when authorization for voluntary admission is sought under circumstances which, in the opinion of the chief medical officer or that officer's physician designee, constitute a medical emergency

3. Judges of the district court in that county or the judicial hospitalization referee appointed for that county shall so far as possible arrange for a physician on the staff of or designated by the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility to perform a prehearing examination of a respondent required under section 229.8, subsection 3, paragraph "b"

4. The chief medical officer of a state mental health institute shall promptly submit to the appropriate community mental health center or alternative diagnostic facility a report of the voluntary admission of a patient under the medical emergency clauses of subsections 1 and 2. The report shall explain the nature of the emergency which necessitated the admission of the patient without a preliminary diagnostic evaluation by the center or alternative facility

225C.17 Alternative diagnostic facility.

If a county is not served by a community mental health center having the capacity to perform the required preliminary diagnostic evaluations, the board of supervisors shall arrange for the evaluations to be performed by an alternative diagnostic facility for the period until the county is served by a community mental health center with the capacity to provide that service. An alternative diagnostic facility may be the outpatient service of a state mental health institute or any other mental health facility or service able to furnish the requisite professional skills to properly perform a preliminary diagnostic evaluation of a person whose admission to a state mental health institute is being sought or considered on either a voluntary or an involuntary basis.

225C.18 County mental health and mental retardation coordinating board.

1 A county board of supervisors, independently or in conjunction with one or more other county boards of supervisors, shall either establish a county or multicounty mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board or constitute the board or the multicounty boards of supervisors as the ex officio county mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board. If a separate county mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board is established, it shall be composed of persons who have demonstrated a concern for mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities services and its size shall be determined by the board or multicounty boards of supervisors. Each county board of supervisors shall designate one or more county supervisors to serve on a county mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board. The chairperson of the county mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities advisory committee established under section 225C 18A shall serve on the county or multicounty coordinating board. The vice chairperson of the county mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities advisory committee shall serve on the county or multicounty coordinating board if ten or more county supervisors are members of the board.

2 A county or multicounty mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board shall a Develop a plan for the provision of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities services in the county or counties represented by the membership of the board, consistent with the state mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities plan; however, the plan shall only be valid if approved by the county board or boards of supervisors

b Develop a plan, subject to annual state appropriations, county budgets, and other sources of funding, to provide individual case management services through the county, through a contract with a private provider, or through the department. However, the plan shall only be valid if approved by the county board or boards of supervisors

c Distribute, after a county assessment of needed services and available resources, no more than sixty percent of the county's or counties' share of the general allocation of the state community mental health and mental retardation services funds for either mental health or mental retardation services

d Prepare an annual fiscal accounting of the use of state moneys appropriated through the state community mental health and mental retardation services fund for use in the respective counties

e Nominate potential recipients of grant money made available from or through the administrator for development of mental health or mental retardation services

[S81, §225C 17, 81 Acts, ch 78, §19, 20]

225C.19 Mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities advisory committee.

1 The mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board shall establish an advisory committee composed of consumers, advocates, funding providers, service providers, program monitors, and other persons who have demonstrated a concern for mental health, mental retardation, or developmental disabilities. The board shall assure a balance of representation in the membership of the committee among the persons listed above and the service populations for whom the board has responsibility. Each county shall appoint to the committee one or more persons who have demonstrated a concern for persons with mental illness, one or more persons who have demonstrated a concern for persons with mental retardation, and one or more persons who have demonstrated a concern for persons with a developmental disability.

2 A county or multicounty mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities advisory committee shall do all of the following a Advise the mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board regarding board functions under section 225C 18, subsection 2 b Submit an annual plan to the mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board which includes recommendations regarding service development, expansion, modifications, and an estimate of the cost of implementing the plan

c Review and evaluate the appropriateness, effectiveness, and efficiency of services being provided to persons with mental retardation, a developmental disability, or mental illness in the county or multi-county area

d Perform duties assigned by the mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board

e Study and evaluate the needs of persons with mental retardation, a developmental disability, or mental illness in the county or multicounty area

225C.20 Responsibilities of counties for individual case management services.

Individual case management services shall be provided by the department except when a county or a consortium of counties contracts with the department to provide the services. A county or consortium of counties may contract to be the provider at any time and the department shall agree to the contract so long as the contract meets the standards for case management adopted by the department. The county or consortium of counties may subcontract for the provision of case management services so long as the subcontract meets the same standards. A mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities coordinating board which intends to change the provider of individual case management services shall provide written notification of a proposed change to the department on or before August 15 and written notification of an approved change on or before October 15 in the fiscal year which precedes the fiscal year in which the change will take effect

1 As used in this section and section 225C 23, "brain injury" means clinically evident brain damage resulting directly or indirectly from trauma, infection, anoxia, vascular lesions, or spinal cord injuries not primarily related to degenerative or aging processes, which temporarily or permanently impairs a person's physical or cognitive functions

2 The administrator shall establish and maintain a central registry of persons with brain injuries in order to facilitate the provision of appropriate rehabilitative services to the persons by the department and other state agencies. For a patient who is not admitted to a hospital but is treated in a physician's office, physicians shall report a brain injury to the administrator within seven days after identification of the person sustaining a brain injury. Hospitals shall report a brain injury to the administrator no later than forty-five days after the close of a quarter in which the patient was discharged. The report shall contain the name, age and residence of the person, the date, type, and cause of the brain injury, and additional information as the administrator requires, except that where available, physicians and hospitals shall report the Glasgow coma scale. The administrator shall consult with health care providers concerning the availability of additional relevant information. The department shall maintain the confidentiality of all information which would identify any person named in a report. However, the identifying information may be released for bona fide research purposes if the confidentiality of the identifying information is maintained by the researchers, or the identifying information may be released by the person with the brain injury or by the person's guardian or, if the person is a minor, by the person's parent or guardian

BILL OF RIGHTS

Section 225C 28 effective July 1 1987 dependent upon enactment of funding formula 85 Acts ch 249 §7 9 see also 87 Acts ch 233 §425 87 Acts ch 234 §208 study and report 88 Acts ch 1276 §14 (9 12)

225C.25 Short title.

Sections 225C 25 through 225C.28 shall be known as "the bill of rights of persons with mental retar-dition, developmental disabilities, or chronic mental illness⁷

85 Acts, ch 249, §2

225C.26 Scope.

These rights apply to any person with mental retardation, a developmental disability, or chronic mental illness who receives services which are funded in whole or in part by public funds or services which are permitted under Iowa law

85 Acts, ch 249, §3

225C.27 Purpose.

Sections 225C 25 through 225C 28 shall be liberally construed and applied to promote their purposes and the stated rights. The division, in coordination with appropriate agencies, shall adopt rules to implement the purposes of sections 225C 25 through 225C 28 which include, but are not limited to the following:

1 Promotion of the human dignity and protection of the constitutional and statutory rights of persons with mental retardation, developmental disabilities, or chronic mental illness in the state

2 Encouraging the development of the ability and potential of each person with mental retardation, developmental disabilities, or chronic mental illness in the state to the fullest extent possible

3 Ensuring that the recipients of services shall not be deprived of any rights, benefits, or privileges guaranteed by law, the Constitution of the State of Iowa or the Constitution of the United States solely on account of the receipt of the services

225C.28 Rights.

The rights of persons described in section 225C 26 include, but are not limited to:

1 Comprehensive evaluation and diagnosis. A person suspected of being mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, or chronically mentally ill or applying for developmental disabilities services, has the right to receive a comprehensive diagnosis and evaluation adapted to the cultural background, primary language, and ethnic origin of the person.

2 Individual treatment, habilitation, and program plan. Persons with mental retardation, a developmental disability, or chronic mental illness who require services have the right to an individual treatment, habilitation, and program plan.

3 Individualized treatment, habilitation, and program services. A person with a known or suspected mental retardation, developmentally disabled, or chronic mental illness condition shall not be denied treatment, habilitation, and program services because of age, sex, ethnic origin, marital status, ability to pay, criminal record, degree of disability or illness, or mental retardation condition.

4 Periodic review of treatment, habilitation, and program. A mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, or chronically mentally ill person receiving services has the right to a periodic, but at least annual, reevaluation and review of the individual treatment, habilitation, and program plan to measure progress, to modify objectives if necessary, and to provide guidance and remediation techniques.

5 Participation in the formulation of the plan. A person with mental retardation, a developmental disability, or chronic mental illness or the person's representative has the right to participate in planning the person's own treatment, habilitation, and program plan and to be informed, in writing, of progress at reasonable time intervals. Each person shall be given the opportunity to make decisions and exercise options regarding the plan, consistent with the person's capabilities.

6 Least restrictive environment and age appropriate services. A person with mental retardation, a developmental disability, or chronic mental illness has the right to live and receive age appropriate services in the least restrictive setting consistent with the person's individual treatment and habilitation needs, potential, and abilities.

7 Vocational training and employment options. A person with mental retardation, a developmental disability, or chronic mental illness has the right to vocational training which contributes to the person's independence and employment potential.

8 Wage protection. A person with mental retardation, a developmental disability, or chronic mental illness engaged in work programs shall be paid wages commensurate with the going rate for comparable work and productivity.

9 Insurance protection. Pursuant to section 507B 4, subsection 7, a person or designated group of persons shall not be denied insurance coverage by reason of mental retardation, a developmental disability, or chronic mental illness.

10 Due process. A person with mental retardation, a developmental disability, or chronic mental illness retains the right to citizenship in accordance with the laws of the state.

225C.29 Compliance.

Except for a violation of section 225C 28, subsection 9, the sole remedy for violation of a rule adopted by the division to enforce or implement this Act* shall be by a proceeding for compliance initiated by request to the division pursuant to chapter 17A. Any decision of the division shall be in accordance with due process of law and is subject to appeal to the Iowa district court pursuant to sections 17A 19 and 17A 20 by any aggrieved party. Either the division or a party in interest may apply to the Iowa district court for an order to enforce the decision of the division. Neither this Act* nor any rules adopted by the division create any right, entitlement, property or liberty right or interest, or private cause of action for damages against a municipality as defined in chapter 613A or for which such municipality would be responsible. Any violation of section 225C 28, subsection 9, shall be subject to the enforcement by the commissioner of insurance and penalties.

7 “Medical assistance” means payment of all or part of the care authorized to be provided pursuant to chapter 249A

225C.36 Family support subsidy program.

A family support subsidy program is created as specified in this division. The purpose of the family support subsidy program is to keep families together and to reduce capacity in state facilities by defraying some of the special costs of caring for a family member, thus facilitating the return of family members from out of home placements to their family homes, and preventing or delaying the out of home placement of family members who reside in their family homes. The department shall adopt rules to implement the purposes of sections 225C 36 through 225C 42 which assure that families retain the greatest possible flexibility in determining appropriate use of the subsidy

225C.37 Program specifications rules.

A parent or legal guardian of a family member who is a resident of or being considered for place ment in a state hospital school, a community based intermediate care facility which is intended to serve mentally retarded individuals or persons with developmental disabilities, a child foster care group home, a child foster care family home, or a state mental health institute may apply to the local office of the department for the family support subsidy program. The application shall include

1 A statement that the family resides in a county of this state

2 Verification that the family member meets the definitional requirements of section 225C 35, subsection 2

3 A statement that the family member resides, or is expected to reside, with the parent or legal guardian of the family member or, on a temporary basis, with another relative of the family member

4 A statement that if the child receives medical assistance, then the family support subsidy shall only be used for the cost of a service which is not covered by medical assistance. The family may receive welfare assistance for which the family is eligible

5 Verification that the net taxable income for the family for the calendar year immediately preceding the date of application did not exceed forty thousand dollars unless it can be verified that the estimated net taxable income for the family for the year in which the application is made will be less than forty thousand dollars

Within the limits set by the appropriation for this purpose, the department shall approve or disapprove the application based on the family support services plan which identifies the needs of the child and the family and the eligibility criteria required to be included in the application under subsections 1 through 5 and shall notify the parent or legal guardian of the decision

225C.38 Effect of approval of application — contract — report.

1 If an application for a family support subsidy is approved by the department a A family support subsidy shall be paid to the parent or legal guardian on behalf of the family member. An approved subsidy shall be payable as of the first of the next month after the department approves the written application

b A family support subsidy shall be used to meet the special needs of the family. This subsidy is intended to complement but not supplant public assistance or social service benefits based on economic need, available through governmental programs

c Except as provided in section 225C 41, a family support subsidy shall be in an amount equivalent to the monthly maximum supplemental security income payment available in Iowa for an adult recipient living in the household of another, as formulated under federal regulations. In addition, the parent or legal guardian of a family member who is in an out-of-home placement at the time of application may receive a one time lump sum advance payment of twice the monthly family support subsidy amount for the purpose of meeting the special needs of the family in preparing for in home care

2 The department shall administer the payment of family support subsidies

3 The parent or legal guardian who receives a family support subsidy shall report, in writing, the following information to the department

a. Not less than annually, a statement that the family support subsidy was used to meet the special needs of the family

b The occurrence of any event listed in section 225C 40

c A request to terminate the family support subsidy

225C.39 Subsidy payments not alienable.

Family support subsidy payments shall not be alienable by action, including but not limited to, assignment, sale, garnishment, or execution, and in the event of bankruptcy shall not pass to or through a trustee or any other person acting on behalf of creditors

225C.40 Termination or denial of subsidy — hearing.

1 The family support subsidy shall terminate if any of the following occur

a. The family member dies

b The family no longer meets the eligibility criteria in section 225C 37

c The family member attains the age of eighteen years

d The family member is no longer eligible for special education pursuant to section 281 9, subsection 1, paragraph “c” or “d”

2 The family support subsidy may be terminated by the department if a report required by section 225C 38, subsection 3, is not timely made or a report required by section 225C 38, subsection 3, paragraph “a”, contains false information

3 If an application for a family support subsidy is denied or a family support subsidy is terminated by the department, the parent or legal guardian of the affected family member may request, in writing, a hearing before an impartial hearing officer

225C.41 Appropriations.

Family support subsidy payments shall be paid from funds appropriated by the general assembly for this purpose

88 Acts, ch 1122, §8

225C.42 Annual evaluation of program.

The department shall conduct an annual evaluation of the family support subsidy program and shall submit the evaluation report with recommendations to the governor and general assembly prior to the end of the fiscal year The evaluation shall include, but not be limited to, all of the following

1 The impact of the family support subsidy program upon children covered by this division in institutions and residential care programs including, to the extent possible, sample case reviews of families who choose not to participate

2 Case reviews of families who voluntarily terminate participation in the family support subsidy program for any reason, particularly when the family member is placed out of the family home, including the involvement of the department in offering suitable alternatives

3 Sample assessments of families receiving family support subsidy payments including adequacy of subsidy and need for services not available

4 The efforts to encourage program participation of eligible families

5 The geographic distribution of families receiving subsidy payments and, to the extent possible, family members presumed to be eligible for family support subsidy payments

6 Programmatic and legislative recommendations to further assist families in providing care for family members including eligibility criteria, availability of family support services and parent satisfaction with the program

7 Problems that occur in identifying family members through diagnostic evaluations

8 The number of beds reduced in state institutions and foster care facilities serving severely mentally, multiply, and autistically impaired children when the children return home to natural families as a result of the subsidy program

The department shall report caseload figures by eligibility category as defined by administrative rule 226.17 Expense attending retaking.

All actual and necessary expenses incurred in the taking into protective custody, restraint, and return to the hospital of the patient shall be paid on itemized vouchers, sworn to by the claimants and approved by the business manager and the administrator, from any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated

226.18 Investigation as to mental health.

The administrator may investigate the mental condition of any patient and shall discharge any person, if, in the administrator's opinion, such person is not mentally ill, or can be cared for after such discharge without danger to others, and with benefit to the patient, but in determining whether such patient shall be discharged, the recommendation of the superintendent shall be secured If the administrator orders the discharge of an involuntarily hospitalized patient, the discharge shall be by the procedure prescribed in section 229 16 The power to investigate the mental condition of a patient is merely permissive, and does not repeal or alter any statute respecting the discharge or commitment of patients of the state hospitals

226.19 Discharge — certificate.

All patients shall be discharged, by the procedure prescribed in section 229 3 or section 229 16, whichever is applicable, immediately on regaining their good mental health

226.35 to 226.39 Repealed by 65GA, ch 1131, §51

226.40 Emergency patients.

In case of emergency disaster, with the infliction of numerous casualties among the civilian population, the mental health institutes are authorized to accept sick and wounded persons without commitment or any other formalities.

226.41 Charge permitted.

The hospital is authorized to make a charge for these patients, in the manner now provided by law and subject to the changes hereinafter provided.

226.42 Emergency powers of superintendents.

In case the mental health institutes lose contact with the statehouse, due to enemy action or otherwise, the superintendents of the institutes are hereby delegated the following powers and duties:

1 May collect moneys due the state treasury from the counties and from responsible persons or other relatives, these funds to be collected monthly, in stead of quarterly, and to be deposited for use in operating the institutes.

2 The superintendent shall have the power to requisition supplies, such as food, fuel, drugs and medical equipment, from any source available, in the name of the state, with the power to enter into contracts binding the state for payment at an indefinite future time.

3 The superintendent shall be authorized to employ personnel in all categories and for whatever remuneration the superintendent deems necessary, without regard to existing laws, rules or regulations, in order to permit the institute to continue its old functions, as well as meet its additional responsibilities.

MENTAL PATIENTS PERSONAL FUNDS

226.43 Fund created.

There is hereby established at each hospital a fund known as the "patients' personal deposit fund"

226.44 Deposits.

Any funds, including social security benefits, coming into the possession of the superintendent or any employee of the hospital belonging to any patient in that hospital, shall be deposited in the name of that patient in the patients' personal deposit fund, except that if a guardian of the property of that patient has been appointed, the guardian shall have the right to demand and receive such funds. Funds belonging to a patient deposited in the patients' personal deposit fund may be used for the purchase of personal incidentals, desires and comforts for the patient [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226 44]

226.45 Reimbursement to county or state.

If a patient is not receiving medical assistance under chapter 249A and the amount to the account of any patient in the patients' personal deposit fund exceeds two hundred dollars, the business manager of the hospital may apply any of the excess to reimburse the county of legal settlement or the state in a case where no legal settlement exists for liability incurred by the county or the state for the payment of care, support and maintenance of the patient, when billed by the county of legal settlement or by the administrator for a patient having no legal settlement [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §226 45, 81 Acts, ch 11, §16]

226.46 Deposit of fund.

The business manager shall deposit the patients' personal deposit fund in a commercial account of a bank of reputable standing. When deposits in the commercial account exceed average monthly withdrawals, the business manager may deposit the excess at interest. The savings account shall be in the name of the patients' personal deposit fund and interest paid thereon may be used for recreational purposes at the hospital [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226 46]

226.47 "Administrator" defined.

For the purpose of this chapter "administrator" means the administrator of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities of the department of human services [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §226 47, 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 31] 83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

227.1 Supervision.

All county and private institutions wherein mentally ill persons are kept shall be under the supervision of the administrator [S13, §2727-a58, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3517; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227 1]

227.2 Inspection.

1 The director of inspections and appeals shall make, or cause to be made, at least one licensure inspection each year of every county care facility. Either the administrator of the division or the director of inspections and appeals, in co-operation with each other, upon receipt of a complaint or for good cause, may make, or cause to be made, a review of a county care facility or of any other private or county institution where mentally ill or mentally retarded persons reside. A licensure inspection or a review shall be made by a competent and disinterested person who is acquainted with and interested in the care of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons. The objective of a licensure inspection or a review shall be an evaluation of the programming and treatment provided by the facility. After each licensure inspection of a county care facility, the person who made the inspection shall consult with the county authorities on plans and practices that will improve the care given patients and shall make recommendations to the administrator of the division and the director of public health for coordinating and improving the relationships between the administrators of county care facilities, the administrator of the division, the director of public health, the superintendents of state mental health institutes and hospital schools, community mental health centers, and other cooperating agencies, to cause improved and more satisfactory care of patients. A written report of each licensure inspection of a county care facility under this section shall be filed with the administrator of the division and the director of public health and shall include a. The capacity of the institution for the care of residents

b. The number, sex, ages, and primary diagnoses of the residents

c. The care of residents, their food, clothing, treatment plan, employment, and opportunity for recreational activities and for productive work intended primarily as therapeutic activity

d. The number, job classification, sex, duties, and salaries of all employees

e. The cost to the state or county of maintaining residents in a county care facility

f. The recommendations given to and received from county authorities on methods and practices that will improve the conditions under which the county care facility is operated

g. Any failure to comply with standards adopted under section 227 4 for care of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons in county care facilities, which is not covered in information submitted pursuant to paragraphs "a" to "f", and any other matters which the director of public health, in consultation with the administrator of the division, may require

2. A copy of the written report prescribed by subsection 1 shall be furnished to the county board of supervisors, to the county mental health and mental retardation coordinating board or to its advisory board if the county board of supervisors constitutes ex officio the coordinating board, to the administrator of the county care facility inspected and to its care review committee, and to the department of elder affairs

3. The department of inspections and appeals shall inform the administrator of the division of an action by the department to suspend, revoke, or deny renewal of a license issued by the department of inspections and appeals to a county care facility, and the reasons for the action

4. In addition to the licensure inspections required or authorized by this section, the administrator of the division shall cause to be made an evaluation of each person cared for in a county care facility at least once each year by one or more qualified mental health, mental retardation, or medical professionals, whichever is appropriate

a. It is the responsibility of the state to secure the annual evaluation for each person who is on convalescent leave or who has not been discharged from a state mental health institute. It is the responsibility of the county to secure the annual evaluation for all other mentally ill persons in the county care facility

b. It is the responsibility of the state to secure the annual evaluation for each person who is on leave and has not been discharged from a state hospital school. It is the responsibility of the county to secure the annual evaluation for all other mentally retarded persons in the county care facility

c. It is the responsibility of the county to secure an annual evaluation of each resident of a county care facility to whom neither paragraph "a" nor paragraph "b" is applicable

5. The evaluations required by subsection 4 shall include an examination of each person which shall reveal the person's condition of mental and physical health and the likelihood of improvement or discharge and other recommendations concerning the care of those persons as the evaluator deems pertinent. One copy of the evaluation shall be filed with the administrator of the division and one copy shall be filed with the administrator of the county care facility

227.3 Residents to have hearing.

The inspector conducting any licensure inspection or review under section 227 2 shall give each resident an opportunity to converse with the inspector out of the hearing of any officer or employee of the institution, and shall fully investigate all complaints and report the result in writing to the administrator of the division. The administrator before acting on the report adversely to the institution, shall give the persons in charge a copy of the report and an opportunity to be heard

227.4 Standards for care of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons in county care facilities.

The administrator, in cooperation with the state department of health, shall recommend, and the mental health and mental retardation commission shall adopt standards for the care of and services to mentally ill and mentally retarded persons residing in county care facilities. The standards shall be enforced by the department of inspections and appeals as a part of the licensure inspection conducted pursuant to chapter 135C. The objective of the standards is to ensure that mentally ill and mentally retarded residents of county care facilities are not only adequately fed, clothed, and housed, but are also offered reasonable opportunities for productive work and recreational activities suited to their physical and mental abilities and offering both a con structive outlet for their energies and, if possible, therapeutic benefit. When recommending standards under this section, the administrator shall designate an advisory committee representing administrators of county care facilities, county co-ordinating boards, and county care facility care review committees to assist in the establishment of standards.

227.6 Removal of residents.

If a county care facility fails to comply with rules and standards adopted under this chapter, the administrator may remove all mentally ill and mentally retarded persons cared for in the county care facility at public expense, to the proper state mental health institute or hospital-school, or to some private or county institution or hospital for the care of the mentally ill or mentally retarded that has complied with the rules prescribed by the administrator. The removal of residents, if to a state mental health institute or hospital-school, shall be made by an attendant or attendants sent from the institute or hospital-school. If a resident is removed under this section, at least one attendant shall be of the same sex. If the administrator finds that the needs of mentally ill and mentally retarded residents of any other county or private institution are not being adequately met, those residents may be removed from that institution upon order of the administrator, in consultation with the director of public health.

227.7 Cost — collection from county.

The cost of such removal, including all expenses of said attendant, shall be certified by the superintendent of the hospital receiving the patient, to the director of revenue and finance, who shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer of state for said sum, which shall be credited to the support fund of said hospital and charged against the general revenues of the state and collected by the director of revenue and finance from the county which sent said patient to said institution.

227.8 Notification to guardians.

The administrator shall notify the guardian, or one or more of the relatives, of patients kept at private expense, of all violations of said rules by said private or county institutions, and of the action of the administrator as to all other patients.

227.9 Investigating mental health.

Should the administrator believe that any person in any such county or private institution is in good mental health, or illegally restrained of liberty, the administrator shall institute and prosecute proceedings in the name of the state, before the proper officer, board, or court, for the discharge of such person.

227.10 Transfers from county or private institutions.

Patients who have been admitted at public expense to any institution to which this chapter is applicable may be involuntarily transferred to the proper state hospital for the mentally ill in the manner prescribed by sections 229 6 to 229 13. The application required by section 229 6 may be filed by the administrator of the division or the administrator's designee, or by the administrator of the institution where the patient is then being maintained or treated. If the patient was admitted to that institution involuntarily, the administrator of the division may arrange and complete the transfer, and shall report it as required of a chief medical officer under section 229 15, subsection 4. The transfer shall be made at county expense, and the expense recovered, as provided in section 227 7.

227.11 Transfers from state hospitals.

A county chargeable with the expense of a patient in a state hospital for the mentally ill shall remove such patient to a county or private institution for the mentally ill which has complied with the aforesaid rules when the administrator of the division or the administrator's designee so orders on a finding that said patient is suffering from chronic mental illness or from senility and will receive equal benefit by being so transferred. A county shall remove to its county care facility any patient in a state hospital for the mentally ill upon request of the superintendent of the state hospital in which the patient is confined pursuant to the superintendent's authority under section 229 15, subsection 4, and approval by the board of supervisors of the county of the patient's residence. In no case shall a patient be thus transferred except upon compliance with section 229 14, subsection 4, or without the written consent of a relative, friend, or guardian if such relative, friend, or guardian pays the expense of the care of such patient in a state hospital. Patients transferred to a public or private facility under this section may subsequently be placed on convalescent or limited leave or transferred to a different facility for continued full time custody, care and treatment when, in the opinion of the attending physician or the chief medical officer of the hospital from which the patient was so transferred, the best interest of the patient would be served by such leave or transfer. However, if the patient was originally hospitalized involuntarily, the leave or transfer shall be made in compliance with section 229 15, subsection 4.

When a difference of opinion exists between the administrator of the division and the authorities in charge of any private or county hospital in regard to the removal of a patient or patients as herein provided, the matter shall be submitted to the district court of the county in which such hospital is situated and shall be summarily tried as an equitable action, and the judgment of the district court shall be final [S13, §2727-a68, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3529; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227 12]

227.15 Authority to confine in hospital.

No person shall be involuntarily confined and restrained in any private institution or hospital or county hospital or other general hospital with psychiatric ward for the care or treatment of the mentally ill, except by the procedure prescribed in sections 229 6 to 229 15 [S13, §2727 a66, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3532; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227 15]

227.13 Discharge of transferred patient.

Patients transferred from a state hospital to such county or private institutions shall not be discharged, when not cured, without the consent of the administrator of the division [S13, §2727-a64, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3530; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §227 13]

227.16 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 78, §51 See §225C 12(1)

227.14 Caring for mentally ill of other counties.

Boards of supervisors of counties having no proper facilities for caring for the mentally ill, may, with the consent of the administrator of the division, provide for such care at the expense of the county in any convenient and proper county or private institution for the mentally ill which is willing to receive them

227.19 “Administrator” defined.

For the purpose of this chapter “administrator” means the administrator of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities of the department of human services [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §227 19, 81 Acts, ch 78, §20, 36] 83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

86 Acts, ch 1082, §1, 88 Acts, ch 1226, §2, 3

228.2 Mental health information disclosure prohibited – exceptions – record of disclosure.

1 Except as specifically authorized in section 228 3, 228 5, 228 6, or 228 7, a mental health professional, data collector, or employee or agent of a mental health professional, of a data collector, or of for a mental health facility shall not disclose or permit the disclosure of mental health information

2 Upon disclosure of mental health information pursuant to section 228 3, 228 5, 228 6, or 228 7, the person disclosing the mental health information shall enter a notation on and maintain the notation with the individual’s record of mental health information, stating the date of the disclosure and the name of the recipient of mental health information

The person disclosing the mental health information shall give the recipient of the information a statement which informs the recipient that disclosures may only be made pursuant to the written authorization of an individual or an individual’s legal representative, or as otherwise provided in this chapter, that the unauthorized disclosure of mental health information is unlawful, and that civil damages and criminal penalties may be applicable to the unauthorized disclosure of mental health information

3 A recipient of mental health information shall not disclose the information received, except as specifically authorized for initial disclosure in section 228 3, 228 5, 228 6 or 228 7 However, mental health information may be transferred at any time to another facility, physician, or mental health professional in cases of a medical emergency or if the individual or the individual’s legal representative requests the transfer in writing for the purposes of receipt of medical or mental health professional services, at which time the requirements of section 228 2, subsection 2, shall be followed.

228.3 Voluntary disclosures.

1 An individual eighteen years of age or older or an individual’s legal representative may consent to the disclosure of mental health information relating to the individual by a mental health professional, data collector, or employee or agent of a mental health professional, of a data collector, or of or for a mental health facility, by signing a voluntary written authorization The authorization shall

a. Specify the nature of the mental health information to be disclosed, the persons or type of persons authorized to disclose the information, and the purposes for which the information may be used both at the time of the disclosure and in the future

b. Advise the individual of the individual’s right to inspect the disclosed mental health information at any time

c. State that the authorization is subject to revocation and state the conditions of revocation

d. Specify the length of time for which the authorization is valid

e. Contain the date on which the authorization was signed

2 A copy of the authorization shall

a. Be provided to the individual or to the legal representative of the individual authorizing the disclosure

b. Be included in the individual’s record of mental health information

228.4 Revocation of disclosure authorization.

An individual or an individual's legal representative may revoke a prior authorization by providing a written revocation to the recipient named in the authorization and to the mental health professional, data collector, or employee or agent of a mental health professional, of a data collector, or of or for a mental health facility previously authorized to disclose the mental health information. The revocation is effective upon receipt of the written revocation by the person previously authorized to disclose the mental health information. After the effective revocation date, mental health information shall not be disclosed pursuant to the revoked authorization. However, mental health information previously disclosed pursuant to the revoked authorization may be used for the purposes stated in the original written authorization.

228.5 Administrative disclosures.

1 An individual or an individual's legal representative shall be informed that mental health information relating to the individual may be disclosed to employees or agents of or for the same mental health facility if and to the extent necessary to facilitate the provision of administrative and professional services to the individual.

2 If an individual eighteen years of age or older or an individual's legal representative has received a written notification that a fee is due a mental health professional or a mental health facility and has failed to arrange for payment of the fee within a reasonable time after the notification, the mental health professional or mental health facility may disclose administrative information necessary for the collection of the fee to a person or agency providing collection services.

If a civil action is filed for the collection of the fee, additional mental health information shall not be disclosed in the litigation, except to the extent necessary to respond to a motion of the individual or the individual's legal representative for greater specificity or to dispute a defense or counterclaim.

3 A mental health professional or an employee or agent for a mental health facility may disclose mental health information if necessary for the purpose of conducting scientific and data research, management audits, or program evaluations of the mental health professional or mental health facility, to persons who have demonstrated and provided written assurances of their ability to ensure compliance with the requirements of this chapter. The persons shall not identify, directly or indirectly, an individual in any report of the research, audits, or evaluations, or otherwise disclose individual identities in any manner. A disclosure under this section is not subject to the requirements of section 228.2, subsection 2, with the exception that a person receiving mental health information under this section shall be provided a statement prohibiting redisclosure of information unless otherwise authorized by this chapter.

228.6 Compulsory disclosures.

1 A mental health professional or an employee of or agent for a mental health facility may disclose mental health information if and to the extent necessary, to meet the requirements of section 229.24, 229.25, 230.20, 230.21, 230.25, 230.26, 230A.13, 232.74, or 232.147, or to meet the compulsory reporting or disclosure requirements of other state or federal law relating to the protection of human health and safety.

2 Mental health information acquired by a mental health professional pursuant to a court ordered examination may be disclosed pursuant to court rules.

3 Mental health information may be disclosed by a mental health professional if and to the extent necessary, to initiate or complete civil commitment proceedings under chapter 229.

4 Mental health information may be disclosed in a civil or administrative proceeding in which an individual eighteen years of age or older or an individual's legal representative or, in the case of a deceased individual, a party claiming or defending through a beneficiary of the individual, offers the individual's mental or emotional condition as an element of a claim or a defense.

5 An individual eighteen years of age or older or an individual's legal representative or any other party in a civil, criminal, or administrative action, in which mental health information has been or will be disclosed, may move the court to denominate, style, or caption the names of all parties as "JOHN OR JANE DOE" or otherwise protect the anonymity of all of the parties.

228.7 Disclosures for claims administration and peer review – safeguards – penalty.

1 Mental health information may be disclosed, in accordance with the prior written consent of the patient or the patient's legal representative, by a mental health professional, data collector, or employee or agent of a mental health professional, a data collector, or a mental health facility to a third party payor or to a peer review organization if the third party payor or the peer review organization has filed a written statement with the commissioner of insurance in which the filer agrees to

a. Instruct its employees and agents to maintain the confidentiality of mental health information and of the penalty for unauthorized disclosure.

b. Comply with the limitations on use and disclosure of the information specified in subsection 2 of this section.

c. Destroy the information when it is no longer needed for the purposes specified in subsection 2 of this section.

2 An employee or agent of a third party payor or of a peer review organization shall not use mental health information or disclose mental health information to any person, except to the extent necessary to administer claims submitted or to be submitted for payment to the third party payor, to conduct a utilization and quality control review of mental health care services provided or proposed to be provided, to conduct an audit of claims paid, or as otherwise authorized by law

Employees of a self insured employer, and agents of a self insured employer which have not filed a statement with the commissioner of insurance pursuant to subsection 1, shall not be granted routine or ongoing access to mental health information unless the employees or agents have signed a statement indicating that they are aware that the information shall not be used or disclosed except as provided in this subsection and that they are aware of the penalty for unauthorized disclosure

3 An employee or agent of a third party payor or a peer review organization who willfully uses or discloses mental health information in violation of subsection 2 of this section is guilty of a serious misdemeanor, and, notwithstanding section 903 1, the sentence for a person convicted under this subsection is a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars in the case of a first offense, and not to exceed five thousand dollars in the case of each subsequent offense

229.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise

1 "Mental illness" means every type of mental disease or mental disorder, except that it does not refer to mental retardation as defined in section 222 2, subsection 5, or to insanity, diminished responsibility, or mental incompetency as the terms are defined and used in the Iowa criminal code or in the rules of criminal procedure, Iowa court rules, 2d ed

2 "Seriously mentally impaired" or "serious mental impairment" describes the condition of a person who is afflicted with mental illness and because of that illness lacks sufficient judgment to make re sponsible decisions with respect to the person's hospitalization or treatment, and who

a Is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if allowed to remain at liberty without treatment, or b Is likely to inflict serious emotional injury on members of the person's family or others who lack reasonable opportunity to avoid contact with the afflicted person if the afflicted person is allowed to remain at liberty without treatment

3 "Serious emotional injury" is an injury which does not necessarily exhibit any physical characteristics, but which can be recognized and diagnosed by a licensed physician or other qualified mental health professional and which can be causally connected with the act or omission of a person who is, or is alleged to be, mentally ill

4 "Respondent" means any person against whom an application has been filed under section 229 6, but who has not been finally ordered committed for full time custody, care and treatment in a hospital

5 "Patient" means a person who has been hospitalized or ordered hospitalized to receive treatment pursuant to section 229 14

6 "Licensed physician" means an individual licensed under the provisions of chapter 148, 150 or 150A to practice medicine and surgery, osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery

7 "Qualified mental health professional" means an individual experienced in the study and treatment of mental disorders in the capacity of a A psychologist certified under chapter 154B, or b A registered nurse licensed under chapter 152, or c A social worker who holds a master's degree in social work awarded by an accredited college or university

8 "Public hospital" means a A state mental health institute established by chapter 226, or b The state psychiatric hospital established by chapter 225, or c Any other publicly supported hospital or institution, or part of such hospital or institution, which is equipped and staffed to provide inpatient care to the mentally ill, except the Iowa medical and classification center established by chapter 246

9 "Private hospital" means any hospital or institution not directly supported by public funds, or a part thereof, which is equipped and staffed to provide inpatient care to the mentally ill

10 "Hospital" means either a public hospital or a private hospital

11 "Chief medical officer" means the medical director in charge of a public or private hospital, or that individual's physician designee This chapter does not negate the authority otherwise reposed by law in the respective superintendents of each of the state hospitals for the mentally ill, established by chapter 226, to make decisions regarding the appropriateness of admissions or discharges of patients of that hospital, however it is the intent of this chapter that if the superintendent is not a licensed physician the decisions by the superintendent shall be corroborated by the chief medical officer of the hospital

12 "Clerk" means the clerk of the district court

13 "Administrator" means the administrator of that division of the department of human services having jurisdiction of the state mental health institutes, or that administrator's designee

14 "Chemotherapy" means treatment of an individual by use of a drug or substance which cannot legally be delivered or administered to the ultimate user without a physician's prescription or medical order

229.2 Application for voluntary admission — authority to receive voluntary patients.

1 An application for admission to a public or private hospital for observation, diagnosis, care, and treatment as a voluntary patient may be made by any person who is mentally ill or has symptoms of mental illness

In the case of a minor, the parent, guardian, or custodian may make application for admission of the minor as a voluntary patient

a Upon receipt of an application for voluntary admission of a minor, the chief medical officer shall provide separate prescreening interviews and consultations with the parent, guardian or custodian and the minor to assess the family environment and the appropriateness of the application for admission

b During the interview and consultation the chief medical officer shall inform the minor orally and in writing that the minor has a right to object to the admission If the chief medical officer of the hospital to which application is made determines that the admission is appropriate but the minor objects to the admission, the parent, guardian or custodian must petition the juvenile court for approval of the admission before the minor is actually admitted

c As soon as is practicable after the filing of a petition for juvenile court approval of the admission of the minor, the juvenile court shall determine whether the minor has an attorney to represent the minor in the hospitalization proceeding, and if not, the court shall assign to the minor an attorney If the minor is financially unable to pay for an attorney, the attorney shall be compensated in substantially the manner provided by section 815 7

d The juvenile court shall determine whether the admission is in the best interest of the minor and is consistent with the minor's rights

e The juvenile court shall order hospitalization of a minor, over the minor's objections, only after a hearing in which it is shown by clear and convincing evidence that

(1) The minor needs and will substantially benefit from treatment

(2) No other setting which involves less restriction of the minor's liberties is feasible for the purposes of treatment

f Upon approval of the admission of a minor over the minor's objections, the juvenile court shall appoint an individual to act as an advocate representing the interests of the minor in the same manner as an advocate representing the interests of patients involuntarily hospitalized pursuant to section 229 19

2 Upon receiving an application for admission as a voluntary patient, made pursuant to subsection 1

a The chief medical officer of a public hospital shall receive and may admit the person whose admission is sought, subject in cases other than medical emergencies to availability of suitable accommodations and to the provisions of sections 229 41 and 229 42

b The chief medical officer of a private hospital may receive and may admit the person whose admission is sought

229.3 Discharge of voluntary patients.

Any voluntary patient who has recovered, or whose hospitalization the chief medical officer of the hospital determines is no longer advisable, shall be discharged Any voluntary patient may be discharged if to do so would in the judgment of the chief medical officer contribute to the most effective use of the hospital in the care and treatment of that patient and of other mentally ill persons

229.4 Right to release on application.

A voluntary patient who requests release or whose release is requested, in writing, by the patient's legal guardian, parent, spouse or adult next of kin shall be released from the hospital forthwith, except that

1 If the patient was admitted on the patient's own application and the request for release is made by some other person, release may be conditioned upon the agreement of the patient

2 If the patient is a minor who was admitted on the application of the patient's parent, guardian or custodian pursuant to section 229 2, subsection 1, the patient's release prior to becoming eighteen years of age may be conditioned upon the consent of the parent, guardian or custodian, or upon the approval of the juvenile court if the admission was approved by the juvenile court, and

3 If the chief medical officer of the hospital, not later than the end of the next secular day on which the office of the clerk of the district court for the county in which the hospital is located is open and which follows the submission of the written request for release of the patient, files with that clerk a certification that in the chief medical officer's opinion the patient is seriously mentally impaired, the release may be postponed for the period of time the court determines is necessary to permit commencement of judicial procedure for involuntary hospitalization That period of time may not exceed five days, exclusive of days on which the clerk's office is not open unless the period of time is extended by order of a district court judge for good cause shown Until disposition of the application for involuntary hospitalization of the patient, if one is timely filed, the chief medical officer may detain the patient in the hospital and may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the patient's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the patient which is likely to result in physical injury to the patient or to others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the patient without the patient's consent

229.5 Departure without notice.

If a voluntary patient departs from the hospital without notice, and in the opinion of the chief medical officer the patient is seriously mentally impaired, the chief medical officer may file an application for involuntary hospitalization of the departed voluntary patient, and request that an order for immediate custody be entered by the court pursuant to section 229 11

229.6 Application for order of involuntary hospitalization.

Proceedings for the involuntary hospitalization of an individual may be commenced by any interested person by filing a verified application with the clerk of the district court of the county where the respondent is presently located, or which is the respondent's place of residence The clerk, or the clerk's designee, shall assist the applicant in completing the application The application shall

1 State the applicant's belief that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired

2 State any other pertinent facts

3 Be accompanied by a A written statement of a licensed physician in support of the application, or b One or more supporting affidavits otherwise corroborating the application, or c Corroborative information obtained and reduced to writing by the clerk or the clerk's designee, but only when circumstances make it infeasible to comply with, or when the clerk considers it appropriate to supplement the information supplied pursuant to, either paragraph "a" or paragraph "b" of this subsection

229.6A Hospitalization of minors – jurisdiction – due process.

1 Notwithstanding section 229 11, the juvenile court has exclusive original jurisdiction in proceedings concerning a minor for whom an application for involuntary admission is filed under section 229 6 or for whom an application for voluntary admission is made under section 229 2, subsection 1, to which the minor objects. In proceedings under this chapter concerning a minor, notwithstanding section 229 11, the terms "court", "judge", "referee", or "clerk" mean the juvenile court, judge, referee, or clerk.

2 The procedural requirements of this chapter are applicable to minors involved in hospitalization proceedings pursuant to subsection 1.

3 It is the intent of this chapter that when a minor is involuntarily or voluntarily hospitalized or hospitalized with juvenile court approval over the minor's objection the minor's family shall be included in counseling sessions offered during the minor's stay in a hospital when feasible. Prior to the discharge of the minor the juvenile court may, after a hearing, order that the minor's family be evaluated and therapy ordered if necessary to facilitate the return of the minor to the family setting.

229.7 Service of notice upon respondent.

Upon the filing of an application for involuntary hospitalization, the clerk shall docket the case and immediately notify a district court judge who shall review the application and accompanying documentation. If the application is adequate as to form, the judge may set a time and place for a hearing on the application, if feasible, but the hearing shall not be held less than forty eight hours after notice to the respondent unless the respondent waives such minimum prior notice requirement. The judge shall direct the clerk to send copies of the application and supporting documentation, together with a notice informing the respondent of the procedures required by this chapter, to the sheriff or the sheriff's deputy for immediate service upon the respondent. If the respondent is taken into custody under section 229 11, service of the application, documentation and notice upon the respondent shall be made at the time the respondent is taken into custody.

229.8 Procedure after application is filed.

As soon as practicable after the filing of an application for involuntary hospitalization, the court shall

1 Determine whether the respondent has an attorney who is able and willing to represent the respondent in the hospitalization proceeding, and if not, whether the respondent is financially able to employ an attorney and capable of meaningfully assisting in selecting one. In accordance with those determinations, the court shall if necessary allow the respondent to select, or shall assign to the respondent, an attorney. If the respondent is financially unable to pay an attorney, the attorney shall be compensated in substantially the manner provided by section 815 7, except that if the county has a public defender the court may designate the public defender or an attorney on the public defender's staff to act as the respondent's attorney.

2 Cause copies of the application and supporting documentation to be sent to the county attorney or the county attorney's attorney-designate for review.

3 Issue a written order which shall

a. If not previously done, set a time and place for a hospitalization hearing, which shall be at the earliest practicable time not less than forty eight hours after notice to the respondent, unless the respondent waives such minimum prior notice requirement, and

b. Order an examination of the respondent, prior to the hearing, by one or more licensed physicians who shall submit a written report on the examination to the court as required by section 229 10.

229.9 Respondent's attorney informed.

The court shall direct the clerk to furnish at once to the respondent's attorney copies of the application for involuntary hospitalization of the respondent and the supporting documentation, and of the court's order issued pursuant to section 229 8, subsection 3. If the respondent is taken into custody under section 229 11, the attorney shall also be advised of that fact. The respondent's attorney shall represent the respondent at all stages of the proceedings, and shall attend the hospitalization hearing.

229.10 Physicians' examination — report.

1 An examination of the respondent shall be conducted by one or more licensed physicians, as required by the court's order, within a reasonable time. If the respondent is detained pursuant to section 229 11, subsection 2, the examination shall be conducted within twenty four hours. If the respondent is detained pursuant to section 229 11, subsection 1 or 3, the examination shall be conducted within forty-eight hours. If the respondent so desires, the respondent shall be entitled to a separate examination by a licensed physician of the respondent's own choice. The reasonable cost of such separate examination shall, if the respondent lacks sufficient funds to pay the cost, be paid from county funds upon order of the court.

Any licensed physician conducting an examination pursuant to this section may consult with or request the participation in the examination of any qualified mental health professional, and may include with or attach to the written report of the examination any findings or observations by any qualified mental health professional who has been so consulted or has so participated in the examination.

If the respondent is not taken into custody under section 229 11, but the court is subsequently informed that the respondent has declined to be examined by the licensed physician or physicians pursuant to the court order, the court may order such limited detention of the respondent as is necessary to facilitate the examination of the respondent by the licensed physician or physicians

2 A written report of the examination by the court designated physician or physicians shall be filed with the clerk prior to the time set for hearing. A written report of any examination by a physician chosen by the respondent may be similarly filed. The clerk shall immediately a Cause the report or reports to be shown to the judge who issued the order, and

b Cause the respondent's attorney to receive a copy of the report of the court designated physician or physicians

3 If the report of the court designated physician or physicians is to the effect that the individual is not seriously mentally impaired, the court may without taking further action terminate the proceeding and dismiss the application on its own motion and without notice

4 If the report of the court designated physician or physicians is to the effect that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired, the court shall schedule a hearing on the application as soon as possible. The hearing shall be held not more than forty eight hours after the report is filed, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, unless an extension for good cause is requested by the respondent, or as soon thereafter as possible if the court considers that sufficient grounds exist for delaying the hearing

229.11 Judge may order immediate custody.

If the applicant requests that the respondent be taken into immediate custody and the judge, upon reviewing the application and accompanying documentation, finds probable cause to believe that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and is likely to injure the respondent or other persons if allowed to remain at liberty, the judge may enter a written order directing that the respondent be taken into immediate custody by the sheriff or the sheriff's deputy and be detained until the hospitalization hearing, which shall be held no more than five days after the date of the order, except that if the fifth day after the date of the order is a Saturday, Sunday, or a holiday, the hearing may be held on the next succeeding business day. The judge may order the respondent detained for the period of time until the hearing is held, and no longer, in accordance with subsection 1 if possible, and if not then in accordance with subsection 2 or, only if neither of these alternatives are available, in accordance with subsection 3

Detention may be

1 In the custody of a relative, friend or other suitable person who is willing to accept responsibility for supervision of the respondent, and the respondent may be placed under such reasonable restrictions as the judge may order including, but not limited to, restrictions on or a prohibition of any expenditure, encumbrance or disposition of the respondent's funds or property, or

2 In a suitable hospital the chief medical officer of which shall be informed of the reasons why immediate custody has been ordered and may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the respondent's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the respondent which is likely to result in physical injury to the respondent or to others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the respondent without the respondent's consent, or

3 In a public or private facility in the community which is suitably equipped and staffed for the purpose, provided that detention in a jail or other facility intended for confinement of those accused or convicted of crime may not be ordered except in cases of actual emergency when no other secure facility is accessible and then only for a period of not more than twenty four hours and under close supervision

229.12 Hearing procedure.

1 At the hospitalization hearing, evidence in support of the contentions made in the application shall be presented by the county attorney. During the hearing the applicant and the respondent shall be afforded an opportunity to testify and to present and cross examine witnesses, and the court may receive the testimony of any other interested person. The respondent has the right to be present at the hearing. If the respondent exercises that right and has been medicated within twelve hours, or such longer period of time as the court may designate, prior to the beginning of the hearing or an adjourned session thereof, the judge shall be informed of that fact and of the probable effects of the medication upon convening of the hearing

2 All persons not necessary for the conduct of the proceeding shall be excluded, except that the court may admit persons having a legitimate interest in the proceeding. Upon motion of the county attorney, the judge may exclude the respondent from the hearing during the testimony of any particular witness if the judge determines that that witness' testimony is likely to cause the respondent severe emotional trauma

3 The respondent's welfare shall be paramount and the hearing shall be conducted in as informal a manner as may be consistent with orderly procedure, but consistent therewith the issue shall be tried as a civil matter. Such discovery as is permitted under the Iowa rules of civil procedure shall be available to the respondent. The court shall receive all relevant and material evidence which may be offered and need not be bound by the rules of evidence. There shall be a presumption in favor of the respondent, and the burden of evidence in support of the contentions made in the application shall be upon the applicant. If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has not been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, it shall deny the application and terminate the proceeding

finds good cause to believe that the respondent is about to depart from the jurisdiction of the court, the court may order such limited detention of the respondent as is authorized by section 229 11 and is necessary to insure that the respondent will not depart from the jurisdiction of the court without the court's approval until the proceeding relative to the respondent has been concluded

229.13 Hospitalization for evaluation.

If upon completion of the hearing the court finds that the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained by clear and convincing evidence, it shall order the respondent placed in a hospital or other suitable facility as expeditiously as possible for a complete psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment. The court shall furnish to the hospital or facility at the time the respondent arrives there a written finding of fact setting forth the evidence on which the finding is based. The chief medical officer of the hospital or facility shall report to the court no more than fifteen days after the individual is admitted to the hospital or facility, making a recommendation for disposition of the matter. An extension of time may be granted for not to exceed seven days upon a showing of cause. A copy of the report shall be sent to the respondent's attorney, who may contest the need for an extension of time if one is requested. Extension of time shall be granted upon request unless the request is contested, in which case the court shall make such inquiry as it deems appropriate and may either order the respondent's release from the hospital or facility or grant extension of time for psychiatric evaluation.

229.14 Chief medical officer's report.

The chief medical officer's report to the court on the psychiatric evaluation of the respondent shall be made not later than the expiration of the time specified in section 229 13. At least two copies of the report shall be filed with the clerk, who shall dispose of them in the manner prescribed by section 229 10, subsection 2. The report shall state one of the four following alternative findings:

1 That the respondent does not, as of the date of the report, require further treatment for serious mental impairment. If the report so states, the court shall order the respondent's immediate release from involuntary hospitalization and terminate the proceedings.

2 That the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital, and is considered likely to benefit from treatment. If the report so states, the court may order the respondent's continued hospitalization for appropriate treatment.

3 That the respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of treatment, but does not require full time hospitalization. If the report so states it shall include the chief medical officer's recommendation for treatment of the respondent on an outpatient or other appropriate basis, and the court may enter an order directing the respondent to submit to the recommended treatment. The order shall provide that if the respondent fails or refuses to submit to treatment as directed by the court's order, the court may order that the respondent be taken into immediate custody as provided by section 229 11 and, following notice and hearing held in accordance with the procedures of section 229 12, may order the respondent treated as a patient requiring full-time custody, care and treatment in a hospital until such time as the chief medical officer reports that the respondent does not require further treatment for serious mental impairment or has indicated the respondent is willing to submit to treatment on another basis as ordered by the court.

4 The respondent is seriously mentally impaired and in need of full time custody and care, but is unlikely to benefit from further treatment in a hospital. If the report so states, the chief medical officer shall recommend an alternative placement for the respondent and the court may order the respondent's transfer to the recommended placement. If the court or the respondent's attorney consider the placement inappropriate, an alternative placement may be arranged upon consultation with the chief medical officer and approval of the court.

1 Not more than thirty days after entry of an order for continued hospitalization of a patient under section 229 14, subsection 2, and thereafter at successive intervals of not more than sixty days continuing so long as involuntary hospitalization of the patient continues, the chief medical officer of the hospital shall report to the court which entered the order. The report shall be submitted in the manner required by section 229 14, shall state whether the patient's condition has improved, remains unchanged, or has deteriorated, and shall indicate if possible the further length of time the patient will be required to remain at the hospital. The chief medical officer may at any time report to the court a finding as stated in section 229 14, subsection 4, and the court shall act thereon as required by that section.

2 Not more than sixty days after the entry of a court order for treatment of a patient under section 229 14, subsection 3, and thereafter at successive intervals as ordered by the court but not to exceed ninety days so long as that court order remains in effect, the medical director of the facility treating the patient shall report to the court which entered the order. The report shall state whether the patient's condition has improved, remains unchanged, or has deteriorated, and shall indicate if possible the further length of time the patient will require treatment by the facility. If at any time the patient without good cause fails or refuses to submit to treatment as ordered by the court, the medical director shall at once so notify the court, which shall order the patient hospitalized as provided by section 229 14, subsection 3, unless the court finds that the failure or refusal was with good cause and that the patient is willing to receive treatment as provided in the court's order, or in a revised order if the court sees fit to enter one. If at any time the medical director reports to the court that in the director's opinion the patient requires full time custody, care and treatment in a hospital, and the patient is willing to be admitted voluntarily to the hospital for these purposes, the court may enter an order approving hospitalization for appropriate treatment upon consultation with the chief medical officer of the hospital in which the patient is to be hospitalized. If the patient is unwilling to be admitted voluntarily to the hospital, the procedure for determining involuntary hospitalization, as set out in section 229 14, subsection 3, shall be followed.

3 When a patient has been placed in a facility other than a hospital pursuant to section 229 14, subsection 4, a report on the patient's condition and prognosis shall be made to the court which so placed the patient, at least once every six months, unless the court authorizes annual reports. A report shall be submitted within fifteen days after the facility in which the patient has been placed is evaluated as required by section 227 2, subsection 4. The court may in its discretion waive the requirement of an additional report between the annual evaluations. If the administrator of the division exercises the authority to remove residents from a county care facility or other county or private institution under section 227 6, the administrator shall promptly notify each court which placed in that facility any resident so removed.

4 When in the opinion of the chief medical officer the best interest of a patient would be served by a convalescent or limited leave or by transfer to a different hospital for continued full time custody, care and treatment, the chief medical officer may authorize the leave or arrange and complete the transfer but shall promptly report the leave or transfer to the court. The patient's attorney or advocate may request a hearing on a transfer. Nothing in this section shall be construed to add to or restrict the authority otherwise provided by law for transfer of patients or residents among various state institutions administered by the department of human services.

5 Upon receipt of any report required or authorized by this section the court shall furnish a copy to the patient's attorney, or alternatively to the advocate appointed as required by section 229 19. The court shall examine the report and take the action thereon which it deems appropriate. Should the court fail to receive any report required by this section or section 229 14 at the time the report is due, the court shall investigate the reason for the failure to report and take whatever action may be necessary in the matter.

229.16 Discharge and termination of proceeding.

When in the opinion of the chief medical officer a patient who is hospitalized under subsection 2, or is receiving treatment under subsection 3, or is in full time care and custody under subsection 4 of section 229 14 no longer requires treatment or care for serious mental impairment, the chief medical officer shall tentatively discharge the patient and immediately report that fact to the court which ordered the patient's hospitalization or care and custody. The court shall thereupon issue an order confirming the patient's discharge from the hospital or from care and custody, as the case may be, and shall terminate the proceedings pursuant to which the order was issued. Copies of the order shall be sent by certified mail to the hospital and the patient. [C77, 79, 81, §229 16]

229.17 Status of respondent during appeal.

Where a respondent appeals to the supreme court from a finding that the contention the respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained, and the respondent was previously ordered taken into immediate custody under section 229 11 or has been hospitalized for psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment under section 229 13 before the court is informed of intent to appeal its finding, the respondent shall remain in custody as previously ordered by the court, the time limit stated in section 229 11 notwithstanding, or shall remain in the hospital subject to compliance by the hospital with sections 229 13 to 229 16, as the case may be, unless the supreme court orders otherwise. [C77, 79, 81, §229 17]

229.18 Status of respondent if hospitalization is delayed.

When the court directs that a respondent who was previously ordered taken into immediate custody under section 229 11 be placed in a hospital for psychiatric evaluation and appropriate treatment under section 229 13, and no suitable hospital can immediately admit the respondent, the respondent shall remain in custody as previously ordered by the court, the time limit stated in section 229 11 notwithstanding, until a suitable hospital can admit the respondent. The court shall take appropriate steps to expedite the admission of the respondent to a suitable hospital at the earliest feasible time.

229.19 Advocates – duties – compensation – state liability.

The district court in each county shall appoint an individual who has demonstrated by prior activities an informed concern for the welfare and rehabilitation of the mentally ill, and who is not an officer or employee of the department of human services nor of any agency or facility providing care or treatment to the mentally ill, to act as advocate representing the interests of patients involuntarily hospitalized by the court, in any matter relating to the patients' hospitalization or treatment under section 229.14 or 229.15. The court shall assign the advocate appointed from the patient's county of legal settlement to the patient, or if the patient has no county of legal settlement, the court shall assign the advocate appointed from the county where the hospital or facility is located. The advocate's responsibility with respect to any patient shall begin at whatever time the attorney employed or appointed to represent that patient as respondent in hospitalization proceedings, conducted under sections 229.6 to 229.13, reports to the court that the attorney's services are no longer required and requests the court's approval to withdraw as counsel for that patient. However, if the patient is found to be seriously mentally impaired at the hospitalization hearing, the attorney representing the patient shall automatically be relieved of responsibility in the case and an advocate shall be assigned to the patient at the conclusion of the hearing unless the attorney indicates an intent to continue the attorney's services and the court so directs. If the court directs the attorney to remain on the case the attorney shall assume all the duties of an advocate. The clerk shall furnish the advocate with a copy of the court's order approving the withdrawal and shall inform the patient of the name of the patient's advocate. With regard to each patient whose interests the advocate is required to represent pursuant to this section, the advocate's duties shall include all of the following:

- 1 To review each report submitted pursuant to sections 229.14 and 229.15
- 2 If the advocate is not an attorney, to advise the court at any time it appears that the services of an attorney are required to properly safeguard the patient's interests
- 3 To make the advocate readily accessible to communications from the patient and to originate communications with the patient within five days of the patient's commitment
- 4 To visit the patient within fifteen days of the patient's commitment and periodically thereafter
- 5 To communicate with medical personnel treating the patient and to review the patient's medical records pursuant to section 229.25
- 6 To file with the court quarterly reports, and additional reports as the advocate feels necessary or as required by the court, in a form prescribed by the court. The reports shall state what actions the advocate has taken with respect to each patient and the amount of time spent

The hospital or facility to which a patient is committed shall grant all reasonable requests of the advocate to visit the patient, to communicate with medical personnel treating the patient and to review the patient's medical records pursuant to section 229.25. An advocate shall not disseminate information from a patient's medical records to any other person unless done for official purposes in connection with the advocate's duties pursuant to this chapter or when required by law.

The court shall from time to time prescribe reasonable compensation for the services of the advocate. The compensation shall be based upon the reports filed by the advocate with the court. The advocate's compensation shall be paid on order of the court by the county in which the court is located. The advocate is an employee of the state for purposes of chapter 25A.

1 The judges in each judicial district shall meet and determine, individually for each county in the district, whether one or more district judges or magistrates will be sufficiently accessible in that county to make it feasible for them to perform at all times the duties prescribed by sections 229.7 to 229.19 and section 229.22 and by sections 125.75 to 125.94. If the judges find that accessibility of district court judges or magistrates in any county is not sufficient for this purpose, the chief judge of the district shall appoint in that county a judicial hospitalization referee. The judges in any district may at any time review their determination, previously made under this subsection with respect to any county in the district, and pursuant to that review may authorize appointment of a judicial hospitalization referee, or abolish the office, in that county.

2 The judicial hospitalization referee shall be an attorney, licensed to practice law in this state, who shall be chosen with consideration to any training, experience, interest, or combination of those factors, which are pertinent to the duties of the office. The referee shall hold office at the pleasure of and receive compensation at a rate fixed by the chief judge of the district. If the referee expects to be absent from the county for any significant length of time, the referee shall inform the chief judge who may appoint a temporary substitute judicial hospitalization referee having the qualifications set forth in this subsection.

3 When an application for involuntary hospitalization under this chapter or an application for involuntary commitment or treatment of substance abusers under sections 125.75 to 125.94 is filed with the clerk of the district court in any county for which a judicial hospitalization referee has been appointed, and no district judge is accessible in the county, the clerk shall immediately notify the referee in the manner required by section 229.7 or section 125.77. The referee shall discharge all of the duties imposed upon judges of the district court or magistrates by sections 229.7 to 229.19 or sections 125.75 to 125.94 in the proceeding so initiated. If an emergency hospitalization proceeding is initiated under section

229.22 a judicial hospitalization referee may perform the duties imposed upon a magistrate by that section. However, any commitment to a facility regulated and operated under chapter 135C, shall be in accordance with section 135C.23.

4. Any respondent with respect to whom the judicial hospitalization referee has found the contention that the respondent is seriously mentally impaired or a substance abuser sustained by clear and convincing evidence presented at a hearing held under section 229.12 or section 125.82, may appeal from the referee's finding to a judge of the district court by giving the clerk notice in writing, within seven days after the referee's finding is made, that an appeal therefrom is taken. The appeal may be signed by the respondent or by the respondent's next friend, guardian or attorney. When so appealed, the matter shall stand for trial de novo. Upon appeal, the court shall schedule a hospitalization or commitment hearing before a district judge at the earliest practicable time.

5. If the appellant is in custody under the jurisdiction of the district court at the time of service of the notice of appeal, the appellant shall be discharged from custody unless an order that the appellant be taken into immediate custody has previously been issued under section 229.11 or section 125.81, in which case the appellant shall be detained as provided in that section until the hospitalization or commitment hearing before the district judge. If the appellant is in the custody of a hospital or facility at the time of service of the notice of appeal, the appellant shall be discharged from custody pending disposition of the appeal unless the chief medical officer, not later than the end of the next secular day on which the office of the clerk is open and which follows service of the notice of appeal, files with the clerk a certification that in the chief medical officer's opinion the appellant is seriously mentally ill or a substance abuser. In that case, the appellant shall remain in custody of the hospital or facility until the hospitalization or commitment hearing before the district court.

6. The hospitalization or commitment hearing before the district judge shall be held, and the judge's finding shall be made and an appropriate order entered, as prescribed by sections 229.12 and 229.13 or sections 125.82 and 125.83. If the judge orders the appellant hospitalized or committed for a complete psychiatric or substance abuse evaluation, jurisdiction of the matter shall revert to the judicial hospitalization referee.

229.22 Hospitalization — emergency procedure.

1. The procedure prescribed by this section shall not be used unless it appears that a person should be immediately detained due to serious mental impairment, but that person cannot be immediately detained by the procedure prescribed in sections 229.6 and 229.11 because there is no means of immediate access to the district court.

2. In the circumstances described in subsection 1, any peace officer who has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is mentally ill, and because of that illness is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained, may without a warrant take or cause that person to be taken to the nearest available facility as defined in section 229.11, subsections 2 and 3. A person believed mentally ill, and likely to injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained, may be delivered to a hospital by someone other than a peace officer. Upon delivery of the person believed mentally ill to the hospital, the chief medical officer may order treatment of that person, including chemotherapy, but only to the extent necessary to preserve the person's life or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to that person or others if allowed to continue. The peace officer who took the person into custody, or other party who brought the person to the hospital, shall describe the circumstances of the matter to the chief medical officer. If the chief medical officer finds that there is reason to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired, and because of that impairment is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained, the chief medical officer shall at once communicate with the nearest available magistrate as defined in section 801.4, subsection 6. The magistrate shall immediately proceed to the facility where the person is detained, except that if the chief medical officer's communication with the magistrate occurs between the hours of midnight and the next succeeding seven o'clock a.m. and the magistrate deems it appropriate under the circumstances described by the chief medical officer, the magistrate may delay going to the facility and in that case shall give the chief medical officer verbal instructions either directing that the person be released forthwith or authorizing the person's continued detention at that facility. In the latter case, the magistrate shall:

a. By the close of business on the next working day, file with the clerk a written report stating the substance of the information on the basis of which the person's continued detention was ordered; and

b. Arrive at the facility where the person is being detained not later than eight o'clock a.m. of the same day on which the chief medical officer's notification occurs.

3. Upon arrival at the hospital, the magistrate shall at once review the matter. Unless convinced upon initial inquiry that there are no grounds for further detention of the person, the magistrate shall in the manner prescribed by section 229.8, subsection 1 insure that the person has or is provided legal counsel at the earliest practicable time, and shall arrange for the counsel to be present, if practicable, before proceeding further under this section. If the magistrate finds upon review of the report prepared by the chief medical officer under subsection 2 of this section, and of such other information or evidence as the magistrate deems pertinent, that there is probable cause to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired and because of that impairment is likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not detained, the magistrate shall enter a written order for the person to be detained in custody and, if the facility where the person is at that time is not an appropriate hospital, transported to an appropriate hospital. The magistrate's order shall state the circumstances under which the person was taken into custody or otherwise brought to a hospital and the grounds supporting the finding of probable cause to believe that the person is seriously mentally impaired and likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained. The order shall be filed with the clerk of the district court in the county where it is anticipated that an application will be filed under section 229.6, and a certified copy of the order shall be delivered to the chief medical officer of the hospital where the person is detained, at the earliest practicable time.

4. The chief medical officer of the hospital shall examine and may detain and care for the person taken into custody under the magistrate's order for a period not to exceed forty-eight hours from the time such order is dated, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, unless the order is sooner dismissed by a magistrate. The hospital may provide treatment which is necessary to preserve the person's life, or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to the person's self or others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to the person without the person's consent. The person shall be discharged from the hospital and released from custody not later than the expiration of that period, unless an application for the person's involuntary hospitalization is sooner filed with the clerk pursuant to section 229.6. The detention of any person by the procedure and not in excess of the period of time prescribed by this section shall not render the peace officer, physician or hospital so detaining that person liable in a criminal or civil action for false arrest or false imprisonment if the peace officer, physician or hospital had reasonable grounds to believe the person so detained was mentally ill and likely to physically injure the person's self or others if not immediately detained.

5. The cost of hospitalization at a public hospital of a person detained temporarily by the procedure prescribed in this section shall be paid in the same way as if the person had been admitted to the hospital by the procedure prescribed in sections 229.6 to 229.13.

229.23 Rights and privileges of hospitalized persons.

Every person who is hospitalized or detained under this chapter shall have the right to:

1. Prompt evaluation, emergency psychiatric services, and care and treatment as indicated by sound medical practice.
2. The right to refuse treatment by shock therapy or chemotherapy, unless the use of these treatment modalities is specifically consented to by the patient's next of kin or guardian. The patient's right to refuse treatment by chemotherapy shall not apply during any period of custody authorized by section 229.4, subsection 3, section 229.11 or section 229.22, but this exception shall extend only to chemotherapy treatment which is, in the chief medical officer's judgment, necessary to preserve the patient's life or to appropriately control behavior by the person which is likely to result in physical injury to that person or others if allowed to continue. The patient's right to refuse treatment by chemotherapy shall also not apply during any period of custody authorized by the court pursuant to section 229.13 or 229.14. In any other situation in which, in the chief medical officer's judgment, chemotherapy is appropriate for the patient but the patient refuses to consent thereto and there is no next of kin or guardian to give consent, the chief medical officer may request an order authorizing treatment of the patient by chemotherapy from the district court which ordered the patient's hospitalization.

3. In addition to protection of the person's constitutional rights, enjoyment of other legal, medical, religious, social, political, personal and working rights and privileges which the person would enjoy if the person were not so hospitalized or detained, so far as is possible consistent with effective treatment of that person and of the other patients of the hospital. If the patient's rights are restricted, the physician's direction to that effect shall be noted on the patient's record. The department of human services shall, in accordance with chapter 17A establish rules setting forth the specific rights and privileges to which persons so hospitalized or detained are entitled under this section, and the exceptions provided by section 17A.2, subsection 7, paragraphs "a" and "k", shall not be applicable to the rules so established. The patient or the patient's next of kin or friend shall be advised of these rules and be provided a written copy upon the patient's admission to or arrival at the hospital.

229.24 Records of involuntary hospitalization proceeding to be confidential.

1. All papers and records pertaining to any involuntary hospitalization or application for involuntary hospitalization of any person under this chapter, whether part of the permanent record of the court or of a file in the department of human services, are subject to inspection only upon an order of the court for good cause shown. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a hospital from complying with the requirements of this chapter and of chapter 230 relative to financial responsibility for the cost of care and treatment provided a patient in that hospital, nor from properly billing any responsible relative or third-party payer for such care and treatment.

2. If authorized in writing by a person who has been the subject of any proceeding or report under sections 229 6 to 229 13 or section 229 22, or by the parent or guardian of that person, information regarding that person which is confidential under subsection 1 may be released to any designated person

[C77, 79, 81, §229 24]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

229.25 Medical records to be confidential — exceptions.

The records maintained by a hospital or other facility relating to the examination, custody, care and treatment of any person in that hospital or facility pursuant to this chapter shall be confidential, except that the chief medical officer shall release appropriate information under any of the following circumstances

1 The information is requested by a licensed physician, attorney or advocate who provides the chief medical officer with a written waiver signed by the person about whom the information is sought

2 The information is sought by a court order

3 The person who is hospitalized or that person's guardian, if the person is a minor or is not legally competent to do so, signs an informed consent to release information Each signed consent shall designate specifically the person or agency to whom the information is to be sent, and the information may be sent only to that person or agency

Such records may be released by the chief medical officer when requested for the purpose of research into the causes, incidence, nature and treatment of mental illness, however information shall not be provided in a way that discloses patients' names or which otherwise discloses any patient's identity

When the chief medical officer deems it to be in the best interest of the patient and the spouse to do so, the chief medical officer may release appropriate information during a consultation which the hospital or facility shall arrange with the spouse of a voluntary or involuntary patient, if requested by a spouse

229.26 Exclusive procedure for involuntary hospitalization.

Sections 229 6 through 229 19 constitute the exclusive procedure for involuntary hospitalization of persons by reason of serious mental impairment in this state, except that this chapter does not negate the provisions of section 246 503 relating to transfer of mentally ill prisoners to state hospitals for the mentally ill and does not apply to commitments of persons under chapter 812 or the rules of criminal procedure, Iowa court rules, 2d ed, or negate the provisions of section 232 51 relating to disposition of mentally ill or mentally retarded children

1 Hospitalization of a person under this chapter, either voluntarily or involuntarily, does not constitute a finding of nor equate with nor raise a presumption of incompetency, nor cause the person so hospitalized to be deemed a person of unsound mind nor a person under legal disability for any purpose including but not limited to any circumstances to which sections 447 7, 472 15, 545 402, subsection 5, paragraph "b", 545 705, 595 3, 597 6, 598 29, 614 8, 614 19, 614 22, 614 24, 614 27, 622 6, 633 244, and 675 21 are applicable

2 The applicant may, in initiating a petition for involuntary hospitalization of a person under section 229 6 or at any subsequent time prior to conclusion of the involuntary hospitalization proceeding, also petition the court for a finding that the person is incompetent by reason of mental illness The test of competence for the purpose of this section shall be whether the person possesses sufficient mind to understand in a reasonable manner the nature and effect of the act in which the person is engaged, the fact that a person is mentally ill and in need of treatment for that illness but because of the illness lacks sufficient judgment to make responsible decisions with respect to the person's hospitalization or treatment does not necessarily mean that that person is incapable of transacting business on any subject

3 A hearing limited to the question of the person's competence and conducted in substantially the manner prescribed in sections 633 552 to 633 556 shall be held when a The court is petitioned or proposes upon its own motion to find incompetent by reason of mental illness a person whose involuntary hospitalization has been ordered under section 229 13 or 229 14, and who contends that the person is not incompetent, or b A person previously found incompetent by reason of mental illness under subsection 2 petitions the court for a finding that the person is no longer incompetent and, after notice to the applicant who initiated the petition for hospitalization of the person and to any other party as directed by the court, an objection is filed with the court The court may order a hearing on its own motion before acting on a petition filed under this paragraph A petition by a person for a finding that the person is no longer incompetent may be filed at any time without regard to whether the person is at that time hospitalized for treatment of mental illness

4 Upon petitioning the court for a finding that a respondent is incompetent by reason of mental illness, the applicant may also request the court to appoint a conservator for the respondent The court may appoint a temporary conservator as provided by section 633 573, or may defer a decision on the appointment of a conservator until a report is received under section 229 13 if the respondent is hospitalized for evaluation pursuant to that section

5 Nothing in this chapter shall preclude use of any other procedure authorized by law for declaring any person legally incompetent for reasons which may include mental illness, without regard to whether that person is or has been hospitalized for treatment of mental illness

229.28 Hospitalization in certain federal facilities.

When a court finds that the contention that a respondent is seriously mentally impaired has been sustained or proposes to order continued hospitalization of any person, or an alternative placement, under section 229.14, subsection 2 or 4, and the court is furnished evidence that the respondent or patient is eligible for care and treatment in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government and that the facility is willing to receive the respondent or patient, the court may so order. The respondent or patient, when so hospitalized or placed in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government within or outside of this state, shall be subject to the rules of the veterans administration or other agency, but shall not thereby lose any procedural rights afforded the respondent or patient by this chapter. The chief officer of the facility shall have, with respect to the person so hospitalized or placed, the same powers and duties as the chief medical officer of a hospital in this state would have in regard to submission of reports to the court, retention of custody, transfer, convalescent leave or discharge. Jurisdiction is retained in the court to maintain surveillance of the person's treatment and care, and at any time to inquire into that person's mental condition and the need for continued hospitalization or care and custody.

229.29 Transfer to certain federal facilities.

Upon receipt of a certificate stating that any person involuntarily hospitalized under this chapter is eligible for care and treatment in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government which is willing to receive the person without charge to the state of Iowa or any county in the state, the chief medical officer may transfer the person to that facility. Upon so doing, the chief medical officer shall notify the court which ordered the person's hospitalization in the same manner as would be required in the case of a transfer under section 229.15, subsection 4, and the person transferred shall be entitled to the same rights as the person would have under that subsection. No person shall be transferred under this section who is confined pursuant to conviction of a public offense or whose hospitalization was ordered upon contention of incompetence to stand trial by reason of mental illness, without prior approval of the court which ordered that person's hospitalization.

229.30 Orders of courts in other states.

A judgment or order of hospitalization or commitment by a court of competent jurisdiction of another state or the District of Columbia, under which any person is hospitalized or placed in a facility operated by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government, shall have the same force and effect with respect to that person while the person is in this state as the judgment or order would have if the person were in the jurisdiction of the court which issued it. That court shall be deemed to have retained jurisdiction of the person so hospitalized or placed for the purpose of inquiring into that person's mental condition and the need for continued hospitalization or care and custody, as do courts in this state under section 229.28. Consent is hereby given to the application of the law of the state or district in which is situated the court which issued the judgment or order as regards authority of the chief officer of any facility, operated in this state by the veterans administration or another agency of the United States government, to retain custody, transfer, place on convalescent leave or discharge the person so hospitalized or committed.

229.31 Commission of inquiry.

A sworn complaint, alleging that a named person is not seriously mentally impaired and is unjustly deprived of liberty in any hospital in the state, may be filed by any person with the clerk of the district court of the county in which such named person is so confined, or of the county in which such named person has a legal settlement, and thereupon a judge of said court shall appoint a commission of not more than three persons to inquire into the truth of said allegations. One of said commissioners shall be a physician and if additional commissioners are appointed, one of such commissioners shall be a lawyer.

229.32 Duty of commission.

Said commission shall at once proceed to the place where said person is confined and make a thorough and discreet examination for the purpose of determining the truth of said allegations and shall promptly report its findings to said judge in writing. Said report shall be accompanied by a written statement of the case signed by the chief medical officer of the hospital in which the person is confined.

229.33 Hearing.

If, on such report and statement, and the hearing of testimony if any is offered, the judge shall find that such person is not seriously mentally impaired, the judge shall order the person's discharge; if the contrary, the judge shall so state, and authorize the continued detention of the person, subject to all applicable requirements of this Act*.

229.34 Finding and order filed.

The finding and order of the judge, with the report and other papers, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court where the complaint was filed. Said clerk shall enter a memorandum thereof on the appropriate record, and forthwith notify the chief medical officer of the hospital of the finding and order of the judge, and the chief medical officer shall carry out the order.

229.35 Compensation — payment.

Said commissioners shall be entitled to their necessary expenses and a reasonable compensation, to be allowed by the judge, who shall certify the same to the director of revenue and finance who shall thereupon draw the proper warrants on any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated. The applicant shall pay said costs and expenses if the judge shall so order on a finding that the complaint was filed without probable cause.

229.36 Limitation on proceedings.

The proceeding authorized in sections 229 31 to 229 35, inclusive, shall not be had oftener than once in six months regarding the same person, nor regarding any patient within six months after the patient's admission to the hospital.

229.37 Habeas corpus.

All persons confined as seriously mentally impaired shall be entitled to the benefit of the writ of habeas corpus, and the question of serious mental impairment shall be decided at the hearing. If the judge shall decide that the person is seriously mentally impaired, such decision shall be no bar to the issuing of the writ a second time, whenever it shall be alleged that such person is no longer seriously mentally impaired.

229.38 Cruelty or official misconduct.

If any person having the care of a mentally ill person who has voluntarily entered a hospital or other facility for treatment or care, or who is responsible for psychiatric examination care, treatment and maintenance of any person involuntarily hospitalized under sections 229 6 to 229 15, whether in a hospital or elsewhere, with or without proper authority, shall treat such patient with unnecessary severity, harshness, or cruelty, or in any way abuse the patient or if any person unlawfully detains or deprives of liberty any mentally ill or allegedly mentally ill person, or if any officer required by the provisions of this chapter and chapters 226 and 227, to perform any act shall willfully refuse or neglect to perform the same, the offending person shall, unless otherwise provided, be guilty of a serious misdemeanor.

229.39 Status of persons hospitalized under former law.

1 Each person admitted or committed to a hospital for treatment of mental illness on or before December 31, 1975 who remained so hospitalized, or was on convalescent leave or was receiving care in another facility on transfer from such hospitalization, on or after January 1, 1976 shall be considered to have been hospitalized under this chapter, and its provisions shall apply to each such person on and after the effective date of this section, except as otherwise provided by subsection 3.

2 Hospitalization of a person for treatment of mental illness, either voluntary or involuntary, on or before December 31, 1975 does not constitute a finding nor equate with nor raise a presumption of incompetency, nor cause the person hospitalized to be deemed a person of unsound mind nor a person under legal disability for any purpose, including but not limited to the circumstances enumerated in section 229 27, subsection 1. This subsection does not invalidate any specific declaration of incompetence of a person hospitalized if the declaration was made pursuant to a separate procedure authorized by law for that purpose, and did not result automatically from the person's hospitalization.

3 Where a person was hospitalized involuntarily for treatment of mental illness on or before December 31, 1975 and remained so hospitalized, or was on convalescent leave or was receiving care in another facility on transfer from such hospitalization, on or after January 1, 1976, but was subsequently discharged prior to July 1, 1978, this section shall not be construed to require a. The filing after July 1, 1978 of any report relative to that person's status which would have been required to be filed prior to said date if that person had initially been hospitalized under this chapter as amended by Acts of the Sixty sixth General Assembly, 1975 Session, chapter 139, sections 1 to 30.

b. That legal proceedings be taken under this chapter, as so amended, to clarify the status of the person so hospitalized, unless that person or the district court considers such proceedings necessary in a particular case to appropriately conclude the matter.

229.41 Voluntary admission.

Persons making application pursuant to section 229 2 on their own behalf or on behalf of another person who is under eighteen years of age, if the person whose admission is sought is received for observation and treatment on such application, shall be required to pay the costs of hospitalization at rates established by the administrator of the division, which costs may be collected weekly in advance and shall be payable at the business office of the hospital Such collections shall be remitted to the director of revenue and finance monthly to be credited to the general fund of the state

229.42 Costs paid by county.

If a person wishing to make application for voluntary admission to a mental hospital established by chapter 226 is unable to pay the costs of hospitalization or those responsible for such person are unable to pay such costs, application for authorization of voluntary admission must be made to any clerk of the district court before application for admission is made to the hospital After determining the county of legal settlement the said clerk shall, on forms provided by the administrator of the division, authorize such person's admission to a mental health hospital as a voluntary case The clerk shall at once provide a duplicate copy of the form to the county board of supervisors The costs of the hospitalization shall be paid by the county of legal settlement to the director of revenue and finance and credited to the general fund of the state, providing the mental health hospital rendering the services has certified to the county auditor of the responsible county the amount chargeable thereto and has sent a duplicate statement of such charges to the director of revenue and finance

All the provisions of chapter 230 shall apply to such voluntary patients so far as is applicable

The provisions of this section and of section 229 41 shall apply to all voluntary inpatients or outpatients either away from or at the institution heretofore or hereafter receiving mental health services

Should any county fail to pay these bills within sixty days from the date of certificate from superintendent, the director of revenue and finance shall charge the delinquent county the penalty of one percent per month on and after sixty days from date of certificate until paid Such penalties shall be credited to the general fund of the state

229.43 Nonresidents or no-settlement patients.

The administrator of the division shall have the power to place patients of mental health institutes who have no county of legal settlement, who are nonresidents, or whose legal settlement is unknown, on convalescent leave to a private sponsor or in any health care facility licensed under chapter 135C, when in the opinion of the administrator said placement is in the best interests of the patient and the state of Iowa If the patient was involuntarily hospitalized the district court which hospitalized the patient must be informed when the patient is placed on convalescent leave, as required by section 229 15, subsection 4

230.1 Liability of county and state.

The necessary and legal costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, investigation, admission, commitment, and support of a mentally ill person admitted or committed to a state hospital shall be paid

1 By the county in which such person has a legal settlement, or

2 By the state when such person has no legal settlement in this state, or when such settlement is unknown

The legal settlement of any person found mentally ill who is a patient of any state institution shall be that existing at the time of admission thereto

230.2 Finding of legal settlement.

The district court shall, when a person is ordered placed in a hospital for psychiatric examination and appropriate treatment, or as soon thereafter as it obtains the proper information, determine and enter of record whether the legal settlement of said person is

1 In the county from which the person was placed in the hospital,

2 In some other county of the state,

3 In some foreign state or country, or

4 Unknown

230.3 Certification of settlement.

If such legal settlement is found to be in another county of this state, the court shall, as soon as said determination is made, certify such finding to the superintendent of the hospital to which said patient is admitted or committed, and thereupon said superintendent shall charge the expenses already incurred and unadjusted, and all future expenses of such patient, to the county so certified until said settlement shall be otherwise determined as herein-after provided

230.4 Certification to debtor county.

Said finding of legal settlement shall also be certified by the court to the county auditor of the county of such legal settlement. Such auditor shall lay such notification before the board of supervisors of the auditor's county, and it shall be conclusively presumed that such person has a legal settlement in said notified county unless said county shall within sixty days give notice in writing to the court that the county disputes the finding of legal settlement

230.5 Nonresidents.

If such legal settlement is found by the court to be in some foreign state or country, or unknown, it shall immediately notify the administrator of the division of such finding and furnish the administrator with a copy of the evidence taken on the question of legal settlement, and shall in its order issued pursuant to section 229 13 direct that the patient be hospitalized at the appropriate state hospital for the mentally ill

230.6 Determination by administrator.

The administrator shall immediately investigate the legal settlement of said patient and proceed as follows

1 If the administrator finds that the decision of the court as to legal settlement is correct, the administrator shall cause said patient either to be transferred to a state hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state, or to be transferred, with approval of the court as required by this Act* to the place of foreign settlement

2 If the administrator finds that the decision of the court is not correct, the administrator shall order said patient to be maintained at a state hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state, and shall at once inform the court of such finding and request that the court's order be modified accordingly

230.7 Transfer of nonresidents.

Upon determining that a patient in a state hospital who has been involuntarily hospitalized under this Act* or admitted voluntarily at public expense was not a resident of this state at the time of the involuntary hospitalization or admission, the administrator may cause that patient to be conveyed to the patient's place of residence. However, a transfer under this section may be made only if the patient's condition so permits and other reasons do not render the transfer inadvisable. If the patient was involuntarily hospitalized, prior approval of the transfer must be obtained from the court which ordered the patient hospitalized

230.8 Transfers of mentally ill persons – expenses.

The transfer to state hospitals or to the places of their legal settlement of mentally ill persons who have no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, shall be made according to the directions of the administrator, and when practicable by employees of state hospitals, and the actual and necessary expenses of such transfers shall be paid on itemized vouchers sworn to by the claimants and approved by the administrator, from any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated

230.9 Subsequent discovery of residence.

If, after a patient has been received into a state hospital for the mentally ill as a patient whose legal settlement is supposed to be outside this state or unknown, the administrator finds that the legal settlement of said patient was, at the time of admission or commitment, in a county of this state, said administrator shall charge all legal costs and expenses pertaining to the admission or commitment and support of said patient to the county of such legal settlement, and the same shall be collected as provided by law in other cases

230.10 Payment of costs.

All legal costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, investigation, and admission or commitment of a person to a state hospital for the mentally ill under a finding that such person has a legal settlement in another county of this state, shall be charged against the county of legal settlement

230.11 Recovery of costs from state.

Costs and expenses attending the taking into custody, care, and investigation of a person who has been admitted or committed to a state hospital, veterans administration hospital or other agency of the United States government, for the mentally ill and who has no legal settlement in this state or whose legal settlement is unknown, including cost of commitment, if any, shall be paid out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, on itemized vouchers executed by the auditor of the county which has paid them, and approved by the administrator

230.12 Action to determine legal settlement.

When a dispute arises between different counties or between the administrator and a county as to the legal settlement of a person admitted or committed to a state hospital for the mentally ill, the attorney general, at the request of the administrator, shall, without the advancement of fees, cause an action to be brought in the district court of any county where such dispute exists, to determine such legal settlement Said action may be brought at any time when it appears that said dispute cannot be amicably settled All counties which may be the place of such legal settlement, so far as known, shall be made defendants and the allegation of such settlement may be in the alternative Said action shall be tried as in equity

230.13 Judgment when settlement found within state.

The court shall determine whether the legal settlement of said mentally ill person, at the time of the admission or commitment, was in one of the defendant counties If the court so find, judgment shall be entered against the county of such settlement in favor of any other county for all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness, and paid by said other county If any such costs have not been paid, judgment shall be rendered against the county of settlement in favor of the parties, including the state, to whom said costs or expenses may be due

230.14 Order when nonresidence or unknown settlement appears.

If the court finds that the legal settlement of said mentally ill person, at the time of admission or commitment, was in a foreign state or country, or was unknown, an order shall be entered that said mentally ill person shall be maintained in the hospital for the mentally ill at the expense of the state In such case the state shall refund to any county, with interest, all legal costs and expenses arising out of said proceedings in mental illness and paid by said county Any decision by the court shall be final

230.15 Personal liability.

A mentally ill person and a person legally liable for the person's support remain liable for the support of the mentally ill person as provided in this section Persons legally liable for the support of a mentally ill person include the spouse of the mentally ill person, any person bound by contract for support of the mentally ill person, and, with respect to mentally ill persons under eighteen years of age only, the father and mother of the mentally ill person The county auditor, subject to the direction of the board of supervisors, shall enforce the obligation created in this section as to all sums advanced by the county. The liability to the county incurred by a mentally ill person or a person legally liable for the person's support under this section is limited to an amount equal to one hundred percent of the cost of care and treatment of the mentally ill person at a state mental health institute for one hundred twenty days of hospitalization. This limit of liability may be reached by payment of the cost of care and treatment of the mentally ill person subsequent to a single admission or multiple admissions to a state mental health institute or, if the person is not discharged as cured, subsequent to a single transfer or multiple transfers to a county care facility pursuant to section 227.11. After reaching this limit of liability, a mentally ill person or a person legally liable for the person's support is liable to the county for the care and treatment of the mentally ill person at a state mental health institute or, if transferred but not discharged as cured, at a county care facility in an amount not in excess of the average minimum cost of the maintenance of a physically and mentally healthy individual residing in the individual's own home, which standard shall be established and may from time to time be revised by the department of human services. A lien imposed by section 230.25 shall not exceed the amount of the liability which may be incurred under this section on account of any mentally ill person.

A substance abuser is legally liable for the total amount of the cost of providing care, maintenance, and treatment for the substance abuser while a voluntary or committed patient. When a portion of the cost is paid by a county, the substance abuser is legally liable to the county for the amount paid. The substance abuser shall assign any claim for reimbursement under any contract of indemnity, by insurance or otherwise, providing for the abuser's care, maintenance, and treatment in a state hospital to the state. Any payments received by the state from or on behalf of a substance abuser shall be in part credited to the county in proportion to the share of the costs paid by the county. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a relative or other person from voluntarily paying the full actual cost or any portion of the care and treatment of any mentally ill person or substance abuser as established by the department of human services.

230.16 Presumption.

In actions to enforce the liability imposed by section 230.15, the certificate from the superintendent to the county auditor stating the sums charged in such cases, shall be presumptively correct.

230.17 Board may compromise lien.

The board of supervisors is hereby empowered to compromise any and all liabilities to the county, created by this chapter, when such compromise is deemed to be for the best interests of the county.

230.18 Expense in county or private hospitals.

The estates of mentally ill persons who may be treated or confined in any county hospital or home, or in any private hospital or sanatorium, and the estates of persons legally bound for their support, shall be liable to the county for the reasonable cost of such support.

230.19 Nonresidents liable to state — presumption.

The estates of all nonresident patients provided for and treated in state hospitals for the mentally ill in this state, and all persons legally bound for the support of such patients, shall be liable to the state for the reasonable value of the care, maintenance, and treatment of such patients while in such hospitals. The certificate of the superintendent of the state hospital in which any nonresident is or has been a patient, showing the amounts drawn from the state treasury or due therefrom as provided by law on account of such nonresident patient, shall be presumptive evidence of the reasonable value of the care, maintenance, and treatment furnished such patient.

230.20 Billing of patient charges — computation of actual costs — cost settlement.

1. The superintendent of each mental health institute shall compute by February 1 the average daily patient charges and other service charges for which each county will be billed for services provided to patients chargeable to the county during the fiscal year beginning the following July 1. The department shall certify the amount of the charges to the director of revenue and finance and notify the counties of the billing charges.

a. The superintendent shall separately compute by program the average daily patient charge for a mental health institute for services provided in the following fiscal year, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, by totaling the expenditures of the program for the immediately preceding calendar year, by adjusting the expenditures by a percentage not to exceed the percentage increase in the consumer price index for all urban consumers for the immediately preceding calendar year, and by dividing the adjusted expenditures by the total inpatient days of service provided in the program during the immediately preceding calendar year. However, the superintendent shall not include

(1) The costs of food, lodging, and other maintenance provided to persons not patients of the hospital

(2) The costs of certain direct medical services identified in administrative rule, which may include but need not be limited to X ray, laboratory, and dental services

(3) The costs of outpatient and state placement services

(4) The costs of the psychiatric residency program

(5) The costs of the chaplain intern program

b The department shall compute the direct medical services, outpatient, and state placement services charges, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, on the basis of the actual cost of the services provided during the immediately preceding calendar year. The direct medical services, outpatient, and state placement services shall be billed directly against the patient who received the services

2 The superintendent shall certify to the director of revenue and finance the billings to each county for services provided to patients chargeable to the county during the preceding calendar quarter. The county billings shall be based on the average daily patient charge and other service charges computed pursuant to subsection 1, and the number of inpatient days and other service units chargeable to the county. However, a county billing shall be decreased by an amount equal to reimbursement by a third party payor or estimation of such reimbursement from a claim submitted by the superintendent to the third party payor for the preceding calendar quarter. When the actual third party payor reimbursement is greater or less than estimated, the difference shall be reflected in the county billing in the calendar quarter the actual third party payor reimbursement is determined. The per diem costs billed to each county shall not exceed the per diem costs in effect on July 1, 1988. However, the per diem costs may be adjusted annually to the extent of the adjustment in the consumer price index published annually in the federal register by the federal department of labor, bureau of labor statistics

3 The superintendent shall compute in January the actual per patient per day cost for each mental health institute for the immediately preceding calendar year, in accordance with generally accepted accounting procedures, by totaling the actual expenditures of the mental health institute for the calendar year and by dividing the total actual expenditures by the total inpatient days of service provided during the calendar year

4 The department shall certify to the director of revenue and finance and the counties by February 1 the actual per patient per day costs, as computed pursuant to subsection 3, and the actual costs owed by each county for the immediately preceding calendar year for patients chargeable to the county. If the actual costs owed by the county are greater than the charges billed to the county pursuant to subsection 2, the director of revenue and finance shall bill the county for the difference with the billing for the quarter ending June 30. If the actual costs owed by the county are less than the charges billed to the county pursuant to subsection 2, the director of revenue and finance shall credit the county for the difference starting with the billing for the quarter ending June 30

5 An individual statement shall be prepared for a patient on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the patient leaves the mental health institute, and a general statement shall be prepared at least quarterly for each county to which charges are made under this section. Except as otherwise required by sections 125 33 and 125 34 the general statement shall list the name of each patient chargeable to that county who was served by the mental health institute during the preceding month or calendar quarter, the amount due on account of each patient, and the specific dates for which any third party payor reimbursement received by the state is applied to the statement and billing, and the county shall be billed for eighty percent of the stated charge for each patient specified in this subsection. The statement prepared for each county shall be certified by the department to the director of revenue and finance and a duplicate statement shall be mailed to the auditor of that county

6 All or any reasonable portion of the charges incurred for services provided to a patient, to the most recent date for which the charges have been computed, may be paid at any time by the patient or by any other person on the patient's behalf. Any payment so made, and any federal financial assistance received pursuant to Title XVIII or XIX of the federal Social Security Act for services rendered to a patient, shall be credited against the patient's account and, if the charges so paid have previously been billed to a county, reflected in the mental health institute's next general statement to that county

230.21 Duty of county auditor and treasurer.

The county auditor, upon receipt of the duplicate statement required by section 230 20, shall enter it to the credit of the state in the ledger of state accounts, shall furnish to the board of supervisors a list of the names of the persons so certified, and at once issue a notice authorizing the county treasurer to transfer the amount billed to the county by the statement, from the county to the general state revenue, which notice shall be filed by the treasurer as authority for making the transfer. The auditor shall promptly remit the amount so transferred to the treasurer of state, designating the fund to which it belongs

230.22 Penalty.

Should any county fail to pay the amount billed by a statement submitted pursuant to section 230 20 within sixty days from the date the statement is certified by the superintendent, the director of revenue and finance shall charge the delinquent county the penalty of one percent per month on and after sixty days from the date the statement is certified until paid. Provided, however, that the penalty shall not be imposed if the county has notified the director of revenue and finance of error or questionable items in the billing, in which event, the director of revenue and finance may suspend penalty only during the period of negotiation

230.25 Financial investigation by supervisors.

1 Upon receipt from the county auditor of the list of names furnished pursuant to section 230 21, the board of supervisors shall make an investigation to determine the ability of each person whose name appears on the list, and also the ability of any person liable under section 230 15 for the support of that person, to pay the expenses of that person's hospitalization. If the board finds that neither the hospitalized person nor any person legally liable for the person's support is able to pay those expenses, they shall direct the county auditor not to index the names of any of those persons as would otherwise be required by section 230 26. However the board may review its finding with respect to any person at any subsequent time at which another list is furnished by the auditor upon which that person's name appears. If the board finds upon review that that person or those legally liable for the person's support are presently able to pay the expenses of that person's hospitalization, that finding shall apply only to charges stated upon the certificate from which the list was drawn up and any subsequent charges similarly certified, unless and until the board again changes its finding.

2 All liens created under section 230 25, as that section appeared in the Code of 1975 and prior editions of the Code, are abolished effective January 1, 1977, except as otherwise provided by subsection 1. The board of supervisors of each county shall, as soon as practicable after July 1, 1976, review all liens resulting from the operation of said section 230 25, Code 1975, and make a determination as to the ability of the person against whom the lien exists to pay the charges represented by the lien, and if they find that the person is able to pay those charges they shall direct the county attorney of that county to take immediate action to enforce the lien. If action is commenced under this section on any lien prior to the effective date of the abolition thereof, that lien shall not be abolished but shall continue until the action is completed. The board of supervisors shall release any such lien when the charge on which the lien is based is fully paid or is compromised and settled by the board in such manner as its members deem to be in the best interest of the county, or when the estate affected by the lien has been probated and the proceeds allowable have been applied on the lien.

230.26 Auditor to keep record.

The auditor of each county shall keep an accurate account of the cost of the maintenance of any patient kept in any institution as provided for in this chapter and keep an index of the names of the persons admitted or committed from such county. The name of the husband or the wife of such person designating such party as the spouse of the person admitted or committed shall also be indexed in the same manner as the names of the persons admitted or committed are indexed. The book shall be designated as an account book or index, and shall have no reference in any place to a lien.

230.27 Board and county attorney to collect.

It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to collect said claims and direct the county attorney to proceed with the collection of said claims as a part of the duties of the county attorney's office.

230.28 and 230.29 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1104, §17

230.30 Claim against estate.

On the death of a person receiving or who has received assistance under the provisions of this chapter, and whom the board has previously found, under section 230 25, is able to pay there shall be allowed against the estate of such decedent a claim of the sixth class for that portion of the total amount paid for that person's care which exceeds the total amount of all claims of the first through the fifth classes, inclusive, as defined in section 633 425, which are allowed against that estate.

230.31 Departers from other states.

When any mentally ill person departs without proper authority from an institution in another state and is found in this state, any peace officer in any county in which such patient is found may take and detain the patient without order and shall report such detention to the administrator of the division who shall provide for the return of such patient to the authorities of the state where the unauthorized leave was made Pending such return such patient may be detained temporarily at one of the institutions of this state governed by the administrator of the division or any other administrator of the state department of human services Expenses incurred under this section shall be paid in the same manner as is provided for transfers in section 230 8

230.32 Support of nonresident patients on leave.

The cost of support of patients without legal settlement in this state, who are placed on convalescent leave or removed from a state mental institute to any health care facility licensed under chapter 135C for rehabilitation purposes, shall be paid from the hospital support fund and shall be charged on abstract in the same manner as state inpatients, until such time as the patient becomes self supporting or qualifies for support under existing statutes

230.33 Reciprocal agreements.

The administrator of the division is hereby authorized to enter into agreements with other states, through their duly constituted authorities, to effect the reciprocal return of mentally ill and mentally retarded persons to the contracting states, and to effect the reciprocal supervision of persons on convalescent leave

Provided that in the case of a proposed transfer of a mentally ill or mentally retarded person from this state that no final action be taken without the approval either of the commission of hospitalization, or of the district court, of the county of admission or commitment 230A.1 Establishment and support of community mental health centers.

A county or affiliated counties, by action of the board or boards of supervisors, with approval of the administrator of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, may establish a community mental health center under this chapter to serve the county or counties In establishing the community mental health center, the board of supervisors of each county involved may make a single nonrecurring expenditure, in an amount determined by the board. This section does not limit the authority of the board or boards of supervisors of any county or group of counties to continue to expend money to support operation of the center, and to form agreements with the board of supervisors of any additional county for that county to join in supporting and receiving services from or through the center.

83 Acts, ch 123, §87, 209

230A.2 Services offered.

A community mental health center established or operating as authorized by section 230A 1 may offer to residents of the county or counties it serves any or all of the mental health services defined by the mental health and mental retardation commission in the state mental health plan.

230A.3 Forms of organization.

Each community mental health center established or continued in operation as authorized by section 230A 1 shall be organized and administered in accordance with one of the two alternative forms prescribed by this chapter. The two alternative forms are:

1. Direct establishment of the center by the county or counties supporting it and administration of the center by an elected board of trustees, pursuant to sections 230A 4 to 230A 11.

2. Establishment of the center by a nonprofit corporation providing services to the county or counties on the basis of an agreement with the board or boards of supervisors, pursuant to sections 230A 12 and 230A 13.

230A.4 Trustees – qualifications – manner of selection.

When the board or boards of supervisors of a county or affiliated counties decides to directly establish a community mental health center under this chapter, the supervisors, acting jointly in the case of affiliated counties, shall appoint a board of community mental health center trustees to serve until the next succeeding general election. The board of trustees shall consist of at least seven members each of whom shall be a resident of the county or one of the counties served by the center. An employee of the center is not eligible for the office of community mental health center trustee. At the first general election following establishment of the center, all members of the board of trustees shall be elected. They shall assume office on the second day of the following January which is not a Sunday or legal holiday, and shall at once divide themselves by lot into three classes of as nearly equal size as possible. The first class shall serve for terms of two years, the second class for terms of four years, and the third class for terms of six years. Thereafter, a member shall be elected to the board of trustees for a term of six years at each general election to succeed each member whose term will expire in the following year.

230A.5 Election of trustees.

The election of community mental health center trustees shall take place at the general election on ballots which shall not reflect a nominee's political affiliation. Nomination shall be made by petition in accordance with chapter 45. The petition form shall be furnished by the county commissioner of elections, signed by eligible electors of the county or affiliated counties equal in number to one percent of the vote cast therein for president of the United States or governor, as the case may be, in the last previous general election, and shall be filed with the county commissioner of elections at least fifty five days prior to the date of the general election. A plurality shall be sufficient to elect community mental health center trustees, and no primary election for that office shall be held.

230A.6 Vacancies.

Vacancies on the community mental health center board of trustees shall be filled by appointment in accordance with sections 69 11 and 69 12, by the remaining trustees, except that if the offices of more than half of the members of the board are vacant at any one time the vacancies shall be filled by the board of supervisors or boards of supervisors acting jointly in the case of affiliated counties. The office of any trustee who is absent from four consecutive regular board meetings, without prior excuse, may be declared vacant by the board of trustees and filled in accordance with this section.

230A.7 Organization – meetings – quorum.

The members of the board of community mental health center trustees shall qualify by taking the usual oath of office within ten days after their appointment or prior to the beginning of the term to which they were elected, as the case may be. At the initial meeting following appointment of a board of trustees or of a majority of the members of a board, and at the first meeting in January after each biennial general election, the board shall organize by election of one of the trustees as chairperson, one as secretary and one as treasurer. The secretary and treasurer shall each file with the chairperson a surety bond in a penal sum set by the board of trustees and with sureties approved by the board for the use and benefit of the center, the reasonable cost of which shall be paid from the operating funds of the center. No other members of the board shall be required to post bond. The board shall meet at least once each month. One half plus one of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum.

230A.8 Duties of secretary.

1 The secretary shall report to the county auditor and treasurer the names of the chairperson, secretary and treasurer of the community mental health center board of trustees as soon as practicable after each has qualified

2 The secretary shall keep a complete record of all proceedings of the board of trustees

3 The secretary shall draw warrants on the funds of the center, which shall be countersigned by the chairperson of the board of trustees, after claims are certified by the board

4 The secretary shall file with the board of trustees, on or before the tenth day of each month, a complete statement of all receipts and disbursements from the center's funds during the preceding month and the balance remaining on hand at the close of the month

230A.9 Duties of treasurer.

1 The treasurer of the community mental health center shall receive the funds made available to the center by the county or counties it serves, and any other funds which may be made available to the center, and shall disburse the center's funds upon warrants drawn as required by section 230A 8, sub section 3

2 The treasurer shall keep an accurate account of all receipts and disbursements and shall register all orders drawn and reported to the treasurer by the secretary, showing the number, date, to whom drawn, the purpose and amount

3 At intervals specified by the county board of supervisors, not less often than once each ninety days, the county treasurer of each county served by the center shall notify the chairperson of the center's board of trustees of all amounts due the center from the county which have not previously been paid over to the treasurer of the center. The chairperson shall then file a claim for payment as specified in sections 331 504, subsection 7, 331 506 and 331 554. Section 331 504, subsection 8 notwithstanding, the claims shall not include information which in any manner identifies an individual who is receiving or has received treatment at the center

230A.10 Powers and duties of trustees.

The community mental health center board of trustees shall

1 Have authority to adopt bylaws and rules for its own guidance and for the government of the center

2 Employ a director and staff for the center, fix their compensation, and have control over the director and staff

3 Designate at least one of the trustees to visit and review the operation of the center at least once each month

4 Procure and pay premiums on insurance policies required for the prudent management of the center, including but not limited to public liability, professional malpractice liability, workers' compensation and vehicle liability, any of which may include as additional insureds the board of trustees and employees of the center

5 Establish, with approval of the board or joint boards of supervisors of the county or counties served by the center, standards to be followed in determining whether and to what extent persons seeking services from the center shall be considered able to pay the cost of the services received

6 Establish, with approval of the board or joint boards of supervisors of the county or counties served by the center, policies regarding whether the services of the center will be made available to persons who are not residents of the county or counties served by the center, and if so upon what terms

7 Purchase or lease a site for the center, and provide and equip suitable quarters for the center

8 Prepare and approve plans and specifications for all center buildings and equipment, and advertise for bids as required by law for county buildings before making any contract for the construction of any building or purchase of equipment

9 File with the board of supervisors within thirty days after the close of each budget year, a report covering their proceedings with reference to the center and a statement of all receipts and expenditures during the preceding budget year

10 Accept property by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, and, if the board deems it advisable, may, at public sale, sell or exchange any property so accepted upon a concurring vote of a majority of all members of the board of trustees, and apply the proceeds thereof, or property received in exchange therefor, to the purposes enumerated in subsection 7, or to purchase equipment

11 There shall be published quarterly in each of the official newspapers of the county as selected by the board of supervisors pursuant to section 349 1 the schedule of bills allowed and there shall be published annually in such newspapers the schedule of salaries paid by job classification and category, but not by listing names of individual employees. The names, addresses, salaries and job classification of all employees paid in whole or in part from public funds shall be a public record and open to inspection at reasonable times as designated by the board of trustees

12 Recruit, promote, accept and use local financial support for the community mental health center from private sources such as community service funds, business, industrial and private foundations, voluntary agencies and other lawful sources

13 Accept and expend state and federal funds available directly to the community mental health center for all or any part of the cost of any service the center is authorized to provide

14 Enter into a contract with an affiliate, which may be an individual or a public or private group, agency, or corporation, organized and operating on either a profit or a nonprofit basis, for any of the services described in section 230A 2, to be provided by the affiliate to residents of the county or counties served by the community mental health center who are patients or clients of the center and are referred by the center to the affiliate for service

83 Acts, ch 101, §41

230A.11 Trustees – reimbursement – restrictions.

1 No community mental health center trustee shall receive any compensation for services in that office, but the trustee shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary personal expenses incurred in the performance of the trustee's duties. An itemized and verified statement of any such expenses may be filed with the secretary of the board of trustees, and shall be allowed upon approval by the board.

2 No trustee shall have, directly or indirectly, any pecuniary interest in the purchase or sale of any commodities or supplies procured for or disposed of by the center.

230A.12 Center organized as nonprofit corporation – agreement with county.

Each community mental health center established or continued in operation pursuant to section 230A 3, subsection 2, shall be organized under the Iowa nonprofit corporation Act appearing as chapter 504A, except that a community mental health center organized under chapter 504 prior to July 1, 1974, shall not be required by this chapter to adopt the Iowa nonprofit corporation Act if it is not otherwise required to do so by law. The board of directors of each such community mental health center shall enter into an agreement with the county or affiliated counties which are to be served by the center, which agreement shall include but need not be limited to the period of time for which the agreement is to be in force, what services the center is to provide for residents of the county or counties to be served, standards the center is to follow in determining whether and to what extent persons seeking services from the center shall be considered able to pay the cost of the services received, and policies regarding availability of the center's services to persons who are not residents of the county or counties served by the center. The board of directors, in addition to exercising the powers of the board of directors of a nonprofit corporation may

1 Recruit, promote, accept and use local financial support for the community mental health center from private sources such as community service funds, business, industrial and private foundations, voluntary agencies, and other lawful sources.

2 Accept and expend state and federal funds available directly to the community mental health center for all or any part of the cost of any service the center is authorized to provide.

3 Enter into a contract with an affiliate, which may be an individual or a public or private group, agency or corporation, organized and operating on either a profit or a nonprofit basis, for any of the services described in section 230A 2, to be provided by the affiliate to residents of the county or counties served by the community mental health center who are patients or clients of the center and are referred by the center to the affiliate for service

83 Acts, ch 101, §42

230A.13 Annual budget.

The board of directors of each community mental health center which is organized as a nonprofit corporation shall prepare an annual budget for the center and, when satisfied with the budget, submit it to the auditor or auditors of the county or affiliated counties served by the center, at the time and in the manner prescribed by chapter 24. The budget shall be subject to review by and approval of the board of supervisors of the county which is served by the center or, in the case of a center serving affiliated counties, by the board of supervisors of each county, acting separately, to the extent the budget is to be financed by taxes levied by that county or by funds allocated to that county by the state which the county may by law use to help support the center.

Release of information which would identify an individual who is receiving or has received treatment at a community mental health center shall not be made a condition of support of that center by any county under this section. Section 331 504, subsection 8 notwithstanding, a community mental health center shall not be required to file a claim which would in any manner identify such an individual, if the center's budget has been approved by the county board under this section and the center is in compliance with section 230A 16, subsection 3.

230A.14 Support of center – federal funds.

The board of supervisors of any county served by a community mental health center established or continued in operation as authorized by section 230A 1 may expend money from county funds, federal revenue sharing funds, or other federal matching funds designated by the board of supervisors for that purpose, without a vote of the electorate of the county, to pay the cost of any services described in section 230A 2 which are provided by the center or by an affiliate under contract with the center, or to pay the cost of or grant funds for establishing, reconstructing, remodeling or improving any facility required for the center. However, the county board shall not expend money from that fund, except for designated revenue sharing or other federal matching funds, for mental health treatment obtained outside a state institution in an amount exceeding eight dollars per capita in any county having less than forty thousand population.

83 Acts, ch 123, §88, 209

230A.15 Comprehensive community mental health program.

A community mental health center established or operating as authorized by section 230A 1, or which a county or group of counties has agreed to establish or support pursuant to that section, may with approval of the board or boards of supervisors of the county or counties supporting or establishing the center, undertake to provide a comprehensive community mental health program for the county or counties. A center providing a comprehensive community mental health program shall, at a minimum, make available to residents of the county or counties it serves all of the comprehensive mental health services described in the state mental health plan [C75, 77, 79, 81, §230A 15, 82 Acts, ch 1117, §4]

The administrator of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities shall recommend and the mental health and mental retardation commission shall adopt standards for community mental health centers and comprehensive community mental health programs, with the overall objective of ensuring that each center and each affiliate providing services under contract with a center furnishes high quality mental health services within a framework of accountability to the community it serves. The standards shall be in substantial conformity with those of the psychiatric committee of the joint committee on accreditation of hospitals and other recognized national standards for evaluation of psychiatric facilities unless in the judgment of the administrator of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, with approval of the mental health and mental retardation commission, there are sound reasons for departing from such standards. When recommending standards under this section, the administrator of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities shall designate an advisory committee representing boards of directors and professional staff of community mental health centers to assist in the formulation or revision of standards. At least a simple majority of the members of the advisory committee shall be lay representatives of community mental health center boards of directors. At least one member of the advisory committee shall be a member of a county board of supervisors. The standards recommended under this section shall include requirements that each community mental health center established or operating as authorized by section 230A 1 shall

1 Maintain and make available to the public a written statement of the services it offers to residents of the county or counties it serves, and employ or contract for services with affiliates employing specified minimum numbers of professional personnel possessing specified appropriate credentials to assure that the services offered are furnished in a manner consistent with currently accepted professional standards in the field of mental health

2 Unless it is governed by a board of trustees elected or selected under sections 230A 5 and 230A 6, be governed by a board of directors which adequately represents interested professions, consumers of the center's services, socioeconomic, cultural, and age groups, and various geographical areas in the county or counties served by the center

3 Arrange for the financial condition and transactions of the community mental health center to be audited once each year by the auditor of state. However, in lieu of an audit by state accountants, the local governing body of a community mental health center organized under this chapter may contract with or employ certified public accountants to conduct the audit, pursuant to the applicable terms and conditions prescribed by sections 11 18 and 11 19 and audit format prescribed by the auditor of state. Copies of each audit shall be furnished by the accountant to the administrator of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities, and the board of supervisors supporting the audited community mental health center

4 Adopt and implement procedural rules ensuring that no member of the center's board of directors, or board of trustees receives from the center information which identifies or is intended to permit the members of the board to identify any person who is a client of that center

230A.17 Review and evaluation.

The administrator of the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities may review and evaluate any community mental health center upon the recommendation of the mental health and mental retardation commission, and shall do so upon the written request of the center's board of directors, its chief medical or administrative officer, or the board of supervisors of any county from which the center receives public funds. The cost of the review shall be paid by the division of mental health, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities

230A.18 Report of review and evaluation.

Upon completion of a review made pursuant to section 230A 17, the review shall be submitted to the board of directors and chief medical or administrative officer of the center. If the review concludes that the center fails to meet any of the standards established pursuant to section 230A 16, subsection 1, and that the response of the center to this finding is unsatisfactory, these conclusions shall be reported to the mental health and mental retardation commission which may forward the conclusions to the board of directors of the center and request an appropriate response within thirty days. If no response is received within thirty days, or if the response is unsatisfactory, the commission may call this fact to the attention of the board of supervisors of the county or counties served by the center, and in doing so shall indicate what corrective steps have been recommended to the center's board of directors

CONSTRUCTION AND DEFINITIONS

232.1 Rules of construction.

This chapter shall be liberally construed to the end that each child under the jurisdiction of the court shall receive, preferably in the child's own home, the care, guidance and control that will best serve the child's welfare and the best interest of the state. When a child is removed from the control of the child's parents, the court shall secure for the child care as nearly as possible equivalent to that which should have been given by the parents [S13, §254 a14, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3617; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §232 1]

232.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires

1 "Abandonment of a child" means the permanent relinquishment or surrender, without reference to any particular person, of the parental rights, duties, or privileges inherent in the parent child relationship. Proof of abandonment must include both the intention to abandon and the acts by which the intention is evidenced. The term does not require that the relinquishment or surrender be over any particular period of time.

2 "Adjudicatory hearing" means a hearing to determine if the allegations of a petition are true.

3 "Adult" means a person other than a child.

4 "Case permanency plan" means the plan, mandated by Pub L No 96 272, as codified in 42 U S C , secs 671(a)(16), 627(a)(2)(B), and 675(1),(5), designed to achieve placement in the least restrictive, most family like setting available and in close proximity to the parent's home, consistent with the best interests and special needs of the child. The plan shall specifically include all of the following:

a. Plans for carrying out the voluntary placement agreement or judicial determination pursuant to which the child entered care.

b. The type and appropriateness of the placement and services to be provided to the child.

232.3 Concurrent court proceedings.

1 During the pendency of an action under this chapter, a party to the action is estopped from litigating concurrently the custody, guardianship, or placement of a child who is the subject of the action, in a court other than the juvenile court. A district judge, district associate judge, magistrate, or judicial hospitalization referee, upon notice of the pendency of an action under this chapter, shall not issue an order, finding, or decision relating to the custody, guardianship, or placement of the child who is the subject of the action, under any law, including but not limited to chapter 598, 598A, or 633

2 The juvenile court with jurisdiction of the pending action under this chapter, however, may, upon the request of a party to the action or on its own motion, authorize the party to litigate concurrently in another court a specific issue relating to the custody, guardianship, or placement of the child who is the subject of the action. Before authorizing a party to litigate a specific issue in another court, the juvenile court shall give all parties to the action an opportunity to be heard on the proposed authorization. The juvenile court may request but shall not require another court to exercise jurisdiction and adjudicate a specific issue relating to the custody, guardianship, or placement of the child.

DIVISION II

JUVENILE DELINQUENCY PROCEEDINGS

PART 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

232.8 Jurisdiction.

1 The juvenile court has exclusive original jurisdiction in proceedings concerning a child who is alleged to have committed a delinquent act unless otherwise provided by law, and has exclusive original jurisdiction in proceedings concerning an adult who is alleged to have committed a delinquent act prior to having become an adult, and who has been transferred to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to an order under section 803 5.

Violations by a child of provisions of chapter 106, 106A, 109, 109A, 110, 110A, 110B, 111, 321, or 321G which would be simple misdemeanors if committed by an adult, and violations by a child of county or municipal curfew or traffic ordinances, and violations by a child of section 123 47, are excluded from the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and shall be prosecuted as simple misdemeanors as provided by law. The court may advise appropriate juvenile authorities and may refer violations of section 123 47 to the juvenile court when there is reason to believe the child regularly abuses alcohol and may be in need of treatment. The court shall notify the parents or legal guardians of a child who appears before it for a violation of section 123 47. A child convicted of a violation excluded from the jurisdiction of the juvenile court under this unnumbered paragraph shall be sentenced pursuant to section 805 8, where applicable, and pursuant to section 903 1, subsection 3, for all other violations.

2 A case involving a person charged in a court other than the juvenile court with the commission of a public offense not exempted by law from the jurisdiction of the juvenile court and who is within the provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall immediately be transferred to the juvenile court. The transferring court shall order a transfer and shall forward the transfer order together with all papers, documents and a transcript of all testimony filed or admitted into evidence in connection with the case to the clerk of the juvenile court. The jurisdiction of the juvenile court shall attach immediately upon the signing of an order of transfer. From the time of transfer, the custody, shelter care and detention of the person alleged to have committed a delinquent act shall be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the case shall be processed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

3 The juvenile court, after a hearing and in accordance with the provisions of section 232 45, may waive jurisdiction of a child alleged to have committed a public offense so that the child may be prosecuted as an adult for such offense in another court. If the child pleads guilty or is found guilty of a public offense in another court of this state that court may, with the consent of the child, defer judgment and without regard to restrictions placed upon deferred judgments for adults, place the child on probation for a period not less than one year upon such conditions as it may require. Upon fulfillment of the conditions of probation the child shall be discharged without entry of judgment.

4 Nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted as affecting the statutory limitations on prosecutions for murder in the first or second degree.

232.9 Motion for change of judge.

Prior to a hearing pursuant to sections 232 44 to 232 47, 232 50 or 232 54, the child may file a motion with the district court for the appointment of a new judge. The chief judge of the district court for cause shown shall appoint a new judge.

232.10 Venue.

1 Venue for delinquency proceedings shall be in the judicial district where the child is found, where the child resides or where the alleged delinquent act occurred.

2 The court may transfer delinquency proceedings to the court of any county having venue at any stage in the proceeding as follows:

a. When it appears that the best interests of the child or society or the convenience of the parties will be served by a transfer, the court may transfer the case to the court of the county of the child's residence.

b. With the consent of the receiving court, the court may transfer the case to the court of the county where the child is found.

c. The court may transfer the case to the county where the alleged delinquent act occurred.

3 The court shall transfer the case by ordering the transfer and a continuance and by forwarding to the clerk of the receiving court a certified copy of all papers filed together with an order of transfer. The judge of the receiving court may accept the filings of the transferring court or may direct the filing of a new petition and hear the case anew.

232.11 Right to assistance of counsel.

1. A child shall have the right to be represented by counsel at the following stages of the proceedings within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court under division II:

a. From the time the child is taken into custody for any alleged delinquent act that constitutes a serious or aggravated misdemeanor or felony under the Iowa criminal code, and during any questioning thereafter by a peace officer or probation officer.

b. A detention or shelter care hearing as required by section 232.44.

c. A waiver hearing as required by section 232.45.

d. An adjudicatory hearing required by section 232.47.

e. A dispositional hearing as required by section 232.50.

f. Hearings to review and modify a dispositional order as required by section 232.54.

2. The child's right to be represented by counsel under subsection 1, paragraphs "b" to "f" of this section shall not be waived by a child of any age. The child's right to be represented by counsel under subsection 1, paragraph "a" shall not be waived by a child less than sixteen years of age without the written consent of the child's parent, guardian, or custodian. The waiver by a child who is at least sixteen years of age is valid only if a good faith effort has been made to notify the child's parent, guardian, or custodian that the child has been taken into custody and of the alleged delinquent act for which the child has been taken into custody, the location of the child, and the right of the parent, guardian, or custodian to visit and confer with the child.

3. If the child is not represented by counsel as required under subsection 1, counsel shall be provided as follows:

a. If the court determines, after giving the child's parent, guardian or custodian an opportunity to be heard, that such person has the ability in whole or in part to pay for the employment of counsel, it shall either order that person to retain an attorney to represent the child or shall appoint counsel for the child and order the parent, guardian or custodian to pay for that counsel as provided in subsection 5.

b. If the court determines that the parent, guardian or custodian cannot pay any part of the expenses of counsel to represent the child, it shall appoint such counsel, who shall be reimbursed according to the provisions of section 232.141, subsection 1, paragraph "b".

c. The court may appoint counsel to represent the child and reserve the determination of payment until the parent, guardian or custodian has an opportunity to be heard.

4. If the child is represented by counsel and the court determines that there is a conflict of interest between the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian and that the retained counsel could not properly represent the child as a result of the conflict, the court shall appoint other counsel to represent the child and order the parent, guardian or custodian to pay for such counsel as provided in subsection 5.

5. If the court determines, after an inquiry which includes notice and reasonable opportunity to be heard that the parent, guardian or custodian has the ability to pay in whole or in part for the attorney appointed for the child, the court may order that person to pay such sums as the court finds appropriate in the manner and to whom the court directs. If the person so ordered fails to comply with the order without good reason, the court shall enter judgment against the person.

6. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the child or the child's parent, guardian or custodian from retaining counsel to represent the child in proceedings under this division II of this chapter in which the alleged delinquent act constitutes a simple misdemeanor under the Iowa Code.

232.12 Duties of county attorney.

Upon the filing of a petition the county attorney shall represent the state in all adversary proceedings arising under this division and shall present evidence in support of the petition.

232.13 State liability.

1. For purposes of chapter 25A, the following persons shall be considered state employees:

a. A child given a work assignment of value to the state or the public or a community work assignment under this chapter.

b. A court appointed special advocate.

2. The state of Iowa is exclusively liable for and shall pay any compensation becoming due a person under section 85.59.

PART 2
CHILD CUSTODY

232.19 Taking a child into custody.

1. A child may be taken into custody:

a. By order of the court.

b. For a delinquent act pursuant to the laws relating to arrest.

c. By a peace officer for the purpose of reuniting a child with the child's family or removing the child to a shelter care facility when the peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe the child has run away from the child's parents, guardian, or custodian.

d. By a peace officer, juvenile court officer, or juvenile parole officer when the officer has reasonable grounds to believe the child has committed a material violation of a dispositional order.

2. When a child is taken into custody as provided in subsection 1 the person taking the child into custody shall notify the child's parent, guardian or custodian as soon as possible and shall not place bodily restraints, such as handcuffs, on the child unless the child physically resists or threatens physical violence when being taken into custody. Unless the child is placed in shelter care or detention in accordance with the provisions of sections 232.21 or 232.22, the child shall be released to the child's parent, guardian, custodian, responsible adult relative, or other adult approved by the court upon the promise of such person to produce the child in court at such time as the court may direct.

232.20 Admission of child to shelter care or detention.

1 If a child is taken into custody and not released as provided in section 232.19, subsection 2, the child shall immediately be taken to a detention or shelter care facility as specified in sections 232.21 or 232.22.

2 When a child is admitted to a detention or shelter care facility the person in charge of the facility or the person's designated representative shall notify the court, the child's attorney, and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian as soon as possible of the admission and the reasons for that admission.

232.21 Placement in shelter care.

1 No child shall be placed in shelter care unless one of the following circumstances applies:

a. The child has no parent, guardian, custodian, responsible adult relative or other adult approved by the court who will provide proper shelter, care and supervision.

b. The child desires to be placed in shelter care.

c. It is necessary to hold the child until the child's parent, guardian, or custodian has been contacted and has taken custody of the child.

d. It is necessary to hold the child for transfer to another jurisdiction.

e. The child is being placed pursuant to an order of the court.

2 A child may be placed in shelter care as provided in this section only in one of the following facilities:

a. A juvenile shelter care home.

b. A licensed foster home.

c. An institution or other facility operated by the department of human services, or one which is licensed or otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child.

d. Any other suitable place designated by the court provided that no place used for the detention of a child may be so designated.

Placement shall be made in the least restrictive facility available consistent with the best interests and special needs of the child. Foster family care shall be used for a child unless the child has problems requiring specialized service or supervision which cannot be provided in a family living arrangement.

3 When there is reason to believe that a child placed in shelter care pursuant to section 232.19, subsection 1, paragraph "c" would not voluntarily remain in the shelter care facility, the shelter care facility shall impose reasonable restrictions necessary to ensure the child's continued custody.

4 A child placed in a shelter care facility under this section shall not be held for a period in excess of forty eight hours without an oral or written court order authorizing the shelter care. When the action is authorized by an oral court order, the court shall enter a written order before the end of the next day confirming the oral order and indicating the reasons for the order. A child placed in shelter care pursuant to section 232.19, subsection 1, paragraph "c" shall not be held in excess of seventy two hours in any event.

5 If no satisfactory provision is made for uniting a child placed in shelter care pursuant to section 232.19, subsection 1, paragraph "c" with the child's family, a child in need of assistance complaint may be filed pursuant to section 232.81. Nothing in this subsection shall limit the right of a child to file a family in need of assistance petition under section 232.125.

6 A child twelve years of age or younger shall not be placed in a group shelter care home, unless there have been reasonable but unsuccessful efforts to place the child in an emergency foster family home which is able to meet the needs of the child. The efforts shall be documented at the shelter care hearing.

232.22 Placement in detention.

1 No child shall be placed in detention unless:

a. The child is being held under warrant from another jurisdiction, or

b. The child is an escapee from a juvenile correctional or penal institution, or

c. There is probable cause to believe that the child has violated conditions of release imposed under section 232.44, subsection 5, paragraph "b", 232.52, or 232.54 and there is a substantial probability that the child will run away or otherwise be unavailable for subsequent court appearance, or

d. There is probable cause to believe the child has committed a delinquent act, and

(1) There is a substantial probability that the child will run away or otherwise be unavailable for subsequent court appearance, or

(2) There is a serious risk that the child if released may commit an act which would inflict serious bodily harm on the child or on another, or

(3) There is a serious risk that the child if released may commit serious damage to the property of others.

2 A child may be placed in detention as provided in this section in one of the following facilities only a. A juvenile detention home

b Any other suitable place designated by the court other than a facility under paragraph "c" c A room in a facility intended or used for the detention of adults if there is probable cause to believe that the child has committed a delinquent act which if committed by an adult would be a felony, or aggravated misdemeanor under section 708 2 or 709 11, a serious or aggravated misdemeanor under section 321J 2, or a violation of section 123 46, and if all of the following apply:

(1) The child is at least fourteen years of age

(2) The child has shown by the child's conduct, habits, or condition that the child constitutes an immediate and serious danger to another or to the property of another, and a facility or place enumerated in paragraph "a" or "b" is unavailable, or the court determines that the child's conduct or condition endangers the safety of others in the facility

(3) The facility has an adequate staff to supervise and monitor the child's activities at all times

(4) The child is confined in a room entirely separated from detained adults, is confined in a manner which prohibits communication with detained adults, and is permitted to use common areas of the facility only when no contact with detained adults is possible

However, if the child is to be detained for a violation of section 123 46 or section 321J 2, placement in a facility pursuant to this paragraph shall be made only after an attempt has been made to notify the parents or legal guardians of the child and request that the parents or legal guardians take custody of the child. If the parents or legal guardians cannot be contacted, or refuse to take custody of the child, an attempt shall be made to place the child in another facility, including but not limited to a local hospital or shelter care facility. Also, a child detained for a violation of section 123 46 or section 321J 2 pursuant to this paragraph shall only be detained in a facility with adequate staff to provide continuous visual supervision of the child

d. A place used for the detention of children prior to an adjudicatory hearing may also be used for the detention of a child awaiting disposition to a placement under section 232 52, subsection 2, paragraph "e" while the adjudicated child is awaiting transfer to the disposition placement

3 A child shall not be held in a facility under subsection 2, paragraph "a" or "b" for a period in excess of twenty-four hours without an oral or written court order authorizing the detention. When the detention is authorized by an oral court order, the court shall enter a written order before the end of the next day confirming the oral order and indicating the reasons for the order

4 A child shall not be detained in a facility under subsection 2, paragraph "c" for a period of time in excess of six hours without the oral or written order of a judge or a magistrate authorizing the detention. A judge or magistrate may authorize detention in a facility under subsection 2, paragraph "c" for a period of time in excess of six hours but less than twenty-four hours, excluding weekends and legal holidays, but only if all of the following occur or exist

a. The facility serves a geographic area outside a standard metropolitan statistical area as determined by the United States census bureau

b. The court determines that an acceptable alternative placement does not exist pursuant to criteria developed by the department of human services

c. The facility has been certified by the department of corrections as being capable of sight and sound separation pursuant to this section and section 356 3

d. The child is awaiting an initial hearing before the court pursuant to section 232 44

The restrictions contained in this subsection relating to the detention of a child in a facility under subsection 2, paragraph "c" do not apply if the court has waived its jurisdiction over the child for the alleged commission of a felony offense pursuant to section 232 45

5 An adult within the jurisdiction of the court under section 232 8, subsection 1, who has been placed in detention, is not bailable under chapter 811. If such an adult is detained in a room in a facility intended or used for the detention of adults, the adult shall be confined in a room entirely separated from adults not within the jurisdiction of the court under section 232 8, subsection 1

INTAKE

232.28 Intake.

1 Any person having knowledge of the facts may file a complaint with the court or its designee alleging that a child has committed a delinquent act. A written record shall be maintained of any oral complaint received

2 The court or its designee shall refer the complaint to an intake officer who shall consult with law enforcement authorities having knowledge of the facts and conduct a preliminary inquiry to determine what action should be taken

3 In the course of a preliminary inquiry, the intake officer may

a. Interview the complainant, victim or witnesses of the alleged delinquent act

b. Check existing records of the court, law enforcement agencies and public records of other agencies

c. Hold conferences with the child and the child's parent or parents, guardian or custodian for the purpose of interviewing them and discussing the disposition of the complaint in accordance with the requirements set forth in subsection 8.

d. Examine any physical evidence pertinent to the complaint.

e. Interview such persons as are necessary to determine whether the filing of a petition would be in the best interests of the child and the community as provided in section 232.35, subsections 2 and 3.

4. Any additional inquiries may be made only with the consent of the child and the child's parent or parents, guardian or custodian.

5. Participation of the child and the child's parent or parents, guardian or custodian in a conference with an intake officer shall be voluntary, and they shall have the right to refuse to participate in such conference. At such conference the child shall have the right to the assistance of counsel in accordance with section 232.11 and the right to remain silent when questioned by the intake officer.

6. The intake officer, after consultation with the county attorney when necessary, shall determine whether the complaint is legally sufficient for the filing of a petition. A complaint shall be deemed legally sufficient for the filing of a petition if the facts as alleged are sufficient to establish the jurisdiction of the court and probable cause to believe that the child has committed a delinquent act. If the intake officer determines that the complaint is legally sufficient to support the filing of a petition, the officer shall determine whether the interests of the child and the public will best be served by the dismissal of the complaint, the informal adjustment of the complaint, or the filing of a petition.

7. If the intake officer determines that the complaint is not legally sufficient for the filing of a petition or that further proceedings are not in the best interests of the child or the public, the intake officer shall dismiss the complaint.

8. If the intake officer determines that the complaint is legally sufficient for the filing of a petition and that an informal adjustment of the complaint is in the best interests of the child and the community, the officer may make an informal adjustment of the complaint in accordance with section 232.29.

9. If the intake officer determines that the complaint is legally sufficient for the filing of a petition and that the filing of a petition is in the best interests of the child and the public, the officer shall request the county attorney to file a petition in accordance with section 232.35.

10. A complaint filed with the court or its designee pursuant to this section which alleges that a child fourteen years of age or older has committed a delinquent act which if committed by an adult would be an aggravated misdemeanor or a felony shall be a public record and shall not be confidential under section 232.147.

88 Acts, ch 1134, §50

232.29 Informal adjustment.

1. The informal adjustment of a complaint is a permissible disposition of a complaint at intake subject to the following conditions:

a. The child has admitted the child's involvement in a delinquent act.

b. The intake officer shall advise the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian that they have the right to refuse an informal adjustment of the complaint and demand the filing of a petition and a formal adjudication.

c. Any informal adjustment agreement shall be entered into voluntarily and intelligently by the child with the advice of the child's attorney, or by the child with the consent of a parent, guardian, or custodian if the child is not represented by counsel.

d. The terms of such agreement shall be clearly stated in writing and signed by all parties to the agreement and a copy of this agreement shall be given to the child; the counsel for the child; the parent, guardian or custodian; and the intake officer, who shall retain the copy in the case file.

e. An agreement providing for the supervision of a child by a juvenile court officer or the provision of intake services shall not exceed six months.

f. An agreement providing for the referral of a child to a public or private agency for services shall not exceed six months.

g. The child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian shall have the right to terminate such agreement at any time and to request the filing of a petition and a formal adjudication.

h. If an informal adjustment of a complaint has been made, a petition based upon the events out of which the original complaint arose may be filed only during the period of six months from the date the informal adjustment agreement was entered into. If a petition is filed within this period the child's compliance with all proper and reasonable terms of the agreement shall be grounds for dismissal of the petition by the court.

i. The person performing the duties of intake officer shall file a report at least annually with the court listing the number of informal adjustments made during the reporting time, the conditions imposed in each case, the number of informal adjustments resulting in dismissal without the filing of a petition, and the number of informal adjustments resulting in the filing of a petition upon the original complaint.

2. An informal adjustment agreement may require the child to perform a work assignment of value to the state or to the public or require the child to make restitution consisting of a monetary payment to the victim or a work assignment directly of value to the victim.

PART 4
JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

232.35 Filing of petition.

1 A formal judicial proceeding to determine whether a child has committed a delinquent act shall be initiated by the filing by the county attorney of a petition alleging that a child has committed a delinquent act

2 If the intake officer determines that a complaint is legally sufficient for the filing of a petition alleging that a child has committed a delinquent act and that the filing of a petition would be in the best interests of the child and the community, the officer shall submit a written request for the filing of a petition to the county attorney. The county attorney may grant or deny the request of the intake officer for the filing of a petition. A determination by the county attorney that a petition should not be filed shall be final

3 If the intake officer determines that a complaint is not legally sufficient for the filing of a petition or that the filing of a petition would not be in the best interests of the child and the community, the officer shall notify the complainant of the officer's determination and the reasons for such determination, and shall advise the complainant that the complainant may submit the complaint to the county attorney for review. Upon receiving a request for review, the county attorney shall consider the facts presented by the complainant, consult with the intake officer and make the final determination as to whether a petition should be filed. In the absence of a request by the complainant for a review of the intake officer's determination that a petition should not be filed, the officer's determination shall be final

232.36 Contents of petition.

1 The petition and subsequent court documents shall be entitled "In the interests of _____, a child"

2 The petition shall be verified and any statements in the petition may be made upon information and belief

3 The petition shall set forth plainly a The name, age, and residence of the child who is the subject of the petition

b The names and residences of any

- (1) Living parent of the child
- (2) Guardian of the child
- (3) Legal custodian of the child
- (4) Guardian ad litem

c With reasonable particularity, the time, place and manner of the delinquent act alleged and the penal law allegedly violated by such act

4 If any of the facts required under subsection 3, paragraphs "a" and "b" are not known by the petitioner, the petition shall so state

5 The petition shall set forth plainly the nearest known relative of the child if no parent or guardian can be found

232.37 Summons, notice, subpoenas and service — order for removal.

1 After a petition has been filed the court shall set a time for an adjudicatory hearing and unless the parties named in subsection 2 voluntarily appear, shall issue a summons requiring the child to appear before the court at a time and place stated and requiring the person who has custody or control of the child to appear before the court and to bring the child with the person at that time. The summons shall attach a copy of the petition and shall give notification of the right to counsel provided for in section 232 11

2 Notice of the pendency of the case shall be served upon the known parents, guardians or legal custodians of a child if these persons are not summoned to appear as provided in subsection 1. Notice shall also be served upon the child and upon the child's guardian ad litem, if any. The notice shall attach a copy of the petition and shall give notification of the right to counsel provided for in section 232 11

3 Upon request of the child who is identified in the petition as a party to the proceeding, the child's parent, guardian or custodian, a county attorney or on the court's own motion, the court or the clerk of the court shall issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of papers at any hearing under this division

4 Service of summons or notice shall be made personally by the delivery of a copy of the summons or notice to the person being served. If the court determines that personal service of a summons or notice is impracticable, the court may order service by certified mail addressed to the last known address or by publication or both. Service of summons or notice shall be made not less than five days before the time fixed for hearing. Service of summons, notice, subpoenas or other process, after an initial valid summons or notice, shall be made in accordance with the rules of the court governing such service in civil actions

5 If a person personally served with a summons or subpoena fails without reasonable cause to appear or to bring the child, the person may be proceeded against for contempt of court or the court may issue an order for the arrest of such person or both the arrest of the person and the taking into custody of the child

6 The court may issue an order for the removal of the child from the custody of the child's parent, guardian or custodian when there exists an immediate threat that the parent, guardian or custodian will flee the state with the child, or when it appears that the child's immediate removal is necessary to avoid imminent danger to the child's life or health

232.38 Presence of parents at hearings.

1. Any hearings or proceedings under this division subsequent to the filing of a petition shall not take place without the presence of one or both of the child's parents, guardian or custodian except that a hearing or proceeding may take place without such presence if the parent, guardian or custodian fails to appear after reasonable notification, or if the court finds that a reasonably diligent effort has been made to notify the child's parent, guardian, or custodian, and the effort was unavailing.

2. In any such hearings or proceedings the court may temporarily excuse the presence of the parent, guardian or custodian when the court deems it in the best interests of the child. Counsel for the parent, guardian or custodian shall have the right to participate in a hearing or proceeding during the absence of the parent, guardian or custodian.

232.39 Exclusion of public from hearings.

At any time during the proceedings, the court, on the motion of any of the parties or upon the court's own motion, may exclude the public from hearings under this division if the court determines that the possibility of damage or harm to the child outweighs the public's interest in having an open hearing. Upon closing the hearing to the public, the court may admit those persons who have direct interest in the case or in the work of the court.

232.40 Other issues adjudicated.

When it appears during the course of any hearing or proceeding that some action or remedy other than those indicated by the application or pleading is appropriate, the court, with the consent of all necessary parties, may proceed to hear and determine the additional or other issues as though originally properly sought and pleaded.

232.41 Reporter required.

Stenographic notes or mechanical or electronic recordings shall be taken of all court hearings held pursuant to this division unless waived by the parties. The child shall not be competent to waive the reporting requirement, but waiver may be made for the child by the child's counsel or guardian ad litem. Matters which must be reported under the provisions of this section shall be reported in the same manner as required in section 624.9.

232.42 Continuances.

1. Continuances in juvenile delinquency proceedings may be granted by the court only for good cause shown on the record if the child is being held in detention.

2. Where the child requests a continuance of proceedings, the court, in an order granting the continuance, may suspend the time limitations imposed on the state by this division for a period of time not to exceed the length of the continuance.

232.43 Answer — plea agreement — acceptance of plea admitting allegations of petition.

1. A written answer to a delinquency petition need not be filed by the child, but any matters which might be set forth in an answer or other pleading may be filed in writing or pleaded orally before the court.

2. The county attorney and the child's counsel may mutually consider a plea agreement which contemplates entry of a plea admitting the allegations of the petition in the expectation that other charges will be dismissed or not filed or that a specific disposition will be recommended by the county attorney and granted by the court. Any plea discussion shall be open to the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian.

3. The court shall not accept a plea admitting the allegations of the petition without first addressing the child personally in court, determining that the plea is voluntary and not the result of any force or threats or promises other than promises made in connection with a plea agreement and informing the child of and determining that the child understands the following:

a. The nature of the allegations of the petition to which the plea is offered.

b. The severest possible disposition and the maximum length of such disposition which the court may order if the court accepts the plea.

c. The child has the right to deny the allegations of the petition.

d. If the child admits the allegations of the petition the child waives the right to a further adjudicatory hearing.

4. The court shall not accept a plea admitting the allegations of the petition without first addressing the county attorney and the child's counsel in court and making an inquiry into whether such a plea is the result of a plea agreement. The court shall require the disclosure of the terms of any such agreement in court. If a plea agreement has been reached which contemplates entry of the plea in the expectation that the court will order a specific disposition or dismiss other charges against the child before the court, the court shall state to the parties whether the court will concur in the proposed disposition or dismissal of charges. If the court will not concur in such disposition or dismissal, the court should advise the child personally of this fact, advise the child that the disposition of the case may be less favorable to the child than that contemplated by the plea agreement, and afford the child the opportunity to withdraw the plea. If the court defers decision as to whether the court will concur with the proposed disposition or dismissal until there has been an opportunity to consider the predisposition report, the court shall advise the child that the court is not bound by the plea agreement and afford the child the opportunity to withdraw the plea

5 The court shall not accept a plea admitting the allegations of the petition without a Determining that there is a factual basis for the plea.

b Determining that the child was given effective assistance of counsel prior to tender of the plea

c Inquiring of the parent or parents who are present in court whether they agree as to the course of action that their child has chosen. If either parent expresses disagreement with the plea, the court may refuse to accept that plea

6 If the court determines that a plea is not in the child's best interest it may refuse to accept that plea regardless of the agreement of the parties.

232.44 Detention or shelter care hearing — release from detention upon change of circumstance.

1 A hearing shall be held within forty-eight hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, of the time of the child's admission to a shelter care facility, and within twenty four hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, of the time of a child's admission to a detention facility. If the hearing is not held within the time specified, the child shall be released from shelter care or detention. Prior to the hearing a petition shall be filed, except where the child is already under the supervision of a juvenile court under a prior judgment

2 The county attorney or a juvenile court officer may apply for a hearing at any time after the petition is filed to determine whether the child who is the subject of the petition should be placed in detention or shelter care. The court may upon the application or upon its own motion order such hearing

3 A notice shall be served upon the child, the child's attorney, the child's guardian ad litem if any, and the child's known parent, guardian, or custodian not less than twelve hours before the time the hearing is scheduled to begin and in a manner calculated fairly to apprise the parties of the time, place, and purpose of the hearing. If the court finds that there has been reasonably diligent effort to give notice to a parent, guardian, or custodian and that the effort has been unavailing, the hearing may proceed without the notice having been served

4 At the hearing the court shall admit only testimony and other evidence relevant to the determination of whether there is probable cause to believe the child has committed the act as alleged in the petition and to the determination of whether the placement of the child in detention or shelter care is authorized under section 232 21 or 232 22. Any written reports or records made available to the court at the hearing shall be made available to the parties. A copy of the petition shall be given to each of the parties at or before the hearing

a If the court finds that there is not probable cause to believe that the child is a child within the jurisdiction of the court under this chapter, it shall release the child and dismiss the petition

b If the court finds that detention or shelter care is not authorized under section 232 21 or 232 22, or is authorized but not warranted in a particular case, the court shall order the child's release, and in so doing, may impose one or more of the following conditions

(1) Place the child in the custody of a parent, guardian or custodian under that person's supervision, or under the supervision of an organization which agrees to supervise the child

(2) Place restrictions on the child's travel, association, or place of residence during the period of release

(3) Impose any other condition deemed reasonably necessary and consistent with the grounds for detaining children specified in section 232 21 or 232 22, including a condition requiring that the child return to custody as required

c An order releasing a child on conditions specified in this section may be amended at any time to impose equally or less restrictive conditions. The order may be amended to impose additional or more restrictive conditions, or to revoke the release, if the child has failed to conform to the conditions originally imposed

6 If the court finds that there is probable cause to believe that the child is within the jurisdiction of the court under this chapter and that full time detention or shelter care is authorized under section 232 21 or 232 22, it may issue an order authorizing either shelter care or detention until the adjudicatory hearing is held or for a period not exceeding seven days whichever is shorter

7 If a child held in shelter care or detention by court order has not been released after a detention hearing or has not appeared at an adjudicatory hearing before the expiration of the order of detention, an additional hearing shall automatically be scheduled for the next court day following the expiration of the order. The child, the child's counsel, the child's guardian ad litem, and the child's parent, guardian or custodian shall be notified of this hearing not less than twenty-four hours before the hearing is scheduled to take place

8 A child held in a detention or shelter care facility under order of court after a hearing may be released upon a showing that a change of circumstances makes continued detention unnecessary

9 A written request for the release of the child, setting forth the changed circumstances, may be filed by the child, by a responsible adult on the child's behalf, by the child's custodian, or by the juvenile court officer

10 Based upon the facts stated in the request for release the court may grant or deny the request without a hearing, or may order that a hearing be held at a date, time and place determined by the court. Notice of the hearing shall be given to the child and the child's custodian or counsel. Upon receiving evidence at the hearing, the court may release the child to the child's custodian or other suitable person, or may deny the request and remand the child to the detention or shelter care facility.

11. This section does not apply to a child placed in accordance with section 232.78, 232.79, or 232.95.

[C79, 81, §232.44; 82 Acts, ch 1209, §9, 10]

87 Acts, ch 149, §5

232.45 Waiver hearing and waiver of jurisdiction.

1. After the filing of a petition which alleges that a child has committed a delinquent act on the basis of an alleged commission of a public offense and before an adjudicatory hearing on the merits of the petition is held, the county attorney or the child may file a motion requesting the court to waive its jurisdiction over the child for the alleged commission of the public offense.

2. The court shall hold a waiver hearing on all such motions.

3. A notice that states the time, place, and purpose of the waiver hearing shall be issued and served in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings as provided in section 232.37. Summons, subpoenas and other process may be issued and served in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings as provided in section 232.37.

4. Prior to the waiver hearing, the juvenile probation officer or other person or agency designated by the court shall conduct an investigation for the purpose of collecting information relevant to the court's decision to waive its jurisdiction over the child for the alleged commission of the public offense and shall submit a report concerning the investigation to the court. The report shall include any recommendations made concerning waiver. Prior to the hearing the court shall provide the child's counsel and the county attorney with access to the report and to all written material to be considered by the court.

5. At the waiver hearing all relevant and material evidence shall be admitted.

6. At the conclusion of the waiver hearing the court may waive its jurisdiction over the child for the alleged commission of the public offense if all of the following apply:

a. The child is fourteen years of age or older.

b. The court determines, or has previously determined in a detention hearing under section 232.44, that there is probable cause to believe that the child has committed a delinquent act which would constitute the public offense.

c. The court determines that the state has established that there are not reasonable prospects for rehabilitating the child if the juvenile court retains jurisdiction over the child and the child is adjudicated to have committed the delinquent act, and that waiver of the court's jurisdiction over the child for the alleged commission of the public offense would be in the best interests of the child and the community.

7. In making the determination required by subsection 6, paragraph "c", the factors which the court shall consider include but are not limited to the following:

a. The nature of the alleged delinquent act and the circumstances under which it was committed.

b. The nature and extent of the child's prior contacts with juvenile authorities, including past efforts of such authorities to treat and rehabilitate the child and the response to such efforts.

c. The programs, facilities and personnel available to the juvenile court for rehabilitation and treatment of the child, and the programs, facilities and personnel which would be available to the court that would have jurisdiction in the event the juvenile court waives its jurisdiction so that the child can be prosecuted as an adult.

8. If at the conclusion of the hearing the court waives its jurisdiction over the child for the alleged commission of the public offense, the court shall make and file written findings as to its reasons for waiving its jurisdiction.

9. If the court waives jurisdiction, statements made by the child after being taken into custody and prior to intake are admissible as evidence in chief against the child in subsequent criminal proceedings provided that the statements were made with the advice of the child's counsel or after waiver of the child's right to counsel and provided that the court finds the child had voluntarily waived the right to remain silent. Other statements made by a child are admissible as evidence in chief provided that the court finds the statements were voluntary. In making its determination, the court may consider any factors it finds relevant and shall consider the following factors:

a. Opportunity for the child to consult with a parent, guardian, custodian, lawyer or other adult.

b. The age of the child.

c. The child's level of education.

d. The child's level of intelligence.

e. Whether the child was advised of the child's constitutional rights.

f. Length of time the child was held in shelter care or detention before making the statement in question.

g. The nature of the questioning which elicited the statement.

h. Whether physical punishment such as deprivation of food or sleep was used upon the child during the shelter care, detention, or questioning.

Statements made by the child during intake or at a waiver hearing held pursuant to this section are not admissible as evidence in chief against the child in subsequent criminal proceedings over the child's objection in any event.

10. If the court waives its jurisdiction over the child for the alleged commission of the public offense so that the child may be prosecuted as an adult, the judge who made the waiver decision shall not preside at any subsequent proceedings in connection with that prosecution if the child objects.

11. The waiver does not apply to other delinquent acts which are not alleged in the delinquency petition presented at the waiver hearing.

12. If a child who is alleged to have delivered, manufactured, or possessed with intent to deliver or manufacture, a controlled substance except marijuana, as defined in chapter 204, is waived to district court for prosecution, the mandatory minimum sentence provided in section 204.413 shall not be imposed if a conviction is had; however, each child convicted of such an offense shall be confined for not less than thirty days in a secure facility.

Upon application of a person charged or convicted under the authority of this subsection, the district court shall order the records in the case sealed if:

a. Five years have elapsed since the final discharge of that person; and

b. The person has not been convicted of a felony or an aggravated or serious misdemeanor, or adjudicated a delinquent for an act which if committed by an adult would be a felony, or an aggravated or serious misdemeanor since the final discharge of that person.

1. At any time after the filing of a petition and prior to entry of an order of adjudication pursuant to section 232.47, the court may suspend the proceedings on motion of the county attorney or the child's counsel, enter a consent decree, and continue the case under terms and conditions established by the court. These terms and conditions may include the supervision of the child by a juvenile court officer or other agency or person designated by the court and may include the requirement that the child perform a work assignment of value to the state or to the public or make restitution consisting of a monetary payment to the victim or a work assignment directly of value to the victim.

2. A consent decree shall not be entered unless the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian is informed of the consequences of the decree by the court and the court determines that the child has voluntarily and intelligently agreed to the terms and conditions of the decree. If the county attorney objects to the entry of a consent decree, the court shall proceed to determine the appropriateness of entering a consent decree after consideration of any objections or reasons for entering such a decree.

3. A consent decree shall remain in force for six months unless the child is sooner discharged by the court or by the juvenile court officer or other agency or person supervising the child. Upon application of a juvenile court officer or other agency or person supervising the child made prior to the expiration of the decree and after notice and hearing, or upon agreement by the parties, a consent decree may be extended for an additional six months by order of the court.

4. When a child has complied with the express terms and conditions of the consent decree for the required amount of time or until earlier dismissed as provided in subsection 3, the original petition may not be reinstated. However, failure to so comply may result in the child's being thereafter held accountable as if the consent decree had never been entered.

5. A child who is discharged or who completes a period of continuance without the reinstatement of the original petition shall not be proceeded against in any court for a delinquent act alleged in the petition.

232.47 Adjudicatory hearing – findings – adjudication.

1. If a child denies the allegations of the petition, that child may be found to be delinquent only after an adjudicatory hearing conducted in accordance with the provisions of this section.

2. The court shall hear and adjudicate all cases involving a petition alleging a child to have committed a delinquent act.

3. The child shall have the right to adjudication by an impartial finder of fact. A judge of the juvenile court may not serve as the finder of fact over objection of the child based upon a showing of prejudice on the part of the judge. In the event that a judge is disqualified from serving as a finder of fact under this provision, a substitute judge shall serve as the finder of fact.

4. At an adjudicatory hearing the state shall have the burden of proving the allegations of the petition.

5. Only evidence which is admissible under the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of criminal cases shall be admitted at the hearing except as otherwise provided by this section.

6. Statements or other evidence derived directly or indirectly from statements which a child makes to a law enforcement officer while in custody without presence of counsel may be admitted into evidence at an adjudicatory hearing over the child's objection only after the court determines whether the child has voluntarily waived the right to remain silent. In making its determination the court may consider any factors it finds relevant and shall consider the following factors:

a. Opportunity for the child to consult with a parent, guardian, custodian, lawyer or other adult.

b. The age of the child.

c. The child's level of education.

d. The child's level of intelligence.

e. Whether the child was advised of the child's constitutional rights.

f. Length of time the child was held in shelter care or detention before making the statement in question.

g. The nature of the questioning which elicited the statement.

h. Whether physical punishment such as deprivation of food or sleep was used upon the child during the shelter care, detention, or questioning.

7. The following statements or other evidence shall not be admitted as evidence in chief at an adjudicatory hearing:

a. Statements or other evidence derived directly or indirectly from statements which a child makes to a juvenile intake officer without the presence of counsel subsequent to the filing of a complaint and prior to adjudication unless the child and the child's attorney consent to the admission of such statements or evidence

b. Statements which the child makes to a juvenile probation officer or other person conducting a predisposition investigation during such an investigation

8. At the conclusion of an adjudicatory hearing, the court shall make a finding as to whether the child has committed a delinquent act. The court shall make and file written findings as to the truth of the specific allegations of the petition and as to whether the child has engaged in delinquent conduct

9. If the court finds that the child did not engage in delinquent conduct, the court shall enter an order dismissing the petition

10. If the court finds that the child did engage in delinquent conduct, the court may enter an order adjudicating the child to have committed a delinquent act. The child shall be presumed to be innocent of the charges and no finding that a child has engaged in delinquent conduct may be made unless the state has proved beyond a reasonable doubt that the child engaged in such behavior

11. If the court enters an order adjudicating the child to have committed a delinquent act, the court may issue an order authorizing either shelter care or detention until the dispositional hearing is held

232.48 Predisposition investigation and report.

1. The court shall not make a disposition of the matter following the entry of an order of adjudication pursuant to section 232.47 until a predisposition report has been submitted to and considered by the court

2. After a petition is filed, the court shall direct a juvenile court officer or any other agency or individual to conduct a predisposition investigation and to prepare a predisposition report. The investigation and report shall cover all of the following

a. The social history, environment and present condition of the child and the child's family

b. The performance of the child in school

c. The presence of child abuse and neglect histories, learning disabilities, physical impairments and past acts of violence

d. Other matters relevant to the child's status as a delinquent, treatment of the child or proper disposition of the case

3. No predisposition report shall be submitted to or considered by the court prior to the completion of the adjudicatory hearing without the consent of the child and the child's counsel

4. A predisposition report shall not be disclosed except as provided in this section and in division VIII of this chapter. The court shall permit the child's attorney to inspect the predisposition report prior to consideration by the court. The court may order counsel not to disclose parts of the report to the child, or to the child's parent, guardian, guardian ad litem, or custodian if the court finds that disclosure would seriously harm the treatment or rehabilitation of the child

232.49 Physical and mental examinations.

1. Following the entry of an order of adjudication under section 232.47 the court may, after a hearing which may be simultaneous with the adjudicatory hearing, order a physical or mental examination of the child if it finds that an examination is necessary to determine the child's physical or mental condition. The court may consider chemical dependency as either a physical or mental condition and may consider a chemical dependency evaluation as either a physical or mental examination

2. When possible an examination shall be conducted on an out patient basis, but the court may, if it deems necessary, commit the child to a suitable hospital, facility or institution for the purpose of examination. Commitment for examination shall not exceed thirty days and the civil commitment provisions of chapter 229 shall not apply

3. At any time after the filing of a delinquency petition the court may order a physical or mental examination of the child if the following circumstances apply

a. The court finds such examination to be in the best interest of the child, and

b. The parent, guardian or custodian and the child's counsel agree

An examination shall be conducted on an out patient basis unless the court, the child's counsel and the parent, guardian or custodian agree that it is necessary the child be committed to a suitable hospital, facility or institution for the purpose of examination. Commitment for examination shall not exceed thirty days and the civil commitment provisions of chapter 229 shall not apply 232.50 Dispositional hearing.

1. As soon as practicable following the entry of an order of adjudication pursuant to section 232.47, the court shall hold a dispositional hearing in order to determine what disposition should be made of the matter

2. The court shall hold a periodic dispositional review hearing for each child in placement pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraph "d" or "e", to determine the future disposition status of the child. The hearings shall not be waived or continued beyond eighteen months after the last dispositional hearing or dispositional review hearing

3. At dispositional hearings under this section all relevant and material evidence shall be admitted

4. When a dispositional hearing under this section is concluded the court shall enter an order to make any one or more of the dispositions authorized under section 232.52.

232.51 Disposition of mentally ill or mentally retarded child.

If the evidence received at an adjudicatory or a dispositional hearing indicates that the child is mentally ill, the court may direct the juvenile court officer or the department to initiate proceedings or to assist the child's parent or guardian to initiate civil commitment proceedings in the juvenile court. These proceedings in the juvenile court shall adhere to the requirements of chapter 229. If the evidence received at an adjudicatory or a dispositional hearing indicates that the child is mentally retarded, the court may direct the juvenile court officer or the department to initiate proceedings or to assist the child's parent or guardian to initiate civil commitment proceedings in the juvenile court. These proceedings shall adhere to the requirements of chapter 222. If the child is committed as a mentally ill or mentally retarded child, any order adjudicating the child to have committed a delinquent act shall be set aside and the petition shall be dismissed.

232.52 Disposition of child found to have committed a delinquent act.

1. Pursuant to a hearing as provided in section 232.50, the court shall enter the least restrictive dispositional order appropriate in view of the seriousness of the delinquent act, the child's culpability as indicated by the circumstances of the particular case, the age of the child and the child's prior record. The order shall specify the duration and the nature of the disposition, including the type of residence or confinement ordered and the individual, agency, department or facility in whom custody is vested.

2. The dispositional orders which the court may enter subject to its continuing jurisdiction are as follows:

a. An order prescribing one or more of the following:

(1) A work assignment of value to the state or to the public.

(2) Restitution consisting of monetary payment or a work assignment of value to the victim.

(3) If the child is fourteen years of age or older, restitution consisting of monetary payment or a work assignment of value to the county or to the public for fees of attorneys appointed to represent the child at public expense pursuant to section 232.11.

An order under paragraph "a" may be the sole disposition or may be included as an element in other dispositional orders.

b. An order placing the child on probation and releasing the child to the child's parent, guardian or custodian.

c. An order providing special care and treatment required for the physical, emotional or mental health of the child, and

(1) Placing the child on probation or other supervision; and

(2) If the court deems appropriate, ordering the parent, guardian, or custodian to reimburse the county for any costs incurred as provided in section 232.141, subsection 5 or to otherwise pay or provide for such care and treatment.

d. An order transferring the legal custody of the child, subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the court for purposes of section 232.54, to one of the following:

(1) An adult relative or other suitable adult and placing the child on probation.

(2) A child placing agency or other suitable private agency or facility which is licensed or otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for children and placing the child on probation or other supervision.

(3) The department of human services for purposes of foster care and prescribing the type of placement which will serve the best interests of the child and the means by which the placement shall be monitored by the court. The court shall consider ordering placement in family foster care as an alternative to group foster care.

e. An order transferring the guardianship of the child, subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the court for the purposes of section 232.54, to the director of the department of human services for purposes of placement in the state training school or other facility provided that:

(1) The child is at least twelve years of age; and

(2) The court finds such placement to be in the best interests of the child or necessary to the protection of the public.

f. An order committing the child to a mental health institute or other appropriate facility for the purpose of treatment of a mental or emotional condition after making findings pursuant to the standards set out for involuntary commitment in chapter 229.

3. When the court enters an order placing a child on probation pursuant to this section, the court may in cases of change of residency transfer jurisdiction of the child to the juvenile court of the county where the child's residence is established. The court to which the jurisdiction of the child is transferred shall have the same powers with respect to the child as if the petition had originally been filed in that court.

4. When the court enters an order transferring the legal and physical custody of a child to an agency, facility, department or institution, the court shall transmit its order, its finding, and a summary of its information concerning the child to such agency, facility, department or institution.

5. If the court orders the transfer of custody of the child to the department of human services or other agency for placement, the department or agency responsible for the placement of the child shall submit a case permanency plan to the court and shall make every effort to return the child to the child's home as quickly as possible.

6. When the court orders the transfer of legal custody of a child pursuant to subsection 2, paragraphs "d", "e", or "f", the order shall state that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home.

7. If the court orders the transfer of the custody of the child to the department of human services or to another agency for placement in foster group care, the department or agency shall make every reasonable effort to place the child within the state, in the least restrictive setting available and in close proximity to the parents' home, consistent with the child's best interests and special needs.

232.53 Duration of dispositional orders.

1. Any dispositional order entered by the court pursuant to section 232.52 shall remain in force for an indeterminate period or until the child becomes eighteen years of age unless otherwise specified by the court or unless sooner terminated pursuant to the provisions of section 232.54. No dispositional order made under section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraph "e" shall remain in force longer than the maximum possible duration of the sentence which may be imposed on an adult for the commission of the act which the child has been found by the court to have committed.

2. All dispositional orders entered prior to the child attaining the age of seventeen years and six months shall automatically terminate when the child becomes eighteen years of age. Dispositional orders entered subsequent to the child attaining the age of seventeen years and six months and prior to the child's eighteenth birthday shall automatically terminate one year after the date of disposition. In the case of an adult within the jurisdiction of the court under the provisions of section 232.8, subsection 1, the dispositional order shall automatically terminate one year after the last date upon which jurisdiction could attach.

3. Notwithstanding section 242.13, a child committed to the training school subsequent to the child attaining the age of seventeen years and six months and prior to the child's eighteenth birthday may be held at the school beyond the child's eighteenth birthday pursuant to subsection 2 provided that the training school makes application to and receives permission from the committing court. This extension shall be for the purpose of completion by the child of a course of instruction established for the child pursuant to section 242.4 and cannot extend for more than one year beyond the date of disposition.

4. Any person supervising but not having custody of the child pursuant to such an order shall file a written report with the court at least every six months concerning the status and progress of the child.

Any agency, facility, institution or person to whom custody of the child has been transferred pursuant to such order shall file a written report with the court at least every six months concerning the status and progress of the child.

232.54 Termination, modification, or vacation and substitution of dispositional order.

At any time prior to its expiration, a dispositional order may be terminated, modified, or vacated and another dispositional order substituted therefor only in accordance with the following provisions:

1. With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraph "a", "b" or "c" and upon the motion of a child, a child's parent or guardian, a child's guardian ad litem, a person supervising the child under a dispositional order, a county attorney, or upon its own motion, the court may terminate the order and discharge the child, modify the order, or vacate the order and substitute another order pursuant to the provisions of section 232.52. Notice shall be afforded all parties, and a hearing shall be held at the request of any party.

2. With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraphs "d", and "e", the court shall grant a motion of the person to whom custody has been transferred for termination of the order and discharge of the child, for modification of the order by imposition of less restrictive conditions, or for vacation of the order and substitution of a less restrictive order unless there is clear and convincing evidence that there has not been a change of circumstance sufficient to grant the motion. Notice shall be afforded all parties, and a hearing shall be held at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion.

3. With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraphs "d", or "e" or "f", the court shall grant a motion of a person or agency to whom custody has been transferred for modification of the order by transfer to an equally restrictive placement, unless there is clear and convincing evidence that there has not been a change of circumstance sufficient to grant the motion. Notice shall be afforded all parties, and a hearing shall be held at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion.

4. With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraphs "d", "e" or "f", the court may, after notice and hearing, either grant or deny a motion of the child, the child's parent or guardian, or the child's guardian ad litem, to terminate the order and discharge the child, to modify the order either by imposing less restrictive conditions or by transfer to an equally or less restrictive placement, or to vacate the order and substitute a less restrictive order. A motion may be made pursuant to this paragraph no more than once every six months.

5 With respect to a dispositional order made pursuant to section 232.52, subsection 2, paragraphs "d" and "e", the court may, after notice and a hearing at which there is presented clear and convincing evidence to support such an action, either grant or deny a motion by a county attorney or by a person or agency to whom custody has been transferred, to modify an order by imposing more restrictive conditions or to vacate the order and substitute a more restrictive order.

Notice requirements of this section shall be satisfied in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings as provided in section 232.37. At a hearing under this section all relevant and material evidence shall be admitted.

232.55 Effect of adjudication and disposition.

1 An adjudication or disposition in a proceeding under this division shall not be deemed a conviction of a crime and shall not impose any civil disabilities or operate to disqualify the child in any civil service application or appointment.

2 Adjudication and disposition proceedings under this division are not admissible as evidence against a person in a subsequent proceeding in any other court before or after the person reaches majority except in a sentencing proceeding after conviction of the person for an offense other than a simple or serious misdemeanor. Adjudication and disposition proceedings may properly be included in a presentence investigation report prepared pursuant to chapter 901 and section 906.5.

However, the use of adjudication and disposition proceedings pursuant to this subsection shall be subject to the restrictions contained in section 232.150.

DIVISION III

CHILD IN NEED OF ASSISTANCE PROCEEDINGS

PART 1

232.61 Jurisdiction.

1 The juvenile court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over proceedings under this chapter alleging that a child is a child in need of assistance.

2 In determining such jurisdiction the age and marital status of the child at the time the proceedings are initiated is controlling.

232.62 Venue.

1 Venue for child in need of assistance proceedings shall be in the judicial district where the child is found or in the judicial district of the child's residence.

2 The court may transfer any child in need of assistance proceedings brought under this chapter to the juvenile court of any county having venue at any stage in the proceedings as follows:

a. When it appears that the best interests of the child or the convenience of the proceedings shall be served by a transfer, the court may transfer the case to the court of the county of the child's residence.

b. With the consent of the receiving court, the court may transfer the case to the court of the county where the child is found.

3 The court shall transfer the case by ordering the transfer and a continuance and by forwarding to the clerk of the receiving court a certified copy of all papers filed together with an order of transfer. The judge of the receiving court may accept the filings of the transferring court or may direct the filing of a new petition and hear the case anew.

CHILD ABUSE REPORTING
INVESTIGATION AND REHABILITATION

232.67 Legislative findings — purpose and policy.

Children in this state are in urgent need of protection from abuse. It is the purpose and policy of this part 2 of division III to provide the greatest possible protection to victims or potential victims of abuse through encouraging the increased reporting of suspected cases of such abuse, insuring the thorough and prompt investigation of these reports, and providing rehabilitative services, where appropriate and whenever possible to abused children and their families which will stabilize the home environment so that the family can remain intact without further danger to the child.

232.70 Reporting procedure.

1 Each report made by a mandatory reporter, as defined in section 232 69, subsection 1, shall be made both orally and in writing Each report made by a permissive reporter, as defined in section 232 69, subsection 2, may be oral, written, or both

2 The oral report shall be made by telephone or otherwise to the department of human services If the person making the report has reason to believe that immediate protection for the child is advisable, that person shall also make an oral report to an appropriate law enforcement agency

3 The written report shall be made to the department of human services within forty eight hours after such oral report

4 The department of human services shall a Immediately, upon receipt of an oral report, make a determination as to whether the report constitutes an allegation of child abuse as defined in section 232 68, b Make a report to the central registry if the oral report has been determined to constitute a child abuse allegation, c Forward a copy of the written report to the registry, and d Notify the appropriate county attorney of the receipt of any report

5 The oral and written reports shall contain the following information, or as much thereof as the person making the report is able to furnish a The names and home address of the child and the child's parents or other persons believed to be responsible for the child's care, b The child's present whereabouts if not the same as the parent's or other person's home address,

c The child's age, d The nature and extent of the child's injuries, including any evidence of previous injuries, e The name, age and condition of other children in the same home, f Any other information which the person making the report believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the injury to the child, the identity of the person or persons responsible for the injury, or in providing assistance to the child, and

g The name and address of the person making the report

6 A report made by a permissive reporter, as defined in section 232 69, subsection 2, shall be regarded as a report pursuant to this chapter whether or not the report contains all of the information required by this section and may be made to the department of human services, county attorney, or law enforcement agency If the report is made to any agency other than the department of human services, such agency shall promptly refer the report to the department of human services

232.71 Duties of the department upon receipt of report.

1 Whenever a report is determined to constitute a child abuse allegation, the department of human services shall promptly commence an appropriate investigation The primary purpose of this investigation shall be the protection of the child named in the report

2 The investigation shall include a Identification of the nature, extent and cause of the injuries, if any, to the child named in the report, b The identification of the person or persons responsible therefor, c The name, age and condition of other children in the same home as the child named in the report,

d An evaluation of the home environment and relationship of the child named in the report and any other children in the same home as the parents or other persons responsible for their care

3 The investigation may with the consent of the parent or guardian include a visit to the home of the child or with the consent of the administrator of a facility include a visit to the facility providing care to the child named in the report and examination of the child If permission to enter the home or facility and to examine the child is refused, the juvenile court or district court upon a showing of probable cause may authorize the person making the investigation to enter the home or facility and examine the child The department may utilize a multidisciplinary team in investigations of child abuse involving employees or agents of a facility providing care for a child

4 Based on an investigation of alleged child abuse by an employee of a facility providing care to a child, the department shall notify the licensing authority for the facility, the governing body of the facility, and the administrator in charge of the facility of any of the following a A violation of facility policy noted in the investigation

b An instance in which facility policy or lack of facility policy may have contributed to the alleged child abuse

c An instance in which general practice in the facility appears to differ from the facility's written policy

The licensing authority, the governing body, and the administrator in charge of the facility shall take any lawful action which may be necessary or advisable to protect children residing in the facility

5 The department of human services may request information from any person believed to have knowledge of a child abuse case The county attorney, any law enforcement or social services agency in the state, and any mandatory reporter shall cooperate and assist in the investigation upon the request of the department of human services. The county attorney and appropriate law enforcement agencies shall also take any other lawful action which may be necessary or advisable for the protection of the child.

6 Administrators of all public and nonpublic schools subject to the authority of the department of education shall cooperate with the investigators by providing confidential access to the child named in the report, and to other children alleged to have relevant information, for the purposes of interviews. The investigators shall determine who shall be present at the interviews. The school administrators are under no duty to report the investigation or interview to the child's parent or guardian. The immunity granted by section 232 73 applies to such administrators and their school districts.

7 The department, upon completion of its investigation, shall make a preliminary report of its investigation as required by subsection 2. A copy of this report shall be transmitted to juvenile court within ninety six hours after the department initially receives the abuse report unless the juvenile court grants an extension of time for good cause shown. If the preliminary report is not a complete report, a complete report shall be filed within ten working days of the receipt of the abuse report, unless the juvenile court grants an extension of time for good cause shown. The department shall notify a subject of the report of the result of the investigation, of the subject's right to correct the information pursuant to section 235A 19, and of the procedures to correct the information. The juvenile court shall notify the registry of any action it takes with respect to a suspected case of child abuse.

8 The department of human services shall transmit a copy of the report of its investigation, including actions taken or contemplated, to the registry. The department of human services shall make periodic follow up reports thereafter in a manner prescribed by the registry so that the registry is kept up to date and fully informed concerning the handling of a suspected case of child abuse.

9 The department of human services shall also transmit a copy of the report of its investigation to the county attorney. The county attorney shall notify the registry of any actions or contemplated actions with respect to a suspected case of child abuse so that the registry is kept up to date and fully informed concerning the handling of such a case.

10 Based on the investigation conducted pursuant to this section, the department shall offer to the family of any child believed to be the victim of abuse such services as appear appropriate for either the child, the family, or both, if it is explained that the department has no legal authority to compel such family to receive such services.

11 If, upon completion of the investigation, the department of human services determines that the best interests of the child require juvenile court action, the department shall take the appropriate action to initiate such action under this chapter. The county attorney shall assist the county department of human services in the preparation of the necessary papers to initiate such action and shall appear and represent the department at all juvenile court proceedings.

12 The department of human services shall assist the juvenile court or district court during all stages of court proceedings involving a suspected child abuse case in accordance with the purposes of this chapter.

13 The department of human services shall provide for or arrange for and monitor rehabilitative services for abused children and their families on a voluntary basis or under a final or intermediate order of the juvenile court.

14 In every case involving child abuse which results in a child protective judicial proceeding, whether or not the proceeding arises under this chapter, a guardian ad litem shall be appointed by the court to represent the child in the proceedings. Before a guardian ad litem is appointed pursuant to this section, the court shall require the person responsible for the care of the child to complete under oath a detailed financial statement. If, on the basis of that financial statement, the court deems that the person responsible for the care of the child is able to bear the cost of the guardian ad litem, the court shall so order. In cases where the person responsible for the care of the child is unable to bear the cost of the guardian ad litem, the expense shall be paid out of the county treasury.

15 If a fourth report is received from the same person who made three earlier unfounded reports which identified the same child as the abused child and the same person responsible for the child as the alleged abuser, the department may determine that the report is again unfounded due to the report's spurious or frivolous nature and may in its discretion terminate its investigation.

16 The department may request criminal history data from the department of public safety on any person believed to be responsible for an injury to a child which, if confirmed, would constitute child abuse. The department shall establish procedures for determining when a criminal history records check under this subsection is necessary.

232.72 Jurisdiction — transfer.

"Department of human services" or "county attorney" ordinarily refer to the local or county office serving the county in which the child's home is located.

However, if the person making the report pursuant to this chapter does not know where the child's home is located, or if the child's home is not located in the service area where the health practitioner examines, attends, or treats the child, the report may be made to the state department of human services or to the local office serving the county where the person making the report resides or the county where the health practitioner examines, attends, or treats the child. These agencies shall promptly proceed as provided in section 232.71, unless the matter is transferred as provided in this section.

If the child's home is located in a county not served by the office receiving the report, the department shall promptly transfer the matter by transmitting a copy of the report of injury and any other pertinent information to the office and the county attorney serving the other county. They shall promptly proceed as provided in section 232.71.

PART 3 TEMPORARY REMOVAL OF A CHILD

232.78 Temporary removal of a child pursuant to ex parte court order.

1. The juvenile court may enter an ex parte order directing a peace officer to remove a child from the child's home or a child day care facility before or after the filing of a petition under this chapter provided all of the following apply:

a. The parent, guardian, legal custodian, or employee of the child day care facility is absent, or though present, was asked and refused to consent to the removal of the child and was informed of an intent to apply for an order under this section, or the parent, guardian, or legal custodian has a prior instance of flight to avoid a child abuse investigation.

b. It appears that the child's immediate removal is necessary to avoid imminent danger to the child's life or health.

c. There is not enough time to file a petition and hold a hearing under section 232.95.

2. The order shall specify the facility to which the child is to be brought. Except for good cause shown or unless the child is sooner returned to the place where the child was residing or permitted to return to the child day care facility, a petition shall be filed under this chapter within three days of the issuance of the order

3 The juvenile court may enter an order authorizing a physician or hospital to provide emergency medical or surgical procedures before the filing of a petition under this chapter provided a Such procedures are necessary to safeguard the life and health of the child, and

b There is not enough time to file a petition under this chapter and hold a hearing as provided in section 232 95

4 The juvenile court, before or after the filing of a petition under this chapter, may enter an ex parte order authorizing a physician or hospital to conduct an outpatient physical examination or authorizing a physician, a psychologist certified under section 154B 7, or a community mental health center accredited pursuant to chapter 230A to conduct an outpatient mental examination of a child if necessary to identify the nature, extent, and cause of injuries to the child as required by section 232 71, subsection 2, provided all of the following apply

a The parent, guardian, or legal custodian is absent, or though present, was asked and refused to provide written consent to the examination

b The juvenile court has entered an ex parte order directing the removal of the child from the child's home or a child day care facility under this section

c There is not enough time to file a petition and to hold a hearing as provided in section 232 98

5 Any person who may file a petition under this chapter may apply for, or the court on its own motion may issue, an order for temporary removal under this section An appropriate person designated by the court shall confer with a person seeking the removal order, shall make every reasonable effort to inform the parent or other person legally responsible for the child's care of the application, and shall make such inquiries as will aid the court in disposing of such application

232.79 Removal without court order.

1 A peace officer may remove a child from the child's home or a child day care facility or a physician treating a child may keep the child in custody without a court order as required under section 232 78 and without the consent of a parent, guardian, or custodian provided that both of the following apply a The child is in such circumstance or condition that the child's continued presence in the residence or the child day care facility or in the care or custody of the parent, guardian, or custodian presents an imminent danger to the child's life or health

b There is not enough time to apply for an order under section 232 78

2 If a person authorized by this section removes or retains custody of a child, the person shall

a Bring the child immediately to a place designated by the rules of the court for this purpose, unless the person is a physician treating the child and the child is or will presently be admitted to a hospital

b Make every reasonable effort to inform the parent, guardian, or custodian of the whereabouts of the child

c Promptly inform the court in writing of the emergency removal and the circumstances surrounding the removal

3 Any person, agency, or institution acting in good faith in the removal or keeping of a child pursuant to this section, and any employer of or person under the direction of such a person, agency, or institution, shall have immunity from any civil or criminal liability that might otherwise be incurred or imposed as the result of such removal or keeping

4 When the court is informed that there has been an emergency removal or keeping of a child without a court order, the court shall direct the department of human services or the juvenile probation department to make every reasonable effort to communicate immediately with the child's parent or parents or other person legally responsible for the child's care The court shall also authorize the department of human services or the juvenile probation department to cause a child thus removed or kept to be returned if it concludes there is not an imminent risk to the child's life and health in so doing If the child is not returned, the department of human services or the juvenile probation department shall forthwith cause a petition to be filed within three days after the removal

5 When there has been an emergency removal or keeping of a child without a court order, a physical examination of the child by a licensed medical practitioner shall be performed within twenty four hours of such removal, unless the child is returned to the child's home within twenty four hours of the removal

A homemaker home health aide may be assigned to give care to a child in the child's place of residence Whenever possible, the services shall be provided in preference to removal of the child from the home The care may be provided under this Act on an emergency basis for up to twenty four hours without court order, and may be ordered by the court for a period of time extending until dismissal or disposition of the case

232.81 Complaint.

1 Any person having knowledge of the circumstances may file a complaint with the person or agency designated by the court to perform intake duties alleging that a child is a child in need of assistance

2 Upon receipt of a complaint, the court may request the department of human services, juvenile probation office, or other authorized agency or individual to conduct a preliminary investigation of the complaint to determine if further action should be taken.

3. A petition alleging the child to be a child in need of assistance may be filed pursuant to section 232.87 provided the allegations of the complaint, if proven, are sufficient to establish the court's jurisdiction and the filing is in the best interests of the child.

4. A person or agency shall not maintain any records with regard to a complaint filed under division III of this chapter which is dismissed without the filing of a petition. This subsection does not apply to records maintained pursuant to chapter 235A.

1. Notwithstanding section 561.15, if it is alleged by a person authorized to file a petition under section 232.87, subsection 2, or by the court on its own motion, that a parent, guardian, custodian, or an adult member of the household in which a child resides has committed a sexual offense with or against the child, pursuant to chapter 709 or section 726.2, the juvenile court may enter an ex parte order requiring the alleged sexual offender to vacate the child's residence upon a showing that probable cause exists to believe that the sexual offense has occurred and that substantial evidence exists to believe that the presence of the alleged sexual offender in the child's residence presents a danger to the child's life or physical, emotional, or mental health.

2. If an order is entered under subsection 1 and a petition has not yet been filed under this chapter, the petition shall be filed under section 232.87 by the county attorney, the department of human services, or a juvenile court officer within three days of the entering of the order.

3. The juvenile court may order on its own motion, or shall order upon the request of the alleged sexual offender, a hearing to determine whether the order to vacate the residence should be upheld, modified, or vacated. The juvenile court may in any later child in need of assistance proceeding uphold, modify, or vacate the order to vacate the residence.

PART 4

232.87 Filing of a petition — contents of petition.

1. A formal judicial proceeding to determine whether a child is a child in need of assistance under this chapter shall be initiated by the filing of a petition alleging a child to be a child in need of assistance.

2. A petition may be filed by the department of human services, juvenile court officer, or county attorney.

3. The department, juvenile court officer, county attorney or judge may authorize the filing of a petition with the clerk of the court by any competent person having knowledge of the circumstances without the payment of a filing fee.

4. The petition shall be submitted in the form specified in section 232.36.

5. The petition shall contain the information specified in section 232.36 and a clear and concise summary of the facts which bring the child within the jurisdiction of the court under this division.

232.88 Summons, notice, subpoenas and services.

After a petition has been filed the court shall issue and serve summons, notice, subpoenas and other process in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings in cases of juvenile delinquency as provided in section 232.37.

232.89 Right to and appointment of counsel.

1 Upon the filing of a petition the parent, guardian or custodian identified in the petition shall have the right to counsel in connection with all subsequent hearings and proceedings. If that person desires but is financially unable to employ counsel, the court shall appoint counsel.

2 Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall appoint counsel and a guardian ad litem for the child identified in the petition as a party to the proceedings. Counsel shall be appointed as follows:

a. If the child is represented by counsel and the court determines there is a conflict of interest between the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian and that the retained counsel could not properly represent the child as a result of the conflict, the court shall appoint other counsel to represent the child, who shall be compensated pursuant to the provisions of subsection 3.

b. If the child is not represented by counsel, the court shall either order the parent, guardian or custodian to retain counsel for the child or shall appoint counsel for the child, who shall be compensated pursuant to the provisions of subsection 3.

3 The court shall determine, after giving the parent, guardian or custodian an opportunity to be heard, whether such person has the ability to pay in whole or in part for counsel appointed for the child. If the court determines that such person possesses sufficient financial ability, the court shall then consult with the department of human services, the juvenile probation office or other authorized agency or individual regarding the likelihood of impairment of the relationship between the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian as a result of ordering the parent, guardian or custodian to pay for the child's counsel. If impairment is deemed unlikely, the court shall order that person to pay such sums as the court finds appropriate in the manner and to whom the court directs. If the person so ordered fails to comply with the order without good reason, the court shall enter judgment against the person. If impairment is deemed likely or if the court determines that the parent, guardian or custodian cannot pay any part of the expenses of counsel appointed to represent the child, counsel shall be reimbursed pursuant to section 232.141, subsection 1, paragraph "b".

4 The same person may serve both as the child's counsel and as guardian ad litem. However, the court may appoint a separate guardian ad litem, if the same person cannot properly represent the legal interests of the child as legal counsel and also represent the best interest of the child as guardian ad litem.

5 The court may appoint a special advocate, as defined in section 232.2, subsection 9A, to act as guardian ad litem. The court appointed special advocate shall receive notice of and may attend all depositions, hearings, and trial proceedings to support the child and advocate for the protection of the child. The court appointed special advocate shall not be allowed to separately introduce evidence or to directly examine or cross examine witnesses. However, the court appointed special advocate shall file reports to the court as required by the court.

232.90 Duties of county attorney.

The county attorney shall represent the state in proceedings arising from a petition filed under this division and shall present evidence in support of the petition. The county attorney shall be present at proceedings initiated by petition under this division filed by an intake officer or the county attorney, or if a party to the proceedings contests the proceedings, or if the court determines there is a conflict of interest between the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian or if there are contested issues before the court.

232.91 Presence of parents and guardian ad litem at hearings.

Any hearings or proceedings under this division subsequent to the filing of a petition shall not take place without the presence of the child's parent, guardian, custodian, or guardian ad litem in accordance with and subject to section 232.38. A parent without custody may petition the court to be made a party to proceedings under this division.

232.92 Exclusion of public from hearings.

The court shall exclude and admit persons to hearings and proceedings under this division in accordance with and subject to the provisions of section 232.39.

232.93 Other issues adjudicated.

When it appears during the course of any hearing or proceeding that some action or remedy other than those indicated by the application or pleading appears appropriate, the court may, provided all necessary parties consent, proceed to hear and determine the other issues as though originally properly sought and pleaded.

232.94 Reporter required.

Stenographic notes or electronic or mechanical recordings shall be taken of all court hearings held pursuant to this division unless waived by the parties. The child shall not be competent to waive the reporting requirement, but waiver may be made for the child by the child's counsel or guardian ad litem. Matters which must be reported under the provisions of this section shall be reported in the same manner as required in section 624.9.

232.94A Records — subsequent hearings.

Juvenile court records, social records, and the material required to be recorded pursuant to section 232.94 shall be maintained and shall be a part of each hearing relating to the child so long as and whenever the child is a child in need of assistance.

232.95 Hearing concerning temporary removal.

1. At any time after the petition is filed any person who may file a petition under section 232.87 may apply for, or the court on its own motion may order, a hearing to determine whether the child should be temporarily removed from home. Where the child is in the custody of a person other than the child's parent, guardian or custodian as the result of action taken pursuant to section 232.78 or 232.79, the court shall hold a hearing to determine whether the temporary removal should be continued.

2. Upon such hearing, the court may:

a. Remove the child from home and place the child in a shelter care facility or in the custody of a suitable person or agency pending a final order of disposition if the court finds that substantial evidence exists to believe that removal is necessary to avoid imminent risk to the child's life or health.

If removal is ordered, the order shall, in addition, contain a statement that removal from the home is the result of a determination that continuation therein would be contrary to the welfare of the child, and that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home.

b. Release the child to the child's parent, guardian or custodian pending a final order of disposition.

c. Authorize a physician or hospital to provide medical or surgical procedures if such procedures are necessary to safeguard the child's life or health.

3. The court shall make and file written findings as to the grounds for granting or denying an application under this section.

4. If the court orders the child removed from the home pursuant to subsection 2, paragraph "a", the court shall hold a hearing to review the removal order within six months unless a dispositional hearing pursuant to section 232.99 has been held.

84 Acts, ch 1279, §13; 86 Acts, ch 1186, §8; 87 Acts, ch 159, §2

232.96 Adjudicatory hearing.

1. The court shall hear and adjudicate cases involving a petition alleging a child to be a child in need of assistance.

2. The state shall have the burden of proving the allegations by clear and convincing evidence.

3. Only evidence which is admissible under the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of civil cases shall be admitted, except as otherwise provided by this section.

4. A report made to the department of human services pursuant to chapter 235A shall be admissible in evidence, but such a report shall not alone be sufficient to support a finding that the child is a child in need of assistance unless the attorneys for the child and the parents consent to such a finding.

5. Neither the privilege attaching to confidential communications between a health practitioner or mental health professional and patient nor the prohibition upon admissibility of communications between husband and wife shall be ground for excluding evidence at an adjudicatory hearing.

6. A report, study, record, or other writing or an audiotape or videotape recording made by the department of human services, a juvenile court officer, a peace officer or a hospital relating to a child in a proceeding under this division is admissible notwithstanding any objection to hearsay statements contained in it provided it is relevant and material and provided its probative value substantially outweighs the danger of unfair prejudice to the child's parent, guardian, or custodian. The circumstances of the making of the report, study, record or other writing or an audiotape or videotape recording, including the maker's lack of personal knowledge, may be proved to affect its weight.

7. After the hearing is concluded, the court shall make and file written findings as to the truth of allegations of the petition and as to whether the child is a child in need of assistance.

8. If the court concludes facts sufficient to sustain a petition have not been established by clear and convincing evidence or if the court concludes that its aid is not required in the circumstances, the court shall dismiss the petition.

9. If the court concludes that facts sufficient to sustain the petition have been established by clear and convincing evidence and that its aid is required, the court may enter an order adjudicating the child to be a child in need of assistance.

10. If the court enters an order adjudicating the child to be a child in need of assistance, the court, if it has not previously done so, may issue an order authorizing temporary removal of the child from the child's home as set forth in section 232.95, subsection 2, paragraph "a", pending a final order of disposition.

232.97 Social investigation and report.

1. The court shall not make a disposition of the petition until two working days after a social report has been submitted to the court and counsel for the child and has been considered by the court. The court may waive the two-day requirement upon agreement by all the parties. The court may direct either the juvenile court officer or the department of human services or any other agency licensed by the state to conduct a social investigation and to prepare a social report which may include any evidence provided by an individual providing foster care for the child. A report prepared shall include any founded reports of child abuse.

2. The social investigation may be conducted and the social history may be submitted to the court prior to the adjudication of the child as a child in need of assistance with the consent of the parties

3 The social report shall not be disclosed except as provided in this section and except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Prior to the hearing at which the disposition is determined, the court shall permit counsel for the child, counsel for the child's parent, guardian or custodian, and the guardian ad litem to inspect any social report to be considered by the court. The court may in its discretion order counsel not to disclose parts of the report to the child, or to the parent, guardian or custodian if disclosure would seriously harm the treatment or rehabilitation of the child or would violate a promise of confidentiality given to a source of information.

232.98 Physical and mental examinations.

1 Except as provided in section 232 78, subsection 4, a physical or mental examination of the child may be ordered only after the filing of a petition pursuant to section 232 87 and after a hearing to determine whether an examination is necessary to determine the child's physical or mental condition. The court may consider chemical dependency as either a physical or mental condition and may consider a chemical dependency evaluation as either a physical or mental examination.

The hearing required by this section may be held simultaneously with the adjudicatory hearing.

An examination ordered prior to the adjudication shall be conducted on an outpatient basis when possible, but if necessary the court may commit the child to a suitable nonsecure hospital, facility, or institution for the purpose of examination for a period not to exceed fifteen days if all of the following are found to be present:

a. Probable cause exists to believe that the child is a child in need of assistance pursuant to section 232 2, subsection 6, paragraph "e" or "f"

b. Commitment is necessary to determine whether there is clear and convincing evidence that the child is a child in need of assistance.

c. The child's attorney agrees to the commitment.

An examination ordered after adjudication shall be conducted on an outpatient basis when possible, but if necessary the court may commit the child to a suitable nonsecure hospital, facility, or institution for the purpose of examination for a period not to exceed thirty days.

The child's parent, guardian, or custodian shall be included in counseling sessions offered during the child's stay in a hospital, facility, or institution when feasible, and when in the best interests of the child and the child's parent, guardian, or custodian. If separate counseling sessions are conducted for the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian, a joint counseling session shall be offered prior to the release of the child from the hospital, facility, or institution. The court shall require that notice be provided to the child's guardian ad litem of the counseling sessions and of the participants and results of the sessions.

2 Following an adjudication that a child is a child in need of assistance, the court may after a hearing order the physical or mental examination of the parent, guardian or custodian if that person's ability to care for the child is at issue.

232.99 Dispositional hearing – findings.

1 Following the entry of an order pursuant to section 232 96, the court shall, as soon as practicable, hold a dispositional hearing in order to determine what disposition should be made of the petition.

2 All relevant and material evidence shall be admitted.

3 When the dispositional hearing is concluded the court shall make the least restrictive disposition appropriate considering all the circumstances of the case. The dispositions which may be entered under this division are listed in sections 232 100 to 232 102 in order from least to most restrictive.

4 The court shall make and file written findings as to its reason for the disposition.

232.100 Suspended judgment.

After the dispositional hearing the court may enter an order suspending judgment and continuing the proceedings subject to terms and conditions imposed to assure the proper care and protection of the child. Such terms and conditions may include the supervision of the child and of the parent, guardian or custodian by the department of human services, juvenile court office or other appropriate agency designated by the court. The maximum duration of any term or condition of a suspended judgment shall be twelve months unless the court finds at a hearing held during the last month of that period that exceptional circumstances require an extension of the term or condition for an additional six months.

232.101 Retention of custody by parent.

1 After the dispositional hearing, the court may enter an order permitting the child's parent, guardian or custodian at the time of the filing of the petition to retain custody of the child subject to terms and conditions which the court prescribes to assure the proper care and protection of the child. Such terms and conditions may include supervision of the child and the parent, guardian or custodian by the department of human services, juvenile court office or other appropriate agency which the court designates. Such terms and conditions may also include the provision or acceptance by the parent, guardian or custodian of special treatment or care.

which the child needs for the child's physical or mental health. If the parent, guardian or custodian fails to provide the treatment or care, the court may order the department of human services or some other appropriate state agency to provide such care or treatment.

2 The duration of any period of supervision or other terms or conditions shall be for an initial period of no more than eighteen months and the court, at the expiration of that period, upon a hearing and for good cause shown, may make not more than two successive extensions of such supervision or other terms or conditions of up to twelve months each.

232.102 Transfer of legal custody of child and placement.

1 After a dispositional hearing the court may enter an order transferring the legal custody of the child to one of the following for purposes of placement:

a. A relative or other suitable person

b. A child placing agency or other suitable private agency, facility or institution which is licensed or otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child

c. The department of human services

2 After a dispositional hearing and upon the request of the department, the court may enter an order appointing the department as the guardian of an unaccompanied refugee child or of a child without parent or guardian.

3 After a dispositional hearing and upon written findings of fact based upon evidence in the record that an alternative placement set forth in subsection 1, paragraph "b" has previously been made and is not appropriate the court may enter an order transferring the guardianship of the court for the purposes of subsection 7, to the commissioner of human services for the purposes of placement in the Iowa Juvenile Home at Toledo.

4 Whenever possible the court should permit the child to remain at home with the child's parent, guardian or custodian. Custody of the child should not be transferred unless the court finds there is clear and convincing evidence that:

a. The child cannot be protected from physical abuse without transfer of custody, or

b. The child cannot be protected from some harm which would justify the adjudication of the child as a child in need of assistance and an adequate placement is available.

The order shall, in addition, contain a statement that removal from the home is the result of a determination that continuation therein would be contrary to the welfare of the child, and that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child from the child's home.

5 The child shall not be placed in the state training school.

6 In any order transferring custody to the department or an agency, or in orders pursuant to a custody order, the court shall specify the nature and category of disposition which will serve the best interests of the child, and shall prescribe the means by which the placement shall be monitored by the court. If the court orders the transfer of the custody of the child to the department of human services or other agency for placement, the department or agency shall submit a case permanency plan to the court and shall make every effort to return the child to the child's home as quickly as possible consistent with the best interest of the child. When the child is not returned to the child's home and if the child has been previously placed in a licensed foster care facility, the department or agency shall consider placing the child in the same licensed foster care facility. If the court orders the transfer of custody to a relative or other suitable person, the court may direct the department or other agency to provide services to the child's parent, guardian or custodian in order to enable them to resume custody of the child. If the court orders the transfer of custody to the department of human services or to another agency for placement in foster group care, the department or agency shall make every reasonable effort to place the child within Iowa, in the least restrictive setting available, and in close proximity to the parents' home, consistent with the child's best interests and special needs.

7 An agency, facility, institution, or person to whom custody of the child has been transferred pursuant to this section shall file a written report with the court at least every six months concerning the status and progress of the child. The court shall hold a periodic dispositional review hearing for each child in placement pursuant to this section in order to determine whether the child should be returned home, an extension of the placement should be made, a permanency hearing should be held, or a termination of the parent child relationship proceeding should be instituted. The placement shall be terminated and the child returned to the child's home if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the child will not suffer harm in the manner specified in section 232 2, subsection 6. If the placement is extended, the court shall determine whether additional services are necessary to facilitate the return of the child to the child's home, and if the court determines such services are needed, the court shall order the provision of such services. When the child is not returned to the child's home and if the child has been previously placed in a licensed foster care facility, the department or agency responsible for the placement of the child shall consider placing the child in the same licensed foster care facility.

a. The initial dispositional review hearing shall not be waived or continued beyond six months after the date of the dispositional hearing.

b. Subsequent dispositional review hearings shall not be waived or continued beyond twelve months after the date of the most recent dispositional review hearing.

c. For purposes of this subsection, a hearing held pursuant to section 232.103 or 232.104 satisfies the requirements for initial or subsequent dispositional review.

232.103 Termination, modification, vacation and substitution of dispositional order.

1. At any time prior to expiration of a dispositional order and upon the motion of an authorized party or upon its own motion as provided in this section, the court may terminate the order and discharge the child, modify the order, or vacate the order and make a new order.

2. The following persons shall be authorized to file a motion to terminate, modify or vacate and substitute a dispositional order:

- a. The child.
- b. The child's parent, guardian or custodian, except that such motion may be filed by that person not more often than once every six months except with leave of court for good cause shown.
- c. The child's guardian ad litem.
- d. A person supervising the child pursuant to a dispositional order.
- e. An agency, facility, institution or person to whom legal custody has been transferred pursuant to a dispositional order.
- f. The county attorney.

3. A hearing shall be held on a motion to terminate or modify a dispositional order except that a hearing on a motion to terminate an order may be waived upon agreement by all parties. Reasonable notice of the hearing shall be given in the same manner as for adjudicatory hearings in cases of juvenile delinquency as provided in section 232.37. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 232.50.

4. The court may terminate an order and release the child if the court finds that the purposes of the order have been accomplished and the child is no longer in need of supervision, care or treatment.

5. The court may modify or vacate an order for good cause shown provided that where the request to modify or vacate is based on the child's alleged failure to comply with the conditions or terms of the order, the court may modify or vacate the order only if it finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that the child violated a material and reasonable condition or term of the order.

6. If the court vacates the order it may make any other order in accordance with and subject to the provisions of sections 232.100 to 232.102.

232.104 Permanency hearing.

1. If custody of a child has been transferred for placement pursuant to section 232.102 for a period of twelve months, or if the prior legal custodian of a child has abandoned efforts to regain custody of the child, the court shall, on its own motion, or upon application by any interested party, hold a hearing to consider the issue of the establishment of permanency for the child.

Such a permanency hearing may be held concurrently with a hearing to review, modify, substitute, vacate, or terminate a dispositional order. Reasonable notice of a permanency hearing in a case of juvenile delinquency shall be provided pursuant to section 232.37. A permanency hearing shall be conducted in substantial conformance with the provisions of section 232.99. During the hearing the court shall consider the child's need for a secure and permanent placement in light of any permanency plan or evidence submitted to the court. Upon completion of the hearing the court shall enter written findings and make a determination based upon the permanency plan which will best serve the child's individual interests at that time.

2. After a permanency hearing the court shall do one of the following:

- a. Enter an order pursuant to section 232.102 to return the child to the child's home.
- b. Enter an order pursuant to section 232.102 to continue placement of the child for an additional six months at which time the court shall hold a hearing to consider modification of its permanency order.
- c. Direct the county attorney or the attorney for the child to institute proceedings to terminate the parent-child relationship.
- d. Enter an order, pursuant to findings required by subsection 3, to do one of the following:
 - (1) Transfer guardianship and custody of the child to a suitable person.
 - (2) Transfer sole custody of the child from one parent to another parent.
 - (3) Transfer custody of the child to a suitable person for the purpose of long-term care.
 - (4) Order long-term foster care placement for the child in a licensed foster care home or facility.

3. Prior to entering a permanency order pursuant to subsection 2, paragraph "d", convincing evidence must exist showing that all of the following apply:

- a. A termination of the parent-child relationship would not be in the best interest of the child.
- b. Services were offered to the child's family to correct the situation which led to the child's removal from the home.
- c. The child cannot be returned to the child's home.

4. Any permanency order may provide restrictions upon the contact between the child and the child's parent or parents, consistent with the best interest of the child.

5. Subsequent to the entry of a permanency order pursuant to this section, the child shall not be returned to the care, custody, or control of the child's parent or parents, over a formal objection filed by the child's attorney or guardian ad litem, unless the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence, that returning the child to such custody would be in the best interest of the child

6 Following the entry of a permanency order which places a child in the custody or guardianship of another person or agency, the court shall retain jurisdiction and annually review the order to ascertain whether the best interest of the child is being served. When such order places the child in the custody of the department for the purpose of long term foster care placement in a facility, the review shall be in a hearing that shall not be waived or continued beyond twelve months after the permanency hearing or the last review hearing. Any modification shall be accomplished through a hearing procedure following reasonable notice. During the hearing, all relevant and material evidence shall be admitted and procedural due process shall be provided to all parties.

232.105 through 232.108 Reserved

DIVISION IV

TERMINATION OF PARENTCHILD RELATIONSHIP PROCEEDING

232.109 Jurisdiction.

The juvenile court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over proceedings under this chapter to terminate a parent child relationship and all parental rights with respect to a child. No such termination shall be ordered except under the provisions of this chapter if the court has made an order concerning the child pursuant to the provisions of division III of this chapter and the order is in force at the time a petition for termination is filed.

232.110 Venue.

1 Venue for termination proceedings under this chapter shall be in the judicial district where the child is found or the judicial district where the child resides except as otherwise provided in subsection 2.

2 If a court has made an order concerning the child pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and the order is still in force at the time the termination petition is filed, such court shall hear and adjudicate the case unless the court transfers the case.

3 The judge may transfer the case to the juvenile court of any county having venue in accordance with the provisions of section 232 62.

232.111 Petition.

1 A child's guardian or custodian, the department of human services, a juvenile court officer or the county attorney may file a petition for termination of the parent child relationship and parental rights with respect to a child.

2 The department, juvenile court officer, county attorney or judge may authorize any competent person having knowledge of the circumstances to file a termination petition with the clerk of the court without the payment of a filing fee.

3 A petition for termination of parental rights shall include the following:

a. The legal name, age, and domicile, if any, of the child.

b. The names, residences, and domicile of any:

- (1) Living parents of the child
- (2) Guardian of the child
- (3) Custodian of the child
- (4) Guardian ad litem of the child
- (5) Petitioner
- (6) Person standing in the place of the parents of the child.

c. A plain statement of those facts and grounds specified in section 232 116 which indicate that the parent child relationship should be terminated.

d. A plain statement explaining why the petitioner does not know any of the information required under paragraphs "a" and "b" of this subsection.

e. The signature and verification of the petitioner [C79, 81, §232 111].

1 Persons listed in section 232 111, subsection 3, shall be necessary parties to a termination of parent child relationship proceeding and are entitled to receive notice and an opportunity to be heard, except that notice may be dispensed with in the case of any such person whose name or whereabouts the court determines is unknown and cannot be ascertained by reasonably diligent search.

2 Prior to the service of notice on the necessary parties, the juvenile court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for a child if the child does not have a guardian or guardian ad litem or if the interests of the guardian or guardian ad litem conflict with the interests of the child. Such guardian ad litem shall be a necessary party under subsection 1.

3 Notice under this section shall be served personally or shall be sent by restricted certified mail, whichever is determined by the court to be the most effective means of notification. Such notice shall be made according to the rules of civil procedure relating to an original notice where not inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Notice by personal delivery shall be served not less than seven days prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights. Notice by restricted certified mail shall be sent not less than fourteen days prior to the hearing on termination of parental rights. A notice by restricted certified mail which is refused by the necessary party given notice shall be sufficient notice to the party under this section.

232.113 Right to and appointment of counsel.

1 Upon the filing of a petition the parent identified in the petition shall have the right to counsel in connection with all subsequent hearings and proceedings. If the parent desires but is financially unable to employ counsel, the court shall appoint counsel.

2. Upon the filing of a petition the court shall appoint counsel for the child identified in the petition as a party to the proceedings. The same person may serve both as the child's counsel and as guardian ad litem.

232.114 Duties of county attorney.

Upon the filing of a petition the county attorney shall represent the state in all adversary proceedings arising under this division and shall present evidence in support of the petition.

232.115 Reporter required.

Stenographic notes or electronic or mechanical recordings shall be taken of all court hearings held pursuant to this division unless waived by the parties. The child shall not be competent to waive the reporting requirement, but waiver may be made for the child by the child's counsel or guardian ad litem. Matters which must be reported under the provisions of this section shall be reported in the same manner as required in section 624.9.

232.116 Grounds for termination.

1. Except as provided in subsection 3, the court may order the termination of both the parental rights with respect to a child and the relationship between the parent and the child on any of the following grounds:

a. The parents voluntarily and intelligently consent to the termination of parental rights and the parent-child relationship and for good cause desire the termination.

b. The court finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that the child has been abandoned.

c. The court finds that all of the following have occurred:

(1) One or both parents have physically or sexually abused the child.

(2) The court has previously adjudicated the child to be a child in need of assistance after finding the child to have been physically or sexually abused as the result of the acts or omissions of one or both parents, or the court has previously adjudicated a child who is a member of the same family to be a child in need of assistance after such a finding.

(3) There is clear and convincing evidence that the parents were offered but refused services or failed to cooperate to correct the situation which led to the abuse or that the parents had received services to correct the situation which led to the abuse but the services did not correct the abusive situation.

d. The court finds that all of the following have occurred:

(1) The child has been adjudicated a child in need of assistance pursuant to section 232.96.

(2) The custody of the child has been transferred from the child's parents for placement pursuant to section 232.102 and the placement has lasted for a period of at least six consecutive months.

(3) There is clear and convincing evidence that the child cannot be returned to the custody of the child's parents as provided in section 232.102.

(4) There is clear and convincing evidence that the parents have not maintained contact with the child during the previous six consecutive months and have made no reasonable efforts to resume care of the child despite being given the opportunity to do so.

e. The court finds that all of the following have occurred:

(1) The child has been adjudicated a child in need of assistance pursuant to section 232.96.

(2) The custody of the child has been transferred from the child's parents for placement pursuant to section 232.102 for at least twelve of the last eighteen months.

(3) There is clear and convincing evidence that the child cannot be returned to the custody of the child's parents as provided in section 232.102.

f. The court finds that all of the following have occurred:

(1) The child has been adjudicated a child in need of assistance pursuant to section 232.96.

(2) The court has terminated parental rights pursuant to section 232.117 with respect to another child who is a member of the same family.

(3) There is clear and convincing evidence that the child cannot be returned to or placed in the custody of the child's parents.

(4) There is clear and convincing evidence that the parent continues to lack the ability or willingness to respond to services which would correct the situation.

(5) There is clear and convincing evidence that an additional period of rehabilitation would not correct the situation.

2. In considering whether to terminate the rights of a parent under this section, the court shall give primary consideration to the physical, mental, and emotional condition and needs of the child. Such consideration may include any of the following:

a. Whether the parent's ability to provide the needs of the child is affected by the parent's mental capacity or mental condition or the parent's imprisonment for a felony.

b. For a child who has been placed in foster family care by a court or has been voluntarily placed in foster family care by a parent or by another person, whether the child has become integrated into the foster family to the extent that the child's familial identity is with the foster family, and whether the foster family is able and willing to permanently integrate the child into the foster family. In considering integration into a foster family, the court shall review the following:

(1) The length of time the child has lived in a stable, satisfactory environment and the desirability of maintaining that environment and continuity for the child.

(2) The reasonable preference of the child, if the court determines that the child has sufficient capacity to express a reasonable preference

3 The court need not terminate the relationship between the parent and child if the court finds any of the following

a. A relative has legal custody of the child

b The child is over ten years of age and objects to the termination

c There is clear and convincing evidence that the termination would be detrimental to the child at the time due to the closeness of the parent child relationship

d It is necessary to place the child in a hospital, facility, or institution for care and treatment and the continuation of the parent child relationship is not preventing a permanent family placement for the child

e The absence of a parent is due to the parent's admission or commitment to any institution, hospital, or health facility or due to active service in the state or federal armed forces

232.117 Termination – findings – disposition.

1 After the hearing is concluded the court shall make and file written findings

2 If the court concludes that facts sufficient to terminate parental rights have not been established by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall dismiss the petition

3 If the court concludes that facts sufficient to sustain the petition have been established by clear and convincing evidence, the court may order parental rights terminated If the court terminates the parental rights of the child's natural or adoptive parents, the court shall transfer the guardianship and custody of the child to one of the following

a. The department of human services

b A child placing agency or other suitable private agency, facility or institution which is licensed or otherwise authorized by law to receive and provide care for the child

c A relative or other suitable person

4 If after a hearing the court does not order the termination of parental rights but finds that there is clear and convincing evidence that the child is a child in need of assistance, under section 232 2, subsection 6, due to the acts or omissions of one or both of the child's parents the court may adjudicate the child to be a child in need of assistance and may enter an order in accordance with the provisions of sections 232 100, 232 101 or 232 102

5 If the court orders the termination of parental rights and transfers guardianship and custody under subsection 3, the department of human services or the agency responsible for the placement shall submit a case permanency plan to the court and shall make every effort to establish a stable placement for the child by adoption or other permanent placement

6 The guardian of each child whose guardianship and custody has been transferred under subsection 3 and who has not been placed for adoption shall file a written report with the court every six months concerning the child's placement The court shall hold a hearing to review the placement at intervals not to exceed six months after the date of the termination of parental rights or the last placement review hearing

7 The guardian of each child whose guardianship and custody has been transferred under subsection 3 and who has been placed for adoption and whose adoption has not been finalized shall file a written report with the court every six months concerning the child's placement The court shall hold a hearing to review the placement at intervals not to exceed twelve months after the date of the adoptive placement or the last placement review hearing

232.118 Removal of guardian.

1 Upon application of an interested party or upon the court's own motion, the court having jurisdiction of the child may, after notice to the parties and a hearing, remove a court appointed guardian and appoint a guardian in accordance with the provisions of section 232 117, subsection 3

2 A child fourteen years of age or older who has not been adopted but who is placed in a satisfactory foster home may, with the consent of the foster parents, join with the guardian appointed by the court in an application to the court to remove the existing guardian and appoint the foster parents as guardians of the child

3 The authority of a guardian appointed by the court terminates when the child reaches the age of majority or is adopted

232.119 Adoption exchange established.

1 The purpose of this section is to facilitate the placement of all children in Iowa who are legally available for adoption through the establishment of an adoption exchange to help find adoptive homes for these children

2 An adoption information exchange is established within the department to be operated by the department or by an individual or agency under contract with the department

a. All special needs children under state guardianship shall be registered on the adoption exchange within sixty days of the termination of parental rights pursuant to section 232 117 or 600A 9 and assignment of guardianship to the director

b Prospective adoptive families requesting a special needs child shall be registered on the adoption exchange upon receipt of an approved home study

3 To register a child on the exchange, the adoption worker or agency shall submit all pertinent information concerning the child, a brief description and photo of the child, and other information needed to be compatible with the national adoption exchange. The exchange shall include a photo-listing book which shall be updated regularly. The adoption worker or agency which places a child on the exchange shall provide updated registration information within ten working days after a change in the information previously submitted occurs.

4. The exchange shall include a matching service for children registered or listed in the adoption photo-listing book and prospective adoptive families listed on the exchange. A child shall be registered with the national exchange if the child has not been placed for adoption after three months on the exchange established pursuant to this section.

5. A request to defer registering the child on the exchange shall be granted if any of the following conditions exist:

- a. The child is in an adoptive placement.
- b. The child's foster parents or another person with a significant relationship is being considered as the adoptive family.
- c. The child needs diagnostic study or testing to clarify the child's problem and provide an adequate description of the problem.
- d. The child is currently hospitalized and receiving medical care that does not permit adoptive placement.
- e. The child is fourteen years of age or older and will not consent to an adoption plan and the consequences of not being adopted have been explained to the child.

Upon receipt of a valid written request for deferral pursuant to paragraphs "a" through "e", the exchange shall grant the deferral, except that a deferral based on paragraph "b" or "c" shall be granted for no more than a one-time, ninety-day period.

FAMILY IN NEED OF ASSISTANCE PROCEEDINGS

232.122 Jurisdiction.

The juvenile court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over family in need of assistance proceedings.

[C79, 81, §232.122]

232.123 Venue.

Venue for family in need of assistance proceedings shall be determined in accordance with section 232.62.

[C79, 81, §232.123]

232.124 Modification of custody decree. Repealed by 83 Acts, ch 186, §10201, 10203, and 83 Acts, ch 21, §3. See §232.3.

232.125 Petition.

1. A family in need of assistance proceeding shall be initiated by the filing of a petition alleging that a child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian are a family in need of assistance.

2. Such a petition may be filed by the child's parent, guardian or custodian or by the child. The judge, county attorney, or juvenile court officer may authorize such parent, guardian, custodian, or child to file a petition with the clerk of the court without the payment of a filing fee.

3. The petition and subsequent court documents shall be entitled "In re the family of"

4. The petition shall state the names and residences of the child, and the child's living parents, guardian, custodian and guardian ad litem, if any and the age of the child.

5. The petition shall allege that there has been a breakdown in the familial relationship and that the petitioner has sought services from public or private agencies to maintain and improve the familial relationship.

[C79, 81, §232.125]

232.126 Appointment of counsel and guardian ad litem.

The court shall appoint counsel or a guardian ad litem to represent the interests of the child at the hearing to determine whether the family is a family in need of assistance unless the child already has such counsel or guardian. The court shall appoint counsel for the parent, guardian or custodian if that person desires but is financially unable to employ counsel.

The court may appoint a special advocate, as defined in section 232.2, subsection 9A, to act as guardian ad litem. The court appointed special advocate shall receive notice of and may attend all depositions, hearings, and trial proceedings to support the child and advocate for the protection of the child. The court appointed special advocate shall not be allowed to separately introduce evidence or to directly examine or cross-examine witnesses. However, the court appointed special advocate shall file reports to the court as required by the court.

232.127 Hearing — adjudication — disposition.

1. Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall fix a time for a hearing and give notice thereof to the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian.

2. A parent without custody may petition the court to be made a party to proceedings under this division.

3. The court shall exclude the general public from such hearing except the court in its discretion may admit persons having a legitimate interest in the case or the work of the court.

4. The hearing shall be informal and all relevant and material evidence shall be admitted.

5. The court may adjudicate the family to be a family in need of assistance and enter an appropriate dispositional order if the court finds:

- a. There has been a breakdown in the relationship between the child and the child's parent, guardian or custodian; and b The child or the child's parent, guardian or custodian has sought services from public or private agencies to maintain and improve the familial relationship, and c The court has at its disposal services for this purpose which can be made available to the family

6 If the court makes such a finding the court may order any or all of the parties to accept counseling and to comply with any other reasonable orders designed to maintain and improve the familial relationship At the conclusion of any counseling ordered by the court, or at any other time deemed necessary, the parties shall be required to meet together and be apprised of the findings and recommendations of such counseling Such an order shall remain in force for a period not to exceed one year unless the court otherwise specifies or sooner terminates the order

7 The court may not order the child placed on probation, in a foster home or in a nonsecure facility unless the child requests and agrees to such supervision or placement In no event shall the court order the child placed in the state training school or other secure facility

8 A child found in contempt of court because of violation of conditions imposed under this section shall not be considered delinquent Such a contempt may be punished by imposition of a work assignment or assignments to benefit the state or a governmental subdivision of the state In addition to or in lieu of such an assignment or assignments, the court may impose one of the dispositions set out in sections 232 100 to 232 102

232.133 Appeal.

1 An interested party aggrieved by an order or decree of the juvenile court may appeal from the court for review of questions of law or fact However, an order adjudicating a child to have committed a delinquent act, entered pursuant to section 232 47, shall not be appealed until the court enters a corresponding dispositional order pursuant to section 232 52

2 The procedure for such appeals shall be governed by the same provisions applicable to appeals from the district court provided that when such order or decree affects the custody of a child the appeal shall be heard at the earliest practicable time

3 The pendency of an appeal or application therefor shall not suspend the order of the juvenile court regarding a child and shall not discharge the child from the custody of the court or the agency, association, facility, institution or person to whom the court has transferred legal custody unless the appellate court otherwise orders on application of an appellant

4 If the appellate court does not dismiss the proceedings and discharge the child, the appellate court shall affirm or modify the order of the juvenile court and remand the child to the jurisdiction of the juvenile court for disposition not inconsistent with the appellate court's finding on the appeal

EXPENSES AND COSTS

232.141 Expenses charged to county.

1 The following expenses upon certification of the judge to the board of supervisors or upon such other authorization as provided by law are a charge upon the county in which the proceedings are held to the extent provided in subsection 8 a The fees and mileage of witnesses and the expenses and mileage of officers serving notices and subpoenas

b Reasonable compensation for an attorney appointed by the court to serve as counsel or guardian ad litem

2 The following expenses upon certification of the judge to the board of supervisors or upon such other authorization as provided by law are a charge upon the county identified pursuant to subsection 4 to the extent provided in subsection 8

a The expenses of transporting a child to a place designated by a child placing agency for the care of a child if the court transfers legal custody to a child placing agency

b The expense of transporting a child to or from a place designated by the court

c The expense of treatment or care ordered by the court under an authority of subsection 3

3 If legal custody of a child is transferred by the court, if a child is placed by the court with someone other than the parents, if a child is given a physical or mental examination or treatment under order of the court, or if a child is given a physical or mental examination or treatment with the consent of the parent, guardian, or legal custodian relating to a child abuse investigation, and no provision is otherwise made by law for payment for the care, examination, or treatment of the child, the costs shall be charged upon the funds of the county identified pursuant to subsection 4

4 The expenses certified under subsection 2 that are the result of a court proceeding shall be a charge upon the county in which the proceedings are held The expenses certified under subsection 2 that are the result of a child abuse investigation and not a court proceeding shall be a charge upon the county in which the child resides

may inquire into the ability of the parents to support the child and, after giving the parents a reasonable opportunity to be heard, may order the parents to pay in the manner and to whom the court may direct, such sums as will cover in whole or in part the cost of care, examination, or treatment of the child. An order entered under this section shall not obligate a parent paying child support under a custody decree, except that any part of such a monthly support payment may be used to satisfy the obligations imposed by an order entered under this section. If the parents fail to pay the sum without good reason, the parents may be proceeded against for contempt or the court may inform the county attorney who shall proceed against the parents to collect the unpaid sums or both remedies may be sought. Any such sums ordered by the court shall be a judgment against each of the parents and a lien as provided in section 624.23. If all or any part of the sums that the parents are ordered to pay is subsequently paid by the county, the judgment and lien shall be against each of the parents in favor of the county to the extent of the county's payments.

6. Upon the issuance of a court order for the care, examination, or treatment of a child, the court shall furnish a copy of the court order to all providers of the care, examination, or treatment.

7. The county charged with the cost and expenses under subsection 1 or pursuant to subsection 4 may recover the costs and expenses from the county where the child has legal settlement by filing verified claims which shall be payable as are other claims against the county. A detailed statement of the facts upon which the claim is based shall accompany the claim. Any dispute involving the legal settlement of a child for which the court has ordered payment under authority of this section shall be settled in accordance with sections 252.22 and 252.23.

8. Costs incurred under this section shall be paid as follows:

a. The costs incurred under the provisions of section 232.52 of prior Codes by each county for the fiscal years beginning July 1, 1975, 1976 and 1977 shall be averaged. The average cost for each county shall be that county's base cost for the first fiscal year after July 1, 1979.

b. Each county shall be required to pay for the first fiscal year after July 1, 1979 an amount equal to its base cost plus an amount equal to the percentage rate of change in the consumer price index as tabulated by the bureau of labor statistics for the current fiscal year times the base cost.

c. A county's base cost for a fiscal year plus the percentage rate of change amount as computed in paragraph "b" shall become that county's base cost for the succeeding fiscal year. The amount to be paid in the succeeding year by the county shall be computed as provided in paragraph "b".

d. The total amounts to be paid by a county shall be computed as provided in paragraphs "a", "b", and "c". For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1987, and subsequent fiscal years, each county's base cost shall be divided into two separate base costs, representing the costs of witness and mileage fees and attorney fees paid pursuant to subsection 1, paragraphs "a" and "b", to be reimbursed by the judicial department, and representing the costs of transportation and treatment or care paid pursuant to subsection 2, paragraphs "a", "b", and "c", to be reimbursed by the department of human services. The ratio of the separate bases for each county shall equal the ratio of expenses identified in subsection 1 to the expenses identified in subsection 2 incurred during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1986 and ending June 30, 1987, and paid by either the county or the state. Costs incurred under this section which are not paid by the county under paragraphs "a", "b" and "c" counties shall apply for reimbursement to the judicial department pursuant to rules adopted by the judicial department. The counties shall apply for reimbursement to the department of human services pursuant to rules adopted by the department.

1. County boards of supervisors which singly or in conjunction with one or more other counties provide and maintain juvenile detention and juvenile shelter care homes are subject to this section.

2. For the purpose of providing and maintaining a county or multicounty home, the board of supervisors of any county may issue general county purpose bonds in accordance with sections 331.441 to 331.449. Expenses for providing and maintaining a multicounty home shall be paid by the counties participating in a manner to be determined by the boards of supervisors.

3. Approved county or multicounty juvenile homes shall be entitled to receive financial aid from the state in the amount and in such manner as determined by the director. Aid paid by the state shall not exceed fifty percent of the total cost of the establishment, improvements, operation, and maintenance of such a home.

4. The director shall adopt minimal rules and standards for the establishment, maintenance, and operation of such homes as shall be necessary to effect the purposes of this chapter. The director shall, upon request, give guidance and consultation in the establishment and administration of such homes and programs for such homes.

5. The director shall approve annually all such homes established and maintained under the provisions of this chapter. No such home shall be approved unless it complies with minimal rules and standards adopted by the director.

RECORDS

232.147 Confidentiality of juvenile court records.

1 Juvenile court records shall be confidential. They shall not be inspected and their contents shall not be disclosed except as provided in this section.

2 Official juvenile court records in cases alleging delinquency shall be public records, subject to sealing under section 232 150. If the court has excluded the public from a hearing under division II of this chapter, the transcript of the proceedings shall not be deemed a public record and inspection and disclosure of the contents of the transcript shall not be permitted except pursuant to court order or unless otherwise provided in this chapter.

3 Official juvenile court records in all cases except those alleging delinquency may be inspected and their contents shall be disclosed to the following without court order:

- a. The judge and professional court staff, including juvenile court officers
- b. The child and the child’s counsel
- c. The child’s parent, guardian or custodian, and guardian ad litem
- d. The county attorney and the county attorney’s assistants
- e. An agency, association, facility or institution which has custody of the child, or is legally responsible for the care, treatment or supervision of the child
- f. A court, court professional staff, and adult probation officers in connection with the preparation of a presentence report concerning a person who prior thereto had been the subject of a juvenile court proceeding
- g. The foster care review committee selected to review recommendations regarding the child’s placement in foster care pursuant to section 234 42

4 Pursuant to court order official records may be inspected by and their contents may be disclosed to:

- a. A person conducting bona fide research for research purposes under whatever conditions the court may deem proper, provided that no personal identifying data shall be disclosed to such a person
- b. Persons who have a direct interest in a proceeding or in the work of the court

5 Inspection of social records and disclosure of their contents shall not be permitted except pursuant to court order or unless otherwise provided in this subsection or chapter.

If an informal adjustment of a complaint is made pursuant to section 232 29, the intake officer shall disclose to the victim of the delinquent act, upon the request of the victim, the name and address of the child who committed the delinquent act.

6 All juvenile court records shall be made available for inspection and their contents shall be disclosed to any party to the case and the party’s counsel and to any trial or appellate court in connection with an appeal pursuant to division VI of this chapter.

232.148 Fingerprints – photographs.

1 Except as provided in this section, a child shall not be fingerprinted or photographed by a criminal justice agency after the child is taken into custody.

2 Fingerprints and photographs of a child who has been taken into custody and who is fourteen years of age or older may be taken and filed by a criminal justice agency investigating the commission of a public offense constituting a felony. However, fingerprint and photograph files of a child who enters into an informal adjustment or consent decree shall be retained only if the child is notified at the time of entering into the informal adjustment or consent decree that the files will be permanently retained by the criminal justice agency.

3 If a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that latent fingerprints found during the investigation of the commission of a public offense are those of a particular child, fingerprints of the child may be taken for immediate comparison with the latent fingerprints regardless of the nature of the offense. If the comparison is negative the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be immediately destroyed. If the comparison is positive and the child is referred to the court, the fingerprint card and other copies of the fingerprints taken shall be delivered to the court for disposition. If the child is not referred to the court, the fingerprint card and copies of the fingerprints shall be immediately destroyed.

4 Fingerprint and photograph files of children shall be kept separate from those of adults. Copies of fingerprints and photographs of a child shall not be placed in any data storage system established and maintained by the department of public safety pursuant to chapter 692, or in any federal depository for fingerprints.

5 Fingerprint and photograph files of children may be inspected by peace officers when necessary for the discharge of their official duties. The juvenile court may authorize other inspections of such files in individual cases upon a showing that inspection is necessary in the public interest.

6 Fingerprints and photographs of a child shall be removed from the file and destroyed if any of the following situations apply:

- a. A petition alleging the child to be delinquent is not filed and the child has not entered into an informal adjustment, admitting involvement in a delinquent act alleged in the complaint
- b. After a petition is filed, the petition is dismissed or the proceedings are suspended and the child has not entered into a consent decree and has not been adjudicated delinquent on the basis of a delinquent act other than one alleged in the petition in question.

c. Upon petition by the child when the child reaches twenty-one years of age and the child has not been adjudicated a delinquent nor convicted of committing an aggravated misdemeanor or a felony after reaching sixteen years of age.

232.149 Law enforcement records.

1. The taking of a child into custody under the provisions of section 232.19 shall not be considered an arrest.

2. Records and files of a criminal justice agency concerning a child other than fingerprint and photograph records and files shall not be open to inspection and their contents shall not be disclosed except as provided in this section and section 232.150 unless the juvenile court waives its jurisdiction over the child so that the child may be prosecuted as an adult for a public offense.

3. Such records may be inspected and their contents may be disclosed without a court order to the following:

a. Peace officers of this state and other jurisdictions when necessary for the discharge of their official duties.

b. The judge and professional staff, including juvenile court officers, of a juvenile court or of a juvenile or family court in another jurisdiction having the child currently before it in any proceeding.

c. The child, the child's counsel, parent, guardian, custodian and guardian ad litem.

d. The designated representative of any agency, association, facility or institution which has custody of the child, or is responsible for the care, treatment or supervision of the child pursuant to a court order.

e. A court in which the child has been convicted of a public offense in connection with a presentence report or dispositional proceedings.

4. Pursuant to court order such records may be inspected by and their contents may be disclosed to the following:

a. A person conducting bona fide research for research purposes under such conditions as the court may deem proper, provided that no personal identifying data shall be disclosed to such a person.

b. Persons who have a direct interest in a proceeding or in the work of the court.

5. This section does not prohibit a criminal justice agency from disclosing or releasing pursuant to chapter 694 the identity of a missing child or information useful in the recovery of a missing child.

232.150 Sealing of records.

1. Upon application of a person who was taken into custody for a delinquent act or was the subject of a complaint alleging delinquency or was the subject of a delinquency petition, or upon the court's own motion, the court, after hearing, shall order the records in the case including those specified in sections 232.147 and 232.149 sealed if the court finds all of the following:

a. Two years have elapsed since the final discharge of the person or since the last official action in the person's case if there was no adjudication and disposition.

b. The person has not been subsequently convicted of a felony or an aggravated or serious misdemeanor or adjudicated a delinquent child for an act which if committed by an adult would be a felony, an aggravated misdemeanor or a serious misdemeanor and no proceeding is pending seeking such conviction or adjudication.

However, if the person was adjudicated delinquent for an offense which if committed by an adult would be an aggravated misdemeanor or a felony, the court shall not order the records in the case sealed unless, upon application of the person or upon the court's own motion and after hearing, the court finds that paragraphs "a" and "b" apply and that the sealing is in the best interests of the person and the public.

2. Reasonable notice of the hearing shall be given to the person who is the subject of the records named in the motion, the county attorney, and the agencies having custody of the records named in the application or motion.

3. Notice and copies of a sealing order shall be sent to each agency or person having custody of the records named therein.

4. On entry of a sealing order:

a. All agencies and persons having custody of records which are named therein, shall send such records to the court issuing the order.

b. All index references to sealed records shall be deleted.

5. The sealed records shall no longer be deemed to exist as a matter of law, and the juvenile court and any other agency or person who received notice and a copy of the sealing order shall reply to an inquiry that no such records exist, except when such reply is made to an inquiry pursuant to subsection 6.

6. Inspection of sealed records and disclosure of their contents thereafter may be permitted only pursuant to an order of the court upon application of the person who is the subject of such records except that the court in its discretion may permit reports to be inspected by or their contents to be disclosed for research purposes to a person conducting bona fide research under whatever conditions the court deems proper.

Rules adopted by the Supreme Court are published in the compilation "Iowa Court Rules"

232.153 Applicability of this chapter prior to its effective date.

1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of this section, this chapter does not apply to juvenile court cases brought prior to July 1, 1979 or to acts committed prior to July 1, 1979 which would otherwise bring a child or a child's parent, guardian or custodian within the jurisdiction of the juvenile court pursuant to this chapter.

2. In a case pending on or commenced after July 1, 1979, involving acts committed prior to July 1, 1979, upon the request of any party and the approval of the court:

a. Procedural provisions of this chapter shall apply insofar as they are justly applicable.

b. The court may order a disposition of the case pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

3. Provisions of this chapter governing the termination, modification or vacation of a dispositional order shall apply to persons to whom a dispositional order has been issued for acts committed prior to July 1, 1979, except that the maximum length of the order and the severity of the disposition shall not be increased. The provisions of this chapter shall not affect the substantive or procedural validity of a judgment entered before July 1, 1979, regardless of the fact that appeal time has not run or that an appeal is pending.

DIVISION IX

232.158 Interstate compact on placement of children.

The interstate compact on the placement of children is hereby enacted into law and entered into with all other jurisdictions legally joining therein in form substantially as follows:

ARTICLE I — PURPOSE AND POLICY

It is the purpose and policy of the party states to co-operate with each other in the interstate placement of children to the end that:

a. Each child requiring placement shall receive the maximum opportunity to be placed in a suitable environment and with persons or institutions having appropriate qualifications and facilities to provide a necessary and desirable degree and type of care.

b. The appropriate authorities in a state where a child is to be placed may have full opportunity to ascertain the circumstances of the proposed placement, thereby promoting full compliance with applicable requirements for the protection of the child.

c. The proper authorities of the state from which the placement is made may obtain the most complete information on the basis of which to evaluate a projected placement before it is made.

d. Appropriate jurisdictional arrangements for the care of children will be promoted.

ARTICLE II — DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact:

a. "Child" means a person who, by reason of minority, is legally subject to parental, guardianship or similar control.

b. "Sending agency" means a party state, officer or employee thereof; a subdivision of a party state, or officer or employee thereof; a court of a party state; a person, corporation, association, charitable agency or other entity which sends, brings, or causes to be sent or brought any child to another party state.

c. "Receiving state" means the state to which a child is sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought, whether by public authorities or private persons or agencies, and whether for placement with state or local public authorities or for placement with private agencies or persons.

d. "Placement" means the arrangement for the care of a child in a family free or boarding home or in a child-caring agency or institution, but not in an institution caring for the mentally ill, mentally defective, or epileptic, in an institution primarily educational in character, or in a hospital or other medical facility.

ARTICLE III — CONDITIONS FOR PLACEMENT

a. A sending agency shall not send, bring, or cause to be sent or brought into any other party state a child for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption unless the sending agency complies with every requirement set forth in this article and with the applicable laws of the receiving state governing the placement of children in the receiving state.

b. Prior to sending, bringing or causing any child to be sent or brought into a receiving state for placement in foster care or as a preliminary to a possible adoption, the sending agency shall furnish the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state written notice of the intention to send, bring, or place the child in the receiving state. The notice shall contain:

1. The name, date and place of birth of the child.

2. The identity and address or addresses of the parents or legal guardian.

3. The name and address of the person, agency or institution to or with which the sending agency proposes to send, bring or place the child.

4. A full statement of the reasons for such proposed action and evidence of the authority pursuant to which the placement is proposed to be made.

c Any public officer or agency in a receiving state which is in receipt of a notice pursuant to paragraph "b" of this article may request of the sending agency, or any other appropriate officer or agency of or in the sending agency's state, and shall be entitled to receive therefrom, such supporting or additional information as it may deem necessary under the circumstances to carry out the purpose and policy of this compact

d The child shall not be sent, brought, or caused to be sent or brought into the receiving state until the appropriate public authorities in the receiving state shall notify the sending agency, in writing, to the effect that the proposed placement does not appear to be contrary to the interests of the child

ARTICLE IV — PENALTY FOR ILLEGAL PLACEMENT

The sending, bringing, or causing to be sent or brought into any receiving state of a child in violation of the terms of this compact shall constitute a violation of the laws respecting the placement of children of both the state in which the sending agency is located or from which it sends or brings the child and of the receiving state. Such violation may be punished or subjected to penalty in either jurisdiction in accordance with its laws. In addition to liability for any such punishment or penalty, any such violation shall constitute full and sufficient grounds for the suspension or revocation of any license, permit, or other legal authorization held by the sending agency which empowers or allows it to place, or care for children

ARTICLE V — RETENTION OF JURISDICTION

a The sending agency shall retain jurisdiction over the child sufficient to determine all matters in relation to the custody, supervision, care, treatment and disposition of the child which it would have had if the child had remained in the sending agency's state, until the child is adopted, reaches majority, becomes self-supporting or is discharged with the concurrence of the appropriate authority in the receiving state. Such jurisdiction shall also include the power to effect or cause the return of the child or its transfer to another location and custody pursuant to law. The sending agency shall continue to have financial responsibility for support and maintenance of the child during the period of the placement. Nothing contained herein shall defeat a claim of jurisdiction by a receiving state sufficient to deal with an act of delinquency or crime committed therein

b When the sending agency is a public agency, it may enter into an agreement with an authorized public or private agency in the receiving state providing for the performance of one or more services in respect of such case by the latter as agent for the sending agency

c Nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent a private charitable agency authorized to place children in the receiving state from performing services or acting as agent in that state for a private charitable agency of the sending state, nor to prevent the agency in the receiving state from discharging financial responsibility for the support and maintenance of a child who has been placed on behalf of the sending agency without relieving the responsibility set forth in paragraph "a" hereof

ARTICLE VI — INSTITUTIONAL CARE OF DELINQUENT CHILDREN

A child adjudicated delinquent may be placed in an institution in another party jurisdiction pursuant to this compact but no such placement shall be made unless the child is given a court hearing on notice to the parent or guardian with opportunity to be heard, prior to the child being sent to such other party jurisdiction for institutional care and the court finds that a Equivalent facilities for the child are not available in the sending agency's jurisdiction, and

b Institutional care in the other jurisdiction is in the best interest of the child and will not produce undue hardship

ARTICLE VII — COMPACT ADMINISTRATOR

The executive head of each jurisdiction party to this compact shall designate an officer who shall be general co-ordinator of activities under this compact in the officer's jurisdiction and who, acting jointly with like officers of other party jurisdictions, shall have power to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact

ARTICLE VIII — LIMITATIONS

This compact shall not apply to a The sending or bringing of a child into a receiving state by the child's parent, stepparent, grandparent, adult brother or sister, adult uncle or aunt, or guardian and leaving the child with any such relative or nonagency guardian in the receiving state

b Any placement, sending or bringing of a child into a receiving state pursuant to any other interstate compact to which both the state from which the child is sent or brought and the receiving state are party, or to any other agreement between said states which has the force of law

ARTICLE IX — ENACTMENT AND WITHDRAWAL

This compact shall be open to joinder by any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and, with the consent of Congress, the government of Canada or any province thereof. It shall become effective with respect to any such jurisdiction when such jurisdiction has enacted the same into law. Withdrawal from this compact shall be by the enactment of a statute repealing the same, but shall not take effect until two years after the effective date of such statute and until written notice of the withdrawal has been given by the withdrawing state to the governor of each other party jurisdiction. Withdrawal of a party state shall not affect the rights, duties and obligations under this compact of any sending agency therein with respect to a placement made prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

ARTICLE X — CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any party state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state party thereto, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

DIVISION X

INTERSTATE COMPACT ON JUVENILES

232.171 Interstate juvenile compacts.

The state of Iowa through its courts and agencies is hereby authorized to enter into interstate compacts on juveniles in behalf of this state with any other contracting state which legally joins therein in substantially the following form.

The contracting states solemnly agree:

ARTICLE I — FINDINGS AND PURPOSES

That juveniles who are not under proper supervision and control, or who have absconded, escaped or run away, are likely to endanger their own health, morals and welfare, and the health, morals and welfare of others. The co-operation of the states party to this compact is therefore necessary to provide for the welfare and protection of juveniles and of the public with respect to

1. Co-operative supervision of delinquent juveniles on probation or parole;
2. The return, from one state to another, of delinquent juveniles who have escaped or absconded;
3. The return, from one state to another, of non-delinquent juveniles who have run away from home; and
4. Additional measures for the protection of juveniles and of the public, which any two or more of the party states may find desirable to undertake co-operatively. In carrying out the provisions of this compact the party states shall be guided by the noncriminal, reformatory and protective policies which guide their laws concerning delinquent, neglected or dependent juveniles generally. It shall be the policy of the states party to this compact to co-operate and observe their respective responsibilities for the prompt return and acceptance of juveniles and delinquent juveniles who become subject to the provisions of this compact. The provisions of this compact shall be reasonably and liberally construed to accomplish the foregoing purposes.

ARTICLE II — EXISTING RIGHTS AND REMEDIES

That all remedies and procedures provided by this compact shall be in addition to and not in substitution for other rights, remedies and procedures, and shall not be in derogation of parental rights and responsibilities.

ARTICLE III — DEFINITIONS

That, for the purposes of this compact, "delinquent juvenile" means any juvenile who has been adjudged delinquent and who, at the time the provisions of this compact are invoked, is still subject to the jurisdiction of the court that has made such adjudication or to the jurisdiction or supervision of an agency or institution pursuant to an order of such court; "probation or parole" means any kind of conditional release of juveniles authorized under the laws of the states party hereto; "court" means any court having jurisdiction over delinquent, neglected or dependent children; "state" means any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico; and "residence" or any variant thereof means a place at which a home or regular place of abode is maintained.

ARTICLE IV — RETURN OF RUNAWAYS

a. That the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody of a juvenile who has not been adjudged delinquent but who has run away without the consent of such parent, guardian, person or agency may petition the appropriate court in the demanding state for the issuance of a requisition for the juvenile's return. The petition shall state the name and age of the juvenile, the name of the petitioner and the basis of entitlement to the juvenile's custody, the circumstances of the juvenile's running away, the juvenile's location if known at the time application is made, and such other facts as may tend to show that the juvenile who has run away is endangering the juvenile's own welfare or the welfare of others and is not an emancipated minor. The petition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the document or documents on which the petitioner's entitlement to the juvenile's custody is based, such as birth certificates, letters of guardianship, or custody decrees. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such petition. The judge of the court to which this application is made may hold a hearing thereon to determine whether for the purposes of this compact the petitioner is entitled to the legal custody of the juvenile, whether or not it appears that the juvenile has in fact run away without consent, whether or not the juvenile is an emancipated minor, and whether or not it is in the best interest of the juvenile to compel the juvenile's return to the state. If the judge determines, either with or without a hearing, that the juvenile should be returned, the judge shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such juvenile. Such requisition shall set forth the name and age of the juvenile, the determination of the court that the juvenile has run away without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the juvenile's legal custody, and that it is in the best interest and for the protection of such juvenile that the juvenile be returned. In the event that a proceeding for the adjudication of the juvenile as a delinquent, neglected or dependent juvenile is pending in the court at the time when such juvenile runs away, the court may issue a requisition for the return of such juvenile upon its own motion, regardless of the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to legal custody, reciting therein the nature and circumstances of the pending proceeding. The requisition shall in every case be executed in duplicate and shall be signed by the judge. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of such court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a juvenile who has run away, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing the officer or person to take into custody and detain such juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the court demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the juvenile, unless the juvenile shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court in the state, who shall inform the juvenile of the demand made for the juvenile's return, and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for the juvenile. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, the judge shall deliver such juvenile over to the officer whom the court demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the juvenile. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a juvenile who has run away from another state party to this compact without the consent of a parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the juvenile's legal custody, such juvenile may be taken into custody without a requisition and brought forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such juvenile and who shall determine after a hearing whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person, subject to the order of the court, for the person's own protection and welfare, for such a time not exceeding ninety days as will enable the person's return to another state party to this compact pursuant to a requisition for the person's return from a court of that state. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a juvenile who has run away, there is pending in the state wherein the juvenile is found any criminal charge, or any proceeding to have the juvenile adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if the juvenile is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, the juvenile shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon the juvenile's return to the state from which the juvenile ran away, the juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

b That the state to which a juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

c That "juvenile" as used in this Article means any person who is a minor under the law of the state of residence of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of such minor.

ARTICLE V — RETURN OF ESCAPEES AND ABSCONDERS

a That the appropriate person or authority from whose probation or parole supervision a delinquent juvenile has absconded or from whose institutional custody the delinquent juvenile has escaped shall present to the appropriate court or to the executive authority of the state where the delinquent juvenile is alleged to be located a written requisition for the return of such delinquent juvenile. Such requisition shall state the name and age of the delinquent juvenile, the particulars of the juvenile's adjudication as a delinquent juvenile, the circumstances of the breach of the terms of the juvenile's probation or parole or of the juvenile's escape from an institution or agency vested with the juvenile's legal custody or supervision, and the location of such delinquent juvenile, if known, at the time the requisition is made. The requisition shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the judgment, formal adjudication, or order of commitment which subjects such delinquent juvenile to probation or parole or to the legal custody of the institution or agency concerned. Such further affidavits and other documents as may be deemed proper may be submitted with such requisition. One copy of the requisition shall be filed with the compact administrator of the demanding state, there to remain on file subject to the provisions of law governing records of the appropriate court. Upon the receipt of a requisition demanding the return of a delinquent juvenile who has absconded or escaped, the court or the executive authority to whom the requisition is addressed shall issue an order to any peace officer or other appropriate person directing the officer or person to take into custody and detain such delinquent juvenile. Such detention order must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issuance hereunder. No delinquent juvenile detained upon such order shall be delivered over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the juvenile, unless the juvenile shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of an appropriate court in the state, who shall inform the juvenile of the demand made for the juvenile's return and who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for the juvenile. If the judge of such court shall find that the requisition is in order, the judge shall deliver such delinquent juvenile over to the officer whom the appropriate person or authority demanding the juvenile shall have appointed to receive the juvenile. The judge, however, may fix a reasonable time to be allowed for the purpose of testing the legality of the proceeding.

Upon reasonable information that a person is a delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with the person's legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, such person may be taken into custody in any other state party to this compact without a requisition. But in such event, the person must be taken forthwith before a judge of the appropriate court, who may appoint counsel or guardian ad litem for such person and who shall determine, after a hearing, whether sufficient cause exists to hold the person subject to the order of the court for such a time, not exceeding ninety days, as will enable the person's detention under a detention order issued on a requisition pursuant to this Article. If, at the time when a state seeks the return of a delinquent juvenile who has either absconded while on probation or parole or escaped from an institution or agency vested with the juvenile's legal custody or supervision, there is pending in the state wherein the juvenile is detained any criminal charge or any proceeding to have the juvenile adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for an act committed in such state, or if the juvenile is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, the juvenile shall not be returned without the consent of such state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of any state party to this compact, upon the establishment of their authority and the identity of the delinquent juvenile being returned, shall be permitted to transport such delinquent juvenile through any and all states party to this compact, without interference. Upon the juvenile's return to the state from which the juvenile escaped or absconded, the delinquent juvenile shall be subject to such further proceedings as may be appropriate under the laws of that state.

b. That the state to which a delinquent juvenile is returned under this Article shall be responsible for payment of the transportation costs of such return.

ARTICLE VI — VOLUNTARY RETURN PROCEDURE

That any delinquent juvenile who has absconded while on probation or parole, or escaped from an institution or agency vested with the juvenile's legal custody or supervision in any state party to this compact, and any juvenile who has run away from any state party to this compact, who is taken into custody without a requisition in another state party to this compact under the provisions of Article IV "a" or of Article V "a", may consent to the juvenile's immediate return to the state from which the juvenile absconded, escaped or ran away. Such consent shall be given by the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and the juvenile's counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, by executing or subscribing a writing, in the presence of a judge of the appropriate court, which states that the juvenile or delinquent juvenile and the juvenile's counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, consent to the juvenile's return to the demanding state. Before such consent shall be executed or subscribed, however, the judge, in the presence of counsel or guardian ad litem, if any, shall inform the juvenile or delinquent juvenile of the juvenile's rights under this compact. When the consent has been duly executed, it shall be forwarded to and filed with the compact administrator of the state in which the court is located and the judge shall direct the officer having the juvenile or delinquent juvenile in custody to deliver the juvenile to the duly accredited officer or officers of the state demanding the juvenile's return, and shall cause to be delivered to such officer or officers a copy of the consent. The court may, however, upon the request of the state to which the juvenile or delinquent juvenile is being returned, order the juvenile to return unaccompanied to such state and shall provide the juvenile with a copy of such court order; in such event a copy of the consent shall be forwarded to the compact administrator of the state to which said juvenile or delinquent juvenile is ordered to return.

ARTICLE VII — CO-OPERATIVE SUPERVISION OF PROBATIONERS AND PAROLEES

a. That the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") may permit any delinquent juvenile within such state, placed on probation or parole, to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, and the receiving state shall accept such delinquent juvenile, if the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of such delinquent juvenile is residing or undertakes to reside within the receiving state. Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be given to the receiving state to make such investigations as it deems necessary. The authorities of the sending state shall send to the authorities of the receiving state copies of pertinent court orders, social case studies and all other available information which may be of value to and assist the receiving state in supervising a probationer or parolee under this compact. A receiving state, in its discretion, may agree to accept supervision of a probationer or parolee in cases where the parent, guardian or person entitled to the legal custody of the delinquent juvenile is not a resident of the receiving state, and if so accepted the sending state may transfer supervision accordingly.

b. That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation and of supervision over any such delinquent juvenile and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards of visitation and supervision that prevail for its own delinquent juveniles released on probation or parole

c That, after consultation between the appropriate authorities of the sending state and of the receiving state as to the desirability and necessity of returning such a delinquent juvenile, the duly accredited officers of a sending state may enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any such delinquent juvenile on probation or parole. For that purpose, no formalities will be required, other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the delinquent juvenile to be retaken and returned. The decision of the sending state to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if, at the time the sending state seeks to retake a delinquent juvenile on probation or parole, there is pending against the juvenile within the receiving state any criminal charge or any proceeding to have the juvenile adjudicated a delinquent juvenile for any act committed in such state, or if the juvenile is suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense or an act of juvenile delinquency, the juvenile shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment, detention or supervision for such offense or juvenile delinquency. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport delinquent juveniles being so returned through any and all states party to this compact, without interference.

d That the sending state shall be responsible under this Article for paying the costs of transporting any delinquent juvenile to the receiving state or of returning any delinquent juvenile to the sending state.

ARTICLE VIII — RESPONSIBILITY FOR COSTS

a That the provisions of Articles IV “b”, V “b” and VII “d” of this compact shall not be construed to alter or affect any internal relationship among the departments, agencies and officers of and in the government of a party state, or between a party state and its subdivisions, as to the payment of costs, or responsibilities therefor.

b That nothing in this compact shall be construed to prevent any party state or subdivision thereof from asserting any right against any person, agency or other entity in regard to costs for which such party state or subdivision thereof may be responsible pursuant to Articles IV “b”, V “b” or VII “d” of this compact.

ARTICLE IX — DETENTION PRACTICES

That, to every extent possible, it shall be the policy of states party to this compact that no juvenile or delinquent juvenile shall be placed or detained in any prison, jail or lockup nor be detained or transported in association with criminal, vicious or disolute persons.

ARTICLE X — SUPPLEMENTARY AGREEMENTS

That the duly constituted administrative authorities of a state party to this compact may enter into supplementary agreements with any other state or states party hereto for the co-operative care, treatment and rehabilitation of delinquent juveniles whenever they shall find that such agreements will improve the facilities or programs available for such care, treatment and rehabilitation. Such care, treatment and rehabilitation may be provided in an institution located within any state entering into such supplementary agreement. Such supplementary agreements shall

1 Provide the rates to be paid for the care, treatment and custody of such delinquent juveniles, taking into consideration the character of facilities, services and subsistence furnished,

2 Provide that the delinquent juvenile shall be given a court hearing prior to the juvenile being sent to another state for care, treatment and custody,

3 Provide that the state receiving such a delinquent juvenile in one of its institutions shall act solely as agent for the state sending such delinquent juvenile,

4 Provide that the sending state shall at all times retain jurisdiction over delinquent juveniles sent to an institution in another state,

5 Provide for reasonable inspection of such institutions by the sending state,

6 Provide that the consent of the parent, guardian, person or agency entitled to the legal custody of said delinquent juvenile shall be secured prior to the juvenile being sent to another state, and 7 Make provision for such other matters and details as shall be necessary to protect the rights and equities of such delinquent juveniles and of the co operating states.

ARTICLE XI — ACCEPTANCE OF FEDERAL AND OTHER AID

That any state party to this compact may accept any and all donations, gifts and grants of money, equipment and services from the federal or any local government, or any agency thereof and from any person, firm or corporation, for any of the purposes and functions of this compact, and may receive and utilize the same subject to the terms, conditions and regulations governing such donations, gifts and grants.

ARTICLE XII — COMPACT ADMINISTRATORS

That the governor of each state party to this compact shall designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other party states, shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out more effectively the terms and provisions of this compact.

ARTICLE XIII — EXECUTION OF COMPACT

That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its execution by any state as between it and any other state or states so executing. When executed it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of execution to be in accordance with the laws of the executing state.

ARTICLE XIV — RENUNCIATION

That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each executing state until renounced by it. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which executed it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto. The duties and obligations of a renouncing state under Article VII hereof shall continue as to parolees and probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged. Supplementary agreements entered into under Article X hereof shall be subject to renunciation as provided by such supplementary agreements, and shall not be subject to the six months' renunciation notice of the present Article.

ARTICLE XV — RENDITION AMENDMENT

a. This Article shall provide additional remedies, and shall be binding only as among and between those party states which specifically execute the same.

b. All provisions and procedures of Articles V and VI of the Interstate Compact on Juveniles shall be construed to apply to any juvenile charged with being a delinquent by reason of a violation of any criminal law. Any juvenile charged with being a delinquent by reason of violating any criminal law shall be returned to the requesting state upon a requisition to the state where the juvenile may be found. A petition in such case shall be filed in a court of competent jurisdiction in the requesting state where the violation of criminal law is alleged to have been committed. The petition may be filed regardless of whether the juvenile has left the state before or after the filing of the petition. The requisition described in Article V of the compact shall be forwarded by the judge of the court in which the petition has been filed.

OUT OF STATE CONFINEMENT AMENDMENT

a. Whenever the duly constituted judicial or administrative authorities in a sending state shall determine that confinement of a probationer or reconfinement of a parolee is necessary or desirable, said officials may direct that the confinement or reconfinement be in an appropriate institution for delinquent juveniles within the territory of the receiving state, such receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

b. Escapees and absconders who would otherwise be returned pursuant to Article V of the compact may be confined or reconfined in the receiving state pursuant to this amendment. In any such case the information and allegations required to be made and furnished in a requisition pursuant to such Article shall be made and furnished, but in place of the demand pursuant to Article V, the sending state shall request confinement or reconfinement in the receiving state. Whenever applicable, detention orders as provided in Article V may be employed pursuant to this paragraph preliminary to disposition of the escapee or absconder.

c. The confinement or reconfinement of a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder pursuant to this amendment shall require the concurrence of the appropriate judicial or administrative authorities of the receiving state.

d. As used in this amendment (1) "Sending state" means sending state as that term is used in Article VII of the compact or the state from which a delinquent juvenile has escaped or absconded within the meaning of Article V of the compact, (2) "receiving state" means any state, other than the sending state, in which a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder may be found, provided that said state is a party to this amendment.

e. Every state which adopts this amendment shall designate at least one of its institutions for delinquent juveniles as a "Compact Institution" and shall confine persons therein as provided in paragraph "a" hereof unless the sending and receiving state in question shall make specific contractual arrangements to the contrary. All states party to this amendment shall have access to "Compact Institutions" at all reasonable hours for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and for the purpose of visiting such of said state's delinquents as may be confined in the institution.

f. Persons confined in "Compact Institutions" pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed from said "Compact Institution" for transfer to an appropriate institution within the sending state, for return to probation or parole, for discharge or for any purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state.

g. All persons who may be confined in a "Compact Institution" pursuant to the provisions of this amendment shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner. The fact of confinement or reconfinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any person so confined or reconfined of any rights which said person would have had if confined or reconfined in an appropriate institution of the sending state, nor shall any agreement to submit to confinement or reconfinement pursuant to the terms of this amendment be construed as a waiver of any rights which the delinquent would have had if the delinquent had been confined or reconfined in any appropriate institution of the sending state except that the hearing or hearings, if any, to which a parolee, probationer, escapee, or absconder may be entitled (prior to confinement or reconfinement) by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate judicial or administrative officers of the receiving state. In this event, said judicial and administrative officers shall act as agents of the sending state after consultation with appropriate officers of the sending state.

h. Any receiving state incurring costs or other expenses under this amendment shall be reimbursed in the amount of such costs or other expenses by the sending state unless the states concerned shall specifically otherwise agree. Any two or more states party to this amendment may enter into supplementary agreements determining a different allocation of costs as among themselves.

i. This amendment shall take initial effect when entered into by any two or more states party to the compact and shall be effective as to those states which have specifically enacted this amendment. Rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the terms of this amendment may be promulgated by the appropriate officers of those states which have enacted this amendment.

CHAPTER 232A

JUVENILE VICTIM RESTITUTION

Intent that judicial department receive moneys appropriated and administer juvenile victim restitution program, 88 Acts, ch 1275, §7

232A.1 Definition.

232A.2 Program created.

232A.3 Reports required.

232A.4 Restitution for delinquent acts.

232A.1 Definition.

For purposes of this chapter, "agency" means the criminal and juvenile justice planning agency established in chapter 80C*.

83 Acts, ch 94, §2; 86 Acts, ch 1245, §112

232A.2 Program created.

A juvenile victim restitution program is created which shall be funded through moneys appropriated by the general assembly to the agency. The primary purpose of the program is to provide funds to compensate victims for losses due to the delinquent acts of juveniles.

Upon completion of a district's plan, the agency shall provide funds in conformance with the procedures and policies of the state. The agency shall reclaim any portion of an initial allocation to a judicial district that is unencumbered on December 31 of any year. The agency shall immediately reallocate the reclaimed funds to those judicial districts from which funds were not reclaimed in the manner provided in this section for the original allocation. Any portion of an amount allocated that remains unencumbered on June 30 of any year shall revert to the general fund of the state.

83 Acts, ch 94, §3

232A.3 Reports required.

Each judicial district shall submit a report of the progress and financial status of its juvenile victim restitution program to the agency on a quarterly basis. The agency shall prepare and submit a report on the progress and financial status of the programs to the general assembly no later than March 15, 1984, and again every year thereafter.

83 Acts, ch 94, §4

232A.4 Restitution for delinquent acts.

If a judge of a juvenile court finds that a juvenile has committed a delinquent act and requires the juvenile to compensate the victim of that act for losses due to the delinquent act of the juvenile, the juvenile shall make such restitution according to a schedule established by the judge from funds earned by the juvenile pursuant to employment engaged in by the juvenile at the time of disposition. If a juvenile enters into an informal adjustment agreement pursuant to section 232.29 to make such restitution, the juvenile shall make such restitution according to a schedule which shall be a part of the informal adjustment agreement. The restitution shall be made under the direction of a probation officer working under the direction of the juvenile court. In those counties where the county maintains an office to provide juvenile victim restitution services, the probation officer may use that office's services. If the juvenile is not employed, the juvenile's probation officer shall make a reasonable effort to find private or other public employment for the juvenile. However, if the juvenile offender does not have employment at the time of disposition and private or other public employment is not obtained despite the efforts of the juvenile's probation officer, the judge may direct the juvenile offender to perform work pursuant to section 232 52, subsection 2, paragraph "a", and arrange for compensation of the juvenile in the manner provided for under the program established pursuant to this chapter.

CHAPTER 233

CONTRIBUTING TO JUVENILE DELINQUENCY

233 1 Contributing to delinquency
233 2 Penalty — not a bar
233 3 Suspension of sentence

233 4 Preliminary examination
233 5 Interpretative clause

233.1 Contributing to delinquency.

It shall be unlawful

1 To encourage any child under eighteen years of age to commit any act of delinquency defined in chapter 232

2 To knowingly send, cause to be sent, or induce to go, any child under the age of eighteen to any of the following a A brothel or other premises used for the purposes of prostitution, with the intent that the child engage the services of a prostitute

b An unlicensed premises where alcoholic liquor, wine, or beer is unlawfully sold or kept for sale

c Any premises the use of which constitutes a violation of sections 725 5, 725 10, or 725 11

3 To knowingly encourage, contribute, or in any manner cause such child to violate any law of this state, or any ordinance of any city

4 To knowingly permit, encourage, or cause such child to be guilty of any vicious or immoral conduct

5 For a parent willfully to fail to support the parent's child under eighteen years of age whom the parent has a legal obligation to support

86 Acts, ch 1046, §1

233.2 Penalty — not a bar.

A violation of section 233 1 is a simple misdemeanor. A conviction does not bar a prosecution of the convicted person for an indictable offense when the acts which caused or contributed to the delinquency or dependency of the child are indictable

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3659; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §233 2]

84 Acts, ch 1219, §11

233.3 Suspension of sentence.

Upon said conviction being had, the court may, for a period not exceeding two years, suspend sentence under such conditions as to good behavior as it may prescribe. Should said conditions be fulfilled, the court may at any time enter an order setting said conviction aside and wholly releasing the defendant therefrom. Should said condition be not fulfilled to the satisfaction of the court, an order of sentence may at any time be entered which shall be effective from the date thereof.

233.4 Preliminary examination.

If, in proceedings in juvenile court, it appears probable that an indictable offense has been committed and that the commission thereof caused, or contributed to, the delinquency or dependency of such a child, said court may order the issuance of a warrant for the arrest of such suspected person, and on the appearance of such person said court may proceed to hold a preliminary examination, and in so doing shall exercise all the powers of a committing magistrate.

233.5 Interpretative clause.

For the purposes of this chapter the word “dependency” shall mean all the conditions as enumerated in section 232.2, subsection 6.

234.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. “Division” or “state division” means that division of the department of human services to which the director has assigned responsibility for income and service programs.
2. “Administrator” means the administrator of the division.
3. “County board” means the county board of social welfare appointed pursuant to section 234.9.
4. “Child” means either a person less than eighteen years of age or a person eighteen, nineteen or twenty years of age who meets any of the following conditions:
 - a. Is in full-time attendance at an accredited* school pursuing a course of study leading to a high school diploma.
 - b. Is attending an instructional program leading to a high school equivalency diploma.
 - c. Has been identified by the director of special education of the area education agency as a child requiring special education as defined in section 281.2, subsection 1.

A person over eighteen years of age who has received a high school diploma or a high school equivalency diploma is not a child within the definition in this subsection.

5. “Food programs” means the food stamp and donated foods programs authorized by federal law under the United States department of agriculture. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §234.1; 81 Acts, ch 7, §11]

*Accreditation takes effect beginning July 1, 1989, schools remain subject to the approval process in §257 25, Code 1985, until accredited, see §256 11(10)

234.2 Division created.

Within the state department of human services, there is hereby created a division of child and family services which shall be administered by the administrator of said division and such other officers and employees as may be hereafter provided.

234.3 to 234.5 Repealed by 62GA, ch 209, §215.

234.6 Powers and duties of the administrator.

The administrator shall be vested with the authority to administer aid to dependent children, state supplementary assistance, food programs, child welfare, and emergency relief, family and adult service programs and any other form of public welfare assistance and institutions that may hereafter be placed under the administrator's administration. The administrator shall perform such duties, formulate and make such rules as may be necessary, shall outline such policies, dictate such procedure and delegate such powers as may be necessary for competent and efficient administration. Subject to restrictions that may be imposed by the director of human services and the council on human services, the administrator shall have power to abolish, alter, consolidate or establish subdivisions and may abolish or change offices created in connection therewith. The administrator may employ necessary personnel and fix their compensation, may allocate or reallocate functions and duties among any subdivisions now existing or hereafter established, and may promulgate rules relating to the employment of personnel and the allocation of their functions and duties among the various subdivisions as competent and efficient administration may require.

The administrator shall

1. Cooperate with the federal social security board created by title VII of the Social Security Act [42 USC 901], enacted by the 74th Congress of the United States and approved August 14, 1935, or other agency of the federal government for public welfare assistance, in such reasonable manner as may be necessary to qualify for federal aid, including the making of such reports in such form and containing such information as the federal social security board, from time to time, may require, and to comply with such regulations as such federal social security board, from time to time, may find necessary to assure the correctness and verification of such reports.

2. Furnish information to acquaint the public generally with the operation of the acts under the jurisdiction of the administrator.

3. With the approval of the director of human services, the governor, the director of management, and the director of revenue and finance, set up from the funds under the administrator's control and management an administrative fund and from the administrative fund pay the expenses of operating the division.

4. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in chapter 239 relating to the consideration of income and resources of claimants for assistance, the administrator, with the consent and approval of the director of human services and the council on human services, shall make such rules as may be necessary to qualify for federal aid in the assistance programs administered by the administrator.

5. The department of human services shall have the power and authority to use the funds available to it, to purchase services of all kinds from public or private agencies to provide for the needs of children, including but not limited to psychiatric services, supervision, specialized group, foster homes and institutional care.

6. Have authority to use funds available to the department, subject to any limitations placed on the use thereof by the legislation appropriating the funds, to provide to or purchase, for families and individuals eligible therefor, services including but not limited to the following:

a. Day care for children or adults, in facilities which are licensed or are approved as meeting standards for licensure.

b. Foster care, including foster family care, group homes and institutions.

c. Homemaker services, meeting the standards of the department, provided by agency trained or supervised homemakers placed in the homes of families or adults to assist with maintenance and management of the home, upgrade the level of living of occupants of the home, provide care for children while one or both parents are away, or provide personal care for an ill or disabled family member.

d. Family planning.

e. Protective services.

f. Chore services.

g. Preparation and delivery of meals to families or individuals living in private homes who, by reason of illness, infirmity or disability are unable to prepare nourishing meals and have no spouse or other individual living with or responsible for them who are able to do so.

h. Transportation services.

i. Any services, not otherwise enumerated in this subsection, authorized by or pursuant to the United States Social Security Act of 1934, as amended.

7. Administer the food programs authorized by federal law, and recommend rules necessary in the administration of those programs to the director for promulgation pursuant to chapter 17A.

234.9 County board of social welfare.

The board of supervisors of each county shall appoint a county board of social welfare, which shall consist of three members in counties of less than thirty three thousand population, not more than two of whom shall belong to the same political party, and both sexes shall be represented. The county board shall consist of five members in counties of thirty three thousand or more population, not more than three of whom shall belong to the same political party, and both sexes shall be represented. At the discretion of the board of supervisors one or more of the members may be chosen from the membership of the board of supervisors. Annually the board of supervisors shall appoint the members of the county board who shall serve for one year and until their successors are appointed. If a vacancy occurs in the membership of the county board, other than by the expiration of a term, a member shall be appointed to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. All appoint ments shall be made a part of the regular proceedings of the board of supervisors and shall be filed with the county auditor and with the administrator [C39, §3661.010; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234 9]

234.10 Compensation of county board members.

All members of the county board of social welfare shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred by them in the discharge of their duties. They shall also receive compensation for their services at the rate of six dollars per diem, not to exceed a total of one hundred fifty dollars in any one year.

234.11 Duties of the county board.

The county board may direct emergency relief with only the powers and duties prescribed in the laws relating thereto and shall determine the allocation of funds to child day care facilities, organizations, and agencies pursuant to sections 237A 14 to 237A 18. Organizations and agencies which serve day care facilities and any licensed or registered facilities may apply for the funds. The board shall act in an advisory capacity on programs within the jurisdiction of the department of human services. The board shall review policies and procedures of the local departments of human services and make recommendations for changes to insure that effective services are provided in their respective communities. The county board may also make recommendations for new programs which it is believed would meet needs in the community. The state department shall establish a procedure to insure that county board recommendations receive appropriate review at the level of policy determination.

The county board shall annually review all human services provided or proposed to be provided with state or county funding to children, youth, and families in the county and shall annually review the system in the county for the delivery of the services to determine the degree to which the services are being coordinated. The review shall study cooperative efforts which are designed to prevent duplication of services and to break the cycle of dependency by certain families receiving assistance under human service programs. Human service agencies receiving county funding and state agencies providing human services in the county shall cooperate with the county board in conducting the review. The county board shall report its findings and recommendations by July 1 of each year to the county board of supervisors and to the commission on children, youth, and families established in section 601K 33. The commission shall include in its annual report to the general assembly a summary of its findings from the reports of the county boards.

The department of human services is authorized to enter into such agreements with agencies of the federal government as are necessary in order to make available to the people of this state any federal food programs which may, under federal laws and regulations, be implemented in this state. Each such program shall be implemented in every county in the state, or in each county where implementation is permitted by federal laws and regulations.

234.13 Fraudulent practices relating to food programs.

A person is guilty of a fraudulent practice if that person

1 With intent to gain financial assistance to which that person is not entitled, knowingly makes or causes to be made a false statement or representation or knowingly fails to report to an employee of the department of human services any change in income, resources or other circumstances affecting that person's entitlement to such financial assistance, or

2 As a beneficiary of the food programs, transfers any food stamp coupons or an authorization to purchase card to any other individual with intent that such coupons or card be used for the benefit of someone other than persons within the beneficiary's food stamp household as certified by the department of human services, or

3 Knowingly acquires, uses or attempts to use any food stamp coupon or authorization to purchase card not issued for the benefit of that person's food stamp household by the department of human services, or by an agency administering food programs in another state.

4 Acquires, alters, transfers, or redeems food stamp coupons or possesses coupons, knowing that the coupons have been received, transferred, or used in violation of this section or the provisions of the federal food stamp program under 7 U.S.C. ch 51 or the federal regulations issued pursuant to that chapter.

234.14 Federal grants.

The state treasurer is hereby authorized to receive such federal funds as may be made available for carrying out any of the activities and functions of the state division, and all such funds are hereby appropriated for expenditure upon authorization of the administrator.

234.20 Repealed by 68GA, ch 1050, §40. See §175.32.

FAMILY PLANNING SERVICES

234.21 Services to be offered.

The state division may offer, provide, or purchase family planning and birth control services to every person who is an eligible applicant or recipient of service or any financial assistance from the department of human services, or who is receiving federal supplementary security income as defined in section 249.1.

234.22 Extent of services.

Such family planning and birth control services may include interview with trained personnel; distribution of literature; referral to a licensed physician for consultation, examination, tests, medical treatment and prescription; and, to the extent so prescribed, the distribution of rhythm charts, drugs, medical preparations, contraceptive devices and similar products.

234.23 Charge for services.

In making provision for and offering such services, the state division may charge those persons to whom family planning and birth control services are rendered a fee sufficient to reimburse the state division all or any portion of the costs of the services rendered.

234.24 Services may be refused.

The refusal of any person to accept family planning and birth control services shall in no way affect the right of such person to receive public assistance or any other public benefit and every person to whom such services are offered shall be so advised initially both orally and in writing. Employees engaged in the administration of this section shall recognize that the right to make decisions concerning family planning and birth control is a fundamental personal right of the individual and nothing in this division shall in any way abridge such individual right, nor shall any individual be required to state the individual's reason for refusing the offer of family planning and birth control services.

234.25 Language to be used.

In all cases where the recipient does not speak or read the English language, the services shall not be given unless the interviews shall be conducted in, and all literature shall be written in, a language which the recipient understands.

234.26 Construction.

This division shall be liberally construed to protect the rights of all individuals to pursue their religious beliefs and to follow the dictates of their own consciences, and to prevent the imposition upon any individual of practices offensive to the individual's moral standards.

234.27 Policy.

The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that this division is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety.

234.28 Obscenity laws not applicable.

The provisions of chapter 728 do not apply to services provided under the terms of this division.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §234.28]

234.29 to 234.34 Reserved.

FOSTER CARE EXPENSE

234.35 When state to pay foster care costs.

The department of human services shall be initially responsible for paying the cost of foster care for a child under any of the following circumstances:

1. When a court has committed the child to the director of human services or the director's designee.
2. When a court has transferred legal custody of the child to the department of human services.
3. When the department has agreed to provide foster care services for the child on the basis of a signed placement agreement between the department and the child's parent or guardian.
4. When the child has been placed in emergency care for a period of not more than thirty days upon approval of the director or the director's designee.

234.36 When county to pay foster care costs.

Each county shall pay the cost of foster care for a child placed by a court as provided in section 232.50 or section 232.99. However, in any fiscal year for which the general assembly appropriates state funds to pay for foster care for children placed by courts under sections 232.50 and 232.99, the county is responsible for these costs only when the funds so appropriated to the department for that fiscal year have been exhausted. The rate of payment by the county or the state under this section shall be that fixed by the department of human services pursuant to section 234.38.

234.37 Department may establish accounts for certain children.

The department of human services is authorized to establish an account in the name of any child committed to the director of human services or the director's designee, or whose legal custody has been transferred to the department, or who is voluntarily placed in foster care pursuant to section 234 35 Any money which the child receives from the United States government or any private source shall be placed in the child's account, unless a guardian of the child's property has been appointed and demands the money, in which case it shall be paid to the guardian The account shall be maintained by the department as trustee for the child in an interest bearing account at a reputable bank or savings and loan association, except that if the child is residing at an institution administered by the department a limited amount of the child's funds may be maintained in a separate account, which need not be interest bearing, in the child's name at the institution Any money held in an account in the child's name or in trust for the child under this section may be used, at the discretion of the department and subject to restrictions lawfully imposed by the United States government or other source from which the child receives the funds, for the purchase of personal incidentals, desires and comforts of the child All of the money held for a child by the department under this section and not used in the child's behalf as authorized by law shall be promptly paid to the child or the child's parent or legal guardian upon termination of the commitment of the child to the director or the director's designee, or upon transfer or cessation of legal custody of the child by the department

234.38 Department may pay foster parents directly.

The department of human services is authorized to make payments directly to foster parents for services provided to children pursuant to section 234 6, sub section 6, paragraph "b", or sections 234 35 and 234 36 The rate of payment by the department for foster care shall be fixed by the department by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 17A Payments may be made from any money legally available to the department for that purpose, including but not limited to funds appropriated by the general assembly, money available under section 234 37, and money received from the parent or legal guardian of a child to pay for that child's foster care

234.39 Responsibility for cost of services.

It is the intent of this chapter that individuals served by the department of human services, and their respective parents or guardians, shall have primary responsibility for paying the cost of care and services provided by the department, to the extent consistent with their incomes and resources The department shall establish a schedule of charges to be made for care and services provided, on a graduated scale related to the income and resources of the person responsible for payment, by rules adopted pursuant to chapter 17A The schedule of charges established and adopted under this section shall not be inconsistent with the limitations on legal liability established under sections 222 78 and 230 15, and by any other statute limiting legal liability which may be imposed on any person for the cost of care and services provided by the department of human services

A dispositional order of the juvenile court requiring the provision of foster care shall establish, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard is provided to a parent or guardian, the amount of the parent's or guardian's liability for the cost of foster care provided by the department In establishing the amount of the liability, the court shall take into consideration the department's schedule of charges, and if the amount established deviates from the schedule of charges, the court shall explain the deviation in its order The order shall direct the payment of the liability to the clerk of the district court for the use of the department's foster care recovery unit The order shall be filed with the clerk and shall have the same force and effect as a judgment when entered in the judgment docket and lien index The clerk shall disburse the payments pursuant to the order and enter the disbursements in a record book If payments are not made as ordered, the clerk shall certify a default to the court and the court may, on its own motion, proceed under section 598 22 or 598 23 A dispositional order establishing the amount of a parent's or guardian's liability for the cost of foster care shall not vacate a prior court order which establishes the parent's or guardian's child support obligation

234.40 Corporal punishment.

The department of human services shall not adopt or enforce any rule or policy prohibiting limited corporal punishment of foster children by foster parents licensed by the department This paragraph shall not prevent promulgation of rules prohibiting malicious, willful and wanton conduct by a foster parent which causes injury or damage to a foster child, or exposes the foster child to danger of such injury or damage

234.41 Tort actions.

A foster parent licensed by the department of human services stands in the same relationship to the foster parent's minor foster child, for purposes of tort actions by or on behalf of the foster child against the foster parent, as a natural parent to the natural parent's minor child who resides at home This section does not apply to a foster parent whose malicious, willful and wanton conduct causes injury or damage to a foster child or exposes the foster child to a danger caused by violation of a statute or the rules of the department of human services

234.42 Foster care review committees – confidentiality.

The department of human services shall select foster care review committees of at least three indi viduals each to review recommendations regarding a child foster care placement The department shall determine the composition, organization, and duties of foster care review committees Members of a foster care review committee who are not employees of the department are subject to the same standards of confidentiality comparable to those imposed on departmental employees under section 217 30

CHILD ABUSE INFORMATION REGISTRY

Definitions applicable to this division see §232 68

235A.12 Legislative findings and purposes.

The general assembly finds and declares that a central registry is required to provide a single source for the state wide collection, maintenance and dissemination of child abuse information Such a registry is imperative for increased effectiveness in dealing with the problem of child abuse The general assembly also finds that vigorous protection of rights of individual privacy is an indispensable element of a fair and effective system of collecting, maintaining and disseminating child abuse information

The purposes of this section and sections 235A 13 to 235A 23 are to facilitate the identification of victims or potential victims of child abuse by making available a single, statewide source of child abuse data, to facilitate research on child abuse by making available a single, statewide source of child abuse data, and to provide maximum safeguards against the unwarranted invasions of privacy which such a registry might otherwise entail 235A.16 Requests for child abuse information.

1 Requests for child abuse information shall be in writing on forms prescribed by the department, except as otherwise provided by subsection 2 Request forms shall require information sufficient to demonstrate authorized access

2 Requests for child abuse information may be made orally by telephone where a person making such a request believes that the information is needed immediately and where information sufficient to demonstrate authorized access is provided. In the event that a request is made orally by telephone, a written request form shall nevertheless be filed within seventy-two hours

3 Subsections 1 and 2 do not apply to child abuse information that is disseminated to an employee of the department of human services, to a juvenile court, or to the attorney representing the department as authorized by section 235A 15

235A.17 Redissemination of child abuse information.

1 A person, agency or other recipient of child abuse information authorized to receive such information shall not redisseminate such information, except that redissemination shall be permitted when all of the following conditions apply.

a The redissemination is for official purposes in connection with prescribed duties or, in the case of a health practitioner, pursuant to professional responsibilities

b The person to whom such information would be redisseminated would have independent access to the same information under section 235A 15

c A written record is made of the redissemination, including the name of the recipient and the date and purpose of the redissemination

d The written record is forwarded to the registry within thirty days of the redissemination

2 The department of human services may notify orally the mandatory reporter in an individual child abuse case of the results of the case investigation and of the confidentiality provisions of sections 235A 15 and 235A 21 The department shall subsequently transmit a written notice to the mandatory reporter of the results and confidentiality provisions A copy of the written notice shall be transmitted to the registry and shall be maintained by the registry as provided in section 235A 18

235A.18 Sealing and expungement of child abuse information.

1 Child abuse information relating to a particular case of suspected child abuse shall be sealed ten years after the receipt of the initial report of such abuse by the registry unless good cause be shown why the information should remain open to authorized access If a subsequent report of a suspected case of child abuse involving the child named in the initial report as the victim of abuse or a person named in such report as having abused a child is received by the registry within this ten-year period, the information shall be sealed ten years after receipt of the subsequent report unless good cause be shown why the information should remain open to authorized access

2 Child abuse information which cannot be determined by a preponderance of the evidence to be founded or unfounded shall be expunged one year after the receipt of the initial report of abuse and child abuse information which is determined by a preponderance of the evidence to be unfounded shall be expunged six months after the receipt of the initial report of abuse, as a result of any of the following a The investigation of a report of suspected child abuse by the department

b. A successful appeal as provided in section 235A.19.

c. A court finding by a juvenile or district court.

3. However, if a correction of child abuse information is requested under section 235A.19 and the issue is not resolved at the end of the one-year or six-month period, the information shall be retained until the issue is resolved and if the child abuse information is not determined to be founded, the information shall be expunged at the appropriate time under subsection 2.

4. The registry, at least once a year, shall review and determine the current status of child abuse reports which are transmitted or made to the registry after July 1, 1974, which are at least one year old and in connection with which no investigatory report has been filed by the department of human services pursuant to section 232.71. If no such investigatory report has been filed, the registry shall request the department of human services to file a report. In the event a report is not filed within ninety days subsequent to such a request, the report and information relating thereto shall be sealed and remain sealed unless good cause be shown why the information should remain open to authorized access.

235A.19 Examination, requests for correction or expungement and appeal.

1. Any person or that person's attorney shall have the right to examine child abuse information in the registry which refers to that person. The registry may prescribe reasonable hours and places of examination.

2. A person may file with the department within six months of the date of the notice of the results of an investigation required by section 232.71, subsection 7, a written statement to the effect that child abuse information referring to the person is in whole or in part erroneous, and may request a correction of that information or of the findings of the investigatory report. The department shall provide the person with an opportunity for an evidentiary hearing pursuant to chapter 17A to correct the information or the findings, unless the department corrects the information or findings as requested. The department shall delay the expungement of information which is not determined to be founded until the conclusion of a proceeding to correct the information or findings. The department may defer the hearing until the conclusion of a pending juvenile or district court case relating to the information or findings.

3. The decision resulting from the hearing may be appealed to the district court of Polk county by the person requesting the correction or to the district court of the district in which the person resides. Immediately upon appeal the court shall order the department to file with the court a certified copy of the child abuse information. Appeal shall be taken in accordance with chapter 17A.

4. Upon the request of the appellant, the record and evidence in such cases shall be closed to all but the court and its officers, and access thereto shall be prohibited unless otherwise ordered by the court. The clerk shall maintain a separate docket for such actions. No person other than the appellant shall permit a copy of any of the testimony or pleadings or the substance thereof to be made available to any person other than a party to the action or the party's attorney. Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall be a public offense punishable under section 235A.21.

5. Whenever the registry corrects or eliminates information as requested or as ordered by the court, the registry shall advise all persons who have received the incorrect information of such fact. Upon application to the court and service of notice on the registry, any individual may request and obtain a list of all persons who have received child abuse information referring to the individual.

6. In the course of any proceeding provided for by this section, the identity of the person who reported the disputed information and the identity of any person who has been reported as having abused a child may be withheld upon a determination by the registry that disclosure of their identities would be detrimental to their interests.

235A.20 Civil remedy.

Any aggrieved person may institute a civil action for damages under chapter 25A or 613A or to restrain the dissemination of child abuse information in violation of this chapter, and any person, agency or other recipient proven to have disseminated or to have requested and received child abuse information in violation of this chapter shall be liable for actual damages and exemplary damages for each violation and shall be liable for court costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the party bringing the action. In no case shall the award for damages be less than one hundred dollars.

235A.21 Criminal penalties.

1. Any person who willfully requests, obtains, or seeks to obtain child abuse information under false pretenses, or who willfully communicates or seeks to communicate child abuse information to any agency or person except in accordance with sections 235A.15 and 235A.17, or any person connected with any research authorized pursuant to section 235A.15 who willfully falsifies child abuse information or any records relating thereto, is guilty of a serious misdemeanor. Any person who knowingly, but without criminal purposes, communicates or seeks to communicate child abuse information except in accordance with sections 235A.15 and 235A.17 shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

2. Any reasonable grounds for belief that a person has violated any provision of this chapter shall be grounds for the immediate withdrawal of any authorized access such person might otherwise have to child abuse information.

235A.22 Education program.

The department shall require an educational program for employees of the registry on the proper use and control of child abuse information.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §235A.22]

235A.23 Registry reports.

1. The registry may compile statistics, conduct research, and issue reports on child abuse, provided identifying details of the subject of child abuse reports are deleted from any report issued.

2. The registry shall issue an annual report on its administrative operation, including information as to the number of requests for child abuse data, the proportion of requests attributable to each type of authorized access, the frequency and nature of irregularities, and other pertinent matters.

CHAPTER 235B

ADULT ABUSE

Legislative fiscal bureau to monitor reporting, investigations, workload and performance of personnel, and report annually by February 1, elder affairs, human services, and inspections and appeals departments to cooperate, 87 Acts, ch 182, §11

235B.1 Adult abuse services.

235B.2 Information, education, and training requirements.

235B.1 Adult abuse services.

1. As used in this chapter, "dependent adult abuse" means:

a. Any of the following as a result of the willful or negligent acts or omissions of a caretaker:

(1) Physical injury to or unreasonable confinement or unreasonable punishment of a dependent adult.

(2) The commission of a sexual offense under chapter 709 or section 726.2 with or against a dependent adult.

(3) Exploitation of a dependent adult which means the act or process of taking unfair advantage of a dependent adult or the adult's physical or financial resources for one's own personal or pecuniary profit by the use of undue influence, harassment, duress, deception, false representation, or false pretenses.

(4) The deprivation of the minimum food, shelter, clothing, supervision, physical and mental health care, and other care necessary to maintain a dependent adult's life or health.

b. The deprivation of the minimum food, shelter, clothing, supervision, physical and mental health care, and other care necessary to maintain a dependent adult's life or health as a result of the acts or omissions of the dependent adult.

2. Dependent adult abuse does not include:

a. Depriving a dependent adult of medical treatment if the dependent adult holds a belief or is an adherent of a religion whose tenets and practices call for reliance on spiritual means in place of reliance on medical treatment. However, this provision does not preclude a court from ordering that medical service be provided to the dependent adult if the dependent adult's health requires it.

b. The withholding and withdrawing of health care from a dependent adult who is terminally ill in the opinion of a licensed physician, when the withholding and withdrawing of health care is done at the request of the dependent adult or at the request of the dependent adult's next-of-kin or guardian pursuant to the applicable procedures under chapter 125, 222, 229, or 633.

3. "Dependent adult" means a person eighteen years of age or older who is unable to protect the person's own interests or unable to adequately perform or obtain services necessary to meet essential human needs, as a result of a physical or mental condition which requires assistance from another, or as defined by departmental rule.

4. "Caretaker" means a related or nonrelated person who has the responsibility for the protection, care, or custody of a dependent adult as a result of assuming the responsibility voluntarily, by contract, through employment, or by order of the court.

5 “Individual employed as an outreach person” means a natural person who, in the course of employment, makes regular contacts with dependent adults regarding available community resources

6 The department of human services shall operate a program relating to the providing of services in cases of dependent adult abuse. The program shall emphasize the reporting and evaluation of dependent adult abuse of an adult who is unable to protect the adult’s own interests or unable to perform or obtain essential services. The program shall include a. The establishment of multidisciplinary teams to provide leadership at the local and district levels in the delivery of services to victims of dependent adult abuse. A team shall include a membership of individuals who possess knowledge and skills related to the diagnosis, assessment, and disposition of dependent adult abuse cases and who are professionals practicing in the disciplines of medicine, public health, mental health, social work, law, law enforcement, and other disciplines relative to dependent adults. Members of the team shall include, but are not limited to, persons representing the area agencies on aging, county attorneys, health care providers, and others involved in advocating or providing services for dependent adults.

b. Provisions for information sharing and case consultation among service providers, care providers, and victims of dependent adult abuse.

c. Procedures for referral of cases among service providers, including the referral of victims of dependent adult abuse residing in licensed health care facilities.

7 a. A health practitioner, as defined in section 232.68, who examines, attends, or treats a dependent adult and who reasonably believes the dependent adult has suffered dependent adult abuse, shall report the suspected abuse to the department of human services. If the health practitioner examines, attends, or treats the dependent adult as a member of the staff of a hospital or similar institution, the health practitioner shall immediately notify the person in charge of the institution or the person’s designated agent, and the person in charge or the designated agent shall make the report.

A self-employed social worker, a social worker under the jurisdiction of the department of human services, a social worker employed by a public or private agency or institution, or by a public or private health care facility as defined in section 135C.1, a certified psychologist, a member of the staff of a mental health center, a member of the staff of a hospital, a member of the staff or employee of a public or private health care facility as defined in section 135C.1, or a peace officer, who, in the course of employment, examines, attends, counsels, or treats a dependent adult and reasonably believes the dependent adult has suffered adult abuse shall report the suspected abuse to the department of human services. An in-home homemaker, home health aide, or an individual employed as an outreach person shall report suspected adult abuse to the department of human services. If a person is required to report under this section as a member of the staff or employee of a public or private institution, agency, or facility, the person shall immediately notify the person in charge of the institution, agency, or facility, or the person’s designated agent, and the person in charge or the designated agent shall make the report.

Any other person who believes that a dependent adult has suffered abuse may report the suspected abuse to the department of human services.

The department shall receive dependent adult abuse reports and shall collect, maintain, and disseminate the reports pursuant to sections 235A.12 through 235A.23 by expanding the central registry for child abuse to include reports of dependent adult abuse. The department shall evaluate the reports expeditiously. However, the state department of inspections and appeals is solely responsible for the evaluation and disposition of adult abuse cases within health care facilities and shall inform the department of human services of such evaluations and dispositions.

b. The department of human services shall inform the appropriate county attorneys of any reports. County attorneys, law enforcement agencies, multidisciplinary teams, and social services agencies in the state shall cooperate and assist in the evaluation upon the request of the department. County attorneys and appropriate law enforcement agencies shall also take any other lawful action necessary or advisable for the protection of the dependent adult.

c. Upon a showing of probable cause that a dependent adult has been abused, a district court may authorize a person, authorized by the department to make an evaluation, to enter the residence of, and to examine the dependent adult.

8 a. If, upon completion of the evaluation or upon referral from the Iowa department of public health, the department of human services determines that the best interests of the dependent adult require district court action, the department shall initiate action for the appointment of a guardian or conservator or for admission or commitment to an appropriate institution or facility pursuant to the applicable procedures under chapter 125, 222, 229, or 633. The appropriate county attorney shall assist the department in the preparation of the necessary papers to initiate the action and shall appear and represent the department at all district court proceedings.

b. The department shall assist the district court during all stages of court proceedings involving a suspected case of adult abuse.

c. In every case involving adult abuse which is substantiated by the department and which results in a judicial proceeding on behalf of the dependent adult, legal counsel shall be appointed by the court to represent the dependent adult in the proceedings. The court may also appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the dependent adult if necessary to protect the dependent adult’s best interests. The same attorney may be appointed to serve both as legal counsel and as guardian ad litem. Before legal counsel or a guardian ad litem is appointed pursuant to this section, the court shall require the dependent adult and any person legally responsible for the support of the dependent adult to complete under oath a detailed financial statement. If, on the basis of that financial statement, the court deems that the dependent adult or the legally responsible person is able to bear all or a portion of the cost of the legal counsel or guardian ad litem, the court shall so order. In cases where the dependent adult or the legally responsible person is unable to bear the cost of the legal counsel or guardian ad litem, the expense shall be paid by the county.

9 The department of human services shall complete an assessment of needed services and shall make appropriate referrals to services. The department may provide necessary protective services and may establish a sliding fee schedule for those persons able to pay a portion of the protective services.

10 A person participating in good faith in reporting or cooperating or assisting the department of human services in evaluating a case of dependent adult abuse has immunity from liability, civil or criminal, which might otherwise be incurred or imposed based upon the act of making the report or giving the assistance. The person has the same immunity with respect to participation in good faith in a judicial proceeding resulting from the report or assistance or relating to the subject matter of the report or assistance.

It shall be unlawful for any person or employer to discharge, suspend, or otherwise discipline a person required to report or voluntarily reporting an instance of suspected dependent adult abuse pursuant to subsection 7, cooperating or assisting the department of human services in evaluating a case of dependent adult abuse, or participating in judicial proceedings relating to the reporting or assistance based solely upon the person's reporting or participation relative to the instance of dependent adult abuse. A person or employer found in violation of this paragraph shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

11 A person, institution, agency, or facility required by this section to report a suspected case of a dependent adult abuse who knowingly and willfully fails to do so is guilty of a simple misdemeanor. A person, institution, agency, or facility required by this section to report a suspected case of dependent adult abuse who knowingly fails to do so is civilly liable for the damages proximately caused by the failure.

12 The department of inspections and appeals shall adopt rules which require licensed health care facilities to separate an alleged dependent adult abuser from a victim following an allegation of perpetration of abuse and prior to the completion of an investigation of the allegation.

235B.2 Information, education, and training requirements.

1 The department of elder affairs, in cooperation with the department of human services, shall conduct a public information and education program. The elements and goals of the program include but are not limited to:

a Informing the public regarding the laws governing dependent adult abuse and the reporting requirements for dependent adult abuse.

b Providing care givers with information regarding services to alleviate the emotional, psychological, physical, or financial stress associated with the care giver and dependent adult relationship.

c Changing public attitudes regarding the role of a dependent adult in society.

2 The department of human services, in cooperation with the department of elder affairs and the department of inspections and appeals, shall institute a program of education and training for persons, including members of provider groups and family members, who may be in contact with dependent adult abuse. The program shall include but is not limited to instruction regarding recognition of dependent adult abuse and the procedure for the reporting of suspected abuse.

3 The content of the continuing education required pursuant to chapter 258A for a licensed professional providing care or service to a dependent adult shall include, but is not limited to, the responsibilities, obligations, powers, and duties of a person regarding the reporting of suspected dependent adult abuse, and training to aid the professional in identifying instances of dependent adult abuse.

4 The department of inspections and appeals shall provide training to investigators regarding the collection and preservation of evidence in the case of suspected dependent adult abuse.

5 A person required to report cases of dependent adult abuse pursuant to section 235B.1, subsection 7, other than a physician whose professional practice does not regularly involve providing primary health care to adults, shall complete two hours of training relating to the identification and reporting of dependent adult abuse within six months of initial employment or self-employment which involves the examination, attending, counseling, or treatment of adults on a regular basis. Within one month of initial employment or self-employment, the person shall obtain a statement of the abuse reporting requirements from the person's employer or, if self-employed, from the department. The person shall complete at least two hours of additional dependent adult abuse identification and reporting training every five years.

If the person is an employee of a hospital or similar institution, or of a public or private institution, agency, or facility, the employer shall be responsible for providing the training. To the extent that the employer provides approved training on the employer's premises, the hours of training completed by employees shall be included in the calculation of nursing or service hours required to be provided to a patient or resident per day If the person is self employed, the person shall be responsible for obtaining the training

The person may complete the initial or additional training as a part of a continuing education program required under chapter 258A or may complete the training as a part of a training program offered by the department of human services, the department of elder affairs, the department of inspections and appeals, the Iowa law enforcement academy, or a similar public agency

A person required to complete both child abuse and dependent adult abuse mandatory reporter training may complete the training through a program which combines child abuse and dependent adult abuse curricula and thereby meet the training requirements of both this subsection and section 232 69 simultaneously

236.1 Short title.

This chapter may be cited as the “Domestic Abuse Act”

[C81, §236 1]

236.2 Definitions.

For purposes of this chapter, unless a different meaning is clearly indicated by the context

1 “Domestic abuse” means committing assault as defined in section 708 1 under either of the following circumstances

a The assault is between family or household members who resided together at the time of the assault

b The assault is between separated spouses or persons divorced from each other and not residing together at the time of the assault

2 “Family or household members” means spouses, persons cohabiting, parents, or other persons related by consanguinity or affinity, except children under eighteen

3 “Emergency shelter services” include, but are not limited to, secure crisis shelters or housing for victims of domestic abuse

4 “Support services” include, but are not limited to, legal services, counseling services, transportation services, child care services, and advocacy services

5 “Department” means the department of human services

6 “Director” means the director of human services

[C81, §236 2]

85 Acts, ch 175, §2, 87 Acts, ch 154, §1

236.3 Commencement of actions.

A person may seek relief from domestic abuse by filing a verified petition in the district court Venue shall lie where either party resides The petition shall state the

1 Name of the plaintiff and the name and address of the plaintiff’s attorney

2 Name and address, if known, of the defendant

3 Relationship of the plaintiff to the defendant

4 Nature of the alleged domestic abuse

5 Name and age of each child under eighteen whose welfare may be affected by the controversy

6 Desired relief, including a request for temporary or emergency orders

If the plaintiff files an affidavit stating that the plaintiff does not have sufficient funds to pay the cost of filing and service, the petition shall be filed and service shall be made without payment of costs If a petition is filed and service is made without payment of costs, the court shall determine at the hearing if the payment of costs would prejudice the plaintiff's financial ability to provide economic necessities for the plaintiff or the plaintiff's dependents. If the court finds that the payment of costs would not prejudice the plaintiff's financial ability to provide economic necessities for the plaintiff or the plaintiff's dependents, the court may order the plaintiff to pay the costs of filing and service. However, in making the determinations, the court shall not consider funds no longer available to the plaintiff as a result of the commencement of the action [C81, §236 3]

236.4 Hearings — temporary orders.

1 Within ten days after commencing a proceeding and upon notice to the other party, a hearing shall be held at which the plaintiff must prove the allegation of domestic abuse by a preponderance of the evidence.

2 The court may enter any temporary order it deems necessary to protect the plaintiff from domestic abuse prior to the hearing, upon good cause shown in an ex parte proceeding. Present danger of domestic abuse to the plaintiff constitutes good cause for purposes of this subsection.

3 If a hearing is continued, the court may make or extend any temporary order under subsection 2 that it deems necessary.

4 Upon application of a party, the court shall issue subpoenas requiring attendance and testimony of witnesses and production of papers.

5 The court shall advise the defendant of a right to be represented by counsel of the defendant's choosing and to have a continuance to secure counsel.

6 Hearings shall be recorded [C81, §236 4]

236.5 Disposition.

Upon a finding that the defendant has engaged in domestic abuse:

1 The court may order that the plaintiff and the defendant receive professional counseling, either from a private source approved by the court or from a source appointed by the court. Costs of counseling shall be paid in full or in part by the parties and taxed as court costs. If the court determines that the parties are unable to pay the costs, they may be paid in full or in part from the county treasury.

2 The court may grant a protection order or approve a consent agreement which may contain but is not limited to any of the following provisions:

a. That the defendant cease domestic abuse of the plaintiff.

b. That the defendant grant possession of the residence to the plaintiff to the exclusion of the defendant or that the defendant provide suitable alternate housing for the plaintiff.

c. That the defendant stay away from the plaintiff's residence, school or place of employment.

d. The awarding of temporary custody of or establishing temporary visitation rights with regard to children under eighteen. In awarding temporary custody or temporary visitation rights, the court shall give primary consideration to the safety of the victim and the children. If the court finds that the safety of the victim or the children will be jeopardized by unsupervised or unrestricted visitation, the court shall condition or restrict visitation as to time, place, duration, or supervision, or deny visitation entirely, as needed to guard the safety of the victim and the children.

e. That the defendant pay the clerk a sum of money for the separate support and maintenance of the plaintiff and children under eighteen.

An order for counseling, a protection order or approved consent agreement shall be for a fixed period of time not to exceed one year. The court may amend its order or a consent agreement at any time upon a petition filed by either party and after notice and hearing.

The order shall state whether a person is to be taken into custody by a peace officer for a violation of the terms stated in the order.

3 An order or consent agreement under this section shall not affect title to real property.

4 A certified copy of any order or approved consent agreement shall be issued to the plaintiff, the defendant and law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction to enforce the order or consent agreement, and the twenty-four hour dispatcher for the law enforcement agencies. Any subsequent amendment or revocation of an order or consent agreement shall be forwarded by the clerk to all individuals and agencies previously notified.

236.6 Emergency orders.

1 When the court is unavailable from the close of business at the end of the day or week to the resumption of business at the beginning of the day or week, a petition may be filed before a district judge, or district associate judge designated by the chief judge of the judicial district, who may grant emergency relief in accordance with section 236 5, subsection 2 if the district judge or district associate judge deems it necessary to protect the plaintiff from domestic abuse, upon good cause shown in an ex parte proceeding. Present danger of domestic abuse to the plaintiff constitutes good cause for purposes of this subsection.

2 An emergency order issued under subsection 1 shall expire seventy-two hours after issuance. When the order expires, the plaintiff may seek a temporary order from the court pursuant to section 236 4.

3 A petition filed and emergency order issued under this section and any documentation in support of the petition and order shall be immediately certified to the court. The certification shall commence a proceeding for purposes of section 236 3.

236.7 Procedure.

1 A proceeding under this chapter shall be held in accordance with the rules of civil procedure, except as otherwise set forth in this chapter, and is in addition to any other civil or criminal remedy

2 The plaintiff's right to relief under this chapter is not affected by leaving the residence or household to avoid domestic abuse

236.8 Contempt.

The court may hold a party in contempt for a violation of an order or court approved consent agreement entered under this chapter, for violation of a temporary or permanent protective order or order to vacate the homestead under chapter 598, or for violation of any order that establishes conditions of release or is a protective order or sentencing order in a criminal prosecution arising from a domestic abuse assault. If held in contempt, the defendant shall serve a jail sentence which may be on weekends

236.9 Domestic abuse information.

Criminal justice agencies, as defined in section 692 1, shall collect and maintain information on incidents involving domestic abuse and shall provide the information to the department of public safety in the manner prescribed by the department of public safety. The department of public safety shall receive and maintain the information, including information on the personal characteristics and identities of perpetrators and victims of domestic abuse. The department of public safety shall maintain the confidentiality of information which individually identifies perpetrators or victims of domestic abuse, except that the department of public safety may disseminate the identifying information to a criminal justice agency if necessary for the performance of the official duties of the agency

The department of public safety may compile statistics and issue reports on domestic abuse in Iowa, provided individual identifying details of the domestic abuse are deleted. The statistics and reports may include nonidentifying information on the personal characteristics of perpetrators and victims. The department of public safety may request the cooperation of the department of human services in compiling the statistics and issuing the reports. The department of public safety may provide nonidentifying information on individual incidents of domestic abuse to persons conducting bona fide research, including but not limited to personnel of the department of human services

236.10 Confidentiality of records.

The file in a domestic abuse case shall be sealed by the clerk of court when it is complete and after the time for appeal has expired. However, the clerk shall open the file upon application to and order of the court for good cause shown

236.11 Duties of peace officer — magistrate.

A peace officer shall use every reasonable means to enforce an order or court approved consent agreement entered under this chapter, a temporary or permanent protective order or order to vacate the homestead under chapter 598, or any order that establishes conditions of release or is a protective order or sentencing order in a criminal prosecution arising from a domestic abuse assault. If a peace officer has probable cause to believe that a person has violated an order or approved consent agreement entered under this chapter, a temporary or permanent protective order or order to vacate the homestead under chapter 598, or any order establishing conditions of release or a protective or sentencing order in a criminal prosecution arising from a domestic abuse assault, the peace officer shall take the person into custody and shall take the person with out unnecessary delay before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the judicial district in which the person was taken into custody. The magistrate shall make an initial preliminary determination whether there is probable cause to believe that an order or consent agreement existed and that the person taken into custody has violated its terms. The magistrate's decision shall be entered in the record

If the magistrate finds probable cause, the magistrate shall order the person to appear before the court which issued the original order or approved the consent agreement, whichever was allegedly violated, at a specified time not less than three days nor more than ten days after the initial appearance under this section. The magistrate shall cause the original court to be notified of the contents of the magistrate's order

A peace officer shall not be held civilly or criminally liable for acting pursuant to this section provided that the peace officer acts in good faith, on probable cause, and the officer's acts do not constitute a willful and wanton disregard for the rights or safety of another

236.12 Prevention of further abuse — notification of rights — arrest — liability.

1 If a peace officer has reason to believe that domestic abuse has occurred, the officer shall use all reasonable means to prevent further abuse including but not limited to the following

a. If requested, remaining on the scene as long as there is a danger to an abused person's physical safety without the presence of a peace officer, including but not limited to staying in the dwelling unit, or if unable to remain on the scene, assisting the person in leaving the residence

b. Assisting an abused person in obtaining medical treatment necessitated by an assault, including providing assistance to the abused person in obtaining transportation to the emergency room of the nearest hospital

c. Providing an abused person with immediate and adequate notice of the person's rights. The notice shall consist of handing the person a copy of the following statement written in English and Spanish, asking the person to read the card and whether the person understands the rights:

"You have the right to ask the court for the following help on a temporary basis:

(1) Keeping your attacker away from you, your home and your place of work

(2) The right to stay at your home without interference from your attacker

(3) Getting custody of children and obtaining support for yourself and your minor children if your attacker is legally required to provide such support

(4) Professional counseling

You have the right to file criminal charges for threats, assaults, or other related crimes

You have the right to seek restitution against your attacker for harm to yourself or your property

If you are in need of medical treatment, you have the right to request that the officer present assist you in obtaining transportation to the nearest hospital or otherwise assist you

If you believe that police protection is needed for your physical safety, you have the right to request that the officer present remain at the scene until you and other affected parties can leave or until safety is otherwise ensured."

The notice shall also contain the telephone numbers of safe shelters, support groups, or crisis lines operating in the area

2 a. A peace officer may, with or without a warrant, arrest a person under section 708 2, subsection 4, if, upon investigation, including a reasonable inquiry of the alleged victim and other witnesses, if any, the officer has probable cause to believe that a domestic abuse assault has been committed which did not result in any injury to the alleged victim

b. A peace officer shall, with or without a warrant, arrest a person under section 708 2, subsection 2, if, upon investigation, including a reasonable inquiry of the alleged victim and other witnesses, if any, the officer has probable cause to believe that a domestic abuse assault has been committed which resulted in the alleged victim's suffering a bodily injury

c. A peace officer shall, with or without a warrant, arrest a person under section 708 2, subsection 1, if, upon investigation, including a reasonable inquiry of the alleged victim and other witnesses, if any, the officer has probable cause to believe that a domestic abuse assault has been committed with the intent to inflict a serious injury

d. A peace officer shall, with or without a warrant, arrest a person under section 708 2, subsection 3, if, upon investigation, including a reasonable inquiry of the alleged victim and other witnesses, if any, the officer has probable cause to believe that a domestic abuse assault has been committed and that the alleged abuser used or displayed a dangerous weapon in connection with the assault

3. A peace officer is not civilly or criminally liable for actions pursuant to this section taken in good faith

84 Acts, ch 1258, §1, 85 Acts, ch 175, §5, 86 Acts, ch 1179, §3, 87 Acts, ch 154, §6

236.13 Prohibition against referral.

In a criminal action arising from domestic abuse, as defined in section 236 2, the prosecuting attorney or court shall not refer or order the parties involved to mediation or other nonjudicial procedures prior to judicial resolution of the action

86 Acts, ch 1179, §4

236.14 Initial appearance required – contact to be prohibited.

1. Notwithstanding chapters 804 and 805, a person taken into custody pursuant to section 236 11 or arrested pursuant to section 236 12 may be released on bail or otherwise only after an initial appearance before a magistrate as provided in chapter 804 and the rules of criminal procedure or section 236 11, whichever is applicable

2. When a person arrested for a domestic abuse assault, or taken into custody for contempt proceedings pursuant to section 236 11, is brought before a magistrate and the magistrate finds probable cause to believe that domestic abuse or a violation of an order or consent agreement has occurred and that the presence of the alleged abuser in the victim's residence poses a threat to the victim's safety, the magistrate shall enter an order which shall require the alleged abuser to have no contact with the alleged victim and to refrain from harassing the alleged victim or the victim's relatives in addition to any other conditions of release determined and imposed by the magistrate under section 811 2

The court order shall contain the court's directives restricting the defendant from having contact with the victim or the victim's relatives

The clerk of the court or other person designated by the court shall provide a copy of this order to the victim pursuant to chapter 910A. The order has force and effect until it is modified or terminated by subsequent court action in the contempt proceeding or the criminal or juvenile court action and is reviewable in the manner prescribed in section 811 2

Violation of this no contact order is punishable by summary contempt proceedings

87 Acts, ch 154, §7

236.15 Application for designation and funding as a provider of services for victims of domestic abuse.

Upon receipt of state or federal funding designated for victims of domestic abuse by the department, a public or private nonprofit organization may apply to the director for designation and funding as a provider of emergency shelter services and support services to victims of domestic abuse. The application shall be submitted on a form prescribed by the department and shall include, but not be limited to, information regarding services to be provided, budget, and security measures

85 Acts, ch 175, §6

236.16 Department powers and duties.

1 The director shall

a. Designate and award grants for existing and pilot programs pursuant to this chapter to provide emergency shelter services and support services to victims of domestic abuse

b. Design and implement a uniform method of collecting data from domestic abuse organizations funded under this chapter

2 The department shall consult and cooperate with all public and private agencies which may provide services to victims of domestic abuse, including but not limited to, legal services, social services, prospective employment opportunities, and unemployment benefits

3 The director may accept, use, and dispose of contributions of money, services, and property made available by an agency or department of the state or federal government, or a private agency or individual

85 Acts, ch 175, §7

236.17 Advisory board — membership.

1 The domestic abuse advisory board is created. The board consists of five members appointed by the governor. Appointments shall be made of persons with knowledge in the fields of health, law enforcement, social services, domestic abuse, and victim services. Members of the board shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

Members of the board must be electors of the state of Iowa. No more than three members shall belong to the same gender or the same political party. Three members are a quorum. Members shall select a chairperson and other officers as necessary.

2 The board shall meet at the call of the governor, the board chairperson, or three board members. The members shall be paid their actual and necessary expenses.

85 Acts, ch 175, §8

236.18 Duties of the board.

The domestic abuse advisory board shall

1 Advise the director in the administration and coordination of programs awarded grants under section 236.16

2 Review and comment on applications received by the director for designation and awarding of grants under section 236.16

3 Advise the director regarding the adoption of rules relating to domestic abuse programs

85 Acts, ch 175, §9

CHAPTER 236A

CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATIONS — COUNSELORS AND VICTIMS

236A.1 Victim counselor privilege

236A.1 Victim counselor privilege.

1 As used in this section

a. “Victim” means a person who consults a victim counselor for the purpose of securing advice, counseling, or assistance concerning a mental, physical, or emotional condition caused by a sexual assault or domestic violence

b. “Victim counselor” means a person who is engaged in a sexual assault center or domestic violence center, is certified as a counselor by the sexual assault or domestic violence center, and is under the control of a direct services supervisor of a sexual assault or domestic violence center, whose primary purpose is the rendering of advice, counseling, and assistance to the victims of sexual assault or domestic violence. To qualify as a “victim counselor” under this section, the person must also have completed at least twenty hours of training provided by the center in which the person is engaged, by the Iowa coalition against sexual abuse, or by the Iowa coalition against domestic violence, which shall include but not be limited to, the dynamics of victimization, substantive laws relating to sexual assault and domestic violence, crisis intervention techniques, communication skills, working with diverse populations, an overview of the state criminal justice system, information regarding pertinent hospital procedures, and information regarding state and community resources for victims of sexual assault or domestic violence

c. “Sexual assault center” means any office, institution, agency, or crisis center offering assistance to victims of sexual assault and their families through crisis intervention, accompaniment during medical and legal proceedings, and follow-up counseling

d. “Sexual assault” means any act of sexual abuse or other unlawful sexual conduct under chapter 709, 726 or 728.

e. “Domestic violence center” means any office, institution, shelter, host home, agency or crisis center offering assistance to victims of domestic violence through crisis intervention, referral to or provision of emergency shelter, and assistance and advocacy regarding medical and legal proceedings.

f. “Domestic violence” means any act of domestic abuse, as defined in section 236.2, subsection 1, and includes those acts commonly referred to as spouse abuse.

g. “Confidential communication” means information transmitted between a victim of sexual assault or domestic violence and a victim counselor in the course of the counseling relationship and in confidence by a means which, so far as the victim is aware, does not disclose the information to a third person other than any who is present to further the interests of the victim in the consultation or to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for the transmission of the information or for accomplishment of the purposes for which the counselor is consulted, and includes all information received and any advice, report, or working paper given or prepared by the counselor in the course of the relationship with the victim.

2. A victim counselor shall not be examined or required to give evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding as to any confidential communication made by a victim to the counselor, nor shall a clerk, secretary, stenographer, or any other employee who types or otherwise prepares or manages the confidential reports or working papers of a sexual assault or domestic violence counselor be required to produce evidence of any such confidential communication, unless the victim waives this privilege in writing or disclosure of the information is compelled by a court pursuant to subsection 7. Under no circumstances shall the location of a domestic violence center or the identity of the victim counselor be disclosed in any civil or criminal proceeding.

3. If a victim is deceased or has been declared to be incompetent, this privilege specified in subsection 2 may be waived by the guardian of the victim or by the personal representative of the victim’s estate.

4. A minor may waive the privilege under this section unless, in the opinion of the court, the minor is incapable of knowingly and intelligently waiving the privilege, in which case the parent or guardian of the minor may waive the privilege on the minor’s behalf if the parent or guardian is not the defendant and does not have such a relationship with the defendant that the parent or guardian has an interest in the outcome of the proceeding being favorable to the defendant.

5. The privilege under this section does not apply in matters of proof concerning the chain of custody of evidence, in matters of proof concerning the physical appearance of the victim at the time of the injury or the counselor’s first contact with the victim after the injury, or where the counselor has reason to believe that the victim has given perjured testimony and the defendant or the state has made an offer of proof that perjury may have been committed.

6. The failure of a counselor to testify due to this section shall not give rise to an inference unfavorable to the cause of the state or the cause of the defendant.

7. Upon the motion of a party, accompanied by a written offer of proof, a court may compel disclosure of certain information if the court determines that all of the following conditions are met:

a. The information sought is relevant and material evidence of the facts and circumstances involved in an alleged act of sexual assault or domestic violence which is the subject of a criminal proceeding.

b. The probative value of the information outweighs the harmful effect, if any, of disclosure on the victim, the counseling relationship, and the treatment services.

c. The information cannot be obtained by reasonable means from any other source.

8. In ruling on a motion under subsection 7, the court, or a different judge, if the motion was filed in a criminal proceeding to be tried to the court, shall adhere to the following procedure:

a. The court may require the counselor from whom disclosure is sought or the victim claiming the privilege, or both, to disclose the information in chambers out of the presence and hearing of all persons except the victim and any other persons the victim is willing to have present.

b. If the court determines that the information is privileged and not subject to compelled disclosure, the information shall not be disclosed by any person without the consent of the victim.

c. If the court determines that certain information may be subject to disclosure, as provided in subsection 7, the court shall so inform the party seeking the information and shall order a subsequent hearing out of the presence of the jury, if any, at which the parties shall be allowed to examine the counselor regarding the information which the court has determined may be subject to disclosure. The court may accept other evidence at that time.

d. At the conclusion of a hearing under paragraph “c”, the court shall determine which information, if any, shall be disclosed and may enter an order describing the evidence which may be introduced by the moving party and prescribing the line of questioning which may be permitted. The moving party may then offer evidence pursuant to the court order. However, no victim counselor is subject to exclusion under Iowa rule of evidence 615.

9. This section does not relate to the admission of evidence of the victim’s past sexual behavior which is strictly subject to Iowa rule of evidence 412.

CHILD FOSTER CARE

237.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter

- 1 “Agency” means a person, as defined in section 4 1, subsection 13, which provides child foster care and which does not meet the definition of an individual in subsection 7
- 2 “Child” means child as defined in section 234 1, subsection 4
- 3 “Child foster care” means the provision of parental nurturing, including but not limited to the furnishing of food, lodging, training, education, supervision, treatment or other care, to a child on a full time basis by a person other than a relative or guardian of the child, but does not include
 - a Care furnished by an individual person who receives the child of a personal friend as an occasional and personal guest in the individual person’s home, free of charge and not as a business
 - b Care furnished by an individual person with whom a child has been placed for lawful adoption, unless that adoption is not completed within two years after placement
 - c Care furnished by a private boarding school subject to approval by the state board of education pursuant to section 256 11
 - d Child day care furnished by a child care center, group day care home, or family day care home as defined in section 237A 1
 - e Care furnished in a hospital licensed under chapter 135B or care furnished in an intermediate care facility or a skilled nursing facility licensed under chapter 135C

- 4 “Department” means the department of human services
- 5 “Administrator” means the administrator of that division of the department designated by the director of human services to administer this chapter or the administrator’s designee
- 6 “Facility” means the personnel, program, physical plant, and equipment of a licensee
- 7 “Individual” means an individual person or a married couple who provides child foster care in a single family home environment and which does not meet the definition of an agency in subsection 1
- 8 “Licensee” means an individual or an agency licensed by the administrator under this chapter [C27, 31, 35, §3661 a2, a43, C39, §3661.056, 3661.057; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §237 1, 237 2, C81, §237 1, 82 Acts, ch 1016, §1] 83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1418, 87 Acts, ch 44, §1

237.2 Purpose.

It is the policy of this state to provide appropriate protection for children who are separated from the direct personal care of their parents, relatives, or guardians and, as a result, are subject to difficulty in achieving appropriate physical, mental, emotional, educational, or social development This chapter shall be construed and administered to further that policy by assuring that child foster care is adequately provided by competently staffed and well equipped child foster care facilities, including but not limited to residential treatment centers, group homes, and foster family homes [C81, §237 2]

237.3 Rules.

1 Except as otherwise provided by subsections 3 and 4, the administrator shall promulgate, after their adoption by the council on human services, and enforce in accordance with chapter 17A, administrative rules necessary to implement this chapter. Formulation of the rules shall include consultation with representatives of child foster care providers, and other persons affected by this chapter. The rules shall encourage the provision of child foster care in a single family, home environment, exempting the single-family, home facility from inappropriate rules.

2 Rules applicable to licensees shall include but are not limited to

a. Types of facilities, including but not limited to single-family, home facilities with child foster care provided by individuals and other public and private facilities with child foster care provided by agencies, and other categories of child foster care for which licenses are issued

b. The number, qualifications, character, and parenting ability of personnel necessary to assure the health, safety and welfare of children receiving child foster care

c. Programs for education and in-service training of personnel

d. The physical environment of a facility

e. Policies for intake, assessment, admission and discharge

f. Housing, health, safety, and medical-care policies for children receiving child foster care

g. The adequacy of programs available to children receiving child foster care provided by agencies, including but not limited to

(1) Dietary services

(2) Social services

(3) Activity programs

(4) Behavior management procedures

(5) Educational programs, including special education as defined in section 281.2, subsection 2 where appropriate, which are approved by the state board of education. The department shall not promulgate rules which regulate individual licensees in the subject areas enumerated in this paragraph

h. Policies for involvement of natural parents

i. Records a licensee is required to keep, and reports a licensee is required to make to the administrator

j. Prior to the licensing of an individual as a foster family home, a required, written social assessment of the quality of the living situation in the home of the individual, and a required compilation of personal references for the individual other than those references given by the individual

3 Rules governing fire safety in facilities with child foster care provided by agencies shall be promulgated by the state fire marshal pursuant to section 100.1, subsection 5 after consultation with the administrator

4 Rules governing sanitation, water and waste disposal standards for facilities shall be promulgated by the Iowa department of public health pursuant to section 135.11, subsection 13 after consultation with the administrator

5 In case of a conflict between rules promulgated pursuant to subsections 3 and 4 and local rules, the more stringent requirement applies

6 Rules of the department shall not prohibit the licensing, as foster family homes, of individuals who are departmental employees not directly engaged in the administration of the child foster care program pursuant to this chapter

[C27, 31, 35, §3661 a52, C39, §3661.066; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §237.11, C81, §237.3]

237.4 License required — exceptions.

An individual or an agency, as defined in section 237.1, shall not provide child foster care unless the individual or agency obtains a license issued by the administrator under this chapter. However, a license is not required of the following

1 An individual providing child foster care for a total of not more than twenty days in one calendar year

2 A residential care facility licensed under chapter 135C which is approved for the care of children

3 A hospital licensed under chapter 135B

4 A health care facility licensed under chapter 135C

5 A juvenile detention home or juvenile shelter care home approved under section 232.142.

6 An institution listed in section 218.1

7 A facility licensed under chapter 125

8 An individual providing child care as a babysitter at the request of a parent, guardian or relative having lawful custody of the child

[C27, 31, 35, §3661 a49, C39, §3661.063; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §237.8, C81, §237.4, 82 Acts, ch 1016, §2]

237.5 License application and issuance — denial, suspension or revocation — provisional licenses.

1 An individual or an agency shall apply for a license by completing an application to the administrator upon forms furnished by the administrator. The administrator shall issue or reissue a license if the administrator determines that the applicant or licensee is or upon commencing operation will provide child foster care in compliance with this chapter. A license is valid for one year from the date of issuance. The license shall state on its face the name of the licensee, the type of facility, the particular premises for which the license is issued, and the number of children who may be cared for by the facility on the premises at one time. The license shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the physical plant of the facility, except that if the facility is in a single-family home the license may be kept where it is readily available for examination upon request

2 The administrator, after notice and opportunity for an evidentiary hearing, may deny an application for a license, and may suspend or revoke a license, if the applicant or licensee violates this chapter or the rules promulgated pursuant to this chapter, or knowingly makes a false statement concerning a material fact or conceals a material fact on the license application or in a report regarding operation of the facility submitted to the administrator.

3. The administrator may issue a provisional license for not more than one year to a licensee whose facility does not meet the requirements of this chapter, if written plans to bring the facility into compliance with the applicable requirements are submitted to and approved by the administrator. The plans shall state a specific time when compliance will be achieved. Only one provisional license shall be issued for a facility by reason of the same deficiency.

[C27, 31, 35, §3661-a44, -a46, -a51, -a53, -a54; C39, §3661.058, 3661.060, 3661.065, 3661.067, 3661.068; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §237.3, 237.5, 237.10, 237.12, 237.13; C81, §237.5]

237.5A Foster parent training.

As a condition for initial licensure, each individual licensee shall complete twelve hours of foster parent training offered or approved by the department. Prior to annual renewal of licensure, each individual licensee shall also complete six hours of foster parent training. The training shall include but is not limited to physical care, education, learning disabilities, referral to and receipt of necessary professional services, behavioral assessment and modification, self-assessment, self-living skills, and biological parent contact. An individual licensee may complete the training as part of an approved training program offered by a public or private agency with expertise in the provision of child foster care or in related subject areas. The department shall adopt rules to implement and enforce this training requirement.

237.6 Restricted use of facility.

A licensee shall not furnish child foster care in a building or on premises not designated in the license. A licensee shall not furnish child foster care to a greater number of children than is designated in the license, unless the administrator so authorizes. Multiple licenses authorizing separate and distinct parts of a facility to provide different categories of child foster care may be issued.

237.7 Reports and inspections.

The administrator may require submission of reports by a licensee, and shall cause at least one annual unannounced inspection of each facility to assess the quality of the living situation and to determine compliance with applicable requirements and standards. The administrator may examine records of a licensee, including but not limited to corporate records and board minutes, and may inquire into matters concerning a licensee and its employees relating to requirements and standards for child foster care under this chapter.

237.8 Personnel.

1. Personnel of a licensee shall be in good health and free of communicable disease, as certified by a physician as defined by section 135.1, subsection 5. In the case of an initial application for a license or a new employee of a licensee, the certification shall be based on a physical examination conducted no more than six months before employment begins, or before application for licensure. The administrator may annually require reasonable evidence of continuing good health and freedom from communicable disease of the personnel.

2. A person who has been convicted of a crime under a law of any state or a person with a record of founded child abuse shall not be licensed, be employed by a licensee, or reside in a licensed home unless an evaluation of the crime or founded abuse has been made by the department of human services which concludes that the crime or founded abuse does not merit prohibition of employment or licensure. In its evaluation, the department shall consider the nature and seriousness of the crime or founded abuse in relation to the position sought, the time elapsed since the commission of the crime or founded abuse, the circumstances under which the crime or founded abuse was committed, the degree of rehabilitation, and the number of crimes or founded abuses committed by the person involved.

237.13 Foster home insurance fund.

1 For the purposes of this section, "foster home" means either of the following a An individual, as defined in section 237 1, subsection 7, who is licensed to provide child foster care and shall also be known as a "licensed foster home"

b A guardian appointed on a voluntary petition of a ward pursuant to section 633 557, or a conservator appointed on a voluntary petition of a ward pursuant to section 633 572, provided the ward has an income that does not exceed one hundred fifty percent of the current federal office of management and budget poverty guidelines and who does not have resources in excess of the criteria for resources under the federal supplemental security income program However, the ward's ownership of one residence and one vehicle shall not be considered in determining resources

2 The foster home insurance fund is created within the office of the treasurer of state to be administered by the department of human services The fund consists of all moneys appropriated by the general assembly for deposit in the fund The general fund of the state is not liable for claims presented against the fund The department may contract with another state agency, or private organization, to perform the administrative functions necessary to carry out this section

3 Except as provided in this section, the fund shall pay, on behalf of each licensed foster home, any valid and approved claim of foster children, their parents, guardians, or guardians ad litem, for damages arising from the foster care relationship and the provision of foster care services The fund shall also reimburse licensed foster homes for property damage or bodily injury, as a result of the activities of the foster child, and reasonable and necessary legal fees incurred in defense of civil claims filed pursuant to subsection 7, paragraph "d", and any judgments awarded as a result of such claims

4 The fund is not liable for any of the following a A loss arising out of a foster parent's dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or intentional act

b An occurrence which does not arise from the foster care relationship

c A bodily injury arising out of the operation or use of a motor vehicle, aircraft, recreational vehicle, or watercraft owned, operated by, rented, leased, or loaned to, a foster parent

d A loss arising out of a foster parent's lascivious acts, indecent contact, or sexual activity, as defined in chapters 702 and 709 Notwithstanding any definition to the contrary in chapters 702 and 709, for purposes of this subsection a child is a person under the age of eighteen

e A loss or damage arising out of occurrences prior to July 1, 1988

f Exemplary or punitive damages

g Any claim for which compensation has been provided by, or is available from, any other source including the child's own funds

h The liability of a foster parent due solely to the foster parent's failure to obtain automobile or home owner's insurance

i A loss or damage arising out of conduct which is in violation of administrative rules

5 Except as provided in this section, the fund shall pay, on behalf of a guardian or conservator, the reasonable and necessary legal costs incurred in defending against a suit filed by a ward or the ward's representative and the damages awarded as a result of the suit, so long as it is determined that the guardian or conservator acted in good faith in the performance of their duties A payment shall not be made if there is evidence of intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law by the guardian or conservator, including, but not limited to, failure to carry out the responsibilities required under sections 633 633 through 633 635 and 633 641 through 633 651

6 The fund is not liable for the first one hundred fifty dollars of any claim based on a single occurrence Claims may not be aggregated or accumulated to avoid payment of this deductible The fund is not liable for damages in excess of three hundred thousand dollars for a single foster home for all claims arising out of one or more occurrences during a calendar year

7 Procedures for claims against the fund

a A claim against the fund shall be filed in accordance with the claims procedures and on forms prescribed by the department of human services

b A claim shall be submitted to the fund within the applicable period of limitations for the appropriate civil action underlying the claim If a claim is not submitted to the fund within the applicable time, the claim shall be rejected

c The department shall issue a decision on a claim within one hundred eighty days of its presentation

d A person shall not bring a civil action against a foster parent for which the fund may be liable unless that person has first filed a claim against the fund and the claim has been rejected, or the claim has been filed, approved, and paid in part, and damages in excess of the payment are claimed

8 All processing of decisions and reports, payment of claims, and other administrative actions relating to the fund shall be conducted by the department of human services

9 The department of human services shall adopt rules, pursuant to chapter 17A, to carry out the provisions of this section

237.16 State foster care review board.

The state foster care review board is created within the department of inspections and appeals The state board consists of seven members appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate and directly responsible to the governor Vacancies on the state board shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments are made

The members of the state board shall annually

select a chairperson, vice chairperson, and other officers the members deem necessary The members are entitled to receive reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties Each member of the board may also be eligible to receive compensation as provided in section 7E 6 The state board shall meet at least twice a year

An employee of the department or of the department of inspections and appeals, an employee of a child placing agency, an employee of an agency with which the department contracts for services for children under foster care, a foster parent providing foster care, or an employee of the district court is not eligible to serve on the state board

237.17 Foster care registry.

The state board shall establish a registry of the placements of all children receiving foster care The department shall notify the state board of each placement within five working days of the department’s notification of the placement The notification to the state board shall include information identifying the child receiving foster care and placement information for that child

Within thirty days of the placement or two days after the dispositional hearing the agency responsible for the placement shall submit the case permanency plan to the state board All subsequent revisions of the case permanency plan shall be submitted when the revisions are developed

237.18 Duties of state board.

The state board shall

1 Review the activities and actions of local boards

2 Adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to a Establish a recordkeeping system for the files of local review boards including individual case reviews

b Accumulate data and develop an annual report regarding children in foster care The report shall include

(1) Personal data regarding the total number of days of foster care provided and the characteristics of the children receiving foster care

(2) The number of placements of children in foster care

(3) The frequency and results of court reviews

c Evaluate the judicial and administrative data collected on foster care and disseminate the data to the governor, the supreme court, the chief judge of each judicial district, the department, and child placing agencies

d Establish mandatory training programs for members of the state and local review boards including an initial training program and periodic in service training programs Training shall focus on, but not be limited to, the following

(1) The history, philosophy and role of the juvenile court in the child protection system

(2) Juvenile court procedures under the juvenile justice act.

(3) The foster care administrative review process of the department of human services.

(4) The role and procedures of the citizen's foster care review system.

(5) The Adoption Assistance and Child Welfare Act of 1980, Pub. L. No. 96-272.

(6) The purpose of case permanency plans, and the type of information that will be available in those plans.

(7) The situations where the goals of either reuniting the child with the child's family or adoption would be appropriate.

(8) The legal processes that may lead to foster care placement.

(9) The types and number of children involved in those legal processes.

(10) The types of foster care placement available, with emphasis on the types and number of facilities available on a regional basis.

(11) The impact of specific physical or mental conditions of a child on the type of placement most appropriate and the kind of progress that should be expected in those situations.

e. Establish procedures for the local review board consistent with the provisions of section 237.20.

f. Establish grounds and procedures for removal of a local review board member.

3. Assign the case of each child receiving foster care within the judicial district to the appropriate local board.

4. Assist local boards in reviewing each case of a child receiving foster care, as provided in section 237.20.

5. Employ an administrator and appropriate staff in accordance with available funding.

The state board shall make recommendations to the general assembly, the department, to child-placing agencies, the governor, the supreme court, the chief judge of each judicial district, and to the judicial department. The recommendations shall include, but are not limited to, identification of systemic problems in the foster care and the juvenile justice systems, specific proposals for improvements that assist the systems in being more cost-effective and better able to protect the best interests of children, and necessary changes relating to the data collected and the annual report made under subsection 2, paragraph "b".

237.19 Local foster care review boards.

1. The state board shall establish local foster care review boards to review cases of children receiving foster care. The department shall discontinue its foster care review process for those children reviewed by local boards as local boards are established and operating. The state board shall select five members and two alternate members to serve on each local board in consultation with the chief judge of each judicial district. The actual number of local boards needed and established shall be determined by the state board. However, the state board shall seek to establish a sufficient number of boards to ensure no board must evaluate more than one hundred cases annually. The members of each local board shall consist of persons of the various social, economic, racial, and ethnic groups and various occupations of their district. A person employed by the state board or the department, the department of inspections and appeals, the district court, an employee of an agency with which the department contracts for services for children under foster care, a foster parent providing foster care, or a child-placing agency shall not serve on a local board. The state board shall provide the names of the members of the local boards to the department.

2. Vacancies on a board shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments. The members shall not receive per diem but shall receive reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in their duties as members.

Local boards to be established in additional judicial districts as moneys become available, 88 Acts, ch 1233, §21

237.20 Local board duties.

A local board shall:

1. Review every six months the case of each child receiving foster care assigned to the local board by the state board to determine whether satisfactory progress is being made toward the goals of the case permanency plan pursuant to section 237.22. As much as is possible, review shall be conducted immediately prior to court reviews of the case.

During each six month review, the local board shall review all of the following:

a. The past, current, and future status of the child and placement as shown through the case permanency plan and case progress reports submitted by the agency responsible for the placement of the child and other information the board may require.

b. The efforts of the agency responsible for the placement of the child to locate and provide services to the biological or adoptive parents of the child.

c. The efforts of the agency responsible for the placement of the child to facilitate the return of the child to the home or to find an alternative permanent placement other than foster care if reunion with the parent or previous custodian is not feasible. The agency shall report to the board all factors which either favor or mitigate against a decision or alternative with regard to these matters.

d. Any problems, solutions, or alternatives which may be capable of investigation, or other matters with regard to the child which the agency responsible for the placement of the child or the board feels should be investigated with regard to the best interests of the state or of the child.

The review shall include issues pertaining to the permanency plan and shall not include issues that do not pertain to the permanency plan. Each review shall include written testimony of any person notified pursuant to subsection 4, and may include oral testimony from those persons when determined to be relevant and material to the child's placement. Oral testimony may, upon the request of the testifier or upon motion of the local board, be given in a private setting when to do so would facilitate the presentation of evidence. Local board questions shall pertain to the permanency plan and shall not include issues that do not pertain to the permanency plan.

A person who gives oral testimony has the right to representation by counsel at the review.

Written testimony from other interested parties may also be considered by the board in its review.

2. Submit to the appropriate court within fifteen days after the review under subsection 1, the findings and recommendations of the review. The report to the court shall include information regarding the permanency plan and the progress in attaining the permanency goals. The report shall not include issues that do not pertain to the permanency plan. The findings and recommendations shall include the proposed date of the next review by the local board. The local board shall notify the persons specified in subsection 4 of the findings and recommendations.

3. Encourage placement of the child in the most appropriate setting reflecting the provisions of chapter 232.

4. Notify the following persons at least ten days before the review of a case of a child receiving foster care:

- a. The person, court, or agency responsible for the child.
- b. The parent or parents of the child unless termination of parental rights has occurred pursuant to section 232.117.
- c. The foster care provider of the child.
- d. The child receiving foster care if the child is fourteen years of age or older. The child shall be informed of the review's purpose and procedure, and of the right to have a guardian ad litem present.
- e. The guardian ad litem of the foster child. The guardian ad litem shall be eligible for compensation through section 232.141, subsection 1, paragraph "b".
- f. The department.
- g. The county attorney.

The notice shall include a statement that the person notified has the right to representation by counsel at the review.

84 Acts, ch 1279, §31; 88 Acts, ch 1233, §10-15

237.21 Confidentiality of records – penalty.

1. The information and records of or provided to a local board or the state board regarding a child receiving foster care and the child's family when relating to the foster care placement are not public records pursuant to chapter 22. The state board and local boards, with respect to hearings involving specific children receiving foster care and the child's family, are not subject to chapter 21.

2. Information and records relating to a child receiving foster care shall be provided to a local board or the state board by the department or child-care agency upon request by either board. A court having jurisdiction of a child receiving foster care shall release the information and records the court deems necessary to determine the needs of the child, if the information and records are not obtainable elsewhere, to a local board or the state board upon request by either board. If confidential information and records are distributed to individual members in advance of a meeting of the state board or a local board, the information and records shall be clearly identified as confidential and the members shall take appropriate steps to prevent unauthorized disclosure.

3. Members of the state board and local boards and the employees of the department and the department of inspections and appeals are subject to standards of confidentiality pursuant to sections 217.30, 228.6, subsection 1, 235A.15, and 600.16. Members of the state and local boards and employees of the department and the department of inspections and appeals who disclose information or records of the board or department, other than as provided in subsection 2, are guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

237.22 Case permanency plan.

The agency responsible for the placement of the child shall create a case permanency plan. The plan shall include, but not be limited to:

- 1. Plans for carrying out the voluntary placement agreement or judicial determination pursuant to which the child entered care.
- 2. Time frames to meet the stated permanency goal and short-term objectives.
- 3. The type and appropriateness of the placement and services to be provided to the child.
- 4. The care and services that will be provided to the child, natural parents, and foster parents.
- 5. How the care and services will meet the needs of the child while in care and will facilitate the child's return home or other permanent placement.
- 6. The efforts to place the child with a relative.
- 7. The rationale for an out-of-state placement, and the efforts to prevent such placement, if the child has been placed out of state.

237A.2 Licensing of child care centers.

A person shall not establish or operate a child care center without obtaining a license under the provisions of this chapter. A center may operate for a specified period of time, to be established by rule of the department, if application for a license has been made. The department shall issue a license if it determines that the following conditions have been met

1 An application for a license or a renewal has been filed with the administrator on forms provided by the department

2 The center is maintained to comply with state health and fire laws

3 The center is maintained to comply with rules promulgated under section 237A 12

A person denied a license under the provisions of this section shall receive written notice of the denial stating the reasons for denial and shall be provided with an opportunity for an evidentiary hearing Licenses granted under this chapter shall be valid for one year from the date of issuance unless revoked or suspended in accordance with the provisions of section 237A 8 A record of the license shall be kept by the department The license shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the center and shall state the particular premises in which child day care may be offered and the number of individuals who may be received for care at any one time No greater number of children than is authorized by the license shall be kept in the center at any one time

The administrator may issue a provisional license for a period of time not to exceed one year if the center does not meet standards required under this section A provisional license shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the center as provided in this section If written plans to bring the center up to standards, giving specific dates for completion of work, are submitted to and approved by the department promulgating the regulations, the provisional license shall be renewable

A facility which is not a child care center by reason of the definition of child day care in section 237A 1, subsection 7, but which provides care, supervision or guidance to a child may be issued a license if the facility complies with all the provisions of this chapter

237A.3 Registration of family and group day care homes.

1 A person who operates or establishes a family day care home may apply to the department for registration under this chapter The department shall issue a certificate of registration upon receipt of a statement from the family day care home that the home complies with rules adopted by the department The registration certificate shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the family day care home, shall state the name of the registrant, the number of individuals who may be received for care at any one time and the address of the home, and shall include a check list of registration compliances No greater number of children than is authorized by the certificate shall be kept in the family day care home at any one time The registration process may be repeated on an annual basis A facility which is not a family day care home by reason of the definition of child day care in section 237A 1, subsection 7, but which provides care, supervision or guidance to a child may be issued a certificate of registration under this chapter

2 A person shall not operate or establish a group day care home unless the person obtains a certificate of registration under this chapter In order to be registered, the group day care home shall have at least one responsible individual, age fourteen or older, on duty to assist the group day care home provider when there are more than six children present for more than a two hour period All other requirements of this chapter for registered family day care homes and the rules adopted under this chapter for registered family day care homes apply to group day care homes In addition, the department shall adopt rules relating to the provision in group day care homes for a separate area for sick children In consultation with the state fire marshal, the department shall adopt rules relating to the provision of fire extinguishers, smoke detectors, and two exits accessible to children

3 A person who operates or establishes a family day care home or a group day care home and who is a child foster care licensee under chapter 237 shall register with the department under this chapter For purposes of registration and determination of the maximum number of children who can be provided child day care by the family day care home or group day care home, the children receiving child foster care shall be considered the children of the person operating the family day care home or group day care home

237A.4 Inspection and evaluation.

The department shall make periodic inspections of licensed centers to insure compliance with licensing requirements provided in this chapter, and the local boards of health may make periodic inspections of licensed centers to insure compliance with health related licensing requirements provided in this chapter The administrator may inspect records maintained by a licensed center and may inquire into matters concerning these centers and the persons in charge The administrator shall require that the center be inspected by the state fire marshal or a designee for compliance with rules relating to fire safety before a license is granted or renewed The administrator or a designee may periodically visit registered family day care homes for the purpose of evaluation of an inquiry into matters concerning compliance with rules adopted under section 237A 12 Evaluation of family day care homes under this section may include consultative services provided pursuant to section 237A 6

237A.7 Confidential information.

Anyone who acquires through the administration of this chapter information relative to an individual in a child day care facility or to a relative of the individual shall not, directly or indirectly, disclose the information except upon inquiry before a court of law or with the written consent of the individual or, in the case of a child, the written consent of the parent or guardian or as otherwise specifically required or allowed by law.

This section shall not prohibit the disclosure of information relative to the structure and operation of a facility nor shall it prohibit the statistical analysis by duly authorized persons of data collected by virtue of this chapter, or the publication of the results of the analysis in a manner which does not disclose information identifying individual persons.

237A.8 Suspension and revocation.

The administrator, after notice and opportunity for an evidentiary hearing, may suspend or revoke a license or certificate of registration issued under this chapter if the person to whom a license or certificate is issued violates a provision of this chapter or if the person makes false reports regarding the operation of the child day care facility to the administrator or a designee. The administrator shall notify the parent, guardian, or legal custodian of each child for whom the person provides child day care, if the license or certificate of registration is suspended or revoked or if there has been a substantiated child abuse case against an employee, owner, or operator of the child day care facility.

237A.9 to 237A.11 Repealed by 66GA, ch 144, §11

237A.12 Rules.

Subject to the provisions of chapter 17A, the administrator shall promulgate rules setting minimum standards to provide quality child day care in the operation and maintenance of child care centers and registered family day care homes relating to:

1 The number and qualifications of personnel necessary to assure the health, safety, and welfare of children in the facilities. Rules for facilities which are preschools shall be drawn so that any staff to children ratios which relate to the age of the children enrolled shall be based on the age of the majority of the children served by a particular class rather than on the age of the youngest child served.

2 Physical facilities

3 The adequacy of activity programs and food services available to the children

4 Policies established by the center for parental participation

5 Programs for education and in service training of staff

6 Records kept by the facilities

7 Administration

8 Health, safety and medical policies for children

Rules promulgated by the state fire marshal for buildings used as child care centers as an adjunct to the primary purpose of the building shall take into consideration that children are received for temporary care only and shall not differ from rules promulgated for these buildings when they are used by groups of persons congregating from time to time in the primary use and occupancy of the buildings. However, the rules may require a fire rated separation from the remaining portion of the building if the fire marshal determines that the separation is necessary for the protection of children from a specific flammable hazard.

Rules relating to fire safety shall be adopted under this chapter by the state fire marshal in consultation with the department. Rules relating to sanitation shall be adopted by the department in consultation with the director of public health. All rules shall be developed in consultation with the state day care advisory committee. The state fire marshal shall inspect the facilities.

237A.13 Apportionment of funds.

Funds appropriated to the department to assist child day care facilities shall be apportioned among the counties as follows:

1. Each county shall receive a share of one half of the total amount available for allocation among the counties which share is equivalent to a percentage of the total amount available determined by dividing the state's total population of children under seven years of age into the total number of children under seven years of age residing in the county. Data on the number and places of residence of children under seven years of age shall be derived from the most recent federal decennial census unless the director with approval of the council of human services directs that some other specified source of data be used.

2. Each county shall receive a share of one half of the total amount available for allocation among the counties which share is equivalent to a percentage of the total amount available determined by dividing the total number of low-income families residing in the state into the total number of low-income families residing in the county. Data on the number and the places of residence of low-income families shall be derived from the most recent federal decennial census unless the director with approval of the council of human services directs that some other specified source of data be used.

3. Notwithstanding subsections 1 and 2, no county's initial allocation shall be less than one quarter of one percent of the total amount available for allocation among the counties.

4. Any portion of the amount initially allocated to any county pursuant to subsections 1, 2 and 3 which remains unencumbered as of April 30 of any year shall be reclaimed from the county by the department and immediately reallocated in the manner provided by subsections 1 and 2 among those counties from which funds have not been reclaimed under this subsection. Any portion of the amounts so allocated which remains unencumbered as of June 30 of any year shall revert to the general fund of the state.

5. Organizations and agencies which serve day care facilities and any licensed or registered facilities may apply for the funds.

237A.14 Allocation by the county.

The county board shall determine how the funds received by that county under this chapter shall be allocated among existing or planned child day care facilities in the county on the basis of the following factors as applied to each child day care facility considered for financial assistance under this chapter:

1. The demonstrated need for child care services in the community served by the facility.

2. The proportion of low-income families among all families served by the facility.

3. The demonstrated need of the facility for additional equipment, and improvement, enlargement or relocation of the facility's physical facilities designed to bring the facility into compliance with local health, fire and zoning laws.

4. The manner in which the facility derives its support, other than funds made available to it under this chapter, and in particular the extent to which it is supported from sources other than tuition or fees paid by the parents or guardians of the children served by the facility.

5. Organizations and agencies which serve day care facilities and any licensed or registered facilities may apply for the funds.

84 Acts, ch 1279, §36

237A.15 Application for funds.

The department shall:

1. Prescribe forms for use by licensed or registered facilities in applying to their respective county boards for funds appropriated by the general assembly.

2. Establish a procedure by which a licensed or registered facility aggrieved by a decision of a county board under section 237A.17 may appeal the decision to the director or the director's designee, however, the judgment of the county board on the merits of an application shall not be overturned in the absence of a determination that the county board has misinterpreted any of the provisions of this chapter, has acted arbitrarily or capriciously, or both.

3. Seek to obtain from the federal government any funds which may be available to this state to pay any part of the cost of implementing or administering this chapter.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §237A.15]

84 Acts, ch 1279, §37

237A.16 Use of funds.

Organizations and agencies which serve day care facilities and licensed or registered facilities may use funds received pursuant to this chapter only for the following purposes:

1. To acquire or improve physical facilities to house the facility, organization, or agency.

2. To acquire recreational or educational equipment or supplies.

3. To purchase assistance to child day care facilities, organizations, or agencies for program development and staff development in meeting standards for child day care facilities established under this chapter.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §237A.16]

237A.17 Distribution.

The county board shall consider all applications which are submitted by child day care facilities, organizations, or agencies in the county for funds allocated to the county under this chapter, and shall determine the distribution of the funds. Each child day care facility, organization, or agency submitting an application shall indicate the amount of money requested and the intended use of the money. The county board may establish a deadline for submission of applications, which shall not be earlier than thirty days after it is notified by the department of the amount initially allocated to the county pursuant to section 237A 13

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §237A 17]
84 Acts, ch 1279, §39

237A.18 Restrictions on funding.

Funds shall be distributed only to licensed or registered facilities which serve primarily low income families and which do not prohibit admission of children on the basis of race, creed, religion, sex, or national origin or to organizations and agencies which serve day care facilities

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §237A 18]
84 Acts, ch 1279, §40

237A.19 Penalty.

A person who establishes, conducts, manages, or operates a center without a license shall be guilty of a serious misdemeanor. Each day of continuing violation after conviction, or notice from the department by certified mail of the violation, shall be considered a separate offense.

A person who establishes, conducts, manages, or operates a group day care home without registering under this chapter or who operates a family day care home contrary to section 237A 5, is guilty of a simple misdemeanor. Each day of continuing violation after conviction, or notice from the department by certified mail of the violation, is a separate offense. A single charge alleging continuing violation may be made in lieu of filing charges for each day of violation.

238.1 Definitions.

The word “person” or “agency” where used in this chapter shall include individuals, institutions, partnerships, voluntary associations, and corporations, other than institutions under the management or control of any division of the department of human services or any administrator thereof

For the purpose of this chapter the word “administrator” means administrator of the division of child and family services of the department of human services

For this chapter, “case permanency plan” means the plan, mandated by Pub L No 96 272, as codified in 42 USC, secs 671(a)(16), 627(a)(2)(B), and 675(1),(5), designed to achieve placement in the least restrictive, most family like setting available and in close proximity to the parent’s home, consistent with the best interests and special needs of the child The plan shall specifically include all of the following

- a. Plans for carrying out the voluntary placement agreement or judicial determination pursuant to which the child entered care
- b. The type and appropriateness of the placement and services to be provided to the child
- c. The care and services that will be provided to the child, natural parents, and foster parents
- d. How the care and services will meet the needs of the child while in care and will facilitate the child’s return home or other permanent placement [C27, 31, 35, §3661 a58, C39, §3661.072; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §238 1] 83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159, 84 Acts, ch 1279, §41

238.2 “Child-placing agency” defined.

Any agency, public, semipublic, or private, which represents itself as placing children permanently or temporarily in private family homes or as receiving children for such placement, or which actually engages, for gain or otherwise, in such placement, shall be deemed to operate a child placing agency [C27, 31, 35, §3661 a59, C39, §3661.073; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §238 2]

238.3 Power to license.

The administrator is hereby empowered to grant a license for one year for the conduct of any child placing agency that is for the public good, and is conducted by a reputable and responsible person [C27, 31, 35, §3661 a60, C39, §3661.074; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §238 3]

238.4 Granting of license conditional.

No such license shall be issued unless the person applying shall have shown that the person and the person’s agents are properly equipped by training and experience to find and select suitable temporary or permanent homes for children and to supervise such homes when children are placed in them, to the end that the health, morality, and general well being of children placed by them shall be properly safeguarded [C27, 31, 35, §3661 a61, C39, §3661.075; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §238 4]

238.5 License required.

No person shall conduct a child placing agency or solicit or receive funds for its support without an unrevoked license issued by the administrator within the twelve months preceding to conduct such agency [C27, 31, 35, §3661 a62, C39, §3661.076; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §238 5]

238.6 Form of license.

The license shall state the name of the licensee and the particular premises in which the business may be carried on

238.7 Posting of license.

Such license shall be kept posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises

238.8 Record of license.

A record of the licenses so issued shall be kept by the administrator

238.9 Tenure of license.

Licenses granted under this chapter shall be valid for one year from the date of issuance thereof unless revoked in accordance with the provisions hereof

238.10 Revocation of license.

The administrator may, after due notice and hearing, revoke the license

1 In case the person to whom the same is issued violates any provision of this chapter

2 When in the opinion of the administrator such agency is maintained in such a way as to waste or misuse funds contributed by the public or without due regard to sanitation or hygiene or to the health, comfort, or well being of the child cared for or placed by the agency

3 In case of violation by the licensee or the licensee's agents of any law of the state in a manner disclosing moral turpitude or unfitness to maintain such agency

4 In case any such agency is conducted by a person of ill repute or bad moral character

5 In case said agency operates in persistent violation of the reasonable regulations of the administrator governing such agencies

238.11 Written charges – findings – notice.

Written charges against the licensee shall be served upon the licensee at least ten days before hearing shall be had thereon and a written copy of the findings and decisions of the administrator upon hearing shall be served upon the licensee in the manner prescribed for the service of original notice in civil actions

238.12 Appeal – judicial review.

Any licensee feeling aggrieved by any decision of the administrator revoking the licensee's license may appeal to the council of human services in the manner of form prescribed by such council The council shall, upon receipt of such an appeal give the licensee reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before such council or its duly authorized representative or representatives Following such hearing the council of human services shall take its final action and notify the licensee in writing

Judicial review of the actions of the council may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act

238.13 to 238.15 Repealed by 65GA, ch 1090, §211

238.16 Rules and regulations.

It shall be the duty of the administrator to provide such general regulations and rules for the conduct of all such agencies as shall be necessary to effect the purposes of this chapter and of all other laws of the state relating to children so far as the same are applicable, and to safeguard the well being of children placed or cared for by such agencies

238.17 Forms for registration and record – preservation.

The administrator shall prescribe forms for the registration and record of persons cared for by any child placing agency licensed under this chapter and for reports required by said administrator from the agencies

If, for any reason, a child placing agency as defined by section 238 2 shall cease to exist, all records of registration and placement and all other records of any kind and character kept by such child placing agency shall be turned over to the administrator, for preservation, to be kept by the said administrator as a permanent record

238.18 Duty of licensee.

The licensee shall keep a record and make reports in the form to be prescribed by said administrator

238.19 Inspection generally.

Authorized officers and agents of the administrator may inspect the premises and conditions of such agency at any time and examine every part thereof, and may inquire into all matters concerning such agencies and the children in the care thereof

238.20 Minimum inspection – record.

Authorized officers and agents of the administrator shall visit and inspect the premises of licensed child-placing agencies at least once every six months and make and preserve written reports of the conditions found.

238.21 Other inspecting agencies.

Authorized agents of the Iowa department of public health and of the local board of health in whose jurisdiction a licensed child-placing agency is located may make inspection of the premises.

238.22 Licensee to aid inspection.

The licensees shall give all reasonable information to such inspectors and afford them every reasonable facility for obtaining pertinent information.

238.23 Annual report.

Every such agency shall file with the administrator, during the month of January of each year, an annual written or printed report, which shall show:

1. The number of children cared for during the preceding year.
2. The number of children received for the first time and the number returned from families.
3. The number placed in homes.
4. The number deceased.
5. The number placed in state institutions.
6. The number returned to friends.
7. The number and names and number of months of each of those attending school.
8. A statement showing the receipts and disbursements of such agency.
9. The amount expended for salaries and other expenses, specifying the same.
10. The amount expended for lands, buildings, and other investments.
11. Such other information as the administrator may require.

238.24 Information confidential.

No individual who acquires through the operation of the provisions of sections 238.17 to 238.23, inclusive, or from the records provided for in this chapter, information relative to any agency or relative to any person cared for by such agency or relative to any relative of any such person, shall directly or indirectly disclose such information except upon inquiry before a court of law, or before some other tribunal, or for the information of the governor, general assembly, medical examiners, administrator, Iowa department of public health, or the local board of health where such agency is located.

Nothing herein shall prohibit the administrator from disclosing such facts to such proper persons as may be in the interest of a child cared for by such agency or in the interest of the child's parents or foster parents and not inimical to the child, or as may be necessary to protect the interests of the child's prospective foster parents. However, disclosure of termination and adoption records shall be governed by the provisions of section 600.16.

Nothing herein shall prohibit the statistical analysis by duly authorized persons of data collected by virtue of this chapter or the publication of the results of such analysis in such manner as will not disclose confidential information.

238.25 to 238.29 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1229, §38.

238.30 Reports as to placements.

Every month every child-placing agency licensed by the administrator shall report to the administrator the names of all children placed out by the agency since its preceding monthly report, together with the name and address of the person with whom each child has been placed, and such other information regarding the child and its foster home as may be required by the administrator.

238.31 Inspection of foster homes.

The administrator shall be satisfied that each licensed child-placing agency is maintaining proper standards in its work, and said administrator may at any time cause the child and home in which the child has been placed to be visited by the administrator's agents for the purpose of ascertaining whether the home is a suitable one for the child, and may continue to visit and inspect the foster home and the conditions therein as they affect said child.

239.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter

1 “Assistance” means a money payment made under this chapter on behalf of a dependent child

2 “Dependent child” means a needy child under the age of eighteen years, or a needy person eighteen years of age who meets the additional eligibility criteria established by federal law or regulation, who has been deprived of parental support or care by reason of death, continued absence from the home, physical or mental incapacity, or partial or total unemployment of the parent However, a child is not a dependent child solely by reason of a parent’s absence from the home due to the parent’s performance of active duty in the uniformed services of the United States

3 “Department” means the department of human services

4 “Administrator” means the administrator of the division of the department of human services to which the director of human services assigns responsibility for the aid to dependent children program

5 “Division” means the division of the department of human services to which the director of human services assigns responsibility for the aid to dependent children program

6 “Protective payee” means a protective payee selected in accordance with 45 C FR sec 234 60

7 “Recipient” is a person to whom the assistance grant is made or a person whose needs are included in granting assistance

8 “Specified relative” means a relative specified in 42 USC sec 606 and in federal regulations adopted pursuant to that section

9 “Vendor payment” means assistance paid to a third party and not to a specified relative with whom a dependent child is residing

[C39, §3661.002, 3661.016; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §239 1, 81 Acts, ch 7, §12]

239.2 Eligibility for aid to dependent children.

Assistance shall be granted under this chapter to a dependent child who

1 Is living in a suitable family home maintained by a specified relative

2 Is living in this state other than for a temporary purpose, with a specified relative who is living in this state voluntarily with the intent of making the relative’s home in this state and not for a temporary purpose

3 Is not, with respect to assistance applied for by reason of partial or total unemployment of a parent, the child of a parent who

a Has been unemployed for less than thirty days prior to receipt of assistance under this chapter

b Is partially or totally unemployed due to a work stoppage which exists because of a labor dispute at the factory, establishment or other premises at which the parent is or was last employed

c At any time during the thirty day period prior to receipt of assistance under this chapter or at any time thereafter while assistance is payable under this chapter, has not been available for employment, has not actively sought employment, or has without good cause refused any bona fide offer of employment or training for employment The following reasons for refusing employment or training are not good cause Unsuitable or unpleasant work or training, if the parent is able to perform the work or training without unusual danger to the parent’s health, or the amount of wages or compensation, unless the wages for employment are below the federal minimum wage d Has not registered for work with the state employment service established pursuant to section 96 12, or thereafter has failed to report at an employment office in accordance with regulations prescribed pursuant to section 96 4, subsection 1

e Has failed to participate in or to cooperate in any work or training program made available to the parent under chapter 249C, or has without good cause withdrawn from such program before completion The department of human services shall have a program under chapter 249C for the partially or totally unemployed parent under this subsection

The division may prescribe requirements in addition to or in lieu of the foregoing, for eligibility for assistance under this chapter to children whose parents are partially or totally unemployed, which are necessary to secure financial participation of the federal government in payment of such assistance

239.3 Application for assistance — assignment of support rights.

An application for assistance shall be made to the department The application shall be in writing or reduced to writing in the manner and upon the form prescribed by the administrator The application shall be made by the specified relative with whom the dependent child resides or will reside, and shall contain the information required on the application form One application may be made for several children of the same family if they reside or will reside with the same specified relative

An applicant for assistance under this chapter and other persons covered by an application are deemed to have assigned to the department of human services at the time of application all rights to periodic support payments to the extent of public assistance received by the applicant and other persons covered by the application An assignment takes effect upon determination that an applicant or another person covered by an application is eligible for assistance under this chapter, applies to both current and accrued support obligations, and terminates when an applicant or another person covered by an application ceases to receive assistance under this chapter, except with respect to the amount of unpaid support obligations accrued under the assignment If an applicant or another person covered by an application ceases to receive assistance under this chapter and the applicant or other person covered by the application receives a periodic support payment, the department of human services is entitled only to that amount of the periodic support payment above the current periodic support obligation

239.4 Investigation of application.

If the department receives a notification that a child is a dependent child or receives an application for assistance, an investigation and record of the circumstances shall promptly be made in order to ascertain if the child is a dependent child and to ascertain the facts supporting the application

In cases involving physical or mental incapacity of either parent, the department may require as a condition for granting assistance that incapacity be determined by a physician or be supported by pertinent medical evidence 239.5 Granting of assistance — amount — payment — cooperation of parent.

1 Upon the completion of an investigation the department shall decide whether the child is eligible for assistance and determine the amount of the assistance The department shall, within thirty days, notify the specified relative with whom the child is living or will be living, of the decision

2 In determining the amount of assistance, the department shall take into consideration the income and resources of the dependent child, the dependent child's parent or stepparent, or any other needy specified relative claiming assistance. However, in determining the amount of assistance for recipients, the department may disregard a reasonable amount of the income and resources, in order to encourage the recipients to become self supporting. The term "income" means income remaining after deduction of expenses reasonably attributable to the earning or securing of that income in accordance with standards established by the department.

3 The department shall establish services to help recipients become self supporting, shall participate in the work and training program established by chapter 249C, and shall cooperate with other public agencies and with private agencies to secure employment, education, and vocational training for recipients. Assistance, when granted, shall be paid at least monthly to the specified relative with whom the child is residing, upon the order of the division.

4 The department may order the assistance paid to a protective payee if it has been demonstrated that the specified relative with whom the child is residing is unable to manage the assistance in the best interests of the child. A protective payment shall not be made beyond two years, except as provided in 45 C FR sec 234 60, and shall otherwise conform to the requirements of 42 USC sec 606(b)(2) and the regulations adopted pursuant to that section. If consistent with these regulations, the department may petition the Iowa district court sitting in probate to establish, pursuant to chapter 633, a conservatorship over a recipient. If a conservatorship is established the recipient's assistance shall be paid to the conservator. In addition to the assistance, an amount not to exceed ten dollars per case per month may be allowed for conservatorship or guardianship fees if authorized by court order.

5 A vendor payment may be made if the department determines payment to a third party is essential to assure the proper use of assistance on behalf of a recipient. A vendor payment shall be made in accordance with 45 C FR sec 234 60.

6 The division shall provide for the prompt notification of the department's child support recovery unit if assistance is provided to a child whose parent is absent from the home. An applicant for or a recipient of assistance shall, as a condition of eligibility, cooperate with the child support recovery unit and the department in identifying and locating the parent of the child, in enforcing rights to periodic support payments, and, if necessary, in establishing paternity of the child, unless the applicant or recipient has good cause for refusing to cooperate, as determined by the department in accordance with the best interests of the child and with standards prescribed in 45 C FR sec 232 40, et seq. If a specified relative with whom a child is residing is found to be ineligible for assistance because of failure to comply with the cooperation requirements of this subsection, assistance, determined without regard to the needs of the specified relative, shall be provided to a protective payee for the child. A pro-TECTIVE payment made under this subsection is not subject to the two year restriction in subsection 4.

7 The director of revenue and finance upon receipt of a written signed request from a recipient, shall order that payments be made directly to a bank, savings and loan association, or credit union of the recipient's choice.

[C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §239 5, 81 Acts, ch 7, §14]

239.6 Periodic reconsideration, changes, and termination — reports.

Assistance is subject to reconsideration every six months and may be reconsidered more frequently. After an investigation, assistance may be continued, renewed, suspended, changed in amount, or entirely withdrawn, as the findings of the investigation warrant. As a condition of eligibility, the department may require periodic reports from recipients concerning their income, resources, family composition, and other circumstances.

239.7 Appeal — judicial review.

If an application is not acted upon within a reasonable time, if it is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified, suspended, or canceled under any provision of this chapter, the applicant or recipient may appeal to the department of human services. The department shall give the appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the director or the director's designee. Judicial review of the result of such hearing may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Upon receipt of the notice of the filing of a petition for judicial review, the department shall furnish the petitioner with a copy of any papers filed in support of the petitioner's position, a transcript of any testimony taken, and a copy of the department's decision.

239.9 Funeral expenses.

The department may pay, from funds appropriated to it for the purpose, a maximum of four hundred dollars toward funeral expenses on the death of a child who is receiving or has been authorized to receive assistance, provided

1 The decedent does not leave an estate which may be probated with sufficient proceeds to allow for payment of the funeral claim.

2. Payments which are due the decedent's estate or beneficiary by reason of the liability of a life insurance, death or funeral benefit company, association, or society, or in the form of United States social security, railroad retirement, or veterans' benefits upon the death of the decedent, are deducted from the department's liability under this section.

239.12 Aid to dependent children account.

There is established in the state treasury an account to be known as the "Aid to Dependent Children Account" to which shall be credited all funds appropriated by the state for the payment of assistance, and all other moneys received at any time for such purposes. Moneys assigned to the department under section 239.3 and received by the child support recovery unit pursuant to section 252B.5 and 42 U.S.C. sec. 664 shall be credited to the account in the fiscal year in which the moneys are received. All assistance shall be paid from the account.

Repealed by 84 Acts, ch 1276, §13.

239.16 Repealed by 67GA, ch 1022, §5.

239.17 Recovery of assistance obtained by fraudulent act.

A person who obtains, or attempts to obtain, or aids or abets any person to obtain, by means of a willfully false statement or representation, or by impersonation or any fraudulent device, assistance to which the recipient is not entitled, is personally liable for the amount of assistance thus obtained. The amount of the assistance may be recovered from the offender or the offender's estate in an action brought or by claim filed in the name of the state and the recovered funds shall be deposited in the aid to dependent children account. The action or claim filed in the name of the state shall not be considered an election of remedies to the exclusion of other remedies.

PUBLIC WORKS POSITIONS FOR CERTAIN PERSONS

239A 1 Who may be placed
239A 2 Projects determined

239A 3 Target areas selected

239A.1 Who may be placed.

Any person who is receiving or has obtained approval of an application to receive assistance under chapter 239, and who is an eligible person as defined by section 249C 1, subsection 5, may be referred to the division of job service of the department of employment services for placement in public works positions available pursuant to this chapter or to such other authority as may be applicable

239A.2 Projects determined.

The division of job service of the department of employment services, in consultation with the director of human services, shall establish a procedure for assignment of persons referred under section 239A 1 to positions available in public works projects. The division of job service shall arrange with units of local government for establishment of such projects, which may include any type of work or endeavor that is within the scope of authority of the unit of local government involved so long as the project meets the following requirements

1 The project must create new employment opportunities and not fund existing employment of persons working for the local government unit or resume funding of projects for which the local government unit has, without fault, terminated employees within the previous six months and has not recalled those employees

2 The benefits of the project result must inure primarily to the community or public at large

3 The following conditions of employment must be satisfied

a The unit of local government with which the project is arranged must be the employer of the persons hired under the project

b The employees under the project must be paid at the same rate as other employees doing similar work for that unit of local government

c The employees must be considered regular employees of the unit of local government involved and must be entitled to participate in benefit programs of that unit of local government, including but not limited to workers' compensation, but shall not be entitled to qualify for unemployment compensation benefits on the basis of employment under the project

239A.3 Target areas selected.

The division of job service of the department of employment services shall select not to exceed two target counties for implementation of sections 239A 1 and 239A 2. In selecting the target county or counties in which this chapter is to be implemented, the division of job service shall be guided by the following criteria

1 The total number of unemployed persons in the county

2 The number of unemployed persons in the county as a percentage of the available work force there

3 The total number of persons receiving assistance under chapter 239 in that county

4 The number of persons receiving assistance under chapter 239 in that county as a percentage of the total population of the county

5 The number of unemployed heads of households receiving assistance under chapter 239 in that county

6 The number of unemployed heads of households receiving assistance under chapter 239 in that county as a percentage of all recipients of such assistance in that county

ing program providing emotional support by qualified personnel or peer groups or both

2 A proposed budget

3 Assurance by the applicant that the uniform method of data collection and program evaluation established by the director pursuant to section 241 3, subsection 1, paragraph "c" will be implemented

4 Any other information the director may require

A public or private nonprofit group which receives designation as a provider of services to displaced homemakers under this chapter shall comply with all applicable department rules

[C81, §241 2]

241.3 Department powers and duties.

1 The director shall do all of the following a Designate and award grants for existing and pilot programs, pursuant to section 241 2 to provide services to displaced homemakers

b Designate an existing department staff member to perform the duties set forth in section 241 6

c Design and implement a uniform method of collecting data on displaced homemakers receiving services under this chapter and of evaluating funded programs

2 The department shall consult and cooperate with the division of job service of the department of employment services, the United States commissioner of social security administration, the division of the status of women of the department of human rights, the representative of the administrative agency administering the job training partnership Act, the department of education and other persons in the executive branch of the state government as the department considers appropriate to facilitate the coordination of multipurpose service programs established under this chapter with existing programs of a similar nature

244.5 Transfers.

The administrator may transfer to the home minor wards of the state from any institution under the administrator’s charge or under the charge of any other administrator of the department of human services, but no person shall be so transferred who is not mentally normal, or who is incorrigible, or has any vicious habits, or whose presence in the home would be inimical to the moral or physical welfare of normal children therein, and any such child in the home may be transferred to the proper state institution

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3710; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §244 5]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

244.6 Profits and earnings.

Any money earned by a child who is admitted to or placed in foster care from the home shall be used, held or otherwise applied for the exclusive benefit of that child, in accordance with section 234 37

[C97, §2689, S13, §2690 d, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3711; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §244 6]

244.7 Rules.

All children admitted or committed to the home shall be wards of the state and subject to the rules of the home. Subject to the approval of the administrator, any child received under voluntary application may be expelled by the superintendent for disobedience and refusal to submit to proper discipline. Children shall be discharged upon arriving at the age of eighteen years, or sooner if possessed of sufficient means to provide for themselves

244.11 Recovery of possession.

In case of a violation of the terms of such contract, the administrator may cause the child to be taken from the person or persons with whom placed, and may make such other disposition of the child as shall seem to be for the child's best interests.

[S13, §2690-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3717; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §244.11]

244.12 Recovery of child — duty of county attorney.

In case legal proceedings are necessary to recover the possession of such child, they may be instituted and carried on in the name of the superintendent, and the county attorney of the county in which the child is placed shall, if requested by the superintendent, act as the superintendent's attorney in the proceedings.

244.13 Interference with child.

It shall be unlawful for any parent or other person not a party to the placing of a child for a term of years, to interfere in any manner with or to assume or exercise any control over such child or the child's earnings while such contract is in force.

[S13, §2690-d; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3719; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §244.13]

244.14 Counties liable.

Each county is liable for sums paid by the home in support of all its children to the extent of a sum equal to one-half of the net cost of the support and maintenance of its children. The superintendent shall certify to the director of revenue and finance on the first day of each fiscal quarter the amount chargeable to each county for support. The sums for which each county is liable shall be charged to the county and collected as a part of the taxes due the state, and paid by the county at the same time state taxes are paid.

Should any county fail to pay these bills within sixty days from the date of certificate from superintendent, the director of revenue and finance shall charge the delinquent county the penalty of one percent per month on and after sixty days from date of certificate until paid. Such penalties shall be credited to the general fund of the state.

83 Acts, ch 96, §8, 159

Transferred in Code Supplement 1985 from §217A 7 in Code 1985

246.108 Director — duties, powers.

1. The director shall:

a. Supervise the operations of the institutions under the department's jurisdiction and may delegate the powers and authorities given the director by statute to officers or employees of the department.

b. Supervise state agents whose duties relate primarily to the department.

c. Establish and maintain a program to oversee women's institutional and community corrections programs and to provide community support to ensure continuity and consistency of programs. The person responsible for implementing this section shall report to the director.

d. Establish and maintain acceptable standards of treatment, training, education, and rehabilitation in the various state penal and corrective institutions which shall include habilitative services and treatment for mentally retarded offenders. For the purposes of this paragraph, habilitative services and treatment means medical, mental health, social, educational, counseling, and other services which will assist a mentally retarded person to become self-reliant. However, the director may also provide rehabilitative treatment and services to other persons who require the services. The director shall identify all individuals entering the correctional system who are mentally retarded, as defined in section 222.2, subsection 5. Identification shall be made by a qualified mental retardation professional. In assigning a mentally retarded offender, or an offender with an inadequately developed intelligence or with impaired mental abilities, to a correctional facility, the director shall consider both the program needs and the security needs of the offender. The director shall consult with the department of human services in providing habilitative services and treatment to mentally ill and mentally retarded offenders.

e. Employ, assign, and reassign personnel as necessary for the performance of duties and responsibilities assigned to the department. Employees shall be selected on the basis of fitness for work to be performed with due regard to training and experience and are subject to chapter 19A.

f. Establish standards of mental fitness which shall govern the initial recruitment, selection, and appointment of correctional officers. To promote these standards, the director shall by rule require a battery of psychological tests to determine cognitive skills, personality characteristics and suitability of all applicants for a correctional career.

g. Examine all state institutions which are penal, reformatory, or corrective to determine their efficiency for adequate care, custody, and training of their inmates and report the findings to the board.

h. Prepare a budget for the department, subject to the approval of the board, and other reports as required by law.

i. Develop long-range correctional planning and an on-going five-year corrections master plan. The director shall annually report to the general assembly to inform its members as to the status and content of the planning and master plan.

j. Supervise rehabilitation camps within the state as may be established by the director. Persons committed to institutions under the department may be transferred to the facilities of the camp system and upon transfer shall be subject to the same laws as pertain to the transferring institution.

k. Adopt rules subject to the approval of the board, pertaining to the internal management of institutions and agencies under the director's charge and necessary to carry out the duties and powers outlined in this section.

l. Adopt rules, policies, and procedures, subject to the approval of the board, pertaining to the supervision of parole and work release.

m. Provide routine administrative and support services to the board of parole.

n. Cooperate with Iowa State University of science and technology to provide, for purposes of agricultural research, development, and testing, the use of resources, including property, facilities, labor, and services, connected with institutions listed in section 246.102. However, use of the resources by the university is subject to approval by the director. Before granting approval, the director shall require that the university compensate the department for the use of the resources, on terms specified by the director.

a Establish and maintain a correctional training center at the Mount Pleasant correctional facility.

2. The director, with the express approval of the board, may establish for any inmate sentenced pursuant to section 902.3 a furlough program under which inmates sentenced to and confined in any institution under the jurisdiction of the department may be temporarily released. A furlough for a period not to exceed fourteen days may be granted when an immediate member of an inmate's family is seriously ill or has died, when an inmate is to be interviewed by a prospective employer, or when an inmate is authorized to participate in a training program not available within the institution. Furloughs for a period not to exceed fourteen days may also be granted in order to allow inmates to participate in programs or activities that serve rehabilitative objectives.

3. The director may establish a sales bonus system for the sales representatives for prison industry products. If a sales bonus system is established, the system shall not affect the status of the sales representatives under chapter 19A.

4. The director may expend moneys from the support allocation of the department as reimbursement for replacement or repair of personal items of the department's employees damaged or destroyed by clients of the department during the employee's tour of duty. However, the reimbursement shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars for each item. The director shall establish rules in accordance with chapter 17A to carry out the purpose of this subsection.

5. The director may obtain assistance for the department for construction, facility planning, and project accomplishment with the department of general services and by contracting under chapter 28E for data processing with the department of human services or the department of general services.

6. The director or the director's designee, having probable cause to believe that a person has escaped from a state correctional institution or a person released on work release has absconded from a work release facility, may make a complaint before a judge or magistrate. If it is determined from the complaint or accompanying affidavits that there is probable cause to believe that the person has escaped from a state correctional institution or absconded from a work release facility, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the person.

246.317 Director may buy and sell real estate — options.

The director, subject to the approval of the board, may secure options to purchase real estate and acquire and sell real estate for the proper uses of the institutions. Real estate shall be acquired and sold upon terms and conditions the director recommends subject to the approval of the board. Upon sale of the real estate, the proceeds shall be deposited with the treasurer of state and credited to the general fund of the state. There is appropriated from the general fund of the state to the department a sum equal to the proceeds so deposited and credited to the general fund of the state which may be used to purchase other real estate or for capital improvements upon property under the director's supervision.

The costs incident to the securing of options and acquisition and sale of real estate including, but not limited to, appraisals, invitations for offers, abstracts, and other necessary costs, may be paid from moneys appropriated for support and maintenance to the institution at which the real estate is located. The fund shall be reimbursed from the proceeds of the sale.

246.503 Transfers — mentally ill.

1. The director may transfer at the expense of the department an inmate of one institution to another institution under the director's control if the director is satisfied that the transfer is in the best interests of the institutions or inmates.

The director may transfer at the expense of the department an inmate under the director's jurisdiction from any institution supervised by the director to another institution under the control of an administrator of a division of the department of human services with the consent and approval of the administrator and may transfer an inmate to any other institution for mental or physical examination or treatment retaining jurisdiction over the inmate when so transferred.

If the juvenile court waives its jurisdiction over a child over thirteen and under eighteen years of age pursuant to section 232.45 so that the child may be prosecuted as an adult and if the child is convicted of a public offense in the district court and committed to the custody of the director under section 901.7, the director may request transfer of the child to the state training school under this section. If the administrator of a division of the department of human services consents and approves the transfer, the child may be retained in temporary custody by the state training school until attaining the age of eighteen, at which time the child shall be returned to the custody of the director of the department of corrections to serve the remainder of the sentence imposed by the district court. If the child becomes a security risk or becomes a danger to other residents of the state training school at any time before reaching eighteen years of age, the administrator of the division of the department of human services may immediately return the child to the custody of the director of the department of corrections to serve the remainder of the sentence.

2. When the director has cause to believe that an inmate in a state correctional institution is mentally ill, the Iowa department of corrections may cause the inmate to be transferred to the Iowa medical and classification center for examination, diagnosis, or treatment. The inmate shall be confined at that institution or a state hospital for the mentally ill until the expiration of the inmate's sentence or until the inmate is pronounced in good mental health. If the inmate is pronounced in good mental health before the expiration of the inmate's sentence, the inmate shall be returned to the state correctional institution until the expiration of the inmate's sentence.

3. When the director has reason to believe that a prisoner in a state correctional institution, whose sentence has expired, is mentally ill, the director shall cause examination to be made of the prisoner by competent physicians who shall certify to the director whether the prisoner is in good mental health or mentally ill. The director may make further investigation and if satisfied that the prisoner is mentally ill, the director may cause the prisoner to be transferred to one of the hospitals for the mentally ill, or may order the prisoner to be confined in the Iowa medical and classification center.

4. The director shall assure that an inmate transferred pursuant to this section is accompanied by a person of the same sex as the inmate.

246.505 Disciplinary procedures — use of force.

1. Inmates who disobey the disciplinary rules of the institution to which they are committed shall be punished by the imposition of the penalties prescribed in the disciplinary rules, according to the following guidelines:

a. To ensure that sanctions are imposed only at such times and to such a degree as is necessary to regulate inmate behavior within the limits of the disciplinary rules and to promote a safe and orderly institutional environment.

b. To control inmate behavior in an impartial and consistent manner.

c. To ensure that disciplinary procedures are fair and that sanctions are not capricious or retaliatory.

d. To prevent the commission of offenses through the deterrent effect of the sanctions available.

e. To define the elements of each offense and the penalties which may be imposed for violations, in order to give fair warning of prohibited conduct.

f. To provide procedures for preparation of reports of disciplinary actions, for conducting disciplinary hearings, and for processing of disciplinary appeals.

2. The superintendent of each institution shall maintain a register of all penalties imposed on inmates and the cause for which the penalties were imposed.

3. A correctional officer of a correctional institution or the officer's assistant shall, in case an inmate resists the officer's or assistant's lawful authority, or refuses to obey the officer's or assistant's lawful command, only use such force as is reasonably necessary under all attendant circumstances. The use of a deadly weapon is justified under conditions of extreme necessity and as a last resort to protect the life or safety of a person. The use of a deadly weapon is not justified solely to prevent damage to or destruction of property where there is no danger to the life or safety of a person. An officer or assistant is justified in using force which causes injury or death to an inmate if the officer's or assistant's actions comply with the requirements of this subsection.

85 Acts, ch 21, §21

246.506 Confiscation of currency.

1. Except as provided for by the director by rule, it is unlawful for an inmate of one of the penal or correctional facilities under the department to possess United States or foreign currency in the penal or correctional facility.

2. The director shall adopt rules as to circumstances under which the possession of currency by an inmate of a penal or correctional facility under the department is authorized.

3 The department may confiscate currency unlawfully possessed in violation of this section. Money confiscated pursuant to this section shall be deposited in a special fund in the state treasury which fund shall be established by the treasurer of state. Money deposited in the fund may be drawn upon by the department to pay for expenses incurred in operating the division's penal and correctional facilities and programs.

246.508 Property of inmate.

The superintendent of each institution shall receive and care for any property an inmate may possess on the inmate's person upon entering the institution, and on the discharge of the inmate, return the property to the inmate or the inmate's legal representatives, unless the property has been previously disposed of according to the inmate's written designation or policies prescribed by the board. The superintendent may place an inmate's money at interest, keeping an account of the money and returning the remaining money and interest upon discharge.

Upon the death of an inmate, the superintendent of the institution shall immediately take possession of the decedent's property left at the institution and shall deliver the property to the duly appointed representative of the deceased. However, if administration is not granted within one year from the date of the death of the decedent and the value of the estate of decedent is so small as to make the granting of administration inadvisable, then delivery of the money and other property left by the decedent may be made to the surviving spouse or an heir of the decedent. If administration is not granted within one year from the death of decedent and no surviving spouse or heir is known, the superintendent shall convert the property into money.

246.513 Assignment of OWI violators to treatment facilities.

1 The department of corrections in cooperation with judicial district departments of correctional services shall establish in each judicial district bed space for the confinement and treatment of offenders convicted of violating chapter 321J who are sentenced to the custody of the director. The offenders shall first be assigned to the Iowa medical classification facility at Oakdale for classification and after classification may be assigned to a residential facility.

ity operated by any judicial district department of correctional services. The facilities established shall meet all the following requirements:

a. Is a treatment facility meeting the licensure standards of the division of substance abuse of the department of public health.

b. Is a facility meeting applicable standards of the American corrections association.

c. Is a facility which meets any other rule or requirement adopted by the department pursuant to chapter 17A.

2. The assignment of an offender pursuant to subsection 1 shall be for purposes of substance abuse treatment and education, and may include work programs for the offender at times when the offender is not in substance abuse treatment or education.

3. Offenders assigned to a facility pursuant to this section shall not be included in calculations used to determine the existence of a prison over crowding state of emergency.

4. Upon request by the director a county shall provide temporary confinement for offenders allegedly violating the conditions of assignment to a treatment program if space is available. The department shall negotiate a reimbursement rate with each county for the temporary confinement of offenders allegedly violating the conditions of assignment to a treatment program who are in the custody of the director or who are housed or supervised by the judicial district department of correctional services. The amount to be reimbursed shall be determined by multiplying the number of days a person is confined by the average daily cost of confining a person in the county facility as negotiated with the department. Payment shall be made upon submission of a voucher executed by the sheriff and approved by the director.

5. The director shall prepare proposed administrative rules for the consideration of the administrative rules review committee for the funding of the program by means of self contribution by the offenders, insurance reimbursement on behalf of offenders, or other forms of funding, program structure, criteria for the evaluation of facilities and offenders for participation in the programs, and all other issues the director shall deem appropriate. Proposed rules prepared pursuant to this subsection shall be submitted to the administrative rules review committee on or before September 15, 1986.

246.514 Required test.

A person committed to an institution under the control of the department who bites another person, who causes an exchange of bodily fluids with another person, or who causes any bodily secretion to be cast upon another person, shall submit to the withdrawal of a bodily specimen for testing to determine if the person is infected with a contagious infectious disease. The bodily specimen to be taken shall be determined by the staff physician of the institution. The specimen taken shall be sent to the state hygienic laboratory at the state university at

Iowa City or some other laboratory approved by the Iowa department of public health. If a person to be tested pursuant to this section refuses to submit to the withdrawal of a bodily specimen, application may be made by the superintendent of the institution to the district court for an order compelling the person to submit to the withdrawal and, if infected, to available treatment. An order authorizing the withdrawal of a specimen for testing may be issued only by a district judge or district associate judge upon application by the superintendent of the institution.

Failure to comply with an order issued pursuant to this section may result in the forfeiture of good conduct time, not to exceed one year, earned up to the time of the failure to comply.

Personnel at an institution under the control of the department or of a residential facility operated by a judicial district department of correctional services shall be notified if a person committed to any of these institutions is found to have a contagious infectious disease.

The department shall adopt policies and procedures to prevent the transmittal of a contagious infectious disease to other persons.

For purposes of this section, "infectious disease" means any infectious condition which if spread by contamination would place others at a serious health risk.

INMATE WORK

246.701 Services required — gratuitous allowances.

Inmates of the institutions may be required to perform any proper and reasonable service suited to their strength and attainments, for the benefit of the institutions or the welfare of the inmates, either in the institutions proper or in the industries established in connection with them. When an inmate of an institution is working outside the institution proper, the inmate shall be deemed at all times to be in the actual custody of the superintendent of the institution.

The director may when practicable pay the inmate an allowance as the director deems proper in view of the circumstances, and in view of the cost attending the maintenance of the inmate. The allowance is a gratuitous payment and is not a wage arising out of an employment relationship. The payment shall not exceed the amount paid to free labor for a like or equivalent service.

246.702 Deduction to pay court costs, industries program costs, incarceration costs, or dependents — deposits.

If allowances are paid pursuant to section 246 701, the director may deduct an amount established by the inmate's restitution plan of payment or an amount sufficient to pay all or part of the court costs taxed as a result of the inmate's commitment. The amount deducted shall be forwarded to the clerk of the district court or proper official. The director may deduct and disburse an amount sufficient for industries' programs to qualify under the eligibility requirements established in the Justice Assistance Act of 1984, Pub L No 98 473, including an amount to pay all or part of the cost of the inmate's incarceration. The director may pay all or any part of remaining allowances paid pursuant to section 246 701 directly to a dependent of the inmate, or may deposit the allowance to the account of the inmate, or may deposit a portion and allow the inmate a portion for the inmate's personal use.

246.703 Services of inmates — institutions and public service.

Inmates shall work on state account in the maintenance of state institutions, in the erection, repair, authorized demolition, or operation of buildings and works used in connection with the institutions, and in industries established and maintained in connection with the institutions by the director. The director shall encourage the making of agreements with departments and agencies of the state or its political subdivisions to provide products or services under an inmate work program to the departments and agencies. The director may implement an inmate work program for trustworthy inmates of state correctional institutions, under proper supervision, whether at work centers located outside the state correctional institutions or in construction or maintenance work at public or charitable facilities and for other agencies of state, county, or local government. The supervision, security, and transportation of, and allowances paid to inmates used in public service projects shall be provided pursuant to agreements made by the director and the agency for which the work is done. Housing and maintenance shall also be provided pursuant to the agreement unless the inmate is housed and maintained in the correctional facility. All such work, including but not limited to that provided in this section, shall have as its primary purpose the development of attitudes, skills, and habit patterns which are conducive to inmate rehabilitation. The director may adopt rules allowing inmates participating in an inmate work program to receive educational or vocational training outside the state correctional institutions and away from the work centers or public or charitable facilities used under a program.

However, an inmate shall not work in a public service project if the work of that inmate would replace a person employed by the state agency or political subdivision, which employee is performing the work of the public service project at the time the inmate is being considered for work in the project.

246.705 Industries — forestry nurseries.

The director may establish industries at or in connection with any of the institutions under the director's control and may make contractual agreements with the United States, other states, state departments and agencies, and subdivisions of the state, for purchase of industry products.

The director may with the assistance of the department of natural resources establish and operate forestry nurseries on state owned land under the control of the department. Residents of the adult correctional institutions shall provide the labor for the operation. Nursery stock shall be sold in accordance with the rules of the natural resource commission. The department shall pay the costs of establishing and operating the forestry nurseries out of the revolving farm fund created in section 246 706. The department of natural resources shall pay the costs of transporting, sorting, and distributing nursery stock to and from or on state owned land under the control of the department of natural resources. Receipts from the sale of nursery stock produced under this section shall be divided between the department and the department of natural resources in direct proportion to their respective costs as a percentage of the total costs. The department shall deposit its receipts in the revolving farm fund created in section 246 706.

246.706 Revolving farm fund.

A revolving farm fund is created in the state treasury in which the department shall deposit receipts from agricultural products, nursery stock, agricultural land rentals, and the sale of livestock. However, before any agricultural operation is phased out, the department which proposes to discontinue this operation shall notify the governor, chairpersons and ranking members of the house and senate appropriations committees, and cochairpersons and ranking members of the subcommittee in the senate and house of representatives which has handled the appropriation for this department in the past session of the legislature. Before the department sells farm land under the control of the department, the director shall notify the governor, chairpersons and ranking members of the house and senate appropriations committees, and cochairpersons and ranking members of the joint appropriations subcommittee that handled the appropriation for the department during the past legislative session. The department may pay from the fund for the operation, maintenance, and improvement of farms and agricultural or nursery property under the control of the department. A purchase order for five thousand dollars or less payable from the fund is exempt from the general purchasing requirements of chapter 18. Notwithstanding section 8 33, unencumbered or unobligated receipts in the revolving farm fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not revert to the general fund of the state and the investment proceeds earned from the balance of the fund shall be credited to the fund and used for the purposes provided for in this section.

The department shall annually prepare a financial statement to provide for an accounting of the funds in the revolving farm fund. The financial statement shall be filed with the legislative fiscal bureau on or before February 1 each year.

As used in this section, "department" means the Iowa department of corrections and the Iowa department of human services.

The farm operations administrator appointed under section 246 302 shall perform the functions described under section 246 302 for agricultural operations on property of the Iowa department of human services.

The Iowa department of human services shall enter into an agreement under chapter 28D with the Iowa department of corrections to implement this section.

246.801 Statement of intent.

It is the intent of this division that there be made available to inmates of the state correctional institutions opportunities for work in meaningful jobs with the following objectives:

1 To develop within those inmates willing to accept and persevere in such work:

a. Positive attitudes which will enable them to eventually function as law abiding, self supporting members of the community,

b. Good work habits that will assist them in eventually securing and holding gainful employment outside the correctional system, and

c. To the extent feasible, marketable skills that can lead directly to gainful employment upon release from a correctional institution.

2 To enable those inmates willing to accept and persevere in such work to:

a. Provide or assist in providing for their dependents, thus tending to strengthen the inmates' family ties while reducing the likelihood that inmates' families will have to rely upon public assistance for subsistence,

b. Make restitution, as the opportunity to do so becomes available, to the victims of the offenses for which the inmates were incarcerated, so as to assist the inmates in accepting responsibility for the consequences of their acts,

c. Make it feasible to require that such inmates pay some portion of the cost of board and maintenance in a correctional institution, in a manner similar to what would be necessary if they were employed in the community, and

d. Accumulate savings so that such inmates will have funds for necessities upon their eventual return to the community.

246.803 Prison industries advisory board.

1 There is established a state prison industries advisory board, consisting of seven members selected as prescribed by this subsection.

a. Five members shall be appointed by the governor for terms of four years beginning July 1 of the year of appointment. They shall be chosen as follows:

(1) One member shall represent agriculture and one member shall represent manufacturing, with particular reference to the roles of their constituents as potential employers of former inmates of the state's correctional institutions.

(2) One member shall represent labor organizations, membership in which may be helpful to former inmates of the state's correctional institutions who seek to train for and obtain gainful employment.

(3) One member shall represent agencies, groups and individuals in this state which plan and maintain programs of vocational and technical education oriented to development of marketable skills.

(4) One member shall represent the financial industry and be familiar with accounting practices in private industry.

b. One member each shall be designated by and shall serve at the pleasure of the state director and the state board of parole, respectively.

c. Upon the resignation, death or removal of any member appointed under paragraph "a" of this subsection, the vacancy shall be filled by the governor for the balance of the unexpired term. In making the initial appointments under that paragraph, the governor shall designate two appointees to serve terms of two years and three to serve terms of four years from July 1, 1977.

2 Biennially, the industries board shall organize by election of a chairperson and a vice chairperson, as soon as reasonably possible after the new appointees have been named. Other meetings shall be held at the call of the chairperson or of any three members, as necessary to enable the industries board to discharge its duties Board members shall be reimbursed for expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties, and those members not state employees shall also be entitled to forty dollars per diem for each day they are so engaged

3 The state director shall provide such administrative and technical assistance as is necessary to enable the industries board to discharge its duties The industries board shall be provided necessary office and meeting space at the seat of government [C79, 81, §216 3, 82 Acts, ch 1149, §1]

Transferred in Code Supplement 1985 from §216 4 in Code 1985

246.805 Duties of state director.

The state director, with the advice of the industries board, shall

1 Conduct market studies and consult with public bodies and officers who are listed in section 246 807, and with other potential purchasers, for the purpose of determining items or services needed and design features desired or required by potential purchasers of Iowa state industries products or services

2 Receive, investigate and take appropriate action upon any complaints from potential purchasers of Iowa state industries products or services regarding lack of cooperation by Iowa state industries with public bodies and officers who are listed in section 246 807, and with other potential purchasers

3 Establish, transfer and close industrial operations as deemed advisable to maximize opportunities for gainful work for inmates and to adjust to actual or potential market demand for particular products or services

4 Establish and from time to time adjust, as necessary, levels of allowances paid to inmates working in Iowa state industries

5 Coordinate Iowa state industries, and other opportunities for gainful work available to inmates of adult correctional institutions, with vocational and technical training opportunities and apprenticeship programs, to the greatest extent feasible

6 Promote, plan, and when deemed advisable, assist in the location of privately owned and operated industrial enterprises on the grounds of adult correctional institutions, pursuant to section 246 809

246.808 State purchasing requirements — exceptions.

1 A product possessing the performance characteristics of a product listed in the price lists prepared pursuant to section 246 807 shall not be purchased by any department or agency of state government from a source other than Iowa state industries, except

a. When the purchase is made under emergency circumstances, which shall be explained in writing by the public body or officer who made or authorized the purchase if the state director so requests, or

b. When the state director releases, in writing, the obligation of the department or agency to purchase the product from Iowa state industries, after determining that Iowa state industries is unable to meet the performance characteristics of the purchase request for the product, and a copy of the release is attached to the request to the director of revenue and finance for payment for a similar product, or when Iowa state industries is unable to furnish needed products, comparable in both quality and price to those available from alternative sources, within a reasonable length of time Any disputes arising between a purchasing department or agency and Iowa state industries regarding similarity of products, or comparability of quality or price, or the availability of the product, shall be referred to the director of the department of general services, whose decision shall be subject to appeal as provided in section 18 7 However, if the purchasing department is the department of general services, any matter which would be referred to the director under this paragraph shall be referred to the executive council in the same manner as if the matter were to be heard by the director of the department of general services The decision of the executive council is final

2 The state director shall adopt and update as necessary rules setting specific delivery schedules for each of the products manufactured by Iowa state industries These delivery schedules shall not apply where a different delivery schedule is specifically negotiated by Iowa state industries and a particular purchaser

3 A department or agency of the state shall cooperate and enter into agreements, if possible, for the provision of products and services under an inmate work program established by the state director under section 246 805, subsection 7

246.813 Industries revolving fund — uses.

1 There is established in the treasury of the state a permanent Iowa state industries revolving fund This revolving fund shall be created by the transfer thereto of all moneys in the revolving fund formerly established under section 246 26 as that section appeared in the Code of 1977 and prior editions, and shall be maintained by depositing therein all receipts from the sale of products manufactured by Iowa state industries, and from sale of any property of Iowa state industries found by the state director to be obsolete or unneeded.

2. The Iowa state industries revolving fund shall be used only for the following purposes:

a. Establishment, maintenance, transfer, or closure of industrial operations, or vocational, technical, and related training facilities and services for inmates as authorized by the state director in consultation with the industries board.

b. Payment of all costs incurred by the industries board, including but not limited to per diem and expenses of its members, and of salaries, allowances, support, and maintenance of Iowa state industries.

c. Direct purchases from vendors of raw materials and capital items used for the manufacturing processes of Iowa state industries, in accordance with rules which meet state bidding requirements. The rules shall be adopted by the state director in consultation with the industries board.

Payments from the revolving fund, other than salary payments, shall be made directly to the vendors.

3. The Iowa state industries revolving fund shall not be used for the operation of farms at any adult correctional institution unless such farms are operated directly by Iowa state industries.

4. The fund established by this section shall not revert to the general fund of the state at the end of any annual or biennial period and the investment proceeds earned from the balance of the fund shall be credited to the fund and used for the purposes provided for in this section.

There is established in the treasury of the state a permanent adult correctional institutions inmate allowance supplement revolving fund, consisting solely of money paid as board and maintenance by inmates working in Iowa state industries, or working pursuant to section 246.809. The fund established by this section may be used to supplement the allowances of inmates who perform other institutional work within and about the adult correctional institutions including those who are working in Iowa state industries. Payments made from the fund shall supplement and not replace all or any part of the allowances otherwise received by, and shall be equably distributed among such inmates. The work of inmates in other institutional or industry work shall, to the greatest extent feasible, be in accord with the intent stated in section 246.801. The fund may also be used to supplement other rehabilitation activities within the adult correctional institutions. Determination of the use of the funds is the responsibility of the state director who shall first seek the advice of the prison industries advisory board. [C79, 81, §216.11; 82 Acts, ch 1149, §3]

DIVISION IX

WORK RELEASE

246.901 Program.

The Iowa department of corrections, in consultation with the board of parole, shall establish a work release program under which the board of parole may grant inmates sentenced to an institution under the jurisdiction of the department the privilege of leaving actual confinement during necessary and reasonable hours for the purpose of working at gainful employment. Under appropriate conditions the program may also include an out-of-state work or treatment placement or release for the purpose of seeking employment and attendance at an educational institution. An inmate may be placed on work release status in the inmate's own home, under appropriate circumstances, which may include child care and housekeeping in the inmate's own home.

246.902 Committee. Repealed by 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1525.

246.903 Agreement by inmate.

An inmate approved to participate in the work release program shall sign a work release agreement. The agreement shall include a statement that the inmate agrees to abide by all terms and conditions of the particular plan adopted for the inmate by the board of parole, shall state the name and address of the proposed employer, if any, and contain terms and conditions the board of parole deems necessary and proper. The plan shall be signed by the inmate prior to participation in the program. Approval may be revoked for any reason by a member of the board of parole at any time after being granted

246.904 Housing facilities — halfway houses.

Unless the inmate is transferred to the correctional release center, or returns after working hours to the institution under jurisdiction of the department of corrections, the department of corrections shall contract with a judicial district department of correctional services for the quartering and supervision of the inmate in local housing facilities. The board of parole shall include as a specific term or condition in the work release plan of any inmate the place where the inmate is to be housed when not on the work assignment. The board of parole shall not place an inmate on work release for longer than six months in any twelve month period unless approval is given by a majority of the full board of parole. Inmates may be temporarily released to the supervision of a responsible person to participate in family and selected community, religious, educational, social, civic, and recreational activities when it is determined that the participation will directly facilitate the release transition from institution to community. The department of corrections shall provide a copy of the work release plan and a copy of any restitution plan of payment to the judicial district department of correctional services quartering and supervising the inmate.

246.905 Surrender of earnings.

An inmate employed in the community under a work release plan shall surrender to the judicial district department of correctional services the inmate's total earnings less payroll deductions required by law. The judicial district department of correctional services shall deduct from the earnings in the following order of priority:

1 An amount determined to be the cost to the judicial district department of correctional services for providing food, lodging and clothing for the inmate while under the program.

2 The actual and necessary food, travel and other expenses of the inmate when released from actual confinement under the program.

3 An amount the inmate may be legally obligated to pay for the support of the inmate's dependents, the amount of which shall be paid to the dependents through the local department of human services in the county or city in which the dependents reside.

4 Restitution as ordered by the court pursuant to chapter 910.

Any balance remaining after deductions and payments shall be credited to the inmate's personal account at the judicial district department of correctional services and shall be paid to the inmate upon release. An inmate so employed shall be paid a fair and reasonable wage in accordance with the prevailing wage scale for such work and shall work at fair and reasonable hours per day and per week.

246.908 Alleged work release violators — temporary confinement by counties — reimbursement.

1 Upon request by the Iowa department of corrections, the board of parole, or a judicial district department of correctional services a county shall provide temporary confinement for alleged violators of work release conditions if space is available.

2 The Iowa department of corrections shall negotiate a reimbursement rate with each county for the temporary confinement of alleged violators of work release conditions who are in the custody of the director of the Iowa department of corrections or who are housed or supervised by the judicial district department of correctional services. The amount to be reimbursed shall be determined by multiplying the number of days a person is confined by the average daily cost of confining a person in the county facility as negotiated with the department. Payment shall be made upon submission of a voucher executed by the sheriff and approved by the director of the Iowa department of corrections.

246.909 Work release violators — reimbursement to the department of corrections for transportation costs.

The department of corrections shall arrange for the return of a work release client who escapes or participates in an act of absconding from the facility to which the client is assigned. The client shall reimburse the department of corrections for the cost of transportation incurred because of the escape or act of absconding. The amount of reimbursement shall be the actual cost incurred by the department and shall be credited to the support account from which the billing occurred. The director of the department of corrections shall recommend rules pursuant to chapter 17A, subject to approval by the board of corrections pursuant to section 246.105, subsection 7, to implement this section.

247.2 Corrections compact.

The interstate corrections compact is hereby enacted into law and entered into by this state with any other states legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

INTERSTATE CORRECTIONS COMPACT

ARTICLE I — PURPOSE AND POLICY

The party states, desiring by common action to fully utilize and improve their institutional facilities and provide adequate programs for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of co-operation with one another, thereby servicing the best interests of such offenders and of society and effecting economies in capital expenditures and operational costs. The purpose of this compact is to provide for the mutual development and execution of such programs of co-operation for the confinement, treatment and rehabilitation of offenders with the most economical use of human and material resources.

ARTICLE II — DEFINITIONS

As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

1. “State” means a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; the commonwealth of Puerto Rico.
2. “Sending state” means a state party to this compact in which conviction or court commitment was had.
3. “Receiving state” means a state party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction or court commitment was had.

4. "Inmate" means an offender who is committed, under sentence to or confined in a penal or correctional institution.

5. "Institution" means any penal or correctional facility, including but not limited to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective, in which inmates may lawfully be confined.

ARTICLE III — CONTRACTS

Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:

1. Its duration.
2. Payments to be made to the receiving state by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance.
3. Participation in programs of inmate work, if any; the disposition or crediting of payments received by inmates on account of the work; and the crediting of proceeds from or disposal of products resulting from the work.
4. Delivery and retaking of inmates.
5. Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities and rights of the sending and receiving states.

The terms and provisions of this compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto, and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.

ARTICLE IV — PROCEDURES AND RIGHTS

Whenever the duly constituted authorities in a state party to this compact, and which has entered into a contract pursuant to article III, shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary or desirable in order to provide adequate quarters and care or an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution within the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

The appropriate officials of any state party to this compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institution in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.

Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state; provided that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of article III.

Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this compact including a conduct record of each inmate and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have official review of the inmate's record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.

All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.

Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state, or of the receiving state if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record together with any recommendations of the hearing officials shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state.

Any inmate confined pursuant to this compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.

Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or the inmate's status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which the inmate could have par-anticipated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state

The parent, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise, or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in their exercise of any power in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact

ARTICLE V — ACTS NOT REVIEWABLE IN RECEIVING STATE — EXTRADITION

Any decision of the sending state in respect of any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this compact shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state, but if at the time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge or if the inmate is formally accused of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact without interference

An inmate who escapes from an institution in which the inmate is confined pursuant to this compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition or rendition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee

ARTICLE VI — FEDERAL AID

Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant hereto and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision, provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen, the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor

ARTICLE VII — ENTRY INTO FORCE

This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state

ARTICLE VIII — WITHDRAWAL AND TERMINATION

This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate officials of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until one year after the notices provided in said statute have been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before the effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact

ARTICLE IX — OTHER ARRANGEMENTS UNAFFECTED

Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a nonparty state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of cooperative institutional arrangements

ARTICLE X — CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the Constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the Constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters

 248A 6 Procedures -- filing

248A.1 Power of governor.

The power of the governor under the constitution to grant a reprieve, pardon, commutation of sentence, remission of fines and forfeitures, or restoration of the rights of citizenship shall not be impaired
 86 Acts, ch 1112, §4

248A.2 Right of application.

A person convicted of a criminal offense has the right to make application to the board of parole for recommendation or to the governor for a reprieve, pardon, commutation of sentence, remission of fines or forfeitures, or restoration of rights of citizenship at any time following the conviction
 86 Acts, ch 1112, §5

248A.3 Recommendations by board of parole.

1 The board of parole shall periodically review all applications by persons convicted of criminal offenses and shall recommend to the governor the reprieve, pardon, commutation of sentence, remission of fines or forfeitures, or restoration of the rights of citizenship for persons who have by their conduct given satisfactory evidence that they will become or continue to be law-abiding citizens

2 The board of parole shall, upon request of the governor, take charge of all correspondence in reference to an application filed with the governor and shall, after careful investigation, provide the governor with the board's advice and recommendation concerning any person for whom the board has not previously issued a recommendation.

3 All recommendations and advice of the board of parole shall be entered in the proper records of the board

86 Acts, ch 1112, §6, 87 Acts, ch 115, §35

248A.4 Response to recommendation.

The governor shall respond to all recommendations made by the board of parole within ninety days of the receipt of the recommendation. The response shall state whether or not the recommendation will be granted and shall specifically set out the reasons for such action. If the governor does not grant the recommendation, the recommendation shall be returned to the board of parole and may be refiled with the governor at any time. Any recommendation may be withdrawn by the board of parole at any time prior to its being granted. However, if the board withdraws a recommendation, a statement of the withdrawal, and the reasons upon which it was based, shall be entered in the proper records of the board.

248A.5 Evidence – testimony – recommendation.

1 When an application or recommendation is made to the governor for a reprieve, pardon, commutation of sentence, remission of fines and forfeitures, or restoration of rights of citizenship, the governor may require the judge or clerk of the appropriate court, or the county attorney or attorney general by whom the action was prosecuted, to furnish the governor without delay a copy of the minutes of evidence taken on the trial, and any other facts having reference to the propriety of the governor's exercise of the governor's powers in the premises.

2 The governor may take testimony as the governor deems advisable relating to any application or recommendation. A person who provides written or oral testimony pursuant to this subsection is subject to chapter 720.

3 With regard to an application for the restoration of the rights of citizenship, the warden or superintendent, upon request of the governor, shall furnish the governor with a statement of the person's deportment during the period of imprisonment and a recommendation as to the propriety of restoration.

86 Acts, ch 1112, §8

248A.6 Procedures – filing.

1 Pardons, commutations of sentences, remissions of fines and forfeitures, and restorations of rights of citizenship shall be issued in duplicate. Reprieves shall be issued in triplicate.

2 In the case of a pardon, commutation of sentence, or reprieve, if the person is in custody, the executive instruments shall be forwarded to the officer having custody of the person. The officer, upon receipt of the instruments, shall do the following:

a. Retain one copy of the instrument.

b. Enter the appropriate notations on the records of the office.

c. Carry out the orders of the instrument.

d. On one copy, make a written return as required by the order and forward the copy to the clerk of court where the judgment is of record.

e. In the case of reprieves, deliver the third copy to the person whose sentence is reprieved.

3 In the case of a remission of fines and forfeitures, restoration of rights of citizenship, or a pardon, commutation of sentence, or reprieve, if the person is not in custody, one copy of the executive instrument shall be delivered to the person and one copy to the clerk of court where the judgment is of record.

4 The clerk of court shall, upon receipt of the copy of the executive instrument, immediately file and preserve the copy in the clerk's office and note the filing on the judgment docket of the case, except that remissions of fines and forfeitures shall be spread at length on the record books of the court, and indexed in the same manner as the original case.

249.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter

1 “Federal supplemental security income” means cash payments made to individuals by the United States government under Title XVI of the Social Security Act as amended by United States public law 92 603, or any other amendments thereto.

2 “State supplementary assistance” means cash payments made to individuals

a. By the United States government on behalf of the state of Iowa pursuant to section 249 2

b. By the state of Iowa directly pursuant to sections 249 3 to 249 5

3 “Previous categorical assistance programs” means the aid to the blind program authorized by chapter 241, the aid to the disabled program authorized by chapter 241A and the old age assistance program authorized by chapter 249 of the Code of 1973

4 “Director” means the director of human services

5 “Department” means the department of human services

249.2 Agreement with federal authority.

The director may enter into an agreement with the United States secretary of health and human services for federal administration of a program of state supplementary assistance to prescribed categories of persons who are, or would be except for the amount of income they receive from other sources, receiving federal supplemental security income. The agreement may authorize the secretary to make rules, in addition to and not in conflict with state laws and regulations, respecting eligibility for or the amount of state supplementary assistance paid under this section as the secretary finds necessary to achieve efficient and effective administration of both the basic federal supplemental security income program and the state supplementary assistance program administered by the secretary under the agreement. The agreement shall provide for the state of Iowa to reimburse the federal government, from funds appropriated for that purpose, for state supplementary assistance paid by the federal government pursuant to the agreement.

249.3 Eligibility.

The persons eligible to receive state supplementary assistance under section 249 1, subsection 2, paragraph “b,” are

1 Any person whose needs were taken into account in computing the grant of a recipient, who was eligible for and was receiving assistance under a previous categorical assistance program during the month of December 1973, because the person was deemed essential to the well being of the recipient in maintaining a living arrangement in the recipient’s own home, so long as the person continues to act in the capacity of essential person to the former recipient and to be in financial need according to standards established by the department

2 Any person who meets the criteria established by paragraphs “a,” “b” and “c” of this subsection

a. Is receiving either

(1) Care in a licensed adult foster home, boarding home or custodial home, as defined by section 135C 1, or in another type of protective living arrangement as defined by the department, or

(2) Nursing care in the person’s own home, certified by a physician as being required, so long as the cost of the nursing care does not exceed standards established by the department

b. Is in fact receiving or would, except for income in excess of applicable maximums, be receiving federal supplemental security income

c. Does not have sufficient income to meet the cost of care in one of the living arrangements defined in paragraph “a” of this subsection, which cost of care shall not exceed the amount established by the rules of the department for each of those living arrangements

3 Any person living in any living arrangement other than as a patient or resident of a facility licensed under chapter 135C, who meets the criteria established by paragraphs “a,” “b” and “c”

a. Lives with a dependent spouse, parent, child or adult child who is sharing the recipient’s living arrangement, so long as the person continues in the relationship of dependent spouse, parent, child or adult child to the recipient and to be in financial need according to standards established by the department

b. Is in fact receiving or would, except for income in excess of applicable maximums, be receiving federal supplemental security income

c. Does not have sufficient income to meet the cost of providing for the dependent spouse, parent, child or adult child, according to standards established by the department

[SS15, §2722 i, j, k, C24, 27, 31, §5379, C35, §5296 f9, f12, 5379, C39, §3684.02, 3828.007, 3828.008; C46, 50, 54, 58, §241 2, 249 5, 249 6, C62, 66, 71, 73, §241 2, 241A 2, 249 5, 249 6, C75, 77, 79, 81, §249 3]

249.4 Application – amount of grant.

Applications for state supplementary assistance shall be made in the form and manner prescribed by the director or the director’s designee, with the approval of the council on human services, pursuant to chapter 17A. Each person who so applies and is found eligible under section 249 3 shall, so long as the person’s eligibility continues, receive state supplementary assistance on a monthly basis, from funds appropriated to the department for the purpose

[SS15, §2722 m, p, C24, 27, 31, §5382, 5384, C35, §5296 f17, f18, 5382, 5384, C39, §3684.06, 3684.09, 3828.013, 3828.014; C46, 50, 54, 58, §241 6, 241 9, 249 10, 249 11, C62, 66, 71, 73, §241 6, 241 9, 241A 5, 241A 6, 249 10, 249 11, C75, 77, 79, 81, §249 4]

249.5 Judicial review.

If an application is not acted upon within a reasonable time, if it is denied in whole or in part, or if any award of assistance is modified, suspended or canceled under any provision of this chapter, the applicant or recipient may appeal to the department, which shall give the appellant reasonable notice and opportunity for a fair hearing before the director or the director's designee. Judicial review of the actions of the commission may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Upon receipt of the petition for judicial review, the department shall furnish the petitioner with a copy of any papers filed by the petitioner in support of the petitioner's position, a transcript of any testimony taken, and a copy of the department's decision.

249.6 Charge for cashing warrant unlawful.

It shall be unlawful for any person to charge a fee, service charge or exchange for the cashing of a warrant issued in payment of state supplementary assistance, or to discount or pay less than the face value of any warrant drawn in payment of such assistance, when cashing such a warrant or accepting it in payment of the purchase price of goods, services, rent, taxes or indebtedness.

249.7 Assistance inalienable.

All rights to state supplementary assistance shall be absolutely inalienable by any assignment, sale, execution or otherwise and, in case of bankruptcy, the assistance shall not pass to or through any trustees or other persons acting on behalf of creditors.

249.8 Cancellation of warrants.

The director of revenue and finance, as of January, April, July and October 1 of each year, shall stop payment on and issue duplicates of all state supplementary assistance warrants which have been outstanding and unredeemed by the treasurer of state for six months or longer. No bond of indemnity shall be required for the issuance of such duplicate warrants which shall be canceled immediately by the director of revenue and finance. If the original warrants are subsequently presented for payment, warrants in lieu thereof shall be issued by the director of revenue and finance at the discretion of and upon certification by the director of human services or the director's designee.

249.9 Funeral expenses.

The department may pay, from funds appropriated to it for the purpose, a maximum of four hundred dollars toward funeral expenses on the death of a person receiving state supplementary assistance or who received assistance under a previous categorical assistance program prior to January 1, 1974, provided:

1. The decedent does not leave an estate which may be probated with sufficient proceeds to allow for payment of the funeral claim.

2. Payments which are due the decedent's estate or beneficiary by reason of the liability of a life insurance, death or funeral benefit company, association or society, or in the form of United States social security, railroad retirement, or veterans' benefits upon the death of the decedent, are deducted from the department's liability under this section.

249.10 Prior liens, claims and assignments.

Any lien or claim against the estate of a decedent existing on January 1, 1974, which lien was perfected or which claim was filed under the provisions of section 249.19, 249.20 or 249.21 as they appeared in the Code of 1973 and prior Codes, and which liens or claims have not been satisfied, are void. Any assignment of personal property which was made under the provisions of chapter 249 as it appeared in the Code of 1973 and prior Codes, is void. The director may in furtherance of this section release any lien or claim created or existing under that chapter. Each release made pursuant to this section shall be executed and acknowledged by the director or the director's authorized designee, and when recorded shall be conclusive in favor of any third person dealing with or concerning the property affected by the release in reliance upon such record.

249.12 Cost-related system.

In order to assure that the necessary data is available to aid the general assembly to determine appropriate funding for the custodial care program, the department of human services shall develop a cost related system for financial supplementation to individuals who need custodial care and who have insufficient resources to purchase the care needed

All privately operated licensed custodial facilities in Iowa shall cooperate with the department of human services to develop the cost related plan After the plan is implemented, state supplemental funds shall not be used for the care of any individual in facilities that have not submitted cost statements to the department of human services

249.13 County attorney to enforce.

It is the intent of the general assembly that violations of law relating to aid to dependent child, medical assistance, and supplemental assistance shall be prosecuted by county attorneys Area prosecutors of the office of the attorney general shall provide such assistance in prosecution as may be required It is the intent of the general assembly that the first priority for investigation and prosecution for which funds are provided by this Act* shall be for fraudulent claims or practices by health care vendors and providers

[C79, 81, §249 13]

249.14 Old-age assistance revolving fund.

The old age assistance revolving fund shall remain in the state treasury until all property managed by the department and maintained by the fund is disposed of, at which time all money in the fund shall be transferred to the general fund of the state and the fund shall be closed If the balance of the fund exceeds fifteen thousand dollars at the end of any calendar quarter, the excess over that amount shall be transferred to the general fund of the state

249A.3 Eligibility.

The extent of and the limitations upon eligibility for assistance under this chapter shall be as prescribed by this section, and by laws appropriating funds therefor.

1. Medical assistance shall be provided to, or on behalf of, any individual or family residing in the state of Iowa, including those residents who are temporarily absent from the state, who:

a. Is a recipient of federal supplementary security income or who would be eligible for federal supplemental security income if living in their own home.

b. Is a recipient of aid to families with dependent children payments under chapter 239 or is an individual who would be eligible for unborn child payments under the aid to families with dependent children program, as authorized by Title IV-A of the federal Social Security Act, if the aid to families with dependent children program under chapter 239 provided for unborn child payments during the entire pregnancy.

c. Was a recipient of one of the previous categorical assistance programs as of December 31, 1973, and would continue to meet the eligibility requirements for one of the previous categorical assistance programs as the requirements existed on that date.

d. Is a child up to one year of age who was born on or after October 1, 1984 to a woman receiving medical assistance on the date of the child's birth, who continues to be a member of the mother's household, and whose mother continues to receive medical assistance.

2. Medical assistance may also, within the limits of available funds and in accordance with section 249A.4, subsections 1 and 2, be provided to, or on behalf of, other individuals and families who are not excluded under subsection 4 of this section and whose incomes and resources are insufficient to meet the cost of necessary medical care and services in accordance with the following order of priorities:

a. Individuals who are receiving care in a hospital or in a basic nursing home, intermediate nursing home, skilled nursing home or extended care facility, as defined by section 135C.1, and who meet all eligibility requirements for federal supplementary security income except that their income exceeds the allowable maximum therefor, but whose income is not in excess of the maximum established by subsection 4 for eligibility for medical assistance and is insufficient to meet the full cost of their care in the hospital or health care facility on the basis of standards established by the department.

b. Individuals under twenty-one years of age living in a licensed foster home, or in a private home pursuant to a subsidized adoption arrangement, for whom the department accepts financial responsibility in whole or in part and who are not eligible under subsection 1.

c. Individuals who are receiving care in an institution for mental diseases, and who are under twenty-one years of age and whose income and resources are such that they are eligible for aid to dependent children under chapter 239, or who are sixty-five years of age or older and who meet the conditions for eligibility in paragraph "a" of this subsection.

d. Individuals and families whose incomes and resources are such that they are eligible for federal supplementary security income or aid to dependent children, but who are not actually receiving such public assistance.

e. Individuals who are receiving state supplementary assistance as defined by section 249.1 or other persons whose needs are considered in computing the recipient's assistance grant.

f. Individuals under twenty-one years of age who qualify on a financial basis for, but who are otherwise ineligible to receive aid to dependent children.

g. Individuals and families who would be eligible under subsection 1 or 2 of this section except for excess income or resources, or a reasonable category of those individuals and families.

h. Individuals who have attained the age of twenty-one but have not yet attained the age of sixty-five who qualify on a financial basis for, but who are otherwise ineligible to receive, federal supplementary security income or aid to dependent children.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection establishing priorities for individuals and families to receive medical assistance, the department may determine within the priorities listed in this subsection which persons shall receive medical assistance based on income levels established by the department, subject to the limitations provided in subsection 4.

3. Additional medical assistance may, within the limits of available funds and in accordance with section 249A.4, subsections 1 and 2, be provided to, or on behalf of, either:

a. Only those individuals and families described in subsection 1 of this section; or

b. Those individuals and families described in both subsections 1 and 2.

4 Discretionary medical assistance, within the limits of available funds and in accordance with section 249A 4, subsections 1 and 2, may be provided to or on behalf of those individuals and families described in subsection 2, paragraph "g" of this section

5 Assistance shall not be granted under this chapter to

a. An individual or family whose income, considered to be available to the individual or family, exceeds federally prescribed limitations

b. An individual or family whose resources, considered to be available to the individual or family, exceed federally prescribed limitations

6 In determining the eligibility of an individual for medical assistance under this chapter, the department shall include, as resources still available to the individual, those nonexempt resources or interests in resources, owned by the individual within the preceding twenty four months, which the individual gave away or sold at less than fair market value for the purpose of establishing eligibility for medical assistance under this chapter

a. A transaction described in this subsection is presumed to have been for the purpose of establishing eligibility for medical assistance under this chapter unless the individual furnishes convincing evidence to establish that the transaction was exclusively for some other purpose

b. The value of a resource or an interest in a resource in determining eligibility under this subsection is the fair market value of the resource or interest at the time of the transaction less the amount of any compensation received

c. If a transaction described in this subsection results in uncompensated value exceeding twelve thousand dollars, the department shall provide by rule for a period of ineligibility which exceeds twenty-four months and has a reasonable relationship to the uncompensated value above twelve thousand dollars

[C62, 66, §249A 3, 249A 4, C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249A 3, 81 Acts, ch 7, §15, ch 82, §1]

249A.4 Duties of director.

The director shall be responsible for the effective and impartial administration of this chapter and shall, in accordance with the standards and priorities established by this chapter, by applicable federal law, particularly Title XIX of the United States Social Security Act [Title XLII, United States Code, sections 1396 to 1396g], as amended to January 1, 1973, by the regulations and directives issued pursuant thereto, and by the state plan approved in accordance therewith, make rules, establish policies, and prescribe procedures to implement this chapter Without limiting the generality of the foregoing delegation of authority, the director is hereby specifically empowered and directed to

1 Determine the greatest amount, duration, and scope of assistance which may be provided, and the broadest range of eligible individuals to whom assistance may effectively be provided, under this chapter within the limitations of available funds In so doing, the director shall at least every six months evaluate the scope of the program currently being provided under this chapter, project the probable cost of continuing a like program, compare such probable cost with the remaining balance of the state appropriation made for payment of assistance under this chapter during the current appropriation period, and expand or curtail the program accordingly, provided that reimbursement for medical and health services shall be made in accordance with subsection 9 After each evaluation of the scope of the program, the director shall report to the general assembly through the legislative council or in another manner as the general assembly may by resolution direct

2 Have authority to determine, when available funds permit expansion of the program provided under this chapter beyond the minimum scope required by subsection 1 of this section, whether priority shall be given to providing additional medical assistance to the individuals and families described in section 249A 3, subsection 1, or to providing medical assistance to some or all of the individuals and families described in section 249A 3, subsection 2, unless the general assembly has by law made such determination

3 Have authority to provide for payment under this chapter of assistance rendered to any applicant prior to the date the application is filed

4 Have authority to contract with any corporation authorized to engage in this state in insuring groups or individuals for all or part of the cost of medical, hospital, or other health care or with any corporation maintaining and operating a medical, hospital, or health service prepayment plan under the provisions of chapter 514 or with any health maintenance organization authorized to operate in this state, for any or all of the benefits to which any recipients are entitled under this chapter to be provided by such corporation or health maintenance organization on a prepaid individual or group basis

5 May, to the extent possible, contract with a private organization or organizations whereby such organization will handle the processing of and the payment of claims for services rendered under the provisions of this chapter and under such rules and regulations as shall be promulgated by such department The state department may give due consideration to the advantages of contracting with any organization which may be serving in Iowa as "intermediary" or "carrier" under Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act, as amended.

6 Shall co-operate with any agency of the state or federal government in any manner as may be necessary to qualify for federal aid and assistance for medical assistance in conformity with the provisions of chapter 249, this chapter and Titles XVI and XIX of the federal Social Security Act, as amended

7 Shall provide for the professional freedom of those licensed practitioners who determine the need for or provide medical care and services, and shall provide freedom of choice to recipients to select the provider of care and services, except when the recipient is eligible for participation in a health maintenance organization or prepaid health plan which limits provider selection and which is approved by the department. However, this shall not limit the freedom of choice to recipients to select providers in instances where such provider services are eligible for reimbursement under the medical assistance program but are not provided under the health maintenance organization or under the prepaid health plan, or where the recipient has an already established program of specialized medical care with a particular provider. The department may also restrict the recipient's selection of providers to control the individual recipient's overuse of care and services, provided the department can document this overuse. The department shall promulgate rules for determining the overuse of services, including rights of appeal by the recipient.

8 Shall advise and consult at least semiannually with a council composed of the president, or the president's representative who is a member of the professional organization represented by the president, of the Iowa medical society, the Iowa osteopathic medical association, the Iowa state dental society, the Iowa state nurses association, the Iowa pharmacists association, the Iowa podiatry society, the Iowa optometric association, the community mental health centers association of Iowa, the Iowa psychological association, the Iowa hospital association, the Iowa osteopathic hospital association, opticians' association of Iowa, Inc, the Iowa health care association, the Iowa association for home care, the Iowa council of health care centers, and the Iowa association of homes for the aging, together with one person designated by the Iowa state board of chiropractic examiners, one state representative from each of the two major political parties appointed by the speaker of the house, one state senator from each of the two major political parties appointed by the majority leader of the senate, each for a term of two years, the president or the president's representative of the association for retarded citizens, four public representatives, appointed by the governor for staggered terms of two years each, none of whom shall be members of, or practitioners of, or have a pecuniary interest in any of the professions or businesses represented by any of the several professional groups and associations specifically represented on the council under this subsection, and at least one of whom shall be a recipient of medical assistance, the director of public health, or a representative designated by the director, and the dean of the college of medicine, university of Iowa, or a representative designated by the dean.

For each council meeting, other than those held during the time the general assembly is in session, each legislative member of the council shall be reimbursed for actual traveling and other necessary expenses and shall receive a per diem of forty dollars for each day in attendance, as shall the public representatives, regardless of whether the general assembly is in session.

9 Determine the method and level of reimbursement for all medical and health services referred to in section 249A 2, subsection 5 or 6, after considering all of the following

- a. The promotion of efficient and cost effective delivery of medical and health services
- b. Compliance with federal law and regulations
- c. The level of state and federal appropriations for medical assistance
- d. Reimbursement at a level as near as possible to actual costs and charges after priority is given to the considerations in paragraphs "a", "b", and "c"

10 Shall provide for granting an opportunity for a fair hearing before the director of human services or the director's authorized representative to any individual whose claim for medical assistance under this chapter is denied or is not acted upon with reasonable promptness.

Judicial review of the actions of the director or department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. In the event a petition for judicial review is filed, the director or the director's authorized representative shall furnish the petitioner with a copy of the application and all supporting papers, a transcript of the testimony taken at the hearing, if any, and a copy of its decision.

249A.5 Recovery of payment.

Medical assistance paid to, or on behalf of, a recipient or paid to a provider of services is not recoverable unless the assistance was incorrectly paid. Assistance incorrectly paid is recoverable from the provider, or from the recipient, while living, as a debt due the state and, upon the recipient's death, as a claim classified with taxes having preference under the laws of this state.

83 Acts, ch 153, §14

249A.6 Subrogation.

1 When payment is made by the department for medical care or expenses through the medical assistance program on behalf of a recipient, the department is subrogated, to the extent of those payments, to all monetary claims which the recipient may have against third parties as a result of the medical care or expenses received or incurred. A compromise, including but not limited to a settlement, waiver or release, of a claim to which the department is subrogated under this section does not defeat the department's right of recovery except pursuant to the written agreement of the director or the director's designee or except as provided in this section.

2 The department shall be given notice of monetary claims against third parties as follows

- a. Applicants for medical assistance shall notify the department of any possible claims against third parties upon submitting the application. Recipients of medical assistance shall notify the department of any possible claims when those claims arise.

b A person who provides health care services to a person receiving assistance through the medical assistance program shall notify the department whenever the person has reason to believe that third parties may be liable for payment of the costs of those health care services.

c An attorney representing an applicant for or recipient of assistance on a claim to which the department is subrogated under this section shall notify the department of the claim of which the attorney has actual knowledge, prior to filing a claim, commencing an action or negotiating a settlement offer.

The mailing and deposit in a United States post office or public mailing box of the notice, addressed to the department at its state or district office location, is adequate legal notice of the claim.

3 The subrogation rights of the department are valid and binding on an attorney, insurer, or other third party only upon notice by the department or unless the insurer or third party has actual notice that the recipient is receiving medical assistance from the department and only to the extent to which the attorney, insurer, or third party has not made payment to the recipient or an assignee of the recipient prior to the notice. Payment of benefits by an insurer or third party pursuant to the subrogation rights of this section discharges the attorney, insurer, or third party from liability to the recipient or the recipient's assignee to the extent of the payment to the department.

4 If a recipient of assistance through the medical assistance program incurs the obligation to pay attorney fees and court costs for the purpose of enforcing a monetary claim to which the department is subrogated under this section, upon the receipt of a judgment or settlement of the claim, the court costs and reasonable attorney fees shall first be deducted from the judgment or settlement. One third of the remaining balance shall then be deducted and paid to the recipient. From the remaining balance, the claim of the department shall be paid. Any amount remaining shall be paid to the recipient. An attorney acting on behalf of a recipient of medical assistance for the purpose of enforcing a claim to which the department is subrogated shall not collect from the recipient any amount as attorney fees which is in excess of the amount which the attorney customarily would collect on claims not subject to this section.

5 For purposes of this section the term "third party" includes an attorney, individual, institution, corporation, or public or private agency which is or may be liable to pay part or all of the medical costs incurred as a result of injury, disease or disability by or on behalf of an applicant for or recipient of assistance under the medical assistance program.

249C.1 Definitions.

For the purposes of this chapter:

1. "Director" means the director of human services, or the director's designee.
2. "Department" means the department of human services.
3. "Training" includes appropriate education.
4. "Public assistance" means aid or assistance under chapter 239 or 249.
5. "Eligible person" includes each person who is receiving public assistance or who lives in the same household as a recipient of public assistance and whose needs are taken into account in determining the assistance payment. However, the following are not "eligible persons" unless they voluntarily request to be included:
 - a. A person who is under the age of sixteen years.
 - b. A person who has attained the age of sixty-five years.
 - c. A person whose health or disability does not permit any kind of work or training.
 - d. A person who is already engaged in an adequate full-time program of work, training, or school.
 - e. A person who is required to be present and is actually present in the home on a substantially continuous basis because of the illness or incapacity of another member of the household.
 - f. A person who is required to be present and is actually present in the home on a substantially continuous basis for the purpose of child care.

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

249C.2 Programs of rehabilitation.

It is the policy of this state that public assistance programs shall, to the maximum possible extent, be programs of rehabilitation rather than mere support. Persons and members of families receiving public assistance shall be helped to become self-supporting, and shall be required to engage in work and training to the extent provided in this chapter. This chapter shall be interpreted and administered to carry out this policy.

249C.3 Work and training program.

The director shall establish a work and training program for persons and members of families receiving public assistance. The division of job service of the department of employment services, all county boards and departments of social welfare, and all state, county, and public educational agencies and institutions providing vocational rehabilitation, adult education, or vocational or technical training shall assist and co-operate in the program. They shall make agreements and arrangements for maximum co-operation and use of all available resources in the program. By mutual agreement the director may delegate any of the director's powers and duties under this chapter to the division of job service.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C.3]

83 Acts, ch 101, §57

249C.4 Co-operation.

The program shall provide for maximum cooperation with and participation in federal programs having similar purposes, but the state work and training program shall continue whether or not federal programs and federal funds are available.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C.4]

249C.5 Bases for program.

The program shall include, but not be limited to:

1. Placing eligible persons in employment and on-the-job training.
2. Institutional and work experience training for eligible persons for whom such training is likely to lead to regular employment.
3. Special work projects for eligible persons for whom a job in the regular economy cannot be found.
4. Incentives, opportunities, and services to aid eligible persons.

249C.6 Participation required.

Each eligible person shall be required to participate in the work and training program, to co-operate fully in the program, and to accept any reasonably suitable employment, training, or education offered to the person in connection with the program, as a condition of receiving public assistance. If the person fails or refuses to do so, the person shall not receive public assistance. The person's disqualification shall not disqualify other members of the person's family who are entitled to public assistance, but their public assistance shall not be paid to the disqualified person and shall be paid in a manner which will not permit the disqualified person to have access to the assistance funds. A person shall not be disqualified for public assistance if it is impossible to arrange suitable work or training for the person.

249C.7 Public or private training.

Work or training may be furnished by public or private agencies, organizations, or companies, under rules adopted by the director.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C.7]

249C.8 Health and safety.

The director shall establish and maintain reasonable standards for health, safety, and other conditions under the work and training program.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C.8]

249C.9 Workers' compensation law applicable.

Each eligible person, with respect to work performed under this chapter, shall be covered by the workers' compensation law or shall otherwise be provided with comparable protection.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C.9]

249C.10 Earnings applied to aid.

If earnings are received by an eligible person for work under the program, all or part of the earnings may be applied to reduce the cost of public assistance to the person or the person's family, under rules adopted by the director. However, the director may permit the eligible person to retain a reasonable part of the earnings as an incentive payment, with out reduction of public assistance

 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C 10]

249C.11 Needs related to work.

In determining needs for public assistance, ex penses and needs reasonably related to work or training under the program shall be taken into account
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C 11]

249C.12 Care of children.

When needed, arrangements shall be made for the care of children during the absence from the home of a person participating in work or training under the program
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C 12]

249C.13 Other social services.

Eligible persons and their families shall be offered other social services which the director deems advis able
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C 13]

249C.14 Transfer of funds.

For the purposes of the work and training pro gram, the director may use or transfer to any other agency any of the funds appropriated for public assistance and any other funds lawfully available State and federal funds allocated to the program by the director and the division of job service of the department of employment services shall be at least equal to five percent of the total state and federal funds available to the department for assistance under chapter 239, unless the director determines that a lesser amount is sufficient to provide an adequate work and training program for all eligible persons

 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C 14]

249C.15 Rules adopted.

The director shall adopt rules to implement this chapter and achieve its purposes
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C 15]

249C.16 Eligible persons not state employees.

No eligible person shall be deemed to be an em ployee of the state or any of its subdivisions by reason of the person's participation in the work and training program However, this section shall not prevent the person from having the status of an employee for the purposes of workers' compensation
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C 16]

249C.17 Chapter not to interfere with federal assistance.

If it is finally determined that any provision of this chapter would cause the work and training program to be ineligible for federal financial assistance which the state would otherwise receive, such provision may be suspended or modified to the extent which is essential to obtain such assistance
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §249C 17]

249C.18 Educational incentives.

FINDINGS POLICY AND DEFINITIONS

249D.1 Short title.

This chapter, entitled the "Elder Iowans Act", sets forth the state's commitment to its elders, their dignity, independence, and rights

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1001

249D.2 Legislative findings and declaration.

The general assembly finds and declares that

1 Iowa's elders constitute a fundamental resource which has been undervalued, and the means must be found to recognize and use the competence, wisdom, and experience of our elders for the benefit of all Iowans

2 The number of persons in this state age sixty and older is increasing rapidly, and of these elders, the number of women, minorities, and persons eighty five years of age or older is increasing at an even greater rate

3 The social and health problems of older people are compounded by a lack of access to existing services and by the unavailability of a complete range of services in all areas of the state

4 The ability of older people to maintain self sufficiency and to live their lives with dignity, productivity, and creativity is a matter of profound importance and concern for this state

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1002

249D.3 State policy and objectives.

The general assembly declares that it is the policy of the state to work toward attainment of the following objectives for Iowa's elders

1 An adequate income in retirement

2 Access to physical and mental health care without regard to economic status

3 Suitable housing, appropriate to the special needs of older people

4 Full restorative services for those who require institutional care, and a comprehensive array of community based, long-term care services adequate to sustain older people in their communities and, whenever possible, in their homes

5 Pursuit of meaningful activity within the wide

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1007

249D.14 Commission duties and authority.

The commission is the policymaking body of the sole state agency responsible for administration of the Older Americans Act of 1965, as amended The commission shall

- 1 Approve state and area plans on aging
- 2 Adopt policies to coordinate state activities related to the purposes of this chapter
- 3 Serve as an effective and visible advocate for elders by establishing policies for reviewing and commenting upon all state plans, budgets, and policies which affect elders and for providing technical assistance to any agency, organization, association, or individual representing the needs of elders

4 Divide the state into distinct planning and service areas after considering the geographical distribution of elders in the state, the incidence of the need for supportive services, nutrition services, multipurpose senior centers, and legal services, the distribution of elders who have low incomes residing in such areas, the distribution of resources available to provide such services or centers, the boundaries of existing areas within the state which are drawn for the planning or administration of supportive services programs, the location of units of general purpose, local government within the state, and any other relevant factors.

5. Designate for each planning and service area a public or private nonprofit agency or organization as the area agency on aging for that area.

6. Adopt policies to assure that the department will take into account the views of recipients of supportive services or nutrition services, or elders using multipurpose senior centers in the development of policy.

7. Adopt a formula for the distribution of federal Older Americans Act funds taking into account, to the maximum extent feasible, the best available data on the geographic distribution of elders in the state, and publish the formula for review and comment.

8. Adopt policies to assure that preference will be given to providing services to elders with the greatest economic or social needs, with particular attention to low-income minority elders, and include methods of carrying out the preference in the state plan.

9. Adopt policies to administer state programs authorized by this chapter.

The commission shall adopt administrative rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement the duties specified in this chapter.

10. Adopt policies by which eligibility for federal, state, and local funding is established at age sixty, with preference in service delivery given to elders age seventy-five or older.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1009

249D.22 Director.

The governor, subject to confirmation by the senate, shall appoint a director of the department of elder affairs who shall, subject to chapter 19A, employ and direct staff as necessary to carry out the powers and duties created by this chapter. The director shall serve at the pleasure of the governor. However, the director is subject to reconfirmation by the senate as provided in section 2.32, subsection 8. The governor shall set the salary for the director within the range set by the general assembly.

The director shall have the following qualifications and training:

1. Training in the field of gerontology, social work, public health, public administration, or other related fields.

2. Direct experience or extensive knowledge of programs and services related to elders.

3. Demonstrated understanding and concern for the welfare of elders.

4. Demonstrated competency and recent working experience in an administrative, supervisory, or management position.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1010

249D.23 Department of elder affairs — duties and authority.

The department of elder affairs director shall:

1. Develop and administer a state plan on aging.

2. Assist the commission in the review and approval of area plans.

3. Pursuant to commission policy, coordinate state activities related to the purposes of this chapter.

4. Advocate for elders by reviewing and commenting upon all state plans, budgets, and policies which affect elders and by providing technical assistance to any agency, organization, association, or individual representing the needs of the elders.

5. Assist the commission in dividing the state into distinct planning and service areas.

6. Assist the commission in designating for each area a public or private nonprofit agency or organization as the area agency on aging for that area.

7. Pursuant to commission policy, take into account the views of elder Iowans.

8. Assist the commission in adopting a formula for the distribution of funds available from the federal Act.

9. Assist the commission in assuring that preference will be given to providing services to elders with the greatest economic or social needs, with particular attention to low-income minority elders.

10. Assist the commission in developing, adopting, and enforcing administrative rules, by issuing necessary forms and procedures.

11. Apply for, receive, and administer grants and gifts to conduct projects consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

12. Administer state authorized programs.

SUBCHAPTER IV

PLANNING AND SERVICE DELIVERY

249D.31 State plan on aging.

The department of elder affairs shall develop, and submit to the commission of elder affairs for approval, a multiyear state plan on aging. The state plan on aging shall meet all applicable federal requirements and shall:

1. Be based upon area plans developed by area agencies on aging and submitted in a uniform format prepared and distributed by the department.

2 Require that each area agency on aging develop and submit to the commission for approval an area plan which complies with federal law

3 Evaluate the need for supportive services, including legal assistance, nutrition services, and multipurpose senior centers within the state, and determine the extent to which existing public or private programs meet those needs

4 Adopt methods for effective and efficient administration of the state and area plans

5 Adopt methods for periodic evaluation of activities and projects carried out under the state plan

6 Prohibit the direct provision of supportive services or nutrition services by the department of elder affairs or an area agency on aging unless necessary to assure an adequate supply of such services, or unless the services are directly related to the department of elder affairs or area agency on aging's administrative functions, or unless services of comparable quality can be provided more economically by the department of elder affairs or area agency on aging

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1012

249D.32 Criteria for designation of area agencies on aging.

1 The commission shall designate thirteen area agencies on aging, the same of which existed on July 1, 1985. The commission shall continue the designation until an area agency on aging's designation is removed for cause as determined by the commission or until the agency voluntarily withdraws as an area agency on aging. In that event, the commission shall then proceed with subsections 2 and 3

2 The commission shall designate an area agency to serve each planning and service area, after consideration of the views offered by the political subdivisions in the area. An area agency may be

a. An established office of aging which is operating within a planning and service area designated by the commission

b. Any office or agency of a unit of a political subdivision, which is designated for the purpose of serving as an area agency by the chief elected official of such unit

c. Any office or agency designated by the appropriate chief elected officials of any combination of political subdivisions to act on behalf of the combination for such purpose

d. Any public or nonprofit private agency in a planning and service area which is under the supervision or direction for this purpose of the department of elder affairs and which can engage in the planning or provision of a broad range of supportive services or nutrition services within the planning and service area

Each area agency shall provide assurance, determined adequate by the commission, that the area agency has the ability to develop an area plan and to carry out, directly or through contractual or other arrangements, a program in accordance with the plan within the planning and service area. In designating an area agency on aging within the planning and service area, the commission shall give preference to an established office of aging, unless the commission finds that no such office within the planning and service area has the capacity to carry out the area plan

3 When the commission designates a new area agency on aging the commission shall give the right of first refusal to a political subdivision if

a. Such unit can meet the requirements of subsection 1

b. The boundaries of such a unit and the boundaries of the area are reasonably contiguous

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1013

249D.33 Area agencies on aging duties.

Each area agency on aging shall

1 Develop and administer an area plan on aging

2 Assess the types and levels of services needed by older persons in the planning and service area, and the effectiveness of other public or private programs serving those needs

3 Enter into subgrants or contracts to provide all services under the plan

4 Provide technical assistance as needed, prepare written monitoring reports at least quarterly, and provide a written report of an annual on site assessment of all service providers funded by the area agency

5 Coordinate the administration of its plan with federal programs and with other federal, state, and local resources in order to develop a comprehensive and coordinated service system

6 Establish an advisory council

7 Give preference in the delivery of services under the area plan to elders with the greatest economic or social need

8 Assure that elders in the planning and service area have reasonably convenient access to information and referral services

9 Provide adequate and effective opportunities for elders to express their views to the area agency on policy development and program implementation under the area plan

10 Designate community focal points

11 Contact outreach efforts, with special emphasis on the rural elderly, to identify elders with greatest economic or social needs and inform them of the availability of services under the area plan

12 Develop and publish the methods that the agency uses to establish preferences and priorities for services

13 Attempt to involve the area lawyers in legal assistance activities

14 Submit all fiscal and performance reports in accordance with the policies of the commission

15 Monitor, evaluate, and comment on policies, programs, hearings, levies, and community actions which significantly affect the lives of elders

16 Conduct public hearings on the needs of elders

17 Represent the interests of elders to public officials, public and private agencies, or organizations

18 Coordinate activities in support of the state wide long term care resident's advocate program

19 Coordinate planning with other agencies and organizations to promote new or expanded benefits and opportunities for elders

20 Coordinate planning with other agencies for assuring the safety of elders in a natural disaster or other safety threatening situation

SUBCHAPTER V

LONG TERM CARE RESIDENTS ADVOCATE

249D.41 Purpose.

The purpose of this subchapter is to establish the long term care resident's advocate program operated by the Iowa commission of elder affairs in accordance with the requirements of the Older Americans Act of 1965, and to adopt the supporting federal regulations and guidelines for its implementation. In accordance with chapter 17A, the commission of elder affairs shall adopt and enforce rules for the implementation of this subchapter 249D.42 Long-term care resident's advocate — duties.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1015

The Iowa commission of elder affairs, in accordance with section 3027(a)(12) of the federal Act, shall establish the office of long term care resident's advocate within the commission. The long term care resident's advocate shall

1 Investigate and resolve complaints about administrative actions that may adversely affect the health, safety, welfare, or rights of elderly in long term care facilities

2 Monitor the development and implementation of federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and policies that relate to long term care facilities in Iowa

3 Provide information to other agencies and to the public about the problems of elderly in long term care facilities

4 Train volunteers and assist in the development of citizens' organizations to participate in the long term care resident's advocate program

5 Carry out other activities consistent with the resident's advocate provisions of the federal Act

6 Administer the care review committee program

7 Report annually to the general assembly on the activities of the resident's advocate office

The resident's advocate shall have access to long term care facilities, private access to residents, access to residents' personal and medical records, and access to other records maintained by the facilities or governmental agencies pertaining only to the person on whose behalf a complaint is being investigated 249D.43 Authority and responsibilities of the commission.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1016

To ensure compliance with the federal Act the commission of elder affairs shall establish the following

1 Procedures to protect the confidentiality of a resident's records and files

2 A statewide uniform reporting system

3 Procedures to enable the long term care resident's advocate to elicit, receive, and process complaints regarding administrative actions which may adversely affect the health, safety, welfare, or rights of elderly in long term care facilities

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1017

249D.44 Care review committee — duties — disclosure — liability.

1 The care review committee program is administered by the long term care resident's advocate program

2 The responsibilities of the care review committee are in accordance with the rules adopted by the commission pursuant to chapter 17A. When adopting the rules, the commission shall consider the needs of residents of each category of licensed health care facility as defined in chapter 135C 1, subsection 4, and the services each facility may render. The commission shall coordinate the development of rules with the mental health and mental retardation commission to the extent the rules would apply to a facility primarily serving persons who are mentally ill, mentally retarded, or developmentally disabled. The commission shall coordinate the development of appropriate rules with other state agencies

3 A health care facility shall disclose the names, addresses, and phone numbers of a resident's family members, if requested, to a care review committee member, unless permission for this disclosure is refused in writing by a family member

4 Neither the state nor any care review committee member is liable for an action undertaken by a care review committee member in the performance of duty, if the action is undertaken and carried out in good faith

252.1 "Poor person" defined.

The words "poor" and "poor person" as used in this chapter shall be construed to mean those who have no property, exempt or otherwise, and are unable, because of physical or mental disabilities, to earn a living by labor, but this section shall not be construed to forbid aid to needy persons who have some means, when the board shall be of opinion that the same will be conducive to their welfare and the best interests of the public

[C97, §2252, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5297, C39, §3828.073; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252 1]

252.2 Parents and children liable.

The father, mother, and children of any poor person, who is unable to maintain the poor person's self by labor, shall jointly or severally relieve or maintain such person in such manner as, upon application to the board of supervisors of the county where such person has a residence or may be, they may direct

252.3 Putative father.

The word "father" in this chapter includes the putative father of an illegitimate child, and the question of parentage may be tried in any proceeding to recover for or compel the support of such a child, and like proceedings may be prosecuted against the mother independently of or jointly with the alleged father

Obligation of parent ch 675

252.4 Who deemed trustee.

The word "trustees" in this chapter shall be construed to include and mean any person or officer of any county or city charged with the oversight of the poor

[C51, §789, R60, §1357, C73, §1333, C97, §2251, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5300, C39, §3828.076; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252 4]

252.5 Remote relatives.

In the absence or inability of nearer relatives, the same liability shall extend to grandparents, if of ability without personal labor, and to the grandchildren who are of ability by personal labor or otherwise

[C51, §787, R60, §1355, C73, §1331, C97, §2217, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5301, C39, §3828.077; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252 5]

252.6 Enforcement of liability.

Upon the failure of such relatives so to relieve or maintain a poor person who has made application for relief, the county board of supervisors, county social welfare board, or state division of child and family services of the department of human services may apply to the district court of the county where such poor person resides or may be, for an order to compel the same

[C51, §789, R60, §1357, C73, §1333, C97, §2218, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5302, C39, §3828.078; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252 6]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

252.7 Notice — hearing.

At least ten days' notice in writing of the application shall be given to the parties sought to be charged, service thereof to be made as of an original notice, in which proceedings the county shall be plaintiff and the parties served defendants No order shall be made affecting a person not served, but, as to such, notice may be given at any stage of the proceedings The court may proceed in a summary manner to hear all the allegations and proofs of the parties, and order any one or more of the relatives who shall be able, to relieve or maintain the poor person, charging them as far as practicable in the order above named, and for that purpose may bring in new parties when necessary

Service of notice R C P 49 64

252.8 Scope of order.

The order may be for the entire or partial support of the applicant, may be for the payment of money or the taking of the applicant to a relative's house, or may assign the applicant for a certain time to one and for another period to another, as may be just and right, taking into view the means of the several relatives liable, but no such assignment shall be made to one who is willing to pay the amount necessary for support If the order be for relief in any other form than money, it shall state the extent and value thereof per week, and the time such relief shall continue, or the order may make the time of continuance indefinite, and it may be varied from time to time by a new order, as circumstances may require, upon application to the court by the trustees, the poor person, or the relative affected, ten days' notice thereof being given to the party or parties concerned

252.9 Judgment — appeal.

When money is ordered to be paid, it shall be paid to such person as the court may direct If support be not rendered as ordered, the court upon such fact being shown by the affidavit of one or more of the proper trustees, may render judgment and order execution for the amount due, rating any support ordered in kind at the valuation previously made An appeal may be taken from the judgment rendered to the supreme court Support for later periods under the same order may be, as it becomes due, applied for and obtained in the same manner

252.10 to 252.12 Repealed by 66GA, ch 1104, §17

252.13 Recovery by county.

Any county having expended any money for the relief or support of a poor person, under the provisions of this chapter, may recover the same from any of that person's kindred mentioned herein, from such poor person should the person become able, or from the person's estate, from relatives by action brought within two years from the payment of such expenses, from such poor person by action brought within two years after becoming able, and from such person's estate by filing the claim as provided by law. There shall be allowed against the person's estate a claim of the sixth class for that portion of the liability to the county which exceeds the total amount of all claims of the first through the fifth classes, inclusive, as defined in section 633.425, which are allowed against that estate.

Claims against estate §633.410 et seq.

252.14 Homestead — when liable.

When expenditures have been made for and on behalf of a poor person and the person's family, as contemplated by section 252.13, the homestead of such poor person is liable for such expenditures when such poor person dies without leaving a surviving spouse, or child, as defined in section 234.1.

[C31, 35, §5309 c1, C39, §3828.086; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252.14]

See also §561.21

252.15 Recovery by relative.

A more distant relation, who may have been compelled to aid a poor person, may recover from any one or more of the nearer relatives, and one so compelled to aid may recover contribution from others in the same degree, and a recovery may be had against the poor person or the person's estate, if, after such aid or support has been given, the person aided or supported becomes able to repay the same, but proceedings to recover therefor must be brought within two years from the time a cause of action accrues.

252.16 Settlement — how acquired.

A legal settlement in this state may be acquired as follows:

1 A person continuously residing in a county in this state for a period of one year acquires a settlement in that county except as provided in subsection 7 or 8.

2 A person having acquired a settlement in a county of this state shall not acquire a settlement in any other county until the person has continuously resided in the other county for a period of one year except as provided in subsection 7.

3 A person who is an inpatient, a resident, or an inmate of or is supported by an institution whether organized for pecuniary profit or not or an institution supported by charitable or public funds in a county in this state does not acquire a settlement in the county unless the person before becoming an inpatient a resident, or an inmate in the institution or being supported by an institution has a settlement in the county. A minor child residing in an institution assumes the settlement of the child's custodial parent. Settlement of the minor child changes with the settlement of the child's custodial parent, except that the child retains the settlement that the child's custodial parent has on the child's eighteenth birthday until the child is discharged from the institution, at which time the child acquires the child's own settlement by continuously residing in a county for one year.

4 Minor children who reside with both parents take the settlement of the parents. If the minor child resides on a permanent basis with only one parent or a guardian, the minor child takes the settlement of the parent or guardian with whom the child resides.

An emancipated minor acquires a legal settlement in the minor's own right. An emancipated minor is one who is absent from the minor's parents with the consent of the parents, is self-supporting, and has assumed a new relationship inconsistent with being a part of the family of the parents.

A minor, placed in the care of a public agency or facility as custodian or guardian, takes the legal settlement that the parents had upon severance of the parental relationship, and retains that legal settlement until a natural person is appointed custodian or guardian at which time the minor takes the legal settlement of the natural person or until the minor person attains the age of eighteen and acquires another legal settlement in the person's own right.

5 A person with settlement in this state who becomes a member on active duty of an armed service of the United States retains the settlement during the period of active duty. A person without settlement in this state who is a member on active duty of an armed service of the United States within the borders of this state does not acquire settlement during the period of active duty.

6 Subsections 1, 2, 3, and 7 do not apply to a blind person who is receiving assistance under the laws of this state. A blind person receiving assistance who has resided in one county of this state for a period of six months acquires legal settlement for support as provided in this chapter.

7 A person hospitalized in or receiving treatment at a state mental health institute or state hospital school does not acquire legal settlement in the county in which the institute or hospital school is located unless the person is discharged from the institute or hospital school, continuously resides in the county for a period of one year subsequent to the discharge, and during that year is not hospitalized in and does not receive treatment at the institute or hospital school.

8 A person receiving treatment or support services from any community-based provider of treatment or services for mental retardation, developmental disabilities, mental health, or substance abuse does not acquire legal settlement in the host county unless the person continuously resides in the host county for one year from the date of the last treatment or support service received by the person

252.17 Settlement continues.

A legal settlement once acquired shall so remain until such person has removed from this state for more than one year or has acquired a legal settlement in some other county or state

252.18 Foreign paupers.

1 A person who is a county charge or is likely to become so, coming from another state and not having acquired a settlement in a county of this state or any such person having acquired a settlement in a county of this state who moves to another county, may be removed from this state or from the county into which the person has moved at the expense of the county where the person is found, upon the petition of the county to the district court in that county

2 The court or judge shall fix the time and place of hearing on said petition and prescribe the time and manner of service of the notice of such hearing

3 If upon the hearing on said petition such person shall be ordered to remove from the state or county and fails to do so, the person shall be deemed and declared in contempt of court and may be punished accordingly, or the judge may order the sheriff of the county seeking the removal to return such person to the state or county of the person's legal settlement

252.22 Contest between counties — chapter applicable to county public hospitals.

When relief is granted to a poor person having a settlement in another county, the auditor shall at once by mail notify the auditor of the county of settlement of that fact, and, within fifteen days after receipt of the notice, the auditor shall inform the auditor of the county granting relief if the claim of settlement is disputed. If it is not, the poor person, at the request of the auditor or board of supervisors of the county of settlement, may be maintained where the person then is at the expense of the county of legal settlement, and without affecting legal settlement as provided in section 252 16

All laws relating to the support of the poor as provided by this chapter shall be applicable to care, treatment, and hospitalization provided by county public hospitals

84 Acts, ch 1165, §2

252.23 Trial.

If the alleged settlement is disputed, then, within thirty days after notice thereof as above provided, a copy of the notices sent and received shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of the county against which claim is made, and a cause docketed without other pleadings, and tried as an ordinary action, in which the county affording the relief shall be plaintiff, and the other defendant, and the burden of proof shall be upon the county granting the relief

252.24 County of settlement liable.

The county where the settlement is shall be liable to the county rendering relief for all reasonable charges and expenses incurred in the relief and care of a poor person

When relief as herein provided is furnished by any governmental agency of the county, township or city, such relief shall be deemed to have been furnished by the county in which such agency is located and the agency furnishing such relief shall certify the correctness of the costs of such relief to the board of supervisors of said county and said county shall collect from the county of such person's settlement. The amounts herein collected by said county shall be paid to the agency furnishing such relief. This statute as herein amended shall apply to services and supplies furnished as provided in section 139 30

252.25 County general relief.

The board of supervisors of each county shall provide for the relief of poor persons in its county who are ineligible for, or are in immediate need and are awaiting approval and receipt of, assistance under programs provided by state or federal law, or whose actual needs cannot be fully met by the assistance furnished under such programs. The county board shall establish general rules as its members deem necessary to properly discharge their responsibility under this section

[C73, §1361, C97, §2230, S13, §2230, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5320, C39, §3828.097; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252 25]

252.26 General relief director.

The board of supervisors in each county shall appoint or designate a general relief director for the county, who shall have the powers and duties conferred by this chapter. In counties of one hundred thousand or less population, the county board may designate as general relief director an employee of the state department of human services who is assigned to work in that county and is directed by the director of human services, pursuant to an agreement with the county board, to exercise the functions and duties of general relief director in that county. The director shall receive as compensation an amount to be determined by the county board.

252.27 Form of relief — condition.

The board of supervisors shall determine the form of the relief. However, legal aid shall be only in civil matters and provided only through a legal aid program approved by the board of supervisors. The amount of assistance issued shall be determined by standards of assistance established by the board of supervisors. They may require any able-bodied person to work on public programs or projects at the prevailing local rate per hour in payment for and as a condition of granting relief. The labor shall be performed under the direction of the officers having charge of such public programs or projects. Subject to the provisions of section 142.1, relief may consist of the burial of nonresident indigent transients and the payment of the reasonable cost of burial, not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

The board shall record its proceedings relating to the provision of relief to specific persons under this chapter. A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the board may appeal the decision as if it were a contested case before an agency and as if the person had exhausted administrative remedies in accordance with the procedures and standards in section 17A.19, subsections 2 to 8 except paragraphs “b” and “c” of subsection 8, and section 17A.20.

252.33 Application for relief.

The poor may make application for relief to a member of the board of supervisors, or to the general relief director of the county where they may be. If application be made to the general relief director and that officer is satisfied that the applicant is in such a state of want as requires relief at the public expense, the director may afford such temporary relief, subject to the approval of the board of supervisors, as the necessities of the person require and shall report the case forthwith to the board of supervisors, who may continue or deny relief, as they find cause.

252A.1 Title and purpose.

This chapter may be cited and referred to as the “Uniform Support of Dependents Law”

The purpose of this uniform chapter is to secure support in civil proceedings for dependent spouses, children and poor relatives from persons legally responsible for their support

252A.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context shall require otherwise, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them by this section

1 “State” means any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and any foreign jurisdiction in which this or a similar reciprocal law is in effect

2 “Court” shall mean and include any court by whatever name known, in any state having reciprocal laws or laws substantially similar to this chapter upon which jurisdiction has been conferred to determine the liability of persons for the support of dependents within and without such state

3 “Child” includes but shall not be limited to a stepchild, foster child or legally adopted child and means a child actually or apparently under eighteen years of age, and a dependent person eighteen years of age or over who is unable to maintain the person’s self and is likely to become a public charge

4 “Dependent” shall mean and include a spouse, child, mother, father, grandparent or grandchild who is in need of and entitled to support from a person who is declared to be legally liable for such support by the laws of the state or states wherein the petitioner and the respondent reside

5 “Petitioner” shall mean and include each dependent person for whom support is sought in a proceeding instituted pursuant to this chapter

6 “Respondent” shall mean and include each person against whom a proceeding is instituted pursuant to this chapter

7 “Petitioner’s representative” shall mean and include a corporation counsel, county attorney, state’s attorney, commonwealth attorney and any other public officer, by whatever title the officer’s public office may be known, charged by law with the duty of instituting, maintaining or prosecuting a proceeding under this chapter or under the laws of the state or states wherein the petitioner and the respondent reside

8 “Summons” shall mean and include a subpoena, warrant, citation, order or other notice, by whatever name known, provided for by the laws of the state or states wherein the petitioner and the respondent reside as the means for requiring the appearance and attendance in court of the respondent in a proceeding instituted pursuant to this chapter

9 “Initiating state” shall mean the state of domicile or residence of the petitioner

10 “Responding state” shall mean the state wherein the respondent resides or is domiciled or found

11 “Register” means to file a foreign support order in the registry of foreign support orders maintained as a filing in equity by the clerk of court

12 “Rendering state” means a state in which the court has issued a support order for which registration is sought or granted in the court of another state

252A.3 Spouse liable for support.

For the purpose of this chapter

1 A spouse in one state is hereby declared to be liable for the support of the spouse and any child or children under eighteen years of age and any other dependent residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, and, if possessed of sufficient means or able to earn such means, may be required to pay for their support a fair and reasonable sum according to the spouse’s means, as may be determined by the court having jurisdiction of the respondent in a proceeding instituted under this chapter

2 A parent in one state is hereby declared to be liable for the support of the parent’s child or children under eighteen years of age residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, whenever the other parent of such child or children is dead, or cannot be found, or is incapable of supporting such child or children, and, if the liable parent is possessed of sufficient means or able to earn such means, the liable parent may be required to pay for the support of such child or children a fair and reasonable sum according to the parent’s means, as may be determined by the court having jurisdiction of the respondent in a proceeding instituted under this chapter

3 The parents in one state are hereby declared to be severally liable for the support of a dependent child eighteen years of age or older residing or found in the same state or in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws, whenever such child is unable to maintain the child’s self and is likely to become a public charge

4 A child or children born of parents who, at any time prior or subsequent to the birth of such child, have entered into a civil or religious marriage ceremony, shall be deemed the legitimate child or children of both parents, regardless of the validity of such marriage

5 A child or children born of parents who held or held themselves out as husband and wife by virtue of a common law marriage recognized as valid by the laws of the initiating state and of the responding state shall be deemed the legitimate child or children of both parents

6 A man or woman who was or is held out as the person’s spouse by a person by virtue of a common law marriage recognized as valid by the laws of the initiating state and of the responding state shall be deemed the legitimate spouse of such person

7 Notwithstanding the fact that the respondent has obtained in any state or country a final decree of divorce or separation from the respondent’s spouse or a decree dissolving the marriage the respondent shall be deemed legally liable for the support of any dependent child of such marriage

8 Duties of support applicable under this chapter are those imposed or imposable under the laws of any state where the respondent was present during the period for which support is sought. The respondent is presumed to have been present in the responding state during the period for which support is sought until otherwise shown

9 The natural parents of a child born out of wedlock shall be severally liable for the support of the child, but the liability of the natural father shall not be enforceable unless the natural father has been adjudicated to be the child’s father by a court of competent jurisdiction, or the natural father has acknowledged paternity of the child in open court or by written statement

252A.4 Jurisdiction.

For the purposes of this chapter

1 The court shall have jurisdiction regardless of the state of last residence or domicile of the petitioner and the respondent and whether or not the respondent has ever been a resident of the initiating state or the dependent person has ever been a resident of the responding state

2 The court of the responding state shall have the power to order the respondent to pay sums sufficient to provide necessary food, shelter clothing, care, medical or hospital expenses, expenses of confinement, expenses of education of a child, funeral expenses and such other reasonable and proper expenses of the petitioner as justice requires, having due regard to the circumstances of the respective parties

3 The courts of both the initiating state and the responding state shall have the power to order testimony to be taken in either or both of such states by deposition or written interrogatories, and to limit the nature of and the extent to which the right so to take testimony shall be exercised, provided that the respondent is given a full and fair opportunity to answer the allegations of the petitioner

252A.5 When proceeding may be maintained.

A proceeding to compel support of a dependent may be maintained under this chapter in any of the following cases

1 Where the petitioner and the respondent are residents of or domiciled or found in the same state

2 Where the petitioner resides in one state and the respondent is a resident of or is domiciled or found in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws

3 Where the respondent is not and never was a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and the petitioner resides or is domiciled in such state and the respondent is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws

4 Where the respondent was or is a resident of or domiciled in the initiating state and has departed or departs from such state leaving therein a dependent in need of and entitled to support under this chapter and is believed to be a resident of or domiciled in another state having substantially similar or reciprocal laws

5 Whenever the state or a political subdivision thereof furnishes support to a dependent, it has the same right through proceedings instituted by the petitioner's representative to invoke the provisions hereof as the dependent to whom the support was furnished, for the purpose of securing reimbursement of expenditures so made and of obtaining continuing support, the petition in such case may be verified by any official having knowledge of such expenditures and consent of the dependent shall not be required in order to institute proceedings under this chapter

252A.6 How commenced — trial.

1 A proceeding under this chapter shall be commenced by a petitioner, or a petitioner's representative, by filing a verified petition in the court in equity in the county of the state wherein the petitioner resides or is domiciled, showing the name, age, residence and circumstances of the petitioner, alleging that the petitioner is in need of and is entitled to support from the respondent, giving the respondent's name, age, residence and circumstances, and praying that the respondent be compelled to furnish such support. The petitioner may include in or attach to the petition any information which may help in locating or identifying the respondent including, but without limitation by enumeration, a photograph of the respondent, a description of any distinguishing marks of the respondent's person, other names and aliases by which the respondent has been or is known, the name of the respondent's employer, the respondent's finger prints, or social security number

2 If the respondent be a resident of or domiciled in such state and the court has or can acquire jurisdiction of the person of the respondent under existing laws in effect in such state, such laws shall govern and control the procedure to be followed in such proceeding

3 If the court of this state acting as an initiating state finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the respondent owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or the respondent's property, it shall so certify and shall cause three copies of (a) the petition (b) its certificate and (c) this chapter to be transmitted to the court in the responding state. If the name and address of such court is unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state it shall cause such copies to be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that it forward them to the proper court, and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the court of the initiating state

4 When the court of this state, acting as a responding state, receives from the court of an initiating state the aforesaid copies, it shall docket the cause, notify the county attorney or other official acting as petitioner's representative, set a time and place for a hearing, and take such action as is necessary in accordance with the laws of this state to serve notice and thus obtain jurisdiction over the respondent. If a court of the state, acting as a responding state, is unable to obtain jurisdiction of the respondent or the respondent's property due to inaccuracies or inadequacies in the petition or otherwise, the court shall communicate this fact to the court in the initiating state, shall on its own initiative use all means at its disposal to trace the respondent or the respondent's property, and shall hold the case pending the receipt of more accurate information or an amended petition from the court in the initiating state

However, if the court of the responding state is unable to obtain jurisdiction because the respondent resides in or is domiciled or found in another county of the responding state, the papers received from the court of the initiating state may be forwarded by the court of the responding state which received the papers to the court of the county in the responding state in which the respondent resides or is domiciled or found, and the court of the initiating state shall be notified of the transfer. The court of the county where the respondent resides or is domiciled or found shall acknowledge receipt of the papers to both the court of the initiating state and the court of the responding state which forwarded them, and shall take full jurisdiction of the proceedings with the same powers as if it had received the papers directly from the court of the initiating state

5 It shall not be necessary for the petitioner or the petitioner's witnesses to appear personally at such hearing, but it shall be the duty of the petitioner's representative of the responding state to appear on behalf of and represent the petitioner at all stages of the proceeding

6 If at such hearing the respondent controverts the petition and enters a verified denial of any of the material allegations thereof, the judge presiding at such hearing shall stay the proceedings and transmit to the judge of the court in the initiating state a transcript of the clerk's minutes showing the denials entered by the respondent

7 Upon receipt by the judge of the court in the initiating state of such transcript, such court shall take such proof, including the testimony of the petitioner and the petitioner's witnesses and such other evidence as the court may deem proper, and, after due deliberation, the court shall make its recommendation, based on all of such proof and evidence, and shall transmit to the court in the responding state an exemplified transcript of such proof and evidence and of its proceedings and recommendation in connection therewith

8 Upon the receipt of such transcript, the court in the responding state shall resume its hearing in the proceeding and shall give the respondent a reasonable opportunity to appear and reply

9 Upon the resumption of such hearing, the respondent shall have the right to examine or cross-examine the petitioner and the petitioner's witnesses by means of depositions or written interrogatories, and the petitioner shall have the right to examine or cross-examine the respondent and the respondent's witnesses by means of depositions or written interrogatories

10 If a respondent, duly summoned by a court in the responding state, willfully fails without good cause to appear as directed in the summons, the respondent shall be punished in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by law for the punishment of a defendant or witness who willfully disobeys a summons or subpoena duly issued out of such court in any other action or proceeding cognizable by said court

11 If, on the return day of the summons, the respondent appears at the time and place specified in the summons and fails to answer the petition or admits the allegations of the petition, or, if, after a hearing has been duly held by the court in the responding state in accordance with this section, the court has found and determined that the prayer of the petitioner, or any part of the prayer, is supported by the evidence adduced in the proceeding, and that the petitioner is in need of and entitled to support from the respondent, the court shall make and enter an order directing the respondent to furnish support to the petitioner and to pay a sum as the court shall determine, having due regard to the parties' means and circumstances. A certified copy of the order shall be transmitted by the court to the court in the initiating state and the copy shall be filed with and made a part of the records of the court in the proceeding. Upon entry of an order for support or upon failure of a person to make payments pursuant to an order for support, the court may require the respondent to provide security, a bond, or other guarantee which the court determines is satisfactory to secure the payment of the support. Upon the respondent's failure to pay the support under the order, the court may declare the security, bond, or other guarantee forfeited

12 The court making such order may require the respondent to make payment at specified intervals to the clerk of the district court, or to the dependent, or to any state or county agency, and to report personally to the sheriff or any other official, at such times as may be deemed necessary

13 A respondent who shall willfully fail to comply with or violate the terms or conditions of the support order or of the respondent's probation shall be punished by the court in the same manner and to the same extent as is provided by law for a contempt of such court or a violation of probation ordered by such court in any other suit or proceeding cognizable by such court

14 The court of this state when acting as a responding state shall have the following duties which may be carried out through the clerk of the court. Upon receipt of a payment made by the respondent pursuant to any order of the court or otherwise, to transmit the same forthwith to the court of the initiating state, and upon request to furnish to the court of the initiating state a certified statement of all payments made by the respondent

15 Any order of support issued by a court of the state acting as a responding state shall not supersede any previous order of support issued in a divorce or separate maintenance action, but the amounts for a particular period paid pursuant to either order shall be credited against amounts accruing or accrued for the same period under both

16 The court of the initiating state shall receive and accept all payments made by the respondent to the probation department or bureau of the court of the responding state and transmitted by the latter on behalf of the respondent. Upon receipt of any such payment, and under such rules as the court of the initiating state may prescribe, the court, or its probation department or bureau, as the court may direct, shall deliver such payment to the dependent person entitled thereto, take a proper receipt and acquittance therefor, and keep a permanent record thereof

252A.7 Petitioner's representatives to appear.

It shall be the duty of all petitioner's representatives of this state to appear in this state on behalf of and represent the petitioner in every proceeding pursuant to this chapter, at the time the petition is filed and at all stages of the proceeding thereafter, and to obtain and present such evidence or proof as may be required by the court in the initiating state or the responding state

252A.8 Additional remedies.

This chapter shall be construed to furnish an additional or alternative civil remedy and shall in no way affect or impair any other remedy, civil or criminal, provided in any other statute and available to the petitioner in relation to the same subject matter

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252A 8]

252A.9 Construction.

This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of the states which enact it

[C50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252A 9]

252A.10 Costs advanced.

Actual costs incurred in this state incidental to any action brought under the provisions of this chapter shall be advanced by the initiating party or agency unless otherwise ordered by the court. Where the action is brought by an agency of the state or county there shall be no filing fee

[C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252A 10]

252A.11 Custody of respondent.

When the court of this state, acting either as an initiating or responding state, has reason to believe that the respondent may flee the jurisdiction it may as an initiating state request in its certificate that the court of the responding state obtain the body of the respondent by appropriate process if that be permissible under the law of the responding state, or, it may as a responding state, obtain the body of the respondent by appropriate process

252A.12 Exchange lists of courts.

The state division of child and family services of the department of human services is hereby designated as the state information agency under this chapter, and it shall be its duty to compile a list of the courts and their addresses in this state having jurisdiction under this chapter and transmit the same to the state information agency of every other state which has adopted this or a substantially similar Act and to maintain a register of such lists received from other states

[C58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §252A 12]

252A.13 Recipients of public assistance — assignment of support payments.

A person entitled to periodic support payments pursuant to an order or judgment entered in a uniform support action under this chapter, who is also a recipient of public assistance, is deemed to have assigned the person's rights to the support payments, to the extent of public assistance received by the person, to the department of human services. The department shall immediately notify the clerk of court by mail when a person entitled to support payments has been determined to be eligible for public assistance. Upon notification by the department that a person entitled to periodic support payments pursuant to this chapter is receiving public assistance, the clerk of court shall make a notation of the automatic assignment in the judgment docket and lien index. The notation constitutes constructive notice of the assignment. The clerk of court shall forward support payments received pursuant to section 252A 6, to which the department is entitled, to the department, unless the court has ordered the payments made directly to the department under subsection 12 of that section. The department may secure support payments in default through proceedings prescribed in this chapter. The clerk shall furnish the department with copies of all orders or decrees awarding support to parties having custody of minor children when the parties are receiving public assistance

[C77, 79, 81, §252A 13, 82 Acts, ch 1237, §2]
83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

252A.14 and 252A.15 Reserved

252A.16 Additional remedies for foreign support orders.

If the duty of support is based on a support order entered in a foreign jurisdiction the petitioner has the additional remedies provided in sections 252A 17 to 252A 19

[82 Acts, ch 1004, §2]

252A.17 Registry of foreign support orders.

The petitioner may register the foreign support order in a court of this state in the manner and with the effect provided in sections 252A 18 and 252A 19. The clerk of the court shall maintain a registry of foreign support orders in which foreign support orders shall be filed. The filing is in equity

[82 Acts, ch 1004, §3]

252A.18 Registration procedure for foreign support orders — notice.

1 A petitioner seeking to register a foreign support order in a court of this state shall transmit to the clerk of the court three certified copies of the order reflecting all modifications, one copy of the reciprocal enforcement of support act of the state in which the order was made, and a statement verified and signed by the petitioner, showing the post office address of the petitioner, the last known place of residence and post office address of the respondent, the amount of support remaining unpaid, a description and the location of any property of the respondent available upon execution, and a list of the states in which the order is registered. Upon receipt of these documents the clerk of the court, with payment of a filing fee of six dollars, shall file them in the registry of foreign support orders. The filing constitutes registration under this chapter.

2 Promptly upon registration, the clerk of the court shall send by restricted certified mail to the respondent at the address given a notice of the registration with a copy of the registered support order and the post office address of the petitioner, or the petitioner may request that the respondent be personally served with the notice and the copy of the order in the same manner as original notices are personally served. The clerk shall also docket the case and notify the prosecuting attorney of the action.

252A.19 Enforcement procedure for registered foreign support orders.

1 Upon registration the registered foreign support order shall be treated in the same manner as a support order issued by a court of this state. The order shall have the same effect and shall be subject to the same procedures, defenses, and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as a support order of this state and may be enforced and satisfied in like manner.

2 The respondent shall have twenty days after receiving notice of the registration in which to petition the court to vacate the registration or for other relief. If the respondent does not so petition, the respondent is in default and the registered support order is confirmed.

3 At the hearing to enforce the registered sup port order the respondent may present only matters that would be available to the respondent as defenses in an action to enforce a foreign money judgment. However, the court in its discretion may consider the income and resources of the respondent, the respondent's ability to pay, and any material changes of circumstances since the granting of registered support order, and may modify the amount of the support in the same manner as other support orders are modified. If the respondent states to the court that an appeal from the order is pending or will be taken or that a stay of execution has been granted, the court shall stay enforcement of the order until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal has expired, or the order is vacated, upon satisfactory proof that the respondent has furnished security for payment of the support as ordered by the court. If the respondent shows to the court any ground upon which enforcement of a support order of this state may be stayed the court shall stay enforcement of the order for an appropriate period if the respondent furnishes the same security for payment of the support ordered that is required for a support order of this state.

252A.20 through 252A.23 Reserved

252A.24 Interstate rendition.

The governor of this state may

1 Demand of the governor of another state the surrender of a person found in that state who is charged in this state with failing to provide for the support of any person

2 Surrender on demand by the governor of another state a person found in this state who is charged in that state with failing to provide for the support of any person. Provisions for extradition of criminals not inconsistent with this chapter apply to the demand even if the person whose surrender is demand was not in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the act and has not fled therefrom. The demand, the oath, and any proceedings for extradition pursuant to this section need not state or show that the person whose surrender is demanded has fled from justice or at the time of the commission of the act was in the demanding state.

252A.25 Conditions of interstate rendition.

1 Before making the demand upon the governor of another state for the surrender of a person charged in this state with failing to provide for the support of a person, the governor of this state may require the department of human services or any county attorney of this state to satisfy the governor that at least sixty days prior thereto the obligee initiated proceedings for support under this chapter or that any proceeding would be of no avail.

2 If, under a substantially similar statute, the governor of another state makes a demand upon the governor of this state for the surrender of a person charged in that state with failure to provide for the support of a person, the governor may require any prosecuting attorney to investigate the demand and to report to the governor whether proceedings for support have been initiated or would be effective. If it appears to the governor that a proceeding would be effective but has not been initiated, the governor may delay honoring the demand for a reasonable time to permit the initiation of a proceeding.

3 If proceedings have been initiated and the person demanded has prevailed therein, the governor may decline to honor the demand. If the obligee prevailed and the person demanded is subject to a support order, the governor may decline to honor the demand if the person demanded is complying with the support order.

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

252B.2 Unit established.

There is created within the department of human services a child support recovery unit for the purpose of providing the services required in sections 252B 3 to 252B 6

[C77, 79, 81, §252B 2]

83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

252B.3 Duty of department to enforce child support.

Upon receipt by the department of an application for public assistance on behalf of a child and determination by the department that the child has been abandoned by its parents or that the child and one parent have been abandoned by the other parent or that the parent or other person responsible for the care, support or maintenance of the child has failed or neglected to give proper care or support to the child, the department shall take appropriate action under the provisions of this chapter or under other appropriate statutes of this state including but not limited to chapters 239, 252A, 598, and 675, to ensure that the parent or other person responsible for the support of the child fulfills the support obligation

The department of human services may negotiate a partial payment of a support obligation with a parent or other person responsible for the support of the child, provided that the negotiation and partial payment are consistent with applicable federal law and regulation

[C77, 79, 81, §252B 3, 82 Acts, ch 1237, §3]

252B.4 Nonassistance cases.

The child support and paternity determination services established by the department pursuant to this chapter and other appropriate services provided by law including but not limited to the provisions of chapters 239, 252A, 598 and 675 shall be made available by the unit to an individual not otherwise eligible as a public assistance recipient upon application by the individual for the services The application shall be filed with the department The director may require an application fee not to exceed twenty dollars The director may require an additional fee to cover the costs incurred by the department in providing the support collection and paternity determination services The director shall, by rule, establish and make available to all applicants for support enforcement and paternity determination services a fee schedule The fee for support collection and paternity determination services charged to an applicant shall be agreed upon in writing by the applicant, and shall be based upon the applicant’s ability to pay for the services The application fee and the additional fee for services may be deducted from the amount of the support money recovered by the department Seventy percent of the fees collected pursuant to this section may be retained by the department for use by the unit and thirty percent shall be remitted to the treasurer of state who shall deposit it in the general fund of the state The director or a designee and the treasurer of state shall keep an accurate record of funds so retained, remitted, and deposited

[C77, 79, 81, §252B 4]

83 Acts, ch 153, §16

252B.5 Services of unit.

The child support recovery unit shall provide the following services

1 Assistance in the location of an absent parent or any other person who has an obligation to support the child of the resident parent

2 Aid in establishing paternity and securing a court order for support pursuant to chapter 675

3 Aid in enforcing through court proceedings an existing court order for support issued pursuant to chapters 252A, 598, and 675

4 Assistance to set off against a debtor’s income tax refund or rebate any debt, which is assigned to the department of human services or which the child support recovery unit is attempting to collect on behalf of any individual not eligible as a public assistance recipient, which has accrued through written contract, subrogation, or court judgment, and which is in the form of a liquidated sum due and owing for the care, support or maintenance of a child The department of human services shall promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 17A necessary to assist the department of revenue and finance in the implementation of the child support setoff as established under section 421 17, subsection 21

5 Determine periodically whether an individual receiving unemployment compensation benefits under chapter 96 owes a support obligation which is being enforced by the unit, and enforce the support obligation through court proceedings in the absence of a voluntary agreement by the individual to have specified amounts withheld from the individual's unemployment compensation benefits

[C77, 79, 81, §252B 5, 82 Acts, ch 1260, §123]
83 Acts, ch 96, §157, 159

252B.6 Additional services in assistance cases.

In addition to the services enumerated in section 252B 5, the unit may provide the following services in the case of a dependent child for whom public assistance is being provided

1 Represent the child in obtaining a support order necessary to meet the child's needs or in enforcing a similar order previously entered

2 Appear as a friend of the court in dissolution of marriage and separate maintenance proceedings, or proceedings supplemental thereto, when either or both of the parties to the proceedings are receiving public assistance, for the purpose of advising the court of the financial interest of the state in the proceeding

3 Appear on behalf of the resident parent of a child for whom public assistance is being provided, upon request by the parent, for the purpose of assisting the parent in securing a modification of a dissolution or separate maintenance decree which provided no support or inadequate support for the child. However, the unit may appear on behalf of the resident parent pursuant to this subsection only when the court determines that the resident parent is financially unable to employ legal counsel and is unable to engage free legal counsel. If the resident parent does not request the appearance of a unit representative, or does not qualify for representation pursuant to this subsection, the unit may appear as a friend of the court pursuant to subsection 2, however, the unit shall not otherwise participate in the proceeding

4 If public assistance has been applied for or granted on behalf of a child of parents who are legally separated or whose marriage has been legally dissolved, the unit may apply to the district court for a court order directing either or both parents to show cause for the following a Why an order of support for the child should not be entered, or b Why the amount of support previously ordered should not be increased, or c Why the parent should not be held in contempt for failure to comply with a support order previously entered

5 Initiate necessary civil proceedings to recover from the parent of a child, money expended by the state in providing public assistance or services to the child, including support collection services

[C77, 79, 81, §252B 6]
83 Acts, ch 153, §17

252B.7 Legal services.

1 The attorney general may perform the legal services for the child support recovery program and may enforce all laws for the recovery of child support from responsible relatives. The attorney general may file and prosecute a Contempt of court proceedings to enforce any order of court pertaining to child support

b Cases under chapter 252A, the Uniform Support of Dependents Law

c An information charging a violation of section 726 3, 726 5 or 726 6 d Any other lawful action which will secure collection of support for minor children

2 For the purposes of subsection 1, the attorney general has the same power to commence, file and prosecute any action or information in the proper jurisdiction, which the county attorney could file or prosecute in that jurisdiction. This section does not relieve a county attorney from the county attorney's duties, or the attorney general from the supervisory power of the attorney general, in the recovery of child support

3 The unit may contract with a county attorney, the attorney general, a clerk of the district court, or another person or agency to collect support obligations and to administer the child support program established pursuant to this chapter. Notwithstanding section 13 7, the unit may contract with private attorneys for the prosecution of civil collection and recovery cases and may pay reasonable compensation and expenses to private attorneys for the prosecution services provided

[C77, 79, 81, §252B 7]
83 Acts, ch 153, §18

252B.8 Central information center.

The department shall establish within the unit an information and administration co-ordinating center which shall serve as a registry for the receipt of information and for answering interstate inquiries concerning absent parents and shall co-ordinate and supervise unit activities. The information and administration co-ordinating center shall promote cooperation between the unit and law enforcement agencies to facilitate the effective operation of the unit

[C77, 79, 81, §252B 8]

252B.9 Availability of records.

The director may request from state, county and local agencies, information and assistance deemed necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. State, county and local agencies, officers and employees shall co-operate with the unit in locating absent parents of children on whose behalf public assistance is being provided and shall on request supply the department with available information relative to the location, income and property holdings of the absent parent, notwithstanding any provisions of law making such information confidential.

Information recorded by the department pursuant to this section shall be available only to the unit, attorneys prosecuting a case in which the unit may participate according to sections 252B 5 and 252B 6, courts having jurisdiction in support or abandonment proceedings, and agencies in other states charged with support collection and paternity determination responsibilities as determined by the rules of the department and the provisions of Title IV of the United States Social Security Act.

[C77, 79, 81, §252B.9]

252B.10 Criminal penalties.

1. Any person who willfully requests, obtains, or seeks to obtain paternity determination and support collection data available under section 252B.9 under false pretenses, or who willfully communicates or seeks to communicate such data to any agency or person except in accordance with this chapter, shall be guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor. Any person who knowingly, but without criminal purposes, communicates or seeks to communicate paternity determination and support collection data except in accordance with this chapter shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

2. Any reasonable grounds for belief that a public employee has violated any provision of this chapter shall be grounds for immediate removal from all access to paternity determination and support collection data recorded under section 252B.9.

[C77, 79, 81, §252B.10]

252B.11 Recovery of costs of collection services.

The unit may initiate necessary civil proceedings to recover the unit's costs of support collection services provided to an individual, whether or not the individual is a public assistance recipient, from an individual who owes and is able to pay a support obligation but willfully fails to pay the obligation. The unit may seek a lump sum recovery of the unit's costs or may seek to recover the unit's costs through periodic payments which are in addition to periodic support payments. If the unit's costs are recovered from an individual owing a support obligation, the costs shall not be deducted from the amount of support money received from the individual. Seventy percent of the costs collected pursuant to this section may be retained by the department for use by the unit and thirty percent shall be remitted to the treasurer of state who shall deposit it in the general fund of the state. The director or a designee and the treasurer of state shall keep an accurate record of funds so retained, remitted, and deposited.

252B.12 Jurisdiction over nonresident parents.

In an action to establish paternity or to establish or enforce a child support obligation, a nonresident person is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state upon service of process of original notice in accordance with the rules of civil procedure, Iowa court rules, second edition, if any of the following circumstances exists:

1. Any circumstance in which the nonresident has the necessary minimum contact with this state for the exercise of jurisdiction, consistent with the constitutions of this state and the United States.

2. The affected child was conceived in this state while at least one of the parents was a resident of this state and the nonresident is the parent or alleged parent of the child.

3. The affected child resides in this state as a result of the acts or directives or with the approval of the nonresident.

4. The nonresident has resided with the affected child in this state.

84 Acts, ch 1242, §1

252B.13 Collection services center.

1. The department shall establish within the unit a collection services center for the receipt and disbursement of support payments as defined in section 598.1 required pursuant to an order for which the unit is providing or has provided enforcement services on or after July 1, 1988 under this chapter. For purposes of this section, child support payments do not include attorney fees or court costs. The judicial department and the department of human services shall cooperate in transferring or directing these judgments and orders for support and payments to the collection services center.

2. The collection services center shall have no more than twenty-eight full-time equivalent positions. The department shall not transfer on a temporary or permanent basis any other personnel of the department to the center. The limitation on full-time equivalent positions does not apply to temporary conversion staff necessary to convert current records of the clerks of court into the center's data base. No temporary conversion staff are authorized on or after April 1, 1988.

3. The center shall establish a procedure to file and record complaints against the operation of the clearinghouse system. The center shall keep a record of all complaints received and the complaints shall be retained by the center. Upon request for the complaints, the center shall provide the complaints received, tallied and in the aggregate as a public record.

4. The center shall develop a system to provide certified child support arrearages through telephone communications, without costs, from the center to the clerks of the district court and the clerks of the district court are authorized to receive this information. The center shall also retain written documentation of these records to permit access to the records in those situations where the electronic data base is inoperable. All requests for information shall receive a response within a two-hour period of time during the regular business hours of the center.

5. The state of Iowa, subject to chapter 25A, shall be financially responsible for errors made by the center in providing information to any person when that person acts on the basis of the information provided by the center.

6. The center shall submit a report relating to the time required between the time the payment is received and the time the funds are distributed to the recipient to the fiscal committee of the legislative council on August 1, 1987, November 1, 1987, January 1, 1988, and January 1 of each succeeding year.

252B.14 Support payments — clerk of court — collection services center.

All support payments required pursuant to orders entered under this chapter and chapter 234, 252A, 252C, 598, or 675, or any other chapter shall be directed and processed as follows:

1. In cases for which services are being provided by the unit under this chapter, payment shall be directed to the collection services center established pursuant to section 252B.13. The department of human services shall notify the clerk of the district court if payment should be directed to the collection services center and the clerk shall provide the collection services center with a copy of the order or judgment.

2. In all other cases, payment shall be directed to the clerk of the district court for the use of the person for whom payments have been awarded.

Payments to persons other than the clerk of the district court and the collection services center do not satisfy the support obligations created by such orders or judgments, except as provided for trusts and social security income in section 252D.1, 598.22, or 598.23, or for tax refunds or rebates in section 602.8102, subsection 47.

252B.15 Transfer of information and support orders. Repealed by 88 Acts, ch 1218, §12. See §252B.14, 252B.16.

252B.16 Conversion — processing of support payments.

All judgments and orders for support and support payments which are currently collected and disbursed by the collection services center, other than those subject to section 252B.14, subsection 1, shall be transferred for further processing from the collection services center to the appropriate clerk of the district court on or before March 1, 1989. Support payments subject to section 252B.14, subsection 1, which are not currently collected and disbursed by the collection services center shall be transferred for further processing from each clerk of the district court to the collection services center. The following procedure shall be used to transfer payments:

1. The judicial department and the department of human services shall mutually agree to dates to effectuate the transfer of cases. The department of human services shall cause to be published in the administrative bulletin a cumulative list of effective dates by county, once agreed upon and determined, which list shall be final and inclusive of all counties on the next date of publication subsequent to March 1, 1989.

2. In addition, for orders of support which must be transferred pursuant to this section, the department of human services shall notify the payee and the obligor as provided in subsections 3 and 4 that the obligor will be directed to pay future support payments to the clerk of the district court or to the collection services center as of the date provided in the notice. The notice under subsection 3 to the obligor is the equivalent of a court order directing the payment of the sums to the clerk of the district court or to the collection services center.

3. The notice of the change in the direction of payments shall be sent by ordinary mail to the payee's and the obligor's last known addresses or the persons shall be personally served with the notice in the manner provided for service of an original notice at least fifteen days prior to the date provided in the notice for the redirection of the payments. The notice shall include all of the following:

a. The name of the payee and, if different in whole or in part, the names of the persons to whom the obligation of support is owed by the obligor.

b. The name of the obligor.

c. The amount of the periodic support payment, the due dates of the payments, and any arrearages.

d. The beginning date for sending payments to the clerk of the district court or to the collection services center.

4. In addition to the notice required in subsection 3, the department shall provide notice to the payee and the obligor at the time of abstracting. The notice shall contain all information contained in the abstract and shall be given at least ten working days prior to any notice given pursuant to subsection 3 and shall be made in the same manner as allowed in subsection 3. A person receiving such notice shall have ten working days to file a written statement to the effect that information contained in the abstract is in whole or in part erroneous, and may request a correction of that information. The department shall provide the person with an opportunity for a review hearing to correct the information, unless the department corrects the information.

5. Any payments received after the case has been transferred under this section, shall be sent to the appropriate office within two working days of receipt of payments.

252B.17 Admissibility and identification of support payment records.

Copies of support payment records maintained by the collection services center, when certified over the signature of a designated employee of the center, shall be considered to be satisfactorily identified and shall be admitted in any proceeding as prima facie evidence of the transactions. Additional proof of the official character of the person certifying the record or the authenticity of the person's signature shall not be required. Whenever an employee of the collection services center is served with a summons, subpoena, subpoena duces tecum, or order directing that person to produce such records, the employee may comply by transmitting a copy of the payment records certified as described above to the clerk of the district court.

252C 5	Filing and docketing of financial responsibility order – order effective as district court decree	252C 10	Schedule of minimum support guidelines
		252C 11	Security for payment of support – forfeiture

252C.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires

1 “Caretaker” means a parent, relative, guardian, or another person who is responsible for paying foster care costs pursuant to chapter 234 or whose needs are included in an assistance payment made pursuant to chapter 239

2 “Court order” means a judgment or order of a court of this state or another state requiring the payment of a set or determinable amount of monetary support

3 “Department” means the department of human services

4 “Dependent child” means a person who meets the eligibility criteria established in chapter 234 or 239 and whose support is required by chapter 234, 239, 252A, 598, or 675

5 “Administrator” means the administrator of the child support recovery unit of the department of human services, or the administrator’s designee

6 “Public assistance” means foster care costs paid by the department pursuant to chapter 234 or assistance provided pursuant to chapter 239

7 “Responsible person” means a parent, relative, guardian, or another person legally liable for the support of a child or a child’s caretaker

84 Acts, ch 1278, §1

252C.2 Assignment – creation of support debt – subrogation.

1 By accepting public assistance for or on behalf of a dependent child or a dependent child’s caretaker, the recipient is deemed to have made an assignment to the department of any and all right, title, and interest in any support obligation and arrearages owed to or for the child or caretaker up to the amount of public assistance paid for or on behalf of the child or caretaker

2 The payment of public assistance to or for the benefit of a dependent child or a dependent child’s caretaker creates a support debt due and owing to the department by the responsible person in an amount equal to the public assistance payment, except that the support debt is limited to the amount of a support obligation established by court order or by the administrator. If a court order has not been entered, the administrator may establish a support debt in an amount determined to be consistent with the debtor’s ability to pay and the needs of the dependent child, both as to amounts accrued and accruing, and with the schedule of minimum support guidelines in section 252C 10. However, a support debt is not created in favor of the department against a responsible person for the period during which the responsible person is a recipient on the person’s own behalf of public assistance for the benefit of the dependent child or the dependent child’s caretaker

3 The provision of child support collection or paternity determination services under chapter 252B to an individual, even though the individual is ineligible for public assistance, creates a support debt due and owing to the individual or the individual’s child or ward by the responsible person in the amount of a support obligation established by court order or by the administrator. If a court order has not been entered, the administrator may establish a support debt in favor of the individual or the individual’s child or ward and against the responsible person, in an amount determined to be consistent with the responsible person’s ability to pay and the needs of the dependent child, both as to amounts accrued and accruing, and with the schedule of minimum support guidelines in section 252C 10

4 The department is subrogated to the rights of a dependent child or a dependent child’s caretaker to bring a court action or to execute an administrative remedy for the collection of support. The administrator may petition an appropriate court for modification of a court order on the same grounds as a party to the court order can petition the court for modification

252C.3 Notice of support debt – failure to respond – hearing – order.

1 In the absence of a court order, the administrator may issue a notice establishing and demanding payment of an accrued or accruing support debt due and owed to the department or an individual under section 252C 2 The notice shall be served upon the responsible person in accordance with the rules of civil procedure The notice shall include all of the following a The amount of any monthly public assistance creating a support debt

b A computation of the support debt

c The name of a public assistance recipient and the name of the dependent child or caretaker for whom the public assistance is paid

d A demand for immediate payment of the support debt

e (1) A statement that if the responsible person desires to discuss the amount of support that the responsible person should be required to pay, the responsible person may, within ten days after being served, contact the office of the child support recovery unit which sent the notice and request a negotiation conference

(2) A statement that if a negotiation conference is requested, then the responsible person shall have ten days from the date set for the negotiation conference or twenty days from the date of service of the original notice, whichever is later, to send a request for a hearing to the office of the child support recovery unit which issued the notice

(3) A statement that after the holding of the negotiation conference, the administrator may issue a new notice and finding of financial responsibility to be sent to the responsible person by regular mail addressed to the responsible person's last known address, or if applicable, to the last known address of the responsible person's attorney

(4) A statement that if the administrator issues a new notice and finding of financial responsibility, then the responsible person shall have ten days from the date of issuance of the new notice or twenty days from the date of service of the original notice, whichever is later, to send a request for a hearing to the office of the child support recovery unit which issued the notice

f A statement that if the responsible person objects to all or any part of the notice or finding of financial responsibility and no negotiation conference is requested, then within twenty days of the date of service, the responsible person shall send to the office of the child support recovery unit which issued the notice a written response setting forth any objections and requesting a hearing

g A statement that if a timely written request for a hearing is received by the office of the child support recovery unit which issued the notice, the responsible person shall have the right to a hearing to be held in district court, and that if no timely written response is received, the administrator may enter an order in accordance with the notice and finding of financial responsibility

h A statement that, as soon as the order is entered, the property of the responsible person is subject to collection action, including but not limited to wage withholding, garnishment, attachment of a lien, and execution

i A statement that the responsible person shall notify the administrator of any change of address or employment

j A statement that if the responsible person has any questions, the responsible person should telephoned or visit an office of the child support recovery unit or consult an attorney

k Such other information as the administrator finds appropriate

2 The time limitations for requesting a hearing in subsection 1 may be extended by the administrator

3 If a timely written response setting forth objections and requesting a hearing is received by the appropriate office of the child support recovery unit, a hearing shall be held in district court

4 If timely written response and request for hearing is not received by the appropriate office of the child support recovery unit, the administrator may enter an order in accordance with the notice, and shall specify all of the following a The amount of monthly support to be paid, with directions as to the manner of payment

b The amount of the support debt accrued and accruing in favor of the department c The name of the custodial parent or agency having custody of the dependent child and the name and birth date of the dependent child for whom support is to be paid

d That the property of the responsible person is subject to collection action, including but not limited to wage withholding, garnishment, attachment of a lien, and execution

5 The responsible person shall be sent a copy of the order by regular mail addressed to the responsible person's last known address, or if applicable, to the last known address of the responsible person's attorney The order is final, and action by the administrator to enforce and collect upon the order, including arrearages, may be taken from the date of issuance of the order

252C.4 Certification to court – hearing – default.

1 If a timely written request for a hearing is received, the administrator shall certify the matter to the district court in the county in which the order has been filed, or if no such order has been filed, then to a district court in the county where the dependent child resides

2 If the matter has not been heard previously by the district court, the certification shall include true copies of the notice and finding of financial responsibility or notice of the support debt accrued and accruing, the return of service, the written objections and request for hearing, and true copies of any administrative orders previously entered

3 The court shall set the matter for hearing and notify the parties of the time and place of hearing

4 The court shall consider the schedule of minimum support guidelines in section 252C 10 in establishing the monthly support payment and the amount of the support debt accrued and accruing

5 If a party fails to appear at the hearing, upon a showing of proper notice to that party, the court may find that party in default and enter an appropriate order

84 Acts, ch 1278, §4

252C.5 Filing and docketing of financial responsibility order – order effective as district court decree.

A true copy of any order entered by the administrator pursuant to this chapter, along with a true copy of the return of service, if applicable, may be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court in the county in which the dependent child resides. Upon filing, the clerk shall enter the order in the judgment docket, and the order shall have all the force, effect, and attributes of a docketed order or decree of the district court.

84 Acts, ch 1278, §5

252C.6 Interest on support debts.

Interest accrues on support debts at the rate provided in section 535.3 for court judgments. The administrator may collect the accrued interest but is not required to maintain interest balance accounts. The department may waive payment of the interest if the warner will facilitate the collection of the support debt.

84 Acts, ch 1278, §6

252C.7 Employers – assignments of earnings.

In addition to other remedies provided by law for the enforcement of a support obligation, the employer of a responsible person owing a support debt shall honor a duly executed assignment of current or future earnings presented by the administrator to the employer as a plan to satisfy or retire the support debt. The assignment is effective until released in writing by the administrator. The employer is entitled to receive from the debtor a fee of two dollars for each remittance under the assignment. Payment of moneys pursuant to the assignment of earnings is a full acquittance under a contract of employment. The administrator is released from liability for improper receipt of moneys under an assignment of earnings upon the return of the moneys.

See also ch 252D, §598.22

252C.8 Temporary restraining order or bond.

If the administrator reasonably believes that the responsible person is not a resident of this state, is about to move from this state, or is concealing the responsible person's whereabouts, or that the responsible person has removed or is about to remove, secrete, waste, or otherwise dispose of property which could be made subject to collection procedures to satisfy the support debt, the administrator may petition the district court for a temporary restraining order barring the removal, secretion, waste, or disposal. However, if the responsible person furnishes a bond satisfactory to the court, the temporary restraining order shall be vacated.

84 Acts, ch 1278, §8

252C.9 Court order prevails.

If an order of the administrator issued pursuant to this chapter conflicts with an order of a court, the court order prevails.

84 Acts, ch 1278, §9, 85 Acts, ch 195, §28

252C.10 Schedule of minimum support guidelines.

1 As used in this section, "monthly net income" means gross monthly income minus payroll taxes as defined in section 85.61, subsection 10, mandatory pension contributions, health insurance or health benefit payments for dependents, and deductions not to exceed twenty five dollars per month for a responsible person's health insurance, health benefit payments, or medical expenses.

2 In ordering a responsible person to pay reasonable and necessary child support, the administrator shall set the monthly amount of the child support by multiplying the responsible person's monthly net income by the percentage indicated in the following guidelines, unless the administrator makes express findings of fact as to the reason for deviating from the guidelines. However, the administrator may set the child support above the amount in the guidelines without making express findings of fact if the parties expressly agree to the amount of the child support.

Monthly Net Income of Responsible Person	Number of Dependent Children

3 In applying the guidelines, the administrator shall consider the following criteria:

- (1) All earnings, income, and resources of the responsible parent, including real and personal property;
- (2) The basic living needs of the responsible person;
- (3) The financial needs of the dependent child or children to be supported;
- (4) The amount of public assistance for which the dependent child or children could be eligible.

4 In applying the guidelines, the administrator may consider previous support or maintenance orders which the responsible person is currently paying

84 Acts, ch 1278, §10

252C.11 Security for payment of support – forfeiture.

Upon entry of a court order or upon the failure of a person to make payments pursuant to a court order, the court may require the person to provide security, a bond, or other guarantee which the court determines is satisfactory to secure the payment of the support obligation. Upon the person's failure to pay the support obligation under the court order, the court may declare the security, bond, or other guarantee forfeited.

CHAPTER 252D

DELINQUENT SUPPORT PAYMENTS – ASSIGNMENT OF INCOME

Applies to all support payments which are or become delinquent on or after July 1, 1984. 84 Acts, ch 1239, §7

252D 1 Support definition – delinquent support payments – assignment of income
252D 2 Motion to quash

252D 4 Duties of payor – liability
252D 5 Other remedies
252D 6 Administration of wage withholding procedures
252D 7 Penalty for misrepresentation

252D.1 Support definition – delinquent support payments – assignment of income.

1 As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, “support” or “support payments” means any amount which the court may require a person to pay for the benefit of a child under a temporary order or a final judgment or decree, and may include child support, maintenance, and, if contained in a child support order, spousal support, and any other term used to describe these obligations. These obligations may include support for a child who is between the ages of eighteen and twenty-two years and who is regularly attending an accredited* school in pursuance of a course of study leading to a high school diploma or its equivalent, or regularly attending a course of vocational technical training either as a part of a regular school program or under special arrangements adapted to the individual person's needs, or is, in good faith, a full time student in a college, university, or area school, or has been accepted for admission to a college, university, or area school and the next regular term has not yet begun, and may include support for a child of any age who is dependent on the parties to the dissolution proceedings because of physical or mental disability.

2 If support payments ordered under section 234 39, section 252A 6, subsection 12, chapter 252C, section 598 21, or section 675 25, or under a comparable statute of a foreign jurisdiction, as certified to the child support recovery unit established in section 252B 2, are not paid to the clerk of the district court or the collection services center pursuant to section

598 22 and become delinquent in an amount equal to the payment for one month, upon application of a person entitled to receive the support payments, the child support recovery unit or the district court may enter an ex parte order notifying the person whose income is to be assigned, of the delinquent amount, of the amount of income or wages to be withheld, and of the procedure to file a motion to quash the order of assignment, and shall order an assignment of income and notify an employer, trustee, or other payor by certified mail of the order of the assignment of income requiring the withholding of specified sums to be deducted from the delinquent person's periodic earnings, trust income, or other income sufficient to pay the support obligation and, except as provided in section 598 22, requiring the payment of such sums to the clerk of the district court or the collection services center. The assignment of income is binding on an existing or future employer, trustee, or other payor ten days after the receipt of the order by certified mail. The amount of an assignment of income shall not exceed the amount specified in 15 USC §1673(b). The assignment of income has priority over a garnishment or an assignment for a purpose other than the support of the dependents in the court order being enforced. The child support recovery unit or the district court, upon the application of any party, by ex parte order, may modify the assignment of income on the full payment of the delinquency or in an instance where the amount being withheld exceeds the amount specified in 15 USC §1673(b), or may revoke the assignment of income upon the termination of parental rights, emancipation, death or majority of the child, or upon a change of custody

3 A person entitled by court order to receive support payments or a person responsible for enforcing such a court order may petition the clerk of the district court for an assignment of income. If the petition is verified and establishes that support payments are delinquent in an amount equal to the payment for one month and if the clerk of the district court determines, after providing an opportunity for a hearing, that notice of the mandatory assignment of income as provided in section 252D 3 has been given, the clerk of the district court shall order an assignment of income under subsection 2.

252D.2 Motion to quash.

1 A petitioner under section 252D 1, subsection 3, may move to quash the order of assignment at any time by asserting that the delinquency did not occur or has been paid. A person whose income has been assigned under section 252D 1 may move to quash the order of assignment by filing the motion to quash and notice of the motion to quash with the court within ten days after the entering of the court order of assignment under section 252D 1, subsection 2, or at any time upon a showing of a mistake of fact relating to the delinquency. The clerk of the district court shall schedule a hearing on the motion to quash for a time not later than seven days after the filing of the motion to quash and the notice of the motion to quash. The clerk shall mail to the parties copies of the motion to quash, the notice of the motion to quash, and the order scheduling the hearing.

2 The payor shall withhold and transmit the amount specified in the order of assignment to the clerk of the district court until the notice that the motion to quash has been granted is received.

252D.3 Notice of assignment.

All orders for support entered on or after July 1, 1984 shall notify the person ordered to pay support of the mandatory assignment of income required under section 252D 1. However, for orders for support entered before July 1, 1984, the clerk of the district court, the child support recovery unit, or the person entitled by the order to receive the support payments, shall notify each person ordered to pay support under such orders of the mandatory assignment of income required under section 252D 1. The notice shall be sent by certified mail to the person's last known address or the person shall be personally served with the notice in the manner provided for service of an original notice at least fifteen days prior to the filing of a petition under section 252D 1, subsection 3 or the ordering of an assignment of income under section 252D 1, subsection 2 or 3. A person ordered to pay support may waive the right to receive the notice at any time.

252D.4 Duties of payor – liability.

1 The employer, trustee, or other payor who receives an order of assignment by certified mail pursuant to section 252D 1, subsection 3 shall deliver, on the next working day, a copy of the order to the person named in the order. The payor may deduct not more than two dollars from each payment from the employee's wages as a reimbursement for the payor's costs relating to the assignment. The payor's compliance with the order of assignment satisfies the payor's obligation to the person for the amount of income withheld and transmitted to the clerk of the district court.

2 An employer who willfully discharges an employee or refuses to hire a person because of the entry of an order of assignment under this chapter is guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

3 An employer, trustee, or other payor who receives an order of assignment pursuant to section 252D 1, subsection 2, is liable for the amount which the employer, trustee, or other payor willfully fails to withhold from amounts due the person named in the order, together with costs, interest, and reasonable attorney fees related to the collection of the amounts due from the employer, trustee, or other payor.

252D.5 Other remedies.

The remedies provided in this chapter do not exclude the use of other civil or criminal remedies in enforcing support obligations.

84 Acts, ch 1239, §5, 85 Acts, ch 100, §6

252D.6 Administration of wage withholding procedures.

The collection services center and each clerk of the district court are designated as the entities of the state to administer wage withholding in accordance with procedure specified for keeping adequate records to document, track and monitor support payments in accordance with Title IVD of the federal Social Security Act.

252D.7 Penalty for misrepresentation.

A person who knowingly makes a false statement or representation of a material fact or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact in order to secure an assignment of income against another person and to receive support payments or additional support payments pursuant to this chapter, is guilty, upon conviction, of a serious misdemeanor.

253.1 Establishment — submission to vote.

If the board of supervisors proposes to establish a county care facility under this chapter at a cost in excess of fifteen thousand dollars, it shall first submit the proposition to a vote of the people

[C51, §828, R60, §1396, C73, §1372, C97, §2241, SS15, §2241, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5338, C39, §3828.115; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §253 1, 81 Acts, ch 117, §1041]

253.2 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 117, §1097253.3 Annual published report.

The board of supervisors, prior to September 1 of each year, shall publish in the official papers of the county as part of its proceedings, a financial statement of the receipts of the county care facility, or county farm, itemizing them and stating their source, which report shall also set forth the total expenditures and the value of the property on hand on July 1 of the year for which the report is made and a comparison with the inventory of the previous year

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §5340, C39, §3828.117; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, S81, §253 3, 81 Acts, ch 117, §1042]

253.4 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 117, §1097253.5 Admission — labor required.

The county care facility shall maintain a record of the name and age of each person admitted and the date of admission. The board may require of any resident of the county care facility, with approval of a physician, reasonable and moderate labor suited to the resident's age and bodily strength. Any income realized through the labor of residents, together with the receipts from operation of the county farm if one is maintained, shall be appropriated for use by the county care facility as the board of supervisors directs

253.6 Order for admission.

No person shall be admitted into the county care facility as a resident except upon order of the board of supervisors, which shall be issued only after the person seeking admission has received a preadmission physical examination by a physician. However, if the need for admission of the person to the county care facility is immediate and no physician is readily available to perform the examination, the board may order the person's admission pending an examination by a physician, any provisions of sections 135C 3 and 135C 4 to the contrary notwithstanding. When an admission is so ordered, the physical examination shall be completed within three days after the person's admission to the county care facility

[C51, §837, R60, §1405, C73, §1377, C97, §2244, S13, §2244, C24, 27, 31, 35, §5343, C39, §3828.120; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §253 6]

253.7 Repealed by 81 Acts, ch 117, §1097253.8 Visitation and inspection.

The board shall cause the county care facility to be visited at least once a month by one of its body, who shall carefully examine the condition of the residents and the manner in which they are fed and clothed and otherwise provided for and treated, ascertain what labor they are required to perform, inspect the books and accounts of the administrator, and look into all matters pertaining to the county care facility and its residents, and report to the board

255.1 Complaint.

Any adult resident of the state may file a complaint in the office of the clerk of any juvenile court, charging that any legal resident of Iowa residing in the county where the complaint is filed is pregnant or is suffering from some malady or deformity that can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated by medical or surgical treatment or hospital care, and that neither such person nor persons legally chargeable with the person's support are able to pay therefor.

[SS15, §254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4005; C39, §3828.132; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255.1]

255.2 Duty of public officers and others.

It shall be the duty of physicians, public health nurses, members of boards of supervisors, general relief directors, sheriffs, police officers, and public school teachers, having knowledge of persons suffering from any such malady or deformity, to file or cause such complaint to be filed.

[SS15, §254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4006; C39, §3828.133; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255.2]

255.3 "Patient" defined.

The word "patient" as used in this chapter means the person against whom the complaint is filed.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §4007; C39, §3828.134; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255.3]

255.4 Examination by physician.

Upon the filing of such complaint, the clerk shall number and index the same and shall appoint a competent physician and surgeon, living in the vicinity of the patient, who shall personally examine the patient with respect to said pregnancy, malady, or deformity. The clerk may, after the expiration of five years from the filing of a complaint, destroy it and all papers or records in connection therewith.

[SS15, §254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4008; C39, §3828.135; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255.4]

255.5 Report by physician.

Such physician shall make a report in duplicate on blanks furnished as hereinafter provided, answering the questions contained therein and setting forth the information required thereby, giving such history of the case as will be likely to aid the medical or surgical treatment or hospital care of such patient, describing the pregnancy, deformity, or malady in detail, and stating whether or not in the physician's opinion the same can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated, which report shall be filed in the office of the clerk within such time as the clerk may fix.

[SS15, §254-b, -j; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4009; C39, §3828.136; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255.5]

255.6 Investigation and report.

When such complaint is filed, the clerk of juvenile court shall furnish the county attorney and board of supervisors with a copy thereof and said board shall, by the general relief director or such other agent as it may select, make a thorough investigation of facts as to the legal residence of the patient, and the ability of the patient or others chargeable with the patient's support to pay the expense of such treatment and care; and shall file a report of such investigation in the office of the clerk, at or before the time of hearing.

[SS15, §254-b; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4010; C39, §3828.137; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255.6]

255.7 Notice of hearing — duty of county attorney.

When the physician's report has been filed, the clerk shall, with the consent of the court or judge, fix a time and place for hearing of the matter by the court, and the county attorney shall cause such patient and the parent or parents, guardian, or person having the legal custody of said patient, if under legal disability, to be served with such notice of the time and place of the hearing as the judge or clerk may prescribe.

[SS15, §254-c; C24, 27, 31, 35, §4011; C39, §3828.138; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255.7]

255.8 Hearing — order — emergency cases — cancellation of commitments.

The county attorney and the general relief director, or other agent of the board of supervisors of the county where the hearing is held, shall appear thereat. The complainant, the county attorney, the general relief director or other agent of the board of supervisors, and the patient, or any person representing the patient, may introduce evidence and be heard. If the court finds that said patient is a legal resident of Iowa and is pregnant or is suffering from a malady or deformity which can probably be improved or cured or advantageously treated by medical or surgical treatment or hospital care, and that neither the patient nor any person legally chargeable with the patient's support is able to pay the expenses thereof, then the clerk of court, except in obstetrical cases and cases of crippled children, shall immediately ascertain from the admitting physician at the university hospital whether such person can be received as a patient within a period of thirty days, and if the patient can be so received, the court, or in the event of no actual contest, the clerk of the court, shall then enter an order directing that said patient be sent to the university hospital for proper medical and surgical treatment and hospital care. If the court ascertain, excepting in obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases, that a person of the age or sex of the patient, or afflicted by the complaint, disease or deformity with which such person is affected cannot be received as a patient at the university hospital within the period of thirty days, then the court or the clerk shall enter an order directing the board of supervisors of the county to provide adequate treatment at county expense for the patient at home or in a hospital Obstetrical cases and orthopedic cases may be committed to the university hospital without regard to the limiting period of thirty days

In any case of emergency the court or the clerk without previous inquiry may at its discretion order the patient to be immediately taken to and accepted by the university hospital for the necessary care as provided in section 255 11, but if such a patient cannot be immediately accepted at the university hospital as ascertained by telephone if necessary, the court or the clerk may enter an order as in certain cases above set forth directing the board of supervisors to provide adequate treatment at county expense for the said patient at home or in a hospital

255.9 Treatment for infant.

Whenever a woman who is pregnant is committed to the hospital under the provisions of section 255 8, the said commitment shall authorize the hospital to provide proper medical or surgical treatment and hospital care for the infant

[C31, 35, §4012 d1, C39, §3828.140; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 9]

255.10 Religious belief – denial of order.

The court in its discretion may refuse to make such order in any case where the court finds the patient or the patient’s parent, parents, or guardian are members of a religious denomination whose tenets preclude dependence on the practice of medicine or surgery and desire in good faith to rely upon the practice of their religion for relief from disease or disorder

255.11 Order in case of emergency.

In cases of great emergency, when the court or judge is satisfied that delay would be seriously injurious to the patient, the court or judge may make such order with the consent of the patient, if adult, or of the parent or parents, guardian, or person having the legal custody of said patient, if a minor or incompetent, without examination, report, notice, or hearing

[SS15, §254 c, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4014, C39, §3828.142; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 11]

255.12 Certified copy of order.

The clerk shall prepare a certified copy of said order, which, together with a copy of the physician’s report, shall be delivered to the admitting physician of said hospital at or before the time of the reception of the patient into the hospital

[SS15, §254 j, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4015, C39, §3828.143; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 12]

255.13 Attendant – physician – compensation.

If the physician appointed to examine the patient shall certify that an attendant to accompany the patient to the said hospital is necessary, and the university hospital attendant and ambulance service is not available, then the court or judge or clerk of the court may appoint an attendant who shall receive not exceeding two dollars per day for the time thus necessarily employed and actual necessary traveling expenses by the most feasible route to said hospital whether by ambulance, train or automobile, but if such appointee is a relative of the patient or a member of the patient’s immediate family, or receives a salary or other compensation from the public for the appointee’s services, no such per diem compensation shall be paid The physician appointed by the court or clerk to make the examination and report shall receive therefor three dollars for each examination and report so made and the physician’s actual necessary expenses incurred in making such examination, but if said physician receives a salary or other compensation from the public for the physician’s full time services, then no such examination fee shall be paid The actual, necessary expenses of transporting and caring for the patient shall be paid as hereinafter provided

[SS15, §254 h, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4016, C39, §3828.144; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 13]

255.14 Expenses – how paid.

An itemized, verified statement of all charges provided for in sections 255 8 and 255 13, in cases where the patient is admitted or accepted for treatment at the university hospital shall be filed with the superintendent of the university hospital, and upon the superintendent’s recommendation when approved by the judge or clerk of the court under whose order the same were incurred, they shall be charged on the regular bill for the maintenance, transportation and treatment of the patient, and be audited and paid in the manner as hereinafter provided

[SS15, §254 h, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4017, C39, §3828.145; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 14]

255.15 Duty of admitting physician at hospital.

The authorities in control of the medical college shall designate some physician to pass upon the admission of such patient, and it shall be the physician’s duty to receive such patient into the hospital and to provide for the patient, if available, a cot, bed, or room in said hospital, and to assign the patient to the appropriate clinic and for treatment by the proper physician, unless, in the physician’s judgment, the presence of the patient in the hospital would be dangerous to other patients, or there is no reasonable probability that the patient may be benefited by the proposed treatment or hospital care If the admitting physician shall deny admission to the patient, the physician shall make a report in duplicate of the reasons therefor

[SS15, §254 d, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4018, C39, §3828.146; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 15]

255.16 County quotas.

Subject to subsequent qualifications in this section, there shall be treated at the university hospital during each fiscal year a number of committed indigent patients from each county which shall bear the same relation to the total number of committed indigent patients admitted during the year as the population of such county shall bear to the total population of the state according to the last preceding official census. This standard shall apply to indigent patients, the expenses of whose commitment, transportation, care and treatment shall be borne by appropriated funds and shall not govern the admission of either obstetrical patients under chapter 255A or obstetrical or orthopedic patients under this chapter in accordance with eligibility standards pursuant to section 255A 5. If the number of patients admitted from any county shall exceed by more than ten percent the county quota as fixed and ascertained under the first sentence of this section, the charges and expenses of the care and treatment of such patients in excess of ten percent of the quota shall be paid from the funds of such county at actual cost, but if the number of excess patients from any county shall not exceed ten percent, all costs, expenses, and charges incurred in their behalf shall be paid from the appropriation for the support of the hospital.

[C35, §4018 f1, C39, §3828.147; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 16]

Obstetrical and newborn indigent patient care program ch 255A

255.17 Report of physician in charge of clinic.

If the physician or surgeon in charge of said clinic, or to whom such patient has been assigned for treatment, declines to treat such patient, the physician or surgeon shall make a report in duplicate of the physician's or surgeon's examination of such patient, and state therein the reasons for declining such treatment.

[SS15, §254 d, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4019, C39, §3828.148; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 17]

255.18 Reports.

One duplicate of each of the reports named in sections 255 15 and 255 17 shall be preserved in the records of said hospital, and the other transmitted to the clerk of the court where said order committing the patient to said hospital was entered, and by the clerk filed and preserved among the records in the cause.

[SS15, §254 d, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4020, C39, §3828.149; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 18]

255.19 Treatment of other patients — use of earnings for new facilities.

The university hospital authorities may at their discretion receive into the hospital for medical, obstetrical or surgical treatment or hospital care, patients not committed thereto under the provisions of this chapter, but the treatment or care of such patients shall not in any way interfere with the proper medical or surgical treatment or hospital care of committed patients. The university hospital ambulances and ambulance personnel may be used for the transportation of such patients at a reasonable charge if specialized equipment is required and is not otherwise available and if such use does not interfere with the ambulance transportation of patients committed to the hospital.

All of the provisions of this chapter except as to commitment of patients shall apply to such patients. The university hospital authorities shall collect from the person or persons liable for the support of such patients reasonable charges for hospital care and service and deposit the same with the treasurer of the university for the use and benefit of the university hospital except as specified for obstetrical patients pursuant to section 255A 9. Earnings of the hospital whether from private patients, cost patients, or indigents shall be administered so as to increase as much as possible, the service available for indigents, including the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, completion, equipment, improvement, repair, and remodeling of medical buildings and facilities and additions thereto and the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance the cost thereof as authorized by the provisions of chapter 263A. The physicians and surgeons on the hospital staff who care for patients provided for in this section may charge for their medical services under such rules, regulations and plan therefor as approved by the state board of regents.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, §4021, C39, §3828.150; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 19]

87 Acts, ch 233, §433

255.20 Hospital treatment.

When any patient has been admitted to the hospital for treatment, the physician or surgeon in charge of the case shall proceed with due care and diligence to perform such operation or bestow such treatment upon such patient as in the physician's or surgeon's judgment shall be necessary and proper. Adequate nursing and hospital care shall be provided for said patient during such treatment.

[SS15, §254 d, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4022, C39, §3828.151; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 20]

255.21 Treatment outside hospital — attendant.

If, in the judgment of the physician or surgeon to whom the patient has been assigned for treatment, continuous residence of the patient in the hospital is unnecessary, such patient may, by the hospital authorities, be sent to the patient's home or other appropriate place, and be required to return to the hospital when and for such length of time as may be for the patient's benefit. The hospital authorities may, if necessary, appoint an attendant to accompany such patient and discharged patients, and the compensation of such attendant shall be fixed by the state board of regents and charged by the hospital as part of the costs of transporting patients. The com-compensation paid to and the expenses of the attendant shall be audited and paid in the same manner as is provided by law for the compensation of an attendant appointed by the court

255.22 Treatment authorized.

No minor or incompetent person shall be treated for any malady or deformity except such as is reasonably well described in the order of court or the report of the examining physician, unless permission for such treatment is provided for in the order of court, or is granted by the person's parents or guardian, but the physician in charge may administer such treatment or perform such surgical operations as are usually required in cases of emergency

[SS15, §254 l, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4024, C39, §3828.153; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 22]

255.23 Treatment gratuitous — exception.

No physician, surgeon, or nurse who shall treat or care for such patient shall charge or receive any compensation therefor except the salary or compensation fixed by the state board of regents to be paid from the hospital funds. If the physician, surgeon, or nurse is not in the regular employ of the state board of regents, the compensation shall be paid by the county upon approval of the board of supervisors

[SS15, §254 e, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4025, C39, §3828.154; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 23]

255.24 Record and report of expenses.

The superintendent of said hospital shall keep a correct account of all medicine, care, and maintenance furnished to said patients, and shall make and file with the director of revenue and finance an itemized, sworn statement of all expenses thereof incurred in said hospital. But the superintendent shall render separate bills showing the actual cost of all appliances, instruments, X ray and other special services used in connection with such treatment, commitments, and transportation to and from the said university hospital, including the expenses of attendants and escorts

All purchases of materials, appliances, instruments and supplies by said university hospital, in cases where more than one hundred dollars is to be expended, and where the prices of the commodity or commodities to be purchased are subject to competition, shall be upon open competitive quotations, and all contracts therefor shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 72

255.25 Audit of accounts of hospital.

To arrive at a proper basis for the payment of said bills for treatment, care, and maintenance, the state board of regents shall cause to be made annually an audit of the accounts of the university hospital, and determine the average cost per day for the care and maintenance of each patient therein, exclusive of the salaries of the members of the faculty of said university college of medicine, and said bills shall be allowed at such average cost. All accounts shall be so adjusted and paid as to reimburse the funds of the hospital used for the purposes of this chapter

255.26 Expenses — how paid — action to reimburse county.

Warrants issued under section 255 25 shall be promptly drawn on the treasurer of state and forwarded by the director of revenue and finance to the treasurer of the state university, and the same shall be by the treasurer of the state university placed to the credit of the funds which are set aside for the support of said hospital. However, warrants shall not be paid unless the UB 82 claim required pursuant to section 255A 13 has been filed with the Iowa health data commission. The superintendent of the said university hospital shall certify to the auditor of state on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, the amount as herein provided not previously certified by the superintendent due the state from the several counties having patients chargeable thereto, and the auditor of state shall thereupon charge the same to the county so owing. A duplicate certificate shall also be mailed to the auditor of each county having patients chargeable thereto. Expenses for obstetrical patients served under section 255A 9 shall be reimbursed as specified in section 255A 9

The county auditor, upon receipt of the certificate, shall enter it to the credit of the state in the ledger of state accounts, and at once issue a notice to the county treasurer authorizing the county treasurer to transfer the amount to the general state revenue, which notice shall be filed by the treasurer as authority for making the transfer. The county treasurer shall include the amount transferred in the next remittance of state taxes to the treasurer of state, to accrue to the credit of the university hospital fund

The state auditor shall certify the total cost of commitment, transportation and caring for each indigent patient under the terms of this statute to the county auditor of such patient's legal residence, and such certificate shall be preserved by the county auditor and shall be a debt due from the patient or the persons legally responsible for the patient's care, maintenance or support, and whenever in the judgment of the board of supervisors the same or any part thereof shall be collectible, the said board may in its own name collect the same and is hereby authorized to institute suits for such purpose, and after deducting the county's share of such cost shall cause the balance to be paid into the state treasury to reimburse the university hospital fund

Should any county fail to pay these bills within sixty days from the date of certificate from the superintendent, the director of revenue and finance shall charge the delinquent county the penalty of one percent per month on and after sixty days from date of certificate until paid. Such penalties shall be credited to the general fund of the state.

255.27 Faculty to prepare blanks — printing.

The medical faculty of the state university hospital shall from time to time prepare blanks containing such questions and requiring such information as may, in its judgment, be necessary and proper to be obtained by the physician who examines such patient under order of court. Such blanks shall be printed by the state, and a sufficient supply thereof shall be furnished by the state board of printing to the clerk of each juvenile court in the state. The cost of printing said blanks shall be audited, allowed, and paid in the same manner as other bills for public printing.

[SS15, §254 j, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4029, C39, §3828.158; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 27]

255.28 Transfer of patients from state institutions.

The director of the department of human services, in respect to institutions under the director's control, the administrator of any of the divisions of the department, in respect to the institutions under the administrator's control, the director of the Iowa department of corrections, in respect to the institutions under the department's control, and the state board of regents in respect to the Iowa braille and sight saving school and the Iowa school for the deaf, may send any inmate, student, or patient of an institution, or any person committed or applying for admission to an institution, to the hospital of the medical college of the state university for treatment and care as provided in this chapter, without securing the order of court required in other cases. The department of human services, the Iowa department of corrections and the state board of regents, shall respectively pay the traveling expenses of a patient thus committed, and when necessary the traveling expenses of an attendant for the patient, out of funds appropriated for the use of the institution from which the patient is sent.

[SS15, §254 k, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4030, C39, §3828.159; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §255 28]

255.30 Collecting and settling claims for care.

Whenever a patient or person legally liable for the patient's care at the hospital has insurance, an estate, rights of action against others, or other assets, any of which can be subjected thereto, the university hospital, by its superintendent or the superintendent's assistants through the facilities of the attorney general's office, is hereby authorized to file claims, institute or defend suits in courts, and use such other legal means as may be available to collect accounts incurred for the care of indigent or private patients, and may compromise, settle and release the same, all under such rules and procedures therefor as may be prescribed by the president of the university and the attorney general. If a county has paid any part of such patient's care a pro rata part of the amount collected, after deduction for cost of collection, shall be remitted to said county and the balance shall go into the hospital fund.

255A.1 State policy.

It is the policy of the state to provide obstetrical and newborn care to medically indigent individuals in this state, at the appropriate and necessary level, at a licensed hospital or health care facility closest and most available to the residence of the indigent individual

87 Acts, ch 233, §435

255A.2 Obstetrical and newborn indigent patient care program.

A statewide obstetrical and newborn indigent patient care program is established for the purpose of providing obstetrical and newborn care to medically indigent residents of this state. Appropriations by the general assembly for this chapter shall be allocated for the obstetrical and newborn patient care fund within the Iowa department of public health and shall be utilized for the obstetrical and newborn indigent patient care program as specified in this chapter. Indigent patients in need of such care residing in the counties of Cedar, Clinton, Iowa, Johnson, Keokuk, Louisa, Muscatine, Scott, and Washington shall be provided the care at the university hospitals under the nonquota obstetrical program under chapter 255

255A.3 Administration of program.

The Iowa department of public health shall administer the statewide obstetrical and newborn indigent patient care program. The department shall adopt administrative rules to implement the program pursuant to chapter 17A. Administrative costs of the department shall not exceed three percent of the annual funds appropriated for the obstetrical and newborn patient care fund 255A.4 Patient quota formula.

87 Acts, ch 233, §437

The Iowa department of public health shall establish a patient quota formula for determining the maximum number of obstetrical and newborn patients eligible for the program from each county. The formula shall be based upon the annual appropriation for the program, the average number of live births in each county during the most recent three-year period for which statistics are available, and the per capita income for each county during the most recent one year period for which statistics are available. In accordance with this formula the department shall allocate a patient quota to each county at the beginning of each fiscal year. The department shall provide for the reassignment of an unused county quota allotment on April 1 of each year. The reassignment shall be taken only from a county which has an unused quota allotment for the portion of the fiscal year ending March 31. A county may utilize its quota allotment for a patient determined to be eligible before the end of the fiscal year but scheduled to need care after the end of the fiscal year. The reassignment of an unused county allotment shall be made to other counties on the basis of rules adopted by the department pursuant to chapter 17A.

A woman who resides in a county which exceeds the patient quota allocated for the county, and who has been deemed eligible under section 255A 5, shall be served at the University of Iowa hospitals and clinics pursuant to section 255 16

255A.5 Minimum eligibility standards.

The Iowa department of public health, in collaboration with the department of human services and in consultation with the Iowa state association of counties, shall adopt rules, pursuant to chapter 17A, establishing minimum standards for eligibility for obstetrical and newborn care, including physician examination, medical testing, ambulance services, and inpatient transportation costs, for indigent obstetrical and newborn care provided by the University of Iowa hospitals and clinics and by other licensed hospitals and physicians. The minimum standards for eligibility shall provide eligibility for persons with incomes at or below one hundred fifty percent of the annual revision of the poverty income guidelines published by the United States department of health and human services, and shall provide, but shall not be limited to providing, eligibility for uninsured and underinsured persons financially unable to pay for necessary obstetrical and newborn care and orthopedic care. The minimum standards may include a spend-down provision. The resource standards shall be set at or above the resource standards under the federal supplemental security income program. The resource exclusions allowed under the federal supplemental security income program shall be allowed and shall include resources necessary for self-employment 255A.6 Application and certification for care.

87 Acts, ch 233, §439

A person desiring obstetrical and newborn care, the cost of which is payable from the obstetrical and newborn patient care fund, or the parent or guardian of a minor desiring or in need of such care, may apply to the director of a maternal health center, operated by the Iowa department of public health, to have the cost of such care paid from the fund. In counties not served by such a center, the department shall contract with another agency, institution or organization to receive and process applications for care. The director of the center shall first ascertain from the local office of the department of human services if the applicant would be eligible for medical assistance or for assistance under the medically needy program without any spend down requirement, pursuant to chapter 249A. If the applicant is eligible for assistance pursuant to chapter 249A, or if the applicant is eligible for maternal and child health care services covered by a maternal and child health program, the obstetrical patient care program shall not provide such assistance, care, or covered services provided under other programs. The Iowa department of public health, with the department of human services, shall jointly develop a standardized application form and shall coordinate the determination of eligibility for medical assistance and the obstetrical patient care program. In counties in which the maternal and child health clinic processes the application, the clinic shall notify the county relief office of the application process.

255A.7 Freedom of choice of provider.

A person certified for obstetrical and newborn care under this chapter may choose to receive the appropriate level of care at the University of Iowa hospitals and clinics or any other licensed hospital or health care facility.

87 Acts, ch 233, §441

255A.8 Reimbursable costs of care.

The obstetrical and newborn care costs of a person certified for such care under this chapter at a licensed hospital or health care facility or from licensed physicians shall be paid by the Iowa department of public health from the obstetrical and newborn patient care fund. However, a physician who provides obstetrical or newborn care at the University of Iowa hospitals and clinics to a person certified for care under this chapter is not entitled to receive any compensation for the provision of such care in accordance with section 255.23.

87 Acts, ch 233, §442

255A.9 Allowable reimbursements.

All providers of services to obstetrical and newborn patients under this chapter shall agree to accept as full payment the reimbursements allowable under the medical assistance program established pursuant to chapter 249A, adjusted for intensity of care. However, the total reimbursement from the obstetrical and newborn patient care fund to providers of services for residents of a county is limited to that county's obstetrical and newborn patient quota multiplied by the medical assistance program's average reimbursement for obstetrical and newborn care for the most recent fiscal year except as otherwise provided in this section. The Iowa department of public health shall reserve ten percent of the fund annually for payment of the costs of care of a patient certified for care under this chapter in excess of the medical assistance program's average reimbursements if the nature and extent of the care justifies such additional reimbursement. The department shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A, establishing the requirements for such additional reimbursement.

87 Acts, ch 233, §443

255A.10 Procedures for payment.

The Iowa department of public health shall establish procedures for payment for providers of services to obstetrical and newborn patients under this chapter from the obstetrical and newborn patient care fund. All billings from such providers shall be submitted directly to the department. However, payment shall not be made unless the application and certification for care pursuant to section 255A.6 is performed.

87 Acts, ch 233, §444

255A.11 County responsibility for costs of care.

A county shall not be held responsible for the costs of providing obstetrical and newborn care, including physician examination, medical testing, ambulance services, and transportation costs, to pregnant women and their newborn infants who meet the eligibility requirements adopted by the Iowa department of public health.

87 Acts, ch 233, §445

255A.12 Reversion or transfer of moneys in the obstetrical and newborn patient care fund.

Moneys encumbered prior to June 30 of a fiscal year for a certified eligible pregnant woman scheduled to deliver in the next fiscal year shall not revert from the obstetrical and newborn patient care fund to the general fund of the state. Moneys allocated to the obstetrical and newborn patient care fund shall not be transferred nor voluntarily reverted from the fund within a given fiscal year.

87 Acts, ch 233, §446

255A.13 Data collection.

Beginning July 1, 1987, the University of Iowa hospitals and clinics shall submit, on a quarterly basis, UB-82 claims for all patients discharged after being served under the indigent patient program under chapter 255. The UB 82 claim shall include all data elements which are required by the Iowa health data commission.

87 Acts, ch 233, §447

255A.14 Funds — reversion of unencumbered balance.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 8.33 or any other provision of law, any unencumbered balance remaining in the decentralized indigent obstetrical patient program fund on June 30 of each year shall be used for the payment of warrants issued pursuant to section 255.25.

CODE OF IOWA

CONTAINING

ALL STATUTES OF A GENERAL AND PERMANENT NATURE

Including the Acts of a permanent nature of the Seventy-second General Assembly, 1987, 1988.

Published under the authority of Iowa Code chapter 14 by the Legislative Service Bureau
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA
Des Moines

1988

PREFACE TO 1989 IOWA CODE

The 1989 Iowa Code is published pursuant to Code chapter 14. Its form is substantially the same as the 1987 Iowa Code, and it covers the permanent enactments of the 1987 and 1988 sessions of the Seventy-second General Assembly. The Code is published in three volumes with a separate index bound in a different color. A Skeleton Index printed on colored paper appears at the end of each volume.

EDITORIAL DECISIONS. If there were multiple amendments to a section or part of a section, all changes that were duplicative or otherwise did not appear to conflict were harmonized as required by Code section 4.11. It was generally assumed that a strike or repeal prevailed over an amendment to the same material and did not create an irreconcilable conflict, and that the substitution of the correct title of an officer or department as authorized by law did not create a conflict. Code sections 4.4 through 4.11 provide guidance for codifying conflicting provisions. Code section 4.13 governs the ongoing revision of gender references, authorizes other editorial changes, and provides for the effective date of the changes. At the end of Volume III are Code Editor's Notes which explain the major editorial decisions.

HISTORIES. The bracketed material at the end of most Code sections indicates the history of the subject matter of the sections. However, beginning with the 1985 Code, the histories were not continued, but source notes were added to indicate the location in the Iowa Acts of subsequent amendments and enactments.

CONSTITUTIONS. A codified version of the 1857 Constitution of the State of Iowa, as well as the original version, is now included with the introductory material at the beginning of Volume I.

TABLES. At the end of Volume III are further reference materials including tables entitled "Disposition of Acts," "Corresponding Sections of Code 1987 to Code Supplement 1987 and Code 1989," and "Internal References to Sections, Chapters, and Chapter Divisions of Code 1989." The internal reference table replaces the internal reference footnotes formerly found under the individual Code sections, and chapter and division headings.

The editorial staff of the Iowa Code welcomes your comments and suggestions for improvements.

256.1 Department established.

The department of education is established to act in a policymaking and advisory capacity and to exercise general supervision over the state system of education including

- 1 Public elementary and secondary schools
- 2 Merged area schools
- 3 Area education agencies
- 4 Vocational rehabilitation
- 5 Educational supervision over the elementary and secondary schools under the control of a director of a division of the department of human services
- 6 Nonpublic schools to the extent necessary for compliance with Iowa school laws

The department shall act as an administrative, supervisory, and consultative state agency

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1401

256.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter

- 1 “Department” means the department of education
- 2 “State board” means the state board of education
- 3 “Director” means the director of the department of education

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1402

256.3 State board established.

The state board of education is established for the department. The state board consists of nine members appointed by the governor subject to senate confirmation. The members shall be qualified electors of the state and hold no other elective or appointive state office. A member shall not be engaged in professional education for a major portion of the member’s time nor shall the member derive a major portion of income from any business or activity connected with education. One member shall have substantial knowledge related to vocational and technical training, and one member shall have substantial knowledge related to area community colleges. Not more than five members shall be of the same political party.

The terms of office are for six years beginning and ending as provided in section 69 19

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1403

256.4 Oath — vacancies.

The members of the state board shall qualify by taking the regular oath of office as prescribed by law for state officers. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner in which regular appointments are required to be made

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1404

256.5 Compensation and expenses.

The members of the state board shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred while engaged in their official duties. Members of the state board may also be eligible to receive compensation as provided in section 7E.6. All expense moneys paid to the members shall be paid from funds appropriated to the department.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1405

Compensation; see §257.6, Code 1985, and §7E.6(1)

256.6 Regular and special meetings.

The state board shall meet in May of each year for purposes of organization and shall hold at least five additional regular meetings during the twelve-month period ending April 30. Special meetings of the state board may be called by the president or by any five members of the board on five days' notice given to each member.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1406; 88 Acts, ch 1013, §1

256.7 Duties of state board.

Except for the college aid commission, the state board shall:

1. Adopt and establish policy for programs and services of the department pursuant to law.
2. Constitute the state board for vocational education under chapters 258 and 259.
3. Constitute the board of educational examiners for the certification of administrative, supervisory, and instructional personnel for the public school systems of the state. The state board shall adopt rules prescribing the types and classes of certificates; requirements for certificates; standards for acceptance of degrees, credits, courses, and other evidences of training from public and private institutions of higher learning and other training institutions in this state and outside this state; and standards for the approval of programs of teacher education. The state board shall perform duties imposed upon the board of educational examiners under chapter 260.
- By January 1, 1989, the state board shall adopt rules under chapter 17A that prescribe a process for the appointment and operation of evaluation panels for evaluating the performance of teachers possessing initial certification to determine whether the teachers meet the requirements adopted by the board for progressing to the next certification level.
4. Adopt, and update annually, a five-year plan for the achievement of educational goals in Iowa.
5. Adopt rules under chapter 17A for carrying out the responsibilities of the department.
6. Hear appeals of persons aggrieved by decisions of boards of directors of school corporations under chapter 290 and other appeals prescribed by law. The state board shall review the record and decision of the director of the department of education in appeals heard and decided by the director under chapter 290, and may affirm, modify, or vacate the decision, or may direct a rehearing before the director.
7. Develop plans for the restructuring of school districts, area education agencies, and merged area schools, with specific emphasis on combining the area education agencies and merged area schools. The plans shall be reported to the general assembly not later than October 1, 1987.

In addition, the state board shall develop plans for redrawing the boundary lines of area education agencies so that the total number of area education agencies is no fewer than four and no greater than twelve. The state board shall also study the governance structure of the merged area schools, including but not limited to governance at the state level with a director of area school education serving under a state board. The plans relating to the area education agencies and merged area schools shall be submitted to the general assembly not later than January 8, 1990.

The focus of the plans shall be to assure more productive and efficient use of limited resources, equity of geographical access to facilities, equity of educational opportunity within the state, and improved student achievement.

The state board shall consult with representatives from the local school districts, area education agencies, and merged area schools in developing the plans. The representatives shall include board members, school administrators, teachers, parents, students, associations interested in education, and representatives of communities of various sizes.

8. Develop plans for the approval of teacher preparation programs that incorporate the results of recently completed research and national studies on teaching for the twenty-first century and develop plans for providing assistance to newly graduated teachers, including options for internships and reduced teaching loads. The plans shall be submitted to the general assembly not later than October 1, 1988.

9. Adopt rules under chapter 17A for the use of telecommunications as an instructional tool for students enrolled in kindergarten through grade twelve and served by local school districts, accredited or approved nonpublic schools, area education agencies, merged area schools, institutions of higher education under the state board of regents, and independent colleges and universities in elementary and secondary school classes and courses. The rules shall include but need not be limited to rules relating to programs, educational policy, instructional practices, staff development, use of pilot projects, curriculum monitoring, and the accessibility of certificated teachers.

When curriculum is provided by means of telecommunications, it shall be taught by a certificated teacher who is properly endorsed or approved. The teacher shall either be present in the classroom, or be present at the location at which the curriculum delivered by means of telecommunications originates.

The rules shall provide that when the curriculum is taught by a certificated and properly endorsed or approved teacher at the location at which the telecommunications originates, the curriculum received shall be under the supervision of a certificated teacher For the purposes of this subsection, “supervision” means that the curriculum is monitored by a certificated teacher and the certificated teacher is accessible to the students receiving the curriculum by means of telecommunications

The state board shall establish an advisory committee to make recommendations for rules required under this subsection on the use of telecommunications as an instructional tool The committee shall be composed of representatives from merged area schools, area education agencies, accredited or approved nonpublic schools, and local school districts from various enrollment categories The representatives shall include board members, school administrators, teachers, parents, students, and associations interested in education

For the purpose of the rules adopted by the state board, telecommunications means narrowcast communications through systems that are directed toward a narrowly defined audience and includes interactive live communications

10 Rules adopted under this section shall provide that telecommunications shall not be used by school districts as the exclusive means to provide any course which is required by the minimum educational standards for approval or accreditation

11 Develop evaluation procedures that will measure the effects of instruction by means of telecommunications on student achievement, socialization, intellectual growth, motivation, and other related factors deemed relevant by the state board, for the development of an educational data base The state board shall consult with the state board of regents and the teacher education departments at its institutions, other approved teacher education departments located within private colleges and universities, educational research agencies or facilities, and other agencies deemed appropriate by the state board, in developing these procedures

12 Adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A relating to educational programs and budget limitations for educational programs pursuant to sections 282 28, 282 29, 282 30, and 282 31 The rules adopted pursuant to this subsection shall be written by June 30, 1987

256.8 Director of department of education.

The governor shall appoint a director of the department of education subject to confirmation by the senate The director shall possess a background in education and administrative experience and shall serve at the pleasure of the governor

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1408

256.9 Duties of director.

Except for the college aid commission, the director shall

1 Carry out programs and policies as determined by the state board

2 Recommend to the state board rules necessary to implement programs and services of the department

3 Establish divisions of the department as necessary or desirable in addition to divisions required by law The organization of the department shall promote coordination of functions and services relating to administration, supervision, and improvement of instruction

4 Employ personnel and assign duties and responsibilities of the department The director shall appoint a deputy director and division administrators deemed necessary They shall be appointed on the basis of their professional qualifications, experience in administration, and background Members of the professional staff are not subject to the merit system provisions of chapter 19A and are subject to section 256 10

5 Transmit to the department of management information about the distribution of state and federal funds pursuant to state law and rules of the department

6 Develop a budget and transmit to the department of management estimates of expenditure requirements for all functions and services of the department

7 Accept and administer federal funds apportioned to the state for educational and rehabilitation purposes and accept surplus commodities for distribution when made available by a governmental agency The director may also accept grants and gifts on behalf of the department

8 Cooperate with other governmental agencies and political subdivisions in the development of rules and enforcement of laws relating to education

9 Conduct research on education matters

10 Submit to each regular session of the general assembly recommendations relating to revisions or amendments to the school laws

11 Approve, coordinate, and supervise the use of electronic data processing by school districts, area education agencies, and merged areas

12 Act as the executive officer of the state board

13 Act as custodian of a seal for the director's office and authenticate all true copies of decisions or documents

14 Appoint advisory committees, in addition to those required by law, to advise in carrying out the programs, services, and functions of the department

15 Provide the same educational supervision for the schools maintained by the director of human services as is provided for the public schools of the state and make recommendations to the director of human services for the improvement of the educational program in those institutions

16 Interpret the school laws and rules relating to the school laws

17 Hear and decide appeals arising from the school laws not otherwise specifically granted to the state board

18 Prepare forms and procedures as necessary to be used by area education agency boards, district boards, school officials, principals, teachers, and other employees, and to insure uniformity, accuracy, and efficiency in keeping records in both pupil and cost accounting, the execution of contracts, and the submission of reports, and notify the area education agency board, district board, or school authorities when a report has not been filed in the manner or on the dates prescribed by law or by rule that the school will not be accredited until the report has been properly filed.

19. Determine by inspection, supervision, or otherwise, the condition, needs, and progress of the schools under the supervision of the department, make recommendations to the proper authorities for the correction of deficiencies and the educational and physical improvement of the schools, and request a state audit of the accounts of a school district, area education agency, school official, or school employee handling school funds when it is apparent that an audit should be made.

20. Preserve reports, documents, and correspondence that may be of a permanent value, which shall be open for inspection under reasonable conditions.

21. Keep a record of the business transacted by the director.

22. Endeavor to promote among the people of the state an interest in education.

23. Classify and define the various schools under the supervision of the department, formulate suitable courses of study, and publish and distribute the classifications and courses of study and promote their use.

24. Report biennially to the governor, at the time provided by law, the condition of the schools under the department's supervision, including the number and kinds of school districts, the number of schools of each kind, the number and value of schoolhouses, the enrollment and attendance in each county for the previous year, any measures proposed for the improvement of the public schools, financial and statistical information of public importance, and general information relating to educational affairs and conditions within the state or elsewhere. The report shall also review the programs and services of the department.

25. Direct area education agency administrators to arrange for professional teachers' meetings, demonstration teaching, or other field work for the improvement of instruction as best fits the needs of the public schools in each area.

26. Cause to be printed in book form, during the months of June and July in the year 1987 and every four years thereafter, if deemed necessary, all school laws then in force with forms, rulings, decisions, notes, and suggestions which may aid school officers in the proper discharge of their duties. A sufficient number shall be furnished to school officers, directors, superintendents, area administrators, members of the general assembly, and others as reasonably requested.

27. Cause to be printed in pamphlet form after each session of the general assembly any amendments or changes in the school laws with necessary notes and suggestions to be distributed as prescribed in subsection 26.

28. Prepare and submit to each regular session of the general assembly a report containing the recommendations of the state board as to revisions, amendments, and new provisions of school laws.

29. Provide administrative services for the independent nonprofit quasi-public First In the Nation in Education foundation.

30. Approve the salaries of area education agency administrators.

31. Develop criteria and procedures to assist in the identification of at-risk children and their developmental needs.

32. Develop, in conjunction with the child development coordinating council or other similar agency, child-to-staff ratio recommendations and standards for at-risk programs based on national literature and test results and Iowa longitudinal test results.

33. Develop programs in conjunction with the center for early development education to be made available to the school districts to assist them in identification of at-risk children and their developmental needs. For a period of one year, beginning July 1, 1988, and ending June 30, 1989, direct the educational services division of the area education agencies to develop program plans to assist the districts in educating at-risk children. The area education agencies may enter into contracts with other groups or agencies to provide all or part of the program. The programs shall include but are not limited to:

- a. Administrator and staff in-service education.
- b. Area education agency and district staff utilization plans.
- c. Qualifications required of personnel administering the program.
- d. Child-to-staff ratio specifications.
- e. Longitudinal testing of the children.
- f. Referrals to outside agencies.
- g. An emphasis on integrating the identified children with the balance of the class.
- h. Proposed curriculum content and materials.
- i. Cost projections for provision of the programs.

34. Conduct or direct the area education agency to conduct feasibility surveys and studies, if requested under section 282.11, of the school districts within the area education agency service areas and all adjacent territory, including but not limited to contiguous districts in other states, for the purpose of evaluating and recommending proposed whole grade sharing agreements requested under section 282.7 and section 282.10, subsections 1 and 4. The surveys and studies shall be revised periodically to reflect reorganizations which may have taken place in the area education agency, adjacent territory, and contiguous districts in other states. The surveys and studies shall include a cover page containing recommendations and a short explanation of the recommendations. The factors to be used in determining the recommendations include, but are not limited to:

a. The possibility of long-term survival of the proposed alliance.

b. The adequacy of the proposed educational programs versus the educational opportunities offered through a different alliance.

c. The financial strength of the new alliance.

d. Geographical factors.

e. The impact of the alliance on surrounding schools.

Copies of the completed surveys and studies shall be transmitted to the affected districts' school boards.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1409; 87 Acts, ch 115, §36; 88 Acts, ch 1114, §1; 88 Acts, ch 1158, §54; 88 Acts, ch 1263, §1

256.10 Employment of professional staff.

The salary of the director shall be fixed by the governor within a range established by the general assembly. Appointments to the professional staff of the department shall be without reference to political party affiliation, religious affiliation, sex, or marital status, but shall be based solely upon fitness, ability, and proper qualifications for the particular position. The professional staff shall serve at the discretion of the director. A member of the professional staff shall not be dismissed for cause without at least ninety days' notice, except in cases of conviction of a felony or cases involving moral turpitude. In cases of procedure for dismissal, the accused has the same right to notice and hearing as teachers in the public school systems as provided in section 279.27 to the extent that it is applicable.

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1410

256.10A Duties of consultants.

Consultants employed by the director and paid from the fund created by section 8.41 from moneys received from Pub. L. No. 97-35, Title V, subtitle D, chapter 2, shall assist those employees designated by the department as school improvement specialists in helping school districts to participate in school improvement activities identified as a result of the accreditation process conducted pursuant to section 256.11. The department shall assign consultants to assist school districts that the department determines are most in need of participation in school improvement activities.

For the purpose of this section, "school improvement specialist" means a consultant employed by the department who is responsible for the accreditation of school districts under section 256.11.

87 Acts, ch 233, §450

256.11 Educational standards.

The state board shall adopt rules under chapter 17A and a procedure for accrediting all public and nonpublic schools in Iowa offering instruction at any or all levels from the prekindergarten level through grade twelve. The rules of the state board shall require that a multicultural, nonsexist approach is used by school districts. The educational program shall be taught from a multicultural, nonsexist approach. Global perspectives shall be incorporated into all levels of the educational program.

The rules adopted by the state board pursuant to section 256.17, Code Supplement 1987, to establish new standards shall satisfy the requirements of this section to adopt rules to implement the educational program contained in this section.

The educational program shall be as follows:

1. If a school offers a prekindergarten program, the program shall be designed to help children to work and play with others, to express themselves, to learn to use and manage their bodies, and to extend their interests and understanding of the world about them. The prekindergarten program shall relate the role of the family to the child's developing sense of self and perception of others. Planning and carrying out prekindergarten activities designed to encourage cooperative efforts between home and school shall focus on community resources. A prekindergarten teacher shall hold a certificate certifying that the holder is qualified to teach in prekindergarten. A nonpublic school which offers only a prekindergarten may, but is not required to, seek and obtain accreditation.

2. The kindergarten program shall include experiences designed to develop healthy emotional and social habits and growth in the language arts and communication skills, as well as a capacity for the completion of individual tasks, and protect and increase physical well-being with attention given to experiences relating to the development of life skills and human growth and development. A kindergarten teacher shall be certificated to teach in kindergarten. An accredited nonpublic school must meet the requirements of this subsection only if the nonpublic school offers a kindergarten program.

3. The following areas shall be taught in grades one through six: English-language arts, social studies, mathematics, science, health, human growth and development, physical education, traffic safety, music, and visual art. The health curriculum shall include the characteristics of communicable diseases including acquired immune deficiency syndrome. The state board as part of accreditation standards shall adopt curriculum definitions for implementing the elementary program.

4. The following shall be taught in grades seven and eight: English-language arts, social studies, mathematics, science, health, human growth and development, physical education, music, and visual art. The health curriculum shall include the characteristics of sexually transmitted diseases and acquired immune deficiency syndrome. The state board as part of accreditation standards shall adopt curriculum definitions for implementing the program in grades seven and eight.

5. In grades nine through twelve, a unit of credit consists of a course or equivalent related components or partial units taught throughout the academic year. The minimum program to be offered and taught for grades nine through twelve is:

a. Five units of science including physics and chemistry; the units of physics and chemistry may be taught in alternate years.

b. Five units of the social studies including instruction in voting statutes and procedures, voter registration requirements, the use of paper ballots and voting machines in the election process, and the method of acquiring and casting an absentee ballot.

The county auditor, upon request and at a site chosen by the county auditor, shall make available to schools within the county voting machines or sample ballots that are generally used within the county, at times when these machines or sample ballots are not in use for their recognized purpose.

c. Six units of English-language arts.

d. Four units of a sequential program in mathematics.

e. Two units of general mathematics.

f. Four sequential units of one foreign language. The department may waive the third and fourth years of the foreign language requirement on an annual basis upon the request of the board of directors of a school district or the authorities in charge of a nonpublic school if the board or authorities are able to prove that a certificated teacher was employed and assigned a schedule that would have allowed students to enroll in a foreign language class, the foreign language class was properly scheduled, students were aware that a foreign language class was scheduled, and no students enrolled in the class.

g. All students physically able shall be required to participate in physical education activities during each semester they are enrolled in school except as otherwise provided in this paragraph. A minimum of one-eighth unit each semester is required. A twelfth grade student who meets the requirements of this paragraph may be excused from the physical education requirement by the principal of the school in which the student is enrolled if the parent or guardian of the student requests in writing that the student be excused from the physical education requirement. A student who wishes to be excused from the physical education requirement must be enrolled in a cooperative or work-study program or other educational program authorized by the school which requires the student to leave the school premises for specified periods of time during the school day. The student must seek to be excused from the physical education requirement in order to enroll in academic courses not otherwise available to the student. The principal of the school shall inform the superintendent of the school district or nonpublic school that the student has been excused. Physical education activities shall emphasize leisure time activities which will benefit the student outside the school environment and after graduation from high school.

h. Five units of occupational education subjects, which may include, but are not limited to, programs, services, and activities which prepare students for employment in office and clerical, trade and industrial, consumer and homemaking, agriculture, distributive, and health occupations.

i. Three units in the fine arts which shall include at least two of the following: dance, music, theatre, and visual art.

j. One unit of health education which shall include personal health; food and nutrition; environmental health; safety and survival skills; consumer health; family life; human growth and development; substance abuse and nonuse; emotional and social health; health resources; and prevention and control of disease, including sexually transmitted diseases and acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

The state board as part of accreditation standards shall adopt curriculum standards for implementing the program in grades nine through twelve.

6. A pupil is not required to enroll in either physical education or health courses if the pupil's parent or guardian files a written statement with the school principal that the course conflicts with the pupil's religious belief.

7. Programs that meet the needs of each of the following:

a. Pupils requiring special education.

b. Gifted and talented pupils.

c. Programs for at-risk students.

Rules adopted by the state board to implement this paragraph shall be based upon the definition of at-risk student developed by the child coordinating council established in section 256A.2 and the state board shall consider the recommendations of the child coordinating council in developing the rules.

8. Upon request of the board of directors of a public school district or the authorities in charge of a nonpublic school, the director may, for a number of years to be specified by the director, grant the district board or the authorities in charge of the nonpublic school exemption from one or more of the requirements of the educational program specified in subsection 5. The exemption may be renewed. Exemptions shall be granted only if the director deems that the request made is an essential part of a planned innovative curriculum project which the director determines will adequately meet the educational needs and interests of the pupils and be broadly consistent with the intent of the educational program as defined in subsection 5.

The request for exemption shall include all of the following:

a. Rationale of the project to include supportive research evidence.

b. Objectives of the project.

c. Provisions for administration and conduct of the project, including the use of personnel, facilities, time, techniques, and activities.

d. Plans for evaluation of the project by testing and observational measures of pupil progress in reaching the objectives.

e. Plans for revisions of the project based on evaluation measures.

f. Plans for periodic reports to the department.

g. The estimated cost of the project.

9. a. Effective July 1, 1989, through June 30, 1990, to facilitate the implementation and economical operation of the educational program defined in subsections 4 and 5, each school offering any of grades seven through twelve, except a school which offers grades one through eight as an elementary school, shall meet the media center requirements specified in section 256.11, subsection 9, paragraph "a", Code Supplement 1987.

b. Effective July 1, 1990, unless a waiver has been obtained under section 256.11A, each school or school district shall have a qualified school media specialist who shall meet the certification and approval standards prescribed by the department and shall be responsible for supervision of the media centers. Each school or school district shall establish a media center, in each attendance center, which shall be accessible to students throughout the school day.

9A. Each school or school district shall provide an articulated sequential guidance program for grades kindergarten through twelve. Until July 1, 1991, a school or school district may obtain a waiver from meeting the requirements of this subsection pursuant to section 256.11A. The guidance counselor shall meet the certification and approval standards of the department.

10. The state board shall establish an accreditation process for school districts and nonpublic schools seeking accreditation pursuant to this subsection and subsections 11 and 12. As required in section 256.17, by July 1, 1989, all school districts shall meet standards for accreditation. For the school year commencing July 1, 1989 and school years thereafter, the department of education shall use a two-phase process for the continued accreditation of schools and school districts.

Phase I consists of annual monitoring by the department of education of all accredited schools and school districts for compliance with accreditation standards adopted by the state board of education as provided by section 256.17. The phase I monitoring requires that accredited school districts and schools annually complete accreditation compliance forms adopted by the state board and file them with the department of education. In addition, employees of the department of education shall complete at least one on-site visit each year to each accredited school and school district to review the educational programs and the information included in the compliance forms.

Phase II requires the use of an accreditation committee, appointed by the director of the department of education, to conduct an on-site visit to an accredited school or school district if any of the following conditions exist:

a. When the annual monitoring of phase I indicates that a school or school district may be deficient or fails to be in compliance with accreditation standards.

b. In response to a petition filed with the director requesting such a committee visitation that is signed by twenty percent or more of the registered voters of a school district.

c. In response to a petition filed with the director requesting such a committee visitation that is signed by twenty percent or more of the parents or guardians who have children enrolled in the school or school district.

d. At the direction of the state board of education.

The number and composition of the membership of an accreditation committee shall be determined by the director and may vary due to the specific nature or reason for the visit. In all situations, however, the chairperson and a majority of the committee membership shall be from the instructional and administrative program specialty staff of the department of education. Other members may include instructional and administrative staff from school districts, area education agencies, institutions of higher education, local board members and the general public. An accreditation committee visit to a nonpublic school requires membership on the committee from nonpublic school instructional or administrative staff or board members. A member of a committee shall not have a direct interest in the nonpublic school or school district being visited.

Rules adopted by the state board may include provisions for coordination of the accreditation process under this section with activities of accreditation associations.

Prior to a visit to a school district or nonpublic school, members of the accreditation committee shall have access to all annual accreditation report information filed with the department by that nonpublic school or school district.

After visiting the school district or nonpublic school, the accreditation committee shall determine whether the accreditation standards have been met and shall make a report to the director, together with a recommendation whether the school district or nonpublic school shall remain accredited. The accreditation committee shall report strengths and weaknesses, if any, for each standard and shall advise the school or school district of available resources and technical assistance to further enhance strengths and improve areas of weakness. A school district or nonpublic school may respond to the accreditation committee's report.

11. The director shall review the accreditation committee's report, and the response of the school district or nonpublic school, and provide a report and recommendation to the state board along with copies of the accreditation committee's report, the response to the report, and other pertinent information. The state board shall determine whether the school district or nonpublic school shall remain accredited. If the state board determines that a school district or nonpublic school should not remain accredited, the director, in cooperation with the board of directors of the school district, or authorities in charge of the nonpublic school, shall establish a plan prescribing the procedures that must be taken to correct deficiencies in meeting the standards, and shall establish a deadline date for completion of the procedures. The plan is subject to approval of the state board.

12. During the period of time specified in the plan for its implementation by a school district or nonpublic school, the school or school district remains accredited. The accreditation committee shall revisit the school district or nonpublic school and shall determine whether the deficiencies in the standards have been corrected and shall make a report and recommendation to the director and the state board. The state board shall review the report and recommendation, may request additional information, and shall determine whether the deficiencies have been corrected. If the deficiencies have not been corrected, the state board shall merge the territory of the school district with one or more contiguous school districts. Division of assets and liabilities of the school district shall be as provided in sections 275.29 through 275.31. Until the merger is completed, the school district shall pay tuition for its resident students to an accredited school district under section 282.24.

13. Notwithstanding subsections 1 through 12 and as an exception to their requirements, a private high school or private combined junior-senior high school operated for the express purpose of teaching a program designed to qualify its graduates for matriculation at accredited four-year or equivalent liberal arts, scientific, or technological colleges or universities shall be placed on a special accredited list of college preparatory schools, which list shall signify accreditation of the school for that express purpose only, if:

a. The school complies with minimum standards established by the Code other than this section, and rules adopted under the Code, applicable to:

- (1) Courses comprising the limited program.
- (2) Health requirements for personnel.
- (3) Plant facilities.
- (4) Other environmental factors affecting the programs.

b. At least eighty percent of those graduating from the school within the four most recent calendar years, other than those graduating who are aliens, graduates entering military or alternative civilian service, or graduates deceased or incapacitated before college acceptance, have been accepted by accredited four-year or equivalent liberal arts, scientific, or technological colleges or universities.

c. A school claiming to be a private college preparatory school which fails to comply with the requirement of paragraph "b" of this subsection shall be placed on the special accredited list of college preparatory schools probationally if the school complies with the requirements of paragraph "a" of this subsection, but a probational accreditation shall not continue for more than four successive years.

14. Notwithstanding subsections 1 through 13 and as an exception to their requirements, a nonpublic grade school which is reopening is accredited even if it does not have a complete grade one through grade six program. However, the nonpublic grade school must comply with other minimum standards established by law and administrative rules adopted pursuant to the law and the nonpublic grade school must show progress toward reaching a grade one through grade six program.

256.11A Implementation of standards.

1. Schools and school districts are not required to meet the standard adopted by the state board under section 256.17, Code Supplement 1987, requiring that ten units of vocational education be offered and taught in grades nine through twelve unless the general assembly enacts legislation relating to the requirements stated in the standard. Until the time schools and school districts are required to meet the standard, the occupational education requirements stated in section 256.11, subsection 5, paragraph "h", apply.

2. Schools and school districts are not required to meet the requirement stated in the standards adopted by the state board under section 256.17, Code Supplement 1987, that prohibits an individual who is employed or contracted as superintendent from also serving as a principal in that school or school district until July 1, 1990, except as otherwise provided in this subsection. Not later than January 1, 1990, for the school year beginning July 1, 1990, the board of directors of a school district or authorities in charge of a nonpublic school, may file a written request with the department of education that the department waive the requirement for that district or school. The procedures specified in subsection 5 apply to the request.

3. Schools and school districts unable to meet the standard adopted by the state board under section 256.17, Code Supplement 1987, and contained in section 256.11, subsection 9A, effective July 1, 1989, requiring that on July 1, 1989, each board operating a kindergarten through grade twelve program provide an articulated sequential elementary-secondary guidance program may, not later than January 1, 1989, for the school year beginning July 1, 1989, file a written request to the department of education that the department waive the requirement for that school or school district. The procedures specified in subsection 5 apply to the request. Not later than January 1, 1990, for the school year beginning July 1, 1990, the board or authorities may request a one-year extension of the waiver.

If a waiver is approved under subsection 5, the school or school district shall meet the requirements of section 256.11, subsection 9, paragraph "b", Code Supplement 1987, for the period for which the waiver is approved.

4. Schools and school districts are not required to meet the standard adopted by the state board of education under section 256.17, Code Supplement

1987, and contained in section 256.11, subsection 9, paragraph "b", effective July 1, 1990, that requires the board to establish and operate a media services program to support the total curriculum until July 1, 1990, except as otherwise provided in this subsection. Not later than January 1, 1990, for the school year beginning July 1, 1990, the board of directors of a school district, or authorities in charge of a nonpublic school, may file a written request with the department of education that the department waive the requirement for that district or school. The procedures specified in subsection 5 apply to the request.

If a waiver is approved under subsection 5, the school district or school shall meet the requirements of section 256.11, subsection 9, paragraph "a", Code Supplement 1987, for the period for which the waiver is approved.

5. A request for a waiver filed by the board of directors of a school district or authorities in charge of a nonpublic school shall describe actions being taken by the district or school to meet the requirement for which the district or school has requested a waiver. The state board of education shall adopt rules under chapter 17A to implement a procedure and criteria for the department to use in making a decision to approve a waiver under subsections 2, 3, and 4.

256.12 Sharing instructors and services.

1. The director, when necessary to realize the purposes of this chapter, shall approve the enrollment in public schools for specified courses of students who also are enrolled in private schools, when the courses in which they seek enrollment are not available to them in their private schools, provided the students have satisfactorily completed prerequisite courses, if any, or have otherwise shown equivalent competence through testing. Courses made available to students in this manner shall be considered as compliance by the private schools in which the students are enrolled with any standards or laws requiring private schools to offer or teach the courses.

2. This section does not deprive the respective boards of public school districts of any of their legal powers, statutory or otherwise, and in accepting the specially enrolled students, each of the boards shall prescribe the terms of the special enrollment, including but not limited to scheduling of courses and the length of class periods. In addition, the board of the affected public school district shall be given notice by the department of its decision to permit the special enrollment not later than six months prior to the opening of the affected public school district's school year, except that the board of the public school district may waive the notice requirement. School districts and area education agency boards may make public school services, which may include health services; special education services; diagnostic services for speech, hearing, and psychological purposes; services for remedial education programs, guidance services, and school testing services, available to children attending nonpublic schools in the same manner and to the same extent that they are provided to public school students. However, services that are made available shall be provided on neutral sites, or in mobile units located off the nonpublic school premises as determined by the boards of the school districts and area education agencies providing the services, and not on nonpublic school property, except for health services and diagnostic services for speech, hearing, and psychological purposes, which may be provided on nonpublic school premises, with the permission of the lawful custodian.

256.13 Nonresident pupils.

The boards of directors of two or more school districts may by agreement provide for attendance of pupils residing in one district in the schools of another district for the purpose of taking courses not offered in the district of their residence. The boards may also provide by agreement that the districts will combine their enrollments for one or more grades. Courses and grades made available to students in this manner shall be considered as complying with any standards or laws requiring the offering of such courses and grades. The boards of directors of districts entering into such agreements may provide for sharing the costs and expenses of the courses. If the agreement provides for whole grade sharing, the costs and expenses shall be paid as provided in sections 282.10 through 282.12.

256.14 Permanent revolving fund.

1. A permanent revolving fund is established for the department. Expenses incurred by the department from this fund shall be paid subject to reimbursement by the federal government.

2. There is appropriated from the general fund of the state to the department of education the sum of one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars for the purpose of establishing the fund created by subsection 1. If any surplus accrues to the revolving fund in excess of the original appropriation for which there is no anticipated need or use, the governor shall order the surplus to be transferred to the general fund.

256.15 Nonpublic school advisory committee.

A nonpublic school advisory committee is established which consists of five members, to be appointed by the governor, each of them to be a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state of Iowa. The term of the members is four years. The duties of the committee are to advise the state board and the director on matters affecting nonpublic schools, including but not limited to the establishment of standards for teacher certification and the establishment of standards for, and approval of, all nonpublic schools. Notice of meetings of the state board shall be sent by the director to members of the committee.

Committee members shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performance of their duties. Members may also be eligible to receive compensation as provided in section 7E.6. The expense money shall be paid from the appropriations to the department of education.

256.16 Specific criteria for teacher preparation and certain educators.

Pursuant to section 256.7, subsection 5, the state board shall adopt rules requiring all approved teacher training institutions to include in the professional education program, preparation that contributes to education of the handicapped and the gifted and talented, which must be successfully completed before graduation from the teacher training program.

A person initially applying for a certificate, endorsement, or approval shall successfully complete a professional education program containing the subject matter specified in this section, before the initial action by the department takes place.

256.17 Standards for accredited schools.*

The state board shall review the standards contained in section 256.11, shall review current literature relating to effective schools and learning environments, and shall consult with representatives from the higher education institutions, area education agencies, school board members, school administrators, teachers, parents, students, members of business, industry, and labor, other governmental agencies, associations interested in education, and representatives of communities of various sizes to develop standards for accredited schools and school districts that encompass, but are not limited to the following general areas:

1. Objectives and assessment procedures for teaching specific competencies related to higher order thinking skills, learning skills, and communications skills.
2. Integration of the applications of current technologies into the general curriculum.
3. Procedures for curriculum development and refinement.
4. Staff development processes.
5. A performance evaluation process for its certificated staff using staff members who possess evaluator approval under section 260.33.
6. Use of support staff.
7. A specific number of hours per year for students to be engaged in formal academic instruction.
8. Learning opportunities for students whose needs are not met in the conventional classroom.
9. Career exploration activities and specific vocational education programs.
10. Curriculum standards that include the coordination of extracurricular and academic education goals.

dination of extracurricular and academic education goals.

11. Student responsibility and discipline policies.

12. Needs assessments and development of long-range plans as provided for in section 280.12.

13. Community and parent involvement in the education process.

14. Communication with business, industry, labor, and higher education regarding their expectations for adequate student preparation.

Notwithstanding the standards included in section 256.11, not later than July 1, 1987, the state board shall adopt rules establishing new standards for accredited schools. The rules shall be adopted under chapter 17A and shall require that schools and school districts meet the standards adopted by the state board not later than July 1, 1989.

Following adoption of the standards, the department of education shall assist schools and school districts to comply with the standards.

The director, in consultation with the boards of directors and the administration of the school districts, shall recommend to the state board not later than July 1, 1989, on the basis of evidence submitted by the school districts, which school districts meet the accreditation standards adopted by the state board.

Section 256.11, subsections 10, 11, and 12, apply to schools and school districts obtaining accreditation.

256.18 Modified block scheduling.

1. The state board of education shall approve pilot projects, not exceeding four per year, for the purpose of sharing certificated instructional personnel between two or more districts, when the participating districts plan to utilize a modified block schedule for offering classes in the districts and sharing the certificated instructional personnel because of the modified block schedule. One-half of the approved pilot projects each year shall be projects of school districts with less than twelve hundred combined certified enrollment. The approved pilot projects shall also be as geographically distributed throughout the state as possible.

2. The boards of directors of two or more school districts may jointly apply to the state board of education for approval of a pilot project to jointly utilize a modified block schedule. The application shall be received by January 1 of the preceding school year. The state board shall review the applications and notify school districts with approved applications not later than February 15 of the preceding school year. The state board may request that a proposal be amended and resubmitted within the specified time period, to permit the proposal to comply with the requirements pursuant to subsection 3.

3. The application, pursuant to subsection 2, shall include the following:

a. Demonstration of a projected minimum of fifteen percent annual combined instructional and support cost savings of the projected costs if the districts would not utilize a modified block schedule, through reduction of employment of certificated instructional and support personnel.

b. Demonstration among the grades participating in the project of the following: greater student-certificated instructional personnel ratio, an increased number of course offerings, and an average reduction of course preparations per certificated teacher.

c. Demonstration of the acceptance of the modified block schedule by the administration personnel, the majority of each board of directors of each school district participating in the pilot project, and the certificated instructional personnel.

d. Transition and implementation plans regarding the in-service plan pursuant to subsection 5 and the changes necessary for a permanent modified block schedule.

e. Sabbatical plan for temporarily displaced teachers, which may include, but not be limited to, in-service, postsecondary enrollment, career advancement, consultant and other teaching positions in another school district.

For purposes of this section "instructional and support cost" means the general education costs, including salaries, benefits, contract or purchase services, supplies, capital outlay, miscellaneous expenses, and fund transfers.

4. Certificated instructional personnel notified, after approval of the pilot project by the state board, that the person's position has been temporarily displaced for the period of the pilot project, shall continue to be employed by the school district in a sabbatical capacity as mutually determined by the person and the board. If the determination is made that the person may be employed as a teacher in another school district for the period of the pilot project, the person shall receive the amount of the difference between the compensation which would have been received from the school district participating in the pilot project and the compensation received from the school district not participating in the pilot project, from the school district participating in the pilot project. All other terms of the contract with the school district participating in the pilot project shall remain in effect for the school year affected by the pilot project.

5. The school districts participating in the approved pilot project shall conduct in-service training for all certificated instructional and noninstructional personnel regarding the modified block scheduling, between the date notified by the state board of education regarding approval of the pilot project and September 1. Personnel shall receive compensation for the training, based on the per diem compensation received under the contract of the employing school district. The in-service training shall not be less than ten days.

6. The school district shall submit a quarterly report to the department of education, including but not limited to, test scores, daily attendance rates, and resulting ratio between students and certificated instructional personnel. The state board of education shall provide consultation and information to the school districts with approved pilot projects by providing in-state and out-of-state consultants familiar with modified block scheduling, research, and dissemination of information, and any other manner deemed appropriate. The state board shall encourage the appropriate school districts to review the concept of modified block scheduling and to adopt the concept for school years beginning July 1, 1989 and thereafter.

7. A school district may conduct a pilot project for only one school year.

8. This section does not preclude a school district from sharing certificated instructional personnel with one or more other school districts in order to utilize a modified block schedule for offering classes in the districts without obtaining approval from the department of education and designation as a pilot project.

87 Acts, ch 224, §29

256.19 Pilot projects.

For fiscal years in which moneys are appropriated by the general assembly for the purpose of section 256.18 the state board of education shall notify the department of revenue and finance of the amounts necessary for each pilot project in order to reimburse the certificated instructional personnel pursuant to section 256.18, subsection 4, for the in-service training pursuant to section 256.18, subsection 5, and for other costs related to the approved pilot projects.

87 Acts, ch 224, §30

256.20 Year around schools.

Pursuant to section 279.10, subsection 1, relating to the maintenance of school during an entire year, the board of directors of a school district may request approval from the state board of education for a pilot project for a year around three semester school year. The deadlines for approval of a pilot project under this section are the deadlines specified in section 256.18 for approval of a modified block scheduling pilot project.

The application shall describe the anticipated additional costs to the school district and the benefits to be gained from the three semester school year. Students would not be required to attend school more than two semesters each school year.

Participation in a pilot project shall not modify provisions of a master contract negotiated between a school district and a certified bargaining unit pursuant to chapter 20 unless mutually agreed upon.

If moneys are appropriated by the general assembly for funding the costs of pilot projects under this section, the state board of education shall notify the department of revenue and finance of the amounts to be paid to each school district with an approved pilot project.

87 Acts, ch 224, §31

256.21 Sabbatical program.

If the general assembly appropriates money for grants to provide sabbaticals for teachers, a sabbatical program shall be established as provided in this section. For the school years commencing July 1, 1988, July 1, 1989, and July 1, 1990, any teacher with at least seven years of teaching experience in this state may submit an application for a sabbatical to the department of education not later than November 1 of the preceding school year.

A teacher's application shall include a plan for the use of the period of the sabbatical, including, but not limited to, additional education, use of a fellowship, conducting of research, writing relating to a particular subject area, or other activities relating to an enhancement of teaching skills. The teacher's plan must be accompanied by the written approval of the superintendent of the school district and a statement by the superintendent describing the benefits of the sabbatical to the school district.

The state board of education shall adopt rules under chapter 17A relating to submission of sabbatical plans and criteria for awarding the sabbaticals, including both the benefit to the teacher and the benefit to the school district. Sabbaticals shall be awarded by the department not later than January 1 of the preceding school year.

A sabbatical grant to a teacher shall be equal to the costs to the school district of the teacher's regular compensation as defined in section 294A 2 plus the cost to the district of the fringe benefits of the teacher. The grant shall be paid to the school district, and the district shall continue to pay the teacher's regular compensation as well as the cost to the district of the substitute teacher. Teachers and boards of school districts are encouraged to seek funding from other sources to pay the costs of sabbaticals for teachers. Grant moneys are miscellaneous income for purposes of chapter 442.

A sabbatical approved by the department may be for any period of time not exceeding one year.

A teacher granted a sabbatical under this section shall agree either to return to the school district granting the leave for a period of not less than two years or to repay to the department of education the amount of the sabbatical grant received during the leave.

Notwithstanding section 8 33, if moneys are appropriated by the general assembly for the sabbatical program for either the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1988 or July 1, 1989, the moneys shall not revert at the end of that fiscal year but shall carry over and may be expended during the next fiscal year.

This section does not preclude a school district from providing a sabbatical program for its teachers separate from the sabbatical program provided under this section.

256.23 Administrative advancement and recruitment program.

The department shall establish a recruitment and advancement program to provide for the allocation of grants to school corporations. A school corporation may submit plans and a budget to the department for approval of a pilot project that will encourage the advancement of women and minorities to administrative positions within that school corporation or will encourage the recruitment and employment of minorities to positions within that school corporation. The state board shall adopt rules under chapter 17A establishing criteria for approval of the pilot projects and payment of the grants. The criteria for a pilot project encouraging the advancement of women and minorities shall include the use of staff development for assisting employees of the school corporation to meet the requirements for advancement to administrative positions. School corporations approved for the establishment of pilot projects under this section shall submit reports of the results of the pilot projects to the department of education by October 1 of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the grants are received.

256.30 Educational expenses for American Indians.

The department of education shall provide moneys to pay the expense of educating American Indian children residing in the Sac and Fox Indian settlement on land held in trust by the secretary of the interior of the United States in excess of federal moneys paid to the tribal council for educating the American Indian children when moneys are appropriated for that purpose. The tribal council shall administer the moneys distributed to it by the department and shall submit an annual report and other reports as required by the department to the department on the expenditure of the moneys.

The tribal council shall first use moneys distributed to it by the department of education for the purposes of this section to pay the additional costs of salaries for certificated instructional staff for educational attainment and full-time equivalent years of experience to equal the salaries listed on the proposed salary schedule for the school at the Sac and Fox Indian settlement for that school year, but the salary for a certificated instructional staff member employed on a full-time basis shall not be less than eighteen thousand dollars. The department of management shall approve allotments of moneys appropriated in this section when the department of education certifies to the department of management that the requirements of this section have been met.

256.31 Certification advisory committee.

1. A certification advisory committee is established to advise the board of educational examiners concerning the requirements for certification of elementary and secondary school personnel and standards for the preparation and certification of school personnel. The advisory committee shall consist of the following members appointed by the board of educational examiners:

a. Eight members who are certificated classroom teachers, three of whom are currently employed as classroom teachers in school districts in this state, and one of whom is currently employed as a classroom teacher in an approved nonpublic school in this state.

b. One member who is employed as a school service person.

c. One member who is employed as a certificated principal in this state.

d. One member who is employed as a certificated superintendent in this state.

e. Two members of the teacher education faculty from institutions of higher education in this state which are approved for teacher education. One member shall be from an institution of higher education under the control of the state board of regents and one member shall be from a private college or university in this state.

f. One member who is a certificated employee of an area education agency in this state assigned to instructional programs or staff development responsibilities.

2. Committee members shall be appointed to staggered four-year terms. They shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties from funds appropriated to the department of education.

3. The committee shall meet at least quarterly. Staff assistance shall be provided by the department of education.

4. A vacancy on the advisory committee shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the same manner as the original appointment.

256.32 Council for agricultural education.

1. An advisory council for agricultural education is established, which consists of nine members appointed by the governor. The nine members shall include the following:

a. Five persons representing all areas of agriculture and diverse geographical areas.

b. The individual representing agriculture on the state council for vocational education.

c. A secondary school program instructor, a post-secondary school program instructor, and a teacher educator.

2. The council may also include as ex officio members the following persons, as determined by the voting members of the council:

a. The state future farmers of America president.

b. The current state future farmers of America alumni association president.

c. The current postsecondary agriculture students president.

d. The current young farmers educational association president.

e. A state consultant in agricultural education.

f. The secretary of agriculture or the secretary's designee.

g. A member of each house of the general assembly. This membership shall be bipartisan in composition and shall be selected by the majority leader of the senate and the speaker of the house.

3. The duties of the council are to review, develop, and recommend standards for secondary and post-secondary agricultural education. The council shall annually issue a report to the state board of education and the chairpersons of the house and senate agriculture and education committees regarding both short-term and long-term curricular standards for agricultural education and the council's activities. The council shall meet a minimum of twice annually, and must have a quorum consisting of a majority of voting members present to hold an official meeting and to take any final council action. However, hearings may be held without a quorum. The chairperson shall be elected annually by and from the voting membership. The initial organizational meeting shall be called by the director of the department of education.

4. The term of membership is three years. The terms shall be staggered so that three of the terms end each year, but no member serving on the initial council shall serve less than one year. The governor shall determine the length of the initial terms of office.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT ASSISTANCE

256A.1 Title.
 256A.2 Child development coordinating council established.

256A.3 Duties of council.

256A.1 Title.

This chapter shall be known as the "Child Development Assistance Act".

88 Acts, ch 1130, §2

256A.2 Child development coordinating council established.

A child development coordinating council is established to promote the provision of child development services to at-risk three-year- and four-year-old children. The council shall consist of the following members:

1. The administrator of the division of children, youth, and families of the department of human rights or the administrator's designee.

2. The director of the department of education or the director's designee.

3. The director of human services or the director's designee.

4. The director of the department of public health or the director's designee.

5. An early childhood specialist of an area education agency selected by the area education agency administrators.

6. The dean of the college of family and consumer sciences at Iowa State University of science and technology or the dean's designee.

7. The dean of the college of education from the University of Northern Iowa or the dean's designee.

8. The professor and head of the department of pediatrics at the University of Iowa or the professor's designee.

9. A resident of this state who is a parent of a child who is or has been served by a federal head start program.

Staff assistance for the council shall be provided jointly by the department of education and the division of children, youth, and families of the department of human rights.

88 Acts, ch 1130, §3

256A.3 Duties of council.

The child development coordinating council shall:

1. Develop a definition of at-risk children for the purposes of this chapter. The definition shall include income, family structure, the child's level of development, and availability or accessibility for the child of a head start or other child day-care program as criteria.

2. Establish minimum guidelines for comprehensive early child development services for at-risk three-year- and four-year-old children. The guidelines shall reflect current research findings on the necessary components for cost-effective child development services.

3. At least biennially, develop an inventory of child development services provided to at-risk three-year- and four-year-old children in this state and identify the number of children receiving and not receiving these services, the types of programs under which the services are received, the degree to which each program meets the council's minimum guidelines for a comprehensive program, and the reasons children not receiving the services are not being served. The council is not required to conduct independent research in developing the inventory, but shall determine information needs necessary to provide a more complete inventory.

4. Make recommendations to the department of education and the general assembly regarding appropriate curricula and staff qualifications and training for early elementary education and the coordination of the curricula with early child development programs.

5. Subject to the availability of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the purpose of providing child development services, award grants for programs that provide new or additional child development services to at-risk children.

In awarding program grants to an agency or individual, the council shall consider the following:

a. The quality of the staff and staff background in child development services.

b. The degree to which the program is or will be integrated with existing community resources and has the support of the local community.

c. The ability of the program to provide for child care in addition to child development services for families needing full-day child care.

d. A staff-to-children ratio within the guidelines established under subsection 2, but not less than one staff member per eight children.

e. The degree to which the program involves and works with the parents, and includes home visits, optional parental instruction on parenting and tutoring skills, and experiential education.

f. The manner in which health, medical, dental, and nutrition services are incorporated into the program.

g. The degree to which the program complements existing programs and services for at-risk three-year- and four-year-old children available in the area, including other day-care services, services provided through the school district, and services available through area education agencies.

h. The degree to which the program can be monitored and evaluated to determine its ability to meet its goals.

i. The provision of transportation or other auxiliary services that may be necessary for families to participate in the program.

j. The provision of staff training and development, and staff compensation sufficient to assure continuity.

6. Encourage the submission of grant requests from all potential providers of child development services and shall be flexible in evaluating grants, recognizing that different types of programs may be suitable for different locations in the state. However, requests for grants must contain a procedure for evaluating the effectiveness of the program and accounting procedures for monitoring the expenditure of grant moneys.

The council shall seek to use performance-based measures to evaluate programs. Not more than five percent of any state funds appropriated for child development purposes may be used for administration and evaluation.

7. Encourage the establishment of regional councils designed to facilitate the development on a regional basis of programs for at-risk three-year- and four-year-old children.

8. Annually, submit recommendations to the governor and the general assembly on the need for investment in child development services in the state.

CHAPTER 257A

FIRST IN THE NATION IN EDUCATION

257A.1 First in the nation in education.

257A.2 Governing board.

257A.3 Board requirements.

257A.4 Nonprofit corporation.

257A.5 Duties of the board.

257A.6 Duplication.

257A.7 Fund created and transfer of moneys.

257A.8 Administrative activities.

257A.1 First in the nation in education.

There is created a corporate body called "First In the Nation in Education, an education foundation". The foundation is an independent nonprofit quasi-public instrumentality and the exercise of the powers granted to the foundation as a corporation in this chapter is an essential governmental function. As used in this chapter "foundation" means "First In the Nation in Education, an education foundation". The purposes of the foundation include but are not limited to the following for the common schools of this state:

1. Providing statewide leadership in identifying both immediate and long-range education issues for which a knowledge base is needed.

2. Conducting basic research in education issues.

3. Collecting, analyzing, and disseminating education information generated in other states and countries as well as in this state.

4. Establishing linkages with regional education laboratories and research institutes.

5. Establishing strategies and developing materials and practices to implement the results of the research.

6. Developing and supporting innovative and cooperative programs for school districts.

7. Making the results of research available in forms that are most useful to practitioners and policymakers.

85 Acts, ch 213, §1; 86 Acts, ch 1246, §122

257A.2 Governing board.

The foundation shall be administered by a governing board consisting of seven members appointed by the governor subject to senate confirmation. Members shall be knowledgeable about education, research, or fund-raising activities in this state. State-wide associations interested in education may submit the names of potential members to the governor, but the governor is not bound by the recommendations.

85 Acts, ch 213, §2

257A.3 Board requirements.

1. Members of the board shall be appointed by the appointing authority for staggered terms of six years beginning and ending as provided in section 69.19. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired portion of the term.

2. Members of the board shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred while engaged in their official duties from funds available to the foundation.

3. Members shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson annually. A majority of the members of the board constitute a quorum. The executive director shall serve as secretary to the board.

4. Meetings of the board shall be held at least quarterly at the call of the chairperson or at the request of a majority of the members of the board.

85 Acts, ch 213, §3

257A.4 Nonprofit corporation.

The foundation as a nonprofit corporation created in section 257A.1 has perpetual succession. The succession shall continue until the existence of the corporation is terminated by law. If the corporation is terminated, the rights and properties of the corporation shall pass to the state. However, debts and other financial obligations shall not succeed to the state.

85 Acts, ch 213, §4

257A.5 Duties of the board.

The governing board, within the limits of the funds available to it, shall:

1. Employ an executive director to direct the activities of the foundation.

2. Approve a long-range plan relating to the conduct of educational research and development activities.

3. Determine the research and development activities to be undertaken, based upon an assessment of the education needs in this state from early childhood education to adult education.

4. Execute contracts with public and private agencies to conduct research and development activities.

5. Perform functions necessary to carry out the purposes of the foundation.

6. Disseminate information developed as a result of research and development activities in forms usable by education personnel.

7. Establish advisory committees to assist the foundation in carrying out its purposes. The advisory committees shall include as members representatives of state associations interested in education in this state.

8. Annually report the results of its activities to the general assembly.

85 Acts, ch 213, §5; 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1422, 1423

257A.6 Duplication.

Research activities of the foundation shall not duplicate educational research efforts taking place in Iowa's colleges and universities unless for validation or confirmation of research results.

85 Acts, ch 213, §6

257A.7 Fund created and transfer of moneys.

The "First In the Nation in Education Fund" is established in the office of treasurer of state. The fund shall be an endowment for the foundation and moneys deposited in the fund shall not be expended, but shall be invested by the treasurer of state in investments authorized for the Iowa public employees' retirement fund in section 97B.7.

The governing board of the foundation may accept gifts, grants, bequests, other moneys, and in-kind contributions for deposit in the fund as a part of the endowment or for the use of the foundation.

Gifts, grants, and bequests from public and private sources, federal funds, and other moneys received for the endowment shall be deposited in the fund. Interest earned on the fund shall be transferred by the department of revenue and finance to the credit of the foundation at the request of the governing board and shall be used for the purposes of this chapter.

The governing board may transfer moneys credited for the use of the foundation not encumbered or obligated on June 30 of a fiscal year to the fund and those moneys shall be considered interest earned by the fund and may be transferred back to the credit of the foundation at the request of the governing board at any time.

Transfer of interest earned on permanent school fund, see §302 1A

257A.8 Administrative activities.

The administrative functions of the foundation shall be performed by the department of education. The foundation shall be located in the department of education offices.

258.5 Federal aid — conditions.

Whenever a school corporation maintains an approved vocational school, department, or classes in accordance with the rules adopted by the state board and the state plan for vocational education, adopted by that board and approved by the United States department of education, the director of the department of education shall reimburse the school corporation at the end of the fiscal year for its expenditures for salaries and authorized travel of vocational teachers from federal and state funds. However, a school corporation shall not receive from federal and state funds a larger amount than one half the sum which has been expended by the school corporation for that particular type of program. If federal and state funds are not sufficient to make the reimbursement to the extent provided in this section, the director shall prorate the respective amounts available to the corporations entitled to reimbursement.

The director may use federal funds to reimburse approved teacher training schools, departments, or classes for the training of teachers of agriculture, home economics, trades and industrial education, distributive education, and for the training of guidance counselors.

258.9 Local advisory council.

The board of directors of a school district that maintains a school, department, or class receiving federal or state funds under this chapter shall, as a condition of approval by the state board, appoint a local advisory council for vocational education composed of public members with emphasis on persons representing business, agriculture, industry and labor. The local advisory council shall give advice and assistance to the board of directors in the establishment and maintenance of schools, departments, and classes that receive federal or state funds under this chapter. Local advisory councils may be organized according to program area, school, community, or region. The state board shall adopt rules requiring that the memberships of local advisory councils fairly represent each sex and minorities residing in the school district. Members of an advisory council shall serve without compensation.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3845; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §258 9]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1431

258.10 Powers of district boards.

The board of directors of any school district is authorized to carry on prevocational and vocational instruction in subjects relating to agriculture, commerce, industry, and home economics, and to pay the expense of such instruction in the same way as the expenses for other subjects in the public schools are now paid.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3846; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §258 10]

258.11 Salary and expenses for administration.

The director may make expenditures for salaries of assistants, actual expenses of the board and the director and the state council incurred in the discharge of their duties, and other expenses as necessary to the proper administration of this chapter.

258.12 Custodian of funds – reports.

The treasurer of state shall be custodian of the funds paid to the state from the appropriations made under said Act of Congress, and shall disburse the same on vouchers audited as provided by law. The treasurer of state shall report the receipts and disbursements of said funds to the general assembly at each biennial session.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3848; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §258 12]

258.13 Biennial report.

The director of the department of education shall embrace in the director’s biennial report a full report of all receipts and expenditures under this chapter, together with such observations relative to vocational education as may be deemed of value

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3849; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66,

258.14 Vocational youth organization fund.

1 There is created within the office of the treasurer of state a vocational youth organization fund. Moneys deposited in the fund shall be used to develop leadership in the youth of Iowa who are enrolled in vocational and occupational education programs and to encourage the youth of Iowa to pursue vocational and occupational education.

2 The board for vocational education is authorized to award grants from the vocational youth organization fund to the following organizations: Distributive education clubs of America, future farmers of America, future homemakers of America, office education clubs of America, future business leaders of America and vocational-industrial clubs of America. No moneys shall be used for salaries and travel of state or local advisors of vocational educational organizations. No vocational organization shall receive more than one fifth of the moneys appropriated to the vocational youth organization fund in any year.

The state plan for vocational education adopted by the state board of public instruction and approved by the United States office of education prior to July 1, 1986 remains in effect as the state plan for vocational education.

b Adopt and enforce administrative rules which provide for the partial re examination of the professional licensing examinations given by each licensing board, c Review or investigate, or both, upon written complaint or upon its own motion pursuant to other evidence received by the board, alleged acts or omissions which the board reasonably believes constitute cause under applicable law or administrative rule for licensee discipline, d Determine in any case whether an investigation, or further investigation, or a disciplinary proceeding is warranted, e Initiate and prosecute disciplinary proceedings,

f Impose licensee discipline,

g Petition the district court for enforcement of its authority with respect to licensees or with respect to other persons violating the laws which the board is charged with administering,

h Register or establish and register peer review committees, i Refer to a registered peer review committee for investigation, review, and report to the board, any complaint or other evidence of an act or omission which the board reasonably believes to constitute cause for licensee discipline. However, the referral of any matter shall not relieve the board of any of its duties and shall not divest the board of any authority or jurisdiction, j Determine and administer the renewal of licenses for periods not exceeding three years

2 Each licensing board may impose one or more of the following as licensee discipline a Revoke a license, or suspend a license either until further order of the board or for a specified period, upon any of the grounds specified in section 114 21, 116 21, 117 29, 118 13, 118A 15, 147 55, 148B 7, 153 34, 154A 24, 169 13, or 602 3203 or chapter 135E, 151, 507B or 522, as applicable, or upon any other grounds specifically provided for in this chapter for revocation of the license of a licensee subject to the jurisdiction of that board, or upon failure of the licensee to comply with a decision of the board imposing licensee discipline,

b Revoke, or suspend either until further order of the board or for a specified period, the privilege of a licensee to engage in one or more specified procedures, methods, or acts incident to the practice of the profession, if pursuant to hearing or stipulated or agreed settlement the board finds that because of a lack of education or experience, or because of negligence, or careless acts or omissions, or because of one or more intentional acts or omissions, the licensee has demonstrated a lack of qualifications which are necessary to assure the residents of this state a high standard of professional and occupational care, c Impose a period of probation under specified conditions, whether or not in conjunction with other sanctions, d Require additional professional education or training, or re-examination, or any combination, as a condition precedent to the reinstatement of a license or of any privilege incident thereto, or as a condition precedent to the termination of any suspension, e Impose civil penalties by rule, if the rule specifies which offenses or acts are subject to civil penalties. The amount of civil penalty shall be in the discretion of the board, but shall not exceed one thousand dollars. Failure to comply with the imposition of a civil penalty may be grounds for further license discipline, f Issue a citation and warning respecting licensee behavior which is subject to the imposition of other sanctions by the board

3 The powers conferred by this section upon a licensing board shall be in addition to powers specified elsewhere in the Code. The powers of any other person specified elsewhere in the Code shall not limit the powers of a licensing board conferred by this section, nor shall the powers of such other person be deemed limited by the provisions of this section

4 Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit informal stipulation and settlement by a board and a licensee of any matter involving licensee discipline. However, licensee discipline shall not be agreed to or imposed except pursuant to a written decision which specifies the sanction and which is entered by the board and filed

All health care boards shall file written decisions which specify the sanction entered by the board with the Iowa department of public health which shall be available to the public upon request. All nonhealth care boards shall have on file the written and specified decisions and sanctions entered by the board and shall be available to the public upon request [C79, 81, §258A 3]

258A.4 Duties of board.

1 Each licensing board shall have the following duties in addition to other duties specified by this chapter or elsewhere in the Code a Establish procedures by which complaints which relate to licensure or to licensee discipline shall be received and reviewed by the board,

b Establish procedures by which disputes between licensees and clients which result in judgments or settlements in or of malpractice claims or actions shall be investigated by the board,

c Establish procedures by which any recommendation taken by a peer review committee shall be reported to and reviewed by the board if a peer review committee is established, d Establish procedures for registration with the board of peer review committees if a peer review committee is established, e Define by rule those recommendations of peer review committees which shall constitute disciplinary recommendations which must be reported to the board if a peer review committee is established, f Define by rule acts or omissions which are grounds for revocation or suspension of a license under section 114 21, 116 21, 117 29, 118 13, 118A 15, 147 55, 148B 7, 153 34, 154A 24, 169 13, 455B 191 or 602 3203 or chapter 135E, 151, 507B or 522, as applicable, and to define by rule acts or omissions which constitute negligence, careless acts or omissions within the meaning of section 258A 3, subsection 2, paragraph "b", which licensees are required to report to the board pursuant to section 258A 9, subsection 2, g Establish the procedures by which licensees shall report those acts or omissions specified by the board pursuant to paragraph "f" of this subsection, h Give written notice to another licensing board or to a hospital licensing agency if evidence received by the board either alleges or constitutes reasonable cause to believe the existence of an act or omission which is subject to discipline by that other board or agency,

i Require each health care licensing board to file with the Iowa department of public health a copy of each decision of the board imposing licensee discipline Each nonhealth care board shall have on file a copy of each decision of the board imposing licensee discipline which copy shall be properly dated and shall be in simple language and in the most concise form consistent with clearness and comprehensiveness of subject matter

The commissioner of insurance shall by rule in consultation with the licensing boards enumerated in section 258A 1, require insurance carriers which insure professional and occupational licensees for acts or omissions which constitute negligence, careless acts or omissions in the practice of a profession or occupation to file reports with the commissioner of insurance The reports shall include information pertaining to incidents by a licensee which may affect the licensee as defined by rule, involving an insured of the insurer The commissioner of insurance shall forward reports pursuant to this section to the appropriate licensing board

2 Each licensing board shall submit to the senate and house committees on state government in January of each year, commencing in January of 1979, a summary of the activities of that board since the preceding report respecting the following subjects

a The adoption or nonadoption of rules relating to the duties of the board as specified in this section, b The number of complaints, peer review committee disciplinary actions, and judgments and settlements reviewed or investigated by the board, the number of formal disciplinary proceedings commenced before the board or in the courts, the number and types of sanctions imposed, and the number and status of appeals to the court of board decisions, and the number and types of peer review committees registered by the board

83 Acts, ch 186, §10065, 10201, 84 Acts, ch 1067, §28

258A.5 Licensee disciplinary procedure — rule-making delegation.

1 Each licensing board may establish by rule licensee disciplinary procedures Each licensing board may impose licensee discipline under these procedures

2 Rules promulgated under subsection 1 of this section

a Shall comply with the provisions of chapter 17A

b Shall designate who may or shall initiate a licensee disciplinary investigation and a licensee disciplinary proceeding, and who shall prosecute a disciplinary proceeding and under what conditions, and shall state the procedures for review by the licensing board of findings of fact if a majority of the licensing board does not hear the disciplinary proceeding

c Shall state whether the procedures are an alternative to or an addition to the procedures stated in sections 114 22, 116 23, 117 35, 117 36, 118A 16, 147 58 to 147 71, 148 6 to 148 9, 153 23 to 153 30, 153 33, and 154A 23

d Shall specify methods by which the final decisions of the board relating to disciplinary proceedings shall be published

[C79, 81, §258A 5]

87 Acts, ch 215, §45

258A.6 Hearings — power of subpoena — decisions.

1 Disciplinary hearings held pursuant to this chapter shall be heard by the board sitting as the hearing panel, or by a panel of not less than three board members who are licensed in the profession, or by a panel of not less than three members appointed pursuant to subsection 2 Notwithstanding chapters 17A and 21 a disciplinary hearing shall be open to the public at the discretion of the licensee

2 When, in the opinion of a majority of the board, it is desirable to obtain specialists within an area of practice of a profession when holding disciplinary hearings, a licensing board may appoint licensees not having a conflict of interest to make findings of fact and to report to the board Such findings shall not include any recommendation for or against licensee discipline

3 The presiding officer of a hearing panel may issue subpoenas pursuant to rules of the board on behalf of the board or on behalf of the licensee A licensee may have subpoenas issued on the licensee's behalf A subpoena issued under the authority of a licensing board may compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of professional records, books, papers, correspondence and other records, whether or not privileged or confidential under law, which are deemed necessary as evidence in connection with a disciplinary proceeding

Nothing in this subsection shall be deemed to enable a licensing board to compel an attorney of the licensee, or stenographer or confidential clerk of the attorney, to disclose any information when privileged against disclosure by section 622 10 In the event of a refusal to obey a subpoena, the licensing board may petition the district court for its enforcement Upon proper showing, the district court shall order the person to obey the subpoena, and if the person fails to obey the order of the court the person may be found guilty of contempt of court. The presiding officer of a hearing panel may also administer oaths and affirmations, take or order that depositions be taken, and pursuant to rules of the board, grant immunity to a witness from disciplinary proceedings initiated either by the board or by other state agencies which might otherwise result from the testimony to be given by the witness to the panel.

4 In order to assure a free flow of information for accomplishing the purposes of this section, and notwithstanding section 622 10, all complaint files, investigation files, other investigation reports, and other investigative information in the possession of a licensing board or peer review committee acting under the authority of a licensing board or its employees or agents which relates to licensee discipline are privileged and confidential, and are not subject to discovery, subpoena, or other means of legal compulsion for their release to a person other than the licensee and the boards, their employees and agents involved in licensee discipline, and are not admissible in evidence in a judicial or administrative proceeding other than the proceeding involving licensee discipline. However, investigative information in the possession of a licensing board or its employees or agents which relates to licensee discipline may be disclosed to appropriate licensing authorities within this state, the appropriate licensing authority in another state, the District of Columbia, or a territory or country in which the licensee is licensed or has applied for a license. If the investigative information in the possession of a licensing board or its employees or agents indicates a crime has been committed, the information shall be reported to the proper law enforcement agency. However, a final written decision and finding of fact of a licensing board in a disciplinary proceeding, including a decision referred to in section 258A 3, subsection 4, is a public record.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 17A 19, subsection 6, a licensing board upon an appeal by the licensee of the decision by the licensing board, shall transmit the entire record of the contested case to the reviewing court.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 17A 19, subsection 6, if a waiver of privilege has been involuntary and evidence has been received at a disciplinary hearing, the court shall order withheld the identity of the individual whose privilege was waived.

5 Licensee discipline shall not be imposed except upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the licensing board.

86 Acts, ch 1211, §15

258A.7 Executive secretary and personnel.

1 As an alternative to authority contained elsewhere in this chapter, a licensing board may employ within the limits of available funds an executive secretary, one or more inspectors, and such clerical personnel as may be necessary for the administration of the duties of the board. Employees of the board shall be employed subject to chapter 19A. The qualifications of the executive secretary shall be determined by the board.

2 All employees of a licensing board shall be reimbursed subject to the rules of the director of revenue and finance for their expenses incurred in the performance of official duties. All reimbursements shall constitute costs of sustaining the board.

3 Licensees appointed to serve on a hearing panel pursuant to section 258A 6, subsection 2, shall be compensated at the rate of forty dollars for each day of actual duty, and shall be reimbursed for actual expenses reasonably incurred in the performance of duties.

4 Salaries, per diem, and expenses incurred in the performance of official duties of the board or its employees shall be paid from funds appropriated by the general assembly.

[C79, 81, §258A 7]

258A.8 Immunities.

1 A person shall not be civilly liable as a result of the person's acts, omissions or decisions in good faith as a member of a licensing board or as an employee or agent in connection with the person's duties.

2 A person shall not be civilly liable as a result of filing a report or complaint with a licensing board or peer review committee, or for the disclosure to a licensing board or its agents or employees, whether or not pursuant to a subpoena of records, documents, testimony or other forms of information which constitute privileged matter concerning a recipient of health care services or some other person, in connection with proceedings of a peer review committee, or in connection with duties of a health care board. However, such immunity from civil liability shall not apply if such act is done with malice.

3 A person shall not be dismissed from employment, and shall not be discriminated against by an employer because the person filed a complaint with a licensing board or peer review committee, or because the person participated as a member, agent or employee of a licensing board or peer review committee, or presented testimony or other evidence to a licensing board or peer review committee.

Any employer who violates the terms of this section shall be liable to any person aggrieved for actual and punitive damages plus reasonable attorney fees.

[C79, 81, §258A 8]

258A.9 Duties of licensees.

1 Each licensee of a licensing board, as a condition of licensure, is under a duty to submit to a physical or mental examination when directed in writing by the board for cause. All objections shall be waived as to the admissibility of the examining physician's testimony or reports on the grounds of privileged communications. The medical testimony or report shall not be used against the licensee in any proceeding other than one relating to licensee discipline by the board, or one commenced in district court for revocation of the licensee's privileges. The licensing board, upon probable cause, shall have the authority to order physical or mental examination, and upon refusal of the licensee to submit to the examination the licensing board may order that the allegations pursuant to which the order of physical or mental examination was made shall be taken to be established.

2 A licensee has a continuing duty to report to the licensing board by whom the person is licensed those acts or omissions specified by rule of the board pursuant to section 258A 4, subsection 1, paragraph "f", when committed by another person licensed by the same licensing board. This subsection does not apply to licensees under chapter 116 when the observations are a result of participation in programs of practice review, peer review and quality review conducted by professional organizations of certified public accountants, for educational purposes and approved by the board of accountancy.

3 A licensee shall have a continuing duty and obligation, as a condition of licensure, to report to the licensing board by which the licensee is licensed every adverse judgment in a professional or occupational malpractice action to which the licensee is a party, and every settlement of a claim against the licensee alleging malpractice.

4 A licensee who willfully fails to comply with subsection 2 or 3 of this section commits a violation of this chapter for which licensee discipline may be imposed.

[C79, 81, §258A 9, 81 Acts, ch 84, §1]

258A.10 Rules for revocation or suspension of license.

A licensing board established after January 1, 1978 and pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall by rule include provisions for the revocation or suspension of a license which shall include but is not limited to the following:

- 1 Fraud in procuring a license
 - 2 Professional incompetency
 - 3 Knowingly making misleading, deceptive, untrue or fraudulent representations in the practice of the licensee's profession or engaging in unethical conduct or practice harmful or detrimental to the public. Proof of actual injury need not be established.
 - 4 Habitual intoxication or addiction to the use of drugs
 - 5 Conviction of a felony related to the profession or occupation of the licensee. A copy of the record of conviction or plea of guilty shall be conclusive evidence.
 - 6 Fraud in representations as to skill or ability
 - 7 Use of untruthful or improbable statements in advertisements
 - 8 Willful or repeated violations of the provisions of this chapter.

259.1 Acceptance of federal Acts.

The state of Iowa, through its legislative authority, accepts the provisions and benefits of the Acts of Congress entitled "The Rehabilitation Act of 1973" (Pub L No 93 112), "The Rehabilitation, Comprehensive Services and Developmental Disabilities Amendments of 1978" (Pub L No 95-602) and the "Rehabilitation Amendments of 1984" (Pub L No 98-221) as codified in 29 USC §701

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3850; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §259 1]

85 Acts, ch 23, §1

259.2 Custodian of funds.

The treasurer of state is custodian of moneys received by the state from appropriations made by the Congress of the United States for the vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise, and may receive and provide for the proper custody of the moneys and make disbursement of them upon the requisition of the director of the department of education.

The treasurer of state is appointed custodian of moneys paid by the federal government to the state for the purpose of carrying out the agreement relative to making determinations of disability under Title II and Title XVI of the federal Social Security Act as amended, 42 US C ch 7, and may receive the moneys and make disbursements of them upon the requisition of the director of the department of education

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3851; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §259 2]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1434

259.3 Board and division.

The state board of education is the board for vocational education under this chapter. The division of vocational rehabilitation is established in the department of education. The director of the department of education shall cooperate with the United States secretary of education in carrying out the federal acts cited in sections 259 1 and 259 2 providing for the vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise. The board for vocational education shall adopt rules under chapter 17A for the administration of this chapter.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3852; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §259 3]

86 Acts, ch 1237, §14, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1435

259.4 Duties of division.

The division of vocational rehabilitation shall

1 Cooperate with the secretary of education in the administration of the federal acts cited in section 259 1

2 Administer legislation pursuant to the federal acts cited in section 259 1, and direct the disbursement and administer the use of funds provided by the federal government and this state for the vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise and their return to civil employment

3 Study and make investigations relating to the vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise and their return to civil employment and formulate plans for the vocational rehabilitation of such persons

4 Make surveys with the cooperation of the state commissioner of labor and the state industrial commissioner to assist in the vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise and their return to civil employment

5 Maintain a record of persons disabled in industry or otherwise together with measures taken for their rehabilitation

6 Utilize in the rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise existing educational and other facilities as are advisable and practicable, including public and private educational institutions, public or private establishments, plants, factories, and the services of individuals specially qualified for the instruction and vocational rehabilitation of handicapped persons

7 Promote the establishment and assist in the development of training agencies for the vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise

8 Supervise the training of persons disabled in industry or otherwise and confer with their relatives and others concerning their vocational rehabilitation

9 Attempt to place vocationally rehabilitated persons in suitable remunerative occupations, including supervision for a reasonable time after return to civil employment

10 Utilize the facilities of public and private agencies as practicable in securing employment for persons disabled in industry or otherwise, and a public agency shall cooperate with the division for the purpose stated

11 Cooperate with an agency of the federal government or of the state, or of a county or other municipal authority within the state, or any other agency, public or private, in carrying out the purposes of this chapter

12 Do all things necessary to secure the rehabilitation of those entitled to the benefits of this chapter

13 Report biennially to the governor the conditions of vocational rehabilitation within the state, designating the educational institutions, establishments, plants, factories, and other agencies in which training is being given, and include a detailed statement of the expenditures of the state and federal funds in the rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise

14 Provide services for the vocational rehabilitation of severely handicapped persons and others entitled to the benefits of this chapter, including the establishment and operation of rehabilitation facilities and workshops

15 Provide rehabilitation services to homebound and other handicapped individuals who can wholly or substantially achieve an ability of self help as to dispense or largely dispense with the need of an attendant

16 Provide financial and other necessary assistance to public or private agencies in the development, expansion, operation, or maintenance of sheltered workshops or other rehabilitation facilities needed for the rehabilitation of the disabled

17 Provide vocational rehabilitation services to socially disadvantaged persons who are substantially impaired in their ability to earn a living. This may include but is not limited to recipients of public assistance, inmates of correctional institutions or rejectees of the selective service system, who because of lack of training, experience, skills, or other factors which if corrected would lead to self support instead of dependency

83 Acts, ch 101, §59, 86 Acts, ch 1237, §15, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1436, 87 Acts, ch 115, §37

259.5 Plan of co-operation.

The division shall work with the state labor commissioner and the state industrial commissioner as administrator of the workers' compensation law to formulate a plan of co operation in accordance with this chapter and the federal acts cited in section

259 1 The plan shall be effective when approved by the governor of the state A plan approved by the governor under this section prior to July 1, 1986 remains in effect until changed under this section [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3854; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §259 5] 86 Acts, ch 1237, §16, 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1437

259.6 Gifts and donations.

The division may receive gifts and donations from either public or private sources offered unconditionally or under conditions related to the vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise that are consistent with this chapter [C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3855; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §259 6] 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1438

259.7 Fund.

All the moneys received as gifts or donations shall be deposited in the state treasury and shall constitute a permanent fund to be called the special fund for the vocational rehabilitation of disabled persons, to be used by the said board in carrying out the provisions of this chapter or for purposes related thereto

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3856; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §259 7]

259.8 Report of gifts.

A full report of gifts and donations offered and accepted, together with the names of the donors and the respective amounts contributed by each, and disbursements from the fund shall be submitted at call or biennially to the governor of the state by the division

The agreement between the board for vocational education and the secretary of the United States department of health and human services relating to making determinations of disability under Title II and Title XVI of the federal Social Security Act as amended, 42 U S C ch 7, completed prior to July 1, 1986 remains in effect 260.9 Area education agency administrator's certificate.

The board of educational examiners shall adopt rules establishing a certificate for area education agency administrators. The area education agency administrator's certificate shall be issued to an applicant who has met the requirements in two of the four following subsections:

1. Five years' experience in higher education administration at a two- or four-year college or university which is accredited by the north central association of colleges and secondary schools accrediting agency or which has been certified by the north central association of colleges and secondary schools accrediting agency as a candidate for accreditation by that agency or as a school giving satisfactory assurance that it has the potential for accreditation and is making progress which, if continued, will result in its achieving accreditation by that agency within a reasonable time; or an earned doctorate in higher education administration.
2. Five years' experience in special education, media services, or educational services administration; or an earned doctorate in special education, media services, or educational services or any sub-specialty of these services.
3. Five years' experience in primary or secondary school education; or an earned doctorate in educational administration for the primary or secondary level; and five years' teaching experience at any educational level.
4. Five years' experience in business or other nonacademic career pursuit; or an earned doctorate in public administration or business administration.

A person shall not be issued a temporary or emergency certificate for more than one year; and an education agency shall not employ uncertificated administrators, or employ temporary or emergency certificated administrators for more than two consecutive years.

The provisions of this section relating to the certification of an area education agency administrator do not apply to persons holding a superintendent's certificate prior to July 1, 1975.

260.25 Rules for teacher education programs.

Not later than January 1, 1990, the board of educational examiners shall adopt rules pursuant to chapter 17A to implement the following for approved teacher education programs:

1. A requirement that each student admitted to an approved teacher education program must participate in field experiences that include both observation and participation in teaching activities in a variety of school settings. These field experiences shall comprise a total of at least fifty hours' duration, at least forty hours of which shall occur after a student's admission to an approved teacher education program. The student teaching experience shall be a minimum of twelve weeks in duration during the student's final year of the teacher education program.

2. A requirement that faculty members in professional education maintain an ongoing involvement in activities in elementary, middle, or secondary schools. The activities shall include at least forty hours of team teaching during a period not exceeding five years in duration at the elementary, middle, or secondary level.

3. A requirement that the program include instruction in skills and strategies to be used in classroom management of individuals, and of small and large groups, under varying conditions; skills for communicating and working constructively with pupils, teachers, administrators, and parents; and skills for understanding the role of the board of education and the functions of other education agencies in the state. The requirement shall be based upon recommendations of the department of education after consultation with teacher education faculty members in colleges and universities.

4. A requirement that prescribes minimum experiences and responsibilities to be accomplished during the student teaching experience by the student teacher and by the cooperating teacher based upon recommendations of the department of education after consultation with teacher education faculty members in colleges and universities. The student teaching experience shall consist of interactive experiences involving the college or university personnel, the student teacher, the cooperating teacher, and administrative personnel from the cooperating teacher's school district.

5. A requirement that each approved teacher education institution annually offer a workshop of at least one day in duration for prospective cooperating teachers. The workshop shall define the objectives of the student teaching experience, review the responsibilities of the cooperating teacher, and provide the cooperating teacher other information and assistance the institution deems necessary.

6. A requirement that teacher education students receive instruction in the use of electronic technology for classroom and instructional purposes.

7. A requirement that approved teacher education institutions annually solicit the views of the education community regarding the institution's teacher education programs.

8. A requirement that an approved teacher education institution submit evidence that the college or department of education is communicating with other colleges or departments in the institution so that teacher education students may integrate teaching methodology with subject matter areas of specialization.

9. A requirement that an approved teacher education program submit evidence that the evaluation of the performance of a student teacher is a cooperative process that involves both the faculty member supervising the student teacher and the cooperating teacher. The rules shall require that each institution develop a written evaluation procedure for use by the cooperating teacher and a form for evaluating student teachers, and require that a copy of the completed form be included in the student teacher's permanent record.

260.26 Repealed by 65 GA, ch 1172, §133.

260.27 Student teaching.

Whenever the rules adopted by the board of educational examiners for issuance of any type or class of certificate provide that the applicant shall complete work in student teaching it is lawful for an accredited college or university located within the state of Iowa and states conterminous with Iowa and offering a program or programs of teacher education approved by the director of the department of education or the appropriate authority in states conterminous with Iowa to enter into a written contract with any accredited* school district or private school, under terms and conditions as agreed upon by the contracting parties. Students actually teaching under the terms of the contract, are entitled to the same protection, under section 613A.8, as is afforded by that section to officers and employees of the school district, during the time they are so assigned.

260A.1 Educational excellence program.

The Iowa educational excellence program is established and it includes Iowa educational excellence incentive awards to be granted in the manner provided in this chapter

84 Acts, ch 1315, §1

260A.2 Educational improvement projects.

The board of directors of a school district may make application by November 1 of a school year to the department of education for funding for an educational improvement project to be carried out in the school district during the next following school year. The board of directors may apply for an educational excellence incentive award or for additional allowable growth, or both, to fund the project.

An educational improvement project is a project that has not been implemented, requires additional funding for implementation that the district cannot provide, is designed to achieve academic excellence, and has general application in other school districts throughout the state. The project may relate to curriculum, instructional practices, expansion of educational program or staff development.

The application shall include the goals and objectives of the project, staff utilization plans, evaluation criteria and procedures, the program budget, and other factors the department deems necessary. The board also shall include in its application the process used in the school district to involve parents, teachers, administrators, and students in the planning and development of the project.

The total cost of a project shall not exceed one percent of the district cost per pupil of the school district for the budget year multiplied by the budget enrollment of the school district for the budget year or five thousand dollars, whichever is greater.

The department of education shall review the project applications and shall prior to February 15 of that school year send written notification of approval to the school district proposing the project and the director of the department of management and school budget review committee. The written notification shall include notification whether a district has been granted an educational excellence incentive award by the department.

260A.3 Funding.

A project that has been approved by the department of education shall be funded one fourth or more from the district cost of the school district and up to three fourths by an increase in allowable growth as defined in section 442.7 or by an educational excellence incentive award granted by the department of education under section 260A.4, or both.

Annually, the director of the department of management shall establish a modified allowable growth for each school district having an approved project for which additional allowable growth is required to fund the project. The modified allowable growth shall be equal to the difference between the approved budget for the project for that district and the sum of the amount funded from the district cost of the district plus funds received from the educational excellence incentive award if an award has been granted to that district.

260A.4 Awards.

Annually, the department of education shall select from among the school districts with approved educational improvement projects and shall approve the distribution of educational excellence incentive awards to school districts. An award is equal to five thousand dollars, and the department shall make payment to school districts from funds appropriated by the general assembly for that purpose.

84 Acts, ch 1315, §4

260A.5 Report required.

Not later than August 15 of the school year following the school year in which an educational improvement project has been carried out, the board of directors of the school district carrying out the project shall file a report with the department of education describing the manner in which the project was carried out, the results of the project, and moneys expended for the project.

If a project was not carried out, or if the cost of carrying out a project was less than the amount approved for the project, the department of education shall notify the director of the department of management. The director of the department of management shall determine for a project the amount not expended that was additional allowable growth and the amount not expended that was from the educational excellence incentive award, and shall reduce the district's tax levy computed under section 442.9 for the next following budget year to reduce the anticipated receipts from the tax levy by the amount of additional allowable growth not expended and the district's total state school aids available under chapter 442 for the next following budget year by the amount of the award not expended

84 Acts, ch 1315, §5

260A.6 Rules.

The state board of education shall adopt rules under chapter 17A to implement this chapter 261.1 Commission created.

There is hereby created a commission to be known as the "College Aid Commission" of the state of Iowa Membership of the commission shall be as follows

1 A member of the state board of regents to be named by the board, or the secretary thereof if so appointed by the board, who shall serve for a four year term or until the expiration of the member's term of office. Such member shall convene the organizational meeting of the commission.

2 The director of the department of education

3 A member of the state advisory committee for vocational education to be named by the said committee who shall serve for a four year term or until the expiration of the member's term of office

4 A member of the senate to be appointed by the majority leader of the senate to serve as an ex officio nonvoting member for a term of four years beginning on July 1 of the year of appointment

5 A member of the house of representatives to be appointed by the speaker of the house to serve as an ex officio nonvoting member for a term of four years beginning on July 1 of the year of appointment

6 Six additional members to be appointed by the governor. One of such members shall be selected to represent private colleges, private universities and private junior colleges located in the state of Iowa. When appointing such one member, the governor shall give careful consideration to any person or persons nominated or recommended by any organization or association of some or all private colleges, private universities and private junior colleges located in the state of Iowa. One such member shall be enrolled as a student at a board of regents institution, merged area school, or accredited private institution. One such member shall be a representative of a lending institution located in this state. The other three such members, none of whom shall be official board members or trustees of an institution of higher learning or of an association of such institutions, shall be selected to represent the general public.

The members of the commission appointed by the governor shall serve for a term of four years.

Vacancies on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term of such vacancies in the same manner as the original appointment.

A vacancy shall exist on the commission when a legislative member of the commission ceases to be a member of the general assembly or when a student member ceases to be enrolled as a student. Such vacancy shall be filled within thirty days.

261.2 Duties of commission — federal cooperation.

The commission shall

1 Prepare and administer a state plan for higher education facilities which shall be the state plan submitted to the secretary of education, in connection with the participation of this state in programs authorized by the federal "Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963" (P L 88 204), [77 Stat L 363, 20 USC 701] together with any amendments thereto

2 Provide for administrative hearings to every applicant for funds authorized under the "Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963" (P L 88 204), [77 Stat L 363, 20 USC 701] together with any amendments thereto, in regard to the priority assigned to such application for funds by said commission or to any other determination of the state commission adversely affecting the applicant

3 Apply for, receive, administer, expend, and account for such federal moneys necessary for its own administrative expenses as authorized by the federal "Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963" (P L 88 204), [77 Stat L 363, 20 USC 701] together with any amendments thereto

4 Prepare and administer a state plan for a state supported and administered scholarship program. The state plan shall provide for scholarships to deserving students of Iowa, matriculating in Iowa universities, colleges, area vocational schools, area community colleges, or schools of professional nursing. Eligibility of a student for receipt of a scholarship during the student's first year of eligibility shall be based upon academic achievement and completion of advanced level courses prescribed by the commission. Continuation of the scholarship in subsequent years shall be based upon the student's financial need and the maintenance by the student of a cumulative grade point average of at least a three point zero on a four point zero grading scale or its equivalent.

5 Receive, administer, and allot a tuition loan fund for the benefit of Iowa resident students enrolled in Iowa studying to be physicians or osteopathic physicians and surgeons and who agree to become general practitioners (family doctors) and practice in Iowa.

Said fund shall be allotted to students for not more than three years of study and shall be in the nature of a loan. Such loan shall have as one of its terms that fifty percent thereof shall be canceled at the end of five years of the general practice in Iowa with an additional ten percent to be canceled each year thereafter until the entire loan may be canceled. No interest shall be charged on any part of the loan thus canceled. Additional terms and conditions of said loan shall be established by the college aid commission so as to facilitate the purpose of this section.

Chapter 8 shall apply to this subsection except that section 8 5 shall not apply.

6 Administer the tuition grant program under this chapter.

7 Prepare a state plan, complete with fiscal implications, for a state matching program to match federal funds paid under the GI Bill Improvement Act of 1977 Public Law 95 202 to a veteran who is an Iowa resident for the purpose of repaying any school loans received by such veteran from the United States veterans administration.

8 Prepare and administer the Iowa science and mathematics loan program under this chapter.

9 Administer the supplemental grant program under this chapter.

10 Prepare and administer the occupational therapist loan program under this chapter.

11 Review reports filed by accredited private institutions under section 261 9, subsection 5, to determine compliance

12 Develop and implement, in cooperation with the state board of regents, an educational program and marketing strategies designed to inform parents about the options available for financing a college education and the need to accumulate the financial resources necessary to pay for a college education. The educational program shall include, but not be limited to, distribution of informational material to public and nonpublic elementary schools for distribution to parents and guardians of five year and six year old children

261.3 Organization – bylaws.

The commission is an autonomous state agency which is attached to the department of education for organizational purposes only

The commission shall determine its own organization, draw up its own bylaws, adopt rules under chapter 17A, and do such other things as may be necessary and incidental in the administration of this chapter, including the housing, employment, and fixing the compensation and bond of persons required to carry out its functions and responsibilities. A decision of the commission is final agency action under chapter 17A

The commission shall function at the seat of government or such other place as it might designate

87 Acts, ch 233, §455, 88 Acts, ch 1284, §22-24

261.10 Who qualified.

A tuition grant may be awarded to a resident of Iowa who is admitted and in attendance as a full time or part time resident student at an accredited private institution and who establishes financial need

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §261 10]

88 Acts, ch 1284, §25

261.11 Extent of grant.

A qualified full time resident student may receive tuition grants for not more than eight semesters of undergraduate study or the trimester or quarter equivalent. A qualified part time resident student may receive tuition grants for not more than sixteen semesters of undergraduate study or the trimester or quarter equivalent

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §261 11]

88 Acts, ch 1284, §26

261.12 Amount of grant.

1 The amount of a tuition grant to a qualified full time student for the fall and spring semesters, or the trimester equivalent, shall be the amount of the student's financial need for that period. However, a tuition grant shall not exceed the lesser of a The total tuition and mandatory fees for that student for two semesters or the trimester or quarter equivalent, less the base amount determined annually by the college aid commission, which base amount shall be within ten dollars of the average tuition for two semesters or the trimester equivalent of undergraduate study at the state universities under the board of regents, but in any event the base amount shall not be less than four hundred dollars, or b For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1984, two thousand two hundred fifty dollars, and for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1985 and for each following fiscal year, two thousand three hundred fifty dollars

2 The amount of a tuition grant to a qualified part time student enrolled in a course of study including at least six semester hours for the fall and spring semesters, or the trimester or quarter equivalent, shall be one half the amount which would be paid for a qualified full time student under subsection 1

The amount of a tuition grant to a qualified part time student enrolled in a course of study including at least three semester hours but fewer than six semester hours for the fall and spring semesters, or trimester or quarter equivalent, shall be one fourth the amount which would be paid for a qualified full time student under subsection 1

261.13 Annual grant.

A tuition grant may be made annually for both the fall and spring semesters or the trimester equivalent. Payments under the grant shall be allocated equally among the semesters or trimesters and shall be paid at the beginning of each semester or trimester upon certification by the accredited private institution that the student is admitted and in attendance. If the student discontinues attendance before the end of any semester or trimester after receiving payment under the grant, the entire amount of any refund due that student, up to the amount of any payments made under the annual grant, shall be paid by the accredited private institution to the state

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §261 13]

261.14 Other aid considered.

If a student receives financial aid under any other program the full amount of such financial aid shall be considered part of the student's financial resources available in determining the amount of the student's financial need for that period. In no case may the state's total financial contribution to the student's education, including financial aid under any other state program, exceed the tuition and mandatory fees at the institution which the student attends.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §261.14]

261.15 Administration by commission — rules.

The commission shall administer this program and shall:

1. Provide application forms and parents' confidential statement forms.

2. Adopt rules and regulations for determining financial need, defining tuition and mandatory fees, defining residence for the purposes of this division, processing and approving applications for tuition grants, and determining priority of grants. The commission may provide for proration of funds if the available funds are insufficient to pay all approved grants. Such proration shall take primary account of the financial need of the applicant. In determining who is a resident of Iowa, the commission's rules shall be at least as restrictive as those of the board of regents.

3. Approve and award tuition grants.

4. Make an annual report to the governor and general assembly, and evaluate the tuition grant program for the period. The commission may require the accredited private institution to promptly furnish any information which the commission may request in connection with the tuition grant program.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §261.15]

261.16 Application for grants.

Each applicant, in accordance with the rules and regulations of the commission, shall:

1. Complete and file an application for a tuition grant.

2. Be responsible for the submission of the parents' confidential statement for processing, the processed information to be returned both to the commission and to the college in which the applicant is enrolling.

3. Report promptly to the commission any information requested.

4. File a new application and parents' confidential statement annually on the basis of which the applicant's eligibility for a renewed tuition grant will be evaluated and determined.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §261.16]

261.17 Vocational-technical tuition grants.

1. A vocational-technical tuition grant may be awarded to any resident of Iowa who is admitted and in attendance as a full-time student in a vocational-technical or career option program at an area school in the state, and who establishes financial need.

2. A qualified student may receive vocational-technical tuition grants for not more than four semesters, eight quarters or the equivalent of two full years of study.

3. The amount of a vocational-technical tuition grant shall not exceed the lesser of four hundred fifty dollars per year or the amount of the student's established financial need.

4. A vocational-technical tuition grant shall be awarded on an annual basis, requiring reapplication by the student for each year. Payments under the grant shall be allocated equally among the semesters or quarters of the year upon certification by the institution that the student is in full-time attendance in a vocational-technical or career option program, as defined under rules of the department of education. If the student discontinues attendance before the end of any term after receiving payment of the grant, the entire amount of any refund due that student, up to the amount of any payments made under the annual grant, shall be paid by the institution to the state.

5. If a student receives financial aid under any other program, the full amount of that financial aid shall be considered part of the student's financial resources available in determining the amount of the student's financial need for that period.

6. The commission shall administer this program and shall:

a. Provide application forms for distribution to students by Iowa high schools and area schools.

b. Adopt rules for determining financial need, defining residence for the purposes of this section, processing and approving applications for grants and determining priority for grants.

c. Approve and award grants on an annual basis.

d. Make an annual report to the governor and general assembly.

7. Each applicant, in accordance with the rules established by the commission, shall:

a. Complete and file an application for a vocational-technical tuition grant.

b. Be responsible for the submission of the financial information required for evaluation of the applicant's need for a grant, on forms determined by the commission.

c. Report promptly to the commission any information requested.

d. Submit a new application and financial statement for re-evaluation of the applicant's eligibility to receive a second-year renewal of the grant.

261.18 Subvention program.

1. There is established a subvention program for resident students who are enrolled in the university of osteopathic medicine and health sciences of Des Moines, Iowa. The subvention program shall be administered by the commission in the manner provided in this section and section 261.19. The commission shall initiate an affirmative action program to ensure equal opportunity for participation by women, men, and minority students in the program provided for in this section and section 261.19.

2. In making a final determination of who is a resident of Iowa, the commission shall adopt rules for the academic year commencing in 1976 and for each academic year thereafter consistent with those followed for determining Iowa resident students in section 261.15 and be subject to the provisions of chapter 17A.

3. Of the funds appropriated for the subvention program, the commission shall provide three thousand dollars of subvention to the university of osteopathic medicine and health sciences for each Iowa student, to be credited against the tuition charged for the Iowa student by the university of osteopathic medicine and health sciences, and the remaining funds shall be allocated to the university of osteopathic medicine and health sciences.

261.38 Loan reserve account.

1. The commission shall establish a loan reserve account from which any default on a guaranteed student loan shall be paid. The commission shall credit to this account all moneys designated exclusively for the reserve fund by the United States, the state of Iowa or any of their agencies, departments or instrumentalities, as well as any funds accruing to the program which are not required for current administrative expenses. The department of management shall determine the actuarially sound reserve requirement for the amount of guaranteed loans outstanding.

2. The general assembly shall appropriate moneys from the loan reserve account of the commission to the college aid commission for operating costs of the guaranteed student loan program. Moneys appropriated from the loan reserve account for operating costs of the guaranteed student loan program that are unencumbered or unobligated on June 30 of a fiscal year shall revert to the loan reserve account of the commission.

3. The payment of any funds for the default on a guaranteed student loan shall be solely from the loan reserve account. The general assembly shall not be obligated to appropriate any moneys to pay for any defaults or to appropriate any moneys to be credited to the loan reserve account. The commission shall not give or lend the credit of the state of Iowa.

4. Funds on deposit in the loan reserve account or in the administrative account shall not revert to the state general fund at the close of any fiscal year.

5. The treasurer of state shall invest any funds, including those in the loan reserve account, and the interest income earned shall be credited back to the loan reserve account.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, §261.5, 261.8; C79, 81, §261.38] 86 Acts, ch 1246, §26, 27

261.39 Transfer of funds and assets.

All moneys which are to be refunded to the state under the contract with United Student Aid Funds, Incorporated, involving the Iowa guaranteed student loan program in effect prior to July 1, 1978, shall be refunded to the commission and shall be credited to the loan reserve account except those funds which must be repaid to the United States government.

All assets and liabilities of the student loan program established pursuant to sections 261.5 to 261.8, Code 1977, and existing on July 1, 1978 shall be assets and liabilities of the Iowa guaranteed student loan program established pursuant to this chapter.

261.40 Repayment of state appropriations.

The commission shall repay to the treasurer of state all funds appropriated for the Iowa guaranteed student loan program for the fiscal years 1979, 1980 and 1981. The commission shall repay such funds in any fiscal year only when the funds available are in excess of the amount needed to pay the costs of administering the program and to insure an actuarially sound reserve account for that fiscal year and then only in the amount of the excess funds available.

[C79, 81, §261.40]

261.41 Account dissolved — balance to general fund.

The loan program and the loan reserve account established by this division shall not be dissolved until all guaranteed loans have been repaid by the borrower or, if in default, by the commission. Upon dissolution of the loan program, all the property and moneys of the program and in the loan reserve account not owed to the federal government shall be transferred to the state general fund.

[C79, 81, §261.41]

261.42 Short title.

This division shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Guaranteed Student Loan Program."

SUPPLEMENTAL GRANT PROGRAM

261.61 Supplemental grant program.

An individual who graduates from a public or nonpublic high school in this state and meets all of the following requirements is eligible for a supplemental grant:

1 Has successfully completed at least eight units of science and mathematics courses, and at least four of the eight units include sequential mathematics courses at the advanced algebra level or higher, chemistry, advanced chemistry, physics, or advanced physics courses

2 Attends an eligible institution

3 Has not received a state scholarship under section 261.2, subsection 4

The department of education shall transmit to the commission a list of high school graduates who have successfully completed the courses required in this section.

For the purpose of this section and section 261.62, an eligible institution is an accredited private institution as defined in section 261.9, subsection 5, an institution of higher learning under the state board of regents, or a merged area school established under chapter 280A.

261.62 Payment of grants.

A student meeting the requirements of section 261.61 may make application to the commission, on forms prescribed by the commission, for payment of a supplemental grant to an eligible institution in which the student is enrolled on a full time basis. The maximum supplemental grant is five hundred dollars per year. Payment under the grant shall be allocated equally among the semesters or trimesters and shall be paid at the beginning of each semester or trimester upon certification by the eligible institution that the student is admitted as a full time student and in attendance. If the student discontinues attendance before the end of a semester or trimester after receiving payment under the grant, the amount of refund due the student, up to the amount of payment under the grant, shall be paid by the eligible institution to the state.

An eligible student may receive a supplemental grant for two semesters of undergraduate study or the trimester equivalent.

The amount of a supplemental grant to a student shall not be considered when determining financial need under the Iowa tuition grant and Iowa scholarship programs.

FORGIVABLE LOAN PROGRAM

261.71 Forgivable loan program.

There is established a forgivable student loan program to be administered by the college aid commission. An individual is eligible for the reimbursement payments plan under the program if the individual meets all of the following conditions:

1 Is an Iowa resident student enrolled at an accredited private institution as defined in section 261.9, subsection 5 or at an institution under the control of the state board of regents

2 Has filed an application for the loan with the college aid commission, using the procedures specified in section 261.16

3 Meets the requirements for a tuition grant 85 Acts, ch 33, §701

261.72 Forgivable loan administration.

The college aid commission shall administer the forgivable loan program in the same manner as specified in section 261.15 for the tuition grant program. The maximum loan that a student is eligible to receive is an amount equal to the maximum tuition grant awarded by the commission for the same fiscal year. A student is eligible to receive both a tuition grant and a forgivable loan. The interest rate for the forgivable loan shall be equal to the interest rate being collected by an eligible lender under the Iowa guaranteed student loan program for the year in which the forgivable loan is made.

85 Acts, ch 33, §702

261.73 Interest and principal payment.

A student receiving a forgivable loan under section 261.71 shall begin paying the annual cost of interest immediately following graduation on an annual basis for five years. If the student remains an Iowa resident and is employed in a teaching position in an area in which a teaching shortage exists, as determined by the department of education, for five years immediately following graduation, the student is not responsible for payment of the principal amount of the loan and shall not pay interest on the loan. If the commission determines that the student does not meet the criteria for elimination of the principal and interest payments, the commission shall establish by rule a plan for repayment of the principal and interest over a ten year period. If a student who is required to make the repayment does not make the required payments, the commission shall provide for collecting the payments.

There is created a forgivable loan repayment fund for deposit of payments made by the recipients. Payments made by the recipients of the loans shall be credited to the fund and may be used to make additional loans under the program. Moneys in the fund shall not revert to the general fund of the state at the close of a fiscal year.

WORK STUDY PROGRAM

261.81 Work-study program.

The Iowa college work study program is established to stimulate and promote the part time employment of students attending Iowa postsecondary educational institutions who are in need of employment earnings in order to pursue postsecondary education. The program shall be administered by the commission. The commission shall adopt rules under chapter 17A to carry out the program. The employment under the program shall be employment by the postsecondary education institution itself or work in a public agency or private nonprofit organization under a contract between the institution and the agency or organization. An eligible postsecondary institution that is allocated twenty thousand dollars or more for the work study program by the commission shall allocate at least ten percent of the funds received for student employment in a public agency or private nonprofit organization that is accredited, approved, licensed, registered, certified, or operated by the department of human services or the department of corrections. However, if by October 1, for the first semester of an academic year, or by March 1, for the second semester of an academic year, contracts have not been signed, the funds may be used for employment by the postsecondary institution itself. The work shall not result in the displacement of employed workers or impair existing contracts for services.

261.82 Duties of college aid commission.

The college aid commission shall

- 1 Enter into agreements with eligible postsecondary education institutions for participation in the program.
 - 2 Allocate funds to participating postsecondary education institutions if funds are available to the commission for that purpose.
 - 3 Review reports from participating postsecondary education institutions.
 - 4 Conduct program reviews and audits of participating postsecondary education institutions.
 - 5 Accept gifts, grants, and other aid from public and private persons or agencies.
- 85 Acts, ch 219, §2

261.83 Eligibility and duties of institutions.

An eligible postsecondary education institution is an institution of higher education under the state board of regents, a merged area school, or an accredited private institution as defined in section 261.9, subsection 5. The commission may enter into an agreement with an eligible postsecondary education institution under which the commission will make grants to the institution for the work study program.

The participating institution shall

- 1 File the proper forms with the commission for participation in the program.
 - 2 Develop jobs that meet the requirements of the Iowa college work study program. To the extent possible, the job should complement the student's educational program and career goal.
 - 3 Supervise and evaluate employment and maintain the records required by the commission.
 - 4 Participate in the federal work study program.
- 85 Acts, ch 219, §3

261.84 Student eligibility.

In order to be eligible, a student must

- 1 Be a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state.
- 2 Be enrolled and making satisfactory academic progress or accepted for enrollment at an eligible postsecondary institution on a half time or greater basis.
- 3 Demonstrate financial need. A student's need shall be determined on the basis of a need analysis system approved for use under the federal work study program.
- 4 Have not defaulted on an Iowa guaranteed student loan or on a loan guaranteed by the federal government

85 Acts, ch 219, §4

261.85 Appropriation.

There is appropriated from the general fund of the state to the commission for each fiscal year the sum of two million six hundred fifty thousand dollars for the work study program

From moneys appropriated in this section, one million five hundred thousand dollars shall be allocated to institutions of higher education under the state board of regents and merged area schools and the remaining dollars appropriated in this section shall be allocated by the commission on the basis of need as determined by the portion of the federal formula for distribution of work study funds that relates to the current need of institutions

261A.1 Short title and citation.

This chapter may be cited as the “Iowa Higher Education Loan Authority Act”

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §1]

261A.2 Declaration of purpose.

It is declared that for the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, the conduct and increase of their commerce, the protection and enhancement of their welfare, the development of continued prosperity and the improvement of their health and living conditions, it is essential that this and future generations of youth be given the fullest opportunity to learn and to develop their intellectual and mental capacities and skills; that to achieve these ends it is of the utmost importance that students attending institutions of higher education located in Iowa have reasonable financial alternatives to enhance their access to such institutions; that reasonable financial access to institutions of higher education will assist youth in achieving the optimum levels of learning and development of their intellectual and mental capacities and skills; that it is the purpose of this chapter to provide a measure of assistance and an alternative method to enable students and the families of students attending institutions of higher education located in Iowa to appropriately and prudently finance the cost or a portion of the cost of higher education; and that it is the intent of this chapter to supplement federal guaranteed higher education loan programs, other student loan programs, and grant or scholarship programs to provide the needed additional options for the financing of a student's higher education in execution of the public policy set forth above.

261A.3 Legislative findings.

The general assembly finds as follows:

1. The establishment of the authority is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, for the improvement of their education, health and welfare, and for the promotion of the economy, which are public purposes.

2. The authority will be performing an essential governmental function in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon it by this chapter.

3. There exists a serious problem in this state regarding the ability of students to obtain financing for the cost of education beyond the high school level.

4. Escalating costs of securing such an education have contributed to the difficulties faced by students in attempting to finance an education.

5. Without public action as contemplated by this chapter, many students will be forced to postpone or abandon plans for obtaining additional education.

6. It is in the interests and welfare of the citizens of the state to provide a means for assisting students to continue their education.

7. Without public action as contemplated by this chapter, the inability to obtain educational financing will result in declining enrollments at institutions of higher education.

8. It is necessary to create a higher education loan authority to encourage the investment of private capital in the provision of funds for the financing of student loans.

9. All of the purposes stated in this section are public purposes and uses for which public moneys may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned, or granted.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §3]

261A.4 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Authority" means the Iowa higher education loan authority created by this chapter, and "members of the authority" means those persons appointed to the authority pursuant to section 261A.6.

2. "Authority loans" means loans by the authority to institutions of higher education for the purpose of funding education loans.

3. "Obligations" means bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the authority, including interest coupons pertaining thereto, issued under this chapter, including refunding bonds.

4. "Bond resolution" means a resolution of the authority and the trust agreement, if any, and any supplements or amendments to the resolution and agreement, authorizing the issuance of and providing for the terms and conditions applicable to obligations.

5. "Borrower" means a student who has received an education loan or a parent who has received or agreed to pay an education loan.

6. "Default insurance" means insurance insuring education loans, authority loans, or obligations against default.

7. "Default reserve fund" means a fund established pursuant to a bond resolution for the purpose of securing education loans, authority loans, or obligations.

8. "Cost of attendance" means the amount defined by the institution for the purpose of the guaranteed student loan program as defined under Title IV, part B, of the "Higher Education Act of 1965" as amended.

9. "Education loan" means a loan which is made by an institution to a student or parents of a student, or both, in amounts not in excess of the maximum amounts specified in rules adopted by the authority under chapter 17A to finance all or a portion of the cost of the student's attendance at the institution.

10. "Loan funding deposit" means money or other property deposited by an institution with the authority or a trustee for the purpose of one or more of the following:

- a. Providing security for obligations.
- b. Funding a default reserve fund.
- c. Acquiring default insurance.
- d. Defraying costs of the authority.

The moneys or properties shall be in amounts deemed necessary by the authority as a condition for the institution's participation in the authority's programs.

11. "Institution" means a nonprofit educational institution located in Iowa not owned or controlled by the state or any political subdivision, agency, instrumentality, district, or city of the state, which is authorized by law to provide a program of education beyond the high school level and which meets all of the following requirements:

- a. Admits as regular students only individuals having a certificate of graduation from high school, or the recognized equivalent of such a certificate.
- b. Provides an educational program for which it awards a baccalaureate degree; or provides an educational program which conditions admission upon the prior attainment of a baccalaureate degree or its equivalent, for which it awards a postgraduate degree; or provides not less than a two-year program which is acceptable for full credit toward a baccalaureate degree, or offers not less than a two-year program in engineering, mathematics, or the physical or biological sciences which is designed to prepare the student to work as a technician and at a semiprofessional level in engineering, scientific, or other technological fields which require the understanding and application of basic engineering, scientific, or mathematical principles or knowledge.

c. Is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association or, if not accredited, is an institution whose credits are accepted, on transfer, by not less than three institutions which are accredited.

d. Does not discriminate in the admission of students on the basis of age, race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion, or disability.

e. Has a governing board which possesses its own sovereignty.

f. Has a governing board, or delegated institutional officials, which possess final authority in all matters of local control, including educational policy, choice of personnel, determination of program, and financial management.

12. "Parent" means a parent or guardian of a student at an institution.

13. "Education loan series portfolio" means all education loans made by a specific institution which are funded from the proceeds of an authority loan to the institution from the proceeds of a related specific issue of obligations through the authority.

14. "Bond service charges" means principal, including mandatory sinking fund requirements for retirement of obligations, and interest, and redemption premium, if any, required to be paid by the authority on obligations.

15. "Person" means a public or private person, firm, partnership, association, corporation or other body.

16. "Governmental agency" means the state or a state department, division, commission, institution, or authority, an agency, city, county, township, school district, and any other political subdivision or special district in this state established pursuant to law, and, except where otherwise indicated, also means the United States or a department, division, or agency of the United States, and an agency, commission, or authority established pursuant to an interstate compact or agreement.

261A.5 Creation as public instrumentality.

The Iowa higher education loan authority is created as a body politic and corporate. The authority is a public instrumentality and the exercise by the authority of the powers conferred by this chapter is the performance of an essential public function. The authority is attached to the college aid commission for administrative purposes.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §5]

261A.6 Membership of authority.

1. The authority consists of five members to be appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. The powers of the authority are vested in and exercised by the members of the authority. Each member of the authority shall be a resident of the state and not more than three members shall be members of the same political party.

2. The members of the authority shall be appointed by the governor for terms of six years beginning and ending as provided in section 69.19. A member of the authority is eligible for reappointment. The governor shall fill a vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term. A member of the authority may be removed by the governor for misfeasance, malfeasance, or willful neglect of duty or other cause after notice and a public hearing unless the notice and hearing are waived by the member in writing.

3. The members of the authority shall annually elect one of the members as chairperson and one as vice chairperson. The members of the authority may appoint an executive director, an assistant executive director, and other officers as the members of the authority determine. The officers shall not be members of the authority, shall serve at the pleasure of the authority, and shall receive compensation as fixed by the authority.

4. The executive director or assistant executive director or other person designated by resolution of the authority shall keep a record of the proceedings of the authority and shall be custodian of all books, documents, and papers filed with the authority, the minute book or journal of the authority, and its official seal. The executive director, assistant executive director, or other person may cause copies to be made of minutes and other records and documents of the authority and may give certificates under the official seal of the authority that the copies are true copies, and persons dealing with the authority may rely upon the certificates.

5. Three members of the authority constitute a quorum. The affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the authority is necessary for any action taken by the authority. The majority shall not include a member who has a conflict of interest and a statement by a member of a conflict of interest is conclusive for this purpose. A vacancy in the membership of the authority does not impair the right of a quorum to exercise the rights and perform the duties of the authority. An action taken by the authority under this chapter may be authorized by resolution at a regular or special meeting, and each resolution shall take effect immediately and need not be published or posted, except as provided in section 261A.25. Meetings of the authority shall be held at the call of the chairperson or at the request of two members.

6. The members of the authority shall not receive compensation for the performance of their duties as members but each member shall be paid necessary expenses while engaged in the performance of duties of the authority.

7. The members of the authority shall give bond as required for public officers in chapter 64.

8. The members of the authority are subject to and are officials within the meaning of chapter 68B.

9. Notwithstanding chapter 68B or any other laws to the contrary, it is not a conflict of interest or violation of a law for a trustee, director, officer, or employee of a participating institution or for a person having a favorable reputation for skill, knowledge, and experience in state and municipal finance or for a person having a favorable reputation for skill, knowledge, and experience in the higher education loan finance field to serve as a member of the authority. However, in each case to which this chapter is applicable, the trustee, director, officer, or employee of the participating institution shall abstain from discussion, deliberation, action, and vote by the authority in respect to an undertaking pursuant to this chapter in which the participating institution of higher education has an interest; and the person having a favorable reputation for skill, knowledge, and experience in state and municipal finance shall abstain from discussion, deliberation, action, and vote by the authority in respect to a sale, purchase, or ownership of obligations of the authority in which an investment banking firm or insurance company or bank of which the person is a partner, officer, or employee has or may have a current or future interest; and the person having a favorable reputation for skill, knowledge, and experience in the higher education loan finance field shall abstain from discussion, deliberation, action, and vote by the authority in respect to an action of the authority in which a partnership, firm, joint venture, sole proprietorship, or corporation of which the person is an owner, venturer, participant, partner, officer, or employee has or may have a current or future interest.

10. All employees of the authority are exempt from chapters 19A and 97B.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §6, 28]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §843

261A.7 Duties of authority.

The authority shall:

1. Adopt rules for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business.

2. Adopt an official seal and alter the seal at pleasure.

3. Maintain an office at a place or places it designates.

4. Establish criteria for and guidelines encompassing the types of and qualifications for education loan financing programs. The authority may issue obligations for the purpose of making authority loans to institutions participating in a program of the authority for the purpose of providing education loans. The criteria and guidelines established by the authority for its education loan financing programs include eligibility standards for borrowers the authority determines are necessary or desirable in order to effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including the following:

a. Each student shall have a certificate of admission or enrollment at a specific participating institution.

b. Each student or the student's parents shall satisfy financial qualifications the authority establishes to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

c. Each student and the student's parents shall submit information required by the authority to the applicable institution.

The authority may contract with financial institutions and other qualified loan origination and servicing organizations, which shall assist in prequalifying borrowers for education loans and which shall service and administer each education loan and each institution's respective loan series portfolio. Each education loan's fees shall include a portion, if necessary, to cover the applicable pro rata cost of a servicing organization.

The authority may establish criteria governing the eligibility of institutions to participate in its programs, the making of authority loans and education loans, provisions for default, the establishment of default reserve funds, the purchase of default insurance, the provision of prudent debt service reserves, and the furnishing by participating institutions of higher education of additional guarantees of the education loans, authority loans, or obligations that the authority determines necessary. Criteria shall be established to assure the marketability of the obligations and the adequacy of the security for the obligations.

The authority shall establish limitations upon the principal amounts and the terms of education loans, criteria regarding the qualifications and characteristics of borrowers and procedures for allocating authority loans among institutions eligible for its program in order to effectuate the purposes of this chapter.

5. Issue obligations for its corporate purposes and fund or refund the obligations as provided in this chapter.

6. Fix and revise from time to time and charge and collect rates, fees, and charges for the services furnished or to be furnished by the authority, and contract with persons in respect to the services, including financial institutions, loan originators, servicers, administrators, issuers of letters of credit, and insurers.

7. Establish rules under chapter 17A with respect to authority loans, education loans, and education loan series portfolios.

8. Receive and accept from any source, loans, contributions or grants for or in aid of an authority education loan financing program or any portion of a program and, when required, use the funds, property, or labor only for the purposes for which it was loaned, contributed, or granted.

9. Make authority loans to institutions and require that the proceeds of the authority loans be used for making education loans and paying costs and fees in connection with the education loans.

10. Charge to and apportion among participating institutions its administrative and operating costs and expenses incurred in the exercise of its powers and duties

11 Borrow working capital funds and other funds as necessary for start up and continuing operations, provided that the funds are borrowed in the name of the authority only Borrowings are limited obligations of the character described in section 261A 12 and are payable solely from revenues of the authority or the proceeds of obligations pledged for that purpose

12 Notwithstanding other provisions in this chapter, commingle and pledge as security for a series or issue of obligations, with the consent of all of the institutions which are participating in the series or issue, the education loan series portfolios and some or all future education loan series portfolios of the institutions, and the loan funding deposits of the institutions However, the education loan series portfolios and other security and moneys set aside in a fund or funds pledged for a series or issue of obligations shall be held for the sole benefit of the series or issue separate and apart from education loan series portfolios and other security and moneys pledged for any other series or issue of obligations Obligations may be issued in series under one or more resolutions or trust agreements in the discretion of the authority

13 Examine records and financial reports of participating institutions, and examine records and financial reports of a contractor organization or institution retained by the authority

14 Require that authority loans be used solely to make education loans The authority shall require that institutions require that each borrower under an education loan use the proceeds solely for the cost of attendance and that each borrower certify as to the use of the proceeds

15 Authorize its officers, agents, and employees to take any other action and do all things necessary or desirable in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §7]

261A.8 Powers of authority.

The authority may

1 Sue and be sued in its own name, plead and be impleaded

2 Employ consultants, attorneys, accountants, financial experts, loan processors, bankers, managers, and other employees and agents necessary in the authority's judgment, and fix their compensation

3 When refunding obligations are issued to refund obligations, the proceeds of which were used to make authority loans, reduce the amount it is owed by the institutions which had received authority loans from the proceeds of the refunded obligations The institutions may use this reduced amount to reduce the amount of interest being paid on education loans which the institutions had made pursuant to the authority loans from the proceeds of the refunded obligations

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §8]

261A.9 Expenses of authority — limitation of liability.

Expenses incurred in carrying out this chapter are payable solely from funds provided under this chapter and, except as specifically authorized under this chapter, a liability shall not be incurred by the authority beyond the extent to which moneys have been provided under this chapter

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §9]

261A.10 Acquisition of moneys, endowments, properties and guarantees.

The authority may establish guidelines relating to the deposits of moneys, endowments, or properties by institutions which would provide prudent security for education loan funding programs, authority loans, education loans, or for obligations and may establish guidelines relating to guarantees of or contracts to purchase education loans or obligations by the institutions or by financial institutions or others A default reserve fund may be established for each series or issue of obligations The authority may receive moneys, endowments, properties, and guarantees it deems appropriate and, if necessary, may take title in the name of the authority or in the name of a participating institution or a trustee 261A.11 Conveyance of loan funding deposit after payment of principal and interest.

When the principal of and interest on obligations of the authority issued to finance the cost of an education loan financing program or programs, including any refunding obligations issued to refund and refinance the obligations, have been fully paid and retired or when adequate provision has been made to fully pay and retire the obligations of the authority, and all other conditions of the bond resolution have been satisfied and the lien created by the bond resolution has been released in accordance with its provisions, the authority shall promptly perform functions and execute deeds and conveyances necessary and required to convey remaining moneys, properties, and other assets comprising loan funding deposits to the institutions which furnished the loan funding deposits in proportion to the amounts furnished by the respective institutions

261A.12 Obligations.

1 The authority may from time to time issue obligations for any corporate purpose and the obligations of the authority are declared to be negotiable for all purposes notwithstanding their payment from limited sources and without regard to any other law

2 The authority shall not have outstanding at any one time obligations in an aggregate principal amount exceeding one hundred million dollars excluding obligations issued to refund the obligations of the authority

3 Each issue of obligations is payable solely out of revenues of the authority pertaining to the program relating to the issue, including principal and interest on authority loans and education loans, payments by institutions of higher education, banks, insurance companies, or others pursuant to letters of credit or purchase agreements; investment earnings from funds or accounts maintained pursuant to the bond resolution; insurance proceeds; loan funding deposits; proceeds of sales of education loans; proceeds of refunding obligations; and fees, charges, and other revenues of the authority from the program.

4. Obligations may be issued as serial obligations or as term obligations, or both. Obligations shall be authorized by a bond resolution of the authority and shall bear dates, mature at times not later than the year following the last year in which the final payments in an education loan series portfolio are due, or thirty years, whichever is sooner, from their respective dates of issue, bear interest at rates, be payable at times, be in denominations, be in a form, either coupon or fully registered, carry registration and conversion privileges, be payable in lawful money of the United States of America, and be subject to terms of redemption as the bond resolution provides. Obligations shall be executed by the manual or facsimile signatures of officers of the authority designated by the authority. Obligations shall be sold in a manner and at prices as the authority determines.

5. A bond resolution may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the obligations to be authorized, as to all of the following:

a. Pledging or assigning the revenues derived from the authority loans and education loans with respect to which the obligations are to be issued.

b. The fees and other amounts to be charged, and the sums to be raised in each year, and the use, investment, and disposition of the sums.

c. The setting aside of loan funding deposits, debt service reserves, capitalized interest accounts, cost of insurance accounts, and sinking funds, and their regulation, investment, and disposition.

d. Limitations on the use of the education loans.

e. Limitations on the purpose to which or the investments in which the proceeds of sale of an issue of obligations then or thereafter to be issued may be applied.

f. Limitations on the issuance of additional obligations, the terms upon which additional obligations may be issued and secured, the terms upon which additional obligations may rank on a parity with, or be subordinate or superior to, other obligations.

g. The refunding of outstanding obligations.

h. The procedure, if any, by which the terms of a contract with holders of obligations may be amended or abrogated, the amount of obligations to which the holders must consent to the amendment or abrogation, and the manner in which the consent may be given.

i. Defining the acts or omissions to act which constitute a default in the duties of the authority to holders of obligations and providing the rights or remedies of holders in the event of a default.

j. Providing for guarantees, pledges, endowments, letters of credit, property, or other security for the benefit of the holders of the obligations.

k. Any other matters relating to the obligations which the authority deems desirable.

6. Neither the members of the authority nor a person executing the obligations is liable personally on the obligations or subject to personal liability or accountability by reason of their issuance.

7. The authority may purchase its obligations out of funds available. The authority may hold, pledge, cancel, or resell obligations subject to and in accordance with agreements with holders of obligations.

8. The authority may refund any of its obligations. Refunding obligations shall be issued in the same manner as other obligations of the authority.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §12]

261A.13 Trust agreement to secure obligations.

In the discretion of the authority, obligations may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the authority and a corporate trustee or trustees, which may be a trust company or bank located in the state of Iowa that has the powers of a trust company. The bond resolution shall pledge the revenues to be received by the authority, may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the holders of obligations as reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including provisions that have been authorized to be included in any bond resolution of the authority, and may restrict the individual right of action by holders of obligations. A trust agreement may contain other provisions the authority deems reasonable and proper for the security of the holders of obligations. Expenses incurred in carrying out the trust agreement may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of an education loan program.

261A.14 Payment of obligations — nonliability of state.

Obligations are obligations of the authority only, and not of the state of Iowa. Each obligation shall state upon its face that it represents and constitutes a debt of the authority, but not of the state of Iowa within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory limitation, and that it does not constitute a pledge of the full faith and credit of the authority or of the state of Iowa. The obligations shall not grant to the owners or holders of the obligations the right to have the authority or the state levy taxes or appropriate funds for the payment of the principal or interest on the obligations. The obligations are payable, and shall state that they are payable, solely from the revenues pledged for their payment in accordance with the bond resolution.

This chapter does not authorize the authority or any department, board, commission, or other agency to create an obligation of the state within the meaning of the constitution or laws of Iowa.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §14]

261A.15 Pledge of revenues.

The authority shall fix, revise, charge, and collect fees and may contract with a person to do so. Each agreement entered into by the authority with an institution shall provide that the fees and other amounts payable by the institution of higher education with respect to a program of the authority are sufficient at all times to meet all of the following:

1. To pay its share of the administrative costs and expenses of the program.
2. To pay the principal of, the premium, if any, and the interest on outstanding obligations of the authority, issued in respect of the program to the extent that other revenues of the authority pledged for the payment of the obligations are insufficient to pay the obligations as they become due and payable.
3. To create and maintain reserves which may but need not be required or provided for in the bond resolution relating to the obligations of the authority.
4. To establish and maintain whatever education loan servicing, control, or audit procedures are deemed by the authority to be necessary to the prudent operation of the authority.

The authority shall pledge the revenues from each program as security for the issue of obligations relating to the program. A pledge is valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made, the revenues pledged by the authority are immediately subject to the lien of the pledge without physical delivery of the pledge or further act, and the lien of the pledge is valid and binding against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the authority or a participating institution, irrespective of whether the parties have notice of the lien. The bond resolution and a financing statement, continuation statement, or other instrument by which the authority's interest in revenues is assigned need not be filed or recorded in public records in order to perfect the lien against third parties except that a copy of it shall be filed in the records of the authority and with the treasurer of state.

261A.16 Funds for sales of obligations as trust funds — application of funds.

Moneys received by or on behalf of the authority under this chapter, whether as proceeds from the sale of obligations or as revenues, are trust funds to be held and applied as provided in this chapter. An officer with whom, or a bank or trust company with which the moneys are deposited shall act as trustee of the moneys and shall hold and apply the moneys for the purposes of this chapter, subject to rules that this chapter and the bond resolution authorizing the obligations of an issue may provide.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §16]

261A.17 Rights of holders of obligations.

A holder of obligations or a trustee under a trust agreement entered into pursuant to this chapter, except to the extent that their rights are restricted by a bond resolution, may, by any suitable form of legal proceedings, protect and enforce rights under the laws of this state or granted by the bond resolution, may enjoin unlawful activities, and if there is a default on the payment of the principal of, premiums, if any, and interest on an obligation or in the performance of a covenant or agreement on the part of the authority in the bond resolution, may apply to the district court to appoint a receiver to administer and operate the education loan program, the revenues of which are pledged to the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the obligations, with full power to pay, and to provide for payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the obligations, and with powers, subject to the direction of the court, as permitted by law and accorded to receivers, excluding the power to pledge additional revenues of the authority to the payment of the principal, premium, and interest.

261A.18 Refunding bonds — purpose — proceeds — investment of proceeds.

1. The authority may issue its obligations for the purpose of refunding obligations then outstanding, including the payment of a redemption premium on the obligations and interest accrued or to accrue to the earliest or a subsequent date of redemption, purchase, or maturity of the obligations.

2. The proceeds of obligations issued for the purpose of refunding outstanding obligations may, in the discretion of the authority, be applied to the purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption of the outstanding obligations either on their earliest or a subsequent redemption date or upon the purchase or at the maturity of the obligations and may, pending an application, be placed in escrow to be applied to the purchase or retirement at maturity or redemption on a date determined by the authority.

3. Any escrowed proceeds, pending their use, may be invested and reinvested in direct obligations of the United States of America, maturing at times as appropriate to assure the prompt payment of the principal of and interest and redemption premium, if any, on the outstanding obligations to be refunded. The interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on an investment may also be applied to the payment of the outstanding obligations to be refunded. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, a balance of the proceeds and interest, income, and profits, if any, earned or realized on the investments shall be returned to the institution of higher education for use by it in any lawful manner.

4. Refunding obligations are subject to this chapter in the same manner and to the same extent as other obligations issued pursuant to this chapter.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §18]

261A.19 Investment of funds of authority.

Except as otherwise provided in section 261A.18, subsection 3, the authority may invest funds in direct obligations of the United States of America; obligations for which the timely payment of principal and interest is fully guaranteed by the United States of America, obligations of the federal intermediate credit banks, federal banks for cooperatives, federal land banks, federal home loan banks, federal national mortgage association, government national mortgage association and the student loan marketing association, certificates of deposit or time deposits constituting direct obligations of a bank as defined by chapter 524, and in withdrawable capital accounts or deposits of state or federal chartered savings and loan associations which are insured by the federal savings and loan insurance corporation. However, investments may be made only in certificates of deposit or time deposits in banks which are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation if then in existence. Securities authorized in this section may be purchased at the offering or market price at the time of the purchase. The securities purchased shall mature or be redeemable on dates prior to the time when, in the judgment of the authority, the funds invested will be required for expenditure. The judgment of the authority as to the time when funds will be required for expenditure or be redeemable is final.

261A.20 Obligations as legal investments.

Banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies, and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business, insurance companies and insurance associations, and executors, administrators, guardians, trustees, and other fiduciaries may legally invest sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in obligations of the authority.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §20]

261A.21 Annual report.

The authority shall keep an accurate account of its activities and shall annually provide a report of its activities to the governor and the members of the general assembly. The report is a public record and open for inspection at the offices of the authority during normal business hours. The report shall include all of the following:

1 Summaries of applications by institutions of higher education for education loan financing assistance presented to the authority during the fiscal year.

2 Summaries of education loan programs which have received any form of financial assistance from the authority during the year.

3 The nature and amount of all assistance.

4 A report concerning the financial condition of the various education loan series portfolios.

5 Projected activities of the authority for the next fiscal year, including projections of the total amount of financial assistance anticipated and the amount of obligations that will be necessary to provide the projected level of assistance during the next fiscal year.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §21]

261A.22 Waiver of competitive bidding.

Competitive bidding requirements of the Code or other similar requirements that may be lawfully waived are waived by this section and any requirement of competitive bidding or other restriction imposed on the procedure for award of contracts is not applicable to action taken under this chapter.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §22]

261A.23 Institution power — interest rates.

Institutions may borrow money from the authority, make education loans and take all other actions and do things necessary or convenient to consummate the transactions contemplated under this chapter. It is lawful for the authority to establish, charge, contract for, and receive any amount or rate of interest or compensation with respect to authority loans and, subject to rules adopted by the authority, for participating institutions to charge, contract for, and receive any amount or rate of interest or compensation with respect to education loans.

261A.24 Chapter as alternative method — powers not subject to supervision or regulation.

Sections 261A 1 to 261A 23 provide a complete, additional, and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized by the chapter and the limitations imposed by this chapter do not affect powers or rights conferred by other laws, and the issuance of obligations and refunding obligations under this chapter need not comply with the requirements of any other law applicable to the issuance of obligations. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, the powers granted to the authority under this chapter are not subject to the supervision or regulation and do not require the approval or consent of a city or political subdivision or department, division, commission, board, body, bureau, official, or agency of a political subdivision or of the state.

261A.25 Notice.

The authority shall publish a notice of its intention to issue obligations in a newspaper published in and with general circulation in the state. The notice shall include a statement of the maximum amount of obligations proposed to be issued, and in general terms, what receipts will be pledged to pay bond service charges on the obligations. An action which questions the legality or validity of the obligations or the power of the authority to issue the obligations or the effectiveness or validity of any proceedings adopted for the authorization or issuance of the obligations shall not be brought after sixty days from the date of publication of the notice.

261A.26 Liberal construction of chapter.

This chapter, being necessary for the welfare of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect its purpose.

[82 Acts, ch 1031, §26]

261A.27 Exercise of powers as essential public function — exemption from taxation.

The exercise of the powers granted by this chapter will be in all respects for the benefit of the people of this state, for the increase of their commerce, welfare, and prosperity, and for the improvement of their health and living conditions, and as the operation and maintenance of a program by the authority or its agent will constitute the performance of an essential public function. Income of the authority is exempt from all taxation in the state. Property of the authority, acquired or held for purposes of this chapter, is exempt from all taxation and special assessments in the state if the property was exempt for the fiscal year in which the property was first acquired or held and such property shall continue to be exempt for subsequent fiscal years. Property of the authority, acquired or held for purposes of this chapter, is subject to taxation and special assessments in the state if the property was taxable for the fiscal year in which the property was first acquired or held and such property shall continue to be taxable for subsequent fiscal years.

HIGHER EDUCATION FACILITIES PROGRAM

261A.32 Legislative findings.

The general assembly finds

1 For the benefit of the people of the state of Iowa, the increase of their commerce, welfare, and prosperity, and the improvement of their health and living conditions, it is essential that this and future generations of youth be given the greatest opportunity to learn and to fully develop their intellectual and mental capacities and skills.

2 To achieve these ends it is of the utmost importance that educational institutions within the state be provided with appropriate additional means of assisting the youth in achieving the required levels of learning and development of their intellectual and mental capacities and skills through new or enhanced physical facilities and equipment at these institutions.

3 The financing and refinancing of educational facilities, through means as described in this division, other than the appropriation of public funds to institutions, is a valid public purpose.

85 Acts, ch 210, §2

261A.33 Purpose of division.

It is the purpose of this division to provide a measure of assistance and an alternative method of enabling institutions in the state to finance the acquisition, construction, and renovation of needed educational facilities, structures and equipment and to refund, refinance, or reimburse outstanding indebtedness incurred by them or advances made by them, including advances from an endowment or any other similar fund, for the construction, acquisition, or renovation of needed educational facilities and structures, whether or not constructed, acquired, or renovated prior to July 1, 1985

85 Acts, ch 210, §3

261A.34 Definitions.

As used in this division, unless the context otherwise requires

1 “Project” means any property located within the state, constructed or acquired before or after July 1, 1985 that may be used or will be useful in connection with the instruction, feeding, or recreation of students, the conducting of research, administration, or other work of an institution, or any combination of the foregoing. “Project” includes, but is not limited to, any academic facility, administrative facility, assembly hall, athletic facility, instructional facility, laboratory, library, maintenance facility, student health facility, recreational facility, research facility, student union, or other facility suitable for the use of an institution. “Project” also means the refunding or refinancing of outstanding obligations, mortgages, or advances, including advances from an endowment or similar fund, originally issued, made, or given by the institution to finance the cost of a project.

2 “Property” means the real estate upon which a project is or will be located, including equipment, machinery, and other similar items necessary or convenient for the operation of the project in the manner for which its use is intended, but not including such items as fuel, supplies, or other items that are customarily deemed to result in a current operation charge. Property does not include property used or to be used primarily for sectarian instruction or study, or as a place for devotional activities or religious worship, or any property which is used or to be used primarily in connection with any part of the program of a school or department of divinity for any religious denomination or the training of ministers, priests, rabbis, or other professional persons in the field of religion.

3 “Cost” as applied to a project or any portion of a project financed under this division means all or a part of the cost of construction and acquisition of land, buildings, or structures, including the cost of machinery and equipment, finance charges, interest prior to, during, and after completion of the construction for a reasonable period as determined by the authority, reserves for principal and interest, extensions, enlargements, additions, replacements, renovations, and improvements, improvements, replacements, and renovations for energy conservation and other purposes, engineering, financial, and legal services, plans, specifications, studies, surveys, estimates of cost of revenue, administrative expenses, expenses necessary or incidental to determining the feasibility or practicability of constructing the project, and such other expenses as the authority determines may be necessary or incidental to the construction and acquisition of the project, the financing of the construction and acquisition, and the placing of the project in operation.

4 “Obligation” means an obligation issued by the authority under this division
85 Acts, ch 210, §4

261A.35 General power of authority.

The authority is authorized to assist institutions in the constructing, financing, and refinancing of projects, and the authority may take action authorized by this division
85 Acts, ch 210, §5

261A.36 Issuance of obligations.

The authority may issue obligations of the authority for any of its corporate purposes as provided for in this division, and fund or refund the obligations pursuant to this division
85 Acts, ch 210, §6

261A.37 Loans authorized.

The authority may make loans to an institution for the cost of a project in accordance with an agreement between the authority and the institution, except that a loan shall not exceed the total cost of the project, as determined by the institution and approved by the authority
85 Acts, ch 210, §7

261A.38 Issuance of obligations – conditions.

The authority may issue obligations and make loans to an institution and refund, refinance or reimburse outstanding obligations, indebtedness, mortgages, or advances, including advances from an endowment or any similar fund, issued, made, or given by the institution, whether before or after July 1, 1985, for the cost of a project, when the authority finds that the financing prescribed in this section is in the public interest, and either alleviates a financial hardship upon the institution, results in a lesser cost of education, or enables the institution to offer greater security for a loan or loans to finance a new project or projects or to effect savings in interest costs or more favorable amortization terms
85 Acts, ch 210, §8

261A.39 General powers – apportionment of costs.

The authority may do all things necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this division. The authority may charge to and equitably apportion among participating institutions its administrative costs and expenses incurred in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred on the authority by this division
85 Acts, ch 210, §9

261A.40 Joint and combination projects.

The authority may undertake a project for two or more institutions jointly or for any combination of institutions, and may combine for financing purposes, with the consent of all of the institutions which are involved, the project and some or all future projects of any institution or institutions, and this division applies to and is for the benefit of the authority and the joint participants. However, the money set aside in a fund or funds pledged for any series or issue of obligations shall be held for the sole benefit of the series or issue separate and apart from money pledged for another series or issue of obligations of the authority. To facilitate the combining of projects, obligations may be issued in series under one or more resolutions or trust agreements and may be fully open ended, thus providing for the unlimited issuance of additional series, or partially open ended, limited as to additional series. The authority may permit an institution to substitute one or more projects of equal value, as determined by an independent appraiser satisfactory to the authority, for a project financed under this division on terms and subject to conditions the authority prescribes 261A.41 Expenses.

Expenses incurred in carrying out this division are payable solely from funds provided under this division and a liability or obligation shall not be incurred by the authority beyond the extent to which money is provided under this division
85 Acts, ch 210, §11

261A.42 Obligations.

The authority may provide by resolution for the issuance of obligations for the purpose of paying, refinancing, or reimbursing all or part of the cost of a project. The authority shall not have outstanding at any one time obligations issued pursuant to this division in an aggregate principal amount exceeding one hundred fifty million dollars. Except to the extent payable from payments to be made on federally guaranteed securities as provided in section 261A.45, the principal of and the interest on the obligations shall be payable solely out of the revenue of the authority derived from the project to which they relate and from other facilities pledged or made available for this purpose by the institution for whose benefit the obligations were issued. The obligations of each issue shall be dated, shall bear interest at rate or rates, without regard to any limit contained in any other statute or law of the state, and shall mature at times not exceeding forty years from the date of issuance, all as determined by the authority, and may be made redeemable before maturity at the prices and under terms fixed by the authority in the authorizing resolution.

Except as otherwise provided by this division, the obligations are to be paid solely out of the revenue of the project to which they relate and, in certain instances, out of the revenue of certain other facilities, and subject to section 261A.45 with respect to a pledge of government securities, the obligations may be unsecured or secured in the manner and to the extent determined by the authority. The authority shall determine the form of the obligations, including interest coupons, if any, to be attached, and shall fix the denominations of the obligations and the places of payment of principal and interest which may be at any bank or trust company within or without the state. The obligations and coupons attached, if any, shall be executed by the manual or facsimile signatures of officers of the authority designated by the authority. If an official of the authority whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature appears on any obligations or coupons ceases to be an official before the delivery of the obligations, the signature or facsimile, nevertheless, is valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if the individual had remained an official of the authority until delivery. Obligations issued under this division have all the qualities and incidents of negotiable instruments, notwithstanding this payment from limited sources and without regard to any other law. The obligations may be issued in coupon or in registered form, or both, and one form may be exchangeable for the other in the manner as the authority may determine. Provision may be made for the registration of any coupon obligations as to principal alone and also as to both principal and interest, and for the reconversion into coupon obligations of any obligations registered as to both principal and interest. The obligations may be sold in the manner, either at public or private sale, as the authority determines.

The proceeds of the obligations of each issue shall be used solely for the payment of the cost of the project for which the obligations have been issued, and shall be disbursed in the manner and under the restrictions, if any, as the authority provides in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the obligations or in the trust agreement provided for in section 261A.44 securing the obligations. If the proceeds of the obligations of an issue, by error of estimates or otherwise, are less than the costs, additional obligations may in like manner be issued to provide the amount of the deficit, and, unless otherwise provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the obligations or in the trust agreement securing them, shall be deemed to be of the same issue and shall be entitled to payment from the same fund without preference or priority of the obligations first issued. If the proceeds of the obligations of an issue shall exceed the cost of the project for which the same shall have been issued, the surplus shall be deposited to the credit of the sinking fund for the obligations. Prior to the preparation of definitive obligations, the authority may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary obligations, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive obligations when the obligations have been executed and are available for delivery.

The authority may also provide for the replacement of obligations which become mutilated or are destroyed or lost. Obligations may be issued under this division without obtaining the consent of an officer, department, division, commission, board, bureau, or agency of the state, and without other proceedings or conditions other than those which are specifically required by this division. The authority may purchase its bonds out of funds available for that purpose. The authority may hold, pledge, cancel, or resell the obligations, subject to and in accordance with any agreement with the obligation holders. Members of the authority and any person executing the obligations are not liable personally on the obligations or subject to personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance of the obligations.

85 Acts, ch 210, §12

261A.43 Resolution provisions.

The resolution authorizing obligations or an issue of obligations may contain provisions, which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the obligations to be authorized, as to:

1. Pledging or assigning the revenue of the project with respect to which the obligations are to be issued or the revenue of other property or facilities.
2. Setting aside reserves or sinking funds, and the regulation, investment, and disposition of them.
3. Limitations on the use of the project.
4. Limitations on the purpose to which or the investments in which the proceeds of sale of an issue of obligations then or thereafter to be issued may be applied and pledging the proceeds to secure the payment of the obligations or an issue of the obligations.
5. Limitations on the issuance of additional obligations, the terms upon which additional obligations may be issued and secured, and the refunding of outstanding obligations.
6. The procedure, if any, by which the terms of any contract with obligation holders may be amended or abrogated, the amount of obligations the holders of which must consent to the amendment or abrogation, and the manner in which the consent may be given.
7. Limitations on the amount of money derived from the project to be expended for operating, administrative, or other expenses of the authority.
8. Defining the acts or omissions to act which constitute a default in the duties of the authority to holders of its obligations and providing the rights and remedies of the holders in the event of a default.
9. Mortgaging a project and the project site or other property for the purpose of securing the obligation holders.
10. Other matters relating to the obligations which the authority deems desirable.

85 Acts, ch 210, §13

261A.44 Obligations secured by trust agreement.

Obligations issued under this division may be secured by a trust agreement by and between the authority and an incorporated trustee, which may be a trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state. The trust agreement or the resolution providing for the issuance of the obligations may pledge or assign the revenue to be received or proceeds of any contract pledged and may convey or mortgage the project or any portion of the project. A pledge or assignment made by the authority pursuant to this section is valid and binding from the time that the pledge or assignment is made, and the revenue pledged and thereafter received by the authority is immediately subject to the lien of the pledge or assignment without physical delivery or any further act. The lien of the pledge or assignment is valid and binding against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the authority irrespective of whether the parties have notice of the lien. The resolution or trust agreement by which a pledge is created or an assignment made shall be filed or recorded in the records of the authority, with the secretary of state, and in each county in which the project is located. The trust agreement or resolution providing for the issuance of the obligations may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the obligation holders as are reasonable and proper, not in violation of law, or provided for in this division. A bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this state which acts as depository of proceeds of the obligations, revenue, or other money shall furnish the indemnifying obligations or pledge the securities as required by the authority. The trust agreement may set forth the rights and remedies of the obligation holders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by obligation holders. The trust agreement or resolution may contain other provisions the authority deems reasonable and proper for the security of the obligation holders. Expense incurred in carrying out the trust agreement or resolution may be treated as a part of the cost of the operation of a project.

261A.45 Obligations issued to acquire federally guaranteed securities.

The authority may finance the cost of a project, refund outstanding indebtedness, or reimburse advances from an endowment or similar fund of an institution as authorized by this division, by issuing its obligations pursuant to a plan of financing involving the acquisition of a federally guaranteed security or the acquisition or entering into of commitments to acquire a federally guaranteed security. For the purposes of this section, "federally guaranteed security" means any direct obligation of, or obligation the principal of and interest on which are fully guaranteed or insured by the United States, or an obligation issued by, or the principal of and interest on which are fully guaranteed or insured by any agency or instrumentality of the United States, including without limitation an obligation that is issued pursuant to the National Housing Act, or any successor provision of law.

The authority may acquire or enter into commitments to acquire a federally guaranteed security and pledge or otherwise use the federally guaranteed security in the manner the authority deems in its best interest to secure or otherwise provide a source of repayment of its obligations issued to finance or refinance a project, or may enter into an appropriate agreement with an institution whereby the authority may make a loan to the institution for the purpose of acquiring or entering into commitments to acquire a federally guaranteed security. An agreement entered into pursuant to this section may contain provisions deemed necessary or desirable by the authority for the security or protection of the authority or the holders of the obligations, except that the authority, prior to making an acquisition, commitment, or loan, shall determine and enter into an agreement with the institution or another appropriate institution to require that the proceeds derived from the acquisition of a federally guaranteed security will be used, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of financing or refinancing a project.

The obligations issued pursuant to this section shall not exceed in principal amount the cost of financing or refinancing the project as determined by the participating institution and approved by the authority, except that the costs may include, without limitation, all costs and expenses necessary or incidental to the acquisition of or commitment to acquire a federally guaranteed security and to the issuance and obtaining of insurance or guarantee of an obligation issued or incurred in connection with a federally guaranteed security. In other respects the bonds are subject to this division, and the trust agreement creating the bonds may contain provisions set forth in this division as the authority deems appropriate.

If a project is financed or refinanced pursuant to this section, the title to the project shall remain in the participating institution owning the project, subject to the lien of a mortgage or security interest securing, directly or indirectly, the federally guaranteed securities being purchased or to be purchased.

261A.46 Obligations not liability of state or political subdivision.

Obligations issued pursuant to this division are not debts of the state or of any political subdivision of the state or a pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of any political subdivision, but the obligations are limited obligations of the authority payable solely from the funds or securities, pledged for their payment as authorized in this division, unless the obligations are refunded by refunding obligations issued under this division, which refunding obligations shall be payable solely from funds or securities pledged for their payment as authorized in this division. All revenue obligations shall contain on their face a statement to the effect that the obligations, as to both principal and interest, are not obligations of the state, or of any political subdivision of the state, but are limited obligations of the authority payable solely from revenue or securities pledged for their payment. Expenses incurred in carrying out this division are payable solely from funds provided under this division, and this division does not authorize the authority to incur indebtedness or liability on behalf of or payable by the state or any political subdivision of the state.

85 Acts, ch 210, §16

261A.47 Money received by authority.

All money received by the authority, whether as proceeds from the sale of obligations, from revenue, or otherwise, shall be deemed to be trust funds to be held and applied solely as provided in this division, but prior to the time when needed for use may be invested to the extent and in the manner provided by the authority. The funds shall be deposited, held, and secured as determined by the authority, except to the extent provided otherwise in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the related obligations or in the trust agreement securing the obligations. The resolution authorizing the issuance of the obligations or the trust agreement securing the obligations shall provide that an officer, bank or trust company to which the money is entrusted shall act as trustee of the money and shall hold and apply the money for the purposes of this division, subject to the provisions of this division and of the authorizing resolution or trust agreement.

261A.48 Powers of holders and trustees.

A holder of obligations or of the coupons pertaining to obligations and the trustee under a trust agreement, except to the extent the rights given in this division are restricted by the authorizing resolution or trust agreement, may, by suit, mandamus, or other proceedings, protect and enforce any and all rights under the laws of this state, or under the trust agreement or resolution authorizing the issuance of the obligations, and may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by this division or by the trust agreement or resolution to be performed by the authority or by an officer, employee, or agent of the authority, including the fixing, charging, and collecting of fees and charges authorized in this division and required by the resolution or trust agreement to be fixed and collected.

The rights of holders include the right to compel the performance of all duties of the authority required by this division or the resolution or trust agreement, to enjoin unlawful activities, and in the event of default with respect to the payment of any principal of, premium, if any, and interest on an obligation or in the performance of a covenant or agreement on the part of the authority in the resolution, to apply to a court having jurisdiction of the cause to appoint a receiver to administer and operate the project, the revenue of which is pledged to the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the obligations, the receiver to have full power to pay and to provide for payment of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the obligations, and to have the powers, subject to the direction of the court, as are permitted by law and are accorded receivers in general equity cases, including the power to foreclose the mortgage on the project in the same manner as the foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate of private corporations, but excluding any power to pledge additional revenue of the authority to the payment of the principal, premium, and interest.

261A.49 Bondholders – pledge – agreement of the state.

The state pledges to and agrees with the holders of any obligations issued under this division, and with those parties who enter into contracts with the authority pursuant to this division, that the state will not limit or alter the rights vested in the authority until the obligations, together with the interest on the obligations, are fully met and discharged and the contracts are fully performed on the part of the authority, except that this section does not preclude the limitation or alteration if and when adequate provision is made by law for the protection of the rights of the holders of the obligations of the authority or those entering into contracts with the authority.

85 Acts, ch 210, §19

261A.50 Provisions controlling.

The powers granted the authority under this division are in addition to the powers of the authority contained in other provisions of this chapter. All other provisions of this chapter apply to obligations issued pursuant to and powers granted the authority under this division, except to the extent they are inconsistent with this division.

261B.1 Policy.

The general assembly finds that the availability of courses and programs leading to educational degrees and the existence of institutions of postsecondary education that offer courses and programs leading to educational degrees are in the best interest of the state. The general assembly has found that the state can provide protection for persons choosing institutions and programs by ensuring that accurate and complete information about institutions and programs is available to these persons and to the public.

84 Acts, ch 1098, §1

261B.2 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Secretary" means the secretary of state.
2. "School" means an agency of the state or political subdivision of the state, individual, partnership, company, firm, society, trust, association, corporation, or any combination which meets any of the following criteria:
 - a. Is, owns, or operates a nonprofit postsecondary educational institution.
 - b. Provides a postsecondary instructional program or course leading to a degree.
 - c. Uses in its name the term "college", "academy", "institute", or "university" or a similar term to imply that the person is primarily engaged in the education of students at the postsecondary level, and which makes a charge for its services.
3. "Degree" means a title or symbol which signifies or purports to signify completion of the requirements of an academic, educational, or professional program of study beyond the secondary school level.
4. "Student" means a person who enrolls in or seeks to enroll in a course of instruction offered or conducted by a school.

84 Acts, ch 1098, §2

261B.3 Registration.

A school that maintains or conducts one or more courses of instruction, including courses of instruction by correspondence, in this state shall register annually with the secretary. Registration shall be made on application forms approved and supplied by the secretary and at the time and in the manner prescribed by the secretary. Upon receipt of a complete and accurate registration application, the secretary shall issue a certificate of registration and send it to the school.

The secretary may request additional information as necessary to enable the secretary to determine the accuracy and completeness of the information contained in the registration application. If the secretary believes that false, misleading, or incomplete information has been submitted in connection with an application for registration, the secretary may deny registration. The secretary shall conduct a hearing on the denial if a hearing is requested by a school. The secretary may withhold a certificate of registration pending the outcome of the hearing. Upon a finding after the hearing that information contained in the registration application is false, misleading, or incomplete, the secretary shall deny a certificate of registration to the school. The decision of the secretary is subject to judicial review in accordance with section 17A.19.

The secretary shall adopt rules under chapter 17A for the implementation of this chapter.

84 Acts, ch 1098, §3

261B.4 Registration information.

As a basis for registration, schools shall provide the secretary with the following information:

1. The name or title of the school.
2. The principal location of the school and the location of the place or places in this state where instruction is likely to be given.
3. A schedule of tuition charges, fees, and other costs payable to the school by a student.
4. The refund policy of the school for the return of refundable portions of tuition, fees, or other charges.
5. The degrees granted by the school.
6. The names and addresses of the principal owners of the school or the officers and members of the legal governing body of the school.
7. The name and address of the chief executive officer of the school.
8. A copy of or a description of the means by which the school intends to comply with section 261B.9.
9. Whether the school is accredited by any accrediting agency recognized by the United States department of education or a successor agency and, if so, the name of the accreditation body and the status under which accreditation is held.
10. The name, address, and telephone number of a contact person in this state.
11. The names or titles and a description of the courses to be offered in this state.
12. A description of procedures for the preservation of student records.

84 Acts, ch 1098, §4

261B.5 Changes.

If any information provided to the secretary under section 261B.3 or 261B.4 changes, the school shall inform the secretary within ninety days of the effective date of the change on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary.

84 Acts, ch 1098, §5

261B.6 List of schools.

The secretary shall maintain a list of registered schools and the list and the information submitted under sections 261B 3 and 261B 4 are public records under chapter 21

84 Acts, ch 1098, §6

261B.7 Unauthorized representation.

Neither a school nor its officials or employees shall advertise or represent that the school is approved or accredited by the secretary or the state of Iowa nor shall it use the registration as a reference in promotional materials

84 Acts, ch 1098, §7

261B.8 Registration fees.

The secretary shall collect an initial registration fee of fifty dollars and an annual renewal of registration fee of twenty five dollars from each registered school

84 Acts, ch 1098, §8

261B.9 Disclosure to students.

Prior to the commencement of a course of instruction and prior to the receipt of a tuition charge or fee for a course of instruction, a school shall provide written disclosure to students of the following information accompanied by a statement that the information is being provided in compliance with this section

1 The name or title of the course

2 A brief description of the subject matter of the course

3 The tuition charge or other fees charged for the course If a student is enrolled in more than one course at the school, the tuition charge or fee for all courses may be stated in one sum

4 The refund policy of the school for the return of the refundable portion of tuition, fees, or other charges If refunds are not to be paid, the information shall state that fact

5 Whether the credential or certificate issued, awarded, or credited to a student upon completion of the course or the fact of completion of the course is applicable toward a degree granted by the school and, if so, under what circumstances the application will be made

6 Whether the school is accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States department of education or its successor agency

84 Acts, ch 1098, §9

261B.10 Advisory committee.

The state advisory committee for postsecondary school registration is created The committee shall consist of seven members appointed by the coordinating council for post high school education Members shall serve for staggered four year terms and shall include representatives from public and pri vate two year and four year colleges, universities, and specialized and vocational schools

The committee shall meet at least annually to advise the secretary and other agencies in matters relating to the administration of this chapter and to serve as a resource to the secretary as needed

84 Acts, ch 1098, §10

261B.11 Exceptions.

This chapter does not apply to the following types of schools and courses of instruction

1 Schools and educational programs conducted by firms, corporations, or persons for the training of their own employees

2 Apprentice or other training programs provided by labor unions to members or applicants for membership

3 Courses of instruction of an avocational or recreational nature that do not lead to an occupational objective

4 Seminars, refresher courses, and programs of instruction sponsored by professional, business, or farming organizations or associations for the members and employees of members of these organizations or associations

5 Courses of instruction conducted by a public school district or a combination of public school districts

6 Colleges and universities authorized by the laws of this state to grant degrees

7 Schools or courses of instruction or courses of training that are offered by a vendor to the purchaser or prospective purchaser of the vendor's product when the objective of the school or course is to enable the purchaser or the purchaser's employees to gain skills and knowledge to enable the purchaser to use the product

8 Schools and educational programs conducted by religious organizations solely for the religious instruction of members of that religious organization

84 Acts, ch 1098, §11

261B.12 Enforcement.

When the secretary or the secretary's designee believes a school is in violation of this chapter, the secretary shall order the school to show cause why the secretary should not issue a cease and desist order to the school

After the school's response to the show cause order has been reviewed by the secretary, the secretary may issue a cease and desist order to the school if the secretary believes the school continues to be in violation of this chapter If the school does not cease and desist, the secretary may seek judicial enforcement of the cease and desist order in any district court 261C.1 Title.

This chapter may be cited as the “Postsecondary Enrollment Options Act”

87 Acts, ch 224, §35

261C.2 Policy.

It is the policy of this state to promote rigorous academic pursuits and to provide a wider variety of options to high school pupils by enabling eleventh and twelfth grade pupils to enroll part time in nonsectarian courses in eligible postsecondary institutions of higher learning in this state

87 Acts, ch 224, §36

261C.3 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires

1 “Eligible postsecondary institution” means an institution of higher learning under the control of the state board of regents, an area school established under chapter 280A, or an accredited private institution as defined in section 261 9, subsection 5

2 “Eligible pupil” means a pupil classified by the board of directors of a school district as an eleventh or twelfth grade pupil during the period the pupil is participating in the enrollment option provided under this chapter

261C.4 Authorization.

An eligible pupil may make application to an eligible institution to allow the eligible pupil to enroll for academic credit in a nonsectarian course offered at that eligible institution A comparable course must not be offered by the school district in which the pupil is enrolled If an eligible institution accepts an eligible pupil for enrollment under this section, the institution shall send written notice to the pupil, the pupil’s school district, and the department of education The notice shall list the course, the clock hours the pupil will be attending the course, and the number of hours of postsecondary academic credit that the eligible pupil will receive from the eligible institution upon successful completion of the course

87 Acts, ch 224, §38

261C.5 High school credits.

A school district may grant high school academic credit to an eligible pupil enrolled in a course under this chapter if the eligible pupil successfully completes the course as determined by the eligible institution The board of directors of the school district shall determine the number of high school credits that shall be granted to an eligible pupil who successfully completes a course

The high school credits granted to an eligible pupil under this section shall count toward the graduation requirements and subject area requirements of the school district of residence of the eligible pupil Evidence of successful completion of each course and high school credits and postsecondary academic credits received shall be included in the pupil’s high school transcript

261C.6 School district payments.

Not later than June 30 of each year, a school district shall pay a tuition reimbursement amount to an eligible postsecondary institution that has enrolled its resident eligible pupils under this chapter The amount of tuition reimbursement for each separate course shall equal the lesser of

1 The actual and customary costs of tuition, textbooks, materials, and fees directly related to the course taken by the eligible student

2 Two hundred dollars

A pupil is not eligible to enroll on a full time basis in an eligible postsecondary institution and receive payment for all courses in which a student is enrolled If an eligible postsecondary institution is an area school established under chapter 280A, the contact hours of a pupil for which a tuition reimbursement amount is received are not contact hours eligible for general aid under chapter 286A

87 Acts, ch 224, §40

261C.7 Transportation.

The parent or guardian of an eligible pupil who has enrolled in and is attending an eligible postsecondary institution under this chapter shall furnish transportation to and from the eligible postsecondary institution for the pupil

87 Acts, ch 224, §41

261C.8 Prohibition on charges.

An eligible postsecondary institution that enrolls an eligible pupil under this chapter shall not charge that pupil for tuition, textbooks, materials, or fees directly related to the course in which the pupil is enrolled except that the pupil may be required to purchase equipment that becomes the property of the pupil

87 Acts, ch 224, §42

261C.9 Pupil enrollment.

Payments shall not be made under section 261C 6 if the eligible pupil is enrolled on a full time basis in the pupil's school district of residence as well as enrolling in a course or program in an eligible postsecondary institution 262.1 Membership.

The state board of regents consists of nine members, eight of whom shall be selected from the state at large solely with regard to their qualifications and fitness to discharge the duties of the office. The ninth member shall be a student enrolled on a full time basis in good standing at either the graduate or undergraduate level at one of the institutions listed in section 262 7, subsection 1, 2, or 3, at the time of the member's appointment. Not more than five members shall be of the same political party.

[S13, §2682-c, d, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3912; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 1]

88 Acts, ch 1260, §1

262.2 Appointment – term of office.

The members shall be appointed by the governor subject to confirmation by the senate. The term of each member of the board shall be for six years. The terms of three members of the board shall begin and expire in each odd numbered year as provided in section 69 19.

[S13, §2682 d, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3913, 3914; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, §262 2, 262 3, C81, §262 2, 81 Acts, ch 86, §1]

Confirmation §2 32

262.3 Repealed by 68GA, ch 1010, §86

262.4 Removals.

The governor, with the approval of a majority of the senate during a session of the general assembly, may remove any member of the board for malfeasance in office, or for any cause which would render the member ineligible for appointment or incapable or unfit to discharge the duties of office, and the member's removal, when so made, shall be final.

[S13, §2682 d, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3916; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 4]

262.5 Suspension.

When the general assembly is not in session, the governor may suspend any member so disqualified and shall appoint another to fill the vacancy thus created, subject to the approval of the senate when next in session.

[S13, §2682 d, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3917; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 5]

262.6 Vacancies.

Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner in which regular appointments are required to be made. If the ninth member resigns prior to the expiration of the term, the individual appointed to fill the vacancy shall meet the requirements for the ninth member specified in section 262 1. Other vacancies occurring prior to the expiration of the ninth member's term shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments for those vacancies.

[S13, §2682 d, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3918; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 6]

See §2 32

262.7 Institutions governed.

The state board of regents shall govern the following institutions:

- 1 The state University of Iowa
- 2 The Iowa State University of science and technology, including the agricultural experiment station

- 3 The University of Northern Iowa

- 4 The Iowa braille and sight saving school

- 5 The state school for the deaf

- 6 The Oakdale campus

- 7 The state hospital school

[R60, §2157, 2158, C73, §1685, 1686, C97, §2723, S13, §2682 c, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3919; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 7]

262.8 Meetings.

The board shall meet four times a year. Special meetings may be called by the board, by the president of the board, or by the secretary of the board upon written request of any five members thereof.

[S13, §2682 e, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3920; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 8]

262.9 Powers and duties.

The board shall

- 1 Each even numbered year elect, from its members, a president of the board, who shall serve for two years and until a successor is elected and qualified

- 2 Elect a president of each of the institutions of higher learning, a superintendent of each of the other institutions, a treasurer and a secretarial officer for each institution annually, professors, instructors, officers, and employees, and fix their compensation. Sections 279 12 through 279 19 and section 279 27 apply to employees of the Iowa braille and sight saving school and the state school for the deaf, who are certificated pursuant to chapter 260

In following those sections in chapter 279, the references to boards of directors of school districts shall be interpreted to apply to the board of regents

3 Make rules for admission to and for the government of said institutions, not inconsistent with law

4 Manage and control the property, both real and personal, belonging to the institutions. The board shall purchase or require the purchase of, whenever the price is reasonably competitive and the quality intended, and in keeping with the schedule established in this subsection, soybean-based inks and starch-based plastics, including but not limited to starch-based plastic garbage can liners a By July 1, 1989, a minimum of fifty percent of the purchases of inks which are used for newsprint paper for printing services performed internally or contracted for by the board shall be soybean-based b By July 1, 1989, a minimum of fifteen percent of the purchases of garbage can liners made by the board shall be starch-based plastic garbage can liners. The percentage purchased shall increase by five percent annually until fifty percent of the purchases of garbage can liners are purchases of starch-based plastic garbage can liners

c The board shall report to the general assembly on January 1 of each year, the plastic products which are regularly purchased by the board for which starch-based product alternatives are available. The report shall also include the cost of the plastic products purchased and the cost of the starch-based product alternatives

5 With the approval of the executive council, acquire real estate for the proper uses of said institutions, and dispose of real estate belonging to said institutions when not necessary for their purposes. A disposal of such real estate shall be made upon such terms, conditions and consideration as the board may recommend and subject to the approval of the executive council. If real estate subject to sale hereunder has been purchased or acquired from appropriated funds, the proceeds of such sale shall be deposited with the treasurer of state and credited to the general fund of the state. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund of the state a sum equal to the proceeds so deposited and credited to the general fund of the state to the state board of regents which, with the prior approval of the executive council, may be used to purchase other real estate and buildings, and for the construction and alteration of buildings and other capital improvements. All transfers shall be by state patent in the manner provided by law

6. Accept and administer trusts and may authorize nonprofit foundations acting solely for the support of institutions governed by the board to accept and administer trusts deemed by the board to be beneficial. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 633 63, the board and such nonprofit foundations may act as trustee in such instances

7 Direct the expenditure of all appropriations made to said institutions, and of any other moneys belonging thereto, but in no event shall the perpetual funds of the Iowa State University of science and technology, nor the permanent funds of the University of Iowa derived under Acts of Congress, be diminished

8 Collect the highest rate of interest, consistent with safety, obtainable on daily balances in the hands of the treasurer of each institution

9 With the approval of the executive council, publish, from time to time, and distribute, such circulars, pamphlets, bulletins, and reports as may be in its judgment for the best interests of the institutions under its control, the expense of which shall be paid out of any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated

10 With consent of the inventor and in the discretion of the board, secure letters patent or copyright on inventions of students, instructors and officials, or take assignment of such letters patent or copyright and may make all necessary expenditures in regard thereto. That the letters patent or copyright on inventions when so secured shall be the property of the state, and the royalties and earnings thereon shall be credited to the funds of the institution in which such patent or copyright originated

11 Perform all other acts necessary and proper for the execution of the powers and duties conferred by law upon it

12 Grant leaves of absence with full or partial compensation to staff members to undertake approved programs of study, research, or other professional activity which in the judgment of the board will contribute to the improvement of the institutions. Any staff member granted such leave shall agree either to return to the institution granting such leave for a period of not less than two years or to repay to the state of Iowa such compensation as the staff member shall have received during such leave

13 Lease properties and facilities, either as lessor or lessee, for the proper use and benefit of said institutions upon such terms, conditions, and considerations as the board deems advantageous, including leases with provisions for ultimate ownership by the state of Iowa, and to pay the rentals from funds appropriated to the institution for operating expenses thereof or from such other funds as may be available therefor

14 In its discretion employ or retain attorneys or counselors when acting as a public employer for the purpose of carrying out collective bargaining and related responsibilities provided for under chapter 20. This subsection shall supersede the provisions of section 13 7

The state board of regents may make payment to an attorney or counselor for services rendered prior to July 1, 1978 to the state board of regents in connection with its responsibilities as a public employer pursuant to chapter 20

15 In its discretion, adopt rules relating to the classification of students enrolled in institutions of higher education under the board who are residents of Iowa's sister states as residents or nonresidents for fee purposes

16 In issuing bonds or notes under this chapter, chapter 262A, chapter 263A, or other provision of law, select and fix the compensation for, through a competitive selection procedure, attorneys, accountants, financial advisors, banks, underwriters, insurers, and other employees and agents which in the board's judgment are necessary to carry out the board's intention. Prior to the initial selection, the board shall establish a procedure which provides for a fair and open selection process including, but not limited to, the opportunity to present written proposals and personal interviews. The board shall maintain a list of firms which have requested to be notified of requests for proposal. The selection criteria shall take into consideration, but are not limited to, compensation, expenses, experience with similar issues, scheduling, ability to provide the services of individuals with specific knowledge in the relevant subject matter and length of engagement. The board may waive the requirements for a competitive selection procedure for any specific employment upon adoption of a resolution of the board stating why the waiver is in the public interest and shall provide the executive council with written notice of the granting of any such waiver.

17. Not less than thirty days prior to action by the board on any proposal to increase tuition, fees, or charges at one or more of the institutions of higher education under its control, send written notification of the amount of the proposed increase including a copy of the proposed tuition increase docket memorandum prepared for its consideration to the presiding officers of the student government organization of the affected institutions. The final decision on the increase in tuition for a fiscal year shall be made no later than the regular meeting held in November of the preceding fiscal year. The regular meeting held in November shall be held in Ames, Cedar Falls, or Iowa City and shall not be held during the period in which classes have been suspended for Thanksgiving vacation.

18. Adopt policies and procedures for the use of telecommunications as an instructional tool at its institutions. The policies and procedures shall include but not be limited to policies and procedures relating to programs, educational policy, practices, staff development, use of pilot projects, and the instructional application of the technology.

19. Establish a hall of fame for distinguished graduates at the Iowa braille and sight-saving school and at the Iowa school for the deaf.

262.10 Purchases – prohibitions.

No sale or purchase of real estate shall be made save upon the order of the board, made at a regular meeting, or one called for that purpose, and then in such manner and under such terms as the board may prescribe and only with the approval of the executive council. No member of the board or any of its committees, offices or agencies nor any officer of any institution, shall be directly or indirectly interested in such purchase or sale.

Purchases of real estate may be made on written contracts providing for payment over a period of years but the obligations thereon shall not constitute a debt or charge against the state of Iowa nor against the funds of the board or the funds of the institution for which said purchases are made. Purchase payments may be made from appropriated capital funds or from other funds lawfully available for that purpose and allocated therefor by the board, or from any combination of the foregoing, but not from appropriated operating funds. All state appropriated capital funds used for any one purchase contract shall be taken entirely from a single capital appropriation and shall be set aside for that purpose. In event of default, the only remedy of the seller shall be against the property itself and the rents and profits thereof, and in no event shall any deficiency judgment be entered or enforced against the state of Iowa, the board, or the institution for which the purchase was made. Provided, however, that no part of the tuition fees shall be used in the purchase of such real estate.

262.11 Record.

All acts of the board relating to the management, purchase, disposition, or use of lands and other property of said institutions shall be entered of record, which shall show the members present, and how each voted upon each proposition.

[S13, §2682-h; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3923; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.11]

262.12 Committees and administrative offices under board.

The board of regents shall also have and exercise all the powers necessary and convenient for the effective administration of its office and of the institutions under its control, and to this end may create such committees, offices and agencies from its own members or others, and employ persons to staff the same, fix their compensation and tenure and delegate thereto, or to the administrative officers and faculty of the institutions under its control, such part of the authority and duties vested by statute in the board, and shall formulate and establish such rules, outline such policies and prescribe such procedures therefor, all as may be desired or determined by the board as recorded in their minutes.

[S13, §2682-h; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3924; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.12]

262.13 Security officers at institutions as peace officers.

The board may authorize any institution under its control to commission one or more of its employees as special security officers. Special security officers shall have the powers, privileges, and immunities of regular peace officers when acting in the interests of the institution by which they are employed. The board shall provide as rapidly as practicable for the adequate training of such special security officers at the Iowa law enforcement academy or in an equivalent training program, unless they have already received such training.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.13]

262.14 Loans — conditions.

The board may invest funds belonging to the institutions, subject to chapter 12A and the following regulations:

1. Each loan shall be secured by a mortgage paramount to all other liens upon approved farm lands in this state, accompanied by abstract showing merchantable title in the borrower. The loan shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the cash value of the land, exclusive of buildings.

2. Each such loan if for a sum more than one-fourth of the value of the farm shall be on the basis of stipulated annual principal reductions.

3. Any portion of the funds may be invested by the board. In the investment of the funds, the board shall exercise the judgment and care, under the circumstances then prevailing, which persons of prudence, discretion and intelligence exercise in their own affairs as provided in section 633.123, subsection 1.

The board shall give appropriate consideration to those facts and circumstances that the board knows or should know are relevant to the particular investment involved, including the role the investment plays in the total value of the board's funds.

For the purposes of this subsection, appropriate consideration includes, but is not limited to, a determination by the board that the particular investment is reasonably designed to further the purposes prescribed by law to the board, taking into consideration the risk of loss and the opportunity for gain or other return associated with the investment and consideration of the following factors as they relate to the funds of the board:

a. The composition of the funds of the board with regard to diversification.

b. The liquidity and current return of the investments relative to the anticipated cash flow requirements.

c. The projected return of the investments relative to the funding objectives of the board.

Consistent with this subsection, investments made under this subsection shall be made in a manner that will enhance the economy of this state, and in particular, will result in increased employment of the residents of this state.

4. Any gift accepted by the Iowa state board of regents for the use and benefit of any institution under its control may be invested in securities designated by the donor, but whenever such gifts are accepted and the money invested according to the request of the said donor, neither the state, the Iowa state board of regents, nor any member thereof, shall be liable therefor or on account thereof.

5. A register containing a complete abstract of each loan and investment, and showing its actual condition, shall be kept by the board and be at all times open to inspection.

6. All loans made under the provisions of this section shall have an interest rate of not less than three and one-half percent per annum.

4. [C31, 35, 39, §3926; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.14]

5. [S13, §2682-s; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3926; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.14]

6. [C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.14]

85 Acts, ch 190, §4 ; 85 Acts, ch 227, §8

262.15 Foreclosures and collections.

The board shall have charge of the foreclosure of all mortgages and of all collections from delinquent debtors to said institutions. All actions shall be in the name of the state board of regents, for the use and benefit of the appropriate institution.

[SS15, §2682-t; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3927; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.15]

262.16 Satisfaction of mortgages.

When loans are paid, the board shall release mortgages securing the same as follows:

1. By a satisfaction piece signed and acknowledged by the treasurer of the institution to which the loan belongs, which shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county where said mortgage is of record; or

2 By entering a satisfaction thereof on the margin of the record of said mortgage, dated, and signed by the treasurer of the institution to which the loan belongs [SS15, §2682 t, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3928; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 16]

262.17 Bidding in property.

In case of a sale upon execution, the premises may be bid off in the name of the board of regents, for the benefit of the institution to which the loan belongs [SS15, §2682-t, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3929; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 17]

262.18 Deeds in trust.

Deeds for premises so acquired shall be held for the benefit of the appropriate institution and such lands shall be subject to lease or sale the same as other lands [SS15, §2682-t, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3930; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 18]

262.19 Actions not barred.

No lapse of time shall be a bar to any action to recover on any loan made on behalf of any institution [C97, §2637, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3931; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 19]

262.20 Business offices – visitation.

A business office shall be maintained at each of the institutions of higher learning, with such organizations, powers and duties as the board may prescribe and delegate

[S13, §2682-k, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3932; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262 20]

262.21 Annuity contracts.

At the request of an employee through contractual agreement the board may arrange for the purchase of group or individual annuity contracts for any of its employees from any company the employee chooses that is authorized to do business in this state, for retirement or other purposes, and may make payroll deductions in accordance with the arrangements for the purpose of paying the entire premium due and to become due under the contract. The deductions shall be made in the manner which will qualify the annuity premiums for the benefits under section 403b of the Internal Revenue Code, as defined in section 422 3. The employee's rights under the annuity contract are nonforfeitable except for the failure to pay premiums.

Whenever an existing tax sheltered annuity contract is to be replaced by a new contract the agent or representative of the company shall submit a letter of intent to the company being replaced, to the insurance commissioner of the state of Iowa, and to the agent's or representative's own company at least thirty days prior to any action by registered mail. This letter of intent shall contain the policy number and description of the contract being replaced and a description of the replacement contract 262.30 Contracts for training teachers.

The board of directors of any school district in the state of Iowa may enter into contract with the state board of regents for furnishing instruction to pupils of such school district, and for training teachers for the schools of the state in such particular lines of demonstration and instruction as are deemed necessary for the efficiency of the University of Northern Iowa, state University of Iowa, and Iowa State University of science and technology as training schools for teachers.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3942; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.30]

262.31 Payment.

The contract for such instruction shall authorize the payment for such service furnished the school district or for such service furnished the state, the amount to be agreed upon by the state board of regents and the board of the school district thus co-operating.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3943; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.31]

262.32 Contract — time limit.

Such contracts shall be in writing and shall extend over a period of not to exceed two years, and a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the administrator of the area education agency.

[C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §3944; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.32]

262.33 Fire protection contracts.

The state board of regents shall have power to enter into contracts with the governing body of any city or other municipal corporation for the protection from fire of any property under the control of the board, located in any such municipal corporation or in territory contiguous thereto, upon such terms as may be agreed upon.

[C31, 35, §3944-d1; C39, §3944.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.33]

262.34 Improvements — advertisement for bids.

When the estimated cost of construction, repairs, or improvement of buildings or grounds under charge of the state board of regents exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars, the board shall advertise for bids for the contemplated improvement or construction and shall let the work to the lowest responsible bidder. However, if in the judgment of the board bids received are not acceptable, the board may reject all bids and proceed with the construction, repair, or improvement by a method as the board may determine. All plans and specifications for repairs or construction, together with bids on the plans or specifications, shall be filed by the board and be open for public inspection. All bids submitted under this section shall be accompanied by a deposit of money, a certified check or a credit union certified share draft in an amount as the board may prescribe.

262.36 Purchase or condemnation of property.

The erection of such dormitories is a public necessity and said board is vested with full power to purchase or condemn at said institutions, or convenient thereto, all real estate necessary to carry out the powers herein granted.

[C27, 31, 35, §3945-a2; C39, §3945.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.36]

262.37 Title to property.

The title to all real estate so acquired and the improvements erected thereon shall be taken and held in the name of the state.

[C27, 31, 35, §3945-a3; C39, §3945.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.37]

262.38 Borrowing money and mortgaging property.

In carrying out the above powers, said board may:

1. Borrow money.

2. Mortgage any real estate so acquired and the improvements erected thereon in order to secure necessary loans.

3. Pledge the rents, profits, and income received from any such property for the discharge of mortgages so executed.

[C27, 31, 35, §3945-a4; C39, §3945.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.38]

262.39 Nature of obligation — discharge.

No obligation created hereunder shall ever be or become a charge against the state of Iowa but all such obligations, including principal and interest, shall be payable solely:

1. From the net rents, profits, and income arising from the property so pledged or mortgaged,

2. From the net rents, profits, and income which has not been pledged for other purposes arising from any other dormitory or like improvement under the control and management of said board, or

3. From the income derived from gifts and bequests made to the institutions under the control of said board for dormitory purposes.

[C27, 31, 35, §3945-a5; C39, §3945.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.39]

262.40 Limitation on discharging obligations.

In discharging obligations under section 262.39 the dormitories at each of said institutions shall be considered as a unit and the rents, profits, and income available for dormitory purposes at one institution shall not be used to discharge obligations created for dormitories at another institution.

[C27, 31, 35, §3945-a6; C39, §3945.6; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.40]

262.41 Exemption from taxation.

All obligations created hereunder shall be exempt from taxation.

[C27, 31, 35, §3945-a7; C39, §3945.7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.41]

262.42 Limitation on funds.

No state funds shall be loaned or used for this purpose. This shall not apply to funds derived from the net earnings of dormitories now or hereafter owned by the state.

[C27, 31, 35, §3945-a8; C39, §3945.8; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.42]

TUITION TO LOCAL SCHOOLS

262.43 Students residing on state-owned land.

The state board of regents shall pay to the local school boards the tuition payments and transportation costs, as otherwise authorized by statutes for the elementary or high school education of students residing on land owned by the state and under the control of the state board of regents. Such payments for the three institutions of higher learning, the state University of Iowa, the Iowa State University of science and technology and the University of Northern Iowa, shall be made from the funds of the respective institutions other than state appropriations, and for the three noncollegiate institutions, the Iowa braille and sight-saving school, the state school for the deaf and the state sanatorium, there is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated a sum sufficient to make such payments.

SELF-LIQUIDATING FACILITIES OTHER THAN DORMITORIES

262.44 Areas set aside for improvement.

The state board of regents is authorized to:

1. Set aside and use portions of the respective campuses of the institutions of higher education under its control, namely, the state university of Iowa, the Iowa state university of science and technology, and the university of northern Iowa, as the board determines are suitable for the acquisition or construction of self-liquidating and revenue producing buildings and facilities which the board deems necessary for the students and suitable for the purposes for which the institutions were established including without limitation: Student unions, recreational buildings, auditoriums, stadiums, field houses, athletic buildings and areas, parking structures and areas, electric, heating, sewage treatment and communication utilities, research equipment and additions to or alterations of existing buildings or structures.

2. Acquire by any lawful means additional land deemed by the board to be desirable and suitable for any or all of the aforesaid purposes.

3. Construct, equip, furnish, maintain, operate, manage and control any or all of the buildings, structures, facilities, areas, additions or improvements hereinbefore enumerated.

86 Acts, ch 1246, §126; 87 Acts, ch 233, §466, 467

262.45 Purchase or condemnation of real estate.

The erection of the buildings, improvements and facilities for the educational institutions of higher learning in this state is a public necessity and the board is vested with full power to purchase or condemn at said institutions, or convenient thereto, all real estate necessary to carry out the powers herein granted.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.45]

262.46 Title in name of state.

The title to all real estate so acquired and the improvements erected thereon shall be taken and held in the name of the state.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.46]

262.47 Fees and charges from students.

When in the opinion of the board of regents, any of the buildings, structures, facilities, property, improvements, equipment, additions or alterations as above authorized are deemed necessary by said board for the comfort, convenience and welfare of the student body as a whole, or for any specified class or part thereof, the board of regents shall have authority to charge and collect, from all students in attendance at the university, college or institution, or from any specified class or part thereof for which such facilities are so deemed necessary, fees and charges for the use and availability of such buildings, facilities, improvements and for the services and benefits made available therefrom. The fees and charges if established shall be applied to the costs of acquisition, construction, maintenance and financing of such improvements.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.47]

262.48 Borrowing money and pledge of revenue.

In carrying out the above powers said board may:

1. Borrow money on the credit of the income and revenues to be derived from the operation or use of the building, structure, facility, area or improvement and from fees or charges made by said board to students for whom such facilities are made available and to issue notes, bonds, or other evidence of indebtedness in anticipation of the collection of such income, revenues, fees and charges.

2. Mortgage any real estate so acquired and the improvements erected thereon in order to secure necessary loans.

3. Pledge the rents, profits and income received from any such property for the discharge of the indebtedness.

4. Pledge the proceeds of all fees and charges to students attending the institution for the use or availability of such buildings, structures, areas or facilities for the discharge of the indebtedness.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.48]

262.49 No obligation against state.

No obligation created hereunder shall ever be or become a charge against the state of Iowa but all such obligations, including principal and interest, shall be payable solely:

1. From the net rents, profits and income arising from the property so pledged or mortgaged,

2. From the net rents, profits, and income which has not been pledged for other purposes arising from any similar building, facility, area or improvement under the control and management of said board,

3. From the fees or charges established by said board for students attending the institution for the use or availability of the building, structure, area, facility or improvement for which the obligation was incurred, or

4. From the income derived from gifts and bequests made to the institutions under the control of said board for such purposes.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.49]

262.50 Prohibited use of funds.

In discharging the obligations under section 262.49 the buildings, structures, areas, facilities and improvements at each of said institutions shall be considered as a unit and the rents, profits and other income available for such purposes at one institution shall not be used to discharge obligations created for similar purposes at another institution.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.50]

262.51 Tax exemption.

All obligations created hereunder shall be exempt from taxation, together with the interest thereon.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.51]

262.52 No state funds loaned.

No state funds shall be loaned for this purpose. This shall not apply to funds derived from the net earnings of such buildings, structures, areas and facilities now or hereafter owned by the state or to funds received from student fees or charges.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.52]

262.53 Construction of statutes.

This division shall not be construed to repeal, modify or amend any law of this state now in force, but shall be deemed as supplemental thereto, nor shall it prevent the making of state appropriations, in whole or in part, for any of the purposes of this division.

[C62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.53]

262.54 Repealed by 61GA, ch 237, §1.

SELF-LIQUIDATING DORMITORIES

262.55 Definitions.

The following words or terms, as used in this division, shall have the respective meanings as stated:

1. "Board" shall mean the state board of regents.
2. "Project" shall mean the acquisition by purchase, lease or construction of buildings for use as student residence halls and dormitories, including dining and other incidental facilities therefor, and additions to such buildings, the reconstruction, completion, equipment, improvement, repair or remodeling of residence halls, dormitories, or additions thereto or facilities therefor, and the acquisition of property therefor of every kind and description, whether real, personal or mixed, by gift, purchase, lease, condemnation or otherwise and the improvement of the same.
3. "Institution" or "institutions" shall mean the state University of Iowa, the Iowa State University of science and technology and the University of Northern Iowa.
4. "Bonds or notes" shall mean revenue bonds or revenue notes which are payable solely and only from net rents, profits and income derived from the operation of residence halls, dormitories, facilities therefor and additions thereto.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.55]

262.56 Authorization — contracts — title.

Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this division the state board of regents is hereby authorized to undertake and carry out any project as hereinbefore defined at the state University of Iowa, Iowa State University of science and technology and the University of Northern Iowa and to operate, control, maintain and manage student residence halls and dormitories, including dining and other incidental facilities, and additions to such buildings at each of said institutions. All contracts for the construction, reconstruction, completion, equipment, improvement, repair or remodeling of any buildings, additions or facilities shall be let in accordance with the provisions of section 262.34. The title to all real estate acquired under the provisions of this division and the improvements erected thereon shall be taken and held in the name of the state of Iowa. The board is authorized to rent the rooms in such residence halls and dormitories to the students, officers, guests and employees of said institutions at such rates, fees or rentals as will provide a reasonable return upon the investment, but which will in any event produce net rents, profits and income sufficient to insure the payment of the principal of and interest on all bonds or notes issued to pay any part of the cost of any project and refunding bonds or notes issued pursuant to the provisions of this division.

262.57 Bonds or notes.

To pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at any institution the board is authorized to borrow money and to issue and sell negotiable bonds or notes and to refund and refinance bonds or notes heretofore issued or as may be hereafter issued for any project or for refunding purposes at a lower rate, the same rate or a higher rate or rates of interest and from time to time as often as the board shall find it to be advisable and necessary so to do. Such bonds or notes may be sold by said board at public sale in the manner prescribed by chapter 75 but if the board shall find it to be advantageous and in the public interest to do so, such bonds or notes may be sold by the board at private sale without published notice of any kind and without regard to the requirements of chapter 75 in such manner and upon such terms as may be prescribed by the resolution authorizing the same, but such bonds or notes shall in any event be sold upon terms of not less than par plus accrued interest. Bonds or notes issued to refund other bonds or notes heretofore or hereafter issued by the board for residence hall or dormitory purposes at any institution, including dining or other facilities and additions, or heretofore or hereafter issued for refunding purposes, may either be sold in the manner hereinbefore specified and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the obligations being refunded, or the refunding bonds or notes may be exchanged for and in payment and discharge of the obligations being refunded, and a finding by the board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds or notes that the bonds or notes being refunded were issued for a purpose specified in this division and constitute binding obligations of the board shall be conclusive and may be relied upon by any holder of any refunding bond or note issued under the provisions of this division. The refunding bonds or notes may be sold or exchanged in installments at different times or an entire issue or series may be sold or exchanged at one time. Any issue or series of refunding bonds or notes may be exchanged in part or sold in parts in installments at different times or at one time. The refunding bonds or notes may be sold or exchanged at any time on, before, or after the maturity of any of the outstanding notes, bonds or other obligations to be refinanced thereby and may be issued for the purpose of refunding a like or greater principal amount of bonds or notes, except that the principal amount of the refunding bonds or notes may exceed the principal amount of the bonds or notes to be refunded to the extent necessary to pay any premium due on the call of the bonds or notes to be refunded or to fund interest in arrears or about to become due.

All bonds or notes issued under the provision of this division shall be payable solely and only from and shall be secured by an irrevocable pledge of a sufficient portion of (1) the net rents, profits and income derived from the operation of residence halls, dormitories, dining or other incidental facilities and additions, including necessary real and personal property, acquired or improved in whole or in part with the proceeds of such bonds or notes, regardless of the manner of such acquisition or improvement, and (2) the net rents, profits and income not pledged for other purposes derived from the operation of any other residence halls or dormitories, including dining or other incidental facilities and additions, at the particular institution. All bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this division shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments under the laws of this state.

262.58 Rates and terms of bonds or notes.

Such bonds or notes may bear such date or dates, may bear interest at such rate or rates, payable semiannually, may mature at such time or times, may be in such form, carry such registration privileges, may be payable at such place or places, may be subject to such terms of redemption prior to maturity with or without premium, if so stated on the face thereof, and may contain such terms and covenants all as may be provided by the resolution of the board authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes. In addition to the estimated cost of construction, the cost of the project shall be deemed to include interest upon the bonds or notes during construction and for six months after the estimated completion date, the compensation of a fiscal agent or adviser, and engineering, administrative and legal expenses. Such bonds or notes shall be executed by the president of the state board of regents and attested by the secretary thereof and the coupons thereto attached shall be executed with the original or facsimile signatures of said president and secretary. Any bonds or notes bearing the signatures of officers in office on the date of the signing thereof shall be valid and binding for all purposes, notwithstanding that before delivery thereof any or all such persons whose signatures appear thereon shall have ceased to be such officers. Each such bond or note shall state upon its face the name of the institution on behalf of which it is issued, that it is payable solely and only from the net rents, profits and income derived from the operation of residence halls or dormitories, including dining and other incidental facilities, at such institution as hereinbefore provided, and that it does not constitute a charge against the state of Iowa within the meaning or application of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. The issuance of such bonds or notes shall be recorded in the office of the treasurer of the institution on behalf of which the same are issued, and a certificate by such treasurer to this effect shall be printed on the back of each such bond or note.

262.59 Refunding.

Upon the determination by the state board of regents to undertake and carry out any project or to refund outstanding bonds or notes, said board shall adopt a resolution describing generally the contemplated project and setting forth the estimated cost thereof, or describing the obligations to be refunded, fixing the amount of bonds or notes to be issued, the maturity or maturities, the interest rate or rates and all details in respect thereof. Such resolution shall contain such covenants as may be determined by the board as to the issuance of additional bonds or notes that may thereafter be issued payable from the net rents, profits and income of the residence halls or dormitories, the amendment or modification of the resolution authorizing the issuance of any bonds or notes, the manner, terms and conditions and the amount or percentage of assenting bonds or notes necessary to effectuate such amendment or modification, and such other covenants as may be deemed necessary or desirable. In the discretion of the board any bonds or notes issued under the terms of this division may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the board and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the boundaries of the state of Iowa, but no such trust indenture shall convey or mortgage the buildings or facilities or any part thereof. The provisions of this division and of any resolution or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes and providing for the establishment and maintenance of adequate rates, fees or rentals and the application of the proceeds thereof shall constitute a contract with the holders of such bonds or notes.

262.60 Rates, fees and rentals — pledge.

Whenever bonds or notes are issued by the state board of regents, it shall be the duty of said board to establish, impose and collect rates, fees or rentals for the use of and services provided by the residence halls and dormitories, including dining and other incidental facilities therefor, at the institution on behalf of which such bonds or notes are issued, and to adjust such rates, fees or rentals from time to time, in order to always provide net amounts sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds or notes as the same become due and to maintain a reserve therefor, and said board is authorized to pledge a sufficient amount of the net rents, profits and income derived from the operation of residence halls and dormitories, including dining and other facilities therefor, at such institution for this purpose. Rates, fees or rentals collected at one institution shall not be used to discharge bonds or notes issued for or on account of another institution. All bonds or notes issued under the terms of this division shall be exempt from taxation by the state of Iowa and the interest thereon shall be exempt from the state income tax.

262.61 Accounts.

A certified copy of each resolution providing for the issuance of bonds or notes under this division shall be filed with the treasurer of the institution on behalf of which the bonds or notes are issued and it shall be the duty of said treasurer to keep and maintain separate accounts for each issue of bonds or notes in accordance with the covenants and directions set out in the resolution providing for the issuance thereof. All rates, fees or rentals collected for the use of and services provided by the residence halls and dormitories, including dining and other incidental facilities therefor, at each institution shall be held in trust by the treasurer thereof, separate and apart from all other funds, to be used solely and only for the purposes specified in this division and as may be required and provided for by the proceedings of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of each institution to disburse funds from the proper account for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds or notes in accordance with the directions and covenants of the resolution authorizing the issuance thereof.

If the amount of bonds or notes issued under this chapter exceeds the actual costs of the projects for which the bonds or notes were issued, the amount of the difference shall be used to pay the principal and interest due on bonds or notes issued under this chapter.

262.62 No obligation against state.

Under no circumstances shall any bonds or notes issued under the terms of this division be or become or be construed to constitute a charge against the state of Iowa within the purview of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. No taxes, appropriations or other funds of the state of Iowa may be pledged for or used to pay such bonds or notes or the interest thereon but any such bonds or notes shall be payable solely and only as to both principal and interest from the net rents, profits and income derived from the operation of residence halls and dormitories, including dining and other incidental facilities therefor, at the institutions of higher learning under the control of the state board of regents as hereinbefore provided, and the sole remedy for any breach or default of the terms of any such bonds or notes or proceedings for their issuance shall be a proceeding either in law or in equity by suit, action or mandamus to enforce and compel performance of the duties required by this division and the terms of the resolution under which such bonds or notes are issued.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.62]

262.63 Who may invest.

All banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on an investment business, all insurance companies, insurance associations and other persons carrying on an insurance business and all executors, administrators, guardians, trustees and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this division; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section may be construed as relieving any persons from any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities for purchase or investment.

262.64 Federal or other aid accepted.

The state board of regents is authorized to apply for and accept federal aid or nonfederal gifts or grants of funds and to use the same to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at any institution under the terms of this division or to pay any bonds and interest thereon issued for any of the purposes specified in this division.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.64]

262.64A Reports to general assembly.

The state board of regents shall determine, in consultation with the legislative fiscal bureau, the financial information to be included in line item budget information for projects funded by the issuance of bonds or notes under this chapter and shall submit the line item budget information to the general assembly as requested. The state board of regents shall submit quarterly reports to the general assembly concerning the projects funded by the issuance of bonds or notes under this chapter as follows:

1. Identification of both undercharges and overcharges for line items of projects.
2. Identification of contracts in which any line item for a project exceeds the adopted budget for that line item by ten percent or more.
3. Identification of complaints received by an institution regarding the construction of a project.

If the state board of regents approves a change in the amount of the line item of a budget for a project, the change shall be transmitted to the appropriations committees of the house of representatives and senate, while the general assembly is in session, and to the legislative council, when the general assembly is not in session, for review.

86 Acts, ch 1246, §127

262.65 Alternative method.

This division shall be construed as providing an alternative and independent method for carrying out any project at any institution of higher learning under the control of the state board of regents, for the issuance and sale or exchange of bonds or notes in connection therewith and for refunding bonds or notes pertinent thereto, without reference to any other statute, and shall not be construed as an amendment of or subject to the provisions of any other law, and no publication of any notice, whether under section 23.12 or otherwise, and no other or further proceeding in respect to the issuance or sale or exchange of bonds or notes under this division, shall be required except such as are prescribed by this division, any provisions of other statutes of the state to the contrary notwithstanding.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.65]

262.66 Prior action legalized.

All rights heretofore acquired in connection with the financing of any project at any institution are hereby preserved and all acts and proceedings taken by the board preliminary to and in connection with the authorization and issuance of any previously issued and outstanding notes or other obligations for any project are hereby legalized, validated and confirmed and said notes or obligations are hereby declared to be legal and to constitute valid and binding obligations of the board according to their terms and payable solely and only from the sources referred to therein.

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.66]

EASEMENTS

262.67 Approval of executive council.

With the approval of the executive council, the board is hereby authorized to grant easements for rights of way over, across, and under the surface of public lands under its jurisdiction when in its judgment such easements are desirable and will benefit the state of Iowa.

[C62, §262.55; C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262.67]

SPEED LIMITS

262.68 Speed limit on institutional grounds.

The maximum speed limit of all vehicles on institutional roads at institutions under the control of the state board of regents shall be forty-five miles per hour. All driving shall be confined to driveways designated by the state board. Whenever the state board shall determine that the speed limit hereinbefore set forth is greater than is reasonable or safe under the conditions found to exist at any place of congestion or upon any part of its institutional roads, said board shall determine and declare a reasonable and safe speed limit thereat which shall be effective when appropriate signs giving notice thereof are erected at such places of congestion or other parts of its institutional roads. Any person violating the aforementioned speed limits shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor.

262.69 Traffic control and parking.

The state board of regents may make such rules as it deems necessary and proper to provide for the policing, control, and regulation of traffic and parking of vehicles and bicycles on the property of any institution under its control. The rules may provide for the use of institutional roads, driveways, and grounds, registration of vehicles and bicycles, the designation of parking areas, the erection and maintenance of signs designating prohibitions or restrictions, the installation and maintenance of parking control devices, and assessment, enforcement, and collection of reasonable sanctions for the violation of the rules.

Any rules made pursuant to this section may be enforced under procedures adopted by the board for each institution under its control. Sanctions may be imposed upon students, faculty and staff for violation of the rules, including, but not limited to, a reasonable monetary sanction which may be deducted from student deposits and faculty or staff salaries or other funds in the possession of the institution, or added to student tuition bills. The rules made pursuant to this section may also be enforced by the impoundment of vehicles and bicycles parked in violation of the rules, and a reasonable fee may be charged for the cost of impoundment and storage, prior to the release of the vehicles and bicycles to their owners. Each institution under the control of the board shall establish procedures for the determination of controversies in connection with imposition of sanctions. The procedures shall require giving notice of the violation and the sanction involved and provide an opportunity for an administrative hearing. Judicial review of the administrative ruling may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act.

Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 17A, a proceeding conducted by the state board of regents or an institution governed by the state board of regents to determine the validity of an assessment of a violation of traffic control and parking rules is not a contested case as defined in section 17A.2, subsection 2.

EARLY DEVELOPMENT EDUCATION

262.71 Center for early development education.

The board of regents shall develop a center for early development education at one of the regents' institutions specified in section 262.7, subsections 1 through 3. The center's programs shall be conducted in a laboratory school setting to serve as a model for early childhood education. The programs shall include, but not be limited to, programs designed to accommodate the needs of at risk children The teacher education programs at all three state universities shall cooperate in developing the center and its programs The center's programs shall take a holistic approach and the center shall, in developing its programs, consult with representatives from each of the following agencies, institutions, or groups

- 1 The University of Northern Iowa
 - 2 Iowa State University
 - 3 The University of Iowa
 - 4 The division of children, youth, and families of the department of human rights
 - 5 The department of public health

262A.1 Declaration of insufficient state revenue.

The general assembly hereby determines that the annual revenues of the state are insufficient to finance the immediate building requirements and other facilities and utilities services requirements of the institutions of higher learning under the jurisdiction of the state board of regents and in order to provide these buildings, facilities and utilities services when they are needed, it is necessary to authorize the issuance of revenue bonds by the state board of regents, subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth It is the intent of the general assembly that revenue bonds issued for academic and administrative buildings and facilities and utilities services shall supplement and not supplant legislative appropriations for the same or similar purposes

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262A 1]

262A.2 Definitions.

The following words or terms, as used in this chapter, shall have the respective meanings as stated

- 1 "Board" shall mean the state board of regents
- 2 "Institution" or "institutions" shall mean the state University of Iowa, the Iowa State University of science and technology, the University of Northern Iowa, and any other institution of higher learning under the jurisdiction of the state board of regents which offers a college program of four years or more, including any such institution the creation of which is hereafter authorized by the general assembly or which is placed under the jurisdiction of said board.

3. "Buildings and facilities" shall mean those academic buildings and other facilities used primarily for instructional and research purposes, including libraries, and such other administrative and service buildings and facilities as are deemed necessary by the board to provide supporting services to the instructional and research programs and activities of the institutions, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, administrative offices, facilities for business services, student services and extension and continuing education services, off-street parking areas and structures incidental to other buildings and facilities which are not primarily for parking purposes, garages, and storage and warehouse facilities, or any combination thereof. This phrase shall also include works and facilities deemed necessary by the board for furnishing utilities services to any buildings or structures operated by the institutions, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, water, electric, gas, communications, sewer and heating facilities, together with all necessary structures, buildings, tunnels, lines, reservoirs, mains, filters, pipes, sewers, boilers, generators, fixtures, wires, poles, equipment, treatment facilities and all other appurtenances in connection therewith, or any combination of the foregoing.

4. "Project" shall mean the acquisition by gift, purchase, lease or construction of buildings and facilities which are deemed necessary by the board for the proper performance of the instructional, research and service functions of the institutions, and additions to buildings and facilities, the reconstruction, completion, equipment, improvement, repair or remodeling of buildings and facilities, including the demolition of existing buildings and facilities which are to be replaced, the acquisition of air rights and the construction of projects thereon, and the acquisition of property of every kind and description, whether real, personal or mixed, for buildings and facilities by gift, purchase, lease, condemnation or otherwise and the improvement of the same, or any combination of the foregoing.

5. "Student fees and charges" shall mean all tuitions, fees and charges for general or special purposes levied against and collected from students attending the institutions except rates, fees, rentals or charges imposed and collected under the provisions of (a) sections 262.35 through 262.42, (b) sections 262.44 through 262.53, and (c) sections 262.55 through 262.66.

6. "Institutional income" shall mean income received by an institution from sources other than (a) student fees and charges, (b) rates, fees, rentals or charges imposed and collected under the provisions of (1) sections 262.35 through 262.42, (2) sections 262.44 through 262.53, and (3) sections 262.55 through 262.66, (c) state appropriations, and (d) "hospital income", as that term is defined in subsection 5 of section 263A.1.

7. "Bonds" shall mean revenue bonds which are payable solely and only from student fees and charges and institutional income received by the institution at which the project is being undertaken. [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262A.2]

262A.3 Ten-year program and two-year bond proposal submitted each year.

The board shall prepare and submit to the general assembly for approval or rejection a proposed ten-year building program for each institution, including an estimate of the maximum amount of bonds which the board expects to issue under the provisions of this chapter during each year of the ensuing biennium. Such program and estimate shall be submitted no later than seven days after the passage of this chapter by the general assembly and thereafter no later than seven days after the convening of each regular annual session of the general assembly. The building program shall contain a list of the buildings and facilities which the board deems necessary to further the educational objectives of the institutions. This list shall be revised annually, but no project shall be eliminated from the list when bonds have previously been issued by the board to pay the cost thereof. Each such list shall contain an estimate of the cost of each of the buildings and facilities referred to therein. If the general assembly rejects or fails to approve any proposed ten-year building program, such action or inaction shall not affect the status or legality of any project previously or subsequently authorized by the general assembly as provided in section 262A.4.

262A.4 Authorization of general assembly and governor.

Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the state board of regents after authorization by a constitutional majority of each house of the general assembly and approval by the governor may undertake and carry out any project as defined in this chapter at the institutions now or hereafter under the jurisdiction of the board. The state board of regents is authorized to operate, control, maintain, and manage buildings and facilities and additions to such buildings and facilities at each of said institutions. All contracts for the construction, reconstruction, completion, equipment, improvement, repair or remodeling of any buildings, additions, or facilities shall be let in accordance with the provisions of section 262.34. The title to all real estate acquired under the provisions of this chapter and the improvements erected thereon shall be taken and held in the name of the state of Iowa.

262A.5 Borrowing money and issuing bonds.

The board is authorized to borrow money under this chapter, and the board may issue and sell negotiable bonds to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at any institution and may refund and refinance bonds issued for any project or for refunding purposes at the same rate or at a higher or lower rate or rates of interest. Bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be sold by said board at public sale on the basis of sealed proposals received pursuant to a notice specifying the time and place of sale and the amount of bonds to be sold which shall be published at least once not less than seven days prior to the date of sale in a newspaper published in the state of Iowa and having a general circulation in said state. The provisions of chapter 75 shall not apply to bonds issued under authority contained in this chapter, but such bonds shall be sold upon terms of not less than par plus accrued interest. Bonds issued to refund other bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter may either be sold in the manner hereinbefore specified and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the obligations being refunded, or the refunding bonds may be exchanged for and in payment and discharge of the obligations being refunded. The refunding bonds may be sold or exchanged in installments at different times or an entire issue or series may be sold or exchanged at one time. Any issue or series of refunding bonds may be exchanged in part or sold in parts in installments at different times or at one time. The refunding bonds may be sold or exchanged at any time on, before, or after the maturity of any of the outstanding bonds or other obligations to be refinanced thereby and may be issued for the purpose of refunding a like or greater principal amount of bonds, except that the principal amount of the refunding bonds may exceed the principal amount of the bonds to be refunded to the extent necessary to pay any premium due on the call of the bonds to be refunded or to fund interest in arrears or which is to become due.

All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be payable solely and only from and shall be secured by an irrevocable pledge of a sufficient portion of the student fees and charges and institutional income received by the particular institution. All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall have all the qualities of a negotiable investment security under the laws of this state.

262A.6 Form and condition of bonds.

Such bonds may bear such date or dates, may bear interest at such rate or rates, payable semiannually, may mature at such time or times, may be in such form and denominations, may carry such registration privileges, may be payable at such place or places, may be subject to such terms of redemption prior to maturity with or without premium, if so stated on the face thereof, and may contain such terms and covenants, including the establishment of reserves, all as may be provided by the resolution of the board authorizing the issuance of the bonds. In addition to the estimated cost of construction, including site costs, the cost of the project may include interest upon the bonds during construction and for six months after the estimated completion date, the compensation of a fiscal agent or adviser, engineering, architectural, administrative and legal expenses and provision for contingencies. Such bonds shall be executed by the president of the state board of regents and attested by the executive secretary, secretary or other official thereof performing the duties of secretary, and the coupons thereto attached shall be executed with the original or facsimile signatures of said president, executive secretary, secretary or other official; provided, however, that the facsimile signature of either of such officers executing such bonds may be imprinted on the face of the bonds in lieu of the manual signature of such officer, but at least one of the signatures appearing on the face of each bond shall be a manual signature. Any bonds bearing the signatures of officers in office on the date of the signing thereof shall be valid and binding for all purposes, notwithstanding that before delivery thereof any or all such persons whose signatures appear thereon shall have ceased to be such officers. Each such bond shall state upon its face the name of the institution on behalf of which it is issued, that it is payable solely and only from the student fees and charges and institutional income received by such institution as hereinbefore provided, and that it does not constitute a debt of or charge against the state of Iowa within the meaning or application of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. The issuance of such bonds shall be recorded in the office of the treasurer of the institution on behalf of which the same are issued, and a certificate by such treasurer to this effect shall be printed on the back of each such bond.

262A.6A Iowa college super savings plan.

1. The board shall issue bonds authorized under section 262A.4 by the Seventy-second General Assembly* in an amount not exceeding nineteen million dollars in the form of capital appreciation bonds as provided in this section rather than the form prescribed in sections 262A.5 and 262A.6. The capital appreciation bonds shall be designed to be marketed primarily to Iowans to facilitate savings for future higher education costs.

2. Bonds issued under this section shall be sold by the board at private sale without published notice of any kind or the taking of competitive bids in a manner and upon terms as may be provided in the resolution of the board authorizing the issuance of the bonds. Chapter 75 does not apply to bonds issued under this section, but the bonds shall be sold upon terms of not less than ninety-seven percent of par plus accrued interest. Bonds issued to refund other bonds issued under this section may either be sold at public or private sale in the manner specified in this section and the proceeds applied to the payment of the obligations being refunded, or the refunding bonds may be exchanged for and in payment and discharge of the obligations being refunded. The refunding bonds may be sold or exchanged in installments at different times or an entire issue or series may be sold or exchanged at one time. An issue or series of refunding bonds may be exchanged in part or sold in parts in installments at different times or at one time. The refunding bonds may be sold or exchanged at any time on, before, or after the maturity of the outstanding bonds or other obligations to be refinanced and may be issued for the purpose of refunding a like or greater principal amount of bonds, except that the principal amount of the refunding bonds may exceed the principal amount of the bonds to be refunded to the extent necessary to pay any premium due on the call of the bonds to be refunded or to fund interest in arrears or which is to become due.

Bonds issued under this section are payable solely and only from and shall be secured by an irrevocable pledge of a sufficient portion of the student fees and charges and institutional income received by the particular institution. Bonds issued under this section have all the qualities of a negotiable investment security under the laws of this state.

3. The bonds may bear a date or dates, may bear interest at a rate or rates, payable at a time or times, may mature at a time or times, may be in a form and denominations, may carry registration privileges, may be payable at a place or places, may be subject to terms of redemption prior to maturity with or without premium, if so stated on their face, and may contain terms and covenants, including the establishment of reserves, all as may be provided by the resolution of the board authorizing the issuance of the bonds. In addition to the estimated cost of construction, including site costs, the cost of the project may include interest upon the bonds during construction and for six months after the estimated completion date, the compensation of a fiscal agent or adviser, engineering, architectural, administrative and legal expenses and provision for contingencies. The bonds shall be executed by the president of the state board of regents and attested by the executive secretary, secretary or other official of the state board performing the duties of secretary, and the coupons attached to the bonds shall be executed with the original or facsimile signatures of the president, executive secretary, secretary or other official. The facsimile signatures of the officers executing the bonds may be imprinted on the face of the bonds in lieu of the manual signature of the officer, but at least one of the signatures appearing on the face of each bond shall be a manual signature. Bonds bearing the signatures of officers in office on the date of the signing are valid and binding for all purposes, notwithstanding that before delivery any or all of the persons whose signatures appear have ceased to be officers. Each bond shall state upon its face the name of the institution on behalf of which it is issued, that it is payable solely and only from the student fees and charges and institutional income received by the institution, and that it does not constitute a debt of or charge against the state of Iowa within the meaning or application of a constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. The issuance of these bonds shall be recorded in the office of the treasurer of the institution on behalf of which the bonds are issued, and a certificate by the treasurer to this effect shall be printed on the back of each bond.

4. In negotiating a private sale of the bonds under this section the board shall assign preference to a syndicate of underwriters which is led by an Iowa domiciled underwriting firm to facilitate selling the marketing of the bonds to Iowans within the plan for the bonds. The plan shall include:

a. Provisions for advertisements in Iowa newspapers which precede, by at least two weeks, the date the bonds will go on sale to the public.

b. The advertisements shall include the date the bonds will go on sale and a list of offices where investors may purchase the bonds.

c. The bond issue shall be structured so that at least fifty percent of the bonds are sold at a price to the initial purchaser, not including an underwriter or bond house, of one thousand dollars or less. The board shall make a report of sale to the general assembly within ninety days of sale date. The report shall specify the terms and conditions of the sale as well as the placement of the bonds by denomination and by county.

262A.7 Resolution of board and covenants undertaken.

Upon the determination by the state board of regents to undertake and carry out any project or to refund outstanding bonds, said board shall adopt a resolution describing generally the contemplated project and setting forth the estimated cost thereof, or describing the obligations to be refunded, fixing the amount of bonds to be issued, the maturity or maturities, the interest rate or rates and all details in respect thereof. Such resolution shall contain such covenants as may be determined by the board as to the issuance of additional bonds that may thereafter be issued payable from the student fees and charges and institutional income received by the particular institution, the amendment or modification of the resolution authorizing the issuance of any bonds, the manner, terms, and conditions and the amount or percentage of assenting bonds necessary to effectuate such amendment or modification, and such other covenants as may be deemed necessary or desirable. In the discretion of the board any bonds issued under the terms of this chapter may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the board and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the boundaries of the state of Iowa, but no such trust indenture shall convey or mortgage the buildings and facilities or any part thereof. The provisions of this chapter and of any resolution or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds and providing for the establishment and maintenance of adequate student fees and charges and the application of the proceeds thereof, together with institutional income, shall constitute a contract with the holders of such bonds.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262A.7]

262A.8 Student fees to pay bonds.

Whenever bonds are issued by the state board of regents, it shall be the duty of said board to establish, impose, and collect student fees and charges at the institution on behalf of which such bonds are issued, and to adjust such student fees and charges from time to time, in order always to provide amounts which, together with the institutional income, will be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds as the same become due and to maintain a reserve therefor, and said board is authorized to pledge a sufficient amount of the student fees and charges and institutional income received by such institution for this purpose. Student fees and charges and institutional income received by one institution shall not be used to discharge bonds issued for or on account of another institution. All bonds issued under the terms of this chapter shall be exempt from taxation by the state of Iowa and the interest thereon shall be exempt from the state income tax.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §262A.8]

262A.9 Bond fund account.

A certified copy of each resolution providing for the issuance of bonds under this chapter shall be filed with the treasurer of the institution on behalf of which the bonds are issued and it shall be the duty of said treasurer to keep and maintain separate accounts for each issue of bonds in accordance with the covenants and directions set out in the resolution providing for the issuance thereof. A sufficient portion of the student fees and charges and institutional income received by each institution shall be held in trust by the treasurer thereof, separate and apart from all other funds, to be used solely and only for the purposes specified in this chapter and as may be required and provided for by the proceedings of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of each institution to disburse funds from the proper account for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds in accordance with the directions and covenants of the resolution authorizing the issuance thereof.

If the amount of bonds issued under this chapter exceeds the actual costs of the projects for which bonds were issued, the amount of the difference shall be used to pay the principal and interest due on bonds issued under this chapter.

87 Acts, ch 233, §469

262A.10 Bonds not state obligation.

Under no circumstances shall any bonds issued under the terms of this chapter be or become or be construed to constitute a debt of or a charge against the state of Iowa within the purview of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. No taxes, appropriations, or other funds of the state of Iowa may be pledged for or used to pay such bonds or the interest thereon but any such bonds shall be payable solely and only as to both principal and interest from the student fees and charges and institutional income received by the institutions of higher learning under the control of the state board of regents as provided in this chapter, and the sole remedy for any breach or default of the terms of any such bonds or proceedings for their issuance shall be a proceeding either in law or in equity by suit, action, or mandamus to enforce and compel performance of the duties required by this chapter and the terms of the resolution under which such bonds are issued.

262A.11 Bonds as security for investments.

All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business, all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business and all executors, administrators, guardians, trustees, and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds issued pursuant to this chapter; provided, however, that nothing contained in this section may be construed as relieving any persons from any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities for purchase or investment.

262A.12 Application for gifts, loans or grants.

The state board of regents is authorized to apply for and accept federal or nonfederal gifts, loans, or grants of funds and to use the same to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at any institution under the terms of this chapter or to use the same, together with student fees and charges and institutional income, for the payment of debt service on bonds issued and to be issued by the board pursuant to authority contained in this chapter, in such manner as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, which grants of funds or other aid shall be considered to constitute and may be commingled with student fees and charges and institutional income and may, together with such student fees and charges and institutional income, be pledged by the board in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the bond resolution to the payment of debt service on bonds issued by the board under the authority contained in this chapter.

262A.13 Reports to general assembly.

The state board of regents shall determine, in consultation with the legislative fiscal bureau, the financial information to be included in line item budget information for projects funded by the issuance of bonds or notes under this chapter and shall submit the line item budget information to the general assembly as requested. The state board of regents shall submit quarterly reports to the general assembly concerning the projects funded by the issuance of bonds or notes under this chapter as follows

1 Identification of both undercharges and overcharges for line items of projects

2 Identification of contracts in which any line item for a project exceeds the adopted budget for that line item by ten percent or more

3 Identification of complaints received by an institution regarding the construction of a project

If the state board of regents approves a change in the amount of the line item of a budget for a project, the change shall be transmitted to the appropriations committees of the house of representatives and senate, while the general assembly is in session, and to the legislative council, when the general assembly is not in session, for review

(8) The college of law.

(9) The college of liberal arts and sciences.

(10) The Iowa department of public health.

(11) The department of natural resources.

(12) The department of agriculture and land stewardship.

b. The active participation of the national cancer institute, the agency for toxic substances and disease registries, the national center for disease control, the United States environmental protection agency, and the United States geological survey, shall also be sought and encouraged.

3. The center may:

a. Assemble all pertinent laboratory data on the presence and concentration of contaminants in soil, air, water, and food, and develop a data retrieval system to allow the findings to be easily accessed by exposed populations.

b. Make use of data from the existing cancer and birth defect statewide recording systems and develop similar recording systems for specific organ diseases which are suspected to be caused by exposure to environmental toxins.

c. Develop registries of persons known to be exposed to environmental hazards so that the health status of these persons may be examined over time.

d. Develop highly sensitive biomedical assays which may be used in exposed persons to determine early evidence of adverse health effects.

e. Perform epidemiologic studies to relate occurrence of a disease to contaminant exposure and to ensure that other factors known to cause the disease in question can be ruled out.

f. Foster relationships and ensure the exchange of information with other teaching institutions or laboratories in the state which are concerned with the many forms of environmental contamination.

g. Implement programs of professional education and training of medical students, physicians, nurses, scientists, and technicians in the causes and prevention of environmentally induced disease.

h. Implement public education programs to inform persons of research results and the significance of the studies.

i. Respond as requested to any branch of government for consultation in the drafting of laws and regulations to reduce contamination of the environment.

4. An advisory committee consisting of one representative of each of the organizations enumerated in subsection 2, paragraph "a", is established The advisory committee shall

a. Employ, as a state employee, a full time director to operate the center The director shall coordinate the efforts of the heads of each of the major divisions of laboratory analysis, epidemiology and biostatistics, biomedical assays, and exposure modeling and shall also coordinate the efforts of professional and support staff in the operation of the center

b. Submit an annual report of the activities of the center to the legislative council of the general assembly by January 15 of each year

5 The center shall maintain the confidentiality of any information obtained from existing registries and from participants in research programs Specific research projects involving human subjects shall be approved by the State University of Iowa institutional review board

6 The center may solicit, accept, and administer moneys appropriated to the center by a public or private agency

263A.1 Definitions.

The following words or terms, as used in this chapter, shall have the respective meanings as stated

1 "Board" shall mean the state board of regents

2 "Institution" shall mean the state University of Iowa

3 "Buildings and facilities" shall mean buildings to be used primarily for service, clinical instructional and clinical research purposes in the field of medicine with particular emphasis on the family practice of medicine and such other facilities as are deemed necessary by the board to support and carry out the service, instructional, and research objectives of the hospitals, medical clinics, and medical service laboratories of the institution, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, hospital buildings, clinic buildings, laboratory buildings, clinical staff facilities, building for housing interns, resident physicians and nurses, and medical record and film storage buildings, or any combination thereof

4 "Project" shall mean the acquisition by gift, purchase, lease, or construction of buildings and facilities and additions to such buildings and facilities, the reconstruction, completion, equipment, improvement, repair, or remodeling of buildings and facilities, including the demolition of existing buildings and facilities which are to be replaced, and the acquisition of property of every kind and description, whether real, personal or mixed, for buildings and facilities by gift, purchase, lease, condemnation, or otherwise and the improvement of the same or any combination of the foregoing

5 "Hospital income" shall mean the income and funds received by the hospitals, medical service clinics, and medical service laboratories of the state University of Iowa, including the proceeds of rates, fees, and charges for services rendered by said hospitals, clinics, and laboratories, but excluding state appropriations to the institution

6 "Bonds or notes" shall mean revenue bonds or revenue notes which are payable solely and only from hospital income

263A.2 Legislative approval before acting hereunder.

Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the state board of regents after authorization by a constitutional majority of the general assembly may undertake and carry out any project as defined in this chapter at the state University of Iowa The state board of regents is authorized to operate, control, maintain, and manage buildings and facilities and additions to such buildings and facilities at said institution. All contracts for the construction, reconstruction, completion, equipment, improvement, repair, or remodeling of any buildings, additions, or facilities shall be let in accordance with the provisions of section 262.34. The title to all real estate acquired under the provisions of this chapter and the improvements erected thereon shall be taken and held in the name of the state of Iowa.

263A.3 Bonds or notes issued.

The board is authorized to borrow money and to issue and sell negotiable bonds or notes to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at the institution and to refund and refinance bonds or notes issued for any project or for refunding purposes at the same rate or at a lower rate. Such bonds or notes shall be sold by the board at public sale on the basis of sealed proposals received pursuant to a notice specifying the time and place of sale and the amount of bonds to be sold which shall be published at least once not less than seven days prior to the date of sale in a newspaper published in the state of Iowa and having a general circulation in the state. The provisions of chapter 75 shall not apply to bonds or notes issued under authority contained in this chapter, but such bonds or notes shall be sold upon terms of not less than par plus accrued interest. Bonds or notes issued to refund other bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this chapter may either be sold in the manner specified in this chapter and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the obligations being refunded, or the refunding bonds or notes may be exchanged for and in payment and discharge of the obligations being refunded. The refunding bonds or notes may be sold or exchanged in installments at different times or an entire issue or series may be sold or exchanged at one time. Any issue or series of refunding bonds or notes may be exchanged in part or sold in parts in installments at different times or at one time. The refunding bonds or notes may be sold or exchanged at any time on, before, or after the maturity of any of the outstanding notes, bonds, or other obligations to be refinanced thereby and may be issued for the purpose of refunding a like or greater principal amount of bonds or notes, except that the principal amount of the refunding bonds or notes may exceed the principal amount of the bonds or notes to be refunded to the extent necessary to pay any premium due on the call of the bonds or notes to be refunded or to fund interest in arrears or about to become due.

All bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be payable solely and only from and shall be secured by an irrevocable pledge of a sufficient portion of the hospital income of the institution. All bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this chapter shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments under the laws of this state.

263A.4 Bonds or notes provisions.

Such bonds or notes may bear such date or dates, may bear interest at such rate or rates, payable semiannually, may mature at such time or times, may be in such form and denominations, carry such registration privileges, may be payable at such place or places, may be subject to such terms of redemption prior to maturity with or without premium, if so stated on the face thereof, and may contain such terms and covenants, including the establishment of reserves, all as may be provided by the resolution of the board authorizing the issuance of the bonds or notes. In addition to the estimated cost of construction, including site costs, the cost of the project may include interest upon the bonds or notes during construction and for six months after the estimated completion date, the compensation of a fiscal agent or adviser, engineering, architectural, administrative, and legal expenses and provision for contingencies. Such bonds or notes shall be executed by the president of the state board of regents and attested by the executive secretary, secretary, or other official thereof performing the duties of secretary, and the coupons thereto attached shall be executed with the original or facsimile signatures of said president, executive secretary, secretary, or other official, provided, however, that the facsimile signature of either of such officers executing such bonds may be imprinted on the face of the bonds in lieu of the manual signature of such officer, but at least one of the signatures appearing on the face of each bond shall be a manual signature. Any bonds or notes bearing the signatures of officers in office on the date of the signing thereof shall be valid and binding for all purposes, notwithstanding that before delivery thereof any or all such persons whose signatures appear thereon shall have ceased to be such officers. Each such bond or note shall state upon its face the name of the institution on behalf of which it is issued, that it is payable solely and only from hospital income received by such institution as provided in this chapter, and that it does not constitute a debt of or charge against the state of Iowa within the meaning or application of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. The issuance of such bonds or notes shall be recorded in the office of the treasurer of the institution, and a certificate by such treasurer to this effect shall be printed on the back of each such bond or note.

263A.5 Resolution adopted — terms and conditions of bonds or notes.

Upon the determination by the state board of regents to undertake and carry out any project or to refund outstanding bonds or notes, said board shall adopt a resolution describing generally the contemplated project and setting forth the estimated cost thereof, or describing the obligations to be refunded, fixing the amount of bonds or notes to be issued, the maturity or maturities, the interest rate or rates, and all details in respect thereof. Such resolution shall contain such covenants as may be determined by the board as to the issuance of additional bonds or notes that may thereafter be issued payable from the hospital income received by the institution, the amendment or modification of the resolution authorizing the issuance of any bonds or notes, the manner, terms, and conditions and the amount or percentage of assenting bonds or notes necessary to effectuate such amendment or modification, and such other covenants as may be deemed necessary or desirable. In the discretion of the board, any bonds or notes issued under the terms of this chapter may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the board and a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the boundaries of the state of Iowa, but no such trust indenture shall convey or mortgage the buildings and facilities or any part thereof. The provisions of this chapter and of any resolution or other proceedings authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes and providing for the establishment and maintenance of adequate rates, fees, and charges for services rendered by the hospitals, medical clinics, and medical laboratories of the institution and the application of the proceeds thereof, together with other hospital income, shall constitute a contract with the holders of such bonds or notes.

263A.6 Rates, fees and charges for services.

Whenever bonds or notes are issued by the state board of regents, it shall be the duty of said board to establish, impose, and collect rates, fees, and charges for services rendered by the hospitals, medical clinics, and medical laboratories of the institution and to adjust such rates, fees, and charges from time to time, in order to always provide amounts which, together with other hospital income, will be sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on such bonds or notes as the same become due and to maintain a reserve therefor; and said board is authorized to pledge a sufficient amount of the hospital income received by such institution for this purpose. All bonds or notes issued under the terms of this chapter shall be exempt from taxation by the state of Iowa and the interest thereon shall be exempt from the state income tax.

263A.7 Accounts of all funds separate.

A certified copy of each resolution providing for the issuance of bonds or notes under this chapter shall be filed with the treasurer of the institution and it shall be the duty of said treasurer to keep and maintain separate accounts for each issue of bonds or notes in accordance with the covenants and directions set out in the resolution providing for the issuance thereof. A sufficient portion of the hospital income received by the institution shall be held in trust by the treasurer thereof, separate and apart from all other funds, to be used solely and only for the purposes specified in this chapter and as may be required and provided for by the proceedings of the board authorizing the issuance of bonds or notes. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of the institution to disburse funds from the proper account for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds or notes in accordance with the directions and covenants of the resolution authorizing the issuance thereof.

If the amount of bonds or notes issued under this chapter exceeds the actual costs of the projects for which the bonds or notes were issued, the amount of the difference shall be used to pay the principal and interest due on bonds or notes issued under this chapter.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §263A 7]

87 Acts, ch 233, §470

263A.8 No obligation of the state on bonds or notes.

Under no circumstances shall any bonds or notes issued under the terms of this chapter be or become or be construed to constitute a debt of or a charge against the state of Iowa within the purview of any constitutional or statutory limitation or provision. No taxes, or other funds of the state of Iowa appropriated to the institution may be pledged for or used to pay such bonds or notes or the interest thereon but any such bonds or notes shall be payable solely and only as to both principal and interest from the hospital income received by the institution as hereinafore provided, and the sole remedy for any breach or default of the terms of any such bonds or notes or proceedings for their issuance shall be a proceeding either in law or in equity by suit, action, or mandamus to enforce and compel performance of the duties required by this chapter and the terms of the resolution under which such bonds or notes are issued.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §263A 8]

263A.9 Investment in bonds or notes by financial institutions.

All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies, and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business, all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business and all executors, administrators, guardians, trustees, and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any bonds or notes issued pursuant to this chapter, provided, however, that nothing contained in this section may be construed as relieving any persons from any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities for purchase or investment.

263A.10 Gifts, loans or grants accepted.

The state board of regents is authorized to apply for and accept federal or nonfederal gifts, loans, or grants of funds and to use the same to pay all or any part of the cost of carrying out any project at the institution under the terms of this chapter or to pay any bonds or notes and interest thereon issued for any of the purposes specified in this chapter.

[C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §263A.10]

263A.11 Reports to general assembly.

The state board of regents shall determine, in consultation with the legislative fiscal bureau, the financial information to be included in line item budget information for projects funded by the issuance of bonds or notes under this chapter and shall submit the line item budget information to the general assembly as requested. The state board of regents shall submit quarterly reports to the general assembly concerning the projects funded by the issuance of bonds or notes under this chapter as follows:

1. Identification of both undercharges and overcharges for line items of projects.
2. Identification of contracts in which any line item for a project exceeds the adopted budget for that line item by ten percent or more.
3. Identification of complaints received by an institution regarding the construction of a project.

If the state board of regents approves a change in the amount of the line item of a budget for a project, the change shall be transmitted to the appropriations committees of the house of representatives and senate, while the general assembly is in session, and to the legislative council, when the general assembly is not in session, for review.

Section 263A 11, Code 1985, transferred to §263A 12 in Code 1987

263A.12 Provisions independent of any other statute.

This chapter shall be construed as providing an alternative and independent method for carrying out any project related to the medical school and any project related to the hospital at the institution, for the issuance and sale or exchange of bonds or notes in connection therewith, and for refunding bonds or notes pertinent thereto, without reference to any other statute, and shall not be construed as an amendment of or subject to the provisions of any other law, and no publication of any notice, whether under section 23.12 or otherwise, and no other or further proceedings in respect to the issuance or sale or exchange of bonds or notes under this chapter shall be required except such as are prescribed by this chapter, any provisions of other statutes of the state to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 264

PERPETUATION OF COLLEGE CREDITS

- 264.1 Mandatory transfer of record of credits.
- 264.2 Central depository.
- 264.3 Duty of depository.
- 264.4 Transcripts.

- 264.5 Fees.
- 264.6 Penalty.
- 264.7 Records of prior defunct institutions.

264.1 Mandatory transfer of record of credits.

The trustees or officers of any institution of higher learning, whether incorporated or not, upon going out of existence or ceasing to function as an educational institution must transfer to the office of the registrar of the state University of Iowa complete records of all grades attained by its students.

[C35, §3953-e1; C39, §3953.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §264.1]

264.2 Central depository.

The office of the registrar of the state university is hereby designated the central depository for the scholastic records of those educational institutions in this state which may hereafter cease to exist.

[C35, §3953-e2; C39, §3953.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §264.2]

264.3 Duty of depository.

The office of the registrar of the state university shall proceed to collect the scholastic records of those educational institutions which may become extinct, and the registrar shall have the supervision, care, custody, and control of said records.

[C35, §3953-e3; C39, §3953.3; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §264.3]

264.4 Transcripts.

The registrar of the state university shall prepare transcripts of such scholastic records and when requested to do so the registrar must furnish a copy of the said transcript to a former student. Whenever such transcript is made and after it has been compared with the original it shall be certified by the registrar of the state university, and thereafter it shall be considered and accepted as evidence for all purposes the same as the original would be [C35, §3953 e4, C39, §3953.4; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §264 4]

264.5 Fees.

For the preparation of each of such transcripts the state university may charge a nominal fee, not to exceed five dollars, to compensate the institution for the actual labor of recording the credits, preparing a transcript, postage, etc

[C35, §3953 e5, C39, §3953.5; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §264 5]

264.6 Penalty.

The members of the board of trustees and the officers of an institution of higher learning who do not file, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the record of grades in the office of the registrar of the state university within twelve months after the said institution has been closed or has ceased to function as an educational institution, shall be guilty of a simple misdemeanor

[C35, §3953 e6, C39, §3953.6; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §264 6]

264.7 Records of prior defunct institutions.

The office of the registrar of the state university is hereby designated the central depository for the records of any institution of higher learning which prior to the passage of this chapter may have ceased to exist, provided the custodian of the said records or former officials of the institution may wish to take advantage of the provisions of this chapter

[C35, §3953 e7, C39, §3953.7; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §264 7]

LABORATORY SCHOOLS

- 265 1 Authority
- 265 2 Buildings and facilities
- 265 3 Financing
- 265 4 Purposes

- 265 5 Allocations to debt retirement fund
- 265 6 State aid applicable
- 265 7 Debt limit provisions not applicable

265.1 Authority.

The state board of regents is authorized to establish and operate elementary and secondary laboratory schools at the institutions of higher education under its control For the purpose of this chapter, laboratory school shall mean a school operated by an educational institution for the purpose of instructing students, training teachers, and advancing teaching methods

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §265 1]

265.2 Buildings and facilities.

Existing buildings and facilities now used for said purposes together with any additions to or alterations thereof and any new structures and facilities therefor, as the board shall determine to be suitable and authorize for said purposes, shall be set aside as the area on the respective campuses constituting the laboratory school for all purposes of this chapter

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §265 2]

265.3 Financing.

A laboratory school at each institution where so established shall constitute a self liquidating improvement unit to the extent funds are not appropriated by the general assembly and shall qualify for and may be financed as such under the provisions of sections 262 44 through 262 53

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §265 3]

265.4 Purposes.

For the purposes of this chapter, the state board of regents and the board of directors of any school district in the state of Iowa may enter into contracts for the laboratory schools to furnish instruction to the pupils of such school district and to train teachers on an agreed basis for tuition and other compensation to be paid by the school district Such contracts shall be in writing and may extend for any stipulated period not to exceed fifteen years During the agreed period, such contracts shall be obligatory on both the school district and the state board of regents

[C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §265 4]

265.5 Allocations to debt retirement fund.

The state board of regents may out of funds appropriated or otherwise available for the operation of the institution at which the laboratory school is located allocate an annual payment to the debt retirement fund for the buildings, areas, and facilities used by the institution for the laboratory school until such time as said improvement is fully paid The board of regents may pledge said annual allotment together with the tuition received from school districts and all other income received from the operation of said laboratory school as security for the mortgage, bonds, or other debt by which said laboratory school is financed as authorized herein [C66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §265 5]

265.6 State aid applicable.

If the state board of regents has established a laboratory school, it shall receive state aid pursuant to chapters 281 and 442 for each pupil enrolled in the laboratory school in the same amount as the public school district in which the pupil resides would receive aid for that pupil and shall transmit the amount received to the institution of higher education at which the laboratory school has been established If the board of a school district terminates a contract with the state board of regents for attendance of pupils in a laboratory school, the school district shall inform the state comptroller of the number of these pupils who are enrolled in the district on the second Friday of the following September The state comptroller shall pay to the school district, from funds appropriated in section 442 26, an amount equal to the amount of state aid paid for each pupil in that school district for that school year in payments made as provided in section 442 26 However, payments shall not be made for pupils for which an advance is received by the district under section 442 28

265.7 Debt limit provisions not applicable.

The obligations of any school district on any contract between it and the state board of regents entered into pursuant to this chapter shall be payable only out of current receipts from taxes, tuition or other income available therefor each year, and shall not constitute a debt for the purposes of any statutory or constitutional provision limiting the obligations said school district may incur 266.1 Grants accepted.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Legislative assent is given to the purposes of the various congressional grants to the state for the endowment and support of an Iowa State University of science and technology, and an agricultural experiment station as a department thereof, upon the terms, conditions, and restrictions contained in all Acts of Congress relating thereto, and the state assumes the duties, obligations, and responsibilities thereby imposed. All moneys appropriated by the state because of the obligations thus assumed, and all funds arising from said congressional grants, shall be invested or expended in accordance with the provision of such grant, for the use and support of said university of science and technology located at Ames.

[R60, §1714; C73, §1604; C97, §2645; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4031; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §266.1]

266.2 Courses of study.

There shall be adopted and taught at said university of science and technology practical courses of study, embracing in their leading branches such as relate to agriculture and mechanic arts, mines and mining, and ceramics, and such other branches as are best calculated to educate thoroughly the agricultural and industrial classes in the several pursuits and professions of life, including military tactics. If a teachers training course is established it shall include the subject of physical education.

266.3 Investigation of mineral resources.

The said university of science and technology shall provide, as a part of its engineering experiment station work, for the investigation of clays, cement materials, fuels, and other mineral resources of the state with especial reference to their economic uses, and for the publication and dissemination of information useful to such industries, and for the testing of the products thereof.

[S13, §2674-e; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4033; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §266.3]

266.4 Co-operative agricultural extension work.

The assent of the legislature of the state of Iowa is hereby given to the provisions and requirements of an Act of Congress approved May 8, 1914, providing for co-operative agricultural extension work between the agricultural colleges in the several states receiving the benefits of the Act of Congress approved July 2, 1862, and amendments thereto.

[SS15, §2682-y1; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4034; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §266.4]

266.5 State agency.

The state board of regents is hereby authorized and empowered to receive the grants of money appropriated under said Act and to organize and conduct agricultural and home economics extension work, which shall be carried on in connection with the Iowa State University of science and technology in accordance with the terms and conditions expressed in the Act of Congress aforesaid.

[SS15, §2682-y1; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4035; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §266.5]

266.6 Purnell Act.

The assent of the legislature of the state of Iowa is hereby given to the provisions and requirements of the congressional Act approved February 24, 1925, commonly known as the Purnell Act; and that, in accordance with the requirements thereof, the state agrees to devote the moneys thus received to the more complete endowment and maintenance of the agricultural experiment station of the Iowa State University of science and technology as provided in said Act.

[C27, 31, 35, §4035-b1; C39, §4035.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §266.6]

266.7 Receiving agent.

The treasurer of the Iowa State University of science and technology is hereby authorized and empowered to receive the grants of money appropriated under the said Act.

[C27, 31, 35, §4035-b2; C39, §4035.2; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §266.7]

266.8 Hazardous waste research program.

1. A hazardous waste technical research and assistance program is created at Iowa state university of science and technology. The program shall be administered by the center for industrial research and service which shall coordinate with and use the services of the civil engineering department or other university departments at Iowa state university for the purposes set forth in this section.

2. The center for industrial research and service may seek and receive grants, donations, gifts, bequests, or other moneys from public and private sources to be used for the purposes set forth in this section.

3. The hazardous waste technical research and assistance program is created specifically for and authorized to do all of the following, upon the request of a business, firm, or corporation located within Iowa or the state or a political subdivision of the state:

a. Conduct research into new techniques, methods, and applications for the proper and safe treatment or disposal of hazardous wastes.

b. Provide advice and consultation on the proper, safe, and cost-effective methods, techniques, and applications for the treatment, storage, or disposal of hazardous wastes.

c. Provide other technical or financial assistance to aid in the proper, safe, and cost-effective treatment or disposal of hazardous wastes.

4. In carrying out its responsibilities under this section, the hazardous waste technical research and assistance program shall give priority to providing research and assistance on hazardous waste sites which impair the future economic development of a particular area including but not limited to the development of infrastructure, highways, sewers, industrial sites, educational facilities, and other assets essential for the development of a city.

5. The center for industrial research and service shall report to the general assembly annually on receipt and disbursement of funds and activities conducted by the hazardous waste technical research and assistance program pursuant to this section.

6. This section shall not be construed to do any of the following:

a. Relieve any person receiving assistance under this section of any duties or liabilities otherwise created or imposed upon the person by law.

b. Transfer to the state, Iowa state university of science and technology, or any employee of the state or the university, any duty or liability otherwise imposed by law on a person receiving assistance under this section.

c. Create any liability to the state, Iowa state university of science and technology, or any employee of the state or the university for any act or omission arising from the providing of assistance or advice in cleaning up, handling, or disposal of hazardous waste. However, an individual may be liable if the act or omission results from intentional wrongdoing or gross negligence.

HOG-CHOLERA SERUM LABORATORY

266.24 Directors — assistants — salary.

The state board of regents is hereby authorized to maintain at Ames, in connection with the Iowa State University of science and technology, a laboratory for the manufacture and distribution of hog-cholera serum, toxines, vaccines, and biological products and for such other work as the said state board of regents may, from time to time, deem advisable in the veterinary college, and to provide the necessary equipment therefor. The president of said university shall appoint the director of said laboratory and such assistants as are deemed necessary to efficiently carry on said work; and the president shall, with the approval of said board, fix the salaries of said assistants.

General regulations, ch 166

266.25 Sale of serum.

The director of said laboratory may, when an emergency is declared to exist by the state board of regents, furnish said serum to any person, together with specific instructions for the use of same, at the approximate cost of manufacture, and such cost shall be stated on the package. The director of the serum laboratory is authorized to purchase serum or other biological products which the director deems reliable, and the director may sell the same at approximate cost in the same manner as products of the laboratory are sold.

[SS15, §2538-w1; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4043; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §266.25]

266.26 Receipts — how deposited — expenses.

The director shall deposit all funds with the treasurer of the Iowa State University of science and technology, which treasurer shall be responsible on the treasurer's bond for the same. Upon receipt of said moneys, the said treasurer shall issue duplicate receipts therefor, one of which the treasurer shall deliver to the director and the other to the secretary of the state board of regents. Said moneys shall be kept by said treasurer in a separate fund to be known as the serum fund; and the treasurer shall pay out from said fund, as other university funds are expended, but only for expenses directly connected with the maintenance and development of said laboratory and for grounds and buildings. Said grounds and buildings shall be used, when so authorized by the board of regents, for any purpose in connection with the study, control, or treatment of animal diseases.

[SS15, §2538-w2; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4044; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §266.26]

DIVISION IV

RESEARCH AND EXTENSION SERVICES

266.31 Meat export research center established — director — assistants — salaries.

The state board of regents shall maintain at Ames, in connection with the agricultural experiment station at Iowa state university of science and technology, a meat export research center. The center shall research technological, economic, and other factors involved in improving the performance of Iowa products in the meat export market with emphasis on the manufacture of value added meat products. The objectives of the center are

1 To develop innovative meat processing technology to expand and support the export of meat products from Iowa,

2 To provide information to assist in assessing demand characteristics of international and domestic markets for meat and manufactured meat products,

3 To evaluate alternatives to help decision makers develop public policy concerning international and domestic trade in commodities resulting from livestock production and manufacturing of animal products,

4 To provide a center to enhance the exchange of information relative to technology, policy considerations and strategy supporting the export of animal products

The president of the university shall appoint the director of the center and assistants as are deemed necessary to carry on the work of the center. The president shall fix the salaries of the director and assistants with the approval of the board

266.32 Acceptance of private funds.

The state board of regents may accept grants of money from private sources for use in maintaining the meat export research center

84 Acts, ch 1315, §14

266.33 Horticultural research.

The Iowa agricultural experiment station at Iowa state university of science and technology shall conduct horticultural research to identify and improve fruits and vegetables which can be effectively grown in Iowa to provide more diversity for Iowa agriculture. The experiment station shall investigate production, marketing, and management techniques, adaptability, and horticultural potential of the fruits and vegetables for both processing and for fresh market sale

84 Acts, ch 1315, §16

266.34 State extension fruit specialist.

The Iowa cooperative extension service in agriculture and home economics shall employ a state extension fruit specialist to provide leadership in the development of a broader array of educational materials and field staff training. The materials and training should provide, in popular and practical terms, the available research at Iowa state university of science and technology and elsewhere that will enable area and county extension services to expand their efforts with existing and potential fruit growers for marketing in or outside of this state

266.35 Crop research.

The agricultural experiment station at Iowa state university of science and technology shall conduct research to identify crops, other than corn and soybeans, which can be effectively grown in Iowa either alone or in multiple cropping schemes to provide more diversity for Iowa agriculture. The experiment station shall investigate production and management techniques, adaptability, feasibility, marketability, and agronomic potential of the alternate crops

84 Acts, ch 1315, §21

266.36 Financial management services.

The Iowa cooperative extension service in agriculture and home economics shall accelerate the development of computer software and field staff training to increase the extension service's ability to offer financial management and counseling services to individual farm operators and to increase the analysis and understanding of financial management, marketing and related subjects among farm operators

84 Acts, ch 1315, §27

266.37 Use of corrections department institutional facilities and resources.

Iowa State University of science and technology shall use resources, including property, facilities, labor, and services, connected with institutions listed in section 246.102, under the authority of the Iowa department of corrections, to the extent practicable, for research, development, and testing of technological, horticultural, biological, and economic factors involved in improving the performance of Iowa agricultural products. However, use by the university is subject to the approval of the director of the department of corrections 266.38 Soil test interpretation.

The Iowa cooperative extension service in agriculture and home economics shall develop and publish material on the interpretation of the results of soil tests. The material shall also feature the danger to groundwater quality from the overuse of fertilizers and pesticides. The material shall be available from the service at cost and any person providing soil tests for agricultural or horticultural purposes shall provide the material to the customer with the soil test results

87 Acts, ch 225, §229

266.39 Leopold center for sustainable agriculture.

1 For the purposes of this section, "sustainable agriculture" means the appropriate use of crop and livestock systems and agricultural inputs supporting those activities which maintain economic and social viability while preserving the high productivity and quality of Iowa's land

2 The Leopold center for sustainable agriculture is established in the Iowa agricultural and home economics experiment station at Iowa State University of science and technology. The center shall conduct and sponsor research to identify and reduce negative environmental and socio-economic impacts of agricultural practices. The center also shall research and assist in developing emerging alternative practices that are consistent with a sustainable agriculture. The center shall develop in association with the Iowa cooperative extension service in agriculture and home economics an educational framework to inform the agricultural community and the general public of its findings.

3 An advisory board is established consisting of the following members:

a Three persons from Iowa State University of science and technology, appointed by its president.

b Two persons from the State University of Iowa, appointed by its president.

c Two persons from the University of Northern Iowa, appointed by its president.

d Two representatives of private colleges and universities within the state, to be nominated by the Iowa association of independent colleges and universities, and appointed by the Iowa coordinating council for post high school education.

e One representative of the department of agriculture and land stewardship, appointed by the secretary of agriculture.

f One representative of the department of natural resources, appointed by the director.

g One man and one woman, actively engaged in agricultural production, appointed by the state soil conservation committee.

The terms of the members shall begin and end as provided in section 69.19 and any vacancy shall be filled by the original appointing authority. The terms shall be for four years and shall be staggered as determined by the president of Iowa State University of science and technology.

4 The Iowa agricultural and home economics experiment station shall employ a director for the center, who shall be appointed by the president of Iowa State University of science and technology. The director of the center shall employ the necessary research and support staff. The director and staff shall be employees of Iowa State University of science and technology. No more than five hundred thousand dollars of the funds received from the agriculture management account annually shall be expended by the center for the salaries and benefits of the employees of the center, including the salary and benefits of the director. The remainder of the funds received from the agriculture management account shall be used to sponsor research grants and projects on a competitive basis from Iowa colleges and universities and private nonprofit agencies and foundations. The center may also solicit additional grants and funding from public and private nonprofit agencies and foundations.

The director shall prepare an annual report.

5 The board shall provide the president of Iowa State University of science and technology with a list of three candidates from which the director shall be selected. The board shall provide an additional list of three candidates if requested by the president. The board shall advise the director in the development of a budget, on the policies and procedures of the center, in the funding of research grant proposals, and regarding program planning and review.

271.3 Governance.

The state board of regents shall have full power to manage, control, and govern the Oakdale campus in the same manner as other institutions under its control

[C66, 71, 73, 75, §271 20, C77, 79, 81, §271 3]

271.4 Patient treatment.

Oakdale campus authorities may provide for treatment of such patients as they deem advisable and for which facilities and services are available. Except for patients admitted who are patients referred from the university hospitals, the Oakdale campus shall collect from the patients or a person liable for such support, such reasonable charges for care, service and treatment as may be fixed by the state board of regents. Earnings shall be deposited with the treasurer of the state University of Iowa for the use and benefit of the Oakdale campus and to supplement any other sources of income. Patient treatment and care on the Oakdale campus shall be provided by the faculty of the health science colleges of the state University of Iowa, staff of the university hospital, and professional and other staff as may be employed by the Oakdale campus

271.5 Care of patients — professional services.

Physicians and dentists who care for patients on the Oakdale campus may charge for their professional services under such rules and plans as may be approved by the state board of regents

[C66, 71, 73, 75, §271 18, C77, 79, 81, §271 5]

271.6 Integrated treatment of university hospital patients.

The authorities of the Oakdale campus may authorize patients for admission to the hospital on the Oakdale campus who are referred from the university hospitals and who shall retain the same status, classification, and authorization for care which they had at the university hospitals. Patients referred from the university hospitals to the Oakdale campus shall be deemed to be patients of the university hospitals. Chapters 255 and 255A and operating policies of the university hospitals shall apply to the patients and to the payment for their care the same as the provisions apply to patients who are treated on the premises of the university hospitals

 272A 4 Per diem and expenses

272A 5 Organization and rules
 272A 6 Criteria of professional practices
 272A 7 Financing
 272A 8 Appointment of administrative law judges

272A.1 Title.

This chapter shall be known as the “Professional Teaching Practices Act ”
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §272A 1]

272A.2 Definition.

For the purpose of this chapter, the “profession of teaching” or “teaching profession” shall mean persons engaged in teaching or providing related administrative, supervisory, or other services requiring certification from the state board of education
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §272A 2]

272A.3 Teaching practices commission.

A professional teaching practices commission, which shall be included in the department of education for administrative purposes, is created consisting of nine members who shall be appointed by the governor. A person, in order to be qualified for appointment to the commission, shall hold a certificate authorizing the person to teach in the state of Iowa or be a member of the faculty of an approved teacher education institution in Iowa. The commission shall be composed of four classroom teachers, three school administrators, one member of faculties representing two year colleges or Iowa colleges or universities approved for teacher education, and one member representing the department of education.

Initial appointments shall be Four for one year, three for two years, and two for three years. There after, terms shall be for three years. A member may be reappointed to the commission for only one time
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §272A 3]

272A.4 Per diem and expenses.

The members of the commission shall be paid their necessary travel and expense while engaged in their official duties. Members may also be eligible to receive compensation as provided in section 7E 6
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §272A 4]
 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1456
 Compensation see §272A 4 Code 1985 and §7E 6(1)

272A.5 Organization and rules.

This commission shall have the authority to select its own chairperson, establish procedures for its own government and for the development of standards, adopt rules and regulations, and secure legal and other services necessary to its function
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §272A 5]

272A.6 Criteria of professional practices.

The commission shall have the responsibility of developing criteria of professional practices including, but not limited to, such areas as (1) Contractual obligations, (2) competent performance of all members of the teaching profession, and (3) ethical practice toward other members of the profession, parents, students, and the community. However, membership or nonmembership in any teachers’ organization shall never be a criterion of an individual’s professional standing. A violation, as determined by the commission following a hearing, of any of the criteria so adopted shall be deemed to be unprofessional practice and a legal basis for the suspension or revocation of a certificate by the state board of educational examiners.

The commission, in administering its responsibilities under this chapter, after a hearing, shall exonerate, warn or reprimand the member of the profession or may recommend the holding of a certification suspension or revocation hearing by the state board of educational examiners
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §272A 6]

272A.7 Financing.

The commission shall be financed by the members of the teaching profession in the amount necessary to carry out the purpose of this chapter
 [C71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §272A 7]

272A.8 Appointment of administrative law judges.

The commission shall maintain a list of qualified persons to serve as administrative law judges who are experienced in the educational system of this state when a hearing is requested under section 279 24. When requested under section 279 24, the commission shall submit a list of five qualified administrative law judges to the parties. The hearing shall be held pursuant to the provisions of chapter 17A relating to contested cases. The full costs of the hearing shall be shared equally by the parties. A person who is employed as a teacher or administrator by a school district is not eligible to serve as an administrative law judge

CHAPTER 272B

EDUCATION COMPACT

- 272B 1 Compact for education
- 272B 2 Education commission of the states

- 272B 3 Filing bylaws

272B.1 Compact for education.

The compact for education is hereby entered into and enacted into law with all jurisdictions legally joining therein, in the form substantially as follows

ARTICLE I — PURPOSE AND POLICY

1 It is the purpose of this compact to

a. Establish and maintain close co operation and understanding among executive, legislative, professional educational and lay leadership on a nationwide basis at the state and local levels

b. Provide a forum for the discussion, development, crystallization and recommendation of public policy alternatives in the field of education

c. Provide a clearing house of information on matters relating to educational problems and how they are being met in different places throughout the nation, so that the executive and legislative branches of state government and of local communities may have ready access to the experience and record of the entire country, and so that both lay and professional groups in the field of education may have additional avenues for the sharing of experience and the interchange of ideas in the formation of public policy in education

d. Facilitate the improvement of state and local educational systems so that all of them will be able to meet adequate and desirable goals in a society which requires continuous qualitative and quantitative advance in educational opportunities, methods and facilities

2 It is the policy of this compact to encourage and promote local and state initiative in the development, maintenance, improvement and administration of educational systems and institutions in a manner which will accord with the needs and advantages of diversity among localities and states

3 The party states recognize that each of them has an interest in the quality and quantity of education furnished in each of the other states, as well as in the excellence of its own educational systems and institutions, because of the highly mobile character of individuals within the nation, and because the products and services contributing to the health, welfare and economic advancement of each state are supplied in significant part by persons educated in other states

ARTICLE II — STATE DEFINED

As used in this compact, "state" means a state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the commonwealth of Puerto Rico

ARTICLE III — THE COMMISSION

1 The education commission of the states, hereinafter called "the commission", is hereby established. The commission shall consist of seven members representing each party state. * One of such members shall be the governor, two shall be members of the state legislature selected by its respective houses and serving in such manner as the legislature may determine, and four shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the governor, unless the laws of the state otherwise provide. If the laws of a state prevent legislators from serving on the commission, six members shall be appointed and serve at the pleasure of the governor, unless the laws of the state otherwise provide. In addition to any other principles or requirements which a state may establish for the appointment and service of its members of the commission, the guiding principle for the composition of the membership on the commission from each party state shall be that the members representing such state shall, by virtue of their training, experience, knowledge or affiliations be in a position collectively to reflect broadly the interests of the state government, higher education, the state education system, local education, lay and professional, public and nonpublic educational leadership. Of those appointees, one shall be the head of a state agency or institution, designated by the governor, having responsibility for one or more programs of public education. In addition to the members of the commission representing the party states, there may be not to exceed ten nonvoting commissioners selected by the steering committee for terms of one year. Such commissioners shall represent leading national organizations or professional educators or persons concerned with educational administration.

2 The members of the commission shall be entitled to one vote each on the commission. No action of the commission shall be binding unless taken at a meeting at which a majority of the total number of votes on the commission are cast in favor thereof. Action of the commission shall be only at a meeting at which a majority of the commissioners are present. The commission shall meet at least once a year. In its bylaws, and subject to such directions and limitations as may be contained therein, the commission may delegate the exercise of any of its powers to the steering committee or the executive director, except for the power to approve budgets or requests for appropriations, the power to make policy recommendations pursuant to article IV and adoption of the annual report pursuant to article III, paragraph 10.

3. The commission shall have a seal.

4. The commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a chairperson, who shall be a governor, a vice chairperson and a treasurer. The commission shall provide for the appointment of an executive director. Such executive director shall serve at the pleasure of the commission, and together with the treasurer and such other personnel as the commission may deem appropriate shall be bonded in such amount as the commission shall determine. The executive director shall be secretary.

5. Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any of the party states, the executive director subject to the approval of the steering committee shall appoint, remove or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the commission, and shall fix the duties and compensation of such personnel. The commission in its bylaws shall provide for the personnel policies and programs of the commission.

6. The commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any party jurisdiction, the United States, or any subdivision or agency of the aforementioned governments, or from any agency of two or more of the party jurisdictions or their subdivisions.

7. The commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions under this compact any and all donations, and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any state, the United States, or any other governmental agency, or from any person, firm, association, foundation, or corporation, and may receive, utilize and dispose of the same. Any donation or grant accepted by the commission pursuant to this paragraph or services borrowed pursuant to paragraph 6 of this article shall be reported in the annual report of the commission. Such report shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, grant, or services borrowed, and the identity of the donor or lender.

8. The commission may establish and maintain such facilities as may be necessary for the transacting of its business. The commission may acquire, hold, and convey real and personal property and any interest therein.

9. The commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business and shall have the power to amend and rescind these bylaws. The commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form and shall file a copy thereof and a copy of any amendment thereto, with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.

10. The commission annually shall make to the governor and legislature of each party state a report covering the activities of the commission for the preceding year. The commission may make such additional reports as it may deem desirable.

ARTICLE IV — POWERS

In addition to authority conferred on the commission by other provisions of the compact, the commission shall have authority to:

1. Collect, correlate, analyze and interpret information and data concerning educational needs and resources.

2. Encourage and foster research in all aspects of education, but with special reference to the desirable scope of instruction, organization, administration, and instructional methods and standards employed or suitable for employment in public educational systems.

3. Develop proposals for adequate financing of education as a whole and at each of its many levels.

4. Conduct or participate in research of the types referred to in this article in any instance where the commission finds that such research is necessary for the advancement of the purposes and policies of this compact, utilizing fully the resources of national associations, regional compact organizations for higher education, and other agencies and institutions, both public and private.

5. Formulate suggested policies and plans for the improvement of public education as a whole, or for any segment thereof, and make recommendations with respect thereto available to the appropriate governmental units, agencies and public officials.

6. Do such other things as may be necessary or incidental to the administration of any of its authority or functions pursuant to this compact.

ARTICLE V — CO-OPERATION WITH FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

1. If the laws of the United States specifically so provide, or if administrative provision is made therefor within the federal government, the United States may be represented on the commission by not to exceed ten representatives. Any such representative or representatives of the United States shall be appointed and serve in such manner as may be provided by or pursuant to federal law, and may be drawn from any one or more branches of the federal government, but no such representative shall have a vote on the commission.

2. The commission may provide information and make recommendations to any executive or legislative agency or officer of the federal government concerning the common educational policies of the states, and may advise with any such agencies or officers concerning any matter of mutual interest.

ARTICLE VI — COMMITTEES

1. To assist in the expeditious conduct of its business when the full commission is not meeting, the commission shall elect a steering committee of thirty-two members which, subject to the provisions of this compact and consistent with the policies of the commission, shall be constituted and function as provided in the bylaws of the commission. One-fourth of the voting membership of the steering committee shall consist of governors, one-fourth shall consist of legislators, and the remainder shall consist of other members of the commission. A federal representative on the commission may serve with the steering committee, but without vote. The voting members of the steering committee shall serve for terms of two years, except that members elected to the first steering committee of the commission shall be elected as follows:

Sixteen for one year and sixteen for two years. The chairperson, vice chairperson, and treasurer of the commission shall be members of the steering committee and, anything in this paragraph to the contrary notwithstanding, shall serve during their continuance in these offices. Vacancies in the steering committee shall not affect its authority to act, but the commission at its next regular ensuing meeting following the occurrence of any vacancy shall fill it for the unexpired term. No person shall serve more than two terms as a member of the steering committee; provided that service for a partial term of one year or less shall not be counted toward the two-term limitation.

2. The commission may establish advisory and technical committees composed of state, local, and federal officials, and private persons to advise it with respect to any one or more of its functions. Any advisory or technical committee may, on request of the states concerned, be established to consider any matter of special concern to two or more of the party states.

3. The commission may establish such additional committees as its bylaws may provide.

ARTICLE VII — FINANCE

1. The commission shall advise the governor or designated officer or officers of each party state of its budget and estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that party state. Each of the commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amount or amounts to be appropriated by each of the party states.

2. The total amount of appropriation requests under any budget shall be apportioned among the party states. In making such apportionment, the commission shall devise and employ a formula which takes equitable account of the populations and per capita income levels of the party states.

3. The commission shall not pledge the credit of any party states. The commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it pursuant to article III, paragraph 7, of this compact, provided that the commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring an obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the commission makes use of funds available to it pursuant to article III, paragraph 7 thereof, the commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party states adequate to meet the same.

4. The commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established by its bylaws. However, all receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the commission shall be audited yearly by a qualified public accountant, and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual reports of the commission.

5. The accounts of the commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party states and by any persons authorized by the commission.

6. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the commission.

ARTICLE VIII — ELIGIBLE PARTIES — ENTRY INTO AND WITHDRAWAL

1. This compact shall have as eligible parties all states, territories, and possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia, and the commonwealth of Puerto Rico. In respect of any such jurisdiction not having a governor, the term "governor", as used in this compact, shall mean the closest equivalent official of such jurisdiction.

2. Any state or other eligible jurisdiction may enter into this compact and it shall become binding thereon when it has adopted the same: Provided that in order to enter into initial effect, adoption by at least ten eligible party jurisdictions shall be required.

3. Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same, but no such withdrawal shall take effect until one year after the governor of the withdrawing state has given notice in writing of the withdrawal to the governors of all other party states. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

ARTICLE IX — CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States, or the application thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §272B 1]

*See §272B 2

272B.2 Education commission of the states.

Article III, paragraph 1, of the compact notwithstanding, the members of the education commission of the states representing this state consist of the governor, two nonlegislative members appointed by the governor, two members of the senate appointed by the majority leader of the senate, and two members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives. The members shall serve four year terms. Nonlegislative members shall serve on the education commission of the states without compensation, but shall receive their actual and necessary expenses and travel. Legislative members shall receive actual and necessary expenses and travel pursuant to sections 2 10 and 2 12. Vacancies on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the same manner as the original appointments. If a member ceases to be a member of the general assembly, the member shall no longer serve as a member of the education commission of the states

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §272B 2]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §2033

Appointments by lieutenant governor remain in effect until the end of their terms. 86 Acts ch 1245 §2035

272B.3 Filing bylaws.

Pursuant to article III, paragraph 9, of the compact, the commission shall file a copy of its bylaws and any amendment thereto with the governor

Repealed by 87 Acts, ch 233, §486
- 273 12 Funds — use restricted
- 273 13 Administrative expenditures

273.1 Intent.

It is the intent of the general assembly to provide an effective, efficient, and economical means of identifying and serving children from under five years of age through grade twelve who require special education and any other children requiring special education as defined in section 281 2, to provide for media services and other programs and services for pupils in grades kindergarten through twelve and children requiring special education as defined in section 281 2, to provide a method of financing the programs and services, and to avoid a duplication of programs and services provided by any other school corporation in the state, and to provide services to school districts under a contract with those school districts

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §273 1]

87 Acts, ch 224, §44

273.2 Area education agency established — powers — services and programs.

There are established throughout the state fifteen area education agencies, each of which is governed by an area education agency board of directors. The boundaries of an area education agency shall not divide a school district. The director of the department of education shall change boundaries of area education agencies to take into account mergers of local school districts and changes in boundaries of local school districts, when necessary to maintain the policy of this chapter that a local school district shall not be a part of more than one area education agency

An area education agency established under this chapter is a body politic as a school corporation for the purpose of exercising powers granted under this chapter, and may sue and be sued. An area education agency may hold property and execute lease-purchase agreements pursuant to section 273 3, subsection 7, and if the lease exceeds ten years or the purchase price of the property to be acquired pursuant to a lease-purchase agreement exceeds twenty five thousand dollars, the area education agency shall conduct a public hearing on the proposed lease-purchase agreement and receive approval from the area education agency board of directors and the director of the department of education before entering into the agreement.

The area education agency board shall furnish educational services and programs as provided in sections 273.1 to 273.9 and chapter 281 to the pupils enrolled in public or nonpublic schools located within its boundaries which are on the list of accredited schools pursuant to section 256.11. The programs and services provided shall be at least commensurate with programs and services existing on July 1, 1974. The programs and services provided to pupils enrolled in nonpublic schools shall be comparable to programs and services provided to pupils enrolled in public schools within constitutional guidelines.

The area education agency board shall provide for special education services and media services for the local school districts in the area and shall encourage and assist school districts in the area to establish programs for gifted and talented children.

The area education agency board may provide for the following programs and services to local school districts within the limits of funds available:

1. In-service training programs for employees of school districts and area education agencies, provided at the time programs and services are established they do not duplicate programs and services available in that area from the universities under the state board of regents and from other universities and four-year institutions of higher education in Iowa.

2. Educational data processing pursuant to section 256.9, subsection 11.

3. Research, demonstration projects and models, and educational planning for children under five years of age through grade twelve and children requiring special education as defined in section 281.2 as approved by the state board of education.

4. Auxiliary services for nonpublic school pupils as provided in section 256.12. However, if auxiliary services are provided their funding shall be based on the type of service provided.

5. Other educational programs and services for children under five years through grade twelve and children requiring special education as defined in section 281.2 and for employees of school districts and area education agencies as approved by the state board of education.

The board of directors of an area education agency shall not establish programs and services which duplicate programs and services which are or may be provided by the area schools under the provisions of chapter 280A. An area education agency shall contract, whenever practicable, with other school corporations for the use of personnel, buildings, facilities, supplies, equipment, programs, and services.

[C66, 71, 73, §280A.25(3); C75, 77, 79, 81, §273.2, 280A.25(3); 82 Acts, ch 1006, §1, 2, ch 1136, §1]

State board of education to develop plans for redrawing boundary lines, §256 7(7)

273.3 Duties and powers of area education agency board.

The board in carrying out the provisions of section 273.2 shall:

1. Determine the policies of the area education agency for providing programs and services.

2. Be authorized to receive and expend money for providing programs and services as provided in sections 273.1 to 273.9, chapters 281 and 442. All costs incurred in providing the programs and services, including administrative costs, shall be paid from funds received pursuant to sections 273.1 to 273.9 and chapters 281 and 442.

3. Provide data and prepare reports as directed by the director of the department of education.

4. Provide for advisory committees as deemed necessary.

5. Be authorized, subject to rules and regulations of the state board of education, to provide directly or by contractual arrangement with public or private agencies for special education programs and services, media services, and educational programs and services requested by the local boards of education as provided in this chapter, including but not limited to contracts for the area education agency to provide programs or services to the local school districts and contracts for local school districts, other educational agencies, and public and private agencies to provide programs and services to the local school districts in the area education agency in lieu of the area education agency providing the services. Contracts may be made with public or private agencies located outside the state if the programs and services comply with the rules of the state board.

6. Area education agencies may co-operate and contract between themselves and with other public agencies to provide special education programs and services, media services, and educational services to schools and children residing within their respective areas. Area education agencies may provide print and nonprint materials to public and private colleges and universities that have teacher education programs approved by the state board of education.

7. Be authorized to lease, subject to the approval of the director of the department of education and to receive by gift and operate and maintain facilities and buildings necessary to provide authorized programs and services. However, a lease for less than ten years and with an annual cost of less than twenty-five thousand dollars does not require the approval of the director. If a lease requires approval, the director shall not approve the lease until the director is satisfied by investigation that public school corporations within the area do not have suitable facilities available.

8. Be authorized, subject to the approval of the director of the department of education, to enter into agreements for the joint use of personnel, buildings, facilities, supplies, and equipment with school corporations as deemed necessary to provide authorized programs and services.

9. Be authorized to make application for, accept, and expend state and federal funds that are available for programs of educational benefit approved by the director of the department of education, and cooperate with the department in the manner provided in federal-state plans or department rules in the effectuation and administration of programs approved by the director, or approved by other educational agencies, which agencies have been approved as state educational authorities.

10. Be authorized to perform all other acts necessary to carry out the provisions and intent of this chapter.

11. Employ personnel to carry out the functions of the area education agency which shall include the employment of an administrator who shall possess a certificate issued under section 260.9. The administrator shall be employed pursuant to section 279.20 and sections 279.23, 279.24 and 279.25. The salary for an area education agency administrator shall be established by the board based upon the previous experience and education of the administrator. The provisions of section 279.13 shall apply to the area education agency board and to all teachers employed by the area education agency. The provisions of sections 279.23, 279.24 and 279.25 shall apply to the area education board and to all administrators employed by the area education agency.

12. Prepare an annual budget estimating income and expenditures for programs and services as provided in sections 273.1 to 273.9 and chapter 281 within the limits of funds provided under section 281.9 and chapter 442. The board shall give notice of a public hearing on the proposed budget by publication in an official county newspaper in each county in the territory of the area education agency in which the principal place of business of a school district that is a part of the area education agency is located. The notice shall specify the date, which shall be not later than November 10 of each year, the time, and the location of the public hearing. The proposed budget as approved by the board shall then be submitted to the state board of education, on forms provided by the department, no later than December 1 preceding the next fiscal year for approval. The state board shall review the proposed budget of each area education agency and shall prior to January 1 either grant approval or return the budget without approval with comments of the state board included. Any unapproved budget shall be resubmitted to the state board for final approval.

13. Be authorized to pay, out of funds available to the board reasonable annual dues to an Iowa association of school boards. Membership shall be limited to those duly elected members of the area education agency board.

14. At the request of an employee through contractual agreement the board may arrange for the purchase of an individual annuity contract for any of its employees from any company the employee chooses that is authorized to do business in this state, and through an Iowa-licensed insurance agent that the employee selects, for retirement or other purposes, and may make payroll deductions in accordance with the arrangements for the purpose of paying the entire premium due, and to become due, under the contract. The deductions shall be made in the manner which will qualify the annuity premiums for the benefits under section 403b of the Internal Revenue Code, as defined in section 422.3. The employee's rights under the annuity contract are nonforfeitable except for the failure to pay premiums.

15. Be authorized to establish and pay all or any part of the cost of group health insurance plans, nonprofit group medical service plans and group life insurance plans adopted by the board for the benefit of employees of the area education agency, from funds available to the board.

16. Meet at least annually with the members of the boards of directors of the merged areas in which the area education agency is located to discuss co-ordination of programs and services and other matters of mutual interest to the boards.

17. Be authorized to issue warrants and anticipatory warrants pursuant to chapter 74. The applicable rate of interest shall be determined pursuant to sections 74A.2, 74A.3, and 74A.7. This subsection shall not be construed to authorize a board to levy a tax.

18. Be authorized to issue school credit cards allowing area education agency employees to pay for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of work-related duties.

273.5 Special education.

There shall be established a division of special education of the area education agency which shall provide for special education programs and services to the local school districts. The division of special education shall be headed by a director of special education who meets certification standards of the department of education. The director of special education shall have the responsibility for implementation of state regulations and guidelines relating to special education programs and services. The director of special education shall have the following powers and duties:

1. Properly identify children requiring special education.

2. Insure that each child requiring special education in the area receives an appropriate special education program or service.

3. Assign appropriate weights for each child requiring special education programs or services as provided in section 281.9.

4. Supervise special education support personnel.

5. Provide each school district within the area served and the department of education with a special education weighted enrollment count, including the additional enrollment because of special education for December 1 of each year.

6. Submit to the department of education special education instructional and support program plans and applications, subject to criteria listed in chapter 281 and this chapter, for approval by November 1 of each year for the school year commencing the following July 1.

7. Co-ordinate the special education program within the area served.

273.6 Media centers.

1. The media centers required under section 273.2 shall contain:

a. A materials lending library, consisting of print and nonprint materials.

b. A professional library.

c. A curriculum laboratory, including textbooks and correlated print and audiovisual materials.

d. Capability for production of media-oriented instructional materials.

e. Qualified media personnel.

f. Appropriate physical facilities.

g. Other materials and equipment deemed necessary by the department.

2. Program plans submitted by the area education agency to the department of education for approval by the state board of media centers under this subsection shall include all of the following:

a. Evidence that the services proposed are based upon an analysis of the needs of the local school districts in the area.

b. Description of the manner in which the services of the area education agency media center will be co-ordinated with other agencies and programs providing educational media.

c. Description of the means for delivery of circulation materials.

d. Evidence that the media center fulfills the requirements of subsection 1.

[C75, 77, 79, 81, §273.6]

273.7 Additional services.

If sixty percent of the number of local school boards located in an area education agency, or if local school boards representing sixty percent of the enrollment in the school districts located in the agency, request in writing to the area education agency board that an additional service be provided them, for pupils in grades kindergarten through twelve or children requiring special education as defined in section 281.2 or for employees or board members of school districts or area education agencies, the area education agency board shall arrange for the service to be provided to all school districts in the area within the financial capabilities of the area education agency.

273.7A Services to school districts.

The board of an area education agency may provide services to school districts located in the area education agency under contract with the school districts. These services may include, but are not limited to, superintendency services, personnel services, business management services, specialized maintenance services, and transportation services. In addition, the board of the area education agency may provide for furnishing expensive and specialized equipment for school districts. School districts shall pay to area education agencies the cost of providing the services.

The board of an area education agency may also provide services authorized to be performed by area education agencies to other area education agencies in this state and to provide a method of payment for these services.

87 Acts, ch 224, §45

273.8 Area education agency board of directors.

1. Board of directors. The board of directors of an area education agency shall consist of not less than five nor more than nine members, each a resident of and elected in the manner provided in this section from a director district that is approximately equal in population to the other director districts in the area education agency. Each director shall serve a three year term which commences at the organization meeting.

2 Election of directors The board of directors of the area education agency shall be elected at director district conventions attended by members of the boards of directors of the local school districts located within the director district. The member of the area education agency board to be elected at the director district convention may be a member of a local school district board of directors and shall be an elector and a resident of the director district, other than school district employees.

The director district conventions shall be called and the locations of the conventions shall be determined by the area education agency administrator. Annually the director district conventions shall be held within two weeks following the regular school election. Notice of the time, date and place of a director district convention shall be published by the area education agency administrator at least forty five days prior to the day of the district conventions in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the director district. The cost of publication shall be paid by the area education agency.

The board of each separate school district which is located entirely or partially inside an area education agency director district shall cast a vote for director of the area education agency board based upon the ratio that the population of the school district, or portion of the school district, in the director district bears to the total population in the director district. The population of each school district or portion shall be determined by the department of education.

Vacancies, as defined in section 277 29, in the membership of the area education agency board shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term at a special director district convention called and conducted in the manner provided in this subsection for regular director district conventions.

A candidate for election to the area education agency board shall file a statement of candidacy with the area education agency secretary at least ten days prior to the date of the director district convention, on forms prescribed by the department of education. The statement of candidacy shall include the candidate's name, address and school district. The list of candidates shall be sent by the secretary of the area education agency by ordinary mail to the presidents of the boards of directors of all school districts within the director district immediately following the last day for filing the statement of candidacy. However, if no candidate files with the area education agency secretary by the deadline, an eligible elector who is present at the director district convention may be nominated at the convention by a delegate from a board of directors of a school district located within the director district. Delegates to director district conventions shall not be bound by a school board or any school board member to pledge their votes to any candidate prior to the date of the convention.

3 Organization The board of directors of each area education agency shall meet and organize at the first regular meeting in October of each year at a suitable place designated by the president. Directors whose terms commence at the organization meeting shall qualify by taking the oath of office required by section 277 28 at or before the organization meeting.

The provisions of section 280A 12 relating to organization, officers, appointment of secretary and treasurer, and meetings of the merged area board apply to the area education agency board.

4 Quorum A majority of the members of the board of directors of the area education agency shall constitute a quorum.

5 Change in directors The board of an area education agency may change the number of directors on the board and shall make corresponding changes in the boundaries of director districts. Changes shall be completed not later than July 1 of a fiscal year for the director district conventions to be held the following September.

6 Boundary line changes To the extent possible the board shall provide that changes in the boundary lines of director districts of area education agencies shall not lengthen or diminish the term of office of a director of an area education agency board. Initial terms of office shall be set by the board so that as nearly as possible the terms of one third of the members expire annually.

7 Census changes The board of the area education agency shall redraw boundary lines of director districts in the area education agency after each census to compensate for changes in population if changes in population have taken place.

Where feasible, boundary lines of director districts shall coincide with the boundary lines of school districts and the boundary lines of election precincts established pursuant to sections 49 3 to 49 6.

273.9 Funding.

1 For the school year beginning July 1, 1975, and each succeeding school year, school districts shall pay for the programs and services provided through the area education agency and shall include expenditures for the programs and services in their budgets, in accordance with the provisions of this section.

2 School districts shall pay the costs of special education instructional programs with the moneys available to the districts for each child requiring special education, by application of the special education weighting plan in section 281 9 Special education instructional programs shall be provided at the local level if practicable, or otherwise by contractual arrangements with the area education agency board as provided in section 273 3, subsection 5, but in each case the total money available through section 281 9 and chapter 442 because of weighted enrollment for each child requiring special education instruction shall be made available to the district or agency which provides the special education instructional program to the child, subject to adjustments for transportation or other costs which may be paid by the school district in which the child is enrolled Each district shall cooperate with its area education agency to provide an appropriate special education instructional program for each child who requires special education instruction, as identified and counted within the certification by the area director of special education or as identified by the area director of special education subsequent to the certification, and shall not provide a special education instructional program to a child who has not been so identified and counted within the certification or identified subsequent to the certification

3 The costs of special education support services provided through the area education agency shall be funded by an increase in the allowable growth of each school district, determined as provided in section 442 7 Special education support services shall not be funded until the program plans submitted by the special education directors of each area education agency as required by section 273 5 are modified as necessary and approved by the director of the department of education according to the criteria and limitations of chapter 281 and section 442 7

4 The costs of media services provided through the area education agency shall be funded as provided in section 442 27 Media services shall not be funded until the program plans submitted by the administrators of each area education agency as required by section 273 4 are modified as necessary and approved by the director of the department of education according to the criteria and limitations of section 273 6 and of section 442 27

5 The costs of educational services provided through the area education agency shall be funded within the limitations in section 442 27

The state board of education shall adopt rules under chapter 17A relating to the approval of program plans under this section 274.1 Powers and jurisdiction.

Each school district shall continue a body politic as a school corporation, unless changed as provided by law, and as such may sue and be sued, hold property, and exercise all the powers granted by law, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all school matters over the territory therein contained

Right to bid under execution sale §569 2

274.2 General applicability.

The provisions of law relative to common schools shall apply alike to all districts, except when otherwise clearly stated, and the powers given to one form of corporation, or to a board in one kind of corporation, shall be exercised by the other in the same manner, as nearly as practicable. But school boards shall not incur original indebtedness by the issuance of bonds until authorized by the voters of the school corporation

[C97, §2823, C24, 27, 31, 35, §4190, C39, §4123.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §274 2]

274.37 Boundaries changed by action of boards — buildings constructed.

The boundary lines of contiguous school corporations may be changed by the concurrent action of the respective boards of directors at their regular meetings in July, or at special meetings called for that purpose. Such concurrent action shall be subject to the approval of the area education agency board but such concurrent action shall stand approved if the said board does not disapprove such concurrent action within thirty days following receipt of notice thereof. The corporation from which territory is detached shall, after the change, contain not less than four government sections of land.

The boards in the respective districts, the boundaries of which have been changed under this section, complete in all respects, except for the passage of time prior to the effective date of the change and when all right of appeal of the change has expired, may enter into joint contracts for the construction of buildings for the benefit of the corporations whose boundaries have been changed, using funds accumulated under section 278.1, subsection 7. The district in which the building is to be located may use any funds authorized in accordance with chapter 75. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the changed districts to expend any funds jointly which they are not entitled to expend acting individually.

274.38 Study of boundary changes requested.

Any school board may request a study and recommendations of the department of education relative to the adjustment of boundary lines and the recommendations of the department of education shall be submitted to those districts involved within sixty days after the request for such study and recommendations is made but such recommendations shall be advisory only and shall not be binding on the local districts.

274.42 Adjusting of district boundaries.

If the federal government, or any agency or department of the federal government locates a project which is desirable for the development of the national defense or for the purpose of flood control, and for the purpose of locating the project determines that certain real property making up a portion of a school district is required, the director of the department of education may by resolution adjust the boundaries of school districts in which the federally owned property is located and the boundaries of adjoining school districts so as to effectively provide for the schooling of children residing within all of the districts. A copy of the resolution shall be promptly filed with the board of directors of the adjoining school district or districts and with the board of directors of the school district in which the federally owned property is located unless the board has been reduced below a quorum in the manner contemplated in section 274 40, in which event the resolution shall be posted in two public places within the altered district

275.1 Declaration of policy — surveys — definitions.

It is the policy of the state to encourage economical and efficient school districts which will ensure an equal educational opportunity to all children of the state. All areas of the state shall be in school districts maintaining kindergarten and twelve grades. If a school district ceases to maintain kindergarten and twelve grades except as otherwise provided in section 28E.9, 256.13, 280.15, 282.7, subsection 1 or subsections 1 and 3, or 282.8, it shall reorganize within six months or the state board shall attach the school district not maintaining kindergarten and twelve grades to one or more adjacent districts. Voluntary reorganizations under this chapter shall be commenced only if the affected school districts are contiguous to one another. A reorganized district shall meet the requirements of section 275.3.

If a district is attached, division of assets and liabilities shall be made as provided in sections 275.29 to 275.31. The area education agency boards shall develop detailed studies and surveys of the school districts within the area education agency and all adjacent territory for the purpose of providing for reorganization of school districts in order to effect more economical operation and the attainment of higher standards of education in the schools. The plans shall be revised periodically to reflect reorganizations which may have taken place in the area education agency and adjacent territory.

As used in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Eligible elector" means eligible elector as defined in section 39.3, subsection 1.
2. "Qualified elector" means qualified elector as defined in section 39.3, subsection 2.
3. "School districts affected" means the school districts named in the reorganization petition whether a school district is affected in whole or in part.

275.2 Scope of surveys.

The scope of the studies and surveys shall include the following matters in the various districts in the area education agency and all districts adjacent to the area education agency: The adequacy of the educational program, pupil enrollment, property valuations, existing buildings and equipment, natural community areas, road conditions, transportation, economic factors, individual attention given to the needs of students, the opportunity of students to participate in a wide variety of activities related to the total development of the student, and other matters that may bear on educational programs meeting minimum standards required by law. The plans shall also include suggested alternate plans that incorporate the school districts in the area education agency into reorganized districts that meet the enrollment standards specified in section 275.3 and may include alternate plans proposed by school districts for sharing programs under section 256.13, 280.15, or 282.7 as an alternative to school reorganization.

275.3 Minimum size.

No new school district shall be planned by an area education agency board nor shall any proposal for creation or enlargement of any school district be approved by an area education agency board or submitted to electors unless there reside within the proposed limits of such district at least three hundred persons of school age who were enrolled in public schools in the preceding school year. Provided, however, that the director of the department of education shall have authority to grant permission to an area education agency board to approve the formation or enlargement of a school district containing a lower school enrollment than required in this section on the written request of such area education agency board if such request is accompanied by evidence tending to show that sparsity of population, natural barriers or other good reason makes it impracticable to meet the school enrollment requirement.

275.4 Studies, surveys, and plans.

In developing studies and surveys the area education agency board shall consult with the officials of school districts in the area and other citizens, and shall from time to time hold public hearings, and may employ such research and other assistance as it may determine reasonably necessary in order to properly carry on its survey and prepare definite plans of reorganization.

In addition, the area education agency board shall consult with the commissioner of public instruction in the development of surveys and plans. The commissioner of public instruction shall provide assistance to the area education agency boards as requested and shall advise the area education agency boards concerning plans of contiguous area education agencies and the reorganization policies adopted by the state board of public instruction.

Completed plans shall be transmitted by the area education agency board to the commissioner of public instruction.

275.5 Proposals for merger or consolidation.

A proposal for merger, consolidation, or boundary change of local school districts shall first be submitted to the area education agency board following the procedure prescribed in this chapter. Following receipt of a petition pursuant to section 275.12, the area education agency board shall review its plans and determine whether the petition complies with the plans which had been adopted by the board. If the petition does not comply with the plans which had been adopted by the board, the board shall conduct further surveys pursuant to section 275.4 prior to the date set for the hearing upon the petition. If further surveys have been conducted by the board, the board shall present the results of the further surveys at the hearing upon the petition.

275.6 Progressive program.

It is the intent of this chapter that the area education agency board shall carry on the program of reorganization progressively and shall, insofar as is possible, authorize submission of proposals to the electors as they are developed and approved.

275.8 Co-operation of state department — planning joint districts.

Planning of joint districts shall be conducted in the same manner as planning for single districts, except as provided in this section. Studies and surveys relating to the planning of joint districts shall be filed with the area education agency in which one of the districts is located which has the greatest taxable property base. In the case of controversy over the planning of joint districts, the matter shall be submitted to the director of the department of education. Judicial review of the director's decision may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act, chapter 17A. Notwithstanding the terms of that Act, petitions for judicial review must be filed within thirty days after the decision of the director. "Joint districts" means districts that lie in two or more adjacent area education agencies.

For purposes of this chapter the planning of joint districts is defined to include all of the following acts:

1. Preparation of a written joint plan in which contiguous territory in two or more area education agencies is considered as a part of a potential school district in the area education agency on behalf of which such plan is filed with the state department of public instruction by the area education agency board.

2. Adoption of the written joint plan at a joint session of the several area education agency boards in whose areas the territory is situated. A quorum of each of the boards is necessary to transact business. Votes shall be taken in the manner prescribed in section 275.16.

3. Filing said plan with the state department of public instruction.

For purposes of subsection 1 hereof, joint planning shall be evidenced by filing the following items with the state department of public instruction:

a. A plat of the entire area of such potential district.

b. A statement of the number of pupils residing within the area of said potential district enrolled in public schools in the preceding school year.

c. A statement of the assessed valuation of taxable property located within such potential district.

d. An affidavit signed on behalf of each of said boards of directors of area education agencies by a member of such board stating the boundaries as shown on such plat have been agreed upon by the respective boards as a part of the overall plan of school district reorganization of each such school.

[C46, 50, §275.10, 276.4; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §275.8]

275.9 Methods of effectuating reorganization plans.

When any school district is enlarged, reorganized, or changes its boundaries pursuant to the plans hereinabove provided for, such enlargement, reorganization, or boundary change shall be accomplished by the method hereinafter provided.

The provisions of sections 275.1 to 275.5, relating to studies, surveys, hearings and adoption of plans shall constitute a mandatory prerequisite to the effectuation of any proposal for district boundary change. It shall be the mandatory duty of the area education agency board to dismiss the petition if the above provisions are not complied with fully.

[C46, 50, §275.11; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §275.9]

275.10 Repealed by 57GA, ch 129, §2.

275.11 Proposals involving two or more districts.

Subject to the approval of the area education agency board contiguous territory located in two or more school districts may be united into a single district in the manner provided in sections 275.12 to 275.22 hereof.

[SS15, §2794-a; C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4166; C46, 50, §276.13; C54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §275.11]

275.12 Petition — method of election.

1. A petition describing the boundaries, or accurately describing the area included therein by legal descriptions, of the proposed district, which boundaries or area described shall conform to plans developed or the petition shall request change of the plan, shall be filed with the area education agency administrator of the area education agency in which the greatest number of qualified electors reside. However, the area education agency administrator shall not accept a petition if any of the school districts affected have approved the issuance of general obligation bonds at an election pursuant to section 296.6 during the preceding six-month period. The petition shall be signed by qualified electors in each existing school district or portion affected equal in number to at least twenty percent of the number of qualified electors or four hundred qualified electors, whichever is the smaller number.

2. The petition filed under subsection 1 shall also state the name of the proposed school district and the number of directors which may be either five or seven and the method of election of the school directors of the proposed district. The method of election of the directors shall be one of the following optional plans:

a. Election at large from the entire district by the electors of the entire district.

b. Division of the entire school district into designated geographical single director or multi-director subdistricts on the basis of population for each director, to be known as director districts, each of which director districts shall be represented on the school board by one or more directors who shall be residents of the director district but who shall be elected by the vote of the electors of the entire school district. The boundaries of the director districts and the area and population included within each district shall be such as justice, equity, and the interests of the people may require. Changes in the boundaries of director districts shall not be made during a period commencing sixty days prior to the date of the annual school election. Insofar as may be practicable, the boundaries of the districts shall follow established political or natural geographical divisions.

c. Election of not more than one-half of the total number of school directors at large from the entire district and the remaining directors from and as residents of designated single-member or multi-member director districts into which the entire school district shall be divided on the basis of population for each director. In such case, all directors shall be elected by the electors of the entire school district. Changes in the boundaries of director districts shall not be made during a period commencing sixty days prior to the date of the annual school election.

d. Division of the entire school district into designated geographical single director or multi-director subdistricts on the basis of population for each director, to be known as director districts, each of which director districts shall be represented on the school board by one or more directors who shall be residents of the director district and who shall be elected by the voters of the director district. Place of voting in the director districts shall be designated by the commissioner of elections. Changes in the boundaries of director districts shall not be made during a period commencing sixty days prior to the date of the annual school election.

e. In districts having seven directors, election of three directors at large by the electors of the entire district, one at each annual school election, and election of the remaining directors as residents of and by the electors of individual geographic subdistricts established on the basis of population and identified as director districts. Boundaries of the subdistricts shall follow precinct boundaries, insofar as practicable, and shall not be changed less than sixty days prior to the annual school election.

3. If the petition proposes the division of the school district into director districts, the boundaries of such proposed director districts shall be described in the petition.

4. The area education agency board in reviewing the petition as provided in sections 275.15 and 275.16 shall review the proposed method of election of school directors and may change or amend the plan in any manner, including the changing of boundaries of director districts if proposed, or to specify a different method of electing school directors as may be required by law, justice, equity, and the interest of the people. In the action, the area education agency board shall follow the same procedure as is required by sections 275.15 and 275.16 for other action on the petition by the area education agency board.

5. The petition may also include a provision that the schoolhouse tax provided in section 278.1, subsection 7, will be voted upon at the election conducted under section 275.18.

275.14 Objection — time of filing — notice.

Within ten days after the petition is filed, the area education agency administrator shall fix a final date for filing objections to the petition which shall be not more than sixty days after the petition is filed and shall fix the date for a hearing on the objections to the petition. Objections shall be filed in the office of the administrator who shall give notice at least ten days prior to the final day for filing objections, by one publication in a newspaper published within the territory described in the petition, or if none is published therein, in a newspaper published in the county where the petition is filed, and of general circulation in the territory described. The notice shall also list the date, time, and location for the hearing on the petition as provided in section 275.15. The cost of publication shall be assessed to each district whose territory is involved in the ratio that the number of pupils in basic enrollment, as defined in section 442.4 in each district bears to the total number of pupils in basic enrollment in the total area involved. Objections shall be in writing in the form of an affidavit and may be made by any person residing or owning land within the territory described in the petition, or who would be injuriously affected by the change petitioned for and shall be on file not later than twelve o'clock noon of the final day fixed for filing objections.

Objection forms shall be prescribed by the department of education and may be obtained from the area education agency administrator. Objection forms that request that property be removed from a proposed district shall include the correct legal description of the property to be removed.

275.15 Hearing — decision — publication — appeal.

At the hearing, which shall be held within ten days of the final date set for filing objections, interested parties, both petitioners and objectors, may present evidence and arguments, and the area education agency board shall review the matter on its merits and within ten days after the conclusion of any hearing, shall rule on the objections and shall enter an order fixing the boundaries for the proposed school corporation as will in its judgment be for the best interests of all parties concerned, having due regard for the welfare of adjoining districts, or dismiss the petition.

The area education agency board, when entering the order fixing the boundaries, shall consider all requests timely filed for boundary line changes. Each objection filed by a property owner shall be considered separately and an individual ruling made.

If the petition is not dismissed and the board determines that additional information is required in order to fix boundary lines of the proposed school corporation, the board may continue the hearing for no more than thirty days. The date of the continued hearing shall be announced at the original meeting. Additional objections in the form required in section 275.14 may be considered if filed with the administrator within five days, not including Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays, after the date of the original board hearing. If the hearing is continued, the area education agency administrator may conduct one or more meetings with the boards of directors of the affected districts. Notice of any such meeting must be given at least forty-eight hours in advance by the area education agency administrator in the manner provided in section 21.4. The area education agency board may request that the administrator make alternative recommendations regarding the boundary lines of the proposed school corporation. The area education agency board shall make a decision on the boundary lines within ten days following the conclusion of the continued hearing.

The administrator shall at once publish the decision in the same newspaper in which the original notice was published. Within twenty days after the publication, the decision rendered by the area education agency board may be appealed to the district court in the county involved by any school district affected. For purposes of appeal, only those school districts who filed reorganization petitions are school districts affected. An appeal from a decision of an area education agency board or joint area education agency boards under section 275 4, 275 16, or this section is subject to appeal procedures under this chapter and is not subject to appeal under chapter 290.

275.16 Hearing when territory in different area education agencies.

If the territory described in the petition for the proposed corporation lies in more than one area education agency, the agency administrator with whom the petition is filed shall fix the time and place for a hearing and call a joint meeting of the members of all the agency boards in which territory of the proposed school corporation lies, to act as a single board for the hearing of the objections, and a majority of members of each of the agency boards of the different agencies in which any part of the proposed corporation lies, constitutes a quorum. The president of the board of directors of the area education agency in which the petition has been filed, or a member of the board designated by the president, shall preside at the joint meeting. The joint boards acting as a single board shall determine whether the petition conforms to plans or, if the petition requests a change in plans, whether a change should be made, and may change the plans of any or all the area education agency boards affected by the petition. The joint board shall determine and fix boundaries for the proposed corporation as provided in section 275 15 or dismiss the petition. The joint board may continue the hearing as provided in section 275 15.

Votes of each member of an area education agency board in attendance shall be weighted so that the total number of votes eligible to be cast by members of each board in attendance shall be equal. However, if the joint boards cast a tie vote and are unable to agree to a decision fixing the boundaries for the proposed school corporation or to a decision to dismiss the petition, the time during which actions must be taken under section 275 15 shall be extended from ten days to fifteen days after the conclusion of the hearing under section 275 15, and the joint board shall reconvene not less than ten and not more than fifteen days after the conclusion of the hearing. At the hearing the joint board shall reconsider its action and if a tie vote is again cast it is a decision granting the petition and changing the plans of any and all of the agency boards affected by the petition and fixing the boundaries for the proposed school corporation. The agency administrator shall at once publish the decision in the same newspaper in which the original notice was published.

In case a controversy arises from such meeting, the area education agency board or boards or any school district aggrieved may bring the controversy to the department of education, as provided in section 275 8, within twenty days from the publication of this order, and if said controversy is taken to the department of education, a ten day notice in writing shall be given to all agency boards and school districts affected or portions thereof. The department shall have the authority to affirm the action of the joint boards, to vacate, to dismiss all proceedings or to make such modification of the action of the joint boards as in their judgment would serve the best interest of all the agencies. Judicial review of the actions of the department may be sought in accordance with the terms of the Iowa administrative procedure Act. Notwithstanding the terms of said Act, petitions for judicial review must be filed within thirty days after the decision of the department of education.

275.18 Special election called — time.

When the boundaries of the territory to be included in a proposed school corporation and the number and method of the election of the school directors of the proposed school corporation have been determined as provided in this chapter, the area education agency administrator with whom the petition is filed shall give written notice of the proposed date of the election to the county commissioner of elections of the county in the proposed school corporation which has the greatest taxable base. The proposed date shall be as soon as possible pursuant to sections 39 2, subsections 1 and 2, and 47 6, subsections 1 and 2, but not later than November 30 of the calendar year prior to the calendar year in which the reorganization will take effect.

The county commissioner of elections shall give notice of the election by one publication in the same newspaper in which previous notices have been published regarding the proposed school reorganization, and in addition, if more than one county is involved, by one publication in a legal newspaper in each county other than that of the first publication. The publication shall be not less than four nor more than twenty days prior to the election. If the decision published pursuant to section 275 15 or 275 16 in cludes a description of the proposed school corporation and a description of the director districts, if any, the notice for election and the ballot do not need to include these descriptions. Notice for an election shall not be published until the expiration of time for appeal, which shall be the same as that provided in section 275 15 or 275 16, whichever is applicable, and if there is an appeal, not until the appeal has been disposed of.

The county commissioner of elections shall certify the results of the election to the area education agency administrator. If the majority of the votes cast by the qualified electors is in favor of the proposition, as provided in section 275 20, a new school corporation shall be organized. If the majority of votes cast is opposed to the proposition, a new petition describing the identical or similar boundaries shall not be filed for at least six months from the date of the election. The area education agency administrator shall file a written description of the boundaries as provided in section 274 4.

275.23A Redistricting following federal decennial census.

1 School districts which have directors who represent director districts as provided in section 275 12, subsection 2, paragraphs b through e, shall be divided into director districts on the basis of population as determined from the most recent federal decennial census. The director districts shall be as nearly equal as practicable to the ideal population for the districts as determined by dividing the number of director districts to be established into the population of the school district. The director districts shall be composed of contiguous territory as compact as practicable.

2 If following a federal decennial census a school district fails to meet population equality requirements, the board of directors of the school district shall adopt a resolution redrawing the director districts not earlier than November 15 of the year immediately following the year in which the federal decennial census is taken nor later than May 30 of the second year immediately following the year in which the federal decennial census is taken. A copy of the adopted plan shall be filed with the area education agency administrator of the area education agency in which the school's electors reside.

3 The school board shall notify the state commissioner of elections and the county commissioner of elections of each county in which a portion of the school district is located whenever the boundaries of director districts are changed. The board shall provide the commissioners with maps showing the new boundaries. If, following a federal decennial census a school district elects not to redraw director districts under this section, the school board shall so certify to the state commissioner of elections, and the school board shall also certify to the state commissioner the populations of the retained director districts as determined under the latest federal decennial census. Upon failure of a district board to make the required changes by the dates established under this section, the state commissioner of elections shall make or cause to be made the necessary changes as soon as possible, and shall assess any expenses incurred to the school district. The state commissioner may request the services of personnel and materials available to the legislative service bureau to assist the commissioner in making any required boundary changes.

4 If more than one incumbent director, whose term extends beyond the organizational meeting of the board of directors after the regular school elec tion following the adoption of the redrawn districts, reside in a redrawn director district, the terms of office of the affected directors expire at the organizational meeting of the board of directors following the next regular school election.

5. The boundary changes under this section take effect July 1 following their adoption for the next regular school election.

6. Section 275.9 and sections 275.14 through 275.23 do not apply to changes in director district boundaries made under this section.

275.24 Effective date of change.

When a school district is enlarged, reorganized, or changes its boundary pursuant to sections 275.12 to 275.22, the change shall take effect on July 1 following the date of the reorganization election held pursuant to section 275.18 if the election was held by the prior November 30. Otherwise the change shall take effect on July 1 one year later.

275.25 Election of directors.

1. If the proposition to establish a new school district carries under the method provided in this chapter, the area education agency administrator with whom the petition was filed shall give written notice of a proposed date for a special election for directors of the newly formed school district to the commissioner of elections of the county in the district involved in the reorganization which has the greatest taxable base. The proposed date shall be as soon as possible pursuant to sections 39.2, subsections 1 and 2, and 47.6, subsections 1 and 2, but not later than the third Tuesday in January of the calendar year in which the reorganization takes effect. The election shall be conducted as provided in section 277.3, and nomination petitions shall be filed pursuant to section 277.4, except as otherwise provided in this subsection. Nomination petitions shall be filed with the secretary of the board of the existing school district in which the candidate resides, signed by not less than ten eligible electors of the newly formed district, and filed not less than thirty days prior to the date set for the special school election.

2. The number of directors of a school district is either five or seven as provided in section 275.12. In school districts that include a city of fifteen thousand or more population as shown by the most recent decennial federal census, the board shall consist of seven members elected in the manner provided in subsection 3. If it becomes necessary to increase the membership of a board, two directors shall be added according to the procedure described in section 277.23.

The county board of supervisors shall canvass the votes and the county commissioner of elections shall report the results to the area education agency administrator who shall notify the persons who are elected directors.

3. The directors who are elected and qualify to serve shall serve until their successors are elected and qualify. At the special election, the newly elected director receiving the most votes shall be elected to serve until the director's successor qualifies after the fourth regular school election date occurring after the effective date of the reorganization; the two newly elected directors receiving the next largest number of votes shall be elected to serve until the directors' successors qualify after the third regular school election date occurring after the effective date of the reorganization; and the two newly elected directors receiving the next largest number of votes shall be elected to serve until the directors' successors qualify after the second regular school election date occurring after the effective date of the reorganization. However, in districts that include all or a part of a city of fifteen thousand or more population and in districts in which the proposition to establish a new corporation provides for the election of seven directors, the three newly elected directors receiving the most votes shall be elected to serve until the directors' successors qualify after the fourth regular school election date occurring after the effective date of the reorganization.

4. The board of the newly formed district shall organize within fifteen days after the special election upon the call of the area education agency administrator. The new board shall have control of the employment of personnel for the newly formed district for the next following school year under section 275.33. Following the first organizational meeting of the board of the newly formed district, the board may establish policy, organize curriculum, enter into contracts, complete planning, and take action as necessary for the efficient management of the newly formed community school district.

5. Section 49.8, subsection 4 does not permit a director to remain on the board of a school district after the effective date of a boundary change which places the director's residence outside the boundaries of the district. Vacancies caused by this occurrence on a board shall be filled in the manner provided in sections 279.6 and 279.7.

6. The board of the newly formed district shall appoint an acting superintendent and an acting board secretary. The appointment of the acting superintendent shall not be subject to the continuing contract provisions of sections 279.20, 279.23, and 279.24.

If a district is established or changes its boundaries it shall pay all expenses incurred by the area education agency administrator and the area education agency board in connection with the proceedings. The county commissioner of elections shall assess the costs of the election against the district as provided in section 47.3. If the proposition is dismissed or defeated at the election all expenses shall be apportioned among the several districts in proportion to the assessed valuation of property therein.

If the proposed district or boundary change embraces territory in more than one area education agency such expenses shall be certified to and, if necessary, apportioned among the several districts by the joint agency board. If in only one agency the certification shall be made by the agency administrator.

The respective boards to which such expenses are certified shall audit and order the same paid from the general fund. In the event of failure of any board to so audit and pay the expenses certified to it, the area education agency administrator shall certify the expenses to the county auditor in the same manner as is provided for tuition claims in section 282.21 and the funds shall be transferred by the county treasurer from the debtor district to the agency board for payment of said expenses.

275.28 Plan of division of assets and liabilities.

A plan of reorganization in addition to setting up the territory to comprise the reorganized districts may provide for a division of assets and liabilities of the old districts between reorganized districts. If no provision is made in the plan for division of assets and liabilities, such division shall be made under the provisions of sections 275.29 to 275.31, inclusive, hereof.

275.29 Division of assets and liabilities after reorganization.

Between July 1 and July 20, the board of directors of the newly formed school district shall meet with the boards of all the old districts, or parts of districts, affected by the organization of the new school corporation for the purpose of reaching joint agreement on an equitable division of the assets of the several school corporations or parts of school corporations and an equitable distribution of the liabilities of the affected corporations or parts of corporations. In addition, if outstanding bonds are in existence in any district, the boards shall meet together prior to March 15 prior to the school year the reorganization is effective to determine the distribution of the bonded indebtedness between the districts so that the newly formed district may certify its budget under the procedures specified in chapter 24. The boards shall consider the mandatory levy required in section 76.2 and shall assure the satisfaction of outstanding obligations of each affected school corporation.

If the boards cannot agree on such division and distribution, the matters on which they differ shall be decided by disinterested arbitrators, one selected by each board having an interest therein, and if the number thus selected is even, then one shall be added by the area education agency administrator. The decision of the arbitrators shall be made in writing and filed with the secretary of the new corporation, and any party to the proceedings may appeal therefrom to the district court by serving notice thereof on such secretary within twenty days after the decision is filed. Such appeal shall be tried in equity and a decree entered determining the entire matter, including the levy, collection, and distribution of any necessary taxes.

275.31 Taxes and appropriation to effect equalization.

If necessary to equalize the division and distribution, the board or boards may provide for the levy of additional taxes, which shall be sufficient to satisfy the mandatory levy required in section 76.2 or other liabilities of the districts, upon the property of a corporation or part of a corporation and for the distribution of the tax revenues so as to effect equalization. When the board or boards are considering the equalization levy, the division and distribution shall not impair the security for outstanding obligations of each affected corporation. Any owner of bonds of an affected corporation may bring suit in equity for adjustment of the division and distribution in compliance with this section. If the property tax levy for the amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest on lawful bonded indebtedness for a newly formed community school district is greater than the property tax levy for the amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest in the year preceding the reorganization or dissolution for a school district that is a party to the reorganization or dissolution and that had a certified enrollment of less than six hundred for the year prior to the reorganization or dissolution, the board of the newly formed district shall inform the department of management. The department of management shall pay debt service aid to the newly formed district in an amount that will reduce the rate of the property tax levy for lawful bonded indebtedness in the portion of the newly formed district where the new rate is higher, to the rate that was levied in that portion of the district during the year preceding the reorganization or dissolution.

For the school year beginning July 1, 1987 and succeeding school years, there is appropriated from the general fund of the state to the department of management an amount sufficient to pay the debt service aid under this section. Debt service aid shall be paid in the manner provided in section 442.26.

Not later than May 1 of each year, the department of management shall inform the board of the newly formed school district the amount of debt service aid that the district will receive and the rate of the property tax levy for the amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest on lawful bonded indebtedness in the portion of the newly formed district where the new rate would have been higher, and for the remainder of the newly formed district. The department of management shall notify the county auditor of each applicable county of the amount, in dollars and cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation, of the property tax levy in each portion of each applicable newly formed school district in the county for the amount estimated and certified to apply on principal and interest on lawful bonded indebtedness, and the boundaries of the portions within the newly formed district for which the levies shall be made. The county auditor shall spread the applicable property tax levy for each portion of a school district over all taxable property in that portion of the district.

275.33 Contracts of new district.

1 The terms of employment of superintendents, principals, and teachers, for the school year following the effective date of the formation of the new district shall not be affected by the formation of the new district, except in accordance with the provisions of sections 279 15 to 279 18 and 279 24 and the authority and responsibility to offer new contracts or to continue, modify, or terminate existing contracts pursuant to sections 279 12, 279 13, 279 15 to 279 21, 279 23, and 279 24 for the school year beginning with the effective date of the reorganization shall be transferred from the boards of the existing districts to the board of the new district on the third Tuesday of January prior to the school year the reorganization is effective.

2 The collective bargaining agreement of the district with the largest basic enrollment, as defined in section 442 4, in the new district shall serve as the base agreement and the employees of the other districts involved in the formation of the new district shall automatically be accreted to the bargaining unit of that collective bargaining agreement for purposes of negotiating the contracts for the following years without further action by the public employment relations board. If only one collective bargaining agreement is in effect among the districts which are party to the reorganization, then that agreement shall serve as the base agreement, and the employees of the other districts involved in the formation of the new district shall automatically be accreted to the bargaining unit of that collective bargaining agreement for purposes of negotiating the contracts for the following years without further action by the public employment relations board. The board of the newly formed district, using the base agreement as its existing contract, shall bargain with the combined employees of the existing districts for the school year beginning with the effective date of the reorganization. The bargaining shall be completed by March 15 prior to the school year in which the reorganization becomes effective or within one hundred eighty days after the organization of the new board, whichever is later. If a bargaining agreement was already concluded by the board and employees of the existing district with the contract serving as the base agreement for the school year beginning with the effective date of the reorganization, that agreement shall be void. However, if the base agreement contains multiyear provisions affecting school years subsequent to the effective date of the reorganization, the base agreement shall remain in effect as specified in the agreement.

The provisions of the base agreement shall apply to the offering of new contracts, or continuation, modification, or termination of existing contracts as provided in subsection 1 of this section.

275.35 Change of method of elections.

Any existing or hereafter created or enlarged school district may change the number of directors to either five or seven and may also change its method of election of school directors to any method authorized by section 275.12 by submission of a proposal, stating the proposed new method of election and describing the boundaries of the proposed director districts if any, by the school board of such district to the electors at any regular or special school election. The school board shall notify the county commissioner of elections who shall publish notice of the election in the manner provided in section 49.53. The election shall be conducted pursuant to chapters 39 to 53 by the county commissioner of elections. Such proposal shall be adopted if it is approved by a majority of the votes cast on the proposition.

275.36 Submission of change to electors.

If a petition for a change in the number of directors or in the method of election of school directors, describing the boundaries of the proposed director districts, if any, signed by eligible electors of the school district equal in number to at least thirty percent of those who voted in the last previous annual school election in the school district, but not less than twenty-five persons, and accompanied by affidavit as required by section 275.13 be filed with the school board of a school district, not earlier than six months and not later than two months before a regular or special school election, the school board shall submit such proposition to the voters at such election. If a proposition for a change in the number of directors or in the method of election of school directors submitted to the voters under this section is rejected, it shall not be resubmitted to the voters of the district in substantially the same form within the next three years; if it is approved, no other proposal may be submitted to the voters of the district under this section within the next six years.

275.37 Increase in number of directors.

At the next succeeding annual school election in a district where the number of directors has been increased from five to seven, and directors are elected at large, there shall be elected a director to succeed each incumbent director whose term is expiring in that year, and two additional directors. Upon organizing as required by section 279.1, the newly elected director who received the fewest votes in the election shall be assigned a term of either one year or two years if necessary in order that as nearly as possible one-third of the members of the board shall be elected each year.

275.38 Implementing changed method of election.

If change in the method of election of school directors is approved at a regular or special school election, the directors who were serving unexpired terms or were elected concurrently with approval of the change of method shall serve out the terms for which they were elected. If the plan adopted is that described in section 275.12, subsection 2, paragraph "b," "c," "d," or "e," the board shall at the earliest practicable time designate the districts from which residents are to be elected as school directors at each of the next three succeeding annual school elections, arranging so far as possible for elections of directors as residents of the respective districts to coincide with the expiration of terms of incumbent members residing in those districts. If an increase in the size of the board from five to seven members is approved concurrently with the change in method of election of directors, the board shall make the necessary adjustment in the manner prescribed in section 275.37, as well as providing for implementation of the districting plan under this section.

275.39 Excluded territory included in new petition.

Territory described in the petition of a proposed reorganization which has been set out of the proposed reorganization by the area education agency board or the joint boards and in the event of an appeal, after the decision of the director of the department of education or the courts, may be included in any new petition for reorganization.

275.41 Alternative method for director elections — temporary appointments.

1. As an alternative to the method specified in section 275.25 for electing directors in a newly formed community school district, the procedure specified in this section may be used.

2. The board of the former school district with the largest population involved in the merger shall designate four directors to be retained as members of the board of the newly formed district. Other school districts involved in the merger shall each be allowed to retain directors in proportion to the ratio that the population of the former school district bears to the most populous district involved in the merger, except that no district involved in the merger shall retain less than one director.

3. If the procedure in subsection 2 results in four members being retained from the largest district involved in the merger and only a single member from the other district involved in the merger, the reorganization petition may specify that the distribution of the board members who are retained from the districts involved in the merger be five to one, five to two, or six to one.

4. If the total number of directors determined under subsection 2 or 3 is an odd number, the board of the district with the largest population shall designate the term of office of one of the members who is retained to commence at the organizational meeting of the board of the newly formed district and to end at the organizational meeting following the fourth regular school election held thereafter in the manner specified in the reorganization petition.

If the total number of directors determined under subsection 2 or 3 is an even number, that number of directors shall function until a special election can be held, at which time an additional director shall be elected to a term from the newly formed district ending at the organizational meeting following the fourth regular school election held thereafter. The procedure for calling the special election shall be the procedure specified in section 275.25.

5. The boards of directors of school districts which are involved in the merger which have three or more directors who are retained, shall each designate two of the directors who are retained to serve terms that expire at the organizational meeting following the second regular school election held thereafter. All other directors who are retained shall serve terms that expire at the organizational meeting following the third regular school election held thereafter. If there is an insufficient number of board members eligible to be retained from a former school district, the board of the former school district may appoint members to fill the vacancies. A vacancy occurs if there is an insufficient number of former board members who reside in the newly formed district or if there is an insufficient number who are willing to serve on the board of the newly formed district.

6. At the second regular school election held after the effective date of the merger, the two vacancies which will occur on the board shall be filled in a manner specified in the reorganization petition.

7. At the third regular school election held after the effective date of merger, if a five-member board is specified in the reorganization petition, two directors shall be elected in the manner specified in the reorganization petition and if a seven-member board is specified in the reorganization petition, four directors shall be elected, two for one-year terms and two for three-year terms, in the manner specified in the reorganization petition.

8. The board of the newly formed district shall organize within forty-five days after the approval of the merger upon the call of the area education agency administrator. The new board shall have control of the employment of all personnel for the newly formed district for the ensuing school year. Following the organization of the new board the board shall have authority to establish policy, organize curriculum, enter into contracts and complete such planning and take such action as is essential for the efficient management of the newly formed community school district.

9. The board of the newly formed district shall appoint an acting superintendent and an acting board secretary. The appointment of the acting superintendent shall not be subject to the continuing contract provision of sections 279.20, 279.23, and 279.24.

Section 49.8, subsection 4, shall not permit a director to remain on the board of a school district after the effective date of a boundary change which places the director's residence outside the boundaries of the district. Vacancies so caused on any board shall be filled in the manner provided in sections 279.6 and 279.7.

DISSOLUTION OF DISTRICTS

275.51 Dissolution commission.

As an alternative to school district reorganization prescribed in this chapter, the board of directors of a school district may establish a school district dissolution commission to prepare a proposal of dissolution of the school district and attachment of all of the school district to one or more contiguous school districts and to include in the proposal a division of the assets and liabilities of the dissolving school district. A school district dissolution commission may also be established by the board of directors of a school district if a dissolution proposal has been prepared by eligible electors who reside within the district. The proposal must contain the names of the proposed members of the commission and be accompanied by a petition which has been signed by at least twenty percent of the eligible electors.

The dissolution commission shall consist of seven members appointed by the board for a term of office ending either with a report to the board that no proposal can be approved or on the date of the election on the proposal. Members of the dissolution commission must be eligible electors who reside in the school district, not more than three of whom may be members of the board of directors of the school district. Members shall be appointed from throughout the school district and should represent the various socioeconomic factors present in the school district.

Members of the dissolution commission shall serve without compensation and may be appointed to a subsequent commission. A vacancy on the commission shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment was made.

The board of the school district shall certify to the area education agency board that a commission has been formed, the names and addresses of commission members, and that the commission members represent the various geographic areas and socioeconomic factors present in the district.

[C81, §275.51]
88 Acts, ch 1263, §3

275.52 Meetings.

The commission shall hold an organizational meeting not more than fifteen days after its appointment and shall elect a chairperson and vice chairperson from its membership. Thereafter the commission may meet as often as deemed necessary upon the call of the chairperson or a majority of the commission members.

The commission shall request statements from contiguous school districts outlining each district's willingness to accept attachments of the affected school district to the contiguous districts and what conditions, if any, the contiguous school district recommends. The commission shall meet with boards of contiguous school districts and with residents of the affected school district to the extent possible in drawing up the dissolution proposal. The commission may seek assistance from the area education agency and the department of education.

275.53 Dissolution proposal.

The commission shall send a copy of its dissolution proposal or shall inform the board that it cannot agree upon a dissolution proposal not later than one year following the date of the organizational meeting of the commission. The commission shall also send a copy of the dissolution proposal by registered mail to the boards of directors of all school districts to which area of the affected school district will be attached. If the board of a district to which area of the affected school district will be attached objects to the attachment, within ten days following receipt of the dissolution proposal the board shall send its objections in writing to the commission. The commission may consider the objections and may modify the dissolution proposal. If the dissolution proposal is modified, the commission shall notify by registered mail the boards of directors of all school districts to which area of the affected school district will be attached.

If the commission cannot agree upon a dissolution proposal prior to the expiration of its term, the board may appoint a new commission.

[C81, §275 53]

275.54 Hearing.

Within ten days following the filing of the dissolution proposal with the board, the board shall fix a date for a hearing on the proposal which shall not be more than sixty days after the dissolution petition was filed with the board. The board shall publish notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing at least ten days prior to the date of the hearing by one publication in a newspaper in general circulation in the district. The notice shall include the content of the dissolution proposal. A person residing or owning land in the school district may present evidence and arguments at the hearing. The president of the board shall preside at the hearing. The board shall review testimony from the hearing and shall adopt or amend and adopt the dissolution proposal. The board shall notify by registered mail the boards of directors of all school districts to which area of the affected school district will be attached and the director of the department of education of the contents of the dissolution proposal adopted by the board. If the board of a district to which area of the affected school district will be attached objects to the attachment, that portion of the dissolution proposal will not be included in the proposal voted upon under section 275 55 and the director of the department of education shall attach the area to a contiguous school district. If the board of a district to which area of the affected school district will be attached objects to the division of assets and liabilities contained in the dissolution proposal, section 275 30 applies for the division of assets and liabilities to that district.

If a dissolution proposal adopted by a board contains provisions that ninety five percent or more of the taxable valuation of the dissolving district would be assumed and attached to a single school district, the dissolving school district shall cease further proceedings to dissolve and shall comply with reorganization procedures specified in this chapter.

[C81, §275 54]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1465

275.55 Election.

The board of the school district shall call a special election to be held not later than forty days following the date of the final hearing on the dissolution proposal. The special election may be held at the same time as the regular school election. The proposition submitted to the voters residing in the school district at the special election shall describe each separate area to be attached to a contiguous school district and shall name the school district to which it will be attached.

The board shall give written notice of the proposed date of the election to the county commissioner of elections. The proposed date shall be pursuant to sections 39 2, subsections 1 and 2 and 47 6, subsections 1 and 2. The county commissioner of elections shall give notice of the election by one publication in the same newspaper in which the previous notice was published about the hearing, which publication shall not be less than four nor more than twenty days prior to the election.

The proposition shall be adopted if a majority of the electors voting on the proposition approve its adoption.

The attachment is effective July 1 following its approval. If the dissolution proposal is for the dissolution of a school district with a certified enrollment of fewer than six hundred, the territory located in the school district that dissolved is eligible, if approved by the director of the department of education, for a reduction in the uniform property tax levy under section 442 2, subsection 1. If the director approves a reduction in the uniform property tax levy as provided in this section, the director shall notify the director of the department of management of the reduction.

88 Acts, ch 1263, §4

275.55A Attendance in other district.

A pupil enrolled in ninth, tenth, or eleventh grade during the school year preceding the effective date of a dissolution proposal, who was a resident of the school district that dissolved, may enroll in any school district to which territory of the school district that dissolved was attached until that pupil's graduation from high school. Notwithstanding section 282.24, the district of residence of the pupil, determined in the dissolution proposal, shall pay tuition to the school district selected by the pupil in an amount not to exceed the district cost per pupil of the district of residence and the school district selected by the pupil shall accept that tuition payment and enroll the pupil.

88 Acts, ch 1263, §5

275.56 Increasing enrollment.

If the enrollment of a school district increases or is expected to increase because an adjacent district has dissolved or is expected to dissolve, the board of directors of the school district shall determine whether there is a need to hire additional certificated or noncertificated employees. If the board of directors determines that there is a need to hire additional employees, the board shall determine the nature and number of the necessary new positions. Individuals who were employees of the dissolved district may apply for the new positions. The board shall hire those applicants who were employees of the dissolved district whenever the applicant is certificated for the new position or, in the case of noncertificated personnel, is otherwise qualified. If two employees of the dissolved district apply for a single certificated position, the applicant who is best qualified in the opinion of the board shall be hired. The board is not required to hire applicants who were employees of the dissolved district if the district has been dissolved for one or more school years. Applicants who are re-employed under this section shall maintain in the re-employing district vacation, salary or alternatively placement on a salary schedule based on the employee's years of experience, sick leave, and completion of probationary status as defined by section 279.19

[C81, §275.56]

275.59 Early retirement following school re-organization or dissolution.

A certificated employee of a school district which reorganizes or dissolves under this chapter during the period beginning July 1, 1990, and ending June 30, 1992, is eligible to receive a retirement incentive as provided in this section. The retirement incentive is in addition to any retirement incentive provided by the board of directors of a school district under section 279.46. The certificated employee shall be between fifty-nine and sixty-five years of age at the time the reorganization or dissolution occurs. If the certificated employee is less than sixty-five years of age when the certificated employee terminates employment, the certificated employee is eligible to receive a retirement bonus which is a lump sum payment equal to ten percent of the final annual salary of the employee, not to exceed five thousand dollars. The board of directors of the school district shall notify the department of management of the names of employees eligible for payments under this section and shall submit other verification of employment required by the department of management. For the purposes of this section, "certificated employee" means an administrator or teacher who possesses a certificate issued under chapter 260 and at the time of retirement is employed on a full-time basis by one or more school districts. The governor shall authorize payment from the salary adjustment fund for the retirement bonuses paid under this section. Section 8.39 does not apply to payments made from the salary adjustment fund under this section.

276.1 Title.

Sections 276.1 to 276.11 of this chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Iowa Community Education Act".

[C79, 81, §276.1]

276.2 Purpose.

It is the purpose of this chapter to provide educational, recreational, cultural, and other community services and programs through the establishment of the concept of community education with the community school serving as the center for such activity. In co-operation with other community agencies and groups, it is the purpose of the community education Act to mobilize community resources to solve identified community concerns and to promote a more efficient and expanded use of existing school buildings and equipment, to provide leadership in working with other entities, to mobilize the human and financial resources of a community, and to provide a wide range of opportunities for all socioeconomic, ethnic, and age groups. A related purpose of this chapter is to develop a sense of community in which the citizenry co-operates with the school and community agencies and groups to resolve their school and community concerns and to recognize that the schools belong to the people, and that as the entity located in every neighborhood, the schools are available for use by the community day and night, year-round or any time when the programming will not interfere with the elementary and secondary program.

[C79, 81, §276.2]

276.3 Definitions.

As used in sections 276.1 to 276.11 unless the context otherwise requires:

1. "Community education" means a life-long education process concerning itself with every facet that affects the well-being of all citizens within a given community. It extends the role of the school from one of teaching children through an elementary and secondary program to one of providing for citizen participation in identifying the wants, needs, and concerns of the neighborhood community and coordinating all educational, recreational, and cultural opportunities within the community with community education being the catalyst for providing for citizen participation in the development and implementation of programs toward the goal of improving the entire community.

Community education energizes people to strive for the achievement of determined goals and stimulates capable persons to assume leadership responsibilities. It welcomes and works with all groups, it draws no lines. It is the one institution in the entire community that has the opportunity to reach all people and groups and to gain their co-operation.

2. "Community school" means any elementary or secondary school.

3. "Community" means the area located within the boundaries of the local school district.

4. "State consultant" means the state community education consultant.

5. "Department" means the department of public instruction.

6. "Director" means the local community school director who assumes responsibility for making the process function effectively.

7. "District-wide advisory council" means a broadly representative group of persons selected from the entire school district with at least one representative from each of the local advisory councils after they are formed. At least one member of the council shall be a representative from the local public recreation department or agency, if one exists.

8. "Local advisory council" means a broadly representative group of persons living within the attendance boundaries of an individual neighborhood school.

9. "Board" means the local board of directors of school districts.

[C79, 81, §276.3]

86 Acts, ch 1245, §1466

276.4 State consultant.

State consultant of community education shall serve district and local advisory councils in accordance with rules promulgated by the director of the department of education and in compliance with Pub. L. No. 93-380.

[C79, 81, §276.4]

85 Acts, ch 212, §21

276.5 Local director.

The local community education director shall:

1. Serve as staff person to district-wide and local advisory councils.

2. Promote, publicize, and interpret the community education programs to the schools and community.

3. Facilitate community needs and resources after adequate assessment.

4. Seek ideas, promote people involvement in the process, and open lines of communication and coordination.

5. Stimulate planning to meet needs.

6. Schedule community-use hours available in school-plant facilities and related equipment and co-ordinate such use with building principals or designated representatives.

7. Prepare the community education budget in concert and with approval of the district-wide advisory council, and administer the budget after final approval by the board of directors.

[C79, 81, §276.5]

276.6 State advisory council. Repealed by 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1499A.

276.7 Duties of state council. Repealed by 86 Acts, ch 1245, §1499A.

276.8 Duties of district-wide advisory council.

The district-wide advisory council shall:

1. Provide guidance to local advisory councils, training and orientation for community persons, evaluation and assessment of needs and delivery systems for school districts.

2. Develop a "sense of total community" and promote democratic thinking and action.

3. Promote meaningful involvement of total community in the identifying, prioritizing, and resolving of school-community concerns.

4. Serve as an advocate of community education and foster community co-operation.

5. Provide an annual budget recommendation and annual report to the local board of education.

6. Mobilize available human and financial resources of the community to meet needs, interests, and concerns of people in the total community.

7. Make school facilities and resources available to all age groups from the total community, day and night, year round.

8. Facilitate the assessment of community-wide needs with the understanding that local advisory councils will manage their own assessments of needs.

9. Provide support and act as a resource group for local advisory councils and the community education director.

10. Help plan and recommend a community education budget for approval by the local board of education.

11. Recommend to the board, regulations, guidelines, and fees, if any, for facility usage.

12. Define short and long-range community education goals and objectives.

13. Communicate through inquiring, informing, suggesting, recommending and evaluating community education for the community.

14. Co-operate with other agencies and organizations including the merged area schools and institutions under the control of the state board of regents toward common goals.

15. Perform the functions of the local advisory council in the event that the board determines that the size of the district does not warrant the establishment of a local advisory council.

[C79, 81, §276.8]

276.9 Duties of local advisory council.

The local advisory council shall:

1. Determine needs and priorities and provide programs to serve the needs of the community located within the attendance boundaries of an individual school.

2. Provide programming which is available to any community resident.

3. Promote meaningful involvement of the total neighborhood community in its identification and resolution of school and community concerns.

4. Mobilize available human and financial resources of the community to meet the wants and needs in that neighborhood community.

5. Use existing programs and community resources for delivery of services whenever feasible.

6. Use funds as allocated by district-wide advisory council after budget approval by board.

7. Evaluate the success of programs in meeting needs, interests, and concerns and in resolving responsible needs and concerns.

[C79, 81, §276.9]

276.10 Establishment of program.

1. The board of directors of a local school district may establish a community education program for schools in the district and provide for the general supervision of the program. Financial support for the program shall be provided from funds raised pursuant to chapter 300 and from any private funds and any federal funds made available for the purpose of implementing this chapter. The program which recognizes that the schools belong to the people and which shall be centered in the schools may include but shall not be limited to the use of the school facilities day and night, year round including week-ends and regular school vacation periods for educational, recreational, cultural, and other community services and programs for all age, ethnic, and socio-economic groups residing in the community.

2. If a community education program is established, the board shall appoint a community education director who shall have professional training in the field of community education, recreation, or comparable experience.

3. Upon establishment of a community education program, the board shall provide for the selection of a district-wide advisory council which shall be responsible to the board and shall co-operate with and assist the board and the local community education director. The board shall also provide for the selection of local advisory councils.

4. The board shall receive an annual report and budget recommendation from the district-wide advisory council and may request supplementary reports as needed.

5. The school districts may co-operate with merged area schools, institutions under the control of the state board of regents, and area education agencies in providing community education programs.

6. The board may use opportunities available under public law 93-380.

7. The board may approve co-operation and pooling of funds with other school districts.

[C79, 81, §276.10]

276.11 Funding of community education concept.

Residents of the affected school district shall determine if community education will function in their community by providing for funding pursuant to chapter 300.

[C79, 81, §276.11]

276.12 Use of special tax levy.

If the voters of a school district have approved the levying of a tax pursuant to section 300.2 prior to July 7, 1978, moneys collected pursuant to the voted tax levy after said date may be used for community education programs.

277.3 Election laws applicable.

The provisions of chapters 39 to 53 shall apply to the conduct of all school elections and the school elections shall be conducted by the county commissioner of elections, except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter

[C97, §2754, S13, §2754, C24, 27, §4204, C31, 35, §4216 c33, C39, §4216.33; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, §277 33, C77, 79, 81, §277 3]

277.4 Nominations required.

Nomination papers for all candidates for election to office in each school district shall be filed with the secretary of the school board not more than sixty-five days, nor less than forty days prior to the election. Nomination petitions shall be filed not later than five o'clock p m on the last day for filing. If the school board secretary is not readily available during normal office hours, the secretary may designate a full time employee of the school district who is ordinarily available to accept nomination papers under this section. Each candidate shall be nominated by a petition signed by not less than ten eligible electors of the district. The petition shall include the affidavit of the candidate being nominated, stating the candidate's name, place of residence, that such person is a candidate and is eligible for the office the candidate seeks, and that if elected the candidate will qualify for the office.

The secretary of the school board shall accept the petition for filing if on its face it appears to have the requisite number of signatures and if it is timely filed. The secretary of the school board shall note upon each petition and affidavit accepted for filing the date and time that the petition was filed. The secretary of the school board shall deliver all nomination petitions, together with the complete text of any public measure being submitted by the board to the electorate, to the county commissioner of elections not later than five o'clock p m on the day following the last day on which nomination petitions can be filed.

Any person on whose behalf nomination petitions have been filed under this section may withdraw as a candidate by filing a signed statement to that effect with the secretary at any time prior to five o'clock p m on the thirty fifth day before the election.

277.5 Objections to nominations.

Objections to the legal sufficiency of a nomination petition or to the eligibility of a candidate may be filed by any person who would have the right to vote for a candidate for the office in question. The objection must be filed with the secretary of the school board at least thirty days before the day of the school election. When objections are filed notice shall forthwith be given to the candidate affected, addressed to the candidate's place of residence as given on the candidate's affidavit, stating that objections have been made to the legal sufficiency of the petition or to the eligibility of the candidate, and also stating the time and place the objections will be considered.

Objections shall be considered not later than two working days following the receipt of the objections by the president of the school board, the secretary of the school board, and one additional member of the school board chosen by ballot. If objections have been filed to the nominations of either of those school officials, that official shall not pass on the objection. The official's place shall be filled by a member of the school board against whom no objection exists. The replacement shall be chosen by ballot.

CHAPTER 278

POWERS OF ELECTORS

278 1 Enumeration

278 2 Submission of proposition

278 3 Power given electors not to limit directors power

278.1 Enumeration.

The voters at the regular election shall have power to

- 1 Direct a change of textbooks regularly adopted
- 2 Direct the sale, lease, or other disposition of any schoolhouse or site or other property belonging to the corporation, and the application to be made of the proceeds thereof, provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the sale, lease, exchange, gift or grant and acceptance of any interest in real or other property by the board of directors without an election to the extent authorized in section 297 22
- 3 Determine upon additional branches that shall be taught
- 4 Instruct the board that school buildings may or may not be used for meetings of public interest
- 5 Direct the transfer of any surplus in the school house fund to the general fund
- 6 Authorize the board to obtain, at the expense of the corporation, roads for proper access to its school houses
- 7 Vote a schoolhouse tax, not exceeding sixty seven and one half cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any one year, for the purchase of grounds, for construction of schoolhouses or buildings, for the payment of debts contracted for the erection or construction of schoolhouses or buildings, not including interest on bonds, for procuring or acquisition of libraries, for opening roads to school houses or buildings, for the purchase of buildings or equipment for buildings or schoolhouses, for the purpose of repairing, remodeling, reconstructing, improving or expanding the schoolhouses or buildings for the school district, for the purpose of landscaping, paving, or improving the schoolhouse or building grounds, or for the rental of facilities pursuant to chapter 28E Interest earned from investments of these funds may be used for the purposes voted The power to levy a schoolhouse tax, when voted, shall continue for the period of time authorized by the voters and shall not be affected by any change in the boundaries of the school district, except as otherwise provided in this section If each school district involved in a school reorganization under chapter 275 has voted the schoolhouse tax and if the voters have not voted upon the proposition to levy the schoolhouse tax in the reorganized district, the schoolhouse tax is in effect for the reorganized

district for the least amount and the shortest time for which it is in effect in any of the districts Authorized levies for the period of time presently approved shall not be affected as a result of a failure of a proposition proposed to expand the purposes for which the funds may be expended As used in this subsection, "repair" means to restore the existing structure or thing to its original condition, as near as may be, after decay, waste, injury, or partial destruction, but does not include maintenance or customary repainting, and "reconstruction" means to rebuild or to restore again as an entity the thing which was lost or destroyed

8 Authorize a change to either five or seven directors The proposition for the change shall specify the number of directors to be elected, and which of the methods of election authorized by section 275 12, subsection 2 is to be used if the change is approved by the voters

9 Authorize the establishment or abandonment of director districts or a change of boundaries of director districts If a proposition submitted to the voters under this subsection or subsection 8 of this section is rejected, it may not be resubmitted to the voters of the district in substantially the same form within the next three years, if it is approved, no other proposal may be submitted to the voters of the district under this subsection or subsection 8 of this section within the next six years

10 Change the name of the school district, without affecting its corporate existence, rights, or obligations, and subject to the requirements of section 274 6

The board may, with approval of sixty percent of the voters, voting in a regular or special election in the school district, make extended time contracts not to exceed twenty years in duration for rental of buildings to supplement existing schoolhouse facilities, and where it is deemed advisable for buildings to be constructed or placed on real estate owned by the school district, such contracts may include lease purchase option agreements, such amounts to be paid out of the schoolhouse fund

Before entering into a rental or lease purchase option contract, authorized by the electors, the board shall first adopt plans and specifications for a building or buildings which it considers suitable for the intended use and also adopt a form of rental or lease purchase option contract The board shall then invite bids thereon, by advertisement published once each week for two consecutive weeks, in a newspaper published in the county in which the building or buildings are to be located, and the rental or lease-purchase option contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, but the board may reject any and all bids and advertise for new bids

The voters at the regular or special election shall have power to vote a schoolhouse tax not exceeding one dollar and thirty five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value in any one year providing for lease-purchase option of school buildings

Applicability to reorganized districts 68GA ch 1080 §4

278.2 Submission of proposition.

The board may, and upon the written request of twenty-five eligible electors of any district having a population of five thousand or less, or of fifty eligible electors of any other district, shall direct the county commissioner of elections to provide in the notice of the regular election for submitting any proposition authorized by law to the voters However, in the case of a proposition authorized by section 278 1, subsection 8 or 9, the requirements of section 275 36 shall govern with respect to the number of signatures required on a petition for submission of the proposition When the board has directed the commissioner to submit to the voters a proposition authorized by section 278 1, subsection 8 or 9, it shall not thereafter direct the commissioner to submit at the same election any other proposition under either of these subsections

[R60, §2028, C97, §2749, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4218; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §278 2]

278.3 Power given electors not to limit directors' power.

The power vested in the electors by section 278 1 shall not affect or limit the power granted to the board of directors of a school district in section 297 7, subsection 2, and the authority granted in said subsection shall be construed as independent of the power vested in the electors by section 278 1

279.1 Organization.

The board of directors of each school corporation shall meet and organize at the first regular meeting after a regular school election at some suitable place to be designated by the secretary. Notice of the place and hour of such meeting shall be given by the secretary to each member and each member elect of the board.

Such organization shall be effected by the election of a president from the members of the board, who shall be entitled to vote as a member.

[C51, §1119, R60, §2036, C73, §1721, 1722, C97, §2757, SS15, §2757, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4220; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §279 1]

87 Acts, ch 244, §47

279.2 Special meetings.

Such special meetings may be held as may be determined by the board, or called by the president, or by the secretary upon the written request of a majority of the members of the board, upon notice specifying the time and place, delivered to each member in person, or by registered letter, but attendance shall be a waiver of notice.

[C51, §1121, R60, §2036, C73, §1722, C97, §2757, SS15, §2757, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4221; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §279 2]

279.3 Appointment of secretary and treasurer.

At a regular or special meeting of the board held in July or August prior to or on August 15 the board shall appoint a secretary who shall not be a teacher employed by the board but may be another employee of the board. The board shall also appoint a treasurer who may be another employee of the board. However, the board may appoint one person to serve as the secretary and the treasurer.

These officers shall be appointed from outside the membership of the board for terms of one year beginning with the date of appointment, and the appointment and qualification shall be entered of record in the minutes of the secretary. They shall qualify within ten days following appointment by taking the oath of office in the manner required by section 277 28 and filing a bond as required by section 291 2 and shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified.

[C51, §1119, R60, §2035, C73, §1721, C97, §2757, SS15, §2757, C24, 27, 31, 35, 39, §4222; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §279 3, 82 Acts, ch 1012, §1]

85 Acts, ch 28, §1

279.4 Quorum.

A majority of the board of directors of any school corporation shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time.

279.5 Temporary officers.

The board shall appoint a temporary president or secretary, in the absence of the regular officers.

[C51, §1120, R60, §2037, 2038, 2079, C73, §1730, 1738, C97, §2758, 2771, 2772, S13, §2758, 2771, 2772, C24, §4223, C27, 31, 35, §4223 a1, C39, §4223.1; C46, 50, 54, 58, 62, 66, 71, 73, 75, 77, 79, 81, §279 5]

279.6 Vacancies — qualification — tenure.

Vacancies occurring among the officers or members of a school board shall be filled by the board by appointment. A person so appointed to fill a vacancy in an elective office shall hold office until a successor is elected and qualified pursuant to section 69 12. A person appointed to fill a vacancy in an appointive office shall hold such office for the residue of the unexpired term and until a successor is appointed and qualified. Any person so appointed shall qualify within ten days thereafter in the manner required by section 277 28.

However, if a member of a school board resigns from the board prior to the time for filing nomination papers for office as a school board member, as provided in section 277 4, and specifies in the resignation that the resignation will be effective on the date the next term of office for elective school officials begins, the president of the board shall declare the office vacant as of that date and nomination papers shall be received for the unexpired term of the resigning member. The person elected at the next regular school election to fill the vacancy shall take office at the same time and place as the other elected school board members.

279.7 Vacancies filled by special election — qualification — tenure.

In any case where a vacancy or vacancies occur among the elective officers or members of a school board and the remaining members of such board have not filled such vacancy within ten days after the occurrence thereof, or when the board is reduced below a quorum for any cause, the secretary of the board, or if there be no secretary, the area education agency administrator shall call a special election in the district, subdistrict, or subdistricts, as the case may be, to fill such vacancy or vacancies. The county commissioner of elections shall publish the notices required by law for such special elections, which election shall be held not sooner than thirty days nor later than forty days after the tenth day following the occurrence of the vacancy. In any case where the secretary fails for more than three days to call such election, the administrator shall call it.

Any appointment by the board to fill any vacancy in an elective office on or after the day notice has been given for a special election to fill such vacancy as provided herein shall be null and void.

In any case of a special election as provided herein to fill a vacancy occurring among the elective officers or members of a school board before the expiration of a full term, the person so elected shall qualify within ten days thereafter in the manner required by section 277.28 and shall hold office for the residue of the unexpired term and until a successor is elected, or appointed, and qualified.

Nomination petitions shall be filed in the manner provided in section 277.4, except that the petitions shall be filed not less than thirty days prior to the date set for the election.

279.10 School year – beginning date – exceptions – pilot programs.

1. The school year shall begin on the first day of July and each regularly established elementary and secondary school shall begin no sooner than a day during the calendar week in which the first day of September falls but no later than the first Monday in December. School shall continue for at least one hundred eighty days, except as provided in subsection 3, and may be maintained during the entire calendar year. A school corporation may begin employment of personnel for in-service training and development purposes before the date to begin elementary and secondary school.

2. The board of directors shall hold a public hearing on any proposal prior to submitting it to the department of education for approval.

3. The board of directors of a school district may request approval from the department of education for a pilot program for an innovative school year. The number of days per year that school is in session may be more or less than those specified in subsection 1, but the innovative school year shall provide for an equivalent number of total hours that school is in session.

The board shall file a request for approval with the department not later than November 1 of the preceding school year. The request shall include a listing of the savings and goals to be attained under the innovative school year subject to rules adopted by the department under chapter 17A. The department shall notify the districts of the approval or denial of pilot programs not later than the next following January 15.

A request to continue an innovative school year pilot project after its initial year also shall include an evaluation of the savings and impacts on the educational program in the district.

Participation in a pilot project shall not modify provisions of a master contract negotiated between a school district and a certified bargaining unit pursuant to chapter 20 unless mutually agreed upon.

4. The director of the department of education may grant a request made by a board of directors of a school district stating its desire to commence classes for regularly established elementary and secondary schools prior to the earliest starting date specified in subsection 1 A request shall be based upon the determination that a starting date on or after the earliest starting date specified in subsection 1 would have a significant negative educational impact
